

THE ENGLISH MAIL.

Interesting Summary of News.

COAL MINES. The Queen has approved of the appointment of a Royal Commission to inquire into the present state of the coal mines.

DIVISION COURTS ACT. Mr. CURRIE moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Division Courts Act.

Mr. CURRIE moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Division Courts Act. In moving the resolution, he pointed out the necessity of preventing parties to be used in the Division Courts for more than $100.

Mr. CURRIE moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Division Courts Act. In moving the resolution, he pointed out the necessity of preventing parties to be used in the Division Courts for more than $100.

Mr. CURRIE moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Division Courts Act. In moving the resolution, he pointed out the necessity of preventing parties to be used in the Division Courts for more than $100.

Mr. CURRIE moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Division Courts Act. In moving the resolution, he pointed out the necessity of preventing parties to be used in the Division Courts for more than $100.

Mr. CURRIE moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Division Courts Act. In moving the resolution, he pointed out the necessity of preventing parties to be used in the Division Courts for more than $100.

Mr. CURRIE moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Division Courts Act. In moving the resolution, he pointed out the necessity of preventing parties to be used in the Division Courts for more than $100.

Mr. CURRIE moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Division Courts Act. In moving the resolution, he pointed out the necessity of preventing parties to be used in the Division Courts for more than $100.

Mr. CURRIE moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Division Courts Act. In moving the resolution, he pointed out the necessity of preventing parties to be used in the Division Courts for more than $100.

Mr. CURRIE moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Division Courts Act. In moving the resolution, he pointed out the necessity of preventing parties to be used in the Division Courts for more than $100.

Mr. CURRIE moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Division Courts Act. In moving the resolution, he pointed out the necessity of preventing parties to be used in the Division Courts for more than $100.

Mr. CURRIE moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Division Courts Act. In moving the resolution, he pointed out the necessity of preventing parties to be used in the Division Courts for more than $100.

Mr. CURRIE moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Division Courts Act. In moving the resolution, he pointed out the necessity of preventing parties to be used in the Division Courts for more than $100.

Mr. CURRIE moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Division Courts Act. In moving the resolution, he pointed out the necessity of preventing parties to be used in the Division Courts for more than $100.

Mr. CURRIE moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Division Courts Act. In moving the resolution, he pointed out the necessity of preventing parties to be used in the Division Courts for more than $100.

Mr. CURRIE moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Division Courts Act. In moving the resolution, he pointed out the necessity of preventing parties to be used in the Division Courts for more than $100.

Mr. CURRIE moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Division Courts Act. In moving the resolution, he pointed out the necessity of preventing parties to be used in the Division Courts for more than $100.

Mr. CURRIE moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Division Courts Act. In moving the resolution, he pointed out the necessity of preventing parties to be used in the Division Courts for more than $100.

Mr. CURRIE moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Division Courts Act. In moving the resolution, he pointed out the necessity of preventing parties to be used in the Division Courts for more than $100.

AT PEACE AT LAST. A Remarkable Criminal Pays the Final Penalty of the Law.

EXTRAORDINARY CAREER OF A MURDERER. LONDON, Feb. 26.—Charles Peace, the notorious burglar and thief, executed at Leeds yesterday, died forgiving all his enemies.

Charles Peace was one of the most remarkable criminals of this century. The story of his career is full of incidents, which, if told in three volumes, would not credit on the most imaginative novelist.

Charles Peace was one of the most remarkable criminals of this century. The story of his career is full of incidents, which, if told in three volumes, would not credit on the most imaginative novelist.

Charles Peace was one of the most remarkable criminals of this century. The story of his career is full of incidents, which, if told in three volumes, would not credit on the most imaginative novelist.

Charles Peace was one of the most remarkable criminals of this century. The story of his career is full of incidents, which, if told in three volumes, would not credit on the most imaginative novelist.

Charles Peace was one of the most remarkable criminals of this century. The story of his career is full of incidents, which, if told in three volumes, would not credit on the most imaginative novelist.

Charles Peace was one of the most remarkable criminals of this century. The story of his career is full of incidents, which, if told in three volumes, would not credit on the most imaginative novelist.

Charles Peace was one of the most remarkable criminals of this century. The story of his career is full of incidents, which, if told in three volumes, would not credit on the most imaginative novelist.

Charles Peace was one of the most remarkable criminals of this century. The story of his career is full of incidents, which, if told in three volumes, would not credit on the most imaginative novelist.

Charles Peace was one of the most remarkable criminals of this century. The story of his career is full of incidents, which, if told in three volumes, would not credit on the most imaginative novelist.

Charles Peace was one of the most remarkable criminals of this century. The story of his career is full of incidents, which, if told in three volumes, would not credit on the most imaginative novelist.

Charles Peace was one of the most remarkable criminals of this century. The story of his career is full of incidents, which, if told in three volumes, would not credit on the most imaginative novelist.

Charles Peace was one of the most remarkable criminals of this century. The story of his career is full of incidents, which, if told in three volumes, would not credit on the most imaginative novelist.

EUROPEAN JOTTINGS.

The Royalists in France are engaged in an active campaign in favour of a protective policy.

A tax amounting to £12,000 has already been imposed upon the rate-payers of the Blackburn in respect of the cost of last year's cotton trade riots, and the end is not nearly yet.

The village of Rochford was recently disturbed by one of those familiar disturbances of spirits in which the more common mistle is thrown about by invisible hands, doors slammed, windows shaken.

Gen. Garibaldi telegraphs to the Capitale, the Roman newspaper, that the victory election is a humanitarian triumph, and that the national cause to their miserable selves.

At Tirnova, the Bulgarian capital, a correspondent saw the other day a queer looking fellow, dressed in a coat, armed with Russian rifles, conducted half a dozen Turks and as many Russian soldiers to the railway station.

The High Church clergy have sent to the Queen a protest against the Duke of Devonshire's marriage to the Duke of Devonshire's daughter.

Mr. Thompson was one of the most remarkable criminals of this century. The story of his career is full of incidents, which, if told in three volumes, would not credit on the most imaginative novelist.

Mr. Thompson was one of the most remarkable criminals of this century. The story of his career is full of incidents, which, if told in three volumes, would not credit on the most imaginative novelist.

Mr. Thompson was one of the most remarkable criminals of this century. The story of his career is full of incidents, which, if told in three volumes, would not credit on the most imaginative novelist.

Mr. Thompson was one of the most remarkable criminals of this century. The story of his career is full of incidents, which, if told in three volumes, would not credit on the most imaginative novelist.

Mr. Thompson was one of the most remarkable criminals of this century. The story of his career is full of incidents, which, if told in three volumes, would not credit on the most imaginative novelist.

Mr. Thompson was one of the most remarkable criminals of this century. The story of his career is full of incidents, which, if told in three volumes, would not credit on the most imaginative novelist.

Mr. Thompson was one of the most remarkable criminals of this century. The story of his career is full of incidents, which, if told in three volumes, would not credit on the most imaginative novelist.

AMERICAN NOTES.

It costs four thousand dollars a year to run a Pullman car.

A Chicago baby born early to a hotel in the world, having been born in a hotel elevator.

Wanted.—To exchange music lessons for "washing," is an advertisement in a Chicago paper.

A Texas paper estimates that there were at least 300 persons murdered in that State last year. Twelve men were executed.

There is a coal mine near San Antonio, Texas, which produces good coal in quantities. It was discovered accidentally.

Efforts are being made to restore to Philadelphia the industry of porcelain making, which flourished there from 1816 to 1837.

A Chinese Romeo went to succumb a Chinese Juliet in Carson, Nev., and was shot by a rival who was hiding on the balcony.

James Corning, of Arkansas, left a will which binds his executors to dig five graves for him and set up five tombstones to his memory.

A Michigan editor advertises his paper for sale, saying that he desires to put many an acquaintance between himself and his mother-in-law.

A Connecticut man recently said, "Lend me a dollar. My wife has left me, and I want to see whether I can make up my mind for her debts."

A cigar dealer in Middletown, N. Y., has hung in his window a list of the names of his customers, with amounts due, large and small.

Mrs. John Jacob Astor, in ten years, has secured home and the means of a livelihood for about 200 homeless children, at a cost of about $67,000.

A Kansas man who offered bail for a friend was asked by the judge if he had any contribution to the fund. "Oh, yes," said he, "my old woman."

The Weekly Mail.

TORONTO, FRIDAY, MARCH 7, 1879.

"NOT RESPONSIBLE."

The Montreal Herald is of opinion that the late Government was responsible for the excessive deficits that occurred under Mr. CARWRIGHT'S administration of the public finances.

Table with 2 columns: Year, Amount. Rows for 1874, 1875, 1876, 1877, 1878.

The expenditure on immigration by the Ontario Government during the same period has been as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Year, Amount. Rows for 1874, 1875, 1876, 1877, 1878.

In other words, since the hard times, when even the cattle-bone market was hard set to live, set in, the Dominion and Ontario Governments have spent on immigration nearly $200,000!

POISONED MILK.

The British Government has just begun to make good use of the Cattle Plague Act of last year, by the issue in Council of the 'dairies, cow-sheds, and milkshops order.'

THE MORNING HOUR.

OUR Ontario Assembly, like King CHARLES II.—who had the polliumotee apologize for his, however—

THE SIEGE OF TORONTO.

The death of Bishop BRIDGES necessitated the assembling of the Anglican Synod to elect a successor to the See.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

(Continued from Second Page.)

OTAWA, Monday, March 3.

THE ELECTION ACT. Mr. CASBY introduced a bill respecting the election of members to the House of Commons.

RAILWAYS IN MANITOBA.

Mr. SCHULTZ moved the second reading of the bill to incorporate the Saskatchewan Colonization Railway Company.

PAYMENTS IN CONNECTION WITH THE HALIFAX COLONIZATION.

Mr. A. J. SMITH moved for orders in Council relating to the payment of $10,000 to W. L. Clark for alleged services rendered in connection with the Halifax Colonization.

RIMOUSKI ELECTION.

Mr. LANDRY moved for a statement respecting work done at Matane and at Rimouski in the County of Bonaventure.

CUSTOMS AND EXCISE RETURNS.

Mr. CARTWRIGHT moved for returns showing the amount of duty received from Customs and Excise duties during February, 1879.

WORKING IN CANADIAN WATERS.

Mr. ROBERTSON's amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE CITY RECORD.

The duties collected at the Custom House in February amounted to $45,231 against $47,015 in the corresponding month last year.

Mr. Justice Cameron has decided that a woman is liable for a note made by her husband in her name and by him endorsed to a third party.

The Great Western railway ticket office at the foot of Yonge street, was broken down on the night of the 2nd, and some cheques stolen.

A man representing himself as a private detective hailing from this city, has been winding people in the Province of Quebec.

The Chief of Police has made a recommendation to the City Council that the fire brigade be amalgamated with the police force.

At a meeting of workmen in the Trades' Association Hall, on Friday evening, a resolution was passed to refuse to work on Monday afternoon, the following day.

John Taylor, who is charged with forging a cheque for $7,000 on the Detroit City Bank, was arrested at Leaside on Friday and taken to Windsor, where he was awaiting extradition.

DOMINION MILLERS' ASSOCIATION.—At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Dominion Millers' Association, held on Monday afternoon, the following resolutions were unanimously carried.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

The temper in which this measure was discussed the other day in committee reflected credit upon both sides of the House.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

It has certainly been the custom in all constitutional governments to hold the Finance Minister responsible for the condition of the public treasury, and the public expenditure, particularly when the Minister has had control of the Finance for several successive years.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

The bill now before the House, deals in large part, with matters of administrative detail, upon which it seems unnecessary to enter.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

When the history of this inapplicable Ministry comes to be written—supposing any chronicler should think it worth while to expend his time and talents on so inconsiderable a trifling matter as the education of the children of this country, it will be difficult to decide whether his omission or commission have been more flagrant.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

The temper in which this measure was discussed the other day in committee reflected credit upon both sides of the House.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

It has certainly been the custom in all constitutional governments to hold the Finance Minister responsible for the condition of the public treasury, and the public expenditure, particularly when the Minister has had control of the Finance for several successive years.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

The bill now before the House, deals in large part, with matters of administrative detail, upon which it seems unnecessary to enter.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

When the history of this inapplicable Ministry comes to be written—supposing any chronicler should think it worth while to expend his time and talents on so inconsiderable a trifling matter as the education of the children of this country, it will be difficult to decide whether his omission or commission have been more flagrant.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

The temper in which this measure was discussed the other day in committee reflected credit upon both sides of the House.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

It has certainly been the custom in all constitutional governments to hold the Finance Minister responsible for the condition of the public treasury, and the public expenditure, particularly when the Minister has had control of the Finance for several successive years.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

The bill now before the House, deals in large part, with matters of administrative detail, upon which it seems unnecessary to enter.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

When the history of this inapplicable Ministry comes to be written—supposing any chronicler should think it worth while to expend his time and talents on so inconsiderable a trifling matter as the education of the children of this country, it will be difficult to decide whether his omission or commission have been more flagrant.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

The temper in which this measure was discussed the other day in committee reflected credit upon both sides of the House.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

It has certainly been the custom in all constitutional governments to hold the Finance Minister responsible for the condition of the public treasury, and the public expenditure, particularly when the Minister has had control of the Finance for several successive years.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

The bill now before the House, deals in large part, with matters of administrative detail, upon which it seems unnecessary to enter.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

When the history of this inapplicable Ministry comes to be written—supposing any chronicler should think it worth while to expend his time and talents on so inconsiderable a trifling matter as the education of the children of this country, it will be difficult to decide whether his omission or commission have been more flagrant.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

The temper in which this measure was discussed the other day in committee reflected credit upon both sides of the House.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

It has certainly been the custom in all constitutional governments to hold the Finance Minister responsible for the condition of the public treasury, and the public expenditure, particularly when the Minister has had control of the Finance for several successive years.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

The bill now before the House, deals in large part, with matters of administrative detail, upon which it seems unnecessary to enter.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

When the history of this inapplicable Ministry comes to be written—supposing any chronicler should think it worth while to expend his time and talents on so inconsiderable a trifling matter as the education of the children of this country, it will be difficult to decide whether his omission or commission have been more flagrant.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

The temper in which this measure was discussed the other day in committee reflected credit upon both sides of the House.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

It has certainly been the custom in all constitutional governments to hold the Finance Minister responsible for the condition of the public treasury, and the public expenditure, particularly when the Minister has had control of the Finance for several successive years.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

The bill now before the House, deals in large part, with matters of administrative detail, upon which it seems unnecessary to enter.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

When the history of this inapplicable Ministry comes to be written—supposing any chronicler should think it worth while to expend his time and talents on so inconsiderable a trifling matter as the education of the children of this country, it will be difficult to decide whether his omission or commission have been more flagrant.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

The temper in which this measure was discussed the other day in committee reflected credit upon both sides of the House.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

It has certainly been the custom in all constitutional governments to hold the Finance Minister responsible for the condition of the public treasury, and the public expenditure, particularly when the Minister has had control of the Finance for several successive years.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

The bill now before the House, deals in large part, with matters of administrative detail, upon which it seems unnecessary to enter.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

When the history of this inapplicable Ministry comes to be written—supposing any chronicler should think it worth while to expend his time and talents on so inconsiderable a trifling matter as the education of the children of this country, it will be difficult to decide whether his omission or commission have been more flagrant.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

THE SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. MACKENZIE'S amendment moved for a return of reports in reference to the seizure of the steam tug Sarah E. Bryant for an alleged breach of the coasting and navigation laws of the Dominion.

POMONA'S BRIDAL TRIP.

Our subscribers who have read the former delightful sketches of life at Ruder Grange, will be glad to hear further...

There, an took a room at little hotel, an' walked over to the falls. But mindin' the good, after that there wasn't no water runnin' over 'em...

"You want here under this tree," says he, "an' I'll go an' an' an' an' they'll take us to board for a while."

"IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING." Mr. J. A. Britton and "The Major." How They Interested Themselves in the Temperance Movement and were Finally Gagged by the Police.

AN ILLINOIS GHOST STORY. A Wrath Which Frequent a Railway Bridge—A Seven-year-old Story. Chicago, Feb. 28.—An article from El Paso, Ill., says Timothy Donohue, a watchmaker on the Toledo, Peoria and Western railway, was working near that place yesterday when a woman poorly clad standing on a bridge apparently fell and disappeared into the water.

ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELL. Happy Vermination to a Serious Case. A Sederer Shot at his Victim and Assailed by her Mother. Owen Sound, Feb. 27.—Considerable excitement was caused in the police court here today by the attempted shooting of a young man named Albert B. Scholte by a girl, who alleges that she had been seduced by him.

THE WIMBLEDON TEAM. Selections by the New Brunswick Rifle Association for the present year are as follows: St. John, N.B., Feb. 28.—At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the New Brunswick Rifle Association held last evening the following resolution was passed:—

ARREST OF A MURDERER. Two American Detectives Disguised as Win a Handmade Reward. The Markdale correspondent of the Owen Sound Advertiser states that recently two United States detectives visited Markdale in pursuit of a man named Nibbling, charged with murder in Cleveland, O.

CAKE MAKING.

SCOTCH FRUIT CAKE. A cup butter, two of white sugar, sifted flour, three-fourths cup sour milk...

SCOTCH FRUIT CAKE.

A cup butter, two of white sugar, sifted flour, three-fourths cup sour milk, one of white sugar, one of white sugar...

SCOTCH FRUIT CAKE.

A cup butter, two of white sugar, sifted flour, three-fourths cup sour milk, one of white sugar, one of white sugar...

SCOTCH FRUIT CAKE.

A cup butter, two of white sugar, sifted flour, three-fourths cup sour milk, one of white sugar, one of white sugar...

SCOTCH FRUIT CAKE.

A cup butter, two of white sugar, sifted flour, three-fourths cup sour milk, one of white sugar, one of white sugar...

SCOTCH FRUIT CAKE.

A cup butter, two of white sugar, sifted flour, three-fourths cup sour milk, one of white sugar, one of white sugar...

SCOTCH FRUIT CAKE.

A cup butter, two of white sugar, sifted flour, three-fourths cup sour milk, one of white sugar, one of white sugar...

SCOTCH FRUIT CAKE.

A cup butter, two of white sugar, sifted flour, three-fourths cup sour milk, one of white sugar, one of white sugar...

