SAINT JOHN BOOSED AS FRUIT ENTRY PORT

TRADE CHANGES IN WEST INDIES ARE STRESSED

Jamaican Visitor Urges Canadians To Go After Business

VESEL SERVICE

P. R. Cumming Declares Service Planned Not Adequate for Countries' Needs

THAT there is no valid reason why an important citrus fruit trade from the West Indies to Canada should not be landed at the port of Saint John instead of at other places was the opinion expressed today by P. R. Cumming, president of the Canadian Suppliers Co. Ltd., of Kingston and Montreal, who is in this city.

Regarding the steamship service between Saint John and the West Indies, Mr. Cumming said that the double service to be supplied after June 23 would not be satisfactory for the reason that nothing except new up to date passenger steamers promised by the Canadian Government would supply the needs of Canada and the islands.

There would be great dissatisfaction in the West Indies, added Mr. Cumming, unless these new boats were forthcoming. He expected, however, that the Government at Ottawa would carry out the agreement made as the trade was available.

MANY OPPORTUNITIES

The Canadian people, declared Mr. Cumming, do not know what opportunities lie before them. The Jamaica planters and citrus fruit growers were busy increasing production of coffee, oranges, grape fruit, and pineapples.

"I am very much disappointed," he continued, "that Canada did not see

SHIPPING DATES

A STORY of general interest, especially to shippers, showing the rearrangement of sailing schedules to the West Indies by the C. M. M. and the R. M. S. P. services, appears on page 18.

It is clear to give us a preference on oranges and pineapples, when it is considered that the freight earnings on citrus fruits by the steamship lines, at the present rate of freight (now amount to over $1,000,000 for a crop season).

So far as the quality of oranges is concerned the Jamaica crop is considered to be the best in the world. The Jamaica grape-fruit trade has the call from Halifax to Winnipeg, but it requires faster steamers, and steamers equipped with refrigerators and cold air to handle our end of the trade made with Canada last year.

PRODUCTION INCREASED

"We are increasing the production of coffee, and today Jamaica coffee is wanted from Halifax to Vancouver. In fact Jamaica produces only about one-sixth of the Canadian importation of this product. Jamaica planters are constantly planting new trees. Last year there was an increase of 188,000, and I understand that this year a larger acreage is being set out. That is also true of the increase in cocoa and ginger.

"The preference of three cents a pound on coffee will practically double the Jamaica and the other West Indian coffee trade to Canada.

"Regarding the port of Saint John for handling citrus fruits, I can see no reason why the greater part of this trade should not come here, as Saint John is much nearer Montreal than Halifax, and the shortening of the haul is a very important factor in handling perishable products.

IMPORT QUESTION

"Canada is a large importer of vegetables during the winter months from Florida, Arizona, Texas and California. Jamaica is in a position to supply these products from November to April, and this trade should be another important source of revenue for the steamship line and railways. Why these vegetables should be imported from the southern United States when they can be supplied by British possessions within a short sail of Saint John and Halifax is for the public to answer. It is up to the Canadian public to patronize products grown within the Empire.

"I notice in your fruit stores Cuban and Costa Rican pineapples of a very inferior quality. We grow in Jamaica pineapples that cannot be equaled anywhere in the world and can supply

TALK OF POINCARE FOR FINANCE POST

Briand is Meeting Many Difficulties in Forming New Cabinet

PARIS, June 17.—The anticipation of Aristide Briand that he would meet with considerable difficulty in the accomplishment of his task of forming a new ministry seems likely to be justified. When M. Briand yesterday accepted the invitation of President Doumergue to try to form a new ministry, the guiding principle of which should be laying aside political quarrels and forming a united front to aid in the "Battle in the franc" he said he did not expect his path would be strewn with rose leaves.

His first setback came from the radicals. At a midnight session of the congress they voted almost unanimously against any union with "a minority condemned by universal suffrage," that is to say, the Nationalists, but they expressed willingness to sustain a Democratic government which would endeavor to unite with the Republicans on a vigorous financial reform program.

HAS CONDITIONS

It is understood that M. Poincare is willing to accept the heavy burden of the Finance Ministry, but that he also lays down certain conditions. He wants it understood that the government will be given full powers to deal with the financial situation so that measures decided upon shall not be continually compromised by interference in parliament.

Big Gold Strike Made In Oregon Mine; 540 Feet Net $100,000

CRANT'S PASS, Oregon, June 17.—Twelve to 14 veins of gold laden quartz, which in 540 feet of tunnel have produced $100,000 worth of gold, have been discovered in the Robertson mine, 14 miles west of Galice, it is said here.

Shipments of a quantity of bullion to the mint ended secrecy which has been maintained regarding the strike. There are some signs of a rush into the gold district. The veins vary from two inches to two feet in width, and no signs of pinching-out are seen, it is said by the owners.

CHURCH BATTLE IN ENGLAND IS REACHING CRISIS

Anglo-Catholics May Re-Unit With Rome, Says Report

OPINIONS DIVIDED

Archbishops and Bishops Meeting at Lambeth Now Over Rubric

By HERBERT BAILEY
British United Press.

LONDON, June 17.—The Church of England is facing one of the greatest crises in its history, which may lead to the breaking away of 700,000 members who belong to what is called the Anglo-Catholic party, and their possible reunion with Rome.

Thirty-eight archbishops and bishops are now in daily conference at Lambeth and are expected by a majority vote to approve the rubric passed by the house of clergy making legal the perpetual reservation of the sacrament in the churches "for the use of the sick and others un...," to attend the services.

OPINIONS DIFFER

There is a strong diversity of opinion among the bishops and if the church assembly approves the bishops' decision with regard to the new rubric, the matter may be taken before Parliament where a great church battle would be fought.

MIGHT STRENGTHEN DEMAND

The Anglo-Catholics refuse to recognize the authority of Parliament in the settlement of spiritual affairs. Rejection of the bill would strengthen the vigorous party already in existence for disestablishment of the church and the Anglo-Catholics would then become a separate body.

The Bishop of London has been seriously criticized recently because he has given appointments within his patronage to "Romanish" churchmen and the whole issue of the Anglo-Catholic union with Rome is likely to become a live one.

Gov't Abandons Idea Of One War Ministry

LONDON, June 17.—The proposal to create a Minister of Defence for the co-ordination of the army, air and naval ministries, which has been warmly advocated by the Conservatives, has been definitely abandoned by the government, according to a statement made by the Earl of Balfour in the House of Lords last evening.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 17.—Fifteen persons, including four trainmen and 11 passengers, were killed in the wreck of the Washington Express and the Cincinnati Limited near Blairsville intersection, the Pennsylvania Railroad officially announced today after a careful check of all undertaking establishments in Latrobe, Derry and Blairville, to which places the bodies were removed.

The crash came on a level stretch of road on a slight curve. The terrific impact reduced two locomotives, two sleepers and a club car to a twisted mass of wreckage.

Rescuers, cutting their way through the debris, felt that they would find additional victims, increasing the death toll to at least 20.

The gas bag was burned up within a few minutes, but quick work by her builders at the hangar, prevented the flames from spreading to other parts of the airship. She was constructed for the Japanese government and was scheduled to be delivered this summer.

COUNTY COURT CASE MUST BE GONE ALL OVER

It Turns Out Plaintiff Was Under Age When Action Begun

The case of Colin Sproul of Loch Lomond against Arthur Ryan of Barnesville, an action for damages arising out of an automobile collision in October, 1924, was commenced in the County Court before Judge J. A. Barry but was discontinued after objection had been filed by defence counsel to the effect that the plaintiff was under age when the action was begun.

Mr. Sproul, in giving evidence under cross-examination, said that he was under age when the writ was issued. The defendant, raised the point that the plaintiff, being an infant in law, could not sue.

Scott E. Morrell, who appeared for the plaintiff, asked leave to amend his pleadings, and the application was allowed by the court on payment of costs of the day. The action will have to be commenced all over again.

Belgian Queen Not Bobbed But Clever Hairdresser Does Trick

BRUSSELS, June 17.—Queen Elizabeth's hair is not shingled, bobbed or cropped, Count P. De Lannoy, grand master of the house of the Queen of the Belgians, has issued an official denial of the insistent rumors that Belgium's charming queen has had her hair cut off to conform with the prevailing fashion.

"If Her Majesty looks as though her hair was shingled," says the master of the royal house, "that is because of the skill of her hair dresser, who is able to make the queen's hair appear as if it were cut. But no scissors have touched her hair."

WILL CARE FOR MOST OF VALLEY RAIL DEFICIT

Agreement Retroactive to Include 1925 Levy

SUCCESSION FEES

Effort to Avoid Multiple Taxation of Estates is Being Made

THE estimated deficit this year on the Valley Railway would be nearly met by payment of taxes to the Province of New Brunswick by the Canadian National Railways if the present tentative arrangements are carried through, Premier John B. M. Baxter announced here this morning.

As reported in The Times-Star yesterday, the C. N. R. had agreed to contribute $119,000 yearly in taxes to New Brunswick, but Hon. Dr. Baxter said today that this agreement would be retroactive and start from 1925, thus making the payment this year amount to $238,000.

The deficit on the Valley Railway last year was in the vicinity of $270,000.

REDUCED DIRECT TAX

A consequent reflection of this decision on the part of the Canadian National would likely be seen in the imposition of the direct tax this year. At the last session of the Legislature, the Provincial Executive was given power to fund all the existing debts of the province and then assess the interest and sinking fund charges directly on the taxpayers.

As reported in The Times-Star yesterday, the C. N. R. payment will materially reduce the amount of the direct tax.

ONLY TENTATIVE YET.

As stated yesterday, this is a tentative arrangement and hinges on an understanding with the Province of British Columbia that there would not be any increase in taxes for the company in that province. There is every reason to believe, however, that the agreement will go through.

Regarding the conference of Premiers at which the arrangement was given definite approval, Premier Baxter said it was a splendid opportunity for the interchange of views on subjects peculiar to provincial administrations.

One of the resolutions adopted expressed the sympathy of the conference with those provinces which by reason of certain conditions have not progressed as anticipated and urged on the Federal Government that it should favorably consider affording relief. This referred especially to the Maritime Provinces.

SAYS RIFLE WILL BE USED IF DOGS NOT OBEY

R. Crawford Complains at City Hall About Paradise Row Conditions

Objectors to Notify City Clerk—Flags for July 1

A statement by Robert Crawford that unless the police kept stray dogs from destroying his property in Paradise Row would be to take the matter in his own hands and "use a rifle" was made this morning at a committee meeting of the Common Council, which he appeared to urge the paving for Paradise row and proper police protection for that part of the city.

BUILDING BY-LAW

His Worship said it had been agreed to take up the building by-law this morning. Commissioner Bullock asked if the by-law had been submitted to the city solicitor and Commissioner Harding said it had.

Commissioner Harding moved section by section consideration. Commissioner Frink seconded. Commissioner Wigmore suggested that any who had objections to the by-law be asked to state their cases before the council took action. Mr. Sanford suggested time would be saved if the interested ones would make their suggestions in writing to the common clerk and that official pass them on to the by-law committee and later the council consider the revised law, if the committee accepted any of the suggestions.

COMMISSIONER HARDING

Commissioner Harding expressed his willingness to withdraw his motion, but Commissioner Frink objected, and on a vote being taken the motion was lost.

Mr. Sanford's plan was adopted. Commissioner Frink moved that the by-law be authorized by general revenue any necessary expenses in connection with the revision. This was lost. It was decided to take the matter up again at the first committee meeting in July.

R. CRAWFORD COMPLAINS

Robert Crawford said he was representing property owners in Paradise Row who would like to have conditions improved. The street surface was bad and there was very little police protection. He wanted to know what the legal status of these dogs was, and if the police were going to look after them if they were not, then he would take the matter in his own hands and use a rifle.

Mayor White said they had no legal right on the street and even a licensed dog had no right to run at large. He asked if the police had the control, and Commissioner Harding said that was a question he did not want to discuss at the meeting.

W. N. COLLINS

W. N. Collins said he had lived in Paradise row for 33 years. The street was in a bad condition at present. He thought the public works department were doing what they could to keep it in repair, but paving was needed.

OTHER COMPLAINTS

Mayor White said complaints had been received from all parts of the city and these would all be considered by the public work department.

Commissioner Frink said he felt the complaint of the residents of Paradise row was justified, but the cry was for economy and bond issues were being avoided as far as possible. He thought the city had made a mistake when the auditor's plan was turned down.

COMMISSIONER FRINK

Commissioner Frink said he would be remedied as soon as the asphalt plant was started.

EXHIBITION FINANCES

A. P. MacIntyre, city comptroller, reported that he had found the deficit of the Exhibition Association for 1925 was $79,115, instead of $1,428,471, and on looking an order-in-council was varied to read that $79,115 be paid over to the account of the Exhibition Association. It was said the difference arose over charging a three year insurance premium over one year instead of dividing it over three years.

TO BUY FLAGS

Mayor White reported that a delegation had requested that the city provide funds for the purchase of 4,000 Union Jacks for distribution on July 1. The sum of $200 was voted and Commissioners Wigmore and Harding named as a committee to look after the matter.

HYDRO MATTER

The city council reported that he had examined the estimate of the Civic Power Commission on the East Saint John extension and found it correct, with the exception of the 21 per cent. for overhead, which, he thought, was too high. He had been informed by the Civic Power Commission engineer that he recommended to council with the percentage for overhead reduced to 10 per cent.

Mayor White

Mayor White said he had been discussing with D. King Hazen the matter of having money placed in Rockwood Park and submitted a letter from Mr. Hazen, in which it was said that the cost of providing a suitable enclosure would be between $1,500 and $1,400. No action was taken.

Inspector Orders Building Torn Down

James Carleton, building inspector, said this afternoon that he was sending a notice to George Waterbury of a house in Johnston street, which partially collapsed yesterday afternoon, that it must be torn down and that work would have to be commenced before noon tomorrow. It is a 3-story tenement, unoccupied.

MACKREL STRIKE AT MOUTH OF BAY

Good Catches Reported From Several Places—Schools Off Nova Scotia

Mackerel have struck in fairly large quantities at several points in the southern Bay of Fundy. In one day the Cranberry Island trap pursued 77 barrels; Burns Point, 45; Sanford, 30; and Beaver Island, eight. Drifters this week report many mackerel, the boats averaging six barrels each daily off Wood's Harbor and other places. Large supplies are expected in this city within the next few days.

On the eastern coast of Nova Scotia large schools of mackerel are reported 30 miles off shore. Bad weather and dark nights, when the phosphorescence from the long lines of twine from half a hundred nets frightens the fish away, has hindered the industry in some localities.

The Gloucester, Mass., seiner Catherine Burke, which was off Halifax last week, returned home with 77,000 pounds of mackerel, part of which catch was taken off the United States coast. Prices in Boston have declined at the wharves to five and six cents a pound.

Numerous wedding gifts from friends in and out of town were taken to the ceremony.

Out of town guests at the wedding included Miss Kathleen Lahey, sister of the groom, who with Miss Kathleen Bettle, witnessed the signing of the register. JUDGE FORBES ENTHUSIASTIC OVER CHURCH COUNCIL

Speaks of Montreal Meetings From Which He Has Just Returned

"You couldn't tell one from the other" remarked Hon. G. Forbes in stating how the members of the former Presbyterian, Congregational and Methodist churches attending the General Council of the United Church of Canada in Montreal had become part of the Water Carriers' work, who was the first of the four Saint John representatives at the General Council to return to the city arrived home yesterday. The other three representatives, Rev. H. C. Rice, Rev. J. S. Bannell and T. H. Somerville will remain until the close of the sessions. Judge Forbes had the distinction of being the oldest delegate present and his closest rival for that honor he believes was Henry Birks, of Montreal, who is 98 years old.

The wonderful spirit of harmony which prevailed and the splendid amalgamation of the different departments of the work of the three churches had been carried out greatly impressed the Judge. He spoke of the inspiration of the service held in St. James' church and of the stirring messages brought by the 40 missionaries present, of the United Church, he said, has between 300 and 400 missionaries in the field.

THIS YEAR'S BUDGET

Judge Forbes spoke with satisfaction of the successful amalgamation of the theological colleges which would effect a great saving and lend to greater efficiency. The budget which the church was asked to raise this year, he said, was $3,500,000 as compared with $4,000,000 asked last year. The sum was raised last year, he said, had been about $3,800,000.

INTERESTED LOCALLY "I am very much interested in the West Indies and have been living in Jamaica for the past nine years, representing the largest Canadian firm, including T. McAvilly and Sons, Ltd., of Saint John; Connors Bros., Ltd., of this city and the Canada National and Wire Co.

The new treaty should be taken advantage of, and the other manufacturer of the Maritimes should get busy and get a portion of the great profit Indian trade that is being done this way. If the Canadian Government will grant us a preference on oranges equal to that on grape fruit, the Canadian consuming public will get cheaper and better oranges.

The wonderful spirit of harmony which prevailed and the splendid amalgamation of the different departments of the work of the three churches had been carried out greatly impressed the Judge. He spoke of the inspiration of the service held in St. James' church and of the stirring messages brought by the 40 missionaries present, of the United Church, he said, has between 300 and 400 missionaries in the field.

VENIOT SAYS PLAN WAS DEVISED BY HIM

Former Premier Speaks of Payments to Provinces by C. N. R.

That the general plan under which it is expected the Canadian National Railways will pay into the provincial treasuries taxes on the corporation properties was devised by Hon. J. V. Veniot, the former premier said today in an interview with a Times-Star reporter. Dr. Veniot said the negotiations were begun in 1924, when he was head of the New Brunswick Government, and that this morning he was at the last session of the Legislature, Dr. Veniot said, he reminded Premier Baxter that C. N. R. taxes were not fixed, the final arrangement depending mainly on the mileage with the provinces.

Under the tentative agreement Constantine has been exporting provinces will receive $250,000 annually, this province to get about $100,000.

Dr. Veniot, who leaves for home this evening, said that he was in Saint John on private business.

W. I. URGED TO USE LOCAL PRODUCTS

Saint John Lady Sees Aid to Producers and Manufacturers

FREDERICTON, June 17.—"I make an appeal to the women of New Brunswick, Westchester province, to use our manufacturers," said Mrs. D. S. Seely, of Saint John, during the course of her annual report as president of the standing committee on home economics to the 14th annual convention of the Women's Institute of New Brunswick in session here today.

"We can make New Brunswick one of the greatest exporting provinces of the Dominion. Freight rates should be readjusted so as not to bear too heavily on our manufacturers," she declared as she urged greater consumption of home produced goods by the women of New Brunswick.

"Immigration at the present moment in New Brunswick is at a standstill," said Mrs. M. E. Lawrence, of Saint John, in connection with the presentation of the report of the committee on immigration.

Other reports presented today were those of the following committees: Legislation, by Mrs. G. W. Fleming; Education, by Mrs. J. H. Dunham; Public Health and child welfare, by Mrs. Harriet M. Neve; and Agriculture, by Mrs. Charles Comben, of Woodstock, and publicity, by Miss Margaret Gray, City of Gasquetown. Mrs. Dunham's report was read in her absence.

STATUS OF LOCAL G. W. V. A. DISCUSSED

Question of Wellington Row Property Commented on Following Fredericton Meeting

With the G. W. V. A. going out of existence in the province, with the exception of the Saint John branch, by action taken at a meeting held in Fredericton yesterday, local veterans were discussing today the status of the organization. While some said that they could still call themselves the G. W. V. A., others maintained that there was no such thing now in the province and the only authorized soldiers' organization here was the Carleton League of the British Empire Service Branch.

The question as to the disposal of the property in Wellington Row has been discussed and it was said that the virtue of the trust, former G. W. V. A. Provincial commander, which is now the British Empire Service Branch, a proprietary interest in the property. This property is owned by a holding company, the G. W. V. A., which is incorporated in Saint John, the Mayor of Saint John as trustee for the Provincial Government, the Saint John branch of the G. W. V. A., which is incorporated, and individual stock holders. The interest held by the Mayor of Saint John as vested in him by the Provincial Government was in trust for the provincial command of the G. W. V. A. It was said that the stock held by the city and by the Mayor as trustee constituted a majority. The amount of the holdings was said to be approximately $30,000.

Sugar Bootleggers Active in Turkey

CONSTANTINOPE, June 17.—Sugar bootleggers again are active in Constantinople. The government's heavy duty on sugar has caused scores of Greeks, Turks, Armenians and Jews to smuggle in large quantities of contraband sugar and sell it at large profits. One bootlegger is said to have made half a million dollars in the last year on "illegal" sugar. The government has taken severe repressive measures against the smugglers, but the practice continues in spite of them.

HEAD MASTER'S SPEECH.
In his annual address Rev. W. R. Hibbard, head master, spoke as follows:

My purpose is not my usual one on these occasions, that is short review of the events of the past year. Today I wish to speak not of the past but of the future. The inscription under the school crest bears the date 1871, which is the date of our foundation. That means that 1927 will be a jubilee year. Fifty years is quite an appreciable measure of time and the event of our attaining that venerable age will, I hope, be celebrated with fitting ceremony. I trust that we shall have a great company of "Old Boys" here at the next closing and that it will prove to be a very happy reunion. The Old Boys' Association are already considering ways and means of making it so.

SPEAKS OF SCHOOL.

The fact that we have survived so many years, and not only survived but also in a healthy condition, leads naturally to the question as to just what we stand for in the educational life of our country. In other words what is it that characterizes the training given here and wherein lies its distinctive value? One cannot answer this question in just a sentence but yet it may be answered in fairly few words. The chief factor in education is not subject matter presented, it is rather learning to live. It is not so much obtaining an intelligent appreciation of certain subjects, though that of course is also of great importance, it is rather gaining an intelligent appreciation of social relations and the manner in which one should conform to them. This is the class room by no means the only place where education is imparted.

CHANGE OF EMPHASIS.
The greatest change which has been registered in the last quarter of a century in the field of general education is a change in emphasis. The emphasis is now placed not exclusively on subject matter; it is being placed more and more on the interests and activities of the pupils. It is just here that the boarding school, with its many and varied opportunities, has a close association of the pupils with one another and with their teachers, an association which exists all the time and not as in the day school but one quarter of it, makes it a powerful instrument in the educative process.

LEARNING TO LIVE.
The school is, or should be a place where the pupil learns to live. We sometimes hear it said about those who are leaving school or college that they are just entering upon life. But if they have not already learned to live while they are yet at school it will be a difficult matter for them to learn afterwards. I do not mean to say that they will never learn, for the world itself is a great school and has the faculty of teaching us by the hard knocks of experience how we should conduct ourselves and conform to social requirements. This process is, however, a long time to attain its desired end; infinitely better it is that we should learn the lesson while the world is still plastic and more easily moulded.

THE SPOILED YOUTH.
I suppose that one of the greatest abominations in existence is a spoiled child, an even greater abomination is a spoiled youth for he becomes as a rule a perfectly unresponsive and selfish creature. One who has had the social welfare before him becomes a positive drag upon the efforts of his fellow men. It is here that the boarding school, with its regular and fixed routine affords a valuable lesson. There comes, let us say, the temptation to indulge in a little longer bed than one should—who among us has not experienced this temptation and does not always successfully resist it? But if staying in bed too long brings sure and just retribution, a punishment which is not only felt but is also a lesson in yielding to lawlessness, then there is likely to be formed the habit of doing and not of indulging in it at the moment would like to do.

VALUE OF ROUTINE.
This is just one instance of the value of a fixed routine, and many others might be cited. Leave of absence given for an hour, a half day or a day may not interfere very seriously with studies. Sometimes, however, it is requested that the recipient of educational honors, that it is not so much the loss of time which matters, time which may be made up again, but it is the disregard of a rule with the consequent deduction that duty is not of paramount importance.

CO-OPERATION NEEDED.
Apart from anything I have just said, I think the cooperation might be made more effective than it often is. Too often the parents refrain from inquiring all the information they might give, information which to the teacher may be most useful. "Here is my boy, take him and educate him," is about all that is said. Of course, to be told that Johnny is a very sensitive little fellow and the food in all boarding schools is absolutely poisonous, yet, in spite of that, boys not only manage to subsist upon it, but they thrive far better than they are at home. The same man went on to say that he would be willing to take any parent, send him for a week on the school food and then abide by the decision of the change in weight. I may say that we should be quite ready to make the same experiment here, only we should insist that in matters of sleep and exercise as well as in diet the parent should be subject to the regular school regime. Certainly we find that boys improve physically in a remarkable way after they come to us. In all my experience I cannot recall one instance of physical deterioration, unless, of course, when some disease has occurred, in any of our boys.

DISCIPLINE AND ROUTINE.
I am afraid that I have been guilty of a digression, as I started out to talk about the value of discipline and routine. I wonder if many of you have thought seriously about the value of having meals at exactly the same hours each day and the value of food which is invariably plain, wholesome and substantial. A headmaster of one of the English public schools recently said: "Everyone knows that the food in all boarding schools is absolutely poisonous, yet, in spite of that, boys not only manage to subsist upon it, but they thrive far better than they are at home." The same man went on to say that he would be willing to take any parent, send him for a week on the school food and then abide by the decision of the change in weight. I may say that we should be quite ready to make the same experiment here, only we should insist that in matters of sleep and exercise as well as in diet the parent should be subject to the regular school regime. Certainly we find that boys improve physically in a remarkable way after they come to us. In all my experience I cannot recall one instance of physical deterioration, unless, of course, when some disease has occurred, in any of our boys.

Discipline and routine are great things, but they are not all. A school like this is not a sort of hotel where teaching is supplied as well as board and lodging. It most certainly is not that, but to define just what it is a more difficult matter, because there is something about it which defies definition. More than anything else, it is a life, a life which goes on continuously, yet, fed by the stream of youth, it never grows old. One feels sometimes that connection with this life imparts the gift of perpetual youth; a vain illusion, alas! but one cannot help were ripped up and twisted for about 100 feet. The two locomotives on number 40 were reduced to a mass of twisted wreckage, while one sleeper, in which most of the victims were located, was found to have been telescoped its full length. Inside this sleeper another Pullman car had been pushed by the terrific impact. The two sleepers appeared as though one had been constructed around the other. Another sleeper was standing on its end, the rear section being high in the air. G. M. Sixsmith, superintendent of passenger transportation said that the smashup occurred when the express halted so that a broken air hose could be repaired.

BLOCK SIGNALS SET.
The flagman of number 80, he said, went to the rear to set off flares, and the block signals were set against east-bound trains. T. W. Becher, the flagman from the express, performed his duty, after number 40 tore into the express. Sixsmith said, Becher's flares were found burning on the right of way.

The superintendent added that W. S. Gordon, of Altoona, Pa., who was killed, was the engineer on the first locomotive hauling the limited. When word of the disaster reached railroad officials here, wreck trains were ordered from all available points between Pittsburgh and Altoona. These trains carried doctors, nurses, medical supplies and wrecking equipment.

SCENE OF CONFUSION.
The scene, at first, was one of utter confusion. Every available man and woman was pressed into service, and within a short time, the efforts to rescue the injured and recover the dead, were under way. It was a most difficult task for the wrecked locomotives and sleeping cars were in such condition that the rescuers found it practically impossible to get within.

A few bodies and a number of injured men were seen in the wreckage. The bodies of the men who were killed were seen in the wreckage. The bodies of the men who were killed were seen in the wreckage.

feeling all the same when one's interests, hopes and joys are so largely identified with those of others; intensely, hopes and joys which, after all, which are so much a part of the life of the outside world, with what pertains to it, may seem a small thing. To those who share it, it is the one thing which really matters and something fraught with tremendous possibilities.

CHANGES IN STAFF.
Two members of our staff are leaving us this term, Guy Ryder and Selwyn Coster. Mr. Ryder has been with us since the beginning of the year. He has identified himself so closely with the life of the school and has done so much for the boys in so many ways that his loss will be felt greatly. Mr. Coster has been with us only for one year, but in that short time he has certainly won the esteem of all. To both of these gentlemen I offer my best wishes for the future.

The vacancies caused will be filled respectively by J. F. L. Jackson, a graduate of King's College, Halifax, and who has had considerable experience in teaching, and by Gordon Macnail, one of our "Old Boys" who recently graduated from the University of New Brunswick.

jured, were recovered during the early hours of the morning, but with dawn, rescuers, equipped with heavy hauling apparatus, went to the task. The shattered locomotives of number 40, were hauled from the torn rails, and ties, twisted sections of coaches were cut into and within a few hours, the badly telescoped sleeper from Cleveland, on the rear end of the Express was penetrated. Here the bodies of nine passengers were found.

The club car, immediately behind the two locomotives on number 40, bore the brunt of the shock on the fast-running express. In this car were found five bodies.

The trains are known as two crack Pennsylvania fliers. Number 40 left Pittsburgh at 11:20 last night. The limited pulled out of the Pennsylvania Station in Pittsburg 15 minutes later. Two Pittsburgh sleepers and the one from Cleveland on number 80 were attached to the train here. They were on the rear end of the express and it was here that the greatest toll of life was taken.

Chile May Resume Military Occupation

ARICA, Chile, June 17.—With the breakdown of the plans for a plebiscite to decide the sovereignty of Tacna and Arica, Chile intends, according to her spokesmen here, to resume her military occupation of the disputed territory. All the forces which were withdrawn by order of the plebiscitary commission, are to be returned forthwith, and one regiment will be billeted in the very building in which the commission has held its sessions.

Col. O. M. Biggar On Child Diet

Speaking before the Canadian and Gyro Clubs at the Admiral Beatty, Red Cross Commission, Col. O. M. Biggar, M. D., D. S. O., said that easily one School Child out of three was under-nourished. Doubtless his message has been given out in all his missionary talks.

The Red Cross, like all health bodies and authorities, strives to impress mothers with the idea of feeding their kiddies lots of the food that's best for young digestions, contains the three vitamins, restores energy and builds healthy bodies. Bread and Milk stand above all—Butter-Krust Bread for a shining example with its Milk and threefold quantity of all the vitamins. A Bigger Bread—a bigger value.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., JUNE 17, 1926.

THE PORT.

The June number of the Journal of Commerce will be read with particular interest by all interested in Saint John. In addition to a colored cover depicting our harbor, there is a special article dealing with the port and an editorial on the same subject.

The last is accompanied by a map which unfortunately does not include Partridge Island, so giving an unduly open appearance to the channel. It deals with the advantages Saint John enjoys as well as the disadvantages under which she labors. The article says in part:

It would appear that there are two important adjustments which require to be made if the Port of Saint John is to compete successfully with the other Atlantic Ports to the south of it for Trans-Atlantic business.

First, the Canadian Pacific Railway should give the Canadian National Railway running rights over their tracks into West Saint John, and these two roads should work together with a view to concentrating the overseas traffic on this side of the Port. In this way much duplication of facilities would be avoided and a very considerable unnecessary expenditure saved.

Secondly, this west half of Saint John Harbor should be taken over by the Government and made a free port. At the present time vessels calling for a cargo of Canadian grain or other produce may enter without having to pay the "side end top" wharfage exacted by the Port of Saint John.

Substantially will agree with this, though few will admit that the expense of blasting and dredging of Courtenay Bay would be incommensurate with the construction of such a port as we intend Saint John shall be.

JONAH AND THE WHALE. At a recent meeting of the World's Christian Fundamentals Association, held in Toronto, Miss Constance Maynard said that of all the fish stories in the world that of Jonah and the whale was the most unfortunate, because the question of its credibility was linked up with the acceptance or rejection of the literal interpretation of the Scriptures.

It has been pointed out that biologists have demonstrated to the satisfaction of the sceptical that the structures of the throat and stomach of the whale would not permit of the deglutition of an adult human body entire, nor if that were possible, could the subject of so dreadful a repast survive the early stages of the meal.

At the meeting referred to, Dr. Arthur L. Brown, described as a noted surgeon of Vancouver, was able to support the literality of the narrative contained in the first chapter of Jonah by citing a modern instance of a man surviving the ordeal of enlarging the waist measurement of a whale for a considerable period.

Dr. Brown proceeded to describe an actual incident of a similar feat. "The incident occurred in 1895," said the doctor.

"It was an English whaling vessel, the Star of the East, which was sailing in southern seas. It sighted two big sperm whales. One of them was harpooned and killed. In its dying struggles, it upset one of the whaler's boats, containing half a dozen men. One of these men could not be found and was given up as drowned.

"The Star of the East," Dr. Brown said, "got the whale. It took one and a half days to cut him up. When, at last, they reached the stomach, they found the man. James Bartley, rolled up in a ball. He was alive, but for two or three days was a raving maniac.

"Bartley, afterwards in his testimony, said it was the heat that was most uncomfortable. He declared he found no trouble in breathing. It was the terrible nervous shock, and the fear of what would be his fate, that caused him temporarily to lose his mind.

"So," Dr. Brown went on, "there's nothing very miraculous about Jonah's being in the fish's stomach for three days. In any case, the Bible doesn't say it was a whale that swallowed him. The Bible says it was a large fish. Whether Mariner Bartley's story is authentic or merely a 'whale' of a fish story must be left to the reader to decide.

Just Fun

Hi—"Have you got a date?" FLORIDA MISS (indignantly)—"No! What to you think I am, a California fruit store?"

We often wonder as we roam Down life's beaten track, How an armored knight in days of old Contrived to scratch his back.

TWO thousand years ago, Aesop said: "I there's anything good in a man it's bound to come out on an ocean voyage."

HE WHO laughs at his own jokes usually laughs alone unless he is telling the joke to a group of faithful employees.

"AW, JUDGE," whines the Chicagoan, "that was my first murder in a week."

THE Charleston dance is being prohibited often enough to become popular.

"I SAW your girl this afternoon." "Did you see her new gold tooth?" "No, she had her mouth closed." "Then it wasn't my girl."

ANOTHER kind of fool is the one who doesn't know it isn't smart to say unkind things.

MANY people who went to school would have a hard time proving it.

The lady moon has silver hair, She's quite aloft and lofty, too, But she can't be superlative fair.

THERE are people who are always giving special rates—Special high rates.

"RASTUS, does you love me?" "MANDY, you is one woman I don't like none other no better than."

WOMEN used to say they had nothing to wear, and it was a joke. Now it is almost the truth.

MINERS AND MINE OWNERS.

London Daily Telegraph. The basic requirement is that working costs must be brought down. Profits have gone, if we take the mines of the country as a whole. Moreover, the country that accepted a Labor Government without a quail, and gave it its opportunity, even if that Government did not long exist, is shedding its prejudices with a reasonable degree of rapidity.

INFLATED DEBATES.

Le Devoir. It is intolerable that the common sense should employ three-quarters of their time in listening to speeches which have no new matter in them. Some party or group leaders have talked with intelligence and have said new and interesting things; but seventy-five per cent. of the remaining members have talked hither to for the sake of their voters only, rambling on about purely local matters, or hushing up old party quarrels which practically everybody would much rather never hear mentioned. This is why, at the end of May, Parliament is hardly more advanced than it was at the beginning of January.

A STUDY IN CONTRASTS.

Halifax Herald. Lloyd George will fight; Lord Smith is an old man, and tired. He was great in times that called for his own style of statesmanship; but he was one of the "bottle intellectuals" who could not stand the crushing weight of war conditions. Lloyd George threw on what overwhelmed the chief under whom he had served for a decade. All the dynamic Welshman asked was a blank cheque—and a free hand. Asquith, Grey, Simon, those who are arrayed against him today, were hesitating and waiting and seeing while Lloyd George was acting ten years ago. As the stirring days of the war recede into the past, we are liable to forget these things; liable to forget who failed—and who organized victory.

My Town can't be too good. ("Whib" Chaffee in The Literary Digest). My Town can't be too good for me, Nor I too big or good for it; Though small in size My Town may be, I'd have it big in "Push" and "Grit."

My Town must meet emergencies With dauntless courage, vim and "Pep"; Though progress is not bought with ease, My Town must not get "out of step" nor if that were possible, could the subject of so dreadful a repast survive the early stages of the meal.

My Town, of course, is good enough, No matter how my fortunes woe, Nor yet how fortune may rebuff, My Town's defamers I would quell.

—And yet, down deep within my heart I know My Town improved could be; To help improve I'll do my part— My Town can't be too good for me!

"No Interest in Politics." (Edmonton Journal). We always have with us those who say that they take no interest in politics. This remark will be heard frequently during the impending election campaign. The answer which Rev. Hugh Price-Hughes gave to all such many years ago is still worth quoting.

When a man makes this confession, he sadly means that "he has been all his life enjoying his political privileges and grossly neglecting his political duties, which is scarcely to his credit." As a matter of fact, he declared, "politics, correctly understood, is simply the science of life—the doctrine of the way in which I am to do my duty to my neighbor, which is an essential part of true religion."

Motor Economy (Square Deal). "Dear, I'll get a car I can save a lot on clothes during our holiday this summer."

"How do you mean?" "Well, you see, if we go to one hotel, as formerly, I'll need seven dresses; whereas, if we have a car I can get one dress and we can go to several hotels."

A Forlorn Chap. (Vancouver Urolinec). June wedding preparations do not include any recognition of the prospective groom. Apart from being present and making the customary responses he is a negligible feature of the ceremony.

THIS Canadian poet, now living in England, abandoned poetry some years ago, and devoted himself to poetic prose. He is a cousin of Bliss Carman. He has written many beautiful nature stories; but some of the poems he wrote in his youth seem to me still the best product of his prolific pen.

Queer Quirks of Nature

SPOTTED JAGUAR

By ARTHUR N. PACK President, The American Nature Association. EVERY schoolboy can tell you that the jaguar lives in the tropical jungles of South Africa, but how have followed the rough mountain ranges over the border, and have lost their coats in Uncle Sam's territory.

Of all the large cats, the jaguar seems the most muscular. His short, powerful legs support a body which is thick and almost clumsy in appearance. But this yellow-orange coat, marked with spots and rosettes of black and rich brown, is one of the most beautiful borne by an animal.

The jaguar, though somewhat dreaded by the people of the jungle, rarely attacks man, though his great strength makes him a powerful opponent. He easily overcomes any of the animals of his region.

The peccary lives in constant terror of the great cat, and is a favorite food. Dogs are relished, and are sometimes snatched up from camps before the eyes of their masters, and doubtless even to their relief, for had the dog been lacking, the man would have served just as well.

The Very Idea!

LIKE A MAN I GUESS a dad's a sort of pest at morning, when he's gettin' dressed. "I'm shy a button my vest!"

By little things he's oft delayed and, as result, a fuss is made. He always needs the good wife's aid—"The collar on my shirt is frayed."

He has a tough time getting by, while dressing he will puff and sigh, and ere he's through you'll hear him cry, "Hey, mom, come help me tie my tie!"

Then, when he's set, to tie down town, you'll find him seaching all around. No wonder pop gets mother's goat. "Say, where the heck's my hat and coat?"

A cat will always give a lick and a promise not to cry over spill milk. At least you gotta give splash credit for giving kids something to object to eating.

When a girl explains she can't stand in the sun, on account of the dress she's wearing, it's a pretty thin excuse.

DINNER STORIES

ON FIRST night's sentry duty in the late war a colored doughboy called: "Halt! Who goes there?"

"Office of the day." The officer advanced a few steps, when again he was halted, whereupon he exclaimed: "This is the second time you've halted me! What do you intend to do?"

"I guess you-all mind what Ah'm gwine ter do. Ma orders is, 'Say halt three times an' then shoot!'"

THE applicant for the situation as cook was insolent-looking and untidy. "Don't engage her," whispered Dunn to his wife. "I don't like the look of her."

"But," remonstrated his wife, "just consider the reputation for cooking she bears."

"That doesn't matter," said Dunn, testily. "We don't want any she bears cooked. We don't like them."

OUR ideals are often a personal matter, and after all, it is just as well to be humble about our achievements. A certain woman was brought before a magistrate.

"It appears to be your record, Mary Moseley," said the magistrate, "that you have been convicted of stealing thirty-five times."

"I guess, your honor," replied Mary, "that is right. No woman is perfect."

MEIGHEN MOVE IS DEFEATED IN COMMONS VOTE

Margin of 8 as Effort to Re-open Peace River Case Fails

PETITION CALLS FOR ELECTION OF COLLINS

Opposition Leader Terms It Mockery to Tell Him to Go to Courts

OTTAWA, June 17.—The House of Commons tonight defeated a motion of Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, Conservative leader, that the Peace River election petition be received by a majority of eight votes.

It was after midnight when the House divided on Hon. Mr. Meighen's motion as follows: Aye, 103; no, 95.

Three Progressives voted with the Conservatives in support of the motion. They were: Messrs. Fansher (Last Mountain, Sask.); Lucas (Carleton Place, Ont.); and G. B. Peat (New Brunswick, N. B.).

Government members, Independents, Labor and Progressives, apart from the three indicated, voted against the motion.

RESULT OF ELECTION

Some weeks ago a petition in the name of James H. Collins was presented to the house. In the general elections, Mr. Collins was the five candidate in Peace River, D. M. Kennedy (Progressive) being declared elected by 17 majority. Subsequent proceedings before the Alberta courts revealed irregularities in the election. Conservatives pressed that, in view of these revelations, Mr. Kennedy should be declared ineligible to sit in the house and that he should be replaced by Mr. Collins.

In the petition described today, Mr. Collins asks that authorization be given to the electoral officer to secure return of the candidate who obtained the largest number of votes when the petition was referred to the courts.

Mr. Meighen declared it was mockery for the house to tell Collins to go to the courts. "The fact is," said Mr. Meighen, "that by the votes legally cast Mr. Kennedy was not elected."

ELECTION REFERRED TO

The petition refers to the Peace River election in which D. M. Kennedy was declared elected. The petition asks: (1) That the house investigate the conduct of certain officials in connection with the election.

ONE SURE WAY TO GOOD HEALTH

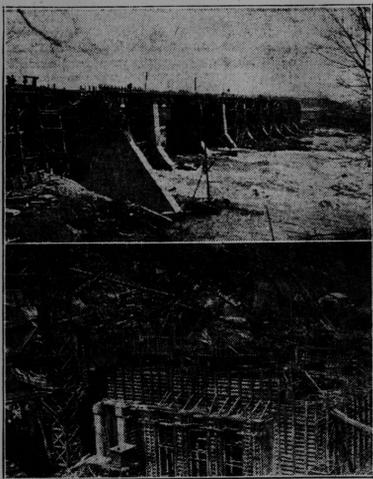

Is Keeping the Blood Rich and Red—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Make Rich, Pure Blood and Restore Health.

"Thin, pale people lack the power of resistance to disease that rich, red blood gives. Nervous breakdown is the result of thin blood. So is anemia, indigestion, rheumatism and many other troubles. People suffering from thin, impure blood need just the help Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can give. For more than a century Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been famous as a nerve restorer. Thousands upon thousands of letters from grateful people have proved the rare value of this medicine. The first effect of the pills is usually to stimulate the appetite, then the spirits revive and restlessness at night gives way to health-restoring sleep. For sufferers from anæmia, nervousness, general weakness, digestive troubles, rheumatism, or the after-effects of influenza or acute disease, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a restorative of the utmost value. If you are weak or ailing give these pills a fair trial and the result is sure to be beneficial."

"Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done wonders for me," writes Mrs. Russell Hill, Norwood, Ont. "I was run-down and could not eat or sleep and was very nervous. I was pale and would sometimes faint. I took a lot of doctor's medicine but it did not help me. It was a real trial to do any housework, or to go about, and I got so that I scarcely cared whether I lived or died. One day while reading a paper, I saw an advertisement about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. It described a case very much like my own and I decided to give the pills a trial. I had not been taking them long when I could feel a change for the better. I continued the pills until I had used eight boxes when I felt like a new woman. Every disagreeable symptom had vanished and I gained in weight, and a good color returned to my face. All this I owe to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I am now never without them in the house, and any time I feel out of sorts they are my first aid. I gladly bear this testimony in the hope that it will benefit some other sufferer."

"Building Up the Blood" and "What to Eat and How to Eat," will be sent free by The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., if you mention this paper. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all dealers in medicine or will be sent by mail, post paid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box.

with the election of a member to represent the Peace River constituency and (2) that the house direct the proper officers to take such action as may be necessary to secure the return to the house of the candidate who secured the largest number of votes. Mr. Meighen's motion was that the house should proceed to consider the petition notwithstanding the report of the clerk of petitions, who had ruled against the acceptance of the petition.

PREMIER ASKS RULING

Before Mr. Meighen was able to proceed with an explanation of his motion, Premier King interrupted to ask for the Speaker's ruling as to whether or not the petition could be received. Mr. Meighen objected to the earlier ruling which had prevented the house from deciding whether or not it could receive the petition.

Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice, addressing the speaker said: "It is for Your Honor to decide whether or not the petition will be received."

PUT UP TO HOUSE

Speaker Lemieux said that the present petition asked for two things. One was for the investigation of election acts of the house. The second request was a different matter. The speaker said that the proper officers be directed to take such steps to secure the return of the candidate having a majority of votes. Parliament had never entrusted such authority in the circumstances to its officers. Part of the petition appeared to be within the jurisdiction of the house and the other part outside its jurisdiction.

MEIGHEN'S ARGUMENT

Mr. Meighen said that prior to the passing of the contravention election acts of this kind had been taken under review by special committees of Parliament. The act gave to certain powers which were formerly exercised by the House committees. In so far as the courts had power, this power should not be reassured by Parliament, said Mr. Meighen, but the jurisdiction rested with Parliament alone. It was unjust for Parliament not to exercise that jurisdiction. If a wrong was complained of which the courts had no jurisdiction to right, he would not be making his point, said Mr. Meighen. "It was his duty to show that no court in the land could deal with this complaint."

ACTION HELD MOCKERY

It was mockery, said Mr. Meighen, for the house to tell Mr. Collins to go to the courts. The courts had ruled that the testimony of people who were prepared to swear that they voted in a certain way could not be admitted. Because of that fact Parliament must consider what this petition meant.

90 THEFTS CHARGED

"It means," said Mr. Meighen, "that an officer of this House—no matter how he was appointed, he as an officer of this House—committed the crime of theft the most sacred thing in the possession of any citizen; he committed it in 90 cases. He substituted for the goods he stole some goods of his own. And because of this, Collins, who was elected, is not here and Kennedy sits in the House now as a result of thefts so committed."

COURTS POWERLESS

"Are honorable members," said Mr. Meighen, "going to say to Collins, go to the courts, while it is known that he can't give his evidence there? Is Parliament to turn with a sneer to Mr. Collins and say go before this powerless court?" Parliament had never stripped itself of the power to investigate and pass upon wrongs done by its own officers, said Mr. Meighen. He felt that no one had a right to vote against the motion until they could prove that Mr. Col-

PLAN SUMMER COURSES HERE FOR TEACHERS

Arrangements Are Being Advanced for Study at Vocational School

A commercial institute for the benefit of teachers of commercial subjects and prospective teachers is to be held in Saint John in the Vocational School opening on July 15 and continuing for three weeks, it was announced yesterday by Fletcher Peacock, provincial director of vocational training. While an institute of a similar nature was held in New Brunswick in 1922 it was not conducted on so large a scale or so comprehensive in its program nor were so many outstanding experts secured for the leaders as is the case for the present institute.

It is hoped to be able to include in the program of the institute departments in commercial law and commercial geography. H. R. Pointing, of Toronto, manager of the Isaac Pitman Company for Canada, will attend to give expert advice in the matter of the Isaac Pitman shorthand instruction.

LAPOINTE SPEAKS

Hon. Ernest Lapointe, minister of justice, said that parliament had reserved to itself only those rights which had been delegated to the courts. The qualifications of a candidate were subject to review by parliament, but all matters concerned with the election itself, such as fraud, were matters for the courts to deal with.

SUMMER SCHOOL OF CHURCH OF ENGLAND

Arrangements For Sessions to be Held Next Week Are Announced

The program for the Church of England summer school, that will be held at Robbsey's next week, has been completed. A number of eminent leaders will take part. The school opens on Wednesday night, June 23, at 8 o'clock when Mr. J. Cooper Robinson from Japan will give the first of a series of four illustrated talks on problems of missionaries in Japan and the first night's program will close with service in the college chapel at 9 o'clock when His Lordship, Bishop Richardson, will give a devotional address.

MEIGHEN'S STAND

Mr. Meighen declared it was mockery for the house to tell Collins to go to the courts. "The fact is," said Mr. Meighen, "that by the votes legally cast Mr. Kennedy was not elected."

ELECTION REFERRED TO

The petition refers to the Peace River election in which D. M. Kennedy was declared elected. The petition asks: (1) That the house investigate the conduct of certain officials in connection with the election.

ONE SURE WAY TO GOOD HEALTH

Is Keeping the Blood Rich and Red—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Make Rich, Pure Blood and Restore Health.

"Thin, pale people lack the power of resistance to disease that rich, red blood gives. Nervous breakdown is the result of thin blood. So is anemia, indigestion, rheumatism and many other troubles. People suffering from thin, impure blood need just the help Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can give. For more than a century Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been famous as a nerve restorer. Thousands upon thousands of letters from grateful people have proved the rare value of this medicine. The first effect of the pills is usually to stimulate the appetite, then the spirits revive and restlessness at night gives way to health-restoring sleep. For sufferers from anæmia, nervousness, general weakness, digestive troubles, rheumatism, or the after-effects of influenza or acute disease, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a restorative of the utmost value. If you are weak or ailing give these pills a fair trial and the result is sure to be beneficial."

"Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done wonders for me," writes Mrs. Russell Hill, Norwood, Ont. "I was run-down and could not eat or sleep and was very nervous. I was pale and would sometimes faint. I took a lot of doctor's medicine but it did not help me. It was a real trial to do any housework, or to go about, and I got so that I scarcely cared whether I lived or died. One day while reading a paper, I saw an advertisement about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. It described a case very much like my own and I decided to give the pills a trial. I had not been taking them long when I could feel a change for the better. I continued the pills until I had used eight boxes when I felt like a new woman. Every disagreeable symptom had vanished and I gained in weight, and a good color returned to my face. All this I owe to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I am now never without them in the house, and any time I feel out of sorts they are my first aid. I gladly bear this testimony in the hope that it will benefit some other sufferer."

"Building Up the Blood" and "What to Eat and How to Eat," will be sent free by The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., if you mention this paper. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all dealers in medicine or will be sent by mail, post paid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box.

POWER PLANT AT GATINEAU

Margin of 8 as Effort to Re-open Peace River Case Fails

PETITION CALLS FOR ELECTION OF COLLINS

Opposition Leader Terms It Mockery to Tell Him to Go to Courts

OTTAWA, June 17.—The House of Commons tonight defeated a motion of Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, Conservative leader, that the Peace River election petition be received by a majority of eight votes.

It was after midnight when the House divided on Hon. Mr. Meighen's motion as follows: Aye, 103; no, 95.

Three Progressives voted with the Conservatives in support of the motion. They were: Messrs. Fansher (Last Mountain, Sask.); Lucas (Carleton Place, Ont.); and G. B. Peat (New Brunswick, N. B.).

Government members, Independents, Labor and Progressives, apart from the three indicated, voted against the motion.

RESULT OF ELECTION

Some weeks ago a petition in the name of James H. Collins was presented to the house. In the general elections, Mr. Collins was the five candidate in Peace River, D. M. Kennedy (Progressive) being declared elected by 17 majority. Subsequent proceedings before the Alberta courts revealed irregularities in the election. Conservatives pressed that, in view of these revelations, Mr. Kennedy should be declared ineligible to sit in the house and that he should be replaced by Mr. Collins.

PREMIER ASKS RULING

Before Mr. Meighen was able to proceed with an explanation of his motion, Premier King interrupted to ask for the Speaker's ruling as to whether or not the petition could be received. Mr. Meighen objected to the earlier ruling which had prevented the house from deciding whether or not it could receive the petition.

PUT UP TO HOUSE

Speaker Lemieux said that the present petition asked for two things. One was for the investigation of election acts of the house. The second request was a different matter. The speaker said that the proper officers be directed to take such steps to secure the return of the candidate having a majority of votes. Parliament had never entrusted such authority in the circumstances to its officers. Part of the petition appeared to be within the jurisdiction of the house and the other part outside its jurisdiction.

MEIGHEN'S ARGUMENT

Mr. Meighen said that prior to the passing of the contravention election acts of this kind had been taken under review by special committees of Parliament. The act gave to certain powers which were formerly exercised by the House committees. In so far as the courts had power, this power should not be reassured by Parliament, said Mr. Meighen, but the jurisdiction rested with Parliament alone. It was unjust for Parliament not to exercise that jurisdiction. If a wrong was complained of which the courts had no jurisdiction to right, he would not be making his point, said Mr. Meighen. "It was his duty to show that no court in the land could deal with this complaint."

ACTION HELD MOCKERY

It was mockery, said Mr. Meighen, for the house to tell Mr. Collins to go to the courts. The courts had ruled that the testimony of people who were prepared to swear that they voted in a certain way could not be admitted. Because of that fact Parliament must consider what this petition meant.

90 THEFTS CHARGED

"It means," said Mr. Meighen, "that an officer of this House—no matter how he was appointed, he as an officer of this House—committed the crime of theft the most sacred thing in the possession of any citizen; he committed it in 90 cases. He substituted for the goods he stole some goods of his own. And because of this, Collins, who was elected, is not here and Kennedy sits in the House now as a result of thefts so committed."

COURTS POWERLESS

"Are honorable members," said Mr. Meighen, "going to say to Collins, go to the courts, while it is known that he can't give his evidence there? Is Parliament to turn with a sneer to Mr. Collins and say go before this powerless court?" Parliament had never stripped itself of the power to investigate and pass upon wrongs done by its own officers, said Mr. Meighen. He felt that no one had a right to vote against the motion until they could prove that Mr. Col-

Modern Wives are Discontented Because They are Lonesome and Unappreciated by Their Husbands—A Few Compliments, Theatre Tickets and Real Kisses Would Solve Feminine Cross-Word Puzzle.

A MAN asks me: "What's the matter with wives?" He says that wives used to be meek and mild and humble and satisfied and subservient to their husbands, and that now they are restless and discontented and peevish and not willing to stay put in their homes, and that they flout their husband's authority. And he wants to know why this is thus, and what's the matter with wives, anyway.

DOROTHY DIX

Well, I think that the chief thing that is the matter with wives is husbands.

THE average man seems to think that just being married to him is picnic enough for any woman, and that every time she looks at her wedding ring she should pass into a state of ecstatic bliss. He feels that he bestowed such a favor upon her in saving her from being an old maid that she hasn't a right to expect anything more from him.

His whole conception of the duty of a husband consists of paying the rent and the grocery bill and giving his wife a few dollars. It never enters his head that he is under any moral obligation to make happy and pleasant the life of the woman he has taken into his hands.

POSSIBLY men have always felt that way about their wives. Probably wives have always resented this attitude of their husbands, but in the past there was nothing for the woman to do but to put up with it as best she could with such luck as fate sent her in a husband.

But nowadays, when any able-bodied, intelligent woman can support herself, and three-fourths of the girls who get married give up good-paying jobs to do so, wives are demanding more of husbands than their grandmothers did, and they are not pulling any suffer-in-silence-and-be-strong stuff when they don't get it.

They have made a big sacrifice on the altar of matrimony. They have given up their freedom, their good pay envelopes, their pretty clothes, their good times and the thrill and excitement of work that brought them in continual contact with the outside world, so that they are not saying any particularly fervent "Thank you" to any man for the privilege of slaving in his kitchen and doing his cleaning and his scrubbing and baby-tending and working twice as hard as they ever did before and without wages.

THEY look upon matrimony as a fifty-fifty proposition, in which a man is just as much married as a woman is, in which his duty to her is just as great as her duty is to him, and they feel that it is just as much up to the husband to do his part in making a home as it is to the wife. Men may take the modern woman or leave her, as they please, but they may be sure of this one fact: that the patient Griselda wife is as extinct as the dodo.

Never again are women going to keep the home fires burning for husbands who come home only to change their clothes and eat, then lay forth to amuse themselves. Never again are women going to endure the abuse of high-tempered husbands, the grossness of surly ones, the tight-lippedness of miserly ones. Never again are women going to sit up and twiddle their thumbs waiting for the wrecks of unfaithful husbands to come back to them to be nursed and cared for when they are too old and broken to philander any more.

The passing of this generation will see the end of the financially dependent woman. The woman who can get out and earn her own living and that is going to chuck out of her the idea of the house the husband who doesn't give her satisfaction, just as she would break up any other partnership with a man who didn't carry out his part of the obligations.

GOODNESS knows, when you see the kind of husbands that a lot of women have got, you can't blame them for being disappointed. When a girl gets married she thinks that she is securing to herself a perfect lover, a man who will always be tender and affectionate to her, who will always admire her and never weary of telling her how beautiful and wonderful she is, and how lucky he feels himself to have got her for a wife. But, alas! the great majority of men stop their lovingmaking at the altar. They never show to their wives by word or deed thereafter that they have the slightest affection or interest in them.

There are thousands upon thousands of wives whose husbands never speak to them except to knock them. There are thousands upon thousands of husbands who never give their wives a kiss that isn't an insult, it is so cold and flabby. There are thousands upon thousands of wives who would drop dead of surprise if their husbands should pay them a compliment.

IS IT any wonder that the women who have this brand of clam-once husband are discontented and peevish? Do you wonder that the wives of such husbands don't break their necks to please them? What incentive has a woman to fry herself to a cinder over the kitchen stove cooking good dinners for a man who gobbles them down without a word of praise? Why should she sweat every nickel for a husband who will grow over the hills, anyway, without even a recognition of her thrift? Why should she try to make herself attractive to a man who never notices her any more than he does the carpet sweeper?

Another thing that is the matter with wives is that they are bored and lonesome. A woman marries for companionship. Every girl's dream is to get a husband with whom she can get around. What most of them get is a walking delegate or a store dummy.

NINE-TENTHS of the husbands either put on their hats as soon as they have eaten their dinners and bang the front door behind them as they make their exits, or else they sit up as silent as mummies, with the evening papers in their hands, and only grunt when they are spoken to. Or else they tune in on the radio and expect wife to spend an exciting evening watching them get Honolulu and Birds Center and Squeedunk.

They never think that after a dull day spent in monotonous household duties a woman would like a little cheerful conversation or to be taken out to some place of amusement, where she could get something new to think about next day while she washed the dishes and mended the baby and patched Johnny's trousers. And that is what makes wife cross and fretful and whining and complaining. She gets morbid and self-pitying, because she hasn't enough new interests in her life to keep her from dwelling on her troubles until she magnifies all of the molehills into mountains.

THERE are not many men who are intentionally bad husbands, but there are lots of husbands who are careless husbands and indifferent husbands and neglectful husbands, and it is these who make disgruntled wives.

When you find a husband who is tender and kind and loving to his wife and who makes her feel that in every way he is seeking her happiness, you will never have to ask what's the matter with wife. She's all right. DOROTHY DIX.

How To Keep A Husband

ADVENTURES of the TWINS

WHAT THE TWINS SAW IN SHUT-EYE TOWN

The Twins looked at all the queer people in Shut-Eye Town, going up and down and in and out, and here and yonder, willy, nilly, the queerest way ever. They whisked by under their very noses or walked between them, or darted out unexpectedly from nowhere, disappearing just as suddenly into nothing.

The most amazing part of it all, however, was that nobody made a sound. With so much hustle and bustle and hurrying and pushing, you'd have expected it to sound like circus-day. The Twins must have showed how very odd they thought it was, for all at once a tall thin person with long arms like tool-gates, suddenly stretched out one of his arms in front of them and they had to stop.

"My name is Geewhilkens," said he in a solemn voice. "Why are you so surprised?"

"It's so very quiet," said Nick. "Nobody seems to make a sound. Do they all wear overboas?"

"No," said Geewhilkens. "But our streets are made of rubber. Grade A Number One rubber that never wears out."

"Can't you ever stamp or make a noise?" asked Nancy. "What do you do when you're cross?"

"Cross?" exclaimed Geewhilkens. "Cross! What does that mean? Is it anything like whooping cough? As for whooping cough, we have a wonderful invention. Silencers! You can't hear a thing."

"Say, Mister," said Nick suddenly. "We came to this place to look for a couple of friends, so we must be going. I guess. Thank you for telling us so much about everything."

But strange to say, Mister Geewhilkens turned slowly into a great green lobster with enormous whiskers and great green claws like nut-crackers. One of these nut-crackers he snapped rudely before Nick's nose, looking as though he should like to say something rude also. But he lacked hurriedly away without any further remark, and Nancy said indignantly: "I know why he did that. He didn't think his thumb would make enough noise if he snapped it, so he turned into a lobster just so he could have those horrible claws to snap."

"I shouldn't wonder," said Nick. "But, oh, Nancy, look at all those queer people!"

The Twins stood and watched the people of Shut-Eye Town go sliding by in their queer noiseless way.

First a lady as wide as a mattress and no higher than a shoe-scraper passed, leading a dog as long as a clothes-line and as thin as a clothes-pole.

Next came a man as high as a church steeple and so narrow he could have walked through a door crack. Without a word the man jumped on a six-legged horse which promptly leaped up on a house and went down the chimney.

The third person was no other than an enormous egg, who seemed to be able to bend quite easily in the middle, for he bowed this way and that to all his friends as he passed, constantly taking pinches of snuff and sneezing without any noise.

The fourth person stopped in front of the Twins and introduced himself. "I'm Upstairs," said he. "I'm first cousin to the Lowly Daisies, but I refused to be so humble and changed my name. Now you know why I wear a high silk hat, a pair of glasses on a string, and I guess. Good-bye!" And away he went.

"Say, Nick," whispered Nancy. "I feel as though 'I was asleep."

"So do I," nodded Nick. "But I'm sure we're not."

IN NEW YORK SEE-SAWING UP AND DOWN BROADWAY

I heard this latest bit of slang, which I advise you to jot down and sprig on the old folks at home. . . . "Papa-shoppers" . . . It has reference to the flappers who "ankle" up and down Main street looking the boys over.

"Ankling" by the way, is the gentle art of strolling about with that particular type of dress that challenges the male eye. If you see a young lady with one of the six-foot-two college football type you are expected to ask her: "Who's the big parade?" And a middle-aged lady trying to look young in a "face-lifter," the grim maid who sprays cigarettes is a "smokeless powder" and a heart-breaker is a "subduck."

SAW James Cobb, who holds the world's record as a stagehand, marching with the O. A. B. boys in the Memorial Day parade. Cobb has been active "back stage" for 50 years and his age is somewhere in the eighties. He still is at it and says the midnight life has kept him young.

The "spumoni man" is once more in our midst. "Spumoni" is an Italian ice cream very popular in Manhattan. But the "spumoni man" has changed. No longer is he a picture peddler going about with his wares. Now he goes about on a three-wheeled motorcycle with a little attachment for his goods. Truly, I expect any day to see an orange grinder going about in a flivver. And then, my friends, there will be nothing left to live for.

NOTE that the large pictures of un-dressed ladies are starting out from many Broadway lobbies and look for a heat wave. Amusing though it may seem, the burlesque houses, which were quite the nastiest thing possible in father's day, headed the march for "cleaner" shows. For the entire winter season no suggestive pictures appeared in burlesque show lobbies. But competition from the "better" shows became so heated that they have had to go back to naughty photographs.

Fifth Avenue exclusive shops showing next fall's furs. Jazz bands are doing deep lining up at Pennsylvania Station for departure to summer resorts. Most of the players appear to be young Jewish boys from the East Side. A single tenement supplies all the players of one band. The boys grew up together and learned "team work." The parents run pushcarts. Thus operates the melting pot. Russian cossacks, in picturesque attire, walking Broadway arm in arm with former members of the royalty who now operate cafes or act as doorknopers. The other day I met a pianist in a royal orchestra playing "on location" at one of the film studios.

TODAY'S RECIPES

Waffles—Separate two eggs and beat the yolks with one and one-quarter cups milk. Sift together two cups pastry flour, four teaspoons baking powder and one-quarter to one-half teaspoon salt. The amount of salt depends on whether the fat used in the waffles is salted or unsalted. Mix thoroughly and add six tablespoons melted shortening. Last fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites. Sour milk may be substituted for sweet milk, using five-eighths teaspoon baking soda and one and one-half teaspoons baking powder.

Nut Bread—Three cups flour, three teaspoons baking powder, one cup sugar, one teaspoon cinnamon, one teaspoon salt, one egg, one and one-half cups milk, one cup nuts, cut in pieces, one cup raisins, two tablespoons melted shortening. Mix and sift flour, baking powder, sugar, cinnamon and salt. Beat eggs and add milk. Stir liquid into flour mixture and mix well. Add nuts, raisins and shortening. Pour into bread pan, let stand one-half hour and bake in moderate oven (325 degrees F.) 50 to 60 minutes.

Beef—This is a good way to use cheaper cuts of beef and a great favorite: Two pounds beef, one can tomatoes, three onions, one half dozen whole cloves, one stick cinnamon, three slices salt pork, one-half cup vinegar. Chop tomatoes and onions, make slash in beef, fill with salt pork, add cloves and cinnamon to tomatoes and onions. Salt, put over meat with vinegar and enough water to cover. Bake three hours or until meat is tender.

Strawberry Snowdrifts—Sponge cake, whipped cream, sugared strawberries. Bake any good sponge cake mixture in thin sheets. When cold cut with a sharp knife in narrow strips about four inches long. Fill these log-cabin fashion and about four inches high on as many serving dishes as there are guests. Heap the centers with whipped cream slightly flavored and sweetened, and dispose sugared strawberries about the base. This recipe may also be used with peaches.

Provincial Association of Girl Guides To Be Formed In Saint John This Month

Mrs. Todd, Wife of Lieutenant-Governor, N. B. President, Will Attend Along With Several Commissioners—Special Opportunities Are Pointed Out

A NEW BRUNSWICK provincial association of Girl Guides is to be organized at a meeting to be held in the Y. W. C. A. recreation center in Saint John on Tuesday, June 22, when Mrs. W. F. Todd, wife of the Lieutenant-Governor, and president for the Guides in New Brunswick, will be present.

Mrs. William S. Allison, provincial commissioner, and Miss Dorothy Purdy and Miss Elsie Lawson, of St. Stephen, district commissioners, have been active in calling the meeting and preparing for the formation of a provincial body. It is not known definitely how many active companies of Girl Guides are in existence in New Brunswick. The latest compiled list shows 22 companies outside of Saint John district, and 12 companies and two Brownie packs in this area.

The lack of a provincial organization and the great difficulty in securing headquarters has prevented the Girl Guide movement from making the progress in this province which it otherwise might have done.

For the provincial council it is hoped to enroll many well wishers of the cause who will become annual contributors of a small fee, and in this way help to maintain the provincial headquarters that will be established in Saint John, and will be open at certain stated times.

One benefit companies in more or less remote districts will have through the provincial organization will be a yearly visit from the commissioner, and the inspiration and help which personal contact will bring. Every company will be able to make full use of the provincial office.

Mrs. Allison pointed out the special opportunity which Girl Guides are to have next year of attending the All Canada Girl Guide camp that will be held in Vancouver on July 1927, a special camp site having been arranged by special invitation of British Columbia. Special trains will take the Guides out to the coast and back, and excursion rates will be arranged.

It is expected that the whole cost in any New Brunswick Guide for the trip will be about $150. Stop-overs on the way are to be arranged and at each place the Guides will be entertained by the local people. Guides, Guides and Commissioners are all eligible to attend camp, the only requirement being that Guides shall be over 14 years of age and be recommended by a Guide officer. As there is more than a year to elapse before the camp opens, it has been pointed out that any Guide very keen to enjoy the trip and the month of camping can begin now and save penalties to enable her to defray her expenses. It is to be a wonderful opportunity, and it is hoped that New Brunswick will have a goodly contingent among the campers.

ATTENDED ANNUAL MEETING. Mrs. Allison attended the annual meeting of the Canadian Association of Girl Guides, held in Toronto this spring at the residence of Mrs. Warren, chief commissioner for Canada. The two chief leaders present at the meeting were Lady Baden-Powell, international president, and Dame Katherine Furze, chief commissioner for Girl Guides in England. The meeting was full of inspiration and marked by the great enthusiasm of the members.

The Girl Guide movement is growing and expanding throughout the world, it was said, and one special point stressed at the meeting was the fact that there were so very many girls eager to become Guides who could not achieve their ambition because of the lack of leaders.

If a woman can run her kitchen on a saving of easily three hours' effort every day, cut her fuel bill down to a couple of dollars or so a month—why shouldn't she see the economy of changing over to the unfailling heat of a Moffat Electric Range that obeys any order on the press of a button—and never needs cleaning, never gives off fumes, soot or dust settling all over the house. MORE GIFTS OF INTEREST TO LOCAL MUSEUM

Model of Old Sailing Vessel, Ancient Book and Other Donations

The marine room at the Natural History Society museum, which is so popular with many visitors, has received two new additions to its interesting collections lately. W. C. Newcomb, of Moncton, has presented to the society a photograph of the barquentine Enterprise, the last vessel built by C. W. Newcomb at Hopewell Cape, N. B., which was launched Oct. 18, 1891, and was wrecked some 300 miles ago.

With the photograph Mr. Newcomb has sent the model from which the barquentine was built. The model has been put into thorough repair and is very nicely mounted. It is to be hung in a prominent place in the marine room and will be a guide to indicate one more chapter in the history of ship-building in this province, of which it is the hope of the museum curator, Dr. William MacIntosh, that the marine room may in time contain the full record.

WORKING MODEL

The working model has the following inscription: "The barquentine Enterprise, 469 tons, designed and built by C. W. Newcomb at Hopewell Cape, N. B., Oct. 18, 1891; length, 159 1/2 feet; breadth, 33-1/8 feet; depth, 18 feet; scale, 3/8 inch to the foot."

A chart of the signals displayed at the flag station at Partridge Island, which has been nicely framed, is another of the latest additions to the marine room collections. The Mrs. George F. Smith estate gift of an old ship model is found to be exactly similar to one of the oldest models in the Salem museum and an endeavor is being made to trace its history.

ANCIENT VOLUME

W. B. Hoyt, of Andover, has sent an ancient volume, "Three Treatises, being the substance of several sermons preached at Lincoln's Inn by Edward Reynolds, D. D." The book was published in London in 1688, is strongly bound in leather and is in a fine state of preservation.

Lieut.-Col. A. J. Markham has given an old cutlass used in the British wars which is similar to those used by Nelson's sailors at the Battle of Trafalgar. He has also presented an ornament of white bone which was part of the horse trappings of an officer of the Hussars. The thick brush of horse hair is about 18 inches long and has a heavy brass knob and hook with which it was attached to the chin strap of the Hussar's moun.

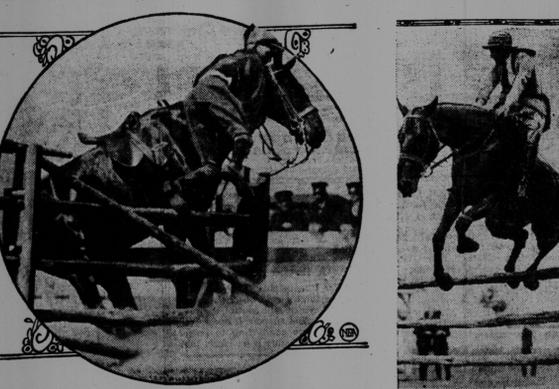

WAR POSTERS

From John Keefe the society has received nine different specimens of the war posters displayed at various times in Saint John. They are interesting records.

Mrs. John Keefe has given a well bound copy of the "Local and Private Statutes of New Brunswick, Vol. 111," printed at Fredericton in 1855, which has much interesting historical information and has been gladly received.

Robert Jardine has presented two old documents of local historical value. The first is a parchment recording the conferring of the freedom of the city on Robert F. Hazen in 1838 and the second is a certificate of the appointment of Alexander Jardine as a fire policeman of Saint John in 1851.

Miss Edith Temple Robinson has given some very nice old carved ivory earrings that are very nice pieces of craftsmanship.

INSPECTION OF THE CADET CORPS ENDS

THE last of the city cadet corps were inspected yesterday and all had made a good showing it was said last night. Yesterday King Edward playground, Col. A. B. Snow inspected the corps from Winter street, Centennial St. Vincent's, Aberdeen, St. John the Baptist, King Edward and Victoria schools and in the evening at the Armoury St. Andrew's corps was inspected. The standing of the various corps is to be announced later.

North End W. C. T. U. Session Wednesday

The North End W. C. T. U. held its regular meeting yesterday afternoon in the North End library hall. Mrs. H. Deamer, president, was in the chair and gave an interesting account of the Saint John County W. C. T. U. which met in Fairville last week. Mrs. Hudson White led the devotional service. Mrs. T. M. Todd, president of the W. C. T. U. of The Narrows, Queens county, was present and gave a very interesting talk telling of the work of her branch of the union. She deplored the fact that the W. C. T. U. branches in the city closed during the summer months. There was an interesting discussion on prohibition and law enforcement. Plans were made to hold a strawberry festival in July, the proceeds to be for the benefit of the New Brunswick Protestant Orphanage.

BUILDING CASE IS IN POLICE COURT

Miss Hanson Seeks Judgment on Inspector's Refusal to Grant Permit

The case of Miss Priscilla Knight Hanson, Wellington Row, versus James Carleton, building inspector of the Department of Public Safety, in which Miss Hanson is seeking a court judgment on Mr. Carleton's refusal to grant her a permit for repairing a building owned by her on North Market street, in order that the building may be used, came before Magistrate Henderson in the Police Court yesterday afternoon. On hearing E. P. Raymond, counsel for Miss Hanson, and Mr. Carleton, the magistrate adjourned the hearing until next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Mr. Raymond said that Commissioners Bullock and Frink had told him they were in favor of the permit being granted and had expressed themselves in such a way at a recent informal meeting of the Common Council. Mr. Carleton characterized the building as a "shack" and said he had refused a permit as the building in question was in fire district No. 1 and was made of fireproof materials. The North Market street structure is a wooden one.

The magistrate advised Mr. Raymond to interview the Common Council, under the jurisdiction of which body such matters come and adjourned the case until Wednesday.

Black Birds Steal Girl's Handkerchiefs

EMPORIA, Kan., June 17—Stealing small pieces of laundry is the prank of a number of black birds which have built nests at the home of J. B. Sanders, of Cottonwood Falls, Kan. She was surprised when she went to take them in to find several of them gone. When the same thing occurred several days later, Miss Hennis and

The French Franc Is Going To Par

The French franc recently touched the lowest value in its history. On Tuesday, May 18th, the French monetary unit, normally worth 19.3 cents, or $19,300 per 100,000 francs, was quoted at 2.73 1/2 cents, or $2,735 per 100,000 francs. An upward movement set in immediately afterward and carried the franc considerably higher. The future major movements can be otherwise than upward in nature. Parity of the franc (19.3 cents) or (19,300 per 100,000 francs) is now in sight. It is a question of time only.

This situation offers investors of shrewdness and foresight one of the most attractive opportunities of the present generation. It is now possible to purchase French Government 6% Bonds, direct obligations of the Republic of France at 17 per cent of their normal exchange value, with assured confidence that as France's economic and financial position approaches its pre-war status, they will show a continuous appreciation in value.

We very strongly recommend French Government 6% Bonds of 1920. Incidentally, we advise the purchase of the Bonds in preference to the currency because from them an interest-income is received. A 100,000 franc French Government 6% Bond can today be exchanged for $1,300.00. With the franc at parity of exchange its value will be $19,300.00. Its purchase now, therefore, possesses a potential profit of $18,000.00, and is without considering the income from interest coupons which yielding around 7 per cent per annum now will return nearly 48 per cent on the present investment when the franc is quoted at par.

These interest-coupons are tax-exempt and can be cashed at the prevailing rate of exchange at any bank in Canada and throughout the world.

While the number of investors who perceive that this opportunity prevails only because France is passing through a transient period of recuperation, and who are, in consequence, taking advantage of the current low price to accumulate these governmental securities, only a fraction of those before whom the facts have been presented. It is always been thus: the man or woman who exercises his or her better judgment, or recovers after, has been the investor who earned the most liberal return.

Too many, it seems, point to France's floating debt professed to see in it the nucleus of national bankruptcy and completely ignore the fact that that debt is the result of the COMPLETE RESTORATION OF THE DEVASTATED REGIONS TO BETTER THAN PRE-WAR CONDITIONS. No financier eminent in the world has taken so pertinent a view of this important situation as Andrew Mellon, Secretary of the United States Treasury. Mr. Mellon said:

"Criticism has been made of France for the situation in which she now finds herself. In our criticism we are likely to forget the factors which constituted to that situation. The French people gave so fully of their man power and their industry during the four years of war, fighting mainly on their own soil, that French taxation following could not be so heavy as in those countries which were never occupied by the enemy. The richest industrial section of France lay directly in the course of the German armies and when recovered was in a destroyed condition."

France was faced with the problem of deciding whether it would leave the country in this condition, with its industry permanently crippled, or would reconstitute the soil and rebuild its plants at whatever cost, and thus increase the wealth producing power of the nation. The former course might have permitted the more immediate taxation of France, but it would have borne a proper burden of taxation. France chose the latter course."

Returns from new taxes are fully justifying the course taken and before long its influence is certain to effect an even greater improvement in the public finances.

In discussing economic and financial questions that are purely temporary in nature, the investor is apt to lose sight of the facts for the future.

Certainly France is not in the same financial position as before the great conflict. It is equally as obvious that France would be WORTH THEIR NORMAL VALUE ON THE WORLD'S MARKETS TO-DAY. And a 100,000 franc French Government 6% Bond would cost more than $19,300.00, NOT $3,300.00, its present price.

It is those who recognize that FRANCE IS FUNDAMENTALLY SOUND; that her recuperative powers were well established following the Franco-Prussian war when French Government Bonds after selling down to 7 per cent of their normal value, came back to their normal value, and that ultimately FRANCE WILL TRIUMPH OVER HER PRESENT DIFFICULTIES AS COMPLETELY AS SHE TRIUMPHED OVER THE HORDES WHO SWEEP HER PEAKFUL VILLAGES AND TOWNS IN THE DAYS OF THE GREAT WAR; it is such investors who are to-day accumulating French Government 6% Bonds.

It was the same class of investors who reaped fortunes through their investments in selected issues of depreciated government bonds of other countries during the past five or six years.

In March, 1919, the pound sterling reached the lowest point in its history, selling for $3.19 in the markets of the world, against a par value of $4.86. At that time many said the pound would never return to its pre-war value, that it would have to be "stabilized" permanently around $3.25. But everyone knows that sterling has since CROSSED PAR. To be sure, there were many critical periods during its recovery, but the important point is that the pound is again worth its normal exchange value.

The astute investor is not greatly concerned over the minor fluctuations in French exchange, when he invests in French Government 6% Bonds. He not only knows that he owns Government Bonds, the principal and interest of which are fully guaranteed by one of the world's greatest powers, but he is well aware of the fact that the PRINCIPAL OF HER BONDS AT MATURITY AND FURTHERMORE, that no unit of currency has ever risen to its par value without reactions.

Not only the course of the pound sterling taught the lesson that despite periods of exchange depression, a nation's money is bound to recover when the nation is fundamentally sound and is making every effort to restore financial equilibrium.

The Swiss franc a few years ago was worth only 15-16 cents or $15,160.00 per 100,000 francs—yet to-day it is quoted above par or at more than $19,300 per 100,000 francs. The value of 100,000 Swiss francs has increased by more than $4,160.00 within a comparatively short space of time.

The Dutch Guilder, Holland's monetary unit, following the war depreciated from its par value of 40.20 cents or $40,200.00 per 100,000 guilders, to 29.3 cents or $29,300.00 per 100,000 GULDERS. The value of 100,000 francs has increased by more than $4,200.00, showing a NET RISE OF $10,900.00.

The Swedish krona, normally worth 26.8 cents or $26,800.00 per 100,000 kronas, dropped to 17.45 cents or $17,450.00 per 100,000. In a few years the unit has completely recovered all its losses and at present the value of 100,000 Swedish kronas is $28,778.60. During the period, the value of 100,000 kronas increased by $9,120.00.

In less than two years the Japanese yen has RISEN from 37.875 cents or $37,875.00 per 100,000 yen, to 46.95 cents or $46,950.00 per 100,000. Despite the great havoc wrought by the earthquake on the country's economic life, the value of 100,000 yen has increased by $9,075.00 IN LESS THAN TWENTY-FOUR MONTHS.

Everyone knows how rapid has been the rise in Danish and Norwegian exchange. These countries have been faced with critical economic conditions but the Danish krona is now worth 26.43 cents or $26,430.00 per 100,000 kroner whereas in 1911 it had fallen to 15 cents or $15,000.00 per 100,000. The value of 100,000 Danish kronas has increased by $11,430.00 in less than five years' time. The Norwegian krona has RISEN from 21.25 cents or $21,250.00 per 100,000 kroner, to 22.04 cents or $22,040.00 per 100,000, showing a NET RISE OF $789.00 PER 100,000 DURING THE SAME PERIOD.

The Spanish peseta from 11.75 cents or $11,750.00 per 100,000 pesetas a few years ago, has now recovered to 15.12 cents or $15,120.00 per 100,000 and the unit is expected to touch par this year.

Leading South American exchanges show similar wide improvements. Within three years the Brazilian milreis has advanced from 8-55 cents or $8,550.00 per 100,000 milreis, to 18-531 cents or $18,531.00 per 100,000, recording a NET GAIN OF $9,781.00 PER 100,000 MILLREIS. The Argentine peso, with the assistance of the United States Government, has increased by more than 28.37 cents or $28,370.00 per 100,000 pesos but TO-DAY it is quoted at 40.25 cents or $40,250.00 per 100,000. The value of 100,000 Argentine pesos has INCREASED BY $11,800.00.

In the light of these accomplishments it is easy to see that France with a balanced budget, debt liquidating agreements, in short, definitely ADVANCED UPON THE ROAD TO FINANCIAL RECOVERY, can put the franc back to par (19.3 cents or $19,300.00 per 100,000 francs) within the comparatively near future.

We are averse to referring to our success in the field of foreign exchange but we may, with pardonable pride, boast of one of the most outstanding records on the continent. We had the courage to advise investors to buy British, Swiss, Dutch, Swedish, Japanese, Norwegian, Spanish, Brazilian and Argentine Government and Municipal Bonds when such securities, because of the depreciation in the value of the money in which they were payable, could be bought for fractions of their former values.

YOU BELIEVE IN FRANCE. You have confidence in the ability and skill of her forty odd millions of people. You are familiar with the terroir that makes France, individually, the richest country in Europe to-day. You respect the national talent that attacked the problems of the Suez and Panama. You recognize the courage and bravery that, with the assistance of allies, defeated the world-conquest scheme of the Kaiser and his military machine. You perceive in the restoration of the devastated regions A VICTORIOUS ECONOMIC BATTLE THAT GOES UNCLAIMED. You see the bonafide and INTEGRITY of the French nation upheld in the agreements for the funding of debts to allies.

Make your investment in French Government 6% Bonds TO-DAY not to-morrow when the franc may be higher. We have only to remind you that the franc at PAR every 100,000 franc French Government 6% Bond which you can buy to-day for $3,300.00 (three thousand, three hundred dollars), will be worth $19,300.00 (nineteen thousand, three hundred dollars).

MOTION TO RAISE CANADA'S STATUS IN EMPIRE IMPENDS

Will Be Debated by Commons at Request of Premier King

OTTAWA, June 17—Canada's position in the British Empire and its international status alike will be raised when Premier Mackenzie King submits to the House of Commons a motion of which he has given notice.

Briefly the motion provides that before the Canadian Government "advise ratification of a treaty of convention affecting Canada, or signify acceptance of a treaty or convention, the approval of the Parliament of Canada should be secured." The motion follows up a resolution adopted at the last Imperial Conference when representatives of the British Government, of the Dominions and of India discussed procedure to be followed in the ratification of treaties.

Conclusion of the hallbut treaty, between Canada and the United States, had largely given rise to this discussion; and the resulting resolution of the Imperial Conference sets forth procedure to be followed in the negotiation and signature of treaties.

ASKS FOR APPROVAL
So far, the motion of Premier King asks merely for parliamentary approval of the conference resolution. But on the question of ratification, the motion goes further. The resolution says that "it is for each government to decide where Parliamentary approval or legislation is required before desire for, or concurrence in, ratification is intimated by the government."

Since and including the treaty of Versailles, it has been the practice of the Canadian Government to submit for the approval of the Canadian Parliament all treaties in the negotiation of which Canada has participated.

DEBATE TO BE IMPORTANT.
The coming debate in the House of Commons will be important as affording opportunity for the Government and Parliament to make its position clear. But it will be merely preliminary to the still more important discussion on inter-Empire relations scheduled for the coming Imperial Conference in October. There, the status of the Dominion in the Empire, the relations of the Dominions to each other and to Great Britain will come in for close examination.

The close co-operation between the British and Dominion Governments which existed during the war, and during negotiation of the Peace of Versailles has not been fully maintained in subsequent international conferences. On the ground that the Canadian Government had not participated in its negotiations Premier King declined to submit the treaty of Lausanne to the Canadian Parliament for approval. The Dominion Governments were not invited to participate in negotiating the treaties of Locarno

BOSTON-YARMOOUTH SHIP HELD BY GALE

YARMOOUTH, June 16—The heavy northeasterly blow which swept this section of the province, yesterday afternoon and last night, although not severely felt on land, was very bad off shore and a tremendous sea was kicked up in the bay.

The Boston and Yarmouth liner Prince George, Captain A. W. MacKinnon, as a result was three and a half hours late in docking here this morning.

DIVISION LIKELY ON CUSTOMS REPORT

Committee Reported Split on Issue of Ministerial Responsibility

OTTAWA, June 16—Another division is expected to take place in the house before prorogation. This vote, it is stated, will come on an amendment to be moved in the course of the debate of the customs report, which will probably be taken tomorrow.

Members of the committee deliberated yesterday and again today in camera with a view to presenting a unanimous report. A certain difficulty on one phase of the matter, it is understood, has developed, which may preclude the tabling of a unanimous report. Debate in the house will likely be brief.

The issue will, it is expected, lie largely on the question of ministerial responsibility.

CHANCELLOR BACKS RIGHTS OF RUSSIA

Holds Up Neutrality Treaty With Germany as Model Arrangement

BERLIN, June 17—Soviet Russia and the justice of Russian claims to full rights in the family of nations formed the major part of an exclusive interview given the United Press Wednesday when Chancellor Wilhelm Marx gave the first newspaper interview Germany's premier granted since he assumed office.

Chancellor Marx held up the Russo-German neutrality treaty as a model arrangement which other nations might well follow in their future dealings with Russia. He said the time had passed when Russia would attempt to impose communism on other countries and spoke of Russia's acceptance by the powers as one of the most vital needs confronting the civilized world today.

CANADIAN PARLEY UPON LABOR TERMS OF TREATY URGED

Committee Report Tabled in Commons Favors Action

Canadian Press Despatch. OTTAWA, June 16—A conference of provincial and Dominion representatives intimately in touch with labor conditions throughout Canada to consult as to the best means to be employed for giving effect to the labor provisions of the treaties of peace, is recommended in the report of the parliamentary committee on industrial relations tabled in the House of Commons this afternoon.

The report, which was tabled by C. R. McIntosh, Liberal member for North Battleford and chairman of the committee, also recommends the printing of the report and evidence taken during the sittings.

SIX WITNESSES HEARD

Six witnesses in all were examined by the committee. It is stated in the report. These were: Gerald H. Brown, Assistant Deputy Minister of Labor; W. Stuart Edwards, Deputy Minister of Justice; C. W. Bolton, statistician, Labor Department; Margaret S. Gould, research department, Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees; Albert Hewison, departmental superintendent, Canadian Colored Cottons, Ltd.; and Dr. J. W. MacMillan, chairman of the Minimum Wage Board.

The committee had before it a resolution from the House of Commons "that in the opinion of this House a wage sufficient to provide for a reasonable standard of living should constitute a legal minimum wage."

The report states that the evidence presented by Dr. MacMillan showed that the principle of the minimum wage as applied to women was working out most satisfactorily.

He saw no reason why it should not be applied at least to certain classes of men's wages.

The evidence given by Mr. Bolton and Miss Gould showed, according to the report, that some workers in Canada are receiving less than will enable them to maintain a reasonable standard of living. "Such an injustice is manifestly unfair and unbusinesslike inasmuch as it costs the country much, involving as it does, an excess of unrest, ill-health and crime," the report says.

A delicious treat for that "hurry-up" Sunday supper

"HURRY-UP" because the maid's out. Or because you want to get out of the kitchen. Or because you had your big dinner in the middle of the day. But it need not be an ordinary Sunday supper just because you don't feel like cooking. Lift it above the level of "just another meal" by serving "Canada Dry."

For there's something about "Canada Dry" that makes it different from every other ginger ale you ever have tasted. It is different in flavor—in quality—in the distinction it adds to any occasion.

That is the reason "Canada Dry" has been famous for so many years in the Dominion and why it has created such a sensation in the United States. Canadians have a right to be proud of the success of this fine old Canadian product and to know that even the people in the United States take their hats off to Canada and admit it is the finest ginger ale ever sold in the U.S.A.

Try it some night soon at dinner, when entertaining and just before retiring. It is, indeed, "The Champagne of Ginger Ales."

SPECIAL HOSTESS PACKAGE
A new way of packing "Canada Dry." Ideal for home use. Twelve bottles in a substantial carton. You will be especially glad to have it handy for your dinners at home or when friends drop in unexpectedly. This Hostess Package is sold by all "Canada Dry" dealers.

SAINT JOHN VOTES AGAINST CHANGE
J. G. Hart, Past-President of Carleton Branch, is Vice-President

FREDERICTON, N.B., June 16.—The Provincial Council of New Brunswick, Canadian Legion, British Empire Service League, was formed here this afternoon by what was formerly the provincial command G. W. Dryden and Blackson of Saint John City objecting on the part of their branch. West Saint John branch voted to make the change.

SPECTACULAR FIRE THREATENS SAN FRANCISCO

The greatest fire in the history of San Francisco since the historic disaster of 1906 threatened many square miles of the city when the beachers and grand-stand of famous old Ewing Field took fire. The wooden stands burned rapidly and a brisk wind carried the embers far and wide until more than a score of fires were started. Our photo shows a part of the original conflagration at Ewing Field.

Red Cross Is Selling Health To Public Says Society Head

Dr. J. L. Biggar in Address to Registered Nurses at Fredericton, Points to New Brunswick's High Infant Mortality

FREDERICTON, June 16.—This afternoon the Provincial Division of the Red Cross Society held an address from Dr. J. L. Biggar, the members of the Registered Nurses' Association of New Brunswick, in annual convention here, were present and Dr. Biggar, although Chief Commissioner of the Red Cross, directed much of his address to the nurses as members of a profession. For that reason much of what was said was technical. He urged instruction of the laity in many matters of health and ordinary nursing attendance, which its members could do. Country doctors often found themselves confronted with such conditions that they had to do things themselves which should and could be done by others.

H. Usher Miller, Secretary Treasurer of the Home, asked the Children to write.

Dear Friends: I like it here. The Home is nice, my mother is dead, I am ten. I like the children. I like the Home better than the City. I like school. The garden is growing. I like to go to school every day. The teacher is good to me, and the matrons are good to me, so I am happy.

Dear Friends: I am a girl of twelve years. My father died when I was eight years old, leaving my mother with me, and three little brothers. We hadn't any money, so my mother had to put us all in the Orphan Home, so she could work.

Dear Friends: I am a girl nine years old. I have been here four months. Before I came here my father left home and my mother was so poor so she had to work, and put me here. I like to go to school every day, the teacher is good to me, and the matrons are good to me, so I am happy.

Dear Friends: My papa is in jail and my mamma is very poor, so I came here to live. Everybody is so nice to me and we get all we need to eat. I like this home better than the house I lived in once. I like to go to school.

Dear Friends: When I lived home, my mother was very bad and used to hit me, so one day she ran away and my daddie brought me here. I have a nice home here and I like it away from my mother. My matrons are very kind to us and let us play when we get our lessons done.

Dear Friends: I am a little girl of ten years of age and I have been here for four years. My father left our house one night when we were all sleeping. He used to be very cross with us, so I was glad he left. My mother has to work now so I have to come to the Orphanage to live. My two brothers are here and my little sister is at Britain Street. I love it here for everybody is so nice to me. I go to school every day and I try hard to grade.

Dear Friends: I like the Home. My mother is dead and I have two sisters and I have four brothers but one is dead. They have the gardens planted and everything is growing. We have a large playground and a big school house. I came here because my mother was dead. I have a flower garden here. I go to school every day and I am in grade three. We have all kinds of games, we have ball games and ring games.

Piles Go Quick

Without Slices or Cutting Thousands who have piles have not learned that quick and permanent relief can only be accomplished with internal medicine. Neither cutting nor any amount of treatment with diet, pills and suppositories will remove the cause. Bad circulation causes piles. There is a complete stagnation of blood in the lower bowel and a weakening of the parts. Dr. F. S. Leonard was first to find the remedy and called his prescription HEM-ROID. Dr. Leonard tried it in 1,000 cases with the marvelous record of success in 98 per cent, and then decided it should be sold by druggists everywhere under a rigid money-back guarantee. Don't waste any more time with outward applications. Get a package of HEM-ROID from Wassons Two Stores today. It has given safe and lasting relief to thousands and will do the same for you.

FIGHT TO SAVE BEAUTY OF KENTUCKY FALLS

The Cumberland Falls, in Kentucky, constitute one of the most beautiful bits of scenery that state affords. Accordingly, Governor William J. Fields is leading a fight against a proposal now before the Federal Power Commission to turn the falls over to a hydro-electric concern. Louisville newspapers are backing the governor in his fight, as is the Cincinnati Post.

FERGUSON TO KEEP UP CAMPAIGN IN ONTARIO FOR MARITIME COAL

Nearly 600 Pupils To Write High School Entrance Exams.

ABOUT 575 pupils will write the High School entrance examinations in Saint John next week it was said yesterday by Dr. S. A. Worrell, superintendent of city schools. The number is considerably in excess of last year's figure and it includes both the city pupils and those from outside the city, who will come to Saint John to write the papers. The number of city pupils writing is considerably larger than the number entered last year also.

Dr. Drummond, she added, came from Ontario and did not travel with the two victims; he did not serve on any committee with them, and any way in which the disease could have been communicated from Commissioners McCleave and Wallace to Dr. Drummond, or vice versa, is still shrouded in mystery. Prominent Presbyterian ministers are now investigating the cause or the origin of the disease.

MISS A. STUART, OF GRAND PRE, GIVES FORCEFUL ADVICE

Says Maritimes Should Study to Know Each Other Better

FREDERICTON, June 16—At tonight's session the Women's Institute heard a brief address from Miss A. Stuart, of Grand Pre, N. S., whose subject was "The Federated Women's Institutes of Canada." Discussion followed on the paper, and later tea was served by the institutes of Fredericton and vicinity.

Miss Stuart made appropriate reference to the death of Mrs. Osman, late president of the New Brunswick Institute, whose life, she said, could be taken as a pattern.

With regard to the Maritimes, Miss Stuart said that it would be well for them to know more of each other.

Referring to the death of Mrs. Rogers, an officer of the federation, the speaker said that her work had been a wonderful inspiration.

RURAL WOMEN.

The speaker said she had been selected probably because she was a non-union-to-goodness farm woman. The Women's Institutes were doing their greatest good among them and latent talents had been discovered. Their work lay among those things nearest at hand, in the schools, with the ill and the aged, endeavoring to keep young people in Canada. It was her opinion that it was the rural women who would hold Canada together. Loyalty to the institutes was required. In the farm women kindness and Christian charity was to be found ready for their realization of the necessity for co-operation and neighborliness.

The scrawled message said "I am held prisoner in a shack 5 miles above Trenton on east side of Delaware river. Please send help. Hurry! Ward."

The Women's Institutes were non-sectarian, she said, but it was necessary that observance of the Sabbath be impressed. They were non-political, but it was necessary to study politics, as all women had the ballot.

Miss Stuart urged that members of the institutes teach more concerning the resources of Canada in order that through that knowledge more people would remain in the country and develop it.

Rev. J. E. Taylor spoke of parochial missions and led the discussion on this subject. Rev. F. J. LeRoy told of the work for the Anglican children of the New Brunswick Protestant Orphanage being done in the Church of the Good Shepherd.

SECOND CAR SEIZED AFTER WILD CHASE

Four Men Now in Toils as Result of Raids on Rum-Runners

WOODSTOCK, June 16—Liquor Inspector E. C. Morgan, Hartland, accompanied by Sheriff Tomkins and officers of the local customs staff were busily employed during last night in the successful pursuit of rum-running cars. The night's work involved the seizure at Florenceville of a car heavily laden with sealed cans of alcohol, a similar seizure at Bristol early this morning, and a wild chase after a heavily loaded, powerful automobile in the vicinity of Meductic. Although seven shots were fired at the tank and wheels of the car the rum-runners made good their escape.

In the Bristol seizure in which the officers were aided by Constable John Murdoch, of Hartland, a barricade was stretched across the road in an effort to stall the runners. In speeding through the barricade the runners' car was slightly damaged and continuing their pursuit the officers seized the car and arrested the two men in it at Bristol. The net results of the adventurous night comprise two carloads of alcohol, now under seal at the local customs house, two seized automobiles and the arrest of four men.

QUEBEC TO PUNISH RECKLESS DRIVERS

QUEBEC, June 16—A patrol of 100 motorcycle policemen was established here today and posted on the main and secondary roads with orders to check speeding.

Announcing the formation of this new body, Hon. J. L. Perron, minister of highways, said that it was the government's intention to put an end to the reckless motorist. Hereafter, anyone guilty of exceeding the speed limit would be fined and would lose his license for a year, while the drunken motorist would be jailed.

Mr. Perron said that complaints in the provincial highways office with regard to the motor-car accidents and damage to the surface of the roads were multiplying, and that already considerable proportions of the route that had been repaired in the spring were now impassable.

Last year, he said, the government had trusted the good sense of the public with regard to reckless driving, but the results showed that instead of decreasing, accidents had increased.

There were 100,000 motor-cars registered in the province, he said, and 300,000 were expected to enter this season from United States points.

POSTPONED AGAIN.

The annual meeting of the St. Martins Telephone Company, which was to be held yesterday afternoon after a previous postponement, was further postponed until June 28.

HEAVY DEMAND FOR INDUSTRIALS ON WALL STREET

Stock Prices Move Higher as Trading is Resumed

SMELTERS ACTIVE ON MONTREAL EXCHANGE

Brazilian Dull Along With Paper Issues; 1-4 River Up 1-4

NEW YORK, June 17.—An unabated demand for representative industrial shares carried stock prices higher as trading was resumed today. U. S. Steel sold at the year's high price of 123, and substantial gains were registered by Dupont, General Electric, Anaconda Copper, General Motors and Baldwin.

MONTREAL, June 17.—Trading on the local stock exchange during the first half hour this morning was confined mostly to smelters, over one thousand shares of this issue changing hands. Opening with an overnight loss of eight points at 28. Smelters rose to 29 1/2 later trading, but reacted to sell at 28, 288 and finally touched 21 1/2 for a net loss of four and a half points. Brazilian was dull at 9 1/2, while the paper issues, which were prominent in yesterday's trading, were particularly inactive. In the early trading Spanish River rose up a quarter at 10, while Shawinigan and Brompton were unchanged at 15 1/2 and 21 1/2 respectively. The rest of the list was quiet.

Scissors Are Left In Patient's Stomach

PARIS, June 17.—An X-ray photograph of a patient at a Cologne hospital has revealed a pair of scissors lodged in the wall of his stomach.

The surprised surgeons, after questioning the patient, whom they had first suspected of attempting to commit suicide, are convinced that the instruments were left behind by a surgeon during an operation.

Complications have not arisen because the patient declined to have the scissors removed, on the ground that the surgeons might leave some less portable and inconvenient instrument behind.

IRAK PAYS TURKEY BIG SUM FOR OIL

Kemalist Government Agrees to Accept $2,500,000 in Lieu of Royalties

BAGDAD, June 17.—Turkey has accepted the offer of the Baghdad-based Iraq of $2,500,000 in lieu of a percentage of royalties from the Turkish Petroleum Company.

After the recent ratification of the Mosul treaty between Turkey and Great Britain, it was officially announced that the Iraq government had offered to pay Turkey $2,500,000 for its share in the Iraq oilfields for 28 years, the term of the duration of the treaty.

Brokers' Opinions

NEW YORK, June 17.—Brokers at noon would view any reaction that occurred in the stock market as a buying opportunity. The Co. continues to report optimism that recent buying of this security has been the best.

Black, Maloney, Beland and Ralls and industrialists should be picked up on any reactions, and we look for making better prices for all good securities.

Horslow.—"While the action of the market would indicate some further loss of ground today, reactionary tendencies at the moment are not likely to extend beyond a two day period."

Fry and Co.—"We continue of the opinion that standard stocks should be sought on weak days."

Morning Stock Letter

NEW YORK, June 17.—Action of market yesterday was rather convincing. Steel got within a quarter point of its high price and going through will undoubtedly develop enough buying to bring it higher today.

CMO continues to advance day by day with a great absorption of shares. The earnings of this company will finally register. We still believe that, as we said some weeks ago, it will sell at a price this year. All through the list the stock, with good earnings and low prices, is the best bet in this group. The oil and steel stocks are also good. We and we think we will see higher prices for the best stocks in this group. We are still bullish on P.M. Van Ameyde. Market is active and without any control of the legislative houses, under a bill to be presented to the Diet next week for approval.

CAN PROTEST LAW

Under the bill the president reserves the right to protest against laws passed by parliament, with the understanding that parliament has the right to reject a presidential veto by an ordinary majority.

The president obtains the right to dissolve parliament, but this decision by him is to be counterbalanced by the premier and all the cabinet members during the adjournment of parliament. The president may issue decrees having the power of laws, which decrees are to be presented for approval to parliament at the reopening of a session. Parliamentary sessions are to be limited in time, extending four months after presentation of the budget to the House by the cabinet.

ASKS PROTECTION OF MARITIME COAL AT HOUSE INQUIRY

Nova Scotia Mine Minister Would Stop Bonding of U. S. Article

OTTAWA, June 16.—Recommendations for a national fuel policy, to supply Canada's coal consumption from her own mines, was made this afternoon by Hon. G. S. Herrington, minister of public works and mines, in Nova Scotia, before the special committee of the house investigating the Dominion's anthracite supply.

1. Governmental assistance to secure the creation of a coal plant within Canada at points serving large centres of population.

2. The granting of a subvention on Maritime coal water-borne to Montreal when carried by rail west of Montreal.

3. Protection to Maritime coal from unfair competition by United States products.

4. Cancellation of the bonding privileges for United States coal for bunkers supplied in Canada.

Mussolini Called Liar In Assembly

Canadian Press.

BUDAPEST, June 17.—Premier Count Bethlen was greatly embarrassed in the National Assembly yesterday, when in the presence of foreign diplomats, the opposition deputy Malachuk called Mussolini a pickpocket.

Government members of the assembly quickly rose to the occasion with cheers for the Fascist premier. Nevertheless Italy is expected to make diplomatic representations as it did in similar incidents recently at Prague.

NATIONAL POLICY URGED

"It appears to me essential that in Canada we make up our minds at the commencement whether or not we can adopt something in the nature of a national fuel policy, the aim and object of which would be to produce within Canada the coal we consume in the Dominion," he declared. Such a policy, stated Mr. Herrington, should be adopted.

He pointed out that 30,000,000 tons of coal were consumed annually in Canada. Yet 17,000,000 tons of this total were imported.

"I suggest," said Mr. Herrington, "that the subvention voted last year for the carriage of coal west of Montreal be devoted for coal carried by water to Montreal and shipped by rail west of Montreal."

F. C. Corbett, iron manager, Maritime Transportation Committee, Montreal, testified in respect to the rates of the Maritime Furrows.

A. J. Creighton and R. H. McWilliams, Owen Sound, Ont., recommended that the high price of coal in the head of the lakes of Alberta in preference to an all-rail haul in box cars be met by the briquetting of screen coal at the mines, and the establishment of coking plants at well-populated centres.

POLISH PRESIDENT MADE DICTATOR

Parliament's Powers Greatly Lessened Through Constitutional Changes

WARSAW, June 17.—For eighteen months after July, or until December 31, 1927, Poland will be in the hands of a presidential dictatorship and without any control of the legislative houses, under a bill to be presented to the Diet next week for approval.

The cabinet last night finished the final wording of the bill amending the constitution. The proposed amendment sensibly increases the presidential power and limit parliamentary importance.

STORM LEVELS TOWN

Casualties Feared Numerous After Bad Blow in British India

Canadian Press.

LONDON, June 17.—A Daily Mail dispatch from Kurachi, British India, says that a great storm has reduced the town of Dhanduka, near Ahmadabad, a building within a mile of the town escaped destruction, and it is feared the casualties are numerous. Two children were carried 100 yards, the roofs of houses were whirled about like feathers, and railroad cars were blown along the tracks for miles.

High Court For Curio Dealers Is Established In London

LONDON, June 16.—One of the strangest tribunals in the country sits at regular intervals in the upper room at the corner of King street and St. James street, London, which is in the centre of the art world of London.

It is the antique dealers' "High Court of Justice," to which any of the 500 members of the British Antique Dealers' Association has the right of appeal. Its judges, who sometimes number as many as 20, include some of the world's greatest experts on precious stones, old china, tapestries, pictures, and antique furniture.

Disputes arising out of the sale of an antique of more than ordinary importance are often referred to the court for arbitration, and if they think fit the judges have the right to call in independent experts from the art world. It is to protect the interests of antique dealers and safeguard the honor of their industry that this tribunal has been established.

Cardinal To Live On Boat To Avoid Heat

BOSTON, June 17.—Cardinal O'Connell, Archbishop of Boston, has declined a luxurious suite of rooms in Chicago and will live aboard the lake steamer South American while at the Eucharistical Congress next week.

CROP OUTLOOK IN N. B. PROMISING

Agriculture Report Says Oats Six Inches Out in Central Portions

FREDERICTON, June 17.—The Provincial Department of Agriculture issued a crop report for June today as follows:

"During the first two weeks of June, the weather conditions for crop growth, have been ideal. Frequent local showers have fallen and more particularly during the past few days, higher temperatures have been common to the whole province.

"The grass land in the central part of the province looks exceedingly promising for a large hay crop, and pastures have gained rapidly.

"The sowing of oats, except on mucky portions of fields, and in some isolated cases where the soil drainage conditions are inferior, is practically completed, and in the central part of the province, the oats are six inches above ground.

"Potatoes, in the chief commercial growing districts, are showing above ground though in other sections planting the crop is still in progress.

"Apple trees are heavy in blossom and small fruits show a large bloom and promise well. No frosts have been observed."

French Government 6% Bonds

Shrewd Investors Perceive in the Temporary Low Value of French Money an Unusual Opportunity for Exceptional Profits on Both Principal and Income on an Investment in "France's Premier Rente"

WE BELIEVE that an investment made today in French Government 6% Bonds (Loan authorized Dec. 16th, 1920; redeemable at par at the option of the Government after Jan. 1st, 1931), presents an exceptional opportunity for profit on any material advance in the value of French money (France).

Due to the depreciation of French Francs a French Government 6% Bond (of 1000 Francs denomination) can now be bought for $33.00; with French exchange at normal (19.3c per Franc) the same Bond would have a value of $193.00.

International bankers believe French Francs will sell at 10 cents per Franc before very long. Just think what this means to French Government Bonds; with the Franc worth 10 cents, each Bond of 1,000 Francs will have a value of $100.00—a rise of over 300%, or a profit of $67.00 for every $33.00 invested today.

With the Franc selling at 15 cents, each Bond of 1,000 Francs will have a value of $150.00, a rise of more than 450%, or a net profit of $117.00 for each Bond of 1,000 Francs, or for every $33.00 invested today.

We made a lengthy and thorough investigation to determine the best way to buy French Francs for maximum profits. We are of the opinion that these French Government 6% Bonds afford the best medium, for they represent to French investors precisely what British Government and our Canadian Government Victory Bonds represent to us, being legal investments for every institution, Trust Fund and Savings Bank in France, and constituting a strictly high-grade Government investment. They may be sold again instantly for spot cash, as they are listed on the Paris Stock Exchange and traded in throughout the financial centres of the world. The interest coupons (payable June and December 16th) have always been paid promptly on the dot, and can be cashed in financial centres through our House, banks or other institutions.

French Government Bonds will, we believe, unquestionably come back to normal ($193.00 per 1000-Franc Bond). The United States were financially bankrupt after the Civil War.

Table Showing Present Price and Profit Possibilities

Denomination:	Present Price	With Bonds at Par and France at 10 Cents	With Bonds at Par and France at 15 Cents	With Bonds at Par and France at 20 Cents
1,000 Francs, French Government 6% Bonds	$ 33.00	$ 100.00	$ 150.00	$ 200.00
2,000 Francs, French Government 6% Bonds	66.00	200.00	300.00	400.00
5,000 Francs, French Government 6% Bonds	165.00	500.00	750.00	1,000.00
10,000 Francs, French Government 6% Bonds	330.00	1,000.00	1,500.00	2,000.00
20,000 Francs, French Government 6% Bonds	660.00	2,000.00	3,000.00	4,000.00
50,000 Francs, French Government 6% Bonds	1,650.00	5,000.00	7,500.00	10,000.00

AN ENVIEABLE RECORD.

Our past record attests to our ability to make money for all who deal with us.

We recommended to investors Berlin Bonds (1914-15 issues) at $10.00 per million mark unit—within twelve months' time these Bonds reached $18,000.00 per million mark unit.

We recommended to investors German Government 9% Bonds at $89.00 per million mark unit—4 months later we were buying them back from clients who had them for $7,800.00 per million mark unit.

We recommended to investors Polish Government 6% Bonds at $30.00 per million Polish mark unit—subsequently they reached $80.00 per million Polish mark unit.

We recommended to investors Danish Government Bonds at less than their current price—Danish money has increased in value and a proportional appreciation in the value of the Bonds has been recorded.

We recommended to investors Australian Government Guaranteed 7% Gold Bonds of 1920 at $92.00 per million Bond—today the same Bonds are selling at a point above par.

Substantial profits—indeed fortunes—have been made by investors who have purchased selected Government and Municipal Bonds recommended by this House.

Remember: French Government 6% Bonds are a genuine investment bargain. The opportunity to buy them at their present low price is not likely to occur again. Buy now and let the French franc reach par.

WOODSTOCK AND BATHURST CLUBS FAVOR NEW N. B. ASSOCIATION

INTEREST KEEL MEETING HERE TWO DAY NIGHT

Resolution to be Placed Before Delegates for Consideration

AMATEUR clubs at Bathurst and Woodstock now affiliated with the Maritime Provinces branch of the A. A. U. of C. have notified W. E. Stirling, New Brunswick vice-president, that they are in favor of a separate organization for New Brunswick and will support any move looking in this direction. Several other clubs in the New Brunswick district are expected to do likewise. While Bathurst and Woodstock will not be represented at the meeting here on Monday, they hope to be represented at the annual meeting of the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union early in September.

FOCUSSED ON SAINT JOHN.

Amateur interest throughout the Maritime Provinces will be focused on Saint John Monday night, when representatives of clubs in this jurisdiction gather here for the purpose of considering ways and means of setting up a new organization to allow New Brunswick control of her own amateur affairs, as is the case in every other province in Canada. Local clubs will have delegates, as well as outside points when a resolution setting forth the idea of the meeting in this regard was presented. W. E. Stirling will preside.

MCCURDY TRAVELS 220 IN 23 AND 45

Rothsay Flash in Great Form at Annual Field Sports Yesterday

The new inter-scholastic record in the 220 yards dash, made last Saturday at Rothsay by Don Rivers, Saint John High school flash, was the annual inter-scholastic track meet, which was held yesterday when McCurdy, who ran second to Rivers in the 220 last Saturday, negotiated the distance in 23.4 seconds in the preliminary events of the annual field sports held by the Old Boys' Association of the Rothsay Collegiate School. "Mike" Latham's Bat Again Channel Swim Presents More Difficulties This Year Experts Consider

LONDON, June 17.—(United Press).—No swimmer—male or female—will be able to swim the English Channel this year in the opinion of numerous French and English swimming experts and trainers. Abnormal weather conditions, following a terrible winter on the ocean and an extremely tardy spring, will prevail during the summer season and will make it extremely difficult for a man to attempt the battle with the channel tides and virtually impossible for a woman.

Before starting a recent trip across the channel, the writer asked a hard-faced old veteran of the crew if he thought a woman ever would be able to conquer the cold water, the tides and the waves that are a part of the channel's daily routine. "Swim her?" the old salt answered. "This is a hard job for a man to ride 'er. Look at the way she's running now. I'd call the bobbles if a girl of mine tried to swim 'er."

LUCK IS NEEDED

He said that only the greatest of luck ever had enabled a man to swim across and that it needed more than luck to make it possible for a girl. Even those who are to train Gertrude Ederle, Lillian Cannon, and other American misses who are to make the attempt this summer, are skeptical that the young Americans will be successful.

They and others, interested in the success of any adventurous young woman feel that the year is against them. The channel, they say, has been criss-crossed with cold and more treacherous than ever and they are of the opinion that the same conditions will prevail all the year.

Capt. Jensen, master of the S. S. Minnekahda, who was on the bridge of the Lapland when she was submerged during the war and who has been on the sea since he was able to handle a line, said that last winter was the worst he had ever seen and he expressed the opinion that abnormal conditions in all ocean waters would prevail all through the summer.

Bloom, Lost 175 Years, Rediscovered In U. S.

NEW YORK, June 17.—A species of flower which was discovered about the year 1750, and then lost for 175 years, has been independently rediscovered by two scientists, Dr. E. T. Wherry, of the United States Bureau of Chemistry, and Dr. J. E. Benedict, of the United States Museum, the Scientific American. This rare flower is known as the pink turtlehead. It was found near Marlboro, Md. The pink turtlehead grows in wet ground, reaches a height of about three feet and has pink flowers resembling the neck of a turtle.

$37 Is Share of Each Team

WHEN the fans see such large numbers turn out to amateur ball games, they often wonder where the "vast" sums go that are collected. It might surprise them to know that running a ball team without proper financial backing is anything but a chance to make a millionaire's salary. For example, there were fully 1,800 to 2,000 people out to the game on the North End grounds last night, and The Times-Star learns the share of each team was $37. Out of that the home team had to play for the baseballs. A like amount goes to the grounds committee, which has been under a heavy expense this year for new stands and improvements. Saturday's game there netted each team about $40.

Hannah Hurls Fine Game as Watermen Defeat Saint Johns

FOR batting honors at critical moments, the Saint Johns are ready to place the name of "Mike" Latham in nomination for the chief prize, the Water Department outfielder bustling another game on Earl Nelson last evening on the North End grounds before 2,000 excited fans. Latham, who hit the ninth inning, one run behind and the much-needed run over the champions in his grasp. Nelson, the champion's first baseman, batted on the nose through second and pitched the keystone tack, while Dick Bartlett was fruitlessly fanning after Nelson's fast one. Sparks, next up, connected for a terrific drive to short, the hit bounding away and Snodgrass coming over with the tying run, Sparks going to second.

Not content with tying it up, the champions promptly proceeded to clinch the argument. Hannah got on, and while Ed Snodgrass was another victim for Nelson's benders, Sparks and Hannah moved up a base. Then Latham, who beat Nelson on Saturday in the same kind of a situation, came up. Nelson, like a tie, Sparks decided to steal home and started. Nelson threw hurriedly but Latham connected safely. Sparks and Hannah scored.

Hannah's pitching again stood out. Coming into the Saint Johns hopped out for the seventh inning. Nelson also turned in another fine game. Bunning faced Ay Snodgrass, first up. Hannah's first baseman batted on the nose through second and pitched the keystone tack, while Dick Bartlett was fruitlessly fanning after Nelson's fast one. Sparks, next up, connected for a terrific drive to short, the hit bounding away and Snodgrass coming over with the tying run, Sparks going to second.

PIRATES CLIMB BACK INTO TOP PLACE IN RACE

NEW YORK, June 17.—Cold weather, appearing without warning, has taken some of the heat out of a sailing race for the National League pennant.

Two clubs, the New York Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers, called off their games with Cincinnati and St. Louis respectively, giving the world champion Pirates a chance to gain the leadership once again. The Pirates defeated the Boston Braves 6 to 3.

Chicago remained in the running by subduing the Phillies 4 to 1. Washington, American League champions, the last two years, and the world's best team in 1924, dropped another contest at Chicago, 3 to 2, with Walter Johnson the victim. The Senators now are a full 13 games behind the league leading Yankees.

SERVICE TO WEST INDIES SUFFERS UNDER CHANGE

Fewer Ports of Call by Steamships of R. M. S. P.

SHIPPERS WILL BE INCONVENIENCED

C. G. G. M. Plans Under Arrangement Since Subsidy Are Announced

Plans just announced by the Canadian Government Merchant Marine for their new service to the West Indies to alternate with the R. M. S. P. boats replacing two vessels of the latter removed on the expiration of the Government subsidy show that every port of call maintained under the old R. M. S. P. schedule will be maintained on this service, with the first sailing from this port on June 28. The R. M. S. P. however, under their new schedule of sailings every four weeks instead of fortnightly are greatly reducing their ports of call among the smaller islands.

NOT SO GOOD SERVICE

The new arrangement means that while there will be as many sailings as at present the service maintained will not be as good, as the C. G. M. vessels will not carry passengers and the R. M. S. P. will cut out six ports of call thus inconveniencing many shippers depending on the service. Great interest has been aroused among local shippers regarding the service to be available and many inquiries have been received at The Times-Star office.

BEAVER TO START

A special despatch to The Times-Star today from J. P. Doherty, C. G. M. traffic manager, contained the information that the steamer Canadian Beaver was being brought light from Halifax, where the vessel is now being fitted out, to inaugurate the first sailing from Saint John on June 28. She will be followed by the Canadian Gunner on July 26. The vessels are being brought around here light, the message said, especially to cater to the needs of the shippers in this vicinity. The service, the despatch further stated, would make the line previously made by the R. M. S. P. under the old schedule and would entail the steamers calling first on their north bound voyages. The vessel not fitted out for carrying passengers. H. E. Kane and Co., Ltd., will represent the C. G. M. service here at present as the line has no summer office in Saint John.

PORTS CUT OUT

The R. M. S. P. in addition to reducing their ports and sailings by half since the removal of the $340,000 annual subsidy have announced that there will be a drastic curtailing of the ports of call in the West Indies. Under the new schedule only Bermuda, St. Kitts, Barbadoes, Trinidad and Demerara will be touched while St. Kitts will be omitted on the north bound voyages.

This change means the cutting out of the present calls at Antigua, Montserrat, Dominica, St. Vincent and Grenada, although it was announced today at the office of William Thomson and Co., Ltd., local agent for the R. M. S. P., that if there were special inducements in passengers or freight a steamer would make a special call at any one of these ports.

OLD SCHEDULE ENDS

The sailing of the R. M. S. P. Chaleur from Halifax tomorrow marks the last sailing under the old schedule. The first sailing under the new one will be the R. M. S. P. Chignecto from this port on Saturday, July 18, and will remain at Halifax until July 16. She will be followed by the R. M. S. P. Chaleur from Saint John on July 30 and Halifax on Aug. 13, and the Chignecto again from this port Aug. 21, and Halifax on Sept. 3. The other two vessels at present operating on the route, the Teviot and Chaudiere, will be withdrawn after the completion of their present voyages at Saint John where they will arrive on June 29 and July 13 respectively.

In considering the combined service being given by the lines it was pointed out this morning that the service to the public was considerably poorer, than that provided by the R. M. S. P. under the subsidy. The shippers will have only a boat every four weeks for many of the smaller islands, especially those which it is difficult to reach by other services, and passengers will have only a monthly service available at the larger islands while at the smaller islands there will be no passenger accommodations direct.

RIDGE IS REMOVED FROM RENFORTH RD.

Motorist Gives Times-Star and Telegraph-Journal Word of Praise in Matter

The dangerous ridge in the road near Renforth, about which motorists have been complaining and to which attention was sharply directed in The Times-Star and The Telegraph-Journal will trouble drivers of automobiles no longer. Following reference in these papers caused by this hazard to the danger caused by this raised to a road that is extensively used, workmen have eliminated the dangerous ridge, which had been caused by frost lifting a drain pipe.

"We motorists have to thank The Times-Star and The Telegraph-Journal," said an automobile owner this morning, "for the return to a feeling of safety when driving over that highway. It was a serious matter to have that hurdle across the road and we recognize the the publicity you gave is to be credited with bringing about restoration to a condition of safety."
