For the Next Three Months

The verandah will be a much used part of the house. If this windowless and doorless room of your home is not fully furnished, let us tell you of some articles we can supply which are essential to its proper adornment and comfortableness.

Have you seen the new Verandah Matting? A splendid fabric, woven from a heavy yarn, spun of fine, fibrous grass. We have it in pretty shades of brown, blue, green, and gold a yard wide and 40c the yard. Also rugs of the same material and a narrower width for the steps.

Japanese Rugs are deservedly popular as a verandah floor covering—our stock of these is very large, in stripes or squares, of almost any size.

The thick pile, rich coloring, and oriental designs make them worth much more than we ask—$1 per square yard—see them anyway.

We will make to your order, on short notice, Verandah Cushions of any size, with duck, denim or tapestry tops and burlap bottoms, nicely tufted—they'll cost you

with 2 in. boxing	15c to 30c
with 3 in. boxing	18c to 35c
with 4 in. boxing	20c to 4c

per square foot.

Of course we have pillow cushions in all qualities and sizes.

Sometimes a little seclusion is desirable when using the verandah. A colored Duck Curtain will fully meet this requirement, or if you need it only as a sunshade a verandah valance with lambrequin edging looks pretty. We'll make and hang them with rods, rings or rollers for a little more than the cost of the material.

MOVING ON PRETORIA.

Lord Roberts Only 77 Miles From the Transvaal Capital.

Crossed the Vaal River Without Opposition—Boers Anxious for a Pretext to Blow up the Johannesburg Mines.

London, Monday, May 28, 3.20 a. m. —When Lord Roberts wrote his first despatch on Transvaal territory yesterday (Sunday), shortly before two o'clock in the afternoon, he was 61 miles from Johannesburg and 77 from Pretoria. His immensely superior forces passed the Vaal River, their last great natural obstacle, at three points. The Vaal forms a curve of eighty miles from Parys on the west to Zand Drift on the east. The concave of the curve is towards the Free State. Thus Lord Roberts, advancing along the railway, was in a position to strike any part of the Boer army by shorter lines than those by which the Boers could reinforce the threatened points. The Boers retreated almost without a blow of defiance. Gen. French and Gen. Hamilton apparently did not fire a shot. Of Lord Roberts' immediate force, 11 men belonging to the 8th Mounted Infantry were the first to ford the river. They came upon a Boer patrol looking, at Viljoen's drift, and a skirmish lasting ten minutes, followed. Two hundred Boers tried feebly to hold the Vereeniging colliery, but they were defeated. The Boer rear guard is at Meyerton, ten miles north of Vereeniging. Their main body is moving towards the Klip River hills, to the south side of Johannesburg.

AT PRETORIA.
While Lord Roberts' 30,000 infantry, 20,000 horse, and 150 guns are moving on Johannesburg and Pretoria, through a parched and deserted country, the situation at the Transvaal capital, as it was last Friday, is thus described by an observer, who sent his message by private hand to Lord Roberts yesterday: "The situation, both from a military and political point of view, has become very critical. President Kruger admitted for the first time that matters are very grave. The Boer determination is to trust everything to a last stand on the Gatzrand mountains, to the north of Potchefstroom, where 3,000 Kaffirs are digging trenches. To that point every available man and gun has been sent. The whole of the western border of the Transvaal from end to end is defenceless, and Gen. Buller-Poyell can march in when he likes. Lord Roberts, on the other hand, will encounter the greatest resistance. The Boer endeavor is to lure the British into appearing to threaten Johannesburg with attack, an excuse thus being given them for the destruction of property. The Transvaal government will not dare destroy the mines or property without an excuse. Much dynamite has been sent down the line, and 160 cases lie ready at Zuerfontein, near Johannesburg. Both Gen. Buller and Gen. Meyer have pleaded for the preservation of private property. Both are large landed proprietors, and fear confiscation, but they have not received satisfactory replies from President Kruger. Meanwhile many French and German adventurers have come forward with schemes and inventions for blowing up the British troops.

Some of these have received a tacit permission to experiment. One German invention is for use on a railway, where it lies perfectly concealed until the weight of a passing train explodes the charge. General Lunas Meyer says surrender would be at once proposed by the Boers, but that everyone fears the ignominy of being the one to make the proposal. He declares that he is assured that his men will not stand. President Steyn and Mr. Reitz, the Transvaal state secretary, are strongly opposed to peace, but Mr. Kruger is not so much against it."

ONLY TWO WOUNDED.
London, May 28.—In the advance to the relief of Mafeking, C. Battery, of the Canadian Artillery, though in the thick of all the fighting, and "rendering valuable assistance," as Col. Mahon reported, only suffered two casualties. Both men were wounded slightly. They were Gunner Patton, 4th Field Battery, Hamilton, and Gunner W. McCallum, of the Royal Artillery, Fort William, Ont.

Pte De Rochejacquelin, of Cleveland, Ohio, a member of C. Company, Canadian Mounted Rifles, died at Springfontein, of enteric fever. Pte J. Raspberry, of the 77th Westworth Battalion, and a member of C Company, Royal Canadian Regiment of Infantry, succumbed to enteric fever at Bloemfontein.

THE OFFICIAL REPORT.
London, May 28.—The war office has received the following from Lord Roberts:—
"Vereeniging, Sunday, May 27, 1.50 p. m.—We crossed the Vaal this morning, and are now encamped on the North bank. The advance troops which crossed yesterday were only just in time to save the coal mines on both sides and the other side of the river, from being destroyed. Our casualties were four."

"Buller-Poyell reports that the railway between Mafeking and Bulawayo has been restored and that supplies are being brought into Mafeking. He says the Canadian artillery joined Col. Plumer from Beira with incredible rapidity."

"Lieut. Webber was taken prisoner at Heilbron a few days ago. He went there on telegraph duty. It was not known that our troops had been temporarily withdrawn."

TAKEN TO KINGSTON.

Canal Dynamiters Are Now Safely Lodged in the Penitentiary.

Kingston, May 28.—The Welland Canal dynamiters were locked behind the bars at eight o'clock on Saturday night. They were not depressed on arrival. All agreed to make the best of the situation and conform to prison rules. The sheriff and officers had no trouble on the way down. Some 400 persons were at the outer station to see the men. They were driven to the penitentiary in cabs. Warden Platt received them. Though they had failed in their attempt to blow up the canal, one of the men said, more successful work would be done by others.

DAILY AND WEEKLY
Chatham, Ont.

ENGLAND'S BLACK ARMY.

The full strength of Great Britain's Indian army is 300,000 men, of whom 230,000 are native and 70,000 British soldiers. In addition to this military force there are about 20,000 enrolled European volunteers, and a native police, officered by white men, nearly 200,000 strong.

Every regiment is divided into ten companies, each of which is usually made up of a different nationality—such as Gorkhas, Sikhs, Dogras, Pathans and Punjabis. It is owing to this provision that a combination of forces for the purpose of mutiny becomes almost impossible. The Gorkhas and Sikhs, whose loyalty is rated the highest, are, in some localities, permitted to constitute entire regiments by themselves.

The pay of the Sepoy, or native soldier, is 18s per month, with a gradual increase after three years' good conduct. The pension system is particularly liberal, and is really the magnet which draws the native recruit. When a Sepoy soldier falls in action, his wife and there are four of them—are all pensioned, as well as their young children. As regards the artillery branch of the Indian army, white men only are employed, both as commissioned officers and in the ranks, and the guns of all forts are entirely manned by Britons.

Of the native soldiers, the Gorkha is the best, and many English experts believe that he is the best soldier in the world.

THE DOMINION ELECTION.

Frank Oliver, M. P., editor of the Edmonton Bulletin, is very much too independent to be in the confidence of the leader of his party, Sir Wilfrid Laurier. But Mr. Oliver is a keen observer, and he now thinks that the general election is not quite so near as it was to be held a little while ago. The following article from the Bulletin will be found interesting.

No doubt the idea that an election was an immediate prospect had a great deal to do with the interminable character of the debate, but an election within the next six or eight months is not so certain now as it was at one time thought to be. The life of parliament does not expire until some time in August, 1901. The census is to be taken at the beginning of that year. On the basis of the census there is, under the constitution, a realignment of representation. It would certainly be possible to have the work of the census complete in time, so that parliament, which opened, say, on Jan. 2, 1901, could make the readjustment called for by the results of the census and be ready to face the electors by August. In that case the new arrangement would represent the new arrangement as defined by the census. But if an election is held this year—if the parliament so elected lives out its full term of five years' half of the next ten years' census period will be occupied by a parliament which does not represent the people as they stood practically at the time of its election. This means more in the west probably than in the east, but it means a great deal everywhere. The west confidently expects to be entitled to eight or ten more representatives on the basis of the next census, and to be out its full term of five years, half of nearly five years would be a very considerable hardship which should be avoided if possible. The census would also give every reason for making such redistribution in Ontario as is claimed by the Liberals to be necessary to overcome the inequities of the so-called gerrymander act. Suppose the census to be taken and the redistribution to be made according to it, and the senate should throw out the bill as it has already done with the two attempts to redistribute the Ontario constituencies, there would then be a very good cry to use the senate in the appeal to the country; while if the senate allowed the bill to pass the Liberals would stand to gain by whatever advantage may result from the readjustment of the gerrymander of which they complain so strongly. Still, there is nothing so uncertain as an election except the date when the election will be held.

TURN-ON THE LIGHT.

We always admired Sir Charles Tupper for the vigor he displayed as a political leader. Now we like him more than ever for the way in which he has turned down Organizer Birmingham. If Birmingham has anything to expose let him go ahead with it. If he can rid the party of any rogues, if he can exist within its ranks, he will be doing it a service.

The Conservatives fortunately are not in the same undesirable position as their opponents. They have not been so hypocritical as to claim the political morality on earth, while at the same time they were employing bribes, thieves, perjurers and ballot box incendiaries to steal seats for them.

Having never claimed to be better than their neighbors, having never as-

Some proud people think they have strong constitutions, and ridicule the idea of disease. Such people neglect their health, let the blood run down, and their stomach, kidneys and liver become deranged.

Don't be foolish about your health. Use Hood's Sarsaparilla and you will prevent the fall and save your pride.

Running Sore.—My mother was troubled with rheumatism in her knee for a number of years, and it broke out into a running sore. She took three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and is now well. Hood's Olive Ointment helped to heal the eruption. Mrs. JOHN PARK, Cloverlawn, Ancaster, Ont.

Bowel Trouble.—My mother, Mrs. John Ried, suffered with bowel trouble for four years and tried different doctors, but obtained no relief until she began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. Three bottles of this medicine entirely cured her. Lizzie Ried, Tracy Station, N. B.

Scrofula.—An abscess on my hip was lanced and never healed. Another broke out on the other hip and the next year three more appeared. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and it helped me. Since taking six bottles of the medicine I have not been troubled, and previous to this treatment one of the eruptions had discharged for seven years. Mrs. FRANKLIN H. TEND, Freeport, N. S.

serted they were politically immaculate, having never held themselves up to be the Lord's chosen politically, never having played the role of publican, as in the biblical publican and sinner incident, they now, no matter what Birmingham can show, will not feel obliged to resort to fake commissions, perjured evidence, burnt ballots or a pension system for fugitive criminals who find it necessary to take up their residence in the United States, in order to shield themselves.

It would be wonderful if the horrible, the unexampled, the unparalleled political corruption which has been shown to be the mainstay of the Mowat-Hardy-Ross ministries for so many years had not to some extent contaminated political opponents who have contended with them. But that Birmingham can produce anything to implicate the party at large is to be scouted. Let him bring on what he can. Sir Charles says he will never get another dollar of Conservative money, so he might as well commence his "exposures" at once. We don't know, but we will wager that now that Birmingham has played his trump card and lost, he'll fizzle out like a leaky bottle of soda water.

Birmingham struck the wrong kind of a customer when he ran up against Sir Charles.

When those dynamiters came to Canada they didn't intend to stay, but they found this country such a "taking" place that they will now remain the rest of their days in it.

The supplementary estimates are enormous, but still they are not large enough to contain anything for the re-establishment of a military battalion in Kent. Mr. Campbell seems to forget the existence of this riding except at election times.

The place of the efficient (war) correspondent is as near the firing line as he can approach.—Windsor Record.

A fellow who has had some experience says this kind of rot makes him laugh. He declares the place for the correspondent is near the closest telegraph office to headquarters. He can thus scoop in the news as it arrives from all directions and have it on the wire before the man on the firing line can get back to camp.

The Windsor Record is sore over the course of M. K. Cowan and the other Liberal leaders in Essex county. It is afraid to come out openly and give them a good trimming so contents itself with petty muttering. It says the people thereabouts have some things to complain of and adds that "unless attention is paid to them a surprise may be in store for local leaders of the party." Why doesn't the Record come out openly with its complaints and stop this sniping.

In many other places than Windsor the dynamiters would have also suffered detention for life, but it wouldn't have lasted longer than the time required for a thoroughgoing community to fasten good stout ropes to neighboring trees and decorate the lower ends of them with three of the most miserable fiends the nineteenth century has produced. To gratify their hate of everything British they were prepared to sacrifice the lives of a lot of innocent people, hundreds, perhaps, who had never mixed themselves up in the slightest in the affairs of the British Isles.

Judge Morgan was seen by a Globe reporter yesterday and stated that he had no clear recollection of the incident, but he certainly had at St. Thomas said Pritchett was a "self-confessed liar." He did not mean to doubt Pritchett's evidence under oath, and had made the statement simply on Pritchett's own admission that he had persecuted other men.—Toronto Globe.

Isn't this somewhat of a giveaway on the party. According to it, Judge Morgan's opinion is that Pritchett when he was a Liberal worker was a liar. Now, since he has quit the party the Judge has no reason to doubt the truth of what he says.

Out of about 70 eclipses of the sun which have occurred some where in the world within the nineteenth century, there have been only eight total eclipses of more or less duration visible on the North American continent. The others happened in places often remote from civilization and some times in entirely inaccessible localities, as over the ocean areas. After the eclipse of May 28th, no other eclipse track will fall in this country till June 8, 1918, when one will pass from Oregon to Florida, two minutes in duration. Another will fall in New England on Jan. 21, 1925. Eclipses seven minutes in duration will occur in India in 1935, and in Africa in 1973, the longest for 1,000 years.

Sandon, B. C., recently destroyed by fire, is to be rebuilt, and is to rise from its ashes, not as a mining camp, but as a substantial city. The project is to run a sixty-foot street down the middle gulch, using the creek as a sewer and subway for the water mains, electric light wires and telephone and telegraph wires. The town site will be re-surveyed, and solid and lots will be erected so that the buildings will be erected as the danger of another similar fire may be guarded against. The real estate will be handled by an ingenious scheme. A trustee will be appointed who will take over the lots, and issue scrip will be taken in payment for lots in the new survey. In a number of cases this will be little change in the lots, as it will be necessary only to reverse the frontage.

What age is most often ill-treated? Baggage.

Willing Testimony.
"How do you like your new typewriter?" inquired the agent.
"It's grand," was the immediate reply. "I wonder how I ever got along without it."
"Well, would you mind giving me a little testimonial to that effect?" he rolled up his sleeves and in an incredibly short time pounded out this:
"After Using the automating Back-action & type writ, or for three months and over, I unhesitatingly pronounce it to be the best even more than the Manufacture Giant action & I. The free month I did has more than paid for itself in the saving of an diabol.—John & Gibbs."

"There you are, sir."
"Thanks," said the agent, and most quickly went away.

ELEPHANT TORTURES

CAUSES THAT MAKE THE PONDEROUS BRUTES MAN KILLERS.

Many of Them Who Slay Their Keepers Should Be Allowed to Plead Justifiable Homicide—Why the Indian Elephants Hate the Mahouts.

One Sunday afternoon, while a concert was being held at the Crystal Palace, an elephant belonging to a circus which had been performing there broke from its fastenings and killed its keeper. It then brushed through various partitions of wood and glass and appeared in the main building, where a great number of persons were listening to the music. It did not attempt to hurt any of the crowd, though it broke off with its trunk the uplifted arm of a statue, probably under the idea that this represented a man about to strike. After some time it allowed itself to be secured by another elephant. It was then decided to kill the animal, and after a dose of poison had failed a London gunmaker was sent for as executioner and shot the animal dead.

On the following Wednesday an inquest was held on the body of the man. If it had been one of the trials of animals held by jurists in the middle ages for the exhibition of legal subtlety, the evidence in favor of the elephant could not have been more clearly put. Mr. Sanger, its owner, admitted that the animal had once before killed a former keeper, and he gave the facts which led to the death of the second. The facts speak for themselves.

The first man had been discharged by Mr. Sanger 15 months previously for gross brutality to the animals. He came back and asked to be employed again. This was granted, and he was taken on, not as a keeper, but as a laborer. The very first time he went into the stable the elephant, though it was quite dark at the time, instantly recognized the man's voice and at once crushed him against the stall. That the creature had acted only in a panic of horror at the reappearance of a tormentor was so well established at the previous inquest that it was retained in the menagerie. It was exceptionally docile and was taken through towns and villages all over England.

Why, then, did he kill the second keeper? Because this man, after his Sunday dinner, declared that he would get square with the elephant for striking him with his trunk. He actually took a lance, and, followed by another keeper, also armed with a lance, he proceeded to "prod," i. e., pierce, the chained elephant. The tortured creature, after backing as far as it could, "at length rushed forward to escape the lance, and in the process trampled the keeper and trampled on him."

If the elephant had been a man and had been put on his trial afterward, would it be too much to anticipate that the verdict would have been one of justifiable homicide? The grounds for the ill will which the elephant in India often harbors toward its Indian mahout lie partly in the animal's temperament, chiefly in the character of these men. As most elephants behave with propriety to their drivers, we must believe that either the greater number of the mahouts do their duty by the beasts or that the latter are exceptionally forgiving. But there must be more than mere hearsay in the general belief that the mahouts commonly steal and appropriate a very large part of the elephant's allowance of food, that they are in consequence often half starved and hungry, and that the men use their steel hooked and spiked "ankus" in a very merciless way on animals which are not in condition to do the work which is set them.

As the cost of an elephant's keep is from $20 to $40 a month, in proportion to the food given him, a proportionate quality which is fixed in reference to the work to be done, the margin for stealing is very great, being reckoned between the minimum necessary to keep the animal alive on low diet and that required to keep him in good condition. The elephant is very great, being reckoned between the minimum necessary to keep the animal alive on low diet and that required to keep him in good condition. The elephant is very great, being reckoned between the minimum necessary to keep the animal alive on low diet and that required to keep him in good condition.

In any case the elephant bears no gratitude to the mahout if he can give him starvation rations and is his daily slave driver, and as long as native usage holds that "the driver and three generations of his family shall live on the beast," he is paid to let the animal live for 70 or 80 years or even longer in the service of man and that in the unchanging east he may through this long life be farmed as a kind of property by the same family of mahouts; that the brutality of the father if he be a brute is learned by the children and grandchildren and that if the wretched elephant is in bad hands he has to put up with practically two of our working lives of ill treatment and semistarvation. The wonder is not that its temper occasionally goes amiss, but that it does not "break out" oftener.

The inference is that the natural temper of the elephant is almost the best and most easy going of that of any beast. All Hindoo traditions and folk lore agree in this. The elephant is the type of bonhomie and easy gentility. It is this which encourages its "public" to take liberties with it on which they would venture with no other animal whatever—Spectator.

POULTRY POINTERS.

Never set eggs that are more than a month old.

Brans and buttermilk make a good ration for laying hens.

Wheat middlings and cornmeal mixed is a good feed for young chickens.

In nearly all cases diseases and vermin will attack the poorly fed and ill kept chickens.

Charcoal is valuable in the poultry yard if broken in small pieces and placed where the fowls can have ready access to it.

If the hen is fed on the nest it tends to give her bad disposition and to make her often difficult to manage when she comes off with her brood.

One of the secrets of raising young ducks is not to allow them to get wet, at least until they are fairly well feathered.

Whenever fowls can be allowed to run at large without detriment to the garden, they should by all means be given a free range, as they will keep much healthier. Fowls have rapid digestion and are always apparently hungry. If allowed a free range, they can generally be kept at a small expense, but they do not thrive in confinement.—St. Louis Republic.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

To prevent steel from rusting place a little bag of quicklime away with the bright steel goods.

To remove panes of glass lay soft soap over the putty which fixes them, and in a few hours they may be easily removed.

When brushing a room, sweep toward the fireplace; otherwise the draft from the chimney draws the dust in that direction and scatters it about the room.

Nothing in the way of linen lasts longer than the half bleached damask, and it is great economy to buy it, as it will not grow yellow when laid away as quickly as the fully bleached.

POLITICAL QUIPS.

Good government can be secured only by electing good men to office.—Omaha World-Herald.

A great statesman is a man who can speak two hours without offending any voters.—Dallas News.

If you are not a fool about politics, you are fortunate, since fortune, since fools about politics.—Athens Globe.

The Hon. Wharton Barker will have the distinction of being the only candidate in this year's fight with a last year's nomination.

THE PEDAGOGUE.

In Nebraska there are 141 log school-houses, 517 built of sod, one of baled straw and one of steel.

In the Danish high schools the cost of educating students, including everything except clothing, is $65 a year.

The women's department at Cornell university will be reentered more democratic next year. An effort will be made to get two women in each dormitory room by increasing the price of a room occupied only by one.

From microscopic observations it has been computed that the skin is perforated with 1,000 holes in a square inch. If the whole surface of the human body be estimated at 16 square feet, it must contain no fewer than 2,304,000 pores.

LEGAL DECISIONS.

In a recent case in St. Louis the judge decided that it is the duty of the husband to get up in the morning and make the kitchen fire.

A St. Louis judge has ruled that if a husband be locked out by his wife he may chop down the door, if necessary, to gain entrance, but he has to pay for the door.

It has just been judicially decided in Oregon that in an emergency case a physician can drive across a bridge at a speed greater than that permitted in ordinary traffic.

A SORRY SIGHT

It is, to see a strong man shaken like a reed by a paroxysm of coughing, which leaves him gasping for breath. People have suffered with bronchial affections for years, with obstinate, stubborn cough, and growing weakness. They have tried doctors and medicines in vain. At last they have been induced to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, with the general result experienced by all who put this wonderful medicine to the test—help at once, and a speedy cure.

For coughs, bronchial affections, weak lungs, spitting of blood, and other diseases of the organs of respiration, Golden Medical Discovery is practically a specific. It always helps, it almost always cures.

"I had been troubled with bronchitis and catarrh of the head for eight years; had severe cough, and at times great difficulty in breathing," writes J. W. Howerton, Esq., of Hingham, Mass. "A portion of the time my appetite was poor and I was unable to do anything. I had been reading about your medicine for a long time, and I decided to try it. Last spring I began to feel better. I continued taking it until I had taken several bottles. Took Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets also. Now I feel like a new man, and can do as hard a day's work as any one."

How Primitive Man First Concealed the Idea of Snow Vehicles.

Dr. Karutz, an original scholar of Lubek, has just completed some valuable investigations relative to the invention of the sled, says an exchange.

After long study he comes to the conclusion that primitive man probably arrived at the idea of the sled from seeing trees slip and slide down the mountains. In Madeira, for instance, where there is never any snow, sleds drawn by oxen are used just as they are in the Philippines. It is a development from the idea of a man dragging a burden along the ground, when it was too heavy for him to lift it up and carry it. He at first hitched his dog to the deer that he had just killed and both dragged it toward the cave or hut in which they lived. When he saw logs slide down the mountain side the idea of using smooth logs that would slide over the ground easily when drawn by himself or one of his animals was the next step in the development of the sled. Primitive peoples like the Malays of the Philippines and the unprogressive peasants of Madeira still use the sleds invented by their ancestors thousands of years ago.

In countries where ice and snow are found it is probable that the very fact of a man slipping on the ice showed some inventive person that there was an easy way to carry what he wanted to transfer from one place to another, and so first pulling a branch along over the frozen snow instead of carrying it, he thought of putting other things on the branch, he trimmed off the twigs and leaves that caught in the stumps and other trees, and the beginning of the sled had come. The joining together of two logs, and shaping them were only steps in the perfection of the earliest method of transportation which antedated the invention of wheeled vehicles by many centuries.

Seeing Double.

A Cleveland who has just returned from New York says he recently strolled into one of the leading restaurants there and noticed that they were putting up a glass ceiling.

"What's that for?" he inquired of the proprietor.

"To double the number of our customers," the proprietor sentimentally replied.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Dear Sir,—In reply to your letter of the 29th inst. Our Gas Range has been in use at my house for several years and has always given perfect satisfaction. Besides being a great convenience, it has been very economical in fuel, not costing more than one third the price for wood or coal. Miss Lawrence read a very interesting paper on "The value of expression," showing the necessity of expression as an aid to thought, increasing the pupils' mental and moral powers, the pupil must not only know, but be able to tell what he knows. Miss Lawrence urged the value of expression in developing individuality, and exemplified its use in geography, history, arithmetic, etc. The paper was discussed by Messrs. Gordon, Stewart and Williams, approvingly. Mr. Plewes, who pointed out that the pupils who expressed themselves best seemed least accurate in their answers. On motion of Mr. Miller, Messrs. Plewes, T. C. Smith, and Gordon Stewart were appointed a committee to examine O. E. A. resolutions.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON.

Miss Walker, the vice-president, presented her report as delegate to O. E. The paper was discussed by Messrs. Plewes and J. C. Stewart, condemning the cramming system, and by Inspector of Park, urging the development of the mind.

Mrs. Bibble here addressed the convention, asking, on behalf of the W. C. T. U., the influence of teachers against the cigarette habit; and inviting the teachers for an evening excursion on the "Arctide."

BULLER MUST FIGHT.

London, Monday, May 28.—Gen. Buller has not yet made a forward movement in Natal. All his efforts are directed to restoring the railroad, which on Friday evening had been completed to Ingogo. The correspondents say that the Boers still hold Laing's Nek strongly. The estimates as to their numbers differ, some placing them as high as 10,000 men with 20 guns, but this seems excessive, especially as regards the artillery. Nevertheless, they seem to have been reinforced from several directions, and their front is said to extend from Laing's Nek to Vryheid. They are fortifying the latter place.

Gen. Hildyard's division, which is entrusted primarily with attacking the Boer right at Elandsburg, arrived to-day.

The work of searching the district is progressing, and many rebels have been sent to Ladysmith.

BRITAIN'S FLAG.

It Fully Protects the Freedom of
Her SubjectsWherever it Waves—Rev. Dr. Battisby's Discourse to the Sons of England.

Last evening the Sons of England, about 150 strong and marshalled by Chas. Cape, marched to St. Andrew's church. The Ex-celsior band headed the parade with excellent music and the brethren made a fine appearance as they marched down King street two abreast. The column extended from the C. P. R. station back to the market square. The pulpit was concealed beneath the protecting folds of a huge Union Jack, the flag of the order. During the service, Miss Jackson and Mr. S. H. Marshall sang the fine duet, "Raise me Jesus," and the choir rendered in an excellent manner the anthem, "Rock of Ages." Belle Riddell took the solo part with her sweet soprano. James Scott Gray presided at the organ.

The Rev. Dr. Battisby occupied the pulpit and took for the subject of his discourse to the Sons on their first appearance in his church, the 12th verse of the 33rd Psalm, "Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord; and the people whom He hath chosen for His inheritance." Dr. Battisby said he was glad to have the Sons of England present. There was one plank in their constitution on which he wished to dwell and this plank was that dealing with one of the objects of the lodge, namely, the bringing together of England's sons for mutual benefit and the maintenance of British connection. Sometime ago an annexation cry had been raised but neither the Sons of England nor the Sons of Scotland had been a party to it. It had proved unpopular and had died away.

There were many reasons why the sons of Britain should never let wane their loyalty to the British Empire. The people dwelling under the protecting folds of the Union Jack, could thank God with all their heart for the safety they possessed. Patriotism was one thing, loyalty was another. Patriotism was love of country, loyalty was love of the sovereign. He was a true prophet whoever might say that within the range of 25 years from now the English language would be the best known and respected in every country of the world. This was the nation of which we were proud of it, for with all her faults she was a goodly nation, whose God was the Lord. The ground work of the British constitution was, "God is our power." Every nation, civilized and uncivilized, had its standard of right and wrong, and Great Britain stood out fearless for her standard in the face of every nation. The constitution had been made to cover the vices of 400 years. It embraced every form of vice, protected every virtue and was a standard to every by. The British people wished to maintain their connection with the mother country for this reason and many others. "Nation's integrity or right doing applied to the British government most preeminently. Her enemies might falsely say that she was greedy and grasping, but was not a fact that wherever an English merchantman went, she had carried civilization with her. Great Britain had a moral code to guide her. Religious liberty and anti-slavery were two salient divisions in this code.

The first row between the British and the Boers had been caused through the Boers having endeavored to have ministers of the Presbyterian church tried for high treason because they raised their voices against slavery, mistreatment of the natives and every. That flag seen to-night was the flag of the Boers. England had spent thirty million pounds in defending the Boers against the Zulus. What reason had she given for this? That she was a free and a just nation, that she was not as good as our Indians. These were some of the reasons why it was desirable to retain connection with the British Empire. England did all in her power to respect life. In the Transvaal the Boers applied no value to the lives of those opposed to them and, as for the Kaffirs, he was regarded as no more than a calf. Whether colored or white, all a man had to do was to tell the officials of other countries that he was British. That was his security.

In concluding his remarks, Dr. Battisby said, "Let us thank God that Great Britain knows no distinction in those who enjoy and obey her laws, no matter what their creed or color, but protects all alike."

In the Jaws of a Lion

The gallant Major Spaine tells of being knocked senseless by a lion that lacerated his arm. His thrilling escape from the jaws of death is only equalled by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which has saved thousands from desperate Throat and Lung troubles. "All doctors said my wife would soon die of Consumption," writes L. O. Overstreet, of Elgin, Tenn., "but your wonderful medicine completely cured her, and saved her life." Single Profit in light weight Underwear

It is being fairly demonstrated here at this new store of yours that good things in all lines are the cheapest without taking into consideration the mere satisfaction of the wearer.

Further more, we are demonstrating that we can get into our store and, from thence, to your possession, the best of the good things for practically a single profit.

We told you about this the other day when we announced our new straw hats. We might tell you more now that light weight underwear and the time for it is here.

SINGLE PROFIT PRICES

Men's Double Thread Balbriggan Underwear, regularly worth 50c; all sizes, shirts or drawers. Special 37 1-2c.

Boys' Double Thread Balbriggan Underwear, 5 to 17 year sizes, 25c to 37 1-2c per garment according to size.

These are all tested goods. Goods tested by our years of selling and by wear. There is style here too, for even in men's underwear style must be considered. But, as in other things, there is no reason why style and wear can't drive tandem. Nor should the presence of both make so many things cost so much as most dealers charge.

FOOTBALL

Chatham and Windsor, the old rivals, met on Tecumseh Park Saturday to once again fight for supremacy on the football field, and incidentally decide in the hands the possession of the Walker Cup. Most of the previous encounters have been characterized by rough work, but this proved unique in the fact that there were no scraps. The game was fast and clean throughout, the Chatham team winning by the score of one to nothing. Chatham's goal was scored by Sheldon and was a clever piece of work. Owing to the absence of the fast half-back, Chas. Bowers, W. J. Wilson was moved up to the half-back line, where he proved very effective. John Horstead occupied his old position as back and while the Maple City boys won the game was not as spirited as usual and they showed lack of practice. Chatham now has to play the last game at Windsor. If it wins or ties the league trophy will come here.

HAIR RAISING.

A Year Ago no One Would Believe What Thousands Now Know to be a Fact—Hair Can be Grown on Bald Heads.

The hardest to convince that baldness can be replaced by a new growth of hair, are the bald.

Why? Because hundreds of things have been said with no effect. Nothing that has ever been prepared would produce a permanent growth of hair on bald heads until the discovery of The Rose Hair Grower. This preparation is the first to successfully demonstrate the hitherto impossible, growing hair on bald heads.

The originator, after perfecting the formula, found himself face to face with an incredulous public, who said: "No, no, too good to be true." "Would like to believe it, but can't." "Nothing will cure my baldness." "Good man, if true, you could not supply demand." "Ladies to talk, been fooled too often."

Now these same people, who know what they are talking about, express themselves as follows:—
Robert Ross, plumber, Parkdale, says, "I have been bald for over 22 years, but after using The Rose Hair Grower for two months, I have a good growth of hair all over my head, and it is filling in at the sides nicely. I have much pleasure in sending you this reference, and will continue using your treatment."
W. Livingstone, druggist, 25 Howard St., Toronto, says, "This is to certify that I have seen the results of the use of The Rose Hair Grower. As a druggist with many years' experience in the city of Toronto, I have seen a multitude of hair tonics tried with varying results, but have never sold a hair grower that has been such a pronounced success as The Rose. Ladies and gentlemen amongst our best people in the city, to whom I recommend it, many whom were bald, now have beautiful heads of hair. I have used it myself and now have a head of hair as thick as anyone could wish for."
The Rose Hair Grower stops falling of the hair with a few applications. It absolutely removes dandruff. Makes the hair soft and pliable. It is a perfect hair dressing, and the only preparation in the world that overcomes baldness.
Price, $1.00 per bottle of dealers, or forwarded on receipt of price by addressing Rose & Co., 48 Adelaide St., East, Toronto, Ont.

"SKIN THE GOAT"

And Josh Mullett, Two of the

Phoenix Park Murderers,

Ordered to be Deported From the United States—The Land of the Free Not Open to Convicts.

New York, May 21.—James Fitzharris, alias "Skin the Goat," and Josh Mullett, the two surviving members of the Irish Invincibles, who were recently released from prison in Ireland, where they were sentenced for complicity in the Phoenix Park murders of 1882, were yesterday ordered excluded by the board of special inquiry at the immigration station and ordered deported.

The exclusion was made under the interpretation of the law which forbids anyone being admitted to this country who had been adjudged guilty of a "felony, crime, infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude." The two men were recently pardoned by Earl Cadogan, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, from a sentence of life imprisonment, and reached this city among the steerage passengers on the Lucania on Saturday last. After a conference with Commissioner Fitchie, the men were ordered back to Ellis Island to await the action of the board of special inquiry. This board was composed of William Welthe (chairman), H. B. Moio, Jas. A. Toner and Major Chas. S. Seney. The two men were TAKEN BEFORE THE BOARD on Ellis Island. The inquiry was secret. The only one at the large office to meet the men and who showed any interest in their behalf was "Rocky Mountain" O'Brien. After the meeting of the board it was learned that Fitzharris was the first of the two to be examined by the members. He admitted he had served nearly 17 years for crime committed. After being asked the usual questions as to his age, nativity and residence, Fitzharris was asked of what crime he had been convicted and answered "Treason." He was then questioned as to this charge, and he told the board that he had been arrested about nine months after the famous Phoenix Park murders in company with 23 others. These 23 were accused of having been accessories after the fact. Three months later he was brought to trial with others of the accused. Five of them were sentenced to be hanged and Fitzharris was sentenced to penal servitude for life. While telling his story to the board Fitzharris declared that at the time of his trial he was offered $10,000 by the English Government if he would.

TURN INFORMER

against the other members of the band. This he refused to do, and of his life sent. He was served about 17 years in the Mountjoy, Chatham, Down, Patrick and Maryboro prisons. Eight months ago he was pardoned. Fitzharris said that he and Mullett had about $250 between them when they reached this port. Fitzharris asserted that while he was on British soil "was compelled to report to the police every month as to his doings and whereabouts." "I came to this country," he added, "because I want a chance to rest and recuperate. I wanted to stay here about three months and then go back to my family."

Mullett refused to answer any of the questions put to him by the board. He declared he was not being accorded the proper treatment by the Government. His examination lasted only a short time, as he would not respond to questions. The men were then sent to the "excluded pen." The case will probably be appealed to the authorities at Washington, and if not, Fitzharris and Mullett will leave this port on Saturday next for the Atlantic.

SATURDAY'S GAME.

The League baseball game Saturday was the heaviest batting exhibition ever seen at Athletic Park. The day was still and clear, enabling the man at the bat to get a good eye on the ball. To add to the difficulties of the pitchers, the atmosphere was heavy and they were unable to get as much curve on the ball as on an ordinary day. The game throughout might be characterized as an exhibition of wilding of waggin' tongues. When the players weren't swinging their bats to land on the ball, they were engaged in swinging their tongues to land on the umpire and vice versa. Both efforts had about the same effect and both teams did good stick work, but more bases on balls by Barry. More errors by Port Huron and heavier hitting by the Reds won the game for the locals.

The great kick of the game arose in the fifth innings, when with three Port Huron men on bases, O'Connor hit for a single over third, and in an attempt to make the hit good for two bases, he was caught at second in the meantime two runners had scored, but the umpire did not notice the second. Had it been possible this second runner would have been cut off at the plate, but as it was too late for this, the ball was successfully fielded to second. As the last run was not allowed there was a gigantic cheering match, to the general annoyance of local spectators. Barry, who had finally had to be called to one of the Port Hurons who used bad language.

Port Huron began the scoring in the first innings. Gallagher got a base on balls, Healey sacrificed and Flaherty singled scoring Gallagher. But Flaherty was caught trying to pliff a home run hit to Hale and secured first on the play, went to third on O'Connor's two base hit and scored on a passed ball. Connors then struck out.

Neither side scored again till the third when two singles, a double, a triple and an error of Donovan's were scored. The life sent to the visitors. Then Chatham went to bat and made 12 runs, 17 men having a swipe at the ball in this innings. Klock singled, Hale got a base on balls and O'Connor was caught out by the centre fielder. Handiboe got a charity. The bases were now full. Barry forced in a run by giving Conklin a base on balls. The bases were still full when Grimshaw landed on the ball for two sacks, scoring three runs. Sanders knocked a pop fly to short. Neil singled scoring Grimshaw. Then Donovan landed on the sphere for a home run over left field fence. Klock secured a base when Eitton dropped the ball with two men out. Hale got a hit. O'Connor hit for one base scoring the catcher. Handiboe hit for two bases scoring Hale. Conklin got another, obviously. Grimshaw again came up to bat with the bases full and for the second time hit for two bases and scored three runs. Sanders singled and Neil went to short. This closed the innings, Chatham having secured 12 runs and made the largest score ever run up in one innings on Athletic Park by a professional club.

Port Huron in the fourth brought their score up to nine on four runs, secured on three singles, O'Connor's error and a base on balls. This closed the third more in the fifth and tied the score but they were unable to score again. In this innings three singles, O'Connor's error, a passed ball, Lobbeck's sacrifice, a base on balls and a hit by pitcher were good for three runs. Barry and Gelheon secured singles off Hale, this story, secured single into the box and was a little wild at first, but steadied down and only three hits were made off his delivery during the last five innings. Chatham added another run in the seventh on a fumble of Thompson's grounder by the second baseman and singles by O'Connor and Handiboe. Four more were secured in the eighth on Eitton's error, Donovan's hit by pitcher, Flaherty's error and O'Connor's home run. The features of the game were the two home runs by O'Connor and Donovan, both being fine drives.

THE FANS DID NOT TURN OUT IN GRAND RAPIDS

Grand Rapids, May 27.—Only four hundred people turned out to the game to-day, although it was a glorious Sunday and one which the old Western league would have drawn 3,000 on. The day was a good test for popularity of International ball, because if the fans would not go on a day like to-day they never will go on any day.

The home team won easily to-day as the season grows older, and he very pluckily says he will give them an article of ball which will draw them. The home team won easily to-day through the inability of the visitors to hit Hagerman. The score by innings:

Grand Rapids 1 0 0 6 0 1 1 9 14 13

Chatham.....0 2 1 0 0 0 1 4 6 0

Batteries—Hagerman and Holmes, Habel and Klock.
