Frank Williams Informs the Whitney, Nebraska. Police Guns Were Stolen From Him.

New York, June 16 .- The federal espionage act of 1917, authorizing seizure and confiscation of arms or munitions intended for illegal exportation, will be applied to the machine guns seized by customs officials on the steamship East Side, and believed to have been destined for Ireland. ireland. The shipment is now held by Hoboken police on a search warrant.

This was made known today, when attorneys representing the Government appeared in recorder's court in Hoboken for a hearing. The proceedings were delayed, however, until later in the day to permit attorneys to determine whether the act had been repealed in whole or in part. The hearing, it was expected, would determine whether the 495 machine guns and hundreds of parts would revert to Frank Williams, who claims they were stolen from him, or go to the custody of customs officials.

Private investigations were in full Private investigations were in full swing to determine how the arms and ammunition got on the ship, and to whom the shipment was consigned. Members of the crews which served on the ship were questioned to ascertain if possible the identity of the parties alleged to have sinuggled them aboard in the night in the guise of supplies.

France's Financial Policy One of Drastic Economy

Paris, June 16.—Consolidation of loans, no more new issues of bank notes, no more extraordinary credits and the inauguration of economies of the most drastic nature, comprise the financial policy of the French Government. The guiding principles of this policy were outlined before the Chamber of Deputies finance committee by M. Doumer, minister of finance, yesterday, the minister remarking that the budget for 1922 had been cut from twenty-six billion francs to twenty-three billion francs.

He estimated the revenues for the year covered by the budget would be only seventeen billion, but expressed the hope the deficit might be made up from the proceeds of the national defence bonds now being issued, the sale of war stocks, customs and the war profit tax. If these proved insufficient, M. Doumer declared, he was in favor of a substantial increase of the tax on both turnovers.

This became known late today, when the Hoboken police clashed with the customs men over possession of the arms. The guns finally were taken to Hoboken police headquarters. According to Chief of Police Hayes of Hoboken, the arms were seized yesterday by the federal agents. This morning, he said, a man giving the name of Frank Williams appeared in recorder's court and swore out a search-warrant claiming the weapons.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abund-ance of rich, creamy lather, cleanes thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. SIX FIREMEN KILLED AND TEN INJURED IN CRASH WITH EXPRESS

The bodies of Mrs. Routledge and three of the children were found in the cellar, but the remains of the fourth child have apparently been entirely consumed by the flames. An inquest will be held, when it is expected there will be some startling developments.

According to reports the fire broke out when the members of the family were asleep, and it was only with the greatest difficulty that Mr. Routledge, his remaining child and sister-in-law escaped. Fire Truck Collided With Train At Railway Crossing in Perth Amboy.

SAFETY GATES OPEN

Some Firemen Thrown Under Wheels of Fast-Moving Train.

BRANTFORD, June 15.—"Not guilty," was the verdict returned by the county court jury in the charge of extortion laid against Herschel and Howard Swayzie, father and son, who were charged with endeavoring to secure $5,000 from a well-known local woman by means of a threatening letter. Handwriting experts were called in over letters submitted in evidence, and W. H. Brewster, K.C., for the defence, asked that the case be taken from the jury for lack of evidence. Judge Hardy allowed it to continue, however, with a verdict returned for the defence.

PERTH AMBOY, N. J., June 15.—Six firemen were killed and ten others injured, when a fire truck crashed into a tender of a Barnegat express at the Market street crossing of the Central Railway at New Jersey at 5:50 o'clock this evening. The firemen, members of the Eagle Hose and Chemical Company, a volunteer organization, were on their way to a small warehouse fire when the accident happened.

At 40 Miles An Hour.

Fire department officials declared to night that the safety gates at the crossing were not down when the express, bound from Jersey City to Barnegat and traveling at the rate of more than 40 miles an hour, hove into sight. The driver of the motor truck, also driving at a fast clip, tried frantically to avoid the collision, witnesses said, but crashed into the tender of the fast-moving train. The firemen on the truck were thrown to the ground and some of them fell beneath the wheels of the train, being instantly killed. The injured were rushed to the Perth Amboy Hospital.

Engineer A. S. Going In Arbitration Proceedings Quotes $46,000,000.

MONTREAL, June 15 .- Montreal grade separation for the Grand Trunk with the proposed new Bonaventure station broke into the Grand Trunk arbitration proceedings this afternoon with some emphasis, when A. S. Going, engineer ot construction for the Grand Trunk, was called by government counsel to testify regarding the cost of such separation during the coming twenty years. The cost was figured at $15,000,000. In Toronto somewhat similar plans would involve a cost of $29,000,000, of which involve a cost of $29,000,000, of which the Grand Trunk's share would be about $11,000,000. Including London, Ontario, Detroit, Mich., South Bend, Indiana and Chicago, the grade separation would cost in all about $46,000,000. He thought none of this work would start before two or three years' time.

Mr. Going's evidence was still being heard when the board adjourned until itemorrow.

Four Women Still Held in Connection With Kaber Murder Case.

CLEVELAND, O.. June 15.—A diamond ring and watch owned by Daniel F. Kaber, which are said to have been turned over to one of his assassins by his widow, Mrs. Eva Katherine Kaber, as part payment for his murder, have been located by the police and it was predicted the articles would be in their possession within a few hours.

The police refused to say whether the ring and watch are still in possession of one of the four men said to have been hired to commit the murder, for which Mrs. Kaber, Mrs. Bickel, her mother, Miss Marian McArdle, her daughter, and Miss Erminia Colvito, a midwife, are under indictment.

Mrs. Colvito declared the two articles were given to the man by Mrs. Kaber in her presence, according to the police. The four men under indictment were the only ones being held early today in connection with the murder. The fifth woman, who had been in custody since Friday, was released late last night after being questioned by County Prosecutor Stanton and Chief of Police Smith.

CHATHAM, June 15 .- A deputation vaited on the county council this morning asking for a grant in aid of the nemorial wing to the Chatham Genmemorial wing to the Chattam General Hospital. The question was referred to the finance committee to report this session. While no definite sum was asked for by the deputation it is believed that if the grant is made it will be at least $25,000. The city council recently made a grant of one mill on the city assessment, amounting approximately to $15,000, to the two local hospitals, and as 68 per cent of the patients cared for at the General last year were from outside the city, it is thought the county will make a grant of at least one-half milk or a sum of about $25,000. A short session was held this afternoon after which the members went out to Cedar Springs to inspect the gravel site.

A deputation from the city and on the provincial highway in the vicinity of this city. As yet no work of any consequence had been done on the

Also impervious to gasoline under pressure of 180 lbs. per square inch continued for thirteen weeks. Furthermore, when the mortar was broken up, it had not even an odor of gasoline, proving that SUPER CEMENT was absolutely non-absorbent and, therefore, completely waterproof.

An Ideal Country.

"New Zealand," asserted Mr. Halliday, "is in my honest opinion, second only to Canada as an ideal country to live in. My impressions were decidedly contradictory of Australia. New Zealand's population is on the land. It has an assured rainfall. A crop failure is absolutely unknown. Like our abattons. New Zealand has its freezing works all over the island near the coast, and cattle are butchered and shipped at a minimum cost. It is a wonderful little island, but no place for one who desires a gay time. A feature of New Zealand is its high standard of citizenship. Immigrants have always been carefully selected, and 95 per cent of the people are British descent of the best possible type, and they are out on the land, raising the primary products.

"Absolutely the worst in the world, was the speaker's blunt opinion of Australian politics. "They have a labor government," he continued, "but how a labor government survives is more than I can understand. The country is highly unionized, and the unions are controlled by a certain disturbing element of Britishers who come out primarily as Socialists and are allowed to get on a soap box and shout on everything under the sun. Everyone is organized from sheep shearers to insurance canvassers, and in the finish they cleeted a labor administration."

ganized from sheep shearers to insurance canvassers, and in the finish they elected a labor administration."

Citing an example of Australia's labor representatives Mr. Halliday referred in no uncertain manner to Premier Ryan of Queensland, who he said, when in England on the state's business felt it necessary to visit De Valera in Ireland. As premier, he said, Ryan undertook to co-operate with Archbishop Mannix in unholy alliance to unite the Sinn Fien and labor votes to trim Premier Hughes. The latter he explained, although a former dock worker and inclined to socialism, split with the party on the conscription bill, and although the latter was defeated he himself was sustained.

"To be candid," stated Mr. Halliday. "I was not much impressed with South Africa." Too much has been depended on the diamond mines and cultivation or other pursuits has been little heeded. During the war South Africa was offered the same wheat contract as afforded Australia by Britain, which was rejected, as many of the Dutch still hold their old distrust of the British.

Touching on the last South Africa melection, the speaker noted the difference in the labor party from that in Australia. "The Labor party," he asserted, "deliberately sacrificed themselves and placed principle before politics to thwart the radicals. The trouble is not over yet, however. There is little immigration there, and the time will come when the Dutch will outnumber the Britishers."

At Wednesday afternoon's session of the conference a committee was formed to secure nominations from the leading boards of trade from the fourteen counties of Western Ontarlo for the club Constitution and bylaws will be drafted, and the committee will report at the next meeting on July 15. Brantford will probably be chosen for the gathering: the president of the chamber of commerce of that city has sent his letter of invitation,

KEEP THEM IN HAND.

The behavior of the parliamentary majority in supporting Mr. Meighen's usurpation of power during the past year is enough to make honest and sensible Canadians consider seriously the plan of "recall." This plan is doubtless bound up with a view of the member of Parliament as a delegate rather than a representative.

It has been the usual thing in recent times to call the members "our representatives." They are empowered to stand in our place, and to some extent use their own judgment or follow the judgment of their leaders in doing what is "in the best interests of as Mr. Meighen would say. But that was not the original idea of the matter. The British Parliament was in its beginnings and for long after an assembly of delegates sent to Westminster for a Lort time under instructions which they were not expected to exceed. It is really not possible for intelligent, informed, self-governing citizens to be "represented" by anybody. They really do not want someone to stand for them, at any rate not for a space of five years, in these times of complex and rapidly changing conditions.

It would be well, then, if Canadian members of Parliament would consider themselves as delegates rather than representatives. They should be bound by the instructions contained in the platform on which yielding to the call of one's task. To consecrate the never they were elected, with an occasional referendum to the electorate on new points, and the recall by the constituency when a member flagrantly violates the confidence reposed in him as a delegate.

AGRICULTURAL REPRESENTATION

It is certainly to be regretted that the Middlesex Council at its last session turned down the appeal which was made for a grant of $500 towards the representative of the Ontario Department of Agri- hours. culture for the county of Middlesex has not been in a position to adequately overtake the work pertaining to such a large area, and in order that this might be remedied the department approved of the division asked. It all depends upon who is handling it, of the county into two districts, the one office being in London, as at present, and the other, probably, in Strathrov

During the past winter the short courses conducted at Ailsa Craig and other centers under the direction of the local agricultural representative were a decided success, and in some instances so many pupils came forward that it was found necessary to engage larger halls than those originally assigned Through the spraying of fruit trees, the selection of fertilizers, the help extended in dafrying, and in the raising of pure-bred stock, thousands of dollars have loan in New York has converted it into a sinking fund. been saved to the farmers, and a parsimonious policy in connection with the proposed extension of the work is far from encouraging to the small staff at present bearing the burden.

It is pointed out that the Lincoln County Council a few days ago voted a supplementary sum of $1,000 to the work of the department, one-half of which was to be used towards the support of another agricultural representative $200 for an increase in the present representative's salary, and the remaining $300 to assist in the maintenance of Lincoln's agricultural bureau. Although Lincoln County is only about onethird the size of Middlesex, it is evidently willing and able to support double the staff.

LONDON PAST AND PRESENT.

The city of London has been long enough in existence to have a history of its own, and it seems a pity that monuments which mark the pathway of time should be torn up and consigned to the rubbish heap, number, or else doomed to have their identity still more effectively lost by being utilized as material for some modern structures as these, but there are in our midst buildings the removal of which mean the snapping of links with the pioneer past, and, if it were only to furnish material for object lessons for future generations, no landmark of this description should be swept away with out due consideration of its historic value.

The removal of the old greystone mansion on the Beattie estate on the Wortley road is a case in point. It seems a pity that such a fine example of the early domestic architecture should be abandoned and consigned to the wreckers. "The auld hoose" was built in the year that Victoria ascended the throne, a little over a decade from the time that Peter Macgregor erected his primitive shack at the "Forks." Its stones were well and truly laid, its timbers securely bound together, and it might have stood for many a century more, but for the fact that the spirit of material progress ordained its destruction.

May we suggest that London should not only pause ere the doom of any such link with the past is decreed, but that it should call a halt in the disfigurement and obliteration of the natural features of the less than 200 yards above the enemy's creed, but that it should call a halt in the disfigurecity, particularly along the banks of the River Thames. Once these features are lost they can never be recalled, no matter what efforts may be made to convert plished, even with his machine riddled dumping grounds into green embankments and to camouflage factories by planting trees. Anyone who what he (Galliwan) replied to the takes the trouble to consult one of the early pictures did you do during the war?" of the city will realize what London has lost in her race for material prosperity. She may reach the goal of her commercial ambition, but she will always regret having ignored the golden apples of refinement and beauty that lie in her path.

MORNING FACES.

The Lord of Love came from above

The joy of a waiting task, the sense of fitness to face the day's toil, preparedness for unexpected tests on resourcefulness and patience, have given a dignity and beauty to the morning faces that pass hurriedly along the various ways to business in the early hours

However the beauty of a summer world beckons the and allures, the call of Labor insists with an attraction strangely undeniable, perhaps because it holds in its keeping great factors in the soul's discipline

To yield one's best to the business of life is to To yield one's best to the business of life is to Now we've solved it. Admiral Sims have found a well-worn, friendly path to peace and and Col. Harvey must have inhaled content. To return at evening with a sense of tasks some of the gas invented by the Toronto doctor which makes people tell the well done is to have gathered unsuspected beauty and strength from the common toil of a common day

Your greenness, and your cleanness. Some of your shade, some of your sky, Some of your calm as I pass by; Your flowers to trim the pavements grim Your space for room in the jostled street And grass for carpet to my feet. . .

It is thus Helen Hoyt gathers the beauties available on the way to work, to arm against a too dutiful day to faithful toil and to take every opportunity along the way to gather dream pictures for soft intrusion when one is too apt to become absorbed in a onethought routine, is to know the joy that blends beauty with toil and makes the wonder of morning faces.

To garrison one's mind in leisure hours with the wonder of the hidden thought in the mystery of a ished and replaced by different strucwayside flower, and the rhythmic poetry of a sway-ing leaf, to lift one's face for a brief moment from ing leaf, to lift one's face for a brief moment from the pavement grey to the tenderness of a summer suarded. sky, is to have fitted oneself unconsciously for the the matter of agricultural representation. maze of business and the exaction of labor. HEALTH AND HOUSING.

[Montreal Star.]
There is convincing proof that bad housing is distinctly detrimental to health. Most lamentable housing conditions are to be found in this city. Dur-ing the influenza epidemic human bengs were found huddled together in hovels whose unsanitary state was a disgrace to any civilized community. Tuberculosis patients were taken from these terrible places to the hospitals. It is in appalling conditions such as these that contagious diseases are nurtured and spread all over the city.

The inhumanity of tolerating slums must be apparent to all. Slum houses are more deadly than war; their menace never ceases. No matter how perfect health laws may be they must be more or less abortive while disease-breeding slum quarters are permitted to exist. It is interesting to note that in various cities the enactment of laws determi ing what kind of houses shall be rented, has struck directly at slums; the owners of these places promptly discovered that they were illegal and had to be demolof a community cannot be too jealously

CHURCH UNION CARRIES.
[Montreal Heraid]

The vote at the Presbyterian General Assembly for union with the Methodist and Congregational churches in Canada was pretty emphatic as far as majority goes, but this is a matter where the views of the majority cannot be overbearing without danger of grave injury to the church. There is a percentage of members preferring union with the Anglicans and it is asserted that one result of the vote will be to drive them into that communion. In the synod which includes Montreal, about 30 percent of the votes cast went against union.

cent of the votes cast went against union.

The growing influence of the West is observable in the result. There organic union is already an accomplished fact in a great many of the townships and the people are strongly in favor of applying their practice to the whole country. Of 202 Western votes only 24 were cast against union.

The agitation against union will not abate because of the large majority in the assembly 'in favor of it, as it is claimed there is no mandate from the people, or if there is, that it is six years old and lacking present authority. In any event the consummation of the decision cannot be brought about until the lapse of about three years, owing to the need of legislation and various legal preliminaries.

SPRACHLIN—GOODMAN.

An attractive wedding was held yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Goodman of Charles street when their daughter Ethel Madeline became the bride of Mr. George S. Sprachlin of Toronto, the Rev. George Dewey of the Empress Avenue Methodist Church officiating. The bride presented a very charming picture in her gown of white duchess satin with overdress of georgette, conventional veil and orange blossoms, and shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and sweet boas. Attending her was Miss Anne Goodman, her sister, who was modishly attired in a suit of white glove silk, picture hat and carried Sunset roses, while Mr. T. S. Jones, also of this city, supported the groom. Miss Hilda Smith, in a gown of pink rose tricolette and hat to match, played the wedding march, and the mother of the bride was attired in a suit of white gabardine with grey trimmings, a white hat, and wore crimson roses.

Delotelle popped to Gray, and was talled out on an infield fly. Gray allowed the ball to tall, then shot to Hayford as Crichlow raced home. Hayford did not tag the runner, believing it a forced play. The infield fly relieved the forced play, however, and Crichlow was called safe. Stutz hit Shay home with a short fly back of second. Then McDonald replaced churlow and retired Vandyke on a foul. andyke on a foul, Brigers' Homer.

Briger hit for the circuit in the sixth, while a brace of blows, pass and sacrifice added two others in the eighth. Malmquest strolled to open it. Crichlow beat out a bunt ahead of the plate, and Shay sacrificed. Briger's swat to left scored Malmquest, and Crichlow hustled in when McDonald fielded Delotelle's bounder too slowly. Gray's single, Emmer's sacrifice, an out and wild pitch gave the Vehics a run in the first. Two errors, pass and two singles added two in the fourth, while three singles, an overthrow of first by Delotelle, stolen base and forceout turned in a pair in the fifth.

One local dealer paid 20c a crate, wholesale, but they were of extra good quality. Eggs took a slight drop, selling at 28c

As You Were

During 1920 and 1921, the United States hoped to make a clean-sweep of all sporting events from polo to pinochle.

A number of events remain to be decided, the biggest of these being next Saturday's polo match at Hurlingham, and the Dempsey-Carpentier match on July 4.

The recent invasion of Yankee golf and net stars ended disastrously. Saturday's polo match if won by England, will put Europe decidedly ahead, and a Carpentier victory would about give the old scale a bump.

If Carp has to pay $115,000 out of his $200,000 end of the purse, Mme. Carpentier is afraid there will be nothing left for her and Jacqueline, if she still sticks to thinking in francs, the remainder ought to allow them a coupla weeks' holiday at the worst.

She can't feel any worse about the whole tax business than Jacques Kearns does. Uncle Sam takes half of Jack's share of the swag. Babe Ruth, yesterday, with 23 home runs was 16 days ahead of his 1920 schedule. Many a good old freight has struck a spreading rail in that length of time.

Sagamore. This gee goes for all the kale over 'ome—at Hottawa. Also for your information I might add that 'Wee Tommy' Francis has the agent down from Maine to California. If you need it any stronger than that go help yourself to the mustard. This is one place to set in the works. Sister Emblem and Trusty for what is left. The opening spasm at the Canadian track looks like a good place for Loveliest to earn brackets. She is on edge. The Nevada entry has a slight call for what is left.

Woodruff which was backed througout the country last time. Is dropped into a nice snug spot. It looks like "little puff of smoke! Good night." Betting on Ablaze to cop the winner's portion of the third spasm looks like taking an unfair advantage of the bookies. This maverick should be able to fall down and roll overthen be first to catch the judge's gye. Pretty tight fit between Chasseur and Madge F. The latter is extragood. But when both were at the best it was always Chasseur on the payoff end.

Down at Death Valley the word sent along by the work-watchers is Inquisition. Now this trick worked a quarter in :23, and three-eighths in :3344-5 with his mouth wide open. True, they did bet on him last time, that bedden it was in the mud. The Vic Fleming's Drive Took First Two Reels-Red Bearer in 2:12.

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich., June 15.—
The third day's racing at Clinton View Park was held under fair skies with a fast track and large attendance. The racing was the best of the week and all events were closely contested.

The feature event of the day, the 2:17 trotting stake, was won by Vic Fleming, the Canadian driver, with his good mare, Belle Coronado, from a high-class field. The 2:12 pace was the scene of a mixup on the first turn when Windsor Todd and Judge Ormonde got in a tangle, but were placed by the judges. The split heat event of the day was the 2:22 trot and finally resulted in a victory for Little Rena after four heats of close racing.

Ledoux has fights booked with Joe Lynch, the world's bantam-weight champion, and Jack Sharkey of New York. He will bring with him a silk tri-color sash of the French colors of blue, white and red, knitted by Madame Carpentier, the French heavyweight champion's wife, which he will wear as a belt in his fight with Jack Dempsey, the world's champion. Attached to the parcel is a letter from Madame Carpentier of affectionate encouragement. Scrawled across the envelope is a ragged row of unsteady 'X's' for kisses, printed by the chubby hand of little Jacqueline, Carpentier's daughter.

With the exception of Battling Ghee, the heavy weight from Memphis, all of the sparring mates in camp were in a battered up condition when Demipsey stopped training and they welcomed the chance to recuperate. ORME AFFAIR IS A BASEBALL PRECEDENT

First In Which a Party Thereto Was Out of Jurisdiction of U.S.

SAGINAW, Mich., June 15,—Judge M. Landis, commissioner of baseball, ruling on the George Orme case in Michigan-Ontario League, against Carpentier this afternoon, but a veteran buck private of the war, was an honored guest.

The crowd at the front gate was larger than usual, and although the county policeman on duty had strict or orders to keep out friends and treat all alike, the men of wealth, residents of the immediate neighborhood, drew up in their sport automobiles and talked their way through the portal. Georges was doing only light work, but he wanted privacy and when they appeared at the symnasium entrance he stopped.

"Gentlemen." he said, "I do not want to be bothered: please leave the camp."

Escorted by Manager Descamps, they departed. Shortly afterward there came to the front gate a youth of 20 years with the left sleeve of his olived frab uniform coat tucked in a pocket.

"Bring him in," said Georges, when he heard of the ex-soldier's arrival.

The youth, a former machine gunner, had walked all the way from Troy, N. Y., to pay his visit.

Atlantic City, N. J., June 16.—After a four-days layoff, Jack Dempsey resumed training today with the prospects of continuing his grind without further interruption until the windup two weeks from tomorrow.

CARPENTIER EXPECTED TO MOTOR TO ARENA

Manhasset, N. Y., June 16.—Georges Carpentier probably will remain in his training camp until a few hours before the fight with Dempsey on July 2 and go by motor to the arena.

Definite plans for the order of procedure on the day of the bout have not been completed, but it is certain that the challenger will stay behind his high board Tence as long as possible. One plan under consideration was to take Carpentier to Jersey City on the morning of July 2, rent rooms in a quiet hotel and remain until time for the bout. In event this idea is carried out the camp chef will accompany the party and prepare lunch in Georges' rooms a the 11:30 in the morning. On this day Car-were pentier will be barred to all visitors. Another plan was to remain in the had camp here until noon on the day of the bout, then motor to the arena. Manager Descamps said today that he and Trainer Wilson would go to Jersey City next week to get an idea of the layout there and that definite plans would be announced afterward.

Following his usual custom at all of Carpentier's fights, Descamps will be in eorges' corner to direct the battle.

Major E. O. Reid of Toronto Found Dead On Lewiston Mountain.

on this dreadful day," wrote Major E. O. Reid, of this city, chief accountant of the office of public trustee for Ontario, in a pathetic letter to his wife just before killing himself near Lewiston, N.Y., this afternoon by drinking poison. His body was found by a motoring party from Rochester, N.Y., on the point at the brow of Lewiston mountain just opposite the Niagara Falls Country Club, where the party had gone for a plenic lunch.

Beside the body was a bottle that had contained poison. In a notebook in his pocket was found the pitiful note to his wife, beginning with the words quoted. In the note reference was made to his four children, and the farewell message was brimming with affection for his wife and family.

"I know I am much better out of your life," the note said and expressed a hope that "the good Lord" would send someone who would be worthy of his wife's affection and kindness.

Found Irregularities.

The tragedy of today had its origin a little over a week ago, when "irregularities" were discovered in Major Reid's accounts, according to Attorney-General W. E. Raney. It is said that the amounts which he is supposed to be short were not more than one or two thousand dollars. Major Reid was suspended from office pending an investigation, but no action was taken by the attorney-general or the board administering the office of public trustee looking to his arrest.

While the inquiry was on. Reid, without notifying anyone, and evidently brooding over the trouble, left the city. It is said he wrote from Niagara Falls last Friday or Saturday that he intended to end it all, and that the provincial authorities were notified of this letter. Up to that time no warrant for his arrest had been issued. At the beginning of this week Reid was seen on the American police were informed to this effect, but they falled to locate him until informed of the suicide by the Rochester picnickers.

Major Reid was a member of the Ontario Civil Service Association.
