"Truth Stranger than Fiction"

In their advt. of April 28 Shaffaers Limited state: "We Are Not Squatters Here Today and somewhere (s) else Tomorrow, but, doing business at the old stand, where we have been serving the public for almost one-quarter of a century."

What is a Squatter? In North America a man who sits tight "for almost one-quarter of a century" in a given place and who thereby acquires a "squatter's Title" to property of value—They seek to convey the impression that I am a squatter—Impossible! I am not qualified—Did the Gentleman from Lawrencetown get rattled and use "Squatter" instead of "Quitter"?

I regret very much that they are peeved and also that they "do not claim to be 'Keen Cutters'". Take their statement re blue denim shirts, at the face value and one is forced to the conclusion that they are not even Keen Buyers. Yes I plead guilty to going into my cellar and bringing up two cases of blue denim shirts—The first case I sold at one dollar each, my second case at $1.20 each, until I started this sale, when they were reduced to $1.08 cents each. But alas the cellar is bare! Only a few empty cases there!—Too bad! at least I think so and I feel sure, if words mean anything, that a very great many people in their immediate neighborhood and elsewhere unite with me in regretting it. One would have thought that when Messrs. Gault Bros. Limited, of Montreal, from whom we both bought the shirts, advanced their wholesale price three dollars per doz. they would have taken the hint and not got caught without a few at even that advance. Faith! I believe they owed that much to "the good people of whose confidence and patronage they claim to have such a close monopoly"—Of course the people who flock to my store, in such numbers, from the localities named may be only the bad people, but oh my! how they buy! and what good money they bring along, for I have been handicapped by not having charge of my own heating apparatus and by the size of my store and so have been unable to take eggs and butter, etc., in trade.

I note their statement that "they live up to their advertisements" and as this might deceive, those who are not familiar with my business methods, into assuming that I do not, let me say greater care than I have taken to live up to my advertisements cannot be taken. I never advertise any goods which I do not believe I have plenty of to last one week. The next week any article that has been sold out, or nearly sold out, is dropped from my list. Until I commenced this sale, I exchanged any article, not cut especially for the buyer, and if they wished me to do so refunded the cash, without question. Live up to my advertisements. Well! Bet your sweet life I do! The size of my hat is seven and one-half and when I shut my eyes I forget more about buying dry goods than some will ever live to learn—Egotistical! Rather! but true just the same, as the merchants hereabouts would have found to their cost if war scarcity and war prices had not prevailed during the four years just closing. When I started this sale I held the best stock of medium priced hosiery East of Halifax and the same is true of many other lines, take spools which I have kept constantly before you. On January 1st I could have filled an order for fifty gross. I was fortunate in placing an order for several gross with The Central Spool Agency of Montreal just before the sharp advance on November 19th, 1918, and I don't mind giving my rivals the tip now, for it is much too late to be of any use to them. How very generous of me! When the Central Spool Agency received instructions from Messrs. Clark & Co., Limited, of Paisley, Scotland, to discontinue 800 yard spools, I had en route all I could hope to get from that source, so I got "busy" and bought at six cents per doz. higher from every wholesale house with whom I had dealings, and who handled Clark's spools, one house excepted, until I reached the maximum quantity which I thought I could handle—fifty odd gross. At a trifling advance I secured enough thread to give my customers a great bargain while I am in business. I am sold out of 60 and 70 White, but still have all other numbers. No more Clark's best six cord 300 yd spools can now be had at any price, and I question if as many gross as I hold are held by any one firm in Nova Scotia.

What a bad old "squatter" I am to corner the market on spools, prints, shirts, cottons, corsets, skirts, ribbons, and above all, hosiery, sox, undershirts, flannelettes, nightdresses, drawers, etc., and then trim Simpson and Eaton on prices, in some lines several cents per yard, to say nothing of preventing the "Small Fry" hereabouts from making too large a "rake-off"? Why of course! If I do it, it is wrong. But my slogan when I started was, and now is, "The Greatest Good to the Greatest Number."

Why, I did not get into harness again until the war had lasted 9 months, and yet I sold the very best olive green Khaki Shirts at 90 cents, shirts which today cost wholesale $21.60 by the doz., i. e., $1.80 each. Talk about pre-war prices, if I could sell at my prices eighteen months after the war started the bye-law of Bridgetown which forbids a crowd to collect on a public thoroughfare would be broken, and I am sure that I could not accommodate them in my "Pill Box."

However I still have good honest work shirts at 50 cents, 77 cents and $1.08 cents each. Bring in some of the pre-war shirts and see how they look alongside of the "Keen Kutter's" shirts at less money.

My stock of Hosiery is practically complete. Call and see my White Silk Lisle Hose for Ladies', Misses', and Children, sizes 5 to 10 inches. The Manufacturer's description reads: "This Hosiery is Knit of special Two Ply Silk Lisle and is warranted to retain its lustre and not harden up with washing." For Boys and Girls I have such Sterling makes as "Tiger", "Hercules", "Rock Ribbed Holeproof" and "Buster Brown". The best values in this or any other town. For Ladies I have white Cotton sizes 8½ to 10 inches. Black Cotton and Silk Lisle at prices which I could not think of excepting but for the fact that I am going out of business.

Under date April 29—19, Messrs Vassie & Co., wrote me as follows: "Referring to your inquiry re Penman's No. 37 Shirts and Drawers, we have all sizes of both Shirts and Drawers in stock, and quote you for present delivery, $11.30 per dozen". This is subject to four per cent discount for prompt payment, plus packing and freight charges. This figures out 94 cents per garment—my Sale Price has been, and now is, 81 cents per garment or $9.72 per dozen. Better hoard a few for the long hard winter which is pretty sure to arrive.

ONE HUNDRETH ANNIVERSARY OF THE ORDER IN AMERICA Officers and Members of Crescent Lodge, I. O. O. F. and Maple Leaf Lodge, Listen to an Interesting Rebekahs Address by Rev. M. S. Richardson, Chaplain of the Local Lodge

Officers and members of Crescent Lodge, I. O. O. F., marched in a body from their lodge room to the Baptist church Sunday evening in the midst of their annual conference. They were joined by the officers, charge of Past Grand A. G. Walker, there they were joined by the officers and members of Autumn Leaf Lodge and members of Autumn Leaf Lodge and listened at Rebekah Lodge and listened at Rebekah Lodge and listened at Rebekah Lodge and listened at Rebekah Lodge.

The order of service was as follows:— Hymn, Invocation, Responsive Reading. JAMES I: 22-27

22 But ye doors of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. 23 For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he will be like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: 24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth what manner of man he was, and so he will be.

26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain. 27 Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their afflictions, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

JAMES II: 14-16 14 What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him? 15 If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food, 16 And one of you say unto him, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

MATTHEW XXV: 34-45 34 Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: 35 For I was hungry, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in:

36 Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me: 37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee a hungry, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink? 38 When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee? 39 Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee? 40 And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

41 Then shall he say also unto them that stand on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels: 42 For I was hungry, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink: 43 I was a stranger, and ye clothed me not: I was sick, and ye visited me not: I was in prison, and ye did not come unto me: 44 Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee a hungry, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee? 45 Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me.

MARK IX: 41-42 41 For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward. 42 And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.

Vocal solo by Mr. Arthur Charlton, leader of the choir and Secretary of the lodge. Scripture lesson and prayer by Mr. Richardson. Quartet by Messrs. N. E. Chute, E. C. Hall, J. A. Munroe and A. C. Charlton.

After a short historical sketch of the hundred years of Oddfellowship in America Mr. Richardson gave a beautiful address, his subject being, the story of the Good Samaritan. After that the brethren repeated with him the following prayer:

Almighty and most merciful Father, as our duties as brothers of this order present themselves anew to us, as we view again the many needs of this world, as we have had kindled within us new desires to serve humanity, we look to Thee our God for strength and enable us to perform our duties and meet our obligations. Forgive us for our many sins of omission. Enlarge our sympathies, broaden our vision, give us eyes to see the needs of Thy children and ears to hear the cries of distress of those for whom Christ's hotness, love, service and sacrifice that this order may become an ever increasing power in the world's salvation from sin and all its attendant ills and miseries, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

After the close of the service the members of the lodge were entertained at a banquet given by the Oddfellows of the local lodge.

CELEBRATION AT GRANVILLE FERRY

The I. O. O. F. centenary was celebrated at Granville Ferry on Sunday, April 27th, by Guiding Star Lodge, and about twenty-five members of Western Star Lodge of Annapolis Royal as their guests.

The procession was formed at the ferry landing, and headed by the re-organized Annapolis Band, marched to the Methodist Church, where the Rev. H. P. Patterson, B. A., Grand Chaplain, who is a member of Guiding Star, delivered an able and well thought out discourse to a large congregation, taking for his text Luke 8:17, "For nothing is secret that shall not be made manifest."

His theme was The Rationale of Secrecy. 1. He first showed that secrecy was a human necessity, being practised in every walk of life to a greater or less degree, e. g. in family life, in the church, in the professions, and in business where "trade marks" are used as a guarantee of genuineness.

Secrecy is justified as a protection against imposture and the unwarranted interference of the outside world. 2. It must not be clandestine in its nature or method, but pertain only to the successful working of its principles and objects. 3. Secrecy must produce soundness of character.

What is done within the lodge room should be manifested in the open life of its members in the excellent fruitage of character. 4. Greater efficiency is gained by the secret manner in which its beneficiary work is carried on. 5. The lodge room is a refuge. Here under favorable atmosphere the higher aspirations receive encouragement, and there is relief and protection from the asperities of life. A young man finds congenial companionship. Brotherhood is fostered by mutual support and sympathy.

Special music was rendered by the choir, with Mrs. Horace Mills, organist, and Mrs. Patterson, leader and soloist; also a quartette of male voices, Messrs. Grant, Sabins, Gilharratt and Mills.

At the close of the service the procession re-formed and escorted the members of Western Star to the ferry landing, where the Band rendered several selections while waiting for the ferry boat.

Fraser Companies Limited Expanding Royal Securities Corporation Offers $2,000,000 Issue

Royal Securities Corporation Limited announces the public offering of $2,000,000 Fraser Companies Limited, 6 pc First Mortgage Bonds maturing serially from April 1st, 1919, to April 1st 1929. Participation in the underwriting has been given a number of Bond dealers, including Eastern Securities Ltd. and J. N. Robinson & Son, two houses with connections particularly strong throughout Maritime Provinces.

Though perhaps not so well known to bond market followers, generally as some other large Canadian lumber concerns and pulp producers solely due to the fact that the Company has always been a close co-operation, Fraser Companies Ltd. ranks among largest manufacturers of spruce lumber and cedar shingles. Its limits cover 1661 square miles of very exceptional timber in Northern Quebec and New Brunswick. Annual lumber production totals 100,000,000 feet B.M. of cedar and spruce and 135,000,000 cedar shingles. The business was founded in 1877 by the late Donald Fraser and has behind it a record of over forty years, solid growth and expansion. To-day it is one of the largest manufacturing enterprises in the Maritime Provinces.

The new financing is to re-imburse the company for expenditure of approximately $2,500,000 on a new 33,000 ton bleached sulphite pulp mill at Edmundston, N. B., which went into operation last December. The new mill is situated in close proximity to pulp supplies exceeding 4,650,000 cords and strategically located in relation to both the American and British market. It is expected that earnings for the current year from the new mill alone will be sufficient to pay interest several times over on the bonds now being offered.

The Bonds are secured by a first mortgage on all timber limits, water powers, timber leases and plant and by a floating charge on all other assets of the Company. Assets securing the issue exceed $10,000,000 in value as against $2,000,000 of bonds. Average earnings for the past five years, making no allowances whatever for earnings from the new mill, have been sufficient to pay bond interest more than four times. The bonds are therefore thoroughly secured and offer a very conservative investment.

The bonds have been offered privately over the course of the last two weeks with the results that more than $1,750,000 of the total $2,000,000 have been already sold. The unsold balance is now being offered for public subscription at a rate to yield $64. yearly on every $1,000 invested, a very attractive basis for so conservative security.

Foreign Credits for the Sale of Canadian Wheat

J. A. Maharg, M. P., says that Canada cannot expect to export to United States wheat of the 1919 crop. The fixed price in that country will keep out the Canadian product, for the Americans would not allow cheaper Canadian wheat to undersell their own, which remain at the 1918 fixed price.

This means that Canada's exportable surplus of wheat must find a market abroad, which further means that it must be sold on time. Mr. Maharg says that every solvent nation wants it, but that they cannot pay cash, so if sales are to be made large credits must be granted.

The Dominion Government is willing to grant these credits, but its ability to do so is dependent on the extent to which it can borrow money from its own people. If the money is forthcoming all the credits required will be granted, but Canadians must make these possible. For Canada to borrow money abroad for this purpose would be out of the question.

War Saving Stamps help solve the problem of credits, for they enable the Government to borrow at home the money it requires. Besides, the prices of the stamps is placed so low, $4, that every person earning wages in Canada can afford to buy them. The farmers of the West should be eager to get them, for they are vitally interested in seeing that foreign credits are granted.

Of Interest to Bakers

Bakers will be interested to know that one of the benefits instituted by the Canada Food Board under the licensing system is to be continued as a private undertaking. This is the educational side of baking, in which an effort was made to improve the standard of bread-making by applying latest knowledge of processes and methods. Mr. W. H. Linn, late Chief of the Bakery Section of the Food Board, is now consulting an advisory baking expert at Ottawa, and will deal with any trade difficulties

ATTENTION! Sick Women

To do your duty during these trying times your health should be your first consideration. These two women tell how they found health.

Hellam, Pa.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female troubles and a displacement. I felt all run down and was very weak. I had been treated by a physician without results, so I decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial, and felt better right away. I am keeping house since last April and doing all my housework, where before I was unable to do any work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is certainly the best medicine a woman can take when in this condition. I give you permission to publish this letter."—Mrs. E. R. CAUMLING, R. No. 1, Hellam, Pa.

Lowell, Mich.—"I suffered from cramps and dragging down pains, was irregular and had female weakness and displacement. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which gave me relief at once and restored my health. I should like to recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies to all suffering women who are troubled in a similar way."—Mrs. ELISE HEIM, R. No. 6, Box 83, Lowell, Mich.

Bent and little son, Harold, of Quincy, who have been visiting relatives here, returned to Digby on Tuesday to visit her mother, Mrs. Dunn. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pierce, of Mt. Hanley, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Slocumb one day recently. Rev. Mr. Lindsay and little daughter Helen O'Brien, of Port George, were also guests at the same home. On April 17th they passed peacefully away. Kiston E. Bent, after an illness of several months known, as the dread disease cancer, at the age of 58 years and eight months. He leaves a widow and son, Frank A. of Quincy and one adopted daughter, Miss Susie at home, to mourn the loss of a devoted husband and father. He was a kind obliging neighbour and always found ready to do his part when help was needed. The funeral services were conducted at his late home here on Saturday afternoon by the Rev. Mr. Lindsay, of Port George who spoke very appropriate for the sad occasion from the words found in Psalm 73: verse. The pall bearers were Messrs Charles Starrett, Joshua Winton, Adelbert Johnson and Edward Marshall. The community extends to the sorrowing ones its deepest sympathy.

NORTH RANGE

Our school has been closed again as influenza is in several homes. Mr. Ernest Andrews, who has been very sick with flu, is able to sit up. Also Messrs. Frank and B. Heigh, Mr. James Heigh's family are all improving in health and we hope to see them out soon. A gloom was cast over the entire community when it became known that Oscar Andrews had been called away in his 29th year by death, to his home beyond. Mr. Andrews was cook in Dr. Dickie's Lumber Camp in South Range. On Friday the 11th he was smitten with that dread disease influenza, was brought to his home in the Drs. car but medical aid and tender nursing could not save him for he passed away just one week later, April 18th. He was a general favorite with all he came in contact with. He was a genial disposition and will be much missed. He leaves a young wife, a mother, two sisters and four brothers to mourn. We extend our deepest sympathy to the bereaved ones, especially the young wife.

Death of Mrs. James W. Snow On Friday morning, May 2nd, there passed away at her home in Port Wade, Mrs. James W. Snow, in the 31st year of her age. Tuberculosis had been slowly doing its work for a number of years, and during the past week a slight attack of influenza, and she fell asleep. She leaves to mourn a sorrowing husband and two little girls, Bertha, aged 12, who was ill at Acadia Seminary at the time of her mother's death, and little Muriel, in her fourth year.

The deceased was a daughter of Capt. and Mrs. David Hayden, and is survived by two brothers, Ralph Hayden, collector of customs at Port Wade, and Arthur, residing in Lynn, Mass. Much sympathy goes out to the mother, who with indefatigable strength and tender care nursed her through so many months of weariness and pain.

Mrs. Snow was a member of the Baptist Church, a worker in the Sunday School, and the organizer of the Children's Mission Band at Port Wade. A few months ago she was presented by them with a life membership certificate. Of a sweet and quiet disposition, she endeared herself to the hearts of many, and though gone her works still follow her.

The funeral was held from her late residence on Sunday afternoon, with interment in the Baptist cemetery. The service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. I. Brindley, assisted by Rev. Mr. Patterson, of Granville Ferry. A large concourse of people assembled at the house and grave to pay the last tribute of respect to one who was beloved by all. There was a wealth of lovely flowers, which completely covered the beautiful mauve colored casket. Among them was a wreath of roses from the brothers; mayflowers from Bertha; white carnations, Mrs. Kay McGrath; narcissus, Mrs. John Hayden; spray, Miss Mildred Kears; wreath, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Covert; white roses, Mr. and Mrs. Kears; primroses and ferns, Mrs. Westhaver; petunias, Mrs. W. C. Schaefer; wreath, Mrs. Caineck and Mrs. Ralph Chisholm; spray, Mrs. Thorne; geraniums, Mrs. Jos. Anthony.

Death at Albany Mrs. Charlotte Woodbury, an old and respected resident of Albany, passed away on Friday, April 25th. She had been previously to her death she had a stroke of paralysis. She had been a consistent member of the Baptist church for many years. Funeral services conducted by Rev. F. H. Beals on Sunday, 27th, at 2 o'clock.

This is the week of the Y. M. C. A. drive throughout Canada and those who heard the interesting address of Capt. Neal in the Bridgetown Baptist church last Sunday evening must realize the great benefit of the work carried on by this society. As Mr. Neal said even the work at Halifax was worthy of an evening's talk, and that was small compared with the work in England, France, Belgium, Siberia and elsewhere. During the month of March 82 trains carrying 34,100 men were despatched from that city for the west. On every one of these trains was a Y. M. C. A. secretary who supplied the men with all necessary comforts. During this time at Pier 2, eighty ladies served 60,000 cups of hot coffee and over two tons of cake. We trust that, as usual, the town of Bridgetown as well as the entire county of Annapolis will exceed in contributions the amount asked for, viz., $3,250.

Tractor Demonstration Mr. I. C. Archibald will give a demonstration of plowing and harrowing with a Cleveland Tractor on the farm of H. W. Dunn, Round Hill, tomorrow (Thursday) to which all the farmers are invited and if the weather is favorable no doubt the attendance will be large.

Pull Your Weight The billows are heaving behind. The breakers are foaming before; We need all the strength we can find— Each ounce you can put to an oar. Are you doing the best that you can? To keep the old galley afloat? Are you power or freight? Are you pulling your weight— Are you pulling your weight in the boat? It isn't the task of the few— The pick of the brave and the strong; It's he and it's I and it's you. Must drive the good vessel along. Will you save? Will you work? Will you fight? Are you ready to take off your coat? Are you serving the State? Are you pulling your weight— Are you pulling your weight in the boat? The Western. Just because the war is over do not stop your garden activities. The world will still be hungry in 1919.
