ALLIES WIN ON ALL FRONTS IN HARD FIGHTING

Anglo-French Forces Win Another Smashing Victory in Picardy.
SURROUND COMBLES
Russians Beat Foe in Dobruja—Roumanians Check Teuton Drive.

Special Cable to The Toronto World.
LONDON, Sept. 25.—(12.20 a.m.)—The French army in co-operation with the British troops swung round their right wing on a front six miles south of the Ancre for the distance of about a mile today, and they carried the powerfully-fortified Villages of Morval and Les Boeufs in short order, with several lines of intervening trenches. This movement virtually completes the surrounding of Combles, the keystone of the arch of the German defences.
These gains, which are regarded by the allied general staff as of great military importance, were made in such short order as to confirm the allied leaders in the belief that the German power is rapidly on the decline.
When the signal was given for infantry action today, after the British artillery had prepared the way by the capture of the attack by a heavy bombardment, the troops climbed over their trenches in short order, impetuously dashed at the Germans, and swept onward without a stop or a break in their lines until they had reached the points allotted to them to rest on and consolidate. The artillerymen were ready to protect them with a curtain of fire as they began to dig new trenches on the ground which had been previously leveled, or pitted with shell craters by the artillery fire.
Many Germans surrendered.
The tank cars accompanied the British troops as they swept onward, and the sight of these strange engines was sufficient to induce many Germans to quit fighting at once. A great many prisoners are being taken to the British rear from the occupied ground.
The British staff officers are particularly elated at the capture of the Villages of Morval and Les Boeufs at one blow. Previously fortified villages required a long and costly attack, but they have been thrown to their vicinity, and German garrisons frequently held out for several days. But the British troops have now learned to deal with machine guns, and they simply walked into the towns, fighting as they went.
It took a considerable climb for the British forces to get to Morval, for this village stands on heights north of Combles. It was protected by trenches, subterranean quarries and wire entanglements, and the Germans believed that it would be impregnable. But instead of being unattainable, it fell into the hands of the attackers in a few minutes of heavy fighting.
Villages Are Valuable.
Morval is also considered of great value to the British, for its occupation by the allies practically cuts the communication of the enemy with Combles.
Combles, which was further cut off from the outside world by French advances to the south of it, is now in imminent danger of falling into the hands of the allies at any time.
During the previous night the Germans had been active against the British south of the Ancre and they suffered a repulse in an attack against the British outposts south of Courcellette.

French Extend Their Positions Take Possession of Hancourt

Series of Simultaneous Sectional Attacks Prove Successful.
Special Cable to The Toronto World.
PARIS, Sept. 25.—Renewing the battle of the Somme with a violent attack between that river and Combles, the French greatly extended their positions, secured possession of Hancourt and entered the outskirts of Frelecourt, making more than 400 unrounded prisoners today.
Acting upon a carefully thought out and concerted plan, while the British were engaged heavily with the Germans to the north, the French troops stepped out with great vim about noon today when the word of command was given. Their method was the adoption of a series of simultaneous sectional attacks, and these succeeded up to the attack on Frelecourt, and the French troops were launched against the southeastern defence of Combles. The French quickly worked their lines round to the northeast of this town, and they then swung onward to the outskirts of the little Village of Frelecourt, and they captured the maze of trenches between Frelecourt and Hill 148.
While this was going on the French were also attacking Hancourt and it speedily fell beneath their blows.
Pass Bouchevaux.
A third attack was sprung east of the Bethune road and this extended to the French positions to a depth of five-eighths of a mile from the Combles road as far as Bouchevaux, thus bringing the French forces north of Bouchevaux in line with the French forces in and south of Bouchevaux. North of that village the French, after reaching the Bethune road, pushed forward and stormed a hill to the northwest. French forces occupying Bouchevaux then emerged from the village and driving southeastward they seized the lower slopes of Hill 150.
Next the French wiped out and occu-

Salonki Offensive Successful British Capture Bulgarians
French Reinforcements Arrive and Join in General Advance.
LONDON, Sept. 25.—A despatch to Reuters' Telegram Co. from Salonki says:
"The entente allies began at 7 o'clock this morning a vigorous offensive on the extreme left westward and northward of Florina. There was fighting all day long. The Russians shortly after noon captured an important hill west of Florina. The French advanced, occupying the Village of Petrak, while the Serbians succeeded in crossing the frontier north-east of Krusograd, but encountered fierce opposition at Verbeni."
In the course of their offensive on the eastern bank of the Struma River, the British captured some Bulgarians. It was announced in an official statement issued at Salonki.
Doiran was set on fire by the bombardment of the allies.
French reinforcements have arrived and have joined in the violent battle which is being fought in the north of Florina. The French have been engaged north of Krusograd and northeast of Florina. They occupied the first houses of Petrak as the result of a spirited fight, and they also made a slight advance on the eastern bank of the Struma River. The Russians went into action, and they took by assault Hill 159.

German Aircraft Again Drop Bombs on Northern Counties

FIND SOME WRECKAGE
Fishermen Recover Remains of Destroyed Dirigible Near Tilbury.
Special Cable to The Toronto World.
LONDON, Sept. 25.—(12.20 a.m.)—A second air raid was attempted by the Germans over England last night, following their expedition of last Saturday night. Several zeppelins, probably as many as six, visited the northeastern and southern counties. They dropped bombs on the northern counties, inflicting casualties and doing damage. Details are not yet available of the destruction done. An airship was seen off the south coast. Advice was received from Tilbury today that the debris of a third zeppelin was picked up in the North Sea after the raid on Saturday night.
A Copenhagen despatch says that Danish fishermen saw four zeppelins traveling in a southeasterly direction on Sunday. One was damaged, and it was being escorted by destroyers.
"Several hostile airships cross the east and northeast coasts of England between 10.30 o'clock and midnight last night," says an official communication issued shortly after midnight.
"Bombs are reported to have been dropped at several places in northern and north Midland counties."
"An airship is also reported off the south coast."
"No reports of casualties or damage have been received."
Later the following official statement concerning the air raid was made public:
"Several hostile airships—probably six—visited the northeastern and southern counties during the night. Bombs were dropped in the northern counties, and some casualties and damage are reported. Full reports have not yet been received."

MAJOR BROOKES SLAIN WHILE LEADING MEN

Subaltern Pays Tribute to Gallantry of Nova Scotia Officer.
Canadian Associated Press Cable.
LONDON, Sept. 25.—The widow of Major Brookes, of Nova Scotia, who was killed in action last week, has received a letter from a lieutenant in the battalion to which the major was attached. "I will try and tell you how gloriously he fell while leading his men in a charge on a village, which had been successfully attacked in the morning, and which our brigade was ordered to complete," the letter says. "Major Brookes' company was the first to start from our battalion, and carried everything before it. Just as the company reached its objective, and when he knew that his men had surpassed his utmost expectations by the manner in which they had followed him, death came to your husband by a shrapnel bullet. He died within a minute of being hit."
"I cannot tell you how I feel the loss of your husband, with that of others like Major Tupper and John Stairs. The night before the attack we slept together under the same raincoat, and next morning he was as happy as a schoolboy, watching his men after each of our attacks. He followed me under a very heavy shell fire. They went into a terrific barrage fire that they were on the barracks square."

WHEAT YIELD INCREASES THRU SASKATCHEWAN

Threshing Will Not Be Finished For Another Month.
REGINA, Sept. 25.—The fortnight's work of the Saskatchewan Department of Agriculture indicates that about 20 per cent. of the threshing in the province is completed, and still in view of the fact that the entire harvest is estimated to be entirely finished by October 15 in the south and eastern districts of the province. In the west-central districts the work will not be finished until November.
Few correspondents report the yield or grade of wheat threshed, but it is expected that while the yield will be greater than was anticipated, the grade will be lower. The frosts have slightly damaged the late oats and some of the early wheat, but the yield for seed, also, has not been injured for feeding purposes.

JURY FREES WADDELL ON BRIBERY CHARGE

Disagreement Occurs in Case of Clayton Peterson at Regina.
REGINA, Sept. 25.—Grant Waddell, charged with conspiring to bribe members of the Saskatchewan Legislature, was acquitted today by a verdict brought in at 8 o'clock this evening. In regard to Clayton Peterson, charged with the same crime, the jury did not agree before the Chief Justice Sir Frederick Haultain discharging them on the ground that the evidence did not implicate them to more than a very slight extent.

AUSTRIA SOON TO HAVE FOOD DICTATORSHIP

Needs More Than Mere Legislation to Conserve Supply.
VIENNA, via Berlin, Sept. 25.—(Via London.)—In consequence of the discovery that something more than mere legislation is necessary to regulate Austria's food supply and conserve her meagre resources, it is planned to change the existing organization into a genuine food dictatorship, adding an executive or enforcing body to carry out the decrees of the dictators.

DEADWOOD

THE NEW PARTY AND QUEBEC AND THE WAR

The question of a new party is attracting the more attention than ever; and the newspapers and the public are talking about it from coast to coast. The Winnipeg Tribune, which is closely followed in the west, has published two of the World's articles in full in its issue of Friday last, where it reproduced one of them as its leader. It concludes as follows:
"There is space today for just a word on this somewhat lengthy quotation from 'The World.' It is that 'the Canadian public opinion is fast ripening for the new deal in the political world. The sentiment so recently given expression to at the polls in Ontario, Manitoba and British Columbia is not sporadic in character, but evidences a general feeling throughout the Dominion that it is time for a change in the public standards.'
The French-Canadian papers are also busy discussing the articles of 'The World' and they begin with the usual exhibition of that cheap newspaper which seems to have attended nearly all important political movements in the past. Le Devoir, the paper of Mr. Bourassa, publishes such an article, and goes out of its way to absolutely misrepresent our position. We are not going out to fight. But when 'The World' decides to exclude the French-Canadian from a 'new party,' I must throw up my hands and admit the weakness of my understanding. You would ostracize and exclude the first people who came to this country. The people who opened up Canada and made the roads which we travel on at present. Honest Indian, I don't understand!
Who do you intend to fill up 'a new party' with? Will it be with Orangemen hybridized with U. E. Loyalists? They may make a picturesque party, but as far as power goes, they will always remain Colonials. They can never really become Canadian.
Editor World: I have been following very closely your interesting articles on the need for a new political party in Canada—or rather on the need for wiping out completely the old lines of political differences that have altogether outlived their usefulness.
I am not in sympathy with many of the planks that you suggest for that new party. I cannot agree with you, for instance, that this is the time to enter upon the colossal expenditure that would be connected with the nationalization of our railways. I am further frightened away from that policy by the revolutionary action of congress recently in the dispute between the railways of the United States and their employes. Nor can I see why we should import remedies for social problems that may have been found expedient in England when the only way to get freedom from this Quebec domination is by electing Sir Wilfrid Laurier to power. That is the simplest halderdash, and The Globe knows it. Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the professional Liberals are today sitting back, keenly interested spectators of the trouble that Quebec has created for the Borden government. In a quiet way they are hoping that trouble along. In this they are merely following the example set by the Conservatives when they were in opposition. Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the professional Liberals are counting upon Quebec to put them in power at the next general elections. True, Sir Wilfrid doesn't like Bourassa and his Nationalists; neither did Mr. Borden when leader of the opposition. But Mr. Borden climbed into power on the shoulders of Bourassa, and, as that gentleman is always against any government which is not French, Sir Wilfrid is expecting and willing to do the same thing.

The Globe says there will be no Nationalists in the Laurier cabinet. There are no men in the Borden cabinet known by that name, but any other name smells as sweet or foul when attached to a Blonدين.
Now, Mr. World, are you big enough and energetic enough to rouse all Canada to the true situation? Have you sufficient influence to pull the wool from the eyes of Canadians—wool put there by the professional politicians?
If so, you will have achieved one of the biggest and most beneficial feats for Canada I mean all Canada, including the French-Canadians, who, like the others, are being grossly misled along a way that leads to destruction. Disturbed. Sept. 23, 1916.

The Importance of Proper Headwear

IT IS GENERALLY conceded that the Hat is the most important part of a man's dress. And why shouldn't it be? It's the first thing that's seen, and if it's not smart and becoming, the whole effect of good appearance is lost, even tho the rest of the apparel be perfect. Very careful selection should be given then in the choosing of a hat that is becoming.

In our Men's Hat Department is a huge assortment of soft and stiff Hats from dozens of British and American makers, forming a variety that makes it easy for almost any man to choose a suitable, smart and becoming fall hat.

Examples of the latest styles from some of the foremost manufacturers are the following brands:

The always-favored Soft Hat among the smart dressers is that celebrated Italian make, the Borasino, and one of the best shapes for this season is the 2 1/2 inch wide flat brim, with 1-2 inch binding on the edge. Can be worn trooper style if desired. Price . . . 4.00

Those famous English made Hats of Christy's are here in complete assortment, too. They are fedora shapes, with rope, welted or bound edges, and in shades of dark grey, green and pearl. Price, 3.00

American made Hats, styled in the newest fall shapes, with fairly high fedora crown, and almost flat brim, just slightly rolled and with 1-8 inch binding at edge. Brim can be dipped or worn at almost any angle desired. Ask for the Fifth Avenue shape. Price, 2.00

Motorists' Horsehide Gauntlet Gloves, Per Pair, $3.75

THE strong, cool breezes of fall crack and numb the fingers of the auto driver very quickly, and it is therefore necessary that warm, comfortable, windproof gloves be worn—gloves that are soft and pliable to give free, easy action of fingers. Probably the most popular kind is the gauntlet glove, similar to the above illustration. It is made of durable black horsehide, with wrist strap, dome fastener, prix seams, Bolton thumb and 6-inch gusset cuff. The inside is lined with lamb fur. Price, per pair, 3.75

Also very popular, because it is washable, is the "peccary" hogskin glove. It is a strong, serviceable hard to wear out skin that always looks neat and dressy, even after repeated washings. Has one dome fastener, prix seams, Bolton thumb and tan kid binding at wrist. Price, per pair . . . 2.50

Another much desired glove for motoring is the tan cape, with grill palm and fingers, that enables wearer to firmly grip the wheel. It has one dome fastener, prix seams, gusset fingers, Bolton thumb and spearpoint back. Price, per pair . . . 1.50

Very low in price is a black sheepskin glove in pullover style, with Bolton thumb and imperial points. Has heavy seam at palm and fingers for gripping wheel. Specially priced, per pair65

LABOR PARLIAMENT OPENS IN TORONTO

Mayor Church, Hon. Finlay Macdormid and Others Welcome Delegates.

REPORT INTRODUCED

Executive Reiterates Strong Opposition to Compulsory Service.

With a parade from the Prince George Hotel to the central technical high school, proceedings of the 32nd annual convention of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada were commenced yesterday morning.

At the technical high school speeches of welcome were made by Mayor Church, Hon. Finlay Macdormid, Chairman Houston of the board of education, and President Richards of the local council.

Hon. Mr. Macdormid said that as far as Canada was concerned, labor conditions were satisfactory. Any man who desired work could obtain it.

Chairman Houston of the board of education, in welcoming the delegates, thought Toronto compared favorably with any city in the world so far as education was concerned.

James C. Watters, president of the convention, described it as representing humanity. Until recent years the human element was not even considered by the workers themselves.

J. E. Williams of the British Congress, and N. Corcoran of the A. F. of L. were introduced and Secretary Draper welcomed them on behalf of the congress.

At the afternoon session, held in the auditorium of the Labor Temple, the report of the executive council was read by Secretary Draper.

the strong opposition that was taken at Vancouver last year against any form of compulsory service being adopted in Canada.

It is recommended that contracts take part in the peace conference proposed by the A. F. of L. for all labor bodies in America and Europe at the conclusion of the war.

The appointment of a commission in industrial relations is recommended as it is thought that conditions that led to the appointment of such a commission in the United States prevail in Canada.

First: The nationalization of railroads and the adoption of a policy for land settlement which will provide sufficient aid to guarantee the settlement of those adapted to, or adaptable for, farming.

Second: The building of an extensive system of highways. Third: The adoption of a policy for land settlement which will provide sufficient aid to guarantee the settlement of those adapted to, or adaptable for, farming.

Fourth: Shortening of the work-day to provide opportunity for the employment of every unemployed person.

Fifth: The disbanding of enlisted men to be gradual, covering a period of at least two years after the termination of the war to enable them to be absorbed into the industrial life of the country through immediate employment.

There are resolutions from Vancouver, Calgary and Theiford Mines in regard to the operation of the Industrial Disputes Act and an interesting discussion arose yesterday when it was decided on motion that the committee on resolutions bring the above resolutions for discussion when the meeting of labor and the solicitor of the congress are present this afternoon to discuss the new draft act.

W. Reeves of Formis thought the act should be discussed without the presence of Mr. Crothers. He remembered the minister's statement in Vancouver last year, that an imbecile can ask more questions in ten minutes than a wise man can answer in a lifetime.

Last night there were a few committee meetings and at 9 o'clock there was a bell and reception in the Labor Temple in honor of the visitors.

EDITORS THREATEN ACTION AGAINST GALT Winnipeg Greatly Excited by Condemnation of Journalists. PARTY FEELING STIRRED Conflict of Authority Between Judges is Predicted—Power of Mr. Galt Questioned.

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 25.—Not since the Roblin government resigned has the political pot sizzled so fiercely in Manitoba. In fact the circumstances surrounding the imprisonment of the editors, Beck, Magee and Deacon, and Reporter Beck their release on the habeas corpus writ; a wordy encounter between one of them and Premier Norris, and the threats of further proceedings by the partisans of both sides have rivalled in public interest the actual fall of the former provincial government.

A conflict of authority between the judges is predicted, impeachment proceedings against Justice Galt are threatened and each one of the men committed has employed counsel to fight the actual fall of the former provincial government.

Subpoena For Rogers. While sentence was being pronounced Saturday the three local papers were on the street with noon editions, and each contained editorial comment on various phases of the situation, many portions of which might be construed by men of judicial temperament as contemptuous in the sense of the law.

Enjoyed Their Jail Term. All the imprisoned men assert they were well treated in the jail, and had a pleasant afternoon with Thomas Kelly, the contractor, getting all the local color they required on penal institutions before they were taken before Justice Haggart. Saturday before Justice Haggart, Messrs. A. J. Andrews and C. P. Fullerton and F. A. Manning presented the applications for writ of habeas corpus, which set forth that Edward H. Magee was being unduly and with-out legal process deprived of their liberty. There was no argument. That will come Saturday, and the prisoners were released on their own recognizance. Edward Beck on his release from jail issued a statement saying: "There are two things at issue in this Manitoba situation in addition to that of the right of a public newspaper to express an opinion on public life. The other, and more important one, is whether or not the courts of Manitoba can be kept free from political partisan manipulations. In my opinion the entire political significance of the fight now going on is determined efforts of the Liberals of this province to obliterate the Dominion minister of public works. Mr. Rogers has been a thorn in their side ever since he entered public life in this province. He has incurred a more bitter hatred among his opponents than has perhaps ever been displayed by any other public man in the entire history of Canadian politics, not even excepting the vindictiveness displayed on the historical occasions towards Sir John A. Macdonald."

Threatens Action. Mr. Magee, editor of The Post, issued a statement, saying: "I am resolved to wipe out this outrage by employing every means in my power. The conditions that prevail in Manitoba under the present regime and under which our judges are scandalously involved are such as can no longer safely be tolerated. I intend to assist in correcting them. I intend to prosecute for damages and also to prosecute criminally if possible the individual responsible for this eighteenth century attack upon the liberties of the press and the freedom of speech which were thought to be firmly established 150 years ago."

SIR SAM CAN EXCEED THE LIMIT IN ENGLAND When His Chauffeur is Caught, He Produces Permit to Travel Fast. LONDON, Sept. 25.—When Pte. Major of the Canadians, was summoned for driving a motor car at thirty-two miles an hour, it was stated he was driving Sir Sam Hughes' aide de camp, immediately in advance, and the defendant's solicitor produced a permit granted General Hughes to exceed the speed limit when engaged on urgent military duty. The magistrate expressed himself as uncertain concerning the legal validity of such permits.

General Hughes yesterday attended a concert in Albert Hall, where the massed Canadian bands were playing, and Capt. Burke and Mr. Margaret Cooper assisting. The proceeds go to the Canadian hospitals.

increase is rumored in Timiskaming Dividend. Stoneham & Co., in their weekly market letter, say of Timiskaming: Timiskaming has been one of the strong features of the lower-priced silver shares on the market during the past week. Advisees from Cobalt today state that the company has just made a bullion shipment of 155,152 ounces valued at about $128,000. This is a sum equivalent to about 5 cents a share on the outstanding capitalization of the company. It is figured that Timiskaming is earning close to $750,000 annually or 50 cents a share on its outstanding capitalization, as compared with the current dividend rate of 12 cents a share annually. It is probable that earnings will shortly be considered sufficient to warrant an increase to 5 cents a share quarterly. Timiskaming's ore reserves approximate $500,000 ounces of silver, or sufficient to keep operations going at the present rate for about three years. The value of these ore reserves, it is computed, is equivalent to about 150 per cent. of the present selling price of the shares. Also maintaining a good production, Timiskaming is prosecuting deep development, it being believed by the management that an entirely new series of ore deposits will be opened at depth. The results of this work should have an important bearing on the market price of the shares.
