

WARM WELCOME FOR ROOSEVELT

Populace Clamors for Speech at Towns Along the Route and Wish is Gratified.

Taft Will Keep Out of New York Politics--Delivers Address on Negro Education.

Grand Island, Neb., August 26.—The west gave former president Roosevelt a warm greeting today. The people gathered in crowds at all places at which he stopped in his journey across Iowa and Nebraska, rang bells, tooted whistles, played bands and cheered. They stood on roofs, climbed telegraph poles and scrambled on top of cars on the sidings to see him. The welcome began before Col. Roosevelt was out of bed, and kept up until long after dark. After his arrival in Cheyenne, Wyo., tomorrow Col. Roosevelt will make the second set speech of his western tour at a cowboys' carnival. The Colonel was called out of bed today by the people of Marshalltown, Iowa, who had gone to the station before breakfast to see him, and would not be denied. Clad in a raincoat and slippers, he made the first speech of the day before 7 o'clock. From then on it was almost a continuous performance. At every point at which the train stopped, a speech was demanded.

Taft Not In It. Beverly, Mass., August 26.—Indications continue to multiply here that President Taft's participation in the New York State fight is ended, for good and all, and he will leave the situation to be handled in its entirety by the party leaders, including Theodore Roosevelt. The President will have nothing to say as to candidates or platform. He is not a resident of New York, and he does not feel it to be the province of the president of the United States to interfere or dictate in local politics.

Beverly, Mass., Aug. 26.—President Taft was drawn into the name of Mrs. Robert S. Bradley at Prides Crossing this afternoon at a meeting of the board of trustees of Hampton institute and delivered an address on negro education. The president especially pleaded for more liberal financial assistance for schools like Hampton and Tuskegee and their offspring.

MOVING PICTURE MEN FINED IN TORONTO

All Scenes Depicting Crimes Or Violence Will Be Eliminated—Warning Disregarded And $50 Is Imposed.

Toronto, Aug. 26.—Tiring of repeatedly warning proprietors of moving picture shows that they must cut out all scenes depicting acts of crime and violence, the morality department has decided to strike at their purses to see if quicker results may not be accomplished. Robert H. Burke, 45 Dundas street, is the first to be summoned for the exhibition of illegal pictures. He came before Magistrate Denton this morning and the fine was $50 or 30 days.

GRIPPEN AND TYPIST HAVING QUIET TIME

Prisoners Much Secluded On Board Megantic And Except Precautions Against Suicide Are Treated As Passengers.

London, Aug. 26.—Wireless messages received here from the Megantic today say that the trip of Dr. Crippen and Miss LeNeve has been without incident thus far. The prisoners are held in close seclusion and are guarded night and day. They are allowed on the promenade deck only at night when Crippen is allowed to take his walk handcuffed to a detective. The prisoners are amply supplied with reading matter, but anything likely to facilitate suicide is vigilantly barred. Otherwise they are treated like first class passengers. Crippen seems cheerful and sleeps well and both are anxious to evade public curiosity.

PHILOSOPHER PASSED AWAY

Prof. Wm. James Of Harvard, Brother Of Henry James, And One Of World's Greatest Thinkers, Dead.

IN QUEBEC LAST WEEK ON RETURN FROM EUROPE

Chocoma, N. H., Aug. 26.—Death caused by heart disease came today to Prof. Wm. James of Harvard university, dean of America's philosophers, and one of the foremost thinkers, at his summer home on the shores of Chocoma Lake. Prof. James had been in a critical condition since his arrival at Quebec from Europe a week ago. This morning he took a decided turn for the worse, lapsing into unconsciousness about noon. The aged philosopher died in this state about 2:45 p. m., surrounded by his wife, daughter, son and his brother Henry James, the noted English author. It was to be at the sick bedside of his brother Henry, that Prof. James several months ago went abroad. After watching over his brother until he recovered, they made a joint tour through Europe. In one of the continental cities Prof. James was attacked by heart disease, although he did not at the time have any great fears, despite his 68 years. But continuing his travels he found frequent cause for alarm in his condition and soon turned his steps homeward. With his brother, he arrived at Quebec on August 19 and came immediately to his summer home here, his son having gone to the Canadian city to meet him. During the week the attending physicians did not see any signs for immediate fears, although they told the philosopher's family that their patient was very ill. This morning Prof. James complained of severe pains, of which he was relieved by unconsciousness several hours afterwards. Death came a few hours later.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 26.—Prof. James, educator, author and dean of American philosophers, was born in New York, January 11, 1842, the son of the Rev. Henry James and Swedenborgian minister and writer. He was educated mainly at private schools and by private tutors and then entered the Lawrence scientific schools of Harvard university, where he remained from 1861 to 1863, but took no bachelor degree. In 1870 he was graduated from Harvard medical school with the degree of Ph.D. and Litt.D. He was awarded the Rev. James' prize in 1883, LL.D., by Princeton in 1896; Edinburgh in 1902 and Harvard in 1905.

In 1878 Prof. James joined the teaching staff of Harvard as instructor in comparative anatomy and physiology, later becoming assistant professor, a position which he retained until 1880; from 1880 to 1885 he was assistant professor of philosophy; from 1885 to 1889 professor in the same department; from 1889 to 1897 professor of philosophy from 1889 to 1897 and professor of philosophy from 1897 to 1907. He was Gifford lecturer on natural religion at the University of Edinburgh from 1899 to 1901; he was a corresponding member of Institut, Paris; Royal Prussian Academy of Sciences, and a member of the national academy of sciences. Among his books were Principles of Psychology, Psychology—Brief Course, The Will Believe and Other Essays in Popular Philosophy, Talks to Teachers on Psychology and to Students on Life's Ideals, Human Immortality—Two Supposed Objections to the Doctrine, The Varieties of Religious Experiences, Pragmatism—A New Name for Some Old Ways of Thinking.

Pres. Lowell Overcome. Cotuit, Mass., Aug. 26.—President A. Lawrence Lowell, of Harvard, who is summing here, was greatly surprised and shocked when he learned of the death of Prof. James tonight. "I had no idea that Prof. James was critically ill," said President Lowell, "and I am indeed surprised and shocked to learn of his death." President Lowell was so overcome at the announcement that he could make no further comment tonight.

HALIFAX MAN FALLS 100 FEET AND LIVES

Niagara Falls, Ont., Aug. 26.—John Kelley, a Halifax marine engineer fell nearly one hundred feet over the river bank without a bone broken, though he was badly shaken up and it is feared has internal injuries. Kelley spent yesterday with friends in Welland, came here last night, and had been drinking freely.

SUGGEST GUN FUSILADE TO TEMPT RAIN IN FIRE ZONE

The map shows the location of what seemed to be three distinct forest fires raging in the west, the most disastrous being that which started near Wallace in the Panhandle of Idaho and swept down through the Bitter Root mountains and into the Rockies, along the boundary between Idaho and Montana. The greatest fire losses are reported from the vicinity of Wallace, and in the St. Joseph river district. To the east is the scene of another fire, just south of Bozeman and within 50 miles of Yellowstone Park.

Washington, Aug. 26.—Estimating the cost of the experiment at about $100,000, the war department officials today decline requests to order a bombardment of the skies by all its guns on Puget Sound and at the mouth of Columbia river, in an effort to bring on rain in the forest district in the Northwest. In addition to the objection of cost, the army officials regarded the proposal as certain to prove futile. The navy department, to which a similar request was made, expressed its willingness to co-operate with the army with six or ten guns, the only ones at its disposal. The experiment would have been one of the most spectacular ever attempted in the United States. To fire the guns around Puget Sound, at Forts Warden, Casey and Flaxier, simultaneously, loaded properly for the purpose in mind, would cost the government, it was estimated at the war department $10,000. Admitting the possibility of effectiveness, the cost of the experiment, probably ten rounds would be required.

Besides the element of cost, it was said at the war department that the army was not equipped with projectiles with time fuses for the guns, and hence the only atmospheric disturbance created would be by the formation of gases on the ground at the time of the discharge of the guns and by the passage of the projectiles through the air. The disturbance caused by the flight of the projectiles it was said would be comparatively negligible for creating a violent commotion of the air currents.

TORONTO MAN'S STORY

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 26.—Telegraphic communication with the St. Joe valley in Idaho was restored today for the first time since the forest fires became serious, but it is as yet impossible to verify the reports of large losses of life among fire fighters, additional to the 86 reported by government officers. The estimate of approximately 200 dead in the whole fire area is adhered to tonight by those most familiar with the situation. Eighty-three employees are missing.

Complete returns have not yet been received from the Cour D'Alene region in Idaho. When these are in, it is thought the list of missing will be materially reduced. The missing include the following: Ranger Hollings head's crew on Big Creek, 28 men; Ranger Thompson's crew at Indian Lake, 34 men; Selzer Creek camp, 5 men; Ranger Hall's crew, 16 men. The district of the valley hospital and the Ham party is safe. The fire zone in Idaho, George Ryan, of Toronto, Canada, one of the 30 men imprisoned in War Eagle mine on Saturday, today told how he perished. He said: "There were 75 of us under Ranger Pulaski. We first took refuge in the tunnel of the Jic mine, but it was not safe and 30 of us went down the creek a quarter of a mile to the War Eagle. I don't know what became of the rest of the men. We tried to block up the entrance of the tunnel with blankets, but the fire burned them off as fast as we put them up. The flames swept over the mouth like a blast. The smoke was suffocating. About an hour and a half after we had been in the tunnel, Pulaski, who was nearest the mouth, lost consciousness. How They Died. Two men, who got scared, rolled around in the middle of the tunnel instead of keeping by the edge on the floor and they died across my knees. Nearly all of us during 8 hours were lying in water that dripped from the roof and walls of the tunnel. When the fire finally passed and the tunnel cleared a little, nearly half of us were unconscious. The eyes of others were gummed together from smoke and tears so that we could hardly open them. Five were dead. We found a sixth man, burned to a crisp a short distance up the creek from the tunnel. Our two horses were nearly suffocated. Their eyes were falling out of their heads. We had to shoot them." George Robertson, owner of a mine on Packer Creek, today said that the number of dead would never be known. He continued: "Harvey Bertram, a deputy ranger, had great difficulty in holding his half crazed men. Believing that they were trapped, one or two of the party threatened to commit suicide. At times Bertram was able to control them only at the point of a revolver."

DEATH LIST AT EIGHT NOW

Charred Bones Found In Sack By Railway Surgeon Represent Two Victims Of Durand Disaster.

Durand, Mich., August 26.—To add to the difficulty of identifying the charred bones of the victims of Wednesday night's Grand Trunk wreck near here, bones said by Dr. H. C. Fair, a surgeon for the railway to represent two additional bodies were found in the morgue tonight in a sack that had been overlooked in yesterday's excitement by Undertaker C. E. Mapes, who is in charge of the dead. This brings the number of dead to eight. Among the people for whom inquiries are being made are Miss Belle Scott, a school teacher of Chicago, who was en route to Toronto; the daughter of Geo. Jagaman of Chicago, and Mrs. H. L. Jeffers of Washington, D. C. Some question arose today as to whether one of the six bodies found yesterday is that of Mrs. Jeffers or Mrs. Lewis Squire, of Chicago.

SUSPECTS INVESTMENT PAID HIS SALARY

Promoter Charged By Mrs. Bull With Swindling Her Out Of $35,000 Charged By Engineer With Grand Larceny.

New York, N. Y., Aug. 26.—A second indictment charging grand larceny was found tonight against John A. Quilly and Harvey W. Corbett, accused by Mrs. Mary Nevins Bull, widow of William T. Bull, the famous surgeon of swindling her out of $35,000 in a stock deal. The new indictment is found on the complaint of Leo Krossler, formerly chief engineer at Newark, N. J., of the Magnesia-Asbestos Company, promoted by Quilly and Corbett. Krossler says he was engaged at $50 a week and on the strength of his position, agreed to invest $5000 in the company, of which he had in $3000. He kept his place until he began to suspect that his salary was being paid out of his investment. The defendants are already ready under $15,000 bail and each were given until tomorrow to find a new bondsman.

STORM FOLLOWS KAISER'S SPEECH

VOTE EXHIBIT OUT ON MONDAY

Contestants And Friends Will Be Interested In First Announcement Of Results In Bermuda Contest.

EXCITEMENT WILL GROW APACE

Monday will see the beginning of the prettiest friendly tussle ever seen in New Brunswick in connection with The Standard and New Star's Great Bermuda and New York City Contest. Until the final bell is sounded and the flag falls on the happy winners of the various districts on the evening of October 8th there will be no lack of interest. The very atmosphere of the contest will be excitement and for weeks hence as The Standard or New Star is opened by trembling hands, the vote of rivals or one's own standing will be keenly perused. We all love a friendly race for honors such as The Standard and New Star office—and secure one of the coveted tours is a very healthy ambition for any lady in the nine districts. Let us understand clearly—One contest, we repeat. Each district (and there are nine) has its own contest. If you live in Lorne, Lansdowne, Stanley or Dufferin wards you are in District one, and you have your ticket contest right in that ward. But you may go anywhere outside of your district, or even the city to get votes. There are no strings on this. If only two ladies try in one district the winner will get the first prize. The contest manager and the lady who fights her way through half a dozen competitors. Could anything be better? Then say some lady who so far has not entered: "What do I have to do to join?" Well, The Standard and New Star has made that easy. Just send in your name and address and the contest manager will call and see you and explain it all. When if you are interested you may join. If not, there is no harm done. Yesterday a young lady living in one of the city districts arrived in town, having just returned from her vacation, and the about the first thing she learned was that her name had been nominated in The Standard and New Star's Great New York City and Bermuda Islands Contest. She wasted no time in getting to The Standard and New Star office to see the contest manager and learn the best way to get started, so that she might have a good vote showing on Monday, as the time was so limited. The contest manager explained everything to her and it did not take her long to grasp the situation. She left the office determined to win, and in about half an hour was back with enough subscription votes to make a fine showing when the first count was made. That is what is called a HUSTLE for what this young lady accomplished in half an hour, some would think it would take a week to do. This instance we site, only goes to prove that we have said so many times, that the voters here and are only waiting for the contestants to call around and get them. Stop thinking it over, get busy if you do not fully understand the best way to get started, call on the contest manager and he will explain any point that is not clear to you and show you the many ways in which votes can be got. Some of the cleverest ladies in New Brunswick have planned and are still planning the best ways of securing ballots and every method is being adopted to secure the maximum of both single and special ballots during the coming weeks. We give a few hints to beginners in the New York City and Bermuda Contest. Some of the more experienced may know it—but to the beginners we offer a little friendly advice. First, if your parents do not subscribe regularly to The Standard or New Star, ask them to do so. This will give you a number of votes and a good start. Then ask your married brothers and sisters to subscribe, and save the coupons for you. By doing so you will get both the benefit of the new subscription and the daily coupons which they will save for you. Thirdly, Tell your other relatives and friends what you are trying for and ask them to subscribe and save their coupons for you. They will all be only too glad to help you, and you will thus have three or four more to read in the most refined home. When you have consulted all your relatives and secured their support, the next move is to ask your lady friends to clip the coupons from The Standard and New Star and vote them for you. If your father does not take The Standard or New Star tell him what a good paper it is and ask him to cast his votes for you. Then ask your brother to mention the contest to his friends, and if they have not already promised to vote for someone else to get them to support you.

Sharp Criticism in German Press of Emperor's Claim to Divine Inheritance.

Recall Interview in London Telegraph--Utterance May Have Deep Effect on Country.

Berlin, August 26.—The speech delivered last night by Emperor William of Germany before the provincial banquet at Koenigsburg, in which he reiterated and emphasized his belief in the Divine mandate by which he rules, referred to the Prussian crown as bestowed by God's grace and not by parliaments or people assemblies and laid a lance against the present movement for woman's suffrage, is the political sensation of the hour. The leading organs of the German press devote extended comments to it, generally criticizing the Emperor's utterances and there are indications that the discourse will have a deep political effect upon the country, nearly all the Berlin papers discussing the subject in connection with the political crisis of November, 1908, when the publication by the London Daily Telegraph of an interview with the Emperor aroused a storm against the uncontrolled public speaking of the Emperor. The serious "Voelkisches Zeitung," the "Tageblatt," the "Post" and other papers point out the constitutional character of the kingdom of Prussia in the Empire and inquire whether the chancellor, Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg was privy to the Emperor's purpose of delivering such a speech. They predict that it will lead to a renewed discussion of the Emperor's constitutional position when the Reichstag reassembles in November.

Means Acting.

The strongly monarchist "Tageblische Rundschau," the favorite journal of army officers, says: "This speech means a storm. Never before has Emperor William set into such clear relief his romantic, medieval idea of his non-responsibility to man's judgment of his not being bound by the constitutional cooperation of the people and ruling by God's free grace against all those convictions and feelings which today determine our existence as a state." "Why," asks the "Tageblische Rundschau," "should the Emperor choose this moment to emphasize his ruling by God's grace and his own right when it will nourish an anti-monarchical agitation and good monarchist be thrown into a condition of tragic disruption?" The organ of the landed nobility, "The Deutsche Tages Zeitung" thoroughly approves of the declaration of the Emperor. The "Lokal Anzeiger" lays stress upon the desire of the Emperor that the people cooperate with him and point out that the Emperor delivered the speech in the castle where the Prussian kings were formerly crowned. "The Tagesblatt" affirms that although prices did not fall on the exchange, trading slackened and brokers apprehended an unfavorable influence of the speech upon markets at home and abroad.

RESUSCITATION IN CASES OF DROWNING.

This summer season has not been without its toll of drowning accidents, and so far as we are aware, there have been no instances in which a victim has been resuscitated after the body had been recovered. It is far from our purpose to suggest that greater care and attention on the part of the rescuers in any one of these fatalities would have resulted in a happier ending, but a recent experience by a member of the staff of this paper has brought forcibly to mind that the best methods by which resuscitation should be attempted are not generally known.

The first ten people who were met on Prince William street in this city, and were personally known to the inquirer, were asked the question: "What would you do if suddenly called upon to revive a drowning man?" Not one was able to give a really satisfactory answer. "Roll the body on a barrel," was one reply. Several others would "move the man's arms up and down." Three admitted complete ignorance of the proper steps to take. Not one of the ten showed that he possessed any exact information. If these were not exceptional cases, and it is difficult to assume that they were, there is urgent need of a wider knowledge of the subject. There are few of us but might be called upon at a minute's notice to administer not only first aid, but all the aid available to save a life.

The importance of some expert knowledge is emphasized when it is recalled that cases are on record in which the spark of life was not extinct after more than half an hour's immersion. Resuscitation has often been accomplished when there has not been the least perceptible sign to begin with, of either breath or blood current. Authorities on the subject state that unless there is absolute certainty that the drowned person has been altogether under water for at least forty minutes tireless effort must be made to restore animation.

It will not be out of place to briefly refer to the most usual methods of resuscitation. They are known respectively as Marshall Hall's, Sylvester's and Howard's. Hall's method has the advantage of being possible for one man to adopt alone. It consists, after stripping the patient, wrapping him in dry coverings and clearing his mouth, in laying him flat and rolling him alternately onto his face and his back, by this means alternately expressing the air from the lungs and allowing it to re-enter. This is in fact the basis of all methods.

In Sylvester's method the patient lies on his back with a pillow under his neck. His arms are grasped by the elbows, and are raised and extended forcibly above his head. After waiting a second the arms are slowly brought to the sides of the chest and pressed forcibly against it. These movements are repeated at about the rate of regular breathing—from sixteen to twenty times a minute. A second person is useful to keep the tongue forward and the body still. Howard's method is more complicated, requiring two helpers, and need not here be described in detail.

Whichever method is adopted it cannot be put into practice to advantage without some previous knowledge by means either of diagrams or demonstration. The importance of acquiring this knowledge cannot be over-estimated, when the possession of it may mean a life saved. Information on the subject is easily obtainable. For those who lack the necessary qualification to save a fellow-creature in dire extremity, a few minutes' study would not be time wasted.

PREMIER MCBRIDE'S WELCOME TO SIR WILFRID.

On the day preceding Sir Wilfrid Laurier's arrival in Victoria the Times, which is the Liberal journal published in that city, made the following fitting comment upon the courtesy and tact displayed by Premier McBride, of British Columbia, in extending so cordial a welcome to the Dominion Premier:—

"As the representative of the people of British Columbia, Premier McBride has done something no other Provincial Premier, Liberal or Conservative, has thought of doing, or possibly did not consider his position would justify him in doing. Mr. McBride has not only, by deputy, formally and courteously extended a cordial welcome to Sir Wilfrid Laurier on crossing the boundary line between Alberta and British Columbia—his government has made arrangements on a somewhat elaborate scale to receive the Prime Minister and his party on their arrival at the capital of the province and to give all residents and visitors here an opportunity of paying their respects to the First Citizen of the Dominion tomorrow evening. The courtesy and tact displayed by Mr. McBride will, we are sure, be fully appreciated by the people of British Columbia, and will demonstrate to all the country outside of the province that on an occasion of deep significance and importance we of the West are capable of rising above all political or party considerations."

On the day of Sir Wilfrid's arrival in Victoria the Colonist, which is the leading Conservative journal on the coast, printed on its front page a fac-simile in Premier McBride's handwriting, of the following:—

"When Sir Wilfrid leaves the steamer today Victoria is anxious that he should feel that the city is his. He is a thousand times welcome."
RICHARD MCBRIDE.
This was accompanied by an invitation, signed by Mr. Henry Esau Young, the Provincial Secretary, to the public of British Columbia, and visitors, to attend the reception to Sir Wilfrid by the Premier and other ministers of the British Columbia government in the Parliament Buildings.

"HIS MAJESTY'S CANADIAN SHIPS."

The crew of the Rainbow and other vessels of the Canadian navy to be will display on their headgear the magical letters H.M.C.S., which being interpreted means "His Majesty's Canadian Ships." It is hardly likely, remarks the Quebec Chronicle, that the man in the street will grasp the full significance of these words at the first glance. He may perhaps gather the impression that the word "Canadian" is introduced simply as an outlet for our patriotic pride.

But this impression, excellent and feasible though it be, is inadequate to express the import of the above-mentioned title. We know how utterly repugnant is the mere mention of war to the highly sensitive and refined members of the Militia Department. We know with what true fatherly care they have striven to eliminate all that is brutish and vulgar in the standards that are generally accepted as military, and to ensure that the Canadian army shall be unique and removed from all suspicion of barbarity.

But, if we reflect a little, we will probably realize that the introduction of the word "Canadian" is the wisest and most salutary of precautions. It is common knowledge that the Canadian navy will be unable to engage in battle unless it has the approval of the Dominion Parliament. On the other hand His Majesty's Ships—which are not Canadian—are available for war at any moment after war has been declared. Hence these tears!

If then our ships were not easy of identification by this special mark of distinction, it is very evident that the most disagreeable and unlooked-for complications might arise. Indeed it is even possible that the navy of an enemy, who was little acquainted with our attitude on national affairs and our views with regard to a proper system of military and naval effectiveness, might even expect us to commit such an unbusiness-like act of folly as to fight. Particularly would it be likely to entertain such a misapprehension if it had already encountered the fleets of Australia and South Africa.

But here is where we garner the full harvest of our rulers' patriotic safeguards. When the enemy in his ignorance of our navy's limitations draws near to engage, he will be courteously informed that he has the advantage over us—we are not, as his gullibility perhaps led him to imagine, His Majesty's Ships, we are His Majesty's Canadian Ships and as such immune from attack until the passing of the Order-in-Council allowing us to do battle. Whereat our enemy will probably retire in apologetic confusion overwhelmed by his ignorance of local etiquette—and politics.

THE WESTERN WHEAT CROP.

In estimating this year's wheat crop in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta at a little over 101,000,000 bushels, the Manitoba Free Press indicates that the season's harvest is not so general a failure as some would have had us believe.

If the Winnipeg newspaper's prediction is fulfilled the harvest of 1910 will be the third largest in the history of the Prairie Provinces, as may be seen from the following statement of the yield in recent years:—

Northwest Wheat Crop, Bushels.

Year. . . . .

1909 . . . . . 123,000,000

1908 . . . . . 91,853,000

1907 . . . . . 71,674,000

1906 . . . . . 110,586,000

1905 . . . . . 82,461,000

*Estimated.

The disappointment lies in the fact that with a larger area under cultivation than ever before, the yield is not to exceed all previous records. The money received from this year's crop must be divided amongst a greater number of farmers than in any former year, and consequently the average share of each must be smaller.

This is mere theory, says the Toronto News. The truth is that for 1910 most of the wheat money goes to the agriculturists north of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and a much lesser proportion to those who till the soil to the south of this oldest transcontinental. The drought did the most of its damage below the line.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

"Why is it," queries the Rochester Union and Advertiser, "that the boys with the old-fashioned names seem to get to the front? A canvas of the names of candidates for the governorship will demonstrate that the boys who were called "Bill" in their school days are looming up large. There are no Percys or Algernons in this list, and none in sight."

"And why is it, indeed," chimes in the Toronto Star, "that the Percys and the Algernons seem fated to stay out of politics, and the Bills to get there? Why is it, for instance, that every member of the Dominion Cabinet, except the Minister of Justice and those of French origin, wears the commonest Christian names in the language?"

"Harking back to their schoolboy days, they become Dick Cartwright, Fred Borden, Syd. Fisher, Frank Oliver, George Graham, Charlie Murphy and no less than five Williams, Bill Fielding, Bill Patterson, Bill Templeman, Bill Pugsley, and Bill King. Nor is the Minister of Justice a little out of the common, he pays the penalty by being known as 'A.B.' On the front benches of the Opposition sit Bob Borden, George Foster, Charlie Doherty, Bill Maclean, Sam Hughes, Sam Barker, et al."

There seems to be something in a name after all. Politically speaking the commoner it is the better. To be a Bill or a Jim may not assure political distinction, but certainly nothing but political extinction seems to await most of the men who were christened something unusual.

CURRENT COMMENT

(Christian Guardian.)

Since the institution of Labor Day as a national holiday, it has followed very naturally that the Sunday preceding it should be slowly recognized as Labor Sunday, and the claims and obligations of labor have seemed specially appropriate subjects for the pulpit upon that day. We think the practice is worthy of even wider recognition than it has yet secured.

(Winnipeg Tribune.)

If Macdonald, Wullie Gibson and Pardee would care to do their country a real service, they might take to the harvest fields until the Tour is on its return trip.

(London Free Press.)

Mr. R. L. Borden's meetings in the East have apparently been sufficiently successful to bestir the bad blood in the system of the partisan press.

AT TWENTY

By Edward Meeman.

Somewhere the "dearest girl in the world" is waiting for me. Today, this hour, this minute, this very second,—she Exists! Whether dark or slight or tall or fair, I know not. But one thing I know, she IS—somewhere!

She may be going to school, or may be she's a teacher. Perhaps her dad's a gambler, and maybe he's a preacher. She may be six, or sixteen, or maybe six and thirty. She may be modest and demure; perhaps quite flirty.

Is she strong and wilful, a militant suffragist. Or of the smuggling kind, that wants only to be kissed? Is she motoring today, or sailing in a yacht? She may be spending millions—and then again, maybe not.

Does she wear gowns today, and toy with jewelled fans? Or roll cigars or launder to earn the mite she can? "Eat supper" in a tenement—or in a mansion dining? Will she wait or be waited on tonight, this girl of mine?

Maybe her hair's in a golden braid; maybe over a rat; Maybe topped by a sailor; maybe a picture hat. Are her locks blond or auburn, or red or black? They may not be her own at all! Ah love! Alack!

Of those eyes I will look into so often what's the shade? Have they the depths of a saint, or the rippling glint of a jade? Are they black, or brown, or blue, or gray, or of amber sheen—Lord-a-mercy! What if the eyes of this woman are green?

Maybe she's over in China, maybe across the street; Maybe I know her already; maybe she's yet to meet. Perhaps in print, unknowing, I've often read her name; A girl of the stage, or a nurse, or an author known to fame.

Maybe she wants to be fat; maybe she'd like to be thinner. She may be a homely saint; maybe a beautiful sinner. I don't know—but two things are sure as my heart's beat: She IS TODAY, and in God's good time, our hearts will meet.

Then it Happened

Terence Tidd-wink had musical tastes. He was the only one in the family so afflicted, but they hoped it might wear off.

Not so. Terence joined the high school glee club and commenced practicing at home on the mandolin. One eve he was twanging the mandolin in his chamber when his father was trying to twang a real estate deal in the library.

The glee club wants a mandolinist. JOSH WISE SAYS.

Did it ever strike you that Roosevelt was the coldest of the political situation wherever he went?

And Sidetracks Them. Miss Flirty certainly attracts the men. Yes, and then she distracts them.

His Wife Won't Let Him. Griggs—Have you noticed those hand-painted ladies hats?

Briggs—No, sir; I never notice anything about hand-painted ladies.

Real De Luxe. Barnald—We've had the place redecorated throughout. Doesn't it all look smart? I don't think anyone could suggest any improvement. Can you?

Traveler—How about those chintz covers for the buns for the summer months?

Is Your Loaf Like This?

If your flour is of the right quality, it ought to produce uniformly good bread. When the loaf comes out of the oven it ought to be appetizing and inviting in appearance. The crust should be crisp, tender and sweet as a nut. THE OGILVIE FLOUR MILLS CO., LIMITED, - MONTREAL.

A.—We didn't take Mr. Carleton's figures, but we were influenced by the cost of work done by him.

To Aid. Holder he said he had figured according to the specifications.

A. R. G. Clark Recalled.

A. R. G. Clark was recalled to the mayor he said he was present at the Victoria hotel when the street paving matter was discussed. In the course of conversation Mr. McDonald said Mr. Carleton had given him the price of $4.80 or $4.85 and that he would have secured the contract if he had put in for his own figures.

The mayor—You're on your oath?

A.—Mr. McDonald said he got the figures from Mr. Carleton.

Another Man Tells of It.

Fred Rutherford was sworn. He said he was foreman of the excavation and retaining wall work. He was present at the tea party in the Victoria hotel. Mr. McDonald and Mr. Clark were in conversation. Mr. McDonald said he figured on $3.85 but Mr. Carleton told him his amount was too low and he had raised it to $4.86. He gathered from the conversation that Mr. Carleton was in with McDonald and McLeod.

Aid. White—Has there been any rehearsing along the lines of Mr. Palmer's evidence?

A.—No, Mr. Palmer is my room mate, but he said nothing about his evidence.

Geo. Palmer was recalled. He said he had had two conversations with Mr. McDonald. He had visited Mr. McDonald's room to know that street, he knew Mr. McDonald in Sydney, N. S. At this time the conversation was practically the same as that which had taken place in the Victoria hotel.

The Ex-inspector Again.

Mr. Carleton was recalled. To Aid. White he said the city was paying $1 for 50 cent work.

Q.—Is that an offhand estimate, or have you made any figures?

A.—Any practical man could form an opinion.

Aid. White—The papers make you say that you make a positive statement?

Mr. Carleton—I've given my opinion.

Aid. White—Can you give us some figures to verify your statement?

Mr. Carleton—I did not understand the Hassam process, but I stood there long enough to know that owing to the rolling the voids would be small and the amount of cement would be reduced. All depends on the operator. With that machine you can give any kind of work, good or bad.

Aid. White—Will you swear that the city is only getting 50 per cent value?

Mr. Carleton—Why should I swear it?

Aid. White—Then why do you make that statement?

Mr. Carleton—It is my opinion.

To Aid. Hayes the ex-inspector said his statement that the city was only getting 50 per cent value, only applied to the foundation of the pavement extending up to within about 20 feet of the cold storage building.

But Mr. Carleton did not know what proportion of the $9,500 spent on the street exclusive of the retaining wall, would be affected by his statement. He said a barrel of cement should be used to 7 yards of broken stone.

To Aid. Hayes, Mr. Murdoch said the concrete here would cost about one-fifth of the street work.

Aid. Hayes—According to Mr. Carleton then the city is only getting poor value on a fifteen hundred dollars worth of work.

Mr. Garvey said that he was satisfied with Mr. Carleton's statement that a barrel of cement covered about seven yards. The Hassam company was using one barrel of cement to 6 1/2 yards.

Mr. Garvey—Mr. Carleton presents no figures to support opinion uttered in spleen and malice. The only trouble was that on the first day when the stone had been rolled before grouting one barrel of cement did eleven yards. At the same time the samples taken out will stand a good test.

Mr. Carleton—The contractors get the stone for nothing. All they have to do is to haul the stone away from the lime burners.

Mr. Carleton said he thought it a shame that some practical men had not been brought in to give an opinion. He was practically alone with the witnesses on the other side were all interested.

To the Mayor he said cement consisted of iron, lime and clay.

Mr. Low—Where do you get the iron? On the outside of the barrel?

Must Fix Responsibility.

The Mayor at this point said that it would no doubt be possible to get an engineer to give an opinion that the work was not concrete, though Mr. Dodwell had given this opinion that it was. The question, before them was this, some samples had been taken up that were not in accordance with the specifications, or what the city was paying for. They had to fix the blame for this defective work. Personally he had no axe to grind, and was only anxious to fix the responsibility upon the right party.

Aid. Baxter Sworn.

Aid. Baxter was then sworn. To the Mayor he said a friend of his told him of a gentleman having the opinion that he had drawn an agreement for the contractor. He did not think that would be improper, but the fact was that he had not drawn any agreement for the contractor. Previously he had done some business for Mr. Clark, not having any connection with the city. It had been suggested to him that he should take Mr. Low's private legal business, but owing to the contract with the city, he had declined to take his business. On many other occasions he had felt obliged to refuse requests for professional service. He would think that while people might reasonably differ from his public views and actions, his public and private conduct ought to entitle him to public confidence until his guilt was proved. He believed the people personally had confidence in him.

Continuing he said the whole controversy seemed to arise from the inability of the people to keep up with the times—a portion of the community were apparently shocked by the introduction of labor saving machinery. Personally he was ready to answer any question that might affect his position.

Aid. White—Define concrete.

Aid. Baxter—"In one of the small bands who are not experts."

Aid. Potts wanted Aid. Baxter's opinion as to whether the city would have to pay for replacing the strips of concrete taken out.

The Mayor—The contract, with the evidence before the committee, is in the hands of the Recorder for the time being. He will give us an opinion on that point.

Aid. Potts—I think we are making bigger fools of ourselves every day.

PROBING OF MAIN STREET PAVING WORK CONTINUED

At the session of the Main street investigating committee last evening Norman McDonald swore that the figures in the tender of McDonald & McLeod had not been submitted on the advice of Mr. Carleton, though they had been influenced by the cost of the work done by Mr. Carleton on Water street. Mr. Carleton said he had never fathered the idea that the city was only getting 50 per cent, on the whole work—that his statement only applied to the concrete foundation running from Mill to within 20 feet of the Cold Storage building. So far as Mr. Carleton's rather discursive statements could be followed, this would mean that the city was getting poor value on about $200 worth of work. Mr. Carleton stated that any kind of work could be done by the Hassam process, good, bad or indifferent.

Aid. Potts who was present said the city fathers were making bigger fools of themselves by tearing up the street.

Aid. Holder Sworn.

Aid. Holder was sworn. To the Mayor he said he was on the Board of works last year. He remembered going over the specifications with the engineer in company with Aid. Sprout. He made a verbal report to the Board of Works, approving the specification. He objected to the clause permitting the use of granite from outside quarries, but the Board of Works overruled this. He did not remember noting the clause permitting the engineer to allow an alternative method. He thought it was right that the engineer should be the judge. As a carpenter he knew that architects sometimes made changes in their specifications after consulting with their employers.

Norman McDonald of McLeod & McDonald, was then sworn. To the Mayor he said that he was a building contractor, residing at present in St. John. With Mr. McLeod he was a tenderer for the Main street contract.

Q.—Had you any discussions with Mr. Carleton over this tender?

A.—None whatever.

Q.—Do you know Mr. Palmer?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Had you a conversation with Mr. Palmer in the Victoria Hotel?

A.—Not particularly. I believe he was present.

Q.—Did you have any conversation with Mr. Palmer about the tenders?

A.—I had no conversation with him on this matter.

Aid. Holder—Did you have any conversation with Mr. Low about the work before or after the opening of the tenders?

A.—Yes, I believe I had several conversations. Previous to the award of the tenders, I met Mr. Low on Prince William street. Mr. Low asked if I had his figures made up; I said yes. Then Mr. Low said it was useless for anybody to figure against him; that he knew his work and would bet $500 that he would get the contract. Other tenderers were fools to go up against a company with their experience.

Aid. White—Did he say he had any pull?

A.—Oh, no.

Aid. Holder—Or that he had any aldermen at his back?

A.—No.

Influenced by Mr. Carleton's Work.

To Aid. Jones he said that at the conversation in the Victoria hotel, Mr. Clark, Mr. McDonald and Mr. Rutherford were present.

He said that he had figured that the work could be done for $3.55. Someone asked why he had put in a tender for $4.85. He had said that he had been influenced by the cost of the work done by Mr. Carleton on Water street. He did not say that he had been influenced by Mr. Carleton's advice. After some further conversation Mr. Clark had remarked: "I told you so. Mr. Carleton is in with them."

To Aid. Hayes he said he had never seen Mr. Carleton till after he was appointed inspector.

To Aid. Jones he said he had not done much road work, though he had been with men who had done road work. At present he thought the city had evidence that he was endeavoring to be a contractor. His partnership with Mr. McLeod began a short time before they tendered for the Main street work. He had some technical and practical knowledge of concrete.

The Mayor—Who done the figuring for the job?

A.—I think I did.

Aid. White—The only trouble was you took Mr. Carleton's figures for Water street?

Interested in the work of the kindergarten were also there. The great number of little children collected together made a pretty scene of life. Blondes with delicate and pink complexions, laughing blue or brown eyes, and chubby hands, small boys in picturesque costumes with their newest and best shirts and duck knee pants, all this was an eloquent and forceful tribute to the grand work accomplished during the summer season and the children's parents looked and felt the debt of gratitude which they owe to the playground teachers and to those whose interest and energetic effort made possible the work.

No special exercises were held and the children were returned to their homes about 5 o'clock.

Toronto, Aug. 26.—Business in Ontario wheat is almost at a standstill so far as dealers are concerned. Export trade is an impossibility at present levels and Ontario millers are as a rule getting their supplies directly from the farmers. Local dealers' quotations are as follows:

ONTARIO WHEAT—Old No. 2 winter nominal at 1.02 outside; new, 95 to 97 cents outside, according to location; Manitoba wheat, No. 1 northern 1.12 1/2; No. 2 northern, 1.11; No. 2 northern 1.08 1/2 at lake ports for immediate shipment.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—On the smallest overturn of business this week, today's stock market made general recovery from the declines of yesterday when rumors of frost in the Northwest precipitated a general selling movement. These rumors were dispelled today and the decline in corn options resulted in a strong recovery by these stocks which were weakest yesterday.

Political factors, while no more pronounced than in the early week tended towards further unsettlement. The enthusiasm of the crowds which are greeting Col. Roosevelt on his western tour and the ex-president's speech was reiterating his well known views regarding corporations, provoked serious discussion in many conservative quarters.

Indications point to a small cash gain by the banks in their operations with the sub-treasury for the week, but inasmuch as many direct shipments of currency have been made to interior points and Canada, the supposed gain may readily be turned in to a loss. Bank clearings in the aggregate all over the country show a continued shrinkage, the loss for the week being over 20 per cent, compared with last year's. The reduced volume of clearings is again chiefly due to the marked falling off in this city, while Chicago, Pittsburg, Cleveland, Baltimore, Kansas City and San Francisco all report increases.

The bond market ruled steadily throughout with no marked increase of operations. Total sales, par value $763,000.

CLOSING COTTON LETTER. By direct private wires to J. C. Mackintosh & Co.

New York, Aug. 26.—In the face of a favorable weather map and an apparent absence of stimulating news of any kind the cotton market today ruled dull but very firm, and thus further demonstrating the easy control of the bull clique. There was considerable short selling yesterday in anticipation further setback because of continued favorable weather conditions but continuous losses have taken almost all of the light out of the bear element which runs to cover on the slightest bull demonstration. Further than this there seems nothing to say by way of comment on the day's market.

Weekly crop movement figures are as follows: Brought into-sight for week: 67,031 vs. 57,361 last year and 82,061 in 1908. For the season 10,338,133 against 13,731,892 last year and 11,441,963 in 1908.

CLOSING STOCK LETTER. By direct private wires to J. C. Mackintosh & Co.

New York, Aug. 26.—There was little or no change in the character of the dealings in today's stock market, although there was a distinct reversion of sentiment among the professional interests which have dictated the course of prices for some days past. The recent decline was accompanied largely by bear selling and today's smart rally could be traced largely to the buying by the same traders who figured prominently in the preceding decline. The failure of frosts to materialize in the corn belt failed as every careful observer believed that it was made as a pretext for covering short contracts through the active list. The market remains essentially a waiting one, a smart further recovery in the securities market.

U. S. MAY GET WORLD'S TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP

London, Aug. 26.—The Lawn Tennis Association today cabled to Dr. Jas. Dwight, president of the United States Lawn Tennis Association, and to President Hoskyns of the Australian Tennis Association, asking if it would be agreeable to both associations to have the preliminary matches between the English and American challenging teams for the Dwight F. Davis cup played off in America this year. It has been proposed to play off the preliminaries in Australia, but the Australian association declined to guarantee the money necessary for the expenses of the two teams on the ground that the proposed British team is not sufficiently strong. The final matches for the cup of which the Australians are the defenders for the third successive year, will be played in December.

Fredericton, Aug. 26.—The Fredericton ball team turned the tables on Woodstock today and defeated the visitors by the score of 5 to 3 in a game that was well played under distressing weather conditions. The locals batted Joe Neptune out of the box while Harrington of the St. Peters had the visitors at his mercy at all times, holding them to six hits and getting three himself off Neptune. Happy Iott went in for Woodstock in the sixth and finished the game very creditably, allowing only one hit.

HAYDEN HAS NEW WINNER

Bangor, Maine, Aug. 26.—Two thousand people saw the closing events of the eastern Maine fair at Maplewood park this afternoon. The principal features on the race card were the 2:40 trot, 2:42 pace and 2:16 trot, 2:18 pace, each of which was decided in the eastern Maine fair at Maplewood three heats and the latter going to a representative of the Pine Tree stables, Lewiston, making seven firsts in twelve events for the veteran Hayden.

The feature of the day was the fine showing of the roan stallion Prince Aldine, four years old, in his maiden race. Although in rather fast company, the young stallion was never in danger and won with plenty to spare in each heat, doing the last mile in 2:19 1/4. In the 2:16 Hayden was always safe, and carried Alicy Bell along just fast enough to win.

GEERS TOOK ONE FIRST AND ONE SECOND

Dudie Archdale Headed by Joan in $25,000 Memorial Stake--The Abbe First in 2.20 Straight Heats.

New York, Aug. 26.—After four days of interesting light harness racing the Grand Circuit meeting under the auspices of the Trotting Horse Breeders Club ended today at the Empire City Track. Three events were on the final card with the venerable memorial stakes of $25,000 for 2.25 class trotters the feature. This was won in two straight heats by the bay mare Joan, owned by David Shaw of Cleveland. Joan was driven in good style by McDevitt. Dudie Archdale, driven by the veteran E. F. Geers, was second each time. Both finishes were close and as 12 horses started in the first heat it was the largest field but one on the Grand Circuit this season. Captain George and Artoleyburn divided third and fourth monies. The pacing division of the Matron futurity stakes was won handsily in straight heats by the bay filly Leftwich, owned by Michael Murphy of Philadelphia. The Abbe with Geers as reinsman, had the better of his only opponent Brantam Baughman, in the 2.20 class pace for the Union stakes of $2,500, and won both heats. Besides the money prize won by Leftwich in the futurity, a silver cup, valued at $250 was awarded to L. V. Harkness of this city, who bred the winner.

FORBES SECOND FOR WALKER CUP AT D.A.R. MEET

73rd Captain Only Dangerous Man in Match Shot in Extremely High Wind--Newcastle Field Battery First.

Ottawa, Aug. 26.—An exceedingly high wind caused havoc among the rifle shots at Rockcliffe range today. Its effect on the oldest and most experienced shots was shown by the shootout for the Walker Cup. Six competitors had to settle the tie, one being Capt. Forbes, of the 73rd. Chatham. The range was 600 yards, 5 shots being fired. While the winner, Sgt. Martin, 103rd, Calgary, made 23, and won the cup, and Capt. Forbes came second with 22, the others went to pieces, the next best score being 11, the next 5, the next 4 and one competitor, Lt. Morris, 47th, Frontenac, who until today led the grand aggregate, did not touch the target.

The scores were: The grand aggregate awarded for highest scores in the Bankers, Walker, McDougall, Dominion and first stage of the Governor General's, possible 315, three competitors tied for first place with scores of 295. ## WIND PLAYS HAVOC WITH AVIATORS

Boston, Aug. 26.—The two flying machines now assembled on the aviation field at Atlantic where, from Sept. 3 to 13 is to be held the Harvard-Boston aero meet, were almost carried off today by a gale of wind, accompanied by a heavy rain. The machines, the Harvard I aeroplane and the Pfitzner monoplane, tugged at their fastenings, while they were stripped clear of covering when the storm under full sail, but securely anchored.

Young Cromwell Dixon with his dirigible airship has an ambitious programme before him for next week. He declares that on Tuesday he is going to try to fly from Boston to Plymouth, more than 40 miles, landing as near Plymouth Rock as possible. Later he intends to retrace Boston across meet, were almost carried off today by a gale of wind, accompanied by a heavy rain. The monoplane was stripped of its wings during the gale and came to no damage, while the Harvard I weathered out the storm under full sail, but securely anchored.

THISTLES WIN FROM DOVER AT ST. STEPHEN

The Thistles tried out Stevens, a new southpaw, who pitched a good game and won a liberal measure of applause. Coveney was backstop.

THE WEATHER.

MARITIME—Moderate to fresh westerly winds; fine and cool. Toronto, Ont., Aug. 26.—With the exception of showers in Northern New Brunswick the weather today has been fine throughout Canada and cooler in Ontario and Quebec. Moderate gales have prevailed on the gulf of St. Lawrence.

AROUND THE CITY

In Exmouth Street Church. In Exmouth street church tomorrow Rev. H. D. Marr, of Portland Methodist church, will preach in the morning and the pastor, Rev. W. W. Brewer in the evening.

Injured by a Fall. John Dickson, an aged man, slipped to the sidewalk on Carmarthen street last night, injuring himself to such an extent that it was found necessary to have him removed to his home on Pitt street in a coach.

Tourists Returning. Eastern Steamship Company Company S.S. Calvia Austin left for Boston last evening with a capacity passenger list. The passengers were mostly returning American tourists.

Sunday Services. Exmouth street Methodist church, Rev. W. W. Brewer pastor—9.45 p.m. class meeting; 11 a.m., preaching, Rev. W. W. Brewer; 2.30 p.m., Sunday school and pastor's Bible class; 7 p.m., preaching, Rev. W. W. Brewer.

Replacing Main Street Paving. The mayor yesterday gave orders to Mr. Low to fill up the holes in Main street. Mr. Low, when asked who would bear the expense of refilling the excavations said: "We'll fill the holes first, and discuss that later. We're keeping a record of the labor and material employed."

Socialists to Meet. The usual meeting of the local Socialists will be held in their hall, 141 Mill street, Sunday evening, at 8.15. The speaker will be J. W. Eastwood and his subject "Why all working men should be Socialists." As he will attack many theories generally held there will doubtless be a good attendance and a breezy discussion at the close.

Grand Master of Florida Masons. Hon. J. A. Massery, who is grand master of Free and Accepted Masons in the state of Florida, arrived in the city on yesterday. Mr. Massery is quite a power in politics in his native state and at one time refused nomination for congressman with the climate here and expects to remain in the city for a few days.

B. P. A. Outing. The members of the Brock and Paterson Association will leave King street at 1.15 p. m., for a buckboard drive to Loch Lomond. A baseball game will be played and a fine programme of field and water sports will be carried out. The members of the firm will be guests of the association and a very enjoyable afternoon and evening is looked forward to. Tea will be served at Johnston's. The association looks on this as an inception of an annual affair.

Miss Lucy Tonge's Success. Miss Lucy Tonge, daughter of John H. Tonge, of the South End, who is well known in musical circles here, is now singing with the metropolitan minstrels on a tour of the southern states and is meeting with pronounced success. The company recently played in Norfolk, Va., and the Virginian Pilot, of that city in commenting on the performance said: "Miss Lucy Tonge, a female baritone, amazed the two large audiences with a wonderful voice, splendidly cultivated and handled in the manner of a real artist. Aside from her unusual voice, this young woman's selections were tuneful and pleasing and she was compelled to answer frequent encores."

Saw Himself in Moving Pictures. It is not often that a St. John man has the chance to see himself in moving pictures, but this privilege was given last night to Captain Pike one of the members of the crew of the steamer Calvin Austin. One of the pictures in the programme at the Nickel was a Cuban scene in which Havana harbor was shown. Prominent in the picture was a large white steamer entering the harbor. It was discovered that the steamer was the Governor Cobb in charge of Captain Pike, now of the Calvin Austin. The picture was taken last winter and a peculiar feature was that as the moving picture men were working the Cobb entered the harbor. Captain Pike was present last evening when the picture was shown and was able to identify his ship.

The St. John Business College. The St. John Business College, S. Kerr & Son, proprietors, has issued its annual catalogue for this season, and the publication is an attractive one. This college, which is well known, has contributed in no small measure in the starting of young men and women in successful business careers. In their new catalogue some of the best known business men and women in the city tell their opinions of the course of instruction provided both in the business and shorthand departments. The catalogue also contains a number of unsolicited testimonials from graduates of the college who tell what the school has done for them, and also from employers of labor who speak in the highest terms of the capabilities of the graduates of the St. John Business College.

A good quick service always at White's restaurant.

WANT SPECIAL ROOM FOR CIVIC VISITORS

Special Provision May be Made at Dominion Exhibition for Visiting Mayors and Aldermen.

"See here, Mr. Good. A lot of Mayors and Aldermen from other cities will be coming here to attend the exhibition and see how we are getting along with the Main street rumpus. Some of them will be bringing their wives, and maybe the whole delightful family, and I've been asked where they are going to fit in, and what arrangements have been made for their reception?" Thus Ald. McGoldrick to Manager Good yesterday morning. "If you ask me, Mr. Manager, I think you ought to fit up a 'corporation room' in one of the buildings, a place where the city fathers and their wives can be at home to the city fathers from other towns, don't you know. Of course you might feel a bit shy about asking for a room on our own account, just now when the all good citizens feel like swatting us with chunks of concrete from Main street. But considering we are lighting the streets and doing other odd jobs, there ought to be a place where the Mayor of Halifax may appear with his wife and kids, present his card, and have a rest from the labors of viewing wonders you have to show. Manager Good said they were pressed for space, but he would take the matter up and see if a reception room could not be prepared for the city fathers of St. John and other places.

A SPLENDID ART SHOW AT APPROACHING FAIR

St. John Art Club Display Will be Magnificent Feature -- Women's Council to Play Active Part.

There will be a full meeting of the Local Council of Women in the new building of the Exhibition grounds Tuesday afternoon next at 3 o'clock. Every member of this body is expected to attend. Important plans for the exposition of the great show of women's work at the Fair will be laid before the meeting and discussed. Final plans will be made as well. In no previous show in St. John has there been such a comprehensive array of utility and art work made by female hands as that now on hand for next week's event. Mrs. David McLellan, the president of the Local Council of Women, is highly elated with the result of the entries. If the Dominion Exhibition were not being held this year in this city and the St. John Art Club were holding the gallery display which will be incidental to the Fair next week this latter feature in itself would be a magnificent affair. As part of the national exposition it is going to be truly a delight. The most sanguine of the energetic art committee anticipated a loan of from 50 to 80 foreign and Upper Canadian professional canvases, but to date there are over 125. The amateur list is long also—good amateur work. A souvenir catalogue, prettily printed, and containing photographic copies of some of the best works in the show, will be sold for a trifle at the fair.

THREE TRAINS TAKE HARVESTERS WEST

Lively Scene at Depot Last Evening—About 2,000 Leave for Harvest Fields—An Orderly Crowd.

Yesterday afternoon and evening were busy times around the Union Depot. From an early hour in the afternoon until the last special train left this morning with its cargo of human freight for the West, the place was thronged with an eager bustling crowd of husky young men en route to Winnipeg, on the Harvesters' excursion. Three special trains carried the crowd west. The first train left at 10 o'clock in the evening, and the second pulled out shortly after the arrival of the Boston. The last train was scheduled to leave at 4 o'clock this morning. It is estimated that more than 2000 men left altogether. This number is a little below last year's figures. It was remarked, however, that there was a marked difference between the men who waited at the station yesterday and similar crowds of former years. Not the least disorder was reported, and but little drunkenness was noticed. The men seemed to be of a particularly good class, and unlike the majority of the number who made up the excursion in past years, they seemed to better realize the object which lured them to the harvest fields.

PERSONAL

W. A. Mott, of Campbellton, N. B., is registered at the Royal. Miss Daisy Spencer of Grand Harbor arrived on the Aurora and left last evening for Woodstock where she has accepted a position on the teaching staff. Bound for the West. The steamer Prince Rupert brought over between 300 and 400 passengers across the Bay yesterday. About 200 of them were men bound to the West on the Harvesters' Excursion, which left last evening.

HE DIDN'T KNOW GROUT FROM NATURAL SUGAR

An Amusing Little Incident in Which a Local Saloon Man and an Alleged Concrete "Expert" Figured.

The controversy over the Main street paving question has been responsible for a number of good stories some of which are true, while others should be taken with the proverbial grain of salt. Here is one the truth of which is vouched for by several men who were present when the incident occurred. A certain local liquor man had a sample of raw sugar secured from one of the West Indian steamers. While several of the would-be concrete experts who have not hesitated to express their opinions on the merits of the Hassan Paving were in his store he produced the bag of sugar and showing it said, "This is some of the grout they are using on Main street. What do you think of it?" The concrete expert was not phased for a minute, but taking a small portion of the sugar in his hand he examined it critically and said, "This is pretty poor stuff, although there does seem to be some stick to it." The saloon man replied, "Why that is pure grout, absolutely pure—in fact you could eat it and it would not hurt you." Sutting the action to the word he swallowed a good sized portion of the sugar while the bystanders laughed. The interesting part of it was that the concrete expert who had been loudly discoursing on the merits and demerits of grout does not know yet that he was fooled.

CHARLOTTETOWN TO GET REV. DR. FLANDERS

Pastor of Centenary Will Go to First Methodist Church in Charlottetown in July, 1912.

In this date, of keen competition, even the churches have to be alert to their own interests. It is for this reason, among others, that the First Methodist church of Charlottetown sometime ago extended to Dr. C. R. Flanders, of Centenary, the invitation to come to Charlottetown at the close of his pastorate here. There were several other important reasons, notable that Dr. Flanders is looked upon by the Island congregation as admirably adapted for the work in that church. It was for something of the same reason that Centenary, last spring invited him to remain here for a fourth year, although his third year will not expire until June of 1911. Dr. Flanders accepted the invitation to remain in St. John, and has just sent to the Charlottetown congregation his acceptance of their hearty invitation to go to that church in July of 1912. Rev. Henry E. Thomas is now pastor of the Charlottetown church. His term will expire in June of 1911. A year will then elapse between his departure and the arrival of Dr. Flanders. To bridge this year the Charlottetown Methodists have invited Rev. Jacob Heaney, of West St. John, to occupy the pulpit from June 1911 to June 1912. Rev. Mr. Heaney has also recently accepted this invitation. He is a Prince Edward Islander by birth, and will enjoy being near his old home even for so brief a time as one year.

MR. IRVING VANISHED AMID NOISE AND SMOKE

Prisoner Makes Get-Away from Chain Gang While Blast Exploded—Guards Lost Him in Confusion.

Another description from the chain gang yesterday of the prisoner's proceedings in police circles. Escapes are now being made as regularly as Ty Cobb steals bases, Messrs. Beckwith and Collins having a decidedly difficult time in holding their team together. The hero of yesterday's flight was Frank Irving, who was serving a hard labor sentence. Irving made his escape under peculiar circumstances. The gang were at work dynamiting. Just at the time when the explosion came, Irving realizing the psychological moment had arrived made a break for liberty. The noise of the explosion and the smoke and dust prevented the guards from seeing him, and when things had settled down only Irving's coat tails were visible to the chagrined guardians of the prisoners. The officers gave chase but the handicap was too great and they were soon forced to drop out of the running.
