The main source from which we drew our information during the publication of controversial magazines some years since. Sold separately, the items being extremely scarce, although some are much used, would bring very much more money, but we cannot distribute these broadcast upon conscientious grounds. We offer them as a whole for the above small sum, in the hope they may be secured and kept together in a good Theological Library for future use. Among the twenty bound vols, mostly post 8vo, cloth, we mention TOLUND'S Nazarenus or Jewish, Gentile and Mahometan Christianity, 1718; MIRABAUD'S "System of Nature," VOLNEY'S "Ruins of Empires," the first volume of the celebrated "Devil's Pulpit," by Robert Taylor, "Syntagma," by the same, "The Oracle of Reason," Nos. 1 to 52; this volume also contains THE TRIAL OF CHARLES SOUTHWELL, The Editor, for Blasphemy, contained in the first number before Sir Charles Wetherell, 1842, 104 pages, also the TRIAL OF GEORGE JACOB HOLYOAKE, before Mr. Justice Erskine, for Blasphemy, 1842; G. J. 624

A storehouse of the most ennobling eloquence by men of the highest character and attainments. It should be read by the LAYMAN for self-education and in order that he may be enabled to make comparisons and draw conclusions as to the quality of modern pulpit teaching. It should certainly be found in the minister's study as a model for usefulness and instruction in righteousness and in order that he may make him acquainted with the forces that has given solidity to the English churches for the last fifty years.

THE PULPIT OF TO-DAY, 11 parts, containing Sermons by HENRY WARD BEECHER and other great men, 1881; THE PREACHER'S LANTERN, edited by Rev. Paxton Hood, 25 various parts, 1872-3 and 4, a useful lot for a 1.00. 625
