Enemy Give Way Before Gallant Fighting Allies

LICKING INTO SHAPE RAW ENGLISH RECRUITS—A DRILL SERGEANT PUTTING A SQUAD THROUGH THEIR PACES IN HYDE PARK, LONDON

Three Million Men In Second Battle; May be One of Most Momentous of War

Both Sides Say They Have Won In Preliminary Clashes of Arms

Allies Seem to be Attempting Turning Movement so Successful on the Marne—Italy Any Day May Place Herself at Side of England and France

The world at large has once more been set the task of guessing how the terrible clash of arms on the heights northward of the River Aisne is progressing. Berlin says that the attacks of the allies have been repulsed, and that the German counter attacks have been repulsed, and that the invaders are slowly giving way. Sympathizers with both sides are thus met with directly conflicting statements, which can be reconciled only on the assumption that the carriers are referring to different points in the vast field of action.

As the crow flies, the front of the opposing armies which, with the heavy reinforcements that have reached them, still probably total in the neighborhood of three million men, stretches for 110 miles. Making allowances for the deviation north to Laon, the line must be 150 miles long, so there is ample room for successes on one part of the field and reverses elsewhere. The Germans are in their selected positions with strong reinforcements rushed up from Lorraine, consequently this great battle may yet prove to be one of the most decisive and momentous of the war.

The British and the French armies seem to be attempting to repeat the turning movements carried out so successfully on the Marne, and in the present case they have the additional incentive of knowing that, should the German right be again turned, there are great defensive positions behind the invaders until they reach the river Meuse.

The position of the army of the German Crown Prince, making its way toward the Stenay Gap, remains full of interest. The French army which barred the exit of the crown prince by Toul is still hurrying in pursuit of him.

ITALY MAY ACT SOON

Italian and Rumanian activities seem today to point to a decisive action in the near future. Should these countries take the field against Austria-Hungary, it is argued that Russia would have her hands freed and that Germany would be thrown entirely on her own resources to repel the Moscovite hosts thus strongly reinforced.

Italy seems to have called her reservists to the colors, and to be apparently on the point of occupying Avlona, in order to safeguard her interests in the Adriatic.

CANADA IS TO SEND MANY TO FRONT

First Contingent to be Followed Soon Afterwards by Smaller Bodies—Dominion Expected To Maintain 40,000 In Field

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 17.—The plans are nearly completed by officials of the militia department for the recruiting and training of additional troops for service with the British arms immediately after the sailing of the first contingent. The imperial authorities are counting on Canada maintaining a force of 40,000 men in the field. That means that so much greater a number of men will need to be sent as the estimate is that about sixty per cent, a year require to be placed. This has regard to the casualties in action and men incapacitated through sickness and otherwise.

When the first contingent of 24,000 men sails, it will be followed very soon afterwards by small contingents of a few thousand each to keep the ranks filled up. The remaining 16,000 of the 40,000 will probably leave about the first of the year. These troops will include three infantry brigades, a cavalry brigade of 1,700 men and the Army Medical, Army Service Corps, etc.

URGENT DEMANDS ON THE FUND

Members of the relief committee of the Soldiers' and Families' Patriotic Fund are being kept busy these days relieving families whose bread-winners are at Valcartier, or on duty at Partridge Island. The secretary of the fund said this morning that many women have told him that they had received no money from their husbands, as it was said they had not yet received any pay. In one instance Mr. Armstrong said a woman told him she had received $10 from her husband but that he was compelled to draw it in advance from one of the officers. The secretary of money coming from the heads of families has thus made the call on the patriotic fund more urgent.

ARMY SERVICE CORPS

Voluntary drill is to be begun this evening by the members of the Army Service Corps at the armory, under Major McKean. The officers, non-commissioned officers and men of the unit have been requested to parade at the armory for an issue of clothing, and for the resuming of active drilling, in order to remain in a state of preparedness. News from Valcartier regarding the men of this detachment at that camp says that they have all been well pleased with those of higher rank given good positions in the army service unit. One of those who returned yesterday said that the men were in the best of health and were enjoying their stay at the camp, though becoming restless at their delay there. None of them seemed to have an idea when the order to strike camp for the overseas journey would be given.

Allies Slowly Gaining Advantage; Von Kluck's Army Enveloped; Crown Prince Cut Off

(LAST MINUTE BULLETIN)

Paris, Sept. 17, 5-20 p. m.—The Germans are slowly giving way in the great battle that continues today, all along the line of the river Aisne, according to official announcement made in Paris this afternoon.

General Von Kluck's army has been enveloped by the French army of Paris under General Damade and another army which marched from Rouen. It is believed that the latter may consist of British and Russian troops who have not yet taken any part in the campaign.

The lines of communication from France into Belgium, upon which General Von Kluck depends, have been partially cut, and he will now be compelled to retreat upon the same lines as the third German army via Mezieres.

The French have interposed a wedge between the crown prince's army and Metz. His retreat north is now compulsory. Reports from the battlefield indicate that the allies are slowly gaining the advantage.

It is announced that Germany has withdrawn eight army corps from East Prussia, and that these under General Von Hindenberg are now being rushed to reinforce the armies in France.

VARYING REPORTS FROM THE SCENE OF THE OPERATIONS OF THE CZAR'S FIGHTING MEN

London, Sept. 17.—In summing up recent Russian operations, the Petrograd correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company, says:

"The Russians have been successful in the fighting with the retreating Austrians along the whole front and news is continuously coming in telling of the capture of further prisoners and guns on the left bank of the river."
"In Eastern Prussia all the German efforts to surround a portion of the Russians have failed."

London, Sept. 17.—A despatch from Petrograd to Reuter's gives this outline of the situation in Galicia:

The position of Grodok, occupied by the Russians, is thirteen miles west of Lemberg, and is situated on the heights under which a chain of six almost connecting lakes stretch out toward the Russian frontier, forming a natural defence for fourteen miles running north and south. The Austrians abandoned this position after the capture of Lemberg.

Moscow, to which the Russians have advanced, is a little more than forty miles west of Lemberg on the main line between Przemysl and Lemberg. The shattered second Austrian army was evidently incapable of staying the Russian advance, and took refuge in Przemysl from which the Russians, according to the latest official report, are only nineteen miles away.

Great enthusiasm continues to prevail throughout Russia, and all classes are doing their utmost to help the present emergency. At Moscow the barbers' guild has offered to shave and cut the hair of soldiers free of charge, while at Vilna fifteen cab drivers have offered their services for the transport of the wounded.

Rome, Sept. 17 (via London).—The Tribune states that the German headquarters staff has adopted a new plan of campaign which consists of maintaining the defensive against the allies in the west while undertaking an offensive movement against the Russians in the north, which twelve German corps will be employed.

London, Sept. 17.—A Petrograd special despatch to the Times says:

"According to the latest information available here the Germans, realizing the futility of the withdrawal of eight army corps from their western front, are turning their first line troops from East Prussia westward."

"Military writers here are still puzzling over the problem why Germany should have made the blunder of sending such an enormous army to East Prussia where it was bound to remain either inactive or make an attempt to invade Russia, with the almost complete certainty of sharing the fate of the Austrian forces in Galicia."

The Russian divisions are considerably stronger than the Austrians, especially as regards artillery.

Austrian soldiers declare that for every ten Russians killed twenty came in their places. The Russian artillery fire they said, was wonderfully good, but the infantry work was of inferior kind.

GERMAN PRISONERS AT WORK FOR RUSSIA

Petrograd, via London, Sept. 17.—The Bourse Gazette states that up to a few days ago, the Russians held 200,000 prisoners who are being given labor of one kind or another, thousands being used on the railways and others helping with the harvest and plowing, while still others are lumbering and roadmaking.

Many of them have been sent to Turkestan, for work on the drainage system. Efforts are being made so that this influx of labor will not interfere with regular wage earners.

WELL DONE FOR THE POSTMEN

The letter carriers attached to the staff of the post office have forwarded through Postmaster Edward Sears $87 to the patriotic fund, with a guarantee from thirty of them to contribute $1 monthly during the war. All have offered to supplement the amounts if necessary. Seven of those who have given are: T. N. Perkins, J. J. Roblin, W. J. Murphy, G. E. Reardon, H. T. Bridge, G. W. Ring and J. F. McDermott, and the thirty others who have donated $1 each with the promise of the same amount monthly are: R. J. O'Brien, Thomas Killen, R. O. Causton, O. P. Mallin, G. C. Cosman, E. G. Britton, H. Kiley, Chas. Magee, J. LeCain, M. Macaulay, F. L. Gagey, A. Long, H. C. Gardner, J. McMonagle, D. Killom, C. E. Withers, M. P. Dalton, J. Butler, J. C. Bond, J. W. Williamson, F. H. McIntyre, J. K. MacDonald, W. T. Fyner, W. T. Dunlop, H. Russell, C. F. Rogers, J. E. Moore, C. J. Gibbons and H. A. Morrissey.

CROSSING OF AISNE BY ALLIES AN OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENT OF WAR

Further Reports Say Losses on Both Sides Have Been Enormous—Much in Present Battle Depends on Crown Prince of Germany

London, Sept. 17.—Along a 90-mile front the German armies are at bay and the allies are occupying a ledge across the river Aisne, which was won after one of the most spectacular and thrilling river crossings ever made by an attacking force under fire.

For the last two days, there have been sporadic attacks from both sides along this line but, according to admission from the rival headquarters, they have not produced any definite result. Both sides have suffered enormously during the last week and the present pause undoubtedly is being used to bring up reinforcements and supplies.

Petrograd reports that the flower of the German corps detailed for service in East Prussia are again hurrying back to the western front and Stockholm learns that General Von Hindenberg, flushed with victory against the Russians on the east Prussian frontier, has been urgently summoned to command the western army.

THE LOSSES AWFUL

Something of the horrors of modern warfare is indicated by the hesitancy with which the authorities discussed the terrible losses marking the progress of the armies from the Marne to the Aisne. The stories are told with great restraint, but with enough gruesome details given to make even military men shudder.

MUCH DEPENDS ON GERMAN CROWN PRINCE

Paris, Sept. 17.—The rear guard action supposed at first to be intended as a check to pursue and to facilitate the retreat of the mass of the armies of General Von Kluck and Von Buelow, has developed into what will probably be called in history the Battle of the Marne.

Whether the Germans found it necessary, or advisable, to turn and engage in a general action, this great battle wages fiercely and rivals in importance that of the Battle of the Marne.

The War Office says that the French have not flinched at any point. This sounds as if they were on the defensive and this might be so in view of the strength of the position the Germans occupy. The official communication Sunday said that the French and British had crossed the Aisne. If so, they have the river at their back, while the Germans are strongly entrenched on the heights of Laon and Rheims, with their right protected by the Oisne and the Aisne at Noyon.

The undetermined element in this fight, is the allies' right, which is in pursuit of the Crown Prince's army. All reports indicate that the latter is quite as demoralized as was Von Kluck's army and is suffering equally from lack of provisions and ammunition. While Von Kluck has no doubt received what he needs in this respect, it is doubtful if the crown prince has.

The issue of the battle may depend upon what condition the Crown Prince reaches the front, and whether he can make a stand and prevent the allies from turning the German left.

HEAVY COOL RAIN FALLING

Cold and heavy rains are falling today throughout the fighting zone in northern and eastern France. Military observers are of the opinion that this inclement weather will add to the difficulty of the Germans in greater degree than to the French. It will make the use of their heavy field artillery impossible except on the best roads and the progress of German supply trains, encumbered with men made ill through exposure, will be interfered with.

WARNS AMERICAN AIRSHIPS AGAINST FLYING OVER BORDER

Washington, Sept. 17.—Aeroplane pilots in the northern part of the United States were warned today to be careful not to cross the border into Canada during the war. This explanation was issued by the state department. The department has been advised by the American consul in Montreal that an aeroplane was recently fired upon by Canadian guards while near the Long Sault canal.

CAPTAIN HOWSON IS ON CRUISER CARONIA

Captain John Howson, a popular commander of the R. M. S. Packet Liner Colquhoun, which was wrecked on Trinity Ledges, while bound to St. John, N. B. from the south, last January, is an officer on board the auxiliary cruiser Caronia, now in Halifax.

Steamers Reach New York

New York, Sept. 17.—The steamer Patria from Marseilles with 418 passengers, and the steamers Thessaloniki and Athenai from Piræus, the latter having 380 passengers, arrived in port today. The Patria is due late today or early tomorrow with passengers from Liverpool and the Lusitania, from the same port, is due tonight.

New Episcopal Bishop

Portland, Ore., Sept. 17.—Rev. W. T. Sumner, dean of the Cathedral of St. Peter and Paul, Chicago, was elected Episcopal Bishop of Oregon early today. Balloting for a successor to the late Bishop Charles Scadding continued all yesterday and last night.

The Wheat Market.

Chicago, Sept. 17.—Wheat prices today recovered from an early dip. After opening ½ lower to ¼ up values declined ½ to ¾ all round, but then made a recovery in full.

THEFT OF RAZOR ALLEGED

James Pope, eighteen years of age, was arrested at noon today by Detective Killen, given in charge by Edward J. Pratt of Carmarthen street on a charge of stealing a razor from Mr. Pratt's house where Pope was staying. A razor was among the articles taken from the prisoner.

MOTORS MAKE DEAR TEA, SAYS LONDON PAPER.

Tea, all except China, has gone up in price from two-pence to fourpence a pound since this time last year. The finest Indian has gone up fourpence, ordinary Indian and Ceylon tea two-pence a pound.

The reason, curious as it may seem, is the fact that more and more people are buying motor-cars every year. Brick selling in the motor world means a growing demand for rubber for wheel tyres. This led in the time of the rubber boom to a sharp rise in the price of rubber. It so happens that rubber and tea are two crops that require exactly the same conditions of soil and climate, with the result that ever since the beginning of the rubber boom more and more tea planters have dropped tea for rubber. The effect of the shorter supplies of tea is just beginning to be felt in the present rise of price.

So that is why our tea is dear. If your tea merchant is not raising his price he is giving you poorer quality for your money. The cost of your cup of tea is going to rise further, too.

Steamer Empress of India arrived at Hong Kong at noon on Tuesday.

Rev. E. M. Cook, head of the Shrewsbury Boys' Club, of Liverpool, England, is in the city and in company with A. B. Wilnot, dominion immigration agent in this city, is inspecting conditions in and about Fredericton for placing of immigrant boys and girls.

The Shrewsbury Boys' Club, of which Rev. Mr. Cook is the head, has sent immigrants to Canada during the last few years. The club supplies the members with transportation and expenses, and they refund this money on receiving permanent employment in this country. The greater number of the boys sent to this country by the Shrewsbury Club have gone to the west, and in nearly all cases they have been successful in Canada.

"I am very favorably impressed with conditions in New Brunswick," and Rev. Mr. Cook to a reporter, "and will endeavor to have some come to this province on my return to England."

Rev. Mr. Cook, in company with Mr. Wilnot, and A. W. Hay, of Woodstock, dominion immigration official and chairman of the Farm Settlement Board, will leave tomorrow on an inspection trip in Carleton County. This will give Rev. Mr. Cook an opportunity of seeing the kind of homes some of the immigrants have obtained in this province. He has been here for a month and will return to England in the latter part of September. He is a brother of Rev. William Cook, of Belmont, Sunbury County.

No More Cutting For Sore Corns

The real corn remedy, the one that always gives results, is Putnam's Corn Extractor, which makes corns and callouses go quickly, and without pain. Goes to the root of the tormenter, absorbs its roots, gives lasting relief, and surely removes corns or callouses, whether just starting or of many years' growth. The name tells the story. Putnam's Painless Corn and Wart Extractor, price 25c.

How You Can Quickly Remove Hairy Growths

(Aids to Beauty).

A well known beauty specialist advises this treatment for the removal of hair from the face. Mix into a paste some powdered delatone and water, apply to hairy surface and after about 2 minutes rub off, wash the skin and every trace of hair has vanished. This method is quick and entirely safe. To avoid disappointment, however, it is well to make certain you get genuine delatone.

THE TALE OF THE TICKER

The ticker tells what cool, calculating men engaged in international trade think no matter what they may say. Wheat broke sharply last Tuesday on stories of reverses sustained by the German and Austrian armies. The price of wheat told the world that the traders believe that the war can be made short only by Germany's defeat. They believe that should be permitted to go to waste. The great difficulty in giving more people in cities an opportunity to get cheap apples is that of transportation. As a matter of fact the people of this country are far too wasteful, and do not make the best use of articles of food which are within their reach.

THE WAR NEWS.

Today's cables indicate that another great battle is in progress in France, and that the German armies, having retreated to a strong position, are making a determined stand in a struggle which may be as fierce and should be more decisive than the battle of the Marne.

One Ontario town has decided to raise a patriotic fund equal to one dollar per head of its population. Some cities are doing much better. If St. John is to do even as well it must double the present contribution.

Premier Asquith was right in contending that failure to pass the Irish Home Rule and Welsh Disestablishment Bills would have had a deplorable effect. Their operation, however, is to be suspended until the close of the war.

The Winnipeg Free Press says that $225,000,000 is a conservative estimate of the value of the present crop to the farmers of Western Canada. So great an amount of money distributed through the west will do much to improve the conditions brought about by the war.

The reorganization of the Soldiers' Wives League will give a number of influential ladies in the city an excellent opportunity to engage in a kind of community work which will be much needed during the coming winter.

Secretary Bryan was the subject of a good deal of railway when he set out to secure arbitration treaties with various countries and began with the Central and South American republics. He persisted, however, and it was announced yesterday that treaties which Washington believes will make armed conflict between the United States and the other signatory nations almost if not wholly impossible had been signed by the representatives of Great Britain, France, Spain and China.

Toronto, Sept. 17.—At a special general meeting of the shareholders of the Metropolitan Bank the agreement for the sale of the assets of the Bank to the Bank of Nova Scotia was unanimously approved.

The Toronto Mail and Empire says that an effort ought to be made to gather the large quantities of apples which are usually left to rot on the ground and to distribute them in the cities. The Mail and Empire very truly says that waste in the country and scarcity in the cities do not harmonize.

A new method is used in pulling the stumps of the burned trees in Salem. Workmen first excavate the earth about the stump and cut the roots, then a steam roller is used to pull them out.

PUCK'S SONG.

(By Rudyard Kipling.) See you the dimpled track that runs, All hollow through the wheat? O that was where they hauled the guns That smote King Philip's feet.

See you our little mill that clacks, So busy by the brook? She has ground her corn and paid her tax. Ever since Domesday Book.

See you our stilly woods of oak, And the dread ditch beside? O that was where the Saxons broke, On the day that Harold died.

See you the windy levels spread About the gates of Ryef? O that was where the Northernmen fed, When Alfred's ships came by.

See you our pastures wide and lone, Where the red oxen browse? O there was a City throxen and known, Ere London boasted a house.

And see you, after rain, the trace Of mould and ditch and wall? O that was a Legion's camping place, When Caesar sailed from Gaul.

And see you marks that show and fade, Like shadows on the Downs? O they are the lines the Flint men made, To guard their wondrous towns.

Trackway and Camp and City lost, Salt Marsh where now is corn; Old Wars, old legends, old men's tales, And so was England born!

LIGHTER VEIN Damage. "What's the age of your boy?" "Break-age."

The Way of the Summer Girl. Edith—Are you going back to the city soon? Ethel—Not for a week or so. I have two engagements to break before I go.

A Possible Chance. A young man who last month received his diploma has been looking around successfully for a position, employing him for the week, and if they the other day he asked to see the manager, and while waiting for that gentleman to become disengaged he said to the office boy:

"Do you suppose there is any opening here for a college graduate?" "Well, dere will be," was the reply, "if de boss don't raise me salary to free dollars a week by termorrer night."

WHAT YOU CAN DO TO HELP From the London Fall Mail (Gazette) Many people are asking just now, "What can we do to help?" The answer is plain. Go about your daily life in quietness and confidence, and help, both by money and by personal service, to assure that the privations inevitable to war fall as lightly as possible on those less fortunate than yourselves. Some sacrifice is demanded of us all. Let it be cheerfully and readily made.

AN EASY WAY TO GET FAT AND BE STRONG The trouble with most thin folks who wish to gain weight is that they insist on drugging their stomach or stuffing it with greasy foods; rubbing on useless "flesh creams," or following some foolish physical culture stunt, while the real cause of thinness goes untouched. You cannot get fat until your digestive tract assimilates the food you eat.

ELSIE DE WOLFE'S FLIGHT. Rushed Her Auto From Avignon France, to Barcelona, Spain, in Two Days. New York, Sept. 17.—Miss Anne Morgan, Miss Elsie De Wolfe and Miss Elizabeth Marbury are staying at Biarritz, France. Writing on Sept. 1 to a friend in this city, Miss De Wolfe told how they first heard that war was on in Europe. "I was at Avignon en route for Spain," her letter says, "when at 7:30 a. m. on Aug. 1 my chauffeur came to say that I intended going into Spain I had better make haste, as surely the order for the mobilization would be given and that my motor would be requisitioned. So we started at eight o'clock and went on as rapidly as possible. At nine o'clock, utterly worn out, we reached Perpignan. "We did not take our clothes off, and at five a. m. started for the last lap of our journey. I'll confess I had little hope of crossing the frontier with a French car and a French chauffeur. However, the pass was a little frequented one. We were waiting when the douane opened at eight and went through without difficulty, reaching Barcelona at about four. My chauffeur left me at once, returning to Paris to report." Miss De Wolfe says further that she was twenty-one days without news of any kind and finally decided to return to France, where she was joined by her two friends.

FORWARD We are stocked to the roof with New Seasonable Footwear; made to our order at the lower prices prevailing during the earlier part of the year. This gives us a tremendous retelling advantage, in face of the sharp, advance of leather. Owing to the above facts we are able to assure the Public, that Our Prices will not be raised; and solicit your patronage on the basis of "The Greatest Value for the Money," together with prompt courteous service.

Hints for the Cook

Lemon Pie

Make crust of 1/2 the ingredients of a rich cookie recipe. Bake on outside of a well-greased pie tin (this prevents crust from falling to the centre from the side). Make custard in a double boiler as follows: Juice and rind of 1 lemon, 1 cup granulated sugar, 1 cup cold water, 1 tablespoon cornstarch, yolks of 3 eggs. For Top—Beat whites with 8 tablespoons powdered sugar. Brown for a very few minutes.

Chocolate Nut Cake.

Cream two heaping tablespoons of butter and add gradually one cup of sugar, two well-beaten eggs and half cup rich milk. Sift together 1 1/2 cups flour, with 2 rounded teaspoons of baking powder and add to the first. Chop English walnuts enough to make half cup and stir in the mixture, flouring slightly. Flavor with a teaspoon of water-white vanilla and bake in two layers. Frosting—Boil together two cups of sugar and half cup water till it hairs, then stir in half cup unsweetened chocolate and let boil three minutes. Cool slightly, then use between layers and over top and sides. Decorate top with blanched and split almonds, arranging in fancy pattern with a marshmallow for center.

There is more Cansh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Cansh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Cansh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Calgary, Sept. 16.—Recognizing the desirability of promptly acquainting the public with what is taking place on the battle field in Europe, and deprecating the publication of sensational extra editions of newspapers, the Presbytery of Calgary has gone on record as approving the course of Presbyterian ministers who may care to announce at their Sunday services, properly authorized war news of transcendent importance.

Germans Suffer Heavily In Counter Attacks at the Aisne

London, Sept. 16.—5:28 p. m.—The official press bureau today gave out a statement which says: "The general position along the Aisne river continues very favorable. The enemy has delivered several counter-attacks, especially against the First Army Corps. These have been repulsed, and the Germans have given way slightly before our troops and the French armies on our right and left."

Paris, Sept. 16.—11:09 p. m.—The French official communication issued tonight announces that headquarters sends no new details of the action now being fought along the Aisne river. Paris, Sept. 16.—5:51 p. m.—Noyon, the birthplace of Calvin, and also celebrated for its connection with Charlemagne, formed today the extreme left of the allies' left wing, which for twelve days has not lost its close and constant contact with the Germans, and has done brilliant work in driving them back. From Noyon the line of battle sweeps southward, then north to Laon fortress forming a half circle, and from the fortress stretches east to the Meuse, north of the first-class fort of Verdun where, it is stated, the allies' right wing is pushing the Germans northward.

London, Sept. 16.—9:20 p. m.—The German army, which less than a fortnight ago was at the "gates of Paris" and the right wing of which then extended to the southeast of the French capital, is tonight drawn up on almost a straight line, extending from the neighborhood of Noyon, in the west, to Laon, Forges, on the Meuse, north of Verdun, with its left resting on the German fortress of Metz.

The British army, as had been its lot since it landed in France, is taking its full share of this fighting, which on the front has been particularly severe, since the Germans crossed the Aisne and made their first determined stand in the retreat from Paris.

The German centre, which in the last few days has come more into line with the two wings, now stretches from the heights north of Rheims to the western foothills of the Argonne ridge, dipping a little south to touch Ville Sur Tourbe, just northeast of Camp De Chalons. This is all high, rough ground, in many places covered by heavy forest, which may by this time have been destroyed.

The German left has been driven back a little further than the centre, and holds the ground from west of the Argonne hills, north of Varennes which the French have reoccupied, to the Meuse, which it crosses at Consenvoye, and thence southeastward to Metz.

The crossing of the Meuse, which the Germans have selected at Consenvoye, is just out of range of the fortress guns of Verdun, so that, as far as the battle now pending is concerned, they have not to reckon with this stronghold, except as it offers support to the French in case the allies are compelled to retire.

The Germans on this long line cover as many lines of retreat as possible, including these to Namur, Givet, Sedan and Stenay, and should soon be ready, if they have not already commenced, to give battle, or if the offensive comes from the other side, to defend their position.

London, Sept. 17, 12:25 a. m.—The official press bureau issued the following announcement tonight: "It is stated from Russian official sources that the rout of the Austrian army in Galicia is complete, though full details have not been received. The Austrian loss since the taking of Lemberg is estimated at 250,000 killed and wounded, 100,000 prisoners and 400 guns, many colors and vast quantities of stores."

The Germans made desperate efforts to save the Austrian army, but failed completely. "At one point the Germans lost thirty-six pieces of heavy artillery, and at another several dozen pieces of siege artillery."

London, Sept. 16, 8:40 p. m.—Reuter's Paris correspondent says that 800 Frenchmen left Paris today to carry out under direction of the Army Medical Service

Alberta Land Legislation

Calgary, Sept. 17.—There will be no more mortgage sales in Alberta until the war is over, unless by consent of the parties to the suit. The provincial judges have decided, and it is officially announced in Calgary that until peace is declared, no further judgment sales will be ordered on foreclosure proceedings in mortgage actions.

PARIS JOYFUL AS THE SPOILS OF WAR ARRIVE

Paris, Sept. 17.—Besides a continuous stream of taxis, motor wagons, private automobiles and properly equipped motor ambulances, conveying wounded to the hospitals, Parisians have witnessed the contiguous arrival of German war material captured at the battle of Marne. Twenty-one full trains of such booty which have reached Paris are said to represent barely half the total amount. It is estimated that sixty cannon, thirty mitrailleurs, forty ammunition wagons and three aeroplanes have already arrived, while as these lines are written there rises from the nearby Place de l'Opera an exultant roar from the crowd who for the last two hours have been awaiting the passing of one of the numerous batches of German prisoners, traversing the city on their way to the western concentration camps.

GERMANS AT TOURNAI

Newspaper Describes the Extortion of $400,000 on a Two-Hour Time Limit

New York, Sept. 17.—Le Bien Public, a newspaper published in Ghent, Belgium, under date of Aug. 29, received at the headquarters of the Belgian Relief Fund here, gives an account of the occupation of Tournai, Belgium, by the German troops. "Immediately upon occupying the city," the account says, "the military authorities demanded 2,000,000 francs and took as hostages the mayor of the city, the bishop and all the members of the city council. Payment was offered in Bank notes, but this was refused by the Germans, who demanded gold and silver and allowed only one hour in which to collect the money. "At the end of that time they were given 1,700,000 francs. The Germans then allowed an extra hour to complete the 2,000,000 francs. The women of the city were forced to collect from door to door to make up the contribution. Meanwhile the hostages had been taken away and were not brought back after the money was paid."

DRUGS EXCITE YOUR KIDNEYS, USE SALTS
 If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers, Drink Lots Of Water

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get excited and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you clean your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 300 grains of acid waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active. Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will be fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

EIGHT GREAT POWERS PREPARED FOR WAR

In The Last Fifteen Years They Expended More Than Twenty-five Billion

When historians of the future look back upon us and chronicle the opening years of the twentieth century, with its curious mingling of civilization and barbarism, they will be amazed to record the enormous sums paid out in preparation for war. And the historians of the future will be right. In the fifteen fiscal years since the opening of the twentieth century, the eight great powers of the world have expended on military and naval budgets more than twenty-five billions of dollars. The exact figure is $25,078,487,892. $15,048,254,806 of this having been spent for the armies, and $7,030,133,079 on the construction and maintenance of fleets. Stop a moment and consider how enormous this sum is. It is five times the value of all the farms in the United States, about forty billion. It is five times all the gold and silver mined in the United States since the Declaration of Independence. It is more than twice the total national banking resources of this country. The whole civilized world has gone mad over preparations for war. Expenditures, heavy enough when the century began, have risen 30 per cent, and $600,000,000 are now being spent annually in preparation for mutual destruction. Of course, we are told that every dreadnought and every bayonet is so much insurance against war, but the cost of insurance premiums have risen so rapidly that it is more costly to be prepared for war than actually to go to war.

Russia's Expenditures Against Japan.

Russia spent $1,845,095,839 on the Japanese war, according to the official figures, while Japan's war outlay was $1,976,234,480. The total expenses of this war was, therefore, $3,821,330,319, which scarcely exceeds the annual expenses of all the nations in preparation for war today. Since the war lasted two years, its cost was actually less than what the nations spend now in a similar space of time. In other words, the cost of war insurance premiums has risen in the last fifteen years to more than 100 per cent. The premium is greater than the face value of the policy. Fourteen years ago Russia was spending $216,852,166 on army and navy. Today the cost is almost double, the figure being $487,469,024. Germany has almost doubled its outlay from $246,535,548 to $475,551,145. France shows an almost similar increase from $187,589,769 to $371,609,594. Japan's expenditures are more than twice as great, having risen from $54,660,850 to $120,024,808. In 1900 the United States spent on war and navy departments $208,122,678. In the last fiscal year this had risen to $914,938,791. The increases are uniform. The sole exception was in the figures for the English army, which stood at $211,869,000 in 1900 and is now $186,222,100. This decrease is only apparent, because the 1900 figures included the heavy expenses of the Boer war. The eight great powers show an increase since the beginning of the century of $920,750,179, a little more than 50 per cent. Moreover, the contagion of madness has spread to the smaller and weaker powers. The Kaiser proclaimed 1913 to be, like 1813 "a year of sacrifice" for the Fatherland. The peace footing of the army was increased from 580,000 to 806,000 privates. This cost $250,000,000, which is being raised by a special war tax on large fortunes, graduated from 1-2 per cent to 5 per cent—not of the income, but of the principal sum itself—and this

A Railway Journey Full of Thrills, Terror and Tears Along The War Frontier of Once Smiling France

Staff Correspondent Burton Rides With Suffocating Crowd Of Weeping and Fainting Refugees From Boulogne to Paris—The Kind Princess—Passing Trains of Singing Soldiers—Walking Good in Paris, With Aristocrat and Peasant

(By Harry Payne Burton)
 Paris, France, Aug. 26, 1914.—Would you like to hear about a railroad journey in war-torn France today? A trip from Boulogne to Paris—on the only train that makes the trip every twenty-four hours, traveling along close to the frontier of fighting. For an hour before the Paris train left Gare du Nord, at Boulogne it was actually besieged with passengers, for it is the only train that runs from the sea to Paris today in each twenty-four hours. And every passenger that rides on it is examined, re-examined and cross-examined, for Paris is not taking chances on letting in German spies. The train was filled beyond suffocation when we finally started, two hours after the scheduled time. The distinction between the first, second and third classes had not been held to at all, and passengers, just escaped from some beleaguered section in the north of France, sat beside members of the Paris aristocracy returning from England, whether they had taken hurried trips to deposit jewelry and money or, indeed, to ship them for safe keeping in America. And when the train did actually move, people were sitting in each other's laps in the compartments, and some of them were lying in the baggage racks overhead. All trains today in France are running under martial law. Reduced to fact, this means that no non-military train is permitted to travel faster than sixteen miles an hour and that it must stop at every station on the road so that the coaches may be examined for suspicious persons. Our train certainly stuck to schedule time. In fact, I am sure it never went faster than eight miles an hour. It took us just twenty-six hours to make the six-hour trip to Paris. From the suburbs of Boulogne right through to Paris there is not one-half mile of track that is not guarded by two uniformed French soldiers with fixed bayonets. Their figures, in red, flitted past me by day with the regularity of telegraph poles and at night the twinkle of their lanterns shined by the darkened windows at us as precise intervals. The trip to Amiens was so uneventful and so wearisome that it seemed we would never get there. Beyond the holding up of the train at every station so that a guard might peer into our coach for people who looked like "Les Allemands" (the Germans) nothing happened. But when we reached Amiens at 8 o'clock in the morning everything changed. We were in the war—or its backwash! The great black station at Amiens was littered with refugees from each time over the eastern part of France. I do not know how many.

REDMOND CALLS ON IRISHMEN TO BEAR SHARE IN THE WAR

London, Sept. 16.—The democracy of Great Britain have kept faith with Ireland, and it is now the duty of honor for Ireland to keep faith with them. "The Irish people," Mr. Redmond says John Redmond, the Irish leader, in a manifesto issued tonight in which he calls on Irishmen to bear their share in the war in which the empire is engaged. "The Irish people," Mr. Redmond continued, "know and appreciate the fact fully, that at last, after centuries of misunderstanding, the democracy of Great Britain have finally and irrevocably decided to trust them and give them back their national liberties. "By overwhelming British majorities a charter of liberty for Ireland has three times been passed by the House of Commons, and in a few hours will be the law of the land. A new era has opened in the history of the two nations. Mr. Redmond then goes on to speak of the war, saying: "It is a just war, provoked by the intolerable military despotism of Germany. It is a war for high ideals of human government and international relations, and Ireland would be false to her history, to every consideration of honor, good faith and self interest, did she not willingly bear her share in its burdens and its sacrifices. "We have even, when no ties of sympathy bound our country to Great Britain, always given our quota, and more than our quota, to the firing line; and we shall do so now. "We have a right to claim that Irish recruits for an expeditionary force should be kept together as a unit and officered, as far as possible, by Irishmen—to form, in fact, an Irish brigade so that Ireland may gain national credit for her deeds, and feel like the other communities of the empire, that she, too, has contributed an army bearing her name in this historic struggle. "For the first time in about a dozen years mackerel have been caught in the New Haven waters. In recent years porpoises are believed to have driven them away out in the last month thousands of mackerel have been caught."

THE W. C. T. U.

The meeting of the W. C. T. U. yesterday afternoon was opened by devotional exercises, led by Mrs. Strong, of P. E. Island. A paper on the Ideal Mother was read by Mrs. Hetherington, reports on the platform were Mrs. J. MacWha (chairman), Mrs. Lindlow, Mrs. L. R. Hetherington and Mrs. A. C. M. Lawson, Fredricton. A government patent to 76 acres of land in Springfield, Mo., was sent to a Jefferson City man by J. W. Bowen, United States land registrar. It had been in the land office since 1868 and it was signed by President Buchanan. The land was purchased from the government for 12 1/2 cents an acre.

THINGS WE CAN DO IN THE MIDST OF WAR

Here are some simple things that, according to the London Times all can do, and others that all can avoid, as First and foremost—Keep your heads. Be calm. Go about your ordinary business quietly and soberly. Do not indulge in excitement or foolish demonstrations. Secondly—Think of others more than you are wont to do. Think of your duty to your neighbor. Think of the common weal. Try to contribute your share by doing your duty in your own place and your own sphere. Be abstemious and economical. Avoid waste. Do not store goods and create an artificial scarcity to the hurt of others. Remember that it is an act of mean and selfish cowardice. Do not hoard any gold. Let it circulate. Try to make things more easy, not more difficult. Remember those who are worse off than yourself. Pay punctually what you owe, especially to your poorest creditors. If you are an employer, think of your employed. Give them work and wages as long as you can and work short time rather than close down. If you are employed, remember the difficulties of your employer.

Gold Discovery Regarded as of Highest Importance

New York, Sept. 17.—Daniel Guggenheim, head of the Guggenheim interests has received a telegram from Stephen Birch, managing director of the Morgan-Guggenheim Alaskan mining syndicate, confirming the reports of a remarkable gold discovery in Broad Pass on the Susitna River, Alaska. Mr. Birch said he was on his way to this city with samples of the ore.

The discovery it is predicted, will create a new era of prosperity in this country and already has started another rush of prospectors to Alaska. News of the find spread like wildfire through the region and hundreds of gold seekers have poured into the pass to stake out claims.

According to reports from the regions in the northwest, the strike was made where there are gold ledges 100 to 2,000 feet wide. One of the 100 foot ledges assays $15 a ton straight across. A fourteen foot pay streak on the hanging wall averages better than $250 a ton. The discovery is said to surpass any yet made in South Africa. The least valuable of the ledges are said to eclipse the Treadwell and other Juneau ledges.

PEACE TALK IS OUT OF QUESTION

Britain Cannot Listen To Any Proposals at Present

MUST BE LAST BIG WAR

Prussian Militarism Must be Crushed For All Time—When Peace Comes it Must be Signed in Berlin

London, Sept. 17.—Until Prussian militarism is crushed for all time both on land and sea, Britain will refuse to even consider propositions of peace. That is the emphatic position taken in London. British officials are admittedly amazed by suggestions that the United States wants to propose a compromise for the immediate ending of the war. It is felt that the position of the allies must be greatly misunderstood if it is believed that any peace proposal would even be received at this time.

Were the war ended today, even though Belgium were indemnified and France received back Alsace-Lorraine, the great German fleet would remain as a menace to the peace of Europe. England is determined that this shall be the last war. Its officials, from the king down, insist that the real cause of the war was the German dream of world power. A compromise now, it is said, would mean that at a later date Germany would renew the attempt and this time the allies might not be able to present their present unbroken front. So it is the intention of England to fight on until Germany is forced to consent to peace that will make her a party for all time to treaties that she will be compelled to respect and not regard as "mere scraps of paper" to be disregarded at will.

Must Stay in Berlin

The Times commenting on the outlook, declares that only peace concluded in Berlin and the dispersal of the German fleet, will be acceptable to the British people. It declares that any official who would consent to any lesser humiliation of Germany could not withstand the upheaval of popular disapproval.

France wants Alsace-Lorraine back and with it the enormous indemnity that Bismarck wrung from her in 1871. But even though that were offered her by Germany right now, she could not accept as England and Russia have tied her hands. The same is true of any suggestions that might be made acceptable to Russia or England.

May Be Revolution

It is admitted that peace may be hastened by the defeat of the Germans in France and by the crushing of the Austrians by the Russians. There has been a strong under-current in Germany against the war. Only in Prussia was it popular with the people. The majority of the other German states had no liking for conflict, so far as the rank and file of the people was concerned. Now that Germany is on the defensive, that the attempt to take Paris has proven abortive, and above all, since the losses to the Fatherland have been so enormous, there is real danger of a popular uprising which may change the present German system of government. The Germans as a people seldom forgive mistakes and they are certain to consider a crim-

Americans In Canada Help Britain's Cause

The American Aid Society of Canada has been organized by Americans in this country to raise money for the Canadian Patriotic Relief Fund. The Toronto organization started the ball rolling with a mammoth concert at the Arena at which H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught, Sir Geo. Foster and Sir Wilfrid Laurier spoke. More than $5,000 was taken in, all of which was turned into the fund, the expenses being borne by the Americans. American ladies sold more than $1,500 worth of tickets for the concert from automobiles at street corners. One of these teams is shown here.

ADDRESSED CARPENTERS

At the meeting of the Carpenters Union last evening J. E. Potts, general organizer of the International Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, gave an interesting address. He said that in spite of the industrial depression which had recently prevailed in the United States and Canada, the Carpenters Brotherhood had made substantial progress, increasing its membership and in some cases increasing wages. He spoke optimistically about the future.

UNANIMITY OF SENTIMENT

Party Lines Disappear in Allies' Countries.

Paris, Sept. 17.—The unanimity of public sentiment in France, England, Russia, and Belgium, in the face of present grave circumstances is much commented upon by the press. It is pointed out that no other influence possible could so completely conciliate conflicting parties, such as the Home Rulers and Orangemen in Ireland, the revolutionary and conservative parties in France and Belgium, and the parties of the two extremes in Russia. Likewise opinion in Italy is beginning to call for a similar union with collaboration of

MRS. LIVINGSTONE'S PLEA FOR GRANTING OF WOMAN SUFFRAGE

Not Alone Because of Right But Because of Their Desire to Improve Social and Moral Conditions

The address of Mrs. Deborah Knox Livingstone in Centenary church last evening on Womanhood and Citizenship was a carefully reasoned and very strong plea for the granting of suffrage to women. At the outset she reviewed the progress of women in education and industrial life, and then went on to show how the gradual granting of the suffrage to women in the United States had resulted in the adoption of legislation to promote the moral welfare of the people. State after state in the west was taken up and facts cited to prove her contention that where women gained the right to vote such matters as the liquor traffic, child labor, the working hours of women and children, and other questions of great importance received more attention at the hands of the legislators.

Referring to the burdens which women are forced to bear, Mrs. Livingstone said that when the Civil War broke out in the United States and the men went to the front, the women were compelled to enter into industrial life and, because their fathers, or husbands, or brothers, or sons never returned, many of them were compelled to go on working in the factories. Upon them fell heavily a great part of the burden of the reconstruction period after the war. Similarly, she said, upon the devoted women of Europe, who are now compelled to endure so much trouble, will fall a great portion of the burden of the reconstruction period at the close of this war. If the women had a voice in legislation, would they support the policy of universal disarmament? Only when disarmament is agreed to by the nations will peace be maintained.

Mrs. Livingstone said that women were not pressing for the ballot, chiefly because it was their right, but because of their desire to improve social and moral conditions, and their realization of the fact that only through the use of the ballot could reforms be accomplished.

At the close of her address, Mrs. Livingstone received a beautiful bouquet from the St. John W. C. T. U. She went today to Houlton, Me., where she is to deliver two addresses.

DROP EBBETTS AND TAFT INTO DISCARD; BRING FEDERAL'S BACKERS INTO NATIONAL LEAGUE—THAT'S NEW PLAN TO END WAR

Elimination of Charles P. Taft from baseball both in Chicago and in Philadelphia; the retirement of Charles Ebbetts from the National League, the elimination of the Cincinnati crowd from the national game, is the latest move toward the solution of the baseball tangle. It is proposed that the Wards of Brooklyn take over Ebbetts' interests and that Charles Weegman and his financial allies buy the Taft interests; that men now in the Federal League replace the discarded elements in the National, that the Federal League ceases to exist and that the National continues with the strongest of the Federal League members taken into the fold. The powers of baseball have been holding meetings in Cincinnati and in Chicago striving to solve their big problem, the Federal League. The situation is this: The Federal League has cost its backers approximately $300,000 over receipts this season. The National League has had a hard expensive year, and the American League will be lucky to break even. Perhaps five of the twenty-four big league clubs have made money. There are thirty-seven minor leagues. Five leagues went smash during the season. Others curtailed their seasons and several others changed their circuits to finish.

Trying to get a good boxer under his wing, he evidently picked up a good heavyweight in Sam Grande of California. Grande recently secured the decision over Tom McMahon, a Pittsburgh heavyweight, in a twenty-round bout at Vallejo, Cal., and the reports are that Grande had McMahon almost out on several occasions. Is After Gunboat. George Lawrence, of Australia, manager and backer of Colin Bell, heavyweight champion of the Antipodes, now in New York, writes to the Boston Globe as follows: "It had been my intention to go over to Boston, taking Colin Bell, Australian heavyweight champion, with me, to be at the ringside and challenge the winner of the Langford-Johnson contest. As Bell has only just arrived in this country, and has gone into strict training at Woodlawn Inn, I have to resort to the mail with my challenge. "My particular reason for coming to the United States was to force Gunboat Smith into a match, he having run out of a meeting at the Sporting Life office in London. I had $2,500 posted some time to make a match with Smith, and it was to have been raised to $5,000 at the appointed meeting, August 22. "But when I had posted my full amount, which fact is verified by all the English newspapers, but Jim Buckley left for Liverpool and sailed for New York two days later. "I shall keep after Gunboat Smith until I force him into a match, and I will add that I am willing to make my side issue of amount up to $25,000, a side, so Smith cannot dodge a match by reason of money. Mr. Buckley knows that I am a perfectly responsible man, and when I talk money to the amount named, he knows that I mean it and that my word is good. "In the meantime, I mention the fact that Bell has a 15-round draw with Sam Langford, made when the Australian was little more than a novice, and the opportunity is offered Langford for a contest in this country if he beats Jim Johnson. If Johnson wins, the offer is open to him."

BRITISH LITERARY MEN TO ANSWER GERMANS. Sir James M. Barrie Leads Trio on Way to United States. London, Sept. 17.—The Morning Post says Sir James M. Barrie, dramatist; Alfred E. Mason, author and dramatist; and T. Gilmour, formerly secretary to Earl Rosebery, sailed for New York on Saturday on the steamship Lusitania to advocate in the United States the British viewpoint of the war. Their mission has been undertaken with the knowledge and encouragement of a number of English literary men, who see that, while the British white paper admirably covers the British case, there is need of less formal advocacy of the British position to answer the German press campaign in America. According to the Morning Post, the enterprise is a private one, and the plans will be largely determined by the course of events. The members of the party do not propose to deliver lectures, but will answer the Germans through the press and get in touch with the leaders of public opinion. They will avoid anything like solicitation that the United States shall depart from its neutral position.

St. Boniface De Shawinigan, Que., Feb. 8th, 1914. "It is a pleasure to me to inform you that after suffering from Chronic Constipation for 2 1/2 years, I have been cured by "Fruit-a-lives". While I was a student at Berthier College it became so ill I was forced to leave the college. Severe pains across the intestines continually tortured me and it came to a point when I could not stoop down at all, and my Digestion became paralyzed. Some one advised me to take "Fruit-a-lives" and once I felt a great improvement. After I had taken four or five boxes, I realized that I was completely cured and what made me glad, also, was that they were acting gently, causing no pain whatever to the bowels. All those who suffer with Chronic Constipation should follow my example and take "Fruit-a-lives" for they are the medicine that cures."

CANADIAN DOCTORS AND NURSES FOR WAR Two general or base hospitals, each with a staff of some twenty doctors and more than forty nurses, will accompany the Canadian troops to the scene of war. Although not yet organized, this branch of the service will by no means be least in importance and it is very far from being the least interesting of the units which form a complete army division. The base hospitals do not, under ordinary circumstances, lie very near the actual fighting line. In a well-populated country such as France, Belgium or Germany, where railways run practically everywhere, it will be possible to establish them in towns or cities, using large hotels or other buildings for the purpose. The chief base hospitals of the allies of present, for instance, are in and about Paris.

The pie-social and dance held in the Agricultural Hall for the Patriotic Fund was attended by many and the sum of nearly $200 was realized. After the ladies and gentlemen at their pies, they arranged to dance and the happy gathering broke up at an early hour in the morning. Much credit is due to Mrs. S. H. Barker, Mrs. Thomas Lydon, Mr. Daley and all others who helped to make the affair a success.

Germans Annihilated One Of Their Own Regiments

In Another Case Two Battalions Fought Each Other Till Last Man Went Down—Mistakes of Night Combats

London, Sept. 17.—In a despatch from Paris the correspondent of Reuter's says an officer now a prisoner at Troyes, France, admits that the Germans made serious mistakes during the fighting at night, which they have indulged in since the beginning of the war.

Near Malines, this officer says, a detachment of German artillery annihilated a Prussian regiment under the impression that it was engaging French infantry.

Near a frontier village, two battalions of the 28th German Infantry, mistaking one another for French troops, shot each other down to the last man.

More Acts Of Outrage Laid To the Germans

Paris, Sept. 17.—Leon Bourgeois, former premier and senator from Marne, who has just returned after a tour of the district recently occupied by the Germans, has made a detailed report of his observations, a copy of which has been given to the American ambassador for transmission to the government at Washington.

The report declares that most of the communities through which the Germans passed were annihilated by fire and sword. Several mayors were shot, and where the mayors were absent, substitutes were shot in their places.

The report recites an attack on women in Montmirail, and the shooting of a father and his twelve year old son, who were present. Several witnesses of this alleged incident are named in the report.

When the Germans were announced as approaching Chalons, many of the inhabitants rushed to the station and besieged the trains that were leaving, but most of the populations retained their composure. The arrival of the Germans, the report says, was preceded by a short bombardment, in which shells fell on the hospital and the children's asylum.

GERMAN ARMY SHORT OF NURSES

So Sure of Quick Capture of Paris That They Did Not Provide For Wounded

Paris, Sept. 17.—The pitiable state of most of the German wounded is explained by some of the prisoners as due to a lack of nursing. They say the Germans were so convinced that they would cross France and take Paris at the double quick, that they did not provide for wounded. When the famous "75" gun of the French began to make ravages, the German commanders took from the ranks men best qualified for the work of caring for the wounded, but the services were quite insufficient.

Yesterday a train-load of wounded, comprising a large number of men in the Imperial Guard, arrived in Bordeaux. Nearly all are in a grave state. They were accompanied by a German army surgeon, and one nurse of the Imperial Guard. All of these wounded recognize the good care they have since falling into the hands of the French.

LIKELY GIVE $20,000 TO REFINERY PEOPLE

Mayor Looks Into Matter—Steam Turned on Yesterday in Main Building

The application of the Atlantic Sugar Refineries, Ltd., for the refund of $20,000 of the $100,000 deposited with the city as a guarantee of the completion of their plant at the Ballast wharf is in a fair way of being granted. The matter was left in the hands of the mayor at the last council meeting, and he went yesterday afternoon to the refinery to look into the matter.

According to the terms of the agreement the deposit is to be returned as soon as the contract is completed. The mayor said this morning that the steam was turned on yesterday in the main building and all that was left to be completed were a few small details of machinery. He was therefore of the opinion that the refund would be in order.

A Times' reporter, with one of the refinery men, said this morning that, although he could not say definitely when the plant would be entirely ready for operation, if everything went off without a hitch they would be ready for their first work within a month or two.

LOCAL FUND HAS PASSED $24,000 MARK

The Soldiers' and Families' Patriotic Fund continues to climb, thousand after thousand, and another notch was passed this morning. The amount paid in this regard, and while the skaters were fitting about in their blankets between races, skated up to him and said: "Look her, kid, what did you come up here with those short skates for? Don't you know they are the wrong kind for the big tracks in the open air? I'll make you a pair of the proper kind with my compliments, for I think with the long blades you can clean them all up."

This seemed to be the general opinion at that big meet. Harley Davidson, Sinnirud, Baptie and others of the big class told Fen that it was impossible for him to get the results he merited with the short pattern indoor skates. And all agreed that Parker was the speediest man at the meet in his own right.

Skating fans will long remember the events that stamped Fen Parker the local champion. How in the old Victoria rink in one programme he captured seven championship events in whirlwind style, hardly getting time between heats to have the necessary repairs. His struggles against Patton, Merritt, Duffy, and other well-known "strategists" of the Victoria track, fell like a bomb on the skating of aspirants from outside places. As the "boy wonder" he cleaned up all along the line.

Then Fen settled down to domestic life, and seldom referred to his skating glories. He was most unassuming and retiring. He got into business life and worked as a clerk in a clothing store. Illness overcame him, but he struggled along manfully and light-heartedly until the sudden demise on Monday. Sportsmen citizens will remember the death of Fen as a well-bred, gentlemanly chap, who upheld the good skating name of St. John—the home of champions—without losing his head, but did so with dignity and square-dealing.

FEN PARKER

A Tribute To One of St. John's Best Speed Skaters

St. John, N. B., Sept. 17. To the Sporting Editor of the Times: Sir: I would like to write a few words about Fen Parker, the vice-champion in skating, whom we so sorrowfully laying away this afternoon. Being closely connected with the lad in his skating days, and having deep personal interest in his victorious career at home, and outside of town. I knew him thoroughly well, and I feel it fitting that I should make these references:

Parker was a clean, honest athlete, one who never "threw" a race, never faked a defeat, and who skated from pistol to tape for all that was in him. Fact is he is thought to have impaired his health by his strenuous endeavors on the ice-track. Whether Fen Parker's name appeared on the race card the people felt sure of seeing a real test of speed and nothing pre-arranged, for local skaters were invited to compete.

I remember when Billy Gillespie and I took Fen to the Montreal championships. That was the real test of his speeding abilities, indomitable pluck and good-fellowship. Badly off for the need of long blades, and skates, the St. John boy was at great disadvantage. In his first heats he demonstrated his superiority on the turns, or wherever he could make use of his short skates, but when the long stretches of the M. A. A. track were entered, in the face of strong winds, the speed and energies of Fen were defeated by his unsuitable skates.

McCullough, the great western champion, observed Parker's handicap in this regard, and while the skaters were fitting about in their blankets between races, skated up to him and said: "Look her, kid, what did you come up here with those short skates for? Don't you know they are the wrong kind for the big tracks in the open air? I'll make you a pair of the proper kind with my compliments, for I think with the long blades you can clean them all up."

This seemed to be the general opinion at that big meet. Harley Davidson, Sinnirud, Baptie and others of the big class told Fen that it was impossible for him to get the results he merited with the short pattern indoor skates. And all agreed that Parker was the speediest man at the meet in his own right.

DIES OF WOUND INFLICTED BY HUNTER'S GUN

(Amherst News.)

Death today overtook George Baxter, who was mortally wounded from a hunter's rifle in the hands of Mansford Oxley on a mountain road near Simpson's Lake two days ago.

Mistaken for game, Mr. Baxter was shot down when two heavy calibre bullets found their target, one blowing off his fingers and the other entering the hip. All too late Oxley discovered his error. Rushing forward through the woods to finish what he believed was an animal brought down, he came upon the dying man. He was carried to the nearest homestead but as there was no doctor in twelve miles, Mr. Baxter died of his wounds.

The tragedy has cast a deep gloom about Wyvern and the whole River Hebert Valley. Mr. Baxter was fifty-five years of age, married, but with no children. He was an active member of the Masonic fraternity.

WESTMORLAND NOMINATIONS

(Moncton Transcript, Liberal.)

The two political parties have now nominated their candidates for the federal bye-election made necessary through the death of the Hon. H. R. Emmerson, the member of the House of Commons for Westmorland County.

Taking the nominations in the order of priority, M. G. Siddall was first in the field as the Conservative candidate; and A. B. Cogg was nominated by the Liberals on Tuesday.

Both candidates are estimable gentlemen, and personally strong in their respective parties.

They represent conflicting political views, as to the best means of administering public affairs, and it is for the electors to choose between their respective policies. There is neither need nor obligation to determine a choice upon any, personal or other grounds.

They both reside in the eastern portion of the county, but have each had the opportunity of making the acquaintance of the electors in part or as a whole on preceding occasions, and therefore will need little introduction.

The character and standing of the two candidates are such as to warrant the anticipation that a clean, pleasant and gentlemanly campaign, free from personal acrimony and determined solely upon the vital political issues of the day, will be conducted. The choice of the two candidates gives a guarantee of this.

SUGAR PRICES

(Montreal Mail, Tuesday)

Following the levelling up of the price of sugar by the local refineries last week to $5.70, the St. Lawrence Sugar Refinery made an advance of 50 cents a hundred pounds at the week end, bringing their prices to $6.20 a hundred pounds.

Extra granulated sugar as quoted by the local refiners now stands $5.70 and $6.20 a hundred pounds.

The Halifax Refinery are also reported as having made an advance of 50 cents.

MONCTON WEDDING

(Moncton Transcript, Wednesday.)

A very pretty home wedding took place at high noon today at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Wm. J. Weldon, who is a well-known business man in the city. The bride, Miss Mary Adelaide Weldon, daughter of Mrs. Weldon and the late Wm. J. Weldon, was united in marriage to Alec Critchton. The ceremony took place at twelve o'clock, in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends; Rev. Canon Sissam, pastor of St. George's Church, officiating.

The home decorations were especially attractive, the drawing room was prettily decorated with ferns, palms and golden-glow; the bride's table was exceedingly attractive; the floral decorations were cream and pink roses and maiden hair ferns; while the guests' table bore a very pretty centrepiece of white and heliotrope asters, goldenglow banded the mantelpiece decorations were sweet peas and asters.

The bride is a daughter of the late Wm. J. Weldon, while the groom is a son of a similar Critchton, of Abbotsville, Pictou County, Scotland.

The bride was beautifully gowned in ivory charmeuse satin, with train; carriage of a very pretty bouquet of white and Juliet cap with orange blossoms. Her only ornament was a very handsome pearl necklace, the gift of the groom. She carried a white prayer book.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Daisy Weldon, gowned in apricot satin, and a bridesmaid, Miss Helen Weldon, in white, with pale pink sash. She carried a basket of pink and white sweet peas. Douglas B. Weldon, brother of the bride, supported the groom. The bride was given away by her mother, who wore a handsome gown of black brocade with white heliotrope trimmings.

Mr. Woodhouse, who presided at the piano, rendered very effectively Mendelssohn's Wedding March, and the bridal chorus from Lohengrin, and also improvised throughout the ceremony.

The groom's gift to the bride's maid was a very pretty bracelet, and the little flower girl received a pretty little ring, and the groomsmen a signet ring.

The health of the bride was proposed by Rev. Canon Sissam, and responded to by the groom.

After the ceremony and congratulations the guests retired to the dining room, where refreshments were served.

The bride's going away gown was of tawn cloth, with Nell rose chiffon blouse and hat of fawn and rose to correspond.

Among the out of town guests were Mrs. G. M. Blair and Miss Elizabeth Blair, and the Misses Mary and Elsie Weldon, of Shediac; Mrs. C. W. Cahill, Miss Cahill and Miss Hart of Sackville; Mrs. W. G. Smith, Miss Weldon and Grant Smith of St. John; among other guests were Rev. Canon and Mrs. Sissam, Hon. C. W. and Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Jacob G. H. Joughins, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whepley, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Trueman, Mr. Lawson and Mrs. Harry Price.

The gifts were many and very beautiful.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Critchton are among Moncton's most popular young people.

The bride and groom left by motor this afternoon for a point west, from where they will take the C. P. R. on a trip to New York, returning to Moncton in about two weeks, when they will reside at the residence of Mrs. C. P. Harris, Steadman street, which they will occupy for the winter months.

POLICE CHIEF INQUIRY GOES OVER UNTIL MONDAY

On account of the illness of Daniel Mullin, K. C., who is representing Chief Clark, no evidence was taken in the police investigation this morning and the hearing goes over until Monday morning at eleven o'clock. Mr. Mullin and the chief, as well as Recorder Baxter and H. B. McLellan, commissioner of public safety, representing the city, were in court and agreed to the postponement.

It is possible that Monday's sitting will be in the county court rooms in the court house, as suggested by Mr. Mullin. W. B. Chandler, the commissioner, who is hearing the evidence, will return to his home in Moncton today. He had hoped to be able to finish the investigation this week.

PARADISE ROW PAVING

The matter of the Paradise Row paving and the complaint from Rev. H. A. Collins in regard to the augmented noise that would result from the placing of granite block in the street, has been called to the attention of Commissioner Potts and will likely be arranged satisfactorily.

The commissioner said that it would be almost impossible to change the material of construction now that the contract had been started, as the contractors would no doubt have made arrangements about the delivery of the granite blocks. He said, however, that it would be possible to grout over the blocks in the same manner as in Water street and this would do away with much of the noise. As the road at this point is almost level, no difficulty is anticipated because of the smooth surface.

SOON TO BE MARRIED

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Adams wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Agnes Winnifred, to Hedley A. Northrup, both of this city. The wedding will take place in the near future.

The Season of New Goods

This is the season of new goods, the most interesting shopping time of all the year.

The summer clearance sales are over, the stores are full of fresh, clean, inviting merchandise.

The new styles are being shown—the new colors and shapes and shades.

This year there is greater novelty in a more distinctive American note to the fashions—shopping will be a many surprises.

What are the stores showing? What are the new things? The advertising columns of the Telegraph and Times provide very interesting answers to these questions.
