¥ 19, 1905, THER NOTICE. Go. LIMITED

K TIES. ish manufacturer, par's trade-includ-include have had made

ta, SHIELD KNOTS

d Silk, made from s, in black, blues, figures and scrolls. n of these Natty tich vary from 25c ll be offered

-15c mannin TS $27 75 among the Ladies'

ions are taken adre excellent. Fawn k, short epaulette ing cuff, sump-...... $27 75

RDY SUITS. and judicious of

r find a more suitfor purchasing the han when we offer: NORFOLK SUITS, a very large range select from, best t, perfect fitting,

uits. January ..... $2.95 ERS, 39c. have the oppor-

trimmed downes daintily edged c. January ...... 390 .....

SOCKS, 18c. S EXTRA FINE CKS, ribbed tops, I: These comfortfootwear come in e good value ice ...... 18c mmmm Co.

LIMITED ies St. Montreal

ICE

EN that the Parish Archangel of Monthe Legislature of t session, to have so amended as to f, St. Michael the real, into a school all the rights and olic School Boards Quebec. . KIERNAN, P.P.

DILLON. S FLOOD.

Mr. Fredk. Guernsey, the well-McGinty, of New York, to be a na-val chaplain. The stalwart young priest was also commended to the (Montreal Gazette, Jan are disinterested as to money; they will abide with the poor fisher-faras again taken up the cudgels jointing in the City eal feet of double line terment and for fun-nul erecting all the trings, elbows and fis-trings, elbows and fis-trings and carriers and carriers appecification of John in defence of the Catholic priests Mexico. Mr. Guernsey, who is to Mr. Arden's mother in England. Already, in the Senate, as in the Chief Executive by Cardinal Gibbons lor of the Order, has endorsed a pe-Mr. Arden made a happy reply saying that since he took up the in House of Commons, there has been tition asking for an investigation. and by Archbishop Ireland. mer in preference to the wealthy Protestant, writes : given intimation that when the bill saying The honest and straightforward per-Father McGinty is six feet tall. planter; they will give their health The great majority of the Catholic vork in Canada, he had met nothing providing for the provincial organisons who belong to the Legion or their life at need for any of their dock. Nor are these priests without lergy here are faithful workers in he great Maxican field. • • • light complexion and an athlete. He but encouragement and kindness, es zation of the territories comes to be not naturally want to be associated is the assistant rector at the Roman dealt with there will be an earnest pecially from Hon. Justice Curran Catholic Church of Our Lady of Good with the black sheep who acted as lay helpers. Mexican Catholic ladies nd the Old Boys and Girls' Associa Taking the Catholic Church as discussion as to how the school ques-'delateurs'' and tried to ruin offic hole in this country, viewing its weak broadly, and in an impartial pirit, one must commend it heartirisk their lives not seldom in doing tion. Referring to the authorities in England, he thought their ideals too lofty. When he would meet the committee in England he would try and disabuse their minds from such ideas. The sight he saw before him that night was a sufficient proof that the work was lasting, that health, happiness and prosperity had fallen in goodly places, and that gratitude, which is becoming a back number with many in the world to-day, was still to the fore with the Old Boys and Girls' Association. Mr. Arden paid a glowing tribute to the work of the Misses Brennan, who amidst the greatest difficulties a few years ago, still managed to keep a roof over the orphans' heads, and to pro-vide, with the skender means at their disponel, the recency things for Counsel, in East Ninetieth street, tion. Referring to the authorities in tion shall be dealt with. There who persisted in believing in the eflons can be seen and ned at this Depari-of John Galt, Chief New York. He has passed the phyhe work of Sisters of Charity amou evidently in Parliament those who desire that the privilege of the relisical examination before the Board ficacy of the Christian religion. the poor and ignorant; and broad-minded Protestants themselves cheer-fully assist such institutions as Fa-ther Hunt Cortes' working boys' home in the city of Mexico. of Naval Surgeons. He is twenty-eight years old, and was born in New York city. He It is a great, warm-hearted, rooding mother, doing the best if is with a continually renewed crop tropical hunan nature. It is a gight, and it goes on every day the year. Pricets are human he It is a great, gious minority to control the exper LEADING THE SINNER TO GOD. diture of its school taxes shall be made constitutional, as it is in Onbe considered unles d form su; plied, and al signatures of tend made constitutional, as it is in On-tario and Quebec, and as it was sought to be made in Manitoba. The fact that in the parliamentary elec-tion of 1896 so many Protestants gave their votes to candidates pledg-ed to maintain the Manitoba Roman graduated at St. Laurent College, Montreal, and completed his theolo-Some non-Catholics object to on a chartered han ito Works, for the down, for the e thousand colar to thousand colar to thousand colar to the cheque with the cheque with complete the weil be returned in case confessional on the ground that it interposes a man between the Crea-tor and the creature. These critics maintain that the sinner should go He is only advancing in life whose heart is getting softer, whose blood warmer, whose brain quicker, whose spirit is entering into living peace. And the men who have this life in them are the true lords or kings of the earth—they, and they only. rical studies in the Sulpician Semin ary, Paris, where he was ordained a priest four years ago. His first clea, and some of them err at tim at on the whole, what an amound positive good they accompliable observes good they accompliable withing up, the semi-animality mass of ignorant and unreflectly pople. The old Spaniard who complete this country made a distance who who have the semi-animality of the maintain that the sinner should go direct to God. They overlook the fact that the Catholic penitent goes to God, and that it is the confes-sional that sends him to the Father of Mercy more frequently than those outside the Church. The non-Catho-lic sinner has no one to lead him back to the path of righteonaness and show him how to overcome temptation. The Catholic sinner, ical appointment in the United Itates was as assistant to Dean Surtsell; Rondout. Next he served ics in what the Privy Co Catholics in what the Privy Council declared were thair legal privileges would indicate that the division of opinion on the new issue need not be on creed lines. There will always be among Protestants those who will be ready to concede to Catholics Burtsell; Rondout. Next he served as a curate at St. Patrick's Cathed-rell. From there he was made as-sistant to Father Connolly at Our Lady of Good Counsel. On receiving the news of his ap-pointment, which he had not solicit-ed or even thought of. Father Mcnder. not bind itself i v tender. Ohristianity works while infidelit lks. She feeds the hungry, clothe a Baked, visits and cheers the sici TNAS. Secre

the descendants of the Aztecs and the other tribes are guided by the LATE CARDINAL LANGENIEUX. instincts, reason little, perhaps as much as an elephant, and have to be taken by the maps of the necks and Career of the Venerable Prelate Recalls Dread Days pulled up on to a reasonably high plane of conduct. They are not emiin France.

Vol. LIV. No. 30

respect for the venerable octogena

lates of the past, like Mgr. Dupenloup, Mgr. Darboy or Mgr. d'Hulst.

of the Church, who had such winning

manners that they made one often forget that he was finer than amber,

and more redoubtable than anyone

when he took it into his head to obtain an advantage." "He was,"

says one of his enemies, "a true Roman, a veritable Ultramontane, in all the force of the term, where the interests of the Church were concerned, a friend of the formidable

Cardinal Oreglia; but he was able,

nevertheless, with marvellous supple

with the lay power, and to steer

and then returning to more fashion-

the Chapel of the Tuileries.

to France in 1901, they were

clear of dangerous situations."

to avoid unending quarrels

nent Ohristians; they are more or less pagans, and if it were not for the big and busy Catholic Church Cardinal Langenieux, Archbishop of Rheims, who passed away on they would be brutish heathens and New Year's Day, is sincerely regret-ted by friends and foes alike. Even truly "sin razon !"

Like exuberant and ever-growing vegetation of a tropical jungle, these Combists, or some of them, had people come continually into existence, the products of heredity; all rian, who was one of the grand prepassion, impulse and heedles stupid and prone to evil. Along M. Dumay, Director of Cults and comes the priest and makes a dive right-hand man of M. Combes in the into the mass to pull out sinners. He grapples with humanity as it is Public Worship Department, said of the Cardinal Archbishop of Rheims in the tropics, not as it is ideally pictured in northern parlors and lecthat he "was a prince, a real prince ture rooms, and applies soap and water, shows what a comb is for, rebukes the exhibitions of everyday and natural wickedness, enforces obedience, has to paint hell most alarmingly, and so gets in his honest work, and produces a sort of underdone Christian, with atavic inclinations to primitive paganism. The priest has his hands full. He hears the endless grind of confessions, of as much interest as the self-revealings of our nearest animal kin, just plain carnal sins, the sort that one would expect among poor devils of men and women born of primitive ancestors. The Catholic Church gets down into this semi-brutish mass and does

This great French prelate was a Southerner, born at Villefranche, in the Rhone department, over eighty years since. Having studied and You can't take parlor its work. Buddhism, intellectual Unitarianism been ordained at Saint Sulpice, he and ultra-refined distillations of rewas appointed to the parish of Saint ligion among the masses in these Roch, afterwards going to a Belle-ville cure among the Revolutionists, lands. All this outfit would be of no more good than meringues cast to tigers in a cage.

Not only is Catholic missionary able districts like that of the Madeleine. Introduced to the Imperial work going on in southern and in-Court by a lady who was a great terior Mexico, but right here in the friend of the Empress Eugenie, Abbe Langenieux preached the last Lent in city. The wig organization does its appointed task; it has little time That among everyday humanity for highwas in 1870, just before the outflown discussion, and the familiar break of the Franco-German war. modern slashing-out of bits of the Bible; it is wrestling with human During the Commune of 1871, the future Cardinal had a oarrow escape nature as it is, and doesn't imagine that human nature is much better from being shot like the Rector of the Madeleine and the other hosthan it was in Rome when St. Paul arrived there. The dainty preacher, the curled darling of the congregatages, but he was saved in time by one of his old Belleville parishioners, who remembered his goodness and tion, would be entirely out of his generosity. After the Empire, the future Cardinal was a great friend element down among the struggling mass of the poor, wanton and ignoand adviser in the MacMahon famirant; the raw material of the angels, by became Bishop of Tarbes in 1873, and went to Rheims the year perhaps, but needing centuries of spiritual evolution to get there. Yet after. When the Emperor of Russia among the poor and ignorant are and his consort went to the review sometimes found jquiet, devoted souls near Rheims during their last visit like lovely flowers in a barnyard. The "treasure of the humble" reis ceived at the Cathedral by Cardinal theirs, and the pious priest, discov-Langenieux, who gave them, at their ering them, thanks God that someown request, his blessing before they left. It is recorded that the Emthing comes into his life to prevent his utter discouragement. press asked and received the prelate's

Mr. Guernsey is specific in examples of religious devotedness among the diocesan clergy, Carmelites, Dominimen," he says, "sat down with them

mdants of the Aztecs and Annual Report of the Catholic Emigration Association,

e Cruc

The Catholic Emigration Association, with Canadian headquarters at the corner of St. Antoine and Fulford streets, and a branch house at Ottawa, have had a very successful year's work in caring for and placing the hundreds of emigrant children sent out from the mother house at Liverpool. According to the annual statement, 865 children, under the age of 18 years, comprising 573 boys and 292 girls, had been received during the year; 672 applications had been received, 300 for boys and all happy and contented. 842 for girls; 155 of these had been placed at different points in the Province of Ontario, and 517 in the Provinces of Quebec and New Brunswick. This was at the beginning of boys and 178 girls at work in the and nine boys in the Province of kind the world over. New Brunswick 950 official wisits have been made by the inspectors of Cecil Arden, who has worked unceasingly for the good of the Assoed with the past year's work. He found that in order that the work should have more scope, and spread throughout the other provinces, it was necessary that he should meet the home authorities and place the matter before them. He accordingly made all arrangements for his trip, and the Old Boys and Girls' Association prepared a surprise party for him before leaving. On last Friday evening the members of the Association assembled in large numbers to show their appreciation of Mr. Arden's work, and to present him with souvenir. Among the invited guests were Rev. Father D. J. Holland, C.SS.R., and Rev. Father Rietvelt, C.SS.R., St. Ann's; Hon. Justice Curran and Mrs. Curran, Mr. Hoolihan, Dominion Emigration Agent, and a representative of the True Witness. At 9 o'clock the meeting was called to order by Mr. William Evans, honorary secretary of the Old Boys and Girls' Association.

Mr. Evans explained the object of the gathering, and said that since the formation of the Association nine months ago, it had grown from 30 members to 139 members. He hoped in a short time to see it grow still larger. He praised Mr. Arden's work for the emigrant children, and called upon Hon. Justice Curran to present the souvenir, in the shape of a silver-mounted umbrella, suitably inscribed to "their best friend."

sing twice. This fact is related, not in a Catholic paper, but in one of the Ministerial journals. add another thousand for those who in the annals of the parish of Ver-Before doing so Justice Curran Rey. Father' McGinty Appeinted by B addressed to the un-ndorsed "Tender for be Systems for Mont-III be received at this cans, Jesuits and other religious orcame from Charlevoix, St. Joachim, spoke at length on Mr. Arden's great ders, etc. "I have known these St. Tite and St. Fereol, making a President Roosevelt to be a work, on the happy gathering of so ANOTHER TRIBUTE TO many of the old boys and girls that grand total of 156,263 pilgrims for U. S. Naval Chaplain. SPIES AMONG THE LEGION and heard the story of their self-denying lives, seen them tested with tion referred particularly to the sil night, and in making the presentalaying and jointin al, 4,000 lineal feet the year 1904. THE CATHOLIC CLERGY. tion referred particularly to the sil-ver maple leaf, with the word "Montreal" engraved upon it, and decorated with the colors of the As-sociation, red, white, blue, gold and which was to be some the As there have been informers President Roosevelt, upon the perby the Government, stalling and erecting cial castings, elbows g the terminal receivamongst the members of the Legion onal recommendation of Archbishop SCHOOLS IN THE WEST. of Honor who spied on army officers Farley, has appointed the Rev. J. M.

therings of the Association, they would be fully convinced that the work was productive of great re- the object one desires and the other sults. He thanked one and all for sults. He thanked one and feelingly their beautiful present, and feelingly build to their thoughtfulness for his good mother. Mr. Hoolihan added a few words in which he condemned those who severely criticize the work being done for the emigrant children, saying that not more than two per cent. of the children sent out to Canada were undesirable subjects. He wished Mr. Arden a pleasant voyage. Rev. Father Holland also added his quota of praise for Mr. Arden, and was particularly well pleased to see so many of the former emigrant boys and girls, now settled down in life, Songs were then given by some of the company, and afterwards refreshments were served. The sight of so many of the former emigrants, many of them just budding into manhood 1904. At present there are 204 and womanhood, with happiness beaming on their countenances, was Province of Quebec, 126 boys and an admirable one, and would have 27 girls in the Province of Ontario, done justice to any gathering of its done justice to any gathering of its At the C.P.R. station on Sunday evening another large crowd assem the Association, and to-duy there is bled to wish the genial manager bon $3,412.61 to the credit of the child- voyage. As the Maritime express ren in the bank. The manager, Mr. drew out hearty cheers were given for Mr. Arden, followed by the company singing "He's a Jolly Good Fellow." ciation since his appointment to and the waving of handkerchiefs. Canada, feels particularly well pleas- During Mr. Arden's absence, the business will be conducted by the assistant manager, Mr. Fitzhenry. One pleasing feature of Mr. Arden's report which will be read before the home committee is the kindly reference he makes to the good training and attention to religious duties given the children who are placed in French-Canadian families throughout Quebec district, and he strongly urges that more children be placed with such families. He will also ask to have more inspectors appointed to visit the children oftener, as the work is increasing. Since last November, when the Ottawa house was taken over, there are some 1200 children to be visited. Mr. Arden will be absent about seven weeks.

MONTREAL, THURSDAY, JANUARY 26, 1905.

St. Anne de Beaupre Pilgrimages for 1904.

(From the Annals.)

The year 1904 is now but a me mory, but a glorious one for our kind Patroness. During this year, as in previous ones, multitudes continued to flock to the shrine of Beaupre. The faith and confidence of the pilgrims were rewarded by striking manifestations of St. Ann's power. The number of pilgrims who went by train was 124,-693, and 30,570 by boat. We may

isty of Roman Catholics, the ques-tion now to be decided is whether AN ENTIRE FAMILY is willing to concede can best secured by legislation at Ottawa. The story of the Manitoba school question is not encouraging to those who think as Mr. David spoke in the Senate. Separate schools were pro-

E Colititess

province of Manitoba as effectively as they can be in any legislation to be passed for the erection of the new provinces further west. A provincial ty in the Legislature, was able, however, to nullify Parliament's intention, to take away from the religious minority the privileges they were thought to be secure in, and incidentally to disturb the politics of the whole country. The election result of 1896 was a verdict in favor the public school, and a declaration that it would thenceforward be useless for Parliament to undertake to force on a province an educational system it does not desire. Events since 1896 have made this even more emphatic. The Catholic clergy of Manitoba have from time to tim protested against the conditions that election fastened on them; but what they said fell upon deaf ears, even among their compatriots and co-religionists. The lesson of the situation is that a parliamentary effort to fix a separate school system upon a province cannot prevail against the will of the province itself. The New Brunswick case is to the point well as that of Manitoba. In the territories at present separate schools are established wherever the minority desires. There seems to be no objection to this and no demand for a change. The inference is that when the territories become provinces the existing conditions will continue. They will be more secure existing by the consent of the people who ar directly concerned in them than if it is sought to establish them by exercise of the will of people from other parts of the federation. By leaving new provinces also there may be less danger of some demagogic "Joe" Martin or Greenway seeking to make votes among the majority by assailing the privileges of the minority. The teachings of the unfortunate results of past experience is that Parliament will do best in this school question by observing the spirit of the British North America Act, which puts education among the matters the provinces control, and by trusting to the good will and intelligence of the people of the West to deal liberally with those who for conscience ake ask that they shall be permitted to control the education of their children, and in the process use the taxes they pay to the state for the special service of the schools

PRICE FIVE CENTS

EMBRACES CATHOLICITY

A consoling and edifying spectacle was offered the faithful of Verdun on vided for in the act constituting the seven persons renounced Protestant. Sunday afternoon, when a family of ism and were baptized and received into the Catholic Church. Rev. Father McGinnis, vicar of the parish, Government, supported by a majori- the ceremonies connected with holy in an eloquent discourse, explained baptism, and exhorted his hearers to rejoice in beholding so many of their, separated brethren become members of the great Catholic family.

REV. L. P. McGINNIS. Curate at Verdun.

The names of the new converts are Frederick Thomas Hill, Elizabeth Hamilton, his wife; Florence, Amelia, Rowland, John Christopher and George Arthur, their children, and Mr. Henry Miller. This estimable family came from England some time ago and settled in Verdun. Impressed by the beauty of the Catholic ritual and the great truths of Catholia the matter to the good will of the doctrine, they asked to be instructed in the faith. This wish was granted by Father McGinnis, whose apostolic zeal is so well known, and who performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Fathers Lachapelle, vicar of St. Louis de Mile End, and Polan, vicar of St. Patrick's.

In the sanctuary were noticed Rev. J. A. Richard, parish priest of Verdun, and Father Villeneuve, vicar of St. Louis.

After the ceremony of baptism there was the blessing of a splendid statue of St. Bridget by Rev. Father Richard. Rev. Father Polan, of St. Patrick's, preached a powerful and touching sermon, whose effect was visible in the faces of his hearers, Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament by the Rev. Canon Lepailleur, brought to a close a memorable day

THE TRUE WITNESS AND CATHOLSC CHEDINCLE

THURSDAY, JANUARY 26, 1905

A BOON TO CHILDREN.

A medicine that will keep infants to and young children plump, good na-tured, with a clear eye and a rosy. with a little tremulous laugh as she advanced to the porch, where skin, is a boon not only to mothers, and but to humanity. Such a medicine is Baby's Own Tablets, which promptly cure all the minor ailments little ones, and makes them well, play well and sleep well. You can safely take the words of thousands of mothers who have provthe ed the value of these Tablets; for instance, Mrs. J. R. Standon, Weyburn, N.W.T., says:-"'I have proved the great value of Baby's Own Tablets in cases of diarrhoea, constipation, hives, and when teething, and I would not be without them." Tablets are equally good for the tenderest little<sup>a</sup> baby or the grown child, and they are guaranteed free from opiates and harmless, Sold by all druggists, or sent by mail at 25 cents a box, by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co and Brockville, Ont. said grim Covenanter ancestor in the great hall seemed to relax its frown as the sunlight streamed through wide-open windows. The quaint, old china vases brimmed with freshly plucked roses. The somber silence was broken with girlish laughter and the songs. Light and warmth and color followed the newcomer at Cameron some Place even as they follow the sun ha

Her Mexican hammock, heaped with gay cushions, lit the dull piazza. Her silken-lined workbasket filled with bright crewels, touched the gloomy hall into light. She could ride; the pride of the stable, broken by the young master three ears before, yielded submissively to ner rein. She could shoot; her little silver-mounted rifle brought down with unerring aim the hawk that had been a very Herod among the downy innocents in the barnyard. Most wonderful of all, she could cook, by strange, new, dainty methods that made good Mrs. Cameron open her eyes in wonder It was this last accomplishment that conquered the old Squire's re-Elsie had filled his pipe in a deft fashion, learned long ago from her soldier father. She had sung to him evening after evening the Scotch ballads he loved. In her white clinging gowns, with roses in her breast and hair, she had been a vision of light and loveliness to the old man's gathering twilight. But it was not until she merrily bore in a smoking dish of "haggis" and

THE SPOOL DOLL Katherine had been sick time, and now she was get and could sit up in bed hours each day. of this, but gladdest of a therine herself, for she wa so much, to be able to p must have grown very fas for a rest cure," mamma during these long weeks

Dear Aunt Becky : well As I have been reading in the True Witness from boys and girls, I thought write one also. I am in the fourth class going to try the entranc tion next summer. My s is Georgianna Montpellier girls of my class are Flos rigg, Lizzie Kelly, Yvonne and Georgianna Montpelli I intend to spend my su days with my sister who Montreal. I received a lo sents from my friends Chr sister Ida got a grey lam Hoping to see my letter I am your loving niece.

THURSDAY, JANUA

OUR

Dear Boys and Girls :

Is not this glorious

time seems long until th

Have you slides built in

or do you skate ? I hop

will find a few spare min

oments fly until class

B(

Alfred Centre, Ont. + + + THE BRAVERY OF B.

The bravest battle that fought, Shall I tell you where a

On the maps of the world it not, 'Twas fought by the me men.

Nay, not with cannon or h With sword or noble per Nay, not with eloquent thought, From the mouths of won

> But deep in the walled-u heart-Of woman that would no

But bravely, silently bore Lo ! there is the battlefi

No marshalling troop, 1 song,

No banner to gleam and But, oh! these battles! th long, From babyhood to the g

-Joaqui * * * Everyone

outdoors once more, she w "Angelina" and "Lolita," big beautiful French dolls. were so big and heavy that that she could not lift th bed, and to really have a with them was quite out o tion. The other smaller been in the room with her and they were now "in th what was Katherine to do well? It was a pathetic ! that asked Aunt Lou that one afternoon when Aunt

I always liked to

pened in" to see the little Now Aunt Lou was a ve auntie, although she did a d ma and floo litt

HOME Conducted by HELENE. A little child said to me the other | which is from left to right in place | mantles away. of right to left. day: "When I'm big I'll paint those Simple bath robes make general lovely colors in the sky." It was favorites and for many reasons are to at sundown of a bright, crisp day, be preferred to any other sort. They and I was walking with a small acquaintance of mine. We could

the dying rays kissing the summit of our snow-capped mountain, and we had both been silently admiring the day's reluctant farewell with happy

assurance of as blessed a day to fol low, when my reverie was broken in

upon by my wee friend's remark.

Dear childish heart ! Older and wiser heads than hers had dreamed

of a future as she was planning to paint her picture. There have been too, dreams of portraying the perfect tones of a dying sunset's glow

the multi-colored bands of the rain-

how: the restless surging of the work to set the world agog. In many cases these have remained the dreams of impetuous youth while the success has gone to the one whose

latent genius sprang to life through the painting of a flower, plucked

close to the heart of nature, had im-

bibed its teachings, and had responded in full measure. Then, again, the renowned surgeon nas been evolved

out of the simple act of dressing and binding a wound. And so on. We dream and sometimes our dreams

come .true: again, we dream and we suffer the bitterness of disappointment. There must be activity to achieve success; there must be un

* * *

FASHIONS.

in very low down that you have

Very stout women may wear plait-

skirts of the year are circular

five or seven gored model, and kirts. If there is objection for daunted vigor to retain it.

nor

arm.

shape.

from the roadside. He had rushing cataract; the writing of

see

lived

take graceful lines and include gener ous sleeves which render it easy to slip on and off. A pretty one may be made up in pink wrapper flannel, ribbons, showing banded with edge of velvet, while at the waief is a heavy cord with tassels. A11 materials suited to garments of the ort are appropriate, and the banding can be of any contrasting mate rial that may be preferred.

Real raspberry red makes one the most fashionable materials of the season, and is particularly charming worn by young girls. stylish little frock in cashmere, with the yoke and trimmings of tucked taffeta, is eminently effective. A let the stitch of double thread square yoke with box plaits at de and shoulder straps, which give the broad line to the figure, make novel features, and allow of trimnings of various sorts. The skirt is circular, laid in three wide tucks and gathered at its upper edge. Little boys are never more attrac tive and never better pleased - then when wearing coats suggestive of nilitary styles. A stylish one is nade of Russian blue melton with collar and cuffs of black Astrakhan cloth, and is delightfully suggestive of real cold weather, but it can be reproduced in any color preferred with collar and cuffs of velvet, the material or of cloth in contrasting color.

* * *

Mud spots on silk can generally b removed by rubbing with a piece of linea dipped in benzine or alcohol.

chen stove the place for it is in the middle hole. It will then dry before The long-shoulder effect on blouses unless well done, is neither pretty burning and will throw off no disbecoming, and one constantly agreeable odors. sees it to-day in a manner which is It is worth knowing that the odo very disfiguring to most women. Do of onions may be almost entirely renot think because you have a long moved from the hands by rubbing shoulder seam and your sleeve is put them with celery tops. This mean will also remove the odor from dishes. Thin slices of brown or gluter shoulder effect seems a hopeless spread with cream cneese make stumbling block. If you are making licious sandwiches to serve a perfectly plain shirtwaist-that is, lettuce and tomato salad.

vigorously with a little warm water of tucks in the front and back-cut your shoulder seams full length from in clouded water bottles or vases the neck-line to the top of your will remove the deposit.

essential a feature of the young housekeeper's menage as the of homespun linen was of grandmoa closely plaited effect, some of the plaits may be omitted, and simply ther's. Nothing makes better dust ers; it serves as glass and chin the dish cloth.

> of the molds are well brushed with white of egg, the jellies will turn out

Laundering fine linen doilies is at tended with some difficulty, especialwhen the doilies are fringed Combing out the fringe after ironing

Another pretty model for the wo time, if the linen is really fine. man with large hips is to have the upper portion of the skirt gored in a thod, which, after all, may not at new. cir- are floated, one by one, in a dish

They make a splendid polish for silver. Put a little on a soft duster, and rub on the article to be cleaned. It will polish beau tifully without scratching, or marking the silver. A new lamp wick should be soak in vinegar. If this is done there will be neither smell nor smoke, and much brighter light will be given Inte stains can be more quickly re moved from white goods by salt if vinegar is used with it. Put a fresh supply on until the stain disappears then rinse in clear water.

Do not scrape a frying pan, as it is liable to burn. Insread rub well with a hard crust of bread and wash in hot water.

If you are covering an entire floor with matting, sew the breadths together as you would carpet, only

much looser than for the carpet. * * *

RECIPES

Stuffed eggs for luncheon or supper are always good. Boil the eggs hard, and after they have cooled cut in two crosswise. Mash the yolks and mix with bloater or anchovy paste. minced parsley, salt and pepper Minced ham or chicken may be substretched stituted for the fish paste, and chopped sardines are sometimes liked. A little lemon juice is a necessity when Fill the white fish is used. cup neatly and place on ice to chill. A winter fruit dessert, apropos Drain all the peach trees : juice from a can of choice peaches and place over the fire with nearly an equal quantity of sugar. When this as boiled, drop in the peaches, few pieces at a time, and boil for fifteen minutes. Lift out and ar range in a glass dish. Fill the cavities of the peaches with preserved raspberries and serve with whipped

Cheese balls are a delicious companiment for the salad course Grate half a cup of cheese and fold into the stiffly beaten whites 0 three eggs and season with salt and paprika. Form the mixture into small balls and fry them in deep fat until they are a golden brown. Serve

Mixed nuts are best used in a sa ad, as the different flavors seem to combine especially well with the acid of the fruit.

Spice Cakes-Beat two eggs and half cupful of butter together and add a half cupful of milk, and one and a half of molasses, a teaspoon ful of soda and a teaspoonful each of ginger and any other desired spices; also a cupful of dried cur rants. Bake in a moderate over for three-quarters of an hour. A Salad of Lima Beans—After hav ing soaked a quart of Lima beans for wo or three hours, drain and place over the fire to cook with hot water enough to cover, and as the water boils away, add more until. after about two hours, the beans ar cooked and the water just covers them as at first. Season highly with pepper and salt, and just befor erving stir in a dressing made o two tablespoonsful each of flour and butter, a teaspoonful of vinegar and a teaspoonful of mustard. + + +

MAKE THE HOME PLEASANT. Mothers who love their daughters

manist with his sweetheart." supremely can not afford that any "Romanist ! Oh, you mean

Squire Angus Cameron, grim gaunt and gloomy as the granite wells of his home, sat smoking his norning pipe. It took all the pluck of a soldier's daughter to charge such a sentinel good writers, though such expre but strong men had gone down under sions as "quite young," and "quite the battery of Miss Elsie's hot" have a colloquial ring about eyes so often that she had the cour them. There is, however, springing age of a conqueror. "Boarders !" echoed the Squire in fighting blood of three generations in

And I have managed just as big men before," she added

"Take

look

sav

a difficult combination to

ee if some kind, good people would

Again the bright, bewitching eye

Don't want ei

up, of late, the slovenly practice employing the adverb "quite" with a brusque reply to her request. e. g., "quite a panic ensu boarders here / No. we don't. Never If an adverb can modify a nour did and never will. where is the distinction between ad ther their money or their company. verb and adjective? As a matter o And the speaker's tone and fact, the functions of the advert vere enough to rout the most reck seem to be encroaching on those ess invader. the adjective But Miss Elsie held her ground ac ording to the most approved feminine tactics, charmingly unconscious of the Squire's beetling frown ncivil speech. "Oh, I am so sorry," she Forlorn Hope plaintively. "It is such a lovely, ovely place. I never saw such beau tiful oaks. And your view !" Here words quite failed Miss Elsie. "May

"There be the place, miss." Bi Dunn, who ran the one wagonette that comprised the "livery" of what. The pretty invader touched a weak point. "Ay, the view is fine. I've heard painter folks say they never aught like it. And though I've been and around it looking at it summer and winter this forty year, I never found it twice the same. It's mist and cloud, storm and rainbow, changing ever.

"It will be no harm to try," said the little lady, who was Si's only passenger this June morning. She was a dainty little creature with her wind-blown hair and dance ing eyes. Gowned with exquisite simplicity, there was an air about her from her pretty straw hat to the tip of her little French boot. that made her seem a strange and delicate blossom for these rugged

doubtfully. "Only rough talk ain't pleasant to hear, and though old quire Cameron never was softtongued, he's got harder and rougher since his trouble last year with young Don wilds.

little lady softly. "His son," explained Si, giving his bony mare a loose rein for the climb. was monstrous sot on him. And no wonder-he was suthin' to brag on-and strong and straight as a mountain pine. The old folks gave him everything first-class, college eddication, tower in Europe-everything h could ask. Didn't spoil him none neither-all the folks on the mountain-side agreed to that. He was that pleasant and friendly and nice that everybody tuk to him. He could have gone anywhar this county vote appeal of the eyes went straight now could send him-if 'twas to the White House itself, when the bust-un and spiled all. Now he ha quit these parts forever." "Forever ?" echoed the girl in ow voice. "Lord, ves. Don Cameron ain't the sort to knuckle down. You see he met some girl off yonder and los his heart to her. That warn't much hurt, if he hadn't lost his head, too -clean forgot all the bad blood tha has been biling in the Camerons for hundreds of years, and turned Ro-

*** sit down just one minute and look at those mountains ?" And she sank in a pretty girlish vay on the stone steps at Squire's feet Duncansville, slackened rein as The shaggy brows relaxed he reached the turn in the mountainroad and pointed to an old stone

nouse, rising grim and gray beneath overshadowing oaks, while range after range of forest-crowned heights above "There be Cameron Place, as you asked for, miss-but ez for getting board thar, I don't think you've any chance at all. 'Wonderful," said the girl softly. 'I have never been in the heart of the mountains before. I can understand how their children love them and long for them. I have not been very well," she continued, turning the bright battery of her eyes upon the old man's face. "The doctor ordered quiet and mountain air. But find. All the hotels are filled with gay, noisy crowds, dancing and froicking day and night. I thought I

"No harm, maybe," said honest Si, would search these lovely heights and take me in."

"Young Don ?" queried the strings.

> "They hadn't but one. and unlifted glance recalled the ass of long ago.

"I dunno," "There ain't a place round here fitsix foot four in his stocking-feet, tall ting for folks that want quiet hala." as a thin, sad-faced old woman stepped to the door behind him,

'here's a young woman that the doctor has ordered to the mountains. She has come looking here for board." "Oh, not 'board' !" The pretty to the old mother's heart. course, I can get board anywhere. But I am looking for a home for few weeks-a sweet, quiet, peaceful home, where I can rest and strong.

"You'd not be wanting jigging and junketing like they have at fountain Hotel?" asked the Squire, suspiciously.

Miss Elsie, shaking her head.

"Nor a crowd of young fools blathering around night and morning?" "No young fools shall come within Ca

"Not a jig or junket,"

gunshot of me," laughed the girl

grow

the old

answered

flashed upon the Squire, and again the lines gave way as a tender memory twitched at his knotted heart Twenty years ago he had laid a little maid to rest under the placed it before him on the dinner lindens-and-and-the old wound

table that the Squire gave way hurt yet. Something in the bright, openly and entirely. little "Eh, the Lord guide us, lass, what witch or warlock taught ye this ?" he said, reluctantly

And Elsie had laughed a rippling augh of triumph, and felt that the ourse of "national dishes" at her And if you're not well- Macooking school had not been all in

But soften as the old folks did to their fair young guest, no word of the dark sorrow that sat at their oard and shadowed their home ever passed their lips. Perhaps it was er seeming ignorance of the tragedy that had darkened their lives that "Of made Elsie's presence so cheering to old pair, who proudly shrank he from their neighbors' gossiping sympathy, The spell of the "haggis" was still strong upon the Squire in the summer evening as he sat in the deepening twilight smoking the pipe Elsie had filled for him, and listening to her as she sang to the accompaniment of her mandolin. The western gorge was still aglow with the sunset, though the mountain tops were dim and shadowy, and a few faint stars heralded the coming night. As 1- last at the cream.

hot.

well-cut long-shoulder effect, as nine out of ten blouses one sees are badly botched affairs, and the long bread lightly buttered and ther with

with simply fulness or clusters Finely-broken egg-shells

A bolt of cheese cloth should be as clusters of plaits put at each side of the front centre of the skirt, and i toweling, and is an ideal fabric for with wide plaits at the centre back will be all that is required in the If, when making jellies, the inside making of an up-to-date full skirt. The portion of the skirt fitting over hips may be perfectly plain and quite easily. smooth. This model of skirt should be cut only upon a circular pattern; fact all or most of the pretties in results disastrously in a very shor clever woman discovered this mebe After rinsing the doilies they

TIMELY HINTS. A piece of camphor put into water will keep flowers for a long time. When refuse is burned in the kit.

tach to this gored portion a cir-	oated, one by one, in a dish	upremely can not afford that any place should seem pleasanter to	"Romanist ! Oh, you mean Ca- tholic, I suppose," said the little	guildiou of me, haughen the	the old man looked at the pretty	auntie, although she did u most wonderfully and ma
cular flounce laid in small pin tucks; of clear or a straight, kilted flounce could fringes	s are perfectly smooth and t	hem than the home nest. A mo-		Ay, but there will be successed	figure aureoled by the sunset, he thought of the little maid under the	Katherine thought. and
	le slip a piece of manila paper t	her should not be so interested and	"It's all one, I guess," continued	ing I know, and the bigane biene	lindens and all she might have been	still get down on the floor
Walking costumes made with full or blo			Si, flecking a bluebottle from the	met again in a doubtin nown.	to him in these darkened days, with	dolls "better'n any littl know," asserted that your
skirts and coats of half length are and sl	lip the whole thing out of the	apple pie order as to frown upon the	mare's ear. "Anyhow, it split things	THO BRECEMENT CHER CHERTY	a softening pang in his rough Scotch	wonderingly. So when she
among the most fashionable and most   water.	. Let the doily dry on the	t to her children's friends. She	to minders up here. They say the	word of honor. I will be no more trouble than a white kitten if you		to Aunt Lou she felt sure attractive of the season. One recent- paper,	, and the tringe will need very	should open wide the doors of heart	plexy-said the sort of rough things			some way. "Where are al ly seen was made of cheviot in ma- little		and home. It costs little to have	a young man can't forgive or forget.		her hands clasped idly over her the	per dollies," asked Aunt.
hogany brown, with collar and cuff An a of velvet edged with broadcloth, but only		boys and girls come to the house for	Told Don to go and never come	settled matters.	mandolin she was looking into the gathering shadows. The keen old	thing. "They would be l
all suiting materials are equally ap- heavy	pressing, they are valuable for i	nformal frolics, to practice songs	back, and Don said he never would	There's the dimey chamber,	mos bont upon her became suddeny	easy to handle." "I wa with them the day I was to
propriate. The coat combined a fit-1 smoot	thing ribbons, veils, and the	together, to play games, to talk over	until his father called him. Which	"There's the dimity chamber, Ma- hala. No one is likely to be asking for it since-ince-" The rough	aware of a wistful sadness in the	said Katherine, "and they
ted back with loose fronts. The skirt like.	An iron of some kind is al-	pians and pleasures. A mother	ain't ever going to be if this moun- tain-side knows old Angus Cameron.	TOT TO BILLOO BILLOO ALLO FORBE	sweet young face, usually so bright	burned up with the other was cut in seven gores, there being most	a necessity to the careful wo-	should make it matural for ther	He is grit straight through if it kills	VOICe audienty peruboat	and glad	"Sides," she continued. "T
plaited portions inserted at each man	without monovators sold in the	the welcome is so warm, the meeting	him and everybody else. I heern	am." said the old lady, tremulous-	"It's a bit dull for you here with only two old folks. Maybe, as the	tired of paper dolls."
seam to flounce depth, the pointed The straps covering the steams above depart	tment stores are very conveni-	place so cheery, the atmosphere so	that he won't even have Don's name	ly.	only two old folks. mayoe, a	Then Aunt Lou had an i
that point.	or hotel dwellers. The renova-	friendly and uncritical, as to make	spoken before him. And he has shut	ly. And an hour later, Miss Elsie, sit-	over hard in my bargaining with	Lou was always having it was one of the nice things fit over the nose of a tea kettle,	self-consciousness impossible. In this	himself up with the old woman in	And an hour later, Miss Elsie, sit- ting by a rose-wreathed window,	you, lass. You are too young to	"T'll tell you what t
and a second a	are simply wonderful for smooth-	way mothers will get to know their	that big house nussing his grief and	penneu a prier episcie.	in the aut from all junketing and	thing !" she exclaimed lar
mand for the little folk, and are ing o	out crushed ribbons, laces or	likely that any unfortunate attach-	"Oh stop please have is the cate	"Dearest: Have crossed the firing line. Hold possession of the dimity chamber First redoubt won."	sweethearting. I would na mark of god	clapping her hands And eminently charming and attractive. chiffor A very pretty one combines white rare,	ns. In hotels gas is becoming	ment should grow and ripen without	What a lovely, lovely place ! Oh ! I	chamber. First redoubt won."	the place given up to a pack of god- less rattlebrains, but if there's any	ran out of the room Pro
A very pretty one combines white rare, cloth with white Astrakhan and al- insura	ance companies Nearly every	her knowledge until too late to up-	must go in and see if they will take		one ye'd like to see here in quiet and	ane came back with a box
lows a choice of coat or full sleeves. woma	an has an alcohol tea kettle,	root it.	me. Wait here." And Si's passen-	Miss Vane was as good as her		hand, and in the other so colored worsteds and a pa
Equally suitable is vervet and dark however	ver.	T T T		word. No white kitten could have	I sparrored the 5"	burs,
colored cloths, while the banding, One	e does not get so tired using the	THE MISUSE OF "QUITE."		been less trouble; at the same time	TAW IIIII I	"When I was a little gi
collar and cuffs can be of contrasting sewin	ng machine if only the right foot			no fairy princess disguised in feline fur could have wielded so instant		Junio Junio and Junio
cloth and velvet when fur is not de- sired. also the coat is suited to wee lowin	aced entirely on the treadle, al-	tonces as "The flower is quite faded '	continued Miss Elsie Vane as the		til smootheart I'm tunkter	THE REPORT OF THE PARTY OF THE boys as well as to girls, the only touch		Its secondary meaning, "very." "to	opened the garden gate boldly. "but	all Cameron Place was under her		A CHILCH & DOTT
change necessary being in the closing Do					fully. (Continued on Page 8.)	see, I did not have a doze real live dollies like a cert
		and the second second				lady I know, and I had the

26, 1905. ILDREN.

ill keep infants lump, good na-ye and a rosy nly to mothers, uch a medicine , which promptr ailments of es them eat leep well. You words of the who have provfor Standon, Wey-"I have proved aby's Own Tabrhoea, constipan teething, and out them." The ood for the tenor the well hey are guarans and harmless, s, or sent by box, by writing Medicine Co.,

cestor in the relax its frown eamed through The quaint. med with freshly somber silence ish laughter and armth and color ner at Cameron pllow the sun. nmock, heaped lit the dull lined workbasket rewels, touched o light. She e of the stable, g master three submissively to shoot; her little brought down he hawk that had mong the downy arnyard. Most e could cook, by y methods that ameron open her accomplishment old Squire's relled his pipe in a l long ago from She had sung to vening the old loved. In her ns, with roses in , she had been a loveliness to the g twilight. But e merrily bore in "haggis" and n on the dinner quire gave way

ide us. lass, what aught ye this ?" aughed a rippling and felt that the l dishes" at her l not been all in old folks did to uest, no word of hat sat at their d their home ever Perhaps it was nce of the tragedy their lives that ice so cheering to o proudly shrank rs' gossiping sym-

'haggis'' was still quire in the sumsat in the deepcing the pipe Elsie and listening to the accompaniolin. The western ow with the sunand a few faint coming night. As ed at the pretty the tle ma e migl arkene h his ceas d idl looki TI . r beca 1 sadi usua for y s. Ma aying, barga are to all ju to a but i

8.05

THURSDAY, JANUARY 26, 1905. OUR BOYS AND GIRLS. BY AUNT BECKY.

Dear Boys and Girls :

Dear Aunt Becky :

write one also.

Is not this glorious winter weather enjoyed by all? I am sure class time seems long until the recess bell rings, and then how quickly the moments fly until class assembles again. How do you amuse yourselves? moments fly until class assembles again. How uo you amuse yourselves? Have you slides built in your school yards ? Do you have snowball fights Have you shate? I hope you all are well, studying hard, and that you of do you skate? I hope you all are well, studying hard, and that you will find a few spare minutes to write to the corner.

As I have been reading the letters in the True Witness from the little boys and girls, I thought I would I am in the fourth class and I am going to try the entrance examination next summer. My seat mate is Georgianna Montpellier. The other girls of my class are Flossie Brownthe action to the word. "And then rigg, Lizzie Kelly, Yvonne Montpellier with the point of the scissors closed and Georgianna Montpellier. I intend to spend my summer holi-days with my sister who is living in I poked it down a ways into the hole of the spool to hold it in, leaving a long end hanging over on one side Montreal. I received a lot of preand a little short end on the opposents from my friends Christmas. My site side, and there, behold my doll! "Why, it is all hair," said Kathesister Ida got a grey lamb coat. Hoping to see my letter in print, rine. "Just so," replied Aunt Lou, I am your loving niece. 'and there's where the fun comes in.

ALICE B. Alfred Centre, Ont. * * * THE BRAVERY OF BATTLES.

The bravest battle that ever was fought. Shall I tell you where and when ?

On the maps of the world you'll find it not. 'Twas fought by the mothers of men. Nay, not with cannon or battle shot, With sword or noble pen:

Nay, not with eloquent word or thought, From the mouths of wonderful men

But deep in the walled-up woman's heart-Of woman that would not yield, But bravely, silently bore her part-

Lo ! there is the battlefield. No marshalling troop, no bivouad song,

No banner to gleam and wave! But, oh! these battles! they last so long,

From babyhood to the grave. -Joaquin Miller.

* * * THE SPOOL DOLLS.

Katherine had been sick avery long time, and now she was getting well and could sit up in bed for several hours each day. Everyone was glad of this, but gladdest of all was Katherine herself, for she wanted to be outdoors once more, she wanted, oh, so much, to be able to play with "Angelina" and "Lolita," her two big beautiful French dolls, but they must have grown very fast for they were so big and heavy that she found bed, and to really have a good play with them was quite out of the ques tion. The other smaller dolls had been in the room with her all along. and they were now "in the hospital for a rest cure," mamma said. And what was Katherine to do for dollies during these long weeks of getting well? It was a pathetic little voice that asked Aunt Lou that question, one afternoon when Aunt Lou "happened in" to see the little invalid. Now Aunt Lou was a very young auntie, although she did up her hav most wonderfully and marvellously

Your loving friend AUNT BECKY. the long hair on the other little girls' dollies, so when I invented a kind of my own it was to be nearly all hair. And so," continued Aunt Lou, "I took some spools and some gay colored yarn scraps that grandma had left over from her knitting, and I cut some of it into pieces six inches or so long and laid it on top of the spool so," she said, suiting

> Here is the long end-that's my lady's 'back hair.' If she's a little girl, she can wear it flowing, or in two pigtails, or-" "Oh," said Katherine, catching the spirit, "and I Aunt Lou gaily. "And the short end fiddling in the face of the cliffs. in front we can loop back for a pompadour; or we can part it in the middle and turn it back plain; or we can cut it still shorter and have bangs, do you see ?" "Or frízzes," said Katherine, "if she were a grown up lady." "Frizzes!" exclaimed Aunt Lou. "Why, I used to take for my spool dolls' hair, and then you can wet it and make long curls around a match stick, or braid it and have the ends crimped. And you can make cunning little paper bonnets and hats. Oh, there's no end to the things you can do with them !" "And now I must go," said Aunt Lou, after she had made a worsted spool and string spool for Katherine, 'but I'm coming again next week, and perhaps you'll have several more by that time."

When Aunt Lou came the next week Katherine was having a beautiful time. On the white counterpane was a collection of spool dolls that was truly amazing. There were four families of them. There were ladies with their hair done up low, or/ high, with pins for hairpins, and bows of narrow ribbons that Katherine had among her treasures. There were gentlemen spools and little boy spools, with short hair cut ever with the top of the spool all around. There were little girl spools with their hair cut "Cromwell," or with that she could not lift them off the long curls, or crimpy hair. And there were baby spools, the tiny kind that buttonhole twist comes on. And there was a big cook, with some of the black linen thread still around her waist; she had bright red hair. And there was one old black mammy that could scarcely waddle-she ha a crochet-cotton spool- with been short, black wooly hair. "Wasn't it nice that mamma had

THE TRUE WITNESS AND CATHOLIC CHRONICLE.

. . .

duty to be loved. Without the love of others, won by him through his loving spirit and ways, any man lacks in his most important element of power.

THE UNDISCIPLINED CHILD.

A statistician who has been engaged in the not very pleasant work of collecting figures concerning crime and suicide among children, says that "there might be more hope for the decrease of crime of all kinds if so many homes were not sending out so many boys and girls unwarned, un lisciplined, uninstructed and un-protected." A judge in the juvenile court in one of our large cities asserts the same thing from another point of view, when he says that "the noral training of a child begins at home, and that the failures of the parents come to the children's court for treatment." This is a strong charge to make against parents, but probably it is only too true. Cer. tain it is that undisciplined children are very bad material with which to build society .- New York Tribune + + +

IRISH FAIRIES. a living belief in the part of Donegal which I know best, says an Irish writer. The holly tree was specially sacred to them, and was not disturbed for fear of displeasing them. In the old days of illicit distilling, the distiller would always scatter first half-pint or so of spirit that came from the still into the air. This was caught by the fairies and never reached the ground. Fishermen, too. can tie them with weenty bows of returning from fishing, would declare baby ribbon." "Just so," said that they had heard the fairy people In many of the fairy stories col-

egg shells play an important part, especially in detecting changeling children, and I was myself taught by my nurse to put my spoon through the bottom of the egg shell after eating an egg, "to keep away the faiordinary white string and have it ries"-I suppose to damage the shell and make it useless for fairy purposes; and I am to this day slightly uncomfortable if that important ceremony is omitted. To this my informant could not give me any paral lels from his own experience, but he told me that some years ago the fishermen round Teelin Bay had curious superstition that it was very unlucky to eat eggs before going to sea, and if any one was known have done so he would not be allowed in the boat that day. + + +

AVOID THE OLD RUTS.

It is clear that one of our worst failures is at the point where, having resolved like angels, we drop back into the old matter-of-fact life, and do just what we did before, because we have always done it, and because everybody does it, and because our fathers and mothers did it; all which may be the very reason why we should not do it. There is no station in life, and no place in one's home, where, if he wants to enlarge his life in caring for people outside himself, he may not start on a career of enlargement which shall ex-

larges his life by every experience of life.

she always kept them for somebody's tion to the literature of the Christbaby, and here I'm that baby!" she mas season in a number of schoolboy fidentially said :

One "Fruit-a-tives" Tablet contains all the medicinal virtues of several apples, oranges, figs and prunes. In eating fruit, the part that does you good is almost coun-terbalanced by the indigestible pulp.

Fruit-a-tives or Fruit Liver Tablets are the curative qualities without the woody fibre. The juices are so combined by the secret process that their action is much more powerful and efficacions. Try "FRUIT-A-TIVES." See how gently-they act, and how quickly they cure you of Constipation, Billiousness, Sick Stomach, Head-aches and Kidney Troubles. At your druggist's. 50c. box. FRUITATIVES. Limited, OTTAWA. FRUITATIVES, Limited, OTTAWA.

ticket which is a piece of paper, and Fairies are a tradition rather than give it to a man who cuts a hole in it to let you pass through."

An essay on the pig is appropriate at the present season. "A pig," wrote a boy, "when living has four legs, but when you kill it the butches says it has only two, because he calls the front legs shoulders and the the back legs are called hams. Hams tastes nice, and they boil it to eat at a wedding. The missus sprinkles little bits of toast on it to make it look pretty." Another boy showed as fine a scepticism about maxims as Macaulay. His comment on "You can't put old heads on young shoul ders" was-"Of course you can't, and lected by Professor Rhys and others if you did they wouldn't fit." There is also the story of the two children who, being awakened one morning and told they had a new brother were keen to know whence and how he had come. "It must have been the milkman," said the girl. "Why the milkman ?" asked her little bro ther. "Because," she answered, "he says on his cart, 'Families suppli ed.' "

LITTLE LAUGHS.

A MODERN FAMILY "Where*s Edythe ?"

"She's up in her studio hand-paintin' a snow shovel." "Where's Gladys ?" "In the library writin' po'try." "Where is Clarice ?"

"She's up in her studio hand-paint pianner." "Where's Gwendoline ?"

"Up in her boudoir curlin' her hair."

"Maw? Oh, maw's down in the kitchen gettin' dinner for the bunch. -Houston Chronicle.

* * *

Professor ---- heard of an old woman with epilepsy who had lived to seventy-nine. Curious to know the details of so unusual a case, he interviewed the widower. After in quiring about different symptoms, he asked, "Did she grind her teeth much at night ?" The old man considered for a moment and then replied. "Wal, I dunno as she wore 'em at night."

ain." + + + "Would you ?" She was on At a workhouse concert in England an old lady in the front had watchthe old lady leaned forward and con-

knees beside him now, the sweet face radiant. "Then, father-Donald's fa-

How Michael Davitt Lost His never went back on his word yet, Bid the lad come home." Good Kight Arm. + + +

Mr. Dillon's delighted and feeling

haps render it of interest to know that although Mr. Davitt was born in the small village of Straid, in the County of Mayo, where his family

had been for some generations, his ancestors came from Inishowen, and he has always regarded himself as an

Inishowen man, and speaks with pride of the ancient Donegal stock

from which he sprung. Mr. Davitt

was not fourteen years old when he met with that dreadful accident in the mill which deprived him of his right arm. He was a little boy of far tenderer years, and had not completed his first decade. Only a few

ity befel him he had ventured

moments before this terrible calam-

point out to the man in charge that he was in danger of being caught in the machinery. The reply to this representation was a brutal blow from the clenched fist of his "boss"

in his ear. He was still stunned

by the blow when the accident which

Mr. Davitt's arm was amputated

by one of the most skilfud surgeons

in the North of England, a Dr. Ha worth, who resided in the village of

was the home of the Brontes, with whom he was on terms of intimate friendship. At the time of this ac cident Mr. Davitt had received bu

the merest rudiments of education

and this misfortune was a blessing

tained for the future father of the Land League, by the enforced abstinence from manual labor, "the advantage of instruction. At fifteen years of age Mr. Davitt secured em-

Huntingdon, in Lancashire, and as the postmaster had also a business

in printing and stationery, he had an opportunity of taking an occasional peep at books .- The Pilot.

A FORLORN HOPE.

(Continued from Page 2.)

"Yes; the dearest, truest, best of

sweethearts," continued the voice, tremulously. "But he can not come

-I must not let him. Ah, it is sad story ! I have neither father came and taught me how sweet it is to love and be loved. But his peo-

good old round Scotch oath that burst from the Squire in his indignation. "Do not want ye, lass ! Eh, the feckless fools ! An' I'd let

the people go to the de'il with their

"Oh, no, no-for he loves them, he loves father and mother and home

more than I can tell. And it would hurt me so to stand between them,

"Break their hearts ! It's their heads that should be broken with a blackthorn stick, and I'd like th

work !" blazed forth the old man

wrathfully. "Not to want a lassie

like ye-it's I that would give half I am worth to call a girlie like ye my wants if I were yer man."

to break their hearts-"

"Do not want ye !" It was ple do not want me.'

nor mother-I had no one until he

ployment in the local post office

in disguise to Ireland, as it

Haworth, which bears his name, and

he dreaded actually occurred.

And so the old Covenanter yielded, and the faith came to Cameron Hall with the triumph of Elsie's "forlorn hope."-Mary T. Waggaman, in Benziger's Magazine.

3

Good Catholic homes are wanted for a number of children, boys and girls, under six years of age.

In homes where there are no children or where the family have grown up these children would soon make themselves welcome and would in a few years repay all the care that was expended on them.

Applications received by W. O'Connor, Inspector Children's Depart-ment, Parliament Buildings, Toronto.

NOTICE

IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Parish of St. Michael the Archangel of Montreal will apply to the Legislature of Quebec, at its next session, to have the Education Act so amended as to erect the Parish of St. Michael the Archangel of Montreal, into a school municipality, with all the rights and privileges of Catholic School Boards in the Province of Quebec.

> JOHN P. KIERNAN, P.P. JOHN DILLON, THOMAS FLOOD

BUILDING ASSOCIATION IN AID OF ST. MICHAEL'S PARISH.

MONTREAL.

By a resolution passed at a meeting of the Fabrique of St. Michael's, dated the 3rd of January, 1964, and with the approval of His Grace the Archbishop, the Fabrique binds itself to cause to have said in St. Michael's during four years two masses a month according to the intention of those who contribute 50 cents yearly. Help yourselves, help your deceased friends and help the new church by joining this Association.

The two masses in favor of contributors to St. Michael's Building Association, are said towards the end of every month. They are said with the intentions of those who contribute fifty cents a year. Contributors may have any intentions they please, they alone need know what their intentions are, they may change their intentions from month to month-they may have a different intention for each of the two masses in every month, they may have several intentions for the same mass, they may apply the benefit of the contribution to the soul of a deceased friend.

Contributions for the year 1905 (50 cents) may be addressed to

REV. JOHN P. KIERNAN, P P., 1602 St. Denis Street, Montreal, P.Q.

(All contributions acknowledged.)

knees beside him now, the sweet face radiant. "Then, father—Donald's fa-ther—take me for your daughter—for —that is the name and place I ask in your home—in your heart. For-give me that I have tried to win it by a woman's strategy. Donald said double line of smooth hored cast iron nim-

"And where's ma?"

tend indefinitely. And we shall find the answer to our question to be that the man who enters upon infinite purposes lives the infinite life. He en-

+ + + CHILDREN'S UNCONSCIOUS HU-

MOR. "Wasn't it nice that mamma had saved up so many empty spools?" Dr. Macnamara, M.P., has made what is perhaps the best contribu-said Katherine, eagerly. "She said what is perhaps the best contribu-tion. The moment the music paused sunset, no id under the id under the id have been d days, with yough Scotch d, and with yough Scotch d, and with yough Scotch d, and with yough Scotch mess in the ly so bright out here with ybe, as the I have been ining with o young to naketing and the have been in quiet and rered the girt. light in the man's face. a thinking Y's ened wonder- up 3.)	Attherine thought, and she could still get down on the floor and play dolls "better'n any little girl I hoow," asserted that young person, wonderingly. So when she appealed to Aunt Lou she felt sure of help in some way. "Where are all your, pa- per dollies," asked Aunt Low, first thing. "They would be light and easy to handle." "I was playing with them the day I was taken sick," said Katherine, "and they were all burned up with the other things. "Sides," she continued, "I'm pretty tired of paper dolls," Then Aunt Lou had an idea. Aunt Lou was always having ideas, that was one of the nice things about her. "Til tell you what! The very thing i'' she exclaimed, laughing and clapping her hands. And then she an out of the room. Pretty soon she came back with a box in one hand, and in the other some bright colored worsteds and a pair of scis- sors. "When I was a little girl," began Aunt Lou brightly, setting herself down in a low chair by the bed. "I invented a new kind of doll You se, I did not have a dozen or soo real live dolles like a certain little hady I know and the	drawer besides !" "The spools are having a party," Katherine explained, "and they have their hair done extra fine. Don's you think they look nice ?" "Indeed I do," replied Aunt Lou, heartily, "and when you get well they will be fine for rainy days. Or there's little lame Annie you could give them too." "Why, so I could!" exclaimed Kas- therine. "They can roll her chair up to the table and she can play with them on that. That's just what I'll do," and Katherine looked so bright and happy that the doctor, coming in just then, said: "Well, well, Bright Eyes. I shouldn't won- der if you could go downstairs to dinner to-morrow !" A FATHER'S DUTY. One who cannot win the love of his fellows does not love either God or man as he ought to. A father has a duty, not only to love his severy child, but to win that child's love. I he fails in this he is so far a fail-	master. Here is a definition of "etc." which has a surprising ring of truth about it"It is a sign used to make believe you know more than you do." There was a certafn sug- gestion of irreverence-evidently, however, not mean-about the reply in question, "Why would David rath- er be a doorkeeper in the House of the Lord?" "Because he could walk about outside while the sermon was being preached." In reading from the Bible that gross darkness covered the face of the earth, a tea- cher asked what gross darkness meant; whereupon the top boy in mental arithmetic replied that gross darkness was one hundred and forty- four times darker than ordinary darkness. "Who is Mr. Chamber- lain?" was a question; and the ans- wer was: "A man who broke out among other people." Again we are told that "Sir Joseph Chamberlain invented the fiscal policy and gene- rally wears an orchard in his coat"; also that "by the Salie Law no wo- man can become a king." There was surely a vein of satire in the boy who wrote that "Poetry is when	PLAINT. "Is it true that you were very sea- sick on the trip over ?!" asked Mrs. Coodart. "Yes, indeed, "replied the old lady. "Way, I understand your daughter left a sure remedy in your stateroom before the ship sailed." "No, indeed, there wasn't nothin' there but a bottle of something for mal de mer, an' I knew I didn't have no foreign disease like that."Phila- delphia Ledger. WHY THEY SMILED. Brother Jones was noted for his long and laborious prayers, and al- though the good people of the church respected him they were not at all pleased to hear him pray in meeting. The new minister was not aware of Brother Jones' unpopularity as a "prayer," so he had no idea why a ripple of amusement passed over the congregation when, after a hymn had been sung, he said, "Brother Jones will lead us in prayer," and	ed and his eyes blazed. "Ah, do not look at me like that," she pleaded. "You know what you said just now—that you would give half you were worth—" "Ay, and I hold to it, lass, I hold to it," burst forth the old Squire impetuously, while brow and eyes suddenly cleared and flashed into light even as his own mountain tops at the touch of the sun. "I hold to the bargain, and to ye, he ye what ye may. Donald's sweetheart, are ye? Eh, but I canna blame the lad. Mother, mother, come hear this," he called to the old wife. "Mother knows all," laughed Elsie. "I told her last night. And Don- ald," the fair arms wreathed them- selves around the old man's necks "Donald is not very far away, and you said—you know you said—" The brown eyes sparkled roguishly. "That I'd take a blackthorn stick to them that stood betwixt ye," and old Angus Cameron burst into a laugh that swept away the gloom of years.

					"Ah, ye kelple ! ye have me meshed	hewspapers inserting this advertisement without authority from the Department

THE TRUE WITNESS AND CATHOLIG CREWNICLE

The frue Mitness tholic Herald took this matter up AND CATHOLIC CHRONICLE

S PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY The True; Witness Printing & Publishing Co.

2 Busby Street, Montreal, Canada, P. 0. Box 1139.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE-City of Montreal (delivered) $1.50; other parts of Canada, $1.00; United States, $1.00; Newfoundland, $1.00; reat Britam, Ireland and France, $1.50; Belgium, Italy, Germany and Australia, $2.00. Terms, payable in advance.

'AL Communications should addressed to the TRUE WITNESS P. & P. CO., P. O. Box, 1188.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 26, 1905.

SCHOOL TAXES IN MONTREAL.

We are not aware that the big corporations in Montreal have any other claims upon our independent contemporary, the Daily Witness, than the quasi-religious one admitted on Thursday last in the course of an article which we have republished in mother column. The Witness says:

"As three-quarters of the school population is Roman Catholic, and as very much more than three-quariters of the ownership of joint-stock business is Protestant, this is practically taxing Protestant money to pay for Catholic schools."

The Witness does not say whether It has based its calculations upon the religious division of boards of Hirectors or of shareholders in jointstock business. It is perhaps more the likely that it has claimed all companies doing business under English titles as Protestant, and ' all with French names as Catholic. The last mentioned, however, would be so obviously erroneous a way of placing the matter that there is no need to waste time with it. There are few, if any, large corporations in Montreal that have not considerable capital of Catholic investors to work with. We have not, however, the advantage of knowing that the Protestant and Catholic investors in these concerns have ever been sorted out with a religious rake. So that it is impossible for us to follow The Witness all over the ground of its calculation. If comparisons of this been since 1896 deaf even to the kind are to be made at all, the shareholders, not the directors, are the ones to be counted. But is not the neutral panel in the strictest justice common ground for the Protestant Conservative candidates and speakers and Catholic boards? It is upon the general public that all these companies prosper. Nor does it lie in the mouths of some of them to grumble that the proportion of their deliberately assumes in view of an school taxes on the basis of population helps in the education of Catholic or French-Canadian children. Cervileges in Montreal than anywhere else on earth, except, perhaps, Russia. Look at the Montreal Street Railway and the Montreal Light and tences : Power Company. The privileges they enjoy in comparison with the ser-

about the Congo. The London Came time ago, and has since receivof the Catholic missionaries of the Congo Free State. The missionaries declare that in Congoland, as in all new colonies, cruelties have been practised in isolated instances. They say, on the other hand, that it has never been necessary to denounce such cruelties, as the Government of the Free State has always been prompt to redress abuses in order to prevent their recurrence. The missionaries challenge Mr. Morel, the Protestant clergyman by whom the charges have been published, to produce the text emanating from the ecclesiastical authorities, in defiance of which he says a Catholic priest would act who "published his know-which is attributed to them of losing government subsidies, they can only say that Catholic missionaries do not lower themselves to such sordid cares. They do not set a price on their self-devotion or pay for supporters, leaving that kind of proselvtism to others. The letter is signed by the Superiors of the Jesuit, Redemptorist, Trappist and other orders established in the Free State.

THE GAZETTE AND THE WEST-ERN SCHOOLS.

We confess that we do not quite see the sincerity of the argument of our contemporary the Gazette upon the question of education in the Northwest Territories. The Gazette is the foremost organ of the Conservative party in Canada to-day: and when we find it laying down the law of its party that "the election result of 1896 was a verdict in favor of the Public School, and a declaration that it would thenceforward be useless for Parliament to undertake to force on a province an educational system it does not desire," we must ask ourselves what motive could there have been behind the cry used in many a constituency since 1896. that Borden could always be relied on to assert the educational rights of the minority ?

This is a poser, but not the only poser presented by the Gazette's article. It says amongst other things that the Catholics of Manitoba have appeals of their clergy with regard to the school question. Here is a second assertion entirely at variance with the repeated attempts made by to irritate Catholic local opinion in isolated constituencies by representing the Liberals as having taken the very position which the Gazette now anticipated discussion upon the Northwest Bill.

But it is when the Gazette states tain corporations enjoy greater pri- what it believes to be existing circumstances in the Territories that we discern to the utmost degree its inconsistency. Let us take two sen-

that a parliamentary effort to fix a viction upon the parliamentary re cord that the educational guarantee of the minority should be the cardi ed a letter signed by the principals nal principle of the statute, so that settlers might know their future rights in this regard. It was upon that guarantee settlers went in. and it is by reason of that guarantee se parate schools are found established in the Territories wherever the minority desires. The Gazette would now advise its party-if it be not the case that itself has been guided or prompted by influences from within the party-to "let the West deal liberally" with the conscience of the minority. The Gazette and its advisers are astray alike on the law and the facts of the case. The Parliament of Canada and some of the greatest minds developed in the parliament of Canada ledge to the world." As to the fear have already settled this question. so that it is really not necessary at this stage for the Parliament of Canada, or the Assembly of the Territories to deal any more liberally with the conscience of; the minority than has already been done. Let well enough alone. Do not flout the convictions of the legislators who wisely provided statutory guarantees for settlers by pretending the settlers themselves are sure 'to freely offer more liberal though nonguaranteed liberties. Until the effort shall have been made inside Parliament to act as the Gazette advises. we can only regard all these unnecessary professions of peace and good will as suggestions to seize an opportunity for unsettling the provision made for education in these Territories by the act of 1875.

BRITISH TARS GET PROTEST-ANT ATTENTION.

A remarkable correspondence has been published in England with regard to a report that during the recent visit of Cardinal Vannutelli the Papal flag was saluted by British warships. The Secretary of the Imnerial Protestant Federation, who rejoices in the somewhat unusual name of James Walsh, opened the ball by a challenge to Hon. A. J. Balfour. Mr. Balfour's secretary replied that the story was absurd. Mr. Walsh next enquired why the state ment had been published in the press throughout the world. Mr. Balfour answered again, but marked his letter "private." Subsequently he gave permission to have only a portion of his letter published, and in this portion the first denial was repeated. The Imperial Protestant Federation cannot rest satisfied, and further enquiries are being prosecuted at the Admiralty.

Russia's ally, France, may become involved in a foreign war. The trouble with Morocco is going from bad to worse. There is talk in Paris of a general revolt of the followers of Mahomet in the whole Northern part of Africa against the French. It is also felt that the advisers of the Sultan of Morocco, composing the Maghzen or Council of Ministers, are, "Ine lesson of the situation is if not laughing at the French, at least dissimulating with the fine Oriental duplicity, the game that they intend to play.

Archbishop Bourne, on the occasion of his canonical visitation at West minster Cathedral last week, in th course of his pastoral address, re erred to the finances of the Cathed ral. He said there was no longer any room for doubt that the Cathed ral was needed. At present they were engaged in completing the clergy house and the offices for the administration of the dioceses, and soo they must begin to build a choir school. For those objects they made no public appeal, but there was a capital debt on the Cathedral itself amounting to £7000, and since the death of Cardinal Vaughan only £605 had been received in donations

The erection of a statue to Lord Russell of Killowen in the Central Hall of the English Courts of Justice, which was unveiled last week, is of interest in legal history as the only instance in which the memory of an Irish political offender has been honored by a memorial in a British Temple of Justice. Lord Russell. his biographer tells us, was much influenced by the Irish Revolutionary Movement of 1848. He was more than influenced by it. for he was actively associated with it. A gentle man still practising at the Irish Bar has often related that he and th future Lord Chief Justice of England vere with other youths in Ireland enroller and drilled, and quite determined to take part in the '48 movement, of which John Mitchell and John Martin, so closely associated with Newry, were leaders. These midnight drills were held in a large loft over a bakery establishment.

With flag at masthead, grounds in erfect condition, and establishment in full gala attire, did the Hospital lers of the Hotel Dieu do honor to their Excellencies Earl and Countess Grey, who, yesterday precisely at 11 o'clock, arrived at the historic hospital, there to see for themselves the good work being done. At the entrance the Vice-Regal party were re eived by Mgr. Racicot, the Superioress and her assistants, who con ducted them to the operating theatre where some two hundred students vere assembled, and who on the ar rival of their Excellencies sang mos enthusiastically God Save the King An address in French was read by Mr. Aumier, president of the stu dents, in the course of which a pretty reference was made to Her Ex-

VICE-REGAL PARTY

AT HOTEL DIEU,

THURSDAY, JANUAR INTES FROM THE CA PARISHES OF THE L

Epilepsy, Falling Sickness, St. Vitus Dance, overy. VICTORINE, or knew of one among CTORINE, it will be anada or United Strike THE VICTOR MEDICAL CO., Toronto, Can.

EPILEPTIC

FITS

visiting for the first time such

as if English were their native

huilding, and it was a great faces.

prise, although a very welcome one.

such eager, intelligent and bright

only say that it gave him the great-

vork, and he gave them the assurance that any assistance it might be

be rendered gladly and cordially. Sin

William Hingston had referred to the foundation of that historic institution. He had pointed out how the Roman Catholic Sisters had been

works of charity, in the execution of

would distinguish themselves

then proceeded to visit the institu

corated with palms and plants, and

everyone looked as 'f it were indeer

a red-letter day for them A great

tion.

The wards were daintily de-

to be met with rows and rows

cellency, to which Earl Grey replied, the cloister. There they saw how expressing the pleasure he felt at the Sisters live when their duty in the wards is done. The narrow cell an institution. He had been glad to find, did not speak of luxury, nor dining table of sumptuous living. All from the way in which the Laval students sang God Save the King was immaculate, as it is every day in the year, but over all was the lesson of self-sacrifice, austerity and guage, that he would be relieved from mortification. the responsibility of attempting to speak and mutilating their beautiful

THURSDAY, JANUARY 26, 1905.

GUARANTEED

CURE

Among the clergy present Wera the Rev. Fathers Turgeon, rector language in replying to the kind wel-Loyola College, Leclair, S.S., Rioux, come they had given him. He came to the Hotel Dieu on his way to an-Lavallee, Girot, S.S., St. Jean, other engagement in the belief that S.S., Lajoie, Martin, Hudon, Boyer, he would be taken quietly over , the Dupuis and Bournevin sur-

There was a pleasing incident just before the arrival of Their Excellencies. The Rev. L. W. Leclair, who is at present staying at the Hotel In reply to the kind words Dieu, was escorted into the operatwhich they had given him, he would ing room by Sir William Hingston, who introduced him to the host of est pleasure to come and see their students as late rector of the Canadian College in Rome, and whose hospitality and kindness to all Canaever in his power to render would dian visitors to the Eternal City was so well known. Needless to say this called for applause, and applause from a great body of students is in a category of its own. The rev. gentleman in a few words thank. conspicuous all over the world for ed the students for their impromptu reception.

which they had not grudged to risk There was double interest in the their lives and their health. In anceremony yesterday for the Rev. other part of the British Empire, far Sister McGurty, whose fame has distant from here, he had been gone far beyond the hospital walls, brought in contact with the works celebrated her golden jubilee. Mass, of the Dominican Sisters. When they at which Mgr. Racicot officiated, was went up with the pioneers into the said at 7.30, after which was country which was, like this country breakfast to which the clergy only two hundred years ago, inhabited by were invited. The rev. sister was savages, the Dominican Sisters gave the recipient of many kind rememto the pioneers their assistance and brances, but it will not take ministrations with such devoted serher long to decide what to do. She is vice that not a single Protestant in always trying to make things more South Africa but felt undying graticomfortable for the patients of tude to the Dominican Sisters. He Patrick's ward, and any little gift assured the students of his unbound which is made her is turned to good ed sympathy, and wished them suc advantage. Her ward was cess in their careers, and that they pletely transformed. Loving hands by nad made things bright, a piano faithful service to the public. His Ex added its charms, and every patient cellency had been so charmed by the wore a white silk badge with the singing of the students that he askfigures fifty inscribed thereon. May ed for one of their own French songs many more useful years be before This wish was immediately acceded good Sister McGurty to carry on her to by the rendering of "O Canada, Christ-like work. Mon Pays, mes Amours." The parts soul to be cheered upward and on-

ST. PATRICK'S PAR

v. Father James Killor ad been on a short vacati od on Saturday. The euchres given by St. T. A. and B. Society are bei patronized by the members triends. *** ST. ANN'S PARISH. special meeting of St. A al Abstinence and Benefit took place on Sunday a Father McPhail, C.SS. ided. A letter from St. : Total Abstinence Society congratulating St. Ann's the good work in connection formation of a juvenile bran tion of officers was to ha place, but owing to the abse several of the members it wa poned until the regular eting in February. At high Mass on Sunday Rector, Rev. Father Rioux, read the annual report of the which showed that all works ection with the parish wer highly satisfactory condition enerosity of the people of 'Ann's in contributing to eve ause was warmly praised. ****

The fifth of the series o

parties was held on Wednesda

ing, and proved as successful

former ones. The prizes we able ones. The affair was up auspices of the Young Men's

* * *

ST. GABRIEL'S PARIS

meeting of the guardian

officers of the Juvenile bran

adopt a constitution for the

will be held Friday evening

o'clock at St. Gabriel's Hall

Next Sunday, immediately

High Mass, the senior temper

+ + +

ST. MICHAEL'S PARIS

High Mass on Sunday was

by the pastor, Rev. J. 1

nan, and the opening sermor

year's series, on religion, giv

* * * ST. AGNES PARISH

Sunday last the parishion

brated their patronal feast.

mporary church was crowd

Rev. R. E. Callahan.

ST. MARY'S PARISH The second debate of St. Young Men's Society has be poned until Wednesday evenin ruary 1st. The debate prop well handled. + + + ST. ANTHONY'S PARIS of the parish.

ciety will meet.

So long as there is some said heart to be made gladder, some fainting ward, some erring brother or sister to be led into the way of right and overflowing at the ten o'cloc vice. The altar was tasteful corated. De Merlier's Mass dered by the choir, under the ship of Prof, J. I. McCaffrey the offertory Mr. P. Griffin effectively Wiegan's O Saluta rmon was delivered by Rev. McPhail, C.SS.R., of St. An speaker paid a tribute to the ness of Archbishop Bruchesi f ing St. Agnes Parish for th lish-speaking Catholics of th End. In the evening solemn pers and Benediction of the Sacrament were held. * * *

FRANCISCAN CHURC Sunday afternoon, the men' of the Third Order held the vices they give are simply monstrous. A prominent figure in parliament said to the editor of the True Witness a few days ago that English capital assumes the privilege of enslaving French-Canadian communities. It would be right in line with the traditions of slavery to keep the enslaved in ignorance. Does the Daily Witness wish such a thing when it claims joint stock corporation taxes for Protestant schools only ?

the mission of a Rev. Mr. Grattan protection of minority rights in every Guinness in Canada after a prolonged sojourn in the United States, cause that is what the Gazette means an editorial on alleged abuses in the of the new provinces. Conge. Rev. Mr. Guinness has been Mackenzie and Blake and Macdon- of Port Arthur, some way up the in Toronto; but we have not seen ald and the other great leaders who coast of the Liao-Tung peninsula. that he has set the heather on fire separate school system upon a province cannot prevail against the will of a province itself. . . . In the separate Territories at present schools are established wherever the minority desires."

Yes, but the Gazette does not say tablished by virtue of an act of Parliament. In our last issue our readers will remember that we went west Territories Act to show that

Why is Port Arthur known as Port Arthur and not by some long and that those schools are already es- ty-four years ago a certain Lieutenunpronouncable Chinese name ? Forant Arthur was in Chinese waters in command of a British gunboat attached to a surveying expedition. In fully into the debate upon the North- the course of the proceedings which resulted in the landing of the Engthe men who framed it understood lish and French in 1860 it became LONG DISTANCE YARNS FROM than any school of politicians, for disabled flagship into the then unthe basis of confederation better Lieutenant Arthur's duty to tow whom the Gazette now speaks, can known harbor, which was thereafter correspondent in the United ever hope to understand, any school known as Port Arthur. The young States writes us calling attention to of politicians who would cast the Lieutenant afterwards became a Rear Admiral. The late Rev. James Arprovince out of the constitution be thur, Rector of Atherington, Devor shire, for 49 years, was his father, where a leading daily paper had an when it pleads that the schools of and the present rector of the parish interview with him and thereafter the minority be left to the good will is his nephew. It is interesting in this connection to know that, west considered well the Northwest Terri- there is a "Sullivan's Bay." The ap there. There is not much to say tories Act, left their deliberate con- Irish seem to have been there too.

Our assortment of Furs is the most complete that you can see. We always have the same choice: the cream of the Best and Finest Furs, No house in the trade will stand competition with us. The whole year round we carry an enormous stock of furs and skins selected among the best. We are the first ones to show you the coming fashion and the newest styles. Our workmanship is guaranteed. You are always welcome.

Seal Jackets and Persian Lamb Jackets-Unequalled.

Fur Lined Coats-Persian Lamb Coats and Raccoon Coats--Not to be Compared. Our Prices are Always the Most Moderate. The Largest Retail Fur House in the World .-The Best Assorted Stock.

Chas Desiardins

ng. After the recitation o Office, a sermon was preache lowed by Benediction of the Sacrament.

Imposing Ceremony at Ste. Anne de Be

'An imposing ceremony too ecently in the Basilica Anne de Beaupre; the blessin lew pulpit. The building w to the doors not anly with th ful of the parish but with from the parishes of St. J Chateau Richer and Beaupor the city of Quebec sent a con of from five to six hundred ho came down by special tr The Quebec Railway. Ligh Power Company kindly pla ecial car at the disposal of bishop Begin and the many who accompanied him. The Garde Champlain, with brass hand and cadet corr ent at this grand demo of Christian faith, and form Buard of honor in the se while a numerous and power e appropriate hymns: The ceremony began at h

ceremony began at 1 Archbishop Begin bi

THURSDAY, JANUARY 26, 1905.

NOTES FROM THE CATHOLIC PARISHES OF THE CITY. ST. PATRICK'S PARISH.

26, 1905.

EED

Dance,

CTORINE, of one among NE, it will be United States. or refund every Address :

ey saw how

their duty in

all was

incident just heir Excellen-

Leclair, who

at the Hotel o the operat-

am Hingston, the host of

of the Cana-

, and whose

ss to all Cana-

Cternal City

leedless to say

dy of students

its own. The words thank-

eir impromptu

o do. She is

e things more

atients of St.

my little gift

urned to good

d was com-

Loving hands

ht, a piano

every patient

ge with the

thereon. May ears be before

o carry on her

ome said heart

se, and

se fame

Can.

Rev. Father James Killoran, who had been on a short vacation, urned on Saturday.

The euchres given by St. Patrick's T. A. and B. Society are being well stronized by the members and their Hends.

-----ST. ANN'S PARISH. A special meeting of St. Ann's Tohe narrow cell tal Abstinence and Benefit Society ry, nor the took place on Sunday afternoon. ous living. All Rev. Father McPhail, C.SS.R., pre is every day A letter from St. Patrick's the Total Abstinence Society was read austerity and congratulating St. Ann's on the the good work in connection with the present were formation of a juvenile branch. The rgeon, rector election of officers was to have taken , S.S., Rioux, St. Jean, Hudon, Boyer, place, but owing to the absence of veral of the members it was postoned until the regular monthly eting in February. At high Mass on Sunday last the Retor, Rev. Father Rioux, C.SS.R., read the annual report of the parish, hich showed that all works in conection with the parish were in a highly satisfactory condition. cosity of the people of old St. unn's in contributing to every good cause was warmly praised. * * *

ST. MARY'S PARISH. The second debate of St. Mary's Young Men's Society has been postponed until Wednesday evening, Febmary 1st. The debate promises to he well handled.

The

+ + + terest in the ST. ANTHONY'S PARISH. for the Rev. The fifth of the series of euchre has parties was held on Wednesday evenospital walls. ing, and proved as successful as the jubilee. Mass. former ones. The prizes were valuofficiated, was shle ones. The affair was under the which was suspices of the Young Men's Society clergy only of the parish. . sister was * * * kind remem-ST. GABRIEL'S PARISH. ot take her

'A meeting of the guardians and officers of the Juvenile branch to adopt a constitution for the Society will be held Friday evening at eight o'clock at St. Gabriel's Hall. Next Sunday, immediately after High Mass, the senior temperance society will meet.

+ + + ST. MICHAEL'S PARISH. High Mass on Sunday was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. J. P. Kiernan, and the opening sermon of the year's series, on religion, given by sermon was delivered by Rev. Father

McPhail, C.SS.R., of St. Ann's The

speaker paid a tribute to the kind-

ing St. Agnes Parish for the English-speaking Catholics of the North

End. In the evening solemn Ves-

pers and Benediction of the Blessed

* * *

'FRANCISCAN CHURCH.

Sacrament were held.

ss of Archbishop Bruchesi in creat-

Rev. R. E. Callahan. ST. AGNES PARISH.

some fainting Sunday last the parishioners cele vard and onbrated their patronal feast. The temporary church was crowded to ther or sister of right and erflowing at the ten o'clock service. The altar was tastefully decorated. De Merlier's Mass was rendered by the choir, under the leadership of Prof, J. I. McCaffrey. During the offertory Mr. P. Griffin rendered effectively Wiegan's O Salutaris. The pulpit, and his assistants were Rev. rs. Fafard, pastor of St. Joseph de Levis, and Lemieux, pastor St. Joachim. Rev. Mr. Gauvreau, pastor of St.

2

Roch, Quebec, preached the sermon. After reminding his hearers that he had been pastor of Ste. Anne and that His Eminence Cardinal Taschereau had always ardently desired that the sons of St. Alphonsus re should make that Basilica the finest temple in Canada-a wish that had been fulfilled-the preacher, whose captivating eloquence has long been known to us, dwelt on the following subject: the Word of God renews as it were the Incarnation of the Word and the mystery of Transubstantiation while bringing out the power of preaching in its simplicity, whereof we have a striking example in the former pastor of Ars, Abbe Vianney, whom the Church has declared venerable.

The splendid ceremony concluded with Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament by the Archbishop of Quebec. -Annals of Good St. Ann of Beaupre.

Loyola Club Visit Little Sisters of the Poor

Tuesday, the 17th instant, was a gala day for the inmates of the home for aged people under the care of the Little Sisters of the Poor, as it was the day set apart for the annual visit of the members of Loyola Club to that institution. At an early hour the rooms were invaded by the young visitors, accompanied by their director, the Rev. Father Devine, S. J., and several of the lady patronesses. A piano had been hired for the occasion, and very soon to the air of "St. Patrick's Day, or "Vive la Canadienne" several of the old ladies-the youngest was 77-danced away with a vim worthy of the good old days, glorious days, judging from the lengthy account they gave of same to their entertainers. One of the old ladies, in a most energetic manner, discoursed on the absurd way the minuet was danced today. "I am a trifle stiff," said she (she is 87) "and unless I perform all the 'ceremonies' I never dance it." A good programme of music had been prepared and was well rendered by the Misses Gethin, Brannen, Sheridan, McCabe, Doyle and McCabe. Miss Murphy accompanied the various singers. For the benefit of those who did not understand English, Miss Quirk recited in French, and the popular French airs were rendered by the members in chorus. Each of the old ladies received an apron and a box of candies. while for the old men, tobacco and handkerchiefs had been provided. In the old men's apartments, there was also dancing and music, but here the latter was provided by one of the old gentlemen, the happy possessor of a violin, belonging, no doubt, to the good old days. Whatever the music may have lacked in artistic rendering was made up in the liveliness of the selection, and several of the young ladies who, in spite of the Reverend Director's presence, were dancing with the old gentlemen, realized that old fashioned jigs are harder to execute than the forbidden waltz. The old people expressed in the highest terms their satisfaction at the pleasure thus afforded them, their gratitude in some cases being ex-pressed by the familiar "God bless you, dear," and in others by the promise of "un chaplet pour vous, ma bonne demoiselle." The afternoon was a most enjoyable one, and will

Sunday afternoon, the men's branch brighten the life of the old people for of the Third Order held their meet- many days, but it is a question whe-

THE THUS WITHERS AND CATROLIC CHLEONICH. holder, was won by Mr. P. Hoobin; 2nd prize, a pipe, by Mr. M. Mc-Gann; 3rd prize, playing cards, by of

Mr. C. H. Burke. After the euchre a concert was held, at which Rev. Thos. Heffernan, chaplain of the Court, presided. Songs were rendered by Messrs. H. Vincent, P. Hoobin, T. Britt, M. Brogan, Presho, J. Wall, Mr. T. Mullins danced an Irish jig. Messrs. W. Dwyer and F. H. Mullins presided at the piano. Mr. H. C. McCallum gave an address on the principles of the C.O.F. Refreshments were then served, and all voted the affair. great success. Loyola Court is the youngest court in the city, and since its formation has doubled its mem bership.

Frail Little Ones.

The little ones are frail. Their hold upon life is slight. No symptom that indicates any of the little ailments of childhood should be allowed to pass for a moment without proper attention. The little ailment may soon become a serious one, and then it may be too late to save a precious little life. If Baby's Own Tablets are kept in the house, the danger of serious trouble can be averted, and the minor troubles promptly cured. An occasional Tablet to the well child will prevent illness. The Tablets are absolutely safe and contain no poisonous soothing stuff-they give children healthy sleep, simply because they banish the cause of sleeplessness. Mrs. F. B. Bishop, Lawrencetown, N.S., says:-"I have found Baby's Own Tablets just us you represent them-the very best medicine for young children." You can get the Tablets from druggists, on by mail at 25 cents a box, by writing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

ST. ANN'S BOYS' CHOIR DRIVE. Next Saturday afternoon St. Ann's Boys' Choir and a few friends will have a sleigh drive around the mountain. On their return refreshments will be served at St. Ann's Armory Hall.

Their Excellencies At Notre Dame Hospital

The Vice-Regal party visited Notre Dame Hospital on Tuesday afternoon immediately after the civic reception at the City Hall, where they were received by Mr. C. P. Hebert, president of the board of governors; Dr. E. P. Lachapelle, and the lady patronesses, headed by their president, Mrs. J. R. Thibaudeau, wife of the Sheriff. The Vice-Regal party were first led to St. Joseph's ward, where visiting ladies and gentlemen and the staff of the hospital were in waiting. Among the visitors were noticed Mr. and Mrs. Rodolphe Forget, Judge and Mrs. Loranger, Ald. Deserres Mrs. C. P. Hebert, Mrs. Chas. Fitzpatricks, secretary of the Lady Patronesses' Association; Mrs. Turcotte, Miss Routhier, Mr. A. Kleczkowski, consul-general for France; Dr. E. P. Chagnon, Dr. A. Ethier, Joseph Lemieux, M.L.A., and Sheriff Thibaudeau.

The National Anthem was sung as Their Excellencies entered the room, Mrs. Chas. Fitzpatrick, attired in nurse's garb, then presented to Lady Grey a bouquet.

The address of welcome was read in French by Dr. Benoit, secretary of the board of Governors. In replying the Governor-General said that in order to be more accurate, he would speak his own lan-

COLONIAL HOUSE, PHILLIPS SOUAR SOUARE-ANNI J.

plate, highest quality manufactur-

EXTRA GOOD VALUE, AT

HALF PRICE.

Fern Dishes, regular $6, for $3. Fern Dishes, regular $5.50 for $2.75.

Fern Dishes, regular $4.50 for $2.25

Fern Dishes, regular $3.75, for $1.90.

Fern Dishes, regular $3.50, for $1.75.

Fancy Pudding Dishes, $7.50, for

Fancy Pudding Dishes, $12, for

Tea Sets, 5 pieces, $40 for $20.

Consisting of coffee pot, tea pot,

sugar and cream, and spoon holder

$30.00 for ...... ..... $15.00

$25.00 for ... ... ..... ...... $12.50

Chocolate Jugs at $6.00, for $3.00,

Glassware Department

ed.

$8.75.

$6.00.

etc., etc.

Furniture Department Mahogany Sideboard-25-30 Side-

board, buffet, in solid mahogany, very nice design, $80,00, less 80 per cent. 1 47-44 Sideboard in mahogany, 6

ft. long, Colonial design, plain British plate mirror, 20x64, price, $175.00, less 33 1-3 per cent. 149-16 Solid Mahogany Sideboard, very handsome, Sheraton design, low back, $84, less 30 per cent.

4089-Ex. Table, solid mahogany, hand carved, $95, less 331-3 per cent. 27-36 Card Table, removable top, mahogany, $45, less 25 per cent.

60-130 Solid Mahogany Hall Seat, $48, less 25 per cent., with inlaid lines, Sheraton design. 16-13-1 Flemish Oak Hall Seat,

uph. seat, in embossed leather Tea Sets, 4 pieces, $16.50 for $8.25. $19.50, less 25 per cent. Bread Trays, $5.50, for $2.75. No. 6081 Louis XV. Music Cabi-12 fnch Waiters, $4.50, for $2.25. net, solid mahogany, hand paint-ed, brass trimmings, $75, less 33 14 inch Waiters, $6.00, for $3.00. Cake Baskets, $5.50, for $2.75. Card Trays, 6 inch, $2.50, for $1.25. 1-3 per cent. 20-60-1 3-piece Parlor Set in solid Bon-Bon Dishes, $2.75, for $1.38. Dessert Sets, $7.50 for $3.75.

mahogany, back inlaid in satin wood, very handsome design Soup Tureen, $12.00, for $6.00. $125, less 25 per cent. 10-21-1 Solid Mahogany Parlor Cabinet, all hand carved, full mir ror back and glass shelves, silk plush lined base, very handsome, 300 doz. odd lines in Tumblers, $95, less 25 per cent. 28-230 Parlor Table, solid Mahogany. inlaid top, of Art Nouveau, $33, less 50 per cent.

Jap. Screens, in large 4 folds, also Fire Screens, less 50 per cent, Fire Screens, less 75 per cent.

Carpet Department.

SPECIAL FOR THIS WEEK. Balance of made up squares in Axminster, Wilton, Brussels and Tapestry, less 33 1-3 per cent. Balance of Turkish, Indian and Persian Rugs, less 25 per cent. Balance of Embroideries, such as Curtains, Table Covers, Doylies, etc., less 50 per cent. Balance of Brassware and Armour, less 50 per cent. Special line of Axminster, Wilton, and Brussels, less 20 per cent.

6 only very fine Silk Persian Rugs, less 50 per cent. 40 vards China Matting for $3.00. Balance of pieces of Axminster and Wilton, less 33 1-3 per cent.

Liberal discounts in all other goods.

HALF PRICE.

Ladies' Mocha Gloves, in Black, $1.50, for 75 cents.

Ladies' Kid Gloves, in fawn, tan, grey, brown, white and pearl, pique sewn, 1 large pearl clasp, sizes 5<sup>2</sup>, to 7<sup>1</sup>, special, 65 cents. adies' Kid Gloves in black, 7 lace

adies' Undressed Kid Gloves ir modes and tans, 2 clasps, embroidered backs, in 63, 7, 74,

Gloves, less 20 per cent. Ladies' Real Angora Gloves, less 20 per cent.

Sliver Plated Goods Department Curtain Department

Every article guaranteed quadruple Lace Curtains, less 20 per cent. to 83 1-3 per cent. Madras Curtains, less 20 per cent. ANOTHER LOT OF THESE GOODS, Curtain Materials, less 10 per cent. to 33 1-3 per cent.

Furniture Coverings, less 10 per cent. to 33 1-3 per cent. Figured Velours, less 10 per cent. to 20 per cent Table Covers, less 20 per cent. Couch Covers, less 10 per cent. Shades, less 10 per cent.

Window Poles, less 10 per cent. Fringes, less 10 per cent. Remnants of Fringes, Laces Cords, less 50 per cent. Collection of Antique Swords, Guns, and Pistoles, less 75 per cent.

Balance of Last Season's Parasols

Wf!l be Offered at Half Price Stock consists of Solid Colors in White, Black, Pink, Rose, Lt. Blue, Fawn, Drab and Gray. Also a limited number of White Chiffon at Half Price.

Hosiery Department

Ladies' Ribbed Silk Vests, less 15 per cent., all shapes and sizes. Ladies' Natural Ribbed Wool Combinations, long sleeves, sizes 3, 4, 5, 6, prices $2.65, $2.75, $2.85 and $3.00, less 15 per cent. Our 40c' Ladies' Cashmere Hose, plain Black, all sizes, less 15 per cent. Entire Stock of Over Hose, less 15 per cent.

Chipa Department

DINNER SETS.

FOR THREE DAYS ONLY. 12 Sets, 115 pieces, complete, re-gular $24.00, $25.00, $27.50 and $30.00, for $20.00.

14 Sets, 115 pieces complete, $15.00 $50.00 and $55.00, latest shapes and designs, to be cleared less 35 per cent.

Colored Dress Goods

To clear at HALF PRICE Balance of Light Weight Materials, on counter comprising Eoliennes, Voiles, etc.

Smoking Jackets

Mounted Glass Table Centres, newest 2 doz. assorted Colored Smoking Jackets, all sizes, $5.00, $6.00, $7.00, $8.00 and $10.00, less 50 per cent. doz. Dressing Gowns, assorted colors, $8.00, $10.00, $12.00, less 50 per cent. Regular stock of Gowns, all shades, prices $6.50, $7.00, $8.00, $10.00, $12.00 and $15.00, less 20 per cent

Ladies' Sboe Department

50 per cent. off the following :only 14-inch and 1 16-inch Gent's Ladies' Patent Ideal Kid Oxfords, Black Bulge Bags, with inside turned soles, Louis XV. heel, refittings, prices $17.50 and $29. gular, $5.25, for $2.63.

Ladies' Black Vici Kid Oxfords, turned soles, Louis XV heel, regular, $4.75, for $2.38.

Ladies' Black Vici Kid and Beaded Slippers, odd sizes only, regular $4.50, for $2.25. Ladies' Black Velvet Slippers, large silver buckles, regular $3.50, for

Suitings, Etc Tables re-assorted with choice lots at Ladies' Gloves. sizes 6, 6<sup>1</sup>/<sub>4</sub>, 6<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub>, 2 clasps, regular | hooks, sizes  $5\frac{1}{2}$  and  $5\frac{3}{4}$  only, regular, \$1.15 for 50c.

$1.15, for 50 cents. Ladies' and Children's Woollen

Sherries and Ports, etc., less 25 per cent. Two special tables, goods half price, consisting of Ice Cream Trays. Liquor Sets, Bowls, Bohemian Glass, etc., etc. Twelve only 8 inch Bowls, beauti. fully cut, at $4.82. Nine Cream and Sugars, latest cuttings, $7.20 per set. Entire Stock Canadian Cut Glass, less 10 per cent. Entire stock of American Cut Glass, less 20 per cent. Bohemian Carved Glass with gilt decorations, consisting of Bon-Bon Boxes, Vases, Trays (all sizes), Fruit Dishes, Roemers, Jugs (all 'descriptions). Perfume Bottles, Liquor Sets, etc., etc., less 25 per cent. 1-3 per cent.

1-3 per cent.

per cent.

1-3 per cent.

less 40 per cent.

Special Table $1.50 with $2, $2.25 and $2.50 Bohemian Glass decorated Bon-Bon Boxes, assorted sizes, shapes and designs, less 33 English Rock Crystal Carved Vases latest shapes and designs, less 33 shapes, less 25 per cent.

Trunks and Bags

2 only Gent's Imported Monitor

Bags, with solid ivory and sterling fittings; price $150, less 50

few only Gent's English Sole Leather Suit Cases, with solid ebony and sterling fittings, regular $50,

$60, $65, $75 and $100, less 33

2 only Brown, and 2 only Black

Ladies' Genuine Monitor Bags.

solid ivory and sterling fittings, re-

only Gent's Fitted Suit Case, regular $30, less 33 1-3 per cent.

1 only Gent's Fitted Suit Case, price

gular $75, less 40 per cent.

$35, less 33 1-3 per cent.

The Quebec Railway. Light and Power Company kindly placed a special car at the disposal of Arch- bishop Begin and the many priests who accompanied him. The Garde Champlain, with their brass band and cadet corps ewere present at this grand dimensional	It is regretable that the young Catholic ladies of Montreal should not be better represented in an or- ganization whose aims are so wor- thy. The membership of Loyola Club should be able to count at least two hundred members, whereas at present there are barely one quarter of that number. The members will hold an "At Home" on Saturday afternoon next, at their Club Rooms, Sacred Heart Convent, 96 St. Alexander street. LOYOLA COURT, C.O.F. The complimentary stag suchre and smoking concert given on Monday evening at Raby's Hall by the Loyo- la Court, Catholic Order of Fores- ters, proved a very enjoyable affair. Over one hundred, including members and their friends, participated. Chief Denome O'Neil assisted by Meseri	treal by the Notre Dame Hospital, in which, he declared, the King took a personal interest. It was in con- formity with the desire of His Ma- jesty that he visited the institution first. Lord Grey concluded with a few words in French. Their Excellencies were then escort- ed through the various wards, which were decorated for the occasion. Everything was spotless, and the management were the recipients of congratulations for the way in which the sick rooms were kept. Their Excellencies spoke to several of the patients, particular interest being taken in the most hopeless cases. The new Governor-General was also shown the plans of the Catholic Civic Hospital, in course of con- struction, as well as those of the addition to Notre Dame.	<ul> <li>III Fligh (1435 Walts)</li> <li>Any one fortunate enough to get the size and color desired may depend on style and value.</li> <li>White Taffeta Waists-$7, for $3.50; $10, for $5: $13, for $6.50.</li> <li>Peau de Soie Waists-White, $8.50, for $6.25; $18, for $9; $21, for $10.50.</li> <li>Crepe de Chine WaistsWhite, $10.50, for $5.25; $21, for $10.50.</li> <li>Crepe de Chine, Lt. Blue, $10.50, for $5.25.</li> <li>Peau de Soie, Lt. Blue, $12.00, for $6.00.</li> <li>Black Taffeta Waists-$5.50 for $1.75; $6.50, for $3.25; $7.00 for $1.50; $10.00 for $5.00.</li> <li>Black Taffeta Waists-$5.00, for $4.00.</li> <li>Black and White Peau de Soie Waists, $8.50, for $4.25.</li> <li>Black Peau de Soie Waists, $15.00, for $4.75.</li> </ul>	Leather, price $10.50, less 33.1-3 per cent. 2 only English Basket Trunks, price $21, and 1 only 39-inch, price $23, all less 25 per cent. 1 only English Fiber Steamer Trunk, 36 inches, price $32, less 25 per cent. 1 only English Fiber Trunk, 34 inches, and 1 36 inches, prices $35 and $40, less 25 per cent. 20 per cent. of all Fitted Bags and Suit Cases not mentioned above. A few Bags and Suit Cases display- ed on Tables, less 25 per cent. Mohair Grenadines In Black, Black and White, 27 in. wide, regular, 40c, and 60c per yard, less 33.1-3 per cent. 44 in. Emb. Fancy Swiss Muslins, mercerized, rich designs, regular	<ul> <li>Ladies' Red Quilted Velvet Romeo Slippers, bound in Chinchilla fur, regular $3.00, for $1.50.</li> <li>Little Gents' Black and Tan Laced Boots, odd sizes only, regular $3.00 for $1.50.</li> <li>Ladies' Enamel Laced Boots, Good- year welted soles, odd sizes only, regular $4.50, for $2.25.</li> <li>We are offering the balance of our warm slippers in Felt, Velver, Sa- tin and Lace, at 20 per cent. dis- count.</li> <li>All our Ladies' hand turned soled Oxfords at $3.00 and $3.50, for $2 a pair.</li> <li>Ladies' No. 1 Rubbers, in all sizes, wide and narrow toes, for 50 per cent.</li> <li>Durkish Bath Robes, $3.50, $4.00, $5.00, $6.00, less 20 per cent.</li> <li>Eiderdown Bath Robes, all shades, less 33.1-3 per cent.</li> </ul>
surf of honor in the sancturary. while a numerous and nowerful choir sang appropriate hymns. The ceremony house a tark	Ranger O Neil, assisted by messre. Gethings, Gahan, White and Gleason, looked after the guests, and did all in their power to make them feel at home. Ten games of euchre were played, and were keenly contested. The first prize, a cigar and match.	do them. "Well done," spells sacri- fice. It is a mark of excellence to get that commendation, but the price paid for it is understood to imply a cross a tomb a sesure.	5 Per Cent. for Cash	in Addition to All Other RGAN & CO.,

THE TRUE WITNESS AND CATHOLIC CHRONICLE.

ENGLAND'S TITLE TO IRELAND.

In a letter which he has addressed to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, the distinguished author, Mr. Barry O'Brien, writes :

I address this letter to your Lordship because you represent the Government of England in Ireland. I do not think that you will take amiss what I have to say. Were you al lowed, you would, I believe, discharge the duties of your office in sympathy with the National aspira tions of the people you have beer sent to rule; to say less would be to impeach your character as a gover constitutional instincts with "All government," it has been well said, "without the consent of th governed is the very definition of slavery." You certainly do not de sire to govern without the consent of the governed. Yet, in honest truth you do govern, so far, indeed, as it can be said that you govern at all. Your Excellency's position is an im possible one. You are a "constitutional" ruler in a country where there is no constitution. You represent a monarchy which rests on Parliamentary title. But your office has survived Parliamentary institutions in Ireland. The English mon archy is the embodiment of English nationality; the Irish Viceroyalty is the very negation of Irish national sentiment. Were you the representative of an absolutist sovereign, your position would be consistent, and might be strong. As the representative of a constitutional king, it is in consistent and hopelessly wegk.

his An absolutist ruler draws strength from an oligarchy, but there is no oligarchy behind you. A constitutional sovereign draws his strength from the people, but the people are not behind you either. Forgive me, my Lord, but I cannot help saying it; the "Irish" Govern ment-queerly so-called-is the most grotesque thing on earth. There is nothing like it, to paraphrase the words of Sydney Smith, "in Europe, Asia, Africa, or Timbuctoo." Honest and intelligent English administra tors, who go to Dublin Castle, find out the incongruities-the impossibilities of "Irish" government sooner or later. They think that they are practically going from one part of England to another, but they ultim- known so much I would have been ately discover that Ireland is a discontented English dependency of distinct national growth-not an Eng- has the force of law, no doubt, but lish shire, bound to England by ties of race, religion, and history. This discovery sometimes does the administrator good.

'What made you a Home Ruler,'' I asked the late Sir Robert Hamilton. He answered: "Soon after I came to Ireland, a report was sent in from some district giving an account of an unsatisfactory state of things I really cannot recall the de there. tails. I was anxious not to act without further investigation. I said to the clerk, 'Who is the member for this district ?' He gave me the name. I asked the clerk to write to that member, asking if he would kindly call on me to talk the mat 'Oh !' said the clerk, ter over. there will be no use in doing that; he would not come.' 'Why ?' I ask ed. 'Oh !' he replied, 'no Irish member could come to the Castle: they would not have anything to do with I was amazed. What I had us.' asked him to do was the ordinary views with reference to some state-

The King of England is above all parties. His health is drunk public assemblies in England where nen of all parties come together. It is a national toast. The Irish Viceroy is always a party man. His health is not drunk at National gatherings in Ireland. It is not National toast. The health of the King of England himself is not drunk at National gatherings in Ireland. It is not a national toast there. There is nothing personal in all this; far from it, so far as the English vereign is concerned, for men regard him as a ruler animated by just and humane sentiments in his dealings with nations. "... That the Irish man should not love the English. . . says Robert Louis Stevenson, "is no disgraceful to the nature of man. ra ther, indeed, honorable; since it de pends on wrongs ancient like th race, and not personal to him who cherishes the indignation."

since

Why do we cherish the indignation To answer this question I must ask another, perhaps, even two ques tion. tions:-1st. What is England's title in Ireland? 2nd. Does it rest or moral grounds? In answering these questions we shall get at the root of the whole subject; but I must beg your Lordship's indulgence, for have to appeal to history; a tribuna from which English statesmen, ir dealing with Ireland, shrink, but which, I believe, your Lordship has the courage and the sense of justice to face. "Politics," says Professor Seely, "are vulgar, when they are not liberalized by history." The Irish politics of the English statesman are not so liberalized. The occupants of the front benches in the House of Commons are present to my mind. There are scarcely three of them who could pass a respectable competitive examination in Irish history. I knew the late Mr. Gladstone. He devoted himself earnestly to the cause of Ireland in the latter years of his life; but he knew little of Irish history. He was frank, he was courage ous; he would not deny the fact He once said to me:-"'I am bound to say that I did not know as much about the way the Union was carri ed when I took up Home Rule as I holds came to know afterwards. If I had more earnest and extreme. The unior with Ireland has no moral force. It it rests on no moral basis. That is the line which I should always take were I an Irishman. That is the line which, as an Englishman, I take now." And again, he said:--"You know we thought that the Irish ques tion was settled (in 1870). There was the Church Act and the Land Act, and there was a time of peac and prosperity, and I frankly con fess that we did not give as much attention to Ireland as we ough to have done." Mr. Gladstone was the foremost Englishman of his age. He had en tered the House of Commons in "conquest. 1832. He must have heard the remarkable debates on Ireland which took place in 1833-34. He must have heard the equally remarkable debates which took place during the Melbourne Administration, 1835 1841. He lived through the Repeal system which is founded on the bayo movement and the Tenant Leagu nets of 30,000 soldiers encamped Agitation of 1850-55. Yet he permanently as in a hostile country scarcely gave Ireland a thought until asked him to do was the ordinary thing in England. To ask a mem-her of Parliament to give you his and generous instincts as Mr. Gladized and bureaucratic as that with stone, filling responsible positions in that which prevailed in Venice under

1893 to 1894. I have also conqueror is always a specious one before me a list of "Irish" Lord He is not honest. He is not truth Lieutenants and Chief Secretaries ful. He says to the people whose 1832. There were in all some national existence he means to des twenty-three Lord Lieutenants, not troy: "I do not come to injure you; one of them, of course, was a Ca- quite the contrary. I come to make tholic, for to this day any man pro- you happy. I come to destroy the fessing the religion of the nation bad government under which cannot be the governor of the nalive. The men of your own nation There were only three Irishdo not know how to govern you. I men-tame Irishmen, out of sympa- can govern you. I understand you thy with the people. There were I am your friend. I come to estab lish law and order, to civilize you, only two of the entire number who possessed the popular confidence- to elevate you spiritually, to enrich Lord Mulgrave (the choice of Lord I you materially, to make you blessed Melbourne in 1835) and Lord Aberprosperous, and free. You will find deen (the Home Rule Lord Lieuten me a guardian angel." That th ant bf 1886). Of some thirty Chief people should reply : "Angel or de-Secretaries five only were Irish, tame vil, we don't want you. We want to Irish; none were Catholics. Two only be left to ourselves, to develop on possessed the confidence of the peoour own lines, to work out our own ple-Lord Morpeth (the Melbourne destiny, in our own way"-that the poeple should say these things does Chief Secretary), and Mr. Morley the Home Rule Chief Secretary. The not affect him. He replies: "But it noble figure of Thomas Drummond is good for you that I should come," overtops all the Irish administra and he comes and he kills and he tors. He strove strenuously (1835plunders and he stays, and he says 1840) to govern the country in ac to the conquered: "You must have my laws and my institutions, my cordance with popular opinion. From the day of his arrival to the day of religion, my language, my dress, my his death he was denounced by the customs, my manners. You must do English Ascendency. Drummond perall things as I do them, and if you ished in the service of Ireland, strugrefuse I will break you on the gling to the last to stem the torrent wheel." I do not say that there are not of injustice, ignorance, and folly, which ultimately swept him away. exceptions to this general rule of the conqueror's plea. There is a notable The story of his life is a proof the hopelessness of any man atexception, which recent events have brought to our minds-the case of tempting to rule Ireland in accord-Russia and Finland. Russia con ance with Irish opinion while he office at the mercy of an quered Finland in 1809; it was call-English Parliament. Suppose, my ed the "cession" of Finland to Rus Lord, that England had been sia-a pretty diplomatic phrase. This con quered by Spain in 1588, and that conquest obtained moral sanction by between 1832 and 1904, at the end treaty rights. The compact between the two countries was: a commo of centuries of dominion. England had, in the main, been ruled by Spasovereign, and, for the rest. political nish Grandees, all Catholics, out of autonomy. Finns, representing the sympathy with the people, ignorant public opinion of Finland, administer. of their history, indifferent to their ed the affairs of Finland, Finnish laws and customs were observed, the wants, disregarding their cherishe traditions, despising their national Finnish religion was respected and aspirations, ignoring their religion, recognized, the Finnish language was and refusing to do them justice, ex the language of the Finnish State cept under the pressure of fear, what and the Finnish people. The Finns would the world think of Spain? were loyal to the Russian connec What would the English do? tion; they were happy, prosperous and free. For nearly a century this The following is not a description of a dependency of Spain or Russia compact was honorably kept. Then but a description of a dependency o in a moment of madness it was bro-England given 700 years after its ken, to the shame of the Russian "I do not believe," Government. 'The case of Russia said Mr. Chamberlain in a famou speech in 1885, "that the great ma and Finland was, I say, a case conquest obtaining moral sanction jority of Englishmen have the slight treaty rights. But the treaty by est conception of the system under which this free nation attempts to rule the sister country. It is

has now been broken, the moral sanction is gone, and the whole civi lized world would hail, and ought to hail with joy the destruction of the Russian power in Finland. How far the conquest of Ireland by England It is a system as completely centralhas ever received any moral sanc tion will form the subject of the suc which Russia governs Poland, or as ceeding letters.

ISO ST. JAMES STREET. Loans, Insurance, Renting, and Col-coting of Rents. Moderate charges, and prompt returns.

CONROY BROS. 228 Centre Street Practical Plumbers, Gasand Steam Fitters ELECTRICAND MECHANICAL Ryan, treasurer, 18 St. Augustia BELLS.etc. . Fel. Main 3552. Night and Day Services day of every month, in St. Ann's

Established 1864.

C. O'BRIEN, House, Sign ana Decorative Painter PLAIN AND DECORATIVE PAPER-HANGER. Whitewashing and Tinting. Orders promptly sttended to. Terms moderate. Residence, 75 ArLuers STRER. Office, 647 Der-chester street, east of Bleury street. Montreal.

street, east of Bleary St. 64.7 Bell Telephone, Up 2(5.

LAWRENCE RILEY. PLASTERER Successor tcJohn Riley. Establishedin 1866 Plain and Ornamental Plastering. Repairs of Ilkinds promptlyattendedto. Estimates fur-aished. Postal orders attenated to. 15 Paris Surrect. Point VS. Ouestat.

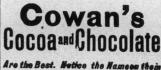

MENEELY BELL CONFAN TROY. N.Y. and

177 BROADWAY, NEW YORK CITY Manufacture Superior CHURCH BELLS

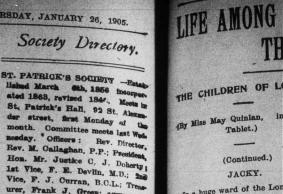

Membership 63,000 and increasing rapary More than $14,500,000 paid in Benefits in twenty-eight years Reserve Fund, November 25th, 1064, $1,164,778.99. Tue C. M. B. A. is Sanctioned by Pope Tue C. M. B. A. is Sanctioned by Cardinals Plux X., and Approved by Cardin Bishops and Priests, several of whom Officers. COCOA AND CHOCOLATE.

Supreme Deputy, Secretary, Quebec Grand Council, 55 D'AIGUILLON STREET, QUEBEC. DO NOT BUY TRASHY GOODS AT ANY PRICE. . .

NOTICE.

The undersigned, owners of immovables in the Counties of Berthier, Joliette, Mont calm, L'Assomption and Terrebone, call by these presents, a meeting of owners of immovables of the said Counties, to be held the 30rg JANUARY, 1905, at 7.30 in the evening, in the Sacristy of the Parisi of St. Barthelemi, Berthier County, to con sider if it is opportune to establish in th-

THURSDAY, JANUARY 26, 1905.

street.

street. Meets on the second Sup-

Hall, corner Young and Ottawa

C.M.B.A. OF CANADA, BRANCE

26.--(Organized 18th November, 1873.-Branch 26 meets at St.

Patrick's Hall, 92 St, Alexander

St., on every Monday of each month. The regular meetings fee

the transaction of business are held on the 2nd and 4th Mondayr of each month, at 8 p.m. Spiritual

Adviser, Rev. M. Callaghan; Chancellor, P. J. Darcy; President, W.

F. Wall; Recording Secretary, P. Q. McDonagh, 189 Visitetion street;

Financial Secretary, Jas. J. Con-

tigan, 825 St. Urbain street; Trea.

surer; J. H. Kelly; Medical Advisers

Drs. H. J. Harrison, E. J. O'Com-nor and G. H. Merrill.

OFFICIAL CIRCULAR.

Organized at Niagara Falls, N.Y., July 3 876. Incorporated by Special Act of the lew York State Legislature, June 9, 1870, Membership 63,000 and Increasing rapidly More than $14,500,000 paid in

P. E. EMILE BELANCER,

A. R. ARCHAMBAULT,

Supreme Deputy, Organizer for the Province of Quebec,

PFICE: 1592 NOTRE DAME STREET. Residence: 747 ST DENIS ST. Phone Hell East 2011.

SELF RAISING FLOUR.

is the Original and the Best.

A PREMIUM gives for the empty bass

10 BLEURY S'. Montreal.1

SELF-RAISING FLOUR

BRODIE'S CELEBRATED

CATHOLIC MUTUAL

Benefit Association

GRAND COUNCIL

OF QUEBEC.

FOR INFORMATIONADDRESS

streets, at 8.80 p.m.

In a huge ward of the Lon pital lay a wasted little cr was so small that it was n fcult to find him. But jus waved a thin little arm in

THURSDAY, JANUAR

"I see'd yer afore yer se was his greeting, and his ey with pleasure. "Ain't yer got no books

first Tuesday of every month at § he asked presently. p.m. Rev. Director, Rev. Jas. Kf-loran; President, W. P. Doyle: Res. I held up a volume, when eager hands closed over it. left the hospital he took t Secy., J. D'Arey Kelly, 13 Vallee home with him, and in th back room of the tenemen to read them to his mo ST. ANN'S T. A. & B. SOCIETY, could not read, and to t established 1868. -Rev. Directory brown-eyed Mary whom he Rev. Father McPhail; President, B. I remember the tiny h Gallery, M.P.; Sec., J. F. Quinn, where they all lived, the fa 625 St. Dominique street; M. J.

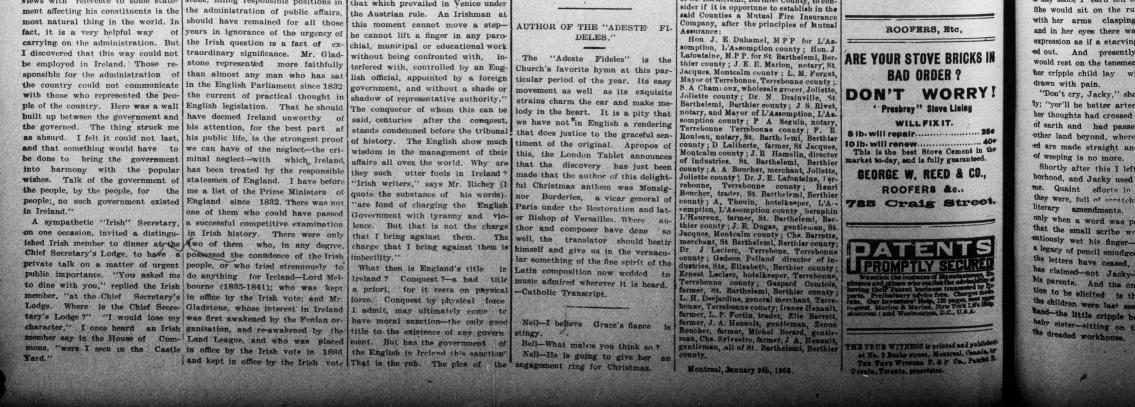

mother, Jacky and Mary. hed wherein they all slept which the cripple lay all da an hour have I spent in th tenement room with the win shut and the vermin craw the ragged coverlet.

When I did not go the m to send for me with the "the child do be askin' "Yuss," she continued, " 'Mother,' sez 'e, 'think as to-day ?' "

"'Mebbe,' sez I, jes' ter like, 'an' when the days g yer ain't come, e's brok Yer see," she used to a ain't nuthink fur 'im te 'cep' the walls, an' times ' -pore Jacky," and the mo would fill with tears. So sit by his bedside with a s on my knee.

"Now, Jacky, what shall The question always broug into the tired childish eye "Kin yer-" then he w to think. "Kin yer dro nigger ?" "What sort ?" I'd ask. "''''E were playin' the bo d'y," he'd say meditative make 'im dancin' a jig;" obediently did. Time wa studied art in foreign stu my artistic vision was bo Greek ideals, and I worsh nic models, even though only in dull plaster. The first I was asked in the of the tenement to draw nigger in checked trousers hat it seemed to me like tion of art. But when looked up from the pa sketch-book and caught s small, pinched face aglov sure and the tears trickling down the little I began to think there mi virtue in the outline than in the masterpiece of At other times, when th fading in the tenement Jacky looked frailer than sketch-book would be laid the conversation would other channels. Then used to steal up from th stand in the half-open do "Yer don't mind me lis yer talks to the boy ?" say. "Fur Gawd 'elp us a day sence I 'eard tell o

THURSDAY, JANUARY 28, 1905.

THE CHILDREN OF LONDON.

(By Miss May Quinlan, in London

(Continued.)

In a huge ward of the London Hos pital lay a wasted little cripple. He was so small that it was rather dif-

foult to find him. But just then he waved a thin little arm in my direc-

"I see'd yer afore yer see'd me,"

was his greeting, and his eyes spark-

"Ain't yer got no books fer me ?"

brown-eyed Mary whom he loved.

shut and the vermin crawling across

to send for me with the apology-

"the child do be askin' fur yer."

"Yuss," she continued, "an' 'e sez

'Mother,' sez 'e, 'think as she'll come

like, 'an' when the days goes by an'

yer ain't come, e's broken-'earted.

ain't nuthink fur 'im ter look at,

-pore Jacky," and the mother's eyes

would fill with tears. So I used to

"Now, Jacky, what shall I draw?"

The question always brought a light

"Kin yer-" then he would pause to think. "Kin yer dror another

""'E were playin' the bones yuster

make 'im dancin' a jig;'' which I studied art in foreign studios, when

Greek ideals, and I worshiped Hellenic models, even though they were only in dull plaster. Therefore when first I was asked in the back room

of the tenement to draw a modern

nigger in checked trousers and a top

tion of art. But when I had once looked up from the page of the

sketch-book and caught sight of a hat it seemed to me like a desecra

"now

by

he'd say meditatively,

obediently did. Time was when my artistic vision was bounded

into the tired childish eyes.

"What sort ?" I'd ask.

'Mebbe,' sez I, jes' ter quiet him

see," she used to add, "theer

led with pleasure.

he asked presently.

the ragged coverlet.

to-day ?' "

on my knee.

nigger ?"

ď'y,"

JACKY.

Tablet.)

26, 1905. Irrectory.

OCHETY -Estate 184'. Meets in , 92 St. Alexan Monday of the e meets last Wed. Rev. Director. , P.P.; President C. J. Doherty eviin, M.D.; 2nd a, B.O.L.; Treas-reen; correspond-J. Kahala; Re-T. P. Tansey.

A. AND B. SO. the second Sumh in St. Patrisk'r ander etreet, at ittee of Manage ne hall on the very month at 8 r. Rev. Jas. Kf. Kelly, 13 Vallee

& B. SOCIETY. -Rev. Director. dl; President, D. ... J. F. Quinn, le street; M. J. 8 St. Augustia the second Suph, in St. Ann's ng and Ottawa n

DA, BRANCE 8th November, meets at St. St, Alexander nday of each ar meetings fee business nd 4th Mondayr p.m. Spiritual allaghan; Chany; President, W. Secretary, P. C. isitetion street; , Jas. J. Con ain street; Trea. Medical Advisers n, E. J. O'Con -111

Falls, N.Y., July 3 pecial Act of the ture, June 9, 1879, increasing rapidly 0,000 paid in mber 25th, 1904,. eral of whom

ELANCER, puty, Frand Council, REET, QUEBEC.

MBAULT, ince of Quebec, DAME STREET. DENIS ST.

FLOUR.

SINC FLOUR nd the Best.

gether at a corner. One wee person tion against his return to the House or the empty bass yer talks to the boy ?" she would of the Divine Infant, for nearer to aged three and a half was doing the The address of Booker T. Washing of Commons. Some old briefs of "Fur Gawd 'elp us, it's many Bethlehem they cannot be than kneel-$8V. cakewalk before an admiring auditon in the churches of Providence, Montreal.1 a day sence I 'eard tell o' religion." ing beside the wood of the manger ence. Then tiring of the dance she R.I., show him to be an educated paper store, and in the folds of one the function promises to be one man and a gentleman besides, says tender body of the Shelter to the She would sit on the rusty fender cast about for other amusement. man and a gentleman besides, says "Tell yer wot !" she ejaculated. the Visitor. No man in the country, with her arms clasping her knees cheque for a hundred guineas in set-, Etc. and in her eyes there was a hungry pitiless cold of that first Christmas "Shall I show yer 'ow ter sneak walperhaps, should naturally be more tlement of Pigot's professional sermidnight. Touchingly beautiful is expression as if a starving soul look nuts orf a coster's barrer ?" Whereindignant at the treatment of his vices at this time. Pigot became at And presently her gaze the association, that in the largest E BRICKS IN upon the tiny child gathered herself race by the whites; and yet while church in the world dedicated would rest on the tenement bed where up for the effort. First she gave a Washington spoke on on the fall of the Melbourne Govdangerous Blessed Mother, the relics of the crib her cripple child lay with his face hasty glance around partly to collect grounds, told facts as he knew them, it is for this fund that I appeal. ER? ernment in 1841. On the return of drawn with pain. of her Divine Child should be pre the eyes of her audience and partly and spared not condemnation where the Whigs to power he was not re-"Don't cry, Jacky," she'd say soft-ORRY served: and our hearts turn with lovto impress upon them the necessity he thought it was needed, no part o ly; "ver'll be better arter this." For ing devotion to the spot where Mo ve Lining of caution. Then she located an imthe country, be it north or south, her thoughts had crossed the borders of earth and had passed into that er and Son are alike honored wards, by the influence of O'Connell. aginary barrow of walnuts, and, could take any offense at what he LIT. that beautiful human tie which binds said. He had praise for the south having tucked her grimy little hands motion of Sir Maziere Brady to the other land beyond, where the crookthe Babe of Bethlehem so near to te Cement in the ly guaranteed. into her pinafore, she smiled with an and the north; he had blame, too Lord Chancellorship. ed are made straight and the voice assumption of disinterested gaiety a our poor nature. which he spoke fearlessly; and with Pigot's eldest son Mr John Edweeping is no more The church is situated in one of the and so sidled along. It seemed the al there was not a single harsh say Shortly after this I left the neighhighest parts of Rome, in a finward Pigot, was one of the forewell suited to the feast of their na ED & CO., merest accident that she should have ing in all his speeches. It was Bookborhood, and Jacky used to write to most members of the Young Ireland 'piazza'' or square, with a beautiful brushed against it. And as she coner T. Washington, also, who said Quaint efforts in lead pencil olumn before it, crowned by an exale., Party, but owing to family ties themselves and Ireland ? tinued her stroll she hummed a gay several years ago that the only hope they were, full of corntching out and which he regarded as inseparable, he quisite statue of the Blessed Virgin Street. air from a music hall. The act now literary amendments. For it was of the colored man was in the Ca retired from public life, left Ireland, hich seems to be watching over th over she turned with a quick move tholic Church. Here we have an only when a word was past all help city and the Basilica so specially deand practised at the Indian Bar. ment to the group of children and example of what education and Chris that the small scribe would where he made a large fortune, comthat the small scribe world entiously wet his finger-leaving me a legacy of pencil smudges. But now the letters have ceased, for Death has claimed-not Jacky-but both his parents. And the only informa-tion to be elicited is the fact that the children were less the fact that dicated to her honor. triumphantly extended her pinafore. tianity can do for the colored man NTS ing home in the prime of life to Ire The facade of the church, with its "That's 'ow me mother does it, wo fine towers, which from their said she. विद्यासिम ST. BRIDGET'S NIGHT REFUGE. ommanding height are seen all over his father to try and sentence to Manufacturer, fa-the setvinubility on transported by Ap-res. Charges mass-izo pages, Sent upon New York Life Has-D.C., U.S.A. WEE WILLIE. long periods of transportation John ome, is particularly massive his parents. And the only informa-tion to be elicited is the fact that the children were last seen hand in hand-the little cripple boy and his hady sister-sitting on the steps of the dreaded workhouse. It was a grotesque child figure that ambled down a side street. His about his person, and, instead of a halv sister-sitting on the steps of the dreaded workhouse. Report for week ending Saturday. 21st January, 1905: The following had a sight's lodg-ing and breakfast : Irish 258; French 139, English 23, other nationalities, 24. Total, 444. imposing, a befitting approach to the Mitchell and John Martin his son' intimate political and personal friends, for public conduct which he splendors of this gorgeous Basilica. Following the usual lines of architec-ture on which Basilicas are erected, public conduct knew had his son's sympathy. and it has a portico with columns and would but for a father's entreaties open gallery or "loggia" (from which have had his co-operation. rinted and publisheds fontreal, Conada, by & F Co., Patrick F.

BILLIE.

I saw a woman coming along the street one day. She was crying. "An' it ain't no manner o' use talkin' ter the boy," said she, be tween her sobs, "fur 'e's that 'eadstrong ! an' now that 'e's took up with them 'ooligans, 'eaven 'elp 'im ! W'y ! 'e stopped aht two nights las' week, an' 'e don't say wot 'e done wif 'isself."

Therefore I pictured this widow's son as one of the local roughs, with his hair combed over his eyebrows. But, as it turned out, Billie was like no other Hooligan of my ac quaintance. To begin with, he was only about two feet high, and his years numbered seven all told. Besides this, he had a pair of bright eyes. and a dimple in one cheek.

I held up a volume, whereupon his eager hands closed over it. When he At the sight of this reputed mons left the hospital he took the books home with him, and in the little ter I laughed. "So you are the unmitigated ruffian, are you ?" Whereback room of the tenement he used upon Billie blinked his eyes and gave to read them to his mother, who a little inward chuckle. That was could not read, and to the little how it began. For it took but short time to discover that I remember the tiny back room we owned many iniquities in comwhere they all lived, the father and

mon, and the sense of proprietorship mother, Jacky and Mary. And the which Billie assumed in my regard bed wherein they all slept, and in was particularly soothing to my which the cripple lay all day. Many feelings. an hour have I spent in that stifling

I was talking to a group of wotenement room with the window tight men late one afternoon when I be ame conscious of a small figure leaning against a neighboring lamp When I did not go the mother used post.

"You seem busy," I said, address ing this small boy in the shadow. "Yuss," was the response.

"What do you think you are doing ?" I asked. "I wus waitin' fur yer," he ans-

Billie's self-possession being wered. not the least of his charms. "What for."

"W'y ! abaht them frogs," said he 'cep' the walls, an' times 'e's in pain "Yer said as yer wanted ter 'ave a frog race, didn't yer ?" sit by his bedside with a sketch-book

"Of course I do. Have you the frogs ?" "They're on the leads," said he

"in a jar. Come an' see ?" "How do you get there ?" I asked "Yer know where we lives ? Well yer goes up the tenemen' stairs an inter the fust floor back. Then yer gets aht o' the windy, an' the frogs, he repeated, "is in the jar." But to climb up the tenemen stairs and clamber through the window of the first floor back, just to examine three frogs in a grimy jar seemed to me entirely a work of supererogation. "I don't think." I said, diffidently, "that I like 'leads' much."

"S'pose yer thinkin' o' the baby,' said he. "What baby ?" I asked

"The baby wot rolled orf. Lord, uss !" he continued, "it were next door to us. An' the lady 'ad jes' come 'ome from a day's charin', so she puts the baby aht on the leads while she cleans up the room a bit. An' next time she looks aht the

"SNEAKING" WALNUTS. arrangements. The Bishop of used to steal up from the street and Romans flock in crowds to pay their CATHOLIC EDUCATION FOR NE General. Pigot was one of O'Con-nell's counsel in 1835 on the petidevotions at the hallowed shrine stand in the half-open door. Several children were playing to-GROES. "Yer don't mind me listenin' while which speaks to them so eloquently the initiated as a "hug-me-tight." According to the dictates of fashion it ought to have reached to the waist. But the voice of fashion is silent in Stepney; throttled by the stern hand of necessity. So Wee Willie wore his mother's hug-metight, and it covered his knees. But his face was radiant. Vesterday had been a day of days, for having wandered further afield than usual some one had given him a sixpence. Asked how he had spent it, Wee Willie gave detailed account.

"Theer were a 'alfpenny fur milkthat wer fur little Joey wot's sick," he interpolated, "an' a pennyworth o' coal. Then another penny went on kindlin' wood, an' a penny fur (means of which Our Lady vouchear sugar. After that we bought a penon that burning August day of A. alfvence." 'alfpence.' "And what then ?"

"Three 'alfpenny buns," was the response, and his eyes glistened at

Be Cured by Dr Williams' Pink Pills.

All over the land there are people whose lives had been made miserable through the pangs of indigestion, who have been restored to the enjoyment of health through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. One of these is Mr. Wm. Moore, of Welland, Ont. Mr. Moore is the manager of the electric light plant in that town, and stands high in the estimation of the citizens. He says: "It is really a pleasure to speak in favor of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. For four years prior to 1903 I suffered great torture from indigestion and stomach trothle. I could not eat solid food without experiencing great agony, and for over two years I had to re sort to a milk diet. I had grown emaciated and was almost unfit for active work. I was treated by doctors and took advertised medicines, but without any lasting benefit. One day a friend urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I began their use, but I must confess that it was without much hope that they would cure me. After taking a couple of oxes I could see an improvement. I continued using the pills until I had taken eight boxes, when I was completely cured and able to eat any kind of food I desired. I shall always praise Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as they saved me from such misery as only a despeptic knows. I might add that my wife has also used the pills for troubles that afflict her sex, and has been fully restored to health."

Bad blood, poor blood, watery blood, is the cause of nearly every ailment that afflicts mankind. It is because every dose of Dr. Williams Pink Pills make new, rich, red blood that they have such wonderful power to cute such ailments as indigestion anaemia. rheumatism, nenralgia. St Vitus dance, heart troubles, kidney and liver troubles, and the special

THE TRUE WITNESS AND CATHOLIC CHRONICLE. ST. MARY MAJOR.

The Basilica of St. Mary Major, at Rome, is one of the most celebrated shrines in the world. It is most renowned becauses of the miracle of the snow, which is annually commemorated on the day of the founding of the Basilica by a Pontifical High Mass in the Borghese Chapel, when at the Offertory showers of snowy rose leaves are scattered from the dome on the marble floor beneath, until this is covered with a fragrant summer snowfall, pure and spotless as the miraculous snow by

by its beautiful title of "Our Lady of the Snow." In after times this church was added to and improved, and it was entirely rebuilt in the fifth century by Pope Sixtus III in commemoration of the Council of Ephesus. Century after century various Pontiffs have enriched the grand Basilica with stupendous works of art; for all that was fairest in art was brought to

Our Lady's feet, but it was left to the age of the "Renaissance" to place the costliest gems of decoration in its crown in the shape of two splendid chapels, the "Borghese" and the "Sistine," which rise in stately beauty on either side of the apse.

Again even the people who are not much given to churchgoing at other times turn out at Santa Maria Maggiore; and all through Christmas afternoon the stately Basilica re-echoes to the glad strains of music and the steady hum and ceaseless movement of a great crowd coming and going, passing and repassing, looking at the church and listening to the Vesper music; but one and all pausing to say a few prayers in the quiet Chapel of the Blessed Sacrament. where, inclosed by the iron gates from the throng outside, the Prison er of Love is with us truly in His royal state. It is one of the most characteristic and thoroughly cos mopolitan crowds in Rome that assembled in Santa Maria Maggiore on Christmas Day, and all classes of society are represented, rich and poor, gentle and simple, prince and peasants; strangers from afar-off lands, near country people in Roman costume; priests and prelates, friars and soldiers-literally "all sorts and conditions of men," and our native land is represented in the throng. Inside, the church has the form of a true Basilica, in its most pure and severe form of architectural beauty, and the sensation of perfect harmony is the one which strikes the eye most on entering it; a marvellous thing as one realizes its proportions as the largest Church of Our Lady in the world. It certainly has not such glowing, triumphant beauty, such floods of light, and such splendor of sparkling marbles as the Basilicas of St. Peter, St. John Lateran, and St. Paul Outside the Walls, but it possesses a solemnly rich magnificence of its own, and the faith and glories of the past seem to linger in those solemn precincts, where reason of the light, it is a

Here is preserved the great relic of Bethlehem, the crib or manger of our

the Popes used to give the Papal Benediction on certain feasts of the year), adorned by mosaic pictures of the fourteenth century, most of which have reference to the history of the building of the Basilica. The legend or history of its foundation may be interesting to repeat here, for it is a singularly beautiful one, and will interest many of our readers who may perhaps have wondered why the titles of "Santa Maria ad Nives" (Our Lady of the Snow), or the "Liberian Basilica," have been bestowed on the Church of St. Maria Maggiore; but the names are more than sufficiently explained by the legend, which runs thus:

In the month of August, in the year 352, a miraculous fall of snow covered the ground on the Esquiline Hill in one particular spot, and that same night, the 5th of August, the Blessed Virgin appeared in a vision to a holy Roman patrician, one John the Patrician, ordering him to erect a church in her honor on this spot. where the miraculous snowfall was found. He revealed this vision to the reigning Sovereign Pontiff, Pope Liberius, who thereupon decided immediately to lay the foundation we see to-day.

The Basilica's most striking feature is its vast nave, stretching away into far distant vistas of space, and divided into aisles by long rows of magnificent columns, said to be of Greek marble from Mount Hymettus. The "Confession," in the centre of the church, to which one descends by a flight of marble steps, is surmounted by a Papal Altar and a grand canopy or "baldaquin" of bronze, a marvellous work of art, borne up by four porphyry columns enriched with raised gilt work, and lovely marble figures of angels at the four corners

Under the splendid Papal Altar in the "Confession," rich with marbles and precious stones, is the shrine where the relic of the crib is usually preserved, but the day before Christmas eve the relic is removed and carried by the chapter of the Basilica to the sacristy, where, on an altan specially prepared for it, and enclose ed in a magnificent silver and crystal casket, it is publicly exposed for the veneration of the faithful until early on Christmas morning, when it is brought back and placed on the Papal Altar for the whole day, only to be taken down when it is carried in solemn procession around the church after Vespers.

A FAMOUS IBISH OFFICIAL.

The retirement of Master Pigot from the position in the Four Courts Dublin, which he has held for upwards of forty years, will remove a link with an historic past. Master Pigot has been so long known as a Master of the Court that it is almost forgotten that his career at the Bar, first on the Connaught and subsequently on the North-East Circuit, was highly distinguished, and that he at a time when County Court Judges were allowed to practice, filled with success the office cepting the post of Master of 1846 till 1873.

"Killed !" reiterated Billie with 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 dles and electricity. Jacky looked frailer than usual, the nell's bosom friend, and one of his by writing The Dr. Williams' Medieeming satisfaction. "Not 'alf !" sketch-book would be laid aside and BRATED most enthusiastic admirers. So far the conversation would drift into other channels. Then the mother Then dropping satire, he remarked cine Co., Brockwille, Ont. back as 1834 O'Connell recommendinfant Saviour; this is why the good solemnly-"dead as yer like." ed Pigot for the post of Attorney-

7

Newfoundland Correspondence.

The Mount Cashel School of Industry seems to have had a very prosperous year. The large list of donations given during the year, and especially at Christmas is a proof that the good people of the whole island are supporting it nobly, and the work of the Christian Brothers for the cause of the orphans is appreciated. Under the direction of Rev. Brother Slattery, the school has accomplished a great deal of work, but during the coming summer it will be enlarged.

The Benevolent Irish Society building Committee recommended to the Society the tender of Harris and Phippard for an addition to St. Patrick's Hall. The building will be fronted with Don Valley brick at a cost of $17,553. The new wing will be known as "The O'Donel Wing,'

Bell Island parish is building up rapidly. A new church now adorns the place, also a large hall and fine school. A bazaar is now being held in aid of the church fund. Rev. Father James McGrath has accomplished a great amount of work since being appointed pastor of the historic little island

The winter so far has been a severe one. Snow storms of unusual severity prevailed at the beginning and now intense frost with the thermometer down to thirty degrees below zero is on the programme. The bays and ports around the coast frozen over and navigation is a thing of difficulty.

His Grace Archbishop Howley was invested with the Pallium at Rome last month. His Grace will not return to St. John's before March.

The herring fishery in many parts of the Island has been a great success during the year. American vessels have taken large supplies te Gloucester and other places.

LEARNED WHAT MADE HER FAT.

Of a young doctor who had just opened an office-his first one-in the vicinity of Rittenhouse square, and who is fond of using the largest words he can find while practicing his profession, his friends tell a little story. He was visited recently by a woman who is wealthier than she is wise, but whose patronage he was anxious to secure and retain.

"The trouble is not serious," he said, after examining the patient, 'and due principally. I think, to an excess of adipose tissue."

"My goodness," said the woman, awed and alarmed "perhaps it's that that makes me so awfully fat!" and the doctor was hard put to explain without giving offense.

THE IRISH IN LONDON.

small, pinched face aglow with pleathe Apropos of the National ceremony, sure and the tears amusement of County Court Judge in two coun ailments of women, young and old trickling down the little wan cheeks, grand mosaics of the walls testify to in connection with the feast of St. tries before he compounded in ac. But you must get the genuine pills with the full name "Dr. Williams" windy, the baby was gorn-fell dahn I began to think there might be more the great antiquity of the shrine. By Patrick, which is to be held at the the inter the nex' yard; theer ain't no Westminster Cathedral on March 19. virtue in the outline of a nigger good Court of Exchequer, of which his railin's ter the leads." he explained. Pink Pills for Pale People," on the thing to visit Santa Maria Maggiore than in the masterpiece of a Phidias. the Rev. Michael Moloney, who is father was Lord Chief Baron from wrapper around each box. Sold by "Was it killed ?" I asked in hor-At other times when the light was on Christmas Day, for the sombre actively concerned in its organizas all medicine dealers or by mail at fading in the tenement and little ror gloom of its aisles is relieved by cantion, writes that the Archbishop of Lord Chief Baron Pigot was O'Con-Westminster has-kindly consented to officiate on the occasion, and that the musical director of the Cathedral has taken charge of the musical Raphoe will preach the sermon. It is intended to have original Irish hymns of great beauty sung to their traditional airs, and both from the na-Pigot's lately turned up at a wasted tional and artistic points of view great interest. Father Molonev adds -"There is now but one difficulty. The committee needs a considerable working fund before it can commit last Attorney-General, but resigned itself to the final preparation, and submit that the appeal should have special claims on the Irish people in appointed, but he was shortly after- London, who are better off and better educated. Are there not among made Lord Chief Baron on the pro- the many Irish lawyers, doctors and merchants of London fifty persons who will give a sovereign each towards the holding of a service so tional apostle, and so honorable to not during the next few weeks find that there are, then I fear the project will have to be abandoned, Probably such an opportunity as this will never again recur of establishing land to die. It fell to the lot of in London the tradition of an annual service, by which the general world, as well as the Irish people themselves, could be made aware of the dignity and value of the intellectual inheritance of Gaelic Ireland, I have hope that fifty such can yet be found and I beg them without delay to rai-ly to the project and save it."

the recollection thereof. (To be continued.) STOMACH TROUBLE

The Agonies of Indigestion Oan

A SCHOOL ANOMALY.

Montreal Daily Witness, Jan. 19.)

er the heading 'Is this true ?' asked if the Roman Catholic School ard had been relieved by the increase of Protestant taxes of the ed of increasing the Roman Catholic school tax. Anomalous as it may seem, this is true. When the Protestant Board found the necessi ty, in order to provide for the decent education of the children for which it was responsible, to obtain more funds, they found a ready response on the part of the community they ented, and were pleased represented, and were pleased to were feeling a similar need. These they approached to see if they could ach the authorities together. The reply was in the negative. The Catholic board, for some unexplained reason, preferred to make their own representations in their own way. When that board came to discuss the matter some member raised questions as to the incidence of the taxation which they wished to revolutionize in a way that would lay the new burden on business, rather than on property, and one that would have been practically impossible as applied to any one panel. The result was that the board made no application, but awaited results. The rotestant Board held that the question of how the taxation should fall was not a question for school Loards. It was theirs to say what 1893. was needed, and it was for the government to determine how to raise That board not only asked that the taxes be raised from twenty-five to forty cents on the Protestant panel, but that it be also increased on the neutral panel. The neutral panel consists of joint stock companies whose taxes are divided, not according to the religion of the person taxed, as corporations have no religion, but according to the proportion of school population. As three quarters of the school population is Roman Catholic, and as very much more than three-quarters of the ownership of joint stock business is Protestant, this is practically taking Protestant money to pay for Catho lic schools; but with full realization of this fact the Protestant board deliberately included the neutral pa nel in their petition. There were obvious reasons for this. It would have been an outrage to have increased the taxes on individuals and not on corporations. It would, moreover, have been one more incentive for people to put their businesses in that form and thus bereave the Protestants of three-quarters of their contributions to education. We can imagine, too, that in doing this they hoped to forestall opposition at Quebec from an element notoriously satisfied with a very meagre equipment and phenomenally low teachers' sala ries. At all events the increase of Protestant taxation in both forms was graciously granted, and the Roman Catholic board is now snapping its fingers over the fact that, owing to the increase of funds from neutral panel, there is no need to increase the taxation of Roman Catholics. The neutral panel, which at one time covered a comparatively insignificant part of the school revenue, has been increasing of late years by leaps and bounds, owing to the increasing custom of doing business in that form, and to the many and important privileges which the law accords to the corporations it creates and denies to the citizens as much.

him. Such was the late William Cavanagh, of the parish of Richmond, near Ottawa, who died at the home of his son, Rev. Father Cavanagh, in Mayo, Que. The deceased was seventy-nine years of age. He was born in the parish of Richmond, a couple of miles from the place when he spent the greater part of his life. His father. Peter Cavanagh, was a native of Kells, Co. Meath, Ireland, and was a veteran of the war of 1812, and fought at Lundy's Lane, Queenston Heights, and on many other well contested fields of that historic struggle. His mother, Elizabeth Jefferys, was a native of the principality of Wales, and with her mother was a convert to the Catholic Church.

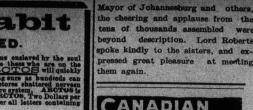

Mr. Cavanagh leaves a brother Walter, two years older than he, and two sisters, Mrs. Weathers and Mrs. Fitzgerald, both of Richmond. An other sister, Mrs. Mears, lives in North Dakota, and a vounger brother, Peter, died in the autumn deceased was The married to Catherine Kelsey, of Kilmeed County Limerick, Ireland. Of a fitmily of nine children, six are still living. The good mother having been called away, the deceased father fulfilled the obligations that ordinarily devolve upon both father and mother and fulfilled them in an exemplary manner. It needs only to be told how his family have fared to see what his single-handed labors mus have been. His eldest son, Peter, is a physician of twenty years' experience in the State of Iowa. He mad course of classics in the University of Ottawa, and a course of medicine in the University of Michigan. James the next in age, follows the avoca tion of his father on the old home stead. Mrs. Patrick Gasson, the only living daughter, resides with her family in the village of Manotick, Ont. Joseph, the next in rank of years, lives on a farm at Fayette, Mich. Walter, the next, made his arts course in the University of Ot tawa, in which he graduated ir 1893 and afterwards completed the course of theology in the same institution, and was ordained to the priesthood in 1897 and is now pastor of the parish of St. Malachy Patrick, the youngest Mayo, Que. son, is a letter delivery man on the staff of that department in Ottawa. The deceased was a life-time sup orter of the Liberal party in politics, but above all he strove to be faithful Catholic. His interest in the affairs of old Ireland was not less than that of those who were there, and one of his wishes was to see the legislation of Ireland accord ed to her before he left this world His life work was well done, and kind providence granted him the consolation of having his own son no only close his eyes in death but also bestow upon him ' the last blessing that our holy religion accords to he faithful children. May his soul rest in peace.

Says the Paris correspondent of

THE VICTOR MEDICAL CO., Toronto, Can.

[ Paul Beauregard called for an ima ssion on the mea sure tak diate disc en by M. Chaumie against M. Brune tiere, but without any better re sults than a promise that the inter pellation should be taken in its turn. The same fate befel a similar question in the Senate. When the ter does come on for discussion there is every probability that the Bloc will support M. Chaumie, in spite of its professed esteem for culture and learning. M. Brunetiere may be an Academician, and one of the most learned men in Europe, but he has discounted it all by having formed opinions which are not those of the Bloc and its Jacobin corner-stones. and he has become a Catholic would, therefore, perhaps be too much to hope that his sentence of exclusion from the University will be revoked, but it is quite certain that there will be much excellent talk be fore the matter is allowed to rest. M. Brunetiere is well able to defend himself. The Rappel, though no friend of his, has with other papers, protested against the penalty by which he has been visited, and it did this though it believes him to be 'an enemy of the Republic." Whilst thanking the journal for having talen up his cause, M. Brunetiere has objected to this description of himself. "A Catholic, and even if you will a clerical, I am, and deem it an honor to be so, but my motto is that of a Pope who said : 'Be good Christians and you will be the best Democrats.' I have now been of writing or speaking for thirty years, and for twenty I have never varied or wavered on this point. Though any one is free to think that I deceive myself, still my pretension and my ambition in working to defend the religious idea has been and is to work to defend, develop and propa gate the Democratic idea. I know very many Republicans who could not say as much."

THE TRUE WITNESS AND CATHOLIC CHEONICLE.

Retirement of Noted Professor

Dr. Sullivan has retired from the Medical Faculty of Queen's College, Kingston, after fifty years connection with the institution as student and professor. The careers of Far rel in Halifax, Hingston in Montreal, and Sullivan in Kingston, remind u in the first place, that while a great many rank and file physicians are materialists, the leaders of the profession are generally earnest Chris tian men; and, in the second place, that a Catholic doctor does not always find his creed a hindrance to his advancement. Kingston has deserved to be called the Canadian Derry, yet Michael Sullivan has been its Mayor, has been the most ho nored professor in its Medical College, and sits in the Senate of the Dominion to represent the district of which it is the centre

MEDALS FOR SISTERS.

At the church parade on the "Wan Ground, Johannesburg, lerers' " South Africa, recently, five sisters o Nazareth House, Johannesburg, with other religious and secular nurses, received medals from Lord Roberts in recognition of their services to and wour The nuns were the first to be war. decorated, and as they advanced towards the place where Lord Roberts was seated with Lady Roberts, their two daughters, Lord Milner, the

SUITS. LADIES' NORFOLK SUITS MISSES' NAVY BLUE SUITS, nice ly trimmed and finished.

MISSES' HOMESPUN SUITS. All the above suits are up-to-date in style, and ranged in price from $14

THURSDAY, JANUARY 26, 1905.

LIMITER

THE BIG STORE WILL CLOSE AT 5.30 P.M. UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE

S.CARSILEY Co.

$9.00 Coats for $2.98 THERE'S JUST 75 LADIES' AND MISSES' COATS in this group. They come in Black, Green, Brown and Cardinal Beaver Cloth, in They come in Black, Green, Blow a date Children beaver Gloth, in a wonderful diversity of styles. Some are lined silk, others elegantly wonderful diversity of styles. Some are finder site, others elegantly fur trimmed. All are of fine quality materials, smartly cut and of excellent finish. Regular values range from $7.00 to $9.00 Sale Price

$2.98 Household Linens At Reduced Pricer

Impossible to select a better time than now to secure the year's supimpossible to scatt a better are reduced. Table linens, Bed linens, Toilet linens, Fancy linens. And these are fabrics noted for their snowy TABLE LINENS

PILLOW CASES Bleached Cotton Pillow Cases, hem-

SHEETING SPECIAL

20c. Sale Price, per yard. 16 1-20

ing, 73 inches wide, wort

22225

·······

Unbleached Table Linen Damask, med ready for use. Regular vale, 15c. Sale Price, each...11 1-20 various handsome patterns, 70 inches wide. Sale Price per yd .... 86c Unbleached Handloom Table Linen 72 inches wide, extra heavy. .54c 20 Pieces of Plain Bleached Sheet-Sale Price, per yard ...

ROLLER TOWELLING

MANUFACTURED AT

MONTREAL.

ployee, Shannon street:

pain away in 10 minutes.

I earnestly recommend the Sanct

it extra good.

-----Pure Linen Roller Towelling, 16 in-LINEN LENGTHS ches wide, red and white border. Pure Handloom Linen, in 34 yard Worth 9c yard. January Sale lengths. Worth 90c a piece, Re-Price, per yard ..... ....... 6½c certain to eclipse any similar event of the kind. THE FAIR WILL BE A PRACTICAL DEMONSTRATION.

The purpose of these Food Fairs is to acquaint ladice with the numerous good foods procurable, and to demonstrate the many palatable ways in which each may be prepared. Exhibits from the leading Pure Food Enterprises of Two Continents, artistically arranged.

EXHIBITORS WILL DISTRIBUTE FREE SAMPLES Throughout the Food Fair's duration. Ladies should not fail to include a visit in their list of engagements.

S.CARSLEY Co. 1765 to 1783 Notre Dame St., 184 to 194 St. James St. Montreal

SALVE SANCTE JOSEPH mending Salve Sancte Joseph to the public, having used it myself, and my brother, for chapped hands, sore face, from the wind and weather. Mr. Dan Doyle :

Used Salve Sancte Joseph for a badly cut finger and it is now perfectly well. I also used it for chapped hands, and it is excellent.

Mr. Cook, Superintendent of the Maple Sugar Works, Grey Nun st: Maple Sugar Works, Grey Man. I used Salve Sancte Joseph for Mr. James Ennis, Government Emmy little daughter who got burned, I used the Sancte Joseph and also for a bruised foot. I can safely say it is marvellous, having Salve for my legs and feet and found cured so quickly.

Mrs. Milloy, Wellington street: I have used the Salve Sancte Joseph in my home on several occa-Joseph. I could not sleep at sions, and I can confidently recom-night with the scalding pain. It took mend it to every family.

IN "DAR

(By Gilson Willets, I

The gaunt spectre of f stalks abroad in County County Galway, and oth West of Ireland, in the cently made a tour of , in of conditions among the of the tenant class. The this year proved a failur tatoes rotted in the grou not even worth digging starvation to the pitiable of the wretched cotters described in this articletotal of distress is app contemplate. Even of Irish leaders like John I chael Davitt, and John have made public statem ing that the famine in I real, and that "without a speedy relief there is not people but death." In short, the past seas worst the people of the co tioned have known since plague year, 1879. The that unless the governme immediate relief the mor winter will approximate plague year.

And, now, with Ireland's tress ringing in the ears lized world. I will set do ditions that surround the uttering 'the cry-condition have helped to make fami hility, conditions that an gree of existence lower that of mere poverty.

It is a record that is a of the true meaning of fa land where hunger gnaws vitals the year round.

My recent journey was week through "darks st" ] poorest, unhappiest cour whole world. As my tri out was far from the bea mostly in carts, I saw those things which the tor The names of most of the visited are carefully kept guide-books by the railro depend for their right of v parliament in London who simply will not visit Ire themselves the there.

No investigator could b but horrified by the awfu have witnessed-scenes of verty and suffering, of and desolation. Neither of Finland nor of Poland Russian Government, are distressed as the Irish peop places I have been-only journey from the seat of g of these poor people's "en out blindfolded "conqueren Ireland is the only cov earth that shows a stead population all durin half century. Ireland has lion less inhabitants to-d had fifty years ago. (Ire four millon less inhabitant she had fifty years ago.---land has half a million 1 tants than it had ten year land, as big as Maine o a population at one to that of New York Ste this beautiful island has many people as Missouri. present rate of dimunition in Ireland the island will lated. The people who these facts abandoned the their birth, emigrated to c tries. And the vast majo se people and their . of in the United States of An result is that the biggest in the world is New York. has an Irish population that of the two biggest cit land—Dublin and Belfast gether, namely, 725,000. total number of Irish peor United States-5,000,000-1,000,000 the total number people in all Ireland. An son for this I can only su telling exactly what happed I was looking and listenin land from which came the The Irishmen themselves a blame for this condition. Proven by the known fact they reach America they d passed away Mrs. Mary Shea, wife of Mr. Peter Shea, of the Canada Sugar Refinery, at her home, 54 Coleraine street. The deceased was thirty years of age, and had been married but a year and a half, and up till a month ago enjoyed perfect health. The deceased was a sisterin-law of Rev. Father Shea, curate of St. Anthony's Church.

OBITUARY.

The funeral took place on Tuesday morning to St Gabriel's Church where a solemn requier. service was sung by Rev. Father Shea, assisted by Rev. Father O'Meara as deacon, and Rev. Father Fahey as sub-deacon. Interment took place at Cote des Neiges Cemetery. R.I.P.

M. Chaumie, Minister of Public Instruction, has caused no small amount of surprise and indignation, which has found utterance in strong protests in the newspapers, by the Brunetiere. For a son M. Brunetiere, the editor of the Revue des Deux Mondes, a man whose wide knowledge has acquired for him a reputation which is not confined to Europe, has been excluded from the College de France. The reason al leged is that he had insulted M. Ber thelot, one of the pontiffs of Jacob inism, by declaring that science wa not sufficient for everything, and that she had signally failed in the

DEATH OF MR. W. CAVANAGH

On Sunday, the eighth instant, there passed to his reward the soul of an aged man who, though unasing in every aspect, nevertheles was one who filled his humble place here below in a manner which reflected credit on himself and gave good of the Legislature, by way of inter example to those he has left after pellation. On Friday afternoon M

treatment he has meted out to M

A this we domain of morality. shall know more before long, for it is impossible that the exclusion M. Brunetiere from the University will be allowed to pass without the fullest explanations being required M. Brunetiere has, of course, protest and intends to appeal to the Council of State, and meanwhile the case has been raised in both hous 2341 & 2343 St. Catherine St Corner Metcalfe.

Term s Cash

JANUARY DISCOUNT SALE

Carries with it all Carpets, Rugs, Hall Strips, Hall Squares and Rugs.

Hundreds of Ready Made Carpiets all sizes, Richly Bordered, a large variety of New Designs and Harmonious effects.

Curtains and Drape Materials, Shades, Fringes and Trimmings, Hassocks and Fancy Boxes, Oil Cloths, Lincleums and Inlaid Cork, Beds, Bedding and Furniture, Fancy Chairs, Dining Chairs, Tables, etc. All at January Sale Discounts. Mail orders filled, large orders filled promptly, goods stored until required.

The above are only a few of the H. Gillet : many testimonials received. A box I had chapped hands so bad I of the Salve can be had at the could not get a pair of mitts on. I Home for the asking. Don't ask tried Sancte Joseph Salve, and your druggist for it. Tel. Un 2740 my hands were perfectly cured in two applications. I highly recommend it to the public. HUMAN AND DIVINE LOVE. Mrs. Reardon, 16 Paris street city:

> Joseph Salve to every household. If ever human love was tender and I have used it on several occasions self-sacrificing and devoted; if ever and found it excellent for burns, suts, it could bear and forbear; if ever it could suffer gladly for its loved ones; John Lynch, Corporation forem if ever it was willing to lavish itself for the comfort or pleasure of its Having used Salve Sancte Joseph objects; then infinitely more is difor my feet, which were very painful vine love tender and self-sacrificing and devoted and glad to bear and from walking, I got immediate relief forbear and to suffer and to lavish its best blessings upon the objects of its love. Put together all the ten-derest love you know of the deepest Mr. Thomas Demers, Butcher, ' cor Young and William streets: I used your Salve Sancte Jo derest love you know of, the deepset you have ever falt, and the strongest that has ever been poured out upon you and heap upon it all the loving hearts in the world, and then multi-ply it by infinity, and you will begin, perhaps, to have some faint glimpse of what the love of God is. seph for my nose, which was ver-sore and painful. I can recommen the salve to the public,

after one application.

THOMAS LIGGET 1474 & 1476 St. Catherine St. Tames Carroll, William street: I have great pleasure in t

etc.