The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

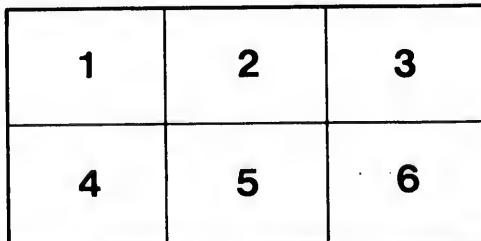

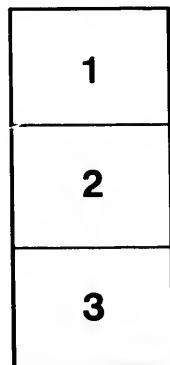

Nova Scotia Public Archives

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol → (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ▽ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Nova Scotia Public Archives

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole → signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ▽ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

CIRCULAR.

TO BE READ BY THE PASTOR TO THE FAITHFUL.

REV. AND DEAR FATHER,—

The whole Christian world is preparing to celebrate the Golden Jubilee of the Holy Father. It is safe to say that no event in modern history has called forth such universal enthusiasm, or evoked so widespread an interest. Not the people of one Empire only, not Catholic Nations alone, but from the East and West, peoples and Rulers of various forms of belief are taking part in this celebration. To the one who reflects, it is an invincible proof, not only of the living power, importance and influence of the Pope in the modern world, but likewise a testimony, which no sophistry can gainsay, to the supernatural institution of the Church.

In the blindness of self-sufficient pride, and in the materialism of thought begotten of the material comforts of the age, many imagined the Catholic Church a dead issue of the past, or at most, a feeble body hastening to dissolution, like the sects around, before the advance of "modern thought." But now we have the Pope, the acknowledged head of cultivated thought, the arbiter of National disputes, the most powerful factor in conserving the best interests of human society ; and the Catholic Church everywhere extending her peaceful conquests, and, as ever, the pioneer in all fresh fields of human knowledge. These patent facts, taken in conjunction with the universal homage offered to the Holy Father on the occasion of his Jubilee, must convince any man of good will that there is something more than human in the life of the Church. Who else, either now, or in ages past, could have been the object of such genuine respect, such spontaneous devotion, from so many and such widely differing classes and masses? None other than a Pope. And this Pope is a feeble old man, practically a prisoner, and dependent for support on the charity of us, his children. And yet the whole world is taking part in honouring him with gifts the most costly and precious, with messages of respect and love, with special Embassies sent by Rulers of Nations, Protestant as well as Catholic. But, unless he is what we believe him to be, the Vicar of Christ on earth, it would be impossible that these things should be verified.

We, in this Diocese, are not, certainly, behind our fellow-Catholics of other parts, in our devotion to the Supreme Pastor of souls on earth. It is a pleasure to be able to inform you that we have forwarded, as the fruit of the collection in the Diocese, Four Hundred Pounds Sterling to the Holy Father, as your offering, together with the expressions of love, veneration and reverence, which we all entertain. Many prayers and good works have been likewise offered up in the Diocese for him; and we direct that his Jubilee be celebrated on Sunday, Jan. 1st, in all the Churches, by inviting the Faithful to offer Communions and Prayers of Thanksgiving on that day; and, where possible, by a Benediction of the Most Holy Sacrament, with a short discourse appropriate to the occasion.

★ C. O'BRIEN,

Archbishop of Halifax.

DEC. 15TH, 1887.
