MAN'S DREAM STARTS CREAMER SEARCH ANEW

Cape Bauld Resident Thought He Saw Graves of Little Ones in the Woods

Visited Scene and Hunted With the Father of Missing Children Without Success—All Sorts of Stories and Rumors Still Floating About—Russell Trenholm Gone to See His Mother, Who is Working Some Miles Away—Mrs. Creamer Still Bearing Up Under the Strain.

(By a Member of the Telegraph Staff.)

Cape Tormentine, N. B., May 21—(Special)—Magistrate Riley said tonight that he has not yet heard from Sheriff McQueen and the investigators are consequently marking time.

But one thing is surely certain. Around three year old Ralph could never have scrambled through such a jungle and across brush fences. It was quite beyond his baby strength. Olie might have, but it is generally thought that she never became separated from her brother. Did they fall into the brook? Did they sink in one of the many swamps? Could they have wandered beyond the scope already covered? Did an animal pond, thicker or byway? Were they kidnapped?

Here are questions still unanswered.

Mr. Niles' Dream.

Such queries are asked daily and apparently there is no one who can reply. To the parents no suggestion comes amiss. No proposition is too fanciful to be put aside as unworthy of consideration.

This morning Mr. Creamer, who was still suffering from the shock of his children's disappearance, had a visitor. He was Mr. Niles, of Cape Bauld, 23 miles away. The stranger's mission when explained had the effect of slightly reviving Mr. Creamer.

The two entered the woods and searched diligently. The hunt was solely the result of a dream. Mr. Niles alleges that on Saturday night last in ignorance of what had befallen the Creamer children, he dreamed a dream. He thought he walked along a road of reddish shale. He carried a small fence post and presently fell prodding the ground. Underneath the surface of earth was found the body of a boy. He had long curls and was of chubby build. Close by was unburied another boy. It was that of a young girl. Both showed evidence of having been done to death. Mr. Niles in the morning told of his nocturnal vision and was impressed when informed that the children had been drowned.

Mr. Niles' dream untrue. Mr. Niles did not wait for further details. He drove in hot haste for Cape Tormentine. He arrived late in the afternoon and was anxious to head an independent party to operate along the line of dream theory. His proposition was accepted. This morning, however, he found a supporter in Mr. Creamer. But their exertions were vain.

In many quarters the soil was turned over but fresh earth alone rewarded their efforts. The powerful landward gale had not lessened this morning and a few feet of the impression that the children had been drowned walked for miles along the beach. It was thought possible that the bodies, back on shore. But the long trudge in the teeth of a nipping wind was barren of result. The woods were not more devoid of sign than were the sands.

But still impatience is attached to the finding of the wool thread. Mrs. Creamer says that she has seen a mark on the Ralph's blouse or Olie's dress. The materials were different.

The mother displays marked fortitude under such distressing circumstances. She speaks of her tale calmly and reasonably. She discussed freely the rumors which have been flying. They were too ridiculous, too impossible, to occur on a moment's reflection. Through such a cruel ordeal as the disappearance of her children it was superfluous that some one should lay up. Nothing could be gained by surrendering to absolute despair.

As Mrs. Creamer, whose conversation and general bearing would indicate a superior woman, discussed the situation, Geneva was sitting on a near by sofa and in a cradle lay her ten months old sister. Russell Trenholm has gone to Peseoek's Point where his mother cooks in a cannery. It is understood that she objects to so many questions being asked her and considers it best for her to be with her at the Point, which is a few miles from the settlement.

It is probable that Magistrate Riley will reveal the settlement tomorrow. He is limited that much tonight.

Since early last week an old French-Canadian cobbler thought to belong in Peseoek's Point, has been wandering about the neighborhood. He has been seen here before and seems to have no fixed place of abode. He is partly blind, has an impediment in his speech and has interested himself in the hunt for the lost ones. This morning he wanted the magistrate to pay him for the assistance he had given.

There was ministerial advice, a pebble proof from the pulpit yesterday. It had to do with the absence from church of men who were participating in the general hunt. It is expected that the mystery of the lost ones will shortly form the subject of a sermon.

Geo. Milton reported to have escaped from the Provincial Hospital for the Treatment of Nervous Diseases, St. John, he said to be at the home of a relative in Bayfield, having reached there last night.

The Lion Dinner

New York, May 19—Eating dinner in a cage of lions would seem to the average person a rather fearsome feat, but in proof of the power of man over even the fiercest beasts, Colonel Percy J. Mundy, whose animal show is a feature at Luna Park this season, gave a feast to a number of his friends, to which he also invited his lions.

The only reason the guests remained at that moment was because they could not get out. Later, their fears reassured by the complete control under which Colonel Mundy and Major Crawford held the lions, they returned to something approximating their normal pulse beats and continued the meal.

They got a bad fright a few seconds later, however, when Sullana, a vicious lioness, was admitted by mistake and by an animated debate with another of the animals. There was considerable clamping for places of safety, one party guest carrying two hundred pounds of alarmed avardropes up the bars to the top of the cage. But Sullana did not do anything desperate and, all anxiety subsiding, Colonel Mundy induced the largest of the lions to mount the table and be photographed, for which favor the king of the desert was rewarded with a bottle of beer.

BORDEN COMPLAINS OF G. T. P. CONCESSIONS

Wants to Know About Their Exclusive Rights to Search for Minerals

THE IRON BOUNTY

Motion to Continue it Only to the Canadian Product Brings Protest from Cape Breton Member, Who Feels Injured to Sydney Industry.

Ottawa, May 21—(Special)—In answer to R. L. Borden in the house today Mr. Hyman said that the report of the committee appointed to investigate the Iron Bounties had been made but he had not laid it on the table as he was anxious to have the evidence, plans, etc., presented at the same time.

To Mr. Armstrong (Lambton) Hon. Mr. Fielding said that the government had received a copy of the German tariff in the German language.

Mr. Borden asked for the correspondence in regard to the granting to the Grand Trunk Pacific the right to search for minerals found in connection with the right of way on station grounds on its western section. He said this was an extraordinary concession.

Hon. Mr. Oliver said that the company desired that their roadbed or station buildings should not be interfered with. He would bring down whatever correspondence there was.

Hon. Mr. Oliver introduced his bill to amend the immigration law. The particulars of the bill have already been published.

Mr. McCanney (Saskatchewan) moved for copies of all petitions and papers of the Iron Bounties. He said that certain retired servants of the Hudson's Bay Company under a deed of sale by the Sir Wilfrid Laurier said that these parties had no claim against the government. If they had any claim it was against the Hudson's Bay Company.

The Iron Bounties. Mr. Comtee (Rainy River) moved the following resolution: "That it will be in the public interest that all bounties hereafter paid be confined to Canadian ore, and iron and steel produced therefrom. He would bring down whatever correspondence there was.

Mr. Johnston (Cape Breton) said that up to 1893 the iron and steel industry of Canada was languishing but under the legislation of this government it had developed into great importance. In 1897 the Dominion Iron & Steel Company was established but on account of delays in the full benefit of bounties which were fixed on the shipping clause. He pointed out that the bounty gradually became less under the existing legislation but for the reasons stated he urged that the government allow the bounty to at least remain stationary for a few years.

He regretted that Mr. Comtee had seen fit to amend his resolution by excluding from the bounty ore produced from ores of any British colony for the reason that in Nova Scotia they were compelled to use a large quantity of Newfoundland ore.

He asked Mr. Comtee to reconsider his decision to exclude Newfoundland ore on the ground that it was impertinent to take such action at this stage.

He opposed the proposal to admit coal for coking in Canada for smelting purposes.

WOMAN ASSAULTED BY NEGRO AT PASSEKEAG

Mrs. Bettie Attacked, She Declares, by George Hector in I. C. R. Station

Whistle of Approaching Train Scared Assailant—Victim Came to Hampton, Swore Out a Warrant and Had Colored Youth Arrested and Locked Up in Hampton Jail—Positively Identified Him.

Hampton, May 21—(Special)—As a result of a story of attempted assault related here this afternoon by Mrs. Judson Bettie, of Peseoek, George Hector, a negro youth, who says he is sixteen years old and a son of the late Joseph Hector, of St. John, was arrested at Peseoek, brought to Hampton, and committed to jail for examination next Thursday morning. The story of Mrs. Bettie caused great excitement and indignation in this section of Kings county.

When Constable Campbell and Mrs. Bettie reached Peseoek he left her at the house while he went after Hector. Having secured him he took him up to the house, where Mrs. Bettie at once identified him as her assailant, whereupon the constable placed him in the wagon and returned to Hampton.

The first known of the matter here was when, upon the arrival of the Quebec express about 1 o'clock today, a lady passenger with stretched face, disheveled hair and dusty clothing got off, and reported that she had been the victim of an assault by a negro at the Peseoek station, four miles east of this town.

She wanted to find the sheriff, or some one in authority, to go and arrest her assailant, Mrs. Bettie went to County Secretary G. O. Dickson, who prepared for her an information, which was sworn to before Henry Piers, J. P. Upon this a warrant was issued, Mr. Campbell and the woman at once started off by team to search for and if found arrest the culprit.

The woman in her sworn statement says she is Annie Bettie, wife of Judson Bettie, and that at Peseoek, a colored man, unknown to her, unlawfully made an assault with intent to ravish her. Mrs. Bettie, who is about thirty years old, a daughter of Joseph Farmer, possesses free as injurious to the coal interests of Nova Scotia.

Mr. MacPherson (Vancouver) said that it would be a sound economic principle to pay bounty on metals produced from foreign ores. In this way Canada would be preserving her own ores.

Mr. Paterson minister of customs after referring to the good results which had followed the bounties to the iron and steel industries, said that the mover had accomplished his object in having the matter brought before the house and therefore should withdraw it. The resolution went further than even the mover intended it.

Mr. Comtee withdrew the resolution.

THE TRADING COMPANY A "FAMILY AFFAIR"

So Says London Paper in Reference to the North Atlantic Concern

Declares That W. T. R. Preston's Son-in-Law and His Near Relatives are the Whole Show—Some of Those Credited With Being Stockholders Didn't Know They Were—Only One Man Paid Anything for His Shares According to the Record.

Montreal, May 21—(Special)—The London Tribune, says a special London cable, devotes a special column to what it calls "the Canadian scandal." Although the North Atlantic Trading Company received large sums from the Canadian government the Tribune says it was officially recognized January last as containing only of eight shareholders, seven of whom were supposedly dummies and never paid a single penny on their single shares.

The Tribune says the person who, as the company's solicitor, had most to do with the company's incorporation was E. A. Alexander, who is Preston's son-in-law. When interviewed Mr. Alexander admitted he certainly knew all about the company, but without the authority of the directors he was bound to give no information. He did not, however, say if the directors were.

The Tribune discovered that the company so far as publicity permitted was pretty much of a family affair. In addition to Mr. Preston's son-in-law, Alexander, who is solicitor, the registered original shareholders include Edward Sainsbury, proprietor of a small London hotel, who is Alexander's uncle; also Alexander's brother, Alfred A. Alexander. A representative of the Tribune saw Sainsbury on Saturday and asked for information concerning the North Atlantic Trading Company. He said he knew nothing whatever about it and had never even heard of such a company. When told he was a shareholder he stated it was the first he knew of it.

On Sunday Sainsbury called at the office of the Tribune and said he had seen his nephew who had brought to his recollection certain circumstances and had shown him his signature. He attributed his forgetfulness of the previous day to domestic worry.

John Alfred Randall, clerk, who is another original registered shareholder, said the matter almost slipped his memory. It was true he had allowed his signature to be used but he was not sure if he possessed a share in the company or if it had been transferred.

Carleton County Young Man Drowned. James C. Emley, of Glassville, Slipped from a Log While Stream-driving and Lost His Life.

Woodstock, N. B., May 21—(Special)—Last Friday James Clifford Emley, the only son of John Emley of Glassville, formerly of Richmond, was accidentally drowned in Long Lake, Tobique River. The young man was employed on the drive for Alex. Fraser & Sons, and slipping from a rolling log was drowned before help could reach him.

He was only a little more than 20 years of age and had intended leaving the drive in a few days, returning to his home, and helping his father put in the crop on the farm. His death is a sad bereavement to his father and mother. The latter was a Miss McLellan, of Richmond. His body was brought to Woodstock by the C. P. R. today and his burial was in the family lot in the parish churchyard, Archdeacon Neales officiating.

Foster Resigns from Union Trust Co. Toronto, May 21—The resignation of Hon. Geo. E. Foster, M. P., vice-president and general manager of the Union Trust Company, and the intimation that President Oronchayevitch and Director John A. McGillicuddy, K. C., are contemplating retirement, are the result of the new insurance law introduced in the states of New York and Illinois preventing insurance companies from holding controlling interest in trust companies. As nine-tenths of their withdrawal from control of the Union Trust is necessary in order to comply with the letter of this law, the company's reorganization probably will be announced shortly.

Record Drive on the Miramichi. Newcastle, May 19—The record lumber drive of the Miramichi waters was made this season by Contractor Regan and his crew of stream drivers, having driven from Fowler Lake to Indiantown, a distance of fifty-one miles, in five days and a quarter.

Last year he drove the same stream from Drake's Falls, a distance of forty-seven miles, in ten days, with exceedingly low water.

It has always been said that James Robinson, ex-M. P., had a competitor in town, but Mr. Regan has, beyond a doubt, proven himself to be one of the best, and worthy of all the praise he has received since his return.

RUSSIAN COLONEL RECEIVED THIRTY WOUNDS FROM BOMBS

Missile Exploded Under Horse Which Received Most of Its Contents—Would-be Assassin Caught.

Kalis, Russian Poland, May 21—A second attempt on the life of Count Keller, a colonel of dragoons and nephew of Lieut. General Count Keller, who was killed July 29, 1904, during the war with Japan, was made today by a Jewish revolutionist who threw a bomb at the colonel while he was riding in a cab. Col. Keller, though receiving more than thirty wounds from splinters of the bomb, was saved from instant death by the too good aim of his assailant, the bomb exploding directly beneath the body of Colonel Keller's horse, which received the major portion of the charge. The wounded man may recover.

The explosion shattered the windows in all the adjacent houses and ruptured the ear drums of Col. Keller's aide-de-camp. The bomb thrower attempted to escape but became entangled in a hedge and was arrested by pursuing soldiers, who were forced to use their sabres before they could subdue him. He was severely wounded. Col. Keller's activity in suppressing disturbances here and in this vicinity had made him many enemies.

The steamer "Marguerite," now owned by Alderman McGoldrick, was launched a few days ago from the blocks, where she has been for some two or three years.

The "Marguerite" had a chequered career and cost the people who were interested in her more money than many a new and larger steamer. Perhaps the chairman of St. John's public works will utilize the "Marguerite" to show summer tourists what important improvements have been made in the harbor.

to build up in the years to come a rival nation at their very doors which, perhaps, would never have had a separate existence but for the loyal folly of those who persecuted the Royalists.

Having in a former sermon, delivered on a Sunday afternoon, touched upon the story of the coming of our Loyalist ancestors to these shores, it will be well today to speak no further concerning the events so commemorated, but to consider some of those qualities, referred to in my text, which were nobly exemplified in the lives of the true Loyalists—the founders of our city and province.

Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong. Let all that ye do be done in love. Let all that ye do be done in love. Let all that ye do be done in love.

There is absolute necessity that we should give good heed to St. Paul's words: "Watch ye." He repeats his master's injunction: "What I say unto you, watch, unto all watch." Some twenty years or more ago the heart of the English-speaking world went out to a lonely Englishman whose life was in peril in the city of Khatoum, far up the River Nile.

It may be that among the Loyalists, there are some who are not so true to their native country as much by the spirit of adventure as their attachment to the cause of the king.

"Dear Mr. Hayes: I am desired by Prince Arthur of Connaught to convey to you His Royal Highness's best thanks for the very beautiful collection of photographs which you have sent him, and which will always value as a memento of the journey upon your railway."

STRATHCONA DENIES PRESTON'S STATEMENTS

Declares He Never Admitted That Stolen Letters Were in His Office

Canada's Superintendent of Immigration at Ottawa Inquiry Yesterday Admitted That He Organized the North Atlantic Trading Company, But it Had the Approval of the High Commissioner.

Montreal, May 18.—(Special)—A special London cable says: The Ottawa correspondent of the Tribune, in a cable statement, has given evidence before the public accounts committee, said he was unable to produce all his private correspondence because some letters had been stolen from his office last year and that he had traced the missing papers to the office of the High Commissioner for Canada, and Lord Strathcona had admitted that they were in possession of his secretary.

On being shown the Tribune cable by the Canadian Associated Press correspondent, Lord Strathcona, in a very emphatic manner, denied ever having made any such admission.

"Never, never," said Lord Strathcona, "officially, or personally, am I aware that Griffiths ever had letters obtained in such a manner as Mr. Preston asserts."

Mr. Monk interjected to ask the name of the company. Mr. Preston said that when the trouble arose in Canada he wrote a letter to the company, a letter which was probably more personal than official, asking that the names be given because of certain statements made in Canada. All of the officials came to London to see him. He did not know the members of the company, only one or two of them. He had a suspicion as to who some of them were. He asked for the names privately. He had received a letter last night which he had not delivered to the government and which he was advised contained the names. He would rather that the committee would not ask him just now for the names.

ST. JOHN MAN SAYS HAYES IS NO MURDERER

(Bangor News.)

Thomas Sheehan, native of St. John (N. B.), once a member of the famous Shamrock base ball team of this city, but for many years a "railroad worker," was arrested in Bangor Thursday night on charge of drunkenness. There is nothing extraordinary in that, but the News heard that Thomas had for long been acquainted with Jerry Hayes, arrested on Wednesday at Bangor on suspicion of the murder of Mabel Page.

Sheehan said that he had known Jerry Hayes, or "Long Jerry," as he is better known among his associates for 17 years and had never heard him called by any other name. He said that Hayes was a common "hovel" man, which means that he was a vagabond and was known only enough to use a pick and shovel; that he would earn a bit of money and then spend it for liquor but that he never was ugly and so far from being capable of murder, would harm a fly.

Sheehan said that he had never seen Hayes since he was arrested in Bangor. He said that Hayes never said anything to him about any of his Massachusetts experience, and never mentioned the Page house or the murder. He is of the opinion that Hayes never said anything to him more than a trick of the Tucker lawyers to shift the blame upon some ignorant man, "some poor guy in overall," so that the Tucker may go free, or, at least, get another stay of execution. Sheehan says that he doubts very much if Hayes is able to write his name, and thinks it is possible that he could have written "J. J. Morton" card, even had he visited the Page house on the day of the murder.

As for Mrs. Brown, of Binghamwell, her ears must have burned last night while Sheehan was giving a somewhat comprehensive list of her shortcomings.

TERRIBLE FIRES IN WESTERN STATES; TOWNS WRECKED AND MANY LIVES LOST

Marionette, Wis., May 18, 11 p. m.—The best information obtainable at this hour is that the forest fire which is sweeping the county north of here, has reached four counties north of Dickinson. This makes four counties which are suffering from fire.

Information received at Marionette is that the village of Shafter on the Northern branch of the Northern Pacific Railroad in Dickinson county, was wiped out. No word has been received as to the loss of life there, if any has occurred. Shafter is a lumber town owned by the Cleveland

Cliff Company. The village consisted of a big mill and a couple of hotels, with warehouses and headquarters for the lumber trade.

The village of Saunders, in Iron County, a lumber town directly north of Florence (Wis.), has also been swept by the flames. Here, as at Shafter, many may have met death. The town consists of a few residences, four saloons, a couple of hotels and a big sawmill.

Three Towns Destroyed. Detroit, May 18.—Fragmentary reports have reached the Detroit News and Free Press from Escanaba and Gladstone (Mich.), stating that disastrous forest fires are raging in the upper peninsula in the neighborhood of the two cities mentioned. It is reported that three towns have been destroyed, that thirty square miles of territory have been devastated and that several persons have been burned to death.

ST. JOHN THE ONLY WINTER PORT SAYS. C. P. R. PRESIDENT

Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, at Empress Banquet, Declares Under Existing Circumstances There is Not Another Possible Winter Port on the Atlantic Coast of Canada-Urges the Development of All-Canadian Transportation Facilities.

Quebec, May 19-Sir Thos. Shaughnessy, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, was the guest of the Quebec board of trade this evening at a banquet tendered in the Chateau Frontenac.

People, if they were to follow the movement of a train load of wheat from the Northwest to the Atlantic would be surprised at the amount of labor the task required.

There was no reason for jealousy between Canada's Atlantic ports. There would be business enough for them all and to spare.

St. John the Only Winter Port. In order to illustrate how business might be worked up he cited the case of St. John. In the season of 1885-86 the total tonnage of export freight handled through the port was 22,866 tons.

Under existing conditions there is not another possible winter port on the Atlantic coast of Canada, Halifax was too far from the point where the traffic originates.

A few years ago when Canada was in a much less satisfactory condition than today her overtures for better trade relations with other countries were in some cases met with indifference bordering on contempt.

The manufacturers of eastern Canada could meet the requirements of the west until the section of the country had developed its own manufacturing industries.
