Anchor SHINGLE STAINS

The Best Preservative of Undressed Wood

Anchor Shingle Stains indefinitely postpone, if not absolutely prevent wet or dry rot. They show up the grain of the wood, giving delicately artistic finish, not only to the surface coated, but to the entire building.

We have used infinite pains in the selection of pigments best suited to combine with our specially treated COAL TAR CREOSOTE, and our success has been proportionate with our care.

Anchor Shingle Stains are being very largely used on the roofs, and in many instances also on the bodies, of the most attractive houses in our midst; they are also employed with excellent results from an economic standpoint on sheds and other outbuildings.

If your dealer cannot at the moment supply Anchor Shingle Stains, please write us to arrange for you.

CHAPTER XXI.
The Sisters.

"Not despised her," cried Rose, in great distress, as she saw a dark expression stealing over the face of Maggie, in whose heart a chord of sympathy had been struck, when she thought of her mother banished from her father's side. "Grandma could not despise her," continued Rose, "she was so good, so beautiful."

"Yes, she was beautiful," murmured Maggie, gazing earnestly upon the fair, round face, the soft black eyes and raven hair of her who for years had slept beneath the shadow of the Hillsdale woods. "Oh, I wish I was dead, like her," she exclaimed at last, closing the amblyope and laying it upon the table. "I wish I was lying in that little grave in the place of her who should have borne my name, and been what I once was; and bowing her face upon her hands, she wept bitterly, while Rose tried in vain to comfort her. "I am not sorry you are my sister," sobbed Margaret through her tears. "That's the only comfort I have left me now; but Rose I love Arthur Carrollton so much—oh, so much, and how can I give him up?"

"If he is the noble, true-hearted man he looks to be, he will not give you up," answered Rose, and then for the first time since this meeting she questioned Margaret concerning Mr. Carrollton, and the relations existing between them. "He will not cast you off," she said, when Margaret had

MOTHERHOOD SUGGESTIONS

Advice to Expectant Mothers

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at such times, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when it is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, and with ample time in which to prepare, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (consultant) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman who understands.

on her pillow, and when the morning came she was too weak to rise; so she kept her room, listening to the music of the Sabbath bells, which to her seemed sadly saying, "Home, home." "Alas, I have no home," she said, turning away to weep, for in the tolling of those bells there came to her no voice, whispering of the darkness, the desolation, and the sorrow there was in the home for which she so much mourned.

Thus the day wore on, and ere another week was gone Rose insisted upon a speedy removal to the seashore, notwithstanding it was so early in the season, for by this means she hoped that Maggie's health would be improved. Accordingly, Henry went once more to Worcester, ostensibly for money, but really to see if George Douglas would speak to him of Margaret. But George was in New York, they said; and somewhat disappointed, Henry went back to Leominster, where every thing was in readiness for their journey. Monday was fixed upon for their departure, and at an early hour Margaret looked back on what had been to her a second home, smiling faintly as Rose whispered to her cheerily, "I have a strong presentiment that somewhere in our travels we shall meet with Arthur Carrollton."

CHAPTER XXII.
The House of Mourning.

Come now over the hills to the westward. Come to the Hillsdale woods, to the stone house by the mill, where all the day long there is heard but one name, the servants breathing it softly and low, as if she who had borne it were dead, the sister, dim-eyed now, and paler faced, whispering it oft to herself, while the lady, so haughty and proud, repeats it again and again, shuddering as naught but the echoing walls reply to the heart-broken cry of "Margaret, Margaret, where are you now?"

Yes, there was mourning in that household—mourning for the lost one, the darling, the pet of them all.

Brightly had the sun risen on that June morning which brought to them their sorrow, while the birds in the tall forest trees caroled as gaily as if no storm cloud were hovering near. At an early hour Mr. Carrollton had arisen, thinking, as he looked forth from his window, "She will tell me all to-day," and smiling as he thought how easy and pleasant would be the task of winning her back to her olden gayety. Madam Conway, too, was unusually excited and very anxiously she listened for the first sound of Maggie's footsteps on the stairs.

"She sleeps late," she thought, when breakfast was announced, and taking her accustomed seat, she heard a servant "see if Margaret were ill."

"She is not there," was the report the girl brought back.

"Not there?" cried Mr. Carrollton. "Not there?" repeated Madam Conway, a shadowy foreboding of evil stealing over her. She seldom walks at this early hour, she continued, and rising, she went herself to Margaret's room.

Everything was in perfect order, the bed was undisturbed, the chamber empty, Margaret was gone, and on the dressing-table lay the fatal letter, telling why she went. At first Madam Conway did not see it; but it soon caught her eye, and tremblingly she opened it, reading but the first line, "I am going away forever."

Then a loud shriek rang through the silent room, penetrating at once to her side. With the letter still in her hand, and her face of a deathly hue, and her eyes flashing with fear, Madam Conway turned to him as he entered, saying: "Margaret has gone, left us forever, killed herself it may be—read; and she handed him the letter, herself bending eagerly forward to hear what he might say.

But she listened in vain. With lightning rapidity, Arthur Carrollton read what Mag had written—read that she, his idol, the chosen bride of his bosom, was the daughter of a servant, and the grandchild of old Hagar! And for this she had fled from his presence, fled because she knew of the mighty pride which now, in the first bitter

Nerves Are Exhausted

And nervous prostration or paralysis is creeping steadily upon you.

You hear of people suddenly falling victims of nervous prostration or some form of paralysis. But when you get all the facts of the case you find that they have had months or years of warning.

They haven't slept well. There has been frequent attacks of nervous headache. Digestion has failed. They have been irritable, easily worried and excited and have found memory and concentration failing.

Had they but known that these symptoms tell of exhausted nerves or had they realized their danger they would have restored the feeble, wasted nerves by use of such treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

This great restorative treatment cures by forming new, rich blood and by rebuilding the wasted nerve cells. No medicine is more certain to prove of lasting benefit to the system. 50 cents a box, 4 boxes for $2.50; at all dealers or Edmanon, Bates & Co., Toronto.

H.P. SAUCE

moment of his agony, did indeed rise up a barrier between himself and the beautiful girl he loved so well. Had she lain dead before him, dead in all her youthful beauty, he could have folded her in his arms, and then buried her from his sight, with a feeling of perfect happiness compared to that which he now felt.

"Oh, Maggie, my lost one, can it be?" he whispered to himself, and pressing his hand upon his chest, which heaved with a strong emotion, he staggered to a seat, while the perspiration stood in beaded drops upon his forehead, and around his lips.

"What is it, Mr. Carrollton?" "The something dreadful, sure," said Mrs. Jeffrey, appearing in the door, but Madam Conway motioned her away and tottering to his side, "Read it aloud to me—read."

The sound of her voice recalled his wandering mind, and covering his face with his hands, he moaned in anguish; then, growing suddenly calm, he snatched up the letter, which had fallen to the floor, and read it aloud, while Madam Conway, stupefied with horror, sank at his feet, and clasping her hands above her head, rocked to and fro, but made no word of comment. Far down the long page her thoughts were straying, and gathering up many by-gone scenes, which told her that what she heard was true.

"Yes, 'tis true," she groaned; and then, powerless to speak another word she laid her head upon a chair, while Mr. Carrollton, preferring to be alone sought the solitude of his own room where, unobserved, he could wrestle with his sorrow, and conquer his in-born pride, which whispered to him that a Carrollton must not wed a bride so far beneath him.

Only a moment, though, and then the love he bore for Maggie Miller rolled back upon him with an overwhelming power, while his better judgment with that love, came hand in hand pleading for the fair young girl, who now that he had lost her, seemed a thousand fold dearer than before. But he had not lost her; he would find her. She was Maggie Miller still to him, and though old Hagar's blood were in her veins, he would not give her up. This resolution once made, it could not be shaken, and when half an hour or more was passed, he walked with firm, unflinching footsteps back to the apartment where Madam Conway still sat upon the floor, her head resting upon the chair, and her frame convulsed with grief.

Prescription 'A.'

Is the one and only genuine preparation for the cure of Indigestion and Dyspepsia in all its forms.

It is quite a daily occurrence to hear a person say: "Oh, what a feeling of distress I have after meals, fullness of the stomach, heaviness and headache. I feel too tired to do anything. I have no heart to exert myself, and at times I care for nothing."

I often have a pain in the pit of the stomach after eating, that is (if I am able to eat). My heart beats rapidly on the slightest exertion, and I am just as tired when rising in the morning (even worse) than when retiring at night. I often awake in my sleep and imagine that I am going to suffocate, and very often afraid to go to sleep again. I have to take particular good care of what food I eat. All these symptoms make my life not worth living."

So, why do you insist on suffering from all these unnecessary symptoms when STAFFORD'S "Prescription 'A.'" will do the work.

This genuine preparation is manufactured by DR. F. STAFFORD & SON, St. John's, Nfld.

Price, small size, 25 cents, postage 5 cents extra. Large size, 50 cents, postage 10 cents extra.

Which Was Successful?

BY RUTH CAMERON.

Wants-to-be-cynic built it.

Molly, the stenographer lady, was much stirred up. So was the last open fire of the season, before which we were sitting. "That woman" had stirred up Molly, and Molly stirred up the fire, a perfectly good fire, too—she

"Well," continued Molly, "she said, 'I came to this city with no more training than your friend had and in just as tight a place, and no one helped me get my position.' Then, of course, I thought she was going to say how hard it was and how she'd like to make it easier for this girl, but she didn't. Instead she just sat there glaring at me, and finally she said again, 'I guess I had about as hard a time as any girl could have, and nobody ever helped me.' And then I realized that she meant that as a reason why she wouldn't help the girl, instead of why she would, and I said 'Oh!' and got up and came out. And WHAT do you think of that, big sister?"

"Did any one help you to get your position, Molly?" asked the lady-who-always-knows-somehow.

"Why, no," said Molly. "How could they? I didn't know any one. That's why I knew how it felt and wanted to help her."

Said the man-who-thinks, "Did I hear you call Miss Ellis successful?"

"Oh yes," said Molly, "she's terribly successful. Why, they say she gets at least thirty dollars a week."

"And still a failure," murmured the man-who-thinks half to himself.

"Why, what do you mean by that?" said Molly.

"He means," said the wants-to-be-cynic, quite forgetting his proper role—and that was especially nice of him for Molly in the course of her "stirring" story had quite spoiled his perfectly good fire—"He means that we have the really successful stenographer right here with us."

And no one disputed his interpretation.

Molly paused dramatically, but no one seemed inclined to hazard a guess.

Housework Drudgery!

Housework is drudgery for the weak woman. She brushes, dusts and scrubs, or is on her feet all day attending to the many details of the household, her back aching, her temples throbbing, nerves quivering under the stress of pain, possibly dizzy and feeling, "Sometimes rest in bed is not refreshing, because the poor tired nerves do not permit of refreshing sleep. The real need of weak, nervous women is satisfied by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and as Mrs. Briggs and others testify:

It Makes Weak Women Strong and Sick Women Well.
"This 'Prescription' removes the cause of women's weaknesses, cleanses the system, regulates the bowels, encourages the appetite and induces restful sleep."

Mrs. BRIGGS.

Dr. Pierce is perfectly willing to let every one know what his "Favorite Prescription" contains, a complete list of ingredients on the bottle-wrapper. Do not let any druggist persuade you that his unknown composition is "just as good" in order that he may make a bigger profit.

MRS. BRIGGS, of 520 N. Washington St., Delphos, Ohio, writes: "Having taken your 'Favorite Prescription' for a bad case of intestinal disease and constipation with which I was almost unable to do anything, I think I am safe in saying that there are no remedies like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and his 'Purifying Lotion Tablets.' I am now enjoying the best of health, and thank Dr. Pierce for his wonderful medicines which have done me a world of good."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate liver and bowels.

Fads and Fashions.

An essential note in millinery is the lightness of its trimming. One rich feather of a garland of flowers suffices.

With the tailor-made suits and dresses, short mannish gloves with stitche backs are worn almost exclusively.

Cleverly arranged panniers produce a quaint, graceful effect upon the party frocks fashioned of sheer materials.

Another recent development in the world of fashion is the wearing of black patent leather slippers with white hosiery.

Dark, rich wine colors, dun, brown, mauves, taupe, dull blues—all are appropriate colors for the older matrons' gowns.

Paris advocates metal brocade slippers for evening wear. Black and gold and black and silver are the favorite combinations.

Slippers in rich shades of dark

As a Cure for Whooping Cough

A medicine that will cure whooping cough can certainly be relied upon to overcome all ordinary coughs and colds. This is about the severest test, and one to which Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine has frequently been put with the most satisfactory results.

Mrs. John Chesney, Innerkip, Ont., writes: "We have used a dozen bottles of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. It cured my little girl of whooping cough when the doctor had given her up, and since then we always keep it in the house as a treatment for coughs and colds. It is the best medicine we ever used."

In spite of imitations and substitutes the sales of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine keep right on increasing, and this, we believe, the most substantial evidence that can be offered as to the reliability of this well-known medicine as a cure for croup, bronchitis, whooping cough and kindred ailments; 25 cents a bottle, at all dealers, or Edmanon, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

Who Runs May Read, "Australia."

Writing in the "Book Monthly" for March on "Reading in Australia," Katharine S. Prichard says it is easier to get a classic of English literature in the backwoods of Australia than in many a rural district of England. Almost every township in Australia, we are told, has its free library, mechanics' institute, or book exchange of some sort. The capital of each State has its public library, and the State Parliaments make annual grants to trustees who manage these libraries. A reference library is the main feature, and it is open to all comers, while lending libraries have been established as adjuncts, permitting readers to take away books. The travelling library is said to have originated in Australia, the trustees of the Melbourne Public Library being the authors of it. Cases of books containing 300 volumes are sent to remote townships, and are changed at the end of each year. Notwithstanding the difficulties of distance, which make frequent access to books almost impossible, it is seldom that a hut in the bush or in the most desolate part of the back-country is without its store of books and means of exchanging them. The schoolhouses run rural libraries to which the country folk subscribe, and these are helped by loans from the cities and near townships. In addition to the State, municipal and co-operative libraries, there are all manner of smaller circulating libraries and book clubs, and the appetite for books, thus fostered, is in the end appeased by the bookshops. Cole's Book Arcade at Melbourne is said to be the most wonderful bookshop in the world. All day long people linger among the books, turning them over and over reading them. No one is asked to buy, and other bookshoppers have followed the example of Mr. Cole by allowing people to browse among their books at will.

LAY PREACHERS.

By WALT MASON.

Oh, my weary heart is reaching for peace, the sure and true, for so many men are preaching that I don't know what to do! Tired and stricken, I determine some fat novel to peruse, and the book turns out a sermon, and my soul contracts the blues. Worn by worldly strife and boundless to the show I go and find that the actors are expounding doctrines that disturb my mind. And the daily prints are screeching sermons on the nation's crimes; and the magazines are preaching on the evils of the time; all the doctors are discussing health rules till they bring the tears, and the scientists are fussing, pounding texts into our ears. Every one is bent on teaching, teaching us with voice and tongue; every one is bent on preaching till the last lone dog is hung. It would make the world less solemn, make our journey far more nice, if we once could read a column that contains no good advice; if the forum and the writer in the prints, wouldn't nag the folks and bore 'em with a string of Helpful Hints.

Will Play.

It is not correct that the Feildians will not enter a football team in the League this year as stated by a contemporary. The "Old Boys" are as staunch and loyal as ever to their Alma Mater and will have to be reckoned with for championship honors. The club will hold its annual meeting tomorrow night when the season's officers will be elected. All old Feildians supporters should make an effort to be present.

Farewell Performance

The Selman Stock Company gave their farewell performance, at the Casino Theatre last night with an excellent production of "David Garrick" after which the troupe disbanded. During their sojourn here the Selman Company's plays—although not receiving the patronage they deserved—delighted the theatre loving public. Misses Arden, Irving and MacKenzie and Messrs. J. Selman, H. Selman and P. S. Barrett will remain here to take part in the vaudeville shows, opening on Monday evening next, and the remainder of the company leaves by this evening's express for New York.

A Titanic Claim.

An incident of the Recent Disaster. Another incident in connection with the loss of the Titanic which will bring some degree of comfort to the afflicted widow, and bring home to many the wisdom of prying against the uncertain, is the fact that Mrs. Frank H. Mayberry, of Moose Jaw, Sask., whose husband lost his life on the Titanic, was totally unaware of her husband having taken out a ten thousand dollar policy prior to their going to England, and in her favor. It was only through the efforts of the company in locating Mrs. Mayberry that she was first made aware of the fact that ten thousand dollars was lying to her credit, at the head office of the Railway Passengers' Assurance Company at 64 Cornhill, London, Eng. This is only one of the many losses now being paid by the company as a result of the above disaster. The fact that the Railway Passengers have paid out over thirty-two millions in claims, and that ample funds are provided for such catastrophes, fitly illustrates the importance of insuring in a company granting adequate security to meet such contingencies. The outlook for the lobster fishery in Placentia Bay is not at all bright and less of the crustacean has been caught this year to date than for many seasons past. If the present scarcity of lobsters in the Bay continues it will be the shortest pack in Placentia Bay for many years.

MOLASSES SCARCE.—Though such heavy consignments of molasses have come to port, during the past month there has been such a drain on it, owing to fishery supplying that it is now scarce, and other shipments are now anxiously awaited. It advanced 2 cents on the gallon Tuesday.

REGATTA TALK.—The Postal officials at this season's Regatta will row the Guard in the Amateur race, and a fine team they have selected. Already the sports are talking Regatta, and with the advent of another new boat, this season's races promises to be one of the best on record.

STRONGLY OBJECTED TO.—The men who were preaching down north and were so strongly objected to last year, are now conducting their peculiar services at Dildo and neighborhood. They baptize by immersion, and people have been induced to go into the water at a season when such proceedings is highly dangerous to health. The men are the objects of much hostile attention.

THE TANNERS' MEETING.—The employees of the different tanneries, tanners and curriers, met last night at the rooms of the L. S. P. U., a large number being present. The matter of forming a Union was discussed and all were in favor of such a step. A committee was nominated to see Hon. M. P. Gibbs in the matter of inauguration, and another meeting will be held next week.

Well Kept Park.

Victoria Park, in the West End, is now putting on the vernal bloom for which it is noted at this season of the year. Several of the plots show early flowers and the new beds have been beautified and trimmed and are being planted with flowers of variegated kinds. The walks are beautifully gravelled, the seats and band stand painted, and the new grass springing up gives an emerald sheen to the surroundings. A handsome new gate is being placed in the centre of the park for another entrance from Water Street. Its excellent condition is due to the care and skill of the caretaker, Mr. John Ryan, who is a horticulturalist and gardener of rare ability.

Doctor Advised Her to Take Them.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS CURED MRS. BELLIVEAU'S BRIGHT'S DISEASE.
Now she can do any kind of work—why Dodd's Kidney Pills are so popular.

Pre Den Haut, Westmoreland Co., N. B., May 15. (Special).—It is becoming a proverb in New Brunswick that no place is too small to furnish at least one person who owes his or her good health to Dodd's Kidney Pills. And this place is no exception to the rule. Mrs. Dominique J. Belliveau, a well known and highly respected resident says in an interview: "I took Dodd's Kidney Pills on the advice of my doctor for Bright's Disease, and I am glad to say three boxes cured me completely. I can do all kinds of work now. I always keep Dodd's Kidney Pills in the house in case we might need them."

Sometimes you wonder why people cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills are so enthusiastic in their praises of them. The reason is that they strike right at the root of ill-health. Dodd's Kidney Pills cure the Kidneys. That means that all impurities are strained out of the blood. It means pure blood, and pure blood means good health all over the body. Good health means good spirits; hence the enthusiasm.

Child's Escape.

A little girl named Hannahford, daughter of the late J. Hannahford, druggist, narrowly escaped being killed while playing on the South Side Road yesterday. The wheel of a heavy taxicab passed over her hand, and but for the expert manœuvres which the driver handled the machine it would have gone over the little one and crushed the life out of her. Her hand was severely crushed. Doctor Campbell treated her.

Indigestion is Ended Forever.

No Heartburn, Gas, Dypesia or Headache five minutes later. Nothing will remain undigested or sour on your stomach if you will take a little Diapiesin occasionally. This powerful digestive and antacid, though as harmless and pleasant as candy, will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you can eat.

Eat what your stomach craves without the slightest fear of Indigestion or that you will be bothered with sour risings, Belching, Gas on Stomach, Heartburn, Headaches from stomach, Nausea, Bad Breath, Water Brash or a feeling like you had swallowed a lump of lead, or other disagreeable miseries. Should you be suffering now from any stomach disorder you can get relief within five minutes.

If you will get from your pharmacist a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin you could always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and your meals would taste good, because you would know there would be no Indigestion or Sleepless nights or Headache or Stomach misery all the next day; and besides, you would not need laxatives or liver pills, to keep your stomach and bowels clear and fresh.

Pape's Diapiesin can be obtained from your druggist, and contains more than sufficient to thoroughly cure the worst case of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. There is nothing better for Gas on the Stomach or sour odors from the Stomach or to cure a Stomach Headache.

You couldn't keep a handier or more useful article in the house.

Mr. Bennett and City Improvement.

We turned to the official Assembly report of the speech of Mr. Bennett, M. H. A., on the bill to amend the Municipal Act, with interest, because of Mr. Bennett's experience in City Council work, and his opportunities to judge how municipal affairs are conducted elsewhere. We cordially agree with his view that the time is rapidly approaching when the best interests of the community demand a material enlargement of the powers of Municipal Government. Mr. Bennett strikes the keynote in his exhortation for the display of greater public interest in municipal matters. He said:—

"I think the citizens of St. John's have not been sufficiently active. I do not think they are awake to their responsibilities. I do not think our leading citizens have taken sufficient interest in civic affairs. After all the civic affairs should be second only to the private affairs of the individual citizens. Indeed the civic affairs are the private affairs of the citizens, who are anxious to have their homes comfortable and attractive and everything desirable. But while active in our private affairs we have no public spirit about the affairs of the city."

As to what is needed Mr. Bennett declared:—

"I have always held that St. John's is to-day a city that requires an improved condition both as regards its sanitary arrangements and general upkeep and care of the city. Comparing St. John's with other cities of similar size, I am afraid the comparison is very bad as far as we are concerned."

Mr. Bennett was especially emphatic on the desirability of extending the paving of Water Street at both ends, and of paving Duckworth Street and of the cross-street connecting the latter with Water Street. He said there was plenty of paving material in the suburbs of the city. In reference to this matter, we would suggest that while such material would do well for the foundation of the street pavements, it is worthy of consideration, whether the surface layer would not be of material that would render the traffic practically noiseless.

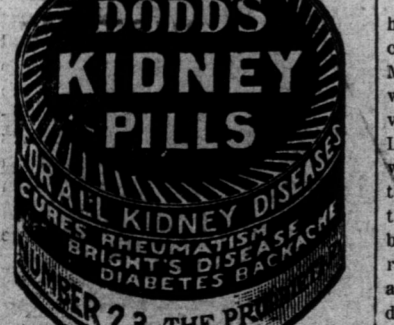

The experience with the hard stone sets of Water Street, with the almost intolerable noise of the traffic passing over it, should act as a warning to the City Fathers.

As to the financial aspects of such civic improvements, Mr. Bennett contends that the present sanitary staff would be sufficient to look after the sanitation and the general clean-up. But he appreciates that it will be necessary to have additional money for these improvements.

His remarks were not made in the spirit of petty fault-finding. He paid a tribute to the advances made in civic administration since the passing of the present Municipal Act, and points to the fact that the City now pays regularly the interest on the civic debt and has done a great work in establishing the new water service. Yet he holds there is room for reform. Here are his words:—

"With the revenue the Council have at their disposal I have no doubt they are doing the best they can, but, sir, that revenue is yearly increasing, and I question very much whether the general condition of affairs is improving proportionately with the revenue."

ENDORSED BY QUEBEC.

Special Evening Telegram.

MONTREAL, To-Day.

The Quebec Provincial elections resulted in the return of the Gouin Government by an increased majority over that which had last night. By a Redistribution Act passed last session of the legislature, seven new seats were added. While the Opposition captured two of these, it lost two others, thus making a net gain in the Liberal majority of the new house of 7. All members of the cabinet were re-elected, as was Mr. Teller, Opposition Leader and his chief lieutenants. The net result stands: Liberals, 56; Conservatives, 18; Doubtful, 4; Labor, 2; yet to be elected 4; total 84.

Proclaimed King of Denmark.

Special to Evening Telegram.

COPENHAGEN, To-Day.

Christian was proclaimed King of Denmark before a large concourse of people in front of the Palace. The Premier appeared on the balcony of the Palace and announced the death of King Frederick. He then proclaimed Christian X his successor, wishing the new King long life. Enthusiastic cheering broke out as the new monarch, in the uniform of the Royal Guards, stepped on to the balcony. In a brief speech he paid a tribute to his father and pointed out the difficulties of succeeding such a ruler and concluded with "May God give me strength to rule my dear old country and may it live forever." In response to cheers of the people, King Christian and Queen Alexandra with their two sons appeared again and again. The scene was an inspiring one and closed with the singing of the National Anthem. King Christian was born on the 26th of September, 1870, and is now in his forty second year. He married Princess Alexandra of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, and has two sons. He is a cousin of King George, being nephew of Queen Alexandra.

Minister Praised Zam-Buk.

TELLS HOW IT CURED HIS WIFE'S BAD SORE.

When Everything Else Had Failed, Rev. Henry J. Munton, of Blackfalds, Alta., writes: "My wife had a very bad sore foot, which it seemed impossible to get anything to heal. The sore would heal to a certain point and then fester again, and so on. I procured a box of Zam-Buk, and after persevering with this herbal balm for some time the sore was completely healed."

"We were so grateful for this cure, and Zam-Buk acted so differently to any other of the numerous remedies we had tried that I thought you ought to know of this case. I have since recommended Zam-Buk to several of my parishioners, and it always gives satisfaction."

Another instance in which Zam-Buk proved of unequalled value is told by Mr. N. L. Gerry, of Brandon, Man. He says: "I had my left foot run over by a wagon loaded with wheat. The foot was very badly crushed, and my little toe and the next toe were laid open. I applied Zam-Buk, and only had to miss work for two days. Zam-Buk healed the wound so quickly that on the third day I was able to put on my boot and walk to my work. In a very short time my toes were quite healed, and the foot is now as sound as ever, thanks to Zam-Buk."

Just as good for chronic sores, ulcers, piles, blood poison, burns, scalds, eruptions, eczema and all skin injuries and diseases. 50c. box at all druggists and stores, or Zam-Buk Co., St. John's, Nfld. Try Zam-Buk Soap, too, 25c. per tablet.

From Capt. Wm. Carroll who arrived here by last night's train from Placentia, we learn that the Cape St. Mary's fishery has opened this season with prospects of a highly successful voyage. The first boat arrived at Little Placentia and Fox Hr. yesterday with good fares and the remarkable thing is, that for such an early season the fish are all fine, large and plump, being evidently well fed. There are all round now a fleet of about 300 boats at the Cape and it is hopeful they will do well. Tuesday the dories fishing on the Cape Shore did excellently getting 2 and 3 qts. each. Herring plentiful at N. E. Arm, Fox Hr. and Sound Reach.

The Pace That Kills.

"You're ten minutes late. Can you make it by nine? The engine you drive Is the best on the line. Don't spare any coal. A little more steam Will send you fast speeding O'er mountain and stream."

"The rails may be weak. But you've got to make time. So fly round the curves And forget it's a crime. It's speed we are after. For speed is what pays. And railroad directors Won't stand for delays."

The engineer listens With fire in his eye; The orders are issued. And he must comply. He springs to the throttle And opens it wide. The bell clangs a warning. And onward they glide.

Onward o'er mountains. O'er rivers and plains. The fast speeding engine A few minutes gains. The towns that loom up Soon are left far behind. While axles grow hot From the merciless grind.

A jar, then a crash. Then a hissing of steam. The train leaves the tracks And is now in the stream; The big, snorting monster. With fire in its breath. Slows up at a signal— The signal of DEATH!

A Peculiar Discovery.

Utensils Found Believed to Have Been Used by Pirates. Will It Lead to Discovery of Treasure?

A curious discovery was made on the Southern Shore early in the month, a discovery which may bring to light the hidden practical treasures which are firmly believed by many to lay buried in that section of the Island. It appears that two brothers named Batcock were out scouring the woods miles from the settlement of McBride, so a correspondent writes us, when one of them tripped over a mound under which he found some peculiarly shaped utensils. These consisted of plates and drinking cups but of a make the like of which none had before seen. The articles are rounded but made of pewter and are curiously wrought and carved. One or two drinking cups or mugs were found, and though dulled with age and considerably worn they are still serviceable if it were necessary to use them. There is a tradition about this section that Capt. Kidd's treasure is buried there, and the hope is now entertained that exploration of the spot where the plates, etc., were found will lead to interesting finds and of a character which will afford great satisfaction to seekers in this direction.

Will Make Hair Grow

Every up-to-date woman should have radiant hair. There are thousands of women with harsh, faded, characterless hair, who do not try to improve it. In England and Paris women take pride in having beautiful hair. Every Canadian woman can have lustrous and luxuriant hair by using SALVIA, the Great American Sage Hair Tonic. McMurdo & Co. sells a large bottle for 50 cents, and guarantees it to banish Dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in ten days, or money back.

A Triumph of Patience.

Venice, May 8.—The Campanile stands to-day, ten years after its collapse, an exact replica to all external appearances of its former self, but within there is a strange mingling of the old and the new. Right through the centre of the mighty shaft there runs to-day a well appointed passenger elevator. The cost of reconstructing the Campanile has been $440,000. In the building of the brick shell 4,204,000 bricks were used. In addition to these 1,520 meters of new and thirty-five of old Istrian stone were employed. The total weight of the structure is 12,970,000 kilograms. These figures convey little idea of the enormous labor, the ingenuity, artistic skill and mechanical dexterity devoted to the work. The old Campanile was built in part of indifferent material. The superstructure was far too heavy for the foundations and the masonry. The vibration of the five colossal bronze bells was a constant danger to the stability of the building.

Last evening just before dark Constables O'Neill and Blundon found an unfortunate drunk out at the margin of Knowledge's upper wharf lying down asleep. It was fortunate he was discovered. The men brought him to the station.

SUMMER APPAREL

Is the main topic of the day, and so many interesting items are here.

UNDER MUSLINS,
MUSLIN BLOUSES,
LINEN SHIRT WAISTS,
LAWN DRESSES,
VOILE DRESSES,
Child's PRINT DRESSES.

THIS IS A
New Shipment

Which came to hand per S.S. "Florizel," all of AMERICAN MAKE, and you will find Prices are no less attractive than the goods.

An attractive waist is one of the essentials of an attractive woman, and the woman of to-day has many pretty waists to give her pleasure and improve her appearance.

OUR UNDER MUSLINS

for Ladies are pretty enough to satisfy anyone. The garments are well made—some have elaborate trimmings; some plain, but they are

ALL UNUSUALLY NICE

and are unquestionably destined to be popular. SEE THEM while the assortment is unbroken.

Marshall Bros.

Finished Course.

Mr. Gordon Boone arrived in the city a few days ago from Canada where he has finished his course in Electrical Engineering. He is on a visit to his mother, who is ill. He leaves again by the S. S. Florizel en route to Peterboro, Ontario, where he has secured a position in one of the leading engineering establishments. Gordon is well-known here among our athletes, who will be pleased to hear of him doing well.

Tobasco Here.

The Furness Liner Tobasco, Capt. Yetmans, arrived from Liverpool at 10 o'clock last night. The passage took nine days. Favourable weather was met until yesterday morning when fog was run into. Several icebergs were sighted drifting south. The Tobasco brought 10 bags of mail and 800 tons of cargo.

Dancing at 93.

At the wedding of her granddaughter, Miss L. Norris, which took place at the Cove Road last night, old Mrs. Walsh, a woman in her 93rd year, led off in a set of quadrilles, and danced as sprightly as the best of them. Though so very old she enjoys good health and can yet perform her household duties.

Purchased New Vessel.

Captain Charles McConey, who left here for Liverpool recently purchased the barque Earlsall for Job Bros. She is now at Alderney in the Channel Islands, and leaves soon for Galis to load salt for this port. Capt. McConey goes in command of the new vessel which will be used in the South American fish trade.

Here and There.

FIRST AID LECTURES.—The office employees of Harvey & Company heard a lecture on "First Aid" in the British Hall last night.

FLORIZEL SAILS.—The S. S. Florizel, Capt. Smith, sails at 6 o'clock this evening for Halifax and New York, taking 3,500 qtls. of fish, 100 casks of oil and as passengers, F. H. Plumb and 20 in steerage.

THE CHURCHILL ESTATE.—The claimants to the Churchill Estate held a private meeting in the basement of the British Hall last night. Over twenty people attended. Some important documents were submitted and discussed.

The S. S. Bostic has been chartered by the Reid Nfld. Company to make the first trip on the Labrador, commencing the first week in June, and she is now being put in readiness. Capt. George Barbour will likely go only one trip and on her return only the one trip on her return and will repair for the Hudson Bay work.

WOMAN INJURED.—This forenoon an elderly woman, while crossing Duckworth Street from the Government Bank fell in a drain which was dug out by Council employees. She severely cut the palm of her right hand and was brought to a nearby doctor's surgery for treatment.

Large Cargo.

The Minnie which sailed to-day took 4,800 packages of fish shipped by A. Goodridge & Sons, Ltd. The ship sailed for Bahia; Captain Wakeham is in command.

The Chronicle said yesterday that this vessel had left Bahia for this port. Strange what queer matter our E. C. sometimes serves up.

Peers Ancestors Bother Him.

London, May 8.—Lord Hugh Cecil, who is not unused to the limelight, is in an unpleasant way this week. He denounced in the House of Commons the Welsh disestablishment bill as a Socialism. Lloyd George retorted that the charge came will ill-grace from the scion of a family which had profited by the spoliation of the church during the reign of Henry VIII. This grieved Lord Hugh Cecil, who denied the imputation applied to him.

Suddenly up pops Prof. Pollard in a letter to the Times asking what Lord Hugh Cecil means. The professor gives a list of property, of monasteries confiscated with their contents by King Henry VIII and given to Lord Burghley, one of Lord Hugh Cecil's ancestors. He cites the Hatfield estate as a notable instance, and Lord Hugh Cecil comes down from his perch. He says he only meant that the result of property taken from the church 200 years ago was no bar to a protest against modern spoliation—and the whole country laughs.

Frederick George Kellaway, Liberal M. P. for Bedford, has given notice of the question in the House of Commons: "Does Lord Hugh Cecil intend to compensate the church for lands wrested from the church."

Light, Warmth and Food.

These three words embrace the most urgent necessities of life, and it is an extraordinary thing that in each case our thoughts turn to Gas; this, after all, is but natural. We want Light, gas gives us the best, cheapest, and healthiest artificial light known. Again, we want Warmth, and the gas fire is at hand to give it in its best form; and lastly, we must have Food, and here the gas cooker never fails us. All this is absolutely true, as we have shown over and over again.

If, however, any of our customers are in the least doubtful on any of these points, we cordially invite them to consult us. By the meantime our advice is to get good burners and buy mantles of well-known makes, to use modern gas fires and cookers, and, above all, to keep your gas appliances (whether old or new) in good order, for in this is the true secret of efficiency and complete satisfaction.

Here and There.

UNLOADING COAL.—The S. S. Nasopie is now at Placentia discharging a cargo of coal. When she finishes she will return to Sydney for another cargo.

PATIENT ARRIVES.—Constable Benson arrived by the shore train from Carbonear in charge of a man who was brought to the Lunatic Asylum on arrival.

ARM AMPUTATED.—Mr. Wm. Hibbs of Portugal Cove, who is 76 years old, had his left arm amputated about 5 inches from the shoulder in the hospital to-day. He is doing very well after the terrible ordeal.

PROPERTY SOLD.—The Jackman property on New Gower Street was sold at 12.30 p.m. to-day. Mr. W. J. Ellis the Mayor, being the purchaser. Mr. P. C. O'Driscoll was the auctioneer, and the purchase price, was $4,250.

FISHERY NEWS.—The first fish was caught yesterday on the trawls at Western Bay. The "Silver Loretto" arrived here last night, from Grate's Cove reports that Wm. Horwood took the first cod in a trap at Daniel's Cove Tuesday. The fish were of nice size.

Large Local Pulp Mill

TO BE BUILT BY HORWOOD LUMBER CO. AT CAMPBELLTON — CAPACITY, 100,000 TONS—COSTS $150,000.

This evening by the express Mr. W. H. Horwood, principal of the Horwood Lumber Co., leaves for Campbellton, taking two foremen with him to start the initial work of building a pulp mill owned and controlled by the company there. The Telegram hearing of the matter to-day, interviewed Mr. Horwood, and he stated that the main mill and subsidiary buildings will be of concrete, there will be a large concrete dam, and the works will be of the most substantial kind possible. A shipping pier 300 feet in length will be built 1,000 feet from the grinders. The capacity of the mill will be 100,000 tons of pulp yearly, and the cost between $150,000 and $200,000. At a later date we will give more particulars. We congratulate the Horwood people on their push and enterprise and wish them every success in their new venture. An expert pulp manufacturer will be brought from Sweden for the mill.

McMurdo's Store News.

THURSDAY, May 16, '12. We have just opened our stock of Sutton's first-class Seed Potatoes. White City, the very fine new potato, sells for 15c. a pound this year; Harbinger, 10c. a pound; Gladiator (a new one in Newfoundland), 15c. a pound. All these are very fine, carefully selected potatoes; and Sutton's Potatoes have always done well in this country. We look for a ready sale for them.

Also received, Dahlias, $2.40 a doz., 25c. each; Begonias, $1.60 doz., 15c. each; Gladioli, $1.20 doz., 15c. each. All of Sutton's finest kinds.

Coastal Boats.

The Clyde arrived at Lewisporte at 4.50 p.m. yesterday.

The Dundee arrived at Port Blandford at 4.35 p.m. yesterday.

The Ethie arrived at Clarendville at 6.30 p.m. yesterday.

The Home is yet north of Bonne Bay.

The Invermore leaves Port aux Basques on arrival of the West bound express.

The Glencoe left Placentia at 4 a.m. to-day with these passengers:—R. G. Pike, J. E. Lake, M. Rose, P. Lambert, J. Coady, M. Coady, E. Skinner, A. Neville, Mr. and Mrs. Simms and 9 children and 6 second class.

BOWING SHIPS. The Portia left Sydney at noon to-day.

The Prospero left King's Cove at 9.15 a.m. to-day.

Barely Escaped

A few nights ago as Mr. Joseph Wells, engineer of Horwood's gasoline launch, was stepping ashore from her after being at work on her engines, missed his footing and went overboard. He had got the launch ready for Dog Bay and had 40 lbs. of parts and pieces of machinery in his pockets. He had barely struck the water when Mr. S. Best was after him and succeeded in drawing him in to the boat. Had Mr. Best not been near, Wells would have been drowned quickly with such a weight on him.

Here and There.

SHE GOES WEST.—The schr. R. Fabricius which arrived here yesterday with salt goes up to the Westward and will load fish for Europe.

SCHR. ARRIVES.—The schr. Arthur M. White arrived to-day from Carbonear in ballast to the Horwood Lumber Co. She will load lumber here.

FOR HUDSON'S BAY.—We learn to-day that Capt. Bob Bartlett, of Arctic fame, will this summer go to Hudson's Bay conducting a scientific and exploring expedition in that region. The gentlemen who will accompany him will be all Canadians.

Mr. C. Lester this morning performed quite a feat which was witnessed by a number of people. By the use of horses, rollers and a gang of men he removed a house, occupied by Taxidermist Ellis, up Springdale Street, a distance of a hundred yards.

DIED.—Suddenly, Elizabeth, wife of Charles Guzzwell, leaving a daughter, two sons, husband, father and two sisters to mourn their sad loss. Funeral Friday, 2.30 p.m., from her mother-in-law's residence, 12 Convent Square.

Yesterday morning, 15th inst., after a brief illness, Margaret Walton, relict of the late James M. Thompson, aged 94 years. Funeral on to-morrow, Friday, at 3 p.m., from the residence of her son, Charles R. Thomson, Water St. West. Friends will please accept this, the only intimation.

It is unequalled for office use. Being immensely stronger than gums or pastes, a much smaller quantity is required. It replaces glues and cements in the manufacture of small fancy articles.

The general uses of SECCOTINE are too numerous to mention. A tube goes a very long way, it requires no heating or other preparation; keeps for years, and is always liquid and ready. It sticks, binds and cements all articles of all materials.

Cable News.

Special to Evening Telegram.
LONDON, This Morning.

In the Titanic inquiry yesterday, Charles Grove, third officer of the Californian, on watch when the vessel now called the ship of mystery was first sighted the night of the catastrophe, was called to the stand. He testified that he told the captain of the Californian that the vessel was a passenger steamer, but the captain thought otherwise. He also said that at 11.40 on the fatal night, almost at the moment when the Titanic struck the iceberg, lights of a steamer which he was watching from the bridge of the Californian were shut out. He believed the altering of the steamer's course two points to port would account for this. It will be remembered that some members of the crew of the Titanic, in their evidence, said that when the vessel struck her helm was put hard to starboard, and that the Titanic immediately answered, swinging two points to port. Grove also said the steamer he saw had two masthead lights, which gives further evidence that it was a passenger steamer. When first sighted by the Californian, Grove reported to the captain, who came on the bridge. He tried to signal her with the Morse lamp but failed, and the captain said she did not look like a passenger steamer. Grove replied: "It is, sir; but she has put out her lights." The captain then said the only passenger steamer in the vicinity was the Titanic. Grove further testified that he also told second officer Herbert Stone, who relieved him, that the vessel was a passenger steamer, and that she had shut off her lights at 11.40. At the time it was his impression that the lights had been put out, which is generally done about that time, but after reflection he concluded that the lights had been shut off by the steamer changing her course. When called next morning and told the Titanic had gone down, he went to Stone's room, who told him he had seen rockets sent up during his watch. Lord Mersey: "My impression is that when Stone said that he believed the rockets were from the Titanic. Do you believe the steamer you saw was the Titanic?" Grove: "After what I have heard since, I am decidedly of that opinion."

Rambling Notes for 1911

BY I. C. MORRIS.

CHAPTER XII. — YET ANOTHER TYPE OF GIRL.

But the domestic maid was not the only representative of female help that we interviewed. We have met many, and for the information of any who may be interested we will give the following illustration:
Among the many that one rubs up against in travelling there is sure to be found some who are ever ready to confide their views to their fellow-passengers, and speak in confidence of their hopes and prospects. And so with the lady in question. We met her amid the sunshine of life, and felt proud to form the acquaintance of such a fair daughter of Terra Nova. Her home is in one of our principal northern settlements, but she had made up her mind to go to Montreal. On questioning her more closely, the conversation resolved itself into something like the following dialogue:
"Have you ever been to Montreal before?"
"No. I have never been away from our own country, but I sometimes pay a visit to St. John's."
"Do you like St. John's?"
"Yes, very well indeed, and I think I should certainly like to reside there."
"Then why not try it for a while?"
"For the simple reason that I could not get any means of supporting myself there."
"Did you seek for any particular branch of employment?"
"Yes; I tried for a position in some of the Water Street stores, but the only offer I got was at one of the stationery stores, and the wages which were offered were too small."
"Perhaps you were looking for too much wages and over-estimated your value as a beginner."
"No; I did not expect big pay, but I did expect fair pay."
"Fair pay?"
"Yes, sir; fair pay."
"What pay were you really offered?"
"Six dollars and a half a month."
"That of course meant your board and lodging and six dollars cash?"
"Oh, no, sir; not at all. You make a mistake."
"Are you certain that it was six dollars or sixteen dollars?"
"Positive it was six."
"So you did not accept the position?"
"No, sir; I did not."
"So you are going away, then?"
"Yes, sir."
"How old are you?"

"Twenty-three."
"And you seem to be well educated, and well adapted to attend shop?"
"My education is fairly good; but what is the use of it, or what is the benefit of it, when such small pay is offered for our work. If that is all that St. John's can offer me, then I must seek my future elsewhere."
She did so, and who could blame her?

The experience of this young lady may appear extreme; but it is hard fact all the same, and whilst her loss to her country is to be regretted, her pluck and independence are to be admired.
Every shop, or shopkeeper, can make their own scale of wages, but if it really be that there is to-day in this city of St. John's, on such a thoroughfare as Water Street, a store offering, or giving any of its lady assistants such a small return for their work as this young woman was offered, then in the name of all that is fair and reasonable, in the name of common British fair play, in the name of humanity, and in the name of womanhood itself, we ask that from this date the wrong be righted and the pay be doubled.

What of our railways, and our expansion, and our future, if we cannot do better for our children? A country's best asset is its people, and its real wealth is its peasantry. We have lost too many of our people; hence we ask for them a better chance at home. Newfoundland is as good as the average country to which many of our people go, and should long ere this date have passed the million mile post in her population.

Where is this wave of emigration?

to end, and why so much of it? Are we doing our best for our sons and daughters? Are we really considering these things, or are we simply overlooking them, and letting matters drift along irrespective of our country or its welfare? Every young man that leaves our shores is a direct loss to us, and every young woman that goes leaves us so much the poorer.
There is room for improvement. There is something wrong. What is it? Can it be remedied? We answer yes. The adoption of the Golden Rule will solve the problem.

All You Need is a Cascaret To-Night

No Sick Headache, Bilious Stomach, Coated Tongue or Constipated Bowels by Morning.

Turn the rascals out—the headache, the biliousness, the indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and foul gas—turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascarets.
Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach.
Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse and regulate your stomach; remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and that misery-making gas; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out of the system all the decomposed waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels. Then you will feel great.
A Cascaret to-night will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Children love to take Cascarets because they taste good—never gripe or sicken.

Whitbourne Notes.

There left this morning for Ocean Pond Geo. Simmons, Wm. Barrett, Roy St. Clair Jones, Richard Brown, P. Wall and Herbert Jones. These young men will be engaged driving logs for L. H. Simmons, of this place. They seemed to be very gay going away this morning; anyway we hope they will have a good time and we also hope they will have a prosperous voyage. Would also like to say that one of our friends in the person of Mrs. M. A. Mercer has returned from Sydney after spending the winter there. Mrs. Mercer was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Butler and child who is here on two months vacation. May 14th, 1912.

VIII.—INDUSTRIAL DEMANDS.

The collective ownership of all industries which are organized on a National scale and in which competition has virtually ceased to exist.

As Carlyle says, when two millions of one's brother men sit in work-houses (in England), and five millions as insolently said "rejoice in potatoes" there are various things that must be begun, let them end where they can.

That the business world itself has been preparing the way for national control in many industries is quite easy to see.

Mr. Smith, say, starts making pens; his neighbour, Mr. Brown, in a short while also starts a pen factory.

Mr. S. sees that competition might injure his profits, so he and Mr. Brown form a firm. Other firms spring up and Messrs. Smith and Brown call in Jones and Robinson and form a joint stock company. But still competitors grow and Mr. Smith makes his final coup and forms a Trust, and then we betide any company that dares to compete with it. You must either be led by the Trust or "Bust!" And Rockefeller, Morgan, Carnegie and all the brains of the Trusts realize the advantage of co-operation over competition. They know that when there were many companies, each pushing their own goods against their rivals' goods that the cost of "getting the market" in the shape of advertising and salesmen was enormous and as a matter of fact in a few industries in the States in which competition has been diminished an economy of $189,000,000 was estimated to have been effected in the employment of salesmen alone. The amount of money which is spent in these devices to "get the market" was up into the billions, and the consumer has to pay it. The Trusts realize this and to a great extent save advertising and highly-paid travellers.

Now if this economy were devoted to the welfare of its employees and the reduction of the cost of the commodity to the consumer, well and good, but it is not so. Read the sworn testimony of H. O. Havemeyer, President of Sugar Trust, before the Industrial Commission, U. S. A.:

Question.—Was it your policy to make as much profit out of the consumer as you possibly could?

Answer.—Consistent with business methods.

Question.—Your idea is that your organization, the American Sugar Refining Co., will if it can get the maximum profit out of its business from the consumer. Is it your policy to crush out all competition if possible?

Answer.—The policy of the Company is to maintain and protect its trade, and if it resulted in crushing a competitor it is no concern of the Company; if he gets in the press, that is his affair, not ours. We would do it by lowering prices.

Question.—And if the Sugar Refining Company should suppress all competition, all opposition, you would then seek to get out of the public and consumer the largest amount of profit consistent with your idea of business principles?

Answer.—Precisely.

A Trust then is an organization of an industry by one or a few men strong enough to suppress competition and bleed the consumer. And everyone who reads this feels by the weight of his pocket book how hard it is to get sufficient of the actual necessities of life; and can you be content to let that remain so?

Can you not see that the taking over of these industries will relieve so much of the misery and the miserliness to which you have to lend yourselves in order to pay your debts? The price of sugar has been kept up in spite of great improvements that ought to have reduced prices. The same is true of oil, and the whole world is groaning under the Meat Trust.

In 1905 the papers announced that owing to a big crop, cotton would have to be burned in the South to prevent serious loss to the growers! And so long as each producer works for himself alone, with his advertisements, his travellers, his agents, so long will there be chaos, unemployment, poverty.

The machines of the Steel Corporation in Pittsburg are kept in the best order. No money is spared to keep them up to date. Turn to the people. The Russell Sage Fund Investigation has revealed such a callous disregard for decency, for health, for comfort, for education, that were the details not supplied with scientific precision, one could hardly believe. The conditions are such that on an average 275 people commit suicide every year.

There is no attempt to gauge capacity of consumption and often in order to keep up the price in the States, the over-production is sent to foreign countries at prices twenty or thirty per cent lower. For instance, at a time when the American trade was paying $22 for steel rails, the same rails were sold in Japan at $20. That's a tip for the Reids if they have not known it before.

And that reminds me of our own conditions. We have our Trusts and Monopolies on a small scale, keeping up prices; and while the English investor is satisfied with five per cent or less we do not consider it an investment worth anything that does not bring in ten per cent at the least. We have minor monopolies which are helped by the Government and compete successfully with the imported articles and I do not think I would be far wrong in saying that the prices are more or less decided by the landed price of the imported article. Nor do I hesitate to say that in some cases this makes but a small profit, but the danger is in making the consumer pay the utmost for an article instead of being satisfied with a fair profit. Also it is as much the duty of a Company to look after the interests of its employees as it is its aim to pay high dividends. Then there are industries which are carried on by several firms, but are virtually Trusts in that competition has ceased to exist, such as coal, butter, biscuit. In the latter, rumour has it that the two firms engaged in it pay another would-be manufacturer of biscuit a salary to keep out. I don't know if this constitutes "restraint of trade" if it be true. Another of the most noticeable and the most felt Trust is that of the Meat supply. And yet all the high prices are changed to the account of Labour! And the merchant will say that there is no money in business, and yet look at the mansions going up, the autos whirling round—the poor have them, too? I do not.

The Socialist does not abolish competition as long as it means an endeavour to make a good article and only a fair profit, but when are used as they are in some cases, and when a few men by amalgamating control the price to the detriment of the consumer, there is no one but would say that it is not only advisable but necessary that something should be done.

The evidence of non-Socialists will serve to show the results of our modern civilization.

In London alone General Booth reports 44 suicides in a year and 200 deaths from starvation; a standing army of 300,000 paupers out of work.

Frederic Harrison—"To me, at least, it would be enough to condemn modern society as hardly an advance on slavery or serfdom, if the permanent condition of industry were to be that which we behold, that 90 per cent of the actual producers of wealth have no home that they can call their own beyond the end of the week; have no bed of soil, or so much as a room that belongs to them; have nothing of value of any kind, except as much old furniture as will go in a cart; have the precarious chance of weekly wages which barely suffice to keep them in health, are honored for the most part in places that no man thinks fit for his horse; a month of bad trade, sickness brings them face to face with hunger and pauperism. This is the normal state of the average workman in town or country.

Joseph Chamberlain—"For my part, neither sneers, nor abuse, nor opposition shall induce me to accept as the will of the Almighty, and the unalterable dispensation of His Providence, a state of things under which millions lead sordid, hapless and monotonous lives, without pleasure in the present, and without prospect for the future. As Ruskin says: luxury at present can only be enjoyed by the ignorant. The cruellest man living, seeing clearly at his side the suffering in the world, could not sit at his banquet, unless he sat blindfolded.

Simon Iovest thou me! Feed my sheep.

The Musical Art.

BY H. L. RANN.

The musical art is a profession pursued by people who do not feel sure of $2.50 a day in any other avenue of human endeavor. People who pursue this profession for any length of time without catching up with it are able to become quattered in spirit and seek to gain a few laps by inventing an addition to the old Italian method or guaranteeing to make the Kneisel quartet sound like an accordion solo in six lessons. The piano teacher is a person who is paid $4 a half hour under an iron-clad contract to convert a stub-fingered vacuum into a virtuoso, and when the teacher fails to deliver, as happens once in a while, the pupil is sent to Europe to be venerated at father's expense. Foreign teaching has often enabled its graduates to tell at a glance whether Brahms wrote the Anvil chorus or "The Village Blacksmith," and on that account it is quite popular with students who expected to be able to subjugate a few concertos in one term of twelve lessons. The vocal teacher is a sad-eyed misanthrope whose time is taken up in removing the splinters from the top notes of the amateur tenor. She is also required to take the raw and plastic lyric soprano and enable her to gallop through Lucia's mad scene, hand in hand with a flute obbligato, without shredding any of her vocal mechanism. Musical art is confined largely to porous conservatories, which exclude large and costly quantities of four-fingered exercises, head resonance and ear-splitting cadenzas, giving the building a very soothing and restful atmosphere. The musical critic is one who does not sing or play well enough to keep him away from his other work, but who is pleased at any time to establish the rating of visiting artists throughout all eternity. The life of the average musician is crowded full of culture and cafeteria lunches, neither of which can be exchanged for rent or carfare with any degree of success.

Resolution of Condolence.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—At a meeting of the Directors of the Placentia Water Co., held at Placentia, May 12, 1912, the following resolution was adopted:—

Whereas,—It has pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst our worthy and esteemed President, Ed. Sinnott, and;

Whereas,—The intimate relations long held by the deceased with the members of this Company render it proper that we should place upon record our appreciation of his services as President and his merit as a man; therefore

Resolved,—That we deplore the loss of our late worthy President with deep feelings of regret softened only by the confident hope that his spirit is with those who having fought the good fight here are enjoying perfect happiness in a better world.

Resolved,—That we tender to his afflicted relatives our sincere condolence and our earnest sympathy in their affliction at the loss of one who was a good citizen, a devoted member of this Company and an upright man;

Resolved,—That a copy of the foregoing resolutions signed by the President and certified by the Secretary be transmitted to the relatives of the deceased.

(Signed.)

IGNATIUS COLLINS, President.

E. O'REILLY, Secretary.

Will Visit St. John's.

Communications have been received in the city recently from Mr. Harden Klark of the Klark-Urban Co. He writes from Bermuda, where his troop is meeting with big success. Among their excellent repertoire, that which proved the main attraction was "In the Bishop's Carriage," in addition to the specialty acts. Another of their favorite plays which took well in St. John's two years ago was "Cameo Kirby." Mr. Klark has intimated his desire of visiting St. John's. It will likely take place in October, and negotiations are now going on for terms of hall, etc.

MORE SICK PEOPLE.—Mr. Lundrigan, of Placentia, ill of an internal malady and Mr. Bennett, of Cape Broyle, suffering from hemorrhage, were placed in hospital yesterday.

WANTED.—A girl for repairing clothes, also, a strong boy for the cleaning and pressing business. Apply to SPURRELL BROS., 365 Water Street, next door to Parker & Monroe's West End store.—may 14

Plate Cove Man Complains

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir,—Please allow me space in your much esteemed paper to make a few remarks concerning the disadvantages we have to contend with regarding freight and passengers getting to and from this place. It might be supposed that the Bonavista Branch Railway was a great source of benefit to us living as we do but nine miles from Seal Cove station. But, sir, the fact is, we are debarred more so than ever, as we can get no connection there at all with the Dundee, as she calls here but once a week and on that trip does not call at Seal Cove. Of course if the roads were in any kind of good condition a person might contrive to connect with train, and even get freight along all right. But good roads are what we dare not dream of having around here. Probably our three honourable members think that the folks around here can travel on the promises that they (the members) made when they were canvassing our District not long ago. But these like many other promises we have been looking forward to see them realized, but in vain. We will keep them still fresh in our memories until our noble trio come around again and then we will let them see what the People's Party have done for us. However, as the Dundee cannot call here twice a week we would be just as thankful to our members if they would have her make neither trip at all, so then she could make three trips weekly to some more favoured place. Any way she is of no use to us unless she calls here twice a week and connects with Seal Cove. I am sure there are as many passengers and as much freight for this place as for any other port around here. In about two weeks time there will be over thirty men leaving for the United States fishery, and these men will have to leave on Sunday morning however inconvenient it may be to them. They may be three days too late or too early, still it is their only chance of joining the Dundee, and go they must. A stranger came among us and gave us a way of opening up the country and a shorter route of getting out of it when we have to go to earn a livelihood, and now it seems some of our own class must put obstacles in our way and here at our own doors we must meet with every difficulty in trying to get a chance of taking passage by train, or of having our freight shipped from St. John's with any satisfaction. However, we will not forget the way our members are treating us, and will pay them back in their own coin and will not take any more promises from them if that is all they can get for us.

Hoping that I am not taking up too much of your valuable space, and trusting that in future the visits of our members will be like those of the Dundee, few and far between, I remain, dear sir,
Yours respectfully,
FISHERMAN.
Plate Cove, B. B., May 7, 1912.

Bank Use Finger Print System.

And Customers Seem to Like It—Invented by an Englishman Named Flack.

New York, May 9.—The finger-print system for the identification and the protection of depositors is being rapidly adopted by New York banks. The North Side Bank is the latest institution to adopt the finger-print system, regarding which Secretary Arthur Ekirsch said to-day: "It is not the Bertillon system used by the police, but was devised by an Englishman named P. A. Flack, who for fifteen years was employed by the British Government at Singapore, India. Instead of the thumb, we take the imprint of three fingers of the right hand—the tips of the index, middle and third finger."

"We provide blanks for our depositors upon which they write their signatures and leave their finger prints. These we keep on file, to have in case of emergency, as when, for instance, the genuineness of a signature may be questioned. We have yet to come across a depositor who objects to this. In fact, they seem to like the idea immensely."

Wytheville, Va., May 7.—Further evidence that Floyd Allen wore bullet proof protection in the Hillsville court when the shooting up of the court took place March 14 was brought out during the trial of Allen here to-day for the murder of Prosecutor Foster. Deputy Sheriff Gillespie testified that after the shooting began he had fired four shots point blank at Floyd Allen. Gillespie said he had wondered why the shots had not taken effect.

He made a careful examination of the court room but could find no shot in the wall opposite the point from which he had shot at Allen. Before Allen was arrested he changed his clothes and Gillespie firmly believes the Allens claimer wore breastplate or some other armor protection.

Why Is It?

The question is frequently asked us, why is it your business has been such a success from the very start? The answer is, because there is an individuality and exclusiveness about our Tailoring that has never existed in this city before, by reason of our New York Cutter not using obsolete Block Patterns, but cutting each suit or overcoat from a specially made pattern for each order, thus catering to the individual ideas of every customer.

Our name on a garment a small thing to look for, but a Big Thing to find.
