

GOVT'S POLICY SANE AND SAFE
MR. FIELDING UPHOLDS RECORDMinister of Finance and Hon. A. B. Aylesworth Main Speakers at a Great Gathering of Electors in the Queen City.

Toronto, Oct. 1.—Even though Toronto has not been much in the habit of electing anything but Conservative members heretofore, its citizens include many stalwart Liberals, who are determined that in the coming contest it shall not be all "Tory Toronto." There was a thrilling example of their devotion to the principles of Liberalism at the meeting in Massey Hall last night, when a huge auditorium was filled to the very doors with a cheering, enthusiastic and public-spirited audience. There were speakers in plenty, but more important, they had a story of progress to tell that appealed to the best in the hearts of everyone present. Rarely has such a meeting been seen in this city. The Minister of Finance, Hon. W. S. Fielding, was in the best of speaking form, and as he piled fact upon fact, argument upon argument, coupled with telling and convincing comparisons, the building reverberated with applause. No less hearty was the greeting to Hon. Mr. Aylesworth and the two local candidates, Messrs. T. C. Robinette, K. C., and W. H. Shaw. The meeting was indeed a splendid omen for the future of Liberalism in Toronto.

The Government's Policy.
Hon. Mr. Fielding carefully reviewed

ed the most salient features of the financial policy in existence during the past twelve years. He showed how the rate of taxation had been reduced, the public debt kept lower than Conservative statesmen had been able to keep it, and surpluses had taken the place of the old-fashioned Tory deficits. Vigorous and at the same time breathing of intense patriotism, was his defense of his tariff policy. He told how the great ideal of Sir Wilfrid Laurier was to unify the different races and creeds in Canada. His own ideal he pictured as the formation of a tariff which would harmonize with the views of both the farmer and the manufacturer. Mr. Fielding drew a faithful picture of the progress of the twelve years: trade had increased; land values had gone up, and the population was greater. He also touched on the Crow's Nest Pass controversy, showing how neither Mr. Borden nor Sir Charles Tupper had raised his voice against the bargain when it came up in the House, but rather praised it. Incidentally, he said the Globe newspaper had given proof of its ability to take care of itself. Hon. Mr. Aylesworth's address consisted for a large part of a brilliant eulogy of Canada's leading Continued on Page Nine.

BIG NEW YORK
DIAMOND STEALJewels Valued at $50,000 Have Vanished and Employee Is Suspected.

New York, Oct. 2.—An investigation which followed the discovery that a diamond sunburst was missing from the waterworks of Oliver M. Ferrand, a Maiden Lane diamond importer, has disclosed what may prove to be one of the biggest robberies in the diamond district. Already, it is said, jewels valued at $50,000 are known to have disappeared, and the inventory of stock has not yet been completed. It has been disclosed also, that the robberies probably have been going on for years, and it seems possible that when the inventory has been completed the total will be far in excess of the amount now known to be involved. While the investigation has been in progress Mr. Ferrand has been endeavoring to find one of his oldest and most trusted employees, who has been away from the city for several months. This man should have returned from his vacation on Sept. 1, but he did not come, nor was any word received from him.

SECRETARY OF STATE
CANDIDATE IN RUSSELL

Russell, Ont., Oct. 1.—The Premier concluded his tour of Ontario here today, addressing a large gathering. Additional interest was added to the day's doings by the acceptance of the candidature of Russell County by Mr. Charles Murphy, the newly-appointed secretary of state. Mr. George McLaurin retiring in his favor.

THE CONS. SEE-SAW

THE GENERAL SYNOD

Convention of Anglicans at Ottawa
Will Prorogue Today.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 2.—The General Synod of the Church of England in Canada decided this morning that its business had reached such an advanced stage that it would prorogue at 5 o'clock this afternoon. A resolution from the bishops advocating a reorganization of the plan of lay workers to promote the activity of the lay workers in the church, was laid over for consideration at the synod three years hence.

CZAR IN OUR COURTS

Attempting to Secure the Extradition of One of His Subjects.

Ottawa, Oct. 2.—The Czar of Russia will figure in a case which comes up before the supreme court at the October term, beginning Tuesday next. F. H. Chrysler, K. C., will make a motion to quash the appeal of Russia vs. Proskovnikoff, on the ground that there is no jurisdiction. The Russian was an official of the Czar's who became involved with a woman, with whom and a trunk full of securities worth millions he fled the country. He turned up in Winnipeg, where his cash ran out, and he resorted to his securities. In this way his location became known to the Russian authorities and he was arrested and held in Winnipeg for extradition. An appeal has been lodged by each side.

NOT THE RIGHT MAN

Italian Charged With Stabbing Fellow-Countryman Is Liberated.

Lindsay, Oct. 2.—Vito Spino, an Italian, who was charged with stabbing a fellow countryman, Patzi Marcorette, at Fenelon Falls, some weeks ago, was discharged by Judge Harding today after a lengthy trial. It was proven that Spino was not the man who did the stabbing, and that the real culprit had mingled with the crowd at the time and escaped. The injured man got out of the hospital only the other day, having been in bed for several weeks.

DO NOT EXPECT A WAR

Bulgaria and Turkey Not Likely to Clash, Say Berlin Reports.

Berlin, Oct. 2.—Telegrams received from the various capitals of Southern Europe setting forth that the Turkish army is moving toward the Bulgarian frontiers, and that the Bulgarian army is engaged in hurried efforts to secure reinforcements, are not taken seriously in Berlin. The official view is that Bulgaria is certain to give up peacefully that section of the Oriental railroad in Roumelia, which she now holds, and that she will not choose the present moment to declare her independence.

A BIG BRITISH MAIL

Staff of New York Postoffice Obligated to Work Overtime.

New York, Oct. 2.—Working overtime, the staff of the foreign branch of the postoffice managed yesterday morning to get off the heavy British mail, which marked the first day of the reduced rate of postage. About 90,000 more letters than usual were dispatched to Europe by the America, Baltic and the Provence. Of these a large proportion had been saved up by business houses to take advantage of the two-cent rate. Postmaster Morgan said it is too soon as yet to tell what the effects of the reduced rate will be.

Ankle Hurt.

Mr. Robert Shillington, while shooting at the ranges yesterday afternoon sprained his ankle. The sprain is a severe one, and will lay him up for some time.

A BOLD HOLD-UP
BY MASKED MENDaring Robbery on the Grand Trunk at Junction Cut.

OPERATOR FACED REVOLVERS

Men Arrested After a Hot Chase—
One of Them Claims to Be From Chatham.

Hamilton, Oct. 1.—Threatening to shoot him if he made a move, three masked men last night held up E. A. Robinson, the G. T. R. operator at the junction cut, as he sat at his keyboard in the operating tower, and robbed him of $20. The men then decamped, and jumping a freight train bound for London, tried to make good their escape, but they were discovered by Ovid Hird, the new Grand Trunk detective, and after an exciting chase one of them was captured, while trying to conceal himself in a mound of earth. The captive is Barnaby C. Coyle, who gave his address as Chatham, and who was in the police court yesterday, having been arrested on the Grand Trunk property, on the charge of being drunk. He was again lodged in the cells this morning on the charge of trespassing on the Grand Trunk property and was remained until efforts can be made to capture the other two men.

The robbery was one of the most daring perpetrated in these parts for some time, being committed about 7:30 p.m. Robinson was sitting at his key in the tower, which is situated just beyond the junction cut, when he heard a noise on the steps outside, and looking through the glass door he saw a masked man standing on the steps with a revolver pointed at his head.

Hands Up.

"Hands up! If you make a move you are a dead man," commanded the robber. Robinson had the good sense to keep his seat, and in another instant two other masked men bounded into the room, pointing their revolvers at Robinson. "What do you want?" demanded the operator.

"There is no fooling about this; we want money," said one of the robbers excitedly, and with that he struck Robinson over the arm with the butt of his revolver. The latter showed no further resistance, and one of the two stuck his hand into the operator's trousers pocket, and extracted a roll of $20. Robinson's watch and chain were hanging to his vest, but the men made no effort to get them and quickly disappeared through the door into the darkness.

As soon as Robinson recovered from his surprise he telegraphed to the operator at the Sturt street station, informing him of the incident, and asking him to send out Detective Hird at once. He said he thought the robbers would hang about until the regular freight, which was soon due to leave for London, would pass out. The message was quickly delivered to Hird and he started for the scene on a yard engine. There was no sign of the robbers, and Hird decided to lay in wait. For several hours he kept his vigil in the damp night air, prowling about in search of the men, but without success, until finally the morning freight hove in sight from the direction of the station.

Coming to London.

Hird had no proof that the men were still in the vicinity, but he saw that his last hope was in spotting them, should they be on the freight, as it passed by. His hopes were not in vain, and as the cars flew by he saw the three men crouched in between two box cars. They were on the farther side of the train, and he was obliged to jump it to reach them. When the men saw that they were being pursued they jumped and ran in different directions. The officer searched until about 1:30, when he came across a suspicious looking tuft of earth and digging it up with his foot, he was rewarded by finding that it covered the body of a man. At first Hird thought that the man was injured, but Coyle, whom it proved to be, was far from being injured. "Where are the other men who were mixed up in the holdup?" asked Hird.

"At the hotel down the road," replied Coyle. "The officer thought this was sufficient proof that Coyle knew of the robbery, and the prisoner was handed over to Constable Harry Smith, who took him to No. 2 police station. There were no weapons on him, and a charge of trespass was registered against him. Detective Hird had messages sent to London and other places along the line in case the other men had again boarded the train, to be on the lookout for them.

Live in Hamilton.

Robinson, the operator, is convinced that two of the men lived in the city. He says they were about 13 years of age, and he thinks he would know them again if he saw them. His theory is that some of the trio had followed him from his home in the evening, having watched him previously in the day while he was up town, making some purchases. Coyle was arrested by Detective Hird on Tuesday night while sleeping, in a car in the G. T. R. yards. He was charged with drunkenness and in court yesterday morning he told the (Continued on Page Nine.)

COCKBURN BENEFIT CONCERT TONIGHT

The Cockburn benefit concert will be held in the Armories this evening. From every standpoint it promises to be a great success. The programme will be an artistic treat, one of the best ever given in the city.

The attendance will be large, in fact, it looks as if the spacious Armories will be taxed to capacity.

The programme will be augmented by several well-known artists. Mr. Coombs, of Bennett's, one of the best tenor soloists heard here in a long time, will sing two solos. Mr. Fields, of Fields and Hanson, of Bennett's, will play several old-fashioned instruments. He is an artist, and is bound to please. The London Highland Pipe Band will also be a feature. The boys will be away until 10 o'clock, but they will be back in time for the best part of the programme, and will add not a little to the evening's enjoyment. This programme will be worth while.

Mrs. Kingsmill desires to acknowledge the following donations: Major Mills $5, Lieut.-Col. Reid $5, Capt. Cole, Capt. Little, Capt. Bently, Capt. Kingsmill, Capt. Becher, Capt. Murphy, Capt. England, Capt. McCrimmon, Capt. Ingram, Capt. Campbell and Lieut. England, of the Seventh Regiment, $5 each; officers' fund of Seventh Regiment, $50; W. Trafford, $5.

The London Electric Company have installed several electric lights free of charge for the concert.

The Armories are very beautifully decorated by A. Screaton & Co., without charge.

Every person seems to have conspired to make the benefit to the widow of Jack Cockburn a great success.

Everybody is going to the concert. It will be well worth while.

The souvenir programme, containing a full-page cut of Sergt. Cockburn, will be sold by a party of fourteen very pretty young ladies.

Everybody should have one.

MAYOR AGAINST FILTRATION
SAYS PEOPLE DON'T WANT ITHis Worship Declares the Water Commissioners Will Have Some Scheme Ready To Be Voted on in January Next—Matter Comes Before the Commission at Next Meeting.

The water question will be brought up at the meeting of the water commission on Tuesday next. "We will discuss the question at our next meeting," said Mayor Stevely today. "We will have some scheme ready to be voted on in January next. I do not know what one it will be. I will oppose the filtration scheme, as I do not think that it has any chance whatever of carrying. I am firmly convinced that the people do not want it, so I cannot see any use of putting it to the people to be killed off, and setting the solution of the problem back still further. I would sooner submit a scheme that has a reasonable chance of success."

"At every meeting I have brought the question up, but Chairman Jones did not think it wise to start an agitation for any scheme until within a reasonable time for the vote to be taken."

London's Health Continues Very Good

London's health continues very good. At present there is very little sickness in the city and there are practically no contagious diseases.

"The city is very healthy," said Medical Health Officer Hutchinson to The Advertiser. "There are no cases of scarlet fever and no diphtheria. We have had only eleven cases of typhoid fever in two months, a most excellent record. The general health of the city is good, too."

August and September are considered the typhoid fever months, and as a rule there is considerable number of cases in the city. London has been particularly fortunate this year, as there was a large amount of typhoid in near-by towns.

Eleven cases in two months is a very good record.

Clothesline Thieves in South London

South London residents have been greatly annoyed for several days by the depredations of a gang of clothesline thieves, who have stripped every line for several blocks. A large quantity of laundry of all kinds is reported to be missing and the services of the police have been sought in an effort to locate some of it. It is a hard job, as one towel or blanket looks pretty much like another, especially when they are hidden away, and so far the police have not been able to make much headway. One man has been sitting up for two nights watching his clothesline.

Arm Injured.

While rolling logs at Beck's box factory this morning Mr. Robert S. Fead had his arm caught between two logs. The arm was very badly bruised, the ligaments being torn. The hand was also crushed badly. He was taken to his home and will be laid up for some weeks.

BRITISH JOURNALIST PRAISES THE I. C. R.

Compares it Favorably With Any Railway in Great Britain, America or Europe.

The editor of The Colonizer, an English magazine devoted to colonization, exploration, emigration, and travel, was in Canada recently, and part of his journey was from St. John, N. B., to Halifax, and from there by the Intercolonial Railway Maritime express to Quebec, where he connected with the homeward-bound steamer. That British journalist was most favorably impressed with the I. C. R. train service is shown by the following extract from a graphically written article, which appears in a recent number of the magazine:

"We left St. John by the Intercolonial Railway for a two hours' ride to Halifax. This railway is owned by the people of Canada, and is called the People's Line—Canada's All-Rail Route to the Sea. Excellent train service is given.

"One of the features which we fully appreciated was the most excellent service on the dining cars. Each meal costs 75 cents, and a splendid choice is given. On each occasion we enjoyed well-cooked meals, served by courteous and obliging waiters, and were struck by the variety of the carte. After our experiences of the slipshod meals on other railways the change was delightful. In place of tasteless soup (a near cousin of dishwater), indifferent slabs of meat, etc., we were served daintily, and our appetites correspondingly responded thereto. It is a matter of concern to all travellers on long journeys to receive good meals. The average person much prefers to have small portions and enjoy a mixed menu, rather than the American railway now provide. We have tried the dining cars where these

A Warm Welcome to New Pastor Methodists Greet Rev. Mr. Redmond

A Pleasant Affair Last Night in Hill Street Church.

A largely attended social was given by the organized adult Bible class at the Hill Street Methodist Church last evening. The affair was arranged by the class as a reception and welcome to the home-coming pastor, Rev. R. Redmond, who has been resting a while at Bayfield, on Lake Erie.

It was very evident, by the large numbers present, that the pastor has won the hearts of his people, who are enthusiastic in their loyalty to him. Alderman Booth occupied the chair and in a brilliant speech, welcomed Mr. Redmond back to his church. The address was also alluded to the approaching contest on Sunday street cars, declaring that the promoters of the same were asking the council to grant what three bylaws prevented them doing, if the champions of Sunday cars had such a confidence in the merits of their cause as to have first gone to the legislature and that without the expected prestige that they expected to obtain from a snap-shot vote by the people. Later in the evening Rev. Mr. Redmond alluding to the same matter said that nothing could so pare off the fine edge of conscience as the desecration of the Sabbath, which opened the way for other things decidedly bad. He cited the case of Toronto, where it was declared by one who had studied the matter, that with all their immorality the saloons of that city did not begin to have as demoralizing effect on the people in general as the Sunday street cars. He pleaded for an observed Sabbath—one that was in example as well as precept for the sake of both old and young.

The Programme.
The following programme was rendered:
Chairman's address, Ald. R. Booth; male quartette; solo, Miss Webb; address, Mr. Redmond; solo, Mr. Reid; five-minute intermission to get acquainted; reading, Miss Selley; solo, Miss Myrie Corbin; male quartette; solo, "Three Jolly Britons," by request, Mr. Parker; solo, Miss Webb.

After the completion of the programme choice refreshments were served by the ladies of the church, assisted by their gentlemen friends. The lecture hall of the edifice was very neatly decorated for the occasion, adding to the homeliness of the surroundings.

Votes of thanks were tendered the chairman and those taking part in the programme.

Mrs. Marshall Is Again President Of Women's Christian Association

Important Meeting Held Yesterday Afternoon—A Review of Good Works.

The thirty-fourth annual meeting of the Women's Christian Association was held yesterday afternoon in the Y. W. C. A. rooms on Wellington street and was largely attended.

Mrs. Pattullo, secretary of the association, read a most encouraging report of the work done during the year in which she pointed out that many and important improvements had been made at the Aged People's Home, it having been renovated and repaired and things in general had been made much more comfortable. At the present time there are 84 people in the home.

emigrants that have been continually arriving a great deal of relief work has been necessary that otherwise would not have been. More than 100 families and several hundred children have been provided with necessities. The members have also looked after the needs of five consumptives during the year.

The committee have during the year received $103.56, for which they wish to thank the donors.

Altogether the committee spent $565.78, which sum includes the donations.

A hearty vote of thanks was passed to the members of the First Presbyterian Church for money and necessary articles given when needed.

Improvements in Buildings.
At the Home for Incubables a new laundry had been installed and a number of items of minor importance looked after. At the last report, 34 patients were receiving treatment in the home.

At the Infants' Home, 19 children are being cared for, and all arrangements are most satisfactory.

Feeling reference was made to the death of Mr. John Riley, an inmate of the Aged People's Home, who had done a great deal to further the work of the W. C. A.

The thanks of the association were tendered to the medical men of this city and to the press for assistance during the year.

Review of Work.
Mrs. Pattullo gave a review of the work done by the association during the 34 years it has been organized, and spoke of the steady growth it has made in every way and the great good it has accomplished.

The report submitted by the relief committee showed that during the year, owing to the large numbers of Five Naval Vessels Will Race 300 Miles to Delaware Breakwater.

Newport, R. I., Oct. 1.—The submarines Octopus, Cuttlefish, Plunger, Viper and Tarantula will start on their race of 300 miles to Philadelphia today. They will rendezvous at Point Judith and will race to the Delaware Breakwater, being required to be entirely self-supporting all the way. It will be the longest continuous run of vessels of this type ever had and the event will be observed with much interest. The boats will be conveyed by the gunboat Hist. The submarines are going to Philadelphia to participate in the navy day celebration in connection with the founders' day observance, and they are expected to be there by Monday. They would have started yesterday, but they have been delayed by an accident to the Cuttlefish, which broke her cylinder head recently. They will race in cruising condition, using both gasoline and electric engines. The third torpedo boat flotilla started for Philadelphia today by way of New York.

connecting with Ridout street was constructed at Mr. Kingsmill's own expense, and he was not using the sewer on Albert street.

Mr. Graydon recommended that Mr. Kingsmill be exempt from the sewer tax on Albert street, as he did not use that sewer, but that he be charged with sewer rental the moment he tapped it. The committee agreed to that recommendation.

It was over this matter that Mr. Graydon and City Clerk Baker had the tiff last week.

An account of $24 was presented by the township of London for grading done on Mary street, but there was some difference of opinion as to the agreement between the township and the committee, so the matter was referred to the city engineer to report on.

Will Rush Dufferin Ave. Opening Board Will Not Longer Delay

City Will Collect That Famous Account From the London Street Railway.

There was much routine business up at the meeting of the board of works last evening.

The opening of Dufferin avenue was again before the committee.

A communication was read from City Solicitor Meredith, stating that the deeds for the property had been handed to him as yet. He said that he would again look through his papers and report in two weeks' time.

Ald. Stewart thought it was time that this matter was settled for good and all. It could be settled within two weeks, and he suggested that the residents along that street be notified to have the deeds in the hands of the city solicitor immediately, so that the whole work be finished up within the next two weeks. This was agreed to and an effort will be made to have the work done on the streets as soon as possible.

Work Must Be Done.
"There will be some wet weather shortly," said Ald. Saunders, "and the street should be drained and graded to avoid trouble. We had better get started right away."

"I don't know where the money is going to come from," said City Engineer Graydon. "We will overdraw our account."

"You would think that you were working for a dollar a day and did not know where the money was coming from," said Ald. Saunders. "The work has to be done, and we might as well do it. We will have to pay it next year, that's all."

City Engineer Graydon will report on the work needed at the next meeting of the council.

Mr. Kingsmill's Case.
The request of Mr. T. F. Kingsmill, jun., for exemption of sewer tax on Ridout street, was also discussed. Mr. Graydon reported that at present Mr. Kingsmill was paying sewer rates on two sewers, one on Albert street, and the other on Ridout street. The sewer connecting with Ridout street was constructed at Mr. Kingsmill's own expense, and he was not using the sewer on Albert street.

Mr. Graydon recommended that Mr. Kingsmill be exempt from the sewer tax on Albert street, as he did not use that sewer, but that he be charged with sewer rental the moment he tapped it. The committee agreed to that recommendation.

It was over this matter that Mr. Graydon and City Clerk Baker had the tiff last week.

TENDERS FOR A NEW BOILER

For the Laundry at Victoria Hospital Will Be Called for at Once.

At a meeting of the special hospital committee held last evening, it was decided to call for tenders for a new boiler for the laundry at Victoria Hospital.

One firm had given figures, but before they were given to the committee, Ald. Rose suggested that tenders be called for.

"I think the committee should give every boilermaker in the city a chance to tender on this work," said Ald. Rose. "I do not know what firm has tendered, but there are several firms who manufacture boilers, and they should be considered. We can call for tenders and have them ready by council meeting Monday night, so little time will be lost."

The committee agreed to this, and tenders will be called for immediately.

The Isolation Chimney.

Chairman Screation of the hospital trust was present, and pointed out that the chimney on the Isolation Hospital was not high enough.

"It is higher than the building, and from that standpoint is all right, but it is not high enough to prevent the smoke and gas going into the windows of the hospital," said Mr. Screation. "I think it could be built up ten feet more without much cost, and would be of great benefit to us, as then there could be no possibility of smoke coming into the hospital."

Mr. Nutter, city architect, pointed out that it would not cost very much to raise the chimney, as the scaffolding is still up.

On motion of Ald. Saunders, the matter was left with the architect and Ald. Stewart, the chairman, with power.

Those present were Ald. Stewart, chairman, Ald. Saunders, Rose, Gerry, Mayor Stevely, Chairman Screation of the hospital trust, City Architect Nutter, City Engineer Graydon and City Clerk Baker.

MONEY, OR DEBS MUST WAIT

He Appeals to Socialists on Behalf of the Red Special.

New York, Oct. 1.—New York Socialists received an appeal from Canadian Debs yesterday for financial help in bringing to the east the special train on which he is making a campaign tour. The train must be given up if money is not forthcoming.

"The eastern trip up to election day must be made," Debs says. "It would be a humiliation to the Socialist party to confess to the world that it had started the train and could not carry it to its destination."

"One thing is certain, and that is if my colleagues and I are of any value at all as campaigners and propagandists the special train, multiplied that value twenty times over. There will be no chance to make any further appeal. If the train is to continue till the close of the campaign the money will have to come quickly."

LONDON, FRIDAY, OCT. 2.

A TALE OF TWO GOVERNMENTS.

When the Laurier Government entered office in 1896 it at once saw that if immigration was to be attracted to this country a more vigorous policy must be followed. The Conservatives had been in power for eighteen years, and in that period they had expended $4,299,600 on immigration with very little result.

So neglected had been this branch of administration that during their last five years in office immigration had steadily declined. Here are the official figures:

1892	27,893
1893	29,632
1894	20,829
1895	18,790
1896	16,835

At this rate, had the Conservatives remained in office a few years longer, immigration must have ceased altogether. Not only was there almost a cessation of immigration, but in the last ten or twelve years of the Conservative Government nearly a million Canadians left their native land to take up their abode in the United States.

The Liberals adopted an intelligent, energetic and intensely practical policy, which brought results immediately. Each year saw settlers of the better class arrive in increasing numbers. Since Jan. 1, 1897, 1,219,943 immigrants have settled in this country. The effects brought by them, exclusive of cash and personal baggage, amounted to $67,442,532. Most of the newcomers have taken up homesteads in the new western provinces, and have become producers. Every immigrant who has taken up farming in the west has added to the traffic of railways, and to the opportunities of Canadian manufacturers.

That is not all. These immigrants have cost the country far less per capita than those who entered during the Conservative regime. In 1896 the Conservatives paid $175,000 to bring in 16,000 people, while last year it cost the Liberals $1,075,000 to bring in 260,000—that is, the expenses of immigration increased six times over the amount spent in 1896, but sixteen times the number of immigrants were brought in.

The immigrants attracted here during the present administration have been of a superior class. In the first seven months of the fiscal year 1907-1908, 211,859 were brought in, of whom 104,864 were British subjects—almost doubling in those few months the total figures of the Conservatives for the last four years they were in office. Then, too, not only has the exodus ceased, but settlers have come over in thousands from across the border to take up land in the Canadian west.

In 1896 the total revenue of the department of the interior, except school lands, was $203,000. In 1907-08, the total revenue of the department, except school lands, exceeded $2,500,000—in other words, in 1896 the cost of immigration under the Conservatives almost reached the entire revenue of the department from all sources, excepting as above, while in 1907-08 the revenue of the department was two and a half times the amount spent on immigration.

The net result of the wise and aggressive immigration policy of the Liberals has been to transform empty prairies into thousands of square miles of wheat fields, and to create thriving cities and towns where not long ago only gophers and prairie chickens dwelt.

Well has it been said that if the Laurier Government were to be judged alone on its immigration policy, the honest verdict of the people could not be otherwise than in its favor.

BRITISH COLUMBIA MINING.

The first installment of the report of the British Columbia Department of Mines, just issued, contains some valuable information as to mining development in the Pacific province. From this report it is learned how prominent a part mining is taking among the industries of the province. During the past two years the total product of all British Columbia industries was as follows:

Lumbering	$22,000,000
Agriculture	16,000,000
Fisheries	15,000,000
Manufactures	23,000,000
Minerals	51,000,000

Or a total of $127,000,000

It will thus be seen that mining contributed no less than 40 per cent of the whole—a rather surprising showing when the small population is considered. There can be no doubt that as the vast unoccupied areas are opened up there will be great development in this as in other directions.

British Columbia's mining history is extremely interesting. As far back as 1850, gold, in small quantities, was found there, but it was not until seven years later that discoveries were made which attracted fortune-seekers from various parts of the world. In the year following, between 15,000 and 20,000 persons embarked from San Francisco for the new El Dorado. Between 1858 and 1861 many discoveries were made, including the two most important finds, in the latter year, in Williams' and Lightning Creeks, in the Cariboo districts. These induced a considerable immigration of miners to the province. Statistics show that the maximum production was reached in 1863, when the output, almost entirely from the Cariboo district and Wild Horse Creek, in East Kootenay, was $3,913,563, and the average earnings per acre was $89.

According to Dr. Dawson, Williams' Creek has been the most productive of any stream in British Columbia. The aggregate for the first seven years of working was very large. In 1861, $200,000 worth was taken from a few claims on Lightning Creek. Attempts to reach the deep channel of this creek which were made for several years did not prove successful until 1870, and this subsequently led to great developments. At one time one claim on this creek yielded 350 ounces a day, another 300 to 600 ounces, and a third 300 ounces. Other placer gold discoveries were made on Stikine River, in the sixties; in the Omineca district in 1868; in the Liard River drainage basin, Canair district, in 1872, and at Atlin, also in Canair district in 1907, inclusive, of $4,323,000.

Reports have been received during the present year of discoveries on tributary creeks of the Finlay River, in the extreme northeastern part of the province, but up to the time of preparing the report the provincial mineralogist who has gone up to the district had not been heard from.

SLANDERING THE PRESS.

Mr. Borden is becoming a common slanderer. At Stratford yesterday he vilified the Liberal press by the assertion that it had been "subsidized" to the extent of $5,000,000 by the Laurier Government. The inference which Mr. Borden intended his hearers to draw was that this money had been paid to Liberal newspapers to influence their attitude toward the Government, and had been accepted by them in that spirit.

Mr. Borden has received fair treatment from the Liberal press, which has been inclined to credit him with being morally superior to the men around him, but he has been visibly sinking to their level during the present campaign. He knows, and his own newspapers know, that in this instance he is bearing false witness. It is a matter of utter indifference, financially speaking, to the average newspaper, Conservative or Liberal, whether the party it usually supports is in office or in opposition. Compared with the total revenue of a daily newspaper, the amount it receives for Government advertising, if it receives any at all, is insignificant. A glance at the public accounts will convince any intelligent person upon this point.

The Government is obliged by statute to spend money in advertising. In no case can it be shown that it has paid any newspaper more than the normal rate. It is true that every administration, provincial and federal, Conservative and Liberal, has placed the bulk of its advertising with newspapers that support it. There is no need or statutory obligation to advertise in more than one paper in one locality, and there is no robbery of the public in a practice which is quite a harmless phase of the patronage system. It can be said with truth that if Government advertising were abolished tomorrow, there would not be the slightest change on that account in the attitude of a single newspaper, Conservative or Liberal. Why should Conservative journals foul their own nest by giving prominence to Mr. Borden's slander? He libels them no less than he libels their Liberal contemporaries.

It may have been only a coincidence, but immediately after Mr. Roblin's reference to a polecat, Gamey jumped into the fray.

Messrs. Borden, Willson and Roblin were Liberals a few years ago. Those who change their colors usually become more vehement than the others.

A Winnipeg Liberal writes The Advertiser: "Roblin is the biggest political roustabout in Canada, and we have a certain satisfaction in noting that the Ontario Liberals are getting a taste of him. They will be better Harold Richardson, of this city, is quoted by the London, Eng., correspondent of the New York Herald as advocating the annexation of Canada to the United States. Probably he did not say all that was ascribed to him by the Herald. He may have been merely voicing a frequent complaint of Canadians in England, that they are regarded as mere colonists, and that it is easier for Americans and their dollars to get into the social swim.

TYING THEIR OWN HANDS.

Conservative campaigners must find themselves at a serious disadvantage in dealing with real political issues, when they abandon the discussion of important national problems and devote their talents and energies to personalities and abuse.

A GOODLY COMPANY.

The Canadian Courier draws attention to the fact that audiences in Quebec are rarely aroused to great enthusiasm by public speakers. This is not just what most people have been accustomed to think. By the way, the Courier has a picture showing a number of those present at Sorel when Sir Wilfrid Laurier made his first campaign speech. The group contains a remarkable number of very fine-looking people, men and women, who in stature and general appearance would compare very favorably with any similar number selected at random by the camera in any audience in the world.

AN EDITOR'S TROUBLES.

[Ottawa Citizen.]
Editor Willson's lines have not only fallen in unpleasant places, but they seem to be badly crossed. Not long ago he was a Liberal of the Liberals; then he was an independent of the independents; and, just recently, he has become a Tory of the Tories. Many a Conservative milk-up he is being called upon to vindicate the Globe against the Conservative premier; in his independent capacity his utterances against the Conservatives are being used as campaign literature in North Toronto; and in his Conservative capacity he is endeavoring to suppress the publication of his independent utterances by taking action under the copyright act. As a journalist with a big "J" we regret to report that Mr. Willson is not making much of a fist of it.

WHO AM I?

[Thomas L. Masson, in Life.]
I come from many a maiden's lips,
I fly through airy spaces.
Between two hearts I make quick trips;
I linger on sweet faces.

I bind love's bargain many a time;
I heal up many a quarrel,
Adorn a tale, inspire a rhyme,
And blot out many a moral.

My first is better than my last;
With age I grow much colder;
I linger often in the past,
My memory makes men bolder.

I may be false, I may be true,
I may be sweet or sour;
For me the kings of earth may sue,
While babies wield my power.

I'm nothing; yet I'm everything;
I die when consumed;
From death to life once more I spring,
With love's sweet message freighted.

No rule for me beneath the sun!
I scorn all mathematics;
With one and one, why, I make one;
True only to ecstasies.

Dividing two, then one I've made;
By adding still another;
The best laid plans men have essayed
I lightly touch, and smother.

I add, subtract and multiply,
I've never been refuted;
Yet my sum totals always die
As soon as they're computed.

I'm full of sadness, full of bliss,
And everything that bliss is;
Yet, though I've never made a miss,
I've made too many Mrs.

CHURCHILL'S WALKING-CANE.

[Manchester Guardian.]
The King's gift to Mr. Winston Churchill, a gold-headed Malacca cane, suggests two sainted reflections—that the King is an observant man, and that he sometimes takes pains to choose his gifts with a thought to their serviceability. Mr. Churchill without a walking-stick would be almost as strange a figure of Mr. Chamberlain without an eyeglass. During the busy-burly of his last campaign in northwest Manchester, and again in Dundee, he carried everywhere a Malacca cane with a much-battered silver knob for a "head." More than once he has been known to mount to the roof of a motor car carrying his walking-stick, but he has never been known, even in the thick of election excitement, to leave the stick behind him. Many recent photographs have shown Mr. Churchill carrying his walking-stick, and there are some people who detect in these a peculiar resemblance—purely accidental, no doubt—to Disraeli's way of holding a similar useful companion.

OMAR UP-TO-DATE.

[Richard Le Gallienne.]
The Grape! The Vine!—O, what an evil wit
Have words to gild the blackness of the pit!
Said so, how fair it sounds—the Vine!
The Grape!
O, call it whiskey—and be done with it!

"Your health!"—great God! your health!
and straight you drink
Disease and death—upon the cesspool's brink
I cry "your health!"—and with a laugh
you drain
The poison that makes soul and body stink.

This glorious garment of your youth shall rot.
Little by little; you will know it not—
For the moth hides that feeds upon the silk—
And so the garment of your youth shall rot.

Hearken to one who hath the winepress trod;
Nights shall you cry to your forgotten God,
And wring your hands, and weep hysteric tears,
Till the dawn smites you like a scarlet rod.

THE WORLD HAS MOVED.

[British Parliamentary Reports, June 7, 1894.]
The Attorney-General moved for leave to bring in a bill, the object of which was the protection of the lives and limbs of his majesty's subjects, by correcting the enormous abuses of stage coach drivers. Within these few days it would be hardly credible what a number of applications he had received on this subject. Some accounts were enough to freeze one with horror. A gentleman of veracity had informed him that on Tuesday, May 21, at half-past 5, the Trafalgar and Regulator coaches set off from Manchester and got to Liverpool twenty minutes after 8, doing this journey in two hours and fifty minutes, at the rate of twelve miles an hour.

"Out in Idaho."
The country in which the plot of "Out in Idaho," tonight's bill at the Grand, is laid, gives unlimited opportunities for scenic display, which are utilized to their fullest extent. It should prove one of the best melodramas booked this season. The play is replete with the tragic, thrilling incidents of the days Bret Harte knew so well.

Rogers Brothers Tomorrow.

"The Rogers Brothers in Panama," the merriest musical farce of the season, will be at the Grand tomorrow evening. "The Rogers Brothers in Panama" is without doubt the best play of their career. It is more than a farce, a skit, for in addition to the uproarious nonsense which has made these players famous, there is a consistent plot, interspersed with strong heart interest. Many novel musical numbers will be introduced by the principals, and a large and beautiful chorus. The music by Max Hoffman is all new and catchy, and of the whistling kind. Costumes are appropriate and elaborate. The scenery is gorgeous beyond description, and must be seen to be appreciated.

"The Gay Musician."

The first big musical attraction of this season to be heard in this city is Julian Edwards' new comic opera, "The Gay Musician," which comes to the Grand Opera House on Monday evening, Oct. 5.

The production here will be identical with the one given this summer at Wallack's Theatre, New York, where "The Gay Musician" ran for 100 nights.

The original company, chorus and production will be brought here, and there is sure to be a demand for seats when it is known that such great favorites as Amelia Stone, Joseph C. Miron, Lotie Kendall, Tempair Saxe, Martha George, Carroll McComas, Harry Short, William S. Gill, L. R. Jefferson, Marie Baxter and others as popular will be in the cast.

Bennett's Teddy Bear Matinee.

Tomorrow's matinee at Bennett's will probably be the record matinee in the history of this popular theatre. The Teddy Bears to be given away to the children, and the reception on the stage to see the horses, ponies and dogs of Olympia Deyval, is attracting attention of parents. The popular prices, 10 and 15 cents, are great features for the little ones. Manager Driscoll is also opening the gallery this season at the Saturday matinees, which was never done before, and at 10 cents this is another drawing medium for the little ones, who cannot afford any more.

They can virtually see a vaudeville show, enter the Teddy Bear contest, and attend the reception on the stage, for the same price as they would pay to see an ordinary picture show. In addition to the vaudeville, Manager Driscoll has placed some of the best motion pictures on view, and this also is included in the very small price of admission.

EARL HAS $5,000 VOICE

Shaftesbury Declines Big Offer to Sing in Concert in the United States. London, Oct. 1. — The Earl of Shaftesbury has declined an offer of $5,000 weekly for a 30 weeks' concert tour in America.

The earl sang a solo recently in St. James' Church at Shaftesbury on the occasion of the dedication of a new organ, thereby revealing to the public what his friends have long known, that he is the possessor of an exceptional tenor voice, which has been carefully trained. Tircoupan the above offer was made to the earl, and he was assured that everything would be done to sustain his dignity and exalted rank.

After considering the offer the earl politely refused to accept it.

Anthony Ashley-Cooper is the ninth

Earl of Shaftesbury, and he is 39 years old. His title dates from 1672. He is besides Baron Ashley and a baronet. He is deputy lieutenant for the county of Antrim, and an alderman of Belfast, having been lord mayor last year. He is besides honorary colonel of the Irish Imperial Yeomanry and chamberlain to the Princess of Wales, and he was formerly a captain in the Tenth Hussars.

His wife, whom he married in 1899, was Lady Constance Sibell Grosvenor. She is lady of the bedchamber to the Princess of Wales and is the daughter of the Earl of Grosvenor and grand-daughter of the first Duke of Westminster. They have three children, one son and two daughters.

Lord Shaftesbury's seats are St. Giles' House, Salisbury, and the Castle, Belfast, Ireland. The family has been noted for literary and philanthropic work. The present earl is active in business and politics. He is a member of the congested districts board for Ireland.

WRONGFULLY QUOTED

Miss Barrymore Says She Did Not "Knock American Sisters." New York, Oct. 2.—Charles Frohman has received a telegram from Miss Ethel Barrymore, denying the interview credited to her in a St. Louis paper, and saying: "It was cruelly and wrongfully quoted. Those who know me realize too well my love and admiration for my American sisters, and not for worlds would I make a statement so absolutely false. Do your utmost to place me right before my friends and public."

Clothing That Speaks for Itself

Progress Brand and C.N.R. Clothing for Men and Young Men

This store's purpose is to dress men better than they have ever been dressed—to provide such styles and patterns as will express the individuality of the wearer and give genuine satisfaction. We allow no one to give a greater equivalent for your money, and the Suits and Overcoats we have ready easily discount everything in the past. To men of good judgment our values make an appeal as immediate as they are irresistible.

Prices: $10, $12, $13.50, $15, $16, $18 to $25

We sell only the very best clothing and insist on a perfect understanding with each customer. You run no risk at all in buying here. Our prices are always the lowest, for which equally good clothing can be bought.

Nothing Gained Without Effort

No effort—no gain. Yet that does not mean that the greatest gain comes with the greatest effort. Look what you gain by buying 'Progress Brand':—stylish, perfect fitting garments—made of dependable goods—by expert tailors—and sold with an unconditional guarantee that they must give satisfaction or your money back. The man who looks for the 'Progress Brand' dealer and the 'Progress Brand' label gains a great deal with very little effort. The gain is not merely one of dollars and cents (always an important consideration) but is the greater gain of commanding attention and respect by being always well dressed. 18

For instance, it requires very little effort to insist on having "Progress Brand" Clothing, and the gain is proportionately great. If, on the other hand, a man is satisfied to accept the first suit or overcoat that is handed down, and will make no effort to secure a reliable make like "Progress Brand"—he can't expect to have other than shabby clothes and be a walking advertisement of his own indifference.

LION LOOSE IN NEW JERSEY WILDS OF FINE TIMBER

Escapes From Winter Quarters and Mauls Farmer's Stock Before Killed.

New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 1. — A full-grown African lion escaped last night from the winter quarters of Leon Washburn's circus, located between Thirty and Bound Brook, and after having been hunted by keepers and farmers all night, was shot at daylight by Edward Raide this morning. Before his death, the lion had killed two cows and a calf, and had eaten part of one of the latter animals. Yesterday he was enraged by being transferred from one cage to another. The door of his cage was accidentally left unfastened, and he suddenly burst out of the cage into a runway leading to an adjoining building, where camels, elephants, horses and cattle were kept. The alarm brought the keepers, armed with every weapon which came to hand. One of the camels broke loose from its fastenings, and the lion pounced upon it, inflicting severe wounds with its claws and teeth, but the camel finally broke away and fled, and wandered about the country all night. Nero then turned toward the keepers, who fled precipitately, the lion disappearing in the direction of the woods.

Poses of keepers and farmers were immediately armed with all sorts of weapons, and the alarm was spread in Bound Brook and New Brunswick. There was a hurry call for ammunition from the local stores. The searchers found no trace of the missing animal until this morning, when a farmer named Isham found two of his cows and a calf killed on his farm, near Raritan River, the carcass of the calf indicating that the lion had taken his morning meal there.

When the searching parties were still scouring the country, and farmers' wives were bewailing in their homes, Edward Raide, living on the river road between New Brunswick and Bound Brook, spied the lion prowling along the road. Armed with a double-barrel shot gun, charged with heavy slugs, Mr. Raide, alone, intercepted the animal and after several attempts shot it.

BEATEN BY NEGROES

Three Italian Laborers Stripped and Robbed Near Belleville.

Belleville, Oct. 1. — Three Italians were held up, robbed and beaten on the Glen Miller road, near Frankford, early yesterday morning. Their assailants are said to be negroes, who kept a shanty nearby. The Italians were stripped by their assailants, beaten and shot. It is reported one man has since died.

A MILK MIX-UP

Producers Ask More Money and Toronto Suffers Shortage.

Toronto, Oct. 1. — Any milk that arrived in Toronto today was not from members of the Toronto Milk and Cream Producers' Association, these having gone on strike. They want $1.55 per gallon can, as against $1.35 now paid. There was no shortage from any of the places on this side of Brampton, but the Hamilton train, which usually brings in 752 gallons, today brought in only 52 gallons, a shortage of 222 gallons. The Toronto retail milk dealers are not going to let the producers walk over them if they can help it.

LUCKY EDNA

Broker Brown Gave Her an Auto and Big Life Policy.

New York, Oct. 1. — A. O. Brown, head of the Wall Street firm bearing his name, was one of the first witnesses today, when the bankruptcy hearing was resumed before United States Commissioner Gilchrist. He testified that there is an insurance policy on his life for $25,000, which was taken out twelve years ago, when he was made payable to Mary C. Brown, who was then his wife. It was now held, he said, by Edna Wallace Hopper, an actress. He said he gave it to her in March. He gave her the automobile on March 2, at which time, he testified, he had known her from four to six weeks.

GOULD DIVORCE CASE

Postponement Granted Until Further Witnesses Are Brought Up.

New York, Oct. 1. — To permit counsel for Howard Gould an opportunity to "submit affidavits of three disinterested persons who had seen Mrs. Gould intoxicated" a hearing on Mrs. Gould's application for alimony at the rate of $10,000 a year, was adjourned by Justice Gieglrich in the supreme court today.

The adjournment followed a spirited discussion between counsel, in the course of which Clarence J. Shearn, attorney for Mrs. Gould, declared the application for adjournment was merely jockeying for delay, to "save Mr. Gould a few paltry dollars, and to attempt to get on the record with scandalous statements against Mrs. Gould in an attempt to further blacken her character."

At the conclusion of the arguments Justice Gieglrich without comment granted the application for adjournment to Oct. 13, after he had learned that Mr. Gould had sent his wife a check for $2,000, her monthly allowance, yesterday. Mrs. Gould's suit is for a separation on the ground of abandonment and cruelty.

A GREAT WASTE OF FINE TIMBER

Forest Fires Covering Area of 125 Miles Along the Mackenzie.

Ottawa, Oct. 1. — Inspector Jarvis, of the Northwest Mounted Police, makes the statement in a report to the Mounted Police Department, that along the Mackenzie River this season he saw 125 miles of fire burning between Two Islands and Fort Providence. This statement occurs in a report Inspector Jarvis has made on a trip he has just completed between the mouth of the Mackenzie River and the city of Edmonton. "There is," he says, "at the present time a vast area of valuable timber in the Mackenzie River district, which has been and is being yearly destroyed by forest fires, which are carelessly or wilfully started by the Indians living there. In my opinion," he adds, "measures should be taken promptly to prevent this great waste, as this timber will in years to come be of inestimable value to the settlers who will go into that country. Might not this continued loss of timber have also a very detrimental effect on the climate and temperature of the adjacent district?"

"A patrol of the district by even a small force, with a magistrate at some central place along the Mackenzie River, would, I think, suffice to prevent the continuance of this destruction and well repay the country for the outlay occasioned thereby. From what I gather the Indians in that district are under the impression that they are the absolute owners of the country and its resources, and have a right to start fires at will. I therefore submit that, in my opinion, either a treaty should be made with them or else a sufficient force be provided to prevent the continuance of this waste of the country's resources."

The Mounted Police Department is in receipt also of reports of a cablegram to President Roosevelt tonight thanking him for having made possible the visit of the American battleship fleet to Australian waters, and urging him to visit Australia on his way to Africa. The fact that no answer has yet been received from the President has given rise to considerable speculation in Australia.

C. P. R. WINTER SERVICE

Two Coast to Coast Trains Daily for the First Time in History.

Montreal, Oct. 1. — The transcontinental schedule of the C. P. R. is now being prepared, and will contain some radical changes as compared with the winter schedules of previous years. For instance, for the first time in the history of the company, there will be a double daily service between Montreal and Vancouver maintained throughout the winter.

It is extremely probable, however, that instead of both trains being run over the whole of the main line each way each day, one train each day will run out from Montreal via the Pacific Coast, by way of Toronto, and thence by the new Toronto-Sudbury line to the main line, with a similar service eastward. By this means far better connection than in the past will be given to all C. P. R. territory east of Winnipeg. It has been stated from Winnipeg that the Imperial Limited is to be discontinued. This is not the case, but as the train will not be run as a limited train during the winter its name will be altered to the Eastern or Western Express, according to the direction it is traveling.

A further dispatch from Winnipeg says the Canadian Northern Railway will cut down its winter service to the head of the lakes to every alternate day.

ENTITLED TO REDUCTION.

Toronto, Oct. 1. — The court of appeal is today hearing the case of the city of Hamilton against the Cataract Power, Light and Traction Company, in which the latter is appealing from the decision of Judge Snider on arbitration, held that the city was entitled to a reduction under the terms of the contract of $15 per lamp per year on the contract price, the city being, as he held, entitled to the benefit of improvement. The case is still in progress.

ANGELIC WEEK OF PRAYER

Synod Approves of Plan Proposed by St. Andrew's Brotherhood.

Ottawa, Oct. 1. — At the General Synod of the Church of England in Canada, the motion to establish a second order of deacons was defeated by the lower house. The upper house concurred in the idea of a week of prayer during the first week in Advent as arranged by the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. The clause from the report on church union dealing with the Lambeth conference was eliminated. The uniformity of curriculum in theological colleges and schools was approved, and action will be taken in the matter.

It was stated that under the colonial clergy act, whenever a colonial clergyman preached in Britain, he was compelled by the law of that land to obtain a license from the Archbishop of Canterbury and York, and to subscribe to the Thirty-nine Articles before receiving it. Otherwise they were liable to a fine. It was recommended that a memorial be addressed to the prime of all England, asking that when their graces were officially notified of colonial clergy, they should be permitted to preach whenever he visited in England. This will be done.

EMINENT PHYSICIANS AND SCIENTIFIC MEN AGREE THAT IT SHOULD BE TREATED AS SUCH.

Drunkenness is a progressive disease; the moderate drinker is not satisfied with two or three drinks a day; the craving for more and more becomes irresistible as the disease advances; the result is Chronic Alcoholism.

The treatment used successfully by thousands right in their own homes is Orrine. It is a scientific cure for Drunkenness, and has given such universal satisfaction that it is sold under a positive guarantee to effect a cure or your money will be refunded. This guarantee is given in good faith and is carried out to the letter. Orrine is not a new remedy; it has been sold by the leading druggists in every city for years. It has lifted tens of thousands from the depths to worthy manhood and has the hearty endorsement of grateful men and women in every state in the Union.

Orrine No. 1 is the secret remedy; Orrine No. 2 is for those willing to take the treatment. Either form costs $1. The guarantee is the same in either case. Write to The Orrine Company, Washington, D.C. for free booklet on Drunkenness, mailed in plain sealed envelope. Orrine will be mailed sealed on receipt of price. Sold by leading druggists and in this city by C. M. Hallam & Co., corner Dundas and Richmond streets, London.

HAPPENINGS OF A DAY IN BUSY EAST LONDON.

MR. LEONARD ABBOTT WON THE GUESSING CONTEST.

Conducted by Mr. Lui Palladino, the Popular East End Clothier.

The bean-guessing contest, which has been in progress at the gentlemen's furnishing store of Mr. Lui Palladino in the Bourne Block on the Hamilton road east, has been completed, and Mr. Leonard Abbott, of Westminster, is the lucky man.

The beans were counted by Aid. Rose and found to number 1,080.

Mr. Abbott estimated more closely than any other, his guess being 1,065. Mr. W. Barney came second with 1,062, while the others ranged from $50 to 2,000.

A large number of witnesses were present at the count, which took place Wednesday evening. The competition was carried on during the month of September, and was very successful.

MR. GEORGE GRAHAM WAS CHOSEN PRESIDENT

Of the Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip, by Egerton Street Baptists.

The semi-annual election of officers for the Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip, of the Egerton street Baptist Church, was held last evening at a largely attended meeting.

The ex-president, Mr. George Graham, was elected by acclamation, and the pastor, Rev. A. J. Bowen, was elected honorary president. The following were the officers elected for the ensuing term:

Honorary President—Rev. A. J. Bowen.

President—George Graham.

Vice-President—Jas. Bailey.

Secretary—Fred Dunk.

Corresponding Secretary—Frank Mayne.

Treasurer—Leslie Sage.

Organist—H. Underwood.

The conveners of the committees are:

Look-Out Committee—John Tupholme.

Social Committee—Harvey Parkinson.

Devotional Committee—O. LePage.

Relief Committee—Frank Francis.

Bible Class Committee—Mr. Herron.

In a short address the president thanked the members for the honor and outlined the duties of the committees, officers and conveners.

FUNERAL OF MRS. GERALD FITZGERALD

Was Held This Morning to St. Peter's Cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Gerald Fitzgerald, who died on Wednesday, was held from St. Mary's Church to St. Peter's Cemetery at 9 o'clock this morning. The funeral mass was solemnized by Rev. Father Tobin, who also officiated at the grave.

Mrs. Fitzgerald was an esteemed resident of this city, and is survived by her aged husband and two sons, Thomas and John, and four daughters, Mrs. C. F. Needham and Mrs. Clifford Gregory, of this city; Mrs. John Hockin, of Red Deer, Alta., and Mrs. J. Hawthorne, of Toronto. The deceased was 73 years of age.

A SESSION OF UNION OF EPWORTH LEAGUES

Held Last Night in the Centennial Methodist Church.

A session of the Union of Epworth Leagues of London was held in the Centennial Methodist Church last evening, at which about 45 members were present, including the vice-presidents of the leagues who had received special invitations.

Mr. Wm. Courtes, president of the union, occupied the chair. The feature of the evening was a paper on the duties of the missionary vice-presidents and committees read by Miss Helen Tufts.

After the paper had been read, an open discussion was taken part in with regard to plans for the coming winter. Programmes will be arranged and missionary literature will be distributed.

Policeman Avoided Muffing This Brick

Walter Hughtlett, a young man who became intoxicated last night and wanted to insult everybody that passed him on the downtown streets, appeared before Magistrate Love this morning and was fined $10.

Hughtlett was making himself decidedly obnoxious when P. C. Taylor went to arrest him.

He saw the officer coming and immediately seized a big paving brick with the intention of throwing it. P. C. Taylor was too quick, however, and Hughtlett was given no chance to add to his crime by assaulting an officer.

James Navin, an Indian lister, who didn't know he was on the Indian list, was arrested for being drunk. Mr. Navin told a straight story to the effect that he had not been working

MR. THOMAS CONDRICK STRUCK BY A CAR

Was the Gentleman Who Was in the Accident Reported in Thursday's Advertiser.

It has been learned that Mr. Thos. Condrick, of 666 Elias street, was the gentleman who was struck by an Oxford car on Richmond street, and was reported in yesterday's Advertiser.

Mr. Condrick received an ugly gash on the head and was badly shaken up.

He was able to walk to a near-by drug store, where his injuries were attended to. Mr. Condrick was returning from St. Joseph's Hospital when the accident occurred.

A NOVEL WAY OF CATCHING A CULPRIT

Grand Trunk Railway Is After the Scalp of a Wrongdoer.

Notices have been posted up in the Grand Trunk offices in the East End asking all employees to keep a sharp look-out for the persons who held up the telegraph operator at Junction Cut on Wednesday night, relieving him of $20, while a revolver was held to his head.

The description given in the notice is of a man weighing 150 pounds, 5 feet 8 inches in height and wearing a black shirt and tie, light check coat, peak cap and dark-striped pants. He has either red or light hair and a red face.

The place where the hold-up occurred is a particularly lonely one, about two miles east of Hamilton, and is well-known to local railway men.

EAST END NOTES.

Special harvest Thanksgiving services will be conducted by Rev. Wm. Love, of St. Matthew's Episcopal Church, Pottersburg, on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Although he is still in very bad shape, Mr. Isaac Wheeler, of Lynedoch, who was clubbed and robbed in the east end Grand Trunk yards early on Thursday, left Victoria Hospital this morning to go to his sister's home in Port Huron.

His head is bandaged, his eyes being battered up badly. The beating he received has caused him to partly lose his hearing, although perhaps but temporarily.

When found by the railroad men he was rambling around the yards near Rectory street, and was in a dazed condition. He was first noticed by Switchman Jackson, but later, when he proceeded to enter the watchman's shanty, his condition was found to be serious.

He was placed on a bench, as he was very weak, and in a few seconds he lost consciousness. Although his money was taken, the hold-up man evidently did not notice that he carried a watch.

Mr. Jack Atkins, of the Hamilton road east, has left for Cincinnati, where he has accepted a position.

EDWARD A. AUST DEAD.

Leaves a Wife and Five Children in the East End.

The death occurred at his late residence, 511 King street, yesterday of Mr. Edward J. Aust from heart failure. He is survived by his wife and five children, two sons, George and William, both of this city, and three daughters, Misses Annie, Marie and Isabel.

The funeral will be held on Saturday morning at 9 o'clock to St. Peter's Cemetery.

TUTTLE-PRICE.

A Very Pretty Wedding in West London on Tuesday.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the Empress Avenue Methodist parsonage, No. 21, Andrew street, West London, on Tuesday afternoon, when Miss Jessie A. Pryce, of South Tuttle, was married to Mr. Richard Tuttle, of West London.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. W. Dewey, in the presence of a few friends. The happy couple were unattended. They will reside in this city.

"MOONEY" GIBSON IS A HERO IN WEST LONDON.

Great Ball Tosses Has a Host of Admirers in the Suburb.

Londons in general are taking a great deal of interest in the playing of "Mooney" Gibson in the Pittsburgh Nationals, but it is doubtful if the interest centres in any section of the city as it does in West London.

The work of the former West Londoner is being watched closely, and all fans wish him the heartiest success in the pennant race. Now that the winner is doubtful, every bulletin is watched closely, and each evening sees a contingent of anxious ones from the west scanning The Advertiser baseball bulletins.

WEST LONDONERS ARE NOT AFRAID OF FLOODS.

Breakwater Has Made Property There as Safe as Any in the City.

West Londoners are satisfied that they are now beyond the reach of spring freshets, and the coming of winter and spring is not troubling them. Since the breakwater had been erected they are confident, and this year there is no more speculation as to whether West London than there is at the public library.

There has been much building there this summer, and streets have been opened up within a stone's throw of the river bank. Land which had never been used for building purposes is now staked out in city lots, and with the protection afforded West London will soon be as thickly populated as the city itself.

OLD RESIDENT OF WEST LONDON IS DEAD.

Mr. Joseph Beckwith Passes Away After a Paralytic Stroke.

An old and esteemed resident of this city died last night at Victoria Hospital.

pital in the person of Mr. Joseph Beckwith, of 10 Carrothers avenue, West London. Mr. Beckwith recently suffered a paralytic stroke, and never recovered. He was 78 years old, and came to this city from the United States when a boy, and resided here ever since. Five daughters and two sons survive. Mrs. F. J. Doty, of Hamilton; Mrs. J. J. Wright, of Clinton, Mich.; Mrs. Harry Lindley, Mrs. H. Sharkey, of Petrolia; Mrs. W. M. Chiera, 487 Talbot street, this city; Mr. W. Beckwith, Leavenworth, Kansas, and Mr. Earl Beckwith, of Wyoming, U. S. The funeral will be held on Saturday afternoon from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. W. M. Chiera, 487 Talbot street, to Oakland Cemetery.

DUNDAS STREET BRIDGE. IS BEING IMPROVED.

By the London Street Railway Company—Gang of Men at Work.

The Dundas street bridge is being improved by the street railway company, as is also the tracking in that vicinity. A large number of men are working on the improvements, which are very noticeable, especially to the passenger.

Several split rails have been replaced as they would be dangerous in the winter months. Owing to the complaints made of the condition of the tracking on the West London line, it is said that the company intends putting it in better repair.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY HELD A MEETING.

In Kensington Methodist Church—Will Help To Furnish the Manse.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Kensington Methodist Church held a short session at the church yesterday afternoon, at which minor business was dealt with.

It was recommended that the members assist in furnishing the manse, as the minister, Rev. Mr. Anderson, has been in this city but a short time, having taken the position of Rev. L. B. Freeman when the latter was given a new field about the 1st of July.

A ple social will be held Monday evening, the proceeds to be used for the improvement of the church. A large number of members were present at the session.

WEST LONDON NOTES.

The parsonage of the Empress Avenue Methodist Church is undergoing some alterations.

Special anniversary services will be conducted at the Empress Avenue Methodist Church Sunday.

50,000 Persons Perished by Flood

Bombay, Oct. 2.—The correspondent of a local newspaper who has reached Hyderabad, the capital of the flooded district, described that city as a vast grave. The streets and bazars have been transferred into a grewsome mass of stone and mud and decomposed flesh. It is impossible accurately to estimate the death toll in the stricken region, the correspondent declares, but some natives put it as high as 50,000. Six hundred corpses were taken out of the mud at one spot yesterday. The funeral pyres are burning day and night. The damage is estimated at 200,000,000 roubles.

Crack Rugby Players Are Back Again

Corp. Raymond has arrived at Wolseley Barracks from Halifax, having been transferred to the local corps.

This will be good news to the local Rugby fans, as Corp. Raymond is one of the fastest and gamiest players that has been connected with the London team in years. He is fast on his feet, a splendid tackler, and can hit the line like a pile-driver. Last year he won several on games by his brilliant work.

He will make a great running mate with Dewitt, and when this pair hit the line something is going to happen. Corp. Raymond will play with the intermediates tomorrow. He is in good shape for a hard contest.

Local Items

—A building permit was issued by City Engineer Graydon this morning to Mr. A. Dickinson, for the erection of a story and a half brick dwelling on Hill street, near Clarence.

Jumped the Track.

The Grand Trunk auxiliary was called to Mount Brydges this morning, where a car jumped the track at a switch. No damage was done and the car was speedily replaced.

Still in Hospital.

Engineer Harry McHarg, who was injured in the wreck on the Grand Trunk, at Clarkson, is still in the hospital at Toronto, and it is not expected that he will be brought home for several weeks as a skin-grafting operation has been found necessary.

Successful Concert.

The concert given by the Boys' Home Mission Club in the lecture-room of Knox Church last evening was an immense success. This was the first concert the boys have given, and a large crowd was in attendance. An excellent programme was presented, in which the Kensington Boys' Club took a prominent part. Among the number were addresses, dialogues, readings and some very pleasing musical selections. After the concert the boys of both clubs sat down to a dainty luncheon prepared by the girls of Knox Sunday School.

Your Daily Dinner.

The citizens of London will be glad to know that the London Quick Lunch and Restaurant, of 201 Dundas street, will, commencing tomorrow, serve a noon-day dinner at regular prices. This meal should prove to be one of the most popular served in the city, as it is in the aim of the proprietor to serve the best of everything.

TOO MANY LANE HORSES

Cause of Complaint Must Be Removed or Action Will Follow.

A well-attended meeting of the Quabity Organization and Humane Society was held in the city hall yesterday afternoon, Mr. H. E. Gates presiding. The different charges were presented by the inspector, who submitted an interesting report of the society's work during the summer months. He stated that compared with the reports which had come in from other points in Canada and the United States, industrial conditions in London had, in his opinion, been fairly good during the summer months.

Although nothing like as prosperous as the summers of previous years, the inspector gave the details of 27 of the more important cases with which he had dealt, and all received the careful consideration of the board. Several cases of cruelty to animals were also reported, having been investigated and attended to by the inspectors. An unusual large number of complaints have been received recently about people working very poor lane horses. All such are warned that action will be taken against them unless all cause for complaint is removed.

Mr. Thompson Walton has returned to Toronto again to pursue his studies at the School of Practical Science.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Roos, of this city, are visiting relatives in Waterloo.

Mrs. V. A. Brown and daughters, who have resided at their cottage on Holiday Farm, Port Stanley, for the past season, returned home to London yesterday.

NAVIES SAID TO BE IN FIGHT AT CRUMLIN

Row Which May Find Its Way Into the Courts.

It has been reported in the east end that a number of the Italian navies who until recently resided on Rectory street engaged in a fierce fight a few nights ago at Crumlin, where they are working for a contractor. It is said that the matter will be brought into the courts, as one of the Italians is said to be in a serious condition as the result of a blow on the neck.

It is no known what caused the row, but anyone who knew what had happened four sons of Italy were mixing it up fiercely. According to the story one man drew his stiletto, and proceeded to attack another, evidently with the intention of using it for what he believed it was made. A third, seeing that his friend was in danger, rushed up and struck the assailant a heavy blow on the neck with a club. The fight was ended, for it was thought that the man's neck was broken. The case will likely be settled in the court.

LANE GOES TO PITTSBURG

Will Tell Why He Refused to Let Harry Thaw Go.

White Plains, N. Y., Oct. 2.—Sheriff Lane, of Westchester County, who yesterday refused to comply with an order from Judge Archibald, of the United States court in Pittsburgh, to produce Harry K. Thaw for examination in that court, has been directed himself to appear before that court. The sheriff said today that he will respect the latest order, and with his personal counsel will go to Pittsburgh to appear before Judge Archibald tomorrow. It is expected that he will be questioned at that time concerning his refusal to comply with the order directing him to take Thaw to the Pennsylvania city. Sheriff Lane's action of yesterday was taken upon the advice of Attorney General Jackson, who advised him not to permit Thaw to leave this state until it had been determined by law whether he could be compelled to do so.

SIX DIE IN COLLISION

An Ohio Excursion Train Bumped by a Freight.

Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 1.—Six lives were lost as a number of persons were injured in a collision tonight, when a Toledo and Ohio Central passenger train carrying an excursion crowd from Bowling Green fair into Toledo was run into from the rear at Sugar Ridge by a freight train.

The dead are: Richard Radeout, Sugar Ridge; Joe Gasler, Sugar Ridge; J. F. McCroly, Toledo; J. G. Boyd, East Toledo; Stonebridge, of Bumbidge; one unidentified man.

Up to a late hour only four bodies had been recovered from the wreck. The rear car of the excursion train was telescoped and two others were jammed together.

The excursion train stopped, it is said, because of a hot-box. Whether a flagman was sent back to warn the approaching freight has not been ascertained. A wrecking train and crew from Toledo is at work rescuing the bodies.

WIRELESS TELEPHONY

Remarkable Results Secured by British Naval Experiments.

London, Oct. 3.—Dr. Lee de Forest, working under instructions from the admiralty, has just concluded very successful tests of wireless telephony between warships off Portsmouth. Dr. de Forest operated the transmitter on board the cruiser Furious, while Mrs. de Forest was at the receiver on the schooner Vernon, both of which vessels steamed at full speed 50 miles apart. As a result of the tests, Admiral Gamble, who superintended the experiments, has recommended that the admiralty install two complete sets of instruments.

Dr. de Forest said tonight: "We talked at a distance of 50 knots, the longest authenticated record. The accuracy of the system really surprised me, especially when I consider the fact that we suffered atrocious interference from wireless telegraphy. Furthermore, on board the Vernon they were testing condensers with a big spark two rooms from our receiver. Our tests consisted mostly of repeating New York stock quotations. Out of 154 figures there were only two mistakes. Wireless telephony will be established between Paris and New York within five years."

A BALKAN WAR CLOUD

Bulgaria's Seizure of Oriental Railway Causes Serious Crisis.

Berlin, Oct. 2.—The Lokal Anzeiger's Constantinople correspondent has had an interview with Tewfik Pasha, the Turkish minister, on the subject of the controversy between Bulgaria and Turkey, which is regarded as having taken a serious turn in consequence of Russia's note demanding the giving up of that portion of the Oriental Railway that Bulgaria recently seized. In the course of the interview the foreign minister said:

"Russia has taken energetic steps against Sofia in regard to the matter. In fact so much foreign capital is invested in the Oriental Railway, its seizure was really robbery, but the restoration of former conditions will prove a hard task for the powers. Regarding the independence of Bulgaria, there is no hurry. Turkey will take up this subject from a legal standpoint, which the powers also recognize."

DISCHARGED TOO SOON

Cholera Patients Leave St. Petersburg Hospital Carrying Germs.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 2.—A conflict has arisen between General Drachievski, prefect of St. Petersburg, and the municipal sanitary commission over the premature discharge of cholera patients from the city hospitals. As soon as the attention of the prefect was called to the danger of infection from this course he issued an order that all patients be detained until the cholera germs had completely disappeared. The members of the commission declare this course to be impracticable so long as the epidemic continues to rage.

Experiments are being conducted at several of the hospitals with a new anti-cholera serum discovered by an Italian named Serimber, but so far the result has not been conclusive. A case of cholera has been discovered among the main guard at the residence of Premier Stolypin.

Newspaper Libel Case of Unusual Interest Decided in Berlin Court.

Berlin, Oct. 1.—A libel action of unusual interest to the newspaper fraternity and the public generally was tried at the assizes here this morning before Chancellor Boyd and a jury, when Bartholomew Dingle sought to recover $1,000 damages from S. Stevenson, publisher of the Chatham Planet. The action is based on an article sent out from St. Catharines last July, referring to Mr. Dingle's negotiating for the purchase of Michael Kane's grocery store. The article, which was widely published, subsequent events showed to be erroneous and apologies were promptly made. Similar actions were instituted against the Stratford Beacon and London Free Press, the Brantford Courier, the Woodstock Express and the three Toronto evening papers, but settlements were made in all cases except the present action and that against the Evening Telegram, which is pending.

After the presentation of the case by Chancellor Boyd, the jury retired and shortly after returned a verdict awarding Dingle $25. The verdict carries costs.

JUST EMPTY SHELLS

Ethel Barrymore Says Harsh Things of American Society Girls.

Chicago, Oct. 1.—A dispatch to the Tribune from St. Louis, says:
"Ethel Barrymore, the actress, whose entry into the best of American and English society is unquestioned, made the astonishing declaration in an interview yesterday that the moralless, brainless and purposeless order of things in the world constitute the elite society of America. She expressed the opinion that the reason international marriages with American society girls have proved a failure is because the brides haven't enough mentality, culture, education and serious purpose to interest the foreign noblemen or to meet the requirements of the situation they find there."

"There is no occasion for brains in our society, at least not in that in New York, which I have seen, and consequently girls don't prepare themselves or cultivate their capacities."
"The woman of wealth are merely selfish and pigish, and are merely content with comfortable living quarters, a good dinner, a little poker or bridge, or a rapid automobile or two. They are empty shells and perfectly meaningless and useless to the country."

Courts are a great expense to New York City. The jurors alone last year cost $415,168. The year before the cost was $321,293.

this week. They will be missed by a large circle of friends."

Brantford Is Progressing.

Brantford Express: "Brantford is to have a pawnshop. Mr. S. Fox has decided to hang out a three-ball sign in this city. Mr. Fox is a London man and incidentally it may be mentioned that he went through the San Francisco earthquake."

Making Safer Crossings.

By order of the railway commissioners, who passed over the line recently, the Southwestern Traction Company are removing all the plank crossings on the line between St. Thomas and Port Stanley, and putting in gravel crossings instead, which are considered much safer.

wards, Mr. Maurice Poure, Mr. W. A.
Bluetner, Mr. Charles E. Wheeler, and also Cortese's orchestra of fifteen pieces. Tickets sell at 25, 50 and 75 cents.

Woolatt—Anderson.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bridgeman, 639 Wellington street, last night, when Miss Mabel A. Anderson was married to Mr. William R. Woolatt, of Walkerville. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends, by Rev. W. L. Rutledge. The bride was given away by her uncle, Dr. W. F.
Roome. Mr. and Mrs. Woolatt will reside in Walkerville, and left last night on a trip for points west.

This Is Great.

Woodstock Sentinel: "Strawberries
ripening at the first of October in a Woodstock garden is a rather singular occurrence. Mr. Thomas Shrimpton, of the College, the well-known gardener, has a patch of strawberries that are now ripening. The patch is of rather small dimensions, however.
Last night Mr. Shrimpton picked sufficient of the berries for tea. The berries were large, well-matured and luscious. Many of the plants are now in bloom, while the berries on some are in the green state. The berries are a new variety and the plants have no trailing vines. The plants bear all the year around, it is said, if they are protected from the frost."

Death of Mrs. Groves.

An old and esteemed resident of this city died yesterday at the family residence, 219 A. street, in the person of Mrs. Bridget Groves, widow of the late
J. Groves. Mrs. Groves was in her 90th year and had lived in London for a long time. The funeral will be held on Saturday morning to St. Peter's Cathedral, interment being made at St.
Peter's Cemetery.

MR. MCANDLESS NAMED

As the Candidate of the Independent Labor Party.

Mr. J. W. McAndless, a local painter, was last night nominated by the Independent Labor party as their candidate for the federal election in London.

There were several other names proposed, but McAndless was chosen by a close vote. It is understood that his candidature is contingent upon financial matters, and an effort will be made to raise a fund to pay his expenses.

Who Are Treated in Victoria Hospital —Matter Will Be Taken Up Shortly.

The agreement between the city and county councils for the maintenance of county patients at Victoria Hospital expires in December next.

As a result a committee will be appointed by the county council at its special meeting on Monday next to take the matter up with the city council, and a new agreement will be drafted.

It is understood that the present agreement will be amended, and that the county will be asked to contribute a little more to the support of county patients than formerly. The expenses of such an institution have increased greatly during the past decade.

visit of the grand master of Ontario,
Mr. Morris, of Rodney.

Dr. H. A. Stevenson occupied the chair. The past masters of the city were present, and a number of new candidates were initiated by a special degree team composed of D. G. M. S.
Carrouthers and Armistage, and Past
Masters Stevenson, Stephens, Foreman
Bro. John J. Dalton, Overseer Bro.
Thomas Hallam, P. M. W. Bro. Nichols, Guide Bro. Fred McMillan. An address was delivered by Past Master Morris, of Rodney, on "The Benefits and Advantages of the Society of United Workmen." Past Master Gibson, of Ingersoll, also gave a witty address on the merits of the order.

Grand Organizer C. D. Robinson submitted plans for the coming winter, and also for increasing the membership.
