The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

D. B. Weldon Library
University of Western Ontario
(Regional History Room)

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

D. B. Weldon Library
University of Western Ontario
(Regional History Room)

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

THE REDEMPTION.

A SACRED TRILOGY by CHARLES GOUNOD.

THE name of Gounod is so intimately associated with the stage, and especially with "Faust,"—one of the finest operas ever written—that many expressed their surprise when they heard, a few years ago, that he had written a sort of oratorio or "sacred trilogy," which he called "opus vita mea." But Gounod always paid much attention to religious matters. He studied theology in his youth, and for a time seriously contemplated becoming a priest.

The first work of his which was performed in public—at a Hullah Concert in London, 1851—was a fragment of a Mass; and he has composed various other sacred works. How much importance he attached to the "Redemption" is apparent from the fact that he called it the work of his life. In a note appended to the score he says: "It was during the autumn of the year 1867 that I first thought of composing a musical work on the "Redemption." I wrote the words at Rome, where I passed two months of the winter 1867-1868 with my friend Hebert, the celebrated painter, at that time director of the Academy of France. Of the music I then composed only two fragments: 1. The March to Calvary in its entirety. 2. The opening of the first division of the third part, the Pentecost. Twelve years afterwards I finished this work, which had so long been interrupted, with a view to its being performed at the Festival at Birmingham in 1882."

The contents of the "Redemption" are thus summed up by Gounod: "This work is a lyrical setting forth of the three great facts on which depends the existence of the Christian Church. These facts are: 1. The Passion and the Death of the Saviour. 2. His glorious life on earth from His Resurrection to His Ascension. 3. The spread of Christianity in the world through the mission of the Apostles. These three parts of the present trilogy are preceded by a Prologue on the Creation, the fall of our first parents, and the promise of a Redeemer."

The words were arranged by the composer himself, and the English translation is by the Rev. J. Troutbeck. It will be noticed that the recitative and choral parts predominate over the solo parts. In the choruses the voices generally move along together, and there is little polyphonic interweaving of parts. The orchestral score is rich in interesting modulations and varied tints. The experienced opera composer is betrayed in the fact that those numbers which have a dramatic subject are more successful than the purely ecclesiastic parts.

The "Redemption" was received with great enthusiasm when first produced in England—under Gounod's direction in 1882,—and it has since then repeatedly been given in various European countries, as well as in almost every city of important musical pretensions in America.

THE FALL.

RECIT.—[NARRATOR (TENOR).]

O Lord, when Thou didst rest from the work of creation,
 Thou didst call very good the things which Thou hast made :
 Of the works of Thy hands, by Thy predestination,
 Was the father of men appointed to be head :
 And he, placed in the land of abundance and beauty,
 Lived a pure happy life, under guidance of Duty ;
 And at length, of decay and of death knowing nought,
 While in slumber infolded, would have been heavenward caught.

RECIT.—[NARRATOR (BASS).]

But since he, in revolt, blindly refused to hearken
 To Thy divine command, that which Thou wouldst have done,
 The deep shadow of death did his life newly darken,
 As the shadow of sin on our faith has been thrown ;
 And to man heaven was closed. Not by blood flowing often
 Could mankind ever hope the Lord's anger to soften.

RECIT.—[NARRATOR (TENOR).]

But of the spotless Lamb whom Thy love doth provide,
 All the types incomplete shall be now set aside ;
 Thou by Thyself, O God, wilt accomplish this wonder,
 So filling up the gulf which earth and heaven doth sunder :
 In our flesh One will come, to be born and to die,
 To prevail over death, exalting man on high.
 Thy blessed Son hath said :

CHORUS.—[CELESTIAL CHOIR.]
 The earth is my possession :
 I leave my heavenly home
 To atone for transgression :
 O My Father, lo I come !

Part First.

No. 1.—CALVARY.

RECIT.—[NARRATOR (BASS).]

Then is Jesus condemned ; and they bind Him, and they mock
 Him, on the head do they smite Him, in His face even spitting ;
 the blood is also gushing out beneath the scourge. Then, when His tormenters ended their insult, He said, upon them casting a look sad and sweet :

SOLO.—[JESUS.]

If my deeds have been evil, bear ye witness against Me; if indeed I am guiltless, then wherefore smite ye Me?

RECIT. [NARRATOR (BASS).]

When the hour was at hand, the Lord with resignation
Went forth up to the mount, as a sinner to die.
For us gave He Himself as a willing oblation,
That in His holy blood, man, by a new creation,
Might again be invested with grace from on high,
And at last might attain to eternal salvation.

MARCH TO CALVARY.

[ORCHESTRA, SOLI, AND CHORUS.]

Forth the Royal Banners go,
Before our eyes appearing;
The Cross, in mystic glow,
Is power and love declaring;
To make us free doth One its bondage know;
As Man, the Lord Himself the weight of sin is bearing.

RECIT.—[NARRATOR (BASS).]

And while Jesus went up the Mount, and bore His cross, there followed after women, who wept and bewailed Him:

SEMI-CHORUS.

Alas! they go then to put Him to death; it must be the Just One will perish. Behold, how He has fallen, a second time has fallen!

RECIT.—[NARRATOR (BASS).]

And the Lord heard their words, and, turning to them, spake thus:

SOLO.—[JESUS.]

Ye daughters of Israel, weep ye not for Me, but weep ye for yourselves, and weep ye for your children. Jerusalem is faithless found.

CHORUS.

Forth the Royal Banners go,
Before our eyes appearing;
The Cross, in mystic glow,
Is power and love declaring:
To make us free doth One its bondage know;
As Man, the Lord Himself the weight of sin is bearing.

No. 2.—THE CRUCIFIXION.

RECIT.—[NARRATOR (TENOR).]

Behold, when they are come to the place appointed, they extend on the Cross the Saviour's sacred limbs. He, though His eyes are dim with more than mortal anguish, yet turns on them a gaze full of divine compassion. From His feet, from His hands, that are torn by the nails, the blood drops on the ground.

RECIT.—[NARRATOR (BASS).]

Then with words they blaspheme Him, with looks do they deride, unrestrained is their fierceness. The passers-by come near to behold what is done.

CHORUS.—[THE PASSERS-BY.]

Ha! Thou that dost declare Thou destroyest the temple, Thou that canst in three days build it again, hast Thou not power to save Thyself? Canst thou not now come down? Save Thyself! Son of God, come Thou down from the Cross.

RECIT.—[NARRATOR (BASS).]

The priests, hearing the cries, with mocking voices said :

CHORUS.—[THE PRIESTS.]

Can He not save Himself, He, the Saviour of others? See Him there! None to help, not a friend, no disciples. Is He King of the Jews? Let him show it to-day. If He be the Son of God, let His Father give ear, and release Him. Behold, let Him now come down from the Cross, and at once we believe on Him.

RECIT.—[NARRATOR (TENOR).]

And the Lord, in His love for mankind never failing.
On behalf of His slayers for pardon implores.

SOLO.—[JESUS.]

Pardon their sin, my Father, for they do not know what they do.

CHORUS.

O My Vineyard, come tell me why thy grapes are bitter. What have I done, My people? Wherein hast thou been wronged? Did I not bring thee out from the land of the stranger? Made I thee not to pass through the depths of the sea? Sent I not food from heaven, and gave meat in abundance? Did manna ever cease till thou camest to Canaan? Reply, unthankful race! And thou, for all this love preparest Me the Cross whereupon I shall die.

No. 3.—MARY AT THE FOOT OF THE CROSS.

RECIT.—[NARRATOR (TENOR).]

And Jesus then, as down on the ground He was looking, saw at the foot of the Cross the disciple whom He loved ; the same that on His breast at supper had reclined. Near unto him He saw His Virgin Mother. On her bent He an eye full of tender regard ; and, showing filial love unto her who had borne Him, He said :

SOLO.—[JESUS.]

“ Woman, behold thy son !”

RECIT.—[NARRATOR (TENOR).]

Then speaking unto John, He said :

SOLO.—[JESUS.]

“ Behold thy mother !”

RECIT.—[NARRATOR (TENOR).]

And the disciple took her that day to his home ; her, as the sacred trust of an eternal love.

QUARTETTE AND CHORUS.

Beside the Cross remaining,
A face the Mother wears
Unresisting, uncomplaining,
And yet the grief she bears
Her heart in sunder tears.

Though He claim adoration,
On the Cross Jesus hangs ;
Her soul, past consolation,
Knowing but lamentation.
Has a share in his pangs.

SOLO.—[MARY.]

While my watch I am keeping,
Ye that go by sinners,
Gaze at the Mother weeping,
Torn by anguish unsleeping ;
Ask if any one bears
Any grief like to hers.

CHORAL.

While her watch she is keeping,
Ye that go by, sinners,
Gaze at the Mother weeping,
Torn by anguish unsleeping :
Ask if any one bears
Any grief like to hers.

No. 4.—THE TWO THIEVES.

RECIT.—[NARRATOR (BASS).]

While the crowd at their feet was gathering to view, from one of the thieves did railing proceed, and to Jesus he said, crying out and blaspheming :

SOLO.—[THE IMPENITENT THIEF (BASS).]

Thou canst not be the Christ, else wouldst Thou save us all ; first Thyself, us then likewise.

RECIT.—[NARRATOR (TENOR).]

The other replied :

SOLO.—[THE PENITENT THIEF (TENOR).]

Ah ! and fearest thou not, inasmuch as thou art in the same condemnation ? For that which we have done a due reward we suffer. As for Him who hangs here with us, wherein hath He offended, what hath He done amiss ?

SOLO.—[THE PENITENT THIEF (TENOR).]

Then he turned towards Jesus a look as of hope, and said :

SOLO.—[THE PENITENT THIEF (TENOR).]

O Lord wilt Thou remember me when Thou comest in Thy Kingdom ?

RECIT.—[NARRATOR (TENOR).]

And the Lord was touched by the faith in pardon which he showed, and turning to him, spake thus :

SOLO.—[JESUS.]

In very truth say I to thee, to-day shalt thou be with Me in Paradise.

CHORAL.

Lord Jesus, Thou to all bringest light and salvation.
The man that trusts in Thee over death will prevail ;
And, though he die, in Thee will find his restoration.
O Saviour true, O mighty God, Thy Name we hail.

SOLO.—[JESUS.]

My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken Me ?

RECIT.—[NARRATOR (TENOR).]

When at the last, the shadow of death was descending, raising His eyes to Heaven, with a loud voice He cried :

SOLO.—[JESUS.]

THE EARTHQUAKE.

RECIT.—[THE NARRATORS.]

And then the air was filled with a murmur unwonted, as if Nature herself for her Lord were lamenting ; and the veil of the Temple was rent in twain throughout, and the rocks were rent, and the earth did quake, and the tombs were unclosed ; and many of the saints that had fallen asleep rose again with their bodies ; and they, after His resurrection coming forth, to the city returned, and by many were seen.

No. 2.—THE HOLY WOMEN AT THE SEPULCHRE.

RECIT.—[NARRATOR (TENOR).]

Now when the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalen, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, came bringing spices wherewith to annoint Him; and they came to the tomb of the Master whom they loved. Day was dawning, as on their lonely way they were going, their hearts full of the thought of their sweet ministration. They as they went said to themselves :

TRIO.—[THE HOLY WOMEN.]

How shall we by ourselves have strength to roll away the stone from the tomb? Is there no one who will aid us? Who will look on our distress?

RECIT.—[NARRATOR (TENOR).]

The newly risen sun with his life-giving rays the hill of Calvary was gilding, ere these devoted women had arrived at the tomb. To the threshold at once they directed their eyes, and they saw the stone rolled away from the entrance to the tomb. Behold, one that in face was like unto lightning, and was arrayed in dazzling apparel, stood at their side, as they thought thereupon. When the Angel appeared, the women were affrighted. Then said the Angel to them :

SOLO.—[THE ANGEL.]

Why seek ye the living amongst the dead? Are the words of the Lord now no longer remembered? But let your hearts be glad, and full of comfort. Ye are seeking the Lord, but He is risen again; behold the very place where His body was laid. His sacred limbs themselves have these grave-clothes been swathing. But depart, and tell his disciples He goeth into Galilee, according as He said; there shall ye see Him again.

And behold, as they went on their way, the Lord Himself unto them came, and said, when He appeared :

SOLO.—[JESUS.]

All hail! Blessed are ye women. All the things ye have done, all the tears you have been shedding, signs of a faithful love, have their reward in Heaven. Be not afraid, but go, tell ye My brethren they shall see Me, and they shall then sorrow no longer. Depart quickly, and say to them that ye have this day seen the Lord.

RECIT.—[NARRATOR (TENOR).]

And they fell at His feet, and holding them, they worshipped : and the Lord disappeared. The women then arose and continued their journey.

No. 4.—THE SANHEDRIN.

RECIT.—[THE NARRATORS.]

Now when these things were done, lo, the watchers came to the city, they that till morning guarded the tomb ; and they told to the priests all the things they had witnessed.

CHORUS.—[SOLDIERS OF THE WATCH.]

Christ is risen again. Vainly we kept a watch. Lo, the tomb open stands. This in truth is a sign. Jesus Christ, He whom some as a prophet regarded, the Just One, and was He more than mortal?

RECIT.—[NARRATOR (BASS).]

The priests and the elders were greatly amazed ; but at length, consulting together, to the soldiers they gave large money, and they taught them :

CHORUS.—[THE PRIESTS (TENOR).]

Say ye that in the night His disciples have come, while ye were fast asleep, and stolen Him away. If the matter should come to the Governor's ears, and if he should resolve to punish guards who sleep, we will rid you of care. Rely on us, we will persuade him.

CHORUS.

Now behold ye the guard, this your sleep-vanquished guard!
 Ah! ye priests who conspired, ye yourselves were in slumber,
 What time ye to the shameless betrayer did number,
 In return for this deed, that agreed-on reward.
 To the crime ye were blind; yet does justice record.
 That through gold, which the hand of the traitor did cumber,
 For ages on your heads shall contempt be outpoured.

No. 5.—THE HOLY WOMEN BEFORE THE APOSTLES.

RECIT.—[THE NARRATORS.]

Now while by their bitter sorrow the disciples were dismayed, for their comfort they bethought them of the promise of their Master, that they should see Him again. But so it was, when the tidings were brought them, their faith displayed itself as inconstant and doubtful.

TRIO—[THE HOLY WOMEN.]

The Lord, He is risen again;
 To our sight and to our hearing
 Have wondrous signs been appearing:
 He doth manhood yet retain.
 The Lord, He is risen again.

Him we saw, when home returning
 At the breaking of the day;
 Our hearts are within us burning
 All grief and doubt passed away.
 The Lord, He is risen again.

CHORUS—[THE DISCIPLES (TENOR AND BASS).]

Though we fain would have believed you,
 Some form surely has deceived you,
 Some phantom, seen in the night.
 From trusting what you have told us
 Lack of witness must withhold us;
 We rely on hearing and sight.

SOLO—[SOPRANO AND CHORUS.]

From Thy love as a Father,
 O Lord, teach us to gather
 That Life will conquer Death:
 They who seek things eternal
 Shall rise to light supernal
 On wings of lowly faith.

No. 6.—JESUS APPEARING TO THE APOSTLES.—THE ASCENSION.

RECIT.—[NARRATOR (TENOR).]

The apostles that were left at evening met together, the doors now being shut ; and, while they were assembled, the Lord Himself came, and stood in the midst. They were greatly afraid at the sight, but He said :

SOLO.—[JESUS.]

Be not afraid, it is I ! your heart need not be troubled. Behold ! for I am not a shadow, an apparition ; I am such as I was when I walked on the sea. Behold ! for a spirit can have neither flesh nor bones.

RECIT.—[NARRATOR (TENOR).]

And the disciples did obeisance ; and they fell on their knees, in fear, giving Him worship ; and the Lord then approached, and said :

SOLO—[JESUS.]

Arise and hear ! All authority is Mine in Heaven and on the earth, and by you shall witness be borne unto Me. To all the nations bear the news of salvation. Depart, give them the word which I gave unto you, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. I leave you My peace, and I am with you alway, yea, to the end of the world.

RECIT.—[NARRATOR (TENOR).]

After this to a mountain led He them forth, and then, lifting up His hands, as in blessing, He departed, and ascended into Heaven.

CHORUS.

Unfold, ye portals everlasting,
With welcome to receive Him ascending on high.
Behold the King of Glory ! He mounts up through the sky,
Back to the Heavenly mansions hasting.
Unfold, for lo, the King comes nigh.

CHORUS.—[CELESTIAL CHOIR (SOPRANO).]

But who is He, the King of Glory ?

CHORUS.

He who Death overcame, the Lord in battle mighty.

CHORUS.—[CELESTIAL CHOIR (SOPRANO).]

But who is He, the King of Glory ?

CHORUS.

Of hosts He is the Lord ; of angels and of powers : the King of Glory is the King of the saints.

Unfold, ye portals everlasting,
With welcome to receive Him ascending on high.
Behold the King of Glory ! He mounts up through the sky,
Back to the heavenly mansions hasting.
Unfold, for lo, the King comes nigh.

No. 1.—THE PENTECOST.

CHORUS.

Lovely appear over the mountains
The feet of them that preach, and bring good news of peace.

SOLO.—[SOP. AND.]

Ye mountains, ye perpetual hills, bow ye down,
Over the barren wastes shall flowers now have possession.
Dark shades of ancient days, full of hate and oppression,
In the brightness of joy fade away and are gone.

In this age, truly blest more than ages preceding,
Shall the corn never fail from the plentiful ground ;
Under the shining sky shall the lambs gaily bound ;
Void of fear, undisturbed, safely shall they be feeding.
Then the timorous doves, wheresoever they fly,
Shall not fear any more the hawk's merciless cry.

CHORUS.

Lovely appear over the mountains
The feet of them that preach, and bring good news of peace.
Ye mountains, ye perpetual hills, bow ye down,
Over the barren wastes shall flowers now have possession.
Dark shades of ancient days, full of hate and oppression,
In the brightness of joy fade away and are gone.

No. 2.—THE DESCENT OF THE HOLY GHOST.

RECIT.—[NARRATOR (TENOR).]

Upon the day of Pentecost it came to pass, that in one place, with one accord, the disciples, according as they were wont, were praying, while they waited for the promise of God.

THE APOSTLES IN PRAYER.

ORCHESTRA.

RECIT.—[NARRATOR (BASS).]

Lo, there came a mighty sound, a sound as of a tempest, and it filled all the place in which they were assembled. Then tongues to them appeared, and were parting among them. The tongues were like as of fire ; and on each one of the chosen band it was sitting. On a sudden appeared the tongues that were like as of fire, parting among the band.

RECIT.—(THE NARRATORS.)

At once the Spirit came upon them ; a holy rapture, their very souls possessing, both inflames and inspires them : these untaught, simple men, these hearts with terror chilled, like to heroes appear, in their zeal for the faith.

SOLO.—A VOICE FROM HEAVEN (SOPRANO).

Go ye forth on your way ; the Lord Himself will guide you :
 Unto death be ye faithful, whatever betide you.
 Through the world go ye forth, unto you it is given
 To preach the tidings glad of the Kingdom of Heaven.

No. 3.—HYMN OF THE APOSTLES.

CHORUS.

The Word is Flesh become : thus begin we the story :
 Full of grace, full of truth, is He,
 In the womb of a virgin did He veil the glory
 Of His eternal majesty.
 He is before the worlds, all light from Him we gather,
 God, holy, just and true, is He ;
 And, like the Holy Ghost, is one with God the Father
 In everlasting Trinity.

He has given us His flesh, the life of men to nourish,
 Whence we His wondrous love may see.
 By His love are we drawn in our inmost souls to cherish
 Blessed hope of immortality.

CHORUS.

By faith salvation comes, and by peace consolation.
 Hearken ! let all give ear to the Lord's declaration.
 He has said, At My word have the blind had their sight, and the lame have been healed ; the deaf likewise have heard ; the dead from the grave have been recalled, and have risen ; back to life and to light at My summons returning. He has said to all the unhappy, O come to Me, all ye that are sad and that weep, and I will give your souls the rest they long to find.

SEMI-CHORUS.

He has said, They are blessed, the poor in spirit, for they have the Kingdom of Heaven.

They are blessed that mourn, for they shall have comfort.

They are blessed, they that are meek.

They are blessed that hunger and thirst to be righteous.

They are blessed they that are kind, pure in heart, seeking peace, falsely blamed for My sake ; they the earth shall inherit, they shall have their reward in Heaven.

CHORUS.

The Word is Flesh become ; thus begin we the story ;
 Full of grace, full of truth, is He.
 In the womb of a virgin did He veil the glory.
 Of His eternal majesty.
 He is before the worlds, all light from Him we gather,
 God, holy, just, and true, is He ;
 And, like the Holy Ghost, is one with God the Father
 In everlasting Trinity.

The Pianola - - -

Wherever there is a Piano, there should be a Pianola.

The Pianola plays any piano. Any one can play it.

Many of our Pianola purchasers are now obtaining the choicest music from pianos that have seldom been used.

THIS demonstrates the need for the Pianola, and what it will do for those who have no musical knowledge.

It brings into use thousands of pianos which are now lying idle, and enables every member of the family to be a player.

But the field of the Pianola is wider than this.

The Pianola is musically artistic, and has proved itself a source of pleasure to the musically cultured.

EMIL SAUER, the eminent Pianist, says, "I can freely say that the Pianola gives me more pleasure than I have had from thousands of so-called treats of pianistic effort."

It is significant that the Pianola is the only piano-player which has been endorsed by musicians.
