Entente Armies Continue To Make Progress On East Macedonian Front—Sofia Claims Allies Repulsed in Several Sectors.

[Canadian Press.]

London, Oct. 5.—2:10 p.m.—British troops yesterday morning captured the entire town of Yenikeui, a village in Greek Macedonia, which lies two miles to the east of the Struma River, says the British official statement issued today. Scottish and Irish battalions especially distinguished themselves in the fighting for this position, the statement adds, and the Bulgarians are reported to have suffered heavy losses.

[Canadian Press.]

Paris, Oct. 5.—Noon.—The Allied troops on the western end of the Macedonian front continue to press back the Bulgarian forces before Monastir. The war office today announced that further ground had been gained and that the town of Buf, twelve miles south of Monastir, had been occupied.

BULGARIAN REPORT.
[Canadian Press.]

Sofia, Oct. 4.—Via London, Oct. 5.—Bulgarian troops have been successful in halting attempted advances of entente forces in several sectors of the Macedonian front, the war office announced today. The official statement says:

"Macedonian front:

"Between Presba Lake and the Vardar there has been lively artillery and infantry activity. We nipped in the bud enemy attempts to advance north of the line of the villages of Strupino and Rabova. East of the Vardar to Lake Doiran there has been weak gunfire. Our artillery dispersed two enemy companies which had thrown up trenches southeast of the village of Doldeheliz, at the foot of the Belasica Planina.

"On the Struma, bitter fighting has taken place for the villages of Karajakeui, Yenikeui and Kadrich. Enemy infantry which during the morning had succeeded in approaching the burning village of Yenikeui, was attacked and repulsed to its old positions."

DARING CANADIANS MAN GREAT "TANKS" IN SOMME FIGHTING

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Montreal, Oct. 5.—That many of the great "tanks" now playing such a prominent part in the British advance on the Somme River, are manned by Canadians is indicated by letters arriving here stating that Major "Eddie" Holland, who gained the Victoria Cross in South Africa, was in command of one or more of these tanks in recent operations.

Holland left here for the present war in command of the Borden Motor Machine Gun Battery. It is also noted here that Major Knight of Durham, Ont., who left in command of the Eaton Machine Gun Battery, has been killed in action, presumably while directing operations of some of the British "tank" cars. Both these officers are well known throughout Canada as particularly daring men, just the kind that would be sent in charge of such operations as "tanks" called for. In their respective batteries, when they left Canada, were officers, non-commissioned officers and men of the same type, chosen from all the provinces of Canada for their their particular suitability for this class of work.

DUKE NICHOLAS TO LEAD DRIVE INTO BULGARIA

Germany Hears He Will Command in Advance Against Constantinople.

TEUTONS IN TIGHT FIX

Unless Mackensen Can Roll Up Slavs' Right Wing, the Enemy Is Doomed.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, Oct. 5.—A cable to the Herald from London says:

Most alarming of all the news recently published in Germany is the report, received through Stockholm, that Grand Duke Nicholas had left Trebizond for Odessa to proceed to Kieff and thence to go to the Dobrudja to take command of the armies driving south through Bulgaria toward Constantinople.

Huge Russian Army.

Reports from many quarters affirm that these armies have been organized on a very large scale, and the German reading public is being prepared for coming events and the announcement that this campaign for the conquest of Rumania and the rolling up of the Russian left, Field Marshal von Hindenburg and von Mackensen—to whom, it is recalled, is due the fact that the Prussian army is still camping in Russia, that Serbia is in the hands of the central allies, that Bulgaria is carrying out unimpeded military operations on a large scale, and that Turkey has lost none of her confidence—will probably have to manoeuvre extensively on account of the peculiar terrain of the Dobrudja. The vast quadrilateral of the Dobrudja lying between the elbow of the Danube, the Black Sea and the Rumanian-Bulgarian frontier on the south, is an immense sandy plain with marshes on the edge of the river and of the seashore. There is no water apart from salt wells and the country is largely desert, except for pasturages, which grow up after the spring storms, and support the herds of sheep and buffalo on which the sparse population makes its living. This population is of

THE DIARY OF MARS

On the Somme front Paris claims further progress in the vicinity of the Peronne-Bapaume road, the French advance being effected in the vicinity of Morval, to the west of the road. The capture of nine 3½-inch German guns is also reported. London's official statement speaks only of artillery and raiding operations in the Somme region.

On the western end of the Macedonian front the Serbians ar pressing northward towards Monastir, fighting on Serbian soil to the southeast and close to the border further westward. In this region they have reached the town of Buf, twelve miles below Monastir, according to Paris today, while around behind the bend of the Cerna Lipa they are still nearer their objective. The current Bulgarian official statement deals with the situation in the Monastir district only in a general way, but declares the Serbians along the line to the east were foiled in attempts to advance in the Moglenica valley, near Strupino.

According to the Sofia announcement, the invasion of Bulgaria by Rumanian troops who crossed the Danube near Rahovo, in the rear of the main battle line in Dobrudja has ended disastrously for the invaders, their force being scattered.

To combat the Rumanians, who apparently were from 12,000 to 16,000 strong but declared to be without artillery, the Bulgarians sent troops from Rustchuk and Turtukai, on either side of the point of crossing. Caught between two forces, the Rumanians are said to have made for their pontoon bridge, which they found destroyed by Austrian monitors.

Reporting operations along the Dobrudja front south of the Tchernavoda Constanza railway the Sofia official announcement reports the repulse of all the Russian and Rumanian attempts to advance. Bucharest has claimed substantial progress with these attacks near the centre and towards the Black Sea coast and yesterday reported the capture of more than 1,000 prisoners and 7 guns from Field Marshal von Mackensen's forces.

BRAVE PHONE GIRLS STUCK TO BOARDS IN MIDST OF FIRE

Thus Brought Help From the Surrounding Cities To Burning Town.

Mendon, Mich., Oct. 5.—The village of Mendon was virtually destroyed by fire yesterday. The blaze starting in the afternoon swept 39 business buildings and residences, and burned itself out last night. The loss was about $250,000, partly covered by insurance. There were no casualties, but several hundred persons were without homes or extra clothing today. Relief has been sent to Mendon from adjoining cities and towns.

The first started in a meat market and quickly spread to other frame buildings. The volunteer fire department responded, but in hurrying their steamer to the fire it broke away from them and rolled down a bank into the St. Joseph's River. The city was without fire defence until apparatus arrived from Kalamazoo and other cities.

Girl operators in the Mendon Telephone Exchange, remained at their switchboards until they had flashed the news of the fire to the surrounding cities. The telephone building was blazing fiercely when they completed their work. Rescuers helped the young women to safety. Mendon has a population of about 1,000, and is 21 miles from Kalamazoo

Germans Starving Belgians To Make Them Demand Peace

[Canadian Press.]

Berlin, Oct. 5.—Famine is at the doors of Belgium, because of the requisitions of the Germans on the conquered population, according to the Times correspondent at Lausanne.

Meat is practically unobtainable, he says, and butter very scarce. Potatoes have not been seen for some time, and prices are becoming impossible. Coffee is $1.80 a pound, chocolate $2.40; cocoa, $3 and sugar 72c. The almost total disappearance of sea fish, and the excessive cost of meat have made mussels a popular food.

The object of the Germans in starving the Belgians is without doubt to induce them to demand peace, the correspondent says.

SUB ARMADA SENT TO CHANNEL QUICKLY SCATTERED BY BRITISH

Albion's Navy Removes Menace To Shipping, Passenger Traffic Being Closed For Few Days Only.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, Oct. 5.—The New York World this morning publishes the following special cable from London, dated October 3:

Although the fact is not generally known in England, not having been mentioned by any of the newspapers, the Germans last week sent all available submarines to the English Channel.

The object was, of course, to close the channel for once, in accordance with Germans boasts.

The British navy was quick to deal with this new menace, although the channel may have been closed to passenger traffic for a few days.

British Are Ready.

The Germans since have learned they cannot send submarines into English waters with any more impunity than they send zeppelins to London. The Bremen is not the only submarine whose whereabouts is causing anxiety in Berlin.

This is regarded, however, in naval circles as only one symptom of an intention on the part of Germany to resume her submarine campaign on a serious scale. It is openly asserted by shipping men that Germany's intention in this is as much to reduce her disadvantage in mercantile tonnage, after the war, as to inflict direct injury on Great Britain in the war.

Because of this belief, shipping men are declaring that Great Britain's only recourse is to anounce a ton-for-ton indemnity clause as one of her stipulations in the peace treaty, unless Germany desists.

STUDENTS BLAMED FOR MONTREAL ROW BY POLICE CHIEF

Archbishop Says They Acted Like Lot of Boches.

POLICE CAPTAIN RESIGNS

Declares He Did His Duty by Placing Rioters Under Arrest.

[Canadian Press.]

Montreal, Oct. 5.—The Fifth Pioneers, whose recruiting posters were torn down by Laval students yesterday, have sworn out warrants against two of the young men, Alfred Grenier and Emile Tasse, who were arrested by the police yesterday.

The warrants charge the students with "wilfully causing damage to signs and banners belonging to the Fifth Pioneer Battalion.

Responsibility was placed upon the students by Chief of Police Campeau this morning. In reply to the argument made on behalf of the students that the police followed their parade to St. James' Cathedral and provoked them, the chief issued a denial and says the first he knew of the matter was when three young men were arrested for tearing up recruiting paraphernalia.

Acted Like Boches.

Mayor Martin this morning had a conference with Mgr. Gauthier about the fight in St. James' Cathedral. The bishop was quoted as saying the students acted like a lot of boches.

Friends of the students claim the tearing down of the recruiting posters was not intentionally disloyal, but only a part of a piece of frolicking.

Several hundred students packed the recorders' court this morning to listen to the police cases of the four young men detained for damaging property. The defendants pleaded not guilty and the hearing was adjourned until October 12. The students sang songs on their way to the court, but were well behaved.

Capt. Dyce, who had charge of the police squad which arrested the students on Phillips square, tendered his resignation today. He said he had done his duty.

ZEPPELIN IN TROUBLE OFF SCHLESWEG COAST

Esbjerg, Denmark, Oct. 4—Via London, Oct. 4—7:50 p.m.—(Delayed).—Fishermen who arrived here today reported that at noon on Monday they sighted a partly-submerged zeppelin 35 miles northwest of the Island of Sylt, in the North Sea, off the coast of Schlesweg. Several German destroyers and two large vessels were surrounding the zeppelin, the fishermen said, in an attempt to keep her afloat.

The Great Robbery!

Two khaki-coated lads were "shooting" pool
Within a club room built to give them play,
Where they could sit and chat, or smoke or "fool"
When chance or orders gave them holiday.
They felt at home; this club was their's,
To take their ease. No iron obedience kept
Their eyes to front; they banished cares.
As they strolled out the place, a notion leapt,
Into the brain of one whose quick eye saw
A box of fragrant smokes on table kept.
"Let's take a couple, Bill?" he said in glee,
And Bill, a lad who never took a dare,
Grabbed at a pair; the other youth took three.

"Call the police! These thieves are in our hands!"
Was shouted as someone behind the door
"Spotted" the lads, cigars and pretty bands!
The loud alarum becomes an awful roar!
Blue coats and khaki flock within the room!
The "criminals" are placed behind the bars!
Their captors tremble! Locks and crack o' doom!
The desperate pair has taken five cigars!
Send them to jail! They wear a noble look
That stamps them just as good as other folks!
But horrors! Chills and fever! Get the hook!
How dare they take the S. P. A.'s good smokes?

For shame! For shame! That when men give their lives
To uses brave, no matter what their pranks,
That they are straightway dragged to jail
Or given some hard "spanks."

Statement That Austrian Monitors Had Destroyed Bridges Behind Rumanians Denied—Germans and Bulgarians Suffering Enormous Losses.

[Canadian Press.]

London, Oct. 5.—A dispatch from Bucharest by way of Rome, as given out by the Wireless Press today, denies the statement of the German and Bulgarian war offices that Austrian monitors have destroyed the bridge across the Danube south of Bucharest, over which the Rumanians passed to invade Bulgaria. It is said the passage of troops, munitions and stores continues.

The dispatch also says the battle in Dubrudja is increasing in violence, and that the Germans and Bulgarians are suffering enormous losses.

BULGARS CLAIM VICTORY.
[Canadian Press.]

Sofia, Wednesday, Oct. 4, via London, Oct. 5, 10:30 a.m.—Bulgarian troops from the fortresses of Rustchuk and Turtukai attacked and defeated the Rumanian force of some sixteen battalions which recently crossed the Danube into Bulgarian territory near Rahovo, the war office announced today.

On the main battle line in Dubrudja attempts by the Russians and Rumanians to advance have been frustrated by the artillery and by successful counter-attacks. The statement follows:

"Rumanian front: On the Danube front Rumanian battalions without artillery which crossed the Danube advanced and occupied the villages of Siwopol, Kajamhie, Boroissawo, Maolowranowo, Golemowrajowo and Bresceslien. In order to repulse them we sent two columns from Rustchuk and Turtukai.

"In Dobrudja there has been great activity by the enemy artillery and infantry along the entire front. All attempts by the enemy infantry to advance were frustrated by our fire and by successful counter-attacks.

"A Russian war vessel off the Black Sea coast shelled the heights near the village of Tatladchokos.

"Our seaplanes attacked with great success a seaplane shed on Lake Tachaul, north of Constanza."

Admits That Contractor Carter Contributed $15,000 to Party.

DID NOT KEEP BOOKS

Crown Prosecutor Says Million and Half of People's Money Gone.

[Canadian Press.]

Winnipeg, Oct. 5.—Dr. R. M. Simpson, lieutenant-colonel, was called as a witness this morning before the Galt agricultural commission. Dr. Simpson said that in 1911 he was president of the Conservative Association. He didn't recall the election in Gimli in May, 1913, he told Hugh Phillips, Government counsel, who examined him. The probability was that he collected funds for election purposes in that year.

Dr. Simpson said he took no active part in the Kildonan election in November, 1913, when Dr. Montague was elected.

"Did you collect any funds?" he was asked.

"Not especially for that election."

"Did you collect funds generally?"

"I may have collected funds for the party as treasurer."

Forget Dates.

He didn't know the date when he became treasurer. He was still treasurer. He said he "collected funds from different friends." He thought he was treasurer during the two by-elections mentioned. He kept no books, and said he could give no idea of the amount he had collected.

"Would it be many thousand dollars—one hundred thousand dollars?" Mr. Phillips asked.

"I don't know," was the reply.

George A. Elliott, appearing as counsel for Dr. Simpson, objected that this line of examinaton was not pertinent. Commissioner Galt ruled against the objection.

Mr. Elliot asked that questions be restricted to any contributions received

BRUSILOFF'S ARMIES CLOSING ON JUNCTION COMMANDING THE RAILWAY TO LEMBERG

[Canadian Press.]

London, Oct. 5.—A dispatch to the Daily Chronicle from Petrograd, October 2, says:

Brusiloff's armies are moving again. From Brody, the frontier station on the way to Lemberg, the railway creeps through a low-lying, rather swampy plain dotted with patches of wood, with here and there a grey village clustered round the squat grey cupola of a church. For weeks past the Russian front has lain perpendicular to this railway, and while progress has been made to the north and south, there has been little advance along the railway itself, which is the most direct route to Lemberg. Now, after several days' hard fighting, Gen. Sakharoff's army has succeeded in bending back the Teuton line, and is advancing along the railway, and to the south of it. Krasne, which is its immediate objective, is the one considerable station between Brody and Lemberg, and is the junction of a branch line leading southeast to Tarnapol. Beyond Krasne the plain breaks into low hills, which further west form the watershed between the basins of the Bug and Dneister, and shelter and defend Lemberg, only 22 miles from Krasne.

Progress is Slow.

To Lemberg is merely a trifle by express train, but for an army whose movements are bound up with the strategy of a 250-mile front, and with still broader plans and calculations, distances cannot be measured in terms of express trains, and for the present one must be content with the fact that Sakharoff's centre and left, in conjunction with Scherbatchoff's right, are again advancing; that Sakharoff in the Brody-Krasne direction has taken over 2,000 German prisoners, for the enemy force here is exclusively German, and that south of Brzezany, in the direction of Rogatin, Scherbatchoff has taken nearly 2,400 prisoners belonging to a mixed force, composed of Germans, Turks and Austrians.

Whether or not the advance continues and develops into a bigger operation, as it probably will, it is certain to have on immediate useful effect, and that is to prevent reinforcements being sent to Transylvania.

A CINCINNATI TRAGEDY

Prominent Brewer Shot by Lady Who Commits Suicide.

[Canadian Press.]

Cincinnati, Oct. 5.—Alphonso Wetterer, 49 years old, vice-president and secretary of the Wetterer Brewing Company of this city, who, it is believed, was shot by Helen Houck, 30 years old, at the latter's house on Walnut Hill last night, died at the city general hospital early today. Miss Houck was found dead with a bullet hole through her right temple, in the same room where Wetterer was found with two bullet wounds in the head.

No one witnessed the shooting, but Miss Houck left a note which the police and the coroner said indicated that she shot Wetterer and then herself. The note stated that she had been keeping company with Wetterer for several months, and charged that he had wronged her.

SEVERE RHEUMATIC PAINS DISAPPEAR

Rheumatism depends on an acid which flows in the blood, affecting the muscles and joints, producing inflammation, stiffness and pain. This acid gets into the blood through some defects in the digestive processes, and remains there because the liver, kidneys and skin are too torpid to carry it off.

Hood's Sarsaparilla, the old-time blood tonic, is very successful in the treatment of rheumatism. It acts directly, with purifying effect, on the blood, and through the blood on the liver, kidneys and skin, which it stimulates, and at the same time it improves the digestion.

TWO LONDON MEN RETURNING HOME

Capt. Scandrett Will Resume Military Duties Here.

The latest list of men returning from England to Canada on sick furlough or for other reasons, contains the names of two Londoners.

One name is given as W. A. Lyons. This is thought to be Lieut. R. A. Lyons of this city, although his people have received no confirming cable. He was attached to the 16th Battalion going overseas at the beginning of the war. He was wounded August 7th, after 18 months' service. He has been expecting a sick furlough for some time, but has written no letters home for several weeks.

The other Londoner is Capt. J. H. Scandrett, who is to resume his duties in Canada. L. H. Scandrett, his father, has received a cable confirming his departure from England, but giving no further information. Capt. Scandrett left Canada with the 6th Field Battery as a lieutenant. In France he won the military cross. He was injured while serving as an artillery observer in the Royal Flying Corps, and returned home, and on his recovery was attached as an instructor to the 12th Artillery Brigade at Petawawa. He sailed for England four weeks ago.

CARPENTERS URGENTLY NEEDED BY ENGINEERS

Recruits Wanted by Special Service Company—Good Pay.

Carpenters are still urgently wanted by the Engineers' Special Service Company. A great deal of work has to be done in connection with preparing the buildings at Queen's Park for occupancy by the troops, and it is said that 25 men are needed at once.

The summer establishment of the Engineers was 75 men, but an order was issued authorizing the increase of the strength to 100 men, and it is to obtain these that the Engineers have instituted a recruiting campaign. Very few men have responded in spite of the extra pay which it is possible to earn. The usual $1.10 per day is paid, with a separation allowance in the case of married men amounting to 45 cents a day, and the chance of earning an additional 40 cents a day, which is given to those qualified in their work.

Recruits are being accepted at the headquarters of the corps at Carling Camp, and at any regular recruiting office.

HERE AND THERE ABOUT THE CAMPS

FAREWELL TO BOYS IN KHAKI.

As is perhaps well known every battalion leaving this district for overseas has had among its members quite a number of Salvationists. The Citadel Corps on Clarence street alone has of its members and adherents over thirty in khaki. Of these, quite a number, including the bandmaster, are in the 142nd. A farewell gathering is being held in the citadel tonight to say goodbye to these men. The meeting will be presided over by Brigadier Rawling, who has a son an officer in this battalion. A roll of honor will be unveiled by the battalion commander, Lieut.-Col. C. M. R. Graham. A hearty invitation is extended to all to attend the meeting.

GREEK GOVERNMENT SUSPENDS PAYMENT

[Canadian Press.]

London, Oct. 5.—1:15 p.m.—According to a wireless dispatch from Rome today the Greek Government has suspended payments because of a shortage of money.

GARRISON TO PARADE

All Troops Will March to Church on Sunday.

All troops in the garrison will march to the First Methodist Church for a combined service on Sunday morning next. The service, which will be conducted by Rev. Dr. Flanders, will be held at 9:45 a.m.

No details of the order or route of march have been decided on, but all units and corps will be out in full strength. The 153rd and 160th Battalions, the Engineers, A. S. C. A., and A. M. C. will be in line, in all about 1,800 men.

149TH ON WAY HOME

Goes to Sarnia From Camp Borden—Returns Tuesday.

The 149th Battalion, en route from Camp Borden to Sarnia, passed through the city by special Grand Trunk train at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. The special, consisting of fourteen coaches and a baggage car, left Camp Borden at 7 o'clock this morning, and made a fast run to the city.

The return trip will be made on Tuesday morning next, the battalion to entrain at Sarnia at 11 o'clock and the train scheduled to depart from there at 11:30 o'clock. A stop of a few minutes will be made here on Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

COMPLAINTS UP

West London Objections to Breakwater Coming Before Controllers.

The board of control on Friday afternoon will probably deal with the complaints of West London citizens relative to the foot path along the breakwater. From information received it seems likely that sufficient room will be given to pedestrians to walk along the breakwater. This would satisfy the residents of that district.

FOUR BATTALIONS WILL NOT RETURN TO THIS DISTRICT

Definite Word of the 110th, 142nd, 161st and 168th.

OTHER MOVES UNCERTAIN

London Likely To Have at Least Two Battalions For Winter.

Definite word was received yesterday at militia headquarters announcing that the 110th, 142nd, 161st and 168th Battalions would not return to No. 1 Military District for the winter. This is the first authorative word that has been received locally in connection with the location of troops.

It is assumed that all other units including the 63rd and 64th Batteries, the 118th, 149th, 153rd and 186th Battalions will return to their district for the winter. In addition the 241st is already here.

Some To Be Disappointed.

Various municipalities were bending every effort to the securing of at least some troops for the winter, but nothing definite has been decided. London has been practically promised at least two battalions and it is practically assured that the batteries will go to Guelph. This leaves only three battalions for the half-score or more of towns which want men.

Must Offer Inducements.

Col. L. W. Shannon is working on the problem and it is known that only those places which offer the very best facilities for the training and accomodation of the men will secure them.

Rumors have been current for some time that the 149th Battalion would also be included among those to be sent overseas at an early date. If the Lambton unit is sent, the demands of the municipalities will be still harder to satisfy.

INFANTRY OFFICERS BECOME FLYING CORPS MEMBERS

Leave Tonight for East and Eventually England.

Three unattached infantry officers have been accepted into the Royal Flying Corps and will leave London this evening for Ottawa to report to Capt. Lord Innes-Ker. They will probably be sent to England at an early date.

Lieut. A. Elvatt of Thedford, Lieut. J. A. Hutchinson, Fordwich and Lieut. N. R. Anderson of Wharncliffe road, city, are the three officers. On their arrival in England they will be trained in one of the regular army training depots, and will be under no personal expense in the meantime. Other officers have applied for admission to the Flying Corps, and will be examined and if accepted will also be sent to England.

NO PROPER SYSTEM OF STREET CLEANING

So Says Controller Moore, But He Believes in New Flusher.

Controller John M. Moore, who reported favorably on the street flusher now in use on the streets, states that the machine will do good service, and will do all the work it was intended to do, when a proper system is employed.

"The Advertiser is perfectly correct in saying that it will not remove some of the refuse," said Controller Moore. "I am positive of that. It takes a deal of scraping to get some of the stuff off the roads. What should be done is to have men follow the flusher up, and clean the streets, with the wagon close behind. In that way we will have perfectly clean streets and at a much lower cost than ever before. There is no system now, and the criticisms are well taken. We hope to have some improvement shortly, and then I think there will be no reasons for complaining. I am convinced that we will get good work, when the machine is properly handled, and a proper system of street cleaning adopted. At present we have neither."

NO RECENT CASES OF INFANTILE PARALYSIS

Medical Officer Does Not Expect Any Further Outbreak Here.

Notwithstanding reports from other Canadian cities to the effect that the infantile paralysis epidemic is raging unchecked, the situation here has remained unchanged for weeks.

The latest case reported was September 19 and not even a suspected case has been brought to the notice of the medical officer of health since that date.

Dr. H. W. Hill does not anticipate any further outbreak but urges that citizens continue to use vigilance and watch for the slightest symptoms. The disease has been studied by the world's greatest scientists but they are unable to determine its causes and when it is most apt to appear.

It has been generally conceded to be a hot weather disease and flourishes to a greater extent in the summer than in the winter but medical records show, according to Dr. Hill, that Sweden has suffered from poliomyelitis epidemics in the winter with a temperature below zero. Under these circumstances, Dr. Hill stated that he could not predict anything regarding the disease but believed that the worst was past.

ARBITRATORS EXPECTED TO BE NAMED TODAY

Utilities Commission Will Advance Macgregor Wells Purchase Scheme.

The utilities commission will meet this afternoon and will once more discuss the Macgregor wells. The board of control has notified the commission that the purchase is a matter for the commission to deal with, and there will be a motion introduced to have the commission appoint the necessary arbitrators and deal with the problem properly.

The question of building the hydro office building will be presented. Tenders will probably be called for.

Other questions will engage the attention of the commissioners.

NO SERVICE IN RUTHVEN.

RUTHVEN, Oct. 4.—There will be no service in the Methodist Church here next Sunday. The pastor, Rev. C. L. Couzens, will attend other appointments.

Y. M. C. A. DECLINING TO PROVIDE SLACKERS' CLUB

Will Devote Energies to Soldiers and Boys.

The Y.M.C.A. will start a campaign next week, to raise funds for the association. With the increase in responsibilities of the association, the need of more funds is apparent.

"We have only two classes to look after," said an official. "The boys and the soldiers. The boys are too young for military service, and we will have nothing to do with any others except the boys in khaki. We are not going to furnish a $20-a-year-club to these young men who don't enlist for $5 a year. Last year we gave baths and accomodation to 52,000 soldiers, an average of over 1,000 a day. We will provide smoking rooms for the soldiers and look after them in every possible way.

"What is more valuable than a boy? We must look after them. The Y.M.C.A. is the best institution in the land for looking after them, and I feel that the citizens will do well by them."

Although few men have received invitations, one traveling man sent in a check for $50. Save the boys, and the nation will take care of itself, is the slogan, and there will be a hearty response to the appeals.

TRAGIC ENDING TO FISHING PARTY IN RIVER THAMES

James Brandon Drowns and Companion Narrowly Escapes.

TRY TO CHANGE SEATS

Boat Capsizes in Middle of River, Almost on Spot of Victoria Disaster.

The River Thames added another to its long list of victims last night when James Brandon of 320 Dundas street, was drowned, and A. J. Clark of 314½ Dundas street, narrowly escaped death when the rowboat in which they were fishing capsized as the result of an accident.

The scene of the drowning is about 25 feet this side of the scene of the Victoria disaster.

Clark's Story.

According to the story of Clark, who is manager of the Little Big Bargain Store, he and Brandon left the foot of Dundas street in a rowboat about 8 o'clock last evening.

Proceeding down the river at a slow rate of speed, Brandon was doing the rowing, while Clark in the rear of the boat was steering, and at the same time trolling for fish.

Victim Heavily Clothed.

Brandon was attired in a heavy sweater coat and outer coat and when nearing a point nearly opposite the Victoria disaster monument he suggested to Clark that they change places. Clark agreed to the change and Brandon arose from his place and started for the back of the boat. Clark was just at the point of arising from his seat when the boat suddenly capsized, and both were thrown in opposite directions into the water.

Clark Collapses on Bank.

Being nearly in the centre of the river Clark, burdened as he was with clothing, made a desperate effort to reach shore.

He managed to just reach shore and then collapsed and believes that he was unconscious for some minutes.

His first thoughts were of Brandon and he called several times for him, failing to receive any response to his calls. Managing to get to the nearest farm house he had the police and fire departments summoned.

Firemen Drag for Body.

On arrival of Chief Aitken and four men with the dragging apparatus at the river Clark pointed out the scene of the accident to the firemen, who at once commenced dragging operations for the body. Clark was rushed into the city in an automobile and was attended by Dr. H. A. Stevenson.

Clark in relating his story stated that he had never been able to swim over ten feet before and how he managed to swim from the centre of the river he could not explain unless he made a superhuman effort, knowing it was a case of life and death.

Wife Begged Brandon Not to Go.

The fishing party was arranged early in the day, and Brandon went against the strong protests of his wife, who stated that she feared that the trip might result disastrously.

Brandon was 45 years old, and was employed at McClary's as a boiler tester. He also worked as spare motorman for the street railway.

He is survived by a wife and two small children.

Dragging Continuing.

The body of Brandon had not been recovered at 2:30 this afternoon.

The dragging operations in the river have been greatly retarded owing to the presence of quantities of wire, stumps and other refuse which has accumulated there for years.

The firemen will continue their operations until successful in recovering the body.

Clark is confined to his bed today as a result of his experience, and Mrs. Brandon is under the care of Dr. Homer Black as a result of shock.

MOTHER WHO DESERTED BABY IS GIVEN CHANCE

Sentence Suspended on Dorothy Sutchlick, Who Has Obtained Position.

Magistrate Judd suspended sentence today in the case of Dorothy Sutchlick, who pleaded guilty two weeks ago to abandonment of her two-months-old babe on a Grand Trunk train.

The babe has been placed in a good home temporarily, and Miss Sutchlick, who secured employment at the home of a well-known citizen following her arrest, will continue at the same place and pay for her baby's board until such time as she can manage to take it herself.

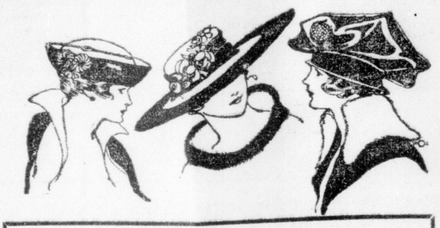

The abandonment of the baby was preceded by a pitiful struggle on the part of the young woman to care for herself and child, and only in a moment of desperation, when she could see no other outlet, did she leave the child, hoping it would fall into hands that could give it better care than she was capable of doing.

Her efforts to care for the child and look after it since placed in its new home proves that the young woman took the action she did contrary to motherly instinct and left it because she believed it best.

She appears greatly improved in health, and hopes to be able to take her babe and care for it herself in a short time.

DR. SIMPSON

from any person connected with the college.

Surely I am entitled to ask the total amount of the fund, especially since contributions were made in such a round about way."

Dr. Simpson said again he had not the faintest idea what he had in the box.

"So it might have been a very large sum?" asked counsel.

Commissioner Galt suggested a fifty thousand dollars.

"I don't suppose I had that amount, yet I couldn't positively say. I feel quite positive I hadn't that much, but wouldn't swear it," said Simpson.

Nothing From Kelly.

Dr. Simpson said he received no contributions directly or indirectly from Thomas Kelly or any member of the Kelly firm. "I am now speaking of the agricultural buildings, remember," he added.

Phillips mentioned several firms who had contracts on the agricultural college. From none of them, said witness, had he received contributions.

Mr. Elliott examined Dr. Simpson briefly when Government counsel concluded.

"Did you," he asked, "have any conversation with Hon. Robert Rogers in regard to these contributions by Carter to the campaign fund?"

"No, neither directly nor indirectly."

"Had he any knowledge of the receipt of these moneys?"

"He certainly had not."

"Had he any knowledge of these contributions at any time?"

"None."

"Did Mr. Rogers ever receive directly or indirectly ane dollar of this money?"

"Never."

Millions Vanished.

"It appears," said Phillips, "that approximately a million or a million and a half of the people's money has disappeared in the Agricultural College, and I propose to find where it has gone."

Mr. Phillips said he intended to restrict his questions.

Dr. Simpson said some money was given him by W. H. Carter, contractor of the Agricultural College. He couldn't swear to the exact amount, but he had reason to doubt Carter's statement that $15,000 had been paid.

"That," he said, "was the full amount of money received by me, or money I knew to have been received from any contractor in connection with the Agricultural College." He said he knew of no contribution by Thomas Kelly & Sons. Witness said he kept these funds in a box in the Royal Trust Company's vaults not separated from other funds. He received cash from Carter. He kept no record of the funds which he kept in the strong box. "I kept no books," he said. He had not the faintest idea of how much money he had in the box aside from Carter's fifteen thousand, but it was not four hundred or five hundred thousand. After further objection by Simpson's counsel the commissioner refused permission for the examination into any contribution other than concerning the Agricultural College.

Carter's Check.

Mr. Phillips declared the money from the Agricultural College might have gone to Dr. Simpson indirectly and without any knowledge by him as to its source. He produced a check from Carter dated July 9, 1913, for $5,000, made out to the purchasing agent of the Carter firm, indorsed by him and cashed. Dr. Simpson said Carter gave him this money voluntarily and without request from him. Simpson said he received $15,000 in all from Carter and put it in the strong box.

"Were you sole custodian of the fund?" asked counsel.

"I was," said witness.

"What was the total fund in the box?"

Simpson's counsel objected. "I have now shown," said Mr. Phillips, "a fund in which it is admitted there are subscriptions received from the Government contractors.

IT'S A GRAVE MISTAKE

to fill your system with drugged pills or syrups to overcome a cold or cough when Scott's Emulsion will root out the cold and overcome the weakness.

IN POLICE COURT

HE BLAMES "SNOOZER."

One vag and one drunk comprised the line-up at police court this morning.

Thomas Dean pleaded guilty to having a "jag" and in explanation stated that he had met a friend on the street with a bottle and the friend playing the good Samaritan gave Thomas a large brown bottle from which he drank long and deep.

He stated that the friend was "Snoozer" Clegg, and the magistrate ordered that a summons be issued for his appearance in court tomorrow. Dean in the meantime was allowed to go and will appear again tomorrow.

VAGRANT REMANDED.

Percy W. Huber, giving his address as Gregory, Man., stated that he had came to the city with the intention of enlisting and had been turned down as medically unfit.

Major Osborne stated that he had been found in company with several soldiers at the C. P. R. station, and after making inquiries he decided to turn Huber over to the city police.

Huber was remanded until Saturday when he will be allowed to go to relatives in Galt.

NO MALT EXTRACTS TO BE SOLD EXCEPT UNDER PRESCRIPTION

Local Druggists Warned by Provincial Inspector.

INVALID PORT DOUBTFUL

Only One of Brands in Stock Said To Conform To Act.

The local druggists are in a dilemma as to what course to pursue relative to the sale of invalid port wines and other similar preparations recommended as tonics. Provincial Inspector D. Dager sent out by the Ontario License Commission, was in the city yesterday calling on several of the druggists.

As a result of his visit and suggestions all "malt extracts" will be sold in the future only on a doctor's prescription.

He further informed the druggists that they were in the majority of cases carrying only one "invalid port wine" that wouud conform to the conditions of the Ontario temperance act. The other "invalid wines," and malt extracts, it is understood, were all found under governmental analysis to show too high a percentage of alcohol and not sufficient medication. Under these conditions the druggists do not know what to do, and are going to ask the provincial department for further information at once as to what course to take regarding future sales of questionable tonics.

"Under the act it looks as if we can be caught and fined if the analysis of the wines show too high an alcoholic percentage, and our cases will be similar to the grocers fined in court for selling adulterated syrup without knowledge of the adulteration," said a druggist today in commenting on the situation.

DISTRICT MUSIC TEACHERS MEETING IN LONDON

Will Hold Third Annual Convention on Thanksgiving Day.

A convention of music teachers of Western Ontario will be held on Thanksgiving Day at the London Conservatory of Music, opening at 11 o'clock in the morning.

Though this is the third year, such a gathering has assembled, definite organization has not been effected up to the present.

Following an opening address by Principal W. Linforth Willgoose of the London Conservatory of Music on various phases of the music teaching profession, half an hour will be devoted to the business of organizing and the election of officers.

From 2 o'clock until 3, a conference will take place on the difficulties experienced by music teachers.

Three addresses will be included in the afternoon's program, one by Rev. R. W. Norwood on "The Relation of Music to Kindred Arts"; an address on "Musical Handling of Children" by Miss Cleta Ford; and an address by James Alderson on "The Influence of the Teacher." Afternoon tea will be served at 4:30 o'clock.

A recital has been arranged for the evening to be given by Miss Florence Dewey, violiniste; Miss Newbury, reader; James Alderson, tenor; Thomas G. Mitcheltree, pianist. Mr. Mitcheltree will play some of his own compositions.

An important object of this annual convention is to raise the standard of the ideals of the music teaching profession in Western Ontario, and thus, in the most practical way possible, promote the interests of musical art in this end of the province.

MISSIONARY ADDRESS

Rev. Dr. Goforth and Mrs. Goforth have had a prominent part in the revival of some years past in China and, though representing the Canadian Presbyterian Church there, have been closely associated with workers and organizations of various other denominations.

While in the city, Mrs. Goforth will be the guest of Mrs. Charles E. Leonard.

"U" FIELD DAY

October 20 Selected for Annual Western Sports.

An indication that the Western University in its various departments is getting well into march step for the year lies in the fact that arrangements are being made for the events which are as much a part of the life of the university even as the lectures and examinations.

October 20 has been fixed as the date the annual field day, though no definite arrangements have yet been made in regard to the place where the sports will be held.

ENTITLED TO DECORATION

Late Lieut. Zeigler Would Have Won It, Writes Lieut. Carling.

In a letter to his father, John Carling of this city, Lieut. Cecil Carling describes the engagement in which Lieut. Eric Ziegler, son of Dr. C. H. Ziegler, was killed. He stated that the young Londoner showed great bravery in the face of danger, and in the opinion of his brother officers would have won a military decoration had he lived.

Lieut. Carling is attached to the 5th Brigade Motor Trench Battery, and although he has been through some of the hottest engagements on the Somme front, he has escaped unscathed. His brother, Lieut. Wilfrid Carling, is in charge of the scouts and snipers of the 20th (N. B.) Battalion, and has been mentioned twice in official dispatches.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mr. John H. Mitchell and family, 150 Wharncliffe road, hereby express to their many friends their sincere appreciation of the sympathy and kindness and the many floral tributes, extended to them in their recent bereavement.

AND STILL THE SPEEDERS CONTINUE TO SEND FINES

Two More Add Their Mites to County Court—More to Come.

Twenty-four motorists, residents of different parts of the province, who violated the speed limit on the country roads during fair week, have paid their fines into the county court.

High Constable B. F. Watterworth received remittances by mail from two more today, but two more remaining yet unpaid.

TWO MORE LONDON MEN KILLED; TWO DIED FROM WOUNDS

Today's Lists Add Four To the City's Roll of Honor.

LIEUT. RAYMOND ON LIST

Young Officer of 70th Was Wounded Twice, According to Official Message.

Another former London boy who enlisted in the Canadian Mounted Rifles in the West has been added to the city's roll of honor. An official message to Mrs. W. Phillips of 26 Wellington road today announced the death from wounds of her brother, Trooper Irvine Harper, 115029.

It is ten years since Trooper Harper lived in London. He is reported to have died of wounds in the 49th Casualty Clearing Station on September 25 from gunshot wounds in the head and leg.

Two more Londoners were added to the list of London dead this afternoon when official messages from Ottawa recorded the death in action of Pte. Donald Cook, late of the 33rd Battalion, and Pte. James William Piper, late of the 70th.

Mrs. Cook, of 172 Richmond street, was officially notified that Pte. Donald Cook, 401150, had been killed on September 19 and James Piper of 564 York street was informed of the death of Pte. Piper. The later was reported killed on September 22.

Another Dies of Wounds.

Pte. John Henry Drake, 401692, is another London soldier who is reported died of wounds. A message to Abraham Drake of 59 Langarth street this afternoon contains the information that he died of wounds in No. 3 Casualty Clearing Station on September 23.

Lieut. Ernest Raymond, son of F. W. Raymond of 40 Ridout street, is reported wounded in the 2 a.m. casualty list that came through today. Lieut. Raymond went overseas with the 70th Battalion.

The official message from the department at Ottawa was received on Monday last, and announced that he had been wounded on the 24th and the 26th. The following day a cablegram from the wounded officer announced that he was "feeling fine." He said he had been wounded in the back and left arm.

Miss Viola L. Grafton, 154 Wharncliffe road, was notified that Pte. Daniel McGinnis, a former member of the 33rd who has been previously reported as dangerously ill, is recovering. The official message says that he has been struck off the list of those dangerously ill. The sick soldier is at No. 22 General Hospital, Camieries.

EXPRESS ON THE "PENN" CRASHES INTO FREIGHT

Company Reports Several Passengers Severely Shaken Up.

[Canadian Press.]

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 5.—Pittsburg and Philadelphia express train No. 6, on the Pennsylvania Railroad, crashed into a freight train near Lewistown Junction early today. Officials of the railway refuse to confirm reports that a number of persons have been killed and injured, although admitting there were casualties.

Philadelphia, Oct. 5.—A report to the Pennsylvania Railroad offices here said that no persons were seriously hurt in the Lewistown wreck, but that some of them were severely shaken up.

The stock train had orders to move to a siding, and was crossing over the switches when the express train struck it. The accident occurred in a thick fog. A special committee of railroad officials has been appointed to investigate the accident.

Among the injured passengers are: Samuel Schwartz, New York; David Boardwin, New York; Benjamin F. Hoskins, Cleveland, Ohio; and Ernest Tiedtke, Toledo, Ohio. Eight mail clerks, all residents of Eastern Pennsylvania, were also injured.

St. Thomas Soldier Assumes Command When Officers Fall

FIRE APPARATUS IS ONCE MORE TRAPPED ON LEVEL CROSSING

No. 5 Company Truck Escapes Collision by Narrow Margin.

QUICK WORK SAVED IT

Captain and Driver Pulled Horses Up—Say Watchman Made No Signal.

Quick action on the part of Fire Captain Charles L. Ferguson and Driver Edwards of No. 5 Fire Company, No. 5 Fire Station, Adelaide street, prevented another fatal level crossing accident being recorded against the Grand Trunk Railway. The No. 5 Company truck was trapped on the Adelaide street crossing of the Grand Trunk on Wednesday, and only the almost superhuman efforts of the captain and driver saved the company, horses and truck being struck by a westbound Grand Trunk express. As it was, the fire team was pulled up a few feet south of the tracks on which the heavy express rushed by.

Say Watchman Made No Signal.

According to the report made to fire headquarters by Capt. Ferguson, the Grand Trunk crossing watchman made no effort to stop the fire apparatus and watched it pass him on to the railway right-of-way and rails.

The southeast fire company was responding to a downtown alarm and was going north on Adelaide street. The watchman was standing outside his shanty, says Capt. Ferguson, but made no motion with his warning flag to stop the fast approaching team. Seeing the watchman made no motion the fire captain naturally presumed that the crossing was clear, and it was not until the truck was on the rails that he noticed the heavy express approaching from the east.

Pulled Horses on Hunches.

One glimpse of the train was sufficient. The captain was riding on the truck seat with Driver Edwards and he seized one of the reins at the same time jamming down the powerful brakes. With one fireman on each line the heavy team was brought up on its haunches, and the apparatus stopped within a wagon length. There was just room for the train to whirl past.

Grand Trunk level crossings having within the past three years wrecked two heavy motor trucks of the London fire department, have caused the death of Fire Captain John Case and injury to half a score of members of the department. That Wednesday did not see another heavy monetary loss and loss of life and injury as well is considered a miracle by those who know the facts surrounding No. 5 Company's close call.

INVITE LEADER ROWELL TO COME TO LONDON

Women's Emergency Corps Desires Him as Special Speaker.

The members of the executive of the Women's Emergency Corps at a meeting today in Cronyn Hall expressed their approval of a motion by Mrs. Fox to the effect that an effort be made to secure Newton W. Rowell, K. C., to come to London to speak under the auspices of the Women's Emergency Corps. It was pointed out that Mr. Rowell has recently returned from England and France, and as recently as the beginning of September has been at the west front. The idea of inviting him to come under the auspices of the Emergency Corps was suggested from the success of the Emergency Corps of No. 2 Military District in securing him for a great mass meeting in Toronto, and the subsequent reports of the address on that occasion.

It was further decided to ask him if possible to come on November 9th, owing to the fact that the Western Ontario Women's Institutes will be meeting in the city on the 8th and 9th, and many of the delegates would doubtless welcome the opportunity of hearing Mr. Rowell, on the subject of the war, what he saw of the hospitals, and of the war work of the women of England and France.

To Free Your Skin of Hair or Fuzz

[Boudoir Secrets.]

No toilet table is complete without a small package of delatone, for with it hair or fuzz can be quickly banished from the skin. To remove hairs you merely mix into a paste enough of the powder and water to cover the objectionable hairs. This should be left on the skin about two minutes, then rubbed off and the skin washed, when it will be found free from hair or blemish. Be sure you get genuine delatone.—Advt.

LONDON'S EPIDEMIC OF SORE THROATS IN MONTH WAS HEAVY

53 Cases of Real and Suspected Diphtheria.

FOUR DEATHS RECORDED

30 of Reported Cases Proved To Be Negative, Says M. O. H.

"Don't monkey with a sore throat!"

From August 31 to October 3 in the city of London, 53 cases were reported to the medical officer of health of real and suspected cases of diphtheria.

Of these, 23 cases proved to be positive or real diphtheria, 19 went to the hospital, and 4 stayed at home. Of the 30 negative cases, 18 went to the hospital and 12 stayed at home. Of the 23 positive cases, 4 died.

Death in these four cases was due first, to late discovery of the disease, and, secondly, to complications.

The moral which the medical officer of health points from this loss of life is:

Early diagnosis and early treatment.

Antitoxin at once. Cultures afterwards.

Of the 30 negative cases, none have died. Nineteen have been released and 11 are still in quarantine.

The 53 cases are divided among 30 families as follows:

Cases all positive—Ten families.

Cases all negative—Fourteen families.

Cases positive and negative—Six families as follows: Family No. 1, positive 1, negative 4, at home; family, No. 2, positive 1, negative 1, at home; family No. 3, positive 2, negative 1, at hospital; family No. 4, positive 2, negative 3, at hospital; family No. 5, positive 2, negative 1, at hospital; family No. 6, positive 2, negative 4, at hospital.

Four cases of diphtheria were reported during the week ending September 30. The number of cases isolated at home at the end of the week was 7, while 1 case was isolated in the hospital. The total number of cases in the city at the end of the week was 8, and the number of houses in quarantine 1.

COMMUNICABLE DISEASES ABSENT DURING WEEK

M. O. H. Report Shows Freedom From Them Lately.

Chicken-pox, mumps, scarlet fever, smallpox, infantile paralysis, tuberculosis and cerebro-spinal meningitis were evidently taking a well-earned holiday in London the week ending September 30. Not a single case of one of these communicable diseases was up before the medical officer of health to pass judgment upon. At the same time five cases of scarlet fever were still working out their sentence in isolation at the end of the week, and one case of anterior poliomyelitis, otherwise infantile paralysis, was still in isolation and the house in quarantine.

One new case of measles was reported, making seven in all in isolation.

Four cases of typhoid fever were in isolation, one of which was a new case reported within the week.

The one disease which is at all general is whooping cough. Forty-seven cases in all were in isolation the end of the week, and of these twelve were new cases.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE OF EAST MIDDLESEX MEETING IN LONDON

A Representative Gathering From Entire Inspectorate.

AGAINST ALL WHIPPING

Dr. C. R. Flanders Declares It Is Unnecessary in the Schools.

Practically all of the 115 teachers of the East Middlesex inspectorate responded to the second if not to the first roll call of the opening session of the Teachers' Institute, held today in the county buildings.

Miss Bessie Hobbs, Thorndale, presided, delivering her presidential address, in the course of which she urged her fellow-teachers to a broad outlook and high ideals for their profession.

In this connection she emphasized the responsibility resting upon the teacher, beyond the duties prescribed in the curriculum, the responsibility in regard to the molding of the character of the child placed under his or her care for instruction. She also dwelt at length upon the rewards which come to the teacher for time, thought and effort expended, the satisfaction derived from the consciousness of helping to lay firm and true the foundations of character of the men and women who are to take their places and be a power in the world.

Opposes Physical Punishment.

Speaking along somewhat similar lines, Rev. C. R. Flanders, D. D. likened the task of the teacher to that of the mint machine which stamps the gold and gives it character and value.

Concerning the question of discipline, Dr. Flanders expressed himself as strongly opposed to physical punishment. The teacher should be able to achieve mastery of the situation without resort to any such measures, he maintained. In support of his pronounced view on the subject, he cited his own experience of fifteen years as head of a school during which time physical punishment was neither administered by himself nor any of his teachers.

Afternoon Program.

The afternoon's program includes a report of the Ontario Educational Association by John A. McNaughton, Masonville; an address on "Third Form Languages" by V. K. Greer, M. A., of the Stratford Normal School, and an address by President E. E. Braithwaite of the Western University.

This evening Prof. A. MacLaren, B. S. A., will give an address and demonstration of "Recreation for Classroom and Playground" at the Normal School.

You can be sure of being nourished

if you take BOVRIL

Bovril has the peculiar power of enabling people to get from their food nourishment which they cannot obtain in any other way. Unless your system crushes the gold of nourishment out of the ore of food you cannot get strong or keep strong, however much you eat.

Until your food has become part of your muscle, flesh and bone, it cannot assist in that process of rebuilding the body which is essential to good health. If your food does not nourish, however you vary your diet; if you are not strong enough to resist illness, or if you cannot get strong after illness, you will find a magical change if you add Bovril to your diet.

this is the Reason

In the remarkable experiments on human subjects an amount of Bovril proportionate to the small dark diagram section has been proved to produce an increase in muscle, flesh and bone proportionate to the large shaded circle.

BILLY SUNDAY DECLARES HIMSELF AS PRO-ALLY

Tells Reporter He Is for Cause of Great Britain.

"I'm pro-Ally, if anybody ever was pro-Ally," is what Billy Sunday told The Advertiser representative who attended the evangelistic meetings in the Detroit tabernacle on Tuesday.

"You know, British Columbia sent for me to help out in the prohibition campaign there. As soon as they heard I was coming, the liquor interests got busy with all their might and main to keep me out. They wired the Dominion Government. They said I was an enemy, an undesirable alien and pro-German.

"Pro-German? Me? Why, I'm for the Allies with all my heart and soul and might.

"But they didn't keep me out, and I arrived, and along comes prohibition."

Evidences of the prohibition campaign are to be seen in Detroit. People talk about it to the visitors.

One of the first "unusual" sights which attracted the attention of the people who took in the Billy Sunday excursion from London Tuesday was passed on the way from the station to the special cars. Over the doorway of a big German saloon bearing a name of most pronounced German flavor was a huge banner, which had the inscription:

"If this town goes dry,
This place will be to let;
There will be work for people here,
If this town stays wet."

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

Cause for Thanksgiving.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

We do not think there was ever a thanksgiving season before in the history of our country when we as a people had greater reason to be thankful than in this season of 1916, which we are about to celebrate. True there are those who may find it hard to be thankful as they think of their losses and bereavements, yet with the vast majority at least the blessings and benefits far out-balance the hardships and disappointments. Our land is free from invasion, our crops on the whole have been good, while every man and woman that wills to work may find something for their hands to do at a fair remuneration. There is something radically wrong with the person who at this season of the year has no spirit of thankfulness in his or her heart, yet there are those we know who take all the bounties of this favored land as a matter of course and never think of giving thanks to Him "from whom all blessings flow."

We should be thankful indeed for the oportunities in the fields of labor and for willingness to do the work that our hands find to do. 'Twas only a few years ago that thousands of men in Canada could not find steady work though they honestly sought it. Hundreds of deserving men in our cities, especially our western cities, were forced to the humiliating necessity of receiving civic aid, for the simple reason that work was not to be had. Only those who have passed through this ordeal know what a trying experience it is. Today, except for the slackers and the physically incapable there are no idle men in Canada. In fact the demand for men far exceeds the supply. There are many of both sexes who are working overtime and doing two people's work instead of one, yet we hear but few complaints, for we all recognize the fact that it is better to have too much to do than not enough. What if we do sacrifice some hours of sleep and pleasure, if by so doing we aid production or in any way help our Empire in the great struggle, is it not worth while? Though hand and brain grow weary let us persevere in our work in the great field of labor, for every faithful worker in this hour of crisis is directly or indirectly helping the fight for liberty and justice. For the inclination and ability to work, for the opportunityy to do our bit if not in a military, in a commercial sense, let us be thankful at this thanksgiving time.

We should be thankful indeed for the spirit of sacrifice which characterizes today the Canadian people. What true man today is not proud and thankful that he is a Canadian when he thinks of the thousands of our boys who for a great cause have given the last full measure of devotion. Through separation and the loss of loved ones, by giving up the dearest things of life, yea by giving up of life itself, we are learning as never before the meaning of the word "sacrifice." We are learning again the old lesson, too often forgotten in days of pride and prosperity that we only attain to the highest levels through self-denial or the crucifying of self, that we only reach the greatest good "through our sacrifice of body, mind and soul." Are we, I wonder, as thankful as we should be for the noble men who in such large numbers have given themselves for our defence and to preserve the liberties of the human race? Are we as thankful as we should be for the services of such statesmen as Asquith, who in spite of a great personal sorrow, and the cares and responsibilities incidental to his high office, still steers the ship of state. Let us in this thanksgiving season thank God for giving us such men as Asquith and Lloyd George and Kitchener.

We should be supremely thankful for the enacting of prohibitory laws in such a large part of the Dominion, as well as in other countries. When the writer was in British Columbia a few years ago the bars did not close till 1 a.m., and opened again at 6. In the more remote part of the province there was little or no restriction on the traffic. I well remember coming down from my room in the hotel at Port Harvey in the early morning and stumbling over the bodies of men who all night long had been drinking and carousing. But now what a change. Thank God, over nearly all our fair Dominion the reign of rum is ended, and when once routed and outlawed John Barleycorn will never return.

Then we should be thankful for the opportunities for service that present themselves everywhere. What opportunities to relieve distress the present occasion offers. The cry of stricken Belgium and Poland and Armenia comes to us from across the sea. A few dollars matters but little to us, but it will keep a family from starving for a month. By doing what we can we shall have the thanks of an approving conscience and earn the Master's approval. "Inasmuch as ye did it to the least of these, my brethren, ye did it unto Me." In the church and the community, among the foreigners in towns and cities are great opportunities for social service, and if we enter into it in the right spirit we shall be thankful beyond measure for the way in which we have been led and for the good we may be the instruments in doing.

For the common everyday blessings, health and strength, the love of kindred, the fellowship of friends, the starry firmament that speaks of God's wisdom and faithfulness, for these and other things so common that we fail to appreciate them as we should, let us give thanks on this glad Thanksgiving Day. Yours truly,

MORLEY L. SWART.

ACTRESS TELLS SECRET

A Well-Known Actress Tells How She Darkened Her Grey Hair With a Simple Home-Made Mixture.

Miss Blanche Rose, a well-known actress, who darkened her grey hair with a simple preparation which she mixed at home, in a recent interview at Chicago, Ill., made the following statement: "Any lady or gentleman can darken their grey hair and make it soft and glossy with this simple recipe, which they can mix at home. To a half-pint of water add 1 oz. of bay rum, a small box of Orlex Compound, and ¼ oz. of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until it becomes the required shade. This will make a grey-haired person look 20 years younger. It is also fine to promote the growth of hair, and relieves itching and dandruff." —Advt.

DONNYBROOK FAIR BETTER THAN EVER

Larger Attendance and More Exhibits Than in 1915.

STOCK ENTRIES ARE GOOD

Speed Contests Furnish Good Sport—Convalescent Soldiers Are Present.

[By Staff Reporter.]

DORCHESTER, Oct. 4.—Although with each succeeding year much of the glamor which at one time surrounded the Donnybrook (Dorchester) fair has departed, the exhibition this year surpassed the records of the past many seasons. The attendance was close to three thousand, hundreds coming from London by auto and train. The surrounding district also sent its quota, and by opening time the grounds were completely filled. The gate receipts this year amounted to $714.95. Last year they totalled only $567.90. No disturbances marred the day, and the weather was ideal.

The band of the First Hussars from London was present, and supplied a splendid program for the afternoon performance.

Spill in Speed Events.

The majority of the races came off in good order, but a slight smashup occurred during the second heat of the township race. The five entries made a clean getaway, but as they rounded the first turn, some of the sulkies locked wheels. Only Nora Hart, driven by Dell Woods of Dorchester, and Billy B., driven by Lewis Johnston of Mossley, finished, the others being unable to extricate themselves in time. No one was injured, but both shafts of one sulky were broken.

Entry List Large.

There was a large number of entries for nearly every exhibit, agricultural ones being good in spite of the season. Horses and sheep were particularly good exhibits.

"Fair" taggers, representing the Red Cross Society of Dorchester, collected a large amount for the patriotic work of the society. Soldiers were much in evidence amongst the crowd, many of the 142nd Battalion being there.

Lieut. J. W. McVean, who is in command of the Cycle Corps, being raised in this district, carried on a brisk campaign for men, with the aid of three of his cyclists, who were themselves recruited from that part of the country. Ptes. Alan and Welborn of the 241st Scottish Borderers also campaigned for men.

Returned Soldiers Present.

Forty returned soldiers who came out from the Central Military Convalescent Hospital at London, added much to the success of the afternoon. The party was brought out in autos loaned by Fred Lawrason, McLaughlin Motor Car Company; Robert Anderson, J. E. McConnell, A. R. Boug, Gordon Drake, Cecil Johns, A. T. McMahen, Fred Mitchell, Lieut. Dilion, A. E. Silverwood, Joe Scandrett. Cigars and cigarettes were provided by F. P. Riddell of the collegiate. Candy was contributed by the McCormick Manufacturing Company. To add a little joy to the occasion Major Ingram supplied the party with kazoos and other musical (?) instruments. On the way out the party met Gordon Drake, grocer, who contributed a basket of peaches to each of the autos.

The Race Results.

The race results were as follows:

REV. W. D. TURNER PREACHES FAREWELL

Blyth Methodists Join in Presbyterian Service.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

BLYTH, Oct. 4. — Rev. W. D. Turner, B.A., preached his farewell sermon in St. Andrew's Church, Sunday evening, to a large congregation. The Methodists closed their church for the evening service, and joined the Presbyterian congregation. In the morning sacrament was dispensed, and in the afternoon Mr. Turner preached the anniversary services in Westfield Methodist Church. On Monday evening the elders of St. Andrew's Church and the managing board met at the manse and presented Mr. Turner with a well-worded address and a beautiful gold-headed cane as a mark of appreciation. The minister thanked all for their kindness during the time he has been here, and for the splendid remembrance they had given him.

Rev. Rural Dean Fotheringham of Goderich took the services in the three parishes of Auburn on Sunday morning, Belgrave in the afternoon, and Blyth in the evening. At each service he preached powerful sermons to large congregations. The collection in each church was large, Auburn contributing $75, Belgrave $112, and Blyth $75.

FINE WEATHER GRACES TIVERTON FALL FAIR

First Occasion in Three Years With Good Weather.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

KINCARDINE, Oct. 4.—Ideal weather greeted the Tiverton Agricultural Society yesterday for the annual fall fair. There was an exceedingly large crowd on the grounds.

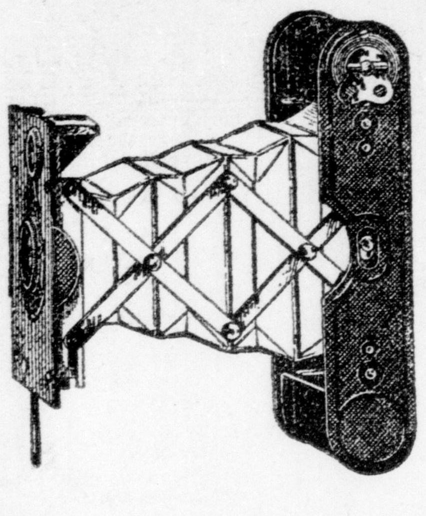

The exhibit in horses and cattle was one of the best seen at any of the local fairs. Sheep, hogs and poultry were excellent, but the display was not large.

The races did not fill which detracted a good deal from the afternoon's entertainment.

The Kincardine Highland Pipe Band was the centre of an admiring crowd all afternoon. Tiverton had been unfortunate for two previous years of her show in having bad weather, but today Old Sol shone from start to finish. The concert in the evening was largely attended, and also proved a success.

FRENCH-ARGENTINE TREATY.

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 4.—The Argentine foreign minister, Jose Luis Murature, and the French minister, M. Jullemier, today ratified the treaty of arbitration between France and Argentina.

PREPARE FOR WORST, HOPE FOR THE BEST, WARNS ROBERTSON

Chief of Staff Says Must Not Be Over-Confident.

LONG STRUGGLE AHEAD

Calls For Men For the Front and Munitions Factories.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—Gen. Sir William Robertson, chief of the imperial staff at army headquarters, said in a speech today at Dalderby, Lincolnshire, that while the Allies were winning the war slowly but surely, he wished to impress upon his hearers the necessity of procuring more men for the army and munitions factories. In this connection he said he had a serious word of warning to give.

"We are not justified in expecting to win the war," he said, "unless the service of every man and woman in the country be utilized to the fullest extent.

"We must be under no delusion," he continued, "as to the end or probable duration of this great struggle. We must be prepared to continue for a time which cannot at present be estimated.

"In fact, we must prepare for the worst, while we hope for the best. We have adopted in theory the principle of national service. We must see that we put it into practice, because we want more men, and we want them now, and eventually we shall want all who can be spared."

MAY MEAN CONSCRIPTION.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—When Parliament re-assembles next week the Government will be confronted with new embarassing proposals for the application of conscription to Ireland. The Times and other newspapers recently have ben coneducting a strong campaign with this object in view and the decisions announced today by the man power distribution bill introduced by General Robertson, chief of the imperial staff, that more men are urgently needed, will, it is believed, strengthen the hands of the agitators, who have been joined by Sir Edward Carson.

Sir Edward asserts that the situation is such that without conscription in Ireland it will be impossible to even maintain the Irish regiments at the front in their proper strength. He contends that Ireland could provide another half million men of military age, and asks what the colonies, which have made such sacrifices for the Empire, will think of the shirking of Ireland.

While most of the responsible politicians are agreed that it would be inexpedient to attempt to apply compulsion to Ireland while home rule is withheld from it, undoubtedly in the present phase of the European war those who are demanding conscription hold a strong hand and the Government may find it difficult to resist their demand.

The Nationalists in reply to Sir Edward Carson point out that the colonies already have self-government and hence there is no analogy with the position of Ireland. They assert that Ireland will be found to be a united nation in resistance to compulsion.

The Liberal newspapers consider the agitation another attempt to unseat Premier Asquith, and contend that while compulsion in Ireland would provide a few men it would provoke another first-class Irish crisis and throw Ireland into the hands of the Sinn Feiners.

Good-Bye, Old Backache Nerviline Will Fix You!

Stiffness Is Rubbed Right Out —Every Sign of Pain Disappears.

Gee whiz—think of it!

No more stomach dosing necessary to cure your lame back.

Every trace of lameness, every bit of stiffness, every sign of weakness in the back's muscles can be rubbed away for all time to come by good old "Nerviline."

No other liniment can do the work so quickly, can penetrate so deeply, can bring ease and comfort to the back-weary sufferer as Nerviline invariably does.

Backache isn't the only malady Nerviline is quick to cure. For lumbago or sciatica you would go far to find relief so speedy as Nerviline gives. For chronic rheumatism there are pain-destroying properties in Nerviline that give it first rank. The way it limbers up a stiff joint and takes soreness out of strained or rheumatic muscles is simply a wonder.

If you have an ache or a pain anywhere, if you have a sore back, a stiff neck, a stiff joint, a strained muscle—if you have lumbago, congested chest or sore throat, just try Nerviline. Rub it on plentifully—it won't blister, it can't do anything but cure you quickly. The large 50c family size bottle is the most economical, of course, but you can, from any dealer, also get the 25c small size of Nerviline, the king of all pain-relieving remedies.

WILL MAKE WAR ON ALCOHOLIC MEDICINES

License Board Finds They Have Become Popular Since Sept. 16.

TORONTO, Oct. 4.—There is to be official war by the provincial license board upon so-called "port wines for invalids," and other alleged medicinal alcoholic preparations. It may result, if other steps are not successful, in recommendations for important legislative amendments to the Ontario temperance act, and in the establishment of some sharp control over druggists.

The board has received some rather startling communications. Investigation has almost invariably established the accuracy of allegations made. Vice-Chairman Dingman intimated that the board's inquiries went to show that certain druggists were already developing a mammoth trade in alcoholic medicines, and were moreover doing their utmost to develop business along these lines.

GERMANS LACKING IN MEN, GUNS, MATERIAL: IN TIGHT POSITION

Britain Captures a Valuable Official Document.

INNER THOUGHTS OF STAFF

Battle of Somme Reveals the Weakness of the Enemy.

WAR CORRESPONDENTS' HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, Oct. 4.—Via London, Oct. 5.—12:35 a.m.—Germany is short of guns, aeroplanes and war material of all sorts but not of food, according to a most sensationally interesting document the British have captured, which is called "The Experiences of the Fourth German Corps in the Battle of the Somme."

The document was written as instructions to the troops. It was drawn from the lessons of the battle by Gen. Count Sixt von Arnim, the corps commander, who has been fighting opposite the British throughout the offensive. This long, detailed revelation of the inner thoughts of the German staff discusses the methods and shortcomings of every branch of the German army, in view of the unexpected power and organization the British have shown. The document starts out by paying a tribute to the British infantry, "which undoubtedly has learned much since last autumn's offensive."

Acknowledges English Skill.

"It shows great dash in attack," the document continues. "The Englishman also has physique and training in his favor. One must acknowledge the skill of the English in rapidly consolidating captured positions, and their great tenacity in the defence of them."

Because the breech actions of so many German rifles have been clogged with dirt, Gen. von Arnim suggests in the document that it would be advisable to fit a cover over the breech of the rifles, like that used in the British army, which can be easily unfastened, and then hangs from the rifle.

Alter Artillery Tactics.

Explicit instructions are given in the document to the artillery to change their methods of placing batteries in villages and behind steep slopes, because of the British method of distribution of their artillery fire, which prodigally searches all obvious shelters. Owing to the terrific concentration of the British artillery fire, says the document, front lines of trenches should be thinly held, and dependence placed on small groups of machine gunners. Once the British lay a curtain of fire on the trench, it adds, the men had better evacuate it and lie down in the open.

Most interesting to the officers, in view of the fact that the British have so consistently held ground they have taken against counter-attacks, is what General von Arnim says on the subject

Nearly Always Fail.

"If counter-attacks which, on account of the situation ought to be methodically prepared, are hurried, they cost much blood, because the troops lose their trust in the leaders if they fail, which nearly always happens," says General von Arnim.

He then complains that the "existing telephone system has proved totally inadequate in consequence of the development of the fighting," and says the artillery signal system broke down. The commander asserts that he has discovered that British aeroplanes use sound signals to tell gunners where their shells are falling, and says the fourth corps already has started an experiment on the same kind of method as a complement to the wireless, which is frequently interrupted.

British Aviation Better.

"The numerical superiority of the British airmen, and the fact that their machines were better made, is disagreeably apparent to us," Gen von Arnim says, and he speaks of the surprisingly bold procedure of British airmen, who were often "able to fire successfully on our troops with machine guns by descending to within a few hundred feet of the ground."

He adds that the German anti-aircraft guns could not continue firing at that height "without exposing their own troops to the serious danger of shell fragments."

Before the battle of the Somme airmen kept at anywhere from 6,000 to 12,000 feet over the lines on account of anti-aircraft gunfire.

Horse Supply at Limit.

General von Arnim, in the document, warns his infantry to use their rifles against these daring British aviators. He says that the ammunition supply and the artillery are inadequate, and that maps were insufficient in quantity and bad as regards details. Also the supply of horses has reached the utmost limit. Of the food supply General von Arnim says:

"No special difficulties arose. The supply columns proved sufficient." But he emphasizes the importance of mineral waters and beverages, which the British have always found plentiful in captured German trenches, and says that the troops cannot have too much of all kinds of sausages and meat when fighting. Dried herring are unsatisfactory, as they increase thirst. Alcoholic drinks need not be served out to the troops in dry, warm weather, but solidified alcohol for cooking warm meals has proved useful.

British Guns Rake Everything.

Fresh troops, says the document, should be used for attack. They should avoid sunken roads and natural cover, as the British with their plentiful gunfire are sure to have these points registered by their guns, and turn loose on them immediately an attack starts.

Gen. von Arnim emphasized the value of the steel helmets which the French first introduced, and with which the Germans are not yet fully supplied.

As an idea of the amount of ammunition such battle conditions as those of the Somme require, Gen. von Arnim says that a battery of four field guns should have 2,200 rounds at the battery itself, aside from its reserve supply.

Indeed, Gen. von Arnim's cry is for more guns, aeroplanes and ammunition —everything except food.

Berlin Maintains Rumanian Force Was Compelled To Flee.

BUCHAREST, Oct. 4.—Via London. —The Rumanians have inflicted a further defeat on the Germans and Austrians in Transylvania, the war office announced today. The Teutonic forces were defeated in an engagement in the region of Fogaras.

The announcement issued by the war office reads:

"On the northern and western fronts, in the Kaliman and Ghurghiul Mountains, small engagements occurred.

"Between Fogaras and Sigiscara our forces were engaged against German and Austrian troops, which were defeated.

"We took 800 Germans prisoners and captured eight machine guns.

"In the mountains west of the River Alt we made progress. In the Jiul valley our troops have been slightly withdrawn by reason of the violent attacks of the enemy. Before falling back they destroyed the coal mines of Petroseny, which constituted the enemy's objective.

"At Orsova (on the Danube near the Hungarian-Rumanian frontier) we repulsed three enemy attacks."

"On the southern fronts in Dobrudja, despite the stubborn resistance of the enemy and violent fire of his heavy artillery, our attack continues to make progress in the centre. On our left wing we conquered a position at Amzacea, where we took seven guns, more than 1,000 prisoners, and much material."

BERLIN ADMITS DEFEAT.

BERLIN, Oct. 4.—Via London.—The Rumanian forces which crossed the Danube River between the Danube fortresses of Rustchuk and Turtukai have withdrawn hastily, according to the official statement issued by the German army headquarters, as the result of encircline movements put into operation by Field Marshal von Mackensen, the commander of the forces of the central powers and their allies in Dobrudja.

The statement follows:

"In the Georgeny Valley (Transylvania) the Rumanians made several vain attacks. West of Parajd they gained advantage. We are before Fogaras.

"West of Caneni, at the southern exit of Rothenthurm Pass, fighting took place with Rumanian troops, the latter having been dispersed during the battle of Hermannstadt. Enemy attacks in the Hatzeg Mountains were unsuccessful. West of Oboro Height our allies gained ground.

"German and Bulgarian troops of the army of Field Marshal von Mackensen delivered an encirling attack with the result that the Rumanian forces which crossed the Danube near Rjahovo, south of Bucharest withdrew in hasty flight."

Austrian Report.

VIENNA, Oct. 4.—Via London, Oct. 5.—The official statement from general headquarters, isued today reads:

"Rumanian front: On the heights of Petroseny several Rumanian attacks were again shattered; the enemy left 60 prisoners in our hands.

"South of Hermannstadt a Rumanian battalion which was still wandering about has been annihilated. East of the Rothenthurm defile the frontier crest has been reached at several places. Further eastward the Austro-Hungarian and German forces are pushing towards Fogaras.

"On several sectors in Transylvania on the east front Rumanian attacks have been repulsed. Only on the little Kukel could the enemy advance his position."

VENIZELOS ONLY WANTS TO HELP THE ALLIES

LONDON, Oct. 5.—"Former Premier Venizelos," says the Daily Mail's Canea, Crete, correspondent, "has been sounded from Athens by a personage close to King Constantine, as to whether, in the event of war being declared on Bulgaria, M. Venizelos would demand the premiership in a cabinet of his own choosing, or be content to support a coalition cabinet, in which his party is represented, or whether he would support a cabinet, though not containing members of his party which would declare war and act along general lines of his policy. He declared he would support any policy which would put the forces of Greece in the field by the side of the Allies. The former premier declared he wanted no cabinet post for himself."

GERMANY CHARGES RUMANIANS WITH BRUTAL ATROCITIES

Says 60,000 People Killed, Wounded or Transported.

BERLIN, via Sayville (wireless), Oct. 4.—Further details of alleged Rumanian atrocities in Dobrudja, says the Overseas News Agency, are contained in a report from the Sofia correspondent of the Frankfurter Zeitung, who, with several other correspondents and William Warfield, the American charge d'affaires at Sofia, is investigating reports in Dobric (Adzadijk) and surrounding town and villages. The correspondent writes:

"Everywhere we followed traces of assassination and incendiarism, and everywhere there was the same complaint about the loss of life and property. Entire villages were destroyed by fire, and large quantities of corn, as well as people of all classes, were carried away, partly by violence and partly by false promises. The prettiest girls were driven into the Rumanian trenches, where they were assaulted and murdered, especially in the neighborhood of Silistria. Women and children were locked up in houses, and then either burned to death or shot. It has been proved that the Rumanians ravaged the country in an indescribable fashion on the direct command of their superiors.

"Before the declaration of war twenty-five thousand persons and the same number of carts, filled with food, were taken from Dobrudja. In a village north of Dobric Rumanians assassinated 38 Bulgarians and 30 Turks and carried off 64 other men. A village south of Dobric is a heap of ruins and only twenty of 130 houses remain undamaged.

"Conditions also were bad around Silistria, where the villages of Kalipretovo, Aidemi, Sreberna and Babuk were destroyed. The number of civilians killed, wounded and transported from Dobrudja is estimated at about sixty thousand."

TON-FOR-TON MAY BE DEMANDED BY BRITAIN

German Submarine Campaign May Be After-War Policy.

LONDON, Oct. 4. — In naval circles it is generally felt that the German submarine campaign has again assumed serious proportions. In these circles the opinion is expressed that Germany has after-war as well as present conditions in view in her destruction of tonnage, and the feeling is growing that Great Britain soon will be compelled publicly to announce a ton-for-ton policy as one of the clauses in the peace treaty unless Germany desists in sinking merchant tonnage.

BRITISH NAVAL OFFICERS INTERESTED IN BREMEN

Appreciate She Is Long Overdue—Last Reported Far From U. S.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—The naval authorities here are manifesting great interest in the fate of the German submarine Bremen, which some time ago was reported to have sailed for the United States, and which they say is now greatly overdue. In discussing the possible fate of the submarine liner the naval authorities ask if it is likely that she put into some obscure American port. It is known here that the Bremen was reported while on her way to the United States, but the last report of her showed her to be a considerable distance from the American coast.

A Remarkable Tribute To Canada's Foremost Statesman

Coming from a newspaper with the strongest of natural Conservative affiliations, but which today is too big and too fair to admit any loyalty to or claim kinship with the Conservative party of today, the tribute printed herewith is one of the most remarkable that has been paid to any Canadian statesman by an Independent Canadian journal which is foremost in its expression of the finest Canadian policy.

The Ottawa Citizen is owned by the William Southam interests, and conducted by members of the family of the distinguished former Londoner. It has developed a type of fearless, outspoken, honest journalism, which all sincere Canadian editors would be proud to emulate. Its tribute to Laurier is timely, in view of the fact that the Liberal chieftain comes to this city next Wednesday, and is given as follows:

> Sir Wilfrid Laurier possibly never stood stronger in public esteem than at the present time. He would seem to tower above mere party leaders, and reflect national opinion. He is attacked by Mr. Henri Bourassa, the Quebec Nationalist leader, and by the purple-faced press of Ontario at the same time. Partisan organs in Ontario, representing mediocrity on Parliament Hill, devote more space to misrepresenting Sir Wilfrid Laurier than to any serious criticism of the incompetence of their own leaders. Mr. Bourassa is reported on Sunday to have referred to Sir Wilfrid as "the most nefarious man this Province has ever had." This, presumably, because Sir Wilfrid is too big to be provincial.
> There are two brands of nationalism in Canada, the so-called nationalism of Quebec and the so-called national policy of Ontario. Both have constantly been played up by partisans to thwart the Canadian statesmanship of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. National is a misnomer when applied to either the cult of nationalism in Quebec or the tariff nationalism in Ontario. Both are merely phases of provincialism; the Quebec group seeking to preserve its culture and to spread it in the other provinces; the Ontario interests striving to retain their material privileges through the tariff policy, at the expense of all the provinces. Sir Wilfrid Laurier sees Ontario and Quebec as provinces of Canada; but he also sees Canada as a nation bigger than any one province. For this breadth of vision, Sir Wilfrid is the outstanding public man in Canada and the constant object of attack from the provincials.
> But, of course, the purple-faced press of Ontario does not represent the people of this Province, any more than the Nationalist press represents Quebec. There is a far bigger brand of Canadian citizenship in both provinces, and throughout the country. Unfortunately for national progress in Canada, people, particularly in Ontario, have been imposed upon by false loyalty cries. Thus, politicians have misrepresented Sir Wilfrid Laurier's position with regard to the British connection; and the very party to raise the loyalty cry has itself, during the present war, demonstrated lack of kinship for the Motherland by increasing the "national policy" customs tax against British trade.
> Sir Wilfrid Laurier took the broader view of Canada's relation to the Motherland when he opposed the 1915 increase of the Dominion tariff against British trade. He took an equally high stand last week when he went down to Quebec, as he has done on several occasions, and championed the British and French cause in the war. Sir Wilfrid criticized by the Nationalist group in Quebec as being too British, and denounced by the tariff Imperialist group in Ontario as being too Canadian, is evidently uncommonly near to the heart of the whole Canadian people.

MILITARISM.

IF THE VIEWS held in some quarters are to carry weight in the Dominion, Canada need not worry about the re-establishment of her soldiers in civilian life when the war is ended; they will all be needed to form an army of protection for the country and the expenses of military preparedness for (not against) war will be continued indefinitely.

This excerpt from the local mouthpiece of Sir Sam Hughes will show who are the agitators in favor of a Canadian militarism in peace times: "Never again will we consent to be caught unprepared and trusting in the good faith and the honor of any nation." The use of the words "any nation" must mean, if it means anything, that the paper quoted advocates the fortifying of the Canadian border along the whole line of contact with its southern neighbor. It must mean a standing army, in sufficient numbers to ward off any threatened attack by land or water. It must mean that Canada is henceforth to assume the burden of her own protection against all-comers.

It is not for the British nation that Sir Sam's organ speaks, but for the Canadian people: "We feel we may speak for the people of Canada," is its phrase. Logically then, the Dominion will prepare to guard its coast. With a Canadian navy manned and maintained by Canadians? Surely not. That is Sir Wilfrid Laurier's policy, reviled by the Tory paper. It will have to be with ships built in England and paid for by Canada, whose complement of men and whose maintenance Britain will be asked to supply. That is Borden's "patriotic" policy.

Not development of the great Dominion, but continual arming in expectation of war, is the program proposed for Canada. Suspicion of every other nation must be fostered in the mind of the populace and a "chip on the shoulder" must be the badge of a loyal Canadian. One of the great aims of the present immense struggle—the prevention of resort to arms in the future as a means of settling disputes between civilized peoples—is to be swept aside as unattainable. Militarism of the kind Sir Wilfrid Laurier, with all reasoning and sane Canadians, abhors is to become rampant.

If this is the Conservative policy as hinted by one of the most subservient party organs, God deliver the country from government by such homicidal lunatics, who would follow the kaiser to another world conflict.

PROMISE BY PROXY.

AS SILENCE gives consent, Charles E. Hughes must have approved Roosevelt's assertion that, if the former is elected president, the laws of humanity and the rights of non-combatants shall be rigidly respected or there will be trouble for those who violate them.

This statement was directly connected by the speaker with the possibility of Germany resuming her submarine piracy, or, as he said, "Murder on the high seas." It definitely promises immediate action by Hughes in the event of any more attacks on neutral commerce.

Such a policy, if believed, is likely to have a peculiar effect on the hyphenate vote. Pro-Germans have flocked to the Hughes standard, but may be expected to draw back since Roosevelt has spoken. On the other hand, they will hardly care to cast their votes for Wilson, who has emphatically told them he does not want them. They are ready to vote but have no one to support.

As to Hughes' promise, given via Roosevelt, it depends on his election, and pre-election vows are not always considered binding. It may be he will not be called upon to act for the United States.

BRITISH ALERTNESS.

LATEST reports in Washington say that the German "merchant" submarine Bremen has been caught in one of Britain's great steel nets, and now lies in Rosyth harbor. This, like other rumors, may or may not be true, but the fact remains that these nets have accounted for scores of hostile submarines, not only putting them out of action but handing them over to the British to be refitted for use if required.

Defences against Germany's most prized weapons of warfare are really worthy of more notice and more admiration than the weapons themselves. Until the fall of 1914, practically no attention had been given to frustrating the attacks of undersea craft, other than the use of torpedo nets. Then came the German attacks on peaceful commerce and a demand arose that some means be found of ridding the traffic lanes of these pirates. Within a few short months these tremendously strong wire nets had been devised and put in use, snaring many of the enemy craft, how many we do not know, though the number is now said to exceed 70; trawlers, armed for the fray, were out by hundreds combing the waters and ramming or shelling every submarine which showed its periscope in their vicinity. The success which attended these hastily improvised measures was remarkable; they, and they only, caused the lull in submarine activity.

Zeppelin raids found the British unprepared. They had aeroplanes, but those in use failed to cope with the invaders, and the latter escaped without damage in the majority of cases. But now a different tale is told; each of the last three raids has ended in one or more of the huge zepplins being brought to earth, and the Frankfurter Zeitung says Britain has carried her defence measures "to the highest perfection."

It is this ability to deal with difficulties as they arise that has made Britain so powerful. Germany planned her campaign long in advance, taking into consideration only the troubles that she knew must be overcome. When new ones sprang up, they worked for disorganization. But Britain is ever ready for fresh difficulties, and their appearance is only momentarily disconcerting, one of the outstanding proofs of this being the way in which she met gas attacks after the first few experiences.

The British inventive genius has proved more than a match for the German. It does not take years to function when a crisis comes.

THE CHANT OF HATE.

LAURIER stands for the Liberalism that sent troops to South Africa, prepared a great naval policy based on the soundest lines of empire federation, and to the last drop of blood is in the present struggle of right against might, cruelty against humanity.

Bourassa stands for "throwing down" Britain in the present struggle and for turning the fated hour to the building of a republic that will have no connection with the Empire.

As a consequence, Bourassa politically hates Laurier. He has hated him from the time Laurier first made it clear that he was a British subject first, last and always. He has kindled the fires of enmity afresh because Laurier has carried the cause into Quebec and has reproached his own countrymen with their failure to seize the moment for national greatness.

When Canadians voted in 1911 for Borden they voted for Bourassa. Laurier at that time stood as the man in the pathway of Bourassa. The two "B's" joined forces and swept Laurier away. Today he confronts them again, but with their duplicity revealed and his forces prepared for them.

The Advertiser has perused extended reports of Bourassa's speech at Nicolet, Quebec, on Sunday last. It finds there that Bourassa claims that Hon. T. Chase Casgrain, the present postmaster-general, was the man who marshalled the Nationalist forces for Borden against the Laurier naval policy. It was Mr. Casgrain, says Bourassa, who asked him to fight Laurier. For this, along with Hon. Messrs. Blondin, Nantel, etc., Mr. Casgrain has received his reward.

But the feature of Bourassa's speech was its intentional attack on Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Bourassa left the Liberals when Laurier sent troops to South Africa; he joined the Conservatives because Laurier wished to build a Canadian navy, and now, when he appreciates that the Conservatives aided him in this design and defeated the Laurier policy, realizing that none other could be passed by the Senate, he knows that his chief enemy is Laurier. Therefore, with all the bitterness he can invoke, and with a sneer in every sentence, he launches out into the attack, calling Sir Wilfrid "the most nefarious man in Quebec," and ridiculing the Liberal leader's love for France, a love expressed in the latest recent declaration that "if I were younger you would see me take up arms for France." This was the very declaration which upset all the schemings, both public and private, that hold Quebec back. Quebec, urged to come forward by Laurier, may suddenly respond. So Bourassa, foreseeing danger for his policy and regarding himself as the uncrowned king of Canada, the power behind the throne of Borden, emits his chant of hate.

ENGLISH FOR CANADA.

THE USE of different languages in Ontario and Quebec is a great problem; the use of a dozen languages throughout the Dominion of Canada is a greater.

In Canada there are 1,245,175 people of foreign birth, whose native language is not French or English, and it has been estimated that only 5 per cent of this number can speak French or English. These foreigners do not subscribe to Canadian papers, but have a newspaper press of their own, whether German, Austrian, Italian, Finn, Norwegian, Danish, Polish, Swedish, Ruthenian or Jewish. These newspapers are published by aggressive men, who take good care to preserve their bread and butter by fostering the paper in their foreign language. Only a patriot inspired for Canada would seek to teach his ignorant brothers English. It would not be just, perhaps, to prohibit the publication of foreign-language papers in Canada, but it would be a good thing for the country. The great thing is to make Canadians of these people; for their own and their adopted country's sake, they should speak English, and they should be compelled to learn it.

Without English the average foreigner who comes to the country is virtually a beast of burden. The country owes him a chance, for in the truest sense he is a child, and education in English should be compulsory. Everyone realizes Quebec would be a thousand times better off in a business way if it adopted English. This is proved by the transplanted French-Canadian in Maine or Massachusetts. He forges ahead as he becomes proficient in English. If the prejudice on both sides could be cast aside, the whole of Canada would declare, in its own best interests, for the English tongue. The country needs one common ground to achieve success. English is the language of the continent.

The Advertiser's Daily Short Story

(Copyright, 1916, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

On the Crest of a Wave

By Elizabeth E. Shields.

Kathleen Travers Browning of the Brownings of the Short Hills colony, staggered across the brilliant dining-room under the heavy weight of rich foods on the tray held aloof by her strong young arms. In the way of inefficient waitresses, she placed Mrs. John Guyton's coffee at the wrong side of her plate. "Idiot," snapped that lady.

Kathleen fled to the pantry. Standing wearily against the wall, she caught the whispered words of Pete, the head waiter, in his well-bred English voice: "It—it really makes me want to weep to see you doing this work. The trays are much too heavy." He was very much concerned.

"But, Pete, tell me, am I really an idiot?" demanded Kathleen.

The answer in Pete's eyes caused a warm flush to cover her face. In her mad escapade of playing maid at a secluded hotel on a tiny island on the Maine coast Kathleen had found in Pete the best of comrades and the most sincere admirer she had ever known.

Smiling up at the man, she explained gayly: "I never carried such heavy trays in city restaurants."

"These people are brutes," was Pete's savage comment.

The unquenchable thirst of Mrs. Guyton interrupted and Kathleen again started across the dining-room with a tray of water bottles. The humiliation following Kathleen's entrance to the hotel by way of the servants' door was discouraging enough to have forced her to thrust aside her love for adventure and reality and to have engaged the best rooms in the hotel and appear at Mrs. Guyton's table bedecked in gorgeous gowns and the wonderful Browning jewels. Just one thing made the step impossible. Pete—he would have to usher her to her seat!

Kathleen knew she was fair. All her lifetime she had been admired and courted. Since the winter season of gayety and pleasure, a great curiosity had taken possession of her. She wanted to know whether the homage she received was in part due to her wealth and place in society. She wanted to know if as a maid serving soup properly, she would be found as lovely as when she sipped soup daintily at the table of friends.

She found out almost instantly. Her bronze hair and violet eyes evoked admiration, of course, but the men of her own world showed it by furtive winks and flirtations. It was disappointing, too, to know that life behind the kitchen was much the same as on the front piazzas. The difference lay only in its uncouth exterior and a greater amount of tolerance for the faults of others.

In this Pete agreed. Being free every afternoon at two and each evening after eight they spent the time together. Whether splashing about in the tumbling surf, paddling a canoe in the golden path of the moon, or just sitting at the end of the rickety old pier, Kathleen found life wholesome and satisfying. She had never been happier. Here on this dilapidated pier Kathleen passed many hours with her friend watching the ever-changing sea, with nothing to mar the exquisite silence, not a speck on the wide open space of sky and water.

"It is just as though we were the only people in the world," reflected Kathleen idly one evening, as they watched the moon rise across the water.

"We are," promptly answered Pete. "What have we in common with these others?"

The problem of telling Pete the truth about herself became more difficult as the hours with him grew more precious. He was just the head waiter after all, and she a daughter of the Brownings.

Then occurred an insignificant matter that was the turning point in Kathleen's life. She had long since ceased to expect the big, dramatic things to enter into her days.

The extraordinary thirst of Mrs. Guyton had kept Kathleen busy on a dull, foggy day. The heat was intense and life in the kitchen unbearable. Utterly exhausted and weary Kathleen began her task in the dining-room, followed by an encouraging smile from Pete. Spoons slipped from her hands, soups just missed upsetting, ice water intended for the cut-glass tumblers landed on the immaculate table covers and the end of the luncheon hour found Kathleen in the pantry shedding real tears.

"I can't stand it any longer," she sobbed and laughed, Pete stood by helplessly. "It isn't at all what I expected. I'm going right back. I'll teach her—that old cat Guyton."

"We'll go away from it all—we'll go together," Pete breathed in her ear, as he took her in his arms.

Kathleen clung to Pete, happy in his love, miserable in her deception. "I must tell you, Pete—I must."

Soothing and comforting her, Pete led her to the cozy spot they had arranged far out on the edge of the old pier. A thick fog drenched the beach front. They walked slowly along the rotten boards of the pier, which swayed in the terrific wind blowing in from sea. The breakers began a mad plunge a quarter of a mile from shore, ending in dashing white foam far up on the beach.

The worries of a waitress slipped easily and gracefully from Kathleen. She would have one last swim with Pete, then, high and dry in the sand dunes, she would tell him, and together they would adjust matters. Pete loathed the idle rich. Kathleen shuddered at the thought of adjusting her life to living in hotel kitchens, but she knew her father's estate at Short Hills would be just as distasteful to Pete. She postponed it all, however. Gracefully poised on the time-worn rail of the pier, Kathleen dived into an oncoming breaker. Coming to the surface, she shook the water from her eyes, waved at Pete, then struck out for shore.

Closely following her powerful stroke a mountainous breaker grasped Kathleen in its embrace. Desperately fighting, she freed herself from the whirl of the terrific undertow and rose to the surface. She made a feeble effort to swim, but the furious sea leaping after her again caught and pounded her into submission, dragging her toward a low sea wall. Fighting and struggling with every atom of strength left in her body, she rose once more. Stretched before her eyes was a smooth, white field of sea foam and a few feet away the cruel outlines of the sea wall loomed up. She fought hard, only to be dragged down and dashed in shore on a roaring breaker. Giving up the struggle she called out: "Pete! Pete!"

Two powerful arms grasped her body. Pete, fighting like a demon, was holding her up! With his right arm he cut the water and together they resisted the mad sea. With the coming of Pete came a kindly wave, a playful fellow, who perhaps had done grim deeds, and wanting to atone he caught them up and rolled Pete, with Kathleen clinging limply in his arms, up on the beach safely away from old ocean.

In a sheltered spot among the sand dunes, resting in Pete's arms, they watched a dull sun slip behind a distant mountain peak.

"Dinner hour! It's over!" gasped he, sitting up straight.

"We've lost our places," laughed Kathleen.

Arriving at the hotel they found their trunks in the servants' hall, a new head waiter presiding over the dining-room and the orchestra playing a dreamy waltz. They were both dismissed for inattention to duty.

Kathleen fairly danced down the hill to the boat landing. Pete trudged silently by her side. "Both out of jobs," she laughed ruefully.

"We'll find a minister at Portland," said Pete.

Kathleen was silent. Perhaps the telling of her side of the story might be postponed. Their trunks were unloaded from the hotel wagon and placed side by side on the makeshift boat deck. Kathleen sat on Pete's trunk, gazing at him with whimsical eyes. "I should tell you, Pete, about—" Suddenly she shrieked. She pointed to a card neatly printed on the top of Pete's trunk.

"How dared you?" she cried.

The card directed the trunk to be sent to "Sir Peter Gordon-Smith, London, England." Pete, in retaliation, pointed an accusing finger to a name card attached to the express tag on Kathleen's trunk.

"I read that," he explained, "just before we left the hotel. So thought I'd best introduce myself at once."

"Why did you do this? Here, in disguise!" asked Kathleen.

"To find you," he whispered, "and to take a vacation away from the blamed title."

Welcome and Au Revoir.

Welcome home, to the boys of our 1—4—2;

If you see what you want—don't ask—reach it down;
For our hearts and our homes are open to you,
The best we can give is no more than your due.

We wish you good luck and a quick, safe return,
We hope you'll teach lessons the Germans will learn;
When we say au revoir, for we won't say good-bye,
'Twill be hard to keep back a tear and a sigh.

We know "London's Own" is the right kind of stuff,
They'll stand more than a little, e'er they cry, enough;
Here's to you again, "London's Own" 1—4—2,
May the Lord's hand be on you and bring you safe through.

A PAGE OF GENERAL INTEREST TO WOMEN READERS

RED CROSS AND C. W. C. A.

THE SICK AND SORRY SOCK.

There is a hospital at Hyman Hall, though the general public may not be aware of it. It is Sock Hospital, where are brought all the poor, lumpy and ridgy and knotty and ill-knit socks which the good women of Western Ontario, in mistaken zeal, send in to be shipped overseas.

There is a lady superintendent, nurses and surgeons, and the latter perform amazing operations upon the patients. There was an exhibition of these unfortunate ones the other day, and a tragic sight it was to be sure. Let us walk down the wards and view the patients.

Here lies a pair, quite perfect to the uninitiated eye, but the sock lady says, "Take off your glove and run your hand over it." You find it made of hard, harsh wool. A few days ago a returned officer made an appeal, at a public meeting in London, for the best of wool. The soldiers' feet are often made sore because their socks are made from cheap and second quality wool. Beside this pair lie another, also hard and harsh, though the wool of which they are made is the best. What is the matter?

"They have been knit too tightly," responds the nurse. "To be comfortable socks must be knit loosely. We think," she added, "that we will have to send those two pairs to the Home for Incurable socks. It would be cruel to inflict them upon a soldier."

No. 12 needles might have saved this last pair from such a sad fate.

The nurse leads the way to the next bed. Here lies a plain case of deformity. Leg and foot are the size for a big man, but the woman who knit them has cast on her stitches so tightly that the aforesaid man will have to stand outside barefoot, and admire the beautiful knitting. Even if he could squeeze into them that tightly-drawn top would stop the circulation.

Here lies a goodly pile. What do they need, they look perfect. Nothing more serious than a bath. The knitters neglected it. But every sock must be washed before being worn by a soldier. The dye might run and cause blood poisoning, and washing makes the wool soft and comfortable.

These next cases are not so serious, they were ironed the wrong way and cannot be packed properly until they are ironed down the sides, instead of the front and back.

This patient has a shortage of ribs and is in a very bad way. In other words, the ribbing at the top has not been made the regulation 4½ inches. So that sock would slip down. If the ribbing is too long it interferes with the puttee. So the sock lady lays all such aside for treatment.

Here is another deformed pair with a perfectly dreadful ridge all the way down the back of the leg and extending under the heel. Dear, dear! Was the knitter a German who wanted to kill the poor wearer? He might possibly get along with that ridge down the leg, but the doctor decrees that the whole foot must be amputated and knit over again.

Still another case of mal-formation; a fine big manly leg and a dear dainty fine-lady foot! Surely no such misshapen soldier marches in the ranks of the Canadian army. Off they go to the operating room. No sock can be accepted with a foot measuring less than ten inches from the tip of the toe to the heel. And the foot should measure the same width as the leg.

Here lies a double heel, when it should have been single. A double heel on a sock means a blistered heel on a soldier—so off it goes to the ripper.

But we are now in the Toe Ward of the sock hospital, and the sights are dreadful to contemplate. It makes one limp just to look at them. Here is a painful looking case. It has been narrowed in three places so that a nice little hard ridge passes neatly along the sole and under the toe. Another with a like malady has been narrowed above and below the toes instead of at either side, so that a ridge would be sure to catch the poor boy in the right place.

Another bad toe? Yes, the thread at the end has been woven carefully across the top of the toe, so as to make a nice, thick pad, instead of being run up and down at the side where it could not be noticed.

Put one finger inside this sock and another finger outside to meet it. Now rub. Would you like to have all those little knots pressing on your feet? Where did they come from? Oh, the knitter tied her thread every time she took a new one, and she surely knew that that is a very cruel and wicked thing to do.

"Not made according to the Red Cross instructions," is the verdict, and off they go to the operating room.

Here surely is a desperate case. Why all this toe? And why, oh, why, did she make it as long and sharp as a knitting needle? They look as if they might do nicely for the sultan of Turkey when he sits on a divan smoking in his long-pointed red slippers. But who wants to knit for the Turks? "The narrowing has been done too quickly," pronounces the expert, and rip they go!

This sock must have been in the firing line for it has a row of bullet holes in the toe and one at each side, where the heel is taken up. When the dear woman who made it took her darning needle to finish the toe, she neglected to hold her needles close together, and to draw her thread closely.

What is the matter here? Is it possible that the knitter has cruelly sewed a piece of braid along the end of the toe where the edges are joined just to make it hurt? The staff of the sock hospital are charitably inclined, in spite of trials that would embitter the angels, and they say she probably din't mean it. But she did not follow instructions, or her yarn would not have made such a hard ridge as this.

"Be particularly careful that the wool is taken under the knitting needle each time and not over," is a very important part of her instructions she has neglected to read.

We pass down a long melancholy line of ridgy toes, all caused by the wool being pulled too tightly when narrowing, and find ourselves out of the Toe Ward.

But the visit is not yet over. We come immediately upon a big pile of sufferers. They have all been measured and the size marked upon them. But the marking is not quite correct, and it has to be all done over again.

And the sock lady wishes, with all her merry heart, that all socks were sent in unmarked, for the work has only to be done over again.

What is this lonely sock doing here? Was it knit for a one-legged soldier? No, it probably has a mate somewhere, but the maker neglected to fasten them together, and operations have to be suspended while a search is instituted for the truant—more valuable time lost.

Certainly there is no doubt about these pairs being fastened together—they are fastened at top, heel and toe, as though they were determined never to part. And here goes another hour of valuable time, for the socks cannot be examined in this condition. They should have been fastened only at the top, so they have to be all cut apart at the heel and toe.

Well, the exhibition is over, and we come away with the feeling that a sock hospital is a very sorry sight, indeed. For it seems a great pity that the ladies who act as its staff should have to spend valuable time undoing and doing over again work that a little thought and care and a little studying of the instructions would have made unnecessary.

Dear knitters, this is most important work. We would condemn absolutely the factory that would equip our boys with defective rifles, or the Government that would carelessly allow the brave lads to be fed on inferior food. And what shall we say then of the woman who would, merely because she would not take a little extra trouble, send out our soldiers with defective socks? All these little details regarding heels and toes may seem trivial; they are not. They are of vital importance.

Won't you all do your knitting with such care in the future that there will soon be no need for that very wearisome and troublesome and nerve-racking and temper-destroying and time-wasting institution—the sock hospital?

The Canadian War Contingent Association shipped October 3, 1916: Box 1, 45 day shirts, 7 scrapbooks; box 2, 45 day shirts; box 3, 144 pairs of socks; box 4, 54 day shirts; box 5, 144 pairs of socks; box 6, 144 pairs of socks; box 7, 144 pairs of socks; box 8, 144 pairs of socks; box 9, 144 pairs of socks; box 10, 144 pairs of socks; box 11, 45 day shirts, 6 scrap books.

Received shipment, October 3—22 boxes—7 boxes surgical supplies, 1 box shirts, 1 box pillowslips, 1 box towels, 2 boxes helpless shirts, 3 boxes pyjamas, 4 boxes grey shirts, 1 box bed jackets, 1 box bed socks, 1 box old linen, 2 bales pillows.

VERSE--New and Old

HOW DID YOU DIE?

[Copy sent by Poor Man's Wife.]

Did you tackle the trouble that came your way
With a resolute heart and cheerful?
Or hide your face from the light of day
With a craven soul and fearful?
Oh, a trouble's a ton, or a trouble's an ounce,
Or a trouble is what you make it.
And it isn't the fact that you're hurt that counts,
But only How did you take it?

You are beaten to earth? Well, well, what's that?
Come up with a smiling face.
It's nothing against you to fall flat,
But to lie there—that's disgrace.
The harder you're thrown, why, the higher you bounce;
Be proud of your blackened eye.
It isn't the fact that you're licked that counts;
It's How did you fight, and why?

And though you be done to death, what then?
If you battled the best you could.
If you played your part in the world of men,
Why, the critic will call it good.
Death comes with a crawl, or it comes with a pounce,
And whether he's slow or spry,
It isn't the fact you're dead that counts,
But only How did you die?

Bell—That man over there is staring straight at my nose.

Nell—Probably he's a reporter.

Bell—And why should a reporter stare at my nose?

Nell—They are supposed to keep their eye on everything that turns up, aren't they?

"What does this mean, Bridget?" exclaimed the lady of the house, returning from shopping. "The telephone's been taken out."

"Sure, ma'am, the girl cross the way came over and said her missus would like to use it for a little while and I sint it over to her; but I had a terrible job gettin' it unscrewed from the wall, ma'am."

The six daily studies for this week constitute the International S. S. Lesson for next Sunday. Read the Bible Story on which this study is based, as you ponder the following questions:

"Paul Before Felix." Acts, xxiv.

Golden Text—"Herein I also exercise myself to have a conscience void of offense toward God and men always." Acts, xxiv., 16.

13. Verses 10-21—How does Paul show in his defence that the heresy they accuse him of, is the Jewish doctrine which they have forsaken?

14. Verses 22-23—Who was Lysias, the chief captain that Felix wanted to examine, and what part had he taken in this matter?

15. Verses 24-25—Why did Felix send for Paul?

"Meat Prices Will Not Come Down" is the cheerful news from the Department of Agriculture. Meat prices will not worry the man or woman who knows that a Shredded Wheat Biscuit will supply more real body-building nutriment than beefsteak or eggs and at much less cost. Shredded Wheat remains the same price, the same high quality, supplying all the nutriment a man needs for a half-day's work. Two shredded wheat biscuits with peaches and cream or other fruits make a complete nourishing meal at a cost of not over five cents.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

[Correspondents are requested to make their inquiries as brief as possible, and to write on one side of the paper only. It is impossible to give replies within a stated time, as all letters have to be answered in turn. No letter can be answered privately.]

Re Heliotrope Seed.

Dear Miss Grey.—Thank you very much for sending the little basket pattern. I have copied it off and will return it to you. Some time ago I saw where someone wanted to get slips of plants of heliotrope. They are very hard to root and almost impossible to slip, but if the lady would buy a ten-cent package of mixed seed from a reliable florist she could grow all she wants with little trouble, as they germinate readily.

MODERN PRISCILLA.

Ans.—The little basket reached me quite safely again. See recipes you sent under "C. B." heading. Many thanks.

Letter Was Censored.

Dear Miss Grey,—Inclosed find stamped addressed envelope for the C. S. trademarks and Sunkist wrappers, which you have for me, and thank you very much for them. My last letter was so censored I hardly knew it when I saw it in print. "Uncle Josh's" recipes were amusing. I wonder if he has any more stored away in his cook book. As I am in a hurry, good-bye for this time and thank you.

ROSEBUD NO. 1.

P. S.—If anyone could spare me any tulip bulbs or hyacinth bulbs, I would be pleased to get some. My address is with Miss Grey.

Ans.—I'm sorry to have to censor so many of the letters, but it cannot be helped now for a time, and the "slaughter" may even have to be worse than it's been in the past!

Re "Rosebud's" postscript, readers wishing to exchange bulbs will please NOT send them to me, as they are so heavy to mail. Addresses must be obtained and packages mailed direct.

Our Loving Family.

Dear Miss Grey,—I will write again, inclosing one Sweetheart coupon, also 10 cents for "Aunt Nannie's" love quilt. How happy she must be knowing that she has so many friends in your big, loving family—meaning your cosy corner. I hope you will let me call again, as I enjoy you "corner" very much. FLORETTA.

Ans.—Owing to a rush of letters a week or two since, correspondence is delayed getting into print. This was why your previous letter and coupons were not acknowledged until Monday of this week. You'll always be welcome, "Floretta."

A Pathetic Case.

Dear Miss Grey.—I must say a few words in regard to soldiers' wives, and that is that they do not get a bit more money than they ought to get, especially in a case that I know of where the mother of several small children is sick and her husband is in the trenches, and there is practically no one to look after the youngsters. The people who are complaining probably have no father, brother or husband fighting for his country. BLUEBIRD.

Ans.—How sad it is to hear of such pathetic cases, and how little we seem able to do to help. The fact that the husband is risking his life in protection of us at home makes our responsibilities all the heavier. Hope you don't mind my not printing your queries. I'm trying to save space.

1. You may use just "M," but the most preferred way on fine pieces is "McJ."

2. The walking boots are sure to have a certain vogue anyway.

3. Divinity Fudge—Two cups granulated sugar, half cup boiling water; stir to dissolve; half cup corn syrup. Boil until brittle in water. When cool enough, beat in the whites of two beaten eggs and walnuts cut very fine.

4. A few nice poems are at hand, and I shall mail them to you. Your coupon help much appreciated.

Cleaning Crepe de Chine.

Dear Miss Grey, — I see where "Darkey" is wanting to know how to home clean a dark green crepe de chine. I very successfully cleaned one this summer by merely washing in warm water into which I had put a good handful of cooking salt, and some vinegar, then pressing it before quite dry. My friends tell me, however, that I always have phenomenal success in my laundering, so, perhaps, it was only my "luck" that it looked perfectly new when finished.

May I call again when I have any little help to give?

SEMPER FIDELIS.

Ans.—Am hoping your "sperience" will be read by "Darkey." Yes, indeed, or don't wait to be helpful—just come anyway.

When the Baby's Cross.

Dear Miss Grey,—I have a few clippings that might do for some entertainment; if not, let the W. P. B. read them. There is one entitled, "How Did You Die? I think it is real nice.

Here is just a little hint that might help some mother whose baby might be cross. That is, a baby under six months old. If it wants to be always in the arms and you can't get your work done without it crying, just put a piece of paper under its feet so it can kick it, and you will find it a great help. Or get some lids from syrup pails, or something that won't hurt the hands, punch a hole and string them and place so baby can touch them. It keeps the baby amused. And you might not think a baby of that age would need anything besides the nurse to keep it from being hungry, but just try an arrowroot biscuit rolled, and hot water and milk poured on it and put in a bottle, and find the difference. Just once a day is plenty.

It is such a comfort if the mother can work without the baby crying and fretting. My baby is five months old and I have tried these methods for the past two months, and I can mostly always do my work while he is laughing and crowing. But before, I had to let him cry or let the work go.

"Mrs. Homebird" has not been in lately. I wonder if that little sunbeam chewed her up for the want of something to try her new teeth on? I hope not. A POOR MAN'S WIFE.

Ans.—Shall make very good use of your clippings. The poem, "How Did You Die?" is a fine one, and I shall be glad to print it. "Faded Lily's" letter will be mailed you. Always glad to publish practical hints that may help other mothers in perplexity, so do not hesitate to send your ideas.

Men, Women and Style.

Dear Miss Grey,—Have noticed letters from time to time printed in your paper regards "immodesty of apparel." I have been wondering if these men are young or old.

I myself think that the styles are ultra, but whose fault is it? The designers of fashion, I would say. And who are they? Mostly men, of course. Woman dresses to be in style these days, and if she doesn't, she is talked about (it seems to me) more than if she didn't (the majority being men, don't you know).

For instance: there is a well-to-do young lady residing on our street, who wears long, narow skirts and old-fashioned hats—well, you should hear the way that poor lady is laughed at (yes, by men) because she is not in style.

Again, men will not be bothered with ladies who do not dress in style. How is this? Woman, it seems to me, then has to dress in fashion to be on the right side of her master, and it is some woman's master who helps to design our clothes.

In closing, I would say that if woman had more of her own way, that this world would be purer and sweeter than it is today. What do you say, Miss Grey? I remain, SILVER BELL.

Ans.—I'm glad someone has introduced this subject, "Silver Bell"; to tell the truth, I was just on the verge of it myself when your letter came. What do I say? I believe you have hit the mark pretty fairly, but, oh dear, somone'll start a loud, loud objection to that phrase of yours—"her master." I'm fearfully awaiting the first brick from "Sylvia Pankhurst"!

Just Has To Come.

Dear Cynthia Grey.—It seems soon to trouble you again, but one just has to come to the Mail-Box once in a while.

What time do you put hyacinth and narcissus bulbs in to have them bloom for Christmas?

Some time ago I asked for a little poem called "Jack," by Jean Blewit. I would be very pleased to get it, also "Canadian-Born," by Pauline Johnson, and "The House by the Side of the Road."

Am sending to you by this mail pattern of child's sleeper which someone wanted.

Am inclosing a recitation which someone may want, and stamped addressed envelope if you get the verses for me.

Sincerely, KATHERINE.

Ans.—1. If planted about October 15 or 20, the bulbs should have ample time to root and blooom by Christmas. You know the procedure, of course—to set the newly-potted bulb away in a dark, cool cellar for some four weeks to form the roots, then bring to light; water regularly and watch them grow.

Think I can lay a finger on at least two of those poems myself, and shall be pleased to forward. The one you send is a pathetic bit of verse.

The Terrible War.

Dear Miss Grey,—Here are two Sweetheart coupons for "Young Stepmother." I hope she will soon have enough coupons for her cabinet. Also seven flags to help satisfy your flag inquirers. What size are the silk blocks for "Aunt Nannie"? Is it too late to make one now?

Isn't this war terrible? God speed the day when it shall end.

A STRATHROY READER.

Ans.—The pattern has been handed to that department. Not particularly against the rules, but best to send it direct, as it saves any confusion. Of the several silk blocks send for "Aunt Nannie," as near as I can recollect, they were about 9 or 10 inches square, but I am not sure. Not too late, I think, to make one now.

No New Hat.

Dear Miss Grey,—Here I come—a soldier's wife. May I chime in? I have not my fall hat yet, but I will wait and get it out of half my husband's wages, and then the country won't be paying for it! I am sorry we soldier wives take up so much of some people's time, but there are a good many in Miss Grey's circle who have a heart. If those who have so much to say about we soldier wives would get their own husband or son in khaki, perhaps they could set us a good example. You do not know the suspense we suffer, and the lonely nights we put in. I have five small children, and I never found enough left over paying rent and buying wood and eatables, to buy very much of a hat or silk dress. If we get a silk dress, it is earned in some factory, or perhaps our mother gives it to us. Perhaps there are some who do not spend their money right. It must be those without children.

I have come to beg a few songs. (I am going to sing, and maybe I will forget I need a hat.) Could any reader who likes soldiers' wives supply me with a few songs?—"Keep the Home Fires Burning," "Good Luck to the Boys of the Allies," "Young Maggie," "Down By the Old Mill Stream," "Just Before the Battle, Mother," "Everywhere I Lay My Head is Home, Sweet Home to Me," and "There's a Mother, Old and Grey, Who Needs Me Now." I will give in return some flags and soap wrappers. ENOUGH SAID.

Ans.—I have no doubt copies of these will be sent, as we have many who are of the soldier-wife fraternity.

Notes.

"M. M."—Your envelope and designs have been sent to "Mabel No. II."

"Blue-Eyed Betty."—Your letter has been sent on to "Just Eighteen," as requested.

"Soldier's Daughter."—Coupons have been sent to "Slocum," as you wished. And some flags mailed to your address.

"Brown Eyes No. 3."—You will receive packet of orange wrappers, likely before this sees daylight in print.

"Sister Winnie."—Asks for tobacco coupons. She needs about two hundred, as is anxious to get a wrist watch.

PATRIOTISM ??

[Elspeth Wilson.]

In a city throbbing with patriotic zeal, where kindly acts for the relief of soldiers, sailors and refugees are widely known, one experiences something of a "jolt" when unexpectedly confronted by conflicting conditions. Accompanied by some friends yesterday, each of us in search of a dainty piece of china as a gift for a little bride-elect, we entered a leading china department, where ravishing fine-wares tempted the eye and pocket. Carefully choosing articles, useful as well as beautiful, we departed, to find later, when unwrapping our goods, a stamp well covered by price-mark—a stamp that robbed our gifts of all beauty, since it bore the name of the Hun enemy for whose suppression our gallant boys are daily shedding their life's blood. We wonder if this is patriotism in its highest sense, since the goods were represented to us as the "very latest," yet bear the brand of the enemy. It is evident that more or less trafficking in foreign goods is still continued, and such goods foisted upon truly patriotic citizens.

Hyacinth bulbs do best when planted in the autumn—October is the best time. See that the pot has good drainage before planting. Fill about half full of soil, pressing down firmly; place the bulb in position so that the top is about an inch below the top of the pot or box; fill in level with soil, and press down around the bulb carefully until surface of soil is about half an inch below the top of the pot. This allows space for watering, and the top of the bulb will be just below the soil surface. Water well and set away in a cool, dark place; leave there for several weeks until a good root system is developed, say four or five weeks; water about once a week or less; bring the pot up to the light and warmth. The blooms will begin to show before long, and as the flowers develop the stalk will lengthen.

Daffodils should be planted in good soil, and after ground freezes cover bed with leaves or manure. Any good garden spot will suit them, as the coming flower is already in the bulb.

Divide the old and crowded peonies this month.

WOMEN'S GOLF ASSOCIATION FINISHES SECOND ROUND

Mrs. W. A. Gavin, Eastern Titleholder, Defeats Mrs. L. C. Stockton, Somerville, N. J.

BELMONT, Mass., Oct. 4.—Second round matches in the international championship tournament of the Woman's Golf Association were decided today, as the previous play of the competitors has indicated. Mrs. W. A. Gavin, the Englishwoman who holds the eastern title, defeated Mrs. L. C. Stockton of Somerville, N. J., 4—2. Her card of 83 was the best of the day, just as her 81 of yesterday led all the others. Mrs. Thomas Hucknall of Forest Hills, who yesterday defeated Mrs. J. V. Hurd, had to play 20 holes to defeat Miss Ethel Campbell of Philadelphia.

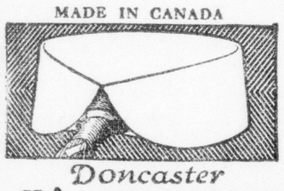

Nineteen holes were required to give Miss Mildred Caverly of Philadelphia victory over Mrs. E. C. Letts of Cincinnati. The southern golfer, Miss Alexia Stirling of Atlanta, today played what was considered her normal game for the first time in this tournament, and scored an easy victory, 5 up and 4 to play, over Mrs. G. H. Stetson, of Huntingdon Valley.

WE WILL WIN FLAG, SAYS DODGERS' HEAD OF WORLD'S SERIES

Robinson Believes His Team Better Than Sox.

MARQUARD IN TOP FORM

Will Probably Pitch First Game in Brooklyn—One Big Wager.

[Canadian Press.]

Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 5.—Wilbert Robinson, manager of the Brooklyn Nationals, will pit his regulars against New York in the game in Brooklyn this afternoon as a final workout for the opening of the world series at Boston on Saturday. "We are going out to win, and I think we can do it," said Robinson. "Our team has played good ball all season, and we held the lead almost all the way through, except for a day or two here and there. We measure up to the Red Sox, and with our team playing its best ball right now, there is no reason why it can't win. We'll show the fans some real playing. Marquard, Coombs, Cheney, Pfeffer and Smith will show them some pitching, and we are not worrying."

Marquard in Top Form.

"Rube" Marquard, who is reported to have been selected to pitch the opening game for Brooklyn, said he was in top form now, and that Brooklyn is going to win. "This team has nothing to fear from Boston," he added. "We are sure right up to their standard in every department, and believe me, we are going to trim them. All I hope is that I can pitch the same sort of ball that I have been pitching during the last couple of weeks."

Jack Coombs also expressed himself as confident of the outcome for Brooklyn. "If anyone believes Boston is going to ride over us he is making a big mistake."

One Big Wager.

The first big wager here on the world series was announced today when it was stated that E. E. Smathers, the owner of fast horses, had placed $20,000 to $14,000 on the Boston Americans to win. A number of smaller wagers at 10 to 6 were reported.

It was announced that the four umpires chosen for the world's series would meet in Boston today to agree upon a uniform interpretation of rules. The "infield fly" is one point on which an agreement is desired, because in the American League a runner must hold his base on such a fly, while in the National League he can run at his own risk.

Good Boxing Bill for Local Fans on Thanksgiving Day

Three 6-Round Preliminaries Precede Fisher-Brennan 10-Round Go.

Twenty-eight rounds of good, clean boxing, with all the thrills that go with boxing bouts, such as have been put on here recently, will be staged Thanksgiving Day night in the Masonic Temple. The main bout, of course, will be the ten-round affair between Frankie Brennan of Detroit, the Michigan middleweight champion, and "Young" Fisher of Syracuse, N. Y., who also has a few title bouts to his credit. Fisher fought a draw with George Rivet, the Montreal boy, so he looks like a good man to meet Brennan, who is a huskier lad than his brother, Eddie Brennan, who fought Rivet here a couple of weeks ago.

Preliminaries Are Good.

The preliminaries will be an important feature of the program. Matchmaker Zoccano has secured some good boys, and some good bouts should result. All the preliminary bouts will go six rounds. Cookson and Lucas, local boys, who fight at 105 pounds, will start the bill. Dutton and Algrove, two local 133-pounders, will come next, and Wainwright and Stackley will meet in the third bout. Tom Cook and A. T. Taylor will officiate.

LOUISVILLE AND OMAHA PLAY 12-INNING TIE, 3—3

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 4.—The first game of the Inter-League post season series between the winners of pennants in the Western League and the American Association, resulted today in a 3 to 3 12-inning tie between Omaha and Bill Clymer's Louisville Colonels.

BOWLERS WILL MEET TO FORM CITY LEAGUE

A meeting of all tenpin bowlers has been called for Friday evening at 8:15 o'clock in the National bowling alley for the purpose of organizing a city league for the winter. Al clubs or other organizations wishing to enter teams are urged to have a representative present.

With the Trotters and Pacers

[BY J. H. F.]

CHILLCOOTE, NAT RAY'S GOOD trotter, will go down the big line next year. He will be heavily staked, and if he trains to form, it will take quite a trotter to beat him.

IT IS PROBABLE ALSO THAT Dayspring, his consistent pacer, will be given a chance in the stakes. He has been a big money winner for Nat this year.

PETER VOLO AND VOLGA ARE an amazing pair of youngsters from one dam. They have made some history of the trotting horse.

THERE WILL BE A GOOD FLOCK of free for all pacers next year, with Miss Harris M., Roan Hal, Ben Earl and a flock of others, all nags which can pace close to two minutes.

BINGEN IS THE ONLY HORSE TO sire one two-minute trotter, Uhlan, and the dam of another, Lee Axworthy.

TOM MURPHY HAS SEVERAL horses belonging to Miss K. L. Wilks, Galt, but they were not sent to the races because of a bereavement in Miss Wilks' family.

THERE IS A PACING STALLION name, "A Game of Chance." He is.

BARON WOOD, THE SARNIA pacer, has been close up in 2:05¼ over the mile rings. If he goes right next year, he should take some beating.

TOMMY MURPHY WILL PROBABly lead in money winning this year, in spite of the fact that he had no trotter for the big stakes. The Real Lady and Expressive Lou have kept him well up.

THE RACING MANNERS OF HAL B. Jun., according to experts, alone kept him from being a big winner on the Grand Circuit. He is as temperamental as a prima donna, but he's a bear when going right.

AMONG THE HORSES THAT URI Pierce will sell on October 10 are Unco, 2:11½, a race horse and a proved sire, Hindenberg, a 2-year-old stallion by The Harvester, 2:01, out of Recoleta, the dam of five in the list, Black Baronness, by Baron Bell, a well-bred and racy mare; Orico, a 2-year-old, by Manrico, by Ozalla, a fine trotter, and as pretty as a doll; a 2-year-old brother to Vanko, Ozalla, by Allie Wilkes, X Kurapa, by Garnbetta Wilkes, Harriet Gratten, the last three fine brood mares, and a lot of young things, all magnificently bred. Horsemen can pick out something good here.

MOST OF THE CANADIAN horses that went across the line are back in their stables, getting a rest for the ice races.

PETER MAC, THE CLEVELAND stallion touted to be the real thing in 1916, but which went wrong, is in training, and has been a mile in 2:05. He will be saved for the big stakes in 1917.

A SYRACUSE COURT HAS awarded Gatcomb $12,834 for injuries to his horse, Gay Audubon, in an accident there. Some humans could not get half as much. Gatcomb does not win either.

HAZEL POINTER, DETROIT PACer, by Star Pointer Jun., out of a Monbars mare, is said to be a hummer. The breeding looks pleasant enough.

IT IS A QUEER FALL FAIR RACE meet that does not see Dan McEwen in the stand. The G. O. M. is looking fit, and improving every day.

FAVORITES FAIL TO SHOW ANYTHING AT SAGINAW

Cliff Moquette, Conroy Blake and Lady Mac, Are Backed Heavily, But Are Beaten Easily.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

SAGINAW, Oct. 4.—Cliff Moquette, that burned up the shortship track back in July, and had been shipped all the way from Cumberland, Md., for Saginaw's meeting, was made a prohibitive favorite today in the 2:14 pace, but never showed anything to justify his supporters. Birdie Welch took the first heat in easy style; Sunburn Pointer took the second from Birdie, but lost the third by a nose to Grey Ghost, and then came back and took the fourth from Grey Ghost in the drive down the stretch. Darkness fell after the fourth heat, and this race went over until tomorrow.

Conroy Blake and Lady Mac, favored in the 2:25 trot, never won a heat. In this race, after Baron Hope, a rank outsider, had landed the first two heats, A. H. Mack, a third choice, came through for the last three. Driver McNabb was fined $25 for not trying with Baron Hope in the fifth heat. Summaries:

JEWS PROTEST AGAINST PROPOSED DEPORTATION

Russian and Polish Refugees in England Not Keen for War.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, Oct. 5.—A cablegram protesting against a reported attempt in the British House of Commons to deport Russian and Rumanian refugees from England unless they join the British army, was sent today to Sir Herbert Samuel, home secretary of England. The protest was the result of a mass meeting here last night called by the National Workmen's Committee on Jewish rights, which is said to represent 500,000 workers.

The cablegram sent to Mr. Samuels read as follows:

"The Jews are victimized practically now in all the warring countries, in Russia and in Austria, in Rumania, and in Turkey. It would be a great misfortune to the cause of humanity if England, the traditional land of freedom and democracy, should join the forces oppressing the Jews."

Dispatches from London in August stated that the British Government had proposed to enact a law to send to Russia the Russian and Polish Jews living in England unless they enlisted in the British army; but this aroused a storm if disapproval. A committee of leading Russian Jews was then organized to conduct an active recruiting campaign. An offer was to be made to Jews who enlisted before September 30 last to remit their naturalization fees and to organize them into a Jewish corps.

Light Workout For Carrigan's Champion Crew

Ten-Inning Game Is Pulled Off on Brave's Field by Red Sox.

BOSTON, Oct. 4.—Manager Carrigan of the Boston Red Sox put his men through a light workout this afternoon on the Braves' field, where the world's series games in this city are to be played. The squad was divided into two teams, and ten innings were played. All the regular pitchers were sent in to work for an inning or two, and batters were given plenty of opportunity to hit the ball in order to accustom the fielders to judging fly-balls in the sunlit spaces and the shadows of the park.

Barry's Hand Still Weak.

Capt. Barry was second baseman of one of the teams, but his injured hand is still weak, and it is not believed that he will figure in the world's series. Janvrin, who has been at second in Barry's absence, is expected to play this position.

Tomorrow a team of Red Sox players will go to Worcester, where they will play a game with the Philadelphia American League team for the benefit of the memorial fund for John H. Gaffney, a former National League umpire. Headquarters for the world's series will be opened at the Hotel Lennox in Boston Friday afternoon.

TRANSYLVANIA STAKE BRINGS OUT THE RIVALS

[Canadian Press.]

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 5.—Mabel Trask and St. Frisco are on the program to renew their rivalry in the Transylvania stake for 2:08 class trotters, which is the chief attraction at the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association meeting here today. The two have met eight times this year, Mabel Trask being returned the winner five times and St. Frisco three. The value of the stake is $5,000. Other horses entered in the Transylvania include Nathan Axworthy, Grattan Boy, Al Mack, Virginia Barnett, Laramie Lad, Sadie S., Hum Fast, Baccili, Alice Woodford, Alma Forbes, Donna Clay and The Eno.

MORE RECORDS FALL AT LEXINGTON TRACK

Lee Axworthy Goes a Mile in 1:59 1-2 for New Mark.

ROAN HAL SHOWS SPEED

Lowers Pacing Gelding Record for the Season to 2:00 3-4.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 4. — One world's record and two season's records were broken at the third day's racing today of the Kentucky Horse Breeders' Association fall meeting. The world's record was broken when Lee Axworthy, 2:00, in an effort to break the track record of 2:02 for trotting stallions, made by Peter Volo last year, lowered his own world's record to 1:59½.

Lucile Spier, the world's champion mare on a half-mile track, went to beat 2:05, and trotted the mile in 2:03¾, which is the season's mark for trotting mares, and Roan Hal, in winning the Board of Commerce stake for 2:00 pacers, went the second mile in 2:00¾, which is also the season's mark for pacing geldings.

All the races today were decided by straight heats.

The results:

LEONARD WILL PITCH OPENER FOR RED SOX

Carrigan Will Likely Be Behind the Bat.

HUNDREDS OF FANS THERE

Reservations Are Over-Subscribed by Nearly Thousand Applications.

Boston, Oct. 5.—With the first game of the world series to be played in this city two days away, virtually every element in the local end of that event was in readiness today.

The world champion Boston Americans, marking time from the end of the season which brought them another pennant to the hour they meet the Brooklyn Nationals on Saturday in defence of greater baseball honors, divided forces. One group, headed by Capt. Jack Barry, went to Worcester to oppose the Philadelphia Americans in a game arranged to assist a memorial fund for the old-time umpire, John H. Gaffney. Others of the team went again to Braves Field, where the local games will be played, for light practice. Manager Carrigan, who was with the latter group, said that "the boys are in good shape, except for Foster and Barry." Whether either or both will be able to take an active part in the series was still uncertain, he said. Close followers of the team, claiming no authority for their statement, predicted today that Carrigan himself would catch the opening game, with Leonard as the pitcher.

Vast Crowd Promised.

Allotment of the 27,000 reserved seat tickets was finished early today, with probably more than 1,000 applications unanswered. The available reservations were over-subscribed so greatly that many persons who asked for a modest pair of seats were allowed but one, while others asking six and eight in some instances obtained only a pair. To receive their tickets applicants besieged the club box offices today, and with the announcement of last night that reservations were not specific, but applied only to the number of seats allowed, with early comers getting the preference of location, the grand stand ticket lines resembled a bleacher rush.

This desire to be on the grounds early was reflected today in the arrivals at hotels here of hundreds of visitors, some of whom, at least, had come ahead of time, hoping to get the pick of seats. Hotelmen reported early indications of a tremendous business, requests for reservations having taxed the capacity in several instances to the point where cots were ordered installed.

The extent of the appeal of the world series as an event as widespread in interest as the name implies, was shown by requests to club and press officials. Many persons had sent inquiries from the battle front in France some weeks ago, from the Canadian Northwest by telegraph within the past week, and from Mexico. The committee in charge of press arrangements, reporting a greater demand for newspaper representation than ever before, said today that applications had come from Canada, Cuba and Panama.

POPE AND PEACE.

Berlin, Oct. 5.—Pope Benedict, according to Germania, recently wrote to Cardinal von Bellinger, archbishop of Munich, saying that the pope had done everything possible in the past two years to restore peace and diminish the horrors of war, and that he thanked God something had been accomplished.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE

for the health of the family? The mother, of course! She is naturally particular to give her children only the purest of internal medicines, but she may not always know that a remedy applied to the skin enters the child's system, by absorption, just as surely as a medicine that is swallowed. This is a fact, and the mother should, therefore, use only the purest ointment obtainable.

Scientific analysis has proved Zam-Buk to be absolutely pure. The great English Chemist, Mr. W. Lascelles Scott, says: "I have made an exhaustive analysis of Zam-Buk and have no hesitation in certifying its purity and its inestimable value for skin ailments and injuries."

Although the healing powers of Zam-Buk are beyond those of other ointments, it is at the same time so refined that it agrees with the most sensitive skin—even the skin of a baby. Mothers who have once used it say they cannot do without Zam-Buk.

It is best for eczema and all skin diseases, ringworm, blood-poison, scalp sores, ulcers, boils, pimples, piles, burns, scalds, cuts, etc. All druggists or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

COMBUSTION CAUSE OF MANY FIRES IN W. ONTARIO BARNS

Toronto, Oct. 4.—In consequence of the serious conditions which have recently confronted rural Ontario in heavy losses from fires, Provincial Fire Marshal E. P. Heaton will call a conference of agricultural, building and insurance experts to consider plans regulating losses and possible legislative enactments.

His recent investigations, conducted in co-operation with the attorney-general and agricultural departments, establish the fact that the fires have been caused by spontaneous combustion, resultant upon the storing in unventilated barns of large quantities of insufficiently cured hay.

During the months of August and September in Western Ontario alone there were 121 well-filled barns totally destroyed by fire. In all cases the cause of the fires was unknown. The loss totals over $600,000, about $180,000 of which fell upon mutual insurance companies, and $120,000 fell directly upon the farmers themselves. These figures are compiled from the returns which have already reached Mr. Heaton's office, and there are still additional reports to come in.

"So far as our investigation has gone," said Mr. Heaton yesterday, "there has been no evidence of incendiarism. On the contrary, all facts point to the theory of spontaneous combustion."

BEGIN HOT WATER DRINKING IF YOU DON'T FEEL RIGHT

Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.

If you wake up with a bad taste, bad breath and tongue is coated; if your head is dull or aching; if what you eat sours and forms gas and acid in stomach, or you are bilious, constipated, nervous, sallow and can't get feeling right, begin inside bathing. Drink before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will flush the poisons and toxins from stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels and cleanse, sweeten and purify the entire alimentary tract. Do your inside bathing immediately upon arising in the morning to wash out of the system all the previous day's poisonous waste, gases and sour bile before putting more food into the stomach.

To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood, nerves, and muscles became loaded with body impurities, get from your pharmacist a quarter pound of limestone phosphate, which is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except for a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant.

Just as soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and freshening, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Men and women who are usually constipated, bilious, headachy or have any stomach disorder should begin this inside bathing before breakfast. They are assured they will become real cranks on the subject shortly.

PATRIOTIC FUND MUST BE RAISED OVER PAST YEAR

Executive Estimates That $13,500,000 Will Be Required.

CONTINUE SUBSCRIPTIONS

Cities Asked To Give On Same Scale as Before, If Possible.

OTTAWA, Oct. 4.—The national executive committee of the Canadian patriotic fund met here today with the Duke of Connaught in the chair, and thoroughly considered the policy to be followed for 1917.

It was pointed out that during the four months of 1914 the fund expended $511,000; that during the calendar year, 1915, about $4,200,000; and that during 1916 there will be spent, exclusive of Manitoba, between $9,800,000 and $10,000,000. The requirements for 1917, including Manitoba, will be $13,500,000. It is proposed to ask those communities throughout Canada, which contributed in 1916, to continue their subscriptions during the ensuing year at the same rate as before, and to approach the several Provincial Governments, asking them to provide the amount by which the expenditure of 1917 will exceed that of 1916.

The following statement was issued: "Roughly speaking, our sources of revenue are of three classes:

"(a) Contributions in cities and large towns.

"(b) Grants from county councils and township councils.

"(c) Collections in unorganized districts.

Cities Asked to Repeat.

"(a) We will ask the cities and towns, which are separate from their respective counties for taxation purposes, to give again as nearly as possible on the same scale as heretofore.

"(b) We shall further request the county councils to continue and, in some instance, to increase their present monthly grants.

"(c) Throughout the unorganized areas, which cannot be otherwise reached (such as Muskoka, Parry Sound, Nipissing, Temiskaming, Kenora, Sudbury, Algoma, Thunder Bay, and Rainy River) we shall continue our present efforts to stimulate interest in each locality, and to raise such moneys as the people of these districts feel willing and able to give."

Government Excepted.

The question was raised as to the advisability of asking federal assistance for the fund, but, after full consideration, it was decided that such action was neither necessary or advisable. The Dominion Government is already paying in separation allowances to soldiers' dependents fully $2,000,000 per month. This money is for the most part being raised by Government loans, which future generations are to be called upon to pay. The soldier, himself, on his return, must assume his share of this debt.

QUEBEC DELEGATION URGES THE PREMIER TO ABOLISH THE BAR

QUEBEC, Oct. 4.—Replying to a delegation composed of some three hundred advocates of temperance urging provincial prohibition, Sir Lomer Gouin in the Legislative Assembly this afternoon sought to mitigate the rigorous demands of the delegates by asking them what they would think of a system that would not include wines and beer.

Judge Lafontaine, president of the Montreal Anti-Alcohol League, of whom Sir Lomer asked the question, replied that unadulterated wines could only be bought by the rich and the law should be uniform. As to beer he termed it a bad and unsanitary beverage, and as an example he cited Germany, where beer is so extensively consumed, and asked if a more brutal nation could be found.

Premier Gouin assured the delegates that their appeal had not fallen on deaf ears and that the Government's attitude towards temperance had not changed. While some felt that the time had come for prohibition and that the people were prepared for it, other important persons thought that the time had not yet come. It was plain that the Government was facing a difficult problem and opinions which would have to be weighed. He promised that the Government would give the requests all the consideration which they deserved and assured them that his colleagues and himself would prove themselves worthy of the confidence of the people of the province of Quebec.

BIG ZEPP DESTROYED IN RAID ON MANNHEIM

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 4.—Via London.—The newspaper Les Nouvelles says that in the air raids on Mannheim, Germany, on September 27, a zeppelin 750 feet in length was destroyed and much other damage was done. Twenty-six workmen were killed and 40 wounded.

A French official statement on September 23 reported that French aviators had dropped bombs on Mannheim.

AGED WYOMING MAN IS KILLED ON FARM BY GRAVEL CAVE-IN

Moses Simmons, Aged 72 Years, Suffocated.

BORN NEAR DELAWARE

Discovery Is Made by Daughter Not Far From Home Funeral Friday.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

WYOMING, Oct. 4.—Moses Simmons, aged 72 years, met a tragic death on his farm today, the result of the caving in of a gravel pit in which he was working alone.

The discovery was made by his daughter, Mrs. Sarah Wilkinson, with whom he lived, the fatality occurring not far from the home.

Mrs. Wilkinson summoned help, and the body was promptly released, and Dr. D. Reid summoned, but life was extinct. Dr. Reid, being coroner, decided an inquest was unnecessary, as death was obviously due to suffocation.

Mr. Simmons was well known in Middlesex County. He was born near Delaware, and lived many years on the second concession of Caradoc.

The funeral will be held on Friday, leaving the Wyoming home at 9 a.m. and proceeding by auto to Cook's Church, Caradoc, where service will be held at 3 o'clock. Interment will be made in the family burying plot.

Mr. Simmons is survived by his daughter, Mrs. Wilkinson, a granddaughter, one sister, Mrs. Bowering, at Lambeth, and two brothers, William and Allan of Michigan.

EAUCOURT, HELD BY BRITISH, IS A NOTABLE GAIN

Junction Point of Four Roads, One to Bapaume.

FRENCH PUSH NORTHWARD

Gain German Trenches in the Neighborhood of Fregicourt.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—Eaucourt l'Abbaye, a village on the Somme front, from which roads lead to Bapaume, Le Sars, Gueudecourt and Martinpuich, is now entirely in the hands of the British after several days of severe fighting. This was announced in the war office statement today.

While the British were making secure their footing here, the French were pushing their way northward along the Peronne-Bapaume road, with the result that they captured a strongly-fortified line of German defences near Fregicourt, northeast of Combles. Three hundred prisoners, including ten officers, were taken in this operation.

Rains have continued to fall throughout the day along the allied line, and have hindered operations. Tonight's statement from the British War Office says:

Need Good Weather.

The need of good weather for allied success was voiced tonight by the Earl of Derby, under-secretary of state for war, in an interview. He expressed keenest satisfaction with the progress of the western campaign, and added:

"One of the most striking features of the present phase of the war is the notable decline in the accuracy of the official German reports, which over a considerable period, I am inclined to believe, were reasonably accurate. Now they are evidently written for home and neutral consumption; they are notoriously false in what they relate, and strikingly significant in what they minimize or conceal. The best example of this is their delay in admitting the fall of Thiepval and Combles.

Thought Thiepval Impregnable.

"The Germans absolutely believed Thiepval to be impregnable, and never made the slightest arrangements for withdrawal, and when the British made their final assault, a regiment which had asked the privilege of holding the place without relief, fought to a finish."

Asked about the possibility of the end of trench warfare, Lord Derby said it was impossible to make any prediction with respect to that.

GODERICH LADY'S DEATH

Mrs. Alex. Straiton, Wife of Town Treasurer, Passes Away.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

GODERICH, Oct. 4.—A rather sudden death removed one of the best-known ladies of Goderich in the person of Mrs. Alex Straiton, wife of the town treasurer. She was not feeling well for a few days, but was not thought seriously ill until late last night.

Mrs. Straiton was a great worker in Knox Church and was a resident here for nearly thirty-three years, coming with her husband, who was then the G. T. R. station agent. She leaves four sons, John of Goderich, Thomas, Arthur and Dougall of British Columbia; five daughters, Mrs. O. C. Whitely of town, Mrs. (Capt.) Campbell of Wingham, Mrs. Chesney of Seaforth, Mrs. Robbins and Catherine of Rochester, N.Y.

ALLIES RECAPTURE SLICE OF SERBIA FROM THE BULGARS

250 Square Kilometres Have Been Won Back to Peter.

SERBS WIN AT CERNA

Cross River and Carry Town and the Railway Station.

PARIS, Oct. 4.—The Serbians have crossed the Tcherna River and defeated their adversary on the Nize Mountain in Serbia, and also captured the Kessali railroad station, according to advices received here.

The Serbian territory recaptured now embraces 230 square kilometres (about 100 square miles), including seven towns.

French and Russians also continue victoriously their forward movement.

"The Serbian, French and Russian forces are continuing victoriously their advance," says today's war office statement regarding operations on the Macedonian front.

"During the night of Tuesday they attained the Petalino line on the western slope of Kaimakcalan. In the loop of the Cerna, on the Kenali-Negochani line, their left wing holds Pisoderi, at the foot of Mount Cecebo.

"In the valley of the Struma, the British repulsed violent attacks at Jelikoli (Yenikui)."

BRITISH SUCCESSES.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—British successes on the Macedonian front, south of the Seres road, are recorded in the official statement issued today. The statement says:

"Early yesterday our troops advanced from our new positions near the Karabakaui villages, and captured the part of Yenikeui, which lies to the south of the Seres road.

"The Bulgarians attacked immediately, but their first counter-attack was broken up by our artillery fire. The second attack had no more success than the first. During the evening, a third attack, preceded by a heavy bombardment, was made with fresh troops, and fighting continues. Severe casualties were inflicted on the enemy."

Berlin Admits Loss.

The official communication issued at Berlin says that German and Bulgarian forces on the western end of the Macedonian front, where heavy fighting with the Serbians has been in progress for several weeks, have again fallen back. Today's official statement reports the withdrawal of troops near Presba Lake to prepared positions.

The statement follows:

"Between Presba Lake and the Nize Hill, north of Kaimakcalan height, our troops have withdrawn to new positions, in accordance with orders. Fighting continues in the Nize hill.

"Northwest of Lake Tahinos the enemy is still maintaining himself in Karazakob, on the left bank of the Struma."

STEAMER AND BARGES SUNK OFF SABLE ISLE

Vessels Carrying Cargoes to Atlantic Coast.

DETROIT, Oct. 4.—A private message received tonight by a Detroit vessel agent from Capt. J. R. Carr announced the sinking of the steamer Gettysburg and barges Arenac and Alexander, well-known Great Lakes vessels, in a northwest gale off Sable Island. The boats went down last Sunday, according to the message, which is dated from Portland.

Capt. Carr was taking the Gettysburg and her consorts from the lakes to the Atlantic coast. The crews were saved by the liner Sagamore. The boats left the lakes about ten days ago.

ZEPPS WILL CONTINUE RAIDS UPON ENGLAND

LONDON, Oct. 4.—London will continue to be visited by zeppelins, despite the recent losses and the great improvement in the capital's air defences. This opinion was expressed to the Canadian Press today by the Earl of Derby, who said:

"Raids will continue for the effect on the German people, who have been taught that zeppelins, like submarines, could bring England to her knees. Hence the ridiculous communiques and newspaper articles in Germany, representing that England was terrorized, and London in flames. I will not say that London is the best defended of the Allies' capitals, but I can assert that there has been a vast improvement, which means that other zeppelins will be brought down when they come again."

[Special to The Advertiser.]

INGERSOLL, Oct. 4.—All phases of the Ingersoll fair on Monday and Tuesday stamped it as being an unprecedented success. Amongst the directors and citizens generally there is a feeling of keen satisfaction at the rapid advancement that has been made, and the prospects for still greater success. It is hoped that for next year the society will be in a position to offer still better prizes. The attendance of Tuesday was well over the four thousand mark, which is undoubtedly the largest that ever attended the fair in the history of the society

The flag day conducted under the auspices of the Daughters of the Empire on Tuesday was most successful.

FUNERAL OF ROBT. HENDERSON.

KINCARDINE, Oct. 4.—Monday afternoon the funeral of Robert Henderson of the second concession of Huron took place to Pine River Cemetery. Mr. Henderson was 61 years of age, and was a resident of the township all his life. He had been ill for the past ten years. He was a man highly esteemed by all and a member of the Pine River Presbyterian Church.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR, THICK, WAVY, FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Draw a moist cloth through hair and double its beauty at once.

Save your hair! Dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

Immediate?—Yes! Certain?—that's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after an application of Danderine. Also try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few week's use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes!—but really new hair growing all over the scalp.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

You can surely have pretty, charming, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.

Try This If You Have Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely, and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.—Advt.

HEAVY FISH SHIPMENTS BY DUTCH TO STATES

Working Under an Agreement With Great Britain.

THE HAGUE, Oct. 4.—Via London.—Since the recent agreement arrived at between Great Britain and Dutch fishermen with regard to the shipment of fish, two thousand tons of Dutch salted herring have been shipped to the United States.

For some time, up to September 1, British warships had been taking Dutch fishing boats into English ports, charging that ninety per cent of their catches was presumably destined for Germany. The operations of Dutch fishermen in the North Sea had virtually come to a standstill until Great Britain agreed with the Dutch fishing interests that their catches could be sold in the open market, provided that not more than twenty per cent of them should go to Germany. The agreement stipulated that twenty per cent of the remainder should be used for Dutch home consumption and twenty per cent reserved for England at the prices ruling for Dutch buyers. The remaining forty per cent, it was agreed, could be disposed of to countries not at war with Great Britain.

ESSAD PASHA SENTENCED TO DEATH BY SULTAN

Just Now He Is Leading Albanian Band Against Bulgarians.

[Canadian Press.]

London, Oct. 5.—A report on the death sentence passed by a court-martial in Constantinople on Essad Pasha, former provisional president of Albania, has been received in Amsterdam, according to a dispatch to Reuter's. The commanding general at Constantinople says in the report that Essad Pasha was proved at his trial to have conspired with bands against the Turkish empire, and to have declared war on Turkey. By doing so, the report says, and by his hostile attitude he rendered service to Turkey's enemies. The sentence of death was confirmed by the sultan.

Essad Pasha was deprived of his rank in the Turkish army after he joined the Italians in Albania in January, 1916. He later went to Rome and in March left Italy for Paris, where he was received by Premier Briand. He was sentenced to death at Constantinople in June, and in August was reported to be commanding an Albanian contingent which landed at Saloniki.

BOOMING VON TIRPITZ TO SUCCEED HOLLWEG

[Canadian Press.]

London, Oct. 5.—"Circulars are being issued in Berlin, according to the Berliner Tageblatt," says the Rotterdam correspondent of the Daily News, "calling for every means to be used to secure the downfall of the chancellor, with the suggestion that Admiral von Tirpitz should succeed him."

GREAT RUSH DAILY TO SOUP KITCHENS OF FOE'S CAPITAL

Great Difficulty Experienced in Providing Provisions For Berlin.

[Canadian Press.]

London, Oct. 5, 10:42 a.m.—Great difficulty is being experienced in provisioning Berlin, according to the Socialist newspaper Vorwaerts of that city, as quoted by Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent. The potato supply is said to have been stopped during the last few days, the interruption being attributed to lack of field laborers. The decrease in the milk supply is the object of anxious discussion by the authorities. The newspaper names many of the large milk dealers as having discontinued their consignments to the city, owing to the shortage, and also to the fact that when they have been able to send in small quantities the profit has been slight.

According to this information, there has been a great rush to the soup kitchens, which now distribute 34,000 portions daily.

POOR NEW YORK WOMEN STORM MILK STATIONS

Shortage Causes Serious Disorder at American Metropolis.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, Oct. 5.—The first disorder growing out of the milk situation took place here early today, when it was necessary to call police reserves to disperse more than 500 women, mostly foreigners, many with babies in arms, who stormed two health department milk stations in Harlem.

The women had previously canvassed stores in the neighborhood in search of milk for their children, and finding none for sale, they gathered at the city stations. A few were admitted. Those on the outside, fearing that the supply would be exhausted before they could be served, rushed the doors of the building.

Officers in charge of the stations said that their supply today was less than half of that received yesterday.

MEXICAN CITY BANKS REOPENED FOR BUSINESS

Given Until November 15 To Increase Their Reserves.

[Canadian Press.]

Washington, Oct. 5.—The Banco Nacional and the Bank of London and Mexico City, the two Mexico City banks which closed their doors recently because of Gen. Carranza's decree requiring more adequate specie reserves and redemption of outstanding notes in specie, have reopened for business under surveillance of a Government examiner, according to advices received in official quarters here today. They will be required to redeem any of their notes on presentation and will be given until November 15 to increase their reserves to 100 per cent of outstanding issues.

Several smaller banks are said to have given up their concessions because they have been unable to increase their reserves sufficiently. The cases of the Banco Nacional and the Bank of London and Mexico, which are owned in France and England, are the subject of protest from the French and British embassies.

DUKE NICHOLAS

mixed blood, comprising Turks, Rumanians, Greeks, Bulgarians and Jews, about 200,000 in all.

But One Railroad.

The only completed railroad in the territory is that running westward from the port of Constantza toward the capital, Bucharest. As the Rumanians can pass the Danube within their own territory the Dobrudja offers greater facility for operations from Rumania against Bulgaria than for operations in the opposite direction, especially if the Bulgarians fulfilled their agreement, made in the treaty of Bucharest of three years ago, to dismantle and raze the fortifications of Rustchuk, Shumla and Baltchik.

No More Surprises.

The position and fortunes of the army of Prussians, Bulgarians and Turks under Field Marshal von Mackensen, ostensibly dealing an offensive blow for the destruction of Rumania, and in reality endeavoring to stay the invasion of the army of Russians, Rumanians and Serbians, are therefore of intense concern to all observers in the Teutonic countries, and it is realized that on them may hang the early decision of the war. One point of great importance is being freely admitted, i.e., that all hope of taking the Russian-Rumanian forces in the Dobrudja by surprise is now gone, and that operations henceforth must be conducted practically in the open. This fact is not encouraging to the Prussians, as their resources in men and material are believed to be greatly inferior to those opposing them.

STRIKE SETTLED.

[Canadian Press.]

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 5.—The strike of longshoremen on Puget Sound, which has been in effect since last June, was declared off last night, according to announcement by William Blackman, federal mediator, who stated an agreement satisfactory to both sides had been reached.

This action, it was believed, would lead to settlements of other ports affected by the general strike.

Liquid Catarrh Remedies Useless—Only Relieve—Never Cure

They go direct to the stomach, have very little effect on the linings of the nose and throat, and entirely fail to cure. Only by cleansing the air passages, by relieving the inflammation and killing the germs is cure possible. No combination of antiseptics is so successful as Catarrhozone. In breathing it, you send the richest pine balsams right to the seat of the disease. Irritating phlegm is cleared out, hoarseness, coughing and hacking are cured. For a permanent cure for Catarrh, nothing equals Catarrhozone; get it today, but beware of dangerous substitutes meant to deceive you for genuine Catarrhozone. All dealers sell Catarrhozone, large size, containing two months' treatment, costs $1; small size, 50c; sample size, 25c.

THE LOCAL MARKET

There was a fairly good attendance at the local market this morning, chiefly attributable to the approach of Thanksgiving Day. Hay, which was firm during the earlier part of the week, eased off a little, selling at $11 to $13.50 a ton. Straw was brisk, bringing from $8 to $8.50 a ton.

Wheat maintained its sudden jump of Wednesday. New wheat brought $2.50 a cwt., and $1.50 a bushel. Old wheat brought $1.30 a bushel. Oats were slightly easier at $1.85 to $1.90 a cwt. for old, and $1.62 to $1.65 for new. New oats brought from 53c to 64c a bushel.

Potatoes showed no noticeable decrease today, but it is expected that they will become still cheaper. The present price is $1.10 to $1.25 a bushel. Tomatoes were sold for 35c to 40c a basket. There was no change in cabbage, which remained high at 60c to $1.50 a dozen. Green corn was scarce, but may be plentiful Saturday. The majority of it sold at 15c to 20c a dozen.

Apples were sold at 50c to 90c a bushel, and plums at 30c to 60c a basket. Pears and peaches were steady at $1.00 to $1.25 a bushel for the former, and 35c to 60c a basket for the latter. Grapes sold in most cases for 20c a basket, a few, however, bringing 25c.

Dairy produce was firm. Creamery butter brought 40c a pound, retail, and in some cases more. Dairy butter was sold for 38c a pound. Eggs sold for 38c to 40c a dozen, retail. Poultry was unchanged at 15c a pound for young chickens, wholesale, liveweight, and 13c a pound for old fowl.

Sales of live hogs were made at $10.75 a cwt., fat sows bringing $8.25 a cwt. Dressed hogs sold at $15.50 a cwt.

GRAIN.

Winnipeg, Oct. 4.—Wheat closed ⅛c to ½c higher, with October at $1.67⅜, November at $1.65¼, December at $1.60½, and May at $1.61½. Oats closed ⅛c to ⅝c higher, with October at 53⅞c, December at 52¾c, and May at 54⅞c. Barley closed ½c higher, with October at 95c. Flax closed ½c to 1c lower, with October at $2.24, November at $2.23½, and December at $2.23.

The cash market showed a better demand for No. 1 and No. 2 northern, with premiums ¼c up, and light offers, in view of the heavy receipts at times during the morning. No. 1 sold pretty close to $1.70.

The big break in the future market, which carried October down 4c under the curb price of Tuesday, and 3⅝c under the high of Tuesday, was caused at first by heavy selling orders, and later by reports of rain in Argentina, which was not confirmed, and the market swung back almost as rapidly as it went down.

Chicago, Oct. 5.—Wheat prices ran up to a new high level for 1916 today. The advance promptly followed announcements that the drought in Argentina remained unbroken. In this connection bullish traders put great emphasis on the smallness of the United States surplus and on the increasing European demand. Assertions that the crop losses in Argentina were being exaggerated apparently failed to make much impression.

The opening, which ranged from the same as yesterday's finish to 1c higher, with December at $1 59⅞@1 60½, and May at $1 58½@1 59½, was followed by only a moderate reaction from the initial top prices.

Paper issues, tobacco products, Barrett Company and beet sugar represented the miscellaneous specialties at material gains. United States Steel was firm on relatively light trading.

COTTON PRICES ADVANCE; LARGE EXPORTS EXPECTED

[Reported by Thomson & McKinnon.]

New York, Oct. 4.—Again prices advanced on a good trade demand including considerable buying by southern mills. Southern spot houses bought quite freely to cover hedges as they sold out the actual cotton. The weather was rather unfavorable in the Atlantic states. There is a big consumption of linters in the making of explosives and large exports of cotton are expected during the month of October. Some covering on stop orders was a feature.

Bulls are already predicting a bad Government report on December 11, even allowing for the usual Government under-estimate of the crop they are convinced that it is short and far below the world's requirements so that it seems likely the price will continue to rise until it is automatically checked by a decrease in the consumption.

AGED TEACHERS PERISH AS COLLEGE BURNS

Fire Destroys Main Building of School at St. Louis.

[Canadian Press.]

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 5.—Fire today destroyed the main building of Christian Brothers' College here. Two aged members of the college faculty are missing and are believed to have perished, and an assistant nurse who jumped from an upper window, was seriously hurt.

All members of the faculty except two, and all students were accounted for. Most of the students had not reached the college when the fire started.

The two missing faculty members are Brother Cormac, 93 years old, and Brother Clemens, 72 years old. Their room on the fifth floor of the infirmary was swept by the fire. It is believed neither could have escaped.

The fire was discovered by the college registrar as he was walking upstairs to the room where Brothers Cormac and Clemens were being attended by a nurse named Nolean. The latter jumped from a fifth story window and his injuries may prove fatal. More than 100 boarding students and 30 or 40 members of the faculty were at breakfast at the time the fire was discovered. The registrar saw flames creeping across the fifth floor and gave the alarm. Students and faculty members who were in the dining-room rushed from the building, but by that time the fifth floor was cut off.

FOUR SCORE AND FOUR.

DELAWARE, Oct. 4. — A pleasant event occurred at the home of Jacob Eichenberger, con. 1, Delaware, October 1, when his mother, Mrs. M. Eichenberger, of Apple Grove Farm, Delaware, celebrated her 84th birthday. Mrs. Eichenberger was born in the village of Burg, county of Ouryree, Switzerland, October 1, 1832, and came to Canada in 1854, being a resident of Delaware for over half a century. She has been in ill-health for over three years, and with a supreme effort consented to be taken the short journey in an auto, presiding as guest of honor at a sumptuous dinner and tea prepared by her daughter-in-law. The two daughters, Mrs. Bert Stinchcombe of Middlemarch and Miss Carrie at home, and three sons, Jacob and Fred of Delaware, and John of London, together with grandchildren and great-grandchildren, joined in wishing the guest of honor many happy returns of the day. The only absent member of the family of Mrs. Lizzie Garnett of British Columbia. After tea all joined in tendering a hearty vote of thanks to the host and hostess, and the happy event ended by singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

Pelt to Welt Is the History of a Shoe

When you see a calf running to its bucket of milk you see the coming of a good, strong shoe, provided the hide is properly tanned and cured, and the workmanship put upon it is that of experienced operatives. We buy our stocks of shoes from factories whose product we have already distributed among our patrons, and "heard from" as to quality. We know the different makes to be made right, of the right material, and we sell them at the right prices.

There is a satisfaction to the customer when dealing in a store they know by previous trading experience in that store. That is our satisfaction when buying from well-tried makers.

We know the makers.
We know our shoes.
We sell them right.

TRADES COUNCIL TO GIVE ITS AID TO H. C. OF L. INQUIRY

Delegates to Meet City Council and Suggest Remedies.

CO-OPERATION NECESSARY

Will Urge Council to Establish a Municipal Coalyard Immediately.

The high cost of living came in for a terrific bombardment last evening at the hands of the trades and labor council.

The advance in all living commodities was made the target of a lively discussion, and eventually resulted in a motion to the effect that four delegates be appointed to meet No. 4 committee of the city council to suggest remedial measures.

Urge Co-operation With Municipalities.

The committee will be requested to ask that the city council co-operate with other municipal bodies throughout the province relative to taking up concerted action to have both governments appoint a commission to inquire into the reasons for the gradual increase in all living commodities.

The city council will be waited upon by a delegation from the trades and labor council to recommend that means be immediately taken to establish a municipal coalyard, or, otherwise, submit the matter to the electorate at the January elections.

Invite Miss Hughes Here.

The delegates to the Trades Congress in Toronto, Donald Wright and R. H. Hessel, made their report. Delegate Wright, during his report, stated that the London delegates had been unable to hear the speech made by Miss Laura Hughes, niece of Canada's minister of militia, and recommended that the council invite her to speak in London at some future date as her speech had been one of the hits of the congress.

Delegate Hessel, in his report, recommended that the city council display greater energy in arranging for conventions to meet in this city, which he said was fully as suitable as either Toronto or Hamilton. He also explained some of the debate which took place on the Lemieux act in connection with the Thetford miners.

Bread Costs 3 Cents a Pound.

Near the close of the meeting Delegate George Terry renewed the question of the Housewives League which was brought up at a previous meeting. President Hessel read some interesting figures. He stated that bread could be made for three cents a pound inclusive of all costs. He claimed that the bakers turned over a profit each week which in the aggregate would amount to 247 per cent of the cost. He asked the laboring men to give more study to the question of the cost of living. Few he said understood it. They earned the money but their wives spent it.

He stated that the mechanic who earned an average wage and supported a family of eight would have to feed them at the rate of four cents each a meal. Living he said had increased 57¼ per cent since 1912. Wages he claimed had only increased 17¼ per cent.

SPARK FROM CHIMNEY SETS FIRE TO THE ROOF

York Street Blaze Was Extinguished With Only Slight Damage.

The firemen were called to the residence of Mrs. J. Crockett, 481 York street, Wednesday evening. A spark from the chimney had set fire to the roof. About four or five dollars damage was done before the blaze was extinguished.

A false alarm took the fire department to the corner of Hill and William streets about 4:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. It is claimed that some school children were responsible.

MUNICH HEARS HINDU PLAY.

BERLIN, via Sayville wireless, Oct. 5.—A new play, "Chitra," by Sir Rabindranath Tagore, the British Indian poet, who was awarded the Nobel prize for literature in 1913, was produced at the Munich theatre for the first time, says the Overseas News Agency, and was well received by the literary critics.
