FARE STEAMER DAVID WESTON HOLLS TO HEAVE HOLLS TO A SATURE OF THE SERVICE OF THE STATE OF THE SERVICE OF THE SERVICE

At 3 o'clock to-day Mrs. Oliver was rought to the Police Station. His Honor called her to her feet and reviewed the evidence that had been given before him. He considered the case for the Crown was quite sufficient to convict, and evidence for the defence to have failed. He considered the evidence of the man Reed entirely unsatisfactory. He said her counsel had done everything, and only regretted that he had made the remarks he had against the Chief of the Police which were entirely uncalled for. He spoke of the course she persued the life she lead, and the frightful example she had set to her young daughter. He also spoke of the feeling that the names of frequenters of the house should have been exposed, but he had not done this as he did not wish to caus trouble and heart burnings between man and wife as it certainly would. He therefore adjudged her guilty and sentenced her to six months in the Penitentiary with hard labor.
