Pte. Geo. Almond Savidant Was Splendid Type of Soldier.—An Officer's Appreciation

Mrs. Wm. Savidant has received a splendid letter from Lieut. H. W. Ferguson, sympathizing with the family in their loss of their son and brother Almond.

Flanders, Oct. 23rd, 1915.

Mr. and Mrs. Savidant:—

Words can hardly do justice in lightening the sorrow of your recent bereavement in the loss of your son Almond, killed in the action of Oct. 13th, yet I wish to express my deep sympathy in the lot that is yours to bear in common with that of thousands throughout the British Empire and the world today. Almond has done his manfully and well, and now has answered the last trumpet call we all must hear sooner or later. I thought you would like to know that his death was without pain. It was instantaneous in its suddenness. He toppled over towards the man next him saying "Eddie, I've got mine!" and was lowered gently to the ground by which time life was extinct. In death his face was serene and unmarked; not that of a man who was in pain and feared the unknown. He feared nothing in life or death and was a splendid type of soldier. He entered the game seriously, played it for all he was worth, and now that he is gone he has joined the countless army of those who have died that England might live, than this "greater love hath no man."

"Mothers restrain your weeping. Knowing the sons you gave, Peacefully, now are sleeping. Each in a hero's grave. Dauntless they battled, giving All, till their last breath. Gallant they were while living, Glorious in their death."

Almond now lies peacefully sleeping his last sleep within sound of the guns about a thousand yards or so behind the front line trenches, within a well kept plot of earth allotted to the 26th Battalion. I wandered this way this afternoon to look over the last resting place of this many gallant lad I knew and with pangs of regret noticed how rapidly our allotment of ground was filling up. The graves are laid out in even rows, each man buried singly. The graves are all neatly sodded with fresh green sods and at the head of each a uniform cross standing about three feet high, upon which is nailed an aluminum metal plate with the name, number and battalion of the one who has joined the last great sacrifice and the land beyond.

This portion of Belgium is consecrated soil for about Almond and his comrades in the last long sleep are these of a number of other Canadian Battalions, so that when the last gun is fired and peace reigns over this stricken country, this ground will doubtless be taken over by the Allied governments and maintained as such a national spot should be in memory of the cause for which they fought and died. Believe me, I am with deepest sympathy.

Very sincerely yours,
Harry W. Ferguson, Lieut.
C Co., 26th Batt.

At a regular meeting of Snowdrift Division 183 B. of L. E. held Sunday, Nov. 7th, 1915, the following resolution was passed:

To Brother William Savidant and family. It is with feelings of deep sorrow and regret that we learn that your son Geo. A. Savidant of the 26th Canadian Battalion was killed in action on Oct. 13th, 1915. We wish to extend to you our heartfelt sympathy. While we sorrow with you, we take pleasure in the fact that he offered up his life as a sacrifice in the service of his King and Country, and hope that you and yours may be comforted by

PROPOSAL TO RAISE NORTH SHORE BATTALION

Public Meeting Held Here on Monday Evening and Resolution is Prepared for Forwarding to Minister of Militia.

COL. MERSEREAU TO COMMAND

On Monday evening a meeting representative of the County was held in the Council Chambers here, to discuss the matter of raising a battalion among the four north shore counties to be commanded by Lt. Col. Mersereau of Bonaventure.

Mr. D. A. Stewart was called to the chair and Mayor Andrew was appointed secretary.

The chairman asked Lieut. Norman McKay, who was present to address the meeting. Lieut. McKay stated that Lt. Col. Mersereau had offered to raise and command a regiment from the four north shore counties, Restigouche, Gloucester, Northumberland and Kent, and he had asked the representative men of the county to meet and discuss this matter and if possible come to some understanding. Col. Mersereau was well qualified for the position, having spent a number of years in the Militia service and was favourably known throughout the North Shore. The offer had been made to the minister of Militia and it was looked on favourably in recruiting circles. Meetings would be held in Chatham, Newcastle and probably Bathurst, and he thought if a strong resolution was passed it would strengthen Col. Mersereau's hands. Lieut. McKay further stated that the detachment at the Wireless Station, Newcastle, had offered as a unit officers and men for this battalion, and the band of the 73rd would assist in any recruiting campaign.

Mr. H. J. Currie asked the question who would be the power of this meeting, and the chairman replied that the matter could be properly discussed in all its bearings and come to some arrangement to assist in the matter. He thought that the Counties of Bonaventure and Gaspé should be included. Lieut. McKay said that meetings would be held at Newcastle and Chatham and he would like to give them a report of what we intended doing.

Judge McLatchy was then called on. He said he was deeply interested in all patriotic movements and this would have his most hearty support. They ought not to be any difficulty in raising the battalion in these four counties. Campbellton had already shown what could be done by raising over 600 men. The first thing required was the permission of the Minister of Militia, and then to go into the campaign they must have active workers. The assistance of every one would be required, ministers and laymen alike, if the project was to be brought to a successful conclusion. He would like to have the feeling of the meeting to see how many would go out and work. He suggested that a committee be appointed to draw up a strong resolution to be forwarded to the minister of Militia. He hoped we would be better represented by officers in this battalion than we had been in others. We had recruited over 600 men and we were entitled to more than nine or ten

In speaking of getting right to work, Rev. Hugh Miller in the course of his remarks took a story of an old darkey preacher, who got the words "predestination" and "procrastination" mixed. He had been using the latter word in his sermon and on being asked by a deacon what was the meaning of the word "procrastination", said "Procrastination am one ob de fundamental principles ob Presbyterians". Loud laughter greeted the rev. gentleman's reply.

A committee of three was then appointed, formed of Judge McLatchy, Capt. A. T. LeBlanc and Police Judge Matheson. They retired and prepared the following resolution which was unanimously adopted.

To the Honourable Sir Sam Hughes Minister of Militia, Ottawa.

At a representative meeting of the citizens of the County of Restigouche held at the Town of Campbellton, on the 8th day of November instant, it was unanimously resolved that whereas Lt. Col. Mersereau has offered to raise and command a battalion for overseas service from the four Counties, Restigouche, Gloucester, Northumberland and Kent in New Brunswick; and whereas we are in hearty sympathy with this movement and are of the opinion that a battalion can be easily recruited in the above mentioned territory, therefore we urge upon the Honourable Minister of Militia the acceptance of the offer of Lt. Col. Mersereau; and further that if such request is granted we will do all in our power to have this project carried to a successful issue.

(Sgd) D. A. STEWART, Chairman.
(Sgd) ALBERT A. ANDREW, Secretary.

The manner of presenting the resolution was left in the hands of the committee, after which the meeting adjourned.

LIEUT. O. A. MOWAT GETS WARM PRAISE

Campbellton Officer Receives Many Compliments for Splendid Work at Front

Montreal, Nov. 9.—The third artillery brigade in command of Lt. Col. J. H. Mitchell of Toronto, and composed mainly of Toronto and New Brunswick men, took part in the "big drive" on the western front on Sept. 25 and succeeding days. An account of the fighting by the Canadians has been brought here by Lt. H. M. E. Darling, of Montreal, who was a passenger on the steamer Massena.

Lt. Darling said the third brigade was stationed at the extreme left of the allied line near Neuve Eglise, and poured a steady stream of shells into the German first, second and third line trenches.

Lt. Darling described how Lt. O. A. Mowat of Campbellton, N. B., took his gun to the first line trenches and held his position through a perfect rain of shells which demolished his shelter. It is probable he will get the military cross.

Speaking to the press representatives Lieut. Darling said: "They say Lieut. O. A. Mowat, of Campbellton, N. B., may get the military cross out of that action and I hope he does. He took his gun into the first line and none of us expected to see him again. He was up there with his gun protected by eight rows of sand bags, iron girders, crow bars and all the defensive material you could imagine and when it was all over everything had been shot away but one line of sand bags. A German shell dropped right in front of his gun once and the concussion blew his hat off, but he just grabbed it and blazed away. He certainly deserves any honor that can be done him."

Lieut. Darling says that food is plentiful, and of the best, and tobacco easy to obtain, but that reading matter is scarce and eagerly snapped up.

I. C. R. BRAKEMAN HAS SERIOUS ACCIDENT

Wm. Payne Injured Severely in Fall From Roof of House to the Ground

On Monday morning, Mr. William Payne, a well-known I. C. R. brakeman, running on the North Shore division, met with a very serious accident at his home here.

On that morning, he did not go out on his train as usual, but remained at home to effect some needed repairs to the roof of his house. Procuring a ladder he mounted to the roof, and while at work there in some way lost his balance and fell heavily to the ground below, landing on his neck and sustaining serious damage to the spinal column.

Although it is understood that his back was not broken, the injury to the spinal cord resulted in the paralysis of his body and limbs from the waist down. Local physicians did what they could to relieve him, and on Monday evening he was taken by the Ocean Limited to Montreal, for further expert treatment.

Mr. Payne is a man of about 35 or 40 years of age, and resides with his family in Campbellton. For some time he has been running on the "Canon Ball" or travelling-shunter, between Campbellton and Newcastle.

He thought that he died a hero's death in a glorious and righteous cause.

AMERICAN LIVES SAID TO BE LOST ON ANCONA

Rome, Nov. 9, via Paris, Nov. 10.—The Italian liner Ancona, from Genoa for New York, reported sunk in the Mediterranean by an Austrian submarine, had on board 83 first cabin passengers, 60 second cabin and 339 steerage.

A despatch from the Stefani News Agency of Rome, says that 100 shells were fired into the Ancona before she was torpedoed.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Definite information concerning the sinking of the Italian liner Ancona by a submarine flying the Austrian flag was anxiously awaited to-day by officials of the United States government.

Should it develop that Americans aboard lost their lives, and that the steamer was torpedoed without warning, the American government would probably demand of the Austrian government disavowal of the act, reparation; and assurances that there will be no repetition of the incident.

Twenty-seven American citizens are believed to have been lost when the Italian steamer Ancona was sunk by an Austrian submarine in the Mediterranean sea.

While he has not finally decided, it is almost certain that the Rev. Wellington Camp will accept the call to the Baptist pastorate at Campbellton and will leave in a short time to take up his duties. The church has formerly been held by the Rev. Mr. Jenner, who has accepted a call to the Charlotte Street (Carleton) Baptist church.

ONE BETTER

Reports have appeared in New Brunswick papers of a large moose head recently on exhibition in Fredericton. This had a spread of 62 in. Restigouche can beat that. On Sept. 22nd Jeff Scott, cook at Miller's Mill, shot a moose at Jardine Brook with a spread of 67 inches. The blade was 20 inches wide and there were 76 points, 23 on one side and 24 on the other. The entire moose and head were brought on the International train to Campbellton and it was said to be the largest ever seen here.

PRESENTATION

A pleasant time was spent Monday night, Nov. 1st, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bailey, 21 Richmond St., St. John, N. B., in honor of Mrs. Bailey's brother, William S. Gray, son of the late Walter S. Gray of Campbellton, N. B., who came from Portage, Maine, to enlist with the 104th Battalion for overseas service. During the evening his uncle, Wm. Smith, on behalf of the company assembled, presented the young soldier with a military wrist watch. The recipient made a suitable reply and said he came from Maine to serve his King and country, and wished all men present would follow his example. The gathering broke up at midnight, wishing him good luck and safe return to wife and child.

Another meeting will be held at eight o'clock next Saturday night in the Board of Trade rooms when all commercial travellers in the city are requested to be in attendance as business of the greatest importance is to be transacted.

OBITUARY

On Nov. 1st, there occurred at Oak Bay Mills the death of Mr. Thomas A. Baker. The deceased was in his fifty-fifth year. He was born at Salisbury, Westmorland Co., N. B., and has been a resident of this place for the past twenty years. The late Mr. Baker was a highly respected citizen of this place and was much liked by all who knew him. His kind heart won for him a host of friends and his loss will be much felt throughout the community. Although suffering from a very painful disease he bore his illness with christian patience and passed away trusting in his Saviour. He leaves to mourn the loss of a loving husband and kind father, a wife and four sons: Harvey, Macdonald, Devereaux and Chester. The funeral took place on Wednesday, Nov. 3rd at 1 p. m. Rev. H. Miller of Campbellton conducted the service. The pall-bearers were Messrs. W. J. Harper, T. Geraghty, J. D. and J. B. Sowerby, A. J. O'Connor, and H. McDavid. The funeral was largely attended, interment being made in Kempt Road Cemetery. Great sympathy is felt for the family in their sad bereavement.

OBITUARY

MR. ISADORE DOIRON
The people of Point la Garde and surrounding country were greatly shocked, when word was flashed over the wires from Campbellton that Mr. Isadore Doiron of this place had passed away on Sunday morning, Oct. 24th at 7 o'clock a. m. Mr. Doiron will be greatly missed in this community, as he was a contributor of good judgment and he held his position for a long time, always striving to do the very best for the people and place in which he represented. Mr. Doiron was in his forty-seventh year and leaves to mourn a sorrowing wife, two sons and one daughter. Also two sisters and five brothers, which are Mrs. Wilfred Paquet of this place and Mrs. Simeon Gagne of Michigan, U. S. A. Simeon and Theodore of New York, Joseph of Dalhousie, Andrew of St. Alexis and Thomas of this place. His son, Ernest, who was in St. Paschal, on hearing the sad news arrived home as quickly as possible, but was too late to see his father, as he had then been laid to rest.

MACHINE GUNS

The Montreal Star publishes the following surprising statement under the heading, "The Machine Guns."

"The very awkward position into which the government has got itself over the machine gun question suggests that the right thing to do now is either to return the money to the individual subscribers who gave contributions for supplementary machine guns or to ask the individual subscriber what their wishes are."

"It will be remembered that in nearly all the early engagements in the west front it was discovered that the German troops were found to have immense preponderance of machine guns, at least double or treble the British equipment. The discovery was startling, and all Canada was appealed to to subscribe for extra machine guns for Canadian troops."

"At this juncture a federal minister in a speech, asked the people for money for more machine guns. The Montreal Star and other papers in Canada took it up. The response was instantaneous and generous. Hundreds of thousands of dollars were subscribed and everyone supposed it meant more machine guns. It turns out that this is a delusion. The government's explanation is that an order for all available machine guns was placed long ago and the individual subscriptions cannot be used as desired and, moreover, the issue of machine guns to units is restricted by army regulations. Somebody has blundered."

General Sir Sam Hughes, when asked for a statement, took a whack at Senator Loughheed by declaring that the Machine Gun Fund was collected during his absence from the country, but assured the people that there was no occasion to get excited over the matter. In the meantime, although hundreds of thousands of dollars have been subscribed by public subscription for the purchase of machine guns, there is no assurance that the Canadian battalions going overseas will be equipped with any more machine guns than they would have had in any case.—Frederick Mail.

THANK GOD FOR THE "COMMON BOYS."

The following story has reached this office:

"Two ladies, leaders in a certain fashionable set, were standing together in a local business establishment the other afternoon. The afternoon papers contained the names of several members of the 26th New Brunswick Battalion who had been killed on the battle lines in France. Reference was made to the casualty lists, and the older of the ladies asked the younger her daughter, as to the identity of those killed or hurt. The younger replied: 'Oh, they were only common boys, no one we know!'"

The Standard regrets that the foregoing is authentic, and apologizes to its readers for its publication. But it appears that in this case publicity is desirable. We know that the statement quoted does not represent the feelings of the very large majority of the women of St. John; in fact, we are prepared to say that ninety-nine out of every one hundred would instantly repudiate it.

"Only common boys," therefore, not worthy of notice. Did it occur to that young woman that it was the sacrifice of those "common boys" that made it possible for her and every other man and woman in St. John to live in comfort and security? Did it occur to her, that every young man in this country who has cast aside family ties, the responsibilities and pleasures of civil life and donned the levelling khaki is a hero infinitely to be preferred to the dressed automatons who have not yet realized the duty or the responsibility of their alleged manhood? Some of the men who marched away from their homes at the call of Empire might make sorry spectacles in that young woman's reception room; they might not be familiar with the latest dancing steps, or the approved methods of passing tea, but they were men, every one of them—and on the battlefield, to the accompaniment of whistling shells and death in horrid form have done men's work. Can the young woman who did not even trouble to mention their names because they were "only common boys, no one we know," say as much for some of her friends?

Thank God for the common boys, the boys who did not hesitate when the call came to do their duty as it presented itself. St. John is proud of every one of them and will not fail to manifest that pride and gratitude when the time comes even though they may not be on Miss ———'s visiting list. The very fact that a remark such as that quoted at the outset of this article could be made by any St. John woman is, however, plain evidence that all the missionary or educational effort should not be devoted to the heathen in foreign lands. There are, unfortunately, a few benighted ones in our own city to whom the light should come. Again, Thank God for the "Common Boys."—Standard.

FOR Indigestion and Biliousness

Indigestion, biliousness, headaches, flatulence, pains after eating, constipation, are all common symptoms of stomach and liver troubles. And the more you neglect them the more you suffer. Take Mother Seigel's Syrup if your stomach, liver, or bowels are slightly deranged or

BUILDING FOR VICTORY

The announcement that Russia has created and opened an ice free port which will enable sea communication to be kept up with that country when winter closes the port of Archangel will undoubtedly have an important bearing upon the war, as well upon Russia's commercial future. Far to the north of Archangel, on the peninsula of Kola, is the harbor of Ekaterina, laved by the waters of the Gulf Stream and so kept open. There within the past year great docks and terminal facilities have been built, while also within the year a railroad, double-tracked at that, has been constructed, more than 1,200 miles long, connecting the new port with the railroad system of the empire. More than ten thousand workmen, many of them prisoners of war, have aided in the construction of these great enterprises, which will enable Russia to receive aid from her friends, and to prosecute the war with the vigor that is steadily winning back territory lost when German knowledge of the ammunition scarcity of the Czar's forces prompted the campaign which failed of its ultimate purpose, but carried the invaders into a region in which they are bound to suffer tremendous losses before getting out. Already on the offensive, the Russians are steadily increasing their strength and should easily be able to

HON. CHAS. MARCIL AMONG THE SCOTS

Is Guest of Caledonian Society of Montreal Where he Delivers an Address

On Friday evening, November 5th, the Hon. Charles Marcil, M. P. for Bonaventure was the guest of the Caledonian Society of Montreal, who turned out in large numbers, ladies and gentlemen, to hear his address on "The Scots in Canada". On entering the large hall which was crowded, accompanied by Mr. Alexander Shiels, the President of the Society, preceded by Chief Piper Gray of the 4th Royal Scots, Mr. Marcil was received with highland honours.

Mr. Marcil spoke for an hour and a half, tracing the history of the Scottish settlements in the Maritime Provinces and throughout Canada since the days of James VI. of Scotland and 1st of England and Sir William Alexander, the founder of Nova Scotia up to the present time. He pointed out the great part the people of Scotland took in the building of Canada and the proud position which the millions of Canadians of Scottish origin now occupy in the Dominion.

In education, in public life, in the liberal professions, in the church, in commercial life, in railway, bank, navigation, in all walks of life the Scottish were in the lead.

His description of the foundations of the various Scottish settlements proved immensely interesting. Mr. Marcil gave a notable portion of his address to the Scotsmen of New Brunswick and of Bonaventure and the Baie des Chaleurs district. His allusions to Sir John MacDonald, Alexander MacKenzie, Oliver Mowat, Principal Grant, Sir William Dawson, and Strathcona, William Lyn MacKenzie, Bishops, Strachan, Bethune and MacDonald and other eminent Scottish Canadians were heartily received.

The part being taken now in the war by Scottish Canadians along with their countrymen of other origins was heartily applauded.

At the conclusion of the address a large number of thanks were moved by Mr. W. S. Walker, K.C., W. E. Dickson, William Drysdale and T. Davidson and heartily carried.

There was Scottish dancing by young Burnett, Scottish songs and refreshments.

The whole gathering sang "Auld Lang Syne" and the National Anthem.

What Cures Eczema?

We have had so many inquiries lately regarding Eczema and other skin diseases, that we are glad to make our answer public. After careful investigation we have found that a simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, as compounded in D. D. D. Prescription, can be relied upon. We would not make this statement to our patrons, friends and neighbors unless we were sure of it—and although there are many so-called Eczema remedies sold, we ourselves unhesitatingly recommend D. D. D. Prescription. All druggists have D. D. D., 25c. & $1.

Why Several Canadians Went to the Front

Some striking instances of the spirit which prevails among the Canadians in regard to the war, were supplied by the Editor of the Scotsman, correspondent at Ottawa. The response of the Canadians is, we are assured, as striking as it was at the beginning of the year. The correspondent counted fifty stalwart volunteers, young Canadians waiting at one time for their turn to interview the recruiting officer, and a splendid lot of fellows they were. He would be surprised to learn that five out of fifty were rejected by doctors. He spoke to one or two of them; they were farmers and farmers' sons from the district round Ottawa. One had left a comfortable homestead, where he had been located for the last ten years, and where he had left his wife, three sons and a daughter to keep things going till his return. On asking him what chiefly influenced him in leaving Canada for the front he answered, "I simply HAD to go," and added no further explanation.

Another, a great stalwart giant of at least six feet, was more communicative. "When the war broke out," he said, "I did not see how I could leave my farm, for I have only been about hold the Teutons in check until spring, when with new armies and new equipment the Eastern front will become the scene of another drive—this time toward Berlin, Vienna and Buda Pesth. The construction of this new leather harbor and great double-track railroad are indications of the resourcefulness of the Russians, as well as of their determination. They are building for victory.—Ex.

1916 MODELS EVERYONE A SIX.

This is the year of "sixes" and in presenting our complete line for 1916—"every car a six" we do so conscious that the element of experiment is eliminated. Prolonged and severe tests under the most stringent of conditions, conclusively proved that the six-cylinder car, as built by us, is the embodiment of the latest in automobile construction. We make this statement with all the weight of our 45 years of manufacturing experience.

Each "McLaughlin-Six" expresses individuality in its beauty of design and finish—something different—and an inspection of the seven exquisite models will convince any person that his requirements can be thoroughly satisfied.

And yet, owing to the vast increase in our manufacturing schedule, we are able to offer a greatly improved car at a reduced price.

War Tax Stamps

Every Letter and Post Card mailed in Canada for delivery in Canada, United States, Mexico, United Kingdom and British Possessions, (wherever the two cent rate of post applied) must now bear a WAR STAMP in addition to the regular postage.

It is going to take the citizens of Canada a little while to get accustomed to the New System, and there will doubtless be many cases where the affixing of a WAR STAMP will be overlooked. All letters so mailed are sent to the Dead-Letter Office and opened, and where possible (if address is given) returned to sender.

YOU CAN AVOID this inconvenience by having your box number or name and address printed on corner or flap of your stationery. Then, if by any chance you should neglect to affix a WAR STAMP, your local postmaster would know at once where to return your mail matter, and the delay of going to the Dead-Letter Office would thus be avoided.

We will supply you with a good quality commercial envelope, neatly printed for $2.50 per 1000.

three years up country, and this is the first year I have got a full crop. It seemed to me that if I went away from it, it would go back to the condition in which I found it, and my wife, who has a cabin next door—she is an old backwoodsman, said that I would be a fool to go. But as I read the papers from week to week I got more and more restless, and at last, when it came to the 'grasping' of the Canadians and the sinking of the Lusitania, I simply couldn't stand it any longer. I handed over my stock and implements to Bill, put up the shutters on the windows, nailed up the front door, and here I am. I have neither wife nor kids, and if my life is worth anything the Hun can have it, but I'll have a good slag at them first." This man's spirit is typical of the prevailing tone of the Canadians.

CONSTIPATIENS

It must be remembered that the bowels should move freely once a day to ensure perfect health. When such is not the case the poisonous waste material is absorbed into the system, thus producing a self blood poisoning. The cause of Constipation are many and varied. Among the more common may be mentioned poor stomach digestion, a deficiency of bile in the intestines, a lack of exercise in the bowels, and a want of the natural muscular contraction of the intestines from above downward.

Abbey's Effervescent Salt, sold everywhere at 25c and 50c, stimulates and breaks the chronic digestion, increases the flow of bile into the intestinal canal, and restores the natural downward action of the intestines, rendering it easy to secure a free action of the bowels, which is one of the most important requisites for health.

Sarah Bernhardt, the world's greatest actress, probably never will appear upon the stage again. After a single performance in Paris for the movies, she discovered she was unable to walk, her artificial leg well enough to walk. She has cancelled her American engagements and returned to Bordeaux.

"One of the more prominent young men of Bathurst, J. Edmund White has felt the call to duty so far as to sacrifice his brilliant future in order to do his little bit towards helping to crush the aspirations of militaristic Germany. Edmund, as everybody knows him, enlisted a week ago at St. John with the 10th and is now home on leave for several weeks in order to wind up his business. Although all his Bathurst friends regret to see him leaving, yet they cannot help feeling that he is showing a splendid example to all those other young men who have nothing whatever to deter them from serving their country."

55TH BATTALION REACHES ENGLAND

Sailed From Quebec on October 30th and Have Quick Passage on Corsican

An Ottawa despatch says:—"It is officially announced that the S. S. Corsican has arrived safely in England. She had on board the 55th New Brunswick Battalion, 42 officers and 1,099 men, and the Newfoundland Battalion, with 6 officers and 260 men."

The 55th sailed from Quebec at 9 o'clock in the evening of October 30th on the S. S. "Corsican" and thus had a very quick voyage across the "pond."

Besides the officers and the men of the 55th a number of small detachments and "drafts" were on board the "Corsican."

Naturally, the news from the "Corsican" has been awaited with breathless interest throughout the county, and the news of her safe arrival in the old country will be received with delight by the hundreds of relatives of the local volunteers on board.

A few local people were in Quebec on sailing day and were present on the wharf when the Corsican cast off and dropped into the stream.

Just before the ship sailed, two little boys, twins, came down on the wharf and rendered in beautifully clear voices the new song, "The Boys in the Khaki Suits." As the boys sang, the tumult suddenly ceased, and although the decks of the ship next the wharf were lined with hundreds of men, spectators say that one could have heard a pin drop. The song was listened to in dead silence, but at its conclusion a deafening cheer went up from the transport and the boys were literally showered with money from the ship.

Mr. W. C. Hunter, writing from Montreal regarding the splendid appearance of the 55th Battalion at Valcartier, says:—"The people of New Brunswick do not know what a fine regiment the 55th is. They won all the possible honors for efficiency and conduct at Valcartier, and from their appearance leaving Quebec they certainly deserve the most favorable mention."

Mr. W. H. Wallace this morning received a cablegram from his son, Lieut. Geo. A. Wallace of the 55th, stating that the Battalion had arrived safely and that they were now stationed at Barmsholt Camp, Hants, England.

A PEACH OF AN ESSAY

(By Peter McArthur)

Did you ever notice that when we want to praise anything with unusual emphasis we call it something else? For instance, if we wish to praise a book or a picture we say, "It is a gem." We do this because a gem is the most precious thing that we can possess—the only concrete example of "infinite riches in a little room." To be a gem is to have the finest natural qualities, enriched and perfected by art, and when we say that a thing is a gem we mean that it is the perfection of its kind, a finished product about which no further or higher praise is possible.

But calling a thing a "gem" is only one metaphor. There are many others, but in all cases the word we use instead of what we mean denotes the existence of some quality in the thing described that is only reached in the thing we name in its stead. This suggests a method of determining the things in Nature and art that are perfect, for only the perfect things are used as metaphors. Their perfections may vary but in every case a perfection is indicated.

Among our fruits there are two that are used as metaphors oftener than any other and by that fact we may judge of their surpassing quality. One is used in public life and the other in everyday life. In public life the man who secures a high position, a favor, or a contract that will enrich him, is said to have got "a plum." This suggests that he has got something that is rich in color, flavor and odor and as satisfying to the palate as it is to the eye. It is for this reason that it has gained its political significance as a metaphor. As the fruit most perfect and rich of its kind it suggests to the greedy politicians what they most desire and one of them who has been so fortunate as to secure a plum never wants anything else all his life but more plums. And the plums, when they are ripe are entirely worthy of the high regard they receive from housewives as well as politicians.

Our other metaphorical fruit is the peach. Just listen to some youth saying of a beautiful girl that "She is a peach" and even if you had never tasted a peach you would know that it must be sweet, beautiful and exquisite, just as we all know that it is. The peach is the one thing that we can use without offense as a metaphor for a beautiful girl and there is nothing more alluring and perfect that we can use as a metaphor for a peach.

SHOOTING ACCIDENT AT MIDDLE RIVER

Charles Roberts, 16 Years Old, Seriously Wounded by Accidental Discharge of Rifle

Bathurst, Nov. 10th.—A most regrettable accident occurred near the home of Mr. Christie Curtis at Middle River on Monday morning, as a result of which, Charles Roberts, son of Mrs. James Roberts, now lies in a critical condition at his home near the scene of the accident.

Roberts, who is only about 16 years old, was about to go into the woods in the employ of Mr. Christie Curtis, and while he was waiting for the word to start, he accompanied young Curtis, aged twelve years, on a little shooting expedition along the road. The rifle was carried by young Curtis, who has been already well used to using fire arms. A squirrel had been shot by the boy and the rifle reloaded, when in some unaccountable way it was discharged. The bullet entered Roberts' body about an inch over the heart and passed clear through, coming out through his back. Word was at once sent to town, and Dr. Coffyn hurried to the scene in his automobile. He found Roberts bleeding profusely, and very badly injured, and holds out no hope for recovery. The community has been deeply stirred by the accident, and great sympathy is felt for the wounded boy's mother, whose only support he is, as well as for the young fellow and his people, through whose negligence the unfortunate shooting occurred.

REV. W. CAMP CALLED TO CAMPBELLTON

St. John Pastor Wanted as Successor to Rev. J. H. Jenner

Rev. Wellington Camp, pastor of Leinster street Baptist church, has been extended an unanimous call to the pastorate of the Campbellton Baptist church which is being vacated by Rev. J. H. Jenner, who is coming to the pulpit of Charlotte street Baptist church, west side, on the third Sunday in November. At a largely attended meeting of the Campbellton congregation last Friday evening a hearty expression of opinion was made in favor of calling Mr. Camp and he has received notification. The salary is $1,100 a year with a free parsonage representing a rental value of $300. Rev. Mr. Camp, when informed of the call said that, of course, he could say nothing until he had been notified of the action of the meeting. His relations with the Leinster street church had always been the most pleasant and any change would require the most serious consideration.

Rev. Mr. Jenner's definite decision to accept the west side call will be received with a great deal of satisfaction by the congregation of Charlotte street church. He has been three years in Campbellton, going there directly after the fire, finding the congregation in a rude shack. Now they are housed in a large and handsome brick church, practically paid for, and a new and up-to-date parsonage.

Rev. Mr. Camp has given no assurance that he will accept the call, but has said he will give it favourable consideration.

KHAKI ARMLET FOR REJECTED VOLUNTEERS

Those Invalided Out of Service Also to be Issued an Indication Mark

A unique and picturesque plan for labelling by means of khaki brassards bearing the Royal crown, those fit and those unfit for military service, has been announced by the war office. Armbands which are now being prepared will be distributed soon to the following: First, the men who enlist and are placed in groups waiting the call to join the colors; second, to men who offer themselves for enlistment, and are found physically unfit; third, to those who are invalided out of the service as unlikely, for medical reasons, to become efficient again.

The armbands of each class will have a distinctive mark.

BOISSONNEAU-DOUCET

(From the Gloucester Northern Light)

More than ordinary interest was evinced in the wedding on Monday morning at eight o'clock in the Sacred Heart Church of Miss Martina A. Doucet, one of the best known and most popular young ladies of Bathurst, to Mr. Emile Boissonneault, a native of Bonaventure, Que., and a valued employee of the Dominion Bridge Co. of Montreal.

Nuptial Mass was celebrated by Rev. John Wheten, and Miss Emma Power presided at the organ. The children of Mary Society, of which the bride was one of the most active members, had decorated the church most artistically, and attended the ceremony in large numbers.

The bride, who was gowned most becomingly in white net over white satin, with bridal veil and wreath, was attended by her cousin, Miss Gertrude Doucet as bridesmaid, who was attired in blue with black velvet hat, and Mr. Luke Girard supported the groom.

After the ceremony, the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Alex. Doucet, where a dainty wedding breakfast was served to the close friends of the contracting parties and immediate relatives. The happy couple left on the Ocean Limited for a wedding trip to Halifax, and are followed by the very best wishes of hosts of friends in Bathurst and elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Boissonneault will reside in Bathurst.

GIN PILLS FOR THE KIDNEYS

How They Help

ST. RAPHAEL, ONT.

Four years ago I had such pains in my back that I could not work. The pains extended to my arms, sides and shoulders. I used many kinds of medicine for over a year, none of which did me very much good. I read about Gin Pills and sent for a sample and used them, and found the pains were leaving me and that I was feeling better. So I bought one box and before I used them all, the pains were almost gone and I could keep at work. After I had taken six other boxes of Gin Pills, I felt as well and strong as I did at the age of 30. I am a farmer, now 61 years old.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls Try It! Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful—Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine.

If you care for heavy hair that glitters with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots fall out, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. Surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store and just try it.

Little Mollie had hastily undressed and jumped into bed without saying her prayers.

"Why, dearest," said her nurse, "aren't you going to say your prayers tonight, especially when you have had a new baby brother brought to the house today?"

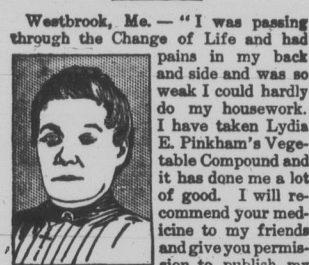

"No, I ain't," said Mollie. "And that baby brother's just the trouble."

"But why?" asked the nurse. "Don't you like your baby brother?"

"What's the use?" queried the little girl. "I've been prayin' for a little sister every night for six months, and Bobbie, he only began askin' for a little brother yesterday, and he got his right off."

To the Merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound during Change of Life.

Westbrook, Me. — "I was passing through the Change of Life and had pains in my back and side and was so weak I could hardly do my housework. I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has done me a lot of good. I will recommend your medicine to my friends and give you permission to publish my testimonial." — Mrs. LAWRENCE MARTIN, 12 King St., Westbrook, Maine.

Manston, Wis. — "At the Change of Life I suffered with pains in my back and loins until I could not stand. I also had night-sweats so that the sheets would be wet. I tried other medicines but got no relief. After taking one bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I began to improve and I continued its use for six months. The pains left me, the night-sweats and hot flashes grew less, and in one year I was a different woman. I know I have to thank you for my continued good health ever since." — Mrs. M. J. SANDY BEACH

Thanksgiving Service was held in St. John's Church on Tuesday at 7.30 p. m. The Rev. Love of Port Daniel was the special preacher and gave a very interesting sermon. The church was prettily decorated with potted plants, but owing to the weather there was not a large crowd as was expected.

A cabbage supper was held in the I. O. O. F. hall on Wednesday. A large amount of fancy work was sold, also refreshments and apples. It was repeated on Monday night and all spent a very pleasant evening. The proceeds were in aid of the church.

Guests in town for the supper were Miss Maggie Suddard, Misses Eliza and Nellie Davis.

Miss Greta Carter has returned home from a visit to Corner Beach.

Mr. Reginald Bailey was visiting friends in town last week.

Miss Hilda Harbour and Miss Mabel Carter spent a few days in Gaspe lately.

Miss Marian Suddard is visiting friends in Seal Rock.

A very quiet marriage was solemnized in St. John's church on Nov. 2nd, when Miss Viola Miller was united in marriage to Mr. John Powell of Black Cape.

We regret to say that Mrs. John Galichan passed away on Monday, after a lingering illness.

BELLE ANSE

The ladies Belle Anse and Mal Bay held a very successful tea and sale at Mal Bay Hall, 20th ult., realizing the sum of $210.58. To this was added $15 by Misses Willo Touzel and Mrs. LeMarquand from the sale of a cushion made by them, making a total of $225.58.

Thanks are due all those persons who helped to make the evening such a success, either by work or donations, also to Mr. F. Agnes, who, in giving a cheque for the above, kindly raised the amount to $230.00, which has been forwarded to the Quebec Red Cross Fund by Mrs. J. LeMarquand, who organized the movement.

PASPEBIAC WEST

Mrs. Frank Hocquard and son Charles have returned from a visit to relatives in Shirley, Mass.

Mr. Hugh Johnston was in town for a few days.

Miss Grace Ross has returned from visiting her sister, Mrs. Stanley Calder of Broadlands.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Willie Briard on the arrival of a baby girl at their home Nov. 2nd.

Miss Bertha Munroe has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. D. L. Campbell of Bonaventure.

ESCOMINAC

Mr. and Mrs. John Little of Shives Athol visited friends here recently.

Mrs. Angus Campbell and Miss Isabel MacKay, who have been attending the W. C. T. U. Convention at Quebec, returned home Friday.

Miss Martha McKenzie visited friends in town last week.

Mrs. G. McKenzie of Dalhousie is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Wm. Dumville.

Mr. George Watters of Nova Scotia is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Thos. Mann.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hardy of New Richmond are the guests of Mayor and Mrs. McKay.

Messrs. Andrew Little and Clarence McKay left on Monday last for Vancouver, B. C.

PORT DANIEL

Rev. Gomery of New Carlisle visited at the Parsonage last week.

Mrs. Briard of Paspebiac is visiting with Mrs. Camiot.

Miss Emma Bartlett of Gaspe, and Miss Maude Bartlett of Barachois spent the week end with their sister, Mrs. A. T. Love.

Rev. Miller of Metapedia officiated in the Presbyterian church last Sunday.

Miss Ella Dow of New Carlisle Academy was home over Sunday.

Dan Bissou and Jimmie Watt are home from the West.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. John Beebe on the arrival of a baby daughter last Saturday.

Mrs. R. G. Love was visiting friends in Gascons Sunday afternoon.

Miss Alma Bissou, teacher at L'Anse au Loup, is home for a short time.

Mrs. Buckland of Paspebiac West made a short visit to the Parsonage on Monday.

Letters received from our wounded soldiers state that they are making steady progress toward recovery. Dr. Enright is in a hospital in England; and Pte. Baird is in the hospital at Etaples, France, but he expects to be moved to England shortly.

Nelson Horrie is preparing to go into the lumber business. We wish him success.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one discredited disease, the science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The promoters have so much faith in the curative powers of Hall's Catarrh Cure that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

The schooner Paspebiac arrived on Monday from the North Shore, being the last trip of the season.

IN A BAD FIX.
(From the Youth's Companion.)

"The southern state is so absent-minded that its family is always apprehensive for his welfare when he is away from home."

Not long ago, while making a journey by rail, the bishop was unable to find his ticket when the conductor asked for it.

"Never mind, bishop," said the conductor, "you'll find it."

"No, it won't, my friend," contradicted the bishop. "I've got to find that ticket. I want to know when I'm going."

Mr. Windsor passed through Bathurst on Tuesday enroute for Halifax to join his unit.

ducfor, who knew him well, "I'll get it on my second round."

However, when the conductor passed through the car again the ticket was still missing.

"Oh, well, bishop, it will be all right if you never find it," the conductor assured him.

"No, it won't, my friend," contradicted the bishop. "I've got to find that ticket. I want to know when I'm going."

SECRET SKIN DISEASES

A famous physician states that scores of patients come to him suffering from skin diseases of most terrific form, which would have never passed the early stages had some suitable ointment been applied. Zam-Buk, which is a most powerful disinfectant and germicide, applied to skin diseases at their first outbreak, would save hours of pain and prevent disfigurement and scarring.

Every city contains hundreds of people who have some secret skin disease—some eruption, some blotch, some open sore, ulcer, or varicose patch. There is naturally a disinclination to reveal such blemishes, and often they are neglected entirely, or some inferior and cheap ointment containing mineral coloring matter is applied, which but aggravates the sore places, and makes matters worse. From day to day, week to week, this continues, the sufferer in the meantime enduring great pain.

Now all this can be avoided by timely use of Zam-Buk. Why otherwise has Zam-Buk come to be the world's most widely used balm? For that secret sore, those ulcers, that eczema patch, that open wound—there is nothing in the whole world of medicine better adapted than the herbal essence and juices that go to make up Zam-Buk. Not only is Zam-Buk a great healer, but it is a certain germ killer, and prevents infection, suppuration and inflammation. If you have some skin disease, which has hitherto defied everything you have tried, don't daily longer—apply Zam-Buk. Zam-Buk is so popular that it is widely imitated, so be sure to see the name Zam-Buk (protected by law) on the box before buying. If you are in doubt, buy from the Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, who will send a box post free upon receipt of fifty cents.

I. R. C. BUSINESS BACK TO NORMAL

Government Railway Has Recovered Drop of Twenty Per Cent. Improvements Are Many

(Montreal Gazette, Nov. 6)

Mr. F. P. Guelin, general manager of the Dominion Government Railway System, who is at the Windsor, stated yesterday that from a 20 per cent. drop, the business of the I. R. C. had come back to normal, indicating a general revival in business all over the Maritime Provinces. The passenger business is so good that the two daily trains between Montreal and Halifax will probably be kept on till after the holidays, whereas last year the Ocean Limited was taken off in November. Although little double track has been laid this year, ten thousand tons of steel have been laid on the main line, and Mr. Guelin says that 20 per cent. of the main line is now laid with eighty-five pound rails and the remainder with 80-pound, the former being what is known as the C. P. R. standard, and the latter only differing from the maximum in the wearing capacity. As for the bridges between Montreal and Halifax, they are now all capable of carrying the heaviest locomotives in existence, and the roadbed all through is better than at any previous time in the history of the Government Railway. All this new steel has been put down out of earnings, and capital account has not been increased by any improvements. Much work has also been carried on during the past season between Truro and Sydney, the most important being a renewal of the large bridge over the Grand Narrows, a short distance beyond the Strait of Canso. Mr. Guelin said that passengers going to Cape Breton would remember that when the weather was rough, the water would dash up against the bridge. To obviate this the new superstructure has been raised some six feet, making a very imposing and greatly improved structure.

The general manager says the I. R. C. is a different road from only a few years ago. At least half of the stations and other buildings have been painted this year, and the others will be finished next year. The number of trains running on time during the past season exceeds in percentage any other road on the continent. Heavy business is expected at the ports of Halifax and St. John during the coming winter. Mr. Guelin expects that the mail train, which has been improved and the roadbed is everything that can be desired. The two biggest jobs on the Government Railway System are the ocean terminals at Halifax and the ferry system between the New Brunswick side and Prince Edward Island. The new station at Lewis will also be carried to completion, and will be one of the finest stations on the whole line.

As the Government system now embraces the Transcontinental, Mr. Guelin said that from the time it has taken over the road, or from the eighth of September on, no less than three hundred carloads of grain had moved over the road daily from Winnipeg to Fort William. The daily fast freight between Cochrane and Winnipeg is also well patronized and justifies the expectations of the department, as do the tri-weekly trains on other sections of the system.

Mr. Guelin says that a busy spot in the new north country is Amos, located about on the boundary between Quebec and Ontario. This community is receiving three or four carloads of settlers and their effects by each train, and with stores and shops of different kinds, there is a bustling population of over two thousand. Cochrane, he says, is also progressive, and Mr. Guelin is convinced that the northern country served by the Transcontinental will be productive of considerable traffic in a few years, as business develops rapidly along a good railway system and population can be made of the line in question. He saw the best quality of bar iron in the vicinity of Cochrane, and he is certain that the country adjacent will grow very rapidly.

THE UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF LABOR, after a careful investigation, has issued a report stating that 90 per cent. of transportation concerns, 75 per cent. of agricultural employers, and 88 per cent. of trades discriminate against the man who drinks.

Ed J. Kelly, laborer in his home on his own, has been promoted. He is the first to have his wages reduced, and the first to be laid off. He is a member of the union and labor leader, and his promotion is a great incentive to the highest well-being of working men.

Moreover, if working men are to win in the struggle for justice they must be clean-headed, enterprising, and capable in spirit. Only abstainers from alcohol can hope to qualify.

DOING A GREAT WORK FOR SOLDIERS FAMILIES

How the Patriotic Fund is Directed and Controlled.—Some of the Methods

The Patriotic Fund is just now very much in the public eye and in spite of the generous effort to supplement its funds, there is a certain amount of criticism of it and its administration. Just why this should be is not apparent to those in touch with its working system, as they are not finding any greater difficulties nor having any more troubles than have always been theirs.

The idea of the fund is to assist the families and the dependents of the soldiers, not to provide for their entire support. From the fact that the Secretary of Patriotic Fund and the visitors as well, have to take up any question regarding assigned pay, separation allowance and pensions, a confusion very often arises in the minds of the people especially those receiving assistance from the Fund. The Patriotic Fund does not control those; they belong to the militia, and are controlled at Ottawa. The patriotic officials, however, to facilitate matters, and because they are in close touch with the families of the soldiers, and because there is no other department to handle these matters, take up with those who wish it any questions concerning these subjects. For the most part, the complaints or claims made at Ottawa by local dependants are investigated for the militia paymaster by members of the local Patriotic board.

To go back to the matter of confusing the various sources of income: Take, for instance, a wife receiving from assigned pay of her husband, separation allowance from the government, and assistance from the Patriotic Fund—there are three sources of income of which she knows very often only the one fact, and that is that all represents to her her soldier's pay. If the assigned pay does not arrive on the expected date, if the separation allowance is a day late, she at once tells her visitor, or informs the Patriotic Secretary that she is getting her money. As a rule the Secretary asks for a prompt investigation, but even then the world has gone forth that Mrs. So and So did not get any money this month, and an indiscriminating listener at once assumes that it is the Patriotic Fund that is at fault. This is a common occurrence. Assigned pay seems to be a law unto itself, that is after the compulsory allowance of $15 per month made to a wife is accounted for. It ceases when a man is killed, discharged or deserts. Separation allowance ceases for the same reasons. The patriotic assistance also ceases for these reasons, but where the other monies cease at once, the Patriotic Fund continues its aid until the family or the dependent is in receipt of a pension, if eligible for a pension in any case it does not leave them in want—a condition that could not arise if the assigned pay was banked, as Sir Herbert Ames has urged it be, against just such contingencies. So sometimes the other payments to a wife or mother are suspended for various reasons—a man missing, perhaps, wounded, sometimes exchanged to another regiment, sometimes becoming a voluntary member of another company after a heavy engagement—all these conditions will result in suspended pay, but through it all the Patriotic Fund stands by the family of that man. "It is this knowledge that keeps us here without worry," a man at the front wrote me recently.

Another item that is causing a certain amount of discussion has to do with the revision of the lists. No child over 15 is provided for. A child of 14 that was allowed assistance last year (1914), must now (in 1915) at the expiration of a year be taken off the lists. If a child of that age is finishing a school term discretionary powers are allowed the board.

Complaints regarding the distribution of the fund have now been reduced to three departments: 1. From those who are not eligible. 2. From those who assert that some receive too much money; 3. From those who claim that the fund is not fairly administered.

Every complaint that is made is investigated, and the result as far as possible is made known to the complainant. The members of the board and the visitors have taken excellent care of the families on the list. The work is conscientiously undertaken and well

WHERE TIMES ARE NEVER VERY BAD.

All things seem to work together for the good of the Maritime Provinces. Each year from some unexpected source comes the saving factor in the situation. To go back only as far as last year, our apple growers marketed their crop in the Old Country to remarkable advantage in spite of all the adverse factors in the situation, and this year Ontario is buying hay, potatoes and apples for us. We have a bumper crop of hay in the Maritime Provinces this year and the prospects now are that it will command a good price. Our potato crop has suffered to a considerable extent from rot, but with the high prices that promise to prevail the farmers stand to make a good thing out of what they have. The most interesting part of all, however, is the enquiry in the fruit belt of Ontario for our apples. We have on the whole a good sized crop, though in some parts the quality is not as good as we have had in some past years. However, our shippers are receiving orders from this unusual source and it will help to counteract the influence of any difficulties that may arise in connection with effecting shipments to the Old Country. Plainly it is going to be a good year for our farmers in spite of any doubt that may have arisen earlier in the season about the possibility of successfully marketing the increased output that was promised. It seems as if it is quite impossible (doesn't it?) for times in the Maritime Provinces ever to be very bad.—Maritime Merchant.

Jessie Pomeroy, the famous Charlottown "lifer", has begun the fortieth year of his incarceration at the State Prison. Of late Pomeroy's privileges have been considerably increased for he has been permitted the exercise hour in the yard with the other prisoners, and he is allowed to attend chapel services.

The assistance from the fund is given practically at once—within a week at most and sometimes sooner. This should be borne in mind as in the other sources of income, assigned pay and separation allowance, the money is not available for a month at least after the man enlists.

The families under the care of the Patriotic Fund are regularly visited and the relations between visitor and family are most pleasant. Assistance of all kind is given and received. Relations have been established that are generally beneficial. Criticism has come more generally from persons who were outside the working of the organization and who apparently had no idea that the Patriotic Fund is an auxiliary fund, whose function is not to support the family or dependent of the soldier, but to assist in making them more comfortable and happier during his absence by lessening the monetary loss sustained by his family from his enlisting.

WINTER PROTECTION OF YOUNG APPLE TREES

From Injury by Vermin

Precautions must be taken to prevent injury from mice, rabbits, etc. Many failures in apple growing here and elsewhere are caused by these pests and a large annual toll in the form of dead trees is annually exacted by them. As far as possible crops harboring and attracting such pests should be avoided and the accumulation of litter, trash, weeds, long grass, etc., which furnish suitable winter quarters for these animals, prevented. Mice work under the snow and damage from them may be prevented by tramping the snow solid round the tree after the first new snowfalls. This method of protecting is however somewhat dependant on the weather. The cheapest and safest protection is secured by wrapping the trunks cylinder-fashion with paper, wood veneer or some such material. Good strong building paper, as light as possible in color gives good satisfaction. This may be placed round the trees in the fall, not tightly, but leaving an inch or so of space between the inside of the paper and the bark of the tree. The soil should then be mounded up around the bottom of the paper to a height of six inches or so. Veneer tree protectors, made of thin material, one-eight inch thick, 12 inches high, 12 inches wide, and costing about one cent each will last two and three years and afford good protection. The paper or veneer as the case may be should be removed in the spring, about the middle of April.

From Sunscald.

This form of damage is very common in some localities, so common, in fact, that a tree which escapes it is a rarity. The greater part of the damage occurs in late winter, or during the warm spring days when the snow is going off. During the warm afternoons the sun, reflected from the snow against the south-west side of the tree trunks, becomes very warm. The trunks are thoroughly warmed on that side. They are thawed out, and the bark becomes soft, sappy and pliable. Then, when the sun goes down and the temperature falls again to zero, the bark is again from tight. The next day the same thing happens, and so day after day the young bark freezes and thaws, and by this means is torn to shreds. When spring arrives the bark is killed and broken open. Then various kinds of fungi get in and the damage which begins by freezing and thawing ends with spread of canker and other troubles about the trunk of the tree. The best preventives of sunscald are low heads and veneer and paper cylinder protectors. High-headed trees, which are of double value anywhere, are undesirable in places where sunscald is bad. The protectors of paper or wood veneer recommended above for mice and rabbits will also give practical immunity from sunscald. This trouble is prevalent in great numbers should be common in find young orchards ruined by it. In sections where this trouble is prevalent great pains should be taken to protect young orchards from it. For the benefit of the fruit growers, the Fruit Growers' Association has secured a number of veneers and will fill orders for them at cost price. Apply to: A. G. Turney, Secretary-Treasurer, N. B. Fruit Growers' Association, Fredericton.

Massachusetts is considering laws to regulate automobile headlights, so as to lessen the danger of the "dead glare." The nuisance, if that is a strong enough word, is one other communities will have to give consideration to.
