VISIT FROM H. S. CLEMENTS

Member for West Kent
Renews Acquaintances
With Public School Board

Some Staff Changes—Heating System for Central School—Important Business Transacted.

Senator Lilley, of the new steam heating company, appeared before the members of the Public School Board at their meeting last evening and submitted a proposition for heating the Central school.

At present the Board pays out about $1,200 for fuel each year. Mr. Lilley offered to provide heat for the school for $1,200 a year, and the cost of installing the system in the school would be about $4,000. This sum of $1,200 might be materially reduced if the Board wished to install a metro in the building.

Mr. Lilley put it in a very businesslike way before the Board, explaining his proposition in every detail.

To Mr. Heyward Mr. Lilley said he thought the Board might obtain the heating service cheaper if they installed a metro in the school.

To Mr. Morley he said the company would give a service of direct and indirect radiation. The company would be able to use their system in an old hot water apparatus if the plumbing is good.

To Mr. Lenfestey he said the cost of changing from the present hot air system to the steam would cost about three or four thousand dollars. This is merely a rough estimate.

Dr. McKeough wished to ask the managers of the Central school a few questions. He was pleased the city was securing this heating plant. He believed it would be good.

For some years past the School Board have been considering the changing of the system of heating the Central school on account of the high expense in fuel at present. Several firms have tendered estimates, some in the neighborhood of $5,000 for installing a steam heating plant in the school. If we can heat the building for six or seven hundred dollars a year by installing our own boilers it might be a wise move, even if we spent a thousand dollars more in the start.

Mr. Lilley offered to submit a flat rate and also install a metro and the Board could take their choice at the end of the first year.

Mr. Benson—How long would it take to heat the school?

Mr. Lilley—About an hour.

Mr. Benson—Do you know of any schools being heated in this way?

Mr. Lilley—I know of several. One in Lockport, N. Y.

The managers of the Central school were instructed to discuss the matter with Mr. Lilley and his colleagues, who want an answer just as soon as possible.

Mr. Lilley—We will have to know right away if you want the radiators in this year.

Mr. Paxton—There is no appropriation for this year.

Dr. McKeough—If we decide to install this system there will be no trouble about appropriation.

It is likely a special meeting will be called to deal with the matter.

Miss Hillman thanked the Board for the increase she had received in salary.

Miss Marion McColl resigned her position on the Central school teaching staff. The resignation was accepted and several members of the Board expressed their sorrow at losing such a splendid teacher. She resigned on account of ill health.

An application from Miss Patterson, of Brantford, for position as kindergarten teacher was received and filed.

Miss Bertha Burwell, of Sheddin, applied for a position on the teaching staff. She was engaged at a salary of $300 per year.

Dr. McKeough—This young lady is not only a good teacher but a good looking. She is ex-president of the Elgin Teachers' Association and Inspector Atken says she is one of the best teachers in Elgin. She is an intelligent, bright and clever girl and we are making no mistake in engaging her.

Mr. Heyward—She should be placed in McKeough school. She has all the qualifications for our school.

Mr. Paxton—Well, we will engage her on Dr. McKeough's recommendation.

Herbert S. Clements, M. P., a former member of the Board, was in the audience and was invited to be seated on the platform.

Dr. McKeough—We are pleased to receive a visit from the ex-member of our Board, who is now our popular member of Parliament.

Chairman Morley—When we go to the House of Commons we will expect him to ask us to be seated on the platform there.

Trustee Geo. Heyward brought up some matters re salaries in the city kindergartens.

Miss Millie Turner was appointed assistant in the Central school kindergarten at a salary of $300 a year.

Misses McLean, Shackleton and Hoig were appointed assistants in the Central kindergarten at salaries of $240 a year each.

EDITORIAL

THE RADIAL-RAILWAY LOAN.

In view of the conflict of opinions in regard to the amount paid by the City in the Radial Railway loan of $50,000, it may not be out of place for us in bringing the argument to a conclusion, as far as The Planet is concerned, to attempt to harmonize the various statements made. In order to do so, let us state briefly and clearly the three points of view taken.

First—The Railway claims that the loan is equivalent to $24,319.53. This statement is correct if we look at it from one standpoint, i. e., present cash value. That is to say, if the City presented the Railway with a cheque for the amount it would exactly fulfil its obligation.

Second—If, instead of paying the amount in cash, the City pays off the indebtedness during the thirty years, so much each year, the amount actually paid by the City is $36,745, that is, $2,891.50 for the first five years and $891.50 for the next twenty-five years. (The amounts in all three cases given here are over and above the amount paid by the Railway to the City.) This is the actual state of affairs under the debenture system, and that all along claimed by The Planet and the City Aldermen.

Third—We have the Dr. Thorntonian theory. Plainly stated, it is this. If the City, instead of paying the money out to the Railway, were to put it all in the bank and let it draw interest, it would, at the end of thirty years, amount to the snug little sum of $78,877.83. If the Doctor, instead of limiting the time to thirty years—and there is no reason for him to stop his calculations at that limit—had taken a longer period he might just as easily deduced as conclusively that the loan is costing the City a million dollars. Therefore, although the Doctor has got some practice in the multiplication table out of his efforts, he has come, at least from the practical standpoint, to an illogical conclusion. This plain statement, we trust, will put the minds of our readers at rest as to what the City is actually paying in the loan transaction.

CZAR RULED BY MARS.

Makes Speech of More Warlike Tone Than Last—Will Concede No Territory Nor Pay Indemnity.

London, Aug. 2.—A despatch to The Times from St. Petersburg says that another Imperial telegram, even more warlike than the Emperor's reply to the Orenburg clergy, appears in today's official Messenger. The Emperor, replying to an address from Khabarovsk, heartily approves the recommendation to continue the war until the enemy is crushed, and above all not to think of the concession of territory or the payment of an indemnity.

Linovitch is inspired.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 2.—Gen. Linovitch has telegraphed to the Emperor, under date of July 26, denying the frequently published report that his army was completely surrounded. The flanks have never been turned, although the Japanese sought to do so. "The Japanese, who are some distance from our principal positions, having failed in their attempts to approach them."

The general adds: "The morale of the troops inspires me with complete confidence that the army is ready for any task."

After Some Hard Fighting.

Tokio, Aug. 2.—An official report from Japanese headquarters on Sakhalin says:

"The Japanese army on July 28 defeated the Russian eight kilometres south of Ryokoff and later occupied Palera after hard fighting. The Russians retired southward."

Gen. Saragochi, commander-in-chief of the Sakhalin forces ordered the establishment of a civil administration on July 30.

Czar and His Ministers.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 2.—The Council of Ministers assembled at Peterhof yesterday afternoon under the Presidency of the Emperor to examine the projects for a national assembly. The meeting was presided by a Te Deum. The Ministers will reside at Peterhof during the discussion, which is expected to occupy several sessions.

Workmen Strike, Pray and Parade.

Reval, Russia, Aug. 2.—A strike began yesterday at the Dvigat works, where the workmen offered up prayers before marching on the streets. They visited other factories and demanded a cessation of work. The Governor has posted a notice warning the people that arms will be used against crowds refusing to disperse. Lesser disorders have already occurred. The soldiery is now patrolling the streets.

Three Years For Stealing.

London, Aug. 2.—At the police court yesterday morning, Chas. Prosser was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary for stealing bond wires from the Springbank line of the street railway. Prosser has already received three years for a similar offence.

Mrs. John Tuke, wife of Conductor Tuke of the street railway, committed suicide yesterday morning by drinking carbolic acid.

Stupid are they who stoop to folly.

WHITE WON

200 LB. RACE

The Old Time Champion Carried off the Honors at Colored Celebration

Worthy Commemoration of Emancipation Day—Moses Robinson's Good Work.

Never before in the history of Chatham was a more successful emancipation celebration held here than the one that was planned, pushed and carried through this year by Moses Robinson, assisted as he was by an energetic committee of selected workers. There was a big crowd here and everyone enjoyed every part of the proceedings.

In the afternoon the usual speeches were given from the band stand, a baseball game was played, and foot races were pulled off. The baseball game between the Anchors and the Dictators was won by the Anchors by a score of 9 to 7. The features of the game were Binga's home run and Griffin's marvellous work at short stop. Moses Robinson consented, after some persuasion, to lay aside his silk hat and lodge trimmings for a few minutes and referee the game.

The big event of the day, however, came off after the baseball game. It is needless to say what the big event was when it is mentioned that Barrister John White was on hand with his little satchel, in which he carried his bathing suit, beer bottle corks, spiked shoes, interfering pads, liniment, etc.

The program clearly stated that the fat man's race was reserved for colored men only, but when the comment was on the look of disappointment when he read the bill, he decided to throw the race open to any fat man—then the betting commenced. Consternation swept through the ranks of the White crowd about a minute before the race when it was rumored around that White had faked. This was confirmed in the minds of his backers when they saw him toe the scratch and then suddenly turn and walk away. Mr. White had spotted a man in the race who did not weigh 200 pounds. He knew the man was under weight, for he had not had profitable experience a short time ago in guessing men's weights.

After considerable coaxing on the part of Billy Stone, Mort Sheldon, Mac Gardiner, Ward Stanworth, Mayor Cowan, and a few others, Mr. White consented to run anyway, and ran, he so well that he won the race, also the prize—a box of cigars. Speaking after the race Mr. White said:

"I knew I could win the race. I felt some one gaining right behind me and I knew I had to make a magnificent spurt, so I did. I am over fifty years old and I weigh over two hundred pounds, but the man that beats me in a fat man's race will have to step out pretty lively."

The next race was open and the prize was a bag of flour. Mr. White's backers wanted him to enter but the popular barrister whose big heartedness, leniency and unselfishness are so well known, very kindly and graciously declined. He had won one prize and he wanted to give some one else a chance for the bag of flour.

The proceedings of the day wound up last night with a grand dance and promenade in the curling rink.

The new dean has been a member of the chapter for 22 years, and is an M.A. of St. John's College, Cambridge.

Heavy Marine Losses.

Chicago, Aug. 2.—With the season half through, marine insurance men are hoping that the second half will in no manner duplicate the half already gone. If it does the season will be the most disastrous since 1898. The total losses for the first half of 1905 aggregate about $8,000,000. Of this sum, the fire insurance of the fire risk, will pay about $100,000.

PREACHING AND PRACTICING.

Here is a resolution passed by the Liberal convention in 1893:

"We cannot but view with alarm the large increase in the controllable expenditure of the Dominion, and we demand the strictest economy in the administration of the Government of the country."

How interesting in the light of their history since.

KEEP HOTEL.

License holders in North Oxford have received a circular letter from the board of license commissioners for that riding, cautioning them in regard to the way they conduct their business. They are reminded that it is their duty to "keep hotel" and that the bar is not to be regarded as the principal feature of the temporary home of their patrons. They are warned against selling liquor to minors and others who should not get it: "Do not sell to weak men," says the circular, "men who you know are injuring themselves and begging their families through drink. You must know these men, and you should refuse them drink and so instruct all your employees. Do not suffer any loitering about your place outside or in. If a man is seen coming out of your place, or loitering in the neighborhood of your place, drunk, it gives your place away. Close promptly at the hour for closing and keep closed tight till the hour for opening. Open your bar-room for nothing or nobody during prohibited hours. Keep the law strictly as to Saturday nights and Sundays. Keep your premises tidy and allow no unseemly conduct about."

Such counsel should be wholly unnecessary. It asks nothing that the law does not require of those who secure a valuable franchise from the people, and it would have been wholly unnecessary if the Ross Government had lived up to its professions instead of levying blackmail upon the offenders, who were permitted to recoup themselves by sales during prohibited hours and otherwise offending against the provisions of the statute. Mr. Whitney in proposing that both parties shall live up to the terms of the contract has taken a first step in the direction of a greatly desired reform.

THE LETTER BOX

A BROADSIDE FROM THE DOCTOR

Editor Planet:

Dear Sir,—"Re" the city's contribution to the railway scheme: As I opened the question for the affirmative, you will, I know, extend to me the usual privilege of "a few minutes to close the discussion." During the recent election campaign, for the Federal Parliament, a certain local politician was telling the hard-headed, hard-thinking farmers, in the vicinity of Fletcher, what the Grand Trunk Pacific scheme was going to cost the people of this Dominion.

One of the clearest thinking of these farmers, in replying to the man from the city, said "the gentleman's argument, concerning the cost of the Grand Trunk Pacific, is as clear as mud."

So, Mr. Editor, your article, under the caption "who owns hat" in your issue of yesterday, is as clear as mud.

It reminded me of a story I heard many years ago, of a city boy, who made up his mind to make a walking stool for his mother. When his task was completed he looked at it, long and earnestly. Then turning to his mother he said, "Mamma, can God see everything?" "Certainly," his mother said. "Then why do you ask?"

He thought deeply for a few minutes, and then said, "say, mother, won't He laugh when He sees my stool?" That's all.

Very truly yours,
A. W. THORNTON.
Chatham, Aug. 2, 1905.

G. W. Huffman's Explanation of the Harwich Council Troubles.

At the council meeting Commissioner G. W. Huffman explained in detail his side of the trouble which caused the late Reeves to resign. The money that was granted was to provide for the wants of the Peek family, he said. He instructed William Somerville, baker, Chatham, who daily passes the Peek place, to provide the family with what they needed and supposed the supply was running on regularly. Recently he was informed, however, that some one (Mr. McCormick he believed) had some time ago ordered the baker to stop supplying the family and he discovered that instead of the five dollars being nearly exhausted only a $1.50 worth of bread had been supplied.

In conclusion Mr. Huffman thanked his brother councillors for standing by him during the "storm" and promised to always work faithfully for the township.

TELEPHONE TALKS.

TO TELEPHONE USERS AND THE GENERAL PUBLIC.

In considering telephone problems it is universally conceded that "service" is the matter of first importance. Every other consideration, even rates, is subordinate to this feature—"good service". The telephone is no longer a luxury but a necessity in every industry of the country. An inefficient telephone service would practically paralyze at least every commercial community.

No branch of public service on this Continent has shown steadier or more rapid progress in the direction of efficiency than has the telephone, and, in this progressive movement, Canada has kept well in the vanguard.

Barring one or two isolated cases, based on very indefinite information, the most searching inquiry by the Parliamentary Committee has failed to bring forth any substantial complaint against the Bell Telephone Company's service, local or long distance. We are therefore justified in assuming that the Company has in this respect fully discharged its obligations towards the public. The Company has, in what is conceded to be the most important feature of its obligations, justified its continued existence and its claim to public support.

We may be pardoned for digressing so far as to say that service superior to all competitors has been the foundation of success to this Company.

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF CANADA.

THE EXHIBITION THAT MADE FALL AGRICULTURAL FAIRS POPULAR

When Governor Simcoe laid the foundation of London, Ontario, one hundred years ago he knew it would grow to be a great city, but had no thought of the Western Fair.

The Western Fair gives the people of this country an excellent opportunity for a pleasant outing at a minimum of cost, and at the same time develops their store of practical and useful knowledge.

Its educational features have always been carefully fostered by the Directors. This year several important improvements of an instructive nature have been added.

The celebrated High Land Regiment Band will give three concerts daily during the exhibition. The entertainment department will be better than ever, and will include leaping the gap in mid air on a steam automobile.

POOR APPLES

Fruit Crop is Not Very Good—Peach Crop a Failure, Berries and Beans Make a Poor Showing.

A gentleman at Cedar Springs writing to a friend in the city about the crops in that section says: In reply to yours of the 24th would say in regard to the apple crop that I am of the opinion the crop will be a very light one from present appearances. Of course I have not been around looking after apples, but when I have taken any notice it seemed to me the trees were not very heavily loaded, but I think the quality will be good. I can let you know more about the prospects later on. Oats are an excellent crop here and cutting has already commenced. Wheat is all cut and threshing has commenced. The peach crop in this section is almost a total failure and the dry spell we are having just now has shortened up the berry crop about one-half. The bean crop is suffering from want of rain and if the drought continues two weeks longer there will be hundreds of acres that will not be worth cutting. —St. Thomas Journal.

WHEN PHILIP'S SOBER.

CURIOUS SCRAPS.

A Church Puzzle.

For many years visitors to a church near Houghton-le-Spring were mystified by a double row of apparently meaningless capital letters, inscribed under the Ten Commandments. They were:—
P R S V R Y P R F C T M N ;
V R K P T H S P R C P T S T N .

At last, however, the enigma was solved by an ingenious individual, who filled in the spaces between the consonants with 'e's, and then the inscription read:—
"Persevere, ye perfect men;
Ever keep these precepts ten."

A Tavern Sign.

Though "The Ram and Teazle", looks like a stork puzzle in tavern signs, it is really one of the simplest to decipher. It indicates a house of call for persons engaged in the woollen cloth industry, the Ram being emblematical of the fleece or raw material, and the Teazle (which is an instrument used for raising the nap of cloth) of the finished goods.

Source of a Suggestive Sign.

At Marston Moretaine, in Bedfordshire, is a wayside inn with the peculiar sign of "The Jumps". The local tradition of its origin is that in the long ago, one Sunday afternoon, a party of parishioners were gambling on the spot. It now occupies, when to their consternation "Old Scratch" suddenly appeared, and made a flying jump into their midst. The story goes that formerly a large stone marked each of the impressions made by his hoofs in the turf, and one is still pointed out to visitors as evidence of the alleged terrible event.

A Saintry Butcher.

The beadle's staff of the ancient church of St. Bartholomew the Great, in West Smithfield, is quaintly symbolical of the principal trade of the district, being surmounted by a figure of the holy St. Bartholomew himself, holding a butcher's knife in his right hand. On the staff is inscribed, "The gift of Samuel Atkins, citizen and clothworker of London, in the parish of St. Bartholomew the Great, Anno Dom. 1731. Repaired and beautified 1823."

Cannibalism in Europe.

The eating of human flesh has not always been confined to other continents than Europe. Either from choice or necessity the practice has been indulged in comparatively frequently this side of the Equator. In France in 1831, during a great famine, human flesh was sold in the butchers' shops. During another great dearth, an innkeeper of Macon was always able to supply his guests with fresh meat. This excited suspicions; his house was searched, and four score human heads were found in his cellar. He was convicted of cannibalism and burnt alive; the same fate overtaking a butcher of Tournay for exposing human flesh for sale.

Introduction of Gutta Percha.

Considering the hundred and one uses to which gutta percha is now put, it seems strange to reflect that little more than half a century has elapsed since its first introduction to Europe. Yet so it is. At the beginning of 1843 Dr. W. Montgomery drew the attention of the Bengal Medical Board to the substance, surmising it would likely be useful for some surgical purposes. In April of the same year gutta percha was taken to Europe by Dr. D. A. Medley, who presented it to the London Royal Society of Arts, but it did not at first attract much attention.

A Wonderful Magnet.

Sir Isaac Newton wore in a ring a natural magnet, which weighed only three grains, yet it was able to take up 746 grains, or nearly 250 times its own weight.

BACK TO 10,000 B.C.

Rare Harvest of Egyptian Relics On View in London.

The season's harvest from Egyptian excavations is on view at University College, says The New York Sun's London correspondent. The chief interest is in Prof. Flinders Petrie's Sinaitic Peninsula excavations made in the turquoise mines of Wakhmaghala and Sarabit el Khadem and the latter's temple.

The oldest monument group, the King of Mersecha smiting a captive shishu, is assigned to the first dynasty about 4,600 B.C. There are also sculptures and inscriptions which are assigned to 2,500 B.C. An interesting feature of Sarabit el Khadem is the evidence that it was Semitic and not Egyptian worship which was practised in the whole region. Scattered pilgrim shelters usually contained a Bethel stone, some of which have Egyptian inscriptions. Here the pilgrims came for oracular dreams. This special feature of Semitic worship was quite unknown in Egypt.

The Temple of Sarabit el Khadem was originally the sacred cave of the Goddess Hathor. It must have existed in the Third Dynasty, nearly 7,000 years ago. One peculiar Egyptian feature of it was two small courts, each with a stone basin for purification. The characteristic feature of every Mohammedan mosque must have existed in Syrian worship fifteen centuries before Christ.

The discovery of the greatest antiquity is a collection of flints used by the Bedouins in working turquoise out of sandstone, which dates to 10,000 B.C.

Search For the Armada's Treasure.

The search for the sunken treasure in Tobermory Bay has been begun on board a strangle-looking craft, all surrounded with awning, and with every precaution to secure secrecy. The Duke of Argyll is represented by Capt. Burns, Glasgow, who is assisted by a foreign-looking gentleman, who is an expert in photographic operations. Two years ago there was recovered a long brass cannon with loaded breech block, the charge of gunpowder not having been exploded, as well as a huge pistol, a cutlass, a ring, and pieces of timber of the ship Admiral of Florence. But the main object of the present determined search does not concern such objects. The Armada of Florence was the treasure of the Spanish Armada, and thirty millions of gold were said to have gone down with her in 1588, when the vessel was blown up by an enthusiastic and adventurous adventurer, the chief of the Maclean of Duart Castle. The search now is for this gold, and every effort will be put forth to wrest it from its hiding place.—London Globe.

$500 REWARD for WOMEN WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States for any woman who can produce a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

"I was a great sufferer for six years and doctored all the time with a number of physicians but did not receive any benefit," writes Mrs. George Soden, of 641 Bonds Street, Saginaw (South), Michigan. "I had given up all hope of ever getting better. Thought I would write to you. When I received your letter telling me what to do I commenced to take your 'Favorite Prescription' and follow your advice. I have taken ten bottles in all, also five vials of the 'Pleasant Pellets.' Am now regular, after having missed two years and suffered with pain in the head and back. I was so nervous, could not eat or sleep. Now I can thank you for my recovery."

Don't hesitate to write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N.Y. If you want good medical advice from a fully qualified physician as to your personal good health. Such letters are always answered free of charge and confidentially.

A medicine which has outlasted all others for women in the past third of a century and being recommended by all those who have used it, is a good remedy to tie to. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is purely vegetable and does not contain a particle of alcohol to destroy the blood corpuscles and weaken the system. Do not permit the dealer to mislead you by intelligence by suggesting some other compound which he recommends as "just as good," because he makes it himself.

The Game of Bees and Pigeons.

A girl is chosen to represent the "Robber Bee." She sits down and the other players approach her and move their arms to represent flapping wings. They say:

"We pigeons come a-flying!"

The Robber Bee asks:

"Whence come you a-flying?"

Have a care! Have a care! Of the Robber Bee beware! Of the Robber Bee beware!"

As soon as she has said "Of the Robber Bee beware!" the second time she jumps up and tries to catch a pigeon. The captured one must become a Robber Bee and help the first bee, and so on until the players have all been caught. The last one to be captured becomes the Robber Bee for the next game.

The Cable Steamer Signal.

The "telegraph" steamer is a vessel employed to lay down or pick up a telegraph cable, and every other boat, large or small, is obliged to keep out of her way. As a danger signal to other crafts the "telegraph" steamer displays two red balls with a white diamond between them, and if the vessel is moving through the water the red and green side lights are also exhibited.

Riddles.

Who was the first whistler? The wind.

Why was Noah's ark unlike Joan of Arc? One was made of wood; the other was made of Orleans.

Which is the strongest day in the week? Sunday, because all the rest are weak (week) days.

The Largest Flag in the World.

The largest flag in the world was made in San Francisco for Hawaii and is eighty feet long. It consumed 700 yards of bunting and floats from a pole 150 feet long.

The character that needs law to mend it is hardly worth the tinkering.

THE CHINA CLOSET.

Some Good Suggestions as to Its Building and Furnishing.

An ideal china closet is built between dining room and kitchen so that it can be entered unobserved when guests are at table. The shelves are not more than fourteen inches wide and about nineteen inches apart. If wider than this the tendency is to pile too many dishes upon them, and they are apt to give way.

Corrugated rubber, such as is used beside kitchen sinks, is an excellent covering for the shelves and decreases the breakage of china by 50 per cent. A serviceable device for use when plates are stood on ends is to use a rope instead of a cleat to hold them and to fasten it at the corners and in the center by double headed tacks driven down tightly into the shelves. This being slightly yielding, the plates are less apt to fall over from a sudden jar or slight blow. Heavy pieces, such as platters and vegetable dishes, should be placed on the lowest of the broad shelves, the greatest weight being brought as far as possible over the cleats.

Where plates and saucers are piled one upon the other they should have rounds of felt or capton flannel placed between them. The rounds should never come above the hollow of the plates. Hooks on which cups are hung should not be screwed on the edge of the second shelf, but well underneath it. They should be tested from time to time, lest by the settling of the house and of the shelves they become loose.

The second shelf should be about three inches narrower than the one beneath it to admit of large dishes being lifted out safely. The upper shelves, unless used for large dishes, may be flush with the second. The top shelf should have a broad cleat across and around it. This is for the purpose of keeping the various odds and ends, such as are usually stored thereon, from falling over upon the dishes.

Where possible glass should be stored by itself. In the most modern houses cabinets are built in the dining room for this purpose.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

HANGING CABINET.

A Useful Ornament That Will Look Well in Any Room.

A hanging cabinet is often a very useful and may easily be made a very ornamental addition to a room, especially to a boy's or girl's own apartment.

A HANGING CABINET.

ment, and to those who are able to have one made at home the suggestion given by the illustration will be appreciated. The parts are easily fashioned, and the wood may be of whatever kind that will best accord with the surroundings. Wooden or glazed doors may be used, and a single pane may be used instead of the small squares. A broad shelf and a narrower one below are very effective. The ornamental hinges may be purchased at any of the hardware shops for a small sum.—Boston Traveler.

Grow Up With the Children.

A busy woman once said that she never knew how much she could accomplish until she became the companion of her young sons, sharing their sports and limiting her own working hours to theirs. Today they are young men, and she looks like their sister. There are other young mothers of grown men, and they are rather formidable rivals to younger women. The sons unconsciously make comparisons, generally in favor of mother. It is beautiful to "grow up" in this fashion with one's children, to keep pace with them in new studies and new thoughts, something like a second youth. We are so quick to put away youthful things unless we have some such incentive to hold them.

Flour and Cake Making.

In cake making the question of flour is important. No two flours thicken exactly alike. It is largely a matter of experience—this knowing when a batter is just right. More pastry flour is required than when bread flour is used, the difference being about two level tablespoonfuls to the cup. Too stiff a batter makes an undesirable cake, whether too much flour or too little milk is used. When a cake batter is between "a drop and a pour" it is generally about right. The consistency can be controlled by the use of milk, and with everything else carefully measured a little more or a little less milk can be made to cover the difference in flours.

A Graceful Carriage.

A graceful carriage is as necessary to good health as to good looks. Certain exercises will do much for the woman who hasn't always cultivated the habit of standing and walking correctly. A great aid in the development of a good position is to raise the crown of the head as high as possible and then try to make the chest meet the chin. This will make a graceful carriage, smaller stomach, a fuller chest and more lung power. To reach either above the head as far as possible or to the floor without bending the knees will decrease the size of the waist and round it; also fill in the hollows in front of the arms.

That Troublesome Meringue.

The secret of making the meringue for lemon pies so that it stands tall and thick is in the baking. Whip the whites of the eggs to a froth that will not fall out of the bowl when turned upside down. Put in about a tablespoonful of granulated sugar for each white, stir very little, spread it on the pies when they are just done and still baking hot without taking them out of the oven and let them bake with the oven open. If made hot enough to brown, the meringue will surely fall and become worse than nothing. Five to ten minutes is enough to bake the meringue dry and straw colored. Sift granulated sugar on the top of the meringue as soon as spread on the pie before baking.

WEALTH.

Robust Health More Valuable Than a Gold Mine.

Everyone desires to be wealthy. What is wealth? A hoard of gold or bank stocks? No, not by any means. A Croesus, facing death, would freely give all for health. A healthy, strong man or woman is wealthy. Analyse this and see. To be healthy, all the functions of the body must work well. The bowels must move daily, the kidneys must act regularly and the skin must do its work. Constipation brings headaches, backaches, sallow or grey complexion, because the kidneys and skin have to do the work of the bowels, which they cannot do, and the body is poisoned. Fruit acts on the bowels, kidneys and skin—it cures constipation, biliousness, liver and kidney disease—purifies the blood—and makes the complexion clear. To get the full benefit of ordinary fruit, you must take a lot of it. A physician in Ottawa has discovered a method of combining the juices of oranges, apples, prunes and figs and forcing into the united juices one more atom of bitter from the orange peels. This makes a stronger and more condensed fruit. This condensed, stronger fruit, with tonics added, is put up into tablets under the name of "Fruit-a-lives" or "Fruit Liver Tablets." For those travelling, "Fruit-a-lives" are invaluable, protecting the system against changes of climate, diet and water. The sale of these tablets all over Canada is simply enormous. Use them and become healthy which means wealth. At druggists, 50c. a box or 6 boxes for $2.50, or sent by mail on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

Come and see the great Maccabee Temple at East Purdon, Aug. 14th, Chatham's Civic Holiday. The building will be thrown open for the inspection of the excursionists.

Chatham Encampment No. 10, I. O. O. F., will meet to-morrow night, when the Royal Purple Degree will be conferred on two candidates. Members are specially requested to be on hand.

Mrs. Alf. Peate and daughter, May, of this city, left for Dresden this morning where a concert takes place in the Methodist church this evening, in which Miss Peate takes part. A new pipe organ has just been placed in the church, and Miss E. Aikin has been appointed organist.

Chas. Baxter, the Adelaide street florist, comes forward with a challenge to any man in the city to run in a fat man's race providing, however, that his opponent carries the same weight as Mr. Baxter himself. He is finding a good backer in Chief Holmes, who claims that Charlie is a winner under such conditions.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hicklin, of Adrian, Mich., were in the city attending the funeral of Mr. Hicklin's mother, which took place yesterday. Frank is an old Chatham boy and an ex-fireman. He is now employed by a telephone company in Adrian. About three months ago he fell from a pole and received serious injuries, from which he is still suffering. He was a welcome visitor at the fire hall.

LAI D AT REST

The funeral of the late Mrs. Emma Hicklin took place yesterday from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Taylor, Park street, to Maple Leaf cemetery. The obsequies, which were conducted by Rev. Mr. Rutledge, were largely attended. Warren Martin, an intimate friend of deceased, also voiced the regret of the community at her decease.

The pall bearers were Jno. Holmes, Warren Martin, Warren Lampert, Mr. Shupe, Mr. Arnold and Henry Westmore.

The deceased lady leaves eight children, three daughters, Mrs. Wm. Taylor being one, and five sons, John of Calgary, Richard of Pontiac, Frank of Adrian, and Thomas of Owasco, Mich., and Charles of The Planet Office.

AUTO-DRIVING

"Now that is the way automobiles should be run," remarked Chief of Police Holmes this morning as two young ladies who were out for a morning ride passed the Police Station in an auto car. "You will never notice a lady trying to travel at the rate of 60 miles an hour in a machine and as the result they are never the cause of accidents. If all the chauffeurs in the city were women the police would not have to be continually on the lookout for people driving overtime and over everything that happens to be in their way."

AT HOME

A very pleasant and successful At Home was held on Monday night by the Ladies of the Maccabees. The evening opened with the following program:

Guitar solo—E. J. Potter.

Song—Miss Foy.
Duet—Misses Barr and Primeau.
Recitation—Miss Mitton.

After the program ice cream and cake was served by the ladies. Miss Keene was declared the winner in the curtain contest. The proceeds of the evening amounted to $17.

March, "College Life," Frantzen.

CHILD CULTURE DREAM

Luther Burbank Would Apply Methods of Gardener.

Wizard Horticulturist Says Children Are More Responsive to Environment Than Are Plants—Scientific Training Required to Make Best of Human Life—Mr. Burbank Pays Wonderful Tribute to Dr. Barnardo.

St. Louis, Aug. 2.—Luther Burbank, the famous California horticulturist, declares that the great object and aim of his life is to apply to the training of children those scientific ideas which he has so successfully employed in his work with the transformation of plant life.

The Rev. Dr. James W. Lee, pastor of St. John's Southern Methodist Church, has returned from a trip to Santa Rosa, Cal., whither he went for an interview with Mr. Burbank. He said to Mr. Burbank that he had referred to his work in an address at Portland, Oregon, and had expressed the wish that he might introduce into the method of rearing children some of the scientific ideas that he was applying every day to the improvement of plants. Dr. Lee says that Mr. Burbank replied: "That is the great object and aim of my life."

Continuing, Mr. Burbank declared that plants, weeds and trees were responsive to a few influences in their environment, but that children were infinitely more responsive, and the failure to recognize the spiritual elements in the environment of children had been the fatal lack in dealing with them.

Tribute to Dr. Barnardo.

Dr. Lee asked Mr. Burbank if he was familiar with the works of Thomas J. Barnardo of London, who has educated some 60,000 waif children in the ninety-three homes which he has founded in various parts of England, with the result that only 2 per cent. of them have turned out bad. Mr. Burbank replied that he had studied Barnardo's methods of rearing children and that the latter was doing in the realm of human life what he (Burbank) was doing in the realm of plant life.

"Barnardo," he continued, "has demonstrated that infinitely more can be done with children than with weeds and plants. Whenever human beings recognize these realities in the realm of human life and begin to apply scientific principles to the training of children, then humanity will enter upon a new stage of existence."

Mr. Burbank said that in his opinion every person should be physically, morally and spiritually perfect, and could be if the same attention were paid to his or her training that he was giving to weeds. He declared that, just as he had wrought seeming miracles with plants by bringing them into contact with those elements of their environment to which they rapidly responded, those who have the care of children should seek to train them by bringing their natures into relation with all the elements of their environment to which they are potentially responsive.

THREE HUMAN WEEDS.

Sent to the Restraint of Prison For Life For Crime.

Chicago, Aug. 2.—Life sentences were imposed by Judge Albert S. Barnes yesterday upon three youthful hold-up men who pleaded guilty to a murder and four highway robberies committed Monday night.

George Plummer, 17 years old, was sent to Joliet Penitentiary for life for the murder of Michael White.

Thomas Talley, 20 years old, and Thomas Sherwin, 18 years old, his companion, was given a life term in the prison of Pontiac as punishment for the robbery.

They were not held as responsible with Plummer on the murder charge.

Railway Strike Ordered.

Denver, Colo., Aug. 2.—An order was sent yesterday to the Denver and Rio Grande Railway to all track and water service men on that road who are members of the brotherhood to go on strike at 6 o'clock p. m. August 2, owing to the refusal of the officers of the company to accept the schedule presented by the brotherhood or to submit the matters in question to arbitration. More than 2,000 employees are affected.

THE KING EDWARD GROCERY

KING'S PRESENT TO PRESIDENT.

Is Sending Books Descriptive of the Royal Collection.
London, Aug. 2.—Sir Purdon Clarke had a sudden summons to appear before the King at Buckingham Palace for a farewell audience before his departure for New York and was decorated with the commandery of the Victorian Order.

The King, who conversed with Sir Purdon for about three-quarters of an hour, was most gracious in his appreciation of the splendid work done by the retiring director of the South Kensington Museum, and said to him:

"Remember you are retiring with distinction."

SIR PURDON CLARKE.

King Edward also charged Sir Purdon with a message to the President of the United States, to whom he is to present in the King's name a copy of all the books that have been written or compiled on the Royal collections.

Sir Purdon wanted to ask the King for special permission to retain his uniform, but His Majesty, as though he had read his thought, anticipated the question by telling Sir Purdon he could wear his uniform on special occasions, although he is leaving the service.

SUMMON 500 WITNESSES.

In Suit Involving Half a Million Against G.T.R.

Bloomfield, Vt. Aug. 2.—A suit against the Grand Trunk Railway, involving an aggregate of half a million dollars was argued yesterday forenoon.

The suit was brought by the Connecticut Valley Lumber Company, which claims that 30,000 acres of timber land, owned by the company, were destroyed in 1903 by a fire said to have been caused by a locomotive of the defendant corporation. Damages of $300,000 is the claim of the Connecticut Valley Co.

Upon the finding of the referees rests the cases of several other lumber firms with losses aggregating $200,000 by the same fire, as these firms have agreed that the Connecticut Valley suit shall be regarded as a test.

The hearing is to be extended. More than 500 witnesses have been summoned.

No furnace drudgery in the Bison

The most exasperating mystery a man can have is a cranky furnace. The dirt and soot, the ash lifting and draft worry of many heaters, make life a burden. With the new "Bison" hot water heater, there are no worries. Its drafts are so simple a child can understand them, the shaking down apparatus is operated with the slightest effort, shaking down and sitting in one operation. It is a clean, simple, economical heater, perfectly safe, as it burns its own gas no matter how the drafts are set. Write to H. R. Ives Co., Limited, Montreal, for an interesting booklet which fully describes it.

THE NEWS COMPLAINS.

The Proprietor of The Planet has been served with a notice of complaint, apparently issued at the instance of A. C. Woodward, under the Act respecting Libel and Slander, by reason of the article appearing in this newspaper on the 8th July, 1905. As The Planet disagrees with Mr. Woodward in his interpretation of the article complained of and the meaning he seeks to attach thereto in his notice of complaint, we deem it but right and proper to publish the notice verbatim, so that our readers, and the public generally, may be fully aware of our position.

The notice of complaint is as follows:

To S. Stephenson, Esq., Publisher of Chatham Daily Planet:

Take Notice that I complain of certain libellous statements which were published of and concerning me and The Daily News, successor to the Chatham Banner Printing Company, in the issue of The Chatham Daily Planet newspaper, published on the 8th day of July, 1905, which statements are as follows:

"SHALL THERE BE A NEW PAPER?"

"UNKIND MISLEADING OF AN UNFORTUNATE CONTEMPORARY—MUST IMPROVE BUSINESS AND JOURNALISTIC METHODS."

"Otherwise Will Be Supplanted—Regrettable Record of Failure and Disappointment—The Secret of True Success."

"Surely it should soon become a criminal offence to joke with our poor, old, antiquated contemporary down the street. Not content with its bath-tub sleeping fake, or the wild yarn about the Dagoes bathing in the sedimentation basin, somebody has cruelly told it a yarn about a new Conservative paper, with the poor old thing biting to the extent of another double-column front-page article."

"What makes the joke an exceptionally unkind one is that, as is known in the inner circles, there has been for some months a movement on foot to start a new paper to supplant the Banner itself. From the time of its bankruptcy it has fallen away so rapidly that public confidence in the institution has reached the zero point. Three times its name has been changed or hyphenated without success, and even efforts to form a joint stock company and get the business out of the hole have failed. With the business wreckage the character of the paper deteriorated and as a news purveyor it has long since been a source for sympathetic regret. Unkind humorists have taken advantage of it, and its hopeless position has left it incapable of dealing with them. It is a misadventure from a party standpoint helped materially in the loss of the constituency to the Liberal interests, and there has since been a strong and somewhat outspoken public sentiment that the sooner the institution is again allowed to go to the wall and wind up its sad and tangled affairs, the better it will be in a journalistic sense, for the public."

"And it is to this unfortunate paper that unkind and thoughtless persons are going with their misleading tales as to the origin and character of the publication that is to prove its tombstone."

"So far as The Planet is concerned, its unfortunate contemporary has its sympathy. Success, it may tell it, is only to be gained by honest, earnest and enterprising effort. The press in its news columns is largely the servant of the people, and it must prove a faithful and truthful servant to earn public confidence and support. Fakes and personalities must be eschewed. Business must be conducted promptly and honestly. The policy of the paper must be consecrated to the public weal. These are principles that must be adopted to ensure success."

And take notice, that I complain of the foregoing article generally as being slanderous, false and malicious, written and printed of and concerning me in my trade and business as printer and publisher of The Daily News, successor to the Chatham Banner Printing Company, and without prejudice to the generality, I complain particularly of the following statement contained therein, namely:

"From the time of its bankruptcy it has fallen away so rapidly that public confidence in the institution has reached the zero point. Three times its name has been changed or hyphenated without success, and even efforts to form a joint stock company and get the business out of the hole have failed. With the business wreckage the character of the paper deteriorated and as a news purveyor it has long since been a source for sympathetic regret. Unkind humorists have taken advantage of it, and its hopeless position has left it incapable of dealing with them."

"And there has since been a strong and somewhat outspoken public sentiment that the sooner the institution is again allowed to go to the wall and wind up its sad and tangled affairs, the better it will be in a journalistic sense for the public."

"meaning and intending thereby to charge that I was and am in my trade and business as publisher and proprietor of The Daily News, successor to the Chatham Banner Printing Company, bankrupt and insolvent, and had taken advantage of the Act respecting bankrupt and insolvent debtors."

"And to the following: 'So far as The Planet is concerned, its unfortunate contemporary has its sympathy. Success, it may tell it, is only to be gained by honest, earnest and enterprising effort, to charge and charging that I in my trade and business as aforesaid was and am conducting a swindling and fraudulent trade and business.'

This Notice is served under the Act respecting Actions of Libel and Slander, R. S. O. 1897, Chapter 88, Section 6.

Dated at Chatham the 31st day of July, 1905.

A. C. WOODWARD,

Publisher and Proprietor The Chatham Daily News, successor to The Chatham Banner Printing Company.

It will be noted that Mr. Woodward particularly complains that the article meant and intended to charge him in his trade and business, as Publisher and Proprietor of The Daily News (successor to The Chatham Banner Printing Company), as being bankrupt and insolvent, and with having taken advantage of the Act respecting Bankrupt and Insolvent Debtors, and that he was and is conducting a swindling and fraudulent trade and business. The article complained of cannot be so read by any unprejudiced person, and was never intended in any way to have or convey any such meaning or make any such charge against Mr. Woodward, and The Planet now heartily and frankly disclaims any such meaning and any intention to cause its readers, or the public generally, to form any such conclusion or opinion as against Mr. Woodward.

In the issue of the Chatham Daily News (the newspaper published by Mr. Woodward) of the 7th of July, 1905, there appeared in a very conspicuous position, on the first page thereof, with large headline, the following article:

NEW CONSERVATIVE

PAPER FOR CHATHAM.

"As has been pointed out by this journal at various times, much discord has prevailed in local Conservative circles for some time past. It is highly unnecessary to recount the many squabbles that have taken place in the year gone by to prove this statement. It has long become public property that the local Conservatives are not a unit on any one thing; and the many recent petty differences have helped in rendering the ranks asunder.

The need of a good reliable paper to support the party has long been the source of great dissatisfaction in this riding. Whether the organ alleged to represent the party has been indiscreet, treacherous or ineffective in its work or not is neither here nor there, but it is a fact that open and strenuous complaint has time and again been ventilated by those whose policy it has been supposed to support.

"It is said that a recent indiscretion on the part of the paper so exasperated a large number of the party that they at once decided to attempt to form a local syndicate and float an out and out Conservative paper. This, it is alleged, was decided on after repeated requests had been made to the local organ to cease its blundering. When intercession proved of no avail, immediate action was decided on, and a small party caucus the other night the matter is said to have come up and been favorably commented on.

"If money and prestige can be sufficiently procured it is believed that the project will be attempted."

It was evidently the design or intention of the News to belittle The Planet by this article and to hold it up to ridicule in the eyes of the reading public wherever the article secured circulation.

The Planet thinks it ill becomes Mr. Woodward (who must be taken to be responsible for the article appearing in his newspaper) to make complaints of the character specified in his notice, when he courts and invites from The Planet criticism and possibly retaliation and retort by way of vindication and self-defence by the course he adopts towards it.

The item of the 7th July, above mentioned, is not by any means the first that has been printed and circulated by the News directed particularly against The Planet and attacking it, and Mr. Woodward, as a newspaper man, should be able readily to see that such comments and articles cannot be allowed to pass unnoticed by this or any other self-respecting newspaper. In printing the article complained of by Mr. Woodward, in the above mentioned notice, The Planet merely seeks to protect itself against an unwarranted attack by its contemporary.

The Planet, however, again asserts that the article complained of does not convey the meaning attached to it by Mr. Woodward, and was never in any way intended to convey any such meaning to the public, and it willingly disclaims it accordingly.

The Planet also disclaims any malice or ill-will in the matter, and says that in the publication of the article complained of, it was actuated solely by a desire to protect itself from the unwarranted attack of the News above referred to, and for no other purpose.

Scratched Furniture.

It is asserted that light scratches or marks on polished tables or chairs can be effaced by rubbing the meat of the common black walnut over them. After the oil of the nut has been rubbed in it is hardly possible to find the scratch. If the furniture is black walnut this would seem on the homoeopathic principle of "similia similibus curantur."

The prompt results produced by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy together with its pleasant taste have won for it a place in many households. Mr. W. T. Taylor, a merchant of Winslow, Ala., writes: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy myself and also with men on my place for diarrhoea and colic, and it always gives relief promptly and pleasantly." ## GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

Some people say
"Tis wrong to pray
For those in the Unseen."
But, right or wrong,
I'll lift a song—
God Save the Queen!

Her graves are green
In lands, I ween,
Where she hath never been;
The hours will bring
Old men to sing
God Save the Queen!

She is not dead,
For from her bed
She'll glad the village greet—
There was no better;
We can't forget her—
God Save the Queen!

THEIR AIM WAS BAD.

Italian Gunners Shot All Over Pender

Island, B. C. Farms.

The failure of some of the gunners

on the Italian cruiser Umbria to hit targets on Pender Island, ten miles from Victoria, came near raising an "international incident." While train ing towards that British Columbian city Commander Corsi of the Umbria, having secured permission from the naval authorities at Esquimalt, ordered the Umbria gunners to indulge in prac tice at the targets on Pender Island.

Between sixty and one hundred of the non explosive shells landed in the farm er's fields or in the shore camp of a party of bluejackets from H. M. sur vey ship Egeria. A rather hysterical account of the affair seems to have been sent to the London press.

On arriving at this port Commander

Corsi was surprised to find a cablegram demanding an explanation of his action at Pender Island. The commander was able to explain with ease. He said:

"When leaving Esquimalt I asked the captain of the Egeria where I could en gage in target practice. He was kind enough to tell me of Pender Island, where the British warships practice. I was greatly surprised to receive the message from Rome. It placed me in a most embarrassing position for a time. The fact of missing the target and some of the shells reaching the shore was the purest accident, but likely to occur to any vessel engaged in target practice."

As a matter of fact nobody was hurt and no damage was done to property.

Naval men here, however, are not in clined to view the matter so lightly

as Commander Corsi evidently does.

They point out that there are no tar gets on Pender Island, but the marks the Umbria fired at may have been buys placed near the shore by the survey ship Egeria for use in hydro graphic work. It is considered lucky that nobody was hurt, but the matter,

they say, cannot be lightly dismissed,

because a like mistake in the future might result fatally.

SIR GILBERT PARKER.

Represents Dominion of Canada and Greater Britain Generally.

"Sir Gilbert Parker is a personable

old Montaigne regarded as the sole beauty of man; he is well-dressed, too, and his English custom of having it in accord with convention, and has a pleasant smile and greeting for friend and acquaintance alike; for he is genial

by nature."

So says a writer in The English Mo torist and Traveler. We know Sir Gil bert well here in Canada, and are glad to have him in the Imperial Parlia ment, where he represents not only his particular constituency of Gravesend, but, in a larger sense, the Dominion of Canada and Greater Britain generally, for the distinguished Canadian novelist has lived also in Australia and travel ed in South Africa. "He has drunk deep of success," says the same writer.

"He is popular in society and popular,

too, as a writer, and already he has won a certain position in the House as a speaker and politician. He lives a var ied and full life, and has, apparently,

all that man can desire. The future we are told, are certain to reserve, and the fittest are those who are best ad apted to the tone and manners of their age and intimate surroundings. Judged by these tests, Sir Gilbert Parker has nothing to fear."

Sir Gilbert has had in 1900 a safe seat in Parliament. He has, however, iden tified himself strongly with the Cham berlain propaganda, which has cost the Unionists so many seats at by-elections, and will probably find a heavy fight on his hands at the coming election. Sir Gilbert is 43 years old and wealthier than he ever could be dreamed of being when an undergrad uate at Trinity University, Toronto, or a budding journalist in Australia.

Uncle Sam's Usual Nerve.

According to Mr. Scott of the De partment of Immigration, Uncle Sam has been magnifying the importance of his immigration work in Canada.

Before the committee on Agriculture,

Mr. Scott threw some interesting light on the tactics of immigration of ficials from across the border.

In the initial report of the Bureau of Immigration for the United States

there is a number of beautiful photo engravings represented as depicting the American immigration buildings at the various ports of entry.

Mr. Scott showed that these were Canadian buildings in which the United States authorities were allowed to occupy portions.

The claim of the United States offi cials that they had rejected more than 2,000 immigrants destined for United States points on their arrival in Can ada was absolutely untrue.

According to Mr. Scott only 473 had been detained, of whom 177 were de ported, and 1,355 cured and released.

Last year the total immigration into Canada was 130,331, and for the year ending June 30th, is estimated at 148, 287.

A '37 Rebellion Relic.

An old sword-bayonet, supposed to be a relic of 1837, was found by

Elias McCarthy while digging at his residence at 82 Bond street, Tor onto. As the homesick of William

Lyons Mackenzie was stumped on this spot, it is thought to be a relic of the rebellion. It has been a long time in the earth, and nothing of the nature was ever recovered before.

The agonizing itching and burning the awful suffering of infants, and anxiety of worn-out parents, as in milk crust, tetter, and salt rheum—all demand a remedy of almost super human virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are such stands proven beyond all doubt. No state not justified by the strongest evidence.

The purity and sweetness, the power

the absolute safety and great economy have made them the standard skin

Captain W. S. Graham, 1371 Eoff St.,

of June 14, '04, says: "I am so grate ful I want to thank God that a friend recommended Cuticura Soap and Cuti long time with sores on my face and body, and was nearly driven to despair.

I had tried every remedy I could get hold of, and others that I had barbers' poison. None of them did me any good, but they all took my money. My

Pretty Well After All—Has Won

The Khedive, who has again arrived learned English as a child, under tutor

age, and he is a monoglot, and speaks to Cairo

Prince Mehemet. When twelve years of age he entered the celebrated Haxius

the Khedive Tewfik, to ascend the throne of Egypt at the age of eighteen in 1882. At Vienna he was something of a favorite with the Austrian Em

The Khedive's knowledge of lan

English, with the representative of France in faultless French, and with

of the Austrian Court. Later he con

Wm. Taggart's Kidney Disease Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Well-known Tilbury East Farmer Tells How Easily He Got Rid Of His Trouble.

Tilbury, Ont., July 31.—(Special).—Mr. Wm. Taggart, a well-known and highly esteemed farmer of Tilbury East, tells of his remarkable cure of long standing Kidney Disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"For about four or five years," says Mr. Taggart, "I was a sufferer from Kidney Trouble, and the scores of medicines I used gave me no relief. I was forced to get up three or four times every night and my life was simply miserable."

"At last I started to use Dodd's Kidney Pills and I got relief from the first. After using two boxes I was completely cured, and you can bet I was a happy man. I cannot speak too highly of Dodd's Kidney Pills."

All urinary complaints are caused by Diseased Kidneys. Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure the kidneys and therefore always cure urinary complaints.

Keep Your Brain Busy.

Dr. Duke, the leading English brain specialist, says the trouble with most brains is that they are not kept busy enough. The brain ought never rest except during sleep, and most persons take too much of that. A good, healthy circulation of blood would be maintained in the brain if professional men would relax themselves from their intellectual pursuits, not in golf, but in chess problems and scientific investigations.

Imitation.

THROW MEDICINES TO THE DOGS.

At best they are unpleasant, often useless. You have some disease of the nose, throat or lungs. Doctors would call it bronchitis, asthma or catarrh. The common root of these diseases is germ or microbe irritation. Catarrh is not only destroys disease germs, it does more, it heals diseased and inflamed tissue. The disease is not only cured, but its return is forever prevented by using Catarrhazone, which is splendid also for colds, coughs and irritable throat. Remember, you inhale Catarrhazone—Nature's own cure—use no other but Catarrhazone—it's the best catarrh cure made.

STRAINED BACK AND SIDE.

"While working in a saw mill," writes C. E. Kenney, from Ottawa, "I strained my back and side so severely I had to go to bed. Every movement was a torture. I tried different oils and liniments, but was not helped till I used Nerviline. Even the first application gave considerable relief. In three days I was at work again. Other men in the mill use Nerviline with tremendous benefit, too." An honest record of nearly fifty years has established the value of Polson's Nerviline.

Then add a cup of sugar with a tablespoonful of flour mixed through it. Line a plate with rich crust, add the fruit and cover with a top crust. Bake in a moderate oven.

Onion Omelet.

Boil until soft a dozen medium sized onions, chop, season with salt, pepper and butter. Add half a pint of sweet milk, three beaten eggs. Mix well and bake in a quick oven fifteen minutes.

Putting food into a diseased stomach is like putting money into a pocket with holes. The money is lost. All its value goes for nothing. When the stomach is diseased, with the allied organs of digestion and nutrition, the food which is put into it is largely lost. The nutriment is not extracted from it. The body is weak and the blood impoverished. The pocket can be mended. The stomach can be cured. That sterling medicine for the stomach and blood, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, acts with peculiar promptness and power on the organs of digestion and nutrition. It is a positive cure for almost all disorders of these organs, and cures also such diseases of the heart, blood, liver and other organs, as have their cause in a weak or diseased condition of the stomach.

To put off doing a good turn means a desire not to do it.

MISS FLORENCE RHETT.

Household Manager and Social Secretary For J. P. Morgan.

Miss Florence Mason Rhett of New York is household secretary of the great financier J. Pierpont Morgan and is one of the highest salaried as well as one of the hardest worked women in the United States. Those who ought to know say her salary is $10,000 a year.

Miss Rhett has been in Mr. Morgan's employ as household manager and social secretary to the family for six years. She relieves Mrs. Morgan, who dislikes household responsibility, of the care of her magnificent homes in New York, West Point and London. Her word is absolute in each establishment. She engages and discharges the servants and purchases all the supplies. She is not restricted as to expenses. Miss Rhett is said to be a relative of Mrs. Morgan. She is a descendant of the old Rhett family of South Carolina, the members of which have long been socially prominent in Charleston. She is a tall, large, distinguished looking woman, like Mrs. Morgan and Miss Anne Morgan.

Managing the household affairs is the least of Miss Rhett's duties. She takes charge of all the correspondence of the Morgan home, including all letters dealing with Mr. Morgan's multifarious charitable affairs in connection with churches and hospitals, his relations with the Metropolitan Museum and other institutions of art and learning, his personal correspondence about his yachting interests and the various clubs with which he is connected. All appeals for aid come under Miss Rhett's eye, and her decision upon them is usually final, as that decision is only tendered after she has made a rigid investigation as to the worthiness of the cause.

Mrs. Morgan and Miss Morgan receive almost as many begging letters as Mr. Morgan does. These also are turned over to Miss Rhett. She also acts as social secretary, replying to and sending out invitations.

As a connoisseur in art Miss Rhett is nearly always engaged in looking up something in connection with Mr. Morgan's purchases in that field. If somebody writes offering to sell him a rare piece of china or a painting he sends Miss Rhett to look at it. Her judgment goes a long way with him in such matters. This will give an idea of the wide range of Miss Rhett's duties, and though her salary is large, she earns it.—New York Press.

Feeding the Baby.

This is a question of vital importance and much concern to every mother. The time comes when something besides a purely milk diet is desirable, but what, that the little stomach can digest, will furnish proper nourishment? It is often necessary to change from an entire milk diet when, during the teething period, baby refuses food or does not seem to relish what is taken as formerly.

The old fashioned oat flake, properly cooked, is one of the first things to be given with safety, and the little ones enjoy this. In lieu of a double boiler, if yours is too large, get a small handi basin that will fit in the top of your teakettle, using the cover of the latter for the dish. To a cup of boiling water add a pinch of salt and one tablespoonful of oat flake. Cook over your boiling kettle one hour or more (a thorough cooking is very essential). You will have a jelly with very little solid matter. Add milk, and it is ready for baby. A little sugar may be used, but do not make the common mistake of thinking everything for baby must be sweetened and later wonder why when he is hungry plain bread and butter without a sugar dressing is not acceptable. Gradually increase the amount of oats used until you have accustomed the little stomach to taking it as ordinarily prepared for breakfast.

Bread and milk is readily assimilated and easy to prepare. Use the entire wheat bread if you can get it. Place a slice in a saucer and pour over it the warmed milk. Crushing between the tines of a fork does away with chunks and will not make the bread sticky as crumbling between the fingers is apt to do.

Saving Irons.

Many housekeepers are annoyed by their flatirons becoming rusty from dampness in the cupboard. This may be easily prevented. Before putting the irons away after the ironing is finished rub them with a little warm grease on a piece of soft paper and wrap them in thick brown paper. When they are to be used again dip

Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Stomach Cramps, Colic, Seasickness, and all Summer Complaints are instantly cured by them into very hot water with a little soda dissolved in it and wipe them dry before putting them over the fire to heat. When taken from the fire for the ironing have some brown paper on the table with a little powdered bath brick on it and rub the iron on this. Have a piece of paraffin tied in a muslin bag, rub this lightly over the iron and then polish it on a soft cloth. This almost takes longer in the telling than the actual work does, but the process makes the iron delightfully smooth and easy to use, and consequently one may get over the clothes more quickly. Flatirons frequently receive very little care, and snowy white clothes too often are spoiled by them. They should always be immaculately clean.—House-keeper.

YOU ARE AILING.

Not quite sick,—but robbed of ambition to work—find it hard to think of dying, but bad enough for life to be pretty dull. There is a remedy—Ferrozone—that quickly lifts that half dead feeling. Gracious, but Ferrozone makes you feel good; it sharpens the dulled appetite, makes it keen as a razor.

BLOOD? Ferrozone makes lots of it, the rich nourishing kind that vitalizes the whole body. You'll be wonderfully quickened, immensely strengthened, feel hearty and vigorous after using Ferrozone. Buoyant health, surplus vigor and reserve energy all come from this great restorative. Fifty cents buys a box of fifty tablets at all dealers.

The Lot's Advantages.

Advertising Expert—I've written the praises of all these lots but one. I'm afraid you can't sell that one. Real Estate Agent—What's the matter with it? Expert—Why, it's on an almost perpendicular hillside. Agent—Call attention to its wonderful drainage facilities.

No More Work.

Hicks—I suppose Dremer is still pottering alone at his inventions. Wicks—Well, he has actually perfected a great labor saving scheme at last. Hicks—You don't say. Wicks—Yes; he's going to marry Miss Roxley.

PURGATIVES ARE DANGEROUS.

They gripe, cause burning pains and make the constipated condition even worse. Physicians say the ideal laxative is Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butterbur; they are exceedingly mild, composed only of health-giving vegetable extracts. Dr. Hamilton's Pills restore regular movement of the bowels, strengthen the stomach and purify the blood. For constipation, sick headache, biliousness and disordered digestion no medicine on earth makes such remarkable cures as Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Try a 25c. box yourself.

Hay Fever Abolished

Medical Science Discovers a Cure for This Malady by Breathing Hyomei.

Among the important additions made to medical science in recent years, none is more notable than the positive announcement of a cure for hay fever. Exhaustive experiments with Hyomei prove that this treatment will prevent the attacks of hay fever if used for two or three weeks before the annual appearance of the disease, and it may be relied upon, if used faithfully after the sneezing and other annoying symptoms have appeared, to relieve at once and afford a permanent cure.

Stomach dosing cannot cure hay fever. A change of climate is the only treatment that gives relief, and Hyomei, which medicates the air you breathe, acts upon this principle, giving in your own home a climate as healthy as that of the White Mountains or other health resorts. The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1, extra bottles, 50 cents. The Central Drug Co. have seen the good effects following the use of Hyomei in so many cases of hay fever that they are willing to sell the treatment with the understanding that if it does not give satisfaction, the money will be refunded to you.

H. J. HILL PASSES AWAY

Man Who Made Toronto Industrial Fair Famous.

To His Energy and the Direction of the Late J. J. Withrow as President the Commanding Position of the Exhibition is Largely Due—His Notable Career in Newspaper and Public Life in Toronto.

Toronto, Aug. 2.—After an illness extending over years, during the last three months of which he has been confined to his bed, the death occurred last night at his island home of H. J. Hill, former manager of the Toronto Industrial Exhibition. Death was due to arterio-sclerosis, or hardening of the arteries, the result of the constant and sincere application to his work during the twenty-one years he was with the exhibition. To Mr. Hill's indefatigable energy and resource, combined with the direction of the late J. J. Withrow, as president, is due the present proud position which Toronto's fair now holds.

LATE H. J. HILL.

throughout the world. He slept peacefully away.

Henry J. Hill was born in York, England, in 1848, and came to Toronto about 35 years ago, becoming a reporter on The City Press, and later on the old Leader. By the energy and brilliancy he displayed he gradually came to the fore until he was finally appointed city editor of The Mail.

After a short time he was called upon to take the position as manager of the Toronto Industrial Exhibition. This post he filled for twenty-one years, and each successive year added more and more to his reputation as manager as the institution grew from that of a city show to the magnitude of that of the present.

In his management of the fair the success that it has attained stands as a monument to Mr. Hill. It was his ever active brain that suggested the new features, and that thought out the attractions that would bring the greatest to the credit of the fair. He brought Mr. Hill married twice. His first wife was a Miss Rachel Clute. At her death four children survived her, Percy, Charles, Edith and "Coddie" of the "Isle of Spice" Co. Later he married Miss Florence Prior, by whom three children survive.

About four years ago the strenuous life that attended the superintending of the exhibition began to tell upon Mr. Hill. His condition became weaker physically, and he was ordered to take a rest. A leave of absence for a year was granted him by the board of managers, and he was, in 1902, retired. Dr. J. O. Orr succeeding him.

The hotels on both sides of the river are filled to overflowing. ## GASOLINE TOOK FIRE

Passengers on the Launch "I'll See" in a Bad Way.

Terrific Explosion Followed Flames and Women in Terror Threw Themselves Over the Side of the Burning Craft—Vessel Was of Yankee Registration and Was Doing Illegal Carrying of Excursionists.

Gananoque, Aug. 2.—The launch I'll See, in command of Captain Wessel, left Taylor & Green's wharf at 10.30 yesterday morning with 25 passengers, mostly women and children, all bound for Kingston.

The boat had proceeded but 300 yards from the shore when flames arose from leaking gasoline, followed by a terrific explosion. Two male occupants of the engine room were severely burned, some ladies fainted, and several threw themselves over the side and hung on, waiting for help.

Rescue was near in the form of island launches and skiffs all hurrying to the scene. The skiffs were quickly loaded, and in the excitement one was overloaded, but other skiffs relieved her of her party. Some of the women would not leave the I'll See, but hung on the side while a visiting launch towed the boat to the railway wharf. The Rathbun Company's fire apparatus was handed over to the skiffs, and the fire was put out in a few minutes.

Some of the passengers were at once driven home in a carriage, others were lying on the wharf in a dead faint after being removed from the boat, but resuscitative were applied, and all were right in a few minutes.

The I'll See is of Yankee registration, and would have been seized in Kingston on arrival for carrying passengers from one Canadian port to another.

VISIT FROM

H. S. CLEMENTS

Miss Craft was appointed assistant in the McKeough school kindergarten at a salary of $240 a year.

"The teachers in our kindergartens do not get enough salaries," said Mr. Heyward. "They are all underpaid. In the McKeough school especially this is so, and there we have not enough teachers, either. Miss Morrison, the first assistant, should be receiving more money. She is undoubtedly one of the best kindergarten teachers we ever had and should be recognized."

Dr. McKeough—We are now paying out in salaries $2,500 a year. Mr. Clements addressed a few words to the Board before they adjourned.

Manager Furlong Badly Burned.

Montreal, Aug. 2.—James Furlong, manager of Sparrow Amusement Co., was badly burned at St. Agathe. Mr. Furlong was doing some work at Mr. Sparrow's country home when an acetylene gas tank, which they were refilling, exploded.

Some Good People

still follow antiquated methods of raising cake, biscuit, bread and pastry with home-made mixtures of what they suppose to be cream of tartar and soda.

They do not know that these articles as now sold in the groceries are almost anything else but cream of tartar and soda.

The best housekeepers use the Royal Baking Powder instead. Its scientific composition insures uniform results. Only by its use can the finest flavored, most wholesome cake, biscuit and pastry be produced. To any housekeeper who has not used the Royal Baking Powder we would like to send our Cook Book, free. Mark your request "For instruction."

Novelty In Quebec Harbor.

Quebec, Aug. 2.—Shipping men of the lower town were agreeably surprised yesterday morning when they looked out in the river and saw a regular curiosity, an English barque, about 500 tons, anchored in the stream. It is not often that a sailing vessel comes to Quebec these days. Two old rivermen said it put them in mind of the good old shippings days of Quebec.

Cannot See Dead Mother.

Hamilton, Aug. 2.—The authorities have declined to allow James Nealon, charged with two others with murdering Fred Fieldhouse, to see his dead mother or attend her funeral. His lawyer, George S. Kerr, has appealed to the Minister of Justice.
