TO THE JURY

Boise Judge to Begin His Address Today

BORAH'S FINAL SPEECH

ONE OF THE GREATEST EFFORTS EVER MADE IN ANY COURT-CLAIMED ORCHARD'S STORY IS FULLY CORROBORATED BY STATE'S EVIDENCE.

(Special to The Daily News) Boise, Idaho, July 26.-All unpreju diced observers claim that senator Borah's address to -e Haywood jury this morning was one of the greatest legal arguments ever heard in any court. Borah subdivided his remarks under the following heads: 1st.-Did a conspiracy exist 2nd.-Was the defendant a member of that conspiracy?

3rd.—Is Harry Orchard telling the truth? 4th.—Is there sufficient corroborative evidence to connect Haywood with the conspiracy, aside from Orchard's con-telegraph money orders from Pettibone to Orchard, under assumed names; all these, said Borah, were facts proved outside of Orchard's confession, showing a conspiracy to murder Steunenberg. Borah put Haywood, Moyer, Pettibone, Simpkins and Orchard in the list of con-spirators. He said one had confessed, one was a fugitive from justice and a

Again Borah took up the plea of jus-tification for violence made by Mr. Darrow, and he used this as a terrible whip with which to lash the defense. Haywood declared o nthe s and that men like justices Goddard and Gabbert were cor-rupt tools of capital. Darrow had pleadd that violence on the part of working men against the employing class was justifiable. It was therefore easy to inderstand how Haywood and his codefendant would plan acts of violence in carrying on their so called war. Mr. Borah said that in Idaho there was no known method of adjusting differences, excepting those provided for by the statutes in the orderly procedure of the courts. The senator's closing was strong. He spoke in low tones, calling the attention of the jurors to the great duty laid upon them. If the case had not been proved, he said, the defendant must go free, but if it had been proved, justice must be done in the name of an utraged state whose laws had been roken and whose authority had been mained some instructions to be settled, these having just been handed in, and he would charge the jury at ten o'clock

(Associated Press)

Boise, July 26—Senator Borah continued his argument for the prosecution in the Haywood trial this morning. As early as 7 o'clock the court house doors were be-seiged by hundreds seeking admittance to the limited court room.

Inside the court as the next the last day of the trial began, Haywood sat surrounded by his fam'ly. His invalided wife, whose helpless condition and pallid face have attracted so much attention and sym-patry, sat immediately at his right and next to her was the grey haired mother, who yesterday could not restra'n the tears, which welled to her eyes as Clarence Darrow made the last plea for the life of her son. The prisoner's daughter and sister were also in the family circle.

Mrs. Frank Steunenberg, the wife of the murdered governor, and her stalwart son, Julian, were early in the cout room and when they had been shown to seats inside the attorney's rail, found themselves within seven or eight feet of Haywood himwest constituted a large proportion of today's big assembly.

Senator Bo ah began by reviewing briefy the points made in the opening hour of his address to the jury last night. He said he woul go briefly over the trail of blood left by Harry Orchard, taking first the murder of governor Steunenberg, and harking back over some of the most important incidents, developed in the testimony.

"I hardly need tell you sensible men," declared the pleader, "that Pinkerton de-tectives had nothing to do with the as-sassination of Frank Steunenberg. That is one of the most absurd of the many absurd things, brought into the case by the learned counsed for the defense."

Senator Borah in 1 ying the foundation for his argument of c.nspirecy, p loted out that Orchard went to C ldwall f om Denver and fresh, from ass c at on with the officers of the Western Federation of Miners, who regarded Steunenberg as an enemy, Harry O chard left Denver with crime in his heart, said the speaker, the impelling, compelling force came from Den-ver. ANOTHER ACCOUNT Berlin, July 26-A series of coldblooded crimes singularly resembling the "Jack the Ripper murders but for the fact that instead of women, the victims were little girls, occurred with remarkable celerity this afternoon almost in the center of the city and aroused the most intense ement and indignation. Within a space of time the assassin successfully enticed three girl bab'es, tre oldest only five year of age, into doorways of houses and stabbed them several times in the abodmen with a sharp instrument. As result one of the children is dead, another is dying and the third is dangerously wounded. The first knowledge that the crimes had been committed came when an occupant of the house at the corner of Ryke and Bedforter stree:s found the body of Margaret Frawitz, aged four, ly-ing the doorway bathed in blood, he-bowels protruding and the lower part of her body terribly slashed. This was immediately reported to the police who were about to investigate the case when reports came that Bertha Leost, aged three and Ella Knispel, aged five, had been found similarly outraged, but still arive in Prenslaher alley and Hanserde fer streets respectively. Rumors soon spread through the vicinity which magnified the number of victims and the inhab tants of the ne'ghborhood beorme intensely excit ed. Mothers sought ther children in the streets and made them return indoors for fear that they might meet a similar fate. Crowds gathered about the police station shouting vengeance against the murderer in the meantime the two victims who still lived, were taken to a hospital. Their condition is extremely precarious and they are not expected to survive the night.

The officials acted quickly in an endeavor to find the murderer and offer a rewar of $1000 for his eapture.

Last night during the examination of the immigrants on the Kumeric, a bank teller came on board with $30,000 in cash and gave $25 to each immigrant, t oenable him to meet the demands of the immigration officer. As the men were about to land this afternoon, Morling and advanced by the state of the stat ikaws ppeared and addressed his countrymen. He stated that their coming was unwise and that there was not em ployment here for them. He concluded by demanding that as each man left the boat he should deposit the $25 and his passport in a bag, the amount to be held by the consul in trust until he should have found employment.

Immigration officer Monro thought this an amicable arrangement between the consul and the men, but your cor-respondent noticed that when an immigrant attempted to pass without depositing any money, he was quickly yank-ed back on the steamer.

few moments the wharf was the scene of angry altercation.

Mr. MacPherson demanded that the levy on the men cease at once and that the amounts taken be refunded. He told Dr. Monro that it was a flagrant breach of British justice and the immigrants were liable to believe that the dominion authorities were getting the money.

Morikawa attempted to explain but MacPherson and Cowan insisted on the point and finally the consul yielded and the men were given their money back.

Morizan, who had charge of the contingent on the Kumeric, stated that the men came over on their own account at the instance of the Honolulu agency and would be placed here by local agents. He said there were seventy-five thousand Japanese in Hawaii, many of whom were dissatisfied with the wages and conditions, and they expected to come to Canada as long as no head tax and conditions, and they expected to come to Canada as long as no head tax or restriction was imposed. It was probable that another steamer would bring fifteen hundred more shortly.

Only eight of the Kumeric's passengers were rejected.

As far as can be ascertained locally, it is understood that over half of the immigrants will be sent to the prairie sections of the G. T. R. Others will iocate on the Fraser during the cannery rush, a Targe number being taken di

The liberal association has declared its stand on the Japanese question by the passage of the following resolution: "Whereas a large influx of Japanese la bor into this province is detrimental to our best interests and threatens to unsettle all labor conditions, therefore be it resolved that this executive strongly urge upon the dominion government the necessity of taking immediate action by arrangement with the government of Japan, otherwise to restrict such immi-gration, and further that this executive gly approves of the steps taken G. Cars were always short and cometimes the shortage came in spasms. But he was doing his best to anythink in particular. Cars were always short and cometimes the shortage came in spasms. But he was doing his best to anythink the was doing his best to anythink the short and he was sure that the output of the C. P. R. in this regard was greater than of all the other companies, the government included, put together. Every day Montreal was turning out 28 wooden cars and from 6 to 10 steel. There was an output this year of over 6,000 cars and this rate had been maintained for a long time past though at the present minute cars were being got out at about double that rate. The company was also hillding many more passenger coaches, the same running into much his company. Also he was putting out a locomotive about every five days. In addition he was buying more from all over the continent. The total number of locomotives added to the rolling stock for the year ending in the fall was npwards of 200, including the 70 built by the C. P. R. shops.

Mr. McNicoll denied that the occasional howl for cars had any real excuse. "For instance," said he, "your paper published a special from Phoenix the other day ca...ng attention to the shortage of cars at a certain large Boundary mine. Well, we attended to the shortage of cars at a certain large Boundary mine. Well, we attended to the spot with the consequence that we have now received a telegram from that the matter at once and rusned cars to the spot with the consequence that we have now received a telegram from that mine asking us to send no more cars, they had all they could use. And," con-cluded Mr. McNicoll, "that is the way we always find these car shortages turn ont."

With reference to the building of new lines in this province Mr. McNicoli said that the company had authorized more work than could possibly be carried out this year. There was no desire to keep the province back. The new line had nearly been completed into the Nicola valley and the C. P. R. engineers were busy looking over the ground with a view to a rapid extension beynd Midway t the coast. As to the Kootenay Central railroad Mr. McNicoli said the matter was in the hands of Mr. Whyte and that he had not seen that gentleman since his trip over the Kootenay Central proposed route in an automobile. He would not say whether the hopes of the Kootenay people were justifiable of not as to work beginning early upon that extension. "You see," said the vice-president, "the papers have not been signed as yet and we people do not like making statements until everything is really completed. It might amount to a promise and we might find ourselves in a difficult position in consequence."

Mr. McNicoli is delighted with his tr.p.thr. 2011. Mr. McNicoli is delighted with his trp. unrught te province. He thinks that everything is going very well all over the country and that the coast, especially the island, is making great strides. "Why," declared he, "they are making a new Alberni and before scarcely anything is built they are asking $1,100 for a hundred foot lot with a 30-foot front-asse on the main street." age on the main street."

Mr. McNicoll is much interested in fruit raising and says that when he reut raising and says that when he came here first 16 years ago he recommended the planting of fruit trees and is glad to learn that shipments which amount to something are now being made. Spoken to about the lack of refrigerator cars or ventilated cars, at least, Mr .McNicoll thought that this would easily be arranged now that the _____ shipments had grown to be so large that the car could be reasonably The only protest made by Mr. Mc. on the province was the fact that he on the province was the tact that he could not get served with the native fruit. He could get oranges and bananas but the raspberry and the cherry were absent from the tables. They were too common to serve apparently. although they were just the things that the tourist came here for. ".ut," laughed Mr McNicoll, "that is the same all over Canada. Boise, Idaho, July 25 .- C. S. Darrow occupied the two sessions of the court today in concluding his argument for the defense in the Haywood case. He spoke 11 hours in all. In the even-ing, senator Borah began the closing argument for the state, speaking an hour

Mr. Darrow in his opening today said that the flight of Jack Simpkins after the assassination of Steunenberg was not a sign of guilt as claimed. In this conection he called attention to the fact gitive for a large portion of his life on earth and was at last betrayed. He was persecuted and for that reason he hid away, for the same reasons Simpkins fugitive.

Mr. Darrow said he would advise him to return after public sentiment had bsided and it was shown he could get a fair trial. Mr. Darrow reviewed many portions of the evidence in much the same manner as Richardson but he took the ground that the murder of the former governor was for a personal grudge entertained by Orchard.

As he took up that feature of the case he faced his colleague, who had advanced the opinion in his address that the murder was part of a conspiracy, cooked up by the Pinkertons and an angry glance was noticeable from the face

Darrow claimed that there had never been a case in the history of criminal suits where a motive for murder had been proven more conclusively than the defense had proven in this case the motive of Harry Orchard for the murof Frank Steunenberg. Seventeen witnesses, who had not been controverted, had testified that Orchard had threatened to kill Steunenberg.
"Harry Orchard, gentlemen of the jury, mark my words, went to Caldwell and killed governor Steunenberg to settle the hellish hate he had for his victim the man whom had been the cause of his having lost a fortune. He went directly from Wallace where he had been for several months. Kicking against the pricks. Fighting hard luck as an out and out tramp, right in sight of the gold mine he might hae owned, right where his old companions were rooming in the luxuries that but for Steunenberg he might have enjoyed. Those things all added fuel to that hate of Orchard's. He brooded over the wrongs of those eight years before. Then he made his resolution to be

Darrow declared Orchard never poisoned the milk at the door of the Bradley flat, he found the poisoned bottle with the grocery and manufactured the story of his connection with the matter Mr. De you made a most eloquent closing. La suid in part: "But it is not for Bill in wood i plead, he cried, "Or for his wide v or his orphans. If he dies 10,000 men who works in the mines will send their mite to support this widow and the little ones, and a mil-lion people will send their messages of sympathy. I don't plead for Haywood. Don't think for a moment that if you kill Haywood you will kill the labor ent of the world or the hopes and aspirations of the poor. Haywood can die, if die he must, but there are others who will live if he dies and they will come to take his place and carry the banner which he let fall. I plead for the poor and the weak and the weary. The eyes of the world are upon you tonight, you twelve men of the jury. and wherever the English tongue is spoken throughout the civilized world they are wondering about your verdict.

If you decree his death, the spiders and the vultures of Wall street will send poeans of parise and wherever men ive who hate Haywood because he works for the poor you will receive your meed of prais. But if you acquit this man, there are millions of men out on the broad prairies on the wide ocean, in the factories and mills and down deep in the earth, there are women and childwho will pray for you. These men women and children stand here and women and with me tonight, holding out their hands and are imploring you to save Bill Haywood's life."

Mr. Borah laid the foundation for his argument. He opened by referring to the attacks upon Hawley and Vanduyn of counsel for the state, entering a terse and vigorous defense of those men. He spoke of the assassination of the former governor saying that everything connected with the crime showed it was the work of an old hand, one who had made bombs before and who the maniac did not disclose any of his in had before arranged gateways. The trial of Orchard always led, he declared, to the same pair of stairs at Denver up which he ran when the colored man brought the horse around for Haywood to see. Briefly, Mr. Borah replied to Darrow's strictures upon the Christian religion. He said there was too much evidence of some great compelling force in that religion for it to be brushed away lightly. After nineteen centuries of experience with it it was too late to wipe it out in order to serve the pur-pose of the defense in this case. Mr. Borah declared that no immunity had been promised Orchard and he gave him his pledge he would never ask for his pardon. He took up the law of con-spiracy and explained it with great care. He pointed out that if Haywood were a member of a conspiracy as alleged, all the acts of his co-conspirators were his acts. Orchard's story must be corroborated and there must also be corroboration showing Haywood was connected with the conspiracy. ter from Haywood to Mrs. Orchard was such corroboration of Haywood's connection, so was the letter from Pettibone to Orchard, the draft sent to Simpkins and the telegrams sent from Spo-kane to Haywood by Simpkins, each standing alone was sufficient to connect Haywood with the conspiracy and all taken together connected him with it. There was a packed house to hear Borah. Hundreds left and other hundreds sat on the lawn where they could

Boise. July 25-The case of the state of-Idaho against W. D. Haywood, charged with the murder of Frank Steunenberg. will rest with judge Wood and the jury Clarence Darrow after speaking for 11 hours concluded the final plea for Hay-wood's life at 4:20 p.m. and at 7 o'clock this evening United States senator Borah opened the closing argument or the p.o-secution. He will speak for three sessions, or about seven hours. Judge Freemont Wood will instruct the jury on Satu day morning.

At least 1000 people were unable to find seats in the court room tonight. Two hours before the court assembled for the third session of the day, crowds began to arrive and within half an hour the doors were closed to all but court officials and newspaper men. It was an audience composed almost entirely of Boise people gathered to hear the speech of the young people of Idaho to represent them in the United States senate, and who has been the assistant counsel for the prosecution the case against Haywood.

At the prosecution's table, when senator Borah rose to speak, were seated two, one on each side of the counsel, but Hawley, leading counsel for the state, was not in his place owing to illness. Senator Borah's speech was a sensation. From time to time he turned on counsel for the defense, a fierce denunciation pouring from his lips and at times he brought protests from Richardson and Darrow, but with blizing eyes and hot words, he silenced every effort to break thhe rush of words. The climax was reached when in teha'f of the state of Idaho, its governor and himself. he disclaimed all intention or desire to give immunity to Orchard. Mr. Borah said 'n part: "I am aware that I am in this case as a special prose-cution. The learned counsel on the other side has impressed thi fact upon you, but let me say that the state which do s not protect its citizens or punish wrong doers would soon lose the respect of its people and have no standing in our civilization. Senator Borah declared the state did not want Haywood convicted of any crime for which Orchard or Pettib ne or Moyer or Simpkins of anybody else was responsible, and desired a ve d ct of guilty on y if the evidence was deemed sufficient to warrant it. Such a conclusion the senator

Clarence Darrow's statement was that the jurors' minds had been poisoned against the defendants in this case. Nowhere, he reclared, could a fairer trial have been held than in Beise, no defendant ever sat in a court room where there was a greater lesire for an absolutely impartial tr'al. "We are not fighting organized tabo; we are not fighting the pror or the rich, neither are we here to consent that or gan'zed labor shall be a shield to clime This is not an industrial war as my elo-quent friend of the defense would have you believe. We are not arraying class against class or one phase of society the rich. The acts of Pettibone are the des of Haywood, the unexplained letters and islegations of George Fettibone and Jack Singuistics are the unexplained letters and telegrams of W. D. Haywood.

The only question here as to whether or not the evidence has been adduced to satisfy you that thre was a conspiracy. Counsel for the defense has said we have not shown an inner circle, or an organized bureau of crime. Well, I could pretty nearly rest the proof of that preposition on the argument of Mr. Darrow h'mself. The evidence in this case shows that newhere in the Western Federation of Miners there is a power which control a power which commits crime. It is proved as clearly as the fact that Frank Steun enberg is dead. Take the 19th of April, 1899, when the members of the Western Federation of Miners walked boldly from their work, organized with military pre cision, went to Wardner and there blev up the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mil. Mr. Darrow tel's you that the miners wen back the next day to their work in the mines. Why did they? Because they believed there was no such thing as law and order in the state of Idaho. Oh, n gentlemen of the jury, this was not a criminal act, this was not a Western Federation of Miners. What was it? an accident Jim Shavne was killed. Oh, yes, but he was a scab, Darrow te ls you.
The Bunker Hill m'ne was blown up. Oh. ves, but it employed nonunion men. Darrow says that whenever you get a thou-sand men together to go and do a thing it is something that ought to be done. That may be the rule in Chicago, but it does-not

"Darrow has painted Harry Orchard to you as a veritable dev'l, and I agree with him. If the doctrine that Darrow preached to you be true, I am not surprised that these men committed murder." said Borah, who then turned upon attorney Richardson and declared that if Harry Orchar was crazy, it was no compliment to one of the greatest lawyers in the west that sanity in a week's cross examination. "Counsel for the defense," said Borah, "tells you that Orchard was caught red handed in the act of killing Steunenberg that he confessed to save his neck, and that if he had not confessed the daises for a year past."

Senator Borah plunged directly into the assassination of governor Steunenberg. He declared Orchard had planted a bomb as he had done many times before. He was an old and experienced oriminal an he was not alone in the commission of crime. "If," he cried, "you stand in the gate of Frank Steunenberg's home, broken and would have been blooming on his grave

stained with his own blood, and if from there you follow the devius way of Harry Orchard, you will find that the trail of blood passes up the stairway in Denver up which Orchard ran that day while the darky held his horse at the curb below. "The defense would have you te eve that notwithstanding what Moyer may have done, what Pettibone may have done what Simpkins may have done, or what Orchard may have done, Haywo d is not guilty. But the law, gentlemen of the jury, says that when men knowing'y join together to commit crime the act of one is the act of another, no matter where that other may be at the time of the commission of the crime. It is not an answer to our charge for the attorneys f r the defense to say we care nothing for Jack Simpkins, let him go overboard. We care nothing for what Pettibone may have done, we will take care of him late. I w'l tell you and I think the court will instruct you that in a case of this character, the acts of Pettibone are the acts of Haywood

the unexplained letters, telegrams, etc.

"Oh, no, gentlemen of the jury, if Or-chard had not confessed the attorneys for Weste:n Federation of Miners would be in this court room defending and legalizing him as a brave man, a member of a great working class, and my friend Richardso would convince you beyond a reasonable doubt that Orchard could not be guilty of the k'lling of Steunenberg, because h was in his room at the Saratoga hote when the bomb went off.

"Darrow says that my assistant has "Orcharditis"; well may be he has, but we get it from the depths of the Western Federation of Miners. They had "Orchardit's." First he was one of them, a delegate to their convention, a visitor to their homes, but the difference is that we have him tied up in the pentientiary, while they were sending him broadoust through the country on his evil missions.

"Much has been said here in dersion Harry Orchard's religion. Whether he has religion or not I do not know and it has nothing to do with h's testimony one way or the other. But remember, gentlemen, that the question of Orchard's religion or non-religion was not a matter imp sed by the state upon you-it was brought into this case by the cross-examination of the defense."

Dwelling on Mr. Darrow's views of Christianity, senator Borah exclaimed elo-quently that it was too late in the morning of the 20th century to write upon th prow of Him upon Calvary "imposter" to late to brand "false prophet" upon H'm who said: "This day thou shall be with me in Paradise."

me in Paradise."
"If Harry Occhard, poor devl that he is, with his hands dyed with the blocd of 20 innocent men, and his sour steeped in the very fumes of hell, has grasped the doctrine and accepted the beliefs of Christianity," said senator Borah, "I will not he the one to take that solace com him "I don't knew what your verdict will be in th's case," he went on, "and I don't believe anybody knows. There is one thing I do know and that is that you will never get 12 men in the state of Idaho to turn Harry Orchard loose. Orchard has promised no immunity, and if I should ever have anything to do with such a bargain as that, I should want the great God to wither my right arm till it fell from its socket. We are not asking for vicarious atonement in this case, like the defense, but we want no comprom'se. We determine whether there are others Borah will continue his argument

INVASION.

TWELVE HUNDRED BROWN MEN ARRIVED YESTERDAY.

(Special to The Daily News) Vancouver, July 25 .- The question of Japanese immigration is the one thing talked about in this city today due to the arrival of the steamer Kumeric with 1,200 Japanese on board, in the har-bor. The trades and labor men appeal-ed to MacPherson for assistance to prevent a landing but a wire from Ottawa gave no hope and port physician Monro says he must admit the men if they are healthy and have requisite funds.

So high has the feeling gone that some union men have appealed to officials to be allowed to secure rifles and go to the wharf in a body in the hope of intimidating the new arrivals, but this plan was stopped at once. Attorney-general Bowser was appealed to and promised to give a statement tomorrow The trade unionists have issued a statement this morning alleging that Japanese to the number of twelve thoushave been contracted for by the

C. P. R., and that the company intend to place a full quota on the mainten-ance divisions. This is denied by C. P. R. officials, but union labor men cling to the statement. Consul Morikawa this afternoon gave a interview in which he stated that he had communicated with his government and asked that everything possible be done to prevent more Japanese coming. Similar action has been taken in conjunction with the Honolulu authorities. When the Kumeric was announced to sail from Hawaii he sent word to the immigrants that it was pers could be obtained here but his ap-

LOST FLOWING LOCKS. Ottawa, July 25.—An interesting case developed in the police court today when Mrs. Armanda Carrierea charged Alfred Starmand of Clarance street of assaulting her two little sons. The "assault" consisted of clipping what the fond mother claimed was a luxurious crop of flaxen curls. According to the defendant, the young brothers used to frequent his place asking him to clip off the unnecessary locks. He refused to do so without the mother's premission. One day they came in and said their mother was agreeable and the hair was soon falling fast. The act was done in a spirit of neighborly charity, accordng to the witness. Magistrate O'Keefe fined the accused $5.
