AUTOMOBILE VICTIM REPORTED TO BE DYING

Hamilton Man Fell Off Street Car and Sustained Fractured Skull

HAMILTON, July 4.—(Special.)—At St. Joseph's Hospital to-night it is believed that Miss Dorothy Hobson, who was injured in the auto accident on the mountain last Thursday, would not live until morning. She is in a very weakened condition, and is reported to be sinking fast.

A man named Smith, who is thought to live somewhere in the vicinity of F. W. Bird's paper mill on Lottridge-street, fell off a street car on Barton-street late to-night, and was badly injured. He was under the influence of liquor, and was in a semi-conscious condition when taken to the hospital. He was bleeding at the ears, and it is feared that his skull is fractured. It is impossible to ascertain the full extent of his injuries just now.

The police commissioners this afternoon appointed Alfred S. Hind, chief of police of Ottawa, deputy chief of the local force. A position that has been vacant since the death of Jos. Prentice, a couple of years ago. The salary will be at the rate of $1500 per annum, and the agreement can be terminated by either party at the expiration of six months. Hind is to enter upon his new duties on Aug. 1. The appointment has created a lot of soreness among the policemen and detectives, as Detective Bleakley was mentioned as a possible man for the position. The members of the force thought that a local man should receive the job, as an encouragement to the force, and there is talk of a lot of resignations from the ranks. Hind is credited with having done good work on the McLaughlin case. Previously to being appointed chief of police at Ottawa he was on the London, Eng., police force. He has also had some military experience.

The building committee of the public library board took two hours this afternoon to discuss the report of the special committee which made a tour to inspect library buildings. The special committee favored the adoption of the plans presented by an American firm of architects, but the board would not adopt the report. A special meeting of the board will be held shortly to go into the matter again.

The fire and police committee to-night made a recommendation to the board of control that the salaries of the firemen be increased as follows: First year men, $42; second year, $50; third year, $55; and after that time $60. It was decided to pay the law costs of Constables Emerson and Campaign in recent suits brought against them, amounting to $150 each respectively. No more such bills will be paid.

At the meeting of the board of trade this afternoon Capt. Zealand urged the members to endeavor to have the Burlington Canal widened so as to increase the shipping facilities at this port. Chairman Southam will appoint a committee to investigate the matter and report. The board approved of the action of the directors of merchants in closing their stores on Saturday night.

The license commissioners to-night transferred the license of the Army Hotel from Mrs. George Case to J. Gordon, and that of the Court House Hotel from Nell and Hope to Murray, Nell and M. North. George McGill, 218 North Park-street, died this evening, aged 61 years. He leaves a widow, three sons and two daughters. The local brewery workers who have been out on strike for higher wages have settled their differences with the bosses. They have been given a dollar increase on the old scale of wages, shorter hours and time and a half for overtime. The men won a complete victory.

C.N.R. OFFICIALS INSPECT

Pleased With Condition of Road and Prospects of Tourist Traffic.

PARRY SOUND, July 4.—(Special.)—A fast special train, carrying Messrs. Wm. Mackenzie, D. D. Mann, D. E. Hanna, and a party of friends, passed thru here going south. They have been inspecting the Canadian Northern Ontario Railway roadbed and terminals at Key Harbour, and are pleased with the road and the prospects for a big summer tourist business to Muskoka and Georgian Bay ports.

J. C. Eaton and party are making this place their headquarters for a tour of the Georgian Bay.

Progressive Phone Policy.
"I think I can claim for the government of Manitoba the proud position of being the most progressive and enterprising government in the Dominion of Canada. We have taken more new departures, we have initiated more new features of government, and we have established principles of public policy to an extent that no other government can claim.

Internal Grain Elevators.
"I admit that we may be open to the charge of paternalism, but if we can establish that the result of the policy brings additional reward to the farmer of this country and does not cost the citizens generally one dollar, I think I can claim not only justification but I can claim endorsement and support from the farmers as well as the people, irrespective of their political creed.

The Boundary Question.
"When the boundaries of the province are settled and defined, when the terms upon which such increased area as we are asking for, are promised to be given to us, is agreed to, then so far as that is concerned it is a signed book. It is not only a signed book, but it is one that has been opened with the consent of the parliament of Canada; and our experience of the past teaches us that the time boundaries are to be enlarged, which our bill is being prepared, and that matter being adjusted, and not at any subsequent period.

Manitoba is held in check by the Dominion authorities as if it were the other sister confederation. The question naturally arises, why is Manitoba treated in this manner? I wish that I could answer that question, but I think that the man that stands in the way of a greater province than we have, would be sufficiently frank and honest to tell us why it is that he does at the present time; that he declares by his vote in the parliament of Canada that we are not as good as the people of Alberta and Saskatchewan.

A Crisis.
"This is a crisis in the history of Manitoba. If we are beaten Manitoba is crippled, dwarfed for ever, and she shall be an inferior and unimportant province that Sir Wilfrid Laurier apparently designs that she be, because her revenues and resources are taken from her.

What are the revenues of Alberta and Saskatchewan compared with Manitoba? Let us examine the figures. Saskatchewan has 250,000 square miles, Alberta has 254,000 square miles in round figures. Manitoba, 74,000 in round figures. Alberta and Saskatchewan received in lieu of their lands, beginning when they became a province, $375,000, and it continues to increase until it becomes $1,125,000 according to population. Manitoba gets $100,000, and no increase whatever. Now, tell me, if you can, why the people of Alberta should get $1,125,000 and we should only get $100,000?

New Residence District for Motorists

There's a thrill in the sweep and swing of an automobile around the curving drives in Lawrence Park. This new residential district has been laid out by an eminent English landscape gardener and is restricted to high-class houses only.

Situated in the centre of the preferred North Yonge Street area, with an outlook over surrounding country, no place offers equal attractions for anything like the very reasonable introductory prices lots in Lawrence Park are now selling for. Agent on the property every day. If you go by Metropolitan Railway, get off at Glen Grove Avenue. Office and waiting room there.

COBALT, July 4.—(Special.)—Professor Robt. H. Richards, head of the mining engineering courses at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, at Boston, arrived to-day with a summer school. He is a world-wide authority on ore dressing. Professor Nickels of Kingston is also in town.

CONGESTION IS DANGEROUS!

Union Station Facilities so Inadequate as to Be Frightful With Danger.

Sooner or later a bad accident will occur at the Union Station while the present primitive arrangements are allowed to continue. Around ten o'clock last night with two Montreal trains drawn up in the north shed, a large crowd of passengers, several belated trains arrived in the south shed and hundreds of returning holiday seekers disembarked. Crossing between the two Montreal trains the excursionists were confronted with a phalanx of baggage trucks; there was confusion and certainly imminent danger to limb and life. The lethargy of the railways in providing proper facilities for accommodating the ever increasing traffic in Toronto, will eventually be marked by a human sacrifice, as was the case at Bay-street crossing, unless a remedy is soon found.

EATON'S JULY SALE NEWS

Our Paris Letter

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Paris, June 29.—The last few days have been so warm that quite a number of linen dresses have been seen this morning among the fashionable folks who are still thronging the Rue de la Paix, visiting their dress-makers for the finishing touches of their extensive Summer toilettes. Such pretty collars and rabats go with the shirt waists that they will merit description.

The low turn-over collar is of fine white handkerchief linen, only slightly starched, trimmed around the edge with dark blue linen stitched on both sides, with white embroidered dots on the blue bands. The rabat is side-pleated very full, with tiny blue bands on the edge caught in at the neck and near the bottom with knot of the dark blue linen. This collar was worn over a thin white linen shirt waist, the coat and dress being of dark blue linen.

Nearly all of the shirt waists are made of linen, very fine, and on one I noticed a most exquisite collar with Bruges lace butterflies inserted in the top. At the bottom of the collar a ribbon was embroidered for black satin ribbon to run through, tying in a smart bow in front. The rabat was edged with Bruges lace edging.

The third collar was of dark blue satin with a turned-over edge of the finest broderie Anglaise.

By the way, a very chic linen hat has a great vogue now, to be worn exclusively with the linen dress, and to match it in color. The design given is of the queer old color pink now so much a la mode, that is, a cross between shrimp pink and a tea rose, the top entirely covered with the embroidery. A very large rosette of pleated Valenciennes lace is on the left side.

Paris, June 29.—There is no country in the world where the races are better patronized than in France. The Parisians are agog with excitement for the three great races of the year, viz., Chantilly, the Autouil Steeplechase, and last of all the long race of Longchamps, which closes the social season in Paris.

At Chantilly there were so many beautiful costumes that it would take reams of paper to describe half of them.

One of the prettiest styles seen there was the accompanying design, which is the rage now, being made in almost all suits, either of black or dark blue satin. The design is of black satin with a plain, very narrow skirt, and a tunic of the same material open on each side and laced from top to bottom with a small black silk cord.

The dress is also open about half its length, with a dainty little undersleeve of black dotted tulle. The upper part of the gullepe is of coarse-meshed white net drawn tightly across the chest, and finished around the neck with a piping of white satin. The lower part is of dotted black net, and the darning-needle on the front of the waist is done with wonderful shades of greenish blue.

An absolutely tailor-made short black satin coat was worn with this effective costume. The parasol was a dull greenish blue with the embroidered darning-needles all around it. The hat was the same odd blue, faced with the black, and black daisies were placed closed together all over the crown. As a color scheme it was absolute perfection.

"Could Not Come Back" -- James J. Jeffries

Note and Comment Johnson Wins in 15 Rounds

It turns out that Jack Johnson really meant himself in his many pronouncements: "May the best man win." The funny thing about it is that the expert correspondents on the spot could not detect that Jeffries was in no condition. It is a fact that the camp followers of the Bollemaaker overestimated their man, just as the British underestimated the black champion.

Against Johnson Jeffries made a worse showing than Burns. In fact, it was heard on many lips after the battle that the Canadian could now defeat the man who failed to come back.

The duration of yesterday's mill was about up to the standard of championship affairs. Fitzsimmons beat Corbett and Johnson won from Burns each in 14 rounds. Johnson's chance looks long. Tom Sharkey, which was the longest of modern mills, while the shortest was Fitzsimmons' victory over Peter Maher in one round. Other battles for the title: Corbett beat Sullivan 13; Burns beat Jeffries 12; Jeffries beat Fitzsimmons, 11 and 8; Jeffries beat Corbett, 10, and Corbett beat Mitchell in 2.

It is stated that Hugh McIntosh has matched Johnson and Tommy Burns to meet in London for the title, but at this distance Tommy's chance looks long. Indeed, it would appear that the champion has a long grip on the honors.

Tim O'Rourke stated that his winners on Johnson amount to a spare $500, and that he is practically the only man in Toronto who backed the winner. He placed $350 against the half thousand and stood pat.

When in Toronto last winter, Johnson outlined his plan of battle, which he carried out to the letter. He stated that he would box carefully for a dozen rounds and then bring home the bacon. Flanagan is returning July 12, and Johnson, who will come as far as Chicago on the same train, may draw his flying visit to Toronto with his manager.

The Indiana raised Tom Flanagan to the rank of champion from Frank Tompkins, and it remains to be seen what the colored population will do for Jack Johnson's manager, remembering that there's nothing too good for the Irish.

Fight One-Sided From Start

Champion Blocks the White Man's Blows at Every Stage — Jeffries Takes Count of Nine Twice and Then Goes Down and Out.

RENO, Nevada, July 4.—Jack Johnson is still the world's heavyweight champion. He knocked out Jim Jeffries in the fifteenth round today. The fight was one-sided from the start. The negro blocked the old champion's blows at every stage of the game and punished him severely in the last five rounds of the fighting.

At the beginning of the thirteenth round the experts at the ringside passed out the verdict that if Jeffries would simply stay and not fight he might stay the limit. As they came up for the fifteenth round, Johnson went at him savagely. He sent Jeffries to the floor the first time with a rain of lefts and rights. The referee counted to nine twice, and Jeffries took the count of nine twice. Each time Jeffries fell outside the lower rope on the platform. As soon as he got up the second time and staggered for a foothold, Johnson sprang at him like a tiger, and with a few years of swings to the jaw sent him thru the lower ropes of the east side of the ring.

Jeffries was not counted out. As the referee counted to nine, Jeffries was on his feet. He was brought into the ring from Jeffries' corner. Whether counted out or not, it probably will be recorded as a knockout.

Resting on his haunches and right elbow, Jeffries looked around in a dazed way, and got up at the count of nine. While he was down Johnson stood almost over him until Rickard waved him back. He stood ready to strike, and when Jeffries arose from his knees he dashed in again. Jeffries reeled about and tried to clinch, but Johnson eluded him, and as the old champion swung around to the south side of the ring Johnson struck him twice on the jaw. Jeffries sank to his knees, weak and tired, but got up again at the count of nine. It was then that Jeffries' friends began to call to Rickard to stop the fight.

To Save a Knockout. "Stop it, stop it," they shouted from all sides. "Don't let him be knocked out!" Rickard waved his hand, and Jeffries was helpless now, and as he staggered to a standing position the negro stepped forward and struck him on the head with his right hand. Jeffries was down again, and as he staggered to a standing position the negro stepped forward and struck him on the head with his right hand. JACK JOHNSON Colored champion again walks off with the bacon.

the Governor of Nevada. Every man rose and responded with a will. Johnson crawled thru the ropes at the north corner, followed by his accords, Billy Delaney, Al Kaufman, Fred Burns, George Cotton, Doc Furey, Dave Miller, and the referee, Stanley Ketchel, was already in the ring.

Johnson chose the southwest corner, which would place the black man with his back to the sun.

Johnson walked out the ring without a mark on his body, except a slight cut on his lip, which was the reopening of a wound received in training.

Ring experts agree that it was not even a championship fight. Jeffries had a chance in the second round, perhaps, but after the sixth it was plain that he was weakening and outclassed at every point. After the seventh round it was hopeless.

It was the greatest demonstration the ring has ever seen of the failure of a fighter to "come back" after a defeat. Johnson's victory was a real one.

At 2:30 p.m. Johnson doffed his robe and stepped into the ring. He was wearing a pair of purple trunks, with a silk American flag for a belt. Jeffries' reception was much less hearty than Johnson's. He looked brown and rugged, his muscles showing much as they did when he fought his last fight.

The Fight in Toronto Interest Was General

Growsd Attend Local Reports Where Rounds Were Called Off. Also Watched the Bulletin.

Local fight fans and the general public had a late supper yesterday because they desired to find out the result at Reno while it was hot. At Shea's and the Star and one of the picture theatres the fight returns were received. The different newspapers posted the bulletin. Monday was fine and cool in Toronto, and dry and a scorcher at Reno.

It was close to six o'clock when the ticker told that the man had shaken hands. She's was so crowded that it was obliged to take a crowd stool before the curtain, where my friend, W. J. Johnson, principal, in to-day's prize fight, and find both men in perfect physical condition.

As required by law, we have this day examined James J. Jeffries and Jack Johnson, principals, in to-day's prize fight, and find both men in perfect physical condition.

On the eve of the biggest thing in his life, Jack Johnson sat, with a party of friends, yesterday afternoon and talked jokingly of his career. "To-day I am thinking of the hard road I've travelled since I left home, when I was 12 years old. I ran away as a kid, stowed away on a cotton steamer, and landed in New York."

"I didn't have a nickel. As the ship docked I went on deck, and standing in the centre of a crowd of passengers, with my longest hair and my saddest eyes, I announced that a worthless colored boy without friends, family or money was about to jump overboard."

"I talked to the rail and told everybody to keep away from me. My old cap I had allowed to fall on the deck. I turned around about to try my bluff at the fatal plunge, a woman followed me, and my first meal in the big city was chicken."

"Since that time for twenty years I have travelled over most of the world, and have had my ups and downs. "But my ambition has been realized. I have taken my old mother out of that Boston shanty, where I was raised from a baby, and I've put her in the best house I could find in Chicago. She's got everything she wants and I'm happy."

Just before the battle, the fighters, according to custom, issued statements. Johnson's stick measuring just double that of Jeffries' showed that he was this time the better qualified for the title.

THE BATTLE BY ROUNDS

FIRST ROUND—Jeffries walking in and feeling. Both smiled, and Jack gave ground. Johnson let a straight left and landed lightly on Jeffries' face. They were in a clinch, Johnson shoving Jeffries away. Jeffries walked in and hooked left to neck, and in clinch sent right to body. Johnson responded with a right, and they continued to stand breast to breast, trying for short inside blows. As they broke Jeffries sent a left to Johnson's neck and the negro stepped in with a left, but missed. The going rang when they were in a clinch. The fighters were tense, and as they turned to their corners, Jeffries tapped Jack on the shoulder and smiled.

SECOND ROUND—Jeffries assumed his crouch, but missed first attempt. Jack forced, and Jeffries stepped nimbly away. Jack sent a left to the face and then ripped in. They held together, and were willing to give each other any chance. Jeffries sent right to ribs, and left on face at close quarters. Jeffries crouched and waited for Johnson, but he was not willing to catch without a right. Johnson tried his uppercut, but missed. Jeffries put his weight on Johnson and pushed him back. When they broke Johnson sent left to Jeffries' face and tried uppercut, but missed again. There was a lot of wrestling and not much fighting. The going rang without a good blow being struck.

THIRD ROUND—"Take it easy, Jeffries," said Corbett, as they walked to the centre. Jeffries called in and led for head, but missed. Johnson hooked stiff left to body and right to head, but neither blow was hard. They shoved and pushed each other about the ring, while Corbett kept up a continual flow of talk to Johnson. Jeffries hooked left to body. Jeffries stood breast to breast, and they wailed and showed about. Johnson sent two lefts to face and tried right for chin, but missed. Jeffries was simply a wrestling bout thus far. The going rang while they were in a clinch.

FOURTH ROUND—Jeff took his crouch position again and walked in. He missed and they came together in a tight clinch. Johnson tried his right for chin, but missed, and they began an exchange of talk. Jeff put his weight on Johnson, and the blood from Johnson's lip. The crowd yelled, "First blood for Jeffries!" but Johnson only smiled. Jeff sent a left to Johnson's nose and snappy left to his face, and they came to a clinch. Jeff sent left to Johnson's nose and snappy left to his face, and they came to a clinch. Jeff sent left to Johnson's nose and snappy left to his face, and they came to a clinch.

FIFTH ROUND—Jeff took his crouch position again and walked in. He missed and they came together in a tight clinch. Johnson tried his right for chin, but missed, and they began an exchange of talk. Jeff put his weight on Johnson, and the blood from Johnson's lip. The crowd yelled, "First blood for Jeffries!" but Johnson only smiled. Jeff sent a left to Johnson's nose and snappy left to his face, and they came to a clinch.

SIXTH ROUND—Again Jeffries crouched. Johnson pouncing in two stiff lefts to face. One of them cut Jeffries' cheek a bit. Again they came together in a tight clinch, neither willing to take a chance. Jeffries rushed, but missed a left for the body and took a right to the chest. Johnson kept up a running flow of talk to Jeff when they came to a clinch. Jeff sent a left to Johnson's nose and snappy left to his face, and they came to a clinch. Jeff sent left to Johnson's nose and snappy left to his face, and they came to a clinch.

ABOUT JACK JOHNSON HOW HE REACHED GOAL

Repates of the Champion While on Firing Line—His Remarkable Record.

For six years John Arthur Johnson has been working with one end in view, and that was to reach, of course, when he knocked out Jim Jeffries at Reno yesterday.

Johnson began to loom up on the pugilistic horizon in 1904. "Jeffries don't touch me," was his boast even in those days, and he treated continually over the fact that until he acquired a reputation his prospects for a championship battle were not bright.

Johnson's first fight was with an Australian, and he was victorious. He says he believed then as he does now in his ability to achieve the title as he did it without meeting fighters of class.

LEAFS DIVIDE BILL OVER AT BUFFALO

Rochester Wins Two From Montreal—Newark and Skeeters Break Even

BUFFALO, July 4.—Independence Day was celebrated by Toronto and Buffalo splitting even in the two games played here morning and afternoon. Buffalo winning the morning game 5 to 4 and the Leafs the afternoon game 3 to 1. For club badly crippled the Maple Leafs put up a starting class of ball, and had Rudolph able to locate the plate in the morning contest there is every reason to believe that Joe Kelly's boys would have gathered in a pair of victories in place of the one. Rudolph was most generous and walked the first three batters to face him, filling all the edges of the diamond. Then along came Corcoran and biffed the first good ball Rudolph struck across the plate. Two runs clambered over the home plate.

Rudolph was yanked by Kelley and given some quiet fatherly advice about getting off badly. Lundgren came to the mound, and, altho up against a tough job, pulled out well and no more Blons were sent to the plate. These charities which Rudolph handed out were sufficient for the Blons to win. Toronto made a game fight to the very end of the eleven innings necessary for Buffalo to win. Merritt fairly pitched his head off, blanking Toronto in the last six innings. Buffalo tied the score in the sixth, and the clubs battled hard in the next five.

Mullen fell on the ball for a lovely triple in the second and scored on the same when they tried to get him at third, the throw-in being missed by a half dozen over-anxious Blons. Buffalo added a pair in the sixth, which, with the two scored in the first, netted them four. Toronto hit wickedly in the fifth, and for a time it looked like farewell for Mr. Merritt. Delehanty, Mullen and Shaw clouted the ball. Merritt and Corcoran made mistakes. These little things with the outs and some headwork gave Toronto three runs.

The damage was a bit too far for Lundgren, for he weakened in the seventh, and with two singles, a sacrifice and one out, the Blons scored the winning runs and players and fans rushed away to dinner in order to be on time for the doings of the afternoon.

Rudolph Sent Back.
Rudolph went right back in the box when it came time to start the second game, and was there with bells on. He held the fortunate Blons down to five hits and won his battle by a 2 to 1. He was not in half the Toronto Taylor was, and had things his own way even though he was hit for a double and a triple at different times. Toronto scored right off the real. Two outs made no difference to the visitors. Shaw and McDonald had been disposed of when Kelley drew a pass and he finished up the round on the singles of Slattery and Delehanty. Buffalo evened up on this one run in the fourth, but could not follow the leaders after that time. Two hits and as many outs gave Mullen the chance to score in the sixth. After Sabrie had been given a three bases hit on ground rules and Williams had been walked to first, Carmichael was sent in to wield the hickory in the place of Taylor. Carmichael hit into a double and trouble was at an end, Smith having been retired at first. That was one of the toughest spots Rudolph had to face. He hit into a double and McAllister hit one to left in the ninth, and Rudolph sent a high fly which was lost in the sun. White ducked, and as they broke up the game, Kelley drew a pass. Kelley's left and right hands were as good as dead. Kelley's left hand was as good as dead. Kelley's left hand was as good as dead.

GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP OF ELEVATORS.

If a recent Ottawa news despatch is to be believed the Dominion Government, acting on expert advice, has virtually decided to take over all the terminal elevators on Lake Superior and make them a government monopoly. This course is understood to have had the approval of all the officials of the department of trade and commerce who have to deal with grain regulation and inspection, as the only one possible under existing circumstances. The demand for government ownership of terminal elevators has been pressed for some years by the western grain growers, but the government considered the requirements would be sufficiently met by official supervision. Recent convictions of elevator companies for manipulating grades, however, have, it is affirmed, satisfied the department that the only solution is out and out government ownership.

The matter of grading is one of immense importance to the whole Dominion. Wheat growing is and must remain one of its most important industries and it is essential that no grain should pass out of the country that is not strictly what it is affirmed to be, otherwise the reputation of Canada will suffer still more seriously than it has already done. Confidence can no longer be placed in private management except under such a measure of official supervision as in effect to mean absolute control. That being so the preferable policy to adopt is straight government ownership and responsibility, and The World trusts the federal authorities have come to that conclusion. The wheat raising provinces are moving in the direction of government ownership of internal elevators, and this, coupled with Dominion ownership of terminals, appears to be the only satisfactory way of meeting the exigencies of the situation.

IMPERIAL EVOLUTION.

Speeches comparable to those delivered at the Dominion Day banquet in London would have been impossible only the matter of a quarter of a century ago. This note of course from a rhetorical or patriotic aspect, but on account of the changed view of the inter-imperial relationship which they so clearly indicated. The process has been gradual, but the steps have not been slow, and the later of them exceptionally rapid looking to the antagonism between the previous and present conceptions of the empire. Movements and developments which at one time would have been regarded as disintegrating are now not so much tolerated as recognized to be in the highest degree helpful and unifying.

Lord Crewe was among the first of British statesmen to welcome the claim of the outer-sea dominions to independent nationhood and to be treated not as subordinate states, but as co-partners. The motherland has readily accepted the common-sense proposition that the self-governing states should individually conduct negotiations touching their own affairs and in this way has shown her confidence that they are prepared to give adequate weight to all genuinely imperial interests. This indeed is the only way by which unnecessary friction can be avoided and responsibility placed on those to whom it rightfully belongs. It is a novel experiment, perhaps impossible of accomplishment to-day, except in the case of countries inheriting British aptitudes and traditions. But if it succeeds, of which there is good ground for hopeful anticipation, the essay will be rich in wisdom no less for the world than the empire.

TIME TO PAY FINES.

Mr. Winston Churchill, secretary of state for home affairs in the British Government, has expressed himself as in strong sympathy with the proposition that a term of grace should be allowed offenders having settled homes and occupations within which to pay fines imposed upon them. The hardship consequent on imprisonment in the case of men who could have paid their fines had a little time been granted for that purpose has been very considerable and the governor of a London prison recently stated that at least one-fourth of those daily under his charge ought not to be in prison at all.

The home secretary described the existing system as intolerable and promised instant attention to the matter since it was evident that the poor were sent to prison for small offences that would be condoned in wealthier people. Both in Britain and in Canada the criminal law in minor cases presses far more severely on the poor than on the rich and equality can only be secured by the exercise of common sense discrimination. Magistrates are often too much disinclined to exercise reasonable discrimination, and it is significant that the late home secretary's recommendation that time should be allowed was not effectual. Hence the appeal to his successor and the request for an amendment of the law.

ADMINISTRATIVE RESPONSIBILITY.

In his address last week at the annual meeting of the Harvard Phi Beta Kappa, Governor Charles E. Hughes referred to the growing importance in the community of questions of administration and rightly attributed to this the increasing demand for civic government reform. The exercise of a larger measure of control over the instrumentalities of government, he remarked, is the result of the effort to ensure fidelity and enforce accountability on the part of public officers. It is manifested, he continued, in many changes in political methods and strikingly in the centralization of administrative authority under recent municipal charters.

Immediate and individual responsibility is the secret of all administrative success just as the diffusion of authority and responsibility lies at the root of all administrative inefficiency. Civic government by commission aims at introduction of the former and also at the provision of opportunities for a free and direct expression of public opinion not alone in the appointment of the departmental heads, but with regard to the manner in which their duties are fulfilled. Where city councils have the capacity and courage to follow business principles their supervision of administrative work may not be urgent, but when they fail in this vital matter it becomes an absolute necessity.

North Toronto and Its Affiliation With the City.

Saturday night's public meeting in North Toronto was a fair demonstration in regard to the people of the town in regard to annexation. It was the most unfavorable night for a public meeting, but the attendance demonstrated that the people of the town are fully alive to the condition of affairs which exists in the municipality.

Those of the ratepayers of North Toronto who were present at the meeting voiced their inmost sentiments in relation to the matters which the meeting had in hand and it was a commentary on the strength of the annexation sentiment when, at the request of the chairman, a vote was taken on the resolution favoring annexation.

The support for the resolution was practically unanimous, there being only two in opposition. One of these, Mr. W. G. Ellis, was not strongly antagonistic to the movement, his opposition being perhaps more in the shape of a request for delay and further discussion in the matter rather than a decided stand against the forward movement.

North Toronto's desire to participate in the big increase in the expansion of Toronto is being watched by other sections of the city which are not so favorably situated for residential purposes as is the town. In that the northern municipality is now provided with almost an adequate system of water pipes and well arranged and orderly sidewalks, a fair system of fire protection and good educational facilities, its appeal to the city for annexation will meet with a reception better than that of some of the portions of York Township which have been forced into the hands of Toronto.

It is presumed that the necessary plans which have been prepared and submitted to the town council will at once be put in shape to keep the annexation movement to the front, and the record of the present town council, with perhaps one exception, is favorable to the annexation plan.

North Torontonians are aroused because of the possibilities which they see ahead of them and appear to be very desirous of having a vote taken on this important question.

TWO NEGROES LYCHED BY A MISSOURI MOB

Taken From Jail and Strung Up Because They Had Shot a Farmer in Cold Blood

CHARLESTON, Mo., July 4.—After yelling outside the jail, where were incarcerated two negroes who had murdered a farmer, an infuriated mob made a rush, trampled down a fence and battered their way in with a railroad tie. As many women and children were in the mob, the authorities were afraid to shoot.

Robert Coleman was dragged forth and lynched in the jail yard, while the negro was killed by a mob on a tree and put on a gallows over a limb. The negro was jerked up and soon swung clear of the crowd. From the mob, however, many women witnessed the lynching.

While Coleman was being hanged, another body of men, armed with shotguns and rifles, started for the jail. A rope was placed around his neck and the mob shouting, started west along Court street. The negro and Coleman had been the revolver they had used in shooting William Fox, the man whose name was being called. The men in charge, after a short parley, decided to take the negro to find the revolver.

The rope still about his neck, and drawn tightly by his captors, Fields was thrown into a carriage. Fields followed by the mob, on foot, in carriages and in automobiles, the crowd started to the scene of the execution half a mile out of town. After going about a mile, the negro told the captors he "guessed after all he could not find the spot."

A stop was then made, and Fields was taken to the carriage, and without any preliminary the rope was tossed over the limb of a tree and Fields was strung up.

REGULATING GASOLINE LAUNCHES.

Editor World: In view of the number of accidents caused by the reckless and ignorant manner in which gasoline launches are now being run, surely it is time that the city council should be compelled to carry a license, certifying that he has passed an examination which will at least ensure a knowledge of the laws relating to the operation of such launches, and the proper side on which to pass a boat, either in meeting or overtaking.

At the present time, the one in charge of a launch seems to have the idea that he has the right of way over every other launch, and that a small rowboat or canoe, at top speed, regardless of the fact that the launch caused may easily bring about an accident.

On Saturday, for instance, as a friend and myself were rowing on the lake, we had just pulled out to avoid a small boat, when a launch came off from the bank at full speed. They were heading straight for us, and but for the fact that we were both accustomed to maintain a steady course, we would certainly have been run down. By backing hard on the left we just managed to avoid the launch by about two feet, and were nearly through against the other boat by the wash thrown up.

Launches of all sizes will go through the lagoon at full speed, regardless of the danger to small boats caused by the wash made in such a narrow place, and where there should be some regulation as to speed in such places.

If such launches had to be licensed, and the operator had to appear in person, in the same style as those carried by automobiles, it would be a great deterrent to the number of ignorant water hogs who now appear to think that they own the bay.

Trusting that you will find room for this.

LONELY ON THE FARM.

One of the Effects of the Introduction of Agricultural Machinery.

Power has always lingered in ownership of the land. This has been somewhat obscured in America by the fact that there has been during the infancy and youth of the republic so much land and so few people. With the settlement of the country, however, we are approaching nearer and nearer to the conditions of the farmer in America is to-day more a person of consideration than ever before; the discerning may make out the beginning of the development of a "landed gentry" in the rural districts not taken too seriously. The increase of the farmer in substance and his rise in social and political consideration are among the most interesting signs of the times.

There is, however, a factor present here which is new in the history of the development of the land-holding interest of new country, namely, the farmer of the old world increased in wealth and power by becoming a large employer of labor. As his possessions grew his household grew likewise. A peasantry was developed near the manor house clustered cottages whose occupants composed the farmer's workers' force. Large farmers meant many people; the farmer became manager of men.

A generation has changed all that. The farmer to-day is not an overlord of men; he is a mechanical engineer. No small house rises near his own; his machine shed grows larger and larger. He plows with gang plows; he reaps with "headers"; he has an inexpensive machine which he attaches behind his wagon which loads on it the hay from the meadow. Instead of the fields full of reapers, a single man drives a machine all day long around a square whose sides grow shorter with every round; there are machines to dig potatoes to plant corn, to cut fodder—even to milk cows.

Modern progress has banished companionship from the farmer's life; yes, even companionship with his horse. When he wants to go to town to-day he gives the crank of his thirty horse-power motor car a turn and lays hold of a lever and a wheel.

The effect of this is yet to be studied and ascertained. At this moment we may wonder just what result will come from this sharpening of the farmer's intellect in one direction; this dilution of his executive powers, this intensifying of the business of the country by leaving the tiller to the soil during the working hours with no companion but a machine.—St. Louis Republic.

TUBE REPORT NOT READY

Experts Want More Information and Further Time is Needed.

Indications now are that the expert report on a system of municipal tubes will not be ready for several weeks or a month.

J. G. Davies and James Forgie with two junior members of the firm of Jacobs and Davies, the New York engineers, who were engaged to prepare the report, are in the city. The special object of their visit is to enquire into traffic conditions as they now exist. They were taken around the city by Ald. McCarthy, chairman of the city committee, and City Engineer Rust. Mr. Rust has already a mass of information available showing the trend of traffic through the city, statistics of the streets, having been prepared from time to time to back up the city's arguments against the company.

Mr. Davies says, however, that there is an immense amount of information still to be secured, and that it is unlikely the report will be ready until the end of July.

DOUGLAS INDIGNANT

Says Montreal Interview is Entirely Fictitious.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)

LONDON, July 4.—Having read a cutting, giving summary of an alleged interview at Montreal, Sir A. Douglas was most indignant, and said: "I do not make a speech of any description, neither have I given any newspaper in Canada an interview. The whole thing is absurd. I am very indignant that remarks should be attributed to me which I never made. I did not go near the west, my time being spent between New York and Montreal. The views expressed in the article are entirely opposite to my views. My friends cannot wonder that I feel perfectly indignant that such attempts have been made to create bad feeling. It is absolutely wicked."

Fine Sample of Ry.

A sample of Ry. 6 feet 2 inches in height has been received at the Timiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway offices from Toronto, 125 miles north of North Bay and 25 miles north of Englishart. "This is a fair sample of what the great north country can do," said one official.

HITCH IN BIG SEWER PLANS

Judge Winchester Rejects Assessment Plan for Seventh Ward Drainage.

Judge Winchester yesterday gave an order setting aside the assessment on the sewer designed to serve the southern portion of the seventh ward as confirmed by the court of revision.

The judge pointed out that the assessment commissioner had come to the conclusion that the parties interested had not been properly assessed, and ordered that the whole question be referred back to the council to amend their procedure in the matter. This means that the whole question is now thrown open again. Appeal against the assessment was brought by the National Trust Company and the executors of the Davidson estate, who contended that the city instead of paying only one-quarter of the cost as provided should bear the "trunk" sewer and not a "common" one.

BALTIC IN COLLISION

Liner Comes Into Port With Six Foot Hole in Her Side.

NEW YORK, July 4.—With a six-foot hole in her side, the White Star liner Baltic docked to-day.

In the black of night, last Thursday, she jammed into the oil tank steamer Standard, bound from Philadelphia to Copenhagen. The shock of the impact aroused the sleeping passengers, who hurried to the decks in grave apprehension.

Repairs were made and a patch was placed over the hole in the Baltic's bow. After a delay of more than two hours the Baltic steamed away on her course for New York.

A seaman was reported missing after the accident, and it was thought that he was knocked overboard by the impact.

British Naval Manoeuvres.

PLYMOUTH, Eng., July 4.—Approximately 300 British fighting ships, with an aggregate displacement of more than 1,000,000 tons, to-day began summer manoeuvres off the south coast.

The combined fleet includes 7 Dreadnoughts, 3 Invincibles, 32 other battleships, 22 armored cruisers, and a miscellaneous collection of torpedo boats, destroyers, submarines, scouts, minelayers, and depot, repair and hospital ships.

Divisional Court.

Before Falconbridge, J., Riddell, J., Latchford, J.

Crown Art Stained Glass Co. v. Cooper—A. J. R. Snow, Esq., for plaintiff; J. McCarthy, for defendant. J. G. G. (Gedrich), for the Presbyterian Church. Judgment: This is a Mechanics' lien case, tried at Goderich before Judge Doyle, resulting in a finding that the plaintiff had not proved a lien and was not entitled to a lien. An appeal was taken to a divisional court and the matter came on for hearing Jan. 11, 1910. It seemed to us that the plaintiff should fall, but we suggested that they be given an opportunity to do the work for which they claimed a lien. This was acceded to by defendants etc. The work has been done to the satisfaction of the defendants and the court is now moved upon the question of costs. We are of opinion that the proper rule is laid down in Dodge v. Harton, and the plaintiffs then will pay the costs of all proceedings, including the costs of this appeal, such costs from any sum payable by them to the plaintiffs.

CHIEF JUSTICE FULLER DEAD.

BAR HARBOR, Me., July 4.—Chief Justice Melville W. Fuller of the U. S. supreme court, died of heart failure in his summer home in Sorrento, at 8 o'clock this morning.

Melville Weston Fuller was born in Augusta, Maine, Feb. 11, 1833. He was appointed chief justice of the United States April 20, 1888.

Peary Dogs Coming.

Three of the husky dogs which were used by Commander Peary in his dash for the north pole will arrive in Toronto shortly, to be called for by Capt. Scott's agents. A letter was received yesterday by Mayor Geary from Lieut. Col. H. D. Borup, N.Y., stating that his son, the young Yale student, who was one of the expedition, has presented these three dogs, which were given him by Peary, to Captain Scott, who will attempt to reach the south pole. These dogs are very valuable, and will be an asset to the British commander.

Double-Tracking Delayed.

Some trouble is being encountered by the T. and N. O. in completing the double-tracking of the line in that section. The land slides more or less and piling will probably have to be done.

Doing Business in New Stations.

The Timiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway have taken over the new station at Cobalt, which has just been finished by the contractors. The fine brick station at Cochrane is nearly completed.

JOHNSON THE WINNER IN FIFTEENTH ROUND

It may be a fitting place here to mention that thru all the excitement of this afternoon nowhere in the crowd was there the least disturbance.

Back of me sat Mike Murphy, the veteran University of Pennsylvania trainer. He had brought his thirteen-year-old son to the fight, for, as he said, he wished him to see men, real men, and to see the rules of sport.

There followed the usual exchange of introductions, and a hippodrome of champions, ex-champions, near-champions, and near-near-champions appeared. John L. Sullivan, pugilist, sixth and green of memory; Fitzsimmons, with the hat of an alpine yodler; and Mike Murphy, pugilist, sixth and green of memory; Fitzsimmons, with the hat of an alpine yodler; and Mike Murphy, pugilist, sixth and green of memory; Fitzsimmons, with the hat of an alpine yodler.

HOW THE GLADIATORS APPEARED IN RING

Suddenly there burst forth a wild acclaim from us and down the aisle from the east came the central figures in the real drama. It was Johnson, as we could see from his round shaven head, and then, following Jeffries, a crowd of about a dozen men, from the opposite quarters came Jeffries.

The first bloody cry of the thousands echoed as the men climbed into the ring. It was the race note sounding, and I watched the black champion for a sign which would indicate that he was ready for the fight.

When the Returns Came in. "Aw, shut up," was the most printable remark addressed to the man on the stage, "that was in yesterday's paper."

"Boys, I'm not responsible for the service," was the candid reply. It was anything but favorably received.

"Can't a man voice his own sentiments?" asked the man on the stage. "Johnnie got in two good ones," was announced.

"Hoorsy!" screamed a solitary individual. "Shut up, you idiot, that's Johnson," shouted his dozen of ones.

PERCY HASWELL PLAYERS SEEN IN "HER OWN WAY"

Clyde Fitch Comedy Given a Splendid Production at the Royal Alexandra—Large Audience.

Not during their hitherto very successful season have the Percy Haswell Players been seen to better advantage than in "Her Own Way," the society comedy drama by Clyde Fitch.

As presented by this really superior stock company, it arrested the attention of the large audience at the Royal Alexandra from the outset.

The drama has an interesting love story, and that provides enough attraction. But Clyde Fitch was too accomplished a playwright not to fill his canvas with a sufficiency of artistic incidents and to provide the necessary personal color.

So that even the characters outside the proper theme lend themselves to its development and relieve the situation that might otherwise have become too strained.

The story turns on the speculative tendencies of Stephen Carley, who acquires a stepmother anxious to acquire social distinction, a wife imbued with the same weakness, but yet capable of real affection, and a sister, Georgiana, the heroine of the play.

Rich and is loved by Lieutenant Coleman and has another admirer in the person of Sam Coast, and a cousin to Mr. Stephen Carley. The latter gentleman has the villain of the piece, as successful a stock operator as Carley is unfortunate, and determined to make Georgiana his wife at all costs.

Stephen Carley's mother and his wife's fortune, and tempted by Coast, not only breaks his promise to his sister, but gambles away her fortune, which is under his control.

Coast further leads Lieutenant Coleman to believe that he is Georgiana's betrothed, and this prevents the declaration which the lieutenant is on the point of making before his departure for the Philippines, whither his regiment is ordered.

But Georgiana is made of a truer quality than her father, and she is forced upon her, and after an agony of suspense caused by a report that her lover's regiment has been wiped out in an ambush, at last reveals the coward of her fidelity. Coleman returns wounded and covered with honor, and the curtain falls on a happy reunion.

Miss Percy Haswell achieved a well-deserved success in the trying role of Georgiana. Her presentation was an admirable one in all respects, and especially in the more trying moments of the play.

The interview with her lover before his departure for the front, and the contest between her father and her maidenly restraint was most artistically depicted, and no acting could have been more touching and pathetic than that which marked her reception of the news of her father's return to the regiment.

It caused that spell of silence over the audience which is the best of compliments. Miss Haswell well acted in all respects, and especially in the more trying moments of the play.

AVIATORS DISCOVER NEW HANDICAP

Saint Paul Aviation Meet Proves Dry Warm Air is Handicap to Aeroplanes.

Lower Tier—Glen H. Curtis, winner of the New York-to-Albany flight—Curtis racing with Oldfield, the crack auto driver.

Upper Tier—Stroble's dirigibles—Curtis in an aeroplane against Wild and Stroble in dirigibles.

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 4.—Aviators at the St. Paul aviation meet discovered a new wrinkle in the performance of aeroplanes, engines when they attempted flights in the clear, intense heat of the sun during the warmest period the city has experienced this summer. It was practically impossible to bring their engines up to the standard number of revolutions and continued attempts forced Glen H. Curtis, the famous winner of the New York-Albany race, to declare that the air was too dry and that his engines would not work properly without a more humid atmosphere.

COOL KITCHEN—Perfect Cooking

The housewife with years of experience—the woman who knows how to cook—finds, after practical tests and hard trials, the New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove is her idea of what a good cook-stove really ought to be.

She finds it requires less attention, costs less to operate, and cooks all food better than any other stove she has ever tried. She finds the New Perfection oven bakes and roasts perfectly. The

HOW ON EXHIBITION

Representative Collection is Open to the Public in Art Museum on College Street.

Sir Edmund Walker and the Art Museum Association of Toronto have inaugurated a new activity in the line of their work of fostering the artistic taste of the city.

A loan exhibition of representative Canadian work was opened yesterday in the spacious and well-lighted galleries of the public library on College-street as a forerunner of what may be expected in the quarters which the municipality has at the Grand-trunk Smith set aside at The Grange for that purpose.

Both seasons of the galleries are being with a varied assortment of pictures on the wall, and all bearing labels with the subject and the artist's name plainly lettered. This latter is such an excellent device that it is striking in the exhibition of pictures in the city will ever again fail to adopt it.

Archibald Browne has several exquisite nightfall scenes. George Reid's well-known "Wood Cutter" has an honored place, and Mrs. Reid is presented also. J. W. L. Forster has several splendid portraits, that of General Booth being the most notable, the locally famous O'Keefe will be recognized as readily in a life-like canvas. Mr. Forster's "Debutant" is very sweet. Wylie Grier shows his fine study of "Winter work." Perhaps the portrait work is the most attractive, but those who revel in the modern impressionist school will find many fine examples.

For an unheralded loan collection the Art Museum is to be congratulated upon its ability to draw together so many interesting pictures, and the result speaks well for the field of art from which they are drawn.

TREASURER ARMSTRONG RESIGNS POSITION

Well Known York Township Official Steps Out—Big Grist of County News

UNIONVILLE, July 4.—(Special).—A. D. Smith, for a number of years actively identified with railway construction work in the Northwest, and latterly in New Ontario with the big contracting firm of Foley, Welch & Stewart, with headquarters at the firm's headquarters, is home on a short visit to his parents.

To the World yesterday Mr. Smith said that the work of grading on the 150 miles east of Cochrane, in the new quarters, was proceeding satisfactorily. On 28 miles the steel has been laid, for 18 miles beyond the crossing of the Abitibi River, where a long delay occurred, due to the difficulty of getting solid foundation for the piers.

On the Cochrane division of the G. T. P. Foley, Welch & Stewart are operating a force of nearly 2000 men, a large proportion of whom are Russians. "We find them eminently satisfactory," said Mr. Smith, "and they are fast superseding all other kinds of labor."

As to the character of the work on the G. T. P., he states that it will be surpassed by no other in America. In grades and curvatures, steel bridges, cement culverts and 80-lb. steel rails throughout.

Mr. Smith will remain a fortnight or so before returning to the north, but the local bowlers were successful on Saturday afternoon in defeating the Markham team by a margin of one. At full time the score stood 15 all, but the play-off gave the mark to the local men.

On Wednesday afternoon Thomas Ogden's new barn will be raised. Local Cricketers Meet First Defeat of the Season.

On Friday afternoon last Bedford Park C. suffered their first defeat in the C. and M. League series. Score—Bedford 135, B. P. 37.

The home team traveled in hard luck. The condition of the crease made it a batter's chance. Eatons went to bat first and did very well. When the B. P.'s started, in late hour and smoky atmosphere, proved a serious handicap. It was a good game.

LAND SHOULD GO TO CITY OF TORONTO, SAYS LAURIER

Deputation Asks Grant of New Land at North End of Western Sandbar

OTTAWA, July 4.—"The matter is a new one to me, but I feel that the land should go to the City of Toronto in preference to anybody else. The only question is whether it should be a free grant or not."

This statement by Sir Wilfrid Laurier was received with joy by Mayor Geary, Controllers Spence and Ward and President W. J. Gage of Toronto Board of Trade, during a conference this morning with the prime minister.

The deputation came down to ask the government to grant the city 45 acres of new land at the north end of the western sandbar, Toronto, which has been created through the construction of the new water channel. The property lies to the north and south of the new gap, and the latter portion, 23 acres in extent, contains ten of the cottages owned by summer residents of the point.

The city's application is not the only one for the property. An influential private corporation has been endeavoring to secure it. Therefore, Sir Wilfrid's statement was the more welcome to members of the deputation.

Controller Spence told Sir Wilfrid that the city wants the land as an addition to its park system, and that if the application is successful, the city would promise to protect the land by means of revetment walls and top-dressing, and that the intention is to run a canal to the north side of the new channel, and to transport citizens to a fine park on the lake front of the island for one fare.

Mr. Pugsley—"That land cost the government a great deal of money. I am told it is worth from $2500 to $5000 an acre. Then how can you justify, from a Dominion standpoint, the gift of that property to the city? We also made 18 acres of land for the city which were dredging there, and could have made more, but you would not let us."

Mayor Geary—"Some of the fault of that was on both sides. The contractor asked a half-cent a yard more than he had been getting, and we split on that."

Mr. Pugsley—"That was very unfortunate, for it puts me in the position of asking a half-cent a yard more for an extra 100 yards of the additional 18 acres, and that all makes it harder to carry a proposal to give that land to the city."

Controller Spence—"Of course the money was not spent to make this land. It was spent to make the new channel and the land was made because it was a favorable location to deposit the sand."

Sir Wilfrid—"The proposition as I understand it is that after making that new channel and the city free, we hand the land to the city. We ask you to give us the land, but if the government feels that it should receive some return for the money spent, then we feel so strongly that we will not give you to us to own the land, we will set you, put your price on it and we will buy it in."

Sir Wilfrid—"To refer to a matter foreign to this application, how long is the great City of Toronto going to continue polluting the waters of Lake Ontario by pouring sewage into it?"

The mayor explained the trunk sewer system and the progress being made on it. "Well, that will be very satisfactory," commented the premier.

He had the opportunity Controller Ward put in a plea for a grant of the water lot west of Queen Street, which is held by the C.P.R. under patent from the Ontario Government.

The mayor promised to have the legal status of the lot ascertained. "If it does not, it will belong to the provincial government," he said.

WYCHWOOD PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, AS IT IS TO BE.

Sir William Clark Saturday, in laying the cornerstone for the large addition to the present Wychwood Presbyterian Church, said: "Upwards of 20 years ago the Presbyterian Council of Toronto was organized, one of its purposes being the selection of sites for the future progressive churches of their faith, and it was with this purpose in view that the site on which this church is being built."

The 300 present included representatives of several denominations. The edifice, which will cost $30,000, will be of ancient Tudor-Gothic architecture. It will be built of dark red brick, trimmed with white sandstone, and will comfortably accommodate 900 people. The membership, under Rev. Mr. McTaggart, has increased in six years from 12 to 351.

LEG CRUSHED UNDER CAR

YOUNG MAN BADLY HURT

Went Underneath Trailer While Trying to Board Fast Moving Motor—Leg Amputated

Henry Thompson, 2 Ashdale-avenue, was fatally injured at 818 last night when he attempted to board a west-bound King-street car at Queen-street and Coxwell-avenue.

The motorman had been given orders to run right thru, and so did not stop when the young man signaled him. Thompson attempted to board the rear of the motor, and was cast off, thru an imperfect grip, and fell beneath the wheels of the trailer.

His right leg was horribly crushed, and had to be amputated below the knee when he was removed to the General Hospital, after being attended by the company by Dr. Coates, 1889 East Queen-street.

While driving with his older brother in York-street at 710 last night, 9-year-old Peter Lamont, 103 West Queen-street, was thrown from the rig when it was struck by a south-bound Bloor car. He was rolled in front of the motor and his head severely cut and bruised. He was taken to St. Michael's Hospital.

Sergeants' Excursion. Toronto Garrison Sergeants' Association met Monday, July 4, in the Grenadier mess parlors, when arrangements were made to hold a grand excursion to Queenston Heights on Saturday, Aug. 20, in aid of South African memorial.

Dressing Your Hair For the Evening

(From Style and Fashion Magazine). "Frequently in the evening, when you are at a party or pleasure, there is little time to dress the hair for the evening. For occasions like this, it is well to be prepared with the ever-ready and convenient dry shampoo.

A most excellent shampoo is made by mixing four ounces of ether with four ounces of orris root. Keep some of this in an old talcum box with aifter top, so that you can sprinkle it thinly and evenly through the hair. It can be achieved in less than twenty minutes. "Nothing is so good as this mixture to quickly remove the day's dust. It should be remembered, too, that much water is not good for the hair and frequent washings takes out the life and color."

Do You Think 500 Shirts a Day Would Be About Right?

OUR DOLLAR SHIRT campaign began yesterday. We have set ourselves to sell 6,000 of these exceptional shirts in two weeks. Last year we took a whirl of one month on ten thousand shirts. This year we have only 6,000 to start with, because four thousand have already sold themselves. So we think two weeks should be about fair—twelve days of selling. That means 500 shirts a day—quite a tall order for even a big store. But, remember, these are not ordinary one dollar shirts. When we buy 10,000 shirts of a line we are entitled to special terms, and we get them. Most of these shirts would sell in the ordinary Men's Furnishing Store at $1.25, some at $1.50. Those who took part in the dollar shirt whirlwind last summer will agree they are good shirts. Some of them are going back and forth from the laundry yet.

500 a day—on the average. We think on Wednesday we ought to hit more than that. We are going to try. Then we'll be ready in case Thursday falls off a little.

Plenty of counter space provided.
 Plenty of salesmen to serve you.
 No time to come like the first of the sale, when ranges are complete. COME WEDNESDAY.

Don't forget to take a look at the Yonge street windows every day for the next two weeks.

SYNOPSIS:
 Sizes and half sizes, from 14 to 18.
 Over 50 patterns to choose from, and to every pattern there are three or more colorings.
 There's many that feature the pleated front.
 Fully two-thirds are coat style.
 There are plain whites and colors for those who prefer them, a multitude of stripes, a splendid selection of neat figures and polka dots.
 All shirts are made with small cuffs attached—that's the correct thing nowadays.
 Every shirt will fit. You can take our word for it.
 This sale is something big, and every Toronto man should appreciate our effort to give the best possible values at

Custom-Tailored Suits for Men

$25 to $30 Values for $19.45

TWICE a year in the Custom Tailoring Department we clear out the balance of the season's suitings to make room for the new goods. Our principle is not to carry cloths of one season over into the next—we want everything new, timely, different. And so on Wednesday we'll sell our summer season clothes on the following basis:

We offer you your choice of 250 suit lengths, no two alike, imported summer weight fancy worsteds, of English and French manufacture, also English and Scotch tweeds, in the newest designs; high grade materials, imported specially for this season's trade, and sold in our regular way at $25.00, $26.50, $28.00, $29.00 and $30.00, to clear Wednesday at $19.45.

Made to your order by expert custom tailors, with best linings and trimmings to match, fit and workmanship guaranteed satisfactory or your money refunded.

Ontario Water to Drink

Old timers will exclaim "What a luxury. I used to drink Lake Ontario as a child, and I never tasted water I liked better."

We invite those who have forgotten the taste of pure Ontario water unbottled, to come to our Lunch Room. We serve Ontario by the glass as much as you want to drink. We put it through the Jarvis filters first, and the analyst said "100 per cent pure."

The Aftermath of the Holiday Clothing Rush

THE First of July always convinces many men that it is really Summer Suit time at last. We broke a number of lines last week and we take opportunity to-morrow to sort them up and clear them out.
