NEW SCHOOL AT EAST FLORENCEVILLE

Interesting Budget of General News
From a Busy Centre

The new school building at East Florenceville, just completed by C. W. Baslin, contractor, was formally turned over to the school directors last Thursday. Public recognition of the event was marked by ceremonies commensurate with the occasion to the community. Harry G. Smith, a member of the school board, was the guest chairman of the evening. An excellent program was presented by the pupils. Among the interested citizens who were present and who added to the success of the occasion by helpful and inspiring addresses, might be mentioned: Rev. D. R. Chown, W. H. Telford, Col. Melville and Hon. H. Frank Smith. Chief Superintendent of Education, W. E. Carter and Inspector Moore were compelled to cancel their plans to be present at this time.

During the years since a disastrous fire destroyed the consolidated school building the district has lacked satisfactory school accommodations and naturally the opening of school in the new building on Monday was a pleasing incident to both pupils and citizens generally. The new building, which stands four square 60 by 68 feet, is a slightly and convenient location, makes in its massive simplicity an impressive appearance and is readily suggestive of the old English baronial pile of the long ago. The building is of one storey, concrete block construction, with solid concrete basement. The interior is finished in hard pine and rock wall, with floors of hard wood. The three class rooms are large and properly lighted and ventilated. The seating equipment throughout is the product of the American factories of Rhodes-Currie Co. In the basement is located the farm house, toilet and wash rooms, a dining room with hot lunch equipment and a large room for inside sports. All things considered, Florenceville should be proud of this elegant building, in itself an outstanding monument to faith and optimism in the future of the town.

The handsome house under construction by B. C. McIsaac, with a view to making a first class hotel, is nearing completion. This is a wooden structure 30 x 24 feet and of 2 1/2 storeys, with a deep bungalow veranda fronting north and west. The ground floor will contain a large living room filled with a pleasant old fashioned fire place, a dining room and kitchen. Five bedrooms and a bath room is planned for the second floor, while on the third floor there will be three additional bedrooms and a trunk room. Modern heating and electricity lighting systems will be installed in the basement. The floors throughout will be of hard wood. Mr. McIsaac in some degree recognizes the need of local hotel accommodations and is planning his house on ample lines with a view of bettering the situation to some extent. He expects to open his house to the public at the beginning of the year.

The L. O. B. A. gave an "open night" in Smith's Hall Thursday night.

Mrs. W. W. Melville presided during the presentation of an excellent program following which came a sale of pies (such as mother tried to make) which netted the organization some $35.00.

The ladies propose to devote this fund to the purchase of proper regalia for their lodge. During the six months since organization this lodge has steadily grown and at present boasts a membership of nearly 50.

The program was as follows:
A short talk by Mrs. B. J. Bell.
Piano Duet—Miss Stella Hunter and Miss Barbara Semple.

Goon Male Quartette—E. R. Hunter, E. F. Smith, G. H. Smith and F. L. Tompkins.

Reading—The Woman of Mummies head—Mrs. E. Saunders.
Vocal Duet—Mrs. R. S. Semple, Mrs. J. A. McIsaac.

Reading—by Mrs. R. S. Semple
Pantomime—Lead Kindly Light—Mrs. W. H. Fowler.

Piano Duet—Miss Stella Hunter and Miss Barbara Semple.
National Anthem.

Special services are being conducted in the U. B. Church. Rev. I. W. Williamson delivered the opening sermon of this special series on Sunday morning.

At their Harvest Festival, which was really a good old time chicken supper, and held Thursday night of last week, an amount close to $130 was netted by the Methodist Ladies Aid.

The ladies of the Church of England are planning a good time for those who patronise the supper and apron sale to be held in the basement of the Methodist church Thursday night.

L. M. Tompkins, who has been quite severely ill for a long time, is still confined to the house.

P. A. Bell, H. Shorey, H. W. Lewis and B. J. Bell were out in the Miramichi country all last week. They, along with many others, were unsuccessful in their quest for the lordly moose.

James McIsaac's new produce warehouse which stands on an elevation north of the station, is a noticeable addition to this section of the town.

FINED FOR SHOOTING FOXES

A prominent business man of Hartland has been fined for shooting foxes out of season, and another citizen is out on bail charged with illegally shooting a calf-moose. A Fredericton despatch says:

An offence which is not very usual, under the game act, was tried at Hartland recently. It was killing two foxes out of season, the open season for the killing of these animals being from October to February, inclusive.

Conviction was made and a fine of $100 and costs imposed. At the same place a resident was fined $10 and costs for carrying firearms in the woods during the close season.

Another Carleton county case which is to be heard shortly is for killing a calf-moose. The accused is out on $1,000 bail. Other cases of game act violation are to be heard in the same county in the near future.

NOTICE TO ALL RETURNED MEN

A special invitation is given to all returned men to meet at the Armory on Monday evening, Oct. 31, at 8 o'clock. This is a very important announcement and arrangements will be made at this meeting to provide uniforms for any returned man who has no khaki, so that he can be at his best in a great celebration which we are all invited to attend at Woodstock at the unveiling of the Soldiers Memorial Monument on Nov. 7. All be sure and be present at the Armory on Monday evening and learn all the particulars.

CAMPBELL PARTY MEET A CYCLONE

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Campbell Reach
California and Send Observer
Readers Diary of Their Trip—Many Interesting
Experiences

Writing to The Observer for the information of the many interested friends in Carleton county, D. A. Campbell, dating from Holtville, California, says:

We left Hartland on Sept. 13 at 1 p.m. and drove that day to Bangor, 144 miles. There we had the car looked over by the dealer from whom I bought it. Left Bangor afternoon of Sept. 14 and camped near Brunswick. Went to Portland and did shopping and then to York Beach where we camped two nights. Then to Plymouth, Newburyport, Salem, Lynn, Boston, Worcester, Springfield, Hartford, New Haven and to New York. Crossed Dykeman street ferry to Englewood, N. J., then to Newark Sunday, Sept. 18. Left Monday at 1 p.m. for Trenton, Philadelphia, Frederick, Hagerstown, Cumberland, Uniontown, then to Wheeling, West Virginia, Cambridge and Zanesville, Ohio. We travelled during two days over 400 miles through mountains between Baltimore and Zanesville, sometimes reaching an elevation of over 1000 feet. There were perfect paved roads, and beautiful fruit fields in all directions.

Near Zanesville we saw a real and very lively cyclone approaching and turned back about half a mile to get on the edge of it. As it was we got very heavy rain and wind for about 15 minutes and one hour later reached Zanesville. Here we found great havoc had been done by the cyclone. Four entire blocks of the town had been blown down to the first stories, many autos were crushed in the streets. One tourist was killed in his car. We got through the town by going around this four block section and camped near Columbus in pouring rain.

The next towns we passed through were Springfield, Dayton, Indianapolis, Terre Haute. Stayed in a hotel at St. Jacob, Ind., after having travelled through parts of four states in one day. At St. Louis we were 1600 miles from home after having had perfect roads all the way except for detours where the road was being repaired. Up to this point we had 66 hours of travelling time and used 99 gallons of gasoline and half a gallon of oil on the trip to date—Sept. 24. Crossed the Mississippi river at St. Louis. This was the end of the paved road and we found they had just had three weeks rain. We found lots of mud and lots of roads not on a par with New Brunswick roads. Crossed the Father of Waters again at St. Charles. Camped Sept. 24-25 miles west of St. Louis Sunday morning, Sept. 25, we put on chains, and this was the only day we used chains on the whole trip. We had to have no assistance anywhere, but we pulled many out of the mud. Out of thousands on the long journey I do not know another that got along with so little trouble.

We had been following the old National Trail from New York. We crossed the river to Rockport and took the Gold Belt line to Kansas City where we camped. We had been travelling alone to date, but at this encampment there were more than 100 cars and many of them with California tags on them, so we tried to chum with some of them, but by night we were so far ahead that we had an entirely new crowd. And it continued that way all through. From Kansas City we passed Council Grove and camped at Marion, Ohio, the home of the home of President Harding; then to Lima and South Bend and camped at Dodge City. We ran against a 60 mile sand storm. Had the car washed here and removed hundreds of pounds (Continued on next page) of mud and sand. Then we struck Garden City, Syracuse, Kan., and camped at La Junta, Colo., Sept. 29. Passed Trinidad and by a good road over the top to Raton City. Passed next day Los Vegas, San Jose, and camped at Santa Fe. Pouring rain, but telephoned ahead and found that the sun was shining in Albuquerque, New Mexico, and we started on. Camped at Socorro, altitude 4615. Other high points were Magdalena, 6568, and Springville, Arizona, 6864, arriving Oct. 5, Flagstaff, Ariz., Oct. 4, Kingman, Oct. 5, Ludlow, Calif., Oct. 6.

At Ludlow we met Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Burns of Fort Fairfield and Fred Perry of Connell. The hotel keeper and his wife were here from Bangor, so we had quite a home party. Up to this time we had only four punctures in one right hand tire, all due to nails. Picked up two more at this camp, making six punctures on the trip. The front tires have the Bangor air in them yet.

We left Ludlow Oct. 7 and drove to Barstow, over a rough lava bed. But when we turned toward San Bernardino we had 20 miles of paved road all down hill and on this we coasted without gas. From there to Redlands, Mecca, and to Brawley, 69 feet below sea level, just 13 miles from Lin Shaw's ranch, which we reached Oct. 8, just 25 days from the time we left home.

We travelled 4044 miles from Earl Campbell's house; used 274 gallons of gas and one gallon of oil; 178 hours of actual running time, and av-

DO ALL MY HOUSE WORK

Before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I could hardly get about.

Cobourg, Ont.—"For many years I have had trouble with my nerves and have been in a general run down condition for some time. I could not do my work half of the time because of the trouble with my monthly sickness. I was told of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound by friends and advised to try it. It has done me good, and I strongly recommend it. Since I have taken it I have been able to do all my own work, and I also know friends who have found it good. You can use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. ELLIEN FLATTERS, Box 761, Cobourg, Ont.

Why will women continue to suffer so long is more than we can understand, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For forty years this good old fashioned root and herb remedy, which contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacement, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

GRAND FALLS NOTES

A wedding of much interest to the young folk here was solemnized in the First Presbyterian church on Wednesday, Oct. 19, at half past eight o'clock in the evening when Miss Alice Roberts Pirie became the bride of Francis Warren Benson. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. J. Graham, pastor of the church. The young couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mitchell and Miss Ruth Pirie. Little Miss McLaughlin made a very sweet little flower girl. The bride's dress was of Canton crepe with silver trimmings and bridal veil. The bridesmaid's dresses were of orchid taffeta with picture hat. The flower girl's dress was of changeable pink taffeta with messelin hat. As the bride entered the church on the arm of her father the wedding march was played. The bridal party stood under a beautiful arch of evergreens and flowers lighted with colored lights. After the ceremony about three hundred invited guests repaired to the Minto Hotel, the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pirie, where a most delicious luncheon was served of sandwiches, all kinds of cake, tea and coffee and ice cream. Mrs. Puddington and Mrs. F. Olmstead presided. The guests were served by Mrs. W. T. Hatch, Miss J. D. McCauley, Miss Gladys Hennigar, Miss Dorothy Olmstead, Miss Hazel Estey, Mrs. J. Folster and Miss Cronkhite. Some of the out of town guests were Mrs. C. Lawson, St. John, Doctor Lister and Mrs. Lister, Fredericton, Mrs. H. Wade and Mrs. Guy Porter of Perth, Dorothy Olmstead, Gerald Lovely, Norville McPhail, also of Perth, J. Brahm of Notre-Dam-du-Lac, Walter Shaw of Woodstock, Mr. and Mrs. G. Clark of Limestone, Dr. Sawyer and Mrs. Sawyer of Fort Fairfield and many others. "SUBSCRIBE FOR YOUR HOME TOWN PAPER" WEEK

The week from November 7 to 12th will be devoted by the local papers of North America to a campaign to boost their circulation. It will be "Subscribe For Your Home Town Paper" week. It will be a week that will bear some direct fruits in the addition of new subscribers, and it will have a continuing value, after the week is over, in having left upon the public mind a clearer and larger idea of the important relation of the home paper to the welfare of the community.

A live home paper, faithfully and efficiently edited is quite as much an adjunct of any progressive community, as any other local institution. It performs an indispensable service for the community, and this service should be reciprocated by a patronage which measures up to a fair equivalent of its value.

That this is not always forthcoming is not always the fault of the community. New subscribers, even in a town warmly appreciative of its home paper, do not generally fall into the lap of publishers, as ripe apples fall from the boughs of a tree in autumn. It may not need a great deal of effort to increase his list, if his paper has merit and is popular, but the publisher must shake the tree to bring the apples down. This "Subscribe For Your Home Paper" is a scheme, all over the country, to collectively "shake the tree" a bit. It could most profitably be followed up, after the week's campaign is over, if publishers could find opportunity to make a vigorous canvass to add to their list. And unlike a good many other soliciting campaigns, the results of such a canvass would be mutually helpful and beneficial. Both the newspaper and the publisher would be profited by it. In the meantime we hope this "Subscribe For Your Home Paper" week will furnish some food for thought which will directly or indirectly materialize in results that will strengthen home papers, which are vitalized more by an increase of subscribers which at once registers itself in increased influence for good in the community than by any other thing that can happen to them.

BONDING A TOWN

The following from the Carleton Sentinel will be read with something akin to horror by some Hartland rate-payers:

Some people really believe that a town should not incur a debenture debt. No town ever did, nor never can, make any progress without going into debt. In the nature and proper order of things there is no other way which a town can make any progress. Our splendid schools, water and sewerage systems, churches, the streets and sidewalks, now under construction, were secured for Woodstock by going into debt for them, and they could not have been obtained in any other way. The town without a debenture debt is at a stand-still and will soon fall into decay.

DAVENPORT AND BRITTON GO TO DORCHESTER

Woodstock, Oct. 22—Judge Chandler yesterday sentenced Richard Britton and Oliver Davenport to two years each in the penitentiary for shooting and doing grievous bodily harm to Wendall Slipp on the night of September 27. Britton appeared to be much affected by the sentence but it made no impression on Davenport. They were taken to Dorchester on Monday by Sheriff Foster.

The Hartley's father and two sons found guilty of common assault on Harvey Thomas, were each fined the fines being paid promptly.

Mr. Slipp continues to improve slowly and is now at his home.

HON. MR. CRERAR REPLIES TO MR. MEIGHEN

Leader of Progressives at Woodstock Meeting Defends Against Disloyalty Charges of Prime Minister—Would Not Sweep Tariff Barriers Away All At Once

Opening the National Progressive Party's campaign in the Maritime Provinces at Woodstock on Tuesday, Hon. T. A. Crerar came sharply to the defence of the West. He declared that the "imputation" had been cast against the loyalty of the men in Western Canada and in warm tones, resented statements reported to have been made by the prime minister and by Hon. Hugh Guthrie, minister of militia and defence. As a Canadian born in the same province as Mr. Meighen, warmly exclaimed Mr. Crerar—our birthplaces were not a day's journey apart—I regret to see such a slur fall from the lips of the prime minister of Canada.

In his defence of the Progressive movement, Mr. Crerar cited the following statement reported to have been made by the prime minister during his tour of the Maritime Provinces:

"It is not unfair for me to say," Mr. Meighen was quoted, "that the soil from which the Wood-Crerar movement has grown is not so wholly a Canadian soil as the soil in which you and I grew. There has been much immigration in that country, and though these immigrants make good farmers, I do not believe that they have the vision of Canada or the heart of Canada in the way the rest of us have."

"As a Canadian who was born in the same province as Mr. Meighen," commented Mr. Crerar, "our birthplaces were not more than a day's journey apart—as a Canadian proud of his country, I regret to see such a language falling from the lips of the prime minister of Canada. There is in it an imputation against the loyalty of the men in Western Canada. It says nothing for Mr. Meighen describing the party to which I belong as the Wood-Crerar party. This is a transparent device to create prejudice in the public mind against a political movement that is threatening the foundations of this government."

"But in face of the fact that we need people in Canada to share our burdens, to develop our resources, in face of the fact that western Canada and Alberta and Saskatchewan particularly sent more men to the front in proportion to their population than all most any other province, I say that I regret to see the prime minister using such language."

"With the big issues awaiting solution," continued Mr. Crerar, "is that the sort of thing we should be discussing? I want to tell you that the men who were the originators, and who carried forward the work of organizing the farmers of Canada, and who today are the leaders, are with very few exceptions men of either Canadian or British birth. In the Farmers' government of Alberta there was not a member who was not either of British or Canadian birth, and the majority of its supporters in the Alberta legislature were of the same racial origin. There is no question of the loyalty of western Canada, none whatever," Mr. Crerar added.

But such questions were raised, he claimed, to divert public attention from the main issues—such issues as the railways, public debt, immigration and the unification of Canada.

He declared that no man in his right senses would advocate that the tariff be swept of last session instead of decreasing had increased tariff protection. He mentioned the amendment to the customs act, under which imports from countries with heavily depreciated currencies are to be valued as though the foreign currency had not depreciated more than fifty per cent below par.

He cited Germany as a case in point. The German mark had a paper value of twenty-three cents. Its present value was about one cent. Goods valued at 1,000 German marks could be bought now for about $10, but for duty purposes they would be valued on commodities meant stoppage of importations and stoppage of importations meant that no goods would be exported to Germany, and before the war Germany provided one of the best markets for Canadian foodstuffs. Again, in the case of the United States, imports were to be valued on the basis of American and not Canadian currency. Thus Canadian manufacturers get increased protection.

"They say we must have protection to give employment to labor and I have been criticized for not having constructive policy for employment. To that I would say if we are to find employment we must open up channels of trade. Open your trade channels and you will give employment to the railway men who handle the goods, to the people of the factories who make the goods, and to the merchant who disposes of the goods."

"Mr. Meighen challenged me to give instances where the government is favoring combines and mergers. I gave him some. Before the campaign is over I am going to give him some more. My opponents say there are combines in Great Britain. I say that because of the geographical situation of Canada we can largely control our own trade. My opponents say that the United States and rectify the discount of the Canadian dollar as compared with the United States dollar. Canada should cease to borrow from the United States."

T. W. Caldwell, Progressive candidate, quoted from a resolution which he said was submitted to the House of Commons by Mr. Meighen in 1910. The resolution favored a substantial reduction in the import duties in agricultural implements. Mr. Caldwell further observed that the deficit on national railways last year amounted to $5,000,000. Four hundred carloads of silver dollars would be needed to pay the railway deficit and the interest on the public debt. Another Progressive speaker remarked that the two older parties were serving up the same old stuff turned over in a griddlepan.

CARLETON-VICTORIA TEACHERS' MEETING

The forty-third annual session of the Carleton-Victoria Teachers' Institute was held in the Fisher Memorial school, Woodstock, on Thursday and Friday, and was attended by 113 teachers.

All the sessions were presided over by D. W. Wallace, president of the institute. The papers and lessons given were most interesting and instructive. Mr. Amos O'Brien, superintendent of the Moncton schools, was present at all the sessions, and by his helpful talks on Arithmetic and Literature, added much to the pleasure and profit of the institute to the teachers attending. On Thursday afternoon the teachers were invited to the Vocational school, where three sections, advanced, intermediate and primary, were held. In the advanced section, Mr. Allison W. Richardson, principal of the East Florenceville school, gave a lesson in Physics to a class in Grade X.; in the intermediate section, Miss Flora O. DeLong, principal of the Arvestock Junction school, gave a lesson in Nature to Grade VI.; in the primary section, Miss Doris Hanson, of Woodstock, gave a lesson in Composition to a class in Grade III. The teachers and pupils of the Domestic Science class served refreshments to the visitors. On Thursday evening a public meeting was held when excellent addresses were given by Dr. Carter, T. C. L. Keichum, Mrs. S. C. Heckbert gave a vocal solo, D. W. Wallace a cornet solo, Miss Lindsay and Miss Merriman a piano duet. A very interesting feature of the evening's programme was the unveiling of a tablet to the memory of Inspector Frederick Mosher, who held his office for twenty-five years. The unveiling was done by Mrs. William Graham, of Milltown, sister of the late Inspector. The tablet is the gift of the teachers of the two counties.

The papers on Friday were: French, Miss Winifred Clark; Vocational work, by R. W. Maxwell, director of the Vocational school; English Literature, by G. L. Nicholson; Some Problems of the Country School, by Inspector L. A. Moore.

It was decided to hold the next meeting of the institute at Woodstock, date to be left to the executive. The following officers were elected: President—D. W. Wallace. Vice-president—Miss Julia Neales. Secretary—Miss Bessie M. Fraser. Assistant secretary—Miss Clara Carson.

Additional members of the executive—Miss Doris Hanson, G. L. Nicholson.

BRISTOL MAN LOSES A FOOT

While trying to jump from the train at Queen St. siding George Ekins, a well known man of Bristol, slipped and his foot went under a wheel, crushing the ankle badly. He was taken to the Fisher Memorial Hospital and the foot was amputated about three inches above the ankle.

CONSIGNMENT SALE OF PURE BRED STOCK

The clearing sale of pure bred stock held at Clark's stables Oct. 20, drew a fairly good crowd from different points of the county and Maine. Highland stock Farm, Cloverbrook Stock Farm and C. E. Harnett had offerings at the sale in both sheep and cattle and the sale was slow owing mainly to market, feed and other conditions. Several sales were made, a number of cattle and sheep going to Maine breeders by private sale. Well known breeders present remarked on the good quality of the stock offered, and taken as a whole the promoters feel that this venture at a combination breeders sale will bring results later.

FIRE AT BANNON

The farm residence of Clarence Laskey, a prosperous Bannan farmer, was destroyed by fire last Sunday. This was at one time the C. A. Craig property, and the loss will be considerable as only a small insurance was carried at the time. Mr. Laskey was alone at the time and it is supposed that the fire originated in a defective flue. The household goods were saved as well as the barn and outbuildings.

OCTOBER STRAWBERRIES

On Monday the editor enjoyed a luscious dish of strawberries and cream. The fruit ripened in the garden of C. M. Sherwood of Bath and one berry was four inches in circumference. On the same day that these were picked, Conductor Fred Carson of the C. P. R. found a bunch of well developed and fully ripe strawberries at Lower Brighton. Late autumn berries and fruit blossoms are said to indicate a mild winter.

RUSH WORK ON BRIDGE OVER ST. JOHN RIVER

Edmundston, Oct. 24—D. C. Burpee & Co., contractors of Devon, have made exceptionally rapid progress on the substructure of the international bridge here. The contract calls for their work to be completed by Feb. 20, 1923, but they expect to have the job completed by Dec. 1. In two weeks' time the concrete will be ready for the steel work to commence and a representative of the bridge company here a few days ago said that he would have material here by the middle of November and begin work. It is expected that the whole bridge will be completed and opened for traffic during the spring of 1923.

The bridge is a very high one owing to an overhead crossing having to be made over the C. N. R. and Temiscouata railways on the Canadian side. The three piers in the river are completed and stand sixty feet above the water. Work is now going forward on the approaches on both sides, concrete being poured on the Canadian side. In one day more than 1,000 bags of cement was used by the contractors in making concrete for this approach.

Important Notice

In the collection of the Town Taxes I have tried to be as considerate and patient as possible. This has been taken advantage of by some, with the result that there are a lot of taxes unpaid. The conditions of the finances make it necessary that these taxes be collected right away. If we are compelled to enforce collection no one will regret it more than I. If we have to do so (which I hope we will not) no partially will be shown unless under very distressed circumstances. I am giving this final notice so that no one will have just cause for complaint if executions have to be issued. The 1921 list must be cleaned up as far as possible.

The Farmers Sun reports a squash having been brought to its editor that measured 38x53 inches in circumference. H. N. Boyer of this town has the Ontario product beaten by inches, it not by a mile. Last evening he brought to The Observer a squash that measured 47x51 inches and weighed about 40 pounds.

Young people of the town are forming an organization for the purpose of financing and managing an ice rink the coming winter. There can be no more delightful or healthful exercise or diversion than ice skating and the rink should prove a very popular resort. It is intended to erect a pavilion arranged comfortably for rest and also with suitable dressing rooms. A meeting of those interested will be held in the town hall tomorrow night.

Madame X

The Biggest Feature Film shown in Hartland since "The Miracle Man." A wonderful production. This great play is full of heart-throbs and human interest. Appealing strongly to the finer senses, it is not morbid or dull, but every flash on the screen is of keenest interest. The story grips and holds and is altogether one of the biggest, strongest Photo Dramas yet filmed.

A RECEPTION TO PASTOR AND WIFE

Edmundston, Oct. 24—On Wednesday evening a formal reception was tendered Rev. John Hardwicke and Mrs. Hardwicke by the members of the Presbyterian church and their friends. The reception was held in the Fraser hall and a large number took this opportunity of meeting Mr. and Mrs. Hardwicke and welcoming them back to Canadian soil. Mr. Hardwicke was formerly in charge of St. Matthew's church but for the past few years has been a resident of the United States, coming here from the state of Ohio.

Mrs. J. M. Stevens and Mrs. William Matheson received with Mr. and Mrs. Hardwicke, after which a short program was enjoyed. Moses Mitchell, former mayor of Fredericton, acted as chairman and made a short address of welcome, to which Mr. Hardwicke later replied in a very pleasing manner. In the course of his remarks he stated that although his sojourn in the neighboring republic had many pleasant features he was very glad to be once more living under the Union Jack.

Those taking part in the very enjoyable programme were Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Don H. VanWart, Miss Wright, Miss Lynott, Miss Helen Stevens and C. M. Rideout, Don H. VanWart, L. M. Sherwood, Moses Mitchell and Mr. McElroy.

Later refreshments were served, when Mrs. A. Lawson presided and had as assistants Mesdames Evans, Hutchison, Moore, Grady, Trafton, McDonald, Alec Dunbar and Will Dunbar.

After a short speech by Aaron Lawson and the singing of the national anthem the gathering broke up.

MAGIC BAKING POWDER

PRODUCT OF CANADA

The reputation of Magic Baking Powder was not made in a day. Each succeeding year has entrenched it more securely in the homes of Canada's discriminating housewives. There is more Magic Baking Powder used in New Brunswick at the present time than ever before. It has been demonstrated that it is more economical and more satisfactory in every way than cream of tartar and soda.

Magic Baking Powder is scientifically made and has never failed to give the maximum leavening efficiency. Because of this and the uniformly satisfactory results obtained by its use, we recommend it as Canada's perfect baking powder.

Englishmen Climb Mount Temple

Amongst those who arrived recently at Quebec on the "Empress of France" were Sir John Simon renowned as the most distinguished lawyer in England, Lady Simon, their son Gilbert Simon, and R. J. Stopford, a relative. Sir John came to Canada for a rest and a tour of the country. He was here before, several years ago and then liked Canada so much that he thought he should return here with his family. The famous lawyer and party spent a few days at the Chateau Frontenac, Quebec, motored to Montreal where they spent a few days at the Place Viger Hotel.

The party have been spending a holiday in the Canadian Pacific Rockies, visiting all the delightful spots, and were charmed with the mountains.

Sir John's son, Gilbert, who has just won a scholarship at Balliol with a friend J. C. Langton, from Magdalen, accompanied by Mr. Huggill, set out with guides to climb Mount Temple, 11,626 feet high, at

Have You Zam-Buk Handy?

For you never know when you may need this wonderful healer. Timely use of Zam-Buk soothes away pain and irritation and kills the germs which set up blood poison, ulceration, and eczema. Zam-Buk is a pure and highly refined herbal balm. Free from mineral drugs and animal fats it is the safest dressing for all skin sores and ulcers. Easy to apply, it speaks well of Zam-Buk.

BABY'S SORES. Mrs. W.A. Fawcett, of River Glade, N.B., writes: "On baby's scalp sores the usual ointments had no effect whatever. Zam-Buk, however, speedily soothed the irritation and cleared away every trace of disease."

FATHER'S BURNS. Mr. J. Johnson, of 784, South Marks St., Fort Williams, writes: "I was badly burned by molten metal which went right through my foot. It was taken home and the foot dressed with Zam-Buk. This kept away all festering and inflammation and in two weeks the wound was well healed."

MOTHER'S ULCERS. Mrs. J. Elsworth, 902, Selkirk Avenue, Winnipeg, says: "Ulcers started on my left ankle and in spite of doctors' treatment, they spread towards the knee. Zam-Buk soothed the pain wonderfully, and further dressings of this famous balm stopped the discharge, took out all poisonous matter and healed my leg perfectly." 50c. box all chemists and dealers. HOSPITAL DRIVE ON THIS WEEK

This is the first appeal directly although the Hospital has been in existence for over twenty years. Private contributions, County and Town aid, and generous assistance from The L. P. Fisher Estate have enabled us to carry on. But we have now reached a stage where it is impossible to meet the demand for proper accommodation. Even with the recent addition of a Nurses' Home, housing eighteen nurses, and the utilizing of all available space, we are faced with a waiting list.

In order to secure better service for the public through better methods of administration and staff work, there has been inaugurated a system of hospital standardization throughout Canada and the United States, bringing all hospitals up to a recognized standard without which they cannot obtain recognition or support from governing bodies.

We are, therefore, faced with the double necessity of immediately providing for all those demanding treatment and also improving the institution to the point where we can be assured of obtaining Government assistance.

To this end it is necessary to improve our present plant and enlarge our premises. Appended is a statement prepared after careful consideration, showing the amount of money required to bring this Hospital to a point sufficient to meet immediate requirements of such standardization. And we believe that with these improvements and extensions which will provide a much greater revenue, this institution can be made practically self-sustaining.

To show that hospital accommodation is becoming increasingly necessary, we need only point to the fact that our neighboring towns in New Brunswick and Maine have been spending large sums of money to this end and we feel that the residents of Carleton County, who were the first to establish a Hospital on the upper St. John, will not be found lacking in the support of their own institution.

To raise this fund of $50,000 it has been determined by the Directors to put on a drive the week beginning October 24 under the direction of the Trustees Board with the co-operation of the Councilors of the different parishes. Collectors will make an effort

GRAND FALLS

Grand Falls, Oct. 17.—On Friday evening Mrs. Y. L. White and Mrs. W. P. Hatch entertained most enjoyably at a variety shower for Miss Alice Pirie, whose marriage takes place on Wednesday. SUGGESTIVE READING

You will hear it said that such and such a magazine prints suggestive stories, meaning that they present corrupting ideas in an attractive dress. But there is a suggestiveness also of quite a different sort—like suggestiveness that quickens the reader's sense of duty, stimulates ambition, gives courage to face adversity, fortifies against yielding easily to temptation. It is this better kind of suggestiveness that you will find on almost every page of "The Youth's Companion." Which of these two kinds of suggestiveness would you wish to have exert an influence in your family life?

The 52 issues of 1922 will be crowded with serial stories, short stories, editorials, poetry, facts and fun. Subscribe now and receive:

1 The Youth's Companion—52 issues in 1922.

2 All the remaining issues of 1921.

PERMANENCE is a greater condition than Passing Beauty

THERE are many old homes even to-day in excellent preservation, and if the old walls could only speak they could disclose the conversations of three generations. To paint for the sake of decoration alone is a short-sighted policy and entirely misses the bigger, broader purpose—that of protection.

For durability as well as for pleasing effect, always insist on the paint with a reputation for permanence.

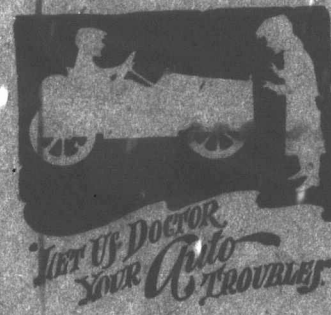

B-H "ENGLISH" PAINT

Canadians for three generations have proved that B-H "English" Paint goes farther, gives a greater brilliance and protects for a longer period of years than other paints. It is true economy then to use B-H "English" Paint—as shown for gallon is the most economical paint on the market to-day.
