FENIAN DUEL AT LIVERPOOL.

On the evening of Monday last, an Irish gentleman, carrying on business at Liverpool...

The other gentleman, who was carrying a double-barrelled fowling piece, which had been undergoing repairs...

On observing the gentleman who carried the fowling piece, he addressed him, and said, "I suppose, sir, you are a Fenian?"

"Then you despise me," rejoined the stranger. "I do not know you, sir; but if you are a Fenian, or even a Fenian leader, I have no respect for you."

"And my name is John G. I am an Irishman, and a native of Mayo also; and thus I will treat any one who will declare himself as you do," accompanying the words by a blow...

The Empress of Austria is said to be one of the most beautiful princesses of Europe, and from her description would certainly seem to be a very charming woman.

She is tall, slender, graceful, with a very white skin, a good deal of color, large, limpid blue eyes, and an amazing head of light hair, which she wears in eight massive braids, wound round and round her head...

She speaks all the principal dialects of Europe, and is particularly fond of the English language, which she speaks as perfectly as though it were her native dialect.

She is an excellent musician, and draws extremely well, and is one of the boldest and most skilful horse-women in Austria.

She possesses a stud of very valuable horses, and a pack of splendid hounds; and she is said to take the warmest interest in the racing and hunting of all Europe...

She is also a remarkably good temper.

A REMARKABLE MUSICAL GENIUS.—Many of our readers have doubtless read the account of the blind negro boy in one of the Southern States...

At the age of three years, one day stole into the piano, and astonished the household by performing several airs upon that instrument without ever having had access to it before.

He is now in New York, and the correspondent of the Boston Journal thus describes him:

"Blind Tom, the colored boy, is the fashionable sensation of the hour. Dodworth's Hall is crowded every night at a dollar a ticket. He is a genuine Southern negro, thick set, heavy moulded, low forehead, looking like a count down, and apparently not over seventeen years of age.

In his opening speech, he speaks of himself in the third person, and says: 'Tom belongs to a despised race. He is black, he is blind, he is ignorant. How he should play as he does, Tom don't know. Why the piano should be Tom's "forte," is a mystery that Providence only can solve.'

When Tom was a child, he imitated every noise that he heard from man, beast or bird. At three years of age, he groped his way to the piano, and commenced imitating the sounds that he heard upon it.

He cannot read, write nor spell, but he remembers every piece that he has heard from his childhood. The most difficult operas, and Thalberg's and Gottschalk's most brilliant compositions he masters with ease.

His imitation of the music-box is the most wonderful exhibition ever heard in this city. The most eminent musicians in the city come on to the platform and play most difficult pieces, and Tom will sit down and follow them with wonderful accuracy.

He is indifferent to censure or praise. His excitement at times is so great that he cannot contain himself. He drinks in his own applause by a hearty clapping of his hands, precisely as if some one else had been at the piano, and he was in raptures at the performance.

Regarding him as a poor blind slave, his execution would be wonderful any way; but his touches are exquisite and his performances, considered in an artistic point of view, would put to the blush many of the professors of music in this city.

IS THERE ANY VIRTUE IN MRS. S. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER AND ZYLOBALSAMUM?

Convincing Testimony. Rev. G. A. BUCKNER, Adjutant General, 1861. I was disappointed in my looking for a hair restorer, until I saw Mrs. S. Allen's Hair Restorer and Zylobalsamum.

Rev. J. H. CONNELL, N. Y. City: "I presented it for a restorer. The filling of the hair stopped, and the hair falling out stopped. My hair is now growing again, and is thicker than ever."

Rev. W. W. WEST, N. Y. City: "I can testify to the efficacy of Mrs. S. Allen's Hair Restorer and Zylobalsamum. I have used it for some time, and it has restored my hair to its original color, and it is now growing again, and is thicker than ever."

Rev. H. W. DENNIS, Boston, Mass.: "That they are so successful in their nature as not to injure the most delicate constitution, and are therefore more peculiarly adapted as a corrective of the humors affecting them."

THE CHEAPEST AND SAFEST DOCTOR. HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

THESE great household Medicine ranks among the leading necessities of life. It is well known to the world that secure many complaints other remedies cannot reach, this fact is as well established as that the sun lights the world.

Disorders of the Liver and Stomach. Most persons will at some period of their lives, suffer from indigestion, derangement of the liver, stomach or bowels, which if not quickly removed, eventually settles into a dangerous illness. It is well known in India, and other tropical climates, that Holloway's Pills are the only remedy that can be relied on in such cases.

Weakness and Debility. Such as suffer from weakness, or debility, and those who feel want of energy, should at once have recourse to these Pills, as they immediately purify the blood, and acting upon the main-spring of life, give strength and vigor to the system. To young persons entering into womanhood, with a derangement of the functions, and to mothers at the turn of life, these Pills will be most efficacious in correcting the tide of life that may be on the turn.

Disorders of Children. If these Pills be used according to the printed directions and the Omnicure rubbed over the region of the kidneys, at least once a day as salt is forced into meat, it will penetrate the kidneys and correct any derangement of their organs. Should the affliction be stone or gravel, then the Omnicure should be rubbed into the neck of the bladder, and a few days will convince the sufferer that the effect of these two remedies is astonishing.

Disorders of the Stomach. Are the sources of the deadliest miasma. Their effect is to vitiate all the fluids of the body, and to send a poisoned stream through all the channels of circulation. How what is the operation of the Pills? They cleanse the bowels, regulate the liver, bring the relaxed or irritated stomach into a natural condition, and acting through the secretory organs upon the blood itself, change the state of the system from sickness to health, by exercising a simultaneous and wholesome effect upon all its parts and functions.

Complaints of Females. The functional irregularities peculiar to the weaker sex, are invariably corrected without pain or inconvenience by the use of Holloway's Pills. They are the safest and surest medicine for all diseases incidental to females of all ages.

Bilious Affections. All young children should be administered to them, from time to time, a few doses of these Pills, which will purify their blood, and enable them to pass safely through the various disorders incidental to children, such as measles, hooping-cough, cow-pox, and other infantile diseases. These Pills are so harmless in their nature as not to injure the most delicate constitution, and are therefore more peculiarly adapted as a corrective of the humors affecting them.

Dropsy. Hundreds are cured yearly by the use of these Pills conjointly with the Omnicure, which should be rubbed very frequently into the parts affected.

Derangement of the Kidneys. The quantity and quality of the bile are of vital importance to health. Upon the liver, the gland which secretes this fluid so necessary for digestion, the Pills operate specifically, infallibly rectifying its irregularities, and effectually curing jaundice, bilious remittants, and all the varieties of disease generated by an unnatural condition of that organ.
