Welford Storm Brief But It Ripped Things
For less than ten minutes, about three o'clock on Saturday afternoon, a young tornado played havoc at Welford. Rain fell heavily and the wind was terrific. It picked up a rustic chair on the veranda of Dr. Lewin's house and carried it into the yard. It ripped off ten or twelve feet of gutter pipe from the roof and carried it more than sixty feet. It split a large apple tree and laid a field of corn flat on the ground. Similar damage was done through the village. The branches of some pine trees were broken off. The storm was quickly over, but was destructive while it raged.

SIR NEWTON MOORE DENIES CHARGES
B. E. Steel Shareholder Says Sydney Houses Better Than Those in England.
Montreal, Aug. 15.—Denial of conditions in the mining areas owned by the British Empire Steel Corporation was made today by Sir Newton Moore, M. P., a prominent English shareholder.
" I have," said Sir Newton, "just returned from Sydney, the ore mines at Wabana and the taconite quarries at Port Au Basques in Newfoundland and have also inspected the collieries and colliery villages in Cape Breton and the steel plant and its neighborhood in Sydney. I have visited several of the houses of the employees at the collieries and compared them with colliery villages and homes in Great Britain. I have seen in England and elsewhere. The houses occupied by the miners at the Dominion Coal Company are let to them at rentals ranging from $1.50 to $8 per month, and in many cases are supplied by the company with water and electric lighting at a small cost. I understand that Canon Scott's criticism followed a sermon on the industrial conditions in Cape Breton preached in Quebec by a clergyman from the U. S., who spent a week in Sydney and so far as I know did not visit the mining districts at all."

BON AMI not only makes the tub clean and white, but actually makes it glisten.
For this soft white cleaning mineral not only cleans, but has a real polishing quality. Just sprinkle a little of the powder on a damp rag. Give the tub a few brisk rubs and away goes the dirt. And it does not scratch the delicate enamel.
Bon Ami also cleans the nickel faucets—makes them look like new silver.

was in his seventy-eighth year. He was a son of the late W. W. White, of Quebec, and in 1871 he married Miss Mary Frances, daughter of the late Lt. Col. W. Wallace Scott of Quebec. He entered military life at an early age and served in the Fenian raid, winning a medal with two clasps. He was a lieutenant in the Quebec garrison, quartermaster of the R. C. A. at Victoria, B. C., and officer commanding military district No. 8 from 1892 to 1896. He retired from the permanent forces in 1906. He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. George West Jones, of Calgary, Alberta, formerly of St. John; Mrs. J. J. Sharples, of Montmorency Falls, and Mrs. Leslie Hammond, of London, England. Two sons also survive, Harold White, of Philadelphia, and Lt. Col. Basil White, of Montreal. Colonel White was prominent in masonry, being a member of Scottish Lodge. He was well known in St. John and had been here visiting from January until July 2 of this year. Following his command of the Garrison Battalion of the Royal Canadian Regiment at Halifax, Colonel White came to St. John as district officer commanding with headquarters at Fredericton until headquarters were removed to this city. He remained here for some years. Following his retirement from the militia in 1909 he spent several months in England and afterwards resided in Ottawa, Quebec and other places. On leaving here in July

The Late Thomas Mercer.
 The death of Thomas Mercer referred to in yesterday's Times, occurred at his residence in Torryburn after a lengthy illness. He was 82 years of age. He leaves to mourn three sons, Burton E., of Calgary, Alta.; T. J. Mercer, automobilist, of Sussex, and Sanford, at home. The funeral will be held Thursday with interment at River Bank cemetery, Norton. A short service will be held at the house at 8 o'clock this evening.

Money on the Floor.
 A shoe manufacturer one day watched a workman operating a machine which, among its other uses, puts eyelets in shoes. Noting the carelessness of the man, who had been working some hours already, he searched around the floor near the machine until he had picked up eyelets to the value of about eight cents. He watched the operator a while longer, and then asked him to pick up the eight cents he had dropped. This puzzled the man—he could see no money on the floor. Finally the manufacturer explained. Inquiry revealed that in this factory of 2,000 workmen, carelessness on this one small item meant a loss of nearly $600 weekly, enough to pay the wages of a good many of them.

Going to Bed.
 Of two friends staying at a hostelry where most keys fit most doors, one went off to bed, undressed, and turned on, mistaking his friend's room for his own. Half an hour later the friend followed, saw his bed occupied, and returned to the coffee-room. "Did you see me go to my room just now?" he said to the night porter. "Yes, sir," was the reply. "Well, then, why didn't you tell me I'd gone to bed already?" he grunted, and continued to finish the night on a chair in front of the fire. Yorkshire Post.

HERO OF HARDING'S DREAMS AS BOY PILOTED FUNERAL TRAIN

Death Brought Youthful Desire to Pass for Late President.

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 12.—(By The Associated Press).—A boyhood ambition to "ride all over the country" with "that man" was fulfilled, and while not realized by the boy who had possessed it, yet a grieving populace stood awed and reverent, with bowed heads, as the train on which the ride was made passed the many points within a vast nation's farthest borders. It is now a story of yesterday—the sombre train bearing the remains of a lamented chief.

Forty-five years ago a barefooted urchin daily played around the then tiny little Hocking Valley, Ohio, railroad station. A train came in one day and a bearded freeman alighted to attend his engine. The freeman heard the lad say to his companion:—

"Gee, I wish I could ride all over the country with that man! A friendly greeting thereafter passed between the two. One week ago fate ordained that the lad's ambition be realized, and while "that man" did not accompany his friend the complete journey, yet he was chosen because of that friendship to conduct the funeral train from the Wyoming boundary to here on its sad pilgrimage.

That man is Elijah D. Warren, synonymous as his last name may be, veteran conductor of the Union Pacific Railroad, who when a boy in his teens was the freeman of whose calling the lad—the future ruler of the nation, Warren G. Harding—was so enamored.

"He was too good a man for the Presidency. He wanted to accommodate you and at the same time accommodate every one else," is the tribute Elijah Warren pays to Warren Harding.

East St. John's New Fertilizer Plant

A new fertilizer plant is being erected near the Little River school house on higher ground. Since the former fertilizer plant in East St. John was destroyed by fire there has been no other in this vicinity and the lack of this means of disposing of waste matter has caused some inconvenience. The residents of East St. John were at first opposed to the erection of the fertilizer plant in the new location and approached the Board of Health asking that permission to erect the plant be withheld. Inquiry into the matter was made and the proprietors of the new plant intended to install modern equipment for drying and would also have a very tall chimney built. The plant is to be so located that the prevailing winds will carry all smoke away from the dwellings and houses in that neighborhood and the plant will also be so high above other buildings that it will not be a nuisance from its location.

OLD NEWSPAPER IN THE MUSEUM

A copy of one of the earliest newspapers published in St. John has just been presented to the Natural History Society by Mr. Gilchrist, of Hampton. It is the number of the City Gazette, issued on Wednesday, May 22, 1816, and is in a splendid state of preservation, hardly at all yellowed with age and quite intact. It will be a much treasured and valued addition to the library of the society.

A team owned by John Jamison, of 58 Wall street, was struck by an automobile said to be owned and driven by Anna Deskin, 46 High street, last evening at 8:30 o'clock on City Road near the Fowler Axe Factory. The rear right wheel of the buggy was smashed. The collision was reported to the police.

ASKS AID FOR KING'S COLLEGE

Archbishop Worrell Issues Pastoral Letter on Federation With Dalhousie.

Halifax, Aug. 14.—His Grace Archbishop Worrell, of Nova Scotia, addresses a pastoral letter, on university federation to the Church of England in his fortnightly message published in "Church Work" official journal of the Anglican communion in the Maritime Provinces.

The message is as follows:—

"The federation of King's College with Dalhousie has been decided upon and in September, next, it will become effective. This means that the church has heavy responsibility placed upon it. Nominally, it is no more than if the step had not been taken, but really it is greater because of the larger opportunity offered and serious results which must follow if apathy is shown.

"King's College has suffered in the past from a lack of unanimity among churchmen. It will suffer still more if that continues. The college can become a powerful factor in the life of the great university which is bound to develop in Halifax, but only when the church is united in its support.

"I appeal for that. No one wants King's College to disappear. The association with Dalhousie will save it from such a fate. It has been fighting a losing battle for some time and has come perilously near the end of its reserves. There is now a possibility of winning out if we are true to ourselves. The church owes it to the province to take her part in all that makes for its welfare and advancement. She must enter into the people's life and make her influence felt in the development of character and the upbuilding of right social as well as mental conditions.

"For this she must do her duty in furthering the best interests of education. As loyal citizens we will do this in a united way. As loyal churchmen we will have every confidence in the church and its officers upon her not to neglect them.

"But nothing can be done unless churchmen stand together. It is not sufficient to have a paper agreement or benevolent approval that I am asking for. There must be active, universal, enthusiastic co-operation in the diocese. The initial expense of setting up the college in Halifax will be large and will continue to be so until our buildings are erected. The expense of carrying on, when once established, will be easily met.

"The board is making the best possible provision for the welfare of the students. The distinctive features of King's are being preserved. Its students will be together under one roof and in close touch with its professors. Its chapel services will be carried on as heretofore. Everything marking the glory of King's will be in no way effected. Only we bring our life and ideals in the midst of the greater life in Halifax and play an important part in the development of Nova Scotia's interests.

"I know it is not easy for those who have grown up at Windsor and with whom an affection for the spot is deep. The distinctive features of the old surroundings has led them to oppose the new order. But for the sake of the church and for the life of the college, I appeal to these and all to support the university now being set up and by united action save it in its hour of need.

(Signed)

News Notes of Baptist Ministers

(Maritime Baptist.)

Rev. W. P. Stiles writes that he is now happily settled with his family in the parsonage at Wilson's Beach, N. B. The parsonage was put into excellent condition for the new pastor and his family. Mr. Stiles will have a compact and promising field upon which to labor.

Rev. H. H. Ferguson, pastor at Devon, N. B., is spending his vacation in and about St. John. Mr. Ferguson is now on the eleventh year of his pastorate at Devon and the ties between pastor and people are strongly cemented. Mr. Ferguson also cares for the church at Kingsley, some miles from Devon.

Rev. R. E. Durkee has asked us to change the address of his Maritime Baptist from Parrishboro, N. S., to Penobscot, N. B., group of churches. He further reports that the Baptist people of Parrishboro came to the parsonage on a recent evening and presented a sum of money to himself and Mrs. Durkee.

Rev. Arthur Jeffries, pastor at Athol, Mass., passed through St. John recently, accompanied by his wife and family of three children, en route to Albert county and other parts of the Maritime Provinces on vacation. We were traveling by auto. Mr. Jeffries was formerly a pastor among us. We think, from our conversation with him, that he might be induced to return to us.

Rev. D. H. MacQuarrie has accepted a call to the pastorate of the churches at Yarmouth North and Brooklyn, and has entered upon his work there. We are glad that Mr. MacQuarrie has fully recovered from the effects of the injuries received at the time of the burning of the parsonage in New Germany and is back into pastoral work.

Your system demands ALL BRAN if constipation is to be relieved!

Your system needs the "roughage" that Kellogg's Bran, cooked and crumbled, supplies. For, it will not only permanently relieve constipation if it is eaten regularly, but its full content of the vital elements of wheat will build health and strength in a wonderful way.

You need bran in its full and beneficial strength and that's what you get in Kellogg's Bran—ALL BRAN! You eat Kellogg's for relief and you will get relief in a way that nature planned. Foods with a bran mixture cannot help the man, woman or child who faces grave illness through constipation. You must have ALL BRAN—"roughage" that will sweep and clean and purify and bring health back!

Children should be given Kellogg's Bran each day; grown people should eat Kellogg's each day—at least two tablespoonsful, in chronic cases with each meal. Its mechanical action will afford permanent relief.

And, you will find Kellogg's Bran a delight to eat because it is so delicious. As a cereal, sprinkled on other hot or cold cereals, or used in countless bakery batches or in cooking, its nut-like flavor will thrill your appetites—and each spoonful means so much in permanently relieving constipation and in warding off this gravest national ailment. Kellogg's Bran is wonderful. All grocers sell it!

The people of his charge have the prospect of some excellent preaching.

Rev. W. E. Scott, who closed a fruitful pastorate at Oxford, N. S., in June last, and has since undergone a necessary surgical operation, is now well on the way to full recovery with the expectation of improved health. He has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Millstream group of churches in Kings County, N. B. This is a very large field, making heavy demands on a pastor's strength.

Rev. M. R. Greenwood, who worked among us for a time in evangelistic work and later as pastor at Upper Gagetown, N. B., is now settled as pastor of the First Baptist church, Morristown, New Jersey. This is the oldest Baptist church in the State of New Jersey, having been founded in 1792. The church has about three hundred members and a very fine house of worship. Mr. Greenwood writes as though the St. John River region still has a strong charm for him.

TONG CAVALCADE BEARS FOOD TO GRAVES OF CHINATOWN'S DEAD

Roast Meats, Rice, Sweets and Cigarettes Left Beside Each Mound.

New York, Aug. 15.—A cavalcade of automobiles each ablaze with gaudy streamers and filled with valuable Chinese, departed from Mott street to Evergreen cemetery, Brooklyn, where the On song Tong conducted its annual celebration of "The Feast of the Dead."

In advance of the cavalcade, a car loaded with roast meats, bowls of cooked rice, sweets, cigars and cigarettes, as well as scores of richly decorated candles. The food was to be used by the Chinese to honor the dead who departed this sphere within seven years. The embossed candles were to guide them in their spirit wanderings. The day marked their emergence from Shadowland. Their bones are being exhumed and made ready for re-interment in the land of the scarlet poppy by Tom Hoy.

After candles had been lighted at each of several rows of graves, each one marked by a small stone, food was passed around by ceremonious servers, who set the piled plates of roast pig and other dainties beside each dead man's tablet and besought him with respectful obeisances to partake. The ceremonies followed a ritual which involved much bowing, clasping of hands, scattering of red paper charms and invocations for guardianship to innumerable gods.

After the exercises at the cemetery those in attendance gathered up such provisions as had not been distributed, also candles, cigars, cigarettes, candies and cakes, returning with them to the loss house in Mott street, where a large assembly feasted until late. Pilgrimages to Chinese graves will continue throughout the present week, after which the dead will be left to their own devices for another twelve months.

Bones Sent Home After Seven Years.

After seven years the bones of dead Chinese are scraped and scooped by curious processes familiar to Tom Hoy, sealed in tin boxes and dispatched to their former homes in China. Hoy is said to be the only man in New York permitted to open a Chinese grave without protest. Such an act perpetrated by another than the official articulator would, it is held, destroy the dead man's prospect of entering that paradise to which all good Chinese are supposed to find their way once their bones have been laid in the soil of their native land.

Abbey's EFFERESCENT SALT A LIVER REGULATOR

That "Kruschen" Feeling!

Enjoy every minute! Here's the dear old boy at his best and breeziest, making the most of his holiday, causing many a younger man to envy his healthy capacity for enjoyment. The ball of pleasure is to his hand; see with what zest he flings it!

Most of us get a two weeks' holiday just about now. What is your holiday going to do for you? Do you, as a rule, get two weeks' benefit out of your precious fortnight? You don't. You go away to different surroundings, breathe different air, eat different food. All these should be beneficial. But you know that the change affects your system, and you know that often after a week you feel little benefit, perhaps no benefit at all; that the second week sets you up and braces you for the year's work. This is wrong; you should get full holiday benefit from both weeks' change — and you can!

The familiar feeling of tiredness, the lack of physical strength and energy to get full enjoyment from your holiday, is due to your internal system being first of all tired and then more or less upset by the sudden change. What you need is Kruschen Salts now to tone up the system, to set your liver and kidneys thoroughly working.

Kruschen Salts invigorate the internal mechanism of the body; they restore sluggish liver and kidneys to full activity so that every impurity is cleansed from the body every ounce of good is derived from your food. New, clear blood tingles all over you, to refresh every fibre of the system.

Tasteless in Coffee or Tea. Put a pinch in your breakfast cup or will be a 10 cent piece. It's the little daily dose that counts.

Good Health for Half a Cent a Day. A bottle of Kruschen Salts contains 100 doses — enough for three months — which means bounding health for less than a cent a day. The dose — prescribed for Kruschen. Get a 7c bottle today.

WILL HE SEND HER TO DEATH?

Twelve-year-old Raymond Taylor, above, is counted on as a stellar witness in the case of Mrs. Nettie Case Taylor, mother of six children, held on a charge of murder at Watford, N. Y., for the killing of her husband Frank.

The boy's story may decide whether his mother, also shown above, lives or dies.

IMPERIAL PARTY FOR ORPHANS IN PLACE OF PICNIC

J. D. O'Connell will not give a picnic in St. John this year, but plans a theatre party to the Imperial, which will include all the children the theatre can hold. The reason for not holding the picnic, is that one has already been given by others. Plans are now being made to give picnics in Cape Breton and Nova Scotia, and Prince Edward Island. Mr. O'Connell's sister, Mrs. E. J. Longman, of Seattle, is accompanying him.

When asked about this matter yesterday, Mr. O'Connell said he was just several millions of dollars, was arrested last summer by the Purty Ice Cream Co., Ltd., for a debt of some $22, which he alleged was due the company for going away. The case was brought up at that time and Daniel Mullin, K. C., appeared for Mr. O'Connell. It was postponed when Mr. O'Connell left the city and has never been resumed.

When asked about this matter yesterday, Mr. O'Connell said he was just MORNING STOCK LETTER. (McDougall & Cowan) New York, Aug. 15.—For several days the market has refused to go down on bad news and traders were consequently willing to jump to the bull side of the market on anything which could be construed favorably.

Yesterday it was the statement of the president and the new attitude of the German administration which gave the professionals their excuse for buying stocks. Since the market was overvalued, the jump in prices was large and quick.

With any chance of a better outlook in Europe the market can go much higher. In fact, stocks had been selling at a point where bad news speeches were disregarded while any news for the better would result in a rising move.

In other words the market is now at a point where bad news speeches were disregarded while any news for the better would result in a rising move. In other words the market is now at a point where bad news speeches were disregarded while any news for the better would result in a rising move.

OPINIONS ON THE STOCK MARKET

(McDougall & Cowan) New York, Aug. 15.—Josephthal.—The market has faced a precarious position situation with abundant equanimity, adding emphasis to our belief that it would respond sharply to any constructive developments from that quarter.

A. A. Houseman.—"The action of the list, while of a negative character, confirms the belief that stock prices have discounted conditions already known and there are not selling levels."

J. S. Beebe.—"Would not act hastily, and suggest to those accumulating good stocks for higher prices, that the market by its behaviour be permitted to justify our confidence in its ultimate direction."

STEFANSSON HOPES TO HAVE STEAMER AWAY ON ABOUT AUGUST 15.

London, Aug. 11.—(Montreal Gazette Cable)—Among the subscriptions received toward the fund which is being raised here for the relief of the little party of Canadians and Americans marooned on Wrangell Island is a cheque for $25 from the granddaughter of Sir John Franklin.

Stefansson in an interview today stated that he hoped the steamer Donaldson would be able to leave Norway on or about August 15 to relieve the party if a sum of $2,250 were raised to meet the expenses. The money was being citizens of the United States, they have been enthusiastic about the retention of Wrangell Island in the British Empire.

Of the three Americans in the party, Stefansson said that, although they were citizens of the United States, they have been enthusiastic about the retention of Wrangell Island in the British Empire.

They have been in the British service in connection with my work many years, and realize not only the clearness of the British claim, but also the fact that the island is of far greater strategic value to the Empire than it could possibly be to the United States.

In short, being of the English-speaking union type, they realize that it is really all in the family, whether it is the Union Jack or the Stars and Stripes that float there.

THEY CRY, "WOLF! WOLF!" UNTIL THEY BELIEVE IT THEMSELVES

LISTENING to many people one might imagine that industry and humanity hibernated for the summer, and that invested money took a vacation and stopped earning interest.

HOW foolish that fallacy is! THE holders of good bonds will receive 31 days' interest on their money for the month of August just as surely as they will for the month of December.

HOW unwise, therefore, to let money be idle and lose one or two months' interest during the summer, when it may be invested now as safely and as profitably as at any later period.

STADIUM AT THE BRITISH EMPIRE EXHIBITION WILL HOLD 125,000

Some Wonders of the 1924 Making.

(London Truth.)
Over seventy years have elapsed since the Great International Exhibition held in Hyde Park drew visitors from all over the world to London. Many exhibitions have been held in this country since, but that of 1851 is still remembered and still talked about. It proved an unequalled success, not merely as a spectacle, but as a real trade stimulant. The opportunity it provided for making people acquainted with the products of other countries than their own did much more than interest the sightseer. The producer, the manufacturer, and the merchant were all introduced to new commodities and new markets. The 1851 Exhibition was followed by an amazing development of British trade. It would, of course, be absurd to attribute that solely to the Exhibition. Free Trade had just been adopted. England itself was eager to wipe out the memories of the "hunger forties." The Exhibition marked the turn of the tide. It was held at the psychological moment when everything was ripe for a big trade revival. A cycle of good trade was inaugurated, and in producing this result the Exhibition undoubtedly played a considerable part.

The example we set in 1851 was followed by every nation of the world, each trying to surpass the other. Paris and every Continental capital, all the great cities of the United States and South America, entered into the competition. London repeated its effort in 1862 and in later years, when it grew tired, Manchester, Glasgow, and other industrial centres entered the field. All nations alike found that the exhibition was a most valuable form of trade propaganda, and whenever an exhibition has been held it has been found to stimulate trade both national and international.

The 1924 Show.

Even the smallest Little Englander—if the specter still survives in any degree—could hardly resist a thrill of pride when surveying the make-up of the British Empire Exhibition. The Dominions participating are India, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, and South Africa. At the moment specific arrangements have not been made with Newfoundland, but for all the others arrangements are well advanced for a comprehensive display of their natural and manufactured products.

The Colonies, as distinguished from the Dominions, have come into the scheme with equal unanimity. Burma, Ceylon, Malaya and Sarawak, and Hong Kong, will bring the East to the doors of London. Malta and Cyprus, assisted by the nearest Eastern territories. The East African group contains Tanganyika, Kenya, Uganda, Zanzibar, Sudan, Nyassaland, with the Mauritius and Seychelles Islands. The West African group will be represented by Nigeria, Gold Coast, and Sierra Leone. The colonies of the Western Hemisphere which participate are British Guiana, British Honduras, the Windward and Leeward Islands, Jamaica, Trinidad, Barbados, the Bahamas, the Falkland Isles, and Bermuda. Each and everyone of these will have its own distinctive exhibits. All the continents, all the climates, most of the races, and the majority of the natural products of the world find a place in it. The great and the lesser industries, the science and the art of the whole world will have their exponents. Modern and old world civilization will stand cheek by jowl awaiting the inevitable comparisons.

The methods of free continents and of all the races of men, applied industrially and artistically, will be shown side by side. The Exhibition will have the educational value of a tour round the world. The student and the sightseer will witness reproductions of the indolent life of the South Sea Islands to contrast with the energetic enterprise of the white man in Canada and Australia. They will be able to study the native life of India, Burma, China, and much of Africa. Even the most thoughtless can hardly fail to gain a new idea of the problems which Empire governance presents.

The Empire Exhibition is planned, therefore, as something much more significant than a mere stimulus to industry and trade. It will supply a great stage, whereon will be displayed the real life of all the peoples who make up "the Commonwealth of Nations known as the British Empire." It will introduce them to us and to one another in a way that nothing else could do. At the same time, the mere entertainment of "the crowd" is to be provided for on an ample scale. In the great Amusements Park will be gathered every modern device which can bring a thrill to the most jaded sensation-seeker, while for sport is there not the Stadium, the greatest arena ever yet provided for trials of skill and strength, where 125,000 spectators may watch the contests in comfort and safety?

The Biggest Yet.

So vast a scheme requires space on the same scale to carry it out. The Exhibition ground is the largest that has ever been laid out for such a purpose, and on this ground a spacious town is now springing up. Some idea of the measurements may be gathered from the Stadium, the outer circumference of which is half a mile. But the Stadium does not cover the greatest floor space among the Exhibition buildings. The great Hall of Machinery extends over half a million square feet. The whole of Trafalgar Square, with the National Gallery, Charing Cross, and the Strand as far as Cannon Street on the west and Spring Gardens on the east, could be laid out within this colossal hall. Five railway bays are now provided inside the building for the transportation of the exhibits directly into their beds. The Palace of Industry is nearly as large. That, too, has direct communication with the adjacent railways. Yet huge as these buildings are, practically all the space available is already let to exhibitors.

Besides these two gigantic erections, Australia's great building will have an area of 180,000 square feet, and the Commonwealth is spending £200,000 upon its exhibit. Canada's pavilion will cover nearly 100,000 square feet, while the two great Canadian railway companies will occupy another 6,000. New Zealand is spending £60,000. South Africa £100,000. The West African group £100,000. India, £167,000. The other members of the Imperial family are spending proportionate amounts. Nearly twenty buildings have been designed for the different countries. Some are in process of erection; some of them have not yet had their foundation laid. In addition to these—the Exhibition buildings proper—there are restaurants, places of entertainment, colonnades, and kiosks innumerable. Spacious as they are, however, the buildings will cover nothing like the whole of the 216 acres which now comprise the Exhibition grounds. Ample room is left to display some of the splendour of Old England for those who are cut off from her by the sea. In a very real sense the British Empire Exhibition will be a garden city. The woodland amenities of Wembley Park have been carefully preserved. Not a tree that can possibly be saved has been sacrificed. The gardeners are already busy. Lawns are made or are in the making, and might be seen last week shielded from the hot sun under swathings of hay. There will be lakes and rock gardens; in fact, all the arts of the gardener will be concentrated on the effort to show England at its best to those who return "home" after many years, or those who visit her for the first time. English gardens will be the back-ground, the setting—like for the hills wherein are displayed the latest achievements of civilization and the native village where industry will be seen in its early infancy.

Two Miles of Moving Road.

Two problems arising from the wide extent of the Exhibition may be mentioned here, (1) that of artificial light, (2) that of artificial locomotion—for the big distances make it necessary to consider the fatigue involved in merely moving from one point of interest to another. Arrangements have been made for the installation both in the buildings and the grounds of a system of flood lighting in varying tones of colour, which will get rid of the ugly glare of the arc lamp. Some two miles of moving road are also to be installed, travelling at two rates of speed, upon which passengers may sit or stand as they desire. It is proposed to supplement this contrivance with a service of small electric trolleys somewhat similar to those in use today at the railway station for the conveyance of luggage.

With a world-wide appeal to business interest and national sentiment—in which the acceptance of the Presidency by the Prince of Wales is of no small import—an inexhaustible store of attractions to suit all tastes, arrangements which leave nothing to chance, and every facility for coming and going, the British Empire Exhibition commands everything necessary to make an undertaking of this nature a success—a success in point of popularity, finance, and those other economic ends which it is designed to serve.

There is every reason to expect that the British Empire Exhibition will achieve a success worthy of its name and of its ambitious design. If it does not appeal to the patriotism of traders and manufacturers, it will undoubtedly appeal to their pockets, for there will be a big business to be done. If it does not appeal to the patriotism of the pleasure-seeker, it is equally certain that he will be unable to resist the many attractions offered for his entertainment.

Millions Wasted Yearly In Schools

Psychologists Find Many Unqualified For College Work Undertaken.

Bethlehem, Pa., Aug. 15.—That millions of dollars are wasted annually by well-meaning parents who send their boys to college to learn professions for which they are mentally or temperamentally unfitted, is the startling fact brought out in a survey just made at Lehigh University. It is estimated that $48,044,386 was missed in the past two years by fathers of Lehigh students who were naturally unqualified for the work they undertook. This waste, it is said, could have been eliminated by the scientific use of mental tests costing only four cents per student and requiring only 45 minutes of time.

All freshmen entering Lehigh University in 1921 were required to take the Trabue-Mentimeter test. As a result of the test it was predicted that the 37 young men who had made the lowest 17 per cent of the class, would not be able to complete their university course. This prediction is being borne out, for of these 37 men, all but 16 have been dropped by the university and the remaining 16 are doing very poor work and are not expected to complete their course.

Absolute reliability in the scores of such tests is not claimed by psychologists, but it is believed that after a number of such tests, over a period of several years, a reliable means of determining whether it is worth while to send a boy to college will be available. It is pointed out that aside from the economic waste involved in the present unscientific method of selecting students, many boys are discouraged by their failure to be successful in lines for which they are not fitted.

WILSON'S FLY PADS

Kill them all, and the germs too. 10c a packet at Druggists, Grocers and General Stores.

What quantity of gum do the banks answer?—To practically every country of the world. Figures prepared for the Trade Record show that the exports of chewing gum in 1920 went to no fewer than seventy-five countries and colonies scattered the world over. To dignified England the total exports were about $1,000,000, measured at the wholesale price at the port from which exported. France in 1920 took $383,000 worth, and other European countries proportionate quantities, though to Germany exports were comparatively small, only $250,000 worth. That it is equally popular on the other side of the globe is evidenced by the fact that our trial exports to Asia and Oceania amounted to nearly a half million dollars in value, including $288,900 worth to the Philippines, $75,000 to Japan, $42,000 to Australia, and $14,000 to India. South America also developed the habit, and the total to that continent in 1920 was $275,000, while the sales in Africa were also large, the total to Egypt alone being nearly $100,000.

That the habit has come to stay seems to be an accepted view by that very high authority—capital, for nothing is so wary as capital in forecasting the future demand of a manufacturing industry. And when we find that the amount of capital invested in the chewing gum industry as given by the census reports was in 1919 $28,000,000 against only $10,000,000 in 1914, it would appear that those studying the manufacturing industries from the standpoint of the investor have confidence in the future world demand for this article of which the United States is apparently the chief producer, since official records of the Government fail to show any importations of this class of merchandise.

U. S. Sends Gum To Many Lands

Domestic Consumption Amounts to More Than Million Dollars a Week.

New York, Aug. 15.—The people of the United States pay more than $1,000,000 a week for their chewing gum, and the habit apparently is growing, for the value of the output of factories in the last census year, 1921, is much more than double that of the previous year, 1914, the first for which figures are available.

This assertion is based on statements of the factory output for the Trade Record of the National City Bank. It is shown that the value at the factory of the chewing gum produced in the United States in 1921 was $36,500,000, which may be added about $2,500,000 as a by-product of certain other factories, making the value of the output in 1921 about $41,000,000. It is estimated that consumers pay at retail considerably above an average of $1,000,000 a week.

Exports show as large a percentage of increase as do those of factory production. Whether it was the sample set by the American soldiers who found it a convenient companion in their long marches, it is at least a fact, says the Record, "that the world demand began shortly after the opening of the war and grew very rapidly since official statistics of exports, which only began with 1916, show an advance from less than $1,000,000 in 1916 to $2,500,000 in 1920, while the value of the exports in 1923, though materially less than in 1920, are 40 per cent greater than in 1922."

ROUND THE WORLD IN A YAWL

(London Daily Mail.)

Nodding at its moorings by Dartmouth is the Amaryllis, a tiny yawl of 28 tons gross, which, during the last three years, has nosed its way round the world. She belongs to Lieut. G. H. P. Muhlhausen, R.N.R., who, with only three friends to accompany him, set sail in her from Plymouth on September 6, 1920.

The distance made good from port to port was 31,159 miles. At the Barbados two of Lieut. Muhlhausen's friends left the boat. "In their stead I shipped a French lad, and sailed down to Trinidad," he told a Daily Mail reporter. "At Jamaica my sole remaining friend was met by his wife—so I lost him too! In order to carry on I took aboard a Panama Indian, and set sail through the canal to the Pearl Islands, and thence to the Marquesas. This stretch was over 8,000 miles. The next part of the cruise was to Tahiti, the Fiji Islands, thence to New Caledonia and Sydney. Before leaving Australia Lieut. Muhlhausen was joined by a young Australian named Tadgell, who wanted to come to England.

"Another stage of the cruise was completed when we got to the New Hebrides, the Banks, and the Solomon groups of islands. Thereafter we touched New Guinea, the Thursday Islands, and then, passing through the Torres Straits, we made Timor, Bali, Java, and Singapore.

"At Singapore I took on a Belgian on an American ship, but he lasted only as far as Penang; he resigned there. I replaced him with a Lascar seaman and also engaged a Malay cook. Then I made for Salang (Sumatra). There I made for Colombo and Aden, and from there to Colombo and Aden.

From Aden I worked up to Suez, calling at Port Sudan on the way.

"But when we got to sea I found to my horror that the man knew absolutely nothing about seamanship," he said. "I asked him where the Italian ship was that he had served in 18 months in an Italian barque."

Couple Riding in Side Door "Pulman" Charged With Vagrancy.
Woodstock, Ont., Aug. 15.—Sergeant Jerry met Alice Shawcross, aged 19 years, and Joseph McKeens, aged 25 of Brantford, when they arrived in Woodstock on the C. N. R., riding in a side-door "pulman." The police had been tipped off that the pair were on the train and when the freight pulled in they were asked to make Woodstock their stopping-off place and were escorted to the police station. "This is a kind of an emponment," said McKeens. "We were on our way to Detroit to get married." The young man stated the Shawcross girl and himself had planned to get married and had decided on the novel scheme of riding freight to Detroit and there get married. A charge of vagrancy was placed opposite the girl's name on the police blotter, while the young man is charged with trespassing. They were removed to the jail and will come up before Magistrate Ball.

Fairville Canucks Are Intermediate Leaders
The Canucks of Fairville, clinched the championship of the City Intermediate League last night when they shut-out the St. Luke's 9 to 0. The Canucks have now won nine games and lost only one. St. Luke's are tied with the Rowing Club for second place. Both have won six games and lost three and they have still to play each other in a postponed game, which will decide the runner-up for the League championship. Last night's game between the Canucks and the St. Luke's was played on the Newmarket diamond and aroused much interest. For the Canucks, Nelson was pitcher and Henderson catcher and for the St. Luke's Stackhouse and McMurray were the pitchers and Williams the catcher.

Books on etiquette are still in demand, although reading them is considered old-fashioned.

GLADY'S RETURN
BELYEA TO ROW IN MARITIMES
Says He Will be in Contest for Three Provinces Title.

Hilton Belyea, who won second honors at the Diamond scull event at the Henley and who lost by a very narrow margin his title of Canadian champion, is keeping in training for the Maritime championships and for the proposed trip to Toronto to compete against some of the leading scullers in a special feature to be conducted by the exhibition authorities. In conversation with a reporter for The Times this morning he said he will participate in the Maritime championships, where they are held here or in Halifax, and will also go to Toronto where he expects to be pitted against Costello, McGuire and possibly Gilmore.

In connection with a challenge issued by Russell Codman Jr. of Boston, who is anxious to row Hilton and Walter Hoover, Belyea said he will willingly meet him in local waters providing he was willing to do, and that the plates do not conflict with the Maritime championships or those in connection with the Toronto meet.

IRVING APPLEBY MISSING FROM SCOW IN COURTENAY BAY; SEARCH VAIN

Was at Work There Last Night; Fear He Has Been Drowned.

Was Irving Appleby drowned in the waters of Courtenay Bay last night, if not where he disappeared to, are the questions which are agitating the minds of the staff of the St. John Dock and Shipbuilding Co. since about eleven o'clock last night, when he was found to be missing from a scow on which he had been working.

Grappling operations have been carried on in the Bay and a search made on land but up to press time no trace of the missing man had been found. The local detective force have been notified and they have taken up the search as well as the officials of the Company.

Mr. Appleby, who is an unmarried man about 23 or 24 years of age has been employed with the Company in their dredging operations and, it was said, last night about nine o'clock was placed on one of the scows to do some work. About eleven o'clock a boat was sent to take him off the scow but there was no sign of life aboard. Search was made of the scow but there was nothing to indicate what had become of the young man. In the hope that if he had fallen into the water, he had been able to reach the shore, enquiries were made but no trace of him could be found.

It is feared that while engaged in his work the unfortunate young man lost his footing and found a watery grave in the Bay. It was about low tide at the time and it was thought if he was drowned the body might have been carried up toward the Marsh Bridge and in this hope grappling operations will be carried on for a time.

IN FINE ORDER FOR WINTER PORT

Commissioner Bullock Says Good Progress is Being Made.

Commissioner Bullock said today that good progress was being made with the repairs at the West Side docks and sheds and when the winter port season opened the plant would be in as good shape as it ever was. A new foundation had been placed under No. 2 shed and this was reported as being the floor stronger than when it was first built and no repairs would be necessary there for some time.

A new loading platform was being constructed on the south side of the pier, from the harbor face at No. 1 to the rear of No. 4 berth and a considerable amount of work was being done on the trestle at No. 1. This latter work was about half completed.

On the east side new sills were being placed under the pier and a new floor laid. This work was about three quarters done.

DEATH OF J. LEE FLEWELLING

J. Lee Flewelling, one of the best known of the older residents in the lower part of Kings County died this morning at his residence in the village of Rothesay. He had not been ill for any length of time but his heart action had troubled him recently and his friends feared the worst from his last attack.

Mr. Flewelling was 72 years old. A year or so ago Mrs. Flewelling died and since then he made his home with his nephew Lewis Merritt and his niece Mrs. Renforth Robertson. His was a life of activity. The most of it he lived in the parish of Rothesay at Gondola Point where he kept a general store, was postmaster, magistrate and held other minor offices necessary in any community. He was once a candidate for the legislature supporting the Conservative party but was defeated.

Always interested in anything that affected the place and the people, his death will leave a void hard to fill.

REMEMBER WHEN—

Henry J. Thorne was elected Mayor of St. John, on Tuesday, April 12, 1887, by 63 majority. The other candidates were, Messrs. Barker, Quigley, Sears, Allan and Berryman. They finished in the order given. The total vote was 2,629 out of 3,576 qualified.

The weekly whist gathering of the Last Car Club was held last evening at the harbor face at No. 1. Mr. McClean, 318 Charlotte street. The prize winners were Mr. and Mrs. Moffard and Mr. Reed. A very enjoyable evening was closed with the singing of Auld Lang Syne.

CHIEF TAKES UP COMPLAINT.

DOUBLE CREW AT WORK.
In the renewal of the sewer in Britain street, from Charlotte to Sydney, a double crew of men was put to work yesterday. He hoped to have the casing on the ground and the connection made a week from Sunday.

ANNIVERSARY PRESENTATION.
The summer home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Waters, Normans, was taken charge of last evening by friends in this flourishing summer colony, who were celebrating the twenty-first anniversary of their wedding, called to congratulate them. A very pleasant evening was spent in games and dancing. G. R. Andrews, on behalf of the ladies of the party, presented to Mrs. Waters a fine silver baking dish. Mrs. Waters was taken completely by surprise, but was able to assure the ladies she would make good use of the dish. She thanked them for the kindly thought which prompted the gift.

JAMES E. GANONG DEAD.
There passed away yesterday James E. Ganong, a well known resident of Long Reach. Mr. Ganong during the last two years had been a great sufferer from paralysis, and on that account his familiar figure had not been in evidence among the summer people who frequent that part of the river near the Cedars. Famous Writer Here Monday to Speak at Imperial

Thanks to the Women's Canadian Club and the co-operation of the Imperial Theatre St. John, the public will have a chance to hear L. M. Montgomery (Mrs. Ewan MacDonald) author of the famous "Anne" books read from her own works next Monday afternoon. This noted writer, one of the foremost of Canadian authors, is at present visiting her old home in Prince Edward Island. She is to arrive here on Friday to visit Dr. and Mrs. Mahoney in Princess street and go on to Toronto on Monday evening.

The Women's Canadian Club is giving the general public an opportunity to hear the Miss Montgomery, naturally thinking the wide popularity of her books and her admirable personality will appeal strongly to the citizens. The reading will be given after the second show, at 4:30 in the afternoon, and Mrs. W. E. Raymond, the club's president said this morning that those attending the second show could remain for the readings, while for those going after the show, to hear the reading alone, there would be no charge. Seats are to be reserved for members of the club who show membership tickets, but that the public in addition to club members, will make up a large audience the club feels certain "Anne of Green Gables" does not come to St. John every day.

As Hiram Sees It

"When Hanner seen in the paper that the school board had got behind them there kindergardens," said Mr. Hiram Hornboun to the Times reporter. "He had to set right down a write to one woman she knowed that had been workin' fer 'em ever since afore the first one was started. Hanner says a good thing is always started by some women—an they get laughed at when they talk about it, but they go ahead an' work like beavers till they get it going. Then they hev to work still harder to carry it on—fer folks ginnally still says it's just a fad. But bimely, says Hanner, the folks wakes up an' looks the thing over an' sees it haint got no horns—an' they keep on watchin' till after a while they see the women was right in the first place—an' ort to hev got more help. That's the way with the kindergardens. Hanner says—an she's proud of that school board fer takin' hold so's there needn't be no fears of 'em bein' closed up. She'd write to Judge McKeown an' ask him to tell 'em so if she thought he wouldn't think she was too forward. You haint got no idee how much we're tickled out to the Settlement; when you do a good thing here in town, No, sir—your haint."
