LEADERS OF WORLD DEMOCRACY PEACE CONFERENCE

Program of Meetings Outlined by Clemenceau--League of Nations to Head List at the Next Gathering--Responsibility of Authors of War Will Be Given Early Consideration--Regulations of Procedure Announced.

ELECTION MOBS FIGHT IN STREETS THROUGHOUT GERMANY

Deaths of Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg Make Impression in Provinces.

RIOTING AT LEIPZIG

Airmen Fly Over Berlin and Bombard the City With Pamphlets.

London, Jan. 19.—Grave election riots are taking place today in Germany, where the people are voting to choose members of the national assembly.

At Leipzig a mob is said to have destroyed the election bureau of the democratic party and to have conducted the evening edition of the Leipzig Tageblatt.

Airmen were flying over Berlin today and bombarding the city with pamphlets issued by all the political parties, it is reported.

Will Not Hold Assembly. Amsterdam, Jan. 19.—Local organizer of Berlin says it learns the Ebert-Scheidemann government has finally decided not to hold the national assembly for which elections are going on today.

Spartan Leaders Killed. Amsterdam, Jan. 19.—Four Spartan leaders who were arrested during the recent disorders in Spandau were shot and killed by soldiers when they tried to escape on Friday night.

A German government wireless message received in London Saturday said Philip Scheidemann, the German foreign secretary, had announced that the German government had decided to convene the national assembly February 16.

GENERAL STRIKE APPEAL PROVES A FAILURE. Amsterdam, Jan. 19.—The appeal issued by the Independent Socialists of Berlin for a general strike in consequence of the deaths of Dr. Karl Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg, the Spartan leaders, proved unsuccessful, according to a despatch from the German capital.

MARKET FOR HOGS IS STILL UNSETTLED. Receipts at the Union Stock Yards at 10 o'clock last night totaled 6500 head of cattle, indicating that the farmers are beginning to unload pretty freely. The run of the market today was to include a fair percentage of butchers.

Since Friday morning the run of hogs has been around 2500 head, and today's fresh receipts will be about 2200. This is only an average delivery, and indicates nothing very striking either one way or the other. The buyer for one of the big plants told The World last night that the hog situation was as possible more unsettled than ever, and he could not say what the market would open at this morning. All the buyers share this view.

CANADA'S DELEGATES HAVING A BUSY TIME. London, Jan. 19.—The Weekly Dispatch Paris correspondent states that the British overseas delegates have had a very busy week in close contact with Premier Lloyd George. Questions of the league of nations, and freedom of the dominions, are being considered by all delegates at full conferences. Moreover, the overseas premiers will attend the conference under the panel system, more frequently than is generally expected. The correspondent confirms the fact that it is now generally believed that all differences as regards freedom of the seas have been definitely overcome.

NEW ARMISTICE TREATY WAS SIGNED SATURDAY. London, Jan. 19.—The extension of the armistice treaty was signed at Treves Saturday afternoon by State Secretary Erzberger, says a German government wireless message.

ANOTHER BANK MERGER ANNOUNCED AT OTTAWA

Banks of Nova Scotia and Ottawa Amalgamate Under the Name of the Former Institution.

Announcement was made in an Ottawa despatch yesterday of the amalgamation of the Bank of Nova Scotia and the Bank of Ottawa, which was founded in Ottawa 45 years ago. The merger will reduce the number of chartered banks in Canada to 18, following, as it does, the absorption last year of the Northern Crown Bank by the Royal Bank and of the Bank of British North America by the Bank of Montreal.

The Bank of Ottawa will lose its identity except insofar as that a number of the directors of that bank will join the board of the Bank of Nova Scotia, which will rank fourth among the banking institutions of Canada. The details of the amalgamation are being made up by the Bank of Ottawa, which is issuing a special report on the subject.

Bank of Montreal: Capital stock, $18,000,000; reserve, $16,000,000; total assets, $55,412,546. Bank of Commerce: Capital stock, $15,000,000; reserve, $15,000,000; total assets, $44,910,000. Royal Bank: Capital stock, $12,911,700 (new issue of $2,000,000 soon to be made); reserve, $14,000,000; total assets, $47,512,282.

Bank of Nova Scotia: Capital stock, $10,500,000; reserve, $17,000,000; total assets, $23,400,000. The inactivity of Bank of Nova Scotia and Bank of Ottawa shares in the market during the past week indicates that there was no "leak" with respect to the negotiations. On Friday last a small block of Nova Scotia shares sold at 25 1/2 on the Toronto Exchange, and on Wednesday last Bank of Ottawa shares came out at 205. While there has been an appreciation in the market value of the shares of both banks during the past few weeks, it has been less striking than in the case of several other bank shares.

The Bank of Nova Scotia divided its assets at the rate of fourteen per cent. per annum, and that of the Bank of Ottawa at the rate of 12 per cent. per annum.

Basis of Merger. Ottawa, Jan. 19.—An agreement, subject to ratification by the shareholders, has been entered into by the Bank of Nova Scotia and the Bank of Ottawa, whereby an amalgamation has been arranged of these two important institutions.

The basis of the amalgamation is set out with demobilization to save the restlessness which the men are showing," declared General Turner to the Canadian Press yesterday.

The latest reliable estimate here is that all Canadians will be repatriated by the end of July. Men are being returned from France to England at the rate of a thousand daily. They are sent to Kimmel Camp, Wales, and thence go for transport to Liverpool. Forestry and railway troops are chiefly being returned from France at the present time.

At Ripon in Yorkshire, there is now another large camp for Canadians occupied mostly by drafts sent from Canada during the last stages of the war.

"They Want Canada." Bramshott Camp will be occupied by a Canadian fighting division whenever it leaves France. A good many members of the Canadian forces will desire limited time for demobilization in England, and also the general policy for troops to be discharged in Canada only, the authorities will grant discharge here for men born here and having no dependents in Canada. We understand that the imperial authorities have invited the Canadian and Australian army to provide two divisions each, for continuing the army of occupation, but this invitation has not yet been accepted.

Our information from the corps across the channel is "every afternoon is a holiday. Mornings are devoted to physical drill. It is not a bad life, but everybody is dead on their feet and anxious to get home. Even England has little charm for them; they want Canada."

Brother's Death Has Postponed Prince of Wales' Paris Visit. Paris, Jan. 19.—Owing to the death of Prince John, the intended semi-official visit of the Prince of Wales to Paris has been postponed.

A New Proposal! The authors of the report give a long argument against the bringing of the ex-emperor before a tribunal of common law, because his will commanded, but his hand did not execute. They say that he was not the principal offender, and that therefore he could only be punished as an accomplice.

An international tribunal subsequently must be found. They consider the Hague arbitration court founded at the 1893 conference incompetent to try the emperor, as the court was meant for cases where no penalty is to be applied. They argue that an entirely new jurisdiction must be created, which should be the first instrument of a league of nations, and in which should appear exclusively the states which fought Germany.

The two French jurists prove that the extradition of the former German ruler cannot be refused, as he is not a political refugee. The report says: "It is anti-judicial to assimilate war with conspiracy. Crimes of war are crimes of public law and international law, not political crimes."

The authors of the report commence by establishing that no penalty is possible against a nation any more than against a company, but that the manager or director of a company can be punished.

Cannot Escape Responsibility. "The emperor in the first place," says the report, "as King of Prussia is president of the confederation by virtue of a special law in which human will does not enter. The emperor's sovereignty depends only on God and the sword. With such a conception of power it would be injudicious in the highest degree to allow the emperor to escape responsibility for his actions; his responsibility for the war for which under the constitution, the decision belonged to him alone; his responsibility for violation of Belgian neutrality, which was willed by him; his responsibility for acts of terrorism by his troops, which he willed and ordered."

KING LOSES YOUNGEST SON

Prince John Dies in His Sleep at Sandringham After a Long Illness.

London, Jan. 19.—Prince John, youngest son of King George, died at Sandringham last night. He had been ill for some time. An official bulletin issued this evening says:

"Prince John, who since infancy has suffered epileptic fits, which lately had become more frequent and severe, passed away in his sleep following an attack at 5.30 p.m. Saturday."

The prince was possessed of exuberant spirits. He was the prime favorite of all classes and the idol of the servants and tenants at Sandringham. It is said that he was the favorite brother of Princess Mary, who loved to be with him. The prince was born at Sandringham July 12, 1905.

BY DEMOBILIZATION END RESTLESSNESS

Repatriate Troops by End of July—Canadians Decline 2 Divisions for Germany.

London, Jan. 19.—"We are eager to get on with demobilization to save the restlessness which the men are showing," declared General Turner to the Canadian Press yesterday.

The latest reliable estimate here is that all Canadians will be repatriated by the end of July. Men are being returned from France to England at the rate of a thousand daily. CREATE NEW TRIBUNAL TO TRY EX-EMPEROR Noted French Jurist Claims That He Cannot Be Punished as Chief Offender, But as an Accomplice.

Paris, Jan. 19.—Some points in the report to which Premier Clemenceau referred yesterday, when he said he had consulted two eminent jurists on the penal responsibility of the former German emperor, were made today. The report was drawn up by Ferdinand Larnaudie, dean of the Paris Law Faculty, and Dr. A. G. de Lapradelle, professor of rights of nations in the same faculty.

The object of the inquiry was to investigate from a purely juridical point of view if the crimes committed by the German Government and army involved the penal responsibility of the former German emperor, what tribunal should judge him, and whether his extradition could be demanded.

The authors of the report give a long argument against the bringing of the ex-emperor before a tribunal of common law, because his will commanded, but his hand did not execute. They say that he was not the principal offender, and that therefore he could only be punished as an accomplice.

An international tribunal subsequently must be found. They consider the Hague arbitration court founded at the 1893 conference incompetent to try the emperor, as the court was meant for cases where no penalty is to be applied. They argue that an entirely new jurisdiction must be created, which should be the first instrument of a league of nations, and in which should appear exclusively the states which fought Germany.

VOL. XXXIX—No. 13,949 TWO CENTS

Imposing Gathering of Peace Delegates at Versailles--Addresses by Wilson, Lloyd George and Clemenceau, Who Outlines Program of Congress.

Premier Clemenceau public. Ray of France, chairman of the Peace Conference, Monday, Poincaré, by President Wilson, Premier Lloyd George and Baron Sonnino, were characterized by expressions of lasting friendship and the apparent determination of the representatives of the various nations to come to an amicable settlement, with respect to the problems to be decided by the conference.

When President Poincaré spoke the entire assembly stood, and the fact, according to custom, no applause greeted his utterances, gave greater solemnity to the scene.

M. Clemenceau's acceptance of the presidency of the congress was both a feeling expression of personal gratitude and a definite outline of the great questions immediately ahead. Three of these larger general subjects he defined as responsibility for the war, responsibility for crimes during the war and international labor legislation. The league of nations, he declared, was at the head of the program for the next full session.

"Our ambition is a great and noble one," said M. Clemenceau. "We wish to avoid a repetition of the catastrophe which bathed the world in blood. If the league of nations is to be practicable we must all remain united. Let us carry out our program quickly and in an effective manner."

Referring to the authors of the war, he said he had consulted two eminent jurists in the penal responsibility of the former German emperor, and each delegate would receive a copy of that report.

Arrangement of Delegates. In all 75 seats were provided for the opening session of the peace conference. On the other side of the aisle horseshoes were arranged the Japanese and the British and colonial delegates and the seat of the fifth British delegate. A chair for the fifth American delegate was also reserved immediately to the right of the table of honor.

The Italian, Belgian, Portuguese, Cuban, Haitian, Peruvian, Argentine, Serbian, Czechoslovakian and Uruguayan delegates sat in the order named. Across at the left wing of the table sat the Siam, Rumanian, Polish, Liberian, Hedjaz, Guatemalan, Ecuadorian, Chinese and Bolivian delegations.

As the delegation arrived, they were met by fanfares of trumpets and accorded military honors by the troops. The Japanese were among the earlier arrivals, and were followed by the Siam and East Indians in picturesque turbans.

President Wilson arrived at ten minutes of three. The president passed into the ante-chamber, where M. Pichon, the French foreign minister, awaited, and conducted him to the council room. Here he was joined by Secretary Lansing, Mr. White and Gen. Bliss, and exchanged greetings with the British and many other delegates.

Poincaré Arrives. Just at three o'clock a ruffle of drums and blare of trumpets announced the arrival of the French premier.

SOCIAL DEMOCRATS DEPLORE REFORMS

Palliatives Only to Social Disease, Instead of Cure Sought.

Most of the delegates who were missing when the convention opened last Saturday, had arrived yesterday, when the Social Democratic party of Canada sat down to its second day's deliberations yesterday. After the routine business had been cleared away, a resolution was moved by one of the delegates, which precipitated some hot discussion, but was finally passed. The resolution read as follows: "Resolved, not to advocate any kind of reform, as all reformative organizations, but palliated the disease which we as a Socialist movement are out to cure."

WILL NOT EXCEED WILSON'S PROGRAM

German Delegation to Peace Conference Will Only Go Within Its Limitations.

London, Jan. 19.—A German wireless despatch received here announcing the formation of a German delegation to attend the peace conference in Paris says the delegation will conform to the terms of the program of President Wilson. The government in discussing the question was agreed that everything must be done to carry out the stipulations within the limitations of President Wilson's program, and the delegation must decline demands exceeding that program.

PLANS FOR LEAGUE DRAWING TO HEAD

Is Likely to Be Formed on Broad General Principles, Leaving Details to Committee.

Paris, Jan. 19.—The plans for a league of nations have been reduced to very definite form. The general indications are that the statesmen of the principal nations are steadily drawing together on a structure which will have the support of all the informal discussions having brought the community of ideas to a point where it may reasonably be expected soon to appear on paper.

BOLSHEVIST PEOPLE WANTED TOO MUCH

Soviet Government Had to Threaten to Close Down Factory.

London, Jan. 19.—The latest copy received of the official Bolshevik organ, The Izvestia, describing the recent conflict at the large Kaskin textile mills in Russia, says: "Last September workmen presented the Bolshevik soviet which managed this nationalized factory with a demand for full wages for the preceding 60 days, although they had only worked 21 days, arguing that it was not their fault if the factory was closed during the remaining 39 days in vain the soviet pointed out that the available cash only totaled a quarter of a million roubles, whereas the workmen's demands required three and three-quarter million roubles. The workmen insisted on full payment of their demands and on several occasions assaulted members of the soviet. Eventually in order to break down the men's obstinacy the soviet declared a lockout and threatened to finally close down the factory if the men persisted in their demands. The following day the men withdrew their demands and returned to work."

London, Jan. 19.—The senate of Cambridge University, by 162 to 14 votes, decided the long-vaunted question of compulsory Greek so far as the entrance examination is concerned, by making the subject optional. Thus, compulsory Greek, which was adopted ninety years ago, is now abolished in the Littlego examination.

COMMISSION NAMED IN POLICE INQUIRY

Sir William Meredith, S. R. Parsons and James T. Gunn Will Act.

AN EARLY DECISION

Their Report Expected to Be Ready for Legislation.

The personnel of the royal commission to investigate complaints of the local police force and to deal with the police situation generally throughout the province will comprise Sir William Meredith, chief justice of Ontario, as chairman; S. R. Parsons of Toronto, ex-president of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, now member of the Dominion Appeal Board which investigates complaints from the commission board under the Industrial Disputes Act, and James T. Gunn, who will represent labor interests generally. Hon. F. B. Lucas, in making the announcement on Saturday, in the absence of Premier Hearst, stated that the three had consented to act and their formal appointment to the board of the Royal Commission would be made early next week by the government. "There has been some delay," stated Mr. Lucas, "in inducing Sir William and Mr. Parsons to undertake the burden of the commission. I will take some of their time and they are both busy men. The formal commission will be issued next week, and it is expected that the board will proceed with its duties forthwith." Mr. Lucas added that it was hoped and expected that the commission would conclude its report in time to enable the house at the coming session to pass legislation carrying into effect the findings and recommendations of the commission. It was important that this matter be concluded with dispatch, as it was a provincial matter and closely affected many citizens of this province. The appointment of the royal commission arose out of police troubles a few weeks ago when practically the whole force went on strike because of the dismissal of several of their members by the board of police commissioners who had submitted a charter for the organization of the police to the board for approval. At the investigation which followed, the police body and the police commissioners could not arrive at any settlement of dispute and finally decided to submit the matter to a royal commission and to abide by its findings and decisions, and pending the investigation the men went back to work. The commission will investigate all complaints and disputes and will forward their findings and recommendations to the government.

SURPRISE PACKET FOR JOHN O'NEILL

When the Pie Was Opened, the Girl Began to Sing.

Surprise after surprise reigned at the annual city hall press gallery banquet, held at the Caris-R'oe Hotel on Saturday night, when the staff of military district No. 2, the city council and the members of the press gallery got together for the evening's festivities. Shortly after the conclusion of the dinner an express man left a large package for ex-controller O'Neill, who was the guest of honor. Several members of the gallery managed to place the package on the table before Mr. O'Neill, who proceeded to open it. No sooner had "John" untied the ribbon on the large package when out jumped Miss Olga Golden, a prominent theatrical star, who was playing in Toronto last week. Miss Golden, after presenting Mr. O'Neill with a gold-headed walking cane as a mark of appreciation on the part of the boys, sang "I Want a Doll; I Want a Doll," to him, and then gave him a real kiss as her part of the presentation. The ex-controller was a short time gathering his wits, but he soon rallied and stepped up from the table with Miss Golden. Soon after, cheer after cheer shook the building, and flowers were showered on Miss Golden. Twentieth Plans. An exceptional program was arranged by Donald MacGregor. Albert David, the Welsh tenor, sang several pieces, while Harry M. Bennett kept the crowd in good humor. Donald MacGregor by request sang "Flinders' Fields," by Col. McCrae, which was much appreciated. Charles Musgrove was the accompanist. A farce comedy, "The Board of Control in Action," and "Getting in Touch With the Twentieth Plane," with Miss Harrie Ball in the leading role, completed the evening's entertainment. The guests included Brigadier-General John Gunn, Colonel McLaren, Major Alex. Lewis, James O'Neill, Mayor Church and others. IN THE POLICE COURT. Ptes. John Davie and Vernie Woolough, convicted of absence without leave, were brought up before Magistrate Kingsford on Saturday, who handed them and Pte. John Palmer over to the military authorities. Pte. Emil Martineau was, however, given a 60-day sentence. Gav'ral Cauchantane of Brail was fined $300 and costs on Saturday for being unlawfully in possession of liquor. Peter McGilgilton McGlade was sentenced to 60 days for robbing William Frenchman, red Indian, and Canadian Indian veteran, of $5, following a hard luck story, for which Frenchman fell easily.

LABOR NEWS

Thousands of working men and women are expecting to attend the great mass meeting which is to be held at Massey Hall on Friday night next, under the auspices of the Brotherhood of Carpenters, to protest against the orders-in-council detrimental to labor interests, and to demand the release of Chas. Watson and Harry Cheesman, convicted of being in possession of banned literature. Trades unions are gradually merging into trades leagues, and among such bodies now organized or in process of organization are the metal trades council, embracing boiler-makers, machinists, pattern makers, molders and blacksmiths, the building trades' league comprising 19 unions connected with the building trades, and the marine trades' federation, comprising sailors, ship carpenters and such trades. Five thousand signatures have been attached already to the petition made by the Brotherhood of Carpenters to the governor-general of Canada requesting clemency in the case of Chas. Watson and Harry Cheesman, sentenced to terms of imprisonment for having banned literature in their possession. "There will be at least 25,000 signatures attached to this petition before it reaches its destination," said Fred Watkinson, business agent for the brotherhood, "and let me give emphasis to this fact," he continued, "we are making no distinctions as between man and man. We are fighting for a principle, and that only." Representatives of the 19 unions composing the Building Trades League, and only those representatives composing the league will hold secret session this afternoon (Sunday) at the Labor Temple to discuss the pros and cons of having a five-day working week. DEATH OF ISADORE FELDMAN. The death occurred unexpectedly in Detroit on Thursday of Isadore Feldman, a well-known young architect of this city, at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. H. Miesner, as the result of influenza-pneumonia. Mr. Feldman was born in New York City 32 years ago. He had been a member of the firm of Hynes, Feldman and Watson of Toronto. He was secretary of the Ontario Association of Architects (Toronto Chapter), and was to have been installed master of Mount Sinai Lodge, A.F. and A.M. the week he died. He was buried in Detroit Sunday with full Masonic honors, the funeral being conducted by the officers of Mount Sinai Lodge, Toronto, assisted by Perfection Lodge, Detroit. It. Wor. Bro. Harry C. Scully officiated. Compromise on Salaries Made By Separate School Board. A committee of the separate school board and a committee representing the teachers met on Saturday afternoon and effected a compromise in regard to the salary situation.

BICYCLIST KILLED ON QUEEN STREET

James Earl Stevenson Hit by Car, Dying Shortly Afterwards.

Riding a bicycle on Queen street, near Pape avenue, James Earl Stevenson, 17, of 170 Morse street, was overtaken by an eastbound street car and struck on the head on Saturday afternoon at four o'clock, dying of his injuries in a few minutes. Dr. East of Queen street attended to the lad's injuries and took him to his home on Morse street, where he died. An inquest will be held on Monday night. Forged Liquor Prescriptions Discovered by Dr. H. J. Cole. Brantford, Jan. 18.—An interesting follow-up of the recent dismissal after warning of Dr. H. J. Cole, who was charged in police court with issuing prescriptions for liquor for use as a beverage, comes in Dr. Cole's published announcement: "Having discovered that evil disposed persons have been freely using my name to forge unlawful prescriptions for liquor at the dispensary in Hamilton for which I am blamed, none will be given at all by me."

SOLDIERS AND WAR WORK

Many Turned Away
4,500 Soldiers sleep at the Salvation Army Hostel, King and Church Streets, every month. Many are turned away because they have not beds enough. That's why they must have more Hostels. Lonely Soldiers in transit deserve warm, cosy places to sleep, without having to pay heavily for them. They enjoy the companionship at these Hostels. They say: "We feel at home here," and, sad to say, for many of them it's their only "home."
The Army have eleven of these Hostels. They want to rent, equip, and serve in twice this number.

For Future Citizens
Many young soldiers are bringing home the dearest treasure a brave man can hold—a loving wife, and more often than not, a wee baby. Picture their arrival. The girl's first glimpses of the CANADA her husband has fought for and is so proud of. Then conceive the feeling of loneliness that inevitably comes over her. Then picture her and her baby being welcomed by a motherly Salvationist, and led to a cosy place, where baby can be bathed and soothed; where loving hands take the little wife's and baby's things, and launder them and make them fresh and sweet and clean before starting them on the long train journey. Salvation Army women are proudly doing this at every port of arrival for returning soldiers with families.

Guardian to Dead Soldier's Children
A Canadian soldier received word his wife was dying. He had five small children, but no other relatives. He consulted a Salvation Army woman at the Front. She called Toronto. Salvationists visited the home, found the wife dead, and the children in great distress, so they took them under their care. They called the father. He sent a letter of deep gratitude, went out into action the same day and was killed. The five little ones, now fatherless and motherless, will be under the Christian care and supervision of the Salvation Army until they are able to care for themselves.
The Army deals with many similar cases.

Mothers' Helpers
Soldiers' wives and widows often through sickness and other causes find it difficult to look after their families.
The Army lassies, with the mother's consent, go into homes and straighten things up; scrub floors, wash dishes, make children tidy, feed them, and even do the shopping and cooking for the distraught women. This is done in numerous homes many times in Toronto.

Homeless Soldiers
Many soldiers come back—not to homes—but merely lodging places.
The Salvation Army is making their Hostels as "homelike" as possible. Cheery Lassies and motherly women look after these lonely soldiers, and cheer them up while they are getting back to the routine of civil life.
Ask the soldiers what THEY THINK of the Army.

At the Docks
The Army meets returning transports, and invites Soldiers to join them for a cheery hour before entraining. At cosy Hostels they serve hot, comforting refreshments without charge.

Reconciliation
Some of the best work is done in homes where father and mother have drifted apart. Army Officers go to them, sympathize with them, and draw them again nearer to each other, and so make them happier in themselves and in their children.
This happens in every city.

Jobless Soldiers
Soldiers loathe idleness; but all of them cannot get jobs quickly. And it's hard to get back into civil life routine.
The Army helps with counsel and friendship. They find jobs for them. Give them work, if need be, to tide them over, and assists employers to adjust the "square pegs" to "round holes". Dozens of such cases every day. The soldiers appreciate it. Ask them.

Attendance on Poor Women
The Army visits daily homes of poor people who are sick. The Lassies nurse them. Buy and cook meals. Do washing and scrubbing—look after the children, and do everything possible to relieve the mother's suffering and anxiety.
Do poor people appreciate this? Ask them.

Strangers Within Our Gates
Some of the Army's toughest work is among foreigners. Not only have its Officers to subdue the lawless instincts of some of them, but they must see that they do not spoil the good instincts in others of their race. Hence you will see active work going on night and day.

GENERAL WORK

Prison Gate Work
Man given to drink was fined a number of times; also imprisoned a number of times. While in prison the Salvation Army converted him. Now he holds a position in the City of Toronto at a salary of $3,000 a year.

Reclaiming Waste Men
A graduate of a London University. Wife died and man went to drink. His children were taken from him, and he went to prison for neglect. He came to the Salvation Army from prison. First they got him a position as porter in a hotel, then in a restaurant, then he enlisted, and became Paymaster-Sergeant in the army. Has magnificent character on active service.
Have many such men in Ontario in their care to-day. All doing nobly.

Maternity
Many poor women and unmarried mothers face this crisis penniless and friendless. The Army takes them into their Maternity Homes and feeds them and gives them all possible medical care and attention for from two weeks to a month.
They were privileged to help 1,746 women in such manner last year.

Rescue Work
Have you ever sung:—
"Rescue the perishing,
Bare for the dying"
Well, that's what the Army does. Their open-air meetings have brought many a forlorn one to the gate of a new life—and the peace of a soul reclaimed.
Hundreds of lonely men and women die in Toronto each year, with none but a Salvation Army Man or Lassie to comfort and pray with them.

Reclaiming Boys and Girls
At the City Hall the Salvation Army Probation Officer is an institution. He saves hundreds of young boys and girls from the degradation of prison terms by going sponsor for their good behaviour. The Army has a Summer Camp near Jackson's Point, where they send boys and girls, as well as grown-ups, to get them away from harmful associates.
The moral effect of rest and change is most gratifying.

Lay Your Gift on the Altar of Service to Humanity

- ☞ Deeds, not words, deeds—the Salvation Army does good deeds by the tens of thousands. The records in Albert Street prove it. Yet we hardly ever hear much about them.
- ☞ The fact is: The British Navy and the Salvation Army—the two "silent" services—are two organizations that came through the war without a breath of criticism.
- ☞ The reason, perhaps, is that all Army workers are of the people. They are rich, oh, so rich in spirit; but in the world's goods, poor.

- ☞ Being poor, they know what the poor suffer, and know best how to minister to them.
 - ☞ They were with the British Army at Mons. They won the heart and respect of the "Tommy" right at the start. AND THEY HAVE HELD IT. The Army just loves the army. It's "jake."
- And, now, they have set themselves a big task in Reconstruction:—
To help the returning soldier and his family adjust themselves to the routine of civil life.

Their Efforts Challenge Our Civilization

No other organization even attempts the work the Salvation Army does. Yet, in its results, it is of priceless service to the community.

Give to it, Then! Give Generously!!

Not in the spirit of dimes and quarters, but in the big, generous-hearted way that deep down in your soul you know you should give.

Mrs. Herrington had an arm broken.

Rochambeau Calls at Halifax; Is Said to Carry U. S. Troops

Halifax, Jan. 19.—The agents of the Compagnie Generale Trans-Atlantique received a wireless message today from the captain of the steamer Rochambeau, that she would arrive in Halifax harbor Monday afternoon for coal and supplies, of which she had run short. The steamer is on a voyage from Bordeaux to New York and has had heavy weather which makes this call necessary. The agents do not know for sure, but they presume she has American troops on board.

PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

Lauder at the Alexandra. Harry Lauder, the noted Scotch entertainer, will inaugurate his week's engagement at the Royal tonight. There will be matinee performances on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. At the opening performance tonight the Scotch comedian will introduce a number of new songs, some of which were suggested by the war, but all breathing the spirit of jubilation. The advance sale of seats for the Lauder engagement is very large, and the comedian's thousands of admirers are looking forward to a week of merriment at the hands of this droll and unique entertainer.

George Arliss at Princess. The only engagement that distinguished player, George Arliss, will play in Canada this season is that comedy by Hubert Henry Davies, "The Mollusc," and the latest dramatic novelty from the pen of Sir James M. Barrie, the fourth of his war-time playlets, "A Well Remembered Voice." Mr. Arliss is surrounded with a brilliant cast, including Viva Birrell, Philip Merivale, Olive Tell, Mrs. Arliss and others.

The new Hawaiian musical comedy, "My Honolulu Girl," will be the attraction at the Grand all this week, with matinee on Wednesday and Saturday. Featured with the production is a troupe of native instrumentalists, singers and dancers, who play the island melodies of the enchanted isles and perform the dances of their country in the real Hawaiian manner, and not as presented by American imitators.

Tom Mix, peer of all western character actors, will be featured at Shea's Hippodrome this week when he will be seen in the latest Victory picture, "Fame and Fortune." Fraser Finley and company head the vaudeville bill with a bright light comedy. Tom Moore and his girls offer a singing and dancing melange, while Gold, Reese and Edwards, three singing comedians, have a number of the season's newest song successes. Leo Zarrill and company, in acrobatic feats, Gaetano and Marguerite, in Hawaiian songs and instrumental numbers; John F. Clarke, monologist, and the Pache News and comedy are also included in the bill.

Loew's This Week. In his latest photodrama "Branding Broadway," at Loew's Theatre and Winter Garden this week, Wm. S. Pate appears in a dress suit for the first time in his screen career. The government film, "Famous Canadian Battalions in France," presents the 7th Infantry Battalion of British Columbia. The Golden Troupe, a combination of European entertainers, in "variegated vaudeville oddities," and the Great Howard, Scotland's premier ventriloquist, presenting "Somewhere in France is Daddy," share the headline honors of the vaudeville, which also introduces Adele Oswald in "The Woman of 25," Walter Powers, in "The Long and Short of It," Calvin and Thornton, presenting a comedy playlet, "At Pier Five," and Dix and Dixie, vaudeville entertainers. Loew's British Weekly Gazette and the "Britt and Jeff" animated cartoons are also billed.

Shea's Theatre—Vaudeville. At this vaudeville house this week Shea's will see one of the biggest of the season, headed by the dancing spectacle, "Hands Across the Sea." Misses Estelle and Adelaide Lovenberg and Simon Neary with a company of 15 singers, dancers and musicians present it. The special extra attractions are Kate Ellmore and Sam Williams in a "Reel of Real Fun," Gladys Clark and Henry Bergman are delightful and have a skit, "A Ray of Sunshine." The Mosconi-Brothers are to be seen in a skit entitled "Ain't It Grand," exciting Brunettes, in their evolution wheel and the Wilton Sisters, dainty entertainers, will be heard in a delightful program of exclusive songs.

Max Spiegel's newest and what is said to be his best offering, "Cheer Up America," will be seen all this week, commencing with the Monday matinee, at the Gaiety Theatre. "Cheer Up America" was staged by Private William H. Smith, who, with Sergeant Irving Berlin, successfully staged "Yip Yaphank" for the boys of Camp Upton, N.Y. Frankie Nible, the "Cheer Up Girl" is the featured member of the cast and is well surrounded by an excellent company, numbering among them Eddie Lambert, formerly with Arthur Hammerstein's "Kathleen," Leo Hayes, Bert Powers, the California Trio and James Hall.

"Auto Girls" at Star. Simonds and Lake's "Auto Girls," the speed queens, will be this week at the Star. This season Simonds and Lake have gone to a large expense, more than ever to lavishly mount, scenically and mechanically, the two-act musical farce, "At Hug's Hall," that is presented. Featured in the show are Carol Sherwood, Billy Wild, James J. Lake, Billy Hallman, Anita May and several others.

"Arizona" at the Allen. The splendid production of "Arizona," starring Douglas Fairbanks, is the feature attraction at the Allen all this week. As a dashing cavalry lieutenant, Douglas Fairbanks does some starting riding feats and other athletic stunts which render his portrayal most enjoyable. A strong supporting cast was chosen for this, which is considered by many to be the best Fairbanks offering yet. The management of the Allen has been successful in securing the services of the famous tenor, Canada's most famous tenor, for this week. Nazimova at Regent. A picture noted for its tremendous scenic splendor, with excellent plot and swift action, is the feature at the Regent this week. Mme. Nazimova, the renowned actress, stars in "Eye for Eye," a remarkable drama taken from the novel of the same title by the love of an Arabian girl for a French naval officer and shows the ways of the east as compared to the ways of the west. The Regent Graphic shows new events, and there is also a splendid Harold Lloyd comedy, "Wanted 500," the Regent orchestra and tenor solos by Frank Bessinger.

TOPICAL EPIGRAMS OF REV. T. DAVIES

Discourse on "Campaign for International Goodwill," at Metropolitan.

"A Campaign for International Goodwill" was the subject of Rev. Trevor H. Davies' discourse at the Metropolitan last night, and contained many brilliant epigrams indicative of deep reflection.

Here are some of them: The world has learned to think internationally.

A mad nation got loose in a crowded world like a bull in the city.

Everything now depends upon the nations thinking together.

Co-operation, with Christ, and the twentieth century will be an amazing one.

Picture Coming to Allen "The Greatest Thing in Life"

Homelessness started all the excitement that furnished the story for "The Greatest Thing in Life." D. W. Griffith's superb Aircraft production, which will be shown at the Allen Theatre all next week. It was an old man who suffered from it. Leo Peret. Nostalgia was what the doctor called it. So seriously did it afflict Leo Peret that the doctor told his daughter, Jeanette, if he didn't return to his native France he would die.

Where was the money coming from? She didn't know and certainly he didn't. All they had was a small tobacco and news stand. It came one afternoon from the most surprising source, two $500 bills.

They never knew just who sent it, only they thanked him again and again in their prayers.

But it was the man who had insulted Jeanette more than any person in her merry young life. One day Edward Livingstone walked up to the counter, bought a package of cigars, and said, "I love you. I have loved you for a year. But you are only a simp. Fit to marry a simp and become the mother of simpkins."

Livingstone was rich and proud and most selfish. She met him again later. In France, where her father regained his health in the life he loved and had missed so long. He did a valiant thing for France, too.

And Livingstone, after being in the uniform of our soldier boys for a few months, decided she was not to marry after all, unless he be the one. And he wasn't, for he became a hero and a man's man and the leading character in a story of conquering strength and fascination.

RANK BOLSHEVISM AT BROADWAY HALL

"Revolutionary Age Has Arrived"—Isaac Bainbridge Left Outside.

NOT FOREIGNERS

Canadian Aliens From Cosmopolis Acclaim Russia as Workman's Friend.

Isaac Bainbridge and two thousand others were last night refused admittance to the mass meeting held at Broadway Hall, Spadina avenue, when Arthur Skidmore of St. Paul, Alderman Queen of Winnipeg and others were scheduled to speak upon the autonomy of the orders-in-council.

Both Skidmore and Queen being ill they were unable to be present. John MacDonald, patternmaker, presided. Most of the speakers were foreigners who resented this term as applied to them, but who nevertheless emphatically acclaimed the Bolshevik Government in Russia as the true friend of the workingman throughout the world.

One speaker, Harry Branton, of Hamilton, expressed his emphatic opinion that the revolutionary age had arrived, and that the last of all world wars was now to be fought—the battle of the worker for the worker. The masses, he said, had long enough fought for others; the hour had come for them to fight for themselves.

If they did not fight for themselves...

SCHOOL TEACHERS WILL NOT STRIKE

Compromise Accepted From Separate School Board of Half Demand.

All apprehension of a strike of the separate school lay teachers was dispelled Saturday when the teachers who met at Newman Hall in the afternoon accepted a compromise from the separate school board.

The original demand of the teachers, asked for an increase of $100 to the present salary, which is $350 and an immediate increase of $100 with an additional $50 per year (the maximum had reached $950).

The separate school board had declared that there was not enough money in the treasury to meet the demands, but at Saturday's meeting a compromise was effected, wherein the teacher will receive a yearly increase of $50, an immediate increase of $75, with another $75 next year, while the yearly increase after 1919 will be $50 per year till the maximum of $900 has been reached.

According to J. J. O'Donoghue, who acted for the teachers, the teachers would be on duty today, while it is expected that an additional increase of the new salary will be forthcoming soon.

TURNING SOLDIERS INTO CIVILIANS

How Great Britain is Demobilizing Her Large Citizen Army.

TWO THOUSAND A DAY That Many Men Will Be Let Out as Organization Grows.

London, Jan. 19.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Demobilization of the British army is now in full swing. Up to the present time a total of 80,000 men have passed thru the six dispersal stations in England and Scotland, and skilled workers are being returned to industry in rapidly increasing numbers.

Soon 15 dispersal stations will be in operation, each of which will be capable of dealing with 10,000 men a day. According to Major-General B. F. Burnett-Hitchcock, director general of demobilization, who was in London today explained to a representative of the Associated Press that the work of demobilization will be a long time before the demobilization limit has been reached. The question of the number of men each station purposes will be determined at the peace conference.

The following classes are being demobilized en bloc here. Miners, sick and wounded soldiers, convalescents, men over 41 who were called up in the last draft, "veteran" or leading men in industry, students and teachers. Those that will not be demobilized for the present are the railway personnel in France, men having to do with transportation generally and those in charge of horses. Many physicians have been released, but a sufficient force will be retained to care for the wounded now under treatment.

General Hitchcock had been working on demobilization plans for 15 months prior to the signing of the armistice, and his machinery was nearly ready for its work as the exigencies of the war permitted. The main outlines of his scheme were borrowed from the measures taken by the Japanese after their war with Russia.

The actual number of units to be got ready for demobilization, said General Hitchcock, will be 17,000,000, 19 categories of men, each category having different legal rights to be safeguarded. The rate of demobilization depends upon transportation facilities. More and more units are being converted into transports and they soon will exceed berth accommodation at the various ports from which the men are being sent home. Every ship from France is now bringing a full complement of men to the front. The bulk of them are miners, 25,000 having been released from the army to date.

Transportation Difficult. Conditions of rail and road transportation in France are extremely bad, as pointed out, and the question of supplying the army of occupation in Germany was paramount. The men are being sent home on leave at home doesn't entitle him, said General Hitchcock, to be mustered out of service before he has reached the field. Nor is the question of a man's discharge left in the hands of commanding officers. "The general continued, 'Well, this man makes a good water at the mess, and we will let him go.' 'Compassionate cases'—that is, where the wife of a soldier is seriously ill, or where there are other children being dealt with as quickly as possible, soldiers are being brought home. 'Compassionate cases'—that is, where the wife of a soldier is seriously ill, or where there are other children being dealt with as quickly as possible, soldiers are being brought home.

Identification Difficult. There is a great deal of difficulty in identifying the returning soldier. "You would be surprised," said General Hitchcock, "to know how many 'Pommes' change their identification disks with mine. It's the same in the French army. Why they do it is a matter of course. We are always burying the wrong man." The soldier turns over his rifle and accoutrements, but is permitted to keep his uniform and "tin hat." He must return his army overcoat within a month, receiving $10, and a label for his outfit is a tailor shop, where the soldier is given his choice of one of three suits of varying weight and pattern, made to his measurement. If he doesn't want the civilian suit he is given $12.50. The wise soldier takes the suit, for the prices it would cost him considerably more than $20.

South Africans Won Praise from Kaiser. Stahd of Ninth Division at Marriers Wood Deemed Magnificent. London, Jan. 19.—Remarkable German tributes to the fighting qualities of the 9th Division, composed of the South African Brigade and Scots, are now officially published. A staff officer who was captured by the Germans near Corbie, in March, 1918, states that after capture he was taken to the German battalion headquarters for examination by an intelligence officer who, referring to the 9th Division, said the fight it had put up was considered one of the best on the whole. "The staff officer," he said, "was the staff of the South African Brigade at Marriers Wood which was magnificent. Both officers and men fought to the last against overwhelming odds. The brigadier was captured firing a machine gun, and his brigade major was killed beside him. Many other German officers spoke to the staff officer about the splendid fight of the South Africans. At Le Cateau the staff officer met two British officers who said that the 9th Division to Le Cateau were stopped by the Kaiser, who asked if any one present belonged to the 9th Division and that he was glad his men had not come to meet the 9th Division or he would have had no more troops with which to attack.

ADDITIONAL TERMS FOR ARMISTICE

Clauses Added to Surrender Agricultural Implementments.

Paris, Jan. 19.—(Associated Press.)—The armistice agreement for a renewal of the armistice between the allies and Germany. In the general, in addition, there are clauses which provide for the substitution for supplementary material, fixed at 500 locomotives and 15,000 cars by the protocol of Dec. 17. It also provides for the return of industrial implements; give control of Russian prisoners in Germany to allied forces; and the return of German German headquarters at Berlin will act in collaboration with the allied and neutral organizations in this phase of the work.

Germany undertakes to turn over all allied ships still detained in German ports. The clause providing that Germany shall place her merchant marine at the disposal of the allies in return for food supplies says that the agreement in no way affects the final disposal of these ships.

NEW BANK MERGER IS NOW ANNOUNCED

that the Bank of Nova Scotia shall exchange four shares of its stock for every five shares held in the Bank of Ottawa. The Bank of Nova Scotia was incorporated in 1832 and is one of the strongest and most successful banks in this country. It has about 200 branches established in Canada, Newfoundland, West Indies, and the United States. The president is Charles Archibald of Halifax; the general manager is H. A. Richardson of Toronto.

The Bank of Ottawa was established in 1874 and has made steady progress until its assets have reached the large total of about $73,000,000. It has 95 branches, which for the most part are located in eastern Ontario, chiefly in the Ottawa Valley, where the bank has for many years been the leading institution. The president is Hon. George Bryson, the general manager, D. M. Finnie.

Nearly Three Hundred Branches. A striking feature about this union is that also the combined banks have nearly 300 branches, they meet at only eleven places, and these are all large centres. The amalgamated bank will have a paid-up capital of about $100,000,000; reserve and undivided profits, $17,000,000; deposits, $175,000,000; total assets, $294,000,000. Notices are being prepared, and will be mailed to the shareholders within a day or two. The minister of finance, H. A. Richardson, has consented to the amalgamation.

H. A. Richardson's Views. H. A. Richardson, general manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, who passed thru Montreal today on his way to Halifax, where the annual meeting of the bank will be held on Wednesday, made the following statement in connection with the bank's amalgamation with the Bank of Ottawa: "The two banks are peculiarly adapted to the union now under way. To begin with, they met at only eleven points of their nearly 300 branches. Those points are the larger cities where the public is already well served with banks, so that no duplication of bank facilities is entailed. The acquisition of the Bank of Ottawa, with branches in the west, is a welcome to our customers, as practically no branches in the Ottawa Valley, where the Bank of Ottawa has concentrated their main efforts in that section and largely control the business there."

Growing Competition. "Under conditions developed by the war, it is clear that in order to be completely equipped to meet the growing competition in banking for not only domestic business but for the foreign trade balances that Canada must develop if she is to maintain a favorable trade balance, banks should have such a chain of branches as will enable them to provide the most complete facilities for their customers. The Bank of Nova Scotia possesses these facilities, for its branches extend from the Atlantic to the Pacific, to Newfoundland, the West Indies and the United States, and we have taken in Great Britain. Through the medium of our connections we can make the resources of the Bank of Ottawa a much more powerful factor in the development of the trade and commerce of the country."

New Directors. "We shall be continuing to influence and support of the Bank of Ottawa directors, a number of whom will join the board of the Bank of Nova Scotia, and we believe we shall retain the good-will and business of their customers, as it will be our aim through systematic and generous treatment to make them feel that the change is one in name only. Their whole staff will be welcomed to our service and admitted to our pension fund, and will enjoy equal opportunities with our own officers for promotion."

"Altogether I believe the amalgamation will prove to be a wise step in the interests of the shareholders of the bank, and will result to the advantage of the commercial and industrial welfare of Canada."

TO KEEP GERMANY OUT OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Paris, Jan. 19.—The admission of Germany to the league of nations is the subject of considerable discussion in peace conference. In the opinion of Leon Bourgeois, the French authority on the league of nations, the league of nations must be composed exclusively of the association nations and these neutral states which since 1917 have adhered to rules of the second Hague peace conference and who have during the war strictly obeyed the obligations of international rights. Later, M. Bourgeois feels, Germany may prove her title to membership.

HISTORIC WORLD CONGRESS OPENED

Privilege that I should be expected to second this motion.

ed the approach of M. Poincare. The great president was escorted by the group of premiers to the head of the table, while a hush fell upon the assemblage as the moment arrived for the opening of the congress. It was exactly three minutes past three when M. Poincare began his address and the peace congress came to its opening. The entire assemblage stood as the president spoke. M. Poincare spoke in an earnest, easy manner, without declamatory effect, and following and following there was no applause or interruption. M. Poincare spoke in French, and when he had concluded, an interpreter treated the presidential discourse in English.

As M. Poincare closed, he turned to receive the congratulations of President Wilson and Premier Lloyd George and then withdrew, greeting each delegation as he retired. Wilson Proposes Clemenceau. President Wilson rose as M. Poincare spoke. "Mr. Chairman: It gives me great pleasure to propose as permanent chairman of the conference, Mr. Clemenceau, the president of the council."

"I would do this as a matter of custom. I would do this as a tribute to the French republic. But I wish to do it as something more than that. I wish to do it as a tribute to the man. France deserves the precedence not only because we were meeting at her capital and because she has undergone some of the most tragic suffering of the war, but also because her capital, her ancient and beautiful capital, has so often been the centre of conferences of this sort, on which the fortunes of large parts of the world turned."

Warsaw, Jan. 19.—The Polish ministry formed by Ignace Jan Paderewski apparently meets with the approval of all parties except the Radical Socialists, who have threatened a general strike. Paderewski's ministry holds office until the elections to the national assembly, which are planned for the middle of February. The new cabinet represents all the parties in German, Russian and Austrian Poland. More nations are represented here than were represented at the peace conference before. The fortunes of all peoples are involved. A great war is ended, which seemed about to bring a great triumph to the victors, which seemed to have been won for mankind, and it is delightful that these great nations should have risen up from one day to the next.

The New Ministry. The full coalition ministry formed by M. Paderewski is composed as follows: Premier and foreign minister, M. Paderewski; minister of the interior, M. Wojciechowski; minister of commerce, M. Honcia; minister of finance, M. English; minister of public health, M. Janiszewski; minister of communications, M. Eberhardt; minister of posts and telegraphs, M. Przeszycki; minister of labor, M. Iwonowski; minister of food, M. Minczewski; minister of justice, M. Sulinski; minister of public works, M. Pruchnicki; M. Lindo, minister of agriculture; M. Janicki, minister of art and science. The last three named were members of the government of Premier Moraczewski. The new government has decided to summon the constituent diet Feb. 9.

Money Appropriation by U. S. Congress Will Finance Movement Abroad. Washington, Jan. 19.—President Wilson's message addressed to administration leaders in congress concerning the $100,000,000 appropriation for European food relief follows: I cannot too earnestly or solemnly urge upon the congress the appropriation for which Mr. Hoover has asked. Food relief is now the key to the whole European situation and to the solution of peace. Bolshevism is steadily advancing westward, is poisoning Germany, and must be stopped by force, but it can be stopped by food, and all the leaders with whom I am in conference agree that concerted action in this matter is of immediate and vital importance.

The money will not be spent for food for Germany, because Germany has bought its food, but it will be spent for financing the movement of food to our real friends in Poland and to the people of the liberated units of the Austro-Hungarian Empire, and to our associates in the Balkans. I beg that you will present this matter with all possible urgency and force to the congress. I do not see how we can find definite powers with whom to conclude peace unless this means of stemming the tide of anarchy is employed.

Report Labor Party Strong in Lincoln County Contest

Merriton, Ont., Jan. 19.—The Labor party is making a timely start in the Lincoln County by-election. The Labor men held the first three public meetings of the campaign last week, one in Merriton and the other in Port Dalhousie, and in the chair will be held in St. Catharines. All three were well attended. Speakers from Toronto and Niagara Falls addressed the meetings, followed by the Labor candidate, W. E. Longdon, a returned soldier. All three meetings were long, from the way the audience cheered the speakers. There seems to be dissatisfaction among a section of the old Conservatives and the Labor party reports many old-timers coming over to its ranks. The farmers are taking a very active part and are arranging for meetings in their districts. There are many farmers in the grape-growing business, who will be hard hit by the cutting off of the manufacture of wine. These men may discontinue to support the present government. Several meetings are being arranged by the Labor party for the coming week.

HAMILTON IS OUT FAVOR BIG RADIAL

The American delegation will take the initiative in this work and tomorrow will lay what may be called the American plan before the council. The council is ready to take it up.

It is a great, splendid and noble ambition which has come to all of us. It is desirable that success should crown our efforts. This cannot be done unless we have clearly determined ideas on what we want to do. We have come together as friends; we must leave this hall as friends. As long as we are gentlemen, is the first thought that comes to me. All else must be subordinated to the necessity of a closer and closer union among the peace-loving nations. For the league of nations is here, and it is our duty to make it live, and to make it live we must have it really in our hearts.

As I told Mr. President Wilson a few days ago, there is no sacrifice I am not willing to make in order to accomplish this, and I do not doubt that you all have the same sentiment. We will make the same sacrifices, but on a condition, that we endeavor impartially to conciliate interests apparent in the peace conference, but on the plane of a greater, happier and better humanity.

That, gentlemen, is what I had to say to you. I am touched beyond words by the evidence of good-will and friendship which you show me.

Program of Conference. The program of this conference has been laid down by President Wilson. It is no longer the peace of a more or less vast territory; no longer the peace of nations that is to be made. The program is sufficient in itself. Let us act swiftly and wisely.

He then turned to the program of the conference, which he said covered the following main subjects of general concern: First, responsibility of the authors of the war; second, responsibility for the crimes committed during the war; third, legislation in regard to international labor.

All the powers represented would be invited to present memorials on the three questions. The powers having particular interest, M. Clemenceau said, would be asked to present further memorials upon territorial, financial and economic questions.

League of Nations First. The league of nations will be placed at the head of the order of the day of the next full session," M. Clemenceau announced, as he concluded his address. He paused for further suggestions of business, and as none was made, he declared the session adjourned.

It was 4:30 o'clock, and the opening session had lasted exactly one hour and a half. No exact time was fixed for the reassembling of the full session of the conference, as that awaits the decision of the supreme council of the five great powers, which will probably meet Monday morning.

POINCARÉ'S ADDRESS TO CONFERENCE

French President Declares Aim is to Prevent Recurrence of the Evil.

ORGANIZE A LEAGUE

Thanks Them for Choosing City Which Has Been Military Objective of Enemy.

Paris, Jan. 18.—The peace conference was formally opened this afternoon with a speech by President Poincaré.

President Poincaré thanked the allied nations for their honor in choosing Paris for their meeting and praised the valor of the allied armies which have victoriously defended against unceasingly renewed offensives.

France has borne enormous sacrifices although she had not the slightest responsibility for the frightful ending that has overwhelmed the universe.

"There is no need of further information or for special inquiries into the origin of the war, which has so shaken the world."

"These are the two unforgettable outrages which opened the way to aggression. The combined efforts of Great Britain and France were exerted against this man-mad romance."

"The interest of justice and peace rests with you to reap from this victory its full fruits."

"What I am happy to say here in the name of all the nations is that the United States have declared themselves against Germany."

"From the north to the south, the new world rose with indignation when it saw the empires of central Europe having let loose the war without provocation and without excuse."

"The war gradually attained the fulness of its first significance and became in the full sense of the term, a crusade of humanity for right, and if anything can console us in part at least, for the losses we have suffered it is assuredly the thought that our victory is also the victory of right."

MINING COMPANIES' RECORDS SET FORTH

Everyone interested in Porcupine and Cobalt stocks, and the number of such persons has grown very appreciably within the past few months. We find the compilation presented by Heron & Co., 4 Colborne Street, in The World on Saturday, of great interest. The statement is comprehensive, setting forth as it does the capital shares issued, par value, acreage of property, dividend records, range of prices during the past two years and the transfer office of each of the mining companies, while a column devoted to "remarks" supplies much additional information. The table, which has been copyrighted by Heron & Co., should be preserved for reference by all those to whom the great gold and silver mining industry of northern Ontario makes appeal, and intending investors in particular should not neglect the opportunity afforded.

THE STORY OF THE WORLD'S GREATEST GOLD MINE

Noah A. Timmins, L. H. Timmins, John McMartin, Duncan McMartin and D. A. Dunlap had been associated in the ownership of the La Rose Consolidated at Cobalt. When that property was sold for $6,000,000 the partnership naturally dissolved. The old members, however, came together again under the lure of Porcupine, and formed the Canadian Mining and Finance Company. This company controlled the Hollinger Gold Mines and owned outright the Millerton on the west, the Acme on the east, and Claim 13147. The Acme and Hollinger were the only producers in this group. The output of the former on the first of January, 1916, was only $1,036,087. Work, however, had been pushed on the Hollinger and it had mined and milled 726,992 tons of ore having a gross value of $9,778,783, and yielding a profit of $6,078,924. The great Hollinger Consolidated was formed in March, 1916, all adjustments, however, dating back to the first of January, 1916. It took in the Hollinger, Acme, Millerton and Claim 13147, a total of eleven mining claims, or 440 acres in one compact block. The authorized capital was $25,000,000 in shares of $5 each. 2,400,000 shares went to the Hollinger, 2,100,000 to the Acme, 200,000 to the Millerton, and 100,000 to the Canadian Mining and Finance Co. There are now 80,000 shares in the treasury, the issued capital being $24,600,000.

On the 28th of January, 1915, the Hollinger Gold Mines had increased its dividend rate to one per cent. per week, payable every four weeks, and when the consolidation was effected the total distributions amounted to $4,170,000, or 139 per cent. of the capital. In addition to this there was a surplus of $1,625,209 on hand. In other words, the total net earnings of the Hollinger Gold Mines in six years from the break into the waste of woods (1910 to 1915, both inclusive) was over 193 per cent. on its capital of $3,000,000. A number of the Hollinger shareholders paid only $3.50 for their shares. When the consolidation took place they had received dividends of $7.15 in respect of each share. They were also allotted four new for every old share, and these new shares are now worth $25 in the open market. They had no kick coming. In estimating or measuring the extent of this achievement we must in the first place consider the absolute want of all the facilities of industrial civilization when exploration began in 1910. A railway had to be built for 32 miles. Roads had to be constructed. The forest must be removed, hydro-electric power developed, housing accommodation provided, machinery installed and deep holes punched in the unyielding bosom of old Mother Earth, and then there was combat with fire and strikes and the complexities incident to a new gold district with mining problems still unsolved. The energy and faith of the pioneers can be measured by the many difficulties which they faced and overcame. Success must have seemed far away and there was no one to say with certainty whether it would adequately reward the effort and the risk. And here we must add a further word to open up the whole perspective. There is no surface enrichment in Northern Ontario. Any gold that may have been concentrated from weathering or degradation has been swept off by the glaciers of the ice age. The ore deposits are deep-seated, they are lasting. We have no ephemeral surface bonanzas which can be realized on in a short time. Under conditions such as this the superstructure of success called for a solid foundation. The SOVEREIGN PORCUPINE GOLD MINES, LIMITED, owns 4 claims or 160 acres. One claim of 40 acres is immediately adjoining the great Hollinger mine, two claims of 80 acres are a short distance south and the other 40 acre claim adjoins the North Davidson. The Sovereign Co. will start work first on the claim next to the Hollinger by diamond drill to cut the veins which are expected to connect up with its rich neighbor. The capital of the Sovereign Company is only $1,000,000, in $1 shares, and 100,000 only of these shares will be offered now at the remarkably low price of 25c a share. Those looking for what we consider the best speculative chance ever offered in Porcupine should make no delay in securing a block of the stock at the present attractive price, as the company will doubtless make a material advance in price in any future offerings.
