

COUNCIL AND BOARD MAY CLASH OVER LORNE AVE. SCHOOL PLANS

City Architect's Drawings Were Not Accepted By Trustees.

MAY HOLD UP DEBENTURES

Members of the Board Say Mr. Nutter's Plans Were Not What They Wanted.

The rejection of the plans for the Lorne avenue school prepared by City Architect Nutter, by the board of education yesterday afternoon, is causing considerable discussion around the city hall today. Mr. Nutter himself is not pleased at the board's action, and can advance no reason for the rejection.

"I cannot understand it," said Mr. Nutter to The Advertiser. "My plans are as up-to-date as possible, and are not English, but American. As far as the cost is concerned, my first plans were much cheaper than those accepted, but I altered them at the solicitation of the board, with the result that the cost was increased somewhat. There were some things the board wanted that I could not agree with as their suggestions were in direct violation of the building bylaw. I put in a fire-proof stairway, and a fire-proof hallway, because that is what the bylaw requires, and it must be lived up to. The board also wanted large windows, but the smaller panes are much more up-to-date and present a better appearance. I suggested myself that the cloak-room be done away with, and in its place lockers be put up. I see by the report that Mr. Murray has put lockers in his plans.

The Accepted Plans.

Do the plans accepted by the board conform to the building bylaw? was asked.

"I do not know," Mr. Nutter said. "I have not seen them. But the building will have to be built according to the building bylaws, as it would be a mistake to allow it to be built otherwise."

"The members of the board stated that their plans do not call for a basement under the entire school," Mr. Nutter was informed.

"That is not correct, as the plans call for a basement under the entire school," he declared. "More than that, in my plans I placed the heating-room not under the hallway, but under one of the rooms, so that the hallway would not be threatened by fire in any case. I had a cement floor placed in the room."

"The whole difficulty is this: The board will not get away from mistakes that have been perpetuated in all the schools they have built. They want to continue the same mistakes rather than get away from them. My idea was to correct them so far as possible. Other than that I cannot understand what the difference between myself and the board is."

A Clash Probable.

There is a possibility of a clash between the council and the board of education on the matter.

Mayor Stevely was asked about this possibility, but declared that it was a matter for No. 2 committee to deal with, as the engineer's department is under the control of that committee.

Some of the aldermen, it was stated, do not relish the fact that the plans have been given to an outside architect, when the city has a man for that purpose.

None of them would commit himself on the matter, but it was hinted that the debentures for the school might not be issued until this matter was settled.

The board of education will insist on its choice of architect, and will maintain that the plans of Mr. Nutter were not satisfactory while those of Mr. Murray were satisfactory.

No Comparison.

"There is no comparison in the plans," said Mr. Nutter. "Mr. Murray's plans fill the bill. Mr. Nutter's do not. That is the reason we took Mr. Murray's. There is no reason why we cannot do this, and we are going to do it. We did not wish to hurt Mr. Nutter's feelings or anything like that, but we laid the two sets of plans before us, and without any opposition, Mr. Murray's was chosen. The board was unanimous. Since that was the case, there was only one thing for the board to do, and we did it. It must not be forgotten that Mr. Nutter is not an official in the employ of the board. As city architect, we got him to prepare plans for us. Had they been satisfactory we would have had to pay our proportion towards his salary. As they were not satisfactory we will have to pay our own official, that's all."

CAPT. HARBOTTLE CAUGHT

Toronto, April 14.—Capt. Harbottle, the absconding secretary of the Toronto Club, was arrested on Sunday at Havana, Cuba. Photographs and descriptions of the defaulter were freely distributed and it was thought at one time that he had headed for the city of Mexico. Search there, however, revealed no trace of him, and the detectives had to take up the trail again at New Orleans. The captain has covered a good deal of ground since he left Toronto, but finally he was located in Havana, and his arrest, as stated, took place on Sunday. The Toronto authorities were immediately notified, and Attorney-General Foy was asked to secure the necessary extradition papers.

Capt. Harbottle, who is 36 years of age, was and is very well known in Toronto. He was engaged in a general fire and life insurance business in the Confederation Life Building from 1899. In addition to being secretary of the Toronto Club and the Ontario Rifle Association, he was a member of the Toronto Hunt and Ontario Jockey Clubs. He was a captain in the 45th Highlanders and was a popular club and society man.

BRINGING OUT FARM HELP AND NOT STRIKE-BREAKERS

Colonel Howell, of the Salvation Army Immigration Department, Visits London and Makes Some Explanations—Says the Army Fathers the Sins of Others.

Col. Howell, of Toronto, who is in charge of the immigration department of the Salvation Army, was a visitor in the city this morning, and discussed the immigration policy of the army with The Advertiser.

He pointedly refutes the statement that the army brings out strike-breakers and mechanics to take the places of Canadian workmen, but declares that the policy of the army has been, and still is, to lead men back to the soil.

Blamed for Others' Sins.

"We have been blamed for the sins of many immigration societies," he said. "There are any number of societies in England which are sending immigrants to Canada. There is the Church Army, the East End Emigration Society, and a host of others. In fact, there are 2,000 booking agents in the old country, all sending emigrants to Canada. Very few of these societies are represented here. They have no organizations in the Dominion, and the people in Canada do not know them as immigration organizations. But still they pour in their multitude of men into Canada. When they get here, there Continued on Page Nine.

Mr. MacKay, of Sault Ste. Marie, is mentioned as the candidate. He is a partner of the Conservative candidate, who is opposing C. N. Smith, of the Sault. There is thus a somewhat divided firm seeking election this year.

St. Mary's Palace Is Completed Handsome Home for Parish Priests

Building Is One of the Finest of Its Character in the Province.

The finishing touches are being made in the handsome new home for the priests of St. Mary's Church in East London.

The new palace, which will be ready for occupation next week, is said to be the most beautifully finished priest's home in the Province. The building is a handsome one of red pressed brick, on a stone foundation. Its appointments are complete to the minutest detail.

The priests' entrance is only a few feet away from the vestibule of the church, and they can go from one to the other in a few seconds.

The palace faces the east, and is approached by a neat veranda, opening into a wide vestibule. This vestibule opens into four reception rooms, so arranged that while either one can be approached from the main part of the house, they are absolutely separate from one another.

Handsome Finished.

These rooms are handsomely finished in natural wood. Immediately behind is a large and splendidly lighted dining-room, which is one of the most elegant in the Province. The house, the parlor is of white ash, stained, and the wainscoting and other woodwork is of the same wood. The electrical and gas fittings are (Continued on Page Eight.)

Second Christian Workers' Church Organized With Thirty-five Members

Mr. G. Clarke Booth Continues in the Pastorate of Former Ottawa Avenue Mission.

The second Christian Workers' Church was organized last night at a meeting held in the church on Ottawa avenue.

There was a good attendance of the adherents, and all entered enthusiastically into the project. It was felt by all that the church will be a success.

Mr. George Clarke Booth, the pastor, occupied the chair. After the organization was agreed upon, the following officers were elected:

Board of Management—Messrs. Snowden, Finlayson, Auldreich, Barton, Beetham, Smith, Thorogood and Booth.

Secretary—Mr. S. Beetham.

Treasurer—Mr. L. Barton.

Thirty-five members handed in their names, and it was declared that this number would be largely increased soon.

A Sunday school was also organized in connection with the church, with the following officers:

Superintendent—Mr. Finlayson.

Assistant Superintendent—Mr. L. Barton.

Secretary—Miss O. Blackwell.

Successful Work.

The mission, which has now become an organized church, was started by Rev. Mr. MacKenzie, pastor of the King Street Mission. It was carried on by the mission workers for some time, until last November, Mr. George Clarke Booth, a graduate of the Moody Bible Institute, of Chicago, was asked to take charge of the work.

The first morning he preached there was a mere handful in the church, and in the evening there were no more than 40 present.

Since that time the church has progressed very favorably, and now there is an average attendance of 45 at the morning service and 150 at night.

Pastor's First Charge.

Mr. Booth is a young man, just 21 years of age, but he has done very good work in the church. He is a preacher of the evangelistic type, and is a believer in the old-fashioned Gospel. This is his first charge. The congregation is very much pleased with his services, and expects to hear great things from him in the future.

The church is located in a growing part of the city, and it is thought that it will have a bright future.

Miss Everly Is Located in Detroit

The Chatham News says: Because Miss Merritt Everly, daughter of Nelson Everly, Woods street, night watchman of the Chatham wagon works, changed her mind about returning to London, after having visited her parents here last week, preferring to go to Detroit, considerable anxiety fell to the lot of a large number of friends in London and Chatham.

A week ago Saturday she left London, where she was employed in the east end, for her home in Chatham. She arrived here safely and spent the week-end in the Maple City.

On Tuesday she boarded a train for London, after having informed a number of intimate friends in London that she expected to return to that city. However, she did not arrive, and a "mysterious disappearance" was at once spoken of.

Nothing was thought of the matter until the other evening, when, according to a London paper the girl's parents in Chatham telephoned a Mr. Laird, of the Teumseh House, London, who is said to have been keeping company with her, making it clear, and she simply changed her mind and did not care to go back to London and went to Detroit instead.

HIS BLIND HORSE WALKED OFF BRIDGE

Drops, With Driver and Buggy, Twenty Feet Into the Thames.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Woodstock, April 14.—A workman named Allen had a decidedly thrilling escape from death at Thamesford yesterday. He was driving home from Ingersoll, when at a bridge over the Thames River at Thamesford the blind horse he was driving got out of the track and pitched headlong over the stone abutment twenty feet above the water. The buggy and man followed, breaking away from the horse in the descent, and the man being pitched out. Each struck the water separately. Allen got to shore without assistance, apparently not in the least injured. The horse escaped without a bruise, and the buggy was only slightly damaged.

MARDI GRAS WEEK FOR LONDON BIG PLAN OF LOCAL OLD BOYS

Festival Is Proposed Which Will Rival the Famous New Orleans Event—Members Are Enthusiastic and Determined to Carry It Out—A Big Thing for London.

Preparations are being made for an Old Boys' Reunion that will be the most elaborate affair ever given in the city.

If the plans of the home guard go through, a carnival rivaling even the celebrated Mardi Gras of New Orleans will be presented in this city.

Last night the members of the executive met at the home of Mr. B. C. McCann, and discussed a proposition that will shortly be submitted to the general committee.

A Big Surprise.

"The scheme that we have in mind will surprise the people of London," said Secretary McCann.

"Nothing like it has ever been given in Canada, and it will be equal to any given in New Orleans or anywhere else. We are getting all the information we possibly can get on the subject, and in a few days a definite proposition as to cost and the details of the scheme will be made known. The only feature is the cost. The expenses will be quite heavy, but not beyond our reach, I am certain. If the plan we have adopted for the sale of seats in the grand stand meets with the hearty support of the citizens, as I anticipate, we will have sufficient money and more to put this on. I know many people who have seen this and they say that it cannot be beaten. Every person who knows anything about it is most enthusiastic.

Splendid Proposition.

"The proposition is splendid," said ex-Ald. Gillen, the treasurer. "The only drawback is the money. It will cost us some money but it will be worth more than anything we ever had. It will make the Mardi Gras look cheap. We will have a man here from New York shortly, who will explain to us the details, and when we get that information, something will be done."

"It is a great scheme," said another citizen. "It looks good, and I think it can be worked. We must sell the tickets."

Reports are coming in from the associations, and in all communications there is expressed the opinion that the reunion this summer will be the best of the long series.

Another meeting will be held next week to discuss the plans for the pageant.

75,000,000 OF WHITEFISH PLANTED IN GREAT LAKES

Dominion Hatcheries Plant One Million at Port Stanley and Report That Whitefish and Pickerel Are Rapidly Increasing in Lakes Erie, Huron and Ontario.

Seventy-five millions of whitefish will be planted in Lakes Erie, Huron and Ontario within the next few weeks.

Yesterday Mr. Wm. Hill, assistant superintendent of the Dominion fish hatchery in Chatham, took one million whitefish and planted them in Lake Erie at Port Stanley. This afternoon he left for Hamilton with another million to plant in Lake Ontario at that point.

"We expect to plant 75,000,000 whitefish this month in Lake Erie, Lake Huron and Lake Ontario," said Mr. Hill in conversation with The Advertiser. "We have been doing this work for many years, and it is highly successful. From all over come reports that the fish are increasing in the lakes, especially whitefish and pickerel. The Government is building a new hatchery at Point Edward. This will be ready for pickerel hatching by May 1, and I understand it is the intention of the Government to establish other hatcheries in the Province. In May the hatcheries in the Province will expect to plant as many pickerel in the lakes. There is no doubt that hatcheries are doing great things for the preservation of the fish in the great lakes."

Administration Building Is Cut Out Isolation Hospital Plans Altered

Chairman Stewart Thinks They Will Now Be Found Satisfactory.

The isolation hospital plans will come before the special hospital committee this evening, when they will be considered by the committee and the hospital trust.

City Architect Nutter has the plans prepared, and so far as can be learned they are satisfactory to all parties concerned.

The new plans call for two separate buildings, one for scarlet fever and the other for diphtheria.

The administration building has been done away with in the new plans as it was thought that the isolation hospital can be administered from the present hospital.

"I think the building will be satisfactory this time," said Ald. Stewart, the chairman, this afternoon. "It provides for 38 rooms, and there is complete isolation, the scarlet fever and diphtheria wards being completely separated."

"Some of the hospital trust think there is not enough room, but the building is so constructed that it can be added to without destroying the appearance or symmetry of the building. We can build it well within our estimates, too, I think. The other building was too elaborate. This one is more like it."

Mayor Stevely After White Springs

No definite arrangements have been made yet for another meeting of the water commission to settle the water problem.

Mayor Stevely informed The Advertiser that Engineer Moore has not yet finished his report on the cost of the land for the many schemes or an estimate of the possible damages the city might have to pay the millers along the Thames in case filtration is adopted.

This is expected within a day or two.

"We will get together in a day or two," said Mayor Stevely. "and try and settle this matter. I am out and out for spring water, and as long as there is a possibility of getting it we will investigate. Mr. John White, who owns certain north branch springs, told me that there was any quantity of water in that region, and that if properly developed, there is more spring water there than there is in the city. We want to find out if that is the case. If there is that much spring water there, we want to get it, as I am convinced that the citizens want spring water. We are just getting all the information we can on the subject, and when we have all the information that it is possible to get, then we will do what is thought best in the interests of the citizens."

A WOMAN UPSET ASQUITH'S PLANS

How C.B.'s Resignation Leaked
In Publicity Ten Days
Before It Was Due.

New York, April 13.—The World's London cable says:

How Mrs. George Keppel precipitated a British ministerial crisis is all the talk in political circles.

When Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman sent his resignation to King Edward at Biarritz, Friday, April 3, by special messenger, the intention was that it should not be made public until Monday, April 13. This was by arrangement with Herbert Asquith, to give him time to quietly complete a plan for cabinet reconstruction before proceeding to Biarritz to see the King, and also to enable the Government to proceed with the business of Parliament until a couple of days before the late already arranged for adjournment over the Easter recess. In view of the immense mass of legislative work before the House of Commons, was of vital importance to the Government.

The King received Bannerman's resignation last Sunday morning, and at luncheon that day a remark let fall. It is said, by Mrs. Keppel was seized upon by one of a company, a French diplomat, who immediately telegraphed the French premier that Bannerman had sent in his resignation. Premier Clemenceau at once communicated the news to the British press, the Temps, which published it Sunday afternoon.

It appears that Mrs. Keppel did not say directly that Bannerman had resigned, but made some remark about a possible alteration in the King's holiday arrangements, which the keen Frenchman instantly interpreted as indicating Bannerman's actual or imminent retirement.

When the statement was published in the Temps there was nothing for it but to make a clear break in the secret, and so the King gave an authorized announcement to Hava's agency.

Asquith was dumbfounded and desperately angered when inquiry at his house Sunday evening showed that all his plans had been shattered and that cabinet reconstruction, which was to have been completed secretly and disclosed only when finished, would have to be carried on in the full blaze of publicity, hampered by press and political influences, and that ten days of the parliamentary session would be lost, when every hour is valuable.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL STOCK

Intention of Directors to Issue Only
One-Half of $28,512,000 New Lot.

New York, April 13.—A circular issued to the stockholders of the Illinois Central Railroad today announced that it is the intention of the directors to issue only one-half of the $28,512,000 of new stock if it is authorized by the stockholders at a meeting in Chicago on May 18. The other half of the proposed issue will be kept in reserve in the company's treasury. It also announced that stockholders will be asked at the May meeting to authorize the purchase of the Kensington and Eastern Railroad and the Memphis and State Line Railroad.

AFTER LOTTERY PROMOTERS

Uncle Sam Probing an Alleged Great Conspiracy.

Chicago, April 13.—Thirty-six men arrested in various cities south, east and west on charges of conspiracy to operate a lottery, will be arraigned today before Judge Bethel in the federal district court.

These men, of whom David H. Jones, 70 years old, is said to have been the chief, are charged with conspiring to operate the transportation of lottery tickets by express companies. Jones was arrested in his office in this city last May, and since then the secret service men have been gathering up his so-called agents in various cities.

The alleged lottery is the Old Reliable Guaranty Loan and Trust Company of Chicago, declared by federal authorities to be the last of three big lotteries that for years had flourished in the United States. The other two—the Honduras and Kentucky lotteries—were killed by investigations of Secret Service Operative Harry Donaghy, and the federal action that resulted from his inquiries.

Jones, it is said, started the Old Reliable Guaranty Loan and Trust Company twenty years ago, under the pretense that it was a loan association, the lottery prize representing a loan. It is said he made $2,000,000 or more out of the business, but lost the greater part of his wealth in a board of trade and other speculation.

COLD SETTLES ON KIDNEYS

CURE IS OBTAINED PROMPTLY
BY USING DR. A. W. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS.

Medical authorities place colds as the most frequent cause of kidney disease. It is customary to consider the lungs alone in danger from colds.

This is a mistake. The kidneys are quite as susceptible and the effect is to congest and clog these filtering organs until the whole system is poisoned and there comes backaches, lambo, aching head, painful limbs and urinary derangements.

In a wonderfully short time Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills afford relief and cure.

By reason of their direct and combined action on the kidney, liver and bladder they cleanse the system, purify the blood and carry away the poisons generated by reason of the cold.

The great secret of health lies in keeping these filtering and excretory organs active and active and this can best be done by using Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers or Edmundson, Bates & Co., Toronto, Ont.

On the extraordinary success of this medicine as well as on the reliability of his great receipt book rests the fame of A. W. Chase, M.D.

ZANGWILL PLEADS JUDAISM'S CAUSE

London Court Hearing Bears On the Reunion of the Scattered Race.

London, April 13.—The cold procedure of an English court applied to the question of the fulfillment of the ancient prophecy that the Jews should be restored to Zion, furnished last week one of the most remarkable scenes in the history of jurisprudence. It was made memorable chiefly by the impassioned plea, hours in length, addressed to the bench by Israel Zangwill, who appeared without counsel to oppose the restriction of the operations of the Jewish colonial trust to Palestine.

The case arose in this way: The efforts of the trust to acquire colonization rights in Palestine were made nugatory by the opposition of the Sultan of Turkey. Finding all operations in the Holy Land were impossible, a project was initiated in 1903 for an extensive colonization in East Africa.

The Zionist Congress in 1905 opposed this and an amendment to the company's charter proposed the restricting of the field to Palestine and Asia. Only 18,400 out of the 120,000 shareholders voted, and 16,000 favored the restriction.

The minority, represented by Zangwill and others, applied to the court to refuse sanction of the restriction, on the ground that the vote was not representative of the great body of shareholders. The arguments occupied the chancery court two days, and involved an extensive discussion of the Old Testament prophecies and the condition and fate of the unfortunate portions of the Jewish race in the various parts of the globe.

Interest in Zangwill's Speech.

The interest centered in Zangwill's great speech on Thursday. For many years, he explained, he had been an ardent advocate of the Palestine movement. Then he found himself up against a dead wall, and realized it was necessary to seek other ways to help his people.

He said, colonization without a charter is a dream, and that there can be no colonization in Palestine without the sanction of the Sultan. Though the policy of peaceable penetration might do for England, France or Germany, which owned warships, for the Jews it is only an idle dream.

Rosy pictures of negotiations with the Porte have been presented to the blurred vision of the shareholders for the last nine years, but the company has been inactive and nothing can be done in ninety-nine years to come.

If the petition is granted, the offers of land in Palestine cannot now be repeated, for the world is growing smaller. Sir Wilfrid Laurier offered a large tract of land in Canada, but last year he refused to renew the offer.

Pleas for Russian Jews.

It was just ten years ago that the first Zionist Congress was held, and nothing has been done. Petitions beseeching help have been received from Russia, the petitions being written in the flowery language of the Jewish race. Regarding these Zangwill said:

"We are to give up the opportunity of assisting the great tragic emigration of Jewish people from Russia, which, since the terrible massacres of two years ago, reach 200,000 a year. There are certainly Jews in Palestine, but they live under impossible conditions, mitigated by backsheesh."

"Colonization elsewhere may lead ultimately to the colonization of Palestine. It will be the means to an end. It is a policy not to have a rival land to brandish before the Sultan. The confining Jewish people to Palestine is treason to the Jewish people."

The judge announced he would give a decision in a day or two.

PUBLIC OR THE CRITIC

Different Reception Accorded Works of Joseph Hocking.

London, April 13.—Which of the two is right—the critics or the public? That is the query which Joseph Hocking propounds apropos of the fact that the critics spoke slightly of his first literary success, "All Men Are Liars," which had reached a circulation of 40,000 copies, while a later novel, "Miss Nancy Moleworth," which he commended, did not sell anything like as well.

Mr. Hocking does not answer his question but he draws the obvious inference that what the critics say does not count for much with the public, after all. As regards the relative merit of the two books concerned, he agrees with the critics. But the circulation of "Miss Nancy Moleworth" has scarcely reached one-third of that of the older book. Perhaps the latter owes some measure of its success to its striking title. The public, he says, "I have got a story, but I haven't got a title." Mr. Hocking told him. "What is it about?" he was asked. "The logic of pessimism," was the response. "Here is your title, then," he answered right away, "All Men Are Liars."

HOME DINNERS THE FAD

Because Common People Patronized
Exclusive Places.

London, April 13.—The restaurant dinner is no longer considered "smart." Instead it is now "the thing" to entertain your friends in your own house. If you do not possess a home and live at a hotel, then you must have a private room for your dinner parties. Of course, such an affair is not apt to be lively. Truly there is no more dull party than that which takes place in a private sitting-room of an hotel. There is a nameless something about the whole thing which is depressing in the extreme.

One of the reasons why these hitherto popular methods of dispensing hospitality have become bourgeois is that people have been seen dining even at the most exclusive places like Claridge's and the Ritz. You know, of course, it was Americans who introduced us to the charm of the restaurant dinners. Now, however, the tables are turned and we must follow us.

When the South Manchuria Railway was operated by the Russians it received a subsidy from St. Petersburg of 15,000,000 rubles yearly to make ends meet. Now, in Japanese hands it is earning 30 per cent over operating expenses.

SLAVE MARKET IN GERMANY

Children Rented To Farmers in Century-Old Mart at Friedrichshafen.

Friedrichshafen, Germany, April 13.—The annual recurrence of the century-old labor market, in March 31—when many local journals describe as only a slightly disguised selling into temporary slavery—has again aroused a storm of indignation in the frontier provinces of Austria, Switzerland and Germany.

In the marketplace of Friedrichshafen between three hundred and four hundred boys and girls, from 11 to 14 years of age, whose homes are in the outlying districts of the Tyrol and the Vorarlberg, are contracted yearly for seven months, from April 1 to the end of October, to farmers from South Bavaria, Wurtemberg and Baden.

Little consideration is given to the wishes of the children, most of them being sent into service against their will, and in order to satisfy the avarice of their parents.

The children, generally in the charge of their parents, are taken to the labor market day. Here they are drawn upon the marketplace and then brought forward for inspection by a crowd of farmers, who look them over, feel and poke their limbs, meanwhile discussing loudly their physical merits and demerits.

Gradually all are disposed of, and those in charge of the children then sign with the farmers agreements for the seven months' bondage, and the sums decided upon are handed over. This generally amounts for the entire period of seven months to $12.50, but sometimes it means $20. The terms of the contracts provide for all sorts of work about the farm, regardless of sex, including cattle herding, housework and stable work.

According to a local newspaper, which has conducted an inquiry, many children return home partially crippled or totally wrecked in health, owing to the brutality of their masters. Heart-rending scenes are witnessed when the children part from their parents and are handed over to their masters to be taken away.

BRITISH DIVORCE BILL

Provides Relief For Those Bound to Convicts and Insane Persons.

London, April 13.—Great interest is being manifested throughout England just now in a measure presented to the House of Commons by Horatio Bottomley, and designated as the divorce law amendment bill.

This bill has for its object the "enabling of married persons whose wives or husbands have been sentenced to long terms of imprisonment, or are judicially insane, or who have been five years and upward, to obtain dissolution of their marriages."

A competent authority finds that there are 123,988 persons in England and Wales certified as incurably insane. Of these, 47.6 per cent of the men and 49 per cent of the women are married. The wives and husbands of these mentally deranged persons are anxious, of course, to obtain their freedom, and as insanity is prevalent among the best families—indeed, slightly more prevalent than among the lower middle and lower classes, there are naturally many influential persons who are either directly or indirectly lending their influence in support of the passage of the pending bill.

MRS. RODD DEAD.

Windsor, April 13.—Mrs. Clara Rodd, oldest resident of Essex, died at her home on Sunday afternoon, aged 77 years, of pneumonia. Her husband, John Rodd, died a year ago last fall. Mrs. Rodd was for many years an active worker in the Methodist Church and actively identified with charitable and religious enterprises in Essex. She is survived by three sons and four daughters. One of the sons is County Crown Attorney Rodd of this city.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup

has been used for over THIRTY YEARS by MILLIONS OF MOTHERS for their CHILDREN WHILE TEETHING, with PERFECT SUCCESS. IT SOOTHES THE CHILD, SOFTENS THE GUMS, CURES ALL PAIN, CURES WIND COLIC, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's."

Terrible Breathing Difficulty.

WELL-KNOWN MARINER DESCRIBES TEN YEARS' SUFFERING.

"For ten years," states Capt. McDonald, of Kingston, Ont., "I have been a terrible sufferer from bronchitic asthma, and often it was so bad that for nights I could not sleep. I spent hundreds of dollars on doctors and medicines, but one dollar outfit of Catarrhzone cured me." Four months later Capt. McDonald writes: "I am still perfectly well, and have no bother from my old trouble."

The reason Catarrhzone is so successful is because its healing balsams and vapors get at the root of the bronchial irritation—right where the disease has its root. Other remedies work through the blood or the stomach, Catarrhzone works directly on the diseased membranes and always does cure asthma, bronchitis and catarrh. Doctors say for a certain cure Catarrhzone can be depended upon. All dealers.

SHORTAGE OF BEEF HALTS WAR DOGS

Military Expert Says Armies Cannot Fight Without American Meat.

London, April 13.—It has been predicted by a British military expert that there will not be a great war for a year or two at least.

The reason he gives for this opinion is that there is a shortage of American canned beef. Armies, he says, cannot fight unless they are fed, and in these days they must be fed on American canned beef, because there is no other food obtainable in sufficiently large quantities and packed in such a way that it can be easily transported and kept in suitable condition for an indefinite period under the varying conditions of warfare.

Within the last few weeks one Chicago firm alone has shipped back to the United States more than 5,000,000 pounds of canned beef, and it would have shipped more had the supplies been available in England.

A representative of this firm is now in England.

"We are not looking for business now," he said. "We have all we can do to supply our regular trade, and we must look for that first."

"The British war office advertised the other day, but this was a large supply of canned beef. I instructed our people here not to bid, and I understand the other Chicago houses have issued similar bids. I don't think the British Government will get the beef."

American Fleet Needs Beef.

"The French war office and the Russian Government are also in the market looking for canned beef, and it cannot be had. Our own Government is in difficulties. The Pacific fleet is looking for canned beef at San Francisco, and cannot find it."

The fact is that the demand for beef in America has outgrown the supply, and it seems likely that it will continue to do so.

"We can get so much better prices for fresh meat now that it does not pay to can it. The population of America is increasing faster than any other country ever increased before, and the supply of cattle is not increasing."

"In fact, there may have been a slight decrease in the number of cattle, but we are selling as much beef as ever, but we are selling it at high prices as fresh beef."

"It pays us now to ship our canned beef back to America, because we can get so much better prices for it there. We can get least $2.00 a pound more than in England today, and the tendency is for prices to rise."

Army Contracts No Temptation.

"I would not take the largest government contract that could be offered today, and we have been selling beef on such contracts until now at 3 cents a pound. In fact, I would prefer not to have the contracts at all."

"You can realize what the situation is when I tell you that last year we packed only 20 per cent of our normal output. I don't know where the governments would turn for beef if there were a war tomorrow. Chicago could not supply them, and the rest of the world more than in England today, and the tendency is for prices to rise."

"Besides, the beef packed there in the summer has not the keeping quality that is absolutely necessary. The British colonies are only packing enough for their own consumption, for they have not the supplies of cattle to expand their production suddenly."

KAISER MUST HAVE LEAD

Berlin, April 13.—An incident happened on Unter den Linden the other day which goes to show the strictness of military discipline as well as of imperial etiquette in the royal family.

The Kaiser and the Crown Prince, each in his own motorcar, were returning to the palace from an inspection, when by some movement of traffic the Crown Prince's car got in front of the Kaiser's.

After driving for a few hundred yards in this changed order, the Crown Prince noticed what had occurred. He at once ordered his chauffeur to draw to the side of the road. Then he stood up in his car and with salute waited until the Kaiser had gone by.

Paul Knox, the American composer of ragtime music, who was arrested at Cologne on his way to Paris, is so well liked in the American colony that one believes him guilty of swindling and the consular office is doing its best to secure his release.

His chief accuser is a tailoring firm on Unter den Linden which claims $400 for goods delivered during the last six months. Mr. Knox affirms that the clothes were made on the express assurance that there would be no hurry in regard to payment.

Knox and his partner will be brought back to Berlin to stand trial.

The New York Yacht Club will arrive in Berlin on Monday after a long automobile tour. He will go to Scotland shortly to take over his yacht and will leave the Clyde to share the glories of Kaiser week at Kiel with the new boat.

FOR A MILLION OF MONEY

BY ARTHUR W. MARCHMONT

"Maybe, I wouldn't. An' maybe if you'd half as bad a tooth, you wouldn't be after carin' whether you saw me again or not," she retorted crossly, wishing the man would take offense and leave her.

But he had no intention of the sort. "I was thinking of you, Mollie, all the time I was away; and look here, I want you to do me a favor."

"If you'll only leave me in peace, sure, I'll do anything."

Oliver affected a coquettish curiosity. "An' what is it?"

"Look for yourself," he replied, giving her the parcel.

"Sure, I think it's doin' my tooth good," she whispered, as she took the parcel and unfolded it. Then she gave a little cry of pleasure as she took out a rather gaudy lace and ribbon net. "But that's a rare beauty, Mr. Dawleigh. An' is that—an' did you get that for—do ye mane I'm to kape it?"

"You like it, Mollie?" he asked, smiling with delighted self-congratulation upon the result of his investment.

She held it up as if with rapt admiration. "Sure, I wish I was to wear it in dear old Clogherreen. Oh, but it's just lovely. Where's a glass? Sure there's one in the hall." She ran there, and holding the net to her breast, gazed at herself as if fascinated. "But I'll never be able to wear it, at all, at all. Think of what the others would be after sayin', an' me not knowin' you more'n a few days, too. Why, they'd be just screamin' my eyes out with their jealousy, Mr. Dawleigh."

"My other name is William," he said, meaningly.

"An' a nice name it is, too, sayin' that I'd rather, it was Pat," she replied, with a glance that seemed to speak volumes.

"I'm sorry I can't change it, Mollie," he said, awkwardly.

"I'm not sure I'd have ye change it," she replied, with another glance.

"I'd like you to change yours."

"Ah, go along wid yez," she cried.

DESIGNED BY MARTHA DEAN.

NO. 6134—A GRACEFUL MODE FOR THE LITTLE GIRL.

A most becoming little frock is here shown. While it is exceedingly attractive, it is yet very simple. Blue chambray, trimmed with white braid, was chosen for the development, although linen, challis, China silk and cashmere are all suggested. The blouse waist is gracefully tucked and finished by a round trimming band made of the braid, which is also used for the Mandarin sleeve bands. The full skirt is trimmed to correspond. For a child of ten years four yards of 36-inch material will be required.

Girls' Dress, No. 6134, Sizes for 6, 8, 10 and 12 years.

A pattern of the accompanying illustration will be mailed to any address on receipt of ten cents in silver or stamps.

giving him a little push. "If it's nonsense like that ye'd be after talkin', you must take this back again," and she held out his present with an air of reluctance.

"I've been thinking a lot while I've been in town."

She looked up and laughed. "An' sure, I guess ye'll have to do a lot more of the think before it comes to any talkin', Mr. Dawleigh."

"I'm a man who makes up my mind quickly, and it's made up on that point, I shan't change in a hurry."

"Neither shall I—but that's not sayin' what I'd like to change from, is it?"

"I want to talk to you presently about it all. But you'll keep that?"

"Sure I will. But I haven't thanked you for it, and I thank you—William. It is nice to be thought of, ye know."

"It's all right," he said, clumsily, and ill at ease, despite the victory he thought he had won. "And here's a London paper. I wrapped it up in that so as the parcel shouldn't get crushed."

"I'll put it in that. An' this is any of the rest see I'll say it's just a paper you've given me. An' now I'll slip up wid it to my room."

She ran up to her room with the parcel, threw it down on the dressing table, and whisked back to learn about Jack.

As she came to the gallery which ran round the well of the broad staircase, she heard his voice raised in anger.

"I believe you've lied to me, Mr. Merriewe. You know she is not dead, and you are hiding her somewhere for your infernal purposes."

"I have made every allowance for your natural exasperation, Mr. Fenwick; and it was because I knew that it affected you so closely, that I told you candidly all I knew. But there are limits to my endurance. You had better leave the house."

"I do not believe the story you have told me."

"I can only give you my word. You asked me for information about Miss Fenwick, and I have given it to you. I assure you that both my mother and I are as anxious as you can be to find out whether she is still alive."

"Then give me the name of the place where you say you saw her last."

"If I thought it would be of the least assistance to you, and if I did not know that my agents had made every possible inquiry into the matter I would do so with the greatest pleasure. But absolutely nothing more can be done."

At this the last vestige of Jack's temper took flight.

"I will find out the truth in spite of you, and will expose you for the scoundrel you are," he cried.

"Do what you please, sir; but you had better first clear your own name. Here, you fellows there put this man out; and then send Dawleigh to me," and Merriewe turned on his heel and went back into the room.

Jack left the house, then, and Oliver ran down by the servants' staircase to get out to follow him. At this bottom, Dawleigh was waiting, to her infinite exasperation. She had no time now for fooling, or Jack would get away before she could catch him.

"Have you put it safely away?" he asked, with a grin. "It's taken a longish time."

"Ye wouldn't have me put it away without trying how it looked, would ye?" she asked, smiling, and wishing with all her heart that the other servants would come to tell him that Merriewe wanted him. She dared not tell him herself, for fear he'd guess she had been listening to what had passed in the hall.

"And you like it?" he asked, furtively. "But that's nothing at all to what I'll give you."

"What you would?—Would ye have the other all hearin' what's between us? Would those loiterin' idiots never come? she thought.

"Is your face troubling you again, Mollie?" he asked, seeing her look of worry.

"It's just mad it's drivin' me."

Then the man came in search of Dawleigh, and she was free.

In another second she was out of the house, scudding at full speed down the drive, and casting anxious eyes ahead for her lover.

She saw him at length; and just as she caught sight of him, he paused, stood a moment, and half turned, as if about to go back to the house; then clenched his fist angrily, and resumed his walk.

He was in a part of the drive where thick laurel hedges ran on either side and offered her no chance of getting away from him into the shrubbery. So she slackened speed, keeping well in the shadow of the bushes; and then heard footsteps in the distance behind her coming rapidly from the house.

She darted up behind Jack, just as he reached a path which would serve her purpose, and without a word caught his arm and thrust into his hand the little note she had written.

But she had reckoned without his anger. Ready to suspect anything at such a moment, and in such a place, the instant the note was in his hand he grabbed hold of her dress and detained her.

The footsteps behind were drawing rapidly nearer.

"You are followed," she said, excitedly, in a low tone, forgetting all about her brogue.

"Hullo. The Irish girl without her Irish," said Jack, in the same low tone. "No, you don't go in that way, please," and his grasp tightened.

"Come down here and let them see," wherever it is. Quick. I must not be seen."

She let him lead her into hiding.

CHAPTER XLIV.
Love Beats Resolve.

Dawleigh paused at the mouth of the path, and Oliver thought that he had been following her and had seen her turn into it. He did come two or three yards along it, but paused again, retraced his steps, and set off running in the direction of the lodge gates.

In those few seconds of suspense, Oliver knew that all her carefully-laid plans were threatened with collapse. She had been very brave and resolute throughout, and wonderfully resourceful and self-reliant; her indomitable courage had risen to meet emergency after emergency; and she had glided in the fact that she had won through all by her own strength and independence.

But her love for Jack was a great part of her nature, a deep, strong and living force in her; and now she was thrilling and trembling with emotional delight in the mere fact of being once more in his presence and feeling the touch of his strong nervous hand on her arm.

On his side he was completely puzzled. He had retained his hold of her because of his firm resolve to get to the bottom of the strange conduct of this girl whose sudden lapse from her Irish brogue had betrayed the fact that she was not what she had appeared.

What the paper was which she had thrust so mysteriously into his hand he knew no more than why she had so acted; and when Dawleigh appeared at the end of the path and the girl was obviously frightened, he jumped to the rough and ready conclusion that she was flying from him and needed help.

"Now, what does it all mean?" he asked, as soon as the sound of the man's footsteps had ceased.

That Jack should be standing there with his heart beating so wildly, passionately eager to throw his arms round his neck, and every love instinct rampant within her, at first astounded and then amused her.

"Sure, your honor is—"

"That'll do with the brogue," he interrupted.

Then to his intense surprise, she gave a little cry as she threw her arms round him, pressed her face close to his, and kissed him.

For the moment she could not say a word, and then, half laughing and half in tears, she exclaimed, "Oh, Jack, you dear great stupid, do you mean you don't know me?"

"Olive! My darling!"

For a time there was just sheer ecstasy to them both no more was said. No words were needed. He held her strained close to his heart and showered kisses upon her lips and cheeks and brow and eyes—any spot that was large enough to take a kiss; and she clung to him, trembling in silent rapture, her face upturned in tears of delight welled slowly from her eyes and great passionate sobs of emotion convulsed her.

At length, with a smile, she drew away. "Arrah, be alse now, will ye, or ye'll have me kissin' ye all day long, ways. Sure, it's Mollie O'Brien ye'd be after travin' in this way. Isn't it ashamed of yerself, ye are, kissin' strange girls like this, when all the time your own colleen has been brakin' her heart for a sight of your dear face an' the feel of it too?" and again she kissed him, and laid her head on his breast with a happy sigh.

"Now we must be sensible," she said next. "Oh, Jack, what do you mean by coming here and making me so weak as all this?"

"My heart is still in the clouds," he laughed. "I'm just mazed. Why, they told me you were dead, Olive."

"I know. I heard them. They think it too, but come further away from the drive, or someone may hear us. And clinging close to his side as they walked, she led him to a spot where they could talk freely.

Old People of London Need Vinol

IT STRENGTHENS AND VITALIZES.

With old age comes feebleness and loss of power; the organs act more slowly and less effectually; the blood is thin, sluggish and watery; digestion is weak and food is not assimilated as it used to be.

Vinol repairs worn tissues and checks the natural decline. It tones up the digestive organs, aids assimilation, makes rich, red blood, and strengthens the system. In this natural manner Vinol replaces weakness with strength.

Vinol is not a patent medicine but a delicious cod liver preparation which contains all the medicinal body building elements of cod liver oil in a concentrated form, taken from fresh cods' livers, the useless oil eliminated and tonic iron added.

It is because we know so well of what Vinol is made that we offer to return money if it fails to benefit. Anderson & Nelles, Druggists, 263 Dundas street, first store west of Wellington street, Sign, Big Red Cross. Phone No. 20.

"RATS" SAVED A GIRL'S LIFE.

St. Louis, Mo., April 14.—When the elevator of the Planters' Hotel, and a broken cable came through the top and struck Miss Laura Wind on the head, it was thought that she was killed. At the hospital, the doctors found that three "rats" in her hair had saved her life by breaking the force of the blow.

CHAPTER XLV.
Love Beats Resolve.

Many women have had their lives saved as if by a miracle. Mrs. M. Breiland, of Ell, Manitoba, suffered for years with severe indigestion, constipation, and womb trouble with pains in the back, which made her look many years older than she was. She had been very brave and resolute throughout, and wonderfully resourceful and self-reliant; her indomitable courage had risen to meet emergency after emergency; and she had glided in the fact that she had won through all by her own strength and independence.

GREAT PROGRESS OF C. N. R. LINE
May Construct a Road From Ottawa to Toronto Within a Few Years.

Winnipeg, April 13.—Mr. D. D. Hanna, third vice-president of the Canadian Northern, who has been in the city for a couple of days, has returned east. He is leaving, he said the Brandon-Regina line, on which track-laying was completed last fall, would be put in shape for operation as soon as the work can be under a great deal of betterment. With regard to this line it is likely that the Governments, both Federal and Provincial, will take an interest in some form. It is undoubtedly one of the most important proposals concerning transportation that has come before the Canadian people in recent times.

The Canadian Northern has now 5,400 miles of railway in the east and west, all of which have been constructed or acquired by Messrs. Mackenzie & Mann within the past ten years. In Western Canada this company has placed on the map by the construction of railway lines no less than 140 towns. This fact is most interesting as an evidence of the development of the country, and is also important from a commercial standpoint, as these towns more or less trade is carried on.

This year the company will have a line in operation between Ottawa and Quebec, and that year it is not improbable that the line will be extended to the St. Lawrence. The company's contemplated line from the Pacific to the Atlantic. The company's shipping during the season of lake navigation, and will give a link in the company's contemplated line from the Pacific to the Atlantic. HAVE ATTENDED THE LAST SESSION

Many Members of Legislature Will Retire From Politics or Seek Commons Seats.

Toronto, April 13.—The Star says: Many members attended their last session of the Legislature on Saturday. The three "baby members" who did not come back again were Messrs. Edward A. Dunlop (North Renfrew), aged 31; John A. McMillan (Glenagarty), aged 32; and Arch. B. McColg (West Kent), aged 33, the three youngest representatives in the House will not seek re-election to the Legislature. Mr. Dunlop is retiring, and Messrs. McMillan and McColg are both probable candidates for the House of Commons in their respective ridings.

The two veteran members of the Legislature are also retiring. Mr. John Smith (Peel), aged 77, the oldest member in the House, and Mr. J. S. Munro (North Oxford), another year behind; Hon. J. J. Foy and Hon. Thomas Crawford are another year behind in the rear, followed again by a year later by Hon. Richard Harcourt and Dr. T. S. Smellie (Lake of the Woods).

Hon. W. Harcourt is the oldest in the membership of the House. He has been in the Legislature for 30 years. Hon. Mr. Whitney is second, having represented Ontario for twenty years.

Of the members who will not seek re-election, the majority are Liberals. Some 30 per cent of the Little Opposition is dropping out of the Legislature. Eight have definitely announced their retirement—Messrs. Arch. Hislop (East Huron), A. B. McColg (West Kent), and J. A. McMillan (Glenagarty), will be candidates for the Federal House; Messrs. T. H. Preston (South Brant), John Smith (Peel), J. S. Munro (North Oxford), M. G. Cameron (West Huron), and William Anderson (East Peterboro), are reported to be retiring.

Dunlop (North Renfrew) is said to intend to retire, as he is moving his place of residence to Toronto.

PROBING "PAPER TRUST"

No Evidence Yet to Justify Legal Proceedings Being Taken.

Washington, D. C., April 13.—The attorney-general today sent to Speaker Cannon a letter in reply to the House resolution, asking what steps have been taken by the Government to investigate the alleged combination of wood pulp and paper manufacturers. The attorney-general says an investigation is in progress, but no evidence has yet been obtained to justify legal proceedings. He says that when the investigation and the report thereon is completed he will submit them without delay, if he can do so without affecting the interests of justice, but that if the investigation should lead to civil or criminal proceedings it may be prudent to temporarily withhold from the public the evidence and information.

Three Hundred Dollars in a Loan Company an Unassailable Asset.

In the Statute respecting Loan Companies there is a provision which absolutely protects a deposit of $300 or under.

If you have a deposit of that amount with this Company, it cannot be taken from you by any legal process or for any reason whatever. The Company is specifically forbidden to pay out that money to any other person excepting upon the depositor's order.

It would be a wise provision for you to deposit $300 with this Company. It would form a nest egg for the future which could never be secured by any one else unless you so ordered.

JAPANESE WANT A HEAD-CHOPPING

Think It the Only Way To Get Rid of the Costly Chinese Boycott.

Canton, April 13.—It is said that the anti-Japanese boycott which is spreading rapidly through the empire will not be ended until the loss to Japanese commerce reaches the stupendous total of $300,000,000.

The sum represents ten thousand dollars for every dollar the Kwang-Tung Government was compelled to pay the Japanese owners of the steamship Taisu Maru for the arms and ammunition upon that vessel whose seizure and subsequent release upon Japan's demand forms the basis of the boycott.

That the fire started in Canton is rapidly spreading to all parts of China seems certain from the reports reaching the Self-Government Society headquarters here, which, with the National Disgrace Society, have much to do with the movement. Merchants of Canton, Hong Kong and other points have served notice on their correspondents not to ship in Japanese bottoms. Even the women are taking a hand, several meetings having been held by ladies in Canton, who pledged themselves not to purchase anything Japanese.

Within the last few days an unusually large number of Japanese peddlers have appeared upon the Canton streets with Japanese wares. The activities of these men are believed to be inspired by Tokio, in the hope of precipitating conflicts that will give Japan an excuse for forcing the Chinese Government to resort to the head-chopping methods so efficacious in suppressing popular movements in the past or to furnish some sort of warrant for Japan itself taking a hand.

However, nothing short of very serious lawlessness would influence the Pekin Government to resort to such extreme action, and for two reasons:

1. Chinese officials have been forced from year to year to give greater consideration to public opinion.

2. While compelled officially to deprecate any movement of this nature, there is abundant evidence that the officials sympathize thoroughly with the spirit inspiring this boycott.

PREMIER ASQUITH COMPLETES MINISTRY

MacNamara, Formerly of Montreal, Is Appointed to Admiralty Office.

London, April 13.—Premier Asquith today completed the reorganization of the ministry as follows:

C. F. Hobhouse, present Parliamentary secretary of the Indian office, becomes financial secretary of the treasury.

T. J. MacNamara, now Parliamentary secretary of the Local Government Board, becomes Parliamentary secretary of the admiralty.

C. F. G. Masterman, Liberal member of Parliament for West Ham, becomes Parliamentary secretary of the local government board.

Thomas McKinnon Wood, Liberal member of Parliament for Glasgow, becomes Parliamentary secretary of the board of trade.

DOCTORS REPORT MANY CASES

SAY THAT SPRING FEVER IS PREVALENT—PATIENTS FEEL
DROWSY, DULL, DEAD
TIRED.

How provoking to sleep well, but when you awaken to find none of the exhilaration that rest and sleep should bring. You ought to feel alert, bubbling over with vim, but instead of this there's dullness, languor and disinclination to do things.

Three causes for this sort of feeling—a lazy liver, lazy kidneys, and a lazy stomach, the last doing its work very poorly, and compelling the other organs to perform a task they are unequal to.

Note the consequence—a blood is filled with waste material, and the substances weighing down the nervous system—rebuilding processes absolutely impossible.

Take Ferrozone and note the rapid change. Your appetite improves and your digestion soon is as good as ever. Your skin has its natural color, the sense of languor and uneasiness if not entirely gone, comes back only occasionally, and then disappears.

You see Ferrozone restores all the powers of the body to normal activity. The reason you feel better is because Ferrozone is driving out all the poisonous wastes from the body.

Ferrozone imparts to the blood that element that is necessary to render the air you breathe vitally active and strength-giving. In the old condition it simply acted on the surface. Now it enters deeply into all the activities of the body.

Now you know that Ferrozone stimulates appetite and makes rich, red blood.

Now you feel that Ferrozone gives strength, endurance, vim.

Ferrozone clarifies the brain, imparts tone and vigor to it, gives clearness and strength.

Your will power is as strong as ever, and your enjoyment of life has a new zest because so vigorously renewed.

As a bracing, uplifting tonic for men, women and children—as a medicine for anaemia, weakness or nervous troubles nothing excels Ferrozone.

Y. M. C. A. WANT HIM

Young Baptist Preacher Is Recipient of a Flattering Offer.

Toronto, April 13.—It is possible that W. A. Cameron, B. A., may not accept the flattering offer which has been extended to him by the Bloor Street Baptist Church. An effort is being made by the Y. M. C. A. in the United States to secure him for traveling secretarial work, similar to that of Fred B. Smith.

This work would necessitate Mr. Cameron taking up his headquarters at Boston. He would travel and address meetings of men, and later on take charge of the work in Canada.

It is understood that the offer from the Y. M. C. A. carries with it a salary of $5,000 a year. Though the salary in connection with the pastorate of the Bloor Street Church is $3,500, the committee in charge of the arrangement is very hopeful that he will accept the call.

SWITCHMAN NEWTON'S TRIAL

Charged With Causing Death of Engineer Armstrong.

Milton, April 13.—Mr. Harry Gamble, K. C., of Toronto, is crown prosecutor for the Halton assizes, which open here tomorrow. The only criminal case is that of Richard Newton, jun., the young C. P. R. switchman, charged with criminal negligence in causing the death of Engineer Charles Armstrong, at Guelph Junction. It is alleged he left open a switch on which a freight train was sailing and the special train of Engineer Armstrong was diverted from the main track and "shaved" the freight, damaging both locomotives.

The accused will be defended by Mr. T. C. Robinson, K. C., of Toronto. Mr. Justice Anglin will preside.

THE LUCKY DOUK

Central Prison Doesn't Want Him, So
He May Not Go To Jail.

Toronto, April 13.—Because of their established customs the Doukhobors sentenced at Port Arthur may escape confinement in the Central Prison. A dispatch from that city today says that Bailiffs Lyon and Ryan, of the Central Prison, are there gathering up prisoners, but they refuse to take the nineteen Doukhobors imprisoned there, saying they have no authority.

Asked about the dispatch, Dr. Gilmour, of the Central Prison, confirmed it.

"We don't want those Douks down here," he said. "We had one chap here a couple of years ago, and we had to pour milk down him to keep him alive. I suppose if he had died I would have been blamed."

"The Douks won't work, or eat, or keep their clothes on, and there is no sense sending them here; we can't do anything with them."

CAMP SANITATION

Course for Commanding Officers To Be Given at Headquarters.

Ottawa, April 13.—Militia orders state that officers commanding will endeavor to arrange that a course of lectures on camp sanitation be given at the headquarters, which all officers of the militia must attend. The course will be completed before the Quebec mobilization. It is hoped, however, that this work may be voluntarily taken up by all units of the militia who are not a command or district headquarters.

The summer course at the Canadian School of Musketry, Rockcliffe, commencing on July 2, is canceled. Officers and N. C. O.'s who have applied for the above course may make application to attend the fall course, which will commence on Sept. 19, instead of on the date stated.

The cancellation of the summer course is due to the Quebec celebration.

A WALL STREET INQUIRY

New York State to Look Into the Subject of Speculation.

Albany, N. Y., April 13.—A bill providing for the appointment of a commission of nine to investigate Wall Street speculation, as recommended last week by Governor Hughes, was introduced in the Senate tonight by Senator Davis, of Buffalo.

It provides for the appointment of three members by the governor, three by the president pro tem, of the Senate, and three by the Speaker of the Assembly. The appointments must be made within 20 days after the passage of the bill. The commission must report to the next Legislature, and $20,000 is appropriated to carry on the work.

The bill was referred to the finance committee.

DISLIKE ALDRICH BILL

Financiers Object to Attempt to Reform the Banking Business.

Washington, April 13.—The Aldrich financial bill, as passed by the Senate, was handed without gloves today by speakers before the House committee on banking and currency, which is considering the measure. With the exception of Charles C. Glover, president of the Riggs National Bank, of this city, none of those who spoke today favored the passage at this time of an emergency measure. The sentiment was almost unanimous that if a permanent financial bill cannot become a law now, no attempt should be made to amend the present laws.

The speakers who followed Mr. Glover, representing interests in Minneapolis, St. Paul, Boston, New York, Philadelphia, and Richmond, Va., took issue with his claims that financial conditions had not improved and said they saw no signs of an impending panic.

One of the sections most freely criticised was the La Follette amendment,

See that the next
cough remedy you buy is wrapped like this.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has had thirty-five years of sale and use, and has cured coughs and colds under all conditions, in all countries and climates, and the verdict today is that it has no equal.

ment, providing that no national banking association shall invest any part of its funds or deposits in the stocks or other securities of any corporation or association, any of the officers or directors of which are officers of such banking association. The claim was made that this would drive the most desirable men of a community out of the directorate of a bank.

An asset currency bill was favored by many of the speakers, and the appointment of a commission to investigate the whole subject and report to Congress was generally favored.

The hearings will be resumed tomorrow.

HUGHES NOT YET BEATEN

Believes People Are Indignant Over
Defeat of Anti-Gambling Bill.

Albany, April 13.—Governor Hughes returned today from Utica, where he spoke yesterday at a mass meeting in protest against the attitude of Senator Ackroyd, on the anti-gambling bills. The governor declined to make any statement for publication on the subject of his future movements with reference to these bills, but from what he said privately it is plain that he believes the people of the state to be greatly aroused and indignant at the action of the Senate in defeating the bills. It seems probable that he will speak in various parts of the state in aid of the bills, both of which now lie upon the table in the Senate, pending a vote to reconsider the vote by which they were defeated. No programme has been adopted in the matter as yet.

The governor was asked whether it was true, as had been reported, that he contemplated taking action to prevent gambling at the Aqueduct racetrack, where the state racing season opens on Wednesday. He declined to answer the question.

EVERLYN'S SUIT.

New York, April 13.—Josiah Cohen, of Pittsburgh, today asked Justice Hendrick in the supreme court a commissioner to take the testimony of several Pittsburgh witnesses in the suit for annulment of marriage which Evelyn Nesbit Thaw has instituted against Harry K. Thaw. The witnesses, whose testimony Mr. Cohen will take, are Drs. John Denniston Lyon, Charles Francis Bingham and John De Mar, all of whom testified in the Thaw trials.

GOOD HOME-MADE BLOOD MEDICINE

Makes the Kidneys Filter the Poison and Waste From the Blood.

A leading health journal, in answering the question, "What is the best prescription to clean and purify the blood," prints in a recent issue the following: Fluid Extract of Dandelion, one-half ounce. Compound Kargon one ounce. Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla three ounces. Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime.

It cleans the blood of all impurities and nourishes the blood. In just a few days the skin begins to clear of sores, boils and pimples. It puts vigor and energy into rundown, debilitated men and women. For many years Sarsaparilla alone has been considered a good blood medicine. But while it built up and made new blood, the impurities remained within and the good accomplished was only temporary. Sarsaparilla, however, when used in combination with Compound Kargon and Extract Dandelion works wonders. This combination puts the kidneys to work to filter and sift out the waste matter, uric acid and other impurities that cause disease. It makes new blood and relieves rheumatism and lame back and bladder troubles.

This prescription is better than the usual patent medicines, which are in the most part alcoholic concoctions. The ingredients cost but little and are easily mixed at home. Every man and woman here should make some up and try it if they feel their system requires a good blood medicine and tonic.

Germany does not permit dentists to style themselves "American," as is the custom all over Europe.

A GOOD NAME

EVERY one desires to establish for himself a good name, but it takes time to win the confidence of your fellow men. Truth and perseverance are the alternate rungs on the ladder of success, and he who reaches the top must make no false step.

There are hundreds of cough medicines with all sorts of names, each claiming to be the best, but the test of time will prove whether or not they have established the right to be called the best.

Careful selection of the drugs, intelligent and skillful compounding, the entire absence of opium, chloroform, or any other harmful ingredient, and the absolute purity of every article that goes into its composition, has built up and sustained its good name.

These are the things you should remember, and the next time you want a cough medicine, it is worth while to see that you get Chamberlain's and secure the virtues which a good name implies.

Every dealer who sells a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy guarantees it to give satisfaction or he will refund the money.

LITERARY NOTES

The April number of the Woman's Home Companion contains several notable articles. Kellogg Durand contributes his second article on "Women of the Russian Revolt"; Jane Addams writes on "The Working Woman and the Ballot"; Dr. Edward Everett Hale gives a talk on "The Meaning of Home," and Elizabeth Stuart Phelps continues her serial story, "Through Life's No Part." There are also some excellent short stories. This April issue is an artistic and beautiful number.

Of special interest in the April Century is the discussion of "The Age of Mental Verity," by W. A. Newman Dorland, M.D., who presents in this paper the main results of three years' investigation into the records of achievement of the world's chief workers and thinkers. The conclusions set forth are based upon the careful compilation and analysis of four hundred records of men famous in various lines of intellectual activity.

The circulation of St. Nicholas, the publishers report, has nearly doubled in the last fourteen months.

The Easter number of the Canadian Magazine for April is especially attractive. Its contents include articles by Jean Blewett, Goldwin Smith, Louis Frechette, and other well-known writers. Katherine Hale writes an entertainingly of the "Musical Awakening of Canada," and Arnold Haultain discusses poetry "From Tennyson to Kipling." An illustrated article, "Chinatown in Victoria," by Henry F. Patten, is exceedingly interesting at this time.

The Atlantic Monthly from July next is to be handed over by Houghton, Mifflin & Co. to a new company. The magazine was founded in 1863 by Oliver Wendell Holmes, Henry W. Longfellow, John Greenleaf Whittier and James Russell Lowell and Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Besides a number of interesting complete stories by clever writers, the April issue of the Best Book Magazine, edited by Wendell Holmes, Henry W. Longfellow, John Greenleaf Whittier and James Russell Lowell and Ralph Waldo Emerson.

The leading article in Scribner's for April, "How They Rattled the Derricks," is by W. J. Stillward, the artist who accompanied the drydock "Dewey" on its long voyage. As an illustrator of life at sea he is not surpassed. The first installment of a serial, "Vera, the Medium," a tale of modern New York, written by Richard Harding Davis' most graphic manner, is the opening moves about the efforts of a lawyer to rob an old man of his millions by working on his credulity through a medium, and it abounds in dramatic situations. In "The Westward Tide of Commerce Through Suez," Charles M. Pepper shows the awakening of the far east, particularly Japan, to the benefit of a worldwide commerce. Other finely illustrated articles make this issue especially attractive.

Whether it be in illustration of William Todd's defense of the "Maligned Everglades," or of Zora Gale's instructions on "How To Make a Garden," or of Robert Dunn's fascinating and thrilling "Chase for Volcanoes," the photographs in this month's Outlook are in every case pictures that arrest the eye by their truth and vitality. Robert Edgren's article on "Fighters in Real Life," and the "Little Outdoor Stories" have plenty of snap and go to them. It is a splendid grasp of the world, and will interest the "shut-ins" as much as the "out-doorists."

The Travel Magazine is still discovering places that no American or Canadian either ever seems to visit, though they look so interesting that it is a wonder how the current of traffic passed them by. The Holy Mountain of Varallo, a place of pilgrimage for all Northern Italy, is the subject of the latest of these discoveries, and its marvels are fully illustrated in the issue. The number is as usual a beautiful collection of photographic views.

LONDON'S STRANGE CHAPEL

Frederick Shields Devotes Fourteen Years To Decorating Walls.

London, April 13.—In the heart of this city, not far distance from the Marble Arch, there stands one of the strangest temples of worship in the whole world. It is called the Chapel of the Ascension, and it contains paintings that cover its walls from floor to ceiling. For fourteen years Frederick Shields, the famous English painter, and friend and contemporary of Ruskin, Dargy, Rossetti and Ford Madox Brown, has devoted his whole time and thought to their execution. Although the task is not yet complete, there are but few vacant spaces on the walls of the little building. Nearly 300 paintings, illustrating the Scriptures, have emanated from the fertile brain of this artist.

HAD A STAB-LIKE PAIN THROUGH THE HEART.

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS CURED HER AND SAVED HER LIFE.

There is no one, we imagine, who has not at some time or other experienced a stab-like pain through the heart, yet in the excitement and excesses of present-day living, the nervous system is done violence to, and the heart and nerves being so intimately bound up with one another, you'll never know you have a heart and nerve trouble until it is too late.

When you find your heart the least bit out of rhyme, your nerves unbridled, don't wait until you are prostrated on a bed of sickness. Take Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. They'll put you in such condition you'll never know you have a heart and nerve trouble until it is too late.

Mrs. John C. Jensen, Little Rock, Ark., writes: "I was troubled with a stab-like pain through my heart. I tried many remedies but they seemed to do me more harm than good. I was advised by a friend to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and after using two boxes I was completely cured. I cannot praise them enough for the world of good they did me for I believe they saved my life."

Price 50 cents per box or 3 boxes for $1.35, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

A marked increase in troubles of the breathing organs is noted in many localities. If you will only have Hyomei at hand to use with the first attack of cold in the head, pneumonia, colds, bronchitis, hoarseness, sore throat, croup, in fact any respiratory affection, the trouble will be quickly overcome.

If the attack is neglected and becomes severe, speedy relief will come in most cases and a persistent use of Hyomei will cure.

The directions for using it vary, but the principle is always the same, that of destroying all the germs in the air you breathe and having it reach the air passages with dry medication from the pine and eucalyptus forests.

Remember that liquids or moisture is barred from the bronchial tubes and lungs. It's the dry air of Hyomei that reaches the spot. W. T. Strong guarantees it.

The above is a list of the players with whom Manager Wreath of the London ball team is dickering or has signed up. Of course, there will be others who will report for tryouts, but it is altogether probable that the team which will defend London's honor on the ball field will be made up from the list mentioned.

CURRENT SPORTING GOSSIP

BY SOUTHPAW

THE MCCLARY ROAD RACE next Friday to Byron and return promises to bring out a large number of good runners. The contest is open only to employees of the McClary Company, but the competition should be most keen, nevertheless, for among those employed by the company are some of the best amateur runners this city possesses.

Among these are the Kingsmill boys, who as distance runners are about as good as they make them in these parts.

ENTRY BLANKS FOR THE OLYMPIC trials at Queen's Park on May 16 will be out today, and will be sent to every prominent athletic organization in Ontario.

WITH MR. BRENT IN CHARGE of making the Canadian team to England, and with proper support and encouragement from local lovers of athletics, some of these boys may represent London at the Olympiad.

NIAGARA FALLS VS. PROVIDENCE

Niagara Falls, April 14.—The Niagara Falls Club in the International League will meet Providence in the Eastern League at Athletic Field, May 17. The deal for the star attraction was closed yesterday by Manager Murray, who has been negotiating for the past two weeks with Manager Duffy, of the Providence Club.

Manager Murray expects to close a contract for a game with the Philadelphia Athletics, to be played on the local grounds the week following. Manager Murray will make every effort to give fans here the best attractions now on the diamond. Other contests will be arranged for future exhibitions.

TORONTO WILL PLAY JERSEY AT GUELPH

Guelph, April 14.—Mr. R. Readwin, the chairman of the sports committee of the Old Home Week, has received a letter from Manager McCaffrey, of the Toronto Baseball Club, a letter confirming the arrangement which has been previously announced for the Eastern League baseball match to take place in Guelph during the Old Home Week. The game will be between Toronto and Jersey City.

BASEBALL.

Yesterday afternoon a pick-up team from Talbot street school defeated the Maple Leafs, formerly known as the Sels, by a score of 20 to 12.

The batteries were: Talbots—S. Wallace and C. Slater. Maple Leafs—K. Bartlett, J. Self and P. Bartlett.

Sporting Jottings From Scissors, Pen and Wire

The King's Plate is only six weeks away, but such is the decadence of sporting spirit in Canada that interest still seems to center in a ball team practicing in the south, lacrosse outfits talking in various spots, and amateur athletic associations throwing verbal bricksbats at each other's heads. Alas and alack, but the good old days are gone!—Telegram.

THE CZAR.

Jim Sullivan backed up and the U. S. Military League stays affiliated with the A. A. U. The trouble was caused by three athletes under the union ban competing at a military meet. An explanation on account of ignorance was accepted by the sporting goods people, when the suspension of the athletes who competed with the barred athletes was lifted.

ART BURN.

Art Burn, the Calgary long-distance runner, who was to have joined the Montreal Federation and so secured the acceptance of his entry in the Boston Marathon, has reconsidered his intention to abandon the C. A. A. U. and will not run at Boston. He is training for the Olympic trials.

OFF TOO BOSTON.

Emile Cote, who finished second in the Herald road race last year and fourth the year before, is being sent to Boston for the Marathon race there on April 20. Cote is a youngster who has been showing steady improvement, and much is expected of him.

LACROSSE BOOMING.

Oh, yes, the growlers tell you that lacrosse is dying out, but when you see such baseball centers as Guelph and Hamilton getting right into the game, you wonder what kind of glasses these chaps are looking through. Guelph expects to have a good intermediate team, while Hamilton has not only a senior C. L. A. team, but, as well, a city league, with two series, four teams in its senior and three in its junior. Guess the game won't die yet for a day or two.—Toronto Telegram.

BURNS SINCERE.

Some sporting men in this city doubt the sincerity of Burns. They figure the little Canadian is merely trying to bluff Johnson.—Newark News.

Moir, Squires and Palmer thought so too, but he had the hand.

LONGBOAT.

For a long-distance man, Tom Longboat performed well at a mile at St. Lawrence Arena. If some runners who are howling about the Indian would take a whirl at him on the road they would be taught more respect for the Redskin's running ability.—Toronto Star.

A LARGE LIST OF ENTRIES

Hartford, Conn., April 13.—The announcement of the entries for the closing events at Charter Oak Park for the grand circuit races in September shows that 55 horses are named for the Charter Oak stake of $10,000 for trotters eligible to the 2:00 trot, which will consist of three races. The winner of each will get $1,500 with $500 to second, $300 to third and $200 for fourth. There will be $2,500 for the horse winning the greatest number of races and this horse will be declared the winner of the Charter Oak.

THE "RUBE" IS LOST

St. Louis, April 13.—"Rube" Waddell, whom McAlister, manager of the Browns, expected to put in the box tomorrow at Cleveland, failed to be at the depot when the team left today. Owner Hodges left tonight with Waddell to see that he reaches Cleveland in time to get into the first game.

The north star is estimated to shine with a light 90 times that of the sun.

JEFFRIES RE-ENTERS SQUARED ARENA

Los Angeles, April 14.—James J. Jeffries has once more appeared in public within the squared circle, Saturday night at the Shriners' circus, the retired champion donned the gloves and boxed five rounds with his brother Jack. This was the first time Jeff has appeared in a public boxing exhibition since 1904, when he defeated Jack Monroe.

All the week friends of Jeff have tried to persuade him to box at the Shriners' circus, but the big one steadfastly refused to consider the proposition.

It was announced that the Shriners feared it would be impossible for them to obtain the $10,000 promised the children's hospital unless an extra inducement was offered. When Jeff learned this fact he readily volunteered his services.

An Old-Timer. Richard Dana, the well-known Boston author and political reformer, was recently discussing the bicycle revival question. "Though I used the velocipede as far back as 1868, and the high-wheel bicycle as early as 1875, and the modern machine when it first came into use, I have not tired of the exercise and also find my new cushion-fame wheel of great practical advantage in getting about quickly." The bicycle annihilates distance, and the office and the home are one.

TERRIBLE TERRY IN RING AGAIN

New York, April 14.—Terry McGovern will appear in New York within a month if he is in good condition and his opponent will be Bert Keyes. If that gent should win over Leach Cross Monday night, and the scene of the battle will be Tom O'Rourke's Club if things turn out well.

It was learned last night from pretty good authority that the match was a settled thing if everything goes well. Terry has been with the Giants down in Texas for six weeks and Mike Donlin has written saying that little Brooklynite is tough as wire and looking great.

He will be back in a couple of weeks and, after an examination by a physician, will be started out again.

THE CLOSING ENTRIES FOR BRITISH GAMES

Toronto, April 14.—The closing entry for the various Olympic sports is understood by the management to mean that entries must be in the hands of the British Olympic council on the dates named. Canadians were under the belief that the entries sent by June 12 would be good, but it seems that they must be received by that time, which means that the Canadian list for the athletic games in the Stadium must be mailed about ten days prior. For this reason the Ontario final trials will be held earlier than the proposed date of June 13, possibly on June 6, which is a Saturday. The list of possibilities will be mailed before that, and those not finally selected will be withdrawn by June 12, bringing the Canadian list down to the limit fixed by the regulations.

PAT DONAHUE FOR TORONTO

The Boston Herald says: "Frankie Donahue will be retained by the Boston Americans as utility infielder, and Pat, his brother, will be sent to the Toronto club. That is the hope on the local boys with the bean eaters, and it comes from a reliable source."

"The lads do not know themselves what disposition is to be made of them, but both are confident that they will stick right where they are. From Manager McGuire's statements it will be several weeks before the wedding out takes place, and all they can do is to live in hopes."

GANS AND NELSON

San Francisco, April 14.—Manager Gleason has closed arrangements for a 20-round fight between Joe Gans and Battling Nelson for some night during "flee week" in San Francisco, probably the night of May 11.

When this match was first proposed Nelson seemed willing, but some of his friends put him up to demanding 45 rounds, claiming he could not make his best showing against so clever a boxer as Gans in 20 rounds.

Gans, however, declined to listen to such a proposition.

Nelson agreed to Gans' terms and temporary articles were signed.

FLYING ARROW OUT OF THE PLATE

Woodbine, April 14.—Last week brought about a great disappointment for the owners of the Queen City racing stable, when Flying Arrow, their entry in the King's Plate, contracted pneumonia.

This is the first season that this stable has had an entry in the feature event for Canadian breeders, and the owners looked for Flying Arrow to make a good showing on his work of last fall. The colt has gone along nicely all spring and wintered well, until last week, when he contracted a cold, which developed into pneumonia. This means that he will not likely be a starter in the Plate race, as he will have to be let up in his training.

Condition Serious.

It was feared that the colt would not pull through, but everything possible has been done for him under the care of Trainer Ben Pope, and this morning he seemed some better. This colt was bred by Harry Giddings of Oakville, and is a full brother to Wire In and War Whoop, who won so many events for the Kingfield stable.

When the Queen City stable, owned by James Carruthers of Montreal and T. P. Phelan of Toronto, purchased the Giddings farm, Flying Arrow was included in the purchase. He is sired by Wickham, out of the mare Lady Lightfoot. As a 2-year-old last fall he made some good trials and looked like a contender in the Plate race. His illness will be a source of disappointment, not only to the owners, but to the breeder of the colt.

New York, April 14.—Terry McGovern will appear in New York within a month if he is in good condition and his opponent will be Bert Keyes. If that gent should win over Leach Cross Monday night, and the scene of the battle will be Tom O'Rourke's Club if things turn out well.

It was learned last night from pretty good authority that the match was a settled thing if everything goes well. Terry has been with the Giants down in Texas for six weeks and Mike Donlin has written saying that little Brooklynite is tough as wire and looking great.

He will be back in a couple of weeks and, after an examination by a physician, will be started out again.

THE CLOSING ENTRIES FOR BRITISH GAMES

Toronto, April 14.—The closing entry for the various Olympic sports is understood by the management to mean that entries must be in the hands of the British Olympic council on the dates named. Canadians were under the belief that the entries sent by June 12 would be good, but it seems that they must be received by that time, which means that the Canadian list for the athletic games in the Stadium must be mailed about ten days prior. For this reason the Ontario final trials will be held earlier than the proposed date of June 13, possibly on June 6, which is a Saturday. The list of possibilities will be mailed before that, and those not finally selected will be withdrawn by June 12, bringing the Canadian list down to the limit fixed by the regulations.

PAT DONAHUE FOR TORONTO

The Boston Herald says: "Frankie Donahue will be retained by the Boston Americans as utility infielder, and Pat, his brother, will be sent to the Toronto club. That is the hope on the local boys with the bean eaters, and it comes from a reliable source."

"The lads do not know themselves what disposition is to be made of them, but both are confident that they will stick right where they are. From Manager McGuire's statements it will be several weeks before the wedding out takes place, and all they can do is to live in hopes."

GANS AND NELSON

San Francisco, April 14.—Manager Gleason has closed arrangements for a 20-round fight between Joe Gans and Battling Nelson for some night during "flee week" in San Francisco, probably the night of May 11.

When this match was first proposed Nelson seemed willing, but some of his friends put him up to demanding 45 rounds, claiming he could not make his best showing against so clever a boxer as Gans in 20 rounds.

Gans, however, declined to listen to such a proposition.

Nelson agreed to Gans' terms and temporary articles were signed.

Tales of Prominent Boxers Where and How They Live

John L. Sullivan likes the bright lights, the excitement, the admiration bestowed upon him by big crowds while the band plays "See, the Conquering Hero Comes!" Ever since Sullivan left his parents' modest home in South Boston more than 25 years ago he has always lived in hotels where he has been in close touch with the world. He has never been domestic in his mode of living, although just now he says he is planning to end his days on some well-stocked farm up in New England.

Shortly after Sullivan defeated Jake Kilrain he was stopping at the old Stevens House on lower Broadway. He had a room which afforded an excellent view of the Battery, but John L. seldom cared to sleep there, for his old friend Jack Cusack kept a place a few doors below, where Sullivan remained until everybody else had gone to bed about daylight. Then he took Cusack's bulldog Paddy, and together they turned in on one of the billiard tables in the rear of the saloon. As Sullivan was afraid of rats he never could sleep at Cusack's without the bulldog. As soon as the Turkish bath across the street, opened up for business Sullivan was the first customer. There it was that he used to sleep. Then at 4 o'clock in the afternoon John L. usually reappeared in the saloon.

For Two Years.

For two years Sullivan lived in this way without a letup, yet he always looked to be in splendid health. For twenty years, in fact, he led a life that would have put the average man in his grave in a quarter of that time. But today Sullivan is a different man. He still enjoys hotel life, but he has cut out all intoxicants. He owns a sumptuous home in Boston, which is in his sister's name, but he does not spend more than two weeks in each year under its roof. He is constantly on the road with a theatrical company, and is trying to recover the fortune he squandered.

James Corbett.

James J. Corbett is also fond of the glitter of the footlights. His ambition is to become a great actor one of these fine days, when he will be able to take rank with Booth, Barrett, Irving, McCullough and other famous men of the stage now dead and gone. But Corbett, in spite of the flattery he receives from in front of the footlights, does not forget his home. He owns a handsome villa at Bayside, L. I., where he spends the summer with his wife and enjoys himself in a quiet, unostentatious manner.

Farmer Bob.

Anybody roaming through New Jersey's backwoods who comes across a long, lean, baldheaded man covered with big red freckles, washing dishes, cleaning house or chopping wood, can address him as Bob Fitzsimmons. The old Cornishman, once the undisputed champion heavyweight pugilist of the world, recently left the stage for the simple domestic life on a farm. Fitzsimmons has been married three times, so that he knows something about home life. His first wife divorced him and married Martin Julian, one of his former managers. His second wife was Julian's sister, Rose, who died suddenly at Bath Beach. His present wife was Julia May Gifford, a little southerner, whom he married about three years ago. Bob and Julia went on the road in "A Fight for Love," and according to the freckled fighter they came near walking home. So they decided to settle down to housekeeping. Fitz himself is a pretty fair cook. He prides himself on such dishes as roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, pig's head and cabbage, boiled leg of mutton with caper sauce, fried chicken and Welsh rabbit.

Kid McCoy.

Kid McCoy, or rather Norman Selby, is trying to break into society. He recently purchased a residence at Orange, N. J., and when the people of that select neighborhood found that they were going to have a former prizefighter among them they got together and offered McCoy $5,000 more than he paid for the house. Did the Kid accept? He did, and is now looking for some other select locality where he can locate. McCoy cannot be called a quiet liver, if one takes into consideration the number of his matrimonial ventures. His first wife was a little milliner from Indiana. McCoy soon induced her to get a divorce from him, so that he could marry an actress. The latter also divorced him, but married him again soon after the decree was granted. There was still another split, followed by a second divorce. After that McCoy married a wealthy young widow and has been in clover ever since.

SAYS BOXING IS PEER OF THEM ALL

New York, April 13.—It's a great pity!" said Dr. Joe Reilly, of Georgetown university, "that more attention is not devoted by the boys and young men of the present day in the way of athletics, especially boxing. 'To the average layman the word 'boxing' has an obnoxious effect and immediately thoughts are associated with pugilists and the use of gymnasium apparatus, while, in the second place, it makes a boy or man self-reliant. 'I do not infer from this that the skillful boxer degenerates into a bully going about with a proverbial 'chip on his shoulder,' but on the contrary, he becomes a chap full of health, strength and confidence, and the possessor of such self-restraint that it would take considerable insult to make him strike a less skillful antagonist. 'Boxing is a science, just as much as billiards, and the work should never be started unless under the tutelage of a master at the game. I have attended many boxing matches and prize ring contests, my time, and, with but few notable exceptions, the men engaged practically knew nothing about the fine points of the art.'"

East London Happenings of a Day

Last evening a committee of employees of the G. T. R. carshops visited the homes of three of the men recently pensioned by the company, Messrs. N. Weston, J. Begg and J. McClure, and presented each with a handsome easy chair, that they may enjoy their retirement the more fully. After the presentations a pleasant evening was spent recalling incidents connected with "the good old times."

The presentation committee was composed of J. Loughlin, J. L. White, Chas. Barrett, Alf. Allen, J. Hawkins and Wm. Wood.

Mr. Begg resides at 354 Adelaide street; Mr. J. McClure at 639 Lorne avenue, and Mr. Weston at 768 Dundas street.

Leaving for St. Marys. Mr. Ed. Young and family have left for St. Marys, where Mr. Young will take the management of the branch of Parsons' Fair and Hardware, in the east end.

Mr. Young has been head clerk of Parsons' Fair in this city for three years, and during that time has made many friends.

Last evening the employees assembled at Ald. Parsons' residence, and presented Mr. Young with a handsome leather suitcase.

Mr. Young's friends in the east end wish him every success in his new position.

There is still a great diversion of opinion in regard to the construction of a sewer on Eva street in the east end.

This morning an Advertiser reporter visited that section and found that the number of residents on the street for the sewer exceeded those against. But this included tenants.

It was also learned that the amount of frontage controlled by the negative faction was in the lead.

How It Stands.

The following table shows the amount of property owned by each resident.

For the Sewer.

Udy	91 ft.	10 in.
Oates	33 ft.	10 in.
Yates	47 ft.	10 in.
Summerville	33 ft.	10 in.
Day	47 ft.	10 in.
Total	251 ft.	6 in.

Against the Sewer.

Mahon	47 ft.	10 in.
Spearman	47 ft.	10 in.
Skinner	60 ft.	10 in.
Cole	117 ft.	10 in.
McKenna	91 ft.	10 in.
J. Spearman	33 ft.	10 in.
M. Spearman	33 ft.	10 in.
Total	431 ft.	4 in.

Cellars Flooded.

One gentleman who is for the sewer says his cellar has been flooded all spring, while another who is opposed to the sewer, says he has lived on the street for 35 years and has never had trouble with his cellar.

"If they did have it, it would be the same as on Mary street, this resident said. "On that street there are 22 houses not connected with the sewer."

Another lady claims that she cannot keep her houses tenanted owing to the water in the cellars.

Twenty Children in Shelter Home

The monthly reports of the officers of the Children's Aid Society, submitted at the regular meeting held yesterday afternoon in the city hall, showed that the society was never more active in its child-saving efforts than at present.

The secretary, Mr. Sanders, gave the details of a large number of cases of neglected and dependent children, and of wayward and unmanageable boys and girls, with which he had effectively dealt during the month.

At present there are twenty children in the shelter home, and since the last meeting seven have been placed on trial in carefully-selected foster homes, where they will be given a chance to become good citizens.

The report of the treasurer, Mr. J. I. A. Hunt, was more encouraging than that given at the previous meeting.

Work Suspended on New Building

A most interesting case was heard before Magistrate Love this morning, when Mr. J. B. Smallman and Contractor E. Martyn appeared in court charged with breaking the bylaw, which states that proper measures shall be taken for the protection of workmen.

City Engineer Graydon, who laid the information, claims that as there is no flooring as yet in the new Smallman & Ingram building, the workmen on the ground floors are in danger of being struck by falling tools, materials, etc., from the upper stories, while workmen on the upper parts of the building might fall a long way and sustain most serious injuries.

In No Way To Blame.

Mr. J. B. Smallman stated to the court that he did not think that he was in any way to blame as the by-law had not been passed until three months after he had let the contracts for the work.

It seemed to him that it was the contractors' place to look out for that part of it.

Contractor Martyn says he undertook to do the brick work, and has nothing to do with putting in the floors.

Work Suspended.

Magistrate Love said he thought that all these people should have brought before him in order that he might determine the case.

An effort will be made to have the New York firm's representatives here by Monday, and in the meantime the magistrate ordered that all work below the fourth floor be stopped.

A temporary floor will be put in above that, and work will shortly be gone on with there.

Motor Cycle Frightened the Horses

An unusually noisy motor cycle on King street yesterday caused trouble for farmers on the market.

One farmer's horse almost jumped clear of his harness when he first heard the buzzing of the cycle, while a team hitched in front of Darrah's harness store on Talbot street ran their tiestraps and would have run away had not two men standing near by grasped them by the bits.

Naturally, the farmers were, rather wroth over the occurrence.

"If they must have those pesky things," said one of them, "they should put a muzzle on the exhaust, so as to frighten horses out of their wits and cause runaways."

Big Hay Day On the Local Market

"Well, how are things on the market today?" was asked of Market Clerk Maker this morning.

"Oh, they are all right from certain standpoints," said he, pointing to the 50 odd loads of hay that were offered for sale, "but so far as vegetables, etc., are concerned, there is little doing."

Apparently almost every farmer thought that his neighbor was going to bring in potatoes or something other than hay this morning, and decided to take advantage of the fact, with the result that for this time of the year the number of loads on the market was almost unprecedented.

Hay sold from $11.50 to $14, according to quality.

Of course, in the fall there are as high as 60 loads offered for sale some days, but in the spring the farmers are generally too busy plowing and seeding to come to market.

AGED VAGRANT WAS REMANDED

Pitiable Case of an Old Man in Destitute Circumstances.

Henry Harris, the aged vagrant, recently picked up near the asylum, almost helpless from acute rheumatism, appeared before Squire Chittick yesterday afternoon and was remanded for one week.

The case of the old man is a pitiful one, and the county authorities are puzzled to know what to do with him. A sentence would be of no help to Harris, as he would be as helpless when he was again given his freedom as he is at present.

On the other hand, the magistrate has no power to commit him to a charitable institution.

The gem known as the Florentine is now owned by the Emperor of Austria. It formerly belonged to Charles the Bold, Duke of Burgundy, who lost it on the battlefield. Subsequently it came into the possession of Pope Julius II, who presented it to the Emperor of Austria.

Juvenile Firebugs at Work Police After a Bad-Boy Gang

Several Deliberate Attempts To Fire Houses on Talbot Street.

The police are busy on what looks like a case of deliberate incendiarism on the part of what is believed to be a gang of boys. On Saturday afternoon a small boy telephoned the Central Fire Station that there was a fire on Albert street. The brigade responded and found there was nothing doing. It has since been discovered by the police that three separate attempts have been made to set fire to a house on Talbot street just off Albert, owned by Mr. A. Holman. In one of the pantries three piles of burnt paper were found and the windowing was badly scorched. Fortunately there was nothing much to burn in the pantry and the fire burned itself out. In the house next door a similar pile of burnt paper and rags was found, but this had also burned out without doing any damage. The work is plainly that of amateurs, and it is expected that a number of youngsters will find themselves in the juvenile court shortly on a charge of a serious nature.

Railroad Business Good, Says Official

"Our freight business is good," said a Grand Trunk official to The Advertiser this morning.

"At this time of the year things are always quieter than usual, but they are not one bit quieter this season than in any other. Things will improve steadily from now on. The Welland Canal opened yesterday."

"Navigation opens at Point Edward on April 15, and in a few days we will be carrying ore from the great lakes to the smelters in Hamilton."

"That is a big traffic."

"The outlook is for a general improvement in things all along the line. We are not laying any men off as far as I have heard, and I would not think there is any likelihood of laying anyone off now."

"We are taking on more telegraph operators. Some really good men are coming back from the west, now that things are quiet out there, and we are taking them on."

"Passenger traffic for Easter, which will commence in a few days, promises to be as heavy as ever. Immigrant traffic is good, and we are putting on special coaches on many of the through trains in order to accommodate it all. You may say there is plenty doing in railroad circles, and there will be more doing from now on."

Former Londoner Speaks of Frisco

Mr. Archibald Kains, a former Londoner, who has been residing in San Francisco for many years, where he occupied a most responsible position, is in the city on a visit. He was seen by an Advertiser reporter and talked interestingly on the marvelous development of San Francisco.

"The traces of the earthquake are being rapidly obliterated," he said. "Millions of money are being spent every year on the city, and in a few years it will be better built and more handsome than ever. Fully $200,000,000 was spent last year on building, and a sum two or three times that large will yet be spent. To show the faith the people have in that city, the buildings are being built fourteen and fifteen stories in height. Of course, they are all of steel construction, and will last. The earthquake you know did not cause too much damage a few years ago. It was the fire and all the new buildings are fire-proof."

"We issued several millions of dollars in paper money and persuaded the people to take them when they were buying their gold, and I am glad to say that it is all redeemed. There is a most hopeful tone in the country, and everything looks better. The redemption of the clearing house certificates shows that times are better than they had been."

"I am spending a few days in the city with my friends and am enjoying myself. London is improving all the time."

Relaying Rails On Sarnia Branch

Work commenced this morning on the relaying of the westbound main line of the Grand Trunk tracks between London and Sarnia.

The rails have been down a great many years and at times during the winter they have caused a great deal of trouble.

The work will take several months to complete, and will be in charge of Superintendent Stillson, of this city.

Local Items

—The ladies of the Richmond Street Mission will hold a bazaar in the store on Richmond street, next to the post-office, tomorrow and Thursday. Homemade articles and baking will be offered for sale, and lunches served, etc.

—The St. Peter's baseball team yesterday afternoon defeated the Sacred Heart team by a score of 8 to 3, in a well-fought contest, on the C. P. R. diamond. The batteries were: St. Peter's—Bernard B. Clark, M. Catalano, Sacred Heart—Nellis and Burns.

Building Permit.

A building permit was issued to Mr. J. Nicholson, 428 Piccadilly street, for an addition to his house.

Water Carts Out.

The city watering carts were on the streets this morning for the first time this year.

Water Rates.

The water commission officers will be open Thursday, Saturday and Monday evenings for receiving water rates.

Will Improve Offices.

Alterations were commenced this morning on the office of City Tax Collector Hayes. The changes will make a marked improvement and will prevent the crowding that has been so prevalent in the office heretofore.

Mr. Holman Home.

Mr. Arthur Holman is spending a few days at the home of his parents. Mr. Holman is meeting with good success as Zeller in "Quincy Adams Sawyer." The show always rests during Holy Week, it resumes again on Monday at Niagara Falls, N. Y.

Bowling Tonight.

It was stated in last night's Advertiser that West, the local bowler, and Drake, of St. Thomas, were to have met last night on the National alleys in a match of ten games, total pins to count. The contest takes place tonight.

A Musical Event.

The oratorio, "Christ and His Soldiers," to be given in Christ Church on Wednesday evening, promises to be a most interesting musical event. The organist, Mr. Charles Percy, has the choir splendidly trained. A silver collection will be taken up.

Lecture on Missions.

Mrs. Spencer Walton and Miss Ringwood, of the Andrew Murray Mission, South Africa, will give an interesting address on missionary work in Africa at the Christian Workers Church, King street, at 8 o'clock tonight, and at Askin Street Methodist Church Wednesday night, at 8 o'clock.

Special Lenten Services.

The special Lenten services being held in Dundas Central Church are being largely attended and are awakening great interest. Rev. E. B. Lan- celey is conducting the services, assisted by Madam Egbert, of Detroit, and Mr. Harry Ward, cornetist, associated with the large choir. On Good Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock a special service will be held, when Rev. Dr. Ross, of St. Andrew's Church, will preach.

Tarantula Stowaway Killed.

Stratford Beacon: Somebody was probably saved from the notion of a tarantula by the fact that the notion somehow got into the head of the big spider to drop of the drape on which was a large load of bananas. After wandering along the siding for some distance in the direction of the driver, the poisonous insect dropped on the pavement and a thoughtful observer of the incident put his foot down on it and only a grease spot was left. The driver went on unconscious of the incident, and probably does not yet know the danger he was in.

GOOD MAN SECURED FOR UMPIRE STAFF

John Daly to Hold One of the Indicator in the International.

The contract of Mr. John Daly, of Canandaigua, N. Y., as umpire in the International Baseball League has been received by the league officials. Mr. Daly is an umpire with much experience in eastern leagues. His record is an excellent one.

There will be but two umpires in the league, and negotiations are now pending for the second man.

of brass, finished in the antique style. Large swinging doors open onto a spacious veranda on the north.

Between the dining-room and the kitchen is a veranda.

The kitchen immediately adjoining is complete in every respect.

The cupboards and finishings are all of stained white ash, which, in contrast with the spotless white walls, presents a most harmonious and pleasing effect. Immediately adjoining the kitchen is a neat little room, in which the housekeeper may receive callers.

On this floor there is also a large steel vault of fireproof construction, in which will be kept all the marriage and birth records, and valuable papers of all kinds.

Offices and Studies.

Upstairs the prospect is, if anything, even more pleasing. On each side of wide and well-lighted halls are the offices and studies of Father Tobin and Father McKeown. French windows open from each separate window onto a handsome balcony, from which a pleasant view of East London may be obtained.

Immediately behind the offices are the bedrooms, finished simply, yet with the greatest taste.

In each bedroom is a stationary wash-stand, with hot and cold water.

Numerous spare bedrooms, all neatly appointed, complete the middle part of the second story.

The rest of the rooms are devoted to the housekeeper and her assistant.

A Sewing Room.

Below the building is a large and well-lighted basement, laid out to the greatest advantage. The front room, which is the largest, is fitted up for the female branch of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, who meet every Tuesday afternoon and sew for the poor.

Immediately behind are storerooms. Behind these again is a large laundry, fitted with slate sinks and equipped with every possible facility for handling the work.

A chute leads from the various other rooms upstairs, so that all that is needed is to place the soiled clothes in it, and they go to the laundry themselves.

The building is heated throughout by hot water.

It has taken nearly a year to complete the work, owing to the scarcity of brick. From the start, however, Messrs. Sling & Beer did the brick work; Magee & Son the carpenter work; Pace & Son the painting, and the plumbing was done by Noble & Rich.

The workmen will be through this week, and then the work of furnishing will commence. One noticeable feature will be that there will not be a carpet, a blind or a curtain in the whole place.

WANAMAKER'S WILL.

Philadelphia, April 14.—The will of Thomas Wanamaker, who died in Paris several weeks ago, has been admitted to probate. With the exception of a few bequests to household employees, the estate is bequeathed to his widow, Mrs. Lower Walsh Wanamaker, his mother, Mrs. Mary B. Wanamaker, and his two sisters, Mrs. Mary B. Warburton and Mrs. Elizabeth McLeod, and his brother, Rodman.

The statement filed by the executor appraises the value of the personal property as $100,000 and upwards, with no appraisal of the real estate. It is understood that the total value of the estate may reach $200,000.

High-Priced Meats Only.

The local butchers, owing to the general advance in the price of young cattle, will shortly raise the prices on all the higher grades of meat. Some of the butchers have advanced their prices already, and it is understood that the others will follow suit. The raise will only affect the higher-priced meats.

Insurance Case Settled.

Judgment has been rendered for $5,228 in the case of Nellie Harris, of London, England, vs. Empire Accident and Surety Company, of this city. The action was heard in Kingston, and was the result of a dispute over the validity of an insurance claim.

COULDN'T PAY FINE.

Windor, April 13.—J. E. Harrington, convicted by Magistrate Bartlett, of violating the Ontario Medical Act, by selling medicines when not a registered physician, was taken to a registered jail for thirty days in default of a fine of $25 and costs. Harrington defended his own case against the charge brought by Special Detective Rose, of the Ontario Medical Association, who investigated the defendant, at "Herb and Root Remedies," at the instigation of Mrs. S. W. Thorne. The latter alleged that Harrington had refused to refund her money as promised when one of his asthma remedies failed to cure.
