REV. FATHER MURPHY ON TEMPERANCE.

The following able address on Temperance was delivered by the Rev. Father James Murphy of Wlaktow, Ireland, at the St. Bridget's Society's Concert on Monday night week, which, owing to want of space we were unable to give with our notice of the Concert last week...

"This is the origin in its simplest form of tenant-right as accepted in my family for 300 years, and with lasting benefit to landlord and tenant. The force of equity will be evident from the reflection that this tenant-right represents the essential element in the continued security which the tenant's military service gave to the lord for the enjoyment of the land which his labors had recovered from waste and bog."

emigration of 1873 was unusually large exceeding any year since 1866. If we examine the statistics of the last six years we may well feel anxious as to the steady diminution of the aboriginal population of Ireland.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Mr. Gladstone and Disestablishment.—The Non-conformist, in a leading article, says:—A rumour has reached us that Mr. Gladstone entertains an idea of using his great political influence next session to bring about the disestablishment of the Scotch Church.

At a meeting of Liberal members of Parliament at which 137 gentlemen were present, the Marquis of Hartington was unanimously chosen to take Mr. Gladstone's place.

The very protest of indifference in which the newspapers indulge, in regard to the action of the Holy See, is one of the greatest proofs of the extreme unchristianity with which the world is at present regarding it.

FATAL AND MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—An accident of a fatal and melancholy nature occurred on Wednesday and to a farmer named Tracy, residing at Kiltinan, within a few miles of Listowel.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.—On Saturday a respectable farmer, named Kelly, living at Thomastown, near Parsonstown, left town for home rather late in the evening.

THE COLORADO BEETLE.—The Freeman of Monday writes:—It is our painful duty to draw public attention to a danger of extraordinary magnitude and importance which at this moment threatens Ireland.

PROTESTANT ALLIANCE.—We are gratified to be informed, in the address of the Committee for 1875, that the conflict with Popery has taken a decisive turn, and that now is the time for the Christian people of this country to take their full part in Scriptural and constitutional efforts for the overthrow of that system.

English workmen as well as employers in many of the leading industries are alarmed at the successful competition of Belgian products with their own. It is asserted that present distress in some of the English coal and iron districts is due to this competition.

portation enable both classes to prosper there, against English activity and skill. The Mining National Union first broached the project and the conciliation and arbitration boards of Staffordshire and Yorkshire, in both the iron and coal trades, are joining in the movement.

The London Telegraph compliments its countrymen by saying:—The most loyal, the most cowardly, the most pitiless, the most barbarous deeds done in the world are perpetrated by the lower classes of English people.

CATHOLIC STATISTICS FOR 1875.—We gather from the Catholic Directory for the new year some interesting details concerning the Catholic community in Great Britain, dividing England and Wales into 13 dioceses and Scotland into three dioceses.

The Marquis of Bute has handed through Mr. Russell Thomson £5 to each of the leading Protestant clergymen of Rotherham for the poor of their respective congregations.

DEATH OF A FORMER PROPRIETOR OF THE "NATION" NEWSPAPER.—On Monday, the 4th of January, we were informed the mortal remains of Mr. John Vincent McGrath, in the Catholic portion of the cemetery at Huddersfield.

MR. EUGENE COLLINS, M.P., ON RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION.—Speaking at a meeting of Catholics in Derby on Monday evening, Mr. Eugene Collins, M.P., remarked that few questions in the present day were of such vital and paramount importance as that of education.

UNITED STATES.

The difficulties in the way of enforcing the compulsory education law appear to be making themselves felt very generally. The existing school accommodations are not sufficient for the children who would voluntarily make use of them, and in many quarters there seems to be no provision made for increasing them.

THE FRENCH FEMALE SMUGGLER.—New York, Jan. 22.—The famous French smuggler, Madame Lucie Léonide Javrin, the Paris dressmaker, sentenced by Judge Benedict to three months' imprisonment and to pay $2,000, has been placed in Ludlow Street Jail. She receives almost every attention and comfort that money can command.

IRISH INTELLIGENCE.

ENLARGEMENT OF MAYNOOTH COLLEGE.—Cardinal Cullen has issued an address exhorting the Catholics of Ireland to support the proposed enlargement of Maynooth College. He says that as long as the college was partly supported by the State it was an anomaly to appeal to the liberality of individuals for the means which, in principle as well as in policy, ought plainly to be supplied from the public funds.

HOME RULE IN DUNGAUNON.—In the famous town, consecrated by great national memories, which Irishmen of all creeds take pride in, there was held a Home Rule meeting on New Year's Day. Professor Galbraith proposed the first resolution, which said that "we are assembled here to-day to affirm the declaration made in Dungannon on the 15th of February, 1782, by the representatives of the Volunteer Associations of Ireland."

NATIONAL EDUCATION IN IRELAND.—Replying to a proposition from the General Assembly of the Irish Presbyterian Church, who waited on him on Tuesday to present a memorial against denominational education, the Lord-Lieutenant promised to represent the views of his visitors to the government, and said he was confident that it would preserve the fundamental principle of national education in Ireland.

FLOODS IN THE COUNTY WEXFORD.—On Saturday morning the valley of Slane appeared completely inundated, and has been converted into an immense lake, extending from the town to within a few miles of Wexford. Such a flood has not been seen in this neighbourhood for a long time.

IMPORTANT LAND CASE.—At the Tullamore Land Sessions, a case in which a point of importance was involved, came on for hearing before the chairman. It was a land claim for £24, brought by Richard W. Townsend against King and others for an exhausted manure, permanent buildings, and reclaiming waste land.

EMIGRATION.—It is a somewhat serious consideration that about seventy or eighty thousand persons emigrate annually from Ireland; about two-fifths of whom are women. According to the report of the Registrar-General the number of persons who left Ireland during the ten months ending the 30th Oct. 1874, was 68,225, of whom 36,411 were men, and 31,814 were women.

At a large meeting of magistrates of the county Westmeath, held in Mullingar, on Tuesday, the Earl of Longford presiding, a resolution was unanimously passed to the effect that it was desirable for the protection of all classes that the special proclamation under the Peace Preservation Act, and the Protection of Life and Property Act should be continued in the county of Westmeath.

The Ulster Echo of Jan. 5 says:—"We have heard it stated on good authority that the Government has abandoned the idea of establishing denominational training schools in Ireland. Whether this is one of the first fruits of Mr. Gladstone's pamphlet on the Vatican decrees we know not."

ITALY.

Rome, Feb. 5.—The special despatch from Rome says that efforts have been made in ecclesiastical circles to ascertain whether the Austrian Government is inclined to support Cardinal Rauscher's election to the Papacy.

SWITZERLAND.

Basle, Feb. 5.—The pass to which religious matters have come in "the home of the free," Switzerland, may be gathered from the fact that the St. Imier correspondent of the Liberte announced, as a matter for the greatest jubilation, that they actually had a priest there to say Mass on the preceding Sunday!

GERMANY.

Frankfurt, Feb. 5.—The well-known Frankfurt Democratic Journal points out, in an elaborately-written paper, the danger now menacing Europe, and which is the necessary consequence of the present system of armed peace inaugurated by Germany.

Resolutions of the Prussian Diet.—One result of the persecution of religious and political "free thought" and "modern enlightenment" in Prussia is felt by the Protestant pastors, who complain loudly of the diminution of their incomes caused by the sudden falling off in baptisms and religious marriages.

Views Concerning the Armed Peace.—The well-known Frankfurt Democratic Journal points out, in an elaborately-written paper, the danger now menacing Europe, and which is the necessary consequence of the present system of armed peace inaugurated by Germany.

German Trade.—The Cologne Gazette speaks in uneasy terms of the depressed state of trade in the country, of the excessive rise in wages, which is momentary and spasmodic, of the strikes, the expensive habits, and the general decadence of industrial life, which are becoming characteristics of Germany.

The London Times of the 18th ult., devotes an editorial to the consideration of the alarming prospects presented by the general armament of the great Continental Powers of Europe.

In the gloom that surrounds us one thing is perceptible. All men are arming themselves. It is the darkness that may be felt, and the sensation is not imaginary. At the word of command, Germany is arming en masse, and the surrounding nations—that is, the best part of the world—cannot but do as she does.

A divorce case has been instituted by a Chicago wife, who complains that her husband insists upon drinking cheap whiskey and eating raw onions just before bed time.

According to the Examiner and Chronicle a dozen or more of the Brooklyn Protestant churches situated on the Heights are "gasping for breath" in other words, are suffering greatly from the falling off of their attendants.

THE ARCHBISHOP OF TORONTO ON THE BIBLE

Florence, at which the Greek prelates assisted, and they would not have received that canon had it not been already accepted by their entire church. This last canon is in every way conformable to that issued by Galasius I. in his decree (Saucta Romana) on this subject 494, A. D. This again is absolutely the famous Innocentian canon, (Epistola iii) sent by that Pontiff to Exuperius, (Of St. Augustine speaks about A. D. 400) in his work De Doctrina Christiana, book ii.

The canon of the Council of Trent was therefore in every way conformable to, was in fact a reproduction of the canon which, from the earliest time, was venerated and followed by the church both in Europe, Asia, and Africa.

The canon of the Latin Church was also received by the Eastern Church as we read in the minutes of the council of Constantinople held A. D. 682 by Parthenius the Archbishop and patriarch, in which Cyril Lucar, the pre-decessor of Parthenius, was condemned for presuming to expunge from the Greek canon those books looked upon as Apocrypha by the Calvinists.

D. 682 by Parthenius the Archbishop and patriarch, in which Cyril Lucar, the pre-decessor of Parthenius, was condemned for presuming to expunge from the Greek canon those books looked upon as Apocrypha by the Calvinists.

Now for the Protestant canon of Scripture who made it up? Was it an infallible authority? Was it such that there could rest no doubt as to the divine inspiration of those books which they retained, or the want of inspiration in those which they rejected?

In our next lecture we will continue this most vital question, dealing however more especially with the particular books excluded by Protestants, and with few of their more flagrant mistranslations of the text.

A supposed murder has been cleared up at West Bromwich in a fashion which deserves record among the curiosities of circumstantial evidence. Nearly 18 months ago a Birmingham (Eng) man named George Cooksey went to America with his brother.

appearance of his companion. He was arrested and committed to take his trial for the murder of Cooksey, whose body it was said he had disposed of. His trial was fixed for February. For some unknown reason a communication was sent to England, and information of the facts having reached West Bromwich, the police discovered, last Saturday, the supposed murdered man living in that town.

How One Woman Baffles Another.—A woman writes in the Boston Globe: "One day on the trip up, when reading a magazine, my attention was attracted by the glitter of a gold bracelet, which look where I would, flashed before my eyes, and further scrutiny revealed the fact that the young lady who wore it was particularly anxious that I should be attracted by it, and to further her design began cutting the leaves of her magazine with a silver fruit knife."

politeness sincere as they are, are absurd enough to be grotesque. A common mistake of this sort, with some persons, even in large cities, is to say, "Excuse my glove," when they offer the hand to a casual acquaintance, or on introduction to a stranger.

Excuse My Glove.—Certain kinds of mistaken politeness sincere as they are, are absurd enough to be grotesque. A common mistake of this sort, with some persons, even in large cities, is to say, "Excuse my glove," when they offer the hand to a casual acquaintance, or on introduction to a stranger.

Apples For Cows.—The Newburyport Herald says anxious that farmers should overcome their prejudice against feeding apples to cows. It argues that although a cow, if let loose among heaps of apples, will spend her whole time and energy in eating them, she will increase her milk and the quantity and quality of her butter.

Influence of Newspapers.—Says Daniel Webster: Small is the sum that is required to patronize a newspaper, and amply rewarded is its patron. I care not how humble and unpretending the gazette which he takes. It is next to impossible to fill a sheet with printed matter without putting into it something that is worth the subscription price.

Grapes In California.—The Sacramento Union expresses the belief that at $10 per ton and ten tons per acre grapes are probably the most profitable crop that can be cultivated in California.

A German forest keeper, 62 years of age, was wishing to carry to the grave, with him, an important secret, has published in the Leipzig Journal, an account of his adventures, and of the manner in which he has saved several men and a great number of animals from a horrible death by hydrophobia. The bite must be bathed as soon as possible with warm vinegar and water, and when this has dried, a few drops of muriatic acid poured upon the wound will destroy the poison of the saliva, and relieve the patient from all present or future danger.

FELONS AND RUSTY NAILS.—Elder Evans, a Shaker, says: "For the past 10 years we have treated felons with hot water, and with unerring success. No cutting, no blistering, no anything, but immersing the finger, hand, or even the whole arm if necessary, in water as hot as can be borne, until the pain is gone and the core is loosened, and drawn from the bone. When rusty nails have produced wounds, the same course has been pursued. If on hand or foot, keep it in hot water."

A gentleman was looking into the window of a toy store the other day in Detroit, when two boys halted, and one remarked: "Says, Jim, don't you wish we had ten cents to buy a present for our poor lame sister?" Jim replied that he did, and the gentleman pulled out a shilling and said he was glad to be able to assist them in such a praiseworthy enterprise.

Meats.—The best roasting piece of beef is the sirloin; then rib roast; then rump of beef. Beef is much better to be hung up a few days, which makes it more tender. It should be washed and wiped before dressing. Twenty minutes of time to each pound of meat is a good rule for roasting.

There is a man at Haverhill, Mass., who claims to have traded horses thirty-seven times and cheated the other man every time, and yet when his wife died the other day he promised to meet her in Heaven.

PAY NO MORE FEES. QUACKS CONFOUNDED. Rheumatism and Gout have heretofore been considered by the ordinary practicing physicians as incurable diseases, and the query has often been propounded, of what benefit to the helpless sufferer is all their pretended science, and what doth it avail.

READ WHAT THE PEOPLE SAY. MONTREAL, 21st March, 1871. Messrs. DEVINS & BOLTON: Dear Sirs—I with pleasure concede to the Agents wish that I give my endorsement to the immediate relief I experienced from a few doses of Dr. Miller's Diamond Rheumatic Cure, having been a sufferer from the effects of Rheumatism, I am now after taking two bottles of this medicine, entirely free from pain.

MONTREAL, 17th March, 1874. Messrs. DEVINS & BOLTON: Gentlemen—I have suffered much with rheumatism, so much so that I was obliged to stay at home a certain time. I heard Mr. O'Neill, of the St. Lawrence Hall, speaking of your remedy, which he did with great kindness. To my great surprise that bottle has cured me entirely, and I never felt better in my life.

Toronto, March 30, 1874. Dear Sir—After suffering for the past two years with Rheumatism, I can truly say that, after using two bottles of the DIAMOND RHEUMATIC CURE, I find myself free from that terrible disease. I have used all kinds of remedies and Doctor's prescriptions without end, but your simple remedy surpasses all. The effect upon me was like magic. I take great pleasure in recommending your medicine to all.

Toronto, March 30, 1874. This medicine is prepared by a careful experienced and conscientious physician, in obedience to the desire of numberless friends in the profession, in the trade and among the people. Every bottle is warranted to contain the full strength of the medicine in its highest state of purity and development, and is superior to any medicine ever compounded for this terrible complaint.

To Nervous Sufferers. Dr. J. Bell Simpson's Specific and Tonic Pills, the Great English Remedy for all nervous debility from whatever cause arising, have already been thoroughly tested in Canada as to require little to be said in their favor.
