cienus the kidneys and the bladder; and, by his means, the liver and lungs, the healthful action of which entirely depends upon the regularity of the urmary organs. The blood, which takes its red color from the agency of the liver and lungs, before it pesses into the heart, being thus purified by them, ind nourished by food coming from a clean atomach, sources freely through the veins, renews every part of the system, and triumphantly mounts the banner of health in the blooming cheek.

The following are among the distressing variety of human diseases in which the VEGETABLE LIFE MEDICINES are well known to be infallible:

Ecvers of all kinds by restoring the blood to a egular circulation, through the process of penpi-acous in such cases, and the thorough solution of all intestinal obstruction in others.

The Live Manical have been known to cure RHEUMATISM permanently in three weeks, and GOUT in half that time, by removing local inflammation from the muscles and figuresus of the joints.

Dyoptics of all kinds, by freeing and strengthening the kidneys and bladder: they operate most delightfully on these important organs, and hence have ever been found a certain remedy for the diect in entire cure of SALT RHEUM, and a striking imprevement in the clearness of the skin. COMMON COLDS and INFLUENZA will always be cured by one dose, or by two even in the worst cases.

PILES, Ar a remedy for this most distressing and obstinate malady, the VEGETABLE LIFE MEDICINES deserve a distinct and supplate recommendation. It is well known to hundreds in this city, that the former proprietor of these rale-ing; he has not spoken to the prisoner since.

Cross-Examined by Mr. Casaidy—Prisoner was dressed in his ordinary dress on the cab; another man was driving the cab with him; here witness reflected, and then did not think that both were on the cab; he thought one was in the cab; to the best of his recollection there were two on the cab; one might have been lying down, and the other witting my; he recognized the prisoner by his volte; he followed him and took particular attention to find out that it was he; he thought something extraordinary was going to happen, for he was not accustomed to hear such noises; the prisoner was great the lamp, near the Parliament House, when he saw him, shout lour or five feet from it, he was about twenty feet sway; there was a crowd nty feet away; there was a crowd prisoner was to the other side of the house; there must have been a copie around Parliament House; Comind people around Parliament House; Com-mers' street was so crowded, that they had round, and some people were between and the place where the prisoner stood row stones; saw the prisoner throw to throw stones; saw the prisoner throw twice; did not say that he threw st nes, but now him make the genture of a man throwing luct ever should be.

By a Juror.—Witness restated evidence relative

Jean Baptiste Asselin was present at the attack and burning of the Parlianuent House; saw the prisoner m McGill Street after the house had been set on fire; prisoner was among a crowd that went away from the fire; prisoner with a few others was recrying the muce; it was like the one he had seen in the House of Assembly; he had been on the Chemp de Mars; demolishing of the point of the house was a consentence was: it was the prisoner on the Champ de Mars; demolishing of the house was a consentence was: it was for 6 minutes after the breaking out of the fire that the mace was carried away.

Cross-Examined by Mr. Mack—Five or six were carrying the mice away, three or four appeared to have their hands upon it; he supposed principles codet lives at the foot of the current; is a book-binder; after Parliament House was

House of American by Mr. Mack - Went to Done-less Street.

Loss examined by Mr. Mack - Went to Done-la's hotel; after he had been at Donegana's for at ten minutes, he heard cry of fire, and saw a me; he understood that the mace had been flame; he indestined that the mace had been given to Sir Allan McNab.

By Judge Aylwin.—The mace, in Great St. James Street, was in possession of some person in a calable; under Jour persons, he thought, were in the calastic; followed it through the Place of Armes and Notre-Dame Street to Donegama.

William Nolan came up when the west sid of building of parliament house was nearly destroyed with sticks and stones; fire was applied to the building by some atraw and paper; a boy was there with some atraw and paper at one end of the building; the pannelling of a porch was broken, and aplinters were lighted; they had taken out some stationery from the parch and lighted it; he did not know any of them so engaged; there was a man and some boys; the crowd was not there but in Commissioners after breaking in the bouse; he thought one man put out the gas; some engines were brought to protect the adjoining houses.

Conservament by Mr. Mark—He saw one man with so, we boys set fire to the house in the manner he had stated; the boys then book some fire from where it was first put and they three it is some windows or the sest side; it lighted the curtains, the carfains the windows and the windows the purch at the McGill street end of the house; he followed the mace and naw it delivered at Donegane's Hotel; about six had possession of the mace, and psisoner was among the stowd; some desired to have the mace backen up, but others did not, and thinks prisoner was among the inter; it appeared to be to save the mace that prisoner and into the cainshe, to the best of his knowledge, there was no fire until some minuses after the mace had crived at Donegane's fixel; mace appeared carried as if in their possession; he heard enquiries made for 'ir Allan, da Nah, and thought it was to give him the mace.

William Courtiey could not recognise paisoner as having seen him on the night the Parliament House was burned.

'Cross-examined—Was then a book-keeper at House was burned.

"Cross-examined—Was then a book-keeper at Done gang's littel, the cruwd asked for Sir Allan MacNab; they told him the reason they wanted Sir Allan was to deposit with him the mace; they put it in his room, and several of the crowd told witness they would hold him responsible for it; he saw from the cupola at the top of the bouse the fire at the Parliament house some minutes before the mace exame.

he mace came.

By the Sel, Gen — Donegana's Hotel was terminates walk from the Parliament House.

By the Court — There might have been 200 persons in front of the Hotel when the mace was rought.

Affred Perry did not know that the sperches o the Champed Mars are the crowd in motion teleprobated attacking Parliament House; its saw some go at it with a 3-inch plank; others with bricks; stones, &c.; attack had gone on for some time before the fire broke out; saw the made go up. McGill. Street; withouse had a hand on the made, but he did not see the presence; this was at the curner of McGill and St. James' Street; he only noticed two persons, and neither of them was the prisoner; he did not see him any where that evening.

Cross-examined—Went very slow up St. James' Street; there was a haif in the Place d'Armes; some stones were put through the Plate office windows; they went slowly on to Donegana's; he followed the mace all the time; the crowd would have smashed the mace in McCill Street if they had been allowed; there was an abam of fire at duct ever should be.

By a Juron-Witness restated evidence relative to prisoner's being at the parliament house.

By the Solicitor General.—The cause of his quarrel with the prisoner was, that he had insulted his wife, by calling her a thief; he did not harbour my verigence against the prisoner; he had been threatened with imprisonment by the Solicitor General if he did not coupe to give his evidence.

Alfred D'Amour, is a notary public of this city; was at the meeting on the Champ de Mars; when he got there, he heard a cry; if away to the parliament house. I heard the last speaker say it is time to eat at present; or corroborated evidence relative to attack and burning of the parliament house, hilf an hour transpired between the attack and the burning it could not identify anybody.

Tross-examined by Mr. Cassidy,—the knew the last witness was not on good terms with the prisoner, but not extraordinarity so.

Hugh Shields remembered the fire that burnt the parliament house; he was not at the fire that burnt the parliament house; he was not at the fire that burnt the parliament house; he was more and ten at might a great crowd of persons came, and two of them insisted on getting in his cab; they brought something in the calashe; did not know what it was something gilded; he did not seem but did not, for he was more atrail than anything else; did not know whether parliament house was on fire when they forced themselves in his calashe.

Jumes Ray corroborated attacking and burning of Parliament House; did not know prisoner than a calling a parliament house; he does not know what the ringing of the bell meant, he met Mr. Jegemie, the Chief of the Police, who tood him there was to be a meeting.

Adojfa St. Jean and Thomas Jones were called to the commented upon the collection of the parliament House; did not know prisoner than anything and burning of parliament House; did not know whether parliament house was on fire when they forced themselves in his calashe.

Jumes Ray corroborated attacking and burning of parliame at did not, for he was more afraid then anything set did not know whether parliament house was in fire when they forced themselves in his calashed. Mr. Mack addressed the Jury for defence, in an James Kay corroborated attacking and burning eloquent speech, in which he commented upon the cylindrent House; did not know prisoner then it did not see him there.

Jean Baptiste Asselin was present at the attack. Hause: saw the

the mace was carried away.

Cross-Examined by Mr. Mack—Five or six were carrying the mace away, three or four appeared to have their hands upon it; he supposed the prisoner had his hands on the mace; it was hard to say if the prisoner had his hands on the mace; it was about fifty feet distance; he swore the house was about fifty feet distance; he swore the house was about fifty feet distance; he swore the house was then on fire; this was in McGill street, near Proctor's grocery store; the parties with the mace had their backs to the flames; he only saw prisoner enter Champ to Mars, and in McGill street, near the distance of the current; the mace had their backs to the flames; he only saw prisoner enter Champ to Mars, and in McGill street, near the distance of the current; the mace had their backs to the flames; he only saw the street, and the latest from the Parliament House, saw the street. mace being carred very slowly along the street by some persons apparently in a good humour take in it that some of the resolutions had been passed before his arrival, although the place was changed; he supposed the meeting had been called in consequence of the extra; he had an advertisement given to him by persons for the calling of the meeting. Being asked what he meant by saying that the people were in good humour, replied, tuat the people with the mace were singing God save the Queen, and did not look as if they had come from any mischief.

In Robert Cook saw a party desiring to destroy the mace, but he and others made efforts to save it; he can we he party with the mace in McGill Street, there was no fire at the parliament house at that time, nor yet by the time that he got there, he want round by College Street; made acallin College Street, and stopped there ten minutes or a guarter of an hour before he heard the alarm of here.

eal journals in Upper Canada, which, not more than one year and a half ago, were thorough-going supporters of the present Ministry, that Ministry must be in a pretty ticklish position-Really, with the exception of the Toronto Globe -and that footna!, too, occasionally amuses itself a decent newspaper can be found to say a good word for Baldivin & Co. It may fairly be assumed of politicians, as of men generally, that there must be sometting radically wrong in their conduct, when old friends walk off and leave them

The truth is, that the Ministerial party, properly so called, no longer exists in Upper Canaa; it has tallen to pieces under the pressure of a ystem of blundering, jubbery, and corrupt on, such as was never dreamed of in the worst days such as was never dreamed of in the worst days of the Family Compact. The sins of omission have been as great as those of commission; with the former the Government is taxed, even by its supporter, the Globe; for the latter it is attacked by almost every journal in the Province. And the worst of it—for the Ministry—is that the desertions from their ranks are those of the best men, the really pair otic and disinterested—the time-servers and office-hunters, and the attachment of such characters is not worth much; they are the condition; the Swiss of political warfare, fighting only while they are paid, or swe a prospect of future payment,—point d'argent, point it & Swisse. These fellows would fight as readily ment of such characters is not worth much; they are the condition, the Swiss of political warfare, fighting only while they are paid, or see a prospect of future payment,—point d'argent, point de Swiss. These fellows would fight as readily for Sherwood as for Baldwin, provided one had the same means of paying for their services as the other. That the Ministry can get through another Session, or two Sessions, is perfectly certain, because their Parliamentary majority happens to be composed of this class, but opres cels ! after an election, say where will they be ? By Judge Rolland—Thinks there were three in the cab besides the driver.

Cross-examined by Mr. Mack—After he had seen Mr. Jamieson with the mace, he heard the cry that the parliament bouse was not on fire; he went to Donegana's hotel, and did not perceive that the parliament bouse was not on fire; he went to Donegana's hotel, and did not perceive that the parliament house; naw the mace of the flows of Assembly that evening, in Great St. James Street.

BEAR IN MIND,

That Radway's Ready Relief will cure either of the above-mentioned Diseases in one-tenth the time it takes any other Remedy to give even Partial Relief.

This sentence is constantly in the mouth of every person, in order to explain certain complaints. Those who use it often, we think, have but a faint idea of its precise meaning. We will offer an explanation, which we behaviour to the opinion of a majority of the most learned physicians. A person, for instance, has been over axering any particular set of muscles—of the throat, from violent speaking—of the loius, by too much stooping or busing, or those of any other part of the body: these parts or muscles are, consequently, weakened and relaxed, and become a fair pray for any disease. The person who has been than acting, accidentally or otherwise, exposes himself to the cold air, the perspiration immediately ceases, and the blood, which had been but just now circulating rapidly throughout the surface of the body, is repelled inwardly, and is sure to settle in those parts which have been prevously wearied and relaxed. Here, then, we have an accumulation of blood, a congestion, which gives rise to all the pain and stiffness attendant upon such complaint. When this takes place in the throat, we have what is called Sore Throat; when in the loim, Lambago or Stiff Back; when in the cheet, Pleurisy. We also have it in the shoulder-blade, side, and other parts.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF,

Taken Internally and applied Externally.

Its first action, when freely applied, is to blunt the acute sensibilities of the nerves, and almost instantly relieves the pain; it as accondary action is to excite perspiration, and redden the parts over which it is applied almost to a glow, thereby determining the blood from the nijured parts to the surface. In these cases, the READY RE-LIEF should be applied freely, at the same time rubbing the parts with a piece of financi, and it will be found in every case to give immediate and permanent relief.

N.B.—H convenient, a piece of financi saturated with the RELEEP, and tied or pinned around the parts, does good service.

A BAD COUGH CURED IN TEN MINUTES.

Mr. Rigdom, of Brooklyn, the celebrated Church Singer and Organ-Player, on the night of the 10th of Decomber was attacked with a severe fit of coughing—so that he coughed from 9 o'clieck antil 18 d'elock, P. Mr. without three minutes intermission. One of the Clerks of Radway & Co., who sleeps in the next room, got up and gave him a tea-spoouful of the Relief internally, and bathed his throat, neck, and chest; he also saturated a piece of fannel with the Relief, and land it over his cheet. In a few seconds the coughing ceased, he could expectorate freely, and raised with perfect case a great quantity of philogram. The Relief instantly soothed the irritation of the throat-and removed the influmentation from the lungs, and gave free action to them, produced a free and copious perspiration of the throat and cheet; and in ten minutes he was entirely free from pain, and sunk into a sound and pleasant sleep. In the moviming he was free freen hoarness and cough, and has not been troubled since. Let every individual who is troubled with a cough, sore throat, influenza, or hoarseness, pursue, the same plan, and we will warrant them a speedy cure.

THE RHEUMATIC.

Who has been bed-ridden for years, shut out from the busy world, and lingered with pain upon a couch of sickness, deprived of the society of friends. and of the pleasures of life, has been raised from a lingering death by the soothing, healing, and pain-relieving inflaences of Radway's Rendy Relief. In all cases of Rheumatism—even the worst cases—one trial of Radway's Rendy Relief will prove its superiority over all other remedies in use, BAREDENG AND BLIND PILES.

Are instantly essed, taking the Rendy Relief internally—say a tea-spoonful of the Relief in a table-spoonful of Molasses, and make a Cream of the Relief, by adding to it Sweet Oil, and anoint the parts affected. If the sores are very bad, take a leaf of tobacce, dip it in warm water, then wet it with the Relief, and lay it on the sores, you will have immediate relief and a speedy care.

Radway's Rendy Relief renews the vigor of youth in old age. The old man of seventy is invigorated by its strengthening and exhiberating effects; it arouses the vital energies to life—the heavy and languid motion of the functions of the body is quickened to a healthy action—and the hitherto dull and mopish old man becomes active and vigorous in old age, and his life prolonged to the full number of his days.
