Children's Aid Society.

At the monthly board meeting of the above society yesterday afternoon, the inspector's report showed that during December 68 cases had been dealt with, involving the interests of 104 children, 83 of these coming from the children's court.

The society's building has been taxed beyond its capacity in housing the homeless and neglected waifs and strays of Toronto, and the demands for the relief of the destitute little ones have become so great that more room was an absolute necessity, and building operations have already commenced.

The good accomplished for the reclamation of the little ones to higher scale, and connect with the citizenship of our fast growing Toronto, can be realized by a visit to the home at 229 Simcoe-street.

SCHOOLMASTER TOLD OF THAW'S ECCENTRICITIES

Boy Was Undoubtedly Irrational, Asserted Venerable Witness— 84 Lbs. Steak for Evelyn.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—The non-arrival of important witnesses, who are hurrying to New York by steamer and train, caused an abandonment of the afternoon session to-day and cut the morning sitting down to two hours. Mr. Littleton, counsel for defence, announced that he would hurry the case along as rapidly as possible. It was explained that all witnesses having to do with the Thaws of the past several years should be in before the medical expert arrived to give his opinion as to a scientific opinion as to the defendant's mental condition at the time he killed Stanford White.

Mrs. William Thaw, mother of the accused, arrived from Pittsburgh to-day, and it is strongly enough made the stand to-morrow. She had been ill for a long time, and it was feared she would not be able to attend the trial at all. Mrs. Evelyn Nesbitt Thaw will not be offered as a witness until some time next week. All indications so far have been that a District Attorney Jerome will make a desperate fight to have her testimony read out this year. Counsel for the defence are confident, however, that it will be allowed to go in, now that they have obtained a formal specification of insanity in connection with the plea of not guilty.

The elder Mrs. Thaw figured indirectly in the evidence taken to-day. In 1881 a letter to the master of the Little Pennsylvania school where her son was a pupil was identified by the master and read to the jury. It told of the mother's great anxiety over the conduct of her son, and the fact she entertained that his mind even then was unbalanced. The schoolmaster, 79 years old, was an impressive witness. He is Abraham R. Torney Gen. James W. Beck, and he related many incidents which led him to the conclusion that young John P. Thaw was irrational. The former assistant attorney-general was a spectator at the trial to-day.

Mrs. Thaw's room formerly doorkeeper of the Madison-square Theatre, where Evelyn Nesbitt played in "A Girl from Paris," repeated the story of her old at the first trial, of a threat made by Stanford White to find and kill Thaw before daylight.

One of the Thaw's eccentricities, which it is soon will be testified to, was the sending of 84 pounds of beef to Evelyn Nesbitt one morning when she was ill. The attorneys have the receipts for it.

MRS. TURNER ON TRIAL.

Is Accused of Having Committed an Illegal Operation.

Mrs. Minnie Turner was yesterday placed on trial in the criminal assizes for performing a criminal operation on Rose Winters in August last. It is likely that the murder charge will be dropped.

It was the surprise of the day was when the crown called John Leach, a charman, who saw and talked with Rose Winters before she died. By his testimony, because the enquiry was introduced in this statement, but, not waiting for objection from Mr. Bond, the chief witness was called. The evidence could not be taken, even though the girl knew she was dying at a punge temporary safety. It seemed as if the re-performing of the operation and not into the death.

The jury is as follows: Milton B. Sawyer, farmer; William Willford, machinist; Robert E. Turner, lumberman; John Asman, insurance agent; Norman Workman, tailor; W. A. B. Thacker, y-confectioner; Fred Lick Wood- land, manufacturer; John Carroll, lander; Percy McMillen, cattle buyer; Samuel Morgan, farmer, and James Walker, farmer.

S. B. Pollard said Miss Winters had told him her condition was due to a fall, causing a miscarriage.

James Chaney, a friend of the dead girl, said she had told him a doctor had wanted $50 to attend to her case.

"It is getting a serious thing for certain," said the Chancellor, "but we will have to go on. The idea of a doctor offering to get rid of the child for $50."

The chief witness was Bertha Pearsall, who had been an inmate of the house. She told a story which differed on one point from that which she had told in the police court and at the inquest. Then she swore that she had seen Mrs. Turner operate on the night of August 15th in the morning. Yesterday she swore that there had been but one operation, and that on the night of August 15th she had only seen the instrument in Mrs. Turner's hand.

Confronted with the evidence of Mrs. Pearsall, taken by commission in Iowa, where that woman is serving a sentence for forgery, she said that she had never said she would swear to anything to save herself.

Closing his cross-examination of the girl Mr. Bond asked:

"Did you perform the operation yourself?"

"No, sir, I did not," witness answered firmly.

To-day Mr. Bond will call 16 witnesses for the defence. Mrs. Turner will testify in her own behalf.

HE SAT ON THE GOLD ICE AND BARKED AT THE SKY

This is a Tale About a Dog—Hero to Rescue!—Saved—Complete in This Number.

GALT, Jan. 14.—(Special).—To-day witnessed one of the most unique and exciting events in the history of the town. A fine collie dog was noticed on the fringe of ice which had formed about the first pier on the west end of the river. The dog was whimpering pitifully, and in a short time an immense crowd gathered. All efforts to coax the dog to swim ashore, a distance of about 100 feet, failed, as the canine was averse to a punge temporary safety. It seemed as if the dog would perish in a most distressing manner.

One well-known citizen seriously suggested that a cowboy with a lasso be secured, while another thought that a cable should be cut in the bridge, and suggestions continued for fully an hour, during which the suffering dog howled usually and the crowd grew larger and larger.

Finally a couple of gentlemen with executive ability appeared on the scene, and after taking in the situation, disappeared, returning shortly with a long ladder, which was lowered over the side of the bridge until it rested on the bottom of the river near the pier.

Sandford Hill volunteered to descend the ladder, a task requiring no small amount of nerve. When he reached the water he found it impossible to reach the dog, and as the collie refused to leave the bridge until it was rescued, it seemed as if some other scheme would have to be tried.

Fortunately, however, the dog wandered to near the edge of the ice fringe and tumbled in. Mr. Hill descended in and grasped him by the scruff of the neck landed him. To climb a 40-foot ladder placed in a perpendicular position, with a 30-pound dog in one hand, is no easy task, but Mr. Hill was equal to it, and man and dog arrived safely on the bridge and the gallant rescuer was given three deafening cheers at the instigation of Rev. R. E. Knowles, who was among the interested spectators. How the dog came in his perilous position is a mystery. The theory is that some mischievous person dropped him from the bridge with the object of ending his life.

All were on their feet at the time and the room was crowded with women and men, Dominic and Bazil using fists.

The first shot lodged in the ceiling, the second struck Mallem, and the third, the fourth went wide, and Dominic fell with a bullet in the forehead. Richard Joseph fled, but was arrested by the police.

Single Rink Surprises

NOTE AND COMMENT

Mr. Wilson of the Harold A. Wilson Company points out with commendable accuracy that the American Amateur Athletic Union is pretty well dominated by a well-known New York and Chicago...

Now Down to Sixteen Rinks Haisley and McMurray Out

Second Round of Single Rink Curling Competition Decided on Keenest of Ice—Fourth Round Played to Night.

There is nothing so pathetic as an old man who is blind and does not want to see. Such a one is Robert Fitzsimmons, playing the boards at the Star this week. In a speech, Fitz states that he has had his eye...

The second round was completed last night in the single-rink competition on the keenest of ice and not only sixteen quietest remain for the third round, which will be played to-night, but also as usual at 7:30. There were two genuine surprises, the University victory over H. A. Haisley, present holder, and Walker's easy win from W. E. McMurray. Otherwise they curled pretty much as expected. Scott of Parkdale only passing Smith of Parkdale, who had been counted out by mistake, on the twelfth end. Cayley led all the way. Rice drawing up at the finish, counting 3 to 1 on the last end. The Granites, two "kid" rinks, Bona and Disette, were put out of the running by their older opponents, Boulter and Orr leading through. Ross Harstons showed class by defeating Dr. Frazer by 10 ends, and like his student skip, must be reckoned with for the jewelry. Haisley and Curran played an A. McMurray's cracks were off color, and A. Walker's Queen City rinks romped away with the honors. Owing to the committee's decision, J. Paton of Toronto took H. M. Allen's place.

Here's a funny thing in connection with Joe Kelley's position as manager of the Boston Nationals in the season of 1891, but did not make good and was released. Later he caught on with Pittsburgh and was a success from then on. Dan McGinn, another old Toronto player, and once again with Boston, also started in the Hub City at the South End grounds and like Kelley was canned.

From Feb. 22 to March 21 inclusive four Derbys will be run, two in California and two in New Orleans. All are of considerable value and well worth winning. The California Derby will be decided first on Feb. 22. It is a race of a mile and one-quarter, with $5000 added, and if twelve starters, it will be worth $8300 to the owner. On March 7 the Los Angeles Derby will be run. The distance is one mile and a quarter, and the race is of a guaranteed value of $5000, of which the winner's net fortune will be $3875. The Crescent City Derby will be decided on March 14. The distance is one mile and a furlong, the guaranteed value is $10,000 and the winner's share is $7252 net. The City Park Derby, also of $10,000, one mile and a quarter, is scheduled for March 21. It is a peculiar fact that the California, Crescent City and City Park Derbies have each attracted eighty-six entries.

Should President McCaffery fear the loss of any of his valuable press agents he might do worse than import Miss Eloise Young, who writes baseball for the Evening Chronicle of Trinidad, Col. Her description of Kid Butts, shortstop of the Trinidad Hurriers, as he came to bat, with the score a tie in the ninth, two down and two strikes on him, has never been attempted in baseball.

"An awful hush, a hush as if the great, glad sun had suddenly gone blind and all the lights of a living world were about to be plunged in Stygian gloom, announced to the breathless multitude in the grand stand that the Kid was at the plate. His face, with its beauty of the old Greek gods, was pale and set under the golden bronze that bedewed his cheek. He had discarded the sleeves of his waist, and his arms, now decollete to the elbow, moved in the gleaming sunlight like bars of burnished steel.

"But it was in the glinting shimmer of his eyes that the Kid shot forth the promise of a hit. They were narrowed to a violet and sepia line with a dash of abstinence. "All our hearts were tuffing and going pit-a-pat, like a kiddie's who is afraid in the dark. Plunging with all the horrible alternation of hope and fear. Part of the Kid's lingerie, below the garter and wrinkled something awful. Some of us looked upon this as an ill omen, and I longed to pluck it up. The Kid is always so careful about his clothes, so neat. He used to wear an apron when sliding to second, but the manager—a coarse person with a hairy and no soul—objected. "I think he is jealous of the Kid."

Eloise doesn't tell us how Kid Butts made out on that memorable occasion, but we hope his violet and sepia glim picked out one for a homer, if only for her sake.

C. B. A. ARE GETTING BUSY. The magnificent trophy emblematic of the five-man team championship of the world, which was won last season at Toronto by Thompson's Colts of Chicago, at the first annual international tournament held under the auspices of the Canadian Bowlers Association, will be on exhibition next week in a prominent window on Yonge-street. It was shipped in bond yesterday by August Herrman, Cincinnati, president of the American Bowling Congress, who has had it on exhibition for some weeks in that city, where this year's A.B. Congress will be held.

This trophy will be competed for at the second annual international tourney, Feb. 24 to March 2, held by direction of the C.B.A. on the new alleys now being installed in the Hyslop Building, Sluiter street, here in Toronto. Canadian Bowling Club will hold forth. The trophy emblematic of the different events. Entries close positively Feb. 15. Make cheques payable to Claude Armstrong, treasurer, Dominion Bank, and mail to C. Munson, secretary, 333 Yonge-street, Toronto. Entrance fees will be the same this year as last, $2 per man, in all events (five-man, doubles and singles). They will roll their games here at the Oddfellows' League or C. Munson, secretary C.B.A.

The gun clubs of Canada will also have a day to themselves. Prominent trap-shooters will be present from all parts of Canada and the U.S. Write for particulars. Herrman will arrive in due time with ten teams from Cincinnati in a private car engaged for the occasion. They will roll their games here at the Oddfellows' League, where the N.B.A. will be held, March 2 to 14, inclusive.

Unions Stay Apart. There seems no chance of a present reconciliation between the Canadian and American Athletic Unions and Tom Flanagan cannot take his athletes to New York under C.A.A.U. auspices. The American Athletic Union has expressed a willingness to affiliate with the C.A.A.U.

Two Great Junior Games

I.A.A. and Parkdale Win

Lovers of hockey missed a rare treat last night in not seeing the Junior I.A.A. games at Mutual-street. The public woke up to this fact last season, when Parkdale and St. Michaels played out but twenty now they have got back to the old idea of senior hockey.

The opening card was a battle royal between St. Michaels and I.A.A., and while I.A.A. led at half-time, St. Michaels came strong and tied the score, but the paddlers noticed the deciding goal, leaving the score 1 to 1. St. Michaels had only three last year's men in line—Donny, Dussan and McCol, and these were the back of the bunch. Bulger, the last left wing man, is at college, but is out of the game, and is at college, but is out of the game, and is at college, but is out of the game.

The second game was a ding-dong affair between Parkdale and Corticelli. The game was exceedingly rough at times, especially in the last half, when five men were on the fence, and at this stage they looked very much like a football in and coming out of a box car. Adamson, who played with I.A.A. last year, but he was forced to retire in the initial half, and also in the closing period, while being on the boards, putting him down and out, Adamson, while being a good player, was unfortunately, hardly ever being able to finish a game. Hyland, at cover, was a tower of strength.

Portage La Prairie, Man. Jan. 16.—Newly Lalonde, who has been playing with the Portage Hockey Club, received an offer of $500 for the rest of the season from the Toronto Professional Hockey Club, and he left for the east to-day.

St. Pauls Win. Intermediate series of the Northern City League game was played at the Astor Lee rink last night between the St. Pauls and North Toronto teams. The line-up for St. Pauls was: Goal, Stewart; point, Steel; cover point, Mackenzie; rover, Brindle; centre, Leavitt; rover, Richardson; right wing, Martin. The game was very closely contested. The St. Pauls team, who much the light, was speedier. The score at half-time was 1-1, and at the finish was 2-1 in favor of St. Pauls.

Uxbridge 6, Port Perry 2. Uxbridge, Ont. Jan. 16.—The hockey match played here to-night between Port Perry and Uxbridge resulted in a score of 6 to 2 in favor of the home team. The line-up: Port Perry (3): Goal, T. Stewart; point, E. Flint; cover point, D. Morgan; left wing, J. Curran; right wing, D. Anderson; rover, E. Dunk; centre, J. McBrine. Uxbridge (6): Goal, T. Stewart; point, G. Gilliland; right wing, H. Anderson; rover, G. Vaninkens; centre, P. Mordon.

Government of New York State has declared informally his approval of the combination of the Agnew-Hart anti-race track gambling bills, as amended, so as to provide a penalty of imprisonment only. The bill was thus amended in both houses. "It is a great proposition like this," said the governor, "a fine would be meaningless, as I indicated in my annual message to the legislature."

The Wallington B.C.C. will hold a meeting in the St. Dennis Hotel to-night at 8 o'clock. The Riverdale Gun Club shot their first match in the Toronto Trap-shooting League on Saturday last, when they succeeded in defeating the Stanley Gun Club by the narrow margin of one bird. The weather was fine, but a stiff breeze caused the flight of the targets to be somewhat erratic. The match was won by Ed White and F. Halford, representing respectively the Stanley and Riverdale Clubs, and the Dominion Cartridge Co. were present and added interest to the afternoon's sport. Below are the scores: Riverdale's average being computed from their 12 best scores, and Stanley's from their 15 best scores.

THE NEW LIFE INSURANCE BILL.

In another part of this issue will be found the first instalment of a detailed analysis of the new life insurance bill, undoubtedly the most important measure coming under parliamentary consideration during the present session.

Another benefit derived from the investigation was its educative effect on the public mind in Canada with regard to the nature and practical working of life insurance.

The shape in which the life insurance bill emerges from the banking and commerce committee will be the true test both of the value of the recent commission and of the claimed superiority of Canadian methods.

provision that is necessary for the protection of the policyholders and those for whom provision is being made.

If we cannot at this stage have a state system of life insurance at least let us evolve what seems to be impossible in the neighboring republic—namely, a uniform national system at least as regards its leading principles.

The summary published in another column optimizes the government proposals in clear and definite detail. Modification of certain clauses appears to be expected, but whatever may be done in that direction the act in its final form should be such as can be accepted at all hands as the natural result of the best consideration both parliament and the insurance interests can give to the public issues involved.

RAILROAD RATE REDUCTION.

Whether compulsorily or by voluntary action the process of reducing railroad rates steadily extends in the United States. In South Carolina, where legislation with that object was not adopted, the Southern Railway has initiated the establishment of a flat rate of two and one-half cents a mile for interstate passenger travel, plus a charge of 15 cents where travelers board a train without tickets, except at stations without agents.

In marked contrast to this progressive spirit, it is announced that the Grand Trunk Railway will this year again attempt to secure the repeal of its obligation to carry passengers between Montreal and Toronto at the rate of two cents a mile.

The commission, following the Armstrong legislation in New York State, recommended that the expenses of first year business be confined to an amount not exceeding in the aggregate the total loadings upon the premiums for the first year of insurance received in said year.

PENSION FUNDS.

The Fielding bill does not go for prohibition, but inserts a section empowering directors to make bylaws providing for the creation of a "staff-pension fund," such bylaws to be effective only after approval by the annual meeting of the company or a special general meeting.

SALARY CONTRACTS.

Salary Contracts: Commission proposed three years' limit. Not more than $5000 salary, except authorized by board of directors. Fielding bill would extend limit to five years.

COMMISSIONS.

The commission recommended that no life company make any contract with any director, officer, employee or servant, save such agents as are employed to solicit insurance, to pay any commission or reward whatever by way of commission in respect of future business.

POLICYHOLDERS' VOICE IN MANAGEMENT.

The commission found that policyholders had no effectual voice in the management of their companies, not even in mutual companies, and that it was extremely desirable to give them more facilities for expressing their opinions, with a view to curing certain evils.

SOME FEATURES OF THE NEW INSURANCE BILL.

How Far the Recommendations of the Commission Have Been Adopted by the Government. (In three instalments.)

COST OF LIFE INSURANCE.

No hint of state insurance, except in Sir Richard Cartwright's bill for "old age pensions"—a step towards a general system of state insurance. Commission's radical plan of distribution of profits accepted only in part.

The commission, following the Armstrong legislation in New York State, recommended that the expenses of first year business be confined to an amount not exceeding in the aggregate the total loadings upon the premiums for the first year of insurance received in said year.

PENSION FUNDS.

The Fielding bill does not go for prohibition, but inserts a section empowering directors to make bylaws providing for the creation of a "staff-pension fund," such bylaws to be effective only after approval by the annual meeting of the company or a special general meeting.

SALARY CONTRACTS.

Salary Contracts: Commission proposed three years' limit. Not more than $5000 salary, except authorized by board of directors. Fielding bill would extend limit to five years.

COMMISSIONS.

The commission recommended that no life company make any contract with any director, officer, employee or servant, save such agents as are employed to solicit insurance, to pay any commission or reward whatever by way of commission in respect of future business.

POLICYHOLDERS' VOICE IN MANAGEMENT.

The commission found that policyholders had no effectual voice in the management of their companies, not even in mutual companies, and that it was extremely desirable to give them more facilities for expressing their opinions, with a view to curing certain evils.

POLICYHOLDERS' VOICE IN MANAGEMENT.

The Fielding bill, section 77, under the head of "Voting by Proxy," says: "The following provisions shall extend and apply to every company," etc., but does not give the provisions, sub-section 1 being entirely omitted.

SEED GRAIN FOR WEST BROUGHT UP IN HOUSE

Sifton Heard for First Time This Session—Osler Doesn't Approve of Spoon Feeding.

OTTAWA, Jan. 15.—(Special.)—The question of meeting the needs of the farmers of the Northwest for seed grain in view of the damage to the crop last season was discussed in the house this afternoon.

R. L. Borden introduced a bill to amend the revised statutes of Canada, 1906. He explained the needs of the farmers of the Northwest for seed grain in view of the damage to the crop last season.

Mr. Sifton, on the orders of the day being called, arose to direct attention of the government to the necessity of meeting the demand for seed grain in the Northwest, and he did not wish to be understood as saying the position of the people of Saskatchewan was a serious one.

Who Bought the Frost?

Mr. Knowles (Liberal, Saskatchewan) attacked the early frost in the west to the tour of the opposition leader, but Mr. Borden said the frost occurred two weeks before his visit, about the time the minister of the interior made his tour.

Dr. Roche (Conservative, Marquette, Man.) and S. McCarthy (Conservative, Calgary, Alta.) also took part in the discussion.

Hon. Frank Oliver demonstrated the importance of seeding as large an area as possible. On the whole there had been a fairly good crop, but in patches frost had done considerable damage. The matter of affording relief to farmers of Saskatchewan had been discussed with the provincial government, but the question of responsibility that should be assumed by each government had not been decided.

HERE IS MAN WHO WOULD GIVE HIS LIFE FOR THAW

All He Wants is Three Million Dollars for His Family—Is Double of Prisoner.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—One of the 2000 strange letters which have been received by Mrs. Evelyn Thaw since Harry K. Thaw's trial began, which was made public to-day, contained an offer from an Ohio man to substitute himself for Thaw, and, if necessary, be executed. The writer imposed the consideration that his family be paid $3,000,000 as soon as the proposed substitution is complete. His letter covered 60 pages. He declared that he was a double of the prisoner in appearance and could take Thaw's place in his cell by visiting him in order to provide for his family. The letter was coherent in regard to life, was not afraid to die, but made the offer in order to provide for his family. NO SERVICES FOR THE DEAD

Boyetown Clergymen Prostrated—Many Yet Unidentified.

BOYETOWN, Pa., Jan. 15.—This little borough, which lost one-fifth of its population in the opera house horror Monday, to-night turned to the task of burying its dead. Because of the condition of most of the bodies, the borough authorities have asked the bereaved relatives to bury the dead within three days. There was a slight hitch in the work of removing bodies from the morgues by order of Coroner Strasser. This was due to a mix-up in the identification of the body of a boy, and all appeared before the coroner for permission to remove it. Each one was positive that the body was the one they were looking for.

ALBERTA LEGISLATURE.

Relations of Capital and Labor to Come Up.

EDMONTON, Jan. 16.—In the speech from the throne at the opening of the Alberta legislature, the lieutenant-governor said, in part:

"A bill will be submitted for the regulation of the conditions of labor as regards compensation to workmen in case of accidents. I believe that by thus providing on an assured basis for the future relations between capital and labor in this province will be rendered more cordial. From the outset it has been admitted in several of the most industrially-advanced countries of Europe that the conditions under which the mining industry is carried on render it peculiarly necessary in the interest of all concerned to impose some limit on the hours of labor in this occupation."

A bill has therefore been prepared by my ministers imposing regulations in this respect, which, I believe, will have a happy effect on this, the most promising of our infant industries. It is necessary, for your consideration, to deal with the establishment of a government drainage system for the expense incident to important, and necessary work of this description being assessed against an Industrial School.

AN AGE OF REASON.

The days of mystery have passed. There must be a reason for everything, and we demand to be shown the why and the wherefore. Secret or patent medicines must go with the other mysteries. King Palmetto Compound is not a secret remedy—the formula is printed on the label, and you can get expert advice from your physician, who will tell you that it is the most useful prescription ever prepared. Saw stomach, liver, nerves and kidney ailments struggle for the howls, Couch Grass, Corn Silk for the bladder, Golden Seal and Compound Kernerel—a perfect combination. The cause of ill-health is not a mystery either, and we know we should apply our reason to our daily habits, but we do not do so. The result is a clogged liver, and a generally disordered condition of the stomach, liver, nerves and kidney. These things lead to very serious results, and render the body an easy prey to germ diseases, such as Typhoid, Cholera and Consumption. The reasonable solution is to begin taking King Palmetto Compound to-day. One course a day, and the cure begins with the first dose. It will renovate your entire system, cure constipation and indigestion, and purify the blood. Write for a free sample bottle to the King Palmetto Compound, Bridgeburg, Ontario.

BANK RATE IS REDUCED BUT STOCKS SELL LOWER

Lower Money Rates Provoke Realizing at New York—Profits Also Taken at Toronto.

World Office
Thursday Evening, Jan. 16.
There was considerable realizing attempted at the Toronto stock market to-day, and prices sagged under moderate offerings. The market issues were General Electric, Saco Pacific and Toronto Railway, but none of the latter was sold, as there is practically no demand for the stock at the present time. The regular dividend was announced on Twin City, but as no increase was made some dissatisfied holders liquidated. As quite a number of the best stocks are quite in keeping with the New York Exchange, at which a sharp break developed. Much of to-day's selling was due to the fact that it was argued that it did not impair the technical position of the market, but a small share in the day's business.

Wall Street Pointers.
Bank of England rate reduced to 5 per cent.
The reduction in the bank rate falls to stimulate activity in London.
Aitchison operating expenses, as well as earnings, will begin to show decreases in December statement.
Expected reduction in United States Steel earnings for the last quarter of 1905 considerably below $5,000,000.
Good demand for savings bank bonds.
London expects money to ease off rapidly from now forward.
Thirty-three rows for the first week of January show average decrease of 12.98 per cent.

It is reported in the board that the Reading Company has bought the Lehigh Valley.
The Consolidated Gas Company has authorized an issue of $2,000,000 of 5 per cent. debentures. Of this amount $1,500,000 has been sold.
Boston & Montana declares regular quarterly dividend of $2 per share, and an extra dividend of $1.
Joseph says: Keep long of Steels. Speculate: Buy Aitchison on all little dips. Hold B.R.T.

Weekly Bank of France statement: Notes in circulation, increase, $3,750,000; Treasury deposits, increase, $3,300,000; general deposits, decrease, 70,750,000; gold on hand, decrease, 75,000,000; francs in circulation, increase, 725,000,000; bills discounted, decrease, 66,275,000; francs; advances, decrease, 20,125,000 francs.

PHILADELPHIA.—The report from Pittsburgh, which was published in some of the morning papers to-day, to the effect that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company had given a hurry order to the Carnegie Steel Company, to-day ordered a quarterly dividend of $2 per share and $1 extra. This compares with $2 per share regular and $4 per share extra three months ago.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—The directors of the Boston, Montana Consolidated Copper & Silver Mining Co., one of the constituent companies of the Amalgamated Copper Company, to-day ordered a quarterly dividend of $2 per share and $1 extra. This compares with $2 per share regular and $4 per share extra three months ago.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—The firm of Whitney & Kitchener, bankers and brokers, members of the New York Stock Exchange, made an assignment for the benefit of creditors to-day to Bayard Le Peck. The firm is composed of Girard N. Whitney and James V. Geraghty.

LONDON, Jan. 16.—The reduction in the Bank of England rate was anticipated as the fresh gold arrivals, most of which were absorbed by the bank, and the return of cash to the country, so materially strengthened the reserves in the metal, in spite of the considerable amount taken by South America, that there was no excuse for a further prolongation of the higher rate, which so discommodated traders for some months past.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—E. H. Harriman was directed in a decision given by Judge Hough in the United States circuit court to-day to answer all questions propounded to him by the Interstate Commerce Commission, except those relating to the purchase of Union the reappearance of this influence on the market, meaning the increase in speculative operations and the consequent rise in prices. It is quite possible that the increase in speculative operations will be such as to reduce realized earnings and consequently reduce the value of the stock. It is quite possible that the increase in speculative operations will be such as to reduce realized earnings and consequently reduce the value of the stock.

LOWER MONEY

Developments this morning of a general character are not important as far as the stock market is concerned, and we believe much the same kind of a market will be experienced to-day as was witnessed yesterday. We find some of the leading operators in the daily trading position are assuming a neutral attitude, except as regards to specialties that may be taken up as advanced, and in such cases the movement is followed conservatively with the general position favorable to speculations. This attitude, we believe, should be adopted by the trading element for the present.—Financial News.

INFLUENCES FOR AND AGAINST
LOWER MONEY.
The foregoing may be presented in juxtaposition for the sake of clearness:
—For Easy Money—
Release of bondings, $100,000,000
Excess currency reserves, $103,000,000
Usual inflow from interior, $30,000,000
Currency increase, $250,000,000
Drop in securities, releasing, $150,000,000
Bank clearings shrink, $30 per cent.
Lower prices for commodities.
—Against It—
Clearing-house certificates, $150,000,000
Treasury deposits received, $60,000,000
Trust company reserves, $100,000,000
Refunding to March 31, $70,000,000
New York City borrowing, $40,000,000
Postponed borrowing.
Settlement of forced loans.

Bank of England Statement.
LONDON, Jan. 16.—The weekly statement of the Bank of England shows the following changes:
Total reserves, increased $1,594,000; circulation, decreased $574,000; bullion, increased $1,020,016; other securities, decreased $33,000; public deposits, decreased $783,000; notes, reserve, increased $1,568,000; government securities, decreased $2,000,000.
The proportion of the bank's reserve to liability this week is 52.69 per cent., compared with 48.15 last week.
The rate of discount of the Bank was reduced from 6 to 5 per cent. to-day.

On Wall Street.
Chas. Head & Co. to R. R. Bongard: The long overdue reaction occurred in to-day's stock market, prices suffering general declines after an early decline to manipulation, which was obviously due to general realization in certain leading issues, while heavy realization sales were in progress in other departments. The latter was expected for the early demonstration were Northern Pacific, Union Pacific, St. Paul and Reading, and little difficulty was experienced in marking the prices up, but as soon as the manipulation was suspended the trading element which had received realization in other quarters of the list, took to the selling side and prices yielded rather easily under their attack. American Smelters was the leader in the downward movement, the stock being pressed for sale from the heavy withdrawal of the market. The count for it, Amalgamated Copper was also weak, on expectations of a reduction in the dividend at to-day's meeting, and the industrial generally were inclined to sag because of the renewed emphasis placed upon the present unprofitable state of general trade. The decision in favor of the Interstate Commerce Commission directing the Harriman interests to answer the questions put to them during the investigation last year was an unpleasant reminder of the government's anti-corporation attitude, and led to some selling of the related issues. Declines of from one to two points were general throughout the list, but the reaction was regarded as only a temporary one, in view of the previous extensive advances, and there was no appearance of material weakness. A sharp rally in the stock preceded the announcement of half per cent. dividend on Amalgamated, and the whole list sympathized readily. In the final dealings, Reading and Northern Pacific were again rushed to the fore and made strong with a good effect upon the whole list. The closing, though irregular, was strong.

Marshall, Spader & Co. to J. G. Reedy: While not disagreeing to purchase the weight to such influences as the decision to-day in the Harriman case, we imagine the trading and investing public will be for a time influenced by

STRANGE LETTER TAKEN FROM PRISONER'S CELL

Terrace Receives Touching Letters From His Wife and Sister Written on Christmas.

BRAMPTON, Jan. 16.—A letter which fell into the hands of the crown authorities on Friday last will attract considerable attention in the trial of John O. Terrace, or Terrace, for the murder of William Curry.

The letter will be important, not because of what it contains, as there is little likelihood that any weight will be attached to it, but because of its origin. On Friday last the prisoner stated that he had a letter from some unknown individual addressed to James Curry, son of the murdered man. When asked by the sheriff if it had come into his possession he stated that Jas. Curry had dropped it on the floor of the courtroom on the day of the trial before the magistrate and that he, Terrace, had picked it up. When asked to hand it over he said he had given it to a friend. Investigation proved this to be untrue. A search of his cell and clothing was made by Constable Harvey and Jailer Wilson and the letter was found secreted in the mattress of his bed. It is dated Dec. 27, and purports to be from some person who professes to have particular knowledge of the tragedy which have not been revealed, and stating that unless a large sum of money is paid by Mr. Curry to enable the writer to leave the country, the facts will be made known to the crown.

JUNCTION WILL NEED LOTS OF MONEY THIS YEAR

School Accommodation is a Live Question—Local Agricultural Societies Meet.

TORONTO JUNCTION, Jan. 16.—"Where will the money come from," is a question that is bothering more than one municipal body in the Junction just at the present time. The council is in need of a lot of money for the Dundas-street pavement; for the laying of sidewalks. The increasing of the water supply is imperative, and about the only possible way, it is estimated by the superintendent, will cost in the neighborhood of $50,000. Debiture interest will consume an enormous sum, and the ordinary running expenses, naturally rather large in a town with a population of 12,000. The council is by no means the only body requiring money. The collegiate institute board has raised the salaries of all the teachers, which means quite an additional four rooms which, it is estimated, would cost at least $16,000. From the present outlook the board will have to keep on considering, and they have about a chance of putting up with that addition as the council has of spending $50,000 upon its water supply system. Last, but by no means least, come the public school board. Their wants are very urgent and if not complied with the school system throughout Junction, in a few more months at most, will be in a queer condition. At every meeting of the board the overcrowding is discussed, but as yet the solution to the problem is just as far away as ever. The board knows perfectly well what it wants, but how to attain it is a question beyond the capabilities of such an able body as the school board for years past has proven itself to be. There are four schools in the Junction, and of these schools contain in all 33 rooms. The attendance throughout last year was in the neighborhood of 1600, and scarcely one of the rooms was vacant. The increase in the attendance over the year before was 400, and considering the same growth for this year, it is hardly an impossible task to state the problem of any longer. Another school would do away with overcrowding for some years to come. Mr. Mead led the chorus, and a hymn of praise would cost very near to $18,000. "Where is the money to come from?" The council has discussed that question, and the school board has discussed it, and are still discussing it, but so far the solution seems far off. Last year the tax rate was 29 mills, and the limit has been reached, but this year a few proposed improvements will have to be dropped off or the rate will soar a notch or two.

MARKHAM

Markham Fair Continues to Grow in Interest and Numbers.

MARKHAM, Jan. 16.—(Special.)—The annual meeting of the East York and Markham Agricultural Society, held here to-day, was in all respects the most successful in its history, not alone in the interest and enthusiasm manifested, but in attendance as well. The membership is now very large, 80 new ones having joined within the last year. Under the new Agricultural Act only 15 officers can be elected, where formerly 24 were required, ensuring among other things keen elections. The financial statement submitted showed a large gain during the year, a wonderful advance. President W. J. Harper, A. Ward Mills, secretary, and the directors worked like Trojans during the year to ensure the success of the fair.
