GOOD RUN OF LUMBER INTO DOUGLAS' BOOM

Rafting Operations Are Proceeding Steadily... Rise of Water Causes Effort to Get Out Some Lumber Hung Up — Suit for $15,000 Against Canadian National Railways.

(Special to Times.) Fredericton, N. B., June 14.—There has been a large run of lumber into the Douglas boom during the last week and rafting operations of the St. John River Log Driving Company are proceeding steadily. Heavy rains on the head waters of the St. John caused a rise of two feet at VanBuren last week but the rise was less than half of that here, and since then the water has fallen. It still is four feet above midsummer level. The rise on the upper section of the river was sufficient to cause a crew to be sent to Big Rapids to make an attempt to start some logs which had been hung up there when the water dropped some time before. It is feared the water did not stay up long enough to make the attempt successful. Lumber was left on the Allegheny and Black rivers. The rise of water last week improved conditions below Grand Falls and rafting has been going on steadily. Suit is to be brought in the exchequer court by Mrs. Annie McLeod Harris of Sebert against the Canadian National Railways for $15,000 and costs the death of George W. Harris, husband of the plaintiff, who met his death on the C. N. R. freight yards in this city May 5, 1918. Negligence on the part of employees of the C. N. R. is alleged. The suit is brought on behalf of the plaintiff, her five daughters and son. Mr. Harris was a teamster employed by R. T. Baird and was unloading a car of wood. During unloading operations a car in which he was working was struck a heavy blow and he received injuries which resulted in his death in a short time. The strike of the rafting crew of the Nashwaak Falls and Grand Falls has been paid for ten hours. The death of John McKnight. John McKnight died last night after a lengthy illness. He was forty-two years old. He is survived by his wife, three daughters and two sons. His business and Hilton McKnight, who recently was graduated from the University of New Brunswick, was killed in a motor accident. McKnight and Frederick are brothers of the deceased.

Following the recital of the Rosary, the Litany of the Saints was sung by the choir and Solemn Benediction given by Rev. Wm. M. Duke, rector of the parish, assisted by Rev. Simon Moran, pastor and Rev. Zoel Landry, sub-deacon. Rev. A. P. Allen preached an impressive sermon on the Holy Hour. In the afternoon the inspiring ceremony of the presentation of a spiritual bouquet was carried out. Cards kept by the children showed that a total of 17,000 hours of adoration before the Blessed Sacrament had been spent during the year, about 10,000 more than the total last year. Yesterday was also the monthly Communion Sunday for the men of the Holy Name Society. At the seven o'clock mass in the Cathedral the whole of the central section of the church was filled with communicants. The mass was celebrated by Father Duke.

As Hiram Sees It

"Well," said Mr. Hiram Hornbaker to the Times reporter, "I suppose them Yankee newspaper men has come down here to see where we grow college presidents an' professors, an' railroad magnets, an' secretaries of the interior things like that. They say if that there Franklin Lane had't been born down here he might-a-been president some day. I'm glad to hear the Yankees come over to Canada 'n' get some ideas about a real democracy. I s'pose the people over in the States that think we've got to send a cable to King George afore we kin put our straw hats on fer the summer. They don't know me like an' I hope they'll have a good time. A young feller that grew up out to the Settlement is the editor of a big paper in the States. If we could bring back to Canada all the folks that went over there 'n' done well, Uncle Sam 'ud miss 'em all right. Well, we got this here North American continent between us, an' I hope we'll always be as good friends as we've been the last hundred years. A little love-spatter a family 'ar now an' agin don't make no difference. If they want our pulp we want their coal, an' they just go to keep swappin' an' workin' along together. They got some blatherin' letters over there 'ud do most anything to get votes, but that ain't all live folks of the line, neither. If you git a chance you tell them editors an' their wives if any of 'em wants to see some of our country, an' letch a trout or two, an' an' Hanner 'll be tickled to see 'em come out to the Settlement for a week-fer a Hen."

INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION OF UNION MEN

British Delegate Advocates at A. F. L. Convention... Further Their Aims and Prevent Another World War — J. A. McClelland Attacks Catholic Labor Union Movement.

Montreal, June 14.—An international organization of the union workers of the world to further their aims and prevent another world war, was advocated by J. W. Ogden, fraternal delegate of the British Trade Union Congress, in an address here today at the convention of the A. F. of L. He warned the federation, however, that they must ignore any internationalism that formed in Russia and other countries.

Mr. Munro said that the suspected thief, only a young chap, and if the police department are unable to get anything on him, they should procure the services of somebody who could. He said that he had reported the matter on many occasions, but no results had apparently been obtained. He said the police man who was man and knew that he went around selling cigarettes after each break occurred, but they had told him that they could get no evidence against him. He said that the goods taken included cigars, cigarettes and alcohol, sock and bolts he said would not stop him and he feared he would take the matter into his own hands unsuccessfully, he might suffer loss from fire as well as from the police.

Com. Thornton said there was no use in arresting the man without getting the goods. Mr. Munro was convicted and let out on suspended sentence some time ago.

The Catholic union, which has been in existence about ten years, Mr. McClelland asserted, is opposed by any international labor organization and has been "organized labor's greatest enemy in Canada." "If you see any of these investigations," said Mr. McClelland, "I am sure you will find conditions due to this organization are bad and need to be 'appalling.' He declared that organized labor was slowly "conquering the One Big Union movement." He said that there are now 2,500 local unions in Canada with a membership of 200,000.

In outlining the growth of the labor party in Canada, Mr. McClelland said "we are growing slowly, but are assured of success."

Contend For Mastery Of German Republic

Aims of Six Political Organizations That Are Striving for the Ruling Power.

Berlin, June 12.—Close collaboration between the majority Socialists and Independent Socialists in the government of Germany is considered the only course open to the former party by Philipp Scheidemann, one of its leaders, according to newspapers here. He rejects the idea of a coalition with the German people's party.

(New York Evening Post.)
Although there are not now such a multitude of parties in Germany as there were at the time of the elections for the National Assembly, there are still so many that it is a little hard to differentiate between them. Their aims may be summarized as follows:

On the Extreme Right stands the German National People's Party, now holding forty seats in the National Assembly. The demands of this party, as expressed in its election proclamation are very definite. The party calls for the restoration of German national unity, including the return of ceded territories and the colonies and for the protection of Germanism abroad, by which is meant the intensification of the German national spirit among Germans living outside the borders of the empire. The party puts forward a plank insisting upon a strong foreign policy which shall consider the needs of Germany only.

The party calls for representation of the people in the legislative branch of the government and at the same time as for a strong executive, with permanent officials, to carry out the unifying national policy of the empire. At the same time, as a sop to the more moderate classes, it states vaguely that in the manner of the election of the president of these permanent officials must be modernized. It demands compulsory military service along the lines of a great fleet. Curiously enough, it calls for equal political rights for women, but this appears to be rather an attempt to gain women's votes than an expression of the sincere belief of its leaders. It insists on the German character of the realm and opposes the influence of all foreigners. It is definitely warning against Jewish influence.

The party next in line, the German people's party, now has only twenty-two seats in the Assembly. The proclamation of this party warns against the disorders of the country, which it believes leads straight toward Bolshevism. It calls for the retention of non-partisan officials in the Government and demands the employment by the Government of experts in various lines, suggests that there should be a labor chamber as an adjunct to Parliament, and does not define the rights or powers of this labor chamber. It calls on all Germans to join in intensive work for the reconstruction of Germany and social democracy since revolution. It calls for the greatest possible taxation of the treaty, but only by this reference suggests that the treaty is to be fulfilled. It states that its purpose is to have all public service of any kind administered by the government; this supposedly to lead to the socialization of most industries. The plea of this party is that the country should go forward through democracy to socialism.

Coming to the extreme left we find the independent socialist party holding only twenty-two seats in the national assembly, making a platform as definite as that of the German National People's party. The independent socialist party calls for a "class-conscious proletariat." Its object is a society in which every one will share in the results of that work according to his needs and to the total wealth of the state. The platform demands a dictatorship of the proletariat, the disarming of all counter-revolutionary forces and the prompt building up of a national army composed of laboring men. It demands the liberation of all political prisoners who are in prison for ultra-radical activities and at the same time for the punishment of all counter-revolutionaries. It insists on the immediate socialization of all industries and the taking over of large estates by the government. It calls for the safeguarding of the feeding of the workers in the cities and for the largest measure of social legislation. It demands friendly relations with all foreign states, and especially with Soviet Russia. The independent socialist platform is the only one which frankly demands the fulfillment of the terms of the Treaty of Versailles.

The Communist party, not officially recognized and not believing in progress through parliamentary measures, nevertheless got out a platform. This platform, which is very long, is all in the superlative, all exclamatory. It says that capitalism and junkerism caused the war and the present suffering, that capitalists and their families fattened on their profits during the war while the working people died. It demands abolition of capitalism, stating that only the seizure of power by the proletariat can save Germany from descending into a state of barbarism. The platform says frankly that the Communist party has nothing whatever to promise the bourgeoisie except their certain extinction as the ruling class. It attacks bitterly the policy of the social democratic party and almost equally bitterly the independent socialist party for not acting to bring about the union of Germany and Russia. It states that there is no hope for parliamentary reforms, but that the only means of bringing about a Soviet form of government is by direct action.

"Long live the rule of Workers' and Peasants' Councils."
The election is proportional, entirely in the hands of the party leaders, and unused votes cast in one district may be added to unused votes in other districts to make up the number required for one party representative. It appears certain that no party will be able to control the government and that the only hope is again in a coalition. This coalition, it is true will be more difficult to form than the present coalition, but on the other hand it may be able to work more strongly and effectively for the left. It is true that both the right and the left will be stronger and that mistakes will be more likely to be caused either by the loss of the value of power by one or the other extreme.

pay" in the report of the county grand jury on its investigation of the housing situation delivered Wednesday to Judge Kennedy in criminal court at Cleveland, Ohio.
The report followed a three months' investigation in which members of the jury heard testimony of more than 100 witnesses, including builders, dealers in materials and supplies, and representatives of labor organizations.

The report declares that no evidence to indicate the existence of a combination or trust to keep up building prices had been found.
Workers employed in building operations are doing less than one-half the work they did in pre-war times, the jury charged, and are receiving twice the wage.

BE SUSPICIOUS OF TENDER GUMS

Be suspicious of any tenderness or bleeding of the gums. This is usually the first stage of Pyorrhea—an insidious disease of the gums that destroys the teeth and undermines bodily health.
Gradually the gums become spongy. They inflame, then shrink, thus exposing the uncleaned, tooth-base to the ravages of decay. Tiny openings in the gums form gateways for disease germs to enter the system. Medical science has traced many ills to these infecting germs in the gums weakened by Pyorrhea.
They are now known to be a frequent cause of indigestion, anaemia, rheumatism and other serious conditions.
So watch carefully for that first tenderness or bleeding of the gums. Try Forhan's immediately. It positively prevents Pyorrhea (Riggs' Disease) if used in time and used consistently.
And in preventing Pyorrhea—it guards against other ills.
Forhan's (For the Gums) cleans teeth scientifically as well. Erase your teeth with it. It keeps the teeth white and clean.
If gum-shrinkage has already set in, start using Forhan's and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

OUR VISITORS.

St. John extends a very cordial welcome to the first large party of American journalists that has ever visited the city and province. They come at an opportune time, when the country is looking its best, and when traveling is shorn of most of its discomforts. It is the desire of the citizens that they may enjoy their visit and carry away kindly impressions of New Brunswick and its people. To those who come from the interior of the country the visit to the shores of the Bay of Fundy will be very interesting, and one may venture the assertion that nowhere will they find a more enjoyable outing than the St. John river affords in the summer season. Naturally they will be interested in the history of St. John, founded as it was by people who came from the United States at the close of the revolution, and having before that time, and especially during the period of French occupation, a history rich in adventure and romance. The people of these provinces have always had close neighborly relations with the New England states, and there are today in those states very many thousands of people who are of provincial birth or parentage. Ever for a considerable time after these provinces entered the Canadian confederation our people knew far more about Boston than Montreal, for trade relations had been close and the trend of travel had always been in that direction. But the migration from the provinces has not been to New England alone. Canadians are scattered all over the United States, and have contributed to the upbuilding of the country. There has in recent years been a change, and the migration of American farmers into the Canadian west, which was affected by the war has this year resumed large proportions. This interchange should link the two countries in bonds of lasting friendship. The maritime provinces have something of special value to offer to the people of not only the Atlantic but all of the states of the union in the summer season. Here is a great summer playground, a delightful climate, and many kinds of recreation amid varied and lovely scenery. The provinces as yet lack the great system of hotels which most eventually be provided, and that is a matter which must be dealt with in a progressive spirit by our own people, although there is also opportunity for profitable investment by outside capital in exploiting our climate and other summer attractions.

Canada has given some very able men to the United States, and some men of American birth have risen to eminence, especially in the industrial world and in transportation. In this country. The unity of language and the possession of the same traditions make the two countries very similar in most respects, and it is to their common interest that the most friendly relations exist. Canada is the younger country, with much smaller population, but with immense areas and vast and varied resources to be developed. Its relation to the British Empire adds to its importance in world affairs. With a Canadian ambassador at Washington all matters of mutual interest will be more quickly adjusted in the future and serious misunderstandings should never arise. The vote getter and the opportunist should never be permitted to estrange these two peoples, for whom is entrusted the destiny of the North American continent.

THE DARK HORSE WINS.

The dark horse won in the race for the Republican nomination for the presidency. Mr. Harding of Ohio has not been a great national figure, but he may be a safer man than those who contended with him for the nomination. A review of his career shows that he has won to his present standing in the country by hard work. He was born on a farm and had to work hard to secure an education. He chose the profession of journalism and soon found himself in politics, first in the Ohio state legislature, then as governor of the state, and since 1914 in the United States senate, where he became a member of the committee on foreign relations.

Gov. Calvin Coolidge of Massachusetts, the candidate chosen for the vice-presidency, undoubtedly owes his nomination to the nation-wide publicity he received when he took the grip with the police, born on a farm, and we are told that family self-denial gave him his college education. He is a lawyer, and a man of great force of character.

It goes without saying that the result of the convention is a great disappointment to the Wood, Lowden and Johnson factions, but each of them has at least the satisfaction of knowing that the others also failed. Great sums of money were spent with only that result, so far as they are concerned. We have now to hear what the country at large thinks of the choice made. Interest will next centre in the Democratic convention.

The National Council of Women is a very influential body, and the visit of so many women of prominence to St. John is an event of notable importance. They will receive a cordial welcome, and their deliberations will be followed with universal interest.

THE CALL TO SERVICE.

In an address in Chicago recently, Mr. Charles F. Hingham, M. P., of London, laid emphasis upon the fact that it is necessary today as during the war to dress the advertising council of the Chicago Association of Commerce, he told the members they had a great opportunity to bring the industrial situation before the people in simple language, and bring home to them a sense of their obligation to their country. Among other things he said:—
"We are at the beginning of the most terrible tragedy the world has ever seen, or we are at the beginning of the most wonderful age in history. Public opinion will decide which it shall be. Just now certain forces are spreading by publicity the germ of industrial unrest which will bring about the first condition. There is a dynamic thing about war that makes people give service. We've got to get hold of some such force and make people believe that their country has need of their service now just as much as during the war."
The greatest agency with which to combat sinister influences is the same publicity that is used by those who would arouse the passions of the people and overthrow the institutions and the forms of government which are the fruits of human effort and experience for centuries. Some words of Rudyard Kipling spoken recently in relation to England, convey a ringing challenge that should arouse and inspire all people who share the traditions of the British race. He said:—
"We are too close to the dust of the main battle to see clearly. We know that England is crippled by the loss of wastage of a whole generation. Her position from the civil point of view is that of our armies in the worst days of the war—that is to say, all leave is stopped for every man who can stand up to his job, no matter how sick or stale he may be, and there is unrelenting pressure for the untried man who, merely because they are not dead, will have to face heavier responsibility, longer hours and criticism that will certainly not grow milder as the years pass. But no miracles have occurred. This world which some of us in their zeal to do better than good have created, and which we must all inherit, is no new world, but the old grown harder. The wheel has come full circle."
The soldier who, under God's good providence, can meet this turn of our fate, is not temperant, not opportunistic, nor any attempt to do better than good, but character, and again character—such as unmeasured loyalty, strength of character as one may humbly dare to hope 1,500 years of equality of experience have given to us. If this hope be true, as because we know the breed we feel it to be true, our children's children, looking back through the luminous years to where we here stumble and falter, may say: "Was it possible that the English of that age did not know, could not see, dared not guess to what height of strength, wisdom and enduring honor they had lifted their land?"
If, to the faith and confidence which mark this utterance of Kipling there will be joined in the minds of the people the desire and the will to serve in peace as they served in war, the highest interests of their country, then the tragedy is past and we are indeed at the beginning of the most wonderful age in history.

FASTING PAWNBROKER DEAD.

London, Eng., June 14.—A. A. Pastfield, Woking's fasting pawnbroker, has died from double pneumonia. He maintained that an occasional week's fast had a fine tonic effect on the system and that he could eat a meal in a fortnight, a glass or two of beer, was sufficient to keep a person in health. He himself fasted from time to time for several days.

UNWANTED WIFE "SOLD."

London, Eng., June 14.—A strange story of how she was "sold" by her husband to another man was told in the South End Police Court by Mrs. Albert Pearson. She said her husband persuaded a man named Jones to sign a document to take her over and look after her. She admitted she was willing to be transferred.

SEPTUAGENARIANS WED.

London, Eng., June 14.—Sir Mark Oldroyd, founder of a Dewsbury woollen firm, and Miss J. Pattison were married recently at Haslemere. Sir Mark is seventy-seven and was knighted in 1909. His bride is seventy-three and a very old friend of the family.

OPPOSE DIVORCE LAWS.

Reno, Nev., June 14.—This city will, in the future, cease to be a mecca for persons seeking divorce. A campaign just launched by the Nevada Knights of Columbus achieves success. At their recent meeting they undertook strongly to oppose what they term the lax divorce laws of Nevada. They say the state has an undesirable reputation in the matter of divorce.

"SILENT HUSBAND" HABIT.

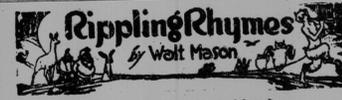

London, Eng., June 14.—Preston has its "silent husband." He is James Collier, who was summoned on charges of desertion. His wife said he sulked for months in a corner and never said a word. Collier maintained the traditions of a "silent husband" by not uttering a word in court.

M. P.'s Get Raisin.

Melbourne, Australia, June 14.—The Australian House of Representatives has voted to increase the salary of members from $8,000 to $5,000 per annum.

Egypt Short of Water.

Cairo, Egypt, June 14.—A shortage of 100,000,000 cubic metres of water is expected in Egypt in July.

Rippling Rhymes by Walt Mason

ADVANCING YEARS.

I'm having trouble with my teeth, the upper ones, the ones beneath, half and the goat, and walking is a bore. It's hard for me to read a book; my eyes grow weary when I look ten minutes at a page; I have to trumpet for my ears; oh, such things come with passing years, the pen-dentines, with wintery years in view; with, and I piled my trenchant pen, and saved a stock of iron men—enough to see me through. Now by my finger and my vine I sit and rest and make no wine of fortune or of fate; I view the world with falling eyes, but see the good that in it lies, and keep my smile on straight. And as I gaze I see old men who failed to save the shining yen in days long left behind, they slave away at dreary toil and long to have six feet of soil in which to end the grind. There's nothing sadder than the sight of some old crippled, weary weight, still toiling for his bread, still drudging for a meagre pay, recalling money thrown away, and wishing he were dead.

Domestic Happenings of Other Days

SITTING BULL.

A picturesque Indian chief gave the United States and Canada much trouble for a time was Sitting Bull, who, in 1873, attacked and wiped out the entire command to General Custer of the United States army at Little Big Horn. Knowing that the entire army would be annihilated would be after him at once, he crossed with his braves and all his people into Canada. When he had gathered his scattered forces the chief found he had with him in Canada 1,000 horses, 8,000 head of horses and about 3,000 warriors of the fiercest type. He was met soon after his arrival in the douthon by Inspector Walsh of the Royal North West Mounted Police. The officer rode into the camp of the Indians alone and slept there all night. In the morning in very unmistakable language he told Sitting Bull that if he desired to remain in the dominion at any time, he must keep the law of the land. The chief replied that he had buried the hatchet and was at peace.

IN THE BEGINNING.

In the first beginning of days and the young year's prime, When the tide of the dawnborn heaps on the banks of time, When the hounds of the passionate, will chase the blood of the first fall, Are checked not or children or anyway led in thrall, Through the mists of faith and desire to lure Love or scorn her In the gloom of a nebulous noon went Little Jack Horner, Like the flowers of the foam of the sea And turn from the just to the first as the tide will turn, To search on the logs which will where the forest grows come, To weath'ring through the flowers and the fruit for the purpose of inducing fishermen to sell their fish in the New York market. N. W. Daily arrived here Saturday and is arranging for all kinds of fish, including eels, to be shipped to New York. He said that during Christmas week he was quoted at seventy and seventy-five cents a pound. A record catch of salmon is expected this season, the local fishermen say.

LOCAL NEWS

Willard Bovard, the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest E. Bovard, Hampton, had a narrow escape from drowning on Saturday when he fell into a rain barrel, the fall stunning him and he was unable to make any outcry. He was discovered in a few minutes by his mother and when Dr. A. T. Leatherbarrow and Dr. P. H. Wareford were called he was soon resuscitated.

LOCAL NEWS

On account of the unsuccessful fishing season in New York state and neighboring states, representatives are touring Canada for the purpose of inducing fishermen to sell their fish in the New York market. He said that during Christmas week he was quoted at seventy and seventy-five cents a pound. A record catch of salmon is expected this season, the local fishermen say.

No further evidence will be taken with regard to the improper cutting of timber on the city property by private persons, it was announced by Commissioner Jones yesterday. On Saturday the commissioner received the written report of M. E. Malone, the cruiser employed to investigate, the amount of cutting done by the six persons implicated, and to report on the value of the timber removed. Mr. Jones said last night that no particulars from the report could be given out until he has made his official report to the common council, probably late this week.

The capacity of the pavilion of the Fair Vole Outing Club was taxed on Saturday night when the usual weekend was held.

Among those who will graduate from St. Joseph's College, and be conferred with the degree of bachelor of arts, are the following from St. John—George D. Green, M. Alphonsus Harris, West Osward McDonald and Paul C. Quinn.

Accompanied by the mayor and the commissioners of lands and harbors, Mr. Smith of the Ford Motor Company, inspected a site in the South End, with a view to establishing a plant for assembling cars for the export trade. Sites in other places in the maritime provinces have been reported and the selection lies with head office at Detroit.

There were two cases before Magistrate Wilson Dalton at Torryburn on Saturday afternoon on charges of speeding in the Rothsay road. Guilford Humphrey was fined $10 and costs for speeding through Rothsay, and Harold Hayes, of Lower Millstream, was fined $5 and costs for speeding through Rothsay village. Two cars were reported yesterday by Constable Robert Crawford for racing through Rothsay village and two others were reported for speeding through Rothsay avenue. These four cases will come before Magistrate Dalton on Wednesday. Another speeding case will come before Magistrate Adams in the Brookville court on Tuesday.

It was announced in the Catholic churches yesterday that Very Rev. J. J. Walsh, V.G., had called a meeting of those from the different parishes in the city for the purpose of arranging a suitable reception for His Lordship, Bishop LaBianco, upon his return from his visit to Rome.

A partly finished piece of the one-man car was inspected on Saturday afternoon by Mayor Schofield, Manager McCowley and representatives of the operators' union, and in a short time a demonstration of the various types will be given. The mayor was pleased with the car but the operators said they had some serious practical objections. The demonstration will not be opposed by the union but the remodelled cars as a part of the system will be opposed.

The car stolen from W. E. Gunter, front of the Imperial Theatre Wednesday evening was recovered at McAdams Junction Saturday morning by James Ryan, special agent for the C. N. P. Three men drove the car into McAdams Junction and when they got to the car they explained that something had gone wrong with it and they had to leave there. The next morning Harry Costley and James Ryan, who had heard that a car had been stolen in St. John, notified Mr. Gunter and Mr. Costley drove the car to this city yesterday. When complaints of the lack of police protection were made the police say people leaving cars standing should lock them and not run the risk of having them stolen. In comparison with other cities very few cars are stolen in St. John.

RECENT DEATHS

The many friends of Mrs. Beatrice M. Wilson will regret to hear of her death which occurred on June 12 after a long illness. She was the wife of George E. Wilson and is survived by her husband, by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bradford L. Hines, by one brother, Harvey Hines, and by three sisters, Mrs. Helena Oram, Mrs. Lloyd Rees and Miss Alice, all of this city.

It was with sincere regret that a large circle of friends learned yesterday of the death of Mrs. Mary, wife of Thomas McGuire, which occurred at her home in Calgary on Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. Although she had been in failing health, the news of her death came as a great shock to relatives and friends here. Mrs. McGuire was a life-long resident of St. John until about a year ago when she moved with her family to the west. Besides her husband she leaves one sister, Annie, who resided with her in Calgary; one brother, Fred J. Pope, of the staff of Vassie & Co., Ltd., this city; two daughters, Miss Marie and Helen, both at home and five sons—Arthur with the Canada Cement Company in Calgary, Harold, with the Imperial Tobacco Company, Calgary; Leonard, a novice at the Ilchester Redemptorist Novitiate, Ilchester (Md.); Harry, at the Redemptorist Studentate Esopus (N. Y.), and Austin at home.

Of a particularly pleasing disposition, Mrs. McGuire enjoyed the esteem of a host of friends from whom sympathy will be extended to the bereaved family. The funeral will take place on Saturday morning at 8:30 from her brother's residence, 10 Wentworth street, to the Cathedral for requiem high mass.

Francis Raymond Baxter, the infant son of Dr. A. Ernest and Mrs. Baxter, died yesterday. He was a month old. The funeral will be held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

The memorial service for the late Sir Ezekiel McLeod was held on Saturday evening at 5:45 at his late residence at Hampton and was conducted by Rev. W. H. Johnson, of Hampton church, assisted by Rev. F. S. Porter, who was for seven years pastor of the German street church of which Sir Ezekiel was a member. The service was a simple one of prayer, scripture reading and three hymns. The choir of the Baptist church led the singing. Mr. Johnson gave a short and appropriate address. The body was taken on the 7 o'clock train to Penobscot where the funeral was held today at 8:30 and was conducted by Rev. W. H. Johnson and Rev. S. S. Poole.

Friends in the city will hear with regret of the death of Robert Britain, a former resident of St. John, who died at his mother's home in New York on Saturday, June 12. Mr. Britain, who was the only son of the late Robert Britain, was for many years manager of the gas department of the New Brunswick Power Company and was popular with a large circle of friends in St. John city and country. He was survived by his mother and two sisters, Misses Mary and Sarah, all residing in New York city. The funeral will be held on Tuesday upon the arrival of the Boston train and interment will be made in Fernhill cemetery.

The death of a well known and respected citizen of Fredericton took place Sunday in that city when John McKnight passed away. Mr. McKnight, who was ill only short time, was seventy-one years of age, and leaves a widow, two sons and one daughter. The sons are Ivan and Lieutenant Hilton McKnight, and the daughter

CHICAGO IN THE CONVENTION DAYS

Whole City Meeting Place of the Republicans

Pen Picture of Scenes in Windy City in Its Giddy Whirl of Political Activity Over Choosing of Presidential Candidate.

By Elizabeth Miner King in the New York Evening Post. Chicago, June 14—All is in readiness for the formal opening of the Republican National Convention. The Coliseum encompasses it like a section of sky reserved for Republicanism.

Suits for Golfers

New and Special designs with open-seam backs that allow free swing and superb shoulder action.

The Semi-ready designer evolved a coat that is worn by the best golf players in Canada.

Golf Suits and Outing Trousers of finer cloth quality: Heather-knit cloths, Seaside Linens, English Flannels in stripes and plain greys.

The Semi-ready Store George Creary 87 Charlotte Street

All the facilities and resources known to Chicagoans have been drawn upon to heighten the splendor of another Republican birthday. The city has been handed over, like Michigan for the time being belongs to the G. O. P., and all the outlying districts have contributed their bands, flags, bunting, tapers, and movable signs of political opulence.

Liquor Only Thing Missing. It seems as if the last thing that could be settled in this political jungle would be the presidential candidate of a great party. The state of mind here is not that of business. The place is en fête. Delegates themselves express very little of the red and green feathers of the Wood campaign worn cocked in their hats.

Big Hotels Thronged. Nobody ever guesses what a real boom can be like before trying to preserve personal peace in these hotels. Elevators have a little effect upon waiting throngs as a sieve for the sands of the ocean.

But what really creates all this political riot is the fact that at this convention the country witnesses not the old-fashioned variety but four or five of the old familiar political conventions going on at once because of the large number of well-to-do candidates. The whole entrancing spectacle only emphasizes the splits in the party. Each organization is mature enough to stir up the dust. The omnipotent Republican confidence of a few months ago has been increased tenfold, but has been broken up into these one-man factions.

"Yes, we are full of factions, and I don't believe we can pull together," added a bystander. "There is nobody to do it. The first thing you know, we will be encircled. They (Democrats) are all together."

This is not the general feeling here. The spirit of the crowd is all powerful.

at the must and two scared white doves of peace fighting to get away from their moorings. The sides of the umbrellas are covered with large pictures of Lowden.

This is the real convention—here on the avenue. Irvin Cobb—much thinner—is looking over the prospectus and broadsides in Hiram Johnson's front windows at the auditorium. Speaker Gillett nearly runs into him. Senator Edge hurries this way. Senator "Pat" Harrison, in the pink of democracy, steps along. Alice Roosevelt and Senator Borah jostle in the crowd.

Taxes in the heyday of their old age, get in and out and around corners like a comet on its way to the hereafter. They stop as if struck by lightning, take in a group and are off to the Coliseum. The convention crowd moves in groups. A knot here and a clan there appear to have business abhorrently differentiated from each other. In the hotels where the real work of the convention is cut and dried these groups form a centre rush and the weak in numbers go in the direction of the strong.

As the tenth roll call began delegates quit Wood and Johnson right and left and the big hall was in almost continuous applause as state after state announced accession to the Harding standard. It was reserved for Pennsylvania to add the crowning touch of enthusiasm. HARDING IS REPUBLICANS' CANDIDATE

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Chicago, June 13—Warren G. Harding, United States senator from Ohio, was nominated for the presidency last night by the Republican national convention after a dead-lock which lasted for nine ballots and which finally forced out of the running all the original favorites.

As his running mate, the convention named Governor Calvin Coolidge, of Massachusetts, upsetting a plan of a combination of the Harding backers to nominate for the place Senator Lenroot, of Wisconsin.

The collapse of the forces of Governor Frank G. Lowden and their transfer in large part to Senator Harding put the Ohio candidate over, heavily, however, when the Harding drift began and Senator Johnson, the third of the trio of leaders on the early balloting, also went steadily downhill.

Entering the convention four days ago as a candidate distinctly of the "dark horse class," Senator Harding got only six-four votes on the first ballot and on the second he dropped to fifty-six. When the convention adjourned Friday night, at the end of the fourth ballot, he had sixty-one.

As the tenth roll call began delegates quit Wood and Johnson right and left and the big hall was in almost continuous applause as state after state announced accession to the Harding standard.

It was reserved for Pennsylvania to add the crowning touch of enthusiasm. When the Keystone state was reached, the Ohio senator needed thirty-two votes to nominate him and Pennsylvania gave him 1864. Lincoln 1860 Grant 1872 Hayes 1876 Garfield 1880 Blaine 1884 Harrison 1888 Harrison 1892 McKimley 1896 way to the Pennsylvania standard, and amid cheers, released the delegation from longer supporting him. Then he took a poll, got the floor and threw in the winning Harding votes.

The final check up showed 692 for Harding, with only 129 left supporting Lowden, 157 for Wood and 80 for Johnson. At their best, earlier in the day, the Wood people had mustered 312 votes, and the Lowden forces 311. Johnson's high point was 146, recorded on the third ballot on Friday.

Both Born on Farms. Senator Harding is a resident of Ohio and has represented that state since 1914 as a senator, but in private life he is owner of the Marion, Ohio, Star, having acted in all capacities on that journal. He was brought up on a farm near Blooming Grove, Morrow county, Ohio, having been born there Nov. 2, 1869. His father was a Scotchman while his mother was a descendant from a Dutch family. He was graduated from Ohio Central College and as editor of the college paper his talent as a journalist was displayed. Senator Harding is also connected with many other business enterprises in Ohio, including many manufacturing plants and the directorate of a bank. He is a trustee of the Trinity Baptist church.

Governor Coolidge of Massachusetts is well known throughout the country, having displayed great judgment and wisdom in his method of quelling the police strike in Boston several months ago. He was opposed to policemen and firemen belonging to a union but not to members of labor unions outside of public servants. He was born on a farm in Vermont and after a college education under difficulties he practised law and moved to the state of which he is now governor, eventually becoming a member of the legislature. He was twice elected to the governorship of Massachusetts.

WHY THIS MOP GIVES SUCH EXCELLENT RESULTS

THE satisfaction derived from the use of a Mop is dependent upon the Chemical with which it is treated. The O-Cedar Polish Mop is treated with O-Cedar Polish. There can be no finer Polish for any varnished surface. It may be used on any surface—even on your piano—with perfect confidence. The Mop is scientifically designed. Made of Steel it is so constructed that perfect "centre pressure" is obtained—a feature important to good floor polishing.

1816 — 1920

THE man with money to lend can get more for it today than at any time in the past hundred years. Always after a war there is a great demand for money. It was so after the Franco-Prussian War of 1870. It was so during the period succeeding the American Civil War. But to find a parallel for the condition existing today we must go back to 1816—the readjustment period at the close of the Napoleonic Wars.

The man who bought long-term government securities in 1816 made large profits. There is a similar opportunity today for the man who can invest in Government Bonds. The demand for these bonds is constant and increasing—the further supply has now ceased. No more War Loans will be issued. The inevitable result will be higher prices for Government Bonds. Low-priced Government Bonds today will be high-priced Government Bonds tomorrow, upon a return to a normal money market. Then fortunate holders can liquidate at a real profit.

Why you should buy Dominion Government Bonds To-day

- SAFETY—Absolute. MARKETABILITY—Dominion Government bonds are a cash equivalent—saleable at a moment's notice. TAX EXEMPTION—Adds to most of these bonds an additional substantial income. Furthermore, this privilege saves trouble and removes uncertainty as to additional taxation.

After careful consideration we have come to the conclusion that we should recommend the purchase of the bonds at present prices

MISSIONS

Rev. Joseph Scholly, C. S. R., of Toronto yesterday opened a renewal of mission meetings in the handsome church which Rev. E. J. Conway has built at Chipman and in Miramichi and other stations. Dominican priests of New York are giving a mission in St. George's church, Woodstock, of which Rev. F. M. Lockary is pastor.

PORTLAND CHURCH

In the absence of the pastor, Rev. Nell McLaughlin, who is attending the conference meetings in Sackville, the pulpit of Portland Methodist church was ably occupied yesterday by Rev. Robert Crisp in the morning and the veteran preacher, Rev. J. C. Berrie, in the evening.

JOE PAGE GETTING BETTER

Joe Page was in the city on Saturday and Sunday for the first time since he left in April. He was seriously ill on the way to Montreal from here on April 29 and was in bed for some weeks. He is now recovering nicely and was heartily greeted on his return to St. John.

FIFTEEN ON POLICE COURT LIST TODAY

As usual on Monday morning the police court docket this morning was large, containing the names of fifteen prisoners. George Paris was charged with stealing $34 and a returned soldier's badge, the property of John Hagerfeldt, 272 Brussels street. The complainant said the accused went into his shop and took the money out of his register. Sgt. Rankine said he was walking along Brussels street with Policeman Colwell yesterday morning when the complainant informed him what had taken place. The accused was arrested and the sum of $12 in monies was found on him. He was wearing a military badge on his coat, the witness said. Policeman Colwell corroborated this evidence. The accused was remanded for a further hearing.

Alexander McDonald was charged with being drunk and using profane and threatening language to Policeman Howard, who told of the incident. After imposing a fine of $8 or two months for being drunk, $8 or two months for using threatening language, and $8 or two months for taking the name of God in vain.

A case against Mrs. Ellen Travis, charged with selling liquor within the meaning of the prohibition act, was resumed, and Inspector Merzfeld was called to give evidence with respect to the analysis of lemon extract found on the premises. He produced certificates to show that a bottle taken of the informant, Russell Keirstead contained thirty-six per cent. alcohol by weight, while two other bottles contained the same percentage, and a third contains forty-two per cent. The case was postponed until this afternoon. W. M. Ryan conducted the prosecution, and J. A. Barry appeared for the defence.

Louis Goldberg was charged with wandering about and not being able to give a satisfactory account of himself. He was arrested by Policeman Coughlan, who said he has been wandering in the street three times during the last week. He was remanded to be examined by a doctor.

John Nickerson, charged with being drunk and impeding pedestrians in King street, was remanded to jail.

Eleven men charged with drunkenness pleaded guilty and were remanded to jail.

ATTRACTIVE WINDOW

IN WELCOME TO THE VISITING PRESS PARTY. Manchester Robertson Allison, Ltd. have prepared a very attractive window display in honor of the visiting newspaper men and women. In the background are draped the Canadian and United States flags and in the central part of the display is a representation of Minerva holding aloft a flaming torch. Copies of all the local papers and those of other parts of Canada and the United States are arranged about the figure while on pedestals at both sides are placed several volumes, an ink pot and quill and an old vestal lamp emblematic of learning. The display attracted considerable attention during the day and David E. Lynch, whose design it is, is being complimented upon it.

ALONG THE RIVER

A large number of highly pleased suburbanites arrived at Indiantown a little after eight this morning on the steamer Dream, on her first Monday morning trip from the Cedars. She picked up passengers at various points and landed them all in ample time to get to their homes and their work. The Ocean, later in the morning also had a good list.

There were many motor boats in the reach yesterday, and one sailing yacht up as far as Belyes Point. It was a very delightful day. On Saturday evening young people from many points gathered for the dance at Greenacres Pavilion, at Belyes Point.

GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Dobbin of Fair Vale Fifty Years Married.

Many relations and friends called yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Dobbin, Fair Vale, to congratulate them on the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding. They were the recipients of many hands. Some remembrances of the occasion, including a purse of gold from Mrs. Dobbin's brother, Samuel Fox. Mr. and Mrs. Dobbin were married by Rev. Joshua Burgess at the bride's home in West St. John on June 13, 1870, and for many years have been residing at Fair Vale, where they enjoyed the esteem of a large circle of friends. They have three daughters, three sons and three grandchildren living. The daughters are Mrs. George Freese of Edmondville, Alta., Mrs. Samuel Mackay of Belleisle Creek, and Miss Annie, at home and the sons are Stewart L., of Edmondville and George and John, of Fair Vale.

The best wishes of many friends and acquaintances will be extended to Mr. and Mrs. Dobbin with the hope that they will see many more years of happiness.

HIGHER RATES FOR TELEGRAPH MESSAGES TODAY

An increase in telegraph rates takes effect today. The rate to points in eastern Canada in the past was the lowest of any rate in America. To those points the rate has been brought up to that in effect in western Canada and in the United States. The rate from here to American points has been increased very slightly. The increases, it is announced, have been made necessary by the increased cost of copper wire and all other materials used in the telegraph business. The wages of telegraph operators have more than doubled since the war.

The members of the railway commission with Hon. Frank Carroll as chairman held meetings all over Canada last winter to hear expressions of opinion in regard to proposed increases. Representatives of boards of trade and others appeared before the commission and the consensus of opinion was that the telegraph companies were entitled to a substantial increase. It was shown that there was practically no profit at all in the old rates. The increases are as follows:

To points in N. B.	Old rate.	New rate.
and N. S.	25 & 1	30 & 2
To points in Quebec	30 & 2	40 & 3
To points in Ontario	30 & 2	45 & 3
To points in Manitoba	75 & 5	95 & 5
To points in Saskatchewan	100 & 7	110 & 7
To points in Alberta	100 & 7	125 & 8
To points in British Columbia	100 & 7	125 & 8

To points in the United States the increase is very small. The rate to Boston, New York and nearby points increases fifty to fifty-five cents. The sixty and seventy cent rates also increase by five cents each, while the seventy-five cent and $1 rates increase by ten cents each.

The term twenty-five and one, means twenty-five cents for ten words and one cent for each additional word; so thirty and two means thirty cents for the first ten words and two cents for each after, and so on. The rate to P. E. Island remains as at present, thirty cents for ten words and two cents for each additional.

Despite the heavy winds throughout the morning and early part of the afternoon and prospects for showers, hundreds of people left the city yesterday to take a chance with the weatherman at Rockwood Park.

From 3:30 until 9 p. m. more enjoyment and cooler conditions which to stroll could not be asked for. The reluctance with which many left for home, after the quiet fall-of-summer afternoon, was quite apparent. The parties drifting here and there and couples idly enjoying the supreme luxury that was in the air all seemed to contribute to support the statement that next door to the city of St. John lies the greatest natural park in the broad Dominion of Canada.

Possibly a score or more skiffs floated about the lake occupied with seekers of real Sunday afternoon recreation. The water was quiet except for the slight ripples from the gentle breeze that wafted over the little lake.

The animals for the most part refused to partake in anything that would cause the least bit of interest among the spectators or mean the least bit of exertion to them. However, the presence of a noticeably large number of baby carriages, caucuses, young ladies, ice cream cones and the Salvation Army supplied the wherewithal to a wonderful afternoon.
