CONSTITUTION.

- 1st. This Association shall be called the PIONEER ASSOCIATION OF ONTARIO, CANADA.
- 2nd. Its objects shall be to unite the various Pioneer societies of the Province in one central head or organization, thereby the better to promote intercourse and union of all such societies, for the better preservation of historical and other records and memorials of the Province, for the forming of new societies for such purposes, and for the promoting and extending the influence and benefits thereof. Also, this Association shall publish an annual report, containing the names of all the members of each and every affiliated society, with such other matters as may be required, each such affiliated society to receive copies thereof.
- 3rd. Its membership shall consist of delegates from all the various Pioneer societies of the Province, of such as are now in existence and of those that may in the future be formed.
- 4th. The affairs of this Association shall be managed by a President, one Vice-President, a Secretary, Treasurer, and an Executive Committee of five; all of whom shall be appointed from among the regular members of the Association. The officers being, ex-officio, members of the committee, all of whom shall hold office until their successors are regularly appointed.
- 5th. An annual general meeting of the Association shall be held at such place in Ontario as shall be appointed at each preceding annual or adjourned annual meeting, such annual meeting to be held on the first Wednesday in June in each and every year, to receive the annual reports of the Association, and taking proper action thereon; for the nomination and election of officers, the committee and two auditors, and to transact such other business as may be required. Five members to form a quorum; for the committee, three.
- 6th. It is not the intention of this Association to exercise any control in governing or directing any of the affiliated societies, or in any way to interfere in their private working; but in case any question is referred to this Association by any of the affiliated societies, then it will be competent for this Association to consider and decide upon any such question or reference.

No portion of the Constitution or By-Laws of the Association may be altered, added to, or repealed, until approved of by two-thirds of the members present at the meeting ; and for such proposed alteration, adding to, or repeal, notice thereof shall be given to the Secretary in writing and signed by such requirer, at least one month before the said meeting ; and the Secretary shall immediately, on reception of said notice, send copies of such proposed alterations, adding to, or repeal, to each member of the Association.

8th. Each and every affiliated society shall pay into the funds of this Association an annual sum, as dues, of ten cents for each and every member of such society ; but when the number of members of such society exceeds one hundred, or ten dollars, then no further annual dues, namely, than ten dollars per annum from such affiliated society, will be required ; said dues to be due and payable at each annual meeting, and if not paid, the delegate from such society will not have a vote until such arrears are paid.

9th. Honorary members not living in Ontario may be elected on the recommendation of the Executive Committee, but such honorary members shall not vote or hold office except as an auditor. Nor shall such honorary members have a voice in the regular business of the Association, except by permission.

10th. A special meeting of the Association may be called by the chairman upon a requisition signed by three members, which meeting shall be competent to entertain no business except such as it is called for.

11th. No subjects involving differences in religion or politics will on any account be considered proper for discussion.

12th. Each and every affiliated society may send to this Association not more than five delegates, but as soon as nine different societies are represented, this section of the Constitution will be null and void, and section 12 will read as follows, viz. :

Each and every affiliated society will be represented in this Association by one delegate regularly appointed by such affiliated society, the Secretary of this Association being notified in writing by the Secretary of such society of the appointment, with name and address of same.

CONSTITUTION

OF THE

YORK PIONEERS' SOCIETY.

1.—This organization shall be called the YORK PIONEERS' SOCIETY, and is formed for the purpose of more intimately uniting in friendly relations those who are natives of, or who emigrated, to the original County of York, in the former Province of Upper Canada, or to this city previous to its incorporation, March 6th, 1834, and change of name from York to Toronto, and their descendants on attaining the age of forty years; (eligibility for membership, by resolutions passed 5th January, 1886, is extended to 6th of March, 1844, and their descendants, etc., which reads as follows:—"That the date of admission to the York Pioneer Society be extended ten years; so that residents of the original County of York, up to 6th of March, 1844, will now be eligible for membership; and if desired, the eligibility for membership may be extended ten years at the end of each decade, dating from 1834)."<sup>v</sup> And for preserving and perpetuating, by republication and otherwise, such historical recollections and incidents, documents, and pictorial illustrations relating to the early settlement of this country and city aforesaid, as are worthy of being rescued from oblivion; and by the contribution of communications on these and kindred subjects to be read at the meetings of the Society, and afterwards printed in the public journals and otherwise.

2.—This Society shall consist of a President, five Vice-Presidents, a Secretary and Treasurer, with a Managing Committee, of nine, elected from the ordinary members, of which Committee the officers of the Society are ex-officio members.

3.—The direction of the affairs of the Association, including the election of officers, and the admission of members, and the disposal of its funds, shall be vested in the Society at the general or ordinary meetings of the members.

4.—Every candidate for admission to the Society shall be proposed and seconded at any ordinary meeting of the Society; and may be elected at the following ordinary or general meeting by a majority of the members present on the occasion.

5.—Every member on being elected shall, either personally or through his mover or seconder, pay his annual subscription of one dollar, previous to his name being entered on the roll of members; and a member's subscription shall date from the first of January preceding his election. Any member who shall refuse or neglect to pay his dues for two years after they have accrued, provided he has been notified of his delinquency by the Secretary, shall be considered as having withdrawn himself from the Society; and the Secretary shall erase his name from the list of members.

6.—Honorary members may be elected on the recommendation of the Managing Committee, but shall not be entitled to vote or hold office.

7.—A general meeting of the Society shall be held annually, on the first Tuesday in March, for the reception of Financial (the Financial year ending the 31st December in each and every year) and other reports; and for the election of the President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, the Committee of Management and two Auditors. In case of any vacancies occurring during the year, by death or otherwise, the Society at the next monthly meeting may appoint a person or persons to fill such vacancy,

8.—The Society shall hold ordinary meetings for the dispatch of business on the first Tuesday in every month, at the hour of two o'clock, p.m., when the presence of seven members shall be necessary to form a quorum.

9.—A special meeting of the Society may be called by the President upon a requisition signed by at least three members, which meeting shall be competent to entertain only the business for which it was specially called.

10.—The Society shall, at any of its ordinary meetings, have power to amend its Constitution and make or alter a By-Law, on giving three months' notice of such proposed change, and its then moved, seconded and adopted by the majority present on such occasion.

11.—No subjects involving difference in religion or party politics shall be considered proper for discussion.
