ALLIES HURLING ENEMY BACK

Allies Drive Germans From Strong Positions on River Ourcq—Capture Heights on Vesle Plateau and Pass Far Beyond Beugneux Village—Over Thirty-Three Thousand Germans Captured in Two Weeks—Enemy Flees Precipitously.

ALLIES MAKE BIG GAINS ON BOTH SECTORS

Have Apparently Placed Germans in Front of Them in Precarious Position.

RESISTANCE FUTILE

Northwest of Fere the Elbow on North Bank of Ourcq Eliminated.

After a short period of relative calm on the Soissons-Rheims salient, the central and western sections of the battlefield again have been the scenes of mighty struggles.

On both sectors the allied forces have achieved notable gains of ground, which, observed on the war maps, seemingly place the German armies in front of them in a precarious position.

In battles extending from the region immediately south of Soissons to the northwest of Fere-en-Tardenois and southwest of the last named town, over the upper portion of the left bank of the "V" salient running to Ville-en-Tardenois, and with St. Gemme as its southern base, French, American and British troops have pushed back the armies of the German crown prince.

Northwest of Fere the entire elbow of the line, where it turned eastward along the northern bank of the Ourcq, has been blotted out, making the line a straight one from Fere to Harennes and giving the allies much better ground over which to work in further outflanking Soissons on the southeast and for pressing on toward Fumes in conjunction with the troops, particularly the Americans, now holding strategic points north and northeast of Fere.

In this fighting the allied troops drove out the Germans who had been tenaciously holding positions between Plessier Huleu and the river and took the high ground north of Grand Rozoy, pressed on past the village of Beugneux and arrived before the villages of Cramaille and Cramoelle. The general advance was about two miles and six hundred Germans were made prisoner.

The most important gain, however, was on the upper western part of the V southeast of Fere. Here the village of Clerges and the Meuniers Wood both were taken, a manoeuvre which placed the Germans at the bottom of the V at St. Gemme in a seemingly precarious plight, for from the wood and the village the allied guns will be able to rake the Germans, if they should endeavor to make their way northward, their only avenue of escape, by an enfilading fire. Thus the capture of the Meuniers Wood the width of the V from the fringes of the Forest of Rontigny on the east, has been cut down to four miles.

As has been the case during the past week, the Germans contested stubbornly the advance of the allied troops, but to no avail. Since the Battle of the Marne began July 15 the allied troops have taken more than 41,000 Germans prisoner.

Just what part the American troops played in Thursday's battle has not yet been unfolded, but they doubtless everywhere in the centre of the battlefield were in the thick of the fray. Between Seringes and Clerges, respectively northeast and southeast of Fere, they are known to have made good gains over a four-mile front and to have pushed further beyond Serig and reached within a mile and a half of the Village of Chamery.

On the British front in France and Flanders the bad weather has ceased and the hot sun is fast drying out the muddy ground. The Germans are bombarding heavily various positions held by Field Marshal Haig's men, who in turn are answering the fire of the enemy guns and keeping up with much success their annoying raids into the German lines.

Large American Army to Take Field Soon

United States Will Have Three Million Men in Europe by Next Spring—Six New Divisions Each Month.

Washington, Aug. 1.—War department recommendations for enlarging the army and for the extension of the draft age limitations in order to provide new reservoirs of man-power to back up the forces already at the front will be laid before congress next week. Members of the two military committees have been recalled to Washington by the chairman in order to expedite the bill.

In announcing following a conference with Chairman Dent of the house committee, that his increased army project was virtually ready, Secretary Baker would not say what age limits had been settled on nor indicate in any way the size of the army which he is planning.

If the ages are revised they will have to be either below 21 or above 21, or both. I think it will be both, said Secretary Baker.

Gen. March, in announcing the creation of a July schedule of six new divisions, followed by an August schedule for the same number, has indicated the embarkation upon such a monthly program.

At this rate approximately 250,000 men a month will be sent overseas, their places in the home cantonnements to be taken by 250,000 new men.

It is not certain that the department is aiming at the creation of a force of any definite size. There are now upward of 1,300,000 American troops either overseas or en route. Under the 250,000 a month suggestion and without mishap to the supply lines, October should see 2,000,000 Americans overseas and the opening of the spring campaign of 1919 when many officers believe the final scenes of the German defeat will begin in a great combined drive against the German line, might easily see 3,000,000 men ready for action, with another force of substantially 2,000,000 organized at home.

Washington, Aug. 1.—Doubling of the present special taxes on manufacturers of tobacco, cigars and cigarettes and increased taxation of brokers, theatres and other amusements, billiard and pool parlors, bowling alleys and capitalization of corporations, were agreed on by the house ways and means committee today in framing the $8,000,000 revenue bill. A new tax of one per cent. on retail sales of merchandise by the house ways and means committee today was adopted. Pullman seats and berths and passenger rates will be subject to a uniform tax of eight per cent. Stamp taxes were undisturbed.

Washington, Aug. 1.—The Portuguese barque Porto was sunk by a German submarine 550 miles off the Atlantic coast, July 27. The navy department announced today that a crew of 18 had been landed at an American port by a British steamer.

Washington, Aug. 1.—The air ministry communication tonight says: "On the morning of the 1st of August one of our bombing squadrons started to bomb Cologne, but, finding it enveloped in a cloud, turned and dropped its bombs on the factories at Duren (Rhenish Prussia) in one of which a fire broke out. All our machines returned."

A second formation attacked the railway works at Treves. They were heavily attacked by large numbers of hostile machines. Three of the enemy machines were destroyed. One of our planes has not returned."

London, Aug. 1.—The allies today delivered a new stroke over a ten-mile front between Buzancy, about four miles south of Soissons, to Seringes, north of Fere-en-Tardenois. The result was a considerable advance and the wiping out of the elbow in the line at Oulchy-le-Chateau, according to advices to The Evening Standard.

Bonar Law Asks Huge Credit

Three Billion and Half Dollars to Prosecute War Largely in History—Expenditure on Army Shows Big Increase Over Estimates.

London, Aug. 1.—In asking for a vote of credit of $700,000,000 ($3,500,000,000) in the house of commons today, Andrew Bonar Law, chancellor of the exchequer, said that the largeness of the amount was not due to increased expenditure, but to the fact that parliament was about to adjourn. He hoped, he said, that more than one more vote would be necessary before the end of the fiscal year.

The chancellor said the expenditure on the army showed an increase of $5,000,000 over the estimates. Loans to the allies and the dominions had been less than the estimates by $22,700,000.

The vote asked is the largest in the history of the country. It is intended for the carrying on of the war until the end of October.

Analyzing the expenditure under the various heads, the chancellor explained that the increase of $5,000,000 in the army expenditure, over the estimate of the current fiscal year, was due to the fact that the strength of the army was greater than at the time the budget estimate was framed.

Regarding loans to the allies and the dominions, he said the deficit due from the allies now, he added, had reached a total of £1,402,000,000, and from the dominions £208,500,000.

Advances that had been loaned to Russia was £568,000,000, while to France £402,000,000 had been lent; to Italy £215,000,000, and to Belgium, Greece and smaller nations, £113,000,000.

Bonar Law said that in 1916 Great Britain had agreed to give to the Italian exchequer a monthly credit to be used to help Italian exchange.

The rate of interest charged, Bonar Law said, was five per cent, which was below the rate which the government was paying.

Till End of August. Bonar Law estimated that the last vote would carry on until the end of August, that the estimate would be realized and the balance would probably last until the first week of September.

British and French Drive Enemy From Positions on Ten-mile Front, Capturing Villages—Romigny Also Falls Before Assault Above Rheims-Dormans Road.

Paris, Aug. 1.—In an advance of about two miles on the Aisne-Marne front today, the allied troops reached Cramoelle and Cramaille, on the southwestern part of the salient, capturing 600 prisoners, according to the war office announcement tonight.

Clerges and Meuniers Wood have also been occupied, and the village of Romigny, north of the Dormans-Rheims road, was taken.

From July 15 to July 31, the prisoners captured by the allies numbered 32,400.

The text of the statement reads: "North of the Ourcq our troops, in conjunction with British units, drove the enemy from positions to which he had been energetically clinging in the region of Plessier Huleu and the river. We captured the height north of Grand Rozoy, passed beyond the village of Beugneux and reached Cramoelle and Cramaille, realizing at this point an advance of about three kilometres. Six hundred prisoners remained in our hands."

"Further south we occupied Clerges and Meuniers Wood. "North of the Dormans-Rheims road we conquered after a stubborn engagement the village of Romigny, taking about 100 prisoners."

"The total number of German prisoners taken on the Marne battlefield and in Champagne during the period between July 15—the date of the beginning of the German offensive—and July 31 is 32,400, of which 674 are officers."

Deliver New Stroke. London, Aug. 1.—The allies today delivered a new stroke over a ten-mile front between Buzancy, about four miles south of Soissons, to Seringes, north of Fere-en-Tardenois. The result was a considerable advance and the wiping out of the elbow in the line at Oulchy-le-Chateau, according to advices to The Evening Standard.

Germans in Flight. With the French Army in France, Aug. 1.—With the fall of darkness tonight fighting continued between the allies and the Germans on the western side of the Soissons-Rheims salient. Allied observers reported that bodies of Germans were fleeing precipitately northward along the road leading from Launoy, which lies about midway between Soissons and Fere-en-Tardenois.

The attack by the allied forces which brought them such good results during the day, started at 4 o'clock this morning, with the aid of tanks. The British joined with the French in attacking the woods, thickets and villages, each of which had been transformed into a fortress with the aid of machine guns.

By six o'clock Hill 205 and the villages of Courdoux, Servenay and Cramoelle had fallen before the determined allied assaults and prisoners were coming in. By 7 o'clock the advance was so marked that the British and French batteries were able to go forward to new positions. The Germans' guns replied feebly, but their mitrailleuses were very numerous.

The enemy counter-attacked furiously from Buzancy and Eveque Wood, but his efforts were splendidly held up by the allied infantry.

By evening the allies had occupied Cramaille, northwest of Fere-en-Tardenois, and the hillocks to the north of it.

Americans Gain in Centre. With the American Army on the Aisne-Marne Front, Aug. 1.—The American troops pushed forward their lines at certain points Thursday on the centre of the Rheims-Soissons salient, notwithstanding the resistance of the Germans, who did not give ground on some sectors until they actually had been shot from their positions.

The Germans are desperately clinging to their strongholds at Nesles and in the Bois Meuniers, northeast of Ronchères, but the Americans have gained a hold on the northern edge of the Meuniers Wood. The Nesles Forest is under the range of the American heavy guns.

Aviators report that the Germans are rushing up reinforcements, including tanks. The enemy's heavy guns are pounding the Nesles and Meuniers woods unmercifully.

Observers and prisoners who had been brought behind the lines previously reported the forests as having been jammed with German troops and also with large quantities of supplies. The German losses in men, therefore, must have been very great, as the heavy guns started shelling the woods several days ago.

Blasted Way Thru Wire. The allied troops continued today to encounter barbed wire. Between Seringes and Serig there were woven fields of wire entanglements. At creek crossings and in the valleys the German machine gunners held their commanding positions until the heavy guns of the French and Americans blasted a way thru the wire and ousted the enemy from his positions. Some of the enemy machine gunners stuck to their posts under terrific fire until they were killed.

The American heavy artillery commands the village of Chamery, northeast of Serig, the Americans having wrested the hill beyond the last named village from the Germans in a battle lasting for hours. The lines swayed back and forth many times, but the Americans eventually pushed the Germans back. This fighting was in the open and the American infantrymen showed great courage.

To the north of Clerges, the Americans also advanced their line. The fight began early Thursday for the possession of a farm, from which the Americans swept away the Germans. North of Serig the Americans crossed wheat fields that had been planted by French peasants, the crops of which had been partially garnered by the Germans. What remained of the wheat was recovered by the Americans.

There was much aerial activity throught Thursday. The Germans sent out large numbers of aviators, who appeared to be determined to Five Miles of Railway. General Mangin, with the French and British troops in his command, is fighting a severe battle north of the Oruro River and is making considerable progress.

After taking the Village of Grand Rosoy, northwest of Here-en-Tardenois, the allied troops advanced to the Fleisles Wood, where the combatants are in the closest of grips and the combat is extraordinarily fierce.

Scots Divisions Fight Well. French Army Headquarters, Aug. 1.—Outstanding has been the work of a Scottish division in General Mangin's army between the Aisne and the Oruro by the heroic courage and endurance shown.

A French division attacked at dawn and met the strongest resistance. German machine guns took them in the flank. The Scots advanced a considerable distance and captured the new front, despite most vigorous opposition.

This attack was made on the morning of July 23, and for three days the division held the line under terrific fire, and on July 25 tackled the village, park and chateau of Buzancy.

The first was swept through the village and captured the chateau. The remaining waves had to clear up the village. Experienced warriors who had participated in the fighting describe it as one of the fiercest of the war, as the village was stuffed with machine guns, surrounded by deep caves, which were formidable fortifications.

allied attack. Fear and despair are spreading through the German army. The allies, by skillful handiwork, are said to have more fresh reserves than the Germans have.

Comparison of British reports on aerial activity at the present time with reports issued earlier in the spring shows that the British air service has about doubled its striking power.

ALTHOUGH THE brilliant stroke of General Foch failed to obtain a decision, the allied general still believes in the possibility of a knockout blow.

THE T. EATON CO. LIMITED

AN INVITING SPOT OPEN TO SOLDIERS

Hostess House is Arranged to Provide Comfort for Men.

GOOD PLACE TO REST

Happy Surroundings and Pleasant Company Add to Attractiveness.

"It's perfectly wonderful the way so many people help!" This was the acknowledgment given by one of the enthusiastic women whose work and spirit made possible the comfortable and attractive Hostess House at 72 West King street. The speaker wondered at the goodness of others, but if she could have visualized her own enthusiasm, as it appeared to the visitor, the answer would have been easy to get alike begets like--and where she and her equally energetic co-worker and founder radiate the spirit of helpfulness, who could resist its influence? These two women who do not wish their names to appear, were able to open the house as a meeting-place and for the entertainment of soldiers early in May. Thru a friend the premises, with two large shop-windows on the lower flat and three storeys in height, were obtained rent free. But so much was to be done before things could be made inviting and livable. Friends, however, came to the rescue and donations in cash and furniture soon worked wonders. Unashingly, board, ceilings were whitened, walls were painted in pretty buffs and tans, a large apartment was decorated in pale green and white and now serves for a delightful tea and sitting room, other rooms were fitted up with billiard tables, and best of all, a kitchen with a wonderful electric range and a refrigerator, was made possible thru the gifts of benefactors.

Gave Three Rugs. The latest gifts came in this week from the Toronto Carpet factory in the shape of three handsome rugs, one of which now graces the office and large room downstairs, and another is seen on our recreation room. Pretty chintz curtains, comfortable lounges and wicker chairs, a piano, a Victrola--the only trench instrument in Toronto, it is said--tables, magazines and papers, plants and flowers--in short, everything that spells home in its truest sense is here--best of all the women who devote themselves to the work are real friends, taking, as far as possible, the place of mothers and sisters to the soldiers who show their appreciation by coming in large numbers to the Hostess House.

In the kitchen at the time of the first "three bright stars" in white uniforms, preparing the afternoon meal. The menu card showed that cold meats might be had for ten cents--fancy this in war time--and an assortment of substantial and dainties was scheduled from which to make choice.

"See what we are preparing for!" said one of the girls, as she held out a plate with a stuffed tomato, looking like a tempting pomegranate on the crispst of tender green lettuce leaf. And this is the way all service is rendered--everything of the best.

"We served 300 meals last Saturday," said one of the hostesses. "Just Like Home." "The men love to get into the kitchen," was another statement. "When everything else fails we ask them to help us make toast."

The failure referred to was in the case of some of the men who, on their first entrance into the home, are so lonely and reticent that it is hard to bring them into the circle of hospitality for which the house is noted, but the invitation to the shell-shocked never fails to melt even the hardest coat of reserve.

The canteen part of the establishment is made to cover its own outlay. One friend--Ralph Connable--gives $70 a month, another, the Good-year Co., give $25; soap is given by Lever Bros., the Office Specialty donated a handsome desk and other furniture, a window cleaning firm sends a man to clean the windows, the Sunbeam Lamp Co. gave 150 special lamps, the R. S. Williams Co. donated the Victrola, and so on--friends innumerable. Even the magazines are regularly contributed gratis. "Vogue"--the boys just love this magazine, we are told--is contributed by the president of the publishing company, as is also "Family Fair."

REPORT CALLED FOR ON HOUSING PROBLEM

A further step to solve the housing problem was taken yesterday afternoon when a sub-committee of the property committee instructed the medical health officer and the city architect to report on a type of house suitable for workmen, at a cost of $2500. The committee also asked the architect and finance commissioner to report on whether or not the city is in a position to go into the building and selling of houses; if it is advisable for the city to secure government money for builders on its own guarantee, and whether, in the event of doing so, provision should be made so that the cost would be restricted to $2500.

The committee has received a number of offers from persons desiring to sell vacant land, and the assessment commissioner submitted a list of properties owned by the city and available for workingmen's homes. With the assessed value they are as follows: Dawson street, $45; Ossington avenue, $50; Roxton road, $48; Shaw street, $50; Hilton avenue, $45; Lyndhurst avenue, $60 and $65; Coxwell avenue, $30; Edna avenue, $35; Jones avenue, $28.

The total frontage is 2451 feet. Mr. Forman suggested selling at the assessed values, providing houses are erected on them immediately. There was also submitted to the committee the following, showing the number of dwellings erected in the city since 1912:

Year	Brick	Frame
1912	4586	205
1913	3482	181
1914	749	27
1915	599	23
1916	798	51

So far this year 479 houses of all kinds have been erected. The opinion was expressed by Ald. Ball that private capital could not meet the situation. He also thought if building restrictions were relaxed a suitable workman's house could be built for $1500.

EXPECT MAJ.-GEN LOGIE SOON.

Major-General W. A. Logie, who attended a conference in England last week in connection with the demobilization of the Canadian expeditionary force at the end of the war, is expected home in Canada before long. It is thought likely that his duties in the Dominion will consist of looking after the demobilization work for eastern Canada. He is said to prefer Toronto to Ottawa as headquarters for his office. He may have his headquarters in the Dominion Bank Building.

Other People's Opinions

Scholarships Instead of Statures.

Editor World: Your editorial in Saturday's World, "A Concession to Brains," contains so much food for thought and so many points of vital importance to the coming generation that I am encouraged to offer a suggestion, which occurred to me after reading your article. Germany's system of developing the best in every child is worthy of imitation, even though we are loath to admit it. The loss of our clever sons to the United States has been a disaster to the government and banking system of a country which would not "take a chance" on the brains of her sons and encourage them to develop the resources of this grand Dominion. The same brains, however, could offer the same idea or scheme to an American capitalist and he would be willing to take a chance, provided the young man gave evidence of ability, character, and grit sufficient to work to put the scheme thru. The success of our sons in the business and educational world of the U.S. is too well known for comment.

We are now on the threshold of a new era, and when the war ends will have to make a new start, and hope we will do so, with our eyes wide open and every faculty keenly alert to the opportunities and necessities of the day. In order to develop the best in every child now living, or born in Canada for the next 20 years, education must be the best and least expensive that can possibly be provided, and as scholarships are the most favorable means thru which higher education can be offered to children in humble circumstances, might I suggest that in place of costly monuments and statues, to the memory of those who have given their lives in this terrible struggle for liberty, that a movement be set under way at once, not only in Toronto, but thruout at least Ontario, if not all over the Dominion, to endow scholarships in all branches of study, open to any child showing evidences of talent for any branch of technical, mechanical, scientific or research work. These scholarships to be called memorials to our great war heroes, or some such title. We would in this way give greater opportunities to the children of these same heroes, enabling them to become experts in any chosen trade or profession, with increasing advantage to all, and by so doing I think serve a better purpose than the erection of bronze or stone figures in any hall of fame.

It has already been suggested to open University avenue, thru to King street at a cost of $500,000, raising the old buildings in that district and thereby cleaning up one of the many unsightly spots in the city, as a memorial to the war heroes. May I be permitted to say that when civic pride did not suggest such a movement in the boom days before the war, when money was plentiful, it is rather late to make a start now when materials are so expensive and money so urgently needed for many more important purposes. Let us hope, therefore, that our memorial subscriptions will be invested in brains, not brick and mortar.

If the school system is to be reconstructed, could we not have this idea considered, and I trust bring forth fruit worth while. Would it be possible to have a percentage of the succession duties set aside as a perpetual fund to keep this memorial fund growing in the years to come? Trusting to hear that others agree with this rough sketch of an idea that I think might be enlarged upon, and form the foundation for keeping at home the sons we may have left after the war, in order to supply Canada with what she is sorely in need of and the present men of national pride and ability to make our country one to be proud of.

TORONTO TO PAY BALANCE OWING

Judgment Given Out Yesterday Favors Purity Springs Company.

In a judgment given yesterday at Osgoode Hall, by Chief Justice Falconbridge, the City of Toronto is required to pay to the Purity Springs Company $17,500. "The city has already paid $10,000, and the order was made on the application of Peter White, K.C., to enforce the payment of the balance of the award for $7,500 made by P. H. Drayton, the official arbitrator. C. F. Colquhoun, who appeared for the city, admitted that something was owing, but stated it was a matter of interest on the award. He stated that interest was to be paid by the city and the property had not yet been conveyed to the city, and if an order was made for the enforcing of the award an order should be made enforcing the handing over of the deed. It was pointed out that as the Purity Springs had a suit against the Humber the granting of any deed might prejudice their rights. It was intimated by Chief Justice Falconbridge that he would insert a clause in the order made by him to the effect the master in dispute be determined by the master-in-council.

THREE APPOINTMENTS.

The Royal Air Force yesterday announced three important appointments. Capt. E. J. Watkins of Toronto is appointed officer commanding Canadian Training Squadron 28, at Camp Borden. Capt. R. H. Cronyn, son of Home Cronyn, M.P., London, becomes officer commanding squadron 23 at Camp Leaside. Major N. C. Sampson is appointed commander of the cadet wing at Long Branch.

At present the plant is turning out about 45 tons a day but the wish of the manufacturers would be to turn out 1,500 tons daily, of which 600 tons would come from the city garbage and the rest from industrial waste and other sources said to be obtainable.

Authoritative men who have examined the plant claim that their product is superior to coal, coke and nearly smokeless. Spontaneous burning of a stove gave a good heat without smell.

The chief drawback to the development of the process is the need for coal-dust of a certain grade which is required to mix with the garbage. If the coal dust could be obtained from the mines, the promoters would be able to produce a product which would be sold at a price of $1.10 per ton.

G.W.V.A. DELEGATES GO ACROSS LAKE

Take Day Off and Go on Visit to Niagara Falls.

Several hundred delegates to the G. W. V. A. convention, with their friends, enjoyed a peaceful respite from the convention labor yesterday. They visited Niagara Falls, Ont., and were the guests of Sir Adam Beck and the Hydro-Electric Commission.

The majority of the delegates left by the 7:30 boat, the Cayuga. Others, among whom were the president and vice-president of the association, left Toronto by the Chippewa at 9:30. The weather was of the best. Some delegates left the boat at Niagara-on-the-Lake, others at Queenston. They all enjoyed the delightful trip to the Hydro-Electric plant at the head of Queen Victoria Park, where they were entertained at luncheon.

The general opinion of the situation was that the proposed canal between the Ottawa and Winnipeg delegates, and that it was regrettable and avoidable. Comrade Wakefield, a Calgary delegate, stated that he had been a strong supporter of the per capita system of representation both in convention and in caucus, but that the delegates had voted in the general action of the Toronto delegation in striking off eight members from the original list who had composed its representation.

"HEARTS OF THE WORLD" STILL DOING CAPACITY. The advance sale of seats for "Hearts of the World," which is playing at the Grand Theatre, has set a new record in local theatrical circles.

DOROTHY DIX'S TALKS THE STERN PARENT

By DOROTHY DIX The World's Highest Paid Woman Writer.

The other day the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children had a man arrested for brutally beating his little 12-year-old son. The father's excuse for his inhuman conduct was that the lad had stayed away from home all night, and the judge, before whom the case was tried, dismissed the charge against the man, saying as he did so: "You did perfectly right to thrash the boy. If I had a boy who stayed away from home at night, I would whip him more severely than you whipped this child."

There is something in cruelty that turns what is weak and yielding in the human soul into chilled steel that will not bend nor break. There is something more potent than the smiting hand, and that is the rebellion and revenge that it strikes into life and that never dies. No human being has ever yet been tortured into a different way of thinking. No criminal has ever been reformed by brutality, and no child has ever yet been scourged into becoming a great and good man or woman.

A man dares not beat his wife when he comes home from the office nervous and irritable because business has gone wrong, or when his boss has given him a lecture on his inefficiency, for wife would hale him into the divorce court if he raised his hand against her. But it is perfectly safe to spank little Johnny for some trivial offence, and little Johnny is offered up on the altar of his father's ill-temper.

It is forth while for parents to remember this elemental fact in human nature. They can whip Johnnie and Mary into doing certain things and refraining from doing certain other things, for a few short years, but when Johnnie and Mary come to the time that they are no longer afraid of the whip, the parents' power is gone.

What is so beautiful as baby's soft, smooth, velvety skin? And how is it to be kept free from chafing, irritation and distressing eczema? This is every mother's question. Many have found the answer in the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment. Applied after the bath, this soothing, healing ointment overcomes irritation of the skin and prevents the development of eczema and other annoying skin diseases.

HELP SECOURS NATIONAL

In Unexpected Ways Gifts Are Added to Treasury. Fortune came to the Secours National in ways quite unexpected this week. A charming French woman came into the headquarters and left $200 in cash. The name left in the visitor's box is Madame Siasoo and this is all that is known about the liberal donor, who could speak no English and was accompanied by a soldier who interpreted for her. She said she would call again when next passing thru Toronto. Another liberal contribution was from the Mennonite Church, of which W. E. Steele is bishop. The amount was $211.00.

SOCKS FOR SOLDIERS

The Queen Mary Working Circle—Mrs. W. A. Kavanagh, convener—of the Sir Henry Pellatt Chapter, is shipping one hundred pairs of socks in answer to a call from Major J. Moore, Cosgrave, O.C. of the 4th Battery, Ninth Brigade, 3rd Canadian Div., France. Major Cosgrave desired the socks for his men. The socks were packed at the home of Mrs. J. Egan where the "showers" was recently held.

FERRY BYLAW HELD UP

Attorney-General Says It Does Not Fulfill Intention of Council. The city has been notified by the attorney-general that as the ferry by-law does not fulfil the intention of council he does not think it advisable to recommend its repeal. It is suggested that the proper course to take now would be to have a by-law carrying out the true intention of council submitted to that body and if this is done the department will attend to it. At present the "by-law in question is general, its provisions, of course, cannot be controlled by a special agreement."

CONCERT AT HOSPITAL

A concert was given at the base hospital last night by D. C. Macgregor and party, including Miss Maud Dowling, Miss Myrtle Campbell, Miss Grace Stickle, Miss Beth Stringer. The chaplain, Capt. D. J. Lane, occupied the chair.

SOCIETY

Conducted by Mrs. Edmund Phillips

The marriage took place very quietly last evening at the house of the bride's parents, Hon. W. J. Hanna and Mrs. Hanna, Wyckwood Park, of Margaret, their eldest daughter, to Mr. H. B. Spaulding, formerly of the 21st Battalion. The pretty bride wore a frock of white georgette crepe over satin, with tulle veil and wreath of orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and orchids, was given away by her father. The Rev. James Broughall performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate relations and friends. Miss Catherine Hanna was her sister's maid in a frilled white net frock and carried pink roses. Mr. and Mrs. Spaulding spent the honeymoon in the east, the bride traveling in a tailor-made of taupe cloth, and a black velvet hat. Sir Charles Ross has arrived at Chateau Laurier, Ottawa, from Quebec.

MANY AT FUNERAL OF DR. J. T. GILMOUR

Dr. John Taylor Gilmour was buried privately from his late residence, 4 Ridout street, yesterday afternoon. Dr. Gilmour had died suddenly in his garden on Monday morning. The funeral services were attended by a large number of prominent citizens, public men and former residents of the former Town of Toronto Junction. In spite of the request that no flowers be sent, a number of floral wreaths were contributed by friends. The service was conducted by Rev. Dr. A. C. Crews and S. Cleaver, and the pall-bearers were Dr. G. W. Cleverman, G. W. Edgar, Dr. W. H. Harris, Dr. J. Milton Cotton, H. H. Dewar, K.C., M.L.A., and T. N. Yates. Hon. W. D. Fairweathers August Fur Sale

Early choice a guarantee for the most favorable prices, and an assurance of the most satisfactory selections.

Of the constantly increasing cost of the furs themselves and the added cost of production on account of scarcity of skilled labor there seems to be no finality—no limit—and furs that may seem high priced to you today by comparison with those of other seasons will be higher priced still as sure as fate, as the season progresses. All the signs point that way. With these conditions, which are unavoidable and uncontrollable by us, we are able to cope and offset to a very considerable degree in our August Fur Sale.

Anticipating just what has happened in the fur world we went into the markets very early, bought largely at the most favorable prices possible, and every day since away back at Easter time our workrooms have been producing the most advanced styles—Paris inspirations—and from otherwhere in fashiondom—and we are presenting today a most comprehensive complement of all that is new, luxurious, practical and essential in fur coats and fur sets for our own clientele—and

"I Long for the Things He Can't Give Me!"

THIS is what every struggling young man who marries a wealthy girl fears—fears that his wife will long for the things he can't afford to give her. And in the case of Ruth and Brian Hackett, this was true; Ruth did crave luxuries and the things to which she had been accustomed. Brian saw this. He knew that his wife was not satisfied with his humble home. And it cut deep. It took all the joy out of his heart. "Then, Ruth's love was not the real thing!" you will say—for, we all know that real love can flourish in a hovel. But you are wrong! Ruth's love was the real thing. She proves that in the end. How? Read "The Wife" and see. This story starts Monday in The Toronto World.

The New Scale of Railway Wages

Yesterday the increased scale of wages for railway employes all over Canada came into effect.

The roads claim that the increase in freight rates recently authorized by the Dominion Board of Railway Commissioners will not increase their revenue sufficiently to meet their increased expenditure on account of wages.

The unique feature about this big wage increase lies in the fact that it was brought about without any labor trouble or dislocation of business.

The wage award which now goes into effect establishes for the first time in Canada the principle that women must receive the same wages as men for the same labor performed.

peal to "defeatist" sentiment, that we are spending a lot of money and losing a lot of lives, and suffering in our birthrate, is entirely German in its tone.

Lord Lansdowne asks for the more definite statement of the allied aims. He thinks Premier Lloyd George's "too lengthy and elaborate, it is at some points perhaps inevitably wanting in precision."

If Germany wants peace, or if Lord Lansdowne has any influence with those who are so anxious to open pourparlers on the Kaiser's behalf, he might suggest that much could be done for peace by Germany adopting the humane measures of warfare.

The Kaiser "Sure of Success." Germany's freedom does not depend on the subjugation of the free nations of the earth as the Kaiser would have his people believe.

The investigation so far made by the alien property custodian in the United States shows that Beer, Sondheimer & Co., and L. Vogelstein & Co., were shipping war metals to Germany in a constant stream from August, 1914, until April, 1917.

Was International Nickel Under the Control of the German Metal Trust?

Shouldn't Canada Make an Investigation Like the United States?

The United States authorities are still busy tearing the mask of business from the face of treason. Not long ago A. Mitchell Palmer, alien property custodian, seized in the hands of German agents some 200,000 pounds of nickel purchased by Germany in the United States.

It will be observed that all these concerns were masquerading as loyal British or American companies, Beer, Sondheimer & Co., had ostentatiously divorced itself from the parent company in Germany before the United States entered the war.

In the case of the Minerals Separation Company, the trick seems to have been turned by means of a voting trust, but even on the books Beer, Sondheimer & Co. appeared as the largest stockholder.

Recent disclosures in the United States may well make us uneasy. No one can tell what the secret books and confidential sources in the United States know.

The investigation so far made by the alien property custodian in the United States shows that Beer, Sondheimer & Co., and L. Vogelstein & Co., were shipping war metals to Germany in a constant stream from August, 1914, until April, 1917.

When the war broke out in August, 1914, the nickel supply of the world was in the hands of the entente allies. There were big nickel deposits in New Caledonia, owned and operated by the French Government, and no one had the slightest fear of the Germans getting the nickel from that source.

There were two big companies mining the nickel. One was the Mond Company that took the nickel matte to the United States. It, therefore, became of the highest importance for us to know whether the International Nickel Company was under German control.

Difficulties, no doubt, confronted the government in arriving at any conclusion on this subject. But it appears from the debate in parliament that the government relied altogether for information on this point upon the assurances of the company itself.

that department, by Mr. Bostwick, who is described as the assistant president of the International Nickel Company.

This constantly recurring and erroneous statement of Krupp's ownership and influence in this company is becoming exceedingly annoying and we trust that some means can be speedily found by which it can be definitely refuted.

It is true that our government in 1916 had the assurance of Mr. E. W. Nesbitt, M.P. for North Oxford, that there is not a human being in Germany who has any control, or who has anything to do with the Canadian nickel interests.

Mr. Nesbitt is a stockholder himself, the solicitor for the company in Canada, and his declaration is, therefore, entitled to profound respect.

Recent disclosures in the United States may well make us uneasy. No one can tell what the secret books and confidential sources in the United States know.
