

parts, held in marked esteem by the community in which he has lived for more than a generation, and where he taught school before taking up farming. The school before taking up farming. The school before taking up farming. The school before taking up farming.

There should be some of the cabinet material in this short list of names of U. F. O. leaders. But before proceeding it is as well to admit first of all that the U. F. O. really is found most of its brains and energy in J. J. Morrison, secretary-treasurer of the organization, who worked night and day spreading the U. F. O. gospel and carrying everywhere with him the tenacious purpose of the reformer with the real sense of political duty coupled with intelligence of a high order and plenty of practical common sense.

Mr. Morrison was born in the township of Peel, the son of a north of Ireland Presbyterian immigrant, educated in the public school, and immersed both in politics and farming from the age of fourteen. J. J. Morrison is one of the best informed men in the province, sincere, likable and candid, and an aggressive and effective public speaker.

Beniah Bowman, "the man from Manitoulin," was the first U. F. O. in the legislature and no longer needs an introduction to newspaper readers. A. J. Tiedels (North Essex), of Tilbury, is one of the new men of mark. His name is Irish; but he speaks French as fluently as if it were his mother's tongue which it probably is. He is a Catholic in religion. He is one of the big farmers of the "corn belt," and is about forty-five years of age. John Carty (South Renfrew) of Brudenell, is another Catholic, Irish, Tory, young and popular. He beat Hon. Thomas McGarry so easily that Mr. McGarry would have been amused at it himself if the consequences were not so serious.

H. C. Nixon of St. George's (North Brant), is a U. E. L., which proves that the U. F. O. is not from aristocratic taint. Lieut. W. H. Fenton, M.C., of Deffington (North Bruce), is an Anglican Tory, and A. T. Walker of Beaconsfield (South Oxford), a member of the Friends.

In the entire list the Presbyterians somewhat outnumber the Methodists, these two denominations contributing the bulk of the new members of the province. The Liberals and Conservatives are also pretty evenly divided, the Liberals having a narrow majority. The U. F. O. column does not anticipate that the wedge either of religion or politics will find it vulnerable at any point; it aims at evolving a "people's party" without boasting tolerance or allowing intolerance to assert itself.

While all are farmers, as has been said, the learned professions are to have some representation in the U.F.O. In the first place an attorney-general must be provided, and he must be a lawyer, because our ideas of responsible government cannot allow a lay attorney-general to retain legal advisers. There is no lawyer among the U.F.O. members-elect, and a seat will necessarily have to be found for a barrister. This point has not, it is well understood, been discussed in the caucus so far and will not be broached until after the selection of the premier-designate. Gordon Waldron has been the legal adviser of the party, holds the confidence of all its members, and enjoys a reputation at the bar that measures up to every requirement of the office of attorney-general. If he should be called to the cabinet the general public would have reason to be well satisfied.

The medical profession alone emerges from the revolution against party government with the distinction of having one of its members in the ranks of the U.F.O. This is Dr. George M. Leeson of Varney (South Grey), whose high achievement is the defeat of Dr. Jamieson, the speaker, a gentleman held in the esteem of his party and government, to whom cabinet rank was apparently assured, and who attended the frequently referred-to Eugenia picnic more in the character of one who condescends rather than aspires. On that fair summer day it never occurred to Dr. Jamieson that there was a retired member of his own profession, who had taken to the plow, but who already had Mr. Speaker's number.

The U.F.O. party in the legislature will embrace farmers, young and elderly, all by way of 27 to 85 or over. The young men are S. S. Staples of Ida (East Durham), who is somewhat famous as a horse breeder; John Carty of Brudenell; Lieut.-Col. Carmichael, E. N. McDonald of Warsaw (East Peterboro), who looks about 38, and R. M. Warren of Eganville (North Renfrew), who is perhaps 37. The elderly group includes H. C. Deneys of East Hastings, who may be 68, and John G. Leithbridge of Glencoe (West Middlesex), one of the old "masters of the grange," a Liberal Presbyterian, well-to-do farmer and a good speaker, who may be 63 years of age or so.

The great majority of the farmer representatives are, however, men between thirty-five and fifty.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBAN NEWS

RIVERDALE

ST. JOHN'S S. S. REOPENS. St. John's Presbyterian Sunday School, Broadview avenue, reopened yesterday after alterations and decorations, with a largely attended rally in all classes. Dr. Neil MacDonald, superintendent, presided. The congregational services, morning and evening, were conducted by Rev. J. McI. Scott, pastor.

BOYS' CLUB MEETS.

An enthusiastic meeting of the Boys' Club in Riverdale was held on Saturday, when it was arranged to co-operate with the Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Joseph's Church, when they entertain this evening at the Royal Canadian Bicycle Club on Broadview avenue. It was pointed out by the president, B. Coffey, that tonight's at-home was the first since the commencement of the war, and a large number of returned soldiers are expected to be present. A committee was formed among the boys to look after the social side and the result was as follows: Frank Mooney, James O'Brien, Alexander Gordon, Fred Corney and Leo Sullivan.

HOUSES ARE NEEDED

"While everyone in Riverdale is in favor of a recreation ground for young people, the purchase of the tract of waste land on Greenwood avenue for $134,000 might well be laid over for a while and the money used for building houses for rent for working people," said A. J. Stubbings, Carlaw avenue, member of North Riverdale Ratepayers' Association. "The inability of citizens to secure houses for rent is acute at the present time, and winter fast approaching is making the situation still more difficult," he said.

ECHOS FROM POLLING BOOTHS

Chas. S. Townsend, Secretary Ward Two branch Citizens' Liberty League holds in his possession a referendum ballot marked with four yeases, which was found in a waste paper basket in an east end polling station. Other peculiar stories are also reported from the same section. A. J. Stubbings, Carlaw avenue, stated that Eugene Cleveland, a returned veteran whose name was on the voters' list at 188 Langley avenue, was refused a vote by the returning officer at sub-division 48 A. The soldier is still living in the district and was offered no explanation. At sub-division 50 and sub-division 132 A and sub-division 113 B the referendum returns were, as alleged, torn out of the poll book and the returns missing.

PLAYGROUND OPENED.

East Riverdale supervised playground opened last week for the winter season with a large membership than the previous year. The boys number 1,076 and girls 520. W. Hodgson is supervisor and Mrs. May Smith assistant.

DANFORTH

LIGHTING STILL DELAYED.

The residents of the Danforth Park district are dissatisfied with the Toronto Hydro Commission at the delay in installing the electric light in the district, which they claim unreasonable. The section was the first to make application for the convenience, and no reason has been given by the Hydro people. A protest will be made to the York township council in this regard.

UNIONVILLE

IN MEMORY OF HEROES

The unveiling of a memorial tablet to the memory of three young soldiers, the late Private Matthew Rae of the 4th Canadian Mounted Rifles, Private J. McGee, 127th York Rangers and Douglas Wells, who was mentioned for the Victoria Cross for conspicuous bravery, took place at the Unionville Presbyterian Church yesterday afternoon. The three young men were all well known in the village and their memory will not soon be forgotten. Brief reference was made by Rev. Mr. Mitchell of Homan, Cairns, while Mr. Mitchell, E. Brathwaite, a returned veteran who returns severely injured, unveiled the tablet.

AN IMPORTANT SALE.

An important auction sale of breeding sows, 100 in number, belonging to J. H. Hamilton, will take place at 130 this afternoon at Lot 7, Concession 3, East York, Don road.

Fur Fashions For 1919-20

Canadian Fox

Black Fox is one of the fashionable furs this season—will be worn mostly in neck-pieces and muffs—it is a full, warm fur, and the long, soft warm fur, and the long glossy hair appeals to ladies who desire to wear something not too expensive and yet dressy and serviceable. There is nothing nicer than a Black Fox set for a young lady attending college or university. The Dineen Co. made up a variety of styles in these handsome animal scarfs with muffs to match is a prominent feature of the collection. The prices for the sets start at $75.00 and up to $250.00.

Also Taupes, Cinnamon, Lucille, Georgette, Mouton, White and Grey Fox. This collection is superior to any we have ever shown, and prices are very moderate considering the very high prices for all skins.

EARLSCOURT

VICTORY LOAN PREPARATIONS.

Victory Loan signs have been placed along St. Clair avenue between the G.T.R. tracks to Yonge street for the campaign that begins today. Earlscourt and the northwest district have liberally responded in past issues of Victory Loans and the local committee are confident of good results among the business men, merchants and private residents.

GROWTH OF METHODISM.

Rev. Peter Bryce, who has just been appointed organizer of Toronto conference for the Methodist national campaign, has been the pastor of the Methodist churches of Earlscourt for many years, and is responsible for the success of the work in the Central Methodist Church. To The World Mr. Bryce said: "I have nearly finished 14 years' work in the Earlscourt district, and have watched the growth from the early days when there were very few houses and practically no stores; when the streets were a mess of mud and when poverty existed all around. I have seen the British settlers when they came to Earlscourt eight or nine years ago to build their homes of two and three rooms until they could afford to make their houses complete."

Earlscourt Methodist Church has done a great work for this section, and during the war assisted many widows and dependents of soldiers' families and carried on correspondence with the men at the front. Mr. Bryce has seen a greatly increased church membership, and the Sunday school of a few hundreds grew to its present strength of 2,000, the largest Sunday school, it is said, in the whole province of Ontario. Up to six years ago, when the new brick building was erected, Earlscourt Methodists worshipped in the frame building, now used as a temporary public library at the corner of Ascot and Boon. In his new sphere of work Mr. Bryce will have full scope for his organizing ability, which has always been recognized as of high order.

BEACHES

STUART H. NELLES DEAD

Stuart H. Nelles died at 1694 East Queen street on Friday last, after a long illness in his 39th year, and is survived by his widow. The late Mr. Nelles was advertising manager of the Toronto Railway Company, and was well known in the North Toronto district. Funeral will take place this afternoon from the residence of his brother-in-law, C. George Dawkes, 1 Orchard Park road, to St. John's Cemetery, Norway. Rev. W. L. Baynes-Reed will officiate.

FAVOR BEACH PURCHASE.

According to reports from members of the Business Men's Association and many residents, the ratepayers of the district are much in favor of the purchase of Scarborough Beach Park as a public park and recreation centre.

SURPRISE FOR L. MULHOLLAND

A surprise party was recently held at the home of Leslie Mulholland, Neville Park boulevard, when the young people, to the number of fifty, of Beach Avenue Methodist Church, presented him with an address and a handsome silver rose bowl as a token of the esteem in which he has been held during his ten years' presidency of the Epworth League. A musical program was also contributed, and refreshments were served. J. Chalcombe, assistant president, read the

The battalion had a splendid turnout of members for the occasion, and an excellent sermon was given by Rev. C. J. James, pastor of the church, who officiated. FUEL SITUATION NOT PROMISING Consumers Warned to Order Supplies and Use Small Grades.

The deputy fuel commissioner for Ontario has issued the following: "The climax of the coal situation in the United States was reached yesterday by the termination in failure of the conference of the contending parties to come to any agreement. Following this is a statement made by Samuel Gompers that conferences of the heads of 112 international unions would be held in Washington to discuss present and impending disputes. "The coal situation throughout the province requires that immediate steps be taken to ensure the comfort and safety of our communities and to this end it is found imperative that the provisions of the order-in-council No. 3004, under date of December 7, 1917, be strictly enforced. Particular attention is called to paragraph 8 of the regulations regarding importation, sale and delivery of coal as follows: "Anthracite coal of what is commonly known as prepared sizes shall not be used by any industrial consumer for heating or power purposes, except with the written consent of the fuel administration. "All industrial consumers are warned that failure to comply with the provisions of this paragraph will be summarily dealt with. "The earnest co-operation of the public is necessary, it being essential that in order to secure adequate supplies of domestic coal a proportion of pea coal must be ordered. Users of bituminous coal, who have not, as yet, secured their supplies are urged to take immediate steps to do so."

DIPLOMAT AND ORATOR AT THE EMPIRE CLUB

Dr. Henry Van Dyke Tells of Pleasant International Relations.

Dr. Henry Van Dyke, the United States poet, orator and diplomatist, addressed a large meeting of the Empire Club at the Saturday luncheon when the ordinary attendance was re-enforced by the lady friends of the members.

Arthur Hewitt introduced the speaker, reading one of Dr. Van Dyke's popular poems. Dr. Van Dyke gratified himself with his audience by hoping that the ladies would not feel inconvenienced by the rule that forbade smoking. After the laughter had subsided he said that he had visited Canada every year for forty years. He spoke of his familiarity with the country and of what he knew of the war when "your boys and our boys fought side by side. "I lay the maple leaf and the laurel leaf down together in token of their immortal honor," he declared. "What a glorious thing it has been that these great nations have dwelt together so long, not in dull unambiguity, but in real solid concord," he explained. He dwelt on the long border line, along which he had fished, hunted and camped, and which required no protection. "God grant that line may endure and endure as it is," was his prayer.

He reviewed the principles involved in the war and repeated a poem on the "scrap of paper," and paid tribute to the spirit and action of Great Britain in the war against war. Great Britain, he admitted, had seen it quicker than the United States, but they should have been ashamed had they not done so. They were a homogeneous nation, unlike the United States.

No Apology For War.

"What can we find to cheer us in presence of these threatening clouds on the horizon?" he asked, after discoursing on the bravery of the soldiers and other war topics. He had no apology for war. Human nature being what it was, they might not avert it, but they could make it more costly and more dangerous. They could reduce war to an anachronism, as they had done the duel. The man who wanted to fight a duel today was ridiculous. They had to place war on the same basis.

Hysteria and overstrained nerves, he suggested as the cause of most of our social troubles. There was no class-consciousness that was not made up of the consciousness of individuals. We have to keep our tempers. We have to keep our memories. We must not forget what has always followed attempts to establish communism. Confusion, hurry-burly and social disaster. Nor must they forget what Germany did and so very nearly accomplished.

"Nor forget—are you a Christian?" some would say. "There was not a word about forgetting in the Bible. Forgive, yes, when repentance came. Repentance meant a change of mind—a change of heart, but he saw nothing of this kind in the neighborhood of Amerongen. There were things which for the sake of our souls' salvation we must not forget. Our boys fought and bled and died together, and God gave them the victory," he concluded.

SUBSCRIPTIONS MUST EQUAL LAST YEAR

Big Man Expected to Realize Hopes of Dominion Special Committee.

"Don't take a subscription unless it is for as much or more than last year's subscription." That is the word that has gone out from the Dominion special subscription committee to all the members of their Victory Loan organization. This is the committee that is entrusted with the task of getting the amounts from $25,000 up to the millions. That they will not be faced with the sad task of refusing subscription because they are smaller than they should be is almost certain.

All the hundreds of advance promises indicated, before the loan opened, that the big subscribers would not be content with their last year's effort, but would endeavor to better it. Increases are general all along the line. It was estimated at headquarters Saturday that a dozen big subscribers had increased their subscriptions by a total of $25,000,000. Million dollar buyers of last year, in two or three cases, are making it five millions this year. More moderate jumps are frequently noted on the special subscription committee's list of advance bookings. Early Monday morning the committee will begin signing up the promises, and a record taking for the first day of the campaign seems assured. This committee also has charge of

HIGH OBJECTIVE SET FOR ONTARIO

Over Two Hundred and Twenty-Five Million Dollars Are Sought.

The official objective for the 1919 Victory Loan campaign in the province of Ontario amounts to $225,825,000. This sum is slightly in excess of the figure this province was called upon to subscribe for the Victory Loan of 1918, which was $220,426,000. Of this big total the canvassers' objective comprises $141,100,000 and the special subscriptions objective $84,725,000.

W. L. McKinnon, chairman of the Ontario objectives committee, stated that Ontario was divided into 60 units and that an official objective has been set in every unit, both for the canvassers and special subscriptions committees. Each unit is in turn divided into canvassing districts, and in every canvassing district there is a team of canvassers at work. Furthermore, each team has been allotted an objective for the canvassing district in which it works. Day by day as the campaign progresses the amounts of applications obtained are compared with the objectives.

CHARGED WITH THEFT.

Charged with the theft of carpenter's tools, Steve Maychuk, no home, was arrested Saturday night by Detective Walter McConeil.

TORONTO TAXES WELL PAID.

Only 6.8 per cent. of the 1918 taxes remain unpaid in Toronto. The total of arrears on October 1 was only $1,666,823.

NAVY CAMPAIGNS STILL TO COME

League Anticipates Further Success in Provincial Drives Arranged.

The results obtained by the Navy League thru the Nelson Day drive in various sections of the province will, as far as possible, be made known by A. M. Hoberlin at a meeting of the Ontario campaign executive this morning. In Hamilton and some other districts the drive has not yet taken place, and the league workers anticipate that the success attained in Toronto and elsewhere will be reflected in the campaigns still to come.

The directors of the Toronto campaign have vacated the elaborately decorated old Fairweather building on Yonge street, and will wind up the business of the drive at the permanent headquarters of the Navy League, 34 West King street. In order that no wrong impression may exist in regard to the decorations which attracted much attention at the temporary headquarters, it may be stated that they were not a charge upon the fund at all, the expense in that connection being borne entirely by the T. Eaton Company, Limited, in addition to the generous cash contribution by that firm. The many thousands of envelopes used in the campaign were donated by the Dominion Envelope Company. Another gift was a silk Persian rug from L. Babayan, which will be sold at auction and the proceeds placed in the fund.

Mrs. James Miller, directress of the score of young ladies who "tagged" during the whole period of the drive at the Walker House and the Carlton hotels, declares that it was a delightful experience which was much enjoyed. Managers George Wright and E. M. Carroll made the girls thrifty at home, providing their meals and placing every facility at their disposal to make the work a success.

Further Subscriptions.
R. A. Stapella, the Toronto chairman, says it will be some days before complete figures covering the drive here can be given. In addition to the individual subscriptions of $100 and over already acknowledged, he announced the following:
$750—Sheet Metal Products.
$500 each—Anglo-Canadian Metal, Highlanders' boxing show.
$300—Mail and Empire.
$250 each—Dominion Shipbuilding Company, Mining Corporation of Canada.
$200 each—The Star, Goldsmiths Stock Company, Central Canada Loan Company, Hunt, Biele, Siedel and Radiation Company, H. H. Macrae, Zetland Masonic Lodge.
$179.25—Imperial Varnish & Color Co.
$100 each—The World, Walter G. Barr, Walter Gow, Dr. H. A. Beatty, W. H. Knowlton, Wellington Francis, Chartered Trust & Executor Co.

Plays, Pictures and Music

Bertha Kalich Tonight.
Tonight, at the Royal Alexandra, Bertha Kalich, accompanied with Bernhardt and Duse as one of the world's greatest actresses, will open a week's engagement in the celebrated "Riddle Woman," which comes to Toronto with the record of seven months in New York last winter and three months in Chicago during the ensuing summer. Madame Kalich, who has not been here since her revival of "The Kreutzer Sonata," will have the support of her own distinguished metropolitan cast, headed by Charles Millward, the well-known English actor, and including Frank Burbeck, Jack Roseleigh, Paset Hunter, Adele Klauer, and other sterling players. In the role of Lilla Olrik, Kalich is said to have a role with a vast key-board of emotions, and a scene where she not only "tears passion to tatters," but annihilates it after the manner of an explosion of T. N. T.

William Gillette in "Dear Brutus" at Princess.
Tonight, at the Princess Theatre, occurs the first performance here of the newest comedy from the pen of Sir James M. Barrie. It is "Dear Brutus," and in the leading role there appears no less distinguished a player than William Gillette. The latter, in this Barrie play, appeared the whole of last season at the New York Empire Theatre, that long engagement being little less than a series of ovations for actor, dramatist, and the superb company chosen to surround Mr. Gillette.

Hilda Moore, the English actress who created the role of Mrs. Dearth in the original London production of "Dear Brutus," appears in the same role with Mr. Gillette. Other prominent players seen to splendid advantage are Violet Kemble Cooper, Marie Wainwright, Madge Bellamy, Ann Morrison, Frances Anderson, Grant Stewart, William Fodmore, Fred Russell and Thomas A. Bruden. The Charles Frohman Company, needless to say, has staged Barrie's comedy with all the care, good taste and painstaking attention to detail characteristic of all Frohman presentations.

"Dumbells" at the Grand.
There will be a distinctive military air to the initial performance of the famous "Dumbells" at the Grand Opera House tonight, as the boxes will be occupied by General Elmslie and the staff of this military district. The "Dumbells," as they were called in France, is a purely Canadian company of entertainers, originally of the Third Division, and every man has served his time in the trenches, their average of active service being sixteen months before being transferred to the theatrical unit. In addition to the original "Dumbells," Capt. M. W. Pinkett has added several well-known stars from the other divisional parties as well as two from the original P. C. L. I. concert company. They are presenting an original overseas revue called "Hif, Ting, Bang," which contains a musical score of 22 numbers and abounds in laughs and hilarious situations.

"Back to God's Country"
Toronto people will be "following the trail of Wapi" to the Strand Theatre in crowds this week. Who or what is Wapi? Many people already know that Wapi, the killer, is the animal hero of the astonishing Canadian photodrama, "Back to God's Country," which opens at the Strand all this week. Wapi is the great Dane which saves Dolores, the heroine of this tremendous tale of adventure in the far Canadian North, from the worst fate which can befall a woman. There are sixteen different kinds of wild animals in "Back to God's Country," and the story is indescribable in the tremendous sweep of its gripping power of its wildly adventurous romance.

"Back to God's Country" is the great Canadian picture for which we have waited so long. The story is by James Oliver Curwood, the famous romantic writer and foremost portrayer of animal nature. Most of the scenes were taken in the far north of Canada—farther north than a camera was ever before operated. The company of picked Canadian actors and actresses, headed by Neil Shipman, worked under unprecedented conditions of hardship and adventure, with the thermometer at more than 50 degrees below zero. One Canadian actor, Ronald Byron, lost his life in the enterprise.

This Canadian production, unique in theme and marvelous in scope, with its introduction of bears, mountain lions, foxes, wild cats, and numerous other wild animals, will doubtless attract extraordinary attention. "Back to God's Country" will be shown at the Strand at 12, 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10.

"The Million Dollar Dolls."
Said to be one of the best burlesque attractions to be seen here this season, "The Million Dollar Dolls" will open a week's engagement at the Gayety Theatre with the usual matinee. A festival of fun, beauty and scenic splendor is promised, for everything is new, novel and up-to-date. A big two-act musical burlesque in eight scenes has been written especially for this company and it is entitled "A Whirl of Pleasure." This rollicking musical myth serves as a vehicle to introduce the fun-making abilities of Cliff Bragdon and Scotty Prindell. The only interruption to the fun occurs when the magnificently staged musical numbers are being danced and sung or some of the many specialties are introduced. The chorus is without a peer. All of the girls are young and each is a finished artist. Edie Mae is the prima donna. Loretta Aharn, the alertly attractive soubrette, and the dainty Norma Barry has the ingenue role.

Mystery Week at Loew's.
The most interesting feature of the production of "Concentration" at Loew's Yonge Street Theatre and Winter Garden this week is the work of Mile. Zenda in answering questions. After fifteen years as the leading psychic of America and after triumphs in London and throughout the British Isles, during which time Mile. Zenda has stood the test of the world's greatest scientists and students of psychotherapeutics, this noted star is today a greater mystery than ever. Mile. Zenda gives a remarkable demonstration of mind reading, and is assisted by the incomparable Mysterious Band, which will play any melody called for by thought transference. Other vaudeville features embrace: The Wheeler Trio, sensational equilibrist; Walmesley and Keating in "At the Races"; Wayne and Allen, presenting "In and Out"; Ferguson and Sunderland, the nifty entertainers, and the Morton Bros. paperologists. Loew's British-Canadian Weekly and the Mutt and Jeff animated cartoons complete the bill.

"The Miracle Man" at Regent.
"Get to the Regent early" is the slogan adopted by most film fans this week, for it is the first presentation in Toronto of George Loew Tucker's production, "The Miracle Man," from the dramatized version by George M. Cohan, based on the story by Frank L. Packard, which appeared in Munsey's Magazine. The performances begin at 11:15, 1, 3, 5:10, 7:15 and 9:15. "The Miracle Man" will thrill Regent patrons as they have never been thrilled before. There will, of course, be other attractions, including a Bruce scenic, entitled "The Cruise of the Quikern 'El." The music for this week is a fitting accompaniment to the feature and adds much to its value.

Fine Bill at Madison.
The feature at the Madison Theatre for today, tomorrow and Wednesday will be "The Other Half," a superb drama of the classes and the masses, distributed by Exhibitors Mutual and starring Florence Vidor. For the latter half of the week there will be presented the world-famous "Mickey"

with adorable Mabel Normand in the title role.

Thurston Coming.
Next week the attraction at the Princess Theatre will be Thurston, the world's greatest magician. Thurston is the high priest of modern magic; in addition to all his natural gifts, he has the accomplishments and deftness of all former great magicians rolled into one lengthy and skillfully varied program.

"Kitty Gordon" Coming.
The outstanding event of the coming week is the performance of "Love For Sale," a modern, musical romance at the Royal Alexandra Theatre week commencing Nov. 3 with usual matinee, which will serve as the vehicle for the return to the speaking stage of the international beauty, Kitty Gordon, who for the past few seasons has been a celebrated feature in the movies. Seats will be placed on sale for all performances Thursday morning at the theatre box office. Matinee will be Wednesday and Saturday.

Next Friday's Concert.
The sale of seats for Friday evening's grand concert by the quartet of great singers from the New York Metropolitan Opera opens this morning at Massey Hall box office. A very large audience is anticipated and early application will be found advisable.

COL. NOEL MARSHALL SAILS FOR ENGLAND

Col. Noel Marshall, chairman of the Canadian Red Cross Society, left the city for London, England, on Saturday night. While in London he will supervise the disposal of surplus Canadian Red Cross supplies and equipment that are located there.

Col. Marshall stated on Saturday he expected that the supplies would be disposed of by the end of the year. Asked to what purpose the funds would be devoted, the colonel said that this was a matter that would be decided at a later date by the society.

While overseas Col. Marshall will also make a tour of inspection of the various Red Cross hospitals on the war fronts and he will visit the different Canadian graveyards, in order to see that they are properly looked after.

VICTORY LOAN

TROTSKY FULMINATES AGAINST ENGLAND

Believes Masses Will Rise and Put Straight-Jacket on Directors of Plots.

London, Oct. 26.—A Moscow wireless message contains a proclamation by Leon Trotsky, Russian Bolshevik war minister, on the subject of England's participation in the anti-Bolshevik operations. It is addressed to the "Red warriors," and says in part: "On all fronts you are meeting with the hostile schemes of England; on every front you find British guns and material, and troops dressed in English clothing. Women and children in Archangel and Astrakhan are being killed and mutilated by English flyers; English ships are bombarding the coasts, English gold is sowing corruption."

"Soldiers, commissioners, sailors, more than once your hearts have overflowed with hatred against the predatory, deceptive, bloody, false-faced English. But never forget there are two Englands: Beside the England of hate, violence, corruption and blood thirstiness, there exists an England of mental power, of international solidarity. The base, dishonest England of the stock exchange is against us; England's toiling masses are with us."

"I firmly believe that England will rise before long and put a straight jacket on the criminals who are directing the plots against the toiling masses of Russia."

SIX SINN FEINERS ESCAPE FROM JAIL

Fell Warden and Leave by Way of Rope Ladder Supplied by Accomplice.

London, Oct. 26.—Six Sinn Feiners, including commoners, Stacey and Beasley, have escaped from Strangeways Jail at Manchester. Being political prisoners, they were allowed to congregate during the tea hour. One of them sprang at the warden and felled him. The others bound his hands and feet. He was gagged and thrown into a cell.

In the meantime a rope ladder was thrown over the prison wall by someone standing in the street. The men climbed the wall, descending to the street by means of a wooden ladder on the other side.

First notice of their escape was given by a woman who was near the prison at the time. The people living in the neighborhood rushed out of their houses just in time to see the men disappear around the corner of the prison.

QUALITY OF TREASON

Dublin, Oct. 26.—The King's bench yesterday refused a writ of habeas corpus to Father O'Donnell, the Tasmanian chaplain who was arrested Oct. 18 and confined in the Richmond barracks.

Father O'Donnell's petitioners averred he was imprisoned illegally, because no charge was formulated. The Crown charged that the chaplain was guilty of treasonous and disloyal language at Kilmarnock, and that, being subject to military control, he will be turned over to the Australian military authorities for court-martial.

ARRESTED ON WAY TO RUSSIA

Berlin, Oct. 26.—Herr Mueller, the foreign minister, announced in the Weimar assembly on Friday that several men having 12 their possession blank passes to Russia have been placed under arrest. They were going to join the Russo-German forces which ostensibly are fighting Bolsheviks.

KING OF BRITAIN PRINCE OF WALES

conferred on the Prince of Wales the degree of Doctor of Laws Saturday afternoon with customary ceremonies. Speech at Civic Dinner. At the civic dinner Saturday evening, the prince replied as follows to the toast in his honor proposed by Mayor Newman: "I am very grateful to you for having entertained me at dinner tonight, and for the kind way in which you have drunk my health."

"It is a very special pleasure to have been able to visit Kingston for two reasons. In the first place, Kingston, as the oldest permanent European settlement in Ontario, has a wonderful history. I know, for instance, that this was the first capital of Upper and Lower Canada, when the two provinces were united, and that at a later date you in this city had the honor of returning Sir John Macdonald to the first Canadian parliament. These things probably sound very trite to you, but you must forgive me for mentioning them, because you must remember I have just come near the end of a wonderful voyage of discovery right across the continent and back, and I cannot properly express my admiration for the nation-builders and the railway-builders who made this great confederation. I cannot, therefore, fail to take off my hat to John A. Macdonald, the man which first returned him to the federal parliament."

"But that is only a small part of the historical interest which Kingston has for me. It also interests me deeply as a naval and military center, which was always in the forefront of the fight for British North America. I have in the last few days been traveling in southern and western Ontario and round the waters of this great inland sea, and I have realized how much steady loyalty, how much endurance and how much gallantry it cost to save this province a century and more ago for Canada and the British Empire. Kingston must always be honored as one of the great bases and rallying points of British power during those years."

U. F. O. DELEGATES AT LABOR CAUCUS

Hamilton, being provincial minister of labor and also upon another portfolio being presented to the L.L.P. Rumor had it that Mayor MacBride of Brantford would be the minister to fill this second portfolio, and that it would either be lands, forests and mines, or connected with the legal work of the province.

With the exception of Dr. Stevenson of London, who defeated Sir Adam Beck and P. Heenan of Kenora, every successful labor and joint labor and farmer candidate was present. The absence of Mr. Heenan caused considerable comment, owing to the fact that he had become a member of the cabinet in the job, the last telegram being in the nature of a command. But when the roll was called, he was absent from the party, and it is understood refused to be present.

The caucus was one long love feast from start to finish, and the general impression gathered was that there was not the slightest doubt of two parties getting together, even the such little snags as the 8-hour day and the fact that farmers and capitalists and employers of "labor" stand up prominently in the path of an L.L.P.-U.F.O. government. It was evident that it was an earnest desire on the part of all present to travel in "double harness" so that order could be brought out of present political chaos.

After the caucus broke up, The World interviewed Mayor MacBride of Brantford, who declared that he had taken part in the discussion with an absolutely open mind and was prepared to stand by any decision that might be made by the majority in regard to the future policy of the L. L. P.

Mayor MacBride was also of the opinion that Sir Adam Beck's chairmanship of the Hydro-electric commission should be made absolutely permanent, in order that the welfare of Hydro might not be tampered with as the result of any change of government. He stated that Sir Adam was too valuable a man for Ontario to lose and that if a coalition government were formed between the labor men and farmers, such a government might find a seat for the "electric king."

Among those present were Mayor M. M. MacBride, North Brant; H. Mills, Fort William; G. F. Swartz, Niagara Falls; Frank G. Greenlaw, St. Catharines; Karl Homann, North Waterloo; Tommas, Peterboro; B. Cunningham, Sault Ste. Marie; J. T. Wilson, Nipissing; Controller George G. East, Hamilton; Walter R. Rollo, West Hamilton; F. C. Biles, North Westworth; W. A. Crockett, South Westworth; J. E. Johnston, East Simcoe; J. Taylor, North Grey, and G. P. Cameron, West Elgin. A number of members of the provincial executive of the L. L. P., including prominent labor men from Toronto, were also in attendance.

This completes the acceptance by Austria of the treaty of St. Germain. The treaty will become effective when the formal notices of ratification by Austria and three of the principal allied and associated powers have been deposited in the French foreign office and this fact has been made public in a formal protocol.

PRESIDENT ISSUES SOLEMN WARNING. (Continued From Page 1.) to prevent stoppage of work should the president's solemn warning to the miners to rescind the strike order fall of result, it was regarded as significant, however, that attention was drawn in White House circles to the statements made by Secretary Baker in a recent address in Cleveland, when Mr. Baker announced that department commanders had been directed to furnish troops at the request of governors without referring the matter to Washington. Major-General Wood, in the central department, has already exercised that authority in the steel strike situation. Await Miners' Reply. The whole country waited expectantly today for the miners' answer to President Wilson's blunt command that the soft coal strike, ordered for Saturday, be called off. There was not a word, however, to show where the United Mine Workers of America stood, or what the government would do in the event the president's solemn warning that the mines must be kept in full and continuous operation was ignored. Considering the temper of labor, official Washington took the view that while there was hope of compliance by the half million miners, who had been ordered out, there was no absolute assurance that the president's letter—part appeal and part command—would bring peace to the coal fields. But there seemed to be no doubt of the government's determination to see that the people obtained an adequate coal supply to keep them from suffering and permit the nation's vast industries to continue operation. CANNOT RESCIND ORDER. Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 26.—A "suitable reply" to President Wilson's statement, holding the impending coal miners' strike to be not only unjustifiable, but unlawful, will probably be drawn up at the meeting of the international executive board of the United Mine Workers of America, to be held here Wednesday, according to a statement today by William Green, secretary-treasurer of the United Mine Workers. Mr. Green declined to comment on the president's statement pending such action as the board may take, further than to say that it is an impossibility now to rescind the strike order, effective November 1.

MONDAY MORNING, OCT. 27.

A Big Banking Transaction.

A very serious and important enterprise is being inaugurated this morning in the opening of the new Victory Loan campaign. Citizens must not become bored or weary of this effort during the next three weeks. It is vital to the prosperity of the nation, and what concerns the nation concerns every individual.
Canvassers are going out with official sanction to ask for a minimum of $200,000,000. If they bring in double the amount so much the better. The gold bonds which represent this loan carry 5 1/2 per cent. interest, payable every six months. The bonds may be had for five years or for fifteen, as preferred, and in amounts of $50, $100, $500 or $1000. It may be paid for in full or in instalments between now and March 9.

Every cent of the money is to be spent in Canada. Part of it is needed to pay for such obligations as are still owing to the men who won the war. The rest is required to finance the sale of foodstuffs and other products to the allied countries who are unable to pay cash, but whose credit we cannot afford to ignore. Shipbuilding is also to receive some impetus by the credits to be made from this loan. The expenditure of such a sum in Canada will undoubtedly stimulate business, just as on a smaller scale the rural banks in some countries encourage local enterprise by backing up with their support those worthy of recognition. The nation thru this Victory Loan will accomplish a similar object on a vastly larger scale. Farms and factories will alike benefit by the freely flowing currency. The nation is doing the banking on a gigantic scale, and the people's money is asked for on the security of the nation and for the prosperity of the nation itself.

The loan is the best security in the world, and our neighbors are showing their trust in us by their huge subscriptions to the loan. All parties in Canada are at one as to its advantages, and there is no disagreement politically on the part of anyone as to the necessity of raising the amount asked for, or more if it can be got. It is the wisest and the safest investment that can be made of spare funds.

Absent Sir William.

It was anticipated yesterday morning that Sir William Hearst would hear the Hon. Dr. Cody preach in the Church of St. Paul the Apostle. But the premier desisted from any such intention when he read in the papers that the subject of his colleague's discourse was, "If Thou Hast Known."

Farmers Not This Way.

A smart artist of a fashionable weekly has drawn a cartoon that is to make a great hit. It is of a grotesquely "hayseed" legislature. He and his colleagues justify its boundless derision with the reflection that the farmers do not read their paper. There could not be more foolish journalism.

The U. F. O. members of the new legislature are a fine looking body of men, all of whom attained some intellectual distinction in their own communities before they became parliamentary candidates. They will bear close comparison with their predecessors.

It is time this musty old hayseed stuff were forgotten by city smart Alecs. We need the friendliest possible relations between urban and rural Ontarians. Long-range political insult is the worst of all. When it is not merely cowardly it is apt to be boomerang.

The Anti-Hydro Drive.

It is plainer every day that the Ontario Hydro is the chief citadel of public ownership in Canada, and that its garrison must be prepared to repel a combination of clever assaults.
The farmers are known to be friendly to the Hydro, but they are being sweetly invited by the financial press to remember that they are capitalists, and that in the slaying of the Hearst government, Sir Adam Beck, and his fellow Hydro commissioner, Attorney General Lucas, both went down.

The Toronto corporation ehoist clamors for a Dominion investigation of the Hydro as a financial and engineering enterprise. The Montreal Financial Times says the people of Ontario "are blindly devoted to the public ownership fetish" which gives the farmers power below cost, and that Sir Adam Beck "is like to find himself in the plight of Frankenstein." The Hydro is a "top-heavy and unwholly monster" and "is likely sooner or later to topple over, burying its creator in its fall."
The splashing of these tears would be comic if it were not for the sincere weeping which they produce among people who read nothing else than assertions that while democracy was a fine thing to die for in Flanders it is impossible to do business with it in Canada. The Hydro is safe, because the Hydro is sound.

Shocks Are Wasting Here.

In the headquarters of the battalion of death to public ownership there is great license of attack. The Grand Trunk deal filled much space at the first Victory Loan meeting in Montreal. President Beatty of the C.P.R. sketched the position of his company as that of a taxpayer who mourned over the prospect of a national burden, as against that of a competitor who saw his rival in difficulties. Mr. Zepherin Hebert, the only French speaker, endorsed the Montreal Board of Trade's hostility to the government measure—and all this in the presence of the finance minister, who had warned the meeting that the Grand Trunk affair had "not the slightest thing to do with the aim of the Victory Loan."

A Beaverbrook Confession.

Lord Beaverbrook, who was said to have manipulated the overthrow of Premier Asquith, has come out of the virtual confiscation by the state of about five billion dollars' worth of profits. Old-fashioned Liberals in England are calling for a levy on all capital to help meet the crushing war burdens, which, incidentally, include a debt to the United States bigger than the whole pre-war British national debt.

The Canadian interest in the Beaverbrook proposal is in its inherent principle [which his old friends in Montreal, who are cursing the Ontario Hydro, would call socialist], or that wealth made out of an impropriety in commercial advantage belongs to the state, whenever the state chooses to claim it. The day has passed when it was bad form and worse morals to ask concerning a man's wealth: "Where did he get it?"
Lord Beaverbrook became rich by buying up Canadian businesses, real-estate, and selling them at prices which could only yield dividends by increasing prices to the consumer, beyond the true cost of production and reasonable profits. High finance was no more moral during peace than profiteering was in war. Lord Beaverbrook yielded the cement merger pass.

Revolution in Quebec.

Much has been well said about the decisiveness of the feminine vote in the last week, but, perhaps, what happened was less important than what has occurred in Quebec. On the same day in the old city the young farm women of Quebec decided to affiliate with the St. Jean Baptiste Society, and a meeting of women electors supported the Liberal candidate for East Quebec.

Not long ago the idea of Quebec farm women organizing would have been as strange as a demand for a married clergy. As for women voting in political elections—it was unthinkable.

During the war a speaker in Quebec told his hearers of western women having received the franchise, and predicted that a similar revolution would not long be delayed in the east. He was afterwards assured by the lieutenant-governor, and another knight high in public service, that he would never see Quebec women voting. (Shortly before that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had given as his own view that woman's place is at home.)

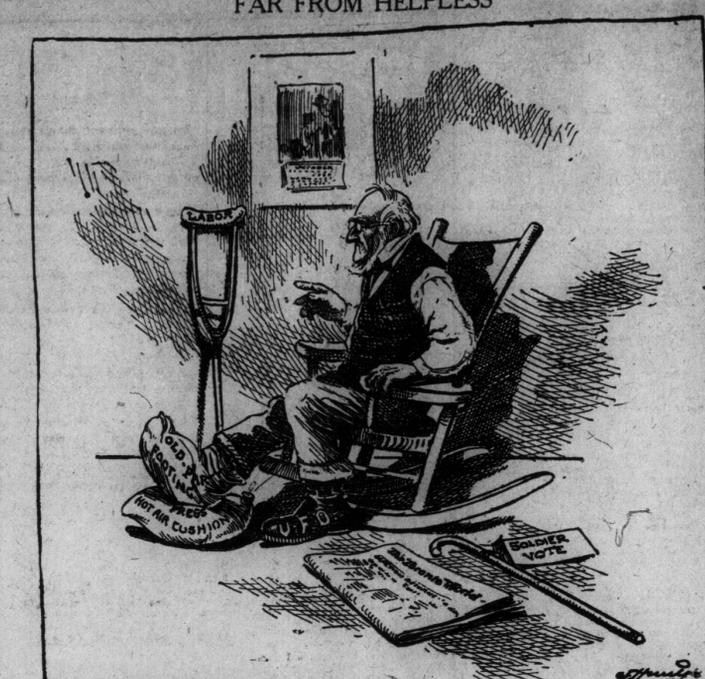

One Class Rule Overthrown.

The timid need not fear that the farmers in office will become class tyrants. Nothing more excellent has happened in Ontario in our time than the advent of a government that is not made up of politicians, as we used to reckon politicians. Of all class dominances that of the politician was confounded last Monday has been the most class-conscious and the most pernicious.

Its evil was not merely that the machine politician was out for himself—one who came to great power at Ottawa said apropos his first provincial election, "I only want to be there one session before I'll make the big fellows cough up." The evil was that it brought the whole citizenry to believe that the only practicable public service was in providing the notions and methods of men whose stock-in-trade was occasionally exposed in election trials.

The science of government was brought into contempt by the politician class; and the country allowed itself to be tyrannized over and degraded by that odious form of class rule. The machine class was as certain that it held the governance of the country as the old English aristocracy was that the substance of the divine right of kings had been fused with the little grafts of state.

The farmers will make their mistakes; but they want to learn and will not be turned aside to the bad old

Old Man Ontario: One bum foot don't count so much when a fella's got both a crutch and a cane.

Limping Liberalism.

Today five members of the house of commons will be elected for Victoria, B. C., Assiniboia, Sask.; Glenora, Ont.; East Quebec, and Carleton, N. B. But for the death of the government candidate in North Ontario, which postponed the polling, there would have been six by-elections this day. The opposition at Ottawa, whose leader draws an official salary of seven thousand dollars a year, has not a single candidate for five seats which were held by government supporters. The Liberal party has abandoned Victoria to Labor, and four other constituencies to the organized farmers. It will hold Sir Wilfrid Laurier's ancient seat—and that is all.

Why High Prices For Women's Clothes?

The board of commerce might make themselves strong with the female portion of the population, if they would delve into the matter of ready-made clothes for women.
Of course, it was perfectly lovely for the nation to know that men were very often overcharged to the amount of $17 or $18 on a suit or an overcoat, even if nothing was done to lower the prices, but to the women of Toronto it would be extremely interesting to know just how much profit is being made every hour on their wearing apparel.

NO MONEY FOR TERAULAY BLOCKADE

But Fifty Thousand Dollars for the St. Clair Parkette.

While the city council is busy putting money in "corner pockets" and "legislation on Yonge street is left to take care of itself. The woman's suggestion is a few years ago that for immediate relief a street be cut thru from Collage to Grenville at the head of Teraulay. The vote of a majority of council of $40,000 for a coupe of lots at the corner of St. Clair and Avenue road for a parkette hardly fits in with the economy which was met with the statement that the city could not find the money.

THE FARMERS AND BECK

May Be Seeking a Way of Carrying on the Government.

From The Toronto Sunday World.
Following Monday's provincial election a growing impression is in the minds of many that in some way the United Farmers and Sir Adam Beck should, and will, get together in an attempt to find a working plan of carrying on the government of Ontario. You hear it on the

EIGHT CHINAMEN HELD

Eight Chinamen were arrested Saturday night by Plainclothesmen Ward and Clarkson in 78 Louisa street, charged with smoking opium. Ching Sing is held as keeper. The seven others were smoking when the police entered and seized two tins of opium and a pipe and lamp.

SEVEN ARRESTED ON THEFT CHARGE

Seven alleged motor thieves were arrested Saturday night. Three are wanted in St. Catharines, while the other four are charged with stealing a car in Toronto. Roy Glen, 441 Shaw street; Harold Martin, 10 Baden street, and two young boys were taken into custody by Detectives Silverthorn and Dawn. Last Sunday night they are alleged to have stolen a car belonging to John Wilkie, 16 Amelia street, from the corner of Roxton road and Dundas street. They drove to the west end of the city, when, believing they were being pursued by the police, they jumped out of the moving car and left it to run amuck. The motor car crashed through a fence and came to a stop on the C.P.R. tracks at Paton road.

MOONLIGHT AND MONEY

HOMECOMING

CHAPTER 19.

Louise stood in the doorway and watched Harry's figure until it passed out of sight around a bend in the road. He had hurried, almost running. He had seven minutes to make the train to town, and he timed the walk from the station the night before as requiring at least eleven. But in spite of his rush, he managed to turn, just at the bend in the road, and wave his hand. Louise smiled happily and went back into the house.
For this, she said to herself, was really being married. The honeymoon was over, the spirit of it would stay with them for many years. They had come back the night before to a house filled with boxes and piled-up furniture and laughing from the sheer pleasure of being in their "very own place." had made a picnic supper of canned goods and pulled around furniture to assemble a bed, a bureau, a rug and some chairs in one room. Otherwise nothing was touched.
"Don't work hard straightening things," Harry said that morning, as he helped make coffee in the shining kitchen. "I'll get home as early as I can and move all the heavy stuff around."
But Louise had other ideas. She wanted Harry to come back to a restful home at night, and she had an optimistic fancy that she might make everything delightful to look at by the time his train was due.
There is a story—I think one of Hawthorne's—about a young couple compelled by financial reverses to move to a small place in the country. The day they move, the hero of the story invites a friend to dine with him, and as the two men approach the new and humble dwelling, behold, there is the wife, serenely sitting on the porch twanging a harp, the place all in order, dinner ready, and the lady delighted at the unexpected dinner guest. The hero and husband is so moved by this spectacle of amiability and devotion that he launches forth in paragraphs of praise about his lady. As well he might! No other housewife, no matter how well trained by poverty, could have done as much.
Louise knew less of the problem of moving than Hawthorne. But as she turned back into the house some of its seriousness occurred to her. The living-room, over which they had raved when they first saw the place, was

DISCONTENT IN THE ARMY

The soldier, said Mr. Jackson, learned first to play the game while in the army. When he came home he found those who had got more than their share during the war embarking on an orgy of spending. This was an offence against the realm, said the speaker, and was no less serious because it was not punishable. Another disquieting thing to the soldier's mind was the high cost of living, and in this connection he paid a tribute to the late Lord Rhonda.

DISCONTENT IN THE ARMY

Of the great railway strike Mr. Jackson said that altho it was far-reaching in its effects yet it had been accomplished without the commotion and bloodshed which attended the Boston police strike or the threatened steel strike in Pittsburgh. He had no fear of revolution in Britain because the more skilled a man was in his trade and of necessity so much more valuable to the state, so would he in proportion go slow and steady in this respect. England had no use for systems and schools of philosophy for her underlying sanity would keep her steady in all trials.

NO-DIVORCE BILL BY FEDERAL HOUSE

By Staff Reporter.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 26.—Members of parliament during the past few days have been receiving inquiries which indicate that an impression is abroad that some measure is before parliament at this session to establish divorce courts. Some of these inquiries are in the nature of a protest from local branches of soldiers' organizations in Ontario, a number of whom returned soldiers who desire to procure divorces are under the impression that the government is putting thru a bill to confer jurisdiction upon provincial courts to grant divorces, and some of them are asking why "the Nickle divorce bill" is being held up.

No such measure is before parliament. At the last session W. F. Nickle, Unionist member for Kingston, introduced a bill to establish divorce courts in all the provinces of Canada and it met with sympathetic support from the prime minister. It was given second reading and was sent to a committee, but some objections were urged to the measure by members from Quebec, and it was not proceeded with. Since then a number of members resigned his seat in parliament and no member at this session has introduced a similar bill.

As a matter of fact, the provincial courts have authority to grant divorces in all the provinces, except Ontario and Quebec. There is a strong opposition to divorce courts in Quebec, but the government would find little opposition to a bill establishing divorce courts in Ontario. It is recognized that the present procedure by which divorces for people living in Ontario and Quebec can only be obtained thru an act of parliament is cumbersome and expensive. At the same time, there is no likelihood of the government dealing with the subject at the present session. The senate divorce committee has made it a rule for some time past to refund the $200 deposit required from an applicant for divorce, in case it is expeditiously made by a returned soldier, and to this extent divorces have been made cheaper. They still remain somewhat difficult and expensive because the applicant may often live a long way from Ottawa, and is put to considerable inconvenience and expense in bringing witnesses to the capital to give testimony before the senate divorce committee.

Labor Leaders Say Two Parties Now Dominated by U. F. O.

Patronage in Ontario is at an end. Ontario is going to have a U. F. O. labor government. This was the substance of an address delivered yesterday afternoon by James Simpson at a largely-attended meeting of the labor party at the Labor Temple. "We are going to abolish the patronage system altogether," said the speaker.

W. F. Sweezy and Walter Rollo, Joseph Marks, J. W. Buckley, James Simpson, Magnus Sinclair and other well-known members of the labor party were the speakers of the day. Magnus Sinclair, in a short forceful address, stated his opinion that the talk of the new era which he had heard in the street corner was a myth. "We have with us today as before the war the same masters, the same penury, the same wretchedness, the same poverty, the same great steel strike and others in America to realize this fact. We see there the great corporations with their paid spies, their hired assassins, ready and eager to waylay us on our way to our meetings as they did 25 years ago. No, no, this is no new era. But during the last two weeks we have laid the foundation for an era of grand promise. This can be furthered by joining forces with the party now linked up with the farmers."

"Take with a grain of salt all the rubbish you read in the press," was Joseph Marks' commentary on the present situation. "We are going to make every Grit and Tory toe the mark. The U. F. O. leaders feel that their forces are big enough to undertake the responsibilities of government. The U. F. O. convention has decided to have no relations with either the Grits or Tories. They have stated that the labor party is first of their movement." Mr. Marks continuing recounted the history of labor in the recent campaign. "The machine has been smashed forever," he said. "Even colonels and legal lights now want to know how they can get into the party. Had Arthur Robuck returned, he would have stood a better chance today of being attorney-general of Ontario."

W. F. Sweezy, who followed, said: "I feel more honored as a defeated candidate in an honest cause than a victor in a campaign of dishonesty," he said. "They will have to look us again in Sudbury before we realize that we are licked. And within another two weeks such a chance will be given us. During the election a little section near Sudbury on the C.N.R. afforded the electorate food for thought. We had counted on a resident of Ontario, our cause. When the ballot was made known the results showed a return of 96 for Conservatives, 5 for Liberals and 4 for labor. A resident of Ontario has gone north to investigate, to find out if any votes happened to grow on the trees of the forests in the districts. I tell you these things regarding the present state of the party. The campaign was run against us by the combined force of Conservative satellites, grafters, regulators and other Conservatives who had no idea why they were Conservatives, and only three days before the elections a carload of whiskey was unloaded in the vicinity of these same people. Let me tell you we have men up north who with six months' training would make Hon. Dr. Cuddy look like a first class vaudeville show. One year ago trades unionists in our vicinity had only one charter with a better dozen of members, three of whom resigned because they had been warned they would be dismissed if they remained with the union. Today we have a better charter and the railway is asking us to name our demands."

Was One Arrested.

Mr. Sweezy referred to the time he was arrested as a socialist. "There they had me caged like a lion, dressed like a clown and fed like a hog. At the last they own lawyer was asleep. He had taken two drinks too many, and I was forced to remain in the witness box nine hours and conduct my own defense. Before that time I weighed 200 pounds odd; today I weigh 148 pounds."

Walter Rollo, chairman of the Labor forces in the new legislature was the principal speaker of the afternoon. "Our dreams have come true," he said. "At the commencement of the great message to those gathered. Toronto has not shown a defeat for Labor in any shape or form. You polled more votes than ever before. Victory was merely been delayed. Not so long ago we in Hamilton had only twenty members, then fifty, and at that we believed we were doing wonder. So we were, then. But in January, 1919, we had 125 members and elected nine laborites to municipal seats. Today we have a thousand members. What does this mean? It means this: that we have assured a thousand votes, we have a thousand votes of Labor, we have a thousand dollars merely in membership receipts. Add to this the virility and tact of our women. Yes, the work of our women must not be forgotten. I know of one subdivision in which a woman managed to get 195 voters to the poll out of a total of 205."

Tribute to Comrades.

Mr. Rollo paid his special meed of praise to the energy and sustained loyalty of Joseph Marks and Mrs. W. F. Singer, organizers, who achieved almost unbelievable results during the campaign. "I have a great respect for each member of the legislature with U. F. O. labor affiliations and I have a great respect for the two parties. He then dwelt upon the situation in London. "I am sorry," he said, "that some of our Labor leaders have been chosen from the party short at the Hydro-electric."

The Nujol Treatment as Sickness Prevention

Science, with anti-toxins, serum, and modern sanitation, has done much to prevent dangerous disease; but the diseases so checked are comparatively few. On the other hand, 90% of all diseases have one common origin—constipation.

The dangers of constipation are so far-reaching, because the blood receives poisons from an infected mass within, and carries them directly to every organ of the body; and because constipation itself keeps the system in a run-down condition so that any infectious germs from without readily gain foothold.

Keep clear of constipation and you guard against serious disease. Nujol will remove constipation and prevent its return.

The action of Nujol is entirely different from that of any other constipation remedy. It is not a drug. Nujol softens the food waste and encourages the intestinal muscles to act naturally.

Nujol helps Nature establish easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world. Get a bottle from your druggist today.

Warning:

Do not take any laxative containing the Nujol Trade Mark, as shown here. Brands of products represented to be "the same as Nujol." You may suffer from substitution.

NO-DIVORCE BILL BY FEDERAL HOUSE

By Staff Reporter.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 26.—Members of parliament during the past few days have been receiving inquiries which indicate that an impression is abroad that some measure is before parliament at this session to establish divorce courts. Some of these inquiries are in the nature of a protest from local branches of soldiers' organizations in Ontario, a number of whom returned soldiers who desire to procure divorces are under the impression that the government is putting thru a bill to confer jurisdiction upon provincial courts to grant divorces, and some of them are asking why "the Nickle divorce bill" is being held up.

No such measure is before parliament. At the last session W. F. Nickle, Unionist member for Kingston, introduced a bill to establish divorce courts in all the provinces of Canada and it met with sympathetic support from the prime minister. It was given second reading and was sent to a committee, but some objections were urged to the measure by members from Quebec, and it was not proceeded with. Since then a number of members resigned his seat in parliament and no member at this session has introduced a similar bill.

As a matter of fact, the provincial courts have authority to grant divorces in all the provinces, except Ontario and Quebec. There is a strong opposition to divorce courts in Quebec, but the government would find little opposition to a bill establishing divorce courts in Ontario. It is recognized that the present procedure by which divorces for people living in Ontario and Quebec can only be obtained thru an act of parliament is cumbersome and expensive. At the same time, there is no likelihood of the government dealing with the subject at the present session. The senate divorce committee has made it a rule for some time past to refund the $200 deposit required from an applicant for divorce, in case it is expeditiously made by a returned soldier, and to this extent divorces have been made cheaper. They still remain somewhat difficult and expensive because the applicant may often live a long way from Ottawa, and is put to considerable inconvenience and expense in bringing witnesses to the capital to give testimony before the senate divorce committee.

Brain of St. Michael's, and All Angels' preached in the morning, and the Rev. L. R. Sherman, rector, in the evening. The rector, at a special service in the Sunday school in the afternoon, unveiled the memorial shield bearing on fourteen maple leaves the names of the fourteen members of the Sunday school who fell in the field. The shield was given by the M.S.C.C. in connection with the school's gifts of Victory Bonds last year to the mission fund for Indians and Eskimo.

BOARD OF TRADE OPENS NEW LOUNGE ROOMS

Despite the inclement weather, more than 250 members and visitors turned out to the opening of the additional lounge rooms of the Board of Trade on the nineteenth floor of the Royal Bank building on Saturday last. The visitors were received by President K. J. Dunstan and Mrs. Dunstan, with Chas. McD. Hay, chairman of the house committee, and Mrs. Hay.

An orchestra was in attendance, and afternoon tea was served, after which the visitors made an inspection. Members and visitors alike expressed themselves as greatly pleased with the new addition, which is 75 feet by 30, and has 17 windows facing the west and north. The general tone color is blue and gold, and the furniture is of the stately Jacobean period.

The ceiling is decorated, and a number of beautiful electric fixtures are hung from it. Chesterfields, settees and heavy armchairs are scattered all over the room, giving it an appearance of cozy comfort. Part of the room will be used as an information bureau for members, and a library will also be installed.

In Good Taste.

An outstanding feature of the new additional lounging and other rooms opened to the members and their friends on Saturday afternoon is the sumptuous yet good taste which marks the entire furnishings.

The new rooms are located on the nineteenth floor of the Royal Bank building, with a number of large windows opening on the north and west and commanding a fine view of the city and country to the east and west. The room itself is 75 feet long and the windows are hung with blue silk-striped curtains with blue lambréguins.

From the ceiling a beamed one-hang six candle-light pendants in pewter finish. On the floor are four handsome Axminster rugs, fitting in with the general color scheme of subdued blue.

The room is furnished in Jacobean oak, and comprises three long, massive carved tables, with a number of smaller tables and fine writing desks, at each of which is an electric lamp. Eight large settees, upholstered in tapestry, together with 18 large club and a number of wicker chairs complete the furnishings; the latter covered in blue and gold haircloth.

While there are not as yet many pictures on the walls (ten in number) they have been chosen from an artistic standpoint, and are in pe-

A U.V.L. ARGUMENT.

Discussion relative to the merits and demerits of the United Veterans' League developed into a disorderly fracas at the Red Triangle Club yesterday afternoon. Scuffles occurred within the building, and at times were renewed on the street, although no serious injuries were reported as a result of the proceedings.

An eye-witness informed The World last night that three men, apparently under the influence of liquor, sauntered into the building at about four o'clock in the afternoon. It was when one of these made depreciating remarks about the U.V.L. that the scuffle began, with a number participating. A policeman who appeared on

REV. W. IVENS AT PEOPLE'S FORUM

Audience Unanimously Demanded Trial by Jury for All Citizens.

Unanimously the men and women who were assembled last night at the regular session of the People's Forum passed a resolution introduced by Tom Mellieu demanding that the amendments to the immigration act be so amended as to permit the trial by jury of all British and other citizens in Canada. Tom Mellieu himself, and Rev. William Ivens were the principal speakers of the evening. "I am a pacifist and I will remain. I am absolutely opposed to force, and will always advocate victory thru the medium of the ballot and the ballot box and the pen. I shall speak to the streets be filled with machine guns to shoot me down. Will you stand with me or with the shirkers, with the profiteers?"

Now, a word as to the strike permits. These were subject of examination at the hands of crown prosecutors. Yet, one of these same crown prosecutors was A. J. Andrews, a man who as a representative of the Committee of 1,000, in conjunction with a committee of the strikers, decided to issue these permits.

Mr. Ivens touched upon the Calgary convention of February. This convention, he said, was called by western delegates to the Quebec convention of the Trades Congress who had represented the eastern machine methods, and had decided to hold a preliminary convention before the next congress convention met at Hamilton. One big item on the list at this convention was the proposal to consider withdrawal from the American federation of labor. So contentious was this subject that it was finally submitted as a referendum to the locals in the west. Some of these favored the idea, others were directly opposed. In the midst of consideration of the referendum came the Winnipeg strike. "Yet people want to couple Winnipeg with this movement," said the speaker, who hoped the people gathered at the meeting in Massey Hall at 1 o'clock p.m., on Tuesday, the 4th of November. The address will be men only.

Her Excellency the Duchess of Devonshire has expressed her intention of being present at the Dominion Convention of the Women's Institutes, to be held in Toronto, on Nov. 11. Judge Emily J. Murphy (Janey Canuck), president of the Dominion Federation, will preside. The magnificent new lounge room of the board of trade, on the nineteenth floor of the Royal Bank Building, was opened with a tea on Saturday afternoon, when Mr. Kenneth Dunstan (the president), Mrs. Dunstan, and Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hay received the numerous guests. An orchestra played during the afternoon, and the visitors admired the room, the decorations of which are all of a subdued blue. It has a beamed ceiling, from which hang six six-candle pendant fixtures in pewter finish. There are seventeen windows, hung with blue and white striped lace curtains. The furniture is of Jacobean oak. There are three tables and five writing desks, eight chairs of blue tapestry, and thirty wicker chairs with cushions of blue and gold. The ash stands are of Jacobean oak and the ash trays are of brass. At the south end is situated the information bureau and library.

Joe Knight, the O.B.U. organizer, warned the workers that the master class had command of the troops and always used them against the workers when they became scared. He advised them to put up a solid front to the "master class" who saw in the O.B.U. a menace to despotic government. In referring to the coming Winnipeg trial, Mr. Knight declared that the men would be tried by a jury prejudiced by class, but if the workers stood firm behind the so-called prisoners it would help to effect their release. "They will not be judged on the merits of the case, but the literature and papers in the case. The men are not guilty and we workers know it," he declared. Toronto labor, Mr. Knight declared, must alter its ways if it wanted to hold up its head. The working class were lacking in backbone and solidarity. "If Toronto had stood behind Winnipeg in her hour of need, Mr. Ivens and his friends would have been free men today."

"PAY" CARS ON YONGE

"Pay as you enter" cars commenced running on Yonge street yesterday for the first time. It was noticeable from the unnecessary rush to board them that the public was not yet properly trained in their use and complaints were rife that some system of queues was not put in force at busy stopping places.

BE YOUR OWN SELF, SAYS VAN DYKE

Eminent American Author Preaches to 1,800 at Convocation Hall.

"Be your own self, live your own life, but live it with and for your neighbors." With these words, Dr. Henry Van Dyke, former American minister to the Netherlands and an eminent author and philosopher, addressed over 1,800 people in Convocation Hall on Sunday.

The speaker pointed out that a neighborly feeling among the people of the world was the only thing that was going to cure the sorrow and dissension that existed, and he declared that we should carry the benefits of a war well won as a lesson into our daily life in this respect.

Dealing with the mental growth of the child, until such time as it began to discover its relation to others, Dr. Van Dyke stated that "the kind of a man that child was going to have in the world depended upon how he fits in." He explained that "fitting in" the world was the attitude of an individual towards his neighbors, whether it was one of love and the fulfillment of the will of Christ, or one of dissension and the cause of all the strife and trouble in the world.

"Our love for our neighbors should be as that for ourselves—a same, holy and uplifting love," he said. He added that we should love our neighbors in spite of their faults, with the object of bettering them.

God's Desire. Dr. Van Dyke emphasized the fact that God wanted each of His children to develop his own soul, and to do so with the view of bettering his own life and those of his neighbors.

TRADING IN WEST TREE WILL BEGIN TODAY

Development Work Said to Be Giving Results Beyond Most Sanguine Hopes. West Tree stock has now been listed on the Standard Stock Exchange, and will be called on Monday next.

Development work is going ahead at the property, and results are reported to be better than the most sanguine expectations of the management. In connection with the West Tree, the following appeared in a recent issue of The Canadian Mining Journal, written by R. E. Hore, the noted geologist after his visit to the West Tree camp.

West Tree gold ore has been carried to the surface by means of a special tubular character is well known. Where first opened up the deposit was extremely rich, the ore being of a high grade from narrow veins, but the ore is so rich that the samples could not fall to attract attention. However, the absence of a large body of auriferous quartz resulted in the deposit being commonly described by those who examined it as a "small mine." Those who saw only a short shoot of very rich ore in a very narrow vein, near the edge of and striking towards the lake, could not make estimates of tonnage.

My interpretation of the rich shoot is that the surface exposure is but a section across a shoot which may extend downwards for a considerable distance. With the narrow quartz veins, and the intersecting angles to the shore line, there is an important sulphide zone in the enclosing rocks, which intersects the quartz veins at right angles.

In the old open cut this sulphide zone is seen to be a very important feature. The sulphide zone is broken where the veins occur by a fault, which throws the southern part of the zone towards the lake. The rich ore, so far as I can learn, came from the intersections, and followed the sulphide zone. The old workings are now filled with water, and I have not been able to examine them. It is very probable that a very considerable quantity of very rich ore will be found if a shaft is sunk in the area, and the rich ore is being encountered in the narrow quartz veins.

It will be recalled that the McIntyre-Porcupine Mines, Limited, which is the most important gold producer, was considered a matter of a little doubt as to its future development work on this property, which was near the McIntyre-Porcupine camp. The McIntyre-Porcupine camp developed the existence of a body of ore containing low gold values. Although it was in the neighbourhood of the McIntyre-Porcupine camp, it was not considered a profitable proposition to develop it, as the gold values which would prove the property a valuable mine, there is no evidence to substantiate this conclusion.

In the case of the Davidson Consolidated, large bodies of ore have been developed to a depth of 600 feet, containing gold values estimated by competent engineers to average $14.50 to the ton from the surface to 600 feet. This is much above the average gold value of the McIntyre-Porcupine camp, which is developed to a depth of 1200 feet, which is in the neighbourhood of the McIntyre-Porcupine camp. It is, therefore, evident that while the McIntyre-Porcupine camp is a property of only 500 feet, or of higher average grade is in evidence than the McIntyre-Porcupine camp, a special significance is to be attached to the McIntyre-Porcupine camp, as the McIntyre-Porcupine camp is a property of only 500 feet, or of higher average grade is in evidence than the McIntyre-Porcupine camp.

Operations on a carefully prepared plan are under way on the Big Dyke property at Porcupine. The owners expended $40,000 in building up the property, and the development work is reported by the directors to be so satisfactory, and the outlook for the property, showing, in tests, etc., on the property, so very encouraging, that work is to proceed vigorously at once.

The plant installed is sufficient to carry a shaft to the 300-foot level, and a contract is being entered into with the McIntyre-Porcupine camp, which is to be carried to a depth of 1000 feet, and to drift these levels for the purpose of developing the property, and the outlook for the property, showing, in tests, etc., on the property, so very encouraging, that work is to proceed vigorously at once.

Following the course adopted last year, the Imperial Oil Company, Limited, announce that its subscription on the Victory Loan, 1919, will be $3,000,000, apportioned to the several principal centres, and divided according to the provinces in which the company is doing business. Of this amount $100,000 will be Toronto's portion, and the balance will be spread over the Dominion.
