Monday's Smoker

Our Returned Men Officially Welcomed and Presented with Recognition Cards

One of the most pleasant evenings ever spent in the town of Bridgetown and which must also be noted as a very important event in the historic records of the town, which will be referred to in years to come, took place in the Primrose theatre Monday evening when our most loyal and representative citizens of the town rallied themselves of the honor to be present to assist in the town's official welcome to our returned men.

Bridgetown's popular mayor, Mr. A. T. MacKenzie, presided in his usual genial manner and presented each of the returned men present with a large and handsomely engraved recognition card suitable for framing. The official welcome was given by Rev. E. Underwood, rector of St. James parish, and was very much appreciated by all who were in attendance. The reply was made by Major B. W. Joscoe, Sgt. Maj. Gill also extended thanks in behalf of his comrades.

The other speakers of the evening were: Rev. M. S. Richardson, Rev. Dr. J. H. B. Hicks, C. S. Dunham, Harry Ruggles and F. H. Johnson.

These speakers were interspersed with music by the Bridgetown orchestra and several reels of good pictures presented by Bishop & Bishop, the enterprising proprietors of the theatre.

The evening's entertainment was in the form of a supper. Ice cream and cake were also served, the caterer being W. H. Maxwell.

In a closing address the mayor thanked all who had taken part in the proceedings, all who had assisted in welcoming home our returned boys from time to time and those who had rendered them every assistance possible during their absence. This was followed by the national anthem, bringing to a close a very appropriate programme.

One hundred and thirty invitations were sent to returned men. Many were absent, however, having resumed their former positions or accepted new ones, in various parts of Western Canada, the maritime provinces and elsewhere.

A meeting to complete the organization will be held in the Board of Trade Rooms next Monday evening at which a full attendance of all returned men is especially requested.

Extremes often meet, but seldom in so startling a way as a case reported from Calgary, where a whisky still, fully equipped, was discovered in a church, the sexton being the amateur distiller. A case of the spiritual and the spirituous joining hands.

THE POULTRY SHOW

One of the Most Successful Events Ever Held in New Glasgow

(From the New Glasgow Enterprise)

The curlers' rink never in its history looked better. The poultry show had transformed it from a bare, forbidding building to a thing of beauty and artistic merit. The decorations were worthy of the highest credit and praise. The artistic decorations of beautifully draped bunting, flags and other decorations had transformed it into a thing of beauty and a place of skill and art and joy attractions—a real beauty spot, bright, inspiring and refreshing.

The first thing that strikes the eye is the very attractive department of the Dominion Poultry Farm of Kentville, of which Messrs Harry Strong and J. G. Morgan were the representatives present, and we make bold to say, and are only speaking the truth when we say that no government anywhere has more efficient or more worthy practical men to advance the interests of the important industry they represent. Both men are of the highest and best types of representatives of any government institution. They were not there as figures heads. They were practical and energetic men who talked poultry and its importance, and who mingled with the crowd answering the many questions as to poultry, their keep, their feed, their housing, the modern methods of care and keeping, so as to get the best results and in short were real educators in all the details that go to make success in the poultry industry in every department. Poultry keeping in town and country. Poultry Feeds and Feeding. Poultry Killing and Keeping for market, etc. and in brief, giving information from their own expert experiences with poultry, the poultry industry in every way, and how to make it a pleasure and a profitable industry to all who go into it. They were the real thing and mingled among the throng, eager and ready to answer all questions and to give information to all. The model poultry houses they showed were really the best practical buildings we ever saw and suitable to the ordinary man who keeps fowl to perfection.

The demonstration of killing poultry and plucking them by Mr. Morgan, was worth in itself the whole show. It was marvellous in its celerity and efficiency and perfection.

The largest classes and varieties shown were the Barrel Rocks 70; White Rocks, 60; White Wyandottes, 80; Rhode Island Reds, 70; White Leghorns, 50; R. C. White Leghorns, 30; Buff Leghorns, 40; Brown Leghorns, 30; Minorcas, 30; Anconas, 25; Orpingtons, White, Black and Buff, 40.

(Messrs. Strong & Morgan's many friends here will vouch for all the New Glasgow Enterprise has said about them, for both of them believe that a job worth doing is worth doing well. We wish them continued success.—ED. MONITOR.)

R., Western lines, $888,250.00; Canadian Government Railways, $1,228,450.00. This is a remarkably good showing, as the total is made up mainly of small subscriptions. THAT CHANGE IN WOMAN'S LIFE

Mrs. Godden Tells How It May be Passed in Safety and Comfort.

Fromont, O.—"I was passing through the critical period of life, being forty-six years of age and had all the symptoms incident to that change—heat flashes, nervousness, and was in a general run down condition, so it was hard for me to do my work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me as the best remedy for my troubles, which it surely proved to be. I feel better and stronger in every way since taking it, and the annoying symptoms have disappeared." —Mrs. M. GODDEN, 925 Napoleon St., Fremont, Ohio.

MUSICAL TALKS

THE PIPE ORGAN

The Pipe Organ is without doubt the noblest of all instruments—the wonderful evolution of the centuries. This instrument is invested with such a dignity yet possessing such massive tones that no other instrument approaches.

The Pipe Organ originated in ancient Greece from the "Pan Pipes" which consisted of a series of whistles fastened together and blown by the mouth. These same pipes were afterwards placed on a wind box and supplied with air through a bellows. The number of pipes were increased and required more wind than the hand bellows could produce so a series of bellows were arranged and persons were engaged to walk upon them forcing in the air by their weight. Then a water system or hydraulic pressure was introduced then pneumatic and now electricity which is more powerful and enables quicker action, etc.

Now about the playing of these instruments. In the earlier days there being no keyboard, the fingers were placed over the pipes to stop the tone, afterward a slider was attached and these were pulled in and out at the base of the pipe to admit the air. Following this a key was devised, it being found easier to depress the key with a blow than to pull the slider which had great resistance.

The first keyboard had sixteen keys, each key 40 inches long and 3 inches wide. The performers were called organ beaters or smiters having to strike the key with the fist. Space will not allow to explain fully the gradual advancement and growth of the Pipe Organ, but it is most interesting.

The tone of the organ in its earlier stage was much more luscious than the present day organ. It is recorded that the pipe voices were so loud and strong that listeners could not venture near with uncovered ears. The modern pipe organ is known to all but its parts and its working method may not be so generally known. The kind of pipes are of the whistle or flute type also beating and free reeds. These are made to imitate orchestral instruments. The modern organ is capable of producing from the softest tone to the great power of a huge band.

The keyboard is known as the manual and in a large organ 5 smaller organs independent of each other may be combined, each smaller organ having a separate keyboard to itself, making a bank of keyboards above the other ranged before the player. The organist's hands are completely occupied and besides this he must be an expert in performing upon the pedals with his feet, the pedals compass being 30 notes.

All pipes are made of wood and metal (tin, lead and zinc) all the pipes are built in shape of huge whistles. The modern keyboard has fine complete octaves, the principal keyboard is called the "Great", the one above is the "Swell" the one below the "Choir", while the "Solo" is above the swell and the "Echo" is above that.

It is good for the music student when visiting a city to take every opportunity to hear good music of this kind, as an organ recital by a competent organist should create much interest.

Some people pride themselves upon hearing great organists and do not forget to boast about it, but listen to this: A visitor of pompous character going up to one of the attendants in Westminster Abbey said, "Will you please tell me who that is at the organ. I cannot tell by the touch if it is Sir Walter Parratt or Sir Frederick Bridge?" The attendant answered, "I beg your pardon, sir, that it is not either of them, it's the vacuum cleaner over in the corner."

San Francisco possesses one of the largest and finest organs in the world the organist is Frederic Lemare, the eminent English Organist whose salary is $10,000. Compare this with the Great Beethoven who was appointed second court organist at 150 florins ($63).

The organ is the most interesting part of a church property as judged from the standpoint of public interest. You may have stained glass windows, libraries and carved furniture in the church investment, but leave out the organ and what is the result—an immediate lack of interest. A good sincere, eloquent, devout pastor, a good choir, and a good organ means a prosperous church.

The Weather

All moods are due to weather. I often sadly think; when rain clouds get together they put me on the blink. They chafe my sunny spring, so you'd with me condole; they freeze, or pretty near it, the current of my soul. Outdoors it's raining, raining, with steadily beat and slow; the night wind is complaining of some uncharted woe. It tells of ghastly sorrows that long dead people knew, and hints that our tomorrows will all be lemons, too. And I have grim foreboding that evil is in store; disaster, stern corroding is waiting at the door. But now the dawn is breaking, the night has journeyed by; and I, from sleep awaking, behold a cloudless sky. And I am blithe and chipper, and happy as can be, as I pour down a dipper of fragrant wormwood tea. How could I be so silly, I ask, with great disdain; how could my feet grow chilly because of wind and rain? But when once more the torrent pours down from leaden skies, and when the winds ebberent fill all the night with sighs, the fancies will come to me as always they have come; and I'll be sad and gloomy, and sick and out of plumb.

Fifty Barrel Record

A correspondent writes the Berwick Register as follows: For the benefit of Mr. MacKinlay and others who may be sceptical regarding that fifty barrel apple record, we would like to assure them that it was no fake but a positive fact. On that particular day, the variety was Kings and Mr. Magee used a 17 foot ladder. The barrels were just good ordinary apple barrels.

We have been growing apples for 30 years and have never had them handled any better. No man who understands the business would have help in his orchard who fore the trees to pieces or handled the apples rough. In two days Mr Magee picked and headed 96 bbls of Blenheim, 4 of which packed 40 bbls. No 1's. This does not sound like handling turnips 1055 bbls. of our apples were picked by him in 30 days, 800 of these he opened and headed. There are other extra good pickers around here who picked 46 bbls a day a number of times and we were told also of one young lady who prepared dinner Thanksgiving Day for five men and picked 30 bbls of apples, a record for the ladies?

Many a girl marries a man simply to keep some other girl from getting him.

READ THIS RAPIDLY

The Story of Esau Wood and His Wood Saw

You can do queer things with the English language, as we have more than once given, examples to prove. Here is another puzzler from Capper's Weekly. It is easy enough to read it, but have it read aloud to you and see what you make of it. Esau Wood saved wood. Esau Wood would saw wood. All the wood Esau saw to saw Esau Wood would saw. In other words, all the wood Esau saw to saw Esau sought to saw.

Oh, the wood Wood would saw! And oh, the wood saw with which Wood would saw wood! But one day Wood's wood saw would saw no wood, and thus the wood Wood saw would saw not the wood Wood would saw if Woods wood saw would saw wood. Now, Wood would saw wood with a wood saw that would saw wood so Esau sought a saw that would saw wood.

One day Esau saw a saw saw wood as no other wood saw Wood would saw wood. In fact, of all the wood saw Wood ever saw saw wood Wood never saw a wood saw that would saw wood as the wood saw Wood saw wood would saw wood, and I never saw a wood saw that would saw as wood saw Wood saw would saw until I saw Esau Wood saw wood with the wood saw Wood saw wood.

Now Wood saws wood with the wood saw Wood saw wood. Oh, the wood the wood saw Wood saw would saw. Oh, the wood Wood's woodshed would shed when Wood would saw wood with the wood saw Wood saw wood.

Finally, no man knows how much wood the wood saw Wood would saw, if the wood saw Wood would saw, all the wood the wood saw Wood saw would saw.

Canada's Pipe Rating

At the present time Canada's rating on the New York money market stands higher than that of any foreign nation; and it is possible for her to obtain funds on that market on more favorable terms than any other country. The reason for this, as any financier will vouch, is Canada's increased production and the prosperity she has enjoyed by the sale of her surplus products at favorable prices in Great Britain and Europe. This vast system of marketing was effected through credits for which Victory Loan subscriptions provide the working capital. If for instance the public should turn an indifferent ear to the Victory Bond salesmen now at work, our prosperity and credit would be impaired, our production dwindle and everyone would feel the menace of poverty. There is good reason to hope that Canadians are awake to their responsibility and opportunity.

The allusion to Canada's high rating on Wall St. brings up another phase of the Loan question. While Canada can borrow abroad on more favorable terms than any other nation, it is not desirable that she should do so; for that would take large sums out of the country in annual interest payments. It would help build up the prosperity of the United States at our expense. It is much more expedient that Canadians should themselves be the lenders and that the interest should stay in the pockets of her own people. It is profitable for Wall St. to loan money to Canada if it is equally profitable for Canadians to loan money to their country.

We wish to call particular attention to Mr. J. I. Foster's new price list on page 5. His adv on page 2 is an old one.

We wish to call particular attention to the DeBl's auction advertisement which appears on page 2 of today's MONITOR, 7th column.

The annual December meeting of the Annapolis Rural Deacons is scheduled to take place in Bridgetown on Monday and Tuesday, Dec 1st and 2nd.

Everyone is interested in "Mickie". He certainly throws out some good hints. Read what he says. He appears in every issue of the MONITOR.

Mr. Charles F. DeWitt has sold out his interest in McKenzie Crowe Co to Mr. H. T. McKenzie. Mr. DeWitt has been a member of this firm for the past fifteen years.

John D. McDonald of Milton, Ont., has married his brother's mother in law, thereby becoming step-father of his sister in law, and incidentally, step father in law of his mother.

Mr. T. E. Smith, of Clarence, Annapolis County, informs the Berwick Register that he pulled a Purple Top Swede turnip, raised from home grown seed, that weighed 16 lbs 14oz, cleaned of top and roots. Who can beat it?

Mr. Bernard Dargie, of Belle Farm Carleton Corner, raised 900 bushels of turnips on 3/4 of an acre of measured land. He also has sugar beets measuring 23 1/2 inches in circumference and Blenheim apples measuring 13 inches.

Some of our up to date merchants are beginning their Christmas advertising, others are making arrangements to take large spaces. There are only five more issues of the MONITOR before Christmas. Why not get busy next week?

We wonder if it is possible to prevent the people from wadding their time and ours by sending letters to the MONITOR without signing their names. All such communications are immediately thrown into the waste basket.

We cannot understand why so many people neglect paying their newspaper subscriptions. It is only a small amount from each one, but 2,000 subs a year behind, puts $3,000 on our books which no concern can afford to carry annually. Think it over. Are you using us right?

The entertainment given under the auspices of the W. M. A. S. of the Baptist church on Tuesday evening, Nov 11th, proved a great success. The thank offering amounted to $81.00. The Cantata, which was one of the best ever held in this town, was repeated in the Baptist church Sunday evening to a very large congregation, and was very much enjoyed by all who were present.

The General Board of Missions of the Methodist Church in Canada, received last year in current income an increase of $168,226.18 over the preceding year. The W. M. S. also reported the largest increase in their history, which amount is not included in the report of the general board. The larger plans for foreign work call for the largest missionary budget this year in the history of the Church.

Dartmouth's New Methodist Church

The corner stones were laid on October 29, of the Dartmouth church, and Sunday school, the former by Lieut. Gov Grant and the latter by Rev. B. C. Borden, D. D. Rev. A. B. Higgins was assisted by Rev. E. B. Moore, R. G. Fulton and I. A. W. Nicholson, pastor of St. James' Presbyterian church. In the Greenvale school, the members of the church enjoyed a musical and literary programme, with addresses by Rev. I. W. Bartlett and Rev. R. G. Fulton. The work of building the church is progressing rapidly and it is hoped will be completed by Christmas.

A Good Example to Follow

In our last issue we published the very excellent programme given in the Primrose Theatre on the evening of Monday the 10th. On the following Wednesday evening, the performers very kindly gave the same programme privately in the Recreation Hall for the benefit of the inmates of our County Institutions. We would commend this act, of kindly thought in our midst and suggest that whenever they have a programme in hand they might well follow the example thus set.

ANOTHER VICTIM OF RHEUMATISM

Entirely Well After Six Weeks' Treatment With "FRUIT-A-LIVES"

MR. AMEDEO GARCEAU
32 Hickory St., Ottawa, Ont.

"I was for many years a victim of that terrible disease, Rheumatism. In 1913, I was laid up for four months with Rheumatism in the joints of the knees, hips and shoulders and was prevented from following my work, that of Electrician.

I tried many remedies and was under the care of a physician; but nothing did me any good. Then I began to take 'Fruit-a-lives' and in a week I was easier, and in six weeks I was so well I went to work again.

I look upon this fruit medicine, 'Fruit-a-lives', as simply marvellous in the cure of Rheumatism, and strongly advise everyone suffering with Rheumatism to give 'Fruit-a-lives' a trial."

A Horrible Tragedy Murderer Commits Suicide After His Terrible Deed

COLPTON, Lunenburg, November 10.—One of the most horrible tragedies ever perpetrated in the history of Nova Scotia, was enacted at this place, about eighteen miles from Bridgewater. A young woman was murdered and her assailant suicided.

An old lady is badly injured. Saturday night, Wilson Huey, aged forty-five years of age, called at the house of Mrs. Stewart Smith, a woman who lived with her young daughter, about a mile from the main road. Huey's wife was away in Bridgewater. He called at the Smith's house and asked if her eldest son was at home.

He carried a gun, but the women evidently were not afraid. Huey appeared to be perfectly sane, and sat there until nine o'clock. Mrs. Smith said: "It is our bed time now."

The man replied: "I suppose it is time for me to go."

The old lady said to him he could stay all night if he wished. He thanked them and the woman lit a lamp. They showed him to his room. The mother and daughter then retired.

Some time after midnight, the man went down stairs. The girl said to her mother: "What do you suppose he went down stairs for?"

Immediately Huey returned up stairs, coming to the door of the women's room. The mother sat up in bed, and said: "This is not your room." He raised the gun to his shoulder and fired at the mother. The bullet wounded her in the head, passing thru it and entering the wall. Both women sprang out of bed.

The man dropped his gun and seized the girl. The mother, who is about sixty years of age, was covered with fear. In her night clothes, with blood dripping at every step she ran out of the house, and started for the nearest neighbors. The old lady did not follow the road, but went thru the woods, up thru water to her waist, reaching the house in a naked condition, for her clothes had been torn off and she was utterly exhausted.

While the mother was gone, the girl, a beautiful brunette, about 18 years of age, put up a fight to preserve her honor. The death struggle took place in the lower hall, just inside of the front door. The wall woodwork was splintered, where the gun struck and where the murderer used it to batter out the girl's life. The hands of the girl were lacerated, her head smashed and her body bruised all over. The girl was heavily built and the fight was a terrible one. They wrestled in the dark hall, no one knows how long before the girl was killed. Her hair was loose for the night and was sticking into the wounds in her face.

It is supposed that after the girl's death the murderer went upstairs with the broken gun. Going into the bedroom where the lamp was still lighted he sat down on the floor, rested the gun against his face and fired, the bullet passing thru the top of his skull and the brains scattering on the ceiling and the walls in every direction.

Immediately after the mother reached the neighbor's house an attempt was made to get Bridgewater by telephone, but all the wires were down and it was necessary to drive to Newcombville for medical assistance as well as to get a warrant for the arrest of Huey.

At that time, the extent of the tragedy was not known. A delay was caused thru this wait and it was not until about seven o'clock Sunday morning that the doctor, the constable and several Bridgewater citizens, arrived on the scene. The body of the murdered girl was lying 'upside down' on the floor, blood everywhere, the floor and walls bearing mute testimony of the girl's awful fight for life and honor. Up the blood stained stairs lay the murderer in a pool of his own blood.

Margaret Smith was a great favorite and highly respected by all who knew her. She was ambitious and walked to the settlement to take music lessons, and stayed there on Saturday afternoon. She passed the railroad where Huey was employed as section man. He winked at her in passing, and she tossed her head in resentment. He made some remark to the section men that would indicate that his action was premeditated.

A brother of the girl worked in the lumber works and the other who was working at Halifax, arrived home tonight. There are surviving the mother, five sons and two daughters, the father having died about three weeks ago. One sister, Mary, is employed in a store in Halifax. The tragedy, the like of which was never known in this vicinity, has aroused the whole country.

Dr. Cole, of New Germany, held a coroner's inquest when a verdict in accordance with the facts was brought in.

FISH YARNS HERE'S ONE

No Matter How Good They Are There Is Always One Better

That is the worst of those fish stories—somebody always comes along with a better one.

Recently "The London Evening News" told the V A D's story of the frozen fish, that came to life in the cooking pot. Then a correspondent—a naval officer it should be said—put that to shame.

"An interesting experiment was tried some little time ago," he writes, "with an ordinary herring."

"The fish was put into a large bowl of salt water and every day a small quantity of the water was removed and an equal quantity of 'fresh' was substituted, until eventually the fish lived and thrived in purely fresh water.

"The owner was so pleased with the success of his experiment that he then tried removing a very small quantity of water daily until the bowl was empty and found that the herring did excellently, entirely without water, and as he was so lively in the empty bowl he had to put him in a cage.

"Here he lived happily, hopping from perch to perch just like a bird, until one day some sudden noise startled him and he fell into his water trough and—was drowned!"

Real Live Testimonial

Given to Professor Hamilton, Hampton, N. S.

Victoria Beach, N. S., Nov. 14th, 1919

To Prof. B. S. HAMILTON: Six months ago I was taken sick, was treated by doctors which pronounced it ulcers of the stomach and I was getting worse every day. My stomach was so weak I could not keep one thing on it, not even a teaspoonful of milk. Would vomit every thing up and feel I was in a dying condition. My life was short if I could not find aid. I was confined to my bed for four months. Hearing of Prof. Hamilton, we called him and he pronounced it a very bad case of abscesses of the stomach and said I could live three weeks in that condition. After five days' treatment I was able to get out of bed and to eat. It is now five weeks and I have been restored from a living skeleton to a former self again. Under Prof. Hamilton's treatment I have gained 20 lbs. and able to eat my three meals a day. Prof. Hamilton has saved my life when doctors had failed and every one thought I could not live. I highly recommend the Professor to all sick and suffering who desire health.

Editing a Newspaper

Editing a newspaper is a pleasant business if you can stand it. It contains any advertisements the subscribers claim they take too much space.

If we are on the streets much they say we neglect our business. If we avoid going on the street, they say we don't hustle around after news.

If we reject a long winded communication its author becomes furiously enraged and discontinues his paper.

If we publish lengthy communications our subscribers say we lack discretion, and put it in to fill up.

If we omit to decorate our office window on king's birthday, they say we lack enterprise and that there isn't a drop of patriotic blood in our degenerated carcass.

If we omit jokes, they say we are poor, miserable fossils.

If we are single they say we are too hopeless to get married.

If we are married, they say it's a pity for our wives.

If we publish a man who has brought disgrace upon his family, the friends of the family never forgive us.

If we, out of goodness of heart, decline to say anything on the subject, the man's enemies are disappointed and we are branded as white livered cowards.

We are liable to receive these rans and many more, and we are always ready to receive visitors.

Whether accompanied by dogs or not, of course we do not claim there is any work in running a newspaper. Everybody knows it's a snap.

Bad as Stealing

The person who finds an article and retains it after it has been advertised for, is in the eyes of the law, as well as morally as guilty as a person who commits a deliberate theft.

More commits a deliberate theft. More over the person who finds a thing of any value and does not make an effort to find the owner is dishonest. Keeping a thing you find, when the owner may be discovered is as bad as stealing it.

TONIC TREATMENT FOR THE NERVES

Neuralgia and Other Severe Nervous Disorders Cured Through the Blood.

In many severe nervous disorders the best remedy is often a tonic. The most active tonic treatment is recommended by the highest medical authority to arrest the progress of such disease.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a tonic that acts on the nerves the elements needed to build them up and restore them to a normal condition.

Neuralgia, sciatica, nervous headaches and a number of more severe nervous troubles are properly treated by building up the blood with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and are often entirely cured in this way.

If you are nervous you can help yourself by refusing to worry, by taking proper rest and sleep, by avoiding excesses and by taking out-of-door exercise.

For medicinal take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and you will soon notice the beneficial effect of this tonic in every part of the system.

Miss Annie L. Johnston, R. R. No. 1, Listowel, Ont., is one of the numerous sufferers from nervous troubles who has found a cure through Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Miss Johnston says: "For a long time I was a severe sufferer from nervous troubles, with the result that I grew very pale and weak. Medical treatment did not help me, and various medicines had no beneficial effect until finally a friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

I began their use and took the pills regularly for several months, with the result that I not only gained in weight, but have recovered my full health and strength. I cannot praise Dr. Williams' Pink Pills too highly for what they have done for me."

To build up the blood there is one remedy that has been a household word for a generation, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

They tone up the entire system, make the blood rich and red, strengthen the nerves, increase the appetite, put color in the cheeks and lips and drive away that unnatural, tired feeling. Plenty of sunlight, good wholesome food and fresh air will do the rest.

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

An Important Event

First Annual Nova Scotia Egg Laying Contest

The first Nova Scotia Annual Egg Laying Contest has been inaugurated at the Agricultural College, and consists of 30 pens of fowls, mostly pullets. The contest began on Saturday, November 1st, and continues until September 30th, 1920.

To learn how to increase the yield is the real purpose of this contest. It will also show vigor and vitality in the different flocks represented in the contest.

The average production of the hens in Nova Scotia, according to the last census, is about 80 eggs per hen. This perhaps does not, at the present prices of feed, any more than maintain the fowl for a year.

An increase of 10 to 15 eggs per hen for the 1st selection, 2nd, from the most productive breeds from the most productive layers, and 3rd, from proper feeding formulas worked out thru long experiences so as to produce eggs, and 4th, from proper housing, with due regard to cleanliness, fresh air, and pure water, would result in an immense economic gain to the farmers and poultrymen of the province.

The interest in the entries as received has become very keen, and a number of breeders who have entered are staking their reputation upon their pen coming out of the contest at the head of the list.

The following is a list of entries and breeders represented in the first annual contest. These contest pens are not open to the public, but may be visited from outside of the pens by those who are interested. Weekly reports will appear giving full details, and information can be obtained from the manager of the poultry department, Agricultural College, relative to any or any of the pens in the contest.

JELICOE URGES PREPAREDNESS ON SEA

British Admiral Says Warships Should Be Provided for Overseas Dominions

VICTORIA, B. C., November 12.—"To my mind, the British Navy should not be kept short of overseas squadrons. I believe that the Empire as a whole realizes the imperative necessity of maintaining the most distant Dominions. We must see to it that our overseas naval forces are never again permitted to be as they were prior to the war."

"It is due to those gallant souls that were given to the Empire in its hour of peril that such a condition should not exist again."

This declaration was made last night before the Canadian Club, Viscount Jellicoe, of Scapa Flow, summed up the lesson which the great Admiral believed had been taught the British Commonwealth by the experiences of the war.

He asserted that the people of British Columbia were justified in their anxiety during the early months of the war, knowing that Admiral Von Speer's squadron was off the coast and that the protection against them was inadequate. He held that the fears of other portions of the Empire, based on the same conditions, also were warranted. He contended that it was the plain duty of the Empire to see that preparedness on the sea in relation to the Overseas Dominions was no longer an issue to be toyed with.

"I know that Great Britain is hard up," he said. "I know that the Dominions, too, are hard up, but I don't believe that the Empire feels so hard up that it cannot keep up an efficient navy."

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrup. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. In buying Shoddy you waste your money and risk your health. I never handle Shoddy at any price.
