Commons Railway Committee Receives Information From General Manager Hays and Discusses Subsidies and New Routes to Canada's Granary.

Ottawa, Ont., May 13.—(World Staff Correspondence.)—General Manager Hays of the Grand Trunk was yesterday before the Commons Railway Committee in Ottawa. The committee received information from Hays regarding the proposed new routes to Canada's granary and the subsidies to be granted for their construction.

The committee was informed that the Grand Trunk had proposed a new route from Montreal to the West, via the St. Lawrence and Ottawa rivers. This route would be a significant improvement over the existing routes, which were often slow and unreliable.

Hays also discussed the subsidies to be granted for the construction of these new routes. He stated that the Grand Trunk was prepared to accept a subsidy of 7 per cent on the cost of the new routes, provided that the government would also contribute 7 per cent.

Oppose the Subsidy Grant He favored the extension of the Intercolonial into the West (Appause).

It was not necessary to build an entire transcontinental railway, if Canada was not prepared to do this as a national undertaking, then Canada should not subsidize private railways for that purpose. This bill would create a vested interest which would give the promoters a basis for demanding a subsidy.

"We want an all-Canadian line through Canadian territory, furnishing transportation for western products at the lowest possible cost," he concluded.

He contended that before these privileges were granted they should consider the question of building a government line into the wheat fields in the West.

Patriotism or Business, Mr. Hays asked whether this was to be a patriotic or a business proposition.

Mr. Hays asked whether this was to be a patriotic or a business proposition. He stated that if it was a business proposition, it should be based on the merits of the case, and not on the grounds of patriotism.

He also stated that if it was a patriotic proposition, it should be based on the grounds of national interest, and not on the grounds of business.

Mr. Hays also stated that he was in favor of extending the Intercolonial railway into the West, but that he was not in favor of subsidizing private railways for that purpose.

Blair Not Satisfied Mr. Blair said that he was not satisfied with the arrangement for the interchange of freight between the Grand Trunk, Pacific and the Intercolonial. The Grand Trunk would be prepared to build a new line to a near Canadian port.

Big Strike in Australia Revolt Against Authority

Melbourne, Victoria, May 13.—In the Melbourne assembly today, Premier Irvine made a speech on the subject of the strike. He said the country faced a long meditated revolt against established authority. The issue concerned every citizen. The strike had thrown the state into confusion, and it would be a fight to a finish.

The Premier then moved the second reading of a bill providing for the suppression of the strike which is not retrospective, and which will not remain in force after the termination of the strike. It provides that an employee leaving his work without giving four days' notice is to be assumed to have joined the strike, and will incur the penalty of $500 fine or a year's imprisonment, with loss of pension, and will be ineligible in future for government employment.

OPPOSE BUSINESS TAX HITS LITTLE DEALERS

Premier Ross' Taxation Proposal Discussed and Various Interests Were Heard.

The Municipal Committee wrestled with the Premier's taxation bill for a couple of hours yesterday. A number of delegations were present to urge objections to the bill, which the Attorney-General described as "revolutionary." These are some of the bodies represented:

The Ontario Municipal Association, City Solicitor McKelcan and Assessor Hutton of Hamilton; Messrs. Falterton, Caswell and Foreman of Toronto.

The Retail Merchants' Association—President Rogers, Secretary Trovren and Messrs. Gibbard and Doherty.

The Manufacturers' Association—Messrs. Thorne, Murray, Osborne, Young and Dr. Malloy, Toronto.

Toronto Board of Trade—Messrs. J. P. Ellis and D. E. Thomson.

The Canadian Fraternal Association—Messrs. W. J. McCannion, Lyman Lee, John A. Peterson of Toronto; Mr. Montague, Hamilton; Mr. Snelgrove, Cobourg, and Dr. Malloy, Toronto.

W. A. DeWigga appeared for the Single Tax Association.

Kickers Come Forward. After the Attorney-General had demanded to know who the kickers were, Mr. McKelcan stepped forward as a representative of that body. On behalf of the Ontario Municipal Association he declared against accepting in toto the proposed changes, exempting personality and levying a 7 per cent business tax on rental values. He claimed Hamilton would be short $35- 000 in revenue. One specific objection was that owners of vacant lands would be taxed for fire and police protection, while others, who profited by these privi- leges were exempted from taxation under the clause respecting personality. The ground rental of a business did not indicate the value of the business, thus showing the inequality of the proposed business tax. The bill was also objected to because it added to the business tax, a tax on income as ascertained by sworn returns.

Manufacturers Like It. Mr. Young, secretary of the Manu- facturers' Association, announced that the association agreed to the bill, while Mr. Rogers, for the Retail Merchants' Association, announced the opposi- tion of that body to the business tax. He gave some examples of how the tax would work to the disadvantage of small retailers, and finally agreed to a graded business tax of 3 to 5 per cent on small retailers and 10 per cent on large concerns, instead of a uniform tax of 7 per cent, and that an additional tax of 2 1/2 per cent be levied on all sales over more than six departments.

Mr. Gibbard and Mr. Trovren of the same association spoke of the injustice of English, Scotch, Norwegian, Swedes, in a little kick against the Assessment Commission.

Law Works Well Elsewhere. John F. Ellis, representing the Board of Trade, said he was in favor of the bill. A similar law was in force in Winnipeg and Montreal, and worked well. Its working had been investigated and, instead of decreasing taxation, it had increased it. He stated that business men and firm would pay $100 more.

Mc. D. E. Thomson spoke in favor of the bill. He would suggest exempting the small retailers from the tax.

The fraternal society representatives asked for an exemption of the tax on income as their funds were largely held in trust.

Property Qualification To Be Wiped Out in Cities

Second Reading in Legislature of Important Municipal Measure.

The bill of the City of Toronto, introduced by Dr. Nesbitt, was given its second reading in the legislature yesterday afternoon and provoked some discussion. Briefly, the bill proposes to wipe out the property qualifications for mayor and aldermen, so that anyone who has a vote in the municipality can be elected to the City Council. It reduces the property qualifications for voters from $400 to $200, and allows women who have the requisite property qualification to vote, whether married or single. There are also some elaborate provisions in reference to the transmission of electricity, similar to the provisions of the Premier's power bill.

GOOD OF RAILWAY LABOR THEME OF HOUSE TALK

How Quebec and Ontario Divide the Spoils of the Political Field.

Ottawa, May 13.—(Special.)—In the House the afternoon was taken up in making some progress with Mr. Mullock's bill for settlement of railway labor disputes, and in a discussion on the allotment of cabinet positions, as between Ontario and Quebec.

The Department of Public Works, one of the great "spoiling" departments, has for many years been held by a Quebec minister. When Mr. Tarte left, this department went to Mr. Sutherland, an Ontario man, while Mr. Prefontaine, the new Quebec minister, took the Department of Marine and Fisheries. In order to soothe Quebec feeling, it was given out that the jurisdiction of Mr. Prefontaine's department was to be greatly enlarged, and that he was to have control of the St. Lawrence River improvements.

NO LICENSE BILL NOW SO SAYS PREMIER ROSS

Measure Outlined in Speech From Throne Not Coming Up
This Session.

Ottawa, May 13.—(Special.)—The statement that the government will not this session introduce the bill outlined in the speech from the throne, dealing with a proposed reduction in the number of licenses and an attempt to regulate the treating system. At any rate, this is the reply he gave to a question from the Ontario Alliance that waited upon him in his office yesterday morning, after there seems to have been a general endeavor to prevent it leaking out. The matter was discussed in the Alliance later in the day, and it is needless to say much disappointment and dissatisfaction was expressed. The Premier is said to have urged the great delay and the common cause by the government investigation as a reason for withholding the bill.

UPSET STRATTON'S STORY AS TO GAMEY'S PRESENCE

Manitoulin Member at Fair Grounds, Not Parliament Buildings, Sept. 9.

After listening all morning to a number of Manitoulin witnesses, who readily avowed that all of Mr. Gamey's pre-lection utterances distinguished him as a strongly Conservative and none as indicating any top-over attitude, the prosecution brought forward some real-izing ideas than a straight rebuttal of the evidence given by Mr. Stratton and Frank Sullivan for the defence, that on the morning of Sept. 9 last Mr. Gamey had first been at the Provincial Secretary's office, the only day during that month when he did visit the buildings. D. J. Armstrong is a general merchant at Gory Bay. On Sept. 8 he came to Toronto. On the morning of Sept. 9, after having been in the McCormick Harvester Company's office, for which he is an agent, about 10 o'clock he met Mr. Gamey on Yonge-street, at Simpson's corner, and made an appointment to meet him at 10 o'clock at the Exhibition grounds. This appointment, Mr. Armstrong says, was kept, and he and Mr. Gamey made the rounds of the Fair until 1 o'clock. Mr. Johnson was very rigorous in his cross-examination, in an endeavor to shake the witness in the morning. He asked him facts persistently and successfully.

As to Bank Exam-ination, Mr. Johnson asked Mr. Gamey if he had been to the bank on the morning of Sept. 9, and if he had, whether he had seen Mr. Gamey there.

When the session opened, Walter Barwick, K.C., appeared for the Ontario Bank, and stated that in compliance with a request from Mr. McPherson the bank had prepared a tabulated statement as to cheques and bills, Mr. Barwick said that the bank was prepared to give to one counsel on each side, in private, information they desired. He also stated that the bank was prepared to furnish to the best of the company's ability information in reference to the operation of the bill, and he believed counsel should inspect the books. Incidentally, Mr. Johnson took occasion to state that the Ontario Bank was the investigation "day after day and week after week, and keeping Mr. Stratton in the position in which he is situated, the members of the House who are in the House is in session."

Alibi for Gamey. Mr. Armstrong had given evidence several Manitoulin men had given evi- dence. He came to Toronto on Sept. 8, he said. He had the time fixed in his mind for a payment of certain accounts to the McCormick Company, receipts for which he produced. On the morning of Sept. 9, Mr. Gamey, arranged to meet him later in the morning at the Fair grounds, had been made to wait until the morning of Sept. 9.

Mr. Johnson went after Mr. Arm- strong's evidence, and asked him particular attention to minute details regarding the time of day. What time did he first meet Mr. Gamey that morning? Had he looked at his watch? What time did he get up that morning? What time did he breakfast that morning? Where had he been then? How long had he remained at the office of the McCormick Harvester Company? Did he get to the Fair grounds? Did he get to the Fair grounds? Did he get to the Fair grounds? Did he get to the Fair grounds?

Crack Yankee Regiment Lord Minto's Body Guard In Detroit's Reception

Michigan's Metropolis Pay Enthusiastic Compliment to Repre- sentatives of Imperial England's Proud Monarchy—Thou- sands Welcome Vice-Regal Party at Border Line.

Enthusiastic Crowds. So great was the crowd which lined the street that Police Commissioner Poon decided to close off the main streets, which was done, and this mat- terially assisted in the successful hand- ling of the thousands of people who waited patiently for hours to secure a glimpse of Canada's chief dignitary.

The special train bearing the Governor-General's party rolled into the Windsor station a few minutes before 3 o'clock this afternoon. Drawn up in open order with fixed bayonets, opposite the station, stood a guard of honor of two light companies of the 21st Regiment, under command of Capt. E. H. Wigle and Lieutenants W. H. Isaacs and David Ross.

Cheers for the Guests. As Their Excellencies appeared on the station platform, accompanied by Sena- tor C. E. Casgrain and Mayor Drake of Windsor, the guard presented arms and the 2000 people who had gathered there to pay homage to the distinguished guests by playing the National Anthem, thus a lane of several thousand school children, waving small Union Jacks, and the many drivers of carriages to the Armouries on Quaiette Square, where Senator Casgrain presented the regiment, to the Governor-General, and the latter at once referred to the splen- dide information being composed of the guard, remarking that he had have mistaken them for regulars had not been so informed to the contrary. In the meantime the City Council and officials, Mayors of all the munici- palities in Essex County and prominent clergy, in the meantime, the singing crowd could not be accommodated, also some thousands of people were having attained the object hoped for, showed no signs of the arduous duties of the past couple of days, and made a striking impression on this their first visit to the Canadian City of the Strait.

Long Historic Frontier. After the proud reception, a drive was taken along the historic frontier above and below the river. The vice- regal party expressed their deep ad- miration of the country, their reception by thousands of school children, and the guard of honor, which was very highly complimented by Major Maude, National Guard of Canada.

The party crossed the river to Detroit in a private yacht, while the 21st Fusiliers played the National Anthem. A naval party from the Detroit and the distinguished party landed in Detroit amid the cheering salutes of many thousands of school children, and excelsiors returned to the Windsor side.

Royal Welcome in Detroit. Detroit, Mich., May 13.—Mayor May- bury, with a number of Detroit ladies and gentlemen, escorted Lord and Lady Minto across the river from Windsor early this evening in the yacht Vita, placed at the disposal of the party by Col. Hecker. The landing was at the foot of Woodward-avenue, and from there the party, in carriages, passed through Jefferson, Griswold, Washington, Adams and Woodward-avenue to the hotel, where a reception was held and refreshments served, when the party was escorted to the river, where the Vita was boarded, and with her dis- tinguished passengers crossed to Wind- sor. The procession was headed by mounted police, followed by the band, among which was the 1st Regiment United States Infantry, known as the "Fighting First."

Two days ago direct from the Philip- pines, after a long and arduous cam- paign in those islands, the 1st Regiment of lighters lined the streets thro- ugh which the procession passed.

After the reception, the party presented by Col. Bartlett. Their Excellencies proceeded to hold an informal reception, assisted by Lady Elliot, Ellis, guests by playing the National Anthem, thus a lane of several thousand school children, waving small Union Jacks, and the many drivers of carriages to the Armouries on Quaiette Square, where Senator Casgrain presented the regiment, to the Governor-General, and the latter at once referred to the splendide information being composed of the guard, remarking that he had have mistaken them for regulars had not been so informed to the contrary.

SHOWERS AND COOLER. Meteorological Office, Toronto, May 13.— The weather has cleared in the Lake Su- perior region and has been fair and warm today in nearly all parts of Canada and there does not appear to be much prospect of rain except perhaps a few scattered showers in Ontario and Quebec. The temperature has been between 59 and 69 on the Northwest Territories.

EGG EXPORTERS LOST MONEY. Representatives of Twenty Firms Meet to Discuss the Market.

Egg exporters, representing about 20 firms, and including William Flavell, Lindsay, J. H. Hunter of Hyslop & Hunter, L. N. St. Armand, William Meldrum of Montreal, George Moore of Waterloo, John Walker of Chatham, Mr. Richardson of Walkerton, Mr. Morgan of Delhi, Mr. Jackson of Simcoe, William Perrin of Newmarket, and others, met in the Board of Trade yesterday, in an endeavor to reach some agreement among themselves to regulate the prices to be paid for eggs for export purposes. A year ago, an effort in this direction was made, but with no satisfactory result. Competition between the dealers has been so keen that the prices they have paid have been higher than could be expected, and all have lost money. While a maximum price of 10 cents a dozen fresh hatching eggs, and 9 cents to 10 cents for cold-storage stock was agreed upon, the gathering broke up without having attained the object hoped for, and every dealer will continue to look out for himself.

THE FLAG QUESTION

Toronto is proud of its new hotel and grateful to the man whose courage and ability made such a magnificent enterprise possible.

The management apparently were guided by the most generous reasons in giving the Stars and Stripes a place among the flag decorations.

The American flag had become an all too regular custom in this country. The American flag is not only willing but anxious that he should be accorded every hospitality.

There are few cities in the American republic that would tolerate the raising of a British flag in connection with an event which had no international significance.

American take a wrong impression from the defence which Canada pays to American sentiment. Canada is not big enough to patronize.

The King Edward is a gigantic enterprise, and there is not room for a suspicion that it had any other object than to show a neighborly spirit towards the people of this country.

A REWARD FOR A CLUE. The Ontario government offer a reward of $5000 or $10,000 for information that would reveal the source of the bribe money paid to R. R. Gurney.

CLUB HOUSE FOR M.D.'S

Will Be Established Here—Library To Be a Feature. A club house for the convenience and accommodation of the medical profession of Ontario, the chief for Toronto doctors, is about to be established in this city.

With nothing more to guide them than the counsel of Attorney-General Gibson, the people of Ontario would take a long time to embrace public ownership. Fortunately, the people have a basis to proceed upon more reliable than the views of an attorney.

It would be most unfair to weigh the possibilities of municipal ownership against the maladministration of one municipality. A municipality may make poor use of an enterprise just as a private corporation may show a deficit at the conclusion of what it regards as a fair trial.

The Hamilton Times still relies on Stratton. The Ross government is delighted that it has secured Ontario before this crisis in the building trades occurred.

SEVEN TO ONE

Sometimes the weight goes up that way when taking Scott's Emulsion. Seven pounds of new, healthy flesh from a one pound bottle of Scott's Emulsion is on record.

Scott's Emulsion brings everything to its aid; good appetite, strong digestion, rich blood, new body strength, and above all the power to get all the good out of ordinary food.

For those who are in need of more flesh there is nothing better. Thin folks—try it!

BARKING AT LORENZ.

Operation on Lotis Armour Said Not to Have Succeeded.

Washington, May 13.—The American Therapeutic Society adjourned today to meet in New York City on May 10, 11 and 12, 1904. Dr. Howard H. Barker of Washington was elected president.

At the meeting to-day Dr. Lorenz was discussed, and it was stated that the operation on Lotis Armour had not been entirely successful. The storm centre of the discussion of the Lorenz method was at the session of the American Orthopedic Association, before which Dr. A. J. Steele of St. Louis cited the case of O. Hoy, eight years old, afflicted with hip disease, who had been operated upon by the Austrian surgeon, stating that the child had died of meningitis. He did not attribute the death directly to the operation, but wanted his colleagues that the Lorenz method ought to be employed with great care. Several other addresses were made for and against the Lorenz method, paralysis and death resulted from its employment.

Another Proof in the Controversy.

Under certain conditions, white bread, potatoes and all starchy food fail to digest and bowel troubles and appendicitis are likely to follow unless the food is changed. After consulting five physicians, the last three of whom declared that the operation for appendicitis was the only way to save her life, a young lady of Bloomington, Ind., recovered her health entirely with no other aid than Grape-Nuts, the scientific predigested cereal food. She says: "Three years ago, I had an attack of what my family physician pronounced congestion of the bowels and stomach. "I treated me for some time, but I continued to grow weaker, constantly subject to the same attacks. I was compelled to give up my studies at college. In the meantime, I consulted another physician. Finally I went to a specialist, who pronounced it, curable of the stomach and acute appendicitis. I was under his care for about three weeks, when I had another attack, and my parents called other physicians, who claimed that nothing but the removal of the appendix would save my life. "My parents refused to permit this, and I was left a total wreck, weak, nervous, unable to eat. It was then that I tried Grape-Nuts, feeding me a teaspoonful three times a day. Upon this food alone, I improved from the start to the great wonder of my family. For two months I ate nothing but Grape-Nuts, and drank beef tea. Since that time (which was more than a year ago), I have not had the slightest ailment, and I am now strong and able to study again. I know that I owe my restored health to Grape-Nuts, and I now eat it constantly." Name furnished by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

In this case, as in most cases of appendicitis, the trouble started with inflammation of the bowels, resulting from the use of starchy food, which was undigested in the stomach, and went into the intestines in an undigested condition, fermenting there and starting disease. The food which bread will do this. Relief and final cure came when the improper food was left off, and Grape-Nuts (in which the starches have been transformed into grape sugar by a predigesting process), was used. Although all of the rebuilding elements are there in Grape-Nuts, the food is so pure that the most delicate stomach relishes and digests it.

PROF. DUDLEY APPEARS

A COAL STATE TOWN

"Princess Iola" Becomes Fatigued When About to Tell the Name of a Murderer.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 13.—The Gazette has the following despatch from Newcastle, this State: The promised exposure by the "Princess Iola" of the mystery of the murder of City Treasurer John Blevins served to fill the opera house last night, but the several hundred people present were badly disappointed, as the expose did not materialize.

The "Princess" appeared here three nights and did some clever things in mind reading, which served to make many believe she could name the man who killed Blevins. The Princess sat blindfolded in the centre of the stage and there was a breathless silence when she began to tell of the murder. It was promised by her husband, Prof. Dudley, a conjurer, that the Princess would give every detail of the murder and end by announcing the name of Blevins' murderer. Incidents of the desperate struggle between Blevins and his unknown assailant were slowly described until a murdered man sank unconscious under his desk and the murderer slunk away. The Princess said the murderer was marked and she could not announce his name, and asked to mention John, when suddenly Dudley rushed to her side and ordered her not to mention the name of the murderer. He then the name of the murderer. The Princess would whisper to him the name of the murderer. The chief was absent and Mayor Jackson went upon the stage, but the "Princess" pleaded fatigue and made arrangements to meet the mayor, chief of police and the local newspaper men at 3 o'clock this afternoon when the name of Blevins' murderer would be announced.

Mayor Jackson and Chief Horner visited the hotel at the time appointed, but the "Princess" and Dudley left before they could get into the room, going to Connellville.

This looks very much as if Prof. Dudley, formerly of Toronto, now mourned for many moons, is down in the coal State winning his way into the confidence of the Americans.

Depressing Roadbed.

The line of the G.T.R. from Norwich to Hamilton is undergoing some improvements. A large gang of men are employed on the work of depressing the roadbed on these two points in order to run under the railway's line to Buffalo. This change is for the purpose of running their road to Wrentham, which will, when the road is completed, be on the main line of the Grand Trunk.

This morning at 7 o'clock, the staunch Chicago will throw off the big hawser, and point her way to Niagara on the first trip of the season. Spick and span, painted and thoroughly overhauled, the Chicago never looked better "in her life." And that life, by the way, has been one of no little romance. The Chicago was built at Birkenhead, on the north side of Liverpool, and was originally intended as a blockade runner, but when she was ready for service, the Confederacy was no more, and her occupation was gone. She crossed the salt water, however, and was taken up to the Great Lakes, and was put in to get thru the canals. In 1878, she was brought down to become a rival on the Niagara route to the old City of Toronto and Southern today to take the Cambria to Buffalo.

Chicago, Ill., May 13.—Chicago's lake lumber trade is menaced as a result of a strike for higher wages by 500 tally-men in the yards along the Chicago River. The danger is twofold. The Chicago Marine Council, which will meet to consider the strike on Sunday, may decide to support the tallymen, and call off the lumber unloaded, or the yards may become congested by the inflow of lumber from northern ports, and make it impossible for lumber vessels to discharge cargoes.

Detroit, May 13.—The propeller Neptune, on her way to the plant of the Detroit Shipbuilding Company, this morning, became unmanageable, and hit the pier, and was damaged. The Neptune then glided off and hit the big car ferry, Saint Ignace, doing more damage. The Neptune was towed to the pier on Monday, and was to have been turned over to the owners to-morrow.

Shipyards Are Busy.

Cleveland, O., May 13.—There is plenty of new work in sight, and the indications are that the lake shipyard will have plenty to do during the coming winter. A number of deals are on the stocks, and the yards are busy with the next few weeks. M. J. Galvin of Buffalo is figuring on building two steel steamers for the lumber trade, to be built at the Charles Beatty of the Wilson fleet. James J. Hill has asked lake builders for figures on two steel steamers for the lumber trade, to be built at the Pacific Coast, and put in the lumber trade. The new vessels will, of course, be for next year's delivery.

LEVEL OF GREAT LAKES

SUBJECT OF REGULATION

Canada and the States to Undertake the Important Work.

Washington, D.C., May 13.—Developments of great importance to the commerce of the Great Lakes and the cities on their shores will take place in the immediate future. Upon his return to Washington President Roosevelt will appoint three commissioners to join in the formation of an international commission, Great Britain being the other nation concerned, to decide on a plan for maintaining the level of the lakes. There is an extreme variation of five feet in the levels of the lakes, and this has had a serious effect upon navigation. During the last congress authority was granted the president to invite Great Britain to join in the formation of a commission consisting of three members from the United States, one from each Great Britain. Those appointed by the British government will represent the interests of Canada and Lake Levels.

Secretary Hay has been in correspondence with the British Foreign Office for some months, and the negotiations have reached a point where the President will be able to make the appointment of the American commissioners. The duties of the commission will be to investigate and report upon the conditions of the waters of the lakes, to the boundary lines between the United States and Canada, including all waters, lakes and rivers whose natural outlet is by the St. Lawrence River to the Atlantic Ocean. To keep Lake Levels.

The commission also will report on the maintenance and regulation of suitable levels; on the effect on the shores of these waters and the structures located on the shores, and upon the interests of navigation by reason of the diversion of the waters or the change in their natural flow. They will report also on the measures necessary to regulate this diversion, and make such recommendations for improvement as will best subserve the interests of navigation.

One of the most important questions to be decided by the commission relates to the advisability of locating a dam at the outlet of Lake Erie. The members also will decide as to whether a dam will benefit navigation. If the structure is deemed advisable, the commission will make recommendations to their respective governments, looking to an agreement in treaty which will provide for the construction of the dam, and they will make an estimate of the probable cost.

This question has been discussed for years, and exhaustive investigations have been made by the Deep Waterway Commission. It has been decided that the best location for the dam is at the foot of Lake Erie, just below Buffalo. Many distinguished engineers have advocated the location of the dam in Niagara River, below Tonawanda, but the board found, upon investigation, that a dam located at this point would be less effective and more expensive than at the foot of Lake Erie. The project will cost $70,000,000, according to the estimates of the Deep Waterway Commission. The work already done will be of great value to the international commission, and will facilitate the work of the commission.

Some Important Questions. Many questions of far-reaching effect involve in the regulation and maintenance of the level of the lakes the construction of a dam. In certain years there is a maximum fall of five feet, and this is a serious matter to deep-draught vessels. This will be corrected, if the international commission can reach a conclusion to build a dam in the vicinity of the point decided upon by the Deep Waterway Commission.

There is one great obstacle in the way of the construction of a dam, as it is known by expert engineers that a dam would cause the waters to overflow at some points and cause great damage to the property on the shore. If the dam is located at the foot of Lake Erie, property on both the Canadian and American sides would be in danger of damage. This involves an international question, and one which will closely engage the attention of the commission.

In view of the investigations already made along these lines, it is believed by army engineers that all the difficulties presented can be overcome and an agreement reached which will result in maintaining the lakes at a level beneficial to navigation.

After receiving your kind advice I immediately began taking your medicine. After taking two bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' alternately with two of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and using one box of 'Lotion Tablets' I am entirely cured. Accused Admitted Stabbing, But Claimed Self-Defence—Verdict Was Manslaughter.

Christopher McGrain was last night adjudged guilty of manslaughter only for the stabbing of George Williams.

He took the stand himself and admitted the offence, but urged that he did so purely in self-defence. McGrain is 32 years of age, and took the day's proceedings coolly.

Quarrelled at Hotel. Andrew Burck, the first witness called, testified that McGrain had been in his bar at the corner of King and Parliament-streets on the night of March 23. He had imbibed somewhat, but was "fairly sober," altho it had been necessary to eject him at about 10.15.

William Wright, proprietor of the hotel where the trouble began, swore that Williams had called the prisoner a "damned Fenian."

Sydney Hare of 500 Parliament-street had seen McGrain have a half glass of beer on the bar in order to follow Williams.

Charles Trotter told of threats uttered by McGrain and of hearing him call threats after the deceased as he followed him from the bar, keeping, however, some distance to the rear.

Chas. Sutton, druggist, who was in the store at King and Sacville-streets, whether Williams had come after being stabbed, told of his weak condition at the time.

Dr. Smith, McGrain's employer, identified the knife used as being one which he had furnished him, and described him as a "peaceable, diligent, good workman."

Mrs. Elizabeth Aulbin of Eastern-avenue identified the knife as one with which the prisoner had threatened to "rip her windpipe out" on the morning before the stabbing occurred, and had seen him receive fifty cents from his wife for the purchase of whiskey.

Treatment at Hospital. Mrs. McGrain, Uren and Vainwright were questioned at length by Mr. Robinson, with a view to showing that Williams had died from insufficient care while at the hospital.

Detective Forest, who in company with Detective Cuddy, had made the arrest, testified as to McGrain's denial that he had been at Wright's, or that he had done the stabbing.

Mrs. Williams, widow of the deceased, told of the death interview with her husband, when he had said that an old man named McGrain had stabbed him at the Sacville School gate.

Miss Mullen, nurse at St. Michael's Hospital, who attended McGrain, was called, but had no evidence to give.

In His Own Defence. Christopher McGrain took the stand in his own behalf, and told how he was asked to go to the bar at the corner of Eastern-avenue in the afternoon.

He had gone to Wright's bar and Williams had called him a "damned Fenian." He had not noticed Williams leave the bar, but left himself open to attack.

Mr. Guthrie reviewed some of the previous troubles of the witness, including a trial for manslaughter. The Crown Counsel seemed surprised that McGrain had never told this story of the stabbing before.

Counsel's Earnest Plea. T. C. Robinson, K.C., for the defence, in a masterful address to the jury, undertook to reconcile the stories of the principal witnesses, emphasizing the fact that this was the first opportunity afforded the accused for telling his story.
