THOUSANDS INSPECT
FINE LAWN HOUSES
THANKSGIVING DAY

Commission's Dwellings Are Subjects of Favorable
Comment—Forty-Six
Building.

Although the Housing Commission has been in existence two years, most Londoners have had but a hazy notion of the work which it has accomplished. There are now, however, a large proportion of them who have an excellent first hand knowledge of it, because they were present to the number of 3,000 at the opening of the Pine Lawn development project Thanksgiving Day.

Most of them were amazed at the amount of work accomplished. They discovered that there will be 46 houses built and occupied there before the end of the year on the new streets, Madison avenue and Pine Lawn avenue. Most of them they found well under way, while several were finished, and one was furnished from top to bottom. This house naturally was the chief centre of interest. It was a one-story frame dwelling on Madison avenue, and gave a fair indication of what all the houses will be like when completed. Each room was completely equipped with carpets, furniture, pictures and all the other accessories. Water and electric fixtures were installed ready for use as soon as the necessary outside extensions have been completed by the Public Utilities Commission.

Hundreds of people made a careful inspection of the dwelling. F. B. Lander, business agent for the commission, was in charge, and conducted visitors through the house. He used the opportunity to give valuable information about the work of the commission, both by the distribution of literature, and by personal interviews with many of the citizens. Another house which drew much attention was a stucco dwelling of rather unique design.

Chairman E. R. Dennis was on the site during the afternoon, and was assisted by the other commissioners, R. H. Hessel, J. W. Cunliffe and Victor Jackson, in showing the development to the citizens who took advantage of the commission's invitation to gain first hand knowledge of the efforts being made to relieve the housing shortage in London.

The Evening Mothers' Club, under the direction of its president, Mrs. W. Mason, and its secretary, Mrs. W. Rake, held a most successful sale of refreshments in aid of the Sick Children's Hospital. Permission to hold the sale on the Pine Lawn site was readily granted by the Housing Commission. About $20 was received.

HAS HIP INJURED; TAKEN TO VICTORIA HOSPITAL

Gordon McCullagh of 11 Redan street is in Victoria Hospital with a badly injured hip. Details as to the accident were not available last night, neither the police nor hospital authorities having received any. He was resting quietly last night.

Bad Stomach
Don't blame the stomach when the cause is in the slow action of the liver and bowels—readily relieved by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. One pill a dose. 25c. a box, all dealers.

George Hevey, nine-year-old son of J. P. Hevey, 73 Albion street, is in St. Joseph's Hospital in a precarious condition, because of injuries sustained when he fell out of a tree on Monday morning. The hospital authorities announced early this morning that he was still unconscious. Doctors will make an examination of the injured lad today.

ITALIAN PENTECOSTAL MEETING IN LONDON

Among the most recent of new religious movements to invade London is the Italian Pentecostal movement, which holds services Sundays and two other nights a week in a tiny mission hall on Clarence between King and York streets. The local assembly was organized several weeks ago by Luca di Marco of Toronto, and is now in charge of James Jorgis. Some six or seven converts to the faith have been made in London, the society claims, and it is backed by 200 Italian Pentecostals in Toronto, and 500 in Chicago, where the movement originated about 18 years ago. The tenets of the Italian society are identical with those of the Pentecostal assemblies holding meetings in London, it is stated, by the leaders.

MAIL COLLECTOR HIT

Robert North, 175 Horton street, was slightly injured on Saturday night, when a mail cart which he was driving was struck by an auto at the corner of Hamilton road and Egerton street. Mr. North had just finished collecting from a box when the cart was struck. He was able to proceed to his home.

Are By Far the Most Economical!

Real economy is never short-sighted. It never confuses PRICE with VALUE. PRICE is what you pay for an article. VALUE depends upon the amount and quality of service the article gives you.

You get by far the greatest actual value for your money when you buy a De Laval—BECAUSE a De Laval will give you much better and longer service than any other cream separator.

From the standpoint of its greater durability alone the De Laval is the most economical cream separator to buy, and when you also take into consideration its cleaner skimming, easier running, greater capacity and less cost for repairs, the price of the "cheapest" machine on the market is most exorbitant compared with that of the De Laval.

And there is no reason why you should let its FIRST COST stand in the way either, because the De Laval may be purchased on such liberal terms that it will actually pay for itself out of its own savings.

SECRETARY TO INQUIRE ABOUT PAY AT BYRON

Committee of Patients Request G. W. V. A. To Publish Their Grievances.

John Cunliffe, secretary of the Great War Veterans' Association, stated to The Advertiser last night that he would leave no stone unturned in his efforts to adjust the wrongs in the system of pay at Byron Sanatorium. He received word from a committee of patients at the institution explaining the matter. According to Mr. Cunliffe the monthly pay for a patient, his wife and two children is but $39.80.

Following is the letter which he has his possession and which was written to him by a committee of patients at the sanatorium:

"We being the patients at Byron Sanatorium, do earnestly request that you give the utmost publicity to the following grievances regarding pay. On the 15th of September last the D. S. C. R. (Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment) through its representatives in the district decided to change the system of bi-monthly payments. This in itself entailed much hardship, especially to the married men and their families, as the pay and allowance have been hopelessly inadequate for some time, as recognized by the recent increases granted by the D. S. C. R.

"In spite of the fact that our dependants received two weeks' pay and were expected to carry on for a month on this amount, up to date (the 18th) we have not received any pay. Thanksgiving Day means nothing to the men who suffered so much for their country, when their wives and children are hungry, while the D. S. C. R. officials celebrate with apparently no thought of the inconvenience and suffering which their negligence has caused.

"The trades people, who have large financial obligations to meet, naturally find it difficult to extend indefinite credit, and the same applies to the landlords. Several of the patients have been compelled to dispose of personal effects to purchase the bare necessities of life for their families.

"We think the time has arrived when some action should be taken to obtain prompt payment of pay and allowances, as the worry entailed is retarding the progress of patients towards recovery."

Secretary Cunliffe intends to acquaint the authorities at Ottawa with the facts of the case. One year ago R. H. Young, first vice-president of the G. W. V. A., proved that the system of monthly payments was a failure.

ELBERT HUBBARD II.,
AD CLUB'S SPEAKER

Ladies Invited To Interesting Meeting At Tecumseh House Next Monday.

Elbert Hubbard, II., son of the famous philosopher and founder of the Roycroft community at East Aurora, will address the London Advertising Club on Monday, October 25.

While his appearance in London has been arranged by the advertising men of the city, almost all of whom are familiar with the debt that the advertising business owes his father, it is the intention of the advertising men to make an occasion of an open night, to which all citizens are invited.

Ladies will also be welcomed, and it is expected that the evening will partake of the nature of a social reunion of all those who have studied or admired the work emanating from the little town of master craftsmen.

Elbert Hubbard II. has taken on the work of his father with remarkable success since the latter went down on the Lusitania. The son has perpetuated and kept alive the spirit that inspired all those who gathered under the banner of his father.

It is said that several hundred sets of Elbert Hubbard's Little Journeys will have been sold in London during the past year, and it is believed that this will mean a large attendance of citizens.

The dinner is to be held at the Tecumseh House, and the price will be either $1.00 or $1.25, to be announced later.

EGERTON B. Y. P. U. WINS PENNANT AT STRATHROY RALLY

Baptist Young People of Middlesex and Lambton in Conference.

DELIGHTFUL PROGRAM

More Than 350 Delegates Heard Intensely Interesting Addresses.

[By Staff Reporter.]

STRATHROY, Oct. 18.—The annual rally of the Baptist Young People's Union of Middlesex and Lambton counties was held here today, the ceremonies taking place in the Baptist Church, with Rev. A. C. Bingham of the Egerton Street Baptist Church, officiating. The afternoon session opened with a song service and devotional exercises, led by A. A. Barnes of Watford. The minutes of the last rally were read and adopted. The financial statement showed that $200 had been collected to support young men who are studying for the ministry in McMaster University, Toronto.

According to the registration book more than 350 were present, it being the largest attendance at any rally so far held. The Egerton Street Church was successful in capturing the big pennant for the largest attendance by a majority of one having 67 present, while the local B. Y. P. U. had 66 on roll call. Owing to the rally being held here they turned the pennant for second honors over to the Wortley Road Union, which held third place.

Lively Debate.

Probably the most interesting part of the program was the debate between Wortley Road and Arkona. After strong argument had been presented for "The prayer meeting" and "The benefits derived from the Young People's Unions," the judges decided in favor of Arkona. Those who participated in the debate were: Mrs. Edward Dixon, Basil Hobbs and Miss Grace McLesch for Arkona, and Miss Winnie Stewart, Mrs. Ethel Southcott and Maurice Brown for the Wortley Road Church.

Rev. A. C. Bingham was re-elected president of the union, Rev. L. S. Haverstock of Strathroy, was elected second vice-president, and Mr. J. H. Ineson of Arkona, secretary treasurer.

Miss L. Pratt, formerly of this district, and who has been engaged for a visit after acting as missionary in India, put forth a strong appeal to the young people to go to these countries that need Christian assistance. Now is the time to prepare, she said, and if the young people knew what good they could do they would not hesitate in making ready to hear the call of these countries.

She gave a vivid account of conditions in India and the large fields which the missionaries are preparing to work have to cover. There are doctors, she claimed, that have as many as 50 schools and 15 to 20 churches making a hospital to attend to, and the schools and churches in that country are far scattered.

Teachers Needed.

She also put in a plea for teachers. She said that a new law was shortly going to go into effect in India whereby the Indians would have control of the educational work in the Christian schools. There is a great need for industrial workers in India. This is a branch which the missionaries are working strongly to develop, believing it will greatly help to turn the Indians to Christianity.

Evening Session.

At the evening session, Rev. R. White of Brantford gave an illustrative address on four elements in holiness—strong willpower, conscience, a loving mind, and a feeling heart. He outlined each element with a touch that appealed strongly to the young people. He told stories relating to himself to illustrate the meaning of each.

Probably the most interesting element was feeding the mind. He played the chess literature that was sold today and which appeals to so many young people. He reminded his hearers that good literature can be obtained at the public library.

WEDDING BELLS

MINNES-SLATER.

A very quiet but pretty wedding took place at St. Thomas Anglican Church, Toronto, on Friday last, when Jessie Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Slater of Waterloo street, became the bride of Mr. William Grant Minnes, son of Mr. W. T. Minnes of Kingston, the Rev. C. K. Sharp officiating at the ceremony. The charming bride, who was given away by her father, entered the church to the strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, wearing a pretty navy gown with hat to match, and corsage of Ophelia roses and orchids. She was unattended.

The wedding dinner was held at the Carlisle, the bride's table being prettily decorated with Ophelia roses and fern. Marguerite and autumn leaves lent their beauty to the decorations as well. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Minnes, Miss Minnes, Miss Nell Minnes, Miss Bicknell, and Mr. Robert Richardson of Kingston; Mr. George Hare, Mrs. Hare, Mr. Bicknell, Mr. James H. Slater and Miss Lockhart of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Slater of London, and Miss Myrtle Slater of Walkerville.

For going away, the bride donned a handsome coat of reindeer brown velvet trimmed with beaver. Mr. and Mrs. Minnes will spend their honeymoon in New York, and on their return will reside in Lindsay.

SLATER-LOCKHART.

St. Andrew's Church, Hespeler, was the scene of an exceedingly pretty wedding on Saturday afternoon, when Helen Isabel Lockhart of Toronto, daughter of the late Dr. R. J. Lockhart and the late Mrs. Lockhart of Hespeler, was united in marriage to James H. Slater of Toronto, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Slater of 465 Waterloo street. Autumn leaves, ferns and brilliant salvia formed a pretty background for the bride, who entered the church on the arm of Mr. George Slater, wearing a becoming suit of ming blue velvet, with beaver trimming and beaver hat, carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia and Sweetheart roses and wore the gift of the groom, a diamond bar-pin set in platinum. Miss Myrtle E. Slater of Walkerville, sister of the groom, attended her as bridesmaid, wearing a smart suit of wistaria with beaver trimmings, black picture hat and carrying pink roses. The only other attendant was little Miss Peggy Hall, who made a charming flower girl in a frock of yellow taffeta and carried a miniature shower bouquet of Sweetheart roses.

Mr. Arthur Neiles of Toronto acted as best man and ushers were Mr. Jack Todd and Mr. Wylie Wilkinson of Galt, and Mr. Everett Weaver and Mr. Alex. Forbes of Hespeler. Throughout the ceremony the wedding music was played by Miss Helga of Kitchener, and during the signing of the register Mrs. Pearce of Hespeler sang "Love's Coronation." About 60 invited guests accompanied the pews, roped off with white ribbon and marked by clusters of gladioli and asparagus fern, while between one hundred and two hundred others stood in the church to witness the ceremony.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

Men Have Shown a Keen Appreciation in This Store's Clothing Service

There is a smartness about our clothes that gives men of all ages individual distinction, and that distinction makes men ask the question, "WHO IS YOUR TAILOR?" And what a satisfaction when you can answer "Smallman & Ingram," and that you are not ashamed to state the price you paid. Wearers of our clothes are frequently asked the question—why? because every suit looks as though it were made for the wearer, with all the niceties of style that only the most fashionable tailors know how to incorporate, without becoming foppish.

The most attractive thing to man as well as woman is value, and it is the mighty purchasing power of this store that gives the customer better and larger values.

AND SERVICE—This department store has learned many things in its service to women, and these lessons are applied to men—and so today, here is your men's shop.

ENGLISH POUND DROPS, RESULT MINERS' STRIKE

All Markets For Foreign Exchange Also React in Sympathy.

REACHES MARCH LEVEL

Pound Sterling Quoted At $3.48, Lowest in Several Months.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—All markets for foreign exchange were unsettled here today, the movement beginning with London, where heavy selling of bills was attributed to the strike of the British coal miners.

French, Belgian, Italian and the neutral exchanges also reacted variably and in sympathy with the industrial disturbances in the British Isles. Declines at centres such as Shanghai and Buenos Aires were said to be due to local conditions.

The lowest rate for London demand remittances here today was $3.48 to the pound, as against the normal of $4.86. Today's minimum quotation not only cancelled all the recent recovery in British exchange, but forced the price down to the low level of last March.

POLICE BELIEVED TO HAVE CLUE TO THE MURDERER OF CHILD

Resident of Sarnia Alleged To Have Provided Description of Criminal.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
SARNIA, Oct. 18.—County and provincial police are reported to be working on a clue which it is stated may result in the arrest of a local man as a suspect in connection with the brutal murder of the little Buchanan girl, who was killed at Point Edward on Saturday evening, and her body found later lying face downwards in the marsh near the bay. It is stated that the man under suspicion was seen leading the little girl by the hand along the road near the bay, and that the authorities have been given a good description of him.

The tracing of the murderer is in the hands of High County Constable Coulter and Provincial Detective Airey. The neighbors of the child's parents are still much wrought up over the crime.

OXFORD PROFESSORS WOULD BREAK DOWN BITTERNESS OF WAR

Send Appeal To Universities of Austria and Germany.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—An appeal for re-establishment of the "friendly intercourse" which existed before the war has been addressed to professors of arts and sciences and members of universities and learned societies in Germany and Austria by a large number of professors and doctors of Oxford University.

The letter, the text of which is printed in the London Times, expresses a desire "to dispel the embitterment of animosities that, under the impulse of loyal patriotism, may have passed between us."

The hope is also expressed that in the field where the aims of these bodies are one, a reconciliation may be effected which will extend to the sympathy and better understanding on the part of both nations "which civilization demands."

Commenting editorially on this communication, the Times says: "The great majority of Oxford men will share our regret at this singularly ill-advised and inopportune appeal."

BRANTFORD CITY HALL IN DARKNESS; CALLED A FIRE TRAP

Fire Underwriters Order the Building Closed Pending Certain Repairs.

ONLY 32 APPEALS

Brantford Scale Company Becomes a $1,000,000 Concern.

BRANTFORD, Oct. 18.—The famous Brantford City Hall is without lights. A. E. Wylie, representing the fire underwriters, has ordered that the current be cut off until repairs are made, and declared the place a fire trap. Several of the aldermen claimed that the action was high-handed, but tenders are being called for the rewiring of the building.

It was announced Saturday that a special meeting of the Brant County Council would be called over the failure of the Hon. H. C. Nixon to keep an appointment with the county councillors at 3:30 last Friday afternoon. The letter of Mr. Nixon cancelling the appointment was handed out on Saturday, the councillors declaring that the provincial secretary gave them a distinct turnaround.

Rev. George H. Easton, the new pastor of St. Andrew's Church, delivered his first sermon Sunday. In the morning he preached on the "Central Theme of Christianity," and in the evening on "True Religion."

Only 32 Appeals.
There were only 32 appeals against assessment in Brantford this year, among which were a number for rectifications in income assessments, which the assessors made willingly.

City Treasurer Bunnell returned Saturday from a two month trip to the West in the interests of the Cockshut Plow Company. He declared that business conditions were stable, in spite of the fact that a falling market had produced conditions tending towards a falling market in wheat.

The Brantford Scale and Computing Company, will, it is stated, be a $1,000,000 concern, following the reorganization effected on Saturday. William D. Baldwin and other Toronto capitalists have been added to the list of shareholders.

GALT VETERANS' NEW HALL FORMALLY OPENED BY SIR SAM HUGHES

Handsome Marble Tablet Unveiled Records Names of 315 Heroes.

GALT, Oct. 18.—Today was a red-letter day in the history of the local branch of the G. W. V. A., marking the opening and dedication of their fine new memorial hall on Adelaide street south, alongside the memorial home, given to the veterans by the city, and the unveiling in the new hall of a fine marble tablet, bearing the names of no less than 315 Galtians who gave their lives for their country overseas, whether in battle or in hospital.

The gathering, which taxed the capacity of the new building, was graced by the presence of Sir Sam Hughes, who formally opened the building, which was built to provide accommodation for meeting purposes and for social gatherings of the organization. F. S. Scott, M.P., was chairman, and the first event on the program was the presentation of the building by Mayor A. W. Mercer, after which addresses were delivered by F. S. Scott and Sir Sam Hughes, who reviewed Canada's part in the war, paid tribute to the fallen and congratulated the city on its admirable gift to the veterans.

President David Findlay of the local branch accepted the building on behalf of the veterans, after which Rev. C. E. Jackson of Brantford dedicated it, and then followed the impressive service in connection with the unveiling of the memorial tablet, the widows and relatives of the fallen men having a place of honor for this service. Wednesday evening the veterans will hold their first social event in the hall, a grand dance.

DIED VERY SUDDENLY.
OWEN SOUND, Oct. 18.—The death occurred very suddenly early this morning of Miss Margaret Cowie who has lived in Owen Sound for upwards of 30 years. She had been employed with R. P. Butchart & Bros., for many years as bookkeeper. Heart-failure was the cause of death.

SOLD HOLDINGS IN SUGAR FIRM, SAYS MINISTER

Ballantyne Replies To Statement Made by Liberal Leader.

IS NOT SHAREHOLDER

Says He Is Still Director of Several Companies, But Is Not Active.

OTTAWA, Oct. 18.—(By Canadian Press).—Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, minister of naval affairs, when his attention was drawn to a statement made by Hon. William L. Mackenzie King in the course of a speech at Nelson, B. C., that Mr. Ballantyne was in the sugar ring, stated that like most of the statements of the leader of the Opposition this was quite incorrect, and gave out the following statement in reply:

"I ceased to be even a shareholder in the St. Lawrence Sugar Refining Company early in the year, when I sold out my small holdings. I then had, 'I was a businessman when I became a member of the Union Government, and a director of several companies, and I am still so, although my public duties prevent me from attending their meetings or taking any active part in the management of their affairs.'"

"I have no apologies to offer to Mr. Mackenzie King for my business connections, which I hope to resume again some day when my public duties are over."

"It might be well for Mr. King to observe that my energies have been devoted entirely to Canadian enterprises. It would be interesting if Mr. King would tell us at what time he became convinced that a Canadian public man should have no interest in any Canadian enterprise. Even if I held such interests, I think I am as capable as any of Mr. King's associates to determine when they conflict with my duties as a public man."

"Mr. King thinks I should resign now, because I once held a little stock in the St. Lawrence Sugar Refineries. If I thought for a moment that one person in the country wanted me to resign for every hundred that wanted Mr. King to resign, I would promptly do so."

LIBERALS OF YALE JOIN FORCES WITH SOLDIERS, FARMERS

Pledge Support To Progressive Candidate in By-election.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
NELSON, B.C., Oct. 18.—The Liberals of Yale riding, where an election is now being fought, to fill the seat vacated by Martin Burrell, unanimously endorsed the candidature of Colonel Edgett, who is also backed by returned soldiers' organizations and the United Farmers of British Columbia.

The resolution adopted by the convention states that in line with the policy being enunciated by the Liberal leader on his present tour, urging the union of all progressive forces, the Liberals of Yale pledge their support to Colonel Edgett, who is standing, not as the representative of any class or group, but as a candidate opposed to the present administration.

The action taken by the Liberals will mean a very hard fight for A. J. McKelvie, the Conservative candidate for the riding, who is thus opposed to the united forces of Liberals, returned soldiers and farmers.

BLENHEIM BOY SCOUT AWARDED SILVER MEDAL

Troop Puts On Excellent Entertainment in Opera House.

BLENHEIM, Oct. 18.—The local Boy Scouts organization put on a program in the opera house Friday night, and had a good attendance. District Scout Commissioner Lamont of Chatham made the presentation of a silver medal to Scout Frank Wilson, who won the medal by an act of bravery some time ago by stopping a runaway team of horses on the business street of the town. Thomas G. Glider, novelty banjoist, late of Palladium Minstrels, London, England, gave a couple of selections, meriting hearty applause. Moving pictures made up the balance of the program. Local Scoutmaster W. Adinall is moving from town to Essex, where he goes into business, and an appointment to fill his place will be made shortly.

The clerks of the town and Harwich have delivered their tax rolls to the collectors. Blenheim has some $27,000 to collect and Harwich $109,000. C. W. Lowes is collector for Blenheim, and George W. Huffman for Harwich.

Mrs. Arthur Garrood, who was taken to a Chatham hospital a few days ago seriously ill, has since passed away.

The remains of the late C. Treasgold, who passed away in London, were brought here Friday for interment in Evergreen Cemetery. Deceased was principal of the school here a number of years ago. Mrs. E. G. Thompson and Miss May Thompson of town are daughters.

George F. Raycraft of J. W. Fleming & Sons will at the end of the month have charge of the Kent Farmers' Produce Company's store up town, and the present manager, Seth Shanks, will take charge at the company's warehouse at the railway.

PROMINENT SURVEYOR KILLED IN WINNIPEG

WINNIPEG, Oct. 18.—Charles C. Chatway, land surveyor, whose name has appeared on millions of maps of Western Canada during the past 30 years, was instantly killed Saturday evening when he attempted to enter the elevator in the Union Trust Building before it was even with the floor. The girl in charge attempted to lower the cage, but instead it shot upwards, breaking Chatway's back.

PLACE RESTRICTIONS ON PATENT MEDICINE SALE IN GT. BRITAIN

New Bill Provides For Registration of All Proprietary Preparations.

London, Oct. 18.—By the Canadian Press.—The British proprietary medicines bill, which has just been published, provides for the registration of patent medicines and appliances, and of the owners thereof, and places stringent restrictions upon the sale of articles so registered. A patent or proprietary medicine is defined as one "which is held out by advertisement as of use for curative or remedial purposes, and which is either sold under a trade name or manufactured by a secret process."

The manufacture or sale of "remedies" for certain ailments is prohibited altogether. These include cancer, consumption, lupus, deafness, fits, epilepsy, diabetes, paralysis, locomotor ataxia, Bright's disease and rupture. The bill prohibits the sale and advertisement for sale of "remedies" or appliances purporting to be effective for the prevention, cure, or relief of these and certain other complaints. Further provisions of the bill forbid the sending of advertisements of one kind or remedy in packages containing another, and it is also forbidden to the owners, vendors or agents of registered remedies to invite correspondence regarding ailments, or to treat or to offer to treat sufferers, or to publish false testimonials, or to suggest that proprietary medicines or appliances are recommended by duly qualified practitioners without giving their names and qualifications, and if false testimonials are given, the health is given authority to remove

WHY FIGHT DISEASE IF WAR IS TO TAKE TOLL OF CHILDREN?

Question Raised by Speaker Before Sunday School Congress.

Tokio, Oct. 18.—Child life is not worth conserving from disease "if once more it is to be conscripted in the great game of war," declared Arthur Black, secretary of the Shaftsbury Society of London, England, in an address at Kyushu before the delegates to the World's Sunday School Congress. He said that the greatest enemy of the child is the "militarism, ignorance and moral decadence" of the adult world. He declared that the child is the most vulnerable point of the human mind to imagine. "Militarism, with its costly armaments, recurrent wars and moral reactions," he said, "is one of the deadliest enemies of the child. When has the world ever presented a more terrible example than in Eastern Europe and the Near East today? It is no exaggeration to say that millions have perished in this, the greatest slaughter of the innocents in history; it is stated that there are 15,000,000 children in the famine areas whose fate this winter lies in the balance."

The speaker said that in Great Britain alone there is "widespread orphanhood and the burden of a gigantic debt equal to $750 for every man, woman and child in the nation." The interest on the debt, he said, is equal to a weekly family charge of $2.75, "and the cost of what is called armed insurance against the next war will increase that figure to fully $5 a week." Mr. Black continued:

"And the workers and their children pay in bad housing, in overcrowding, in disease and disablement, in poverty

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. ## SHIPPERS HOLDING BACK GRAIN, EXPECT FREIGHT RATE CUT Elevator Interests Feel Present Charges Cannot Stand.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 18.—Shippers throughout Western Canada are withholding all possible shipments of grain, pending suspension of present freight rates, according to information supplied by Percy G. Denison, manager of the transportation bureau of the Winnipeg Board of Trade.

"Even grain men and elevator interests, I understand, are holding up shipments, though farmers are getting out their grain. In fact, all through the West there is strong feeling that the present rate, an increase of 35 per cent, will be, and indeed must be, suspended," said Mr. Denison.

STRIKE AMONG PRISONERS AT KINGSTON PEN

Startling Aftermath To Recent Attempted Jail Delivery.

UPROAR IS HEARD
Sing, Shout and Hammer Cell Doors With Their Eating Utensils.

KINGSTON, Ont., Oct. 18.—As a startling aftermath to the attempted general jail delivery at the Portsmouth penitentiary, between 150 and 200 convicts at the penitentiary went on strike on Saturday and since then have absolutely refused to work.

Late on Saturday the construction gang, known as the "stone pile" gang, and the tailor shop gang refused to work and were locked up in their cells. All Saturday night and most of Sunday they kept up an uproar, shouting and hammering on their cell doors with their eating utensils. The ring-leaders of the two gangs were locked up in separate places, but the uproar continued.

Refused to Work.
This morning the mason gang refused to work and they were also locked up. Throughout the day the shouting by this gang continued and could be heard for blocks.

While the frustrating of the plot at a general jail delivery was one of the principal causes for the uproar, it was also known that the men were angry because they had been refused tobacco. It has been known that tobacco has been smuggled into the penitentiary to the men, and with the avenues through which tobacco came to them being cut off the prisoners went on strike, refusing to work and demanding tobacco. Several of the men in the stone pile gang are foreigners and they led in the demonstration against working.

This afternoon was a half-holiday at the penitentiary and every phase of work in the institution was stopped. The uproar, however, continued and it is likely that stringent measures will be taken to put down the strike.

Warden Ponsford has refused to discuss the matter. It is said that some of the officials who were suspected of trafficking in tobacco stopped it when the startling disclosure of the attempted jail breaking was made last week and the convicts, seeing their source of tobacco cut off, are up in arms against this denial of their unlawful privilege.

INGERSOLL MAN CHARGED WITH OBSTRUCTING POLICE

INGERSOLL, Oct. 18.—A series of escapades culminated today in the arrest of a local young man, who, it is understood, will face several charges in the police court tomorrow, the most serious being that of obstructing a police officer in the discharge of his duties. It is alleged that the man, a carpenter, refused to accept a summons from Chief of Police Holmes this morning.

DETROIT TAXI MAN HELD IN WINDSOR ON SERIOUS CHARGE

Alleged To Have Killed One Person and Injured Five Others.

WINDSOR, Oct. 18.—Ordering the exit of all automobiles from Windsor and Walkerville stopped, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police in the interim provided by this means secured the identification of Cecil Welch, Detroit taxi driver, suspect of having been the driver of an automobile that ran amuck late Sunday night, and caused the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Parker, a negro, and dangerous injuries to five other persons.

Welch is being held at Windsor police station on a charge of criminal negligence following his admission that he ran into a tree while speeding at a bend in Riverdale drive, along the riverfront near the Island View Hotel.

When first questioned by the police, who were suspicious of the damaged appearance of Welch's automobile, the driver declared he had been run into by another car, but finally gave the police a statement accepting the guilt for the accident.

Welch said he was speeding in an attempt to pass another car, and then lost control of his automobile, crashing into a tree nearby, and causing the injuries that resulted in Mrs. Parker's death. An inquest into the fatality has been ordered.

CLUE TO YEAR-OLD MURDER MAY BE IN HANDS OF POLICE

Kent Authorities Expect Startling Developments in Whalen Murder Charge.

CHATHAM, Oct. 18.—The Kent County police under High Constable Peters believe that they have uncovered a clue to the Whalen murder, which occurred nearly a year ago. Whalen, an aged farmer, was found on the floor of his home at Vosburg with his head crushed in, presumably by an axe, which was located near the body. It is expected that startling developments will ensue as the result of certain investigations which have been held recently.

Held As Dangerous.
Horace Weeks, an aged man, who formerly lived in Raleigh Township, is now in the local jail on a charge of being insane and dangerous to be at large. Weeks is reported to have made himself objectionable when he presented himself to another farmer's house and persisted in staying there.

Went Sight-Seeing.
Gerald Ellis and Clarence VanDusen, two Chatham youths, made their way to Detroit recently on a fast train and proceeded to enjoy the sights. They finally finished up in the Detroit juvenile court, the officials of which notified their parents, who left for the City of the Straits to bring their erring offspring back to the Maple City.

LABOR REQUESTS TARIFF CUTTING ON NECESSITIES

Sault Ste. Marie Witness Asks Duty-Free Food and Clothing.

BOUNTY ON IRON ORE
Board of Trade Urges One Dollar Bounty a Ton To Develop Industry.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., Oct. 18.—Thanksgiving Day made no difference to the members of the tariff inquiry commission, and its scheduled session was held here today. The Independent Labor party attacked the tariff protection, urging the gradual elimination of all import duty or taxes on food, clothing, including boots and shoes, and tools and machinery used in production, and recommended instead a tax on land values and luxuries.

The local board of trade, through its president, J. A. Hussey, presented a comprehensive statement, urging a government bounty of one dollar a ton for iron ore mined in Canada, which, it was maintained, would involve only a small annual outlay and would bring an overwhelming large return by the stimulation of industrial activity.

The Algoma Steel Corporation, one of the largest industrial concerns in the country and a subsidiary company of the United States Steel Corporation, asked the retention of the present protective tariff on steel rails, the company's chief product, to prevent the possible flooding of the Canadian market by similar products of American steel companies.

The sitting, which was over early in the afternoon, closed the session in Western and Central Canada. In ten days further inquiries will be commenced in Eastern Ontario, Quebec and the Maritime Provinces.

In advocating an iron ore bounty, J. A. Hussey said:

"At the present time it is admitted by all that iron and steel are the basic industries of Canada. The Canadian iron and steel industry depends, one might say, almost wholly on ore imported from the United States and on the control of the importations naturally have helped to turn trade balances against us and trade balances are a matter which affect everyone in the country."

A temporary iron ore bounty, said Mr. Hussey, say for fifty years, would have the effect of developing ore properties in various parts of the country from coast to coast.

The witness said that nearly all of the low grade iron ore deposits known in the country require a costly process of beneficiation before they can be smelted at a profit. The Algoma Steel Corporation, he said, have experimented extensively with the vast quantities of Siderite ores in the Michipicoten country north of the Sault.

Opposes Free Trade.
Although the official statement of the Independent Labor party, as read by J. H. Haining, favored the reduction of the duty on food, clothing and machinery used in production, this was in a measure modified by another prominent local labor man, J. J. Brothers, who declared that industries which by reason of their lack of natural resources are unable to compete with those of other countries which have an abundance of such natural resources must be continued to be protected by the tariff. Particularly was this in the steel industry in Canada at this time.

"In order to compete with other countries particularly with the United States, I do not deem it to the best interests of labor that we should adopt free trade in its entirety," he said.

Tariff protection is necessary if the Algoma Steel Corporation is to continue its production of steel rails, said W. C. Franz, president of the company, which is capitalized at $25,000,000.

"Our primary product is standard, open-hearth steel rails, of which there is a protective tariff of $7.84 per gross ton, and we submit that it is necessary to have this protection in order that we can carry on our business."

FURIOUSLY DRIVEN AUTO DASHES INTO PARTY; TWO HURT

Albert Fraser of St. Thomas Seriously Injured—Is Unconscious.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
ST. THOMAS, Oct. 18.—Albert Fraser, who resides near the C. P. R. crossing, Talbot street east, and his daughter, Loreta, were struck by a big auto driven at a speed estimated as at least 40 miles an hour near the golf links. Mr. Fraser was hit in the head and back, and now lies in a precarious condition. His daughter was also hit, but was not seriously injured. The family were walking homewards, when the car rushed upon them and knocked Mr. Fraser and his daughter along the road, and only narrowly missed striking Mrs. Fraser and a lady companion.

Following the accident the occupants of the car drove straight on without pausing even to ascertain whether anybody had been hurt.

Dr. Curtis, who was called to the scene of the accident, states that while there are no signs of fracture visible he fears serious injury to the man's brain. The patient is still unconscious and in a very prostrate condition.

The city police have taken steps to try and identify the car and its occupants.

The Truth About Sugar

THE Sugar Industry of Canada is confronted with a serious situation and has appealed to the Government to come to its assistance.

Ignorance of the circumstances leading up to this situation has led many people to enter objections to the measures of relief that have been proposed.

The purpose of this statement is to put the plain facts before the people of Canada, in the belief that at heart they want to play fair and are willing to accord a square deal to everyone.

The present upheaval in the world's sugar trade has been brought about by enforced liquidation of some large stocks of raw and refined sugars held by American and Cuban interests. Its effect in Cuba, where some of the native banks have been forced to suspend payments and where the Government has put into effect a sixty-day moratorium, are of common knowledge.

A feature of the disturbance has been the dumping upon the American market of a quantity of so-called "distressed" sugar, in amount relatively unimportant to the whole supply, but sufficient, nevertheless, temporarily, to disorganize the trade.

Part of this "distressed" sugar, forced into the market under conditions of practical bankruptcy, has found its way into Canada where it has, temporarily, upset trading conditions and made it impossible for Canadian refineries to market their product except at a ruinous loss.

It is pertinent to observe that the low prices quoted for this "distressed" sugar now being dumped in Canada, by no means reflect the true market price in the United States. Only a day or two ago the newspapers announced that the American Sugar Refineries Company, the largest sugar refiners in the States, and who control some 40 per cent of the production of that country, are selling sugar on the basis of 22½ cents a pound, equivalent to 23 cents in Canada, at the present rate of exchange, several cents a pound higher than that contemplated for Canada in the order made by the board of commerce, and since set aside.

At the present time the plants of four of the largest Canadian refineries are closed; thousands of men are out of employment; millions of capital are temporarily inactive and unproductive.

The refineries have bought or are committed to buy raw sugar to the value of over $60,000,000. Their sales in Canada, due to the conditions before stated, are at a standstill. It follows that the financing of the raw sugar already under contract, should these conditions continue indefinitely, will be an impossible task for the refineries with all their resources. The burden will devolve upon the banks if a critical situation comparable to a panic is to be avoided.

The question naturally arises, why have the Canadian sugar refineries allowed this situation to develop and what justification have they for appealing for public support of their industry in this crisis?

The refineries disclaim responsibility for the situation.

They maintain that if they had been left to shape their own course the situation, so far as they are concerned, would not have developed.

They frankly admit that had control of their business not been taken out of their hands by agents of the Government, they would now have no shadow of excuse for appealing for protection.

What are the facts?

For over a year the board of commerce, created by the Government, exercised absolute control over the prices at which sugar could be sold in Canada, and fixed the price, from time to time, on a basis contrary to all established commercial usages.

At the same time the trade commission, another agency of the Government, refused permission to the refineries to export sugar, which they might have done and thereby reduced their liabilities very materially without injury to the domestic market.

Government control went further and even prevented the resale abroad of raw sugars not necessarily needed in Canada.

The refineries do not believe, when the situation is fully and fairly analyzed, that their request involves any serious hardship upon the Canadian public. On the contrary, taking into account the benefits the public have already enjoyed in having been enabled to purchase sugar in Canada for months at a time at a price materially lower than the price prevailing in the world's market, amounting, at times, to 10 cents or more a pound; having regard for the national interests involved in keeping the sugar industry actively operating and preventing the loss occasioned by unemployed labor and unproductive capital; considering, furthermore, the strong advisability of keeping trade within the national boundaries instead of sending it abroad where a Canadian dollar is regarded as being worth only 90 cents or less; and having regard, above all, for the very grave necessity of maintaining Canada's industrial, financial and commercial equilibrium in these trying days of world-wide readjustment, the Sugar Refineries of Canada believe that both the Government and the people will admit the justice and fairness of their position, and will afford them the temporary consideration necessary to meet the situation.

Government control caused the refineries to lay in additional stocks of raw sugars after the price had advanced and when it was economically less desirable to buy.

Throughout all these transactions the refineries vigorously protested against the invasion of their rights and frequently gave warning as to what the ultimate result would be. They were met by assurances that their rights would be fully protected.

In meeting their objections the board of commerce promised that the refineries would be protected in a falling market to the same extent that they had been deprived, by the board, of their opportunity to take advantage of a rising market.

The board of commerce, in a ruling dated June 11, 1920, laid down this principle:

"The board will not recognize prices based on replacement values on a rising market. It will be its duty in good time, as it hopes, to as carefully protect the trader on a falling market by permitting him to average his cost down as it must now carefully protect the consumer in compelling the trader to average his costs up."

The present appeal of the refineries to the Government and to the board of commerce is merely a request for a fulfilment of the pledge thus given.

In the same judgment, as illustrating the powers of the board, it says:

"The board will prohibit all refiners from selling to other than wholesalers. It will prohibit wholesalers from buying from others than refiners. It will prohibit speculators from buying or selling at all."

In other words, the board assumed full power to control the price as well as the conditions under which sugar was marketed in Canada.

The ruling recently made by the board and suspended by the Government, pending a further hearing, was in strict conformity with the principles the board had laid down and is in no sense an innovation.

Sugar control and restrictions on exports were finally lifted July 1, 1920, but with the order revoking the restrictions a letter was issued from the department of trade and commerce which practically once more tied the hands of the refineries so that they were not free even then to sell their products in the world's markets, where the price was still some six cents a pound higher than the prevailing market price in Canada.

Had they been left entirely free, even at this late date, to adjust their trade to the new conditions, Canadian refiners could have sold their products abroad at a price that would have protected them against the slump which has since ensued, and enabled them to meet later conditions without serious loss. Again they were prevented from doing so.

The actual cost of Government control to the sugar refineries of Canada, irrespective of the losses which now confront them in the disposal of their present stocks, is conservatively estimated at from twenty to twenty-five million dollars.

The refineries have facts and figures to prove that their losses, if compelled to sell in competition with "distressed" sugar dumped into Canada from the States, will run into many additional millions.

The sugar refineries are in a different position from any other class of manufacturers in Canada, whose products have not been under Government control, and who have not been denied the right to a free market.

MEIGHEN ANTICS.

Members of the Ottawa Government talk of the Board of Commerce exceeding its powers in the sugar order. It is all the Board's fault, say ministers running for cover.

Mr. Murdoch made it clear what the Board of Commerce was in the hands of the Ottawa Government. Since its reorganization there are indications that it is a more subservient tool than ever in the Government's hand. If a hammer misses a nail, we blame the hand that wields it, not the hammer. The Meighen Government need not try to blame its hammer for a mistake of tactics.

The Government and its supporters have talked of the protective tariff as a valuable source of revenue. But now when the treasury is particularly bare and a prospect of great returns opens up from sugar importations the Meighen people try to keep the treasury poor by 'barring out the goods that the Canadian consumer demands. Here is their consistency and patriotism.

The so-called Liberal-Conservative National hyphenate pretends by the first part of its title to favor freedom of thought, speech and individual initiative. But when individual initiative and need seeks self-preservation by reaching out for cheap food the double-jointed thing at Ottawa forgets all about freedom and fights out in the open for oligarchy. Freedom to purchase necessities ought to be as religiously safeguarded as freedom of speech, or we become a nation of slaves.

TRAFALGAR WEEK.

The force behind our national progress is the consolidated foresight and ambition of the Canadian people to become a national and imperial influence in world civilization and trade. The Navy League of Canada has a wonderful vision of the future, and is preparing the way in their campaign to raise $760,000, "Trafalgar" Sailors' Week, October 18 to 23.

The ultimate possibilities of our great land heritage will be realized through the development of our great sea heritage, and prevent us from becoming merely a continental people—browsers of wood and drawers of water for other nations.

Canada's overseas trade made giant strides during the war. Employment was plentiful, wages were good, farmers were prosperous. To hold what we have and get more Canadian ships and Canadian men to man them are needed. New routes must be opened, Canadian trade lines must be established and maintained. With ships the markets of the world are open to Canadians. Trade follows the flag.

Overseas trade made us prosperous, overseas trade will keep us prosperous. To maintain our overseas trade Canada must have a sea-conscious spirit. It must be in the people, in the Government and in the schools. Canadians must not be hewers of wood, drawers of water for other nations. Canadian ships must carry Canadian products to world markets.

Canada's overseas trade is $2,351,000,000; sea-borne, $1,046,000,000; land-borne, $1,305,000,000. More than half this land-borne trade is ultimately sea-borne, but in foreign ships.

Every pound of Canadian products shipped from a port outside Canadian territory retards our maritime growth, weakens our national prosperity and places control of a part of our sea-borne commerce in the hands of a competitive nation.

For four hundred years the freedom of the empire has been maintained by the sacrifice of countless gallant lives on land and sea. "He that commands the sea is at great liberty"—Bacon. Liberty to live, liberty to trade; trade means prosperity, liberty to trade lies upon the sea! The congregated wealth of the nation must stand behind the forward movement of the sea.

RICHES AND SPENDING.

A noted writer tells us that the rich man is ordinarily a hard-working, simple-living person who hasn't time to spend money and gets almost less satisfaction for his money than the working man who trudges past his fine place and admires the lawns and flowers. This is part of the truth. The other part is that the millionaire's wife and daughters and sometimes also his sons have plenty of time to flaunt his wealth.

"There are few idle rich," he says. Perhaps the scarcity of servants may yet bring this about among rich women, but as yet the servant shortage affects mostly the hard-working wives of the middle class, making things worse for them. Possibly social activities are conceived as precluding idleness. Certainly some of them travel at a high speed in some ways. Idleness, like everything else, is a matter of definition.

THE BEGINNING OF STATE SAVING.

By Professor Cole of Harvard.

Yet even the state can provide for saving in only two ways: taxation and giving in wages less than the total produced; that is, it will either take away peoples' earnings as taxes, or it will hold back at the source a part of the product. If, moreover, as is often recommended, the amount of taxes, or withholding of earnings, is so large from those who produce most that it brings them nearly to an equality with those who produce least, people will have no inducement to take highly-paid positions. They will not by study or training or care qualify themselves for high-paid positions. They will look for comfortable work, easily learned, at merely comfortable pay; for they will be no better off in better jobs. Then, doctors, engineers, inventors, managers, etc., will be scarce. What has recently happened in Russia will happen here. The people there have died for lack of medical care, and production has fallen off because the people able to direct industry are no longer directing it. No government of whatever kind can allow things to run along in this way, for welfare depends on production.

The Method of State Saving.

Although it is good theory to say that under state control of capital everybody would choose such work as he wishes and is competent for, in practice the thing is not feasible. Suppose forty people wish to be doctors in a certain town, but only twenty are needed. The forty people must be supported, but the state cannot afford to support twenty in idleness—also most people would choose work for which they were not needed, and the few workers would not be enough to support the non-workers. The state, if it furnishes the capital, must control capital and industry, it must control the workers, for there is then only one employer and the state must support all the people. This we don't see at first, when only a few industries are controlled by the state—like the postoffice; but when all are so controlled there is bound to be conscription of labor, of women as well as of men.

The man who has remarkable skill as a craftsman but, who at the same time is fond of the country and wishes to work as a farmer, may nevertheless be put to work in the city where his talents may be used to the utmost, in spite of the fact that his desire is to remain in the country. The man who loves the city but has no particular skill at any work required in the city, especially since there will be a large supply of that kind of labor, may be ordered to live in the country and do rough farm work, even though he would rather at a very much smaller income live in the city and have the comforts of that life. Since all capital will belong to the state, there will be no capital by which a man may start an enterprise of his own, except with the permission of the state; he may not even start a little store in which he may delight to spend his time and earn a modest living. The very essence of state control of capital is that there shall be no profits arising from the handling of capital, so no one can be privileged to handle capital and earn profits except by the direction of the state.

HOUSES ARE WANTED.

[Border Cities Star.]

Lovers of houses are often found among the homeless—those for whom each home has an individual character, to whose every building convey some idea of personality or conduct. Such a one sees in the stately and elegant mansion a gentleman of taste and refinement, in the pretentious and garish structure a noisy and noisy person, in the humble but solid and comfortable cottage an honest husband and father seeking to provide for his own. The high, narrow grey building is a maiden aunt primly clutching her shoulders together, the quaint little bungalow is a small girl conscious of her best clothes, sitting blissfully rapt in self-admiration, the two fat little shacks side by side in one long vegetable plot are Tweedledum and Tweedledee staring straight out of the pages of Alice in Wonderland. The types are innumerable and distinct; in the vast majority of cases they are pleasing; in many instances they are charming. Houses, more than anything else, are needed in the Border Cities today. There is a demand for almost every type, but the people are not inclined to be particular. They want houses—whether the structure be tall or short, large or small, pretty or ugly.

"THE DOPE SHEET."

[Detroit Free Press.]

Through the window of a downtown restaurant the other day we saw a young man at a table. His dinner was set out before him, but it was receiving little attention. The man was intently studying a statistical matter. He was reading earnestly while his meal was growing cold. Here was one absorbed in a subject, intent upon learning, a deep student, evidently.

He was studying the racing form, commonly known as "the dope sheet."

As we passed by we couldn't help thinking what a benefit to mankind it would be if a young man could be induced to study the details of his business as eagerly as that. If someone could devise a way to compile the useful information of life with the same weight and the same performances as others, and the profits to be gained by victory there would be more successes and fewer failures, but unfortunately few of us ever neglect a warm dinner to study "the dope sheet" of human endeavor.

vacuously. Then he pounded the desk with his fist and said to himself, "Matter! Matter!" "Matter!" he shouted. "You're a heluva detective, you are! That's what the matter is. The man—mean—the papers—in the satchel, you fat head!—stolen right under your nose!"

CHAPTER VI.

Again the Tan Catches.

Swearing fervently, Alderson grabbed the telephone and called for Podmore the Queen's Hotel. A few stuttering words of explanation and phone went dead once more as Podmore banged up the receiver at his end.

Nickleby arrived first. He strode in through the outer office, leaving a trail of awed employees in his wake. Alderson, who had rushed forward to meet him, fell back a step as the banker entered the private office and banged the door behind him with a force which nearly broke the glass in the partition. He carried in his hand the tan satchel and forthwith slammed it down upon the desk and took to pacing back and forth in speechless wrath. His face was ghastly, his eyes blazing, his mouth drawn down in an ugly sneer as he turned at last upon the dumfounded detective.

"You—your blithering idiot!"

"Easy, brother. Keep your shirt on, see," advised the Brady operative with justifiable resentment. "There haven't been tales out of that grip while I was watching! That's a cinch. Say, 'b, what was in it, anyway?"

Alderson caught Nickleby's eye and shook his head in warning. Nickleby stepped across the desk and snatched the satchel and flung open the top flap, revealing a package of blank brown wrapping paper, cut to the size of bank notes and fastened together with rubber bands. He pointed his finger at it contemptuously.

Poetry and Jest

[Ellen Thornycroft Fowler.]

We pluck a rose that sweetly blows;
And when its petals fall are shed,
We quickly find another rose.

Instead.

We revel in the joys of spring;
And when its happy hours have sped,
Another year fresh flowers will bring.

Instead.

We love a dewy summer morn;
And when its peaceful charms have fled,
Another rosy day is born.

Instead.

But were I parted, dear, from thee
And down some distant pathway led,
No other friend would I find.

Instead.

No other voice would sound the same—
No other foot so softly tread—
No music thrill another name.

Instead.

I need thee, Love, in peace or strife;
For till Time's latest page be read,
No other smile could light my life.

Instead.

And even in that happier place,
Where pain is past and sorrow dead,
I could not love an angel's face.

Instead.

REBUKING THE PRIVATE.

[New York Evening Post.]

Private Sparks, on guard, probably wasn't looking when the general passed nearby; anyway, he failed to salute. Something terrible was due to happen to Pte. Sparks.

"Colonel," the general said, "the man on post failed to salute the general this morning. See that he is severely reprimanded."

"Captain," the colonel said, "the man on post failed to salute the general this morning. See that he is severely reprimanded."

"Lieutenant," the captain said, some time later, "Pte. Sparks failed to salute the general this morning. See that he is severely reprimanded."

"Yes, sir," responded the lieutenant, and when he scolded the first sergeant that evening, told him:

"Pte. Sparks failed to salute the general this morning. I will severely reprimand him."

Yes, sir, responded the sergeant, and when he came across Pte. Sparks he said:

"Here, you pie-faced mutt, you let Old Ironback go by this morning without throwing him a kiss, and it near broke my heart to hear of it. I catch you doing anything like that again and I'll make you wash back of your ears and take away your chewing gum."

WAVING.

[Frank E. A. Thone.]

Wild west, west wind, wind that sweeps the sky,
Tossing the ragged clouds about in a daisy revelry.
My throat has ached to drink your wine for many a windless day.
But I am caged in a cheerful house, and cannot get away.

Tall trees, pine trees, that march around the hill,
Swaying in a stately dance to the wild wind's piping shrill.
My heart cries out for the joyous days that in your lodges I've spent,
While my good wife nods by my well-kept fire, no dreams of my discontent.

Swift water, white water, plunging down the falls, Pushing with impatient hands at the rocks, and
There's a call in my breast to strive once more against your rough But my old dog lies on the hearth and sleeps—am I, too, growing old?

ANOTHER QUAIN REMARK.
Visitor to a three-year-old—Little girl, are you the eldest in the family?
Little girl—Oh, no, farver is older than me.

HE DARKENED HIS GREY HAIR

TELLS HOW HE DID IT.

Mr. J. A. McCrea, a well-known resident of California, who was called Daddy and Grandpa on account of his white hair, and who darkened it with a home-made mixture, recently made the following statement:

"Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home that will darken grey hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Orle Compound and 4 ounce of glycerine.

These ingredients can be bought at any drug store for very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. It does not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off."

LEMON JUICE TAKES OFF TAN

Girls! Make bleaching lotion if skin is sunburned, tanned or freckled

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of water. Shake well, and add a quarter pint of the best freckle, sunburn and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost. Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store will supply the rest. Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of water. ## "END YOUR RHEUMATISM

Like I Did Mine"—Says Pastor Reed—Wife Also Rid of Neuritis.

Suffered Tortures For Years—Now Telling Good News to Others.

"As do some of our highest medical authorities, I now know that 'Uric Acid' never did and never will cause rheumatism! It took me many years to find out this truth. I learned how to get rid of my rheumatism and recover my health by the new scientific method of 'The Inner Mysteries of Rheumatism.' A work written by an authority who has been in the world for over twenty years. It was indeed a veritable revelation!"

"I had suffered agony for years from rheumatism and associated disorders, and its associated disorders overlooked by doctors and scientists for centuries past. It is a work that should be in the hands of every man or woman who has the slightest symptoms of rheumatism, neuritis, lumbago or gout. Anyone who sends name and address to H. P. Clearwater, Thirty-first street, Hal-towel, Maine, will receive it by mail, postage paid and absolutely free. Send now, lest you forget the address! If not a sufferer, cut out this explanation and hand it to some afflicted friend."

WOMAN WOULD SELL EAR TO GET $10,000

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 18.—Mrs. Mabel Truckey, 21, mother of two children, wants to sell her left ear to Frank E. Quesada, of New York City, Cuban planter, who recently offered $10,000 for one that could be grafted to his head.

"Vanity goes out of the back door when the wolf is at the front door," she said. "It can spare my left ear, for with women wearing their hair the way they do now it will never be noticed."

COULD NOT FIND FLAT WOMAN HANGED HERSELF

New York, Oct. 18.—Because she could not find a flat where she and her husband and son could live, Mrs. Anna Schwartz, 56 years old, hanged herself in her room at 148 Beach Ninety-Third street, Rockaway, Queen's.

Mrs. R. E. M. Barron is spending a week at her old home in Harrison.

Mrs. and Mrs. James Clements of Toronto spent the week-end in this city.

Mr. Arthur Brickenford of Toronto spent the holiday with his parents in the city.

Mr. Lorne Firth is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Firth, Ardagh Apartments.

Miss Takemov of New York, N. Y., is the guest of her cousin, Miss Copernsmith, Grey street.

Miss Geraldine Glover spent the holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Glover of Central avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Matthews spent Thanksgiving with the former's mother, Mrs. Williams, Cheapside street.

Miss Winnifred Pearson and Miss Doris Nelles are home from the Toronto Library School for Thanksgiving.

Miss Jean Jarvis and Miss M. Johnston are at home from "Queen's Hall," Toronto University, for over the holiday.

Mr. Ferguson Murphy and Mr. D. Logan have returned to Ingersoll, Ontario, after spending the holiday in London.

Next week may be a field day at the London Hunt Club links, prizes having been donated by Col. A. M. Smith and Mr. A. MacPherson.

Miss Margaret Reid and Miss Beatrice Reid, who are attending Toronto University, spent the holiday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Reid.

Mr. Russell Beattie and Mrs. Beattie (formerly Miss Helen Reid) have returned from their honeymoon and are settled in their new home on Oxford street.

Sir Adam and Lady Beck were in Toronto attending the Big Red Cross dinner given in honor of Mr. Herbert Hoover, who made an eloquent appeal for the starving peoples of Europe.

Mrs. Macquodale and her small sons, Master Ion and Master Fraser, who have been visiting Miss Florence Fraser and Mr. and Mrs. George Fraser, Central avenue, are returning to Montreal today.

A most enjoyable little supper and dance was held at the Bungalow Inn, Springbank, last night, when a party of this year's Western University graduates, who have become scattered since the spring, renewed acquaintances again, spending a delightful evening.

Invitations are out for a reception and dance to be held in St. Peter's Hall on Wednesday evening by the St. Joseph's Nurses' Alumnae. London doctors and their wives will be among the guests, who will be received by Mrs. Stuart Wilson, president of the association.

Miss Rose Stevenson of the reception, and on her committee are Miss Lillian Morrison, Mrs. Richard Forrester and Miss K. C. MacDonald.

THE MARRIAGE OF ANNE

BY MAY CHRISTIE

(Copyright, 1920, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

XXXIII.—Troublesome Bonds.

"What about selling the Liberty Bonds, Anne? You said they'd bring fifteen hundred dollars. With the money that Saunders is going to lend you that would be sufficient."

"I started at Fred's words. Twenty-five hundred dollars! He needed that money."

"Did I say that I would sell them, Fred?"

"Indeed, you did!" His voice was hard. He drew his hand away from my arm. "If I'd known that you would let me down—"

"Oh, no, I won't—I wouldn't break a promise, Fred. Only—I'd forgotten you needed so much. That was all."

"I moved closer to him. His coldness hurt me."

"You're aren't angry, Fred?"

"No—no, exactly. But I'm disappointed, Anne. I'm in the very thick of a fix, and I explained it all to you. And you're not sufficiently interested to pay attention to the details of the case."

The injustice of this remark made me pluck up courage.

"You're unfair and unreasonable. I tell you that I've done a thing this morning that I'd sooner cut off my right hand than do again. I've begged money from a man whom I respect—"

"And now you throw it in my teeth. And you don't even appreciate my sacrifice—the way I've smoothed my pride—"

"We're on the verge of a lovers' quarrel."

"You're downright cruel, Fred. I continued, trembling. 'I'm doing all I can for you. But now I've more than half a mind to throw it up. It's all no good.'"

Fred stopped short, and caught both my hands in his. An inscrutable light shone in his eyes.

"I refuse to argue with you, Anne. This is the only way to end an argument."

To my amazement, he caught me in his arms and kissed me passionately. "I'm far too fond of you to quarrel with you, little girl. I apologize for what I said. I am unrepentant at times. But then, as I said before, I'm so infernally worried. It's enough to drive a fellow crazy."

"I relented. Poor, troubled, anxious Fred!"

"Besides," he went on quietly, "the reason that I'm so keen on getting the money is that it will pave the way to marrying you, my dear! With twenty-five hundred in ready cash I can pull

I was borrowing a thousand dollars from man I'd only known for a brief period.

Well, my life was my own affair—not his."

With which consoling reflection I retired to my own room preparatory to taking a trip to town.

It certainly was bad luck that—once hour later—Fred and I should meet Neil Saunders in the railway station.

The latter was going up to see about the bank to draw out the sum of money I had named.

"He doesn't guess that it's for you," I whispered to my fiance in a troubled voice, telling him Neil Saunders' destination.

"You little goose, you should have got a check from him," came the curt answer. "Then the chap wouldn't have run into us like this. Darned awkward, I call it!"

So that was all the thanks I got. My heart wasn't in this trip to town. It reminded me too vividly of the last occasion, when I'd gone up to lunch with Fred, and found him tete-a-tete with Julie, in a fashionable restaurant.

Subsequent explanations had not satisfied me.

Cheer up, little Anne! My fiance squeezed my arm, with a possessive air. "If all goes well—and I'm certain to pull off this deal—we'll be married in three days. Won't that be splendid?"

Splendid! I couldn't understand the sudden shining of my heart!

Tomorrow—Hoodwinked.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

"Wink at small thoughts; remember thou hast great ones."

Requests.

Dear Miss Grey.—This is the first time I have written to your Mail-Box. I have been a reader for many years. I am wondering if some of the Boxes could not supply me with a book of recipes for the winter season; as I frequently have to give talks in public, I would copy the talks and return the book in so. Will you please address with Miss Grey.

Ans.—Request is referred to readers.

Money For Song.

Dear Miss Grey.—I received the song you forwarded, "Carolina Sunshine," and many thanks to you and Pussycat Willow. After examining it, I found no price or name of sender, so have been watching the Mail-Box closely for particulars, which I have not been able to find.

Aren't we having lovely weather? Sorry I did not know how to do please to you. But I have a clock which I picked the other day. I think it would be a good idea to have a clock like that. Where are you kids and Ursula's kids? I see where Leona, offers to get me "Carolina Sunshine." Many thanks, but I have received it. I see also where Blue-Eyed Audrey wants words of "On the Trail of the Lonesome Pine," so am enclosing them. L.O.S. P. S.—Inclosed find dime for fund—L.

Ans.—Thank you, Lois, for 35c for song, which has been turned into the fund, also for the dime. "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" has been forwarded to Blue-Eyed Audrey.

Mrs. F. G. E.—Pattern has been mailed. Thank you for mite towards the cot.

Attention, Alarm Clock.

Dear Miss Grey.—Saw in today's paper where Jim Clock wanted to know how to do please to they would keep in crocks.

This is the way we do them: Pare and core and put through a food grinder, then add as many pounds of sugar as you have pears and enough cinnamon to flavor nicely, and simmer about four hours. Then put in a crock and cover with an old plate and pour over the top a layer of lard. When they get cold and set anywhere in the cellar where the mice cannot get them.

EVERY WOMAN'S AMBITION
FOR ROSY CHEEKS
NOW EASILY SATISFIED

Hollow cheeks with dark lines under the eyes, how a woman hates them! But rosy cheeks, clear skin, and bright eyes, give them to a woman and she is happy.

The woman who attracts, whose fresh, dainty complexion compels admiration, is always careful of her health, particularly of her blood condition. Bad complexion always means bad blood.

Girls, don't let your blood grow thin or watery. To do so brings on haggard looks and declining strength.

Many a woman who has allowed herself to run down, to develop that tired, worried look, has built up again in this simple way. Why don't you try it?

At the close of every meal, just take two small chocolate-coated Ferrozone Tablets—any person can do this in a minute. The action of Ferrozone is apparent at once. It sets you up, makes you feel good, starts up your appetite, aids digestion, brings that old-time feeling of youth into the system again.

Ferrozone puts you on the right road—the one leading to health.

Not a man, woman or child needing blood, vigor, endurance—not a person who is weak, nervous or sickly, not a person in ill-health who won't receive immediate help from Ferrozone.

As a tonic and restorative, as a health-bringer and body-builder, Ferrozone is unrivalled. It cures because it feeds and nourishes, because it contains the elements that build up and strengthen. For better looks and better health try Ferrozone yourself, sold everywhere, 50c per box, 6 boxes for $2.50, or by mail from The Catarhoe Company, Kingston, Ont.

THE SPORTING SECTION

From All
SportdomWestern and St. Mikes Battle to 0-0 Tie in the Intercollegiate Opener

Teams Play Different Game, But Were Evenly Matched On Play—Traynor's Kicking Goes For Nothing Owing To Lack of Speed On Wing — Wainwright Has Arm Broken.

St. Mikes and Western U battled to a 0-0 tie in the opening of the Western section of the intercollegiate rugby yesterday at Tecumseh Park.
Close to 1,500 people watched a struggle that was every bit
even as the result indicated.
With a minute to play, Carroll in a kicking duel returned a punt to Traynor, and it looked like a rouse for the Toronto Irishmen, but Referee Reid ruled that the London had wasn't given yards by the St.
Mikes tackler.

St. Mikes' speed all over the lot with some fine running and passing by Le Bel, their defensive half, weighed in even with the Western superiority in the bushes, some good but hesitant passing and Traynor's kicking, which went for nothing owing to the slowness of the wings.
There were only two instances when anybody got down under Traynor's boots, and "Doc"
Cline, starting from the half line, did the trick one of those times.

Most of the St. Mikes' kicks went to Cline and he didn't have many runs down the field, but one of the best flashes of play Western displayed was a faint punt by Traynor near the first of the last period, Cline taking the pass and making a 40-yard dash—the most spectacular of the day.

St. Mikes Open Play.
St. Mikes made most of their gains around the end with Le Bel leading most of the attacks. When they were tempted to try the centre, Dwyer, who was the whole Western line the greater part of the time, was the centre of a stone wall. Time after time Dwyer pulled down the speedy tricking through of the visitors. St. Mikes had very little chance to kick, and Le Bel, who essayed most of it, displayed his own weakness here. Traynor, on the other hand, did some beautiful punting with plenty of protection afforded by good holding, but it was all wasted on his own wings. Cline and Traynor both displayed fine hands on the back division, and handled every kick perfectly. Le Bel at the other end in the first half, ran out three times with punts that would have been almost certain touches with any speed on the London wings' part.

In the third period, Wainwright
in the mix under Traynor's long boot, had his left arm broken. The crack could be heard by the sideline spectators. Dr. Cameron Wilson attended the injured player and set the break.
They then played the game going clean and undue strenuously only brought four penalties. The visitors had to be penalised four or five times for interference, but otherwise the game was clean and hard fought.

The line-ups were:
St. Mikes—Full back, Ford; halves,
Le Bel, Munroe, Sheehy; quarter,
Brown; scrum, Dunn, Gore, Mac;
inside, Redican, Hitchcock; middles, Caron, Bart, outside, Carroll, McKee;
spares, Troy, Service, Spoor, Calabrese.

Western—Full back, Heard; halves,
Traynor, Cline, Cowley; quarter, Mac-
Mahon; scrum, Callahan, Williams,
Fisher; inside, Jarrett, Macpherson;
middles, Dyer, McGinnis; outside,
Wainwright, Dockstader; spares,
Reid, Thompson.

Referee—Eric Reid.
Umpire—George Little.
Head Linesman—Prof. Wood.

CLINGER, London's Rubber Man
PROPRIETOR.11 OF MAJORS ADOPT
PLAN FOR BASEBALL'S
REORGANIZATION

Want Civilian Commission and Agreement of Leagues Abrogated.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Representatives of every National League baseball club and three American League clubs tonight went on record as favoring adoption of the agreement between professional leagues. Resolutions proposed a complete reorganization of baseball, with the national commission abolished and a civilian tribunal of three members financially interested in the game in complete control.

The action came after a conference lasting more than nine hours. The resolutions will be considered at their other meeting November 8, and presented to a meeting of minor league officials at Kansas City November 9, for their approval. All professional leagues will be invited to join with the eleven clubs acting today in the proposed reorganization.

A statement issued after the meeting notified the clubs not represented that they have until November 1 to signify their willingness to join in the reorganization. If they have not come in by that time, the statement says, a 12-club league will be formed without them. The eleven clubs represented would be included in the league, and a twelfth member would be chosen from some other club.

BASEBALL INQUIRY IS RESUMED IN CHICAGO

Owners of Brooklyn and Boston Clubs Are Called.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—Investigation by the special grand jury of the alleged "fixing" of the 1919 world's series as well as other phases of baseball gambling was resumed today. The last session was held just before the world's series.
At the present session it was indicated that the special attention would be paid to baseball pools and the grand jury was expected to make some recommendations as to whether or not they were a form of gambling harmful to professional baseball.

Witnesses summoned for today's hearing, included Harry Frazee, owner of the Boston Red Sox, and Charles F. Mahoney, owner of the Brooklyn Na-tials. Ban Johnson, president of the American League, was recalled. Testimony has been heard to date from Stein, mentioned in previous hearings as a New York gambler who profited by the alleged "fixing" of the 1919 series.
Abe Attel, former pugilist of New York, who is now in Montreal, was called to appear before the grand jury, and others alleged to be implicated. No replies have been received to these telegrams.

GETS $1,700 FOR EIGHT FINE HORSES

Centralla, Oct. 19.—Byron Hicks, who lives a short distance from here, sold four pairs of draught horses recently, for which he realized $1,700.

GOOD ADVICE
TO A DYSPYPTIC

Give the Stomach Help to Digest Food and to Offset the Tendency to Acidity. Use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

The wholesale advice to starve your stomach to health is mighty poor judgment. Only the most robust constitution can stand such a strain. If you cannot eat, if what you eat sours, if your indigestion follows certain foods that cause heartburn, sour stomach, or gasiness, try Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. And if there is a feeling as if your stomach had turned into concrete these tablets help digest the food and thus bring relief. Many physicians write: "Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are directed" on a prescription blank when patients are distressed with frequent attacks of indigestion.

They furnish the alkaline effect to offset acidity of the stomach and also pancreatic to aid intestinal digestion of starchy foods.

Get a 60-cent box at any drug store, eat what you enjoy, take a tablet or two after meals, and thus avoid the distress due to indigestion or dyspepsia.

VARSITY'S GOOD SHOW AGAINST TIGERS IS
BOOSTING STOCK

Exhibition Tim Won by 25-7
Makes Clash With McGill
Size Better.

TORONTO, Oct. 18.—In an exhibition rugby game here this afternoon between Varsity and Hamilton Tigers the home team won by 25 to 7. It was a spectacular game and intensely interesting throughout. The result is regarded by local rugby fans as very satisfactory, in view of the game scheduled next Saturday between Varsity and McGill.

In tackling the Varsity team showed up well against the Tigers this afternoon. Clean tackling broke up the Tigers' play a number of times and combined with this was speed. These two features, speed and tackling, are looked upon as Varsity's great assets.
Leadley was the only Tiger player who putting Galt back again on the football map by winning two cups, the W. F. A.
seniors and the Mac and Casey.

The Dominion champions found the locals a much tougher proposition than they expected, and in the first period all the scoring was done by Galt. The locals' two punters, who were the best the visitors could do to get on by King. He had the local goal played off and despite their efforts to even the score, the local goal was put up the score, failed, the local custodian and the back division putting up a brilliant game.

Hamilton—Goal, Combe; backs, Mc-
Ewen, Craig; halves, Hewer, Brown, Sincclair; forwards, Adair, Jones, Gilchrist, Galt, King; backs, Rhodes, Walker; halves, Bennett, Taylor, Lawrason; forwards, P. Devere, Moss, Park, Devere, Devere.

Referee—Evans, Guelph.

Fumble Gives
Win Over The Hard Oils

Game Was Clean Throughout
Though Hard Fought At Times—Wilson and Harding Again Stars.

Sarnia, Oct. 18.—Gallivan's fumbled punt in the last two minutes of play in today's intermediate game here, resulting in Sarnia defeating the Hard Oils 10 to 0. The game was a clean one,
the half time whistle had Sarnia's
score, the Hard Oils being two yards out, with two downs to go when the whistle sounded. The game, while closely contested, dragged at times,
the Hard Oils being the better team
in this respect, though the Petrol
outfit suffered from a lack of speed.
The game was one of the cleanest ever played in Western Ontario, but one penalty being inflicted, when J. Gallivan
and G. Smith came to blows. Karn
turned the tables, putting the game
back on the run, as he ran one
of Wilson's punts out from his own
end, with two downs to go when the whistle sounded. Wilson played a stellar game, and the game was a clean one,

closely contested, dragged at times,
the Hard Oils being the better team
in this respect, though the Petrol
outfit suffered from a lack of speed.
The game was one of the cleanest ever
played in Western Ontario, but one
penalty being inflicted, when J. Gallivan
and G. Smith came to blows. Karn
turned the tables, putting the game
back on the run, as he ran one
of Wilson's punts out from his own
end, with two downs to go when the whistle sounded. Wilson played a stellar
game, and the game was a clean one,
the half time whistle had Sarnia's
score, the Hard Oils being two yards
out, with two downs to go when the whistle sounded. The game, while

"GO AND GET IT"
FULL OF THRILLS
FINE PRODUCTION

Newspaper Story At Allen's Theatre Should Be Seen by Everyone.

For pure, undiluted thrills it is a long day since any other picture has been released to equal Marshall Neilan's "Go and Get It," a photodrama of newspaper life, which drew enthusiastic crowds to the Allen Theatre Monday and will be shown again today and Wednesday. While the plot of the crime is a mystery, the play is obviously borrowed from Edgar Allan Poe's "Murders in the Rue Morgue," the newspaper story proper is cleverly developed and woven into it is a charming and fascinating love drama. The story of the transference of an executed criminal's brain to the skull of an ape is a bit gruesome, perhaps, and while the execution is not pictured, the tense portrayal of the scenes leading up to it are apt to raise in many minds either a revulsion against or a serious questioning of the justice of capital punishment, despite the fact that the condemned man's sweetheart is pictured voraciously chewing gum during the wedding ceremony in the death cell.

The biggest thrills of the play are, of course, the daring climbing from one aeroplane to another and from an aeroplane to the top of an express train and back again by Pat O'Malley who plays the death-defying part of Connelly, the intrepid and aggressive newspaperman.

The work of Agnes Ayres as the mysterious girl reporter, is superb, and the work of Walter Long, as Hogan, the gangster, and Bull Montana, as Ferre, the gorilla, is powerful to the extreme. Wesley Barry, as Dinty, the precocious editorial boy and amateur detective, is undeniably clever.

There is a realistic battle between Connelly, the reporter, and a rival reporter, aided by a strong-arm squad. The staging throughout is accurate and brilliant, and "Go and Get It" is a play that few movie fans would care to miss, but they should go prepared for genuine thrills. Sheer riots of applause greeted the high spots in this film of rapid action on Monday.

Nonh Beery takes the part of Dr. Ord, the surgeon who is supposed, in his underground laboratory, to have reunited several spinal columns and brought the dead back to life. The transplanting of a human brain in the skull of a ferocious ape was the freak experiment which was followed by his mysterious death, this in turn, followed by the death of the judge who had sentenced Hogan, the gangster, and the state attorney who prosecuted him. The murderer is shot in the act of attempting to kill the brother of the gangster, who had testified against him.

How the inside office, tried to sell the paper to the opposition sheet and was frustrated by assistant boy, a reporter and the girl owner, working incognito as a sub-sister, makes an unusual story of graphic interest.

A clever comedy, "Can Wives Be Trusted?" a news reel, a nature study film, and an animated cartoon are included in a rather long program. The feature of the musical program by the Allen Orchestra under Maurice Foure is the overture, "Song of the Bell."

PACKED HOUSES SEE 'BRINGING UP FATHER'

Bevies of Girls, Real Comedians in Show At Grand Theatre.

Bevies of girls in stunning costumes, dancing to snappy music and singing delightful songs and melodies, introduced the famous cartoon comedy "Bringing Up Father at the Seashore," at the Grand Theatre yesterday.

On Monday afternoon it was found impossible to accommodate all those who wished to see Maggie, Jiggs and his adorable daughter, Miss Kitty. Twenty young maidens compose the beauty chorus, and are assisted by an unusually clever company of singers, dancers, comedienne and funsters. Every word thrown across the footlights from Jiggs and his family throws the audience into fresh fits of laughter.

Jiggs of the cartoon, played by Mark Hart, is abused and cuffed from morning till night, and is in constant terror of Maggie and her rolling pin. His gay repartee, sly winks to Dinty Moore and his capers with the pretty girls make it impossible for anyone not to admire him from the minutest he pops his head in the door after returning from the saloon until he departs to drown himself because of his desire to get away from Maggie's temper. Barness Blanc de "Maggie" refuses to believe that he is going out to drown himself, and is confident that he merely has a date with a mermaid. Maggie's temper is first aroused when Jiggs appears with a cat in a bird cage instead of a sweet-singing canary, but Jiggs kindly explains that the canary is inside the cat. Sam Lewis is undoubtedly a comedian of high order, and as Patrick McGulinsky, a pawnbroker, creates havoc in the home of Maggie and Jiggs.

Pat provides the phoney jewelry for Jiggs to give to Maggie, and on the side, makes love to her and her maid, Patsy, alias Tilly, played by Kate Rooney, who is a versatile singing comedienne. It is Patsy who upsets Miss Kitty's love affair with a handsome fellow, as Kitty, sings her way into the hearts of the audience, wears beautiful gowns, and is much admired for her efforts to defend Jiggs from the lady of the rolling pin.

Jiggs is really at his best in the scene among the bathing girls, and it only through the establishment of a "Women's Union" that Jiggs does not elope with one of the vamp mermaids, and it is only with the endearing names of "reptile," "worm" and "snake" that Maggie gets him. Jiggs and his friend, Dinty Moore, the latter played by Joe Curley, are continually falling in and out of Maggie's good graces. Each scene is funnier than the preceding one, and the comedy is brought to a climax when Miss Kitty, accompanied by her best beau, arrives with the minister to be married.

"Bringing Up Father at the Seashore" will be played at the Grand Theatre again this evening.

At The Theaters

"SILVER THREADS AMONG THE GOLD" AND VAUDEVILLE AT THE GRAND THURSDAY.

Coming to the Grand Opera House Thursday, Friday and Saturday next, matinee and evening, is "Silver Threads Among the Gold," a beautiful comedy drama full of laughs, tears and thrills, with a strong cast of artists, including the famous Lee Kids, Jane and Katherine.

Silver Threads like the book, is destined to go on forever, and its reception in Ontario augurs well for its success throughout all of the other provinces. One of the big things of "Silver Threads Among the Gold" is that it is clean and as pure as the breath of new mown hay. It is a picture the whole family will enjoy. Morrison and Clifton in songs and comedy and the vaudeville section of the program is the latest comedy success, "The Suitor," will take care of the laughs. Topics of the Day will be included in the many added features.

REDEMPTION.

The First Mortgage provides for the liquidation of the half-yearly interest by means of monthly payments to the Trustees. In addition, provision is made similarly for a sinking fund of $2,500 per month, beginning 1st October, 1925, to meet the yearly payments of $30,000, for redeeming principal during the years 1926-39, and also from 1st January, 1922, to 1st October, 1925, of a further payment of $1,000 per month, to form a reserve fund for redemption purposes. This reserve fund is to be used by the Trustees, as far as possible, in redeeming bonds by purchase at less than par and accrued interest. This plan enables a constant check being maintained on both the hotel management and earnings.

SUBSCRIPTIONS.

Subscriptions will be subject to our approval, and must be made on the approved form, all checks to be made payable to the London & Western Trusts Company, Limited. The right is reserved to accept all or any portion of any subscription, and if only a portion is accepted, the deposit will be applied on the succeeding payments. As the bonds carry interest from 1st October, 1920, interest will accrue at the rate of 7% from that date, and interest at the like rate will be charged on deferred payments.
