SAMPLE CARDS AND HOLDERS.

THEY ARE TO BE FREE OF DUTY FOR THE FUTURE.

Competition invited from sculptors for the best model of a statue of the Late Sir John Macdonald. The statuette—Algonia West Emigrants—Ontario's Good Showing in Crime.

OTAWA, Jan. 23.—The Department of Customs has given a decision with regard to sample cards and portfolios, which is of some importance to importers. The decision is conveyed in a circular to collectors from which the following is an extract:

"The attention of this department has been drawn to a practice which has prevailed at some ports of entry of charging duty upon cards and portfolios having no commercial value in them.

"In view of which commercial samples are you are hereby instructed that such cards should not be collected on duty and that the collector should not apply to sample books having commercial value and to which commercial samples are attached.

"The explanation of an artist's meeting his king is further advised that the commercial value is held to be only in the case of a portfolio of samples for the proper display of samples and which each such sample is attached to a card or which, after having been used, is of no further value, being white in color and not being perceptible, susceptible of being or other use."

Sculptors to Compete.

Public Works Department is preparing to invite competition amongst sculptors for the best model of a statue of the late Sir John Macdonald, which is to be placed in the grounds of the same place as was adopted as a model in the case of the statue of Sir George E. Cartier, which has been obtained showing Sir John in different attitudes, and a short biography with photographs with particulars of his life, and an advertisement will be inserted in English, French and Italian papers a prize of $1000 for the best model.
The case of Sir George Cartier were by 20 competitors, a prize being taken by Hebert, a Canadian.

Quarantine Matters.

At the conference on quarantine matters to be held here on the 24th inst., the Dominion and Provincial authorities, the question as to the best method of collecting and publishing health statistics will also be discussed.

Algonia Neglected.

Complaints have been made by residents of the Algonia District that while efforts were being made by the Dominion Government to attract immigrants to other parts of the Dominion, Algonia had been neglected.
Hon. Mr. Doolan, M.P., at the instance of Mr. G. H. Macdonald, M.P., agreed to appoint D. McKay of Port Arthur, as a field representative of the Dominion Government to represent the advantages of Algonia as a field for immigration.

Canada's Penitentiaries.

The annual report of the Director of Justice on the penitentiaries in Canada for the fiscal year ended June 30 shows that the total number of convicts received during the year was 414, with 414 at the previous year, a decrease of 27.

The number discharged was 408, as compared with 418 in 1901. The number remaining in all the penitentiaries on June 30, 1902, was 1228, of whom 25 were females, all of them in the Kingston penitentiary.

There were 11 deaths during the year, of which nine were in Kingston. There were seven escapes, two from Manitoba and two from British Columbia.

Ontario made by far the best showing of the provinces, as the prison population of Kingston decreased 54, while there was an increase in each of the other penitentiaries.

MORE FOREPAUGH HEIRS.

The Great Showman's Brother, Joseph Lugrin, Seeks His Share.

MONTREAL, Jan. 23.—A serious attempt will soon be made, it is said, to compel the people who at present enjoy the property left by the late Adam Forepaugh, the circus owner, to share with some of Adam Forepaugh's Canadian relatives who have only recently heard of Forepaugh's death. These relations are living in Montreal, and consist of a brother and his six children.

Forepaugh, as is perhaps not generally known, was a French-Canadian, and was born in the County of Maskinonge, Province of Quebec. His brother, the circus owner, afterwards moved to Montreal.

When Adam was about 17 years old he came to Montreal. He then shows his town Adam, who knew the law, went with him. His family heard from him once and learned of his change of name, but never saw him again.

Twelve members of the family who once attended his show at St. Hyacinthe were shown to resemble him. Adam had three boys of his own. Adam had three brothers. The widow of one of them some unknown person from Philadelphia had written her about her relation to Forepaugh, and hinted that she had a right to some of the money left. The relations here have written to her, but have received no reply.

Joseph Lugrin of this city, on behalf of his father, Anable Lugrin, who is at present 70 years of age, has decided to put the matter in the hands of some prominent lawyer to see that any rights they may have in the matter are enforced.

SHOT THROUGH HIS HEART.

He Was a Victim of Drunkenness and Despondency, and Shot Himself.

ST. THOMAS, Ont., Jan. 23.—Yesterday forenoon a most determined suicide took place in the town of St. Thomas. John Mulligan, a well-to-do farmer, who has a family of three sons and four daughters.
Each of the sons was left a 100-acre farm, but strong drink proved a curse to William's case, and for 30 years he has spent not only his time, but his means, in drinking.

Lately he has lived in the old homestead with his brothers and two sisters. He was a married man, but his wife died some years ago, leaving three sons, who are still living.

For the past two weeks the deceased had displayed a more or less violent temper towards his family, and he threatened the life of his sister. Yesterday morning he went to the bedroom door, but finding it locked, he went upstairs to his bedroom.
In a few moments his son John heard a shot. He rushed to the door, but finding it locked, he went upstairs to his bedroom.
He found his father lying on the floor with a bullet through his heart.

Two brothers, James and John, four sisters, two unmarried and two others, Mrs.
Elias and Mrs. Jones of Florence, and his three sons survive him. His father and mother have been dead for some years.
An inquest is opened.

Denver's Reform.

Places of Amusement Closed—A Dean's House Raided.

DENVER, Col., Jan. 23.—All places of amusement were closed yesterday by order of the police. The proprietors were placed in jail. The police were forced to make the arrests by Rev. H. M.
Kendall, who has inaugurated a crusade against amusements and insists upon the enforcement of the law.

After the theatres were closed, immense crowds gathered in the principal streets talking the matter over. Suddenly a mob of about 2000 people surrounded it, and after shooting and calling stones were hurled at the building, no further trouble is expected.

Has an Official Flavor.

New York, Jan. 23.—The Times says: It was learned from an official source that the Prince of Wales visiting the Columbia Fair, sending her entire southern to the Columbia Fair, and if it is done there will be present the most powerful mob assembled to-day under one flag. The special constables were by Rear-Admiral Gherardi, is timed to arrive at Barbadoes by Feb. 1. This is a matter of some importance, as the Prince of Wales is expected to be the seventh participant in the crime, or witness at the trial, who has since died.

Car Shops Consumed.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 23.—The car shops of the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Company at Charities were entirely consumed by fire last night, with several trains of passenger cars. The fire was caused by natural gas. Loss $65,000.

Bank Closed.

THE EGYPTIAN QUESTION.

RUSSIA AND TURKEY ARE BACKING
THE KHEDIVE.

Gladstone May Have to Let Léon Et Dogs of War Before He Grapples With the Home Rule Bill—France Has Wrought Her Own Fate into the Formulating of the Sultan's Act.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—The Cabinet held two long sessions to-day to consider the Egyptian question. Lord Rosebery has received advice from Lord Cromer, the British Minister to Egypt, to the effect that the Khedive has intimated his intention to refer to the Turkish Sultan and to treaty powers the action of England in causing the dismissal of the Egyptian Cabinet.

Other advisers from Cairo state that the native are in a more excited condition than at any time since the outbreak under Arabi Pasha. While a considerable party of moderate and intelligent natives support the British position, the multitude take sides with the Khedive and against what they call the British dictatorship.

The Marquis of Ripon, Secretary for the Colonies, left a bed of sickness to be present at the Cabinet meeting to-day. While the Cabinet was in session a stream of telegrams continued to pour into the Foreign Office from Cairo. These were telegraphed to the Cabinet. The prolonged session of the Cabinet is understood to be due to a difference of opinion as to the necessity of reinforcing the British army of occupation in Egypt, both with a view to protecting British interests and to prevent the outbreak of a civil war, which has recently become very menacing.

France Pays in an Oar.

A note reached Lord Rosebery on Saturday from the French Foreign Office stating that the French Government, while refraining from objecting to the Pasha, as appointed by the Sultan, is likely to inform the Khedive to choose his ministers.

A Cairo despatch received in Paris this afternoon says the Sultan has telegraphed to the Khedive his congratulations on the attitude which the Khedive had assumed in respect to the formation of a Cabinet independent of English interference. The Sultan is said to have expressed a present disposition to accept the Khedive's present of six horses.

In an interview at Cairo this evening Lord Cromer, in reply to questions about the situation, said: "There is no cause to apprehend disturbance, but if disturbance should occur I guarantee it will be of short duration."

It is officially announced that the British Government has decided upon a slight increase of the British troops in Egypt, in view of the late of the Khedive's likely there to be a reduction of 5000 men.
A meeting of the employees was held at the Egyptian Consulate, and the two warships for Alexandria and Port Said, and one warship for Suez.

TROUBLE IN EGYPT.

The Khedive Is Tempted Into Being a Naughty Boy.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—The Cairo correspondent of the Times says: The Khedive is very strained. Popular excitement is increasing owing to the general belief that the Khedive is about to resign. British determination to continue his occupation and the presence of the British army and the British officials.

The British officials are very nervous because they refused to resign three new Ministers during the two days between the Khedive's nomination and his official recognition. The Khedive is credited openly with the intention to dismiss all the highest English officials.

The language of the press is now violent, and alludes to the Khedive as a hero. The Khedive, with a strong nature and a strong will, is likely to be affected by the crowd before the Khedive's court.

The Khedive's courtiers of the Daily News say: The situation here is critical, and unless Great Britain takes very stringent measures she will have to solve a most serious question very soon. The anti-English demonstration planned for the occasion of the Khedive's visit to the opera house was frustrated by the rigorous measures of the authorities and the strong police force present. The British troops were confined to their barracks, and a strong detachment was stationed near the opera house.

THE MURKIN CASE.

The Plymouth Brethren Will Have to Come to Terms.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—The trial of the Murkin case, which has been adjourned to recover the sum of £140,000, the amount alleged to have been secured by undue influence by the Plymouth Brethren, is continued to-day. The case is being conducted by the Postmaster-General, who is an accountant named Blow testified he had traced the transfer sum amounting to £132,000 from Henry Murkin to the Longman Bank. He also found several checks drawn by Henry Murkin, the payees of which could not be traced.

The Solicitor-General asked the court to decide in favor of the plaintiff. He claimed that evidence clearly proved that the Longman Bank had received the money mentally unsound, to surrender his fortune to the bank.

Caught by a Fairy.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—A sensation has been caused in Irish circles by the announcement that T. B. Curran, M.P. for Kilkenny, has been privately married at the registry office in Manchester to an Australian dame named Marie Brooks, who is playing the principal part of a boy—in a local pantomime.

The Car's Ambition.

VENICE, Jan. 23.—Prof. Armenis Vander, the well-known Oriental traveler, is of opinion that the visit to St. Peterburg of the Amir of Bokhara and the Khan of Khiva is a prelude to the conquest of the title of Emperor of Asia as an offset to Queen Victoria's title of Empress of India.

It is said that a new coat of arms for the Car has just been completed, the design consisting of a double eagle flying over a lion's den.

The members of the Young Men's Liberal Club last night resumed the debate on a resolution passed at the meeting of the W. G. Elliott's motion deprecating the advocacy of annexation as the ultimate destiny of Canada, and favoring Canadian independence.

Before the debate was taken up Mr. A. B.
