SEEKING TO DRIVE A WEDGE TO SEVER THE POLISH FRONT

Soviet Cavalry Attempting Encircling Movement Against Lemberg.

UKRAINIAN SUCCESS

Warsaw, Aug. 29.—The Russian soviet forces are endeavoring to drive a wedge designed to sever the Polish front, according to an official statement on the fighting operations issued just before last midnight. Violent fighting is reported north of Belzec, to the north of Lemberg, where the soviet cavalry of Gen. Budenny is trying a new encircling movement against Lemberg. An advanced soviet detachment has reached Tyssowice.

In the region of Bobrova, 20 miles southeast of Lemberg, the Poles have repulsed repeated Russian attacks intended as a drive against Lemberg. The Poles are counter-attacking at Sarnica, and have smashed several soviet squadrons.

REDS ARE INTERNED.

Paris, Aug. 29.—Forty thousand Bolsheviks already have crossed the East Prussian frontier, and more are making their way across the border, according to the foreign ministry. It is added that the Bolsheviks are being interned under the direction of allied officers.

SAYS CANADA'S HOPE IS NEW PARLIAMENT

Declaration by W. L. M. King at Brockville—Bids for Farmer-Labor Vote.

Brockville, Ont., Aug. 28.—(By Canadian Press)—Addressing an open air meeting held under the auspices of the Leeds and Brockville Liberal Assembly, Saturday afternoon, Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, leader of the Liberal party, made a strong bid for the rallying of farmers and labor to the ranks of the Liberal party on the plea that it would be better for democratic forces of all classes and shades of opinion to unite against what he termed reactionary Toryism. He contended that at the present time there is neither a representative parliament nor a responsible ministry.

Other speakers included Hon. Jacques Bureau, who made strong protestations against the supposed cleavage between Quebec and other provinces, and sought to correct what he held to be misrepresentations of the oldest province. The Hon. G. H. Graham and J. H. J. Logan, ex-member of Amherst, N.S., also spoke. The meeting was attended by about 1,500 persons.

ADMITS ESCAPING FROM PRISON GUARD

Prisoner Who Was Being Taken to Burwash Surrenders in Toronto.

Declaring that he had escaped from custody of a prison guard while on his way to Burwash three days ago, Floyd Palmer of Chatham walked into Cowan avenue police station last night and gave himself up to the police. Palmer told the police that he had been sentenced to a term of one year at Burwash for stealing an automobile. He was handcuffed to another prisoner, and when they went into the lavatory of the train a man was nearing Burwash, Palmer and the other prisoner freed themselves of the handcuffs and jumped out of the train window.

PROMINENT AT OPENING OF EXHIBITION

ALL RECORDS BROKEN ON OPENING DAY OF TORONTO EXHIBITION

Twenty-Two Thousand More Present Than on First Day Last Year—Saturday Night Crowd Gives Remarkable Ovation to Heroes of War.

The Canadian National Exhibition, which was opened on Saturday, started breaking records on the first day, the attendance being 57,500, or 23,000 more than on the opening day last year, when 35,500 passed thru the gates. Saturday's attendance was the largest in the history of the fair, and the officials from President Robert Fleming down, were much gratified.

Opening day at the Exhibition had many noteworthy features, but it was left to the evening program before the grand stand to provide the great moment, when Toronto poured forth itself in an ovation of admiration to the men who had done deeds of valor for the country in her hour of danger.

When the veterans of the wars, then the amputation cases, and lastly those who had received the decoration of the Victoria Cross—the bronze emblem on its bit of crimson ribbon—came from the centre of the stage and lined up the stand and covered the ground between it and the ring, the people with one accord burst into a very tornado of clapping, cheers were shouted, hats were waved, tears came into voices and hearts went out in gratitude and pride to the victorious V.C.'s, Canada's knights who stand unsurpassed in the annals of the world's prowess.

With a little group who stood in the centre, garbed in the somberness of those who mourn for boys who lie in France, and the little cross on their head and the red poppies sheltering them, the soul of the audience commended for a moment in sympathy and hope. It was a sublime moment, that beat with the full pulse of the heart of a grateful people!

It was Veterans' Day, and so it was fitting that the performance should largely be by veterans for veterans and so the management had arranged it. The first number presented was (Continued on Page 8, Column 5).

MAKER OF HATS TO HIS MAJESTY.

Probably the most famous maker of hats in the world is Henry Heath of London, England. Heath is special designer of hats for His Majesty King George and held the same position for the late King Edward. The blocks Heath makes range from the straw sailor to the silk, and are noted for the excellent material used and the unfailing style of designs.

The Dineen Co., Ltd., is sole Canadian agent for the Heath Hat in Canada, and is today showing some of the latest blocks issued in soft and hard felts and the new silk hats. The prices asked in Canada for Heaths are fifty per cent. lower than New York merchants ask for the same goods. Call into Dineen's, 140 Yonge, and ask to see Heath's New Fall Hats.

TEN GERMANS DEAD; HEADS BLOWN OFF

It is feared, adds the report, that when news of this discovery spreads thru upper Silesia, where fighting has been going on since the German and Polish factions, the former will make reprisals.

CONFESS TO STONING OF WESTERN FARMER

Two Young Boys Admit Act Which Caused Death of Aged Galician.

Winnipeg, Aug. 29.—Two boys, 9 and 11 years old, respectively, have confessed to stoning John Kocuch, the aged farmer of the Galician settlement near Gimli, who died early last Monday morning of cerebral hemorrhage. Major G. W. Clark of the provincial police force announced Saturday. The boys, whose names are J. Buraski and John J. Kocuch, are now in the custody of the provincial police. No charge has yet been laid.

John Walechuk, who was held as a material witness in the case, has been granted his liberty.

CASH GRATUITIES AND FAIR PENSIONS AIMS OF VETERANS

Sane Liquor Legislation With Equal Rights for All. Also Urged.

MASSEY HALL MEETING

Two thousand five hundred returned men were present at yesterday afternoon's mass meeting, which was held at Massey Hall, under the auspices of the G.A.U.V., to consider the outstanding features of the meeting. The platform which the association intends to adopt as the political slogan for its adherents. Cash gratuities, proper pensions for disabled, and widows and orphans, and sane liquor legislation, with equal rights for pauper and millionaire—these were the main features of the platform.

The meeting was addressed by J. Harry Flynn, Dominion organizer for the G.A.U.V.; J. V. Marsh, provincial organizer; Herbert Capewell and James J. Higgins, Soldier-Labor candidate for Northeast Toronto.

The address of the Dominion organizer, and the ovation accorded the mention of the name of Sergeant Bruno, D.C.M., undergoing sentence for a breach of the O.T.A., formed the outstanding features of the meeting. "I might say we got Sergeant Bruno out of jail in time to attend yesterday's celebration of V.C.'s and D.C.M.'s," said Mr. Flynn, who stated that it had been his intention to influence the returned men to parade, not to the "vex" grounds, but to the hall, had been unsuccessful in getting Bruno out. Sergeant Bruno gained his distinction, the D.C.M., he said, for courageously rescuing an officer of the 8th Battalion at D. 4 Trench, Kemmel-Wulverhem, trenches, on November 3, 1915, and while doing so he had been severely wounded, and as to be completely disfigured.

MINERS WILL MEET IN LONDON TODAY

Only Complete Reversal of Government Policy Will Avert a Strike.

London, Monday, Aug. 30.—The executive committee of the miners will meet in London today to receive the results of the balloting on the question of a strike. There seems to be no doubt that the necessary two-thirds majority in favor of the men ceasing work has been obtained.

The labor correspondent of the Central News says there is no foundation for the belief that a strike will be averted by conciliatory efforts of the triple alliance and other trades union bodies. The correspondent adds that the indications are that nothing short of a complete reversal of the government's policy toward the whole of the coal mining industry will prevent a stoppage of work.

MACSWINEY'S DEATH HOURLY EXPECTED

Condition of Lord Mayor of Cork is Distinctly Worse and Pulse Feeble.

London, Aug. 29.—Mayor MacSwiney's condition was distinctly worse tonight; his pulse was very low. The mayor's brother, after a visit, reported that the prisoner collapsed during the afternoon, an difficulty was experienced in bringing him around.

His sister, who visited him this morning, said he passed a restless night, and was sinking, and the doctors thought he might die at any moment. MacSwiney was still conscious, however, and told her: "I am convinced I will not be released. It will be better for my country, if I am not."

PRIMATE OF IRELAND CONDEMNS SHOOTING OF POLICE OFFICER

Belfast, Aug. 29.—Cardinal Logue, primate of Ireland, in a vigorous letter read in the Dundalk churches today, denounced impartially the shooting of Constable Brennan, who was assassinated at Dundalk a week ago by masked men, and reprisals by the crown forces recently in southern Ireland. He says: "The poor victim I know to have been a quiet, upright man who never gave offense to anyone in the discharge of his duty."

Church Regulates Dress of Women

Madrid, Aug. 29.—No woman will be permitted to enter church unless dressed in "Christian modesty," says a notice circulated thru the diocese of Guadix by authority of Bishop Hernandez Mulas today. Any woman wearing a dress which exposes her chest and arms, or who has a short skirt or transparent coat, will be refused admission and also communion, while the clergy must refuse absolution to any woman so attired, the notice declares.

Women disobeying these orders of the bishop are forbidden to become members of church societies.

SINN FEINERS RUSH POLICE BARRACKS IN COUNTY ANTRIM

Inmates Held in Conversation While Armed Men Stole Arms and Ammunition.

WARNING TO MILITARY

Belfast, Aug. 29.—In broad daylight today Sinn Feiners entered Ballycastle, County Antrim, barracks, and decamped with all the arms and ammunition. A well-known republican called at the barracks and engaged the garrison sergeant and three constables in conversation, when a man dashed up and five men, revolvers in hand, leaping out, ran past the party into the barracks. The police were too surprised to offer resistance, and the raiders got away with the booty.

A Sinn Fein notice posted near Newmarket railway station, Cork, says that all military found out of doors after nine o'clock at night will be severely dealt with.

Many Outrages Are Reported From Various Irish Centres

Dublin, Aug. 29.—Altho Dublin was almost completely free from acts of violence during the week-end, reports received at Dublin castle tell of incidents of lawlessness in many parts of Ireland. Mails were held up in not less than seven places.

Lord Castletown was stopped by armed men while motoring near Skehanagh in company with two ladies. He was obliged to surrender his gun. Several barracks and coast guard stations are reported burned.

The official report of the death of John Buckley and the wounding of his brother, Bartholomew, after they had been arrested by military near Cork, denies the charge that they were roped together, back to back, in which position they were both wounded by the same bullet.

WHEAT PRICE CONTROL WILL CEASE TOMORROW

Business of Buying and Selling Canada's Most Vital Agricultural Product Becomes Once More the Business of Private Firms and Individuals.

Ottawa, Aug. 29.—(By Canadian Press)—With the going out of existence of the wheat control board on Tuesday of this week the business of buying and selling Canada's most important agricultural product will once more become the business of private firms and individuals. With the passing of the board there will also come an end to the fixing of prices for flour and wheat, and there is considerable speculation as to what the immediate effect of the restoration of the old order of things, with prices based upon market conditions, will be.

How Britain Will Buy. Recent cables from overseas have stated that the royal commission on wheat supplies for Great Britain, which in past years has made its arrangements with the Canadian wheat board or its predecessor, the board of grain supervisors, will now buy thru British brokers, who, in turn, will purchase from Canadian brokers.

FROM THE VERY FIRST THE 'EDUCATOR' FITS COMFORTABLY

"Auto-Maid" Fireless Cooker For Home or Portable Use

HERE is the Maid you need for your kitchen, or to take with you on the trip into the country. It cooks the entire meal while you ride, play or attend to the many other things which cooking heretofore has robbed you of doing. How much pleasure is the housewife compelled to forego on the ride into the country, or when guests call, because she remains a slave to the old-style ways of cooking? The Auto-Maid fireless cooker removes all the drudgery, and foods cooked in it taste better, are more nutritious and delicious, because all the flavor is retained. The meat is done to a turn, the potatoes are nicely browned, the vegetables whole, but tender, and all piping hot, too. The Auto-Maid Roasts, Bakes, Steams, Stews, and Boils to perfection—Meats, Vegetables, Cereals, Soup, Fish, Fowl, Bread, Pastry, Cakes, and Puddings—everything to your own recipes.

Auto-Maid cookers are equipped with the famous Wear-Ever aluminum utensils. The Cabinet is one piece steel, nicely enamelled in dull brown. The steel cover is attached to the body of the cabinet with a specially heavy steel hinge to hold the cover upright, and a spring fastener to clamp the cover in place. A ridge around the top of the cabinet seals the water and prevents it from running down the side. The linings are aluminum inside the compartment and cover. There is a steam vent built in the cover for the escape of surplus steam. Insulation is 100 per cent. fire-proof and of best heat-retaining qualities. A ball handle is provided for easy carrying—just like you would carry a bucket. The Auto-Maid is an ornament to the home, and a compact cooker for taking in the automobile. It is strong and durable—has the very best of materials and will outwear many cookers costing a great deal more.

BECAUSE it is made to conform to the natural lines of the foot, and is long enough and wide enough to allow the toes the room they really need.

Men who are on their feet most of the day swear by the "Educators" because of these reasons and the reason that they give exceptional wear, and though made on a rather wide last, they are not lacking in good looks.

Perhaps you are not wearing the right boots, and no doubt ahead of you lie foot troubles.

A slight ache in the arch or a corn are perhaps all the warning that you have had—"an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure." Decide that "Educators" will be the brand of boots you will buy next.

Those of black kid in blucher style are priced at $16.00; black calf blucher boots are priced at $16.00; black kid balmoral boots are priced at $16.00; brown kid blucher boots are priced at $17.00. All are Goodyear welted and carefully finished.

You'll find the leather in the "Educator" to be of fine quality. This is brought about through careful selection and the rejection of any leather that fails to come up to the "Educator" standard. Summed up, the "Educator" offers a wealth of foot comfort and long service at a reasonable price.

PANTAGES THEATRE FORMALLY OPENED

Thousands Unable to Get Into Toronto's Wonderful New Playhouse.

The opening of a Pantages theatre in Toronto—a dream of its promoter and a long looked for occasion on the part of local lovers of the silent drama, is now an accomplished fact. It is doubtful if a theatre or any other place of amusement was ever started on its way under more favorable auspices. The formal opening took place Saturday night, and large as the theatre is, it could not begin to accommodate the crowds. There were literally thousands turned away. If it is any consolation to these disappointed ones, it comes from the management of the theatre, who announce that the opening bill—both pictures and vaudeville—will be continued for the ensuing week. The whole affair partook of the nature of a public rather than a private, event. The mayor was there and from the stage told what a splendid thing it was for Toronto to have such an addition to its places of amusement—the largest theatre in the British Empire. The crowds agreed with him and cheered loudly. Controller Ramsden introduced Miss Norden, the personal representative of Mrs. Mildred Harris Chaplin. Somebody presented the lady with a beautiful bouquet, and she laughingly distributed, amid cheers, the flowers thru the audience. Sir Thomas Lipton, who occupied a box, was evidently favored—he received two. Mrs. Chaplin briefly thanked the crowd for the enthusiastic reception, and the house was thrown in darkness, while about a hundred feet of film from one of her pictures was thrown on the screen. To most of these, the novelty of listening to an artist in the life and then seeing her in pictures, was as pleasing as it was novel. Sir Thomas Lipton was invited to the stage by Mrs. Chaplin, and the crowd cordially seconded the invitation, but the famous yachtman bowed his welcome and declined to speak. The house was again darkened and a screen message was shown from Alexander Pantages, who unfortunately was prevented from being present, extending greetings to Toronto. The crowd cheered. The program, which will be continued during the coming week, followed, and if it is any criterion of the attractions that are to follow, one may safely predict that the future of the new Pantages Theatre is assured.

THEATRE BILLS FOR EXHIBITION WEEK

Pantages in Full Swing—Lou Tellegen Opens at the Princess.

Toronto's new magnificent Pantages Theatre is now in full swing. It was filled to capacity Saturday evening, for the opening, and it looks as though that condition will prevail right along. Commencing today, the regular scale prices will be in order, and it is announced that reserved seats may be purchased a week in advance. There are six wonderful vaudeville acts on this week's bill and also some fine picture attractions. Wallace Reid appears in "Sick Abed," and Harold Lloyd, in "High and Dizzy." The unequalled vaudeville includes Marconi Bros., Maud Earl & Co., McGrath and Deeds, Marjorie Peterson & Co., Fred P. Allen "On the High Seas." These are attractions that will extremely delight all Toronto theatregoers. Chu Chin Chow Opens. The 12th costume edition of F. Ray Comstock and Morris Gest production of Oscar Asche's oriental spectacle, "Chu Chin Chow," will be the gala attraction at the Royal Alexandra theatre, Exhibition week, beginning tonight. Usual matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday. Messrs. Comstock and Gest, the American producers, announce this as the farewell appearance here of their wondrous spectacle which is now beginning its trans-Canada tour, which will require the entire season to complete. Again "Chu Chin Chow" will be seen in a new costume array, imported from London for the long Canadian tour. The costumes are said to be an exact duplicate of the wardrobe designed for the Oscar Asche London production, which will soon enter its fifth year of continental touring.

THEATRE BILLS FOR EXHIBITION WEEK

where it has broken all known theatrical records and set a mark that will stand for many moons. The entire Century Theatre, N.Y., cast remains intact for the farewell tour, and still includes Marjorie Wood, Lionel Braham, Don W. Ferrando, Alfred Howson, Eugene Cowles and other familiar figures. The ballet of sixty, included in the mighty ensemble of 200, is again led by Miss Martha Lorber, the young English danseuse who came from London to dance for "Chu Chin Chow" during its second New York run. Owing to the tremendous length of the performance, the curtains will rise promptly at 2 p.m. at the matinee, and 8 o'clock in the evening. Lou Tellegen at Princess. Fate and philosophy are beautifully blended in the making of Lou Tellegen and Willard Mack's comedy drama, "Blind Youth," in which the romantic young actor, Lou Tellegen, will present himself and his own company, at the Princess tonight, for an engagement of one week, with Wednesday and Saturday matinees. "Blind Youth" has been so extensively heralded and magnified during the long runs enjoyed by the play in New York, Boston and Chicago, that the story is known to almost every theatre-goer in the land. For this, his trans-continental tour, Mr. Tellegen has engaged to support him a company worthy of the highest recognition, among its members being Lorna Ambler, Juliette Crosby, Helen Grayce, Marceline Bueger, Kathryn Howard, Douglas S. Bright, George Denebours, Schuyler White and Russell Clark. "The Dumb-Bells" to Continue. Exhibition visitors and the theatre-going public generally will be pleased to learn that the engagement of the famous scidler organization, "The Dumb-Bells," is to continue another week at the Grand in their delightful overseas revue, "Biff-Bing-Bang." Few theatrical organizations have received the patronage that has been extended to "The Dumb-Bells," and this patronage has not been extended out of sentiment, but because of the merit of the performance. It is doubtful if there is before the public today a company with so many stars in it. Every number on the lengthy program is a headliner, and the performance is given with a dash and enthusiasm that ensures success. On Wednesday evening the veterans' associations are entertaining the visiting troupe of circus men and their relatives to a special performance. During the week on the Grand matinee will be given on Wednesday and Saturday.

Big Bill at the Strand. City movie fans and Exhibition visitors will probably swarm to the Strand in great numbers this week. There is a very big bill there. First there is "The Deep Purple," the powerful photodrama from the sensational stage play of the same name. It is the story of an innocent girl falling among big city crooks and being inveigled into playing the "badger game" of blackmailing rich men. The love element is unusual and gripping. Then that prince of comedians—that famous droll chap with the horn-rimmed glasses, Harold Lloyd—will appear in the first of his new series of 100,000 comedies entitled "High and Dizzy." It is certain to be a scream. Another will be Lesla Auger, the delightful singer, ex-ecoliet. Commencing today, performances at the Strand will be continuous from 10 a.m. to 11 p.m. At Lewis' This Week. William Farnum is the star in "If I Were King," the biggest play of his screen career, from his famous novel and stage success, which is the big photoplay feature this week at Lewis' Yonge Street Theatre and Winter Garden. It is a gorgeous, thrilling picture. Mercedes, who headlines the vaudeville, assisted by Mlle. Stanton, presents one of the most remarkable demonstrations ever offered of the power of brain over matter. Mercedes is appearing under the personal direction of Mr. Marcus Loew. Other vaudeville features embrace: The Four Bangards, Ferns and Litt, Gortell and Rogers, Marshall and Walton and Cross and Santore.

Fifth Regent Birthday. This week marks the fifth birthday of the Regent Theatre. The event will not pass unnoticed. Special arrangements have been made and a fine program will be given. The feature film attraction is "The Fighting Chance." The story is based on Robert W. Chambers' famous novel. It is unique and extremely entertaining. It has numerous "punches" that everybody will like. "Little Miss Rogen" is a very attractive "birth-day" offering, and music by the famous Regent Orchestra will be of a special character. Miss Edna Reed, the dramatic soprano, is the soloist.

"Kandy Kids" at the Star. Lena Daley and her new show, "The Kandy Kids," reaches into the heart of real burlesque with its "Frenchie-gidle" atmosphere and burlesque patterns of the Star Theatre, where "The Kandy Kids" will be seen during the week, with daily matinees, will agree that the entertainment outclasses the classic from curtain to curtain. "The Kandy Kids," with its never-failing fountain of beauty girls of the French type, and music of the infectious brand, and its high lights of drollery and sparkles of wit, provides a remarkable entertainment. "Jingle Jingle." The girls of the "Jingle Jingle" chorus of twenty-four are fresh—but not too fresh! The comedians, headed by the inimitable comic, Max Field, are funny—but not to the point of boredom, and the prima donnas, Stella and "Dimple" Dolly Morrissey, display great vocal and dancing talent, but do not veer one with their efforts. "Jingle Jingle," the I. H. Herk production, which is offered at the Gayety Theatre this week, has many unusual features to recommend it, but probably the greatest of these is the fact that while it is an immense amusement enterprise, it never at any time gets on your nerves. It is the acme of perfection in this respect. May Robson in "Nobody's Fool." May Robson in "Nobody's Fool," written expressly for her by Alan Dale, the well-known dramatic critic and author, and presented by Augustus Ffoul, Inc., will be at the Princess the week of September 6. Theatregoers look forward to May Robson's visit every season as children do to Santa Claus and Christmas, and it is not the play that attracts it; it is the charming, lovable comedienne, who has year by year endeared herself to the public in the role of Mrs. Bixby. Alan Dale has written the part around Miss Robson in her everyday life off the stage, and the part is just brimming over with the subtle comedy of which she is credited to be a past grand master. The title "Nobody's Fool" is complimentary to one's wit, and Miss Robson in her quiet, unassuming matter-of-fact way, shows wise fools their wiscomings.

WORK IN ONTARIO Reports Show Increase in Place-ments—More Men Apply for Positions.

Reports from the Ontario offices of the employment service of the provincial department of labor show an increase in placements for the week ending August 14. Employment being found for 2143 men and 180 women, a total of 2,523. During the preceding week 2,217 men and 131 women, a total of 2,408, were placed in positions. SIR AUCKLAND GEDDES OPENS THE EXHIBITION

Declares Canada Is Sheet Anchor of the Empire—Tribute to Dominion War Efforts—British and American Interests Intertwined by a Million Ties, Ambassador Declares—Ideal Weather Attracts Large Crowd.

Toronto's big annual fair, now known round the world as Canada's National Exhibition, was officially opened for the forty-second time on Saturday, under the happy augury of rainless and cloudy skies, large and smiling crowds and the benediction of an empire statesman, Sir Auckland Geddes, who punched the button which figuratively set the machinery in motion for its two weeks' run.

The gates were opened at 10 o'clock, at which time a large crowd was already waiting for admission, and by noon thousands of visitors thronged the grounds and the buildings where Canada's wealth of production was displayed on a vaster scale than ever before. The history of the great fair has been one of unbroken progress, and this year's advance is particularly marked in its forward march. While the fair is essentially a presentation of Canadian industry and natural resources, the theme of the year is a lively appreciation of the need of providing healthy amusement for the crowds. Every kind of entertainment has been provided for this year, and the thrills, such as motor races and flying stunts.

Directors' Luncheon. Previous to the opening ceremony at the central band stand, a luncheon, tendered by the Exhibition directors, was held in the administration building with Sir Auckland Geddes as chief guest. Sir Thomas Lipton was also present and about 150 prominent Canadians.

Only five-minute speeches were included in the tables. After the president had delivered a brief speech, Sir Auckland Geddes followed with a five-minute address.

Sir Auckland said he appreciated the warm reception, and added that he was glad to get back in Canada. Like Rip Van Winkle, he had found very great changes since his last visit. Speaking of the Canadian spirit, he said he had seen this spirit represented in the splendid pictures on the walls of the Exhibition gallery. "No nation can be great and by being yourselves you will attain a greatness all your own," he concluded.

"At the opening ceremonies, the president addressed Sir Auckland Geddes as follows:
President's Address.
"Your Excellency—With a deep sense of the honor you have conferred upon the Canadian National Exhibition, the board of directors and members of the association share with you the privilege of extending to you a hearty welcome on this, the occasion of the opening of the 42nd annual exhibition.

"As a soldier, diplomat, statesman, administrator, and distinguished citizen, your long and distinguished service to His Majesty and to humanity is known and admired, but perhaps more than anything else the empire has your progress been followed with closer attention than in Canada, where, because of your residence amongst us, we feel we have a peculiar claim upon you.
"Your knowledge of its profound interest in Canada, its welfare and development, qualify you well, sir, to enter into the spirit of the Exhibition and to appreciate the evidence concentrated within these grounds and buildings of the marvelous wealth and possibilities of our natural resources, of the scientific, artistic and industrial skill and adaptability of our people and of the fertility of our fields, all of which, together with our manhood, were consecrated to the empire and civilization during the recent war. A potent force in that great conflict, Canada is striving to be an equally powerful factor for King and empire in the glorious new era just dawning.
"You are not actually a citizen of this Dominion you are at least, sir, a very near and very dear neighbor whom it is a delight to honor, and we are convinced that during your residence in Washington you will do much to cement that cooperation, kindly feeling and spirit of comradeship so much desired between the two great Anglo-Saxon races, peoples with the same ideals and institutions, between whom no distrust or misunderstanding should exist."

Ambassador's Reply.
In reply, Sir Auckland Geddes spoke as follows:
"To us who are citizens of the British Empire, some of whose fellows can at every moment watch the sun climb from behind the shoulder of the whirling world, the past years of strife inevitably brought hours of anxiety and days of danger. Not yet, and not for a long time, will the spirit of peace be re-established in the hearts of men. We cannot hope to remain in splendid isolation. We cannot isolate ourselves from the thought currents of humanity. Whether we will it or not, whether we like it or not, we must be prepared to meet every jar and to endure every shock and every blow which every man, disappointed, men, men can deliver to the framework of society.
"That there will be jars and shocks and blows is as certain as that the winter will follow summer, and spring, winter. To meet them, to endure them without flinching is an evidence of the spirit made strong by faith in some great ideal—the ideal of ordered freedom. But to meet and endure them without failure requires not only spiritual fortitude, but material preparation. Four years of bloody war made heavy inroads on the accumulated wealth and seriously impaired the prosperity of the empire. It will take all our efforts to regain the ease and comfort and the times of quiet leisure for holidays, for art, for study, for research and for invention that were ours before the war. To you, whose proud privilege it is to be Canadians, is granted a great opportunity of helping that restoration to an extent and in a measure that is not granted to any others of our fellow-citizens.

Knows Canadian Spirit.
"I know your spirit for I have lived amongst you. I never forget that by deliberate wish and choice I was one of you. I know your great country and its wonderful natural richness, for, in days before the war, with pride I called it mine, but now that I am the servant of the whole empire, the servant of India, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, no less than the West Indies, Canada, of the British Isles, I can see you as the great part of a great whole and to live how much for us all depends upon your efforts and upon your success. 'Work and prosper' is a motto of no limited application. It is the motto which must be made to ring in the ears of all the British peoples, the British in the east of England and the dominions beyond the seas. If it did not ring in the ears of the latter, it would ring in vain.

possible national practice. America, with all her power, owes much to England, but let us not forget that we all owe much to America. Her interests and ours are interwoven thru a million ties. It is vital for her I believe, for us I know, for the whole world I feel sure, that she and we should work together in friendship based on mutual respect and understanding. You, Canada, are her nearest neighbor. An inviolable line, unfortified, unguarded, separates you and her along thousands of miles of frontier. You have one great opportunity of interpreting to her and her to us. 'Four prospectively must, for many years to come, be closely linked with hers. You and she are here neighbors not potentially to affect each other, but actually to affect each other and prosper that action and reaction must increase in intensity. Were it possible to destroy by an effort of will all the other reasons which make friendship between all the English-speaking peoples essential, there would remain the all sufficient reason that you, a member of the British family, and she, great and legitimately proud, are such close neighbors as to be almost economically inter-dependent, while you and her ideals and ambitions run on paths so closely parallel that not even the watchman on the tower can see a reason why, with pride and statecraft on both sides, they should ever clash.

"But I have no fear for your future. During the war with deepening pride I watched and heard of the doings of your fighting men. The nations, whose sons were such heroic fighters, the men who did the doubtful deeds, the story of whose doing stands as a monument to the glory of the Canadian corps, is not and are not of the sort that is going to fail. You are winning back fast to prosperity. This great Exhibition shows that the springs of confidence and energy have not run dry in Canada. What have you to fear? Your land and its resources we know. Your climate and its vitalizing properties are the joy of all who have experienced it. The rest is in your own hands. What the red man failed to do in the millennium you will do in the decades, for you are workers, workers by brain and hand. You have the great opportunity to serve yourselves, to serve Canada, the empire, humanity. Take it, and may God go with you."
"But remember that material prosperity alone can never make a great nation. Greatness is not in outward things. No marble palace as a habitation is required to make a man great. Greatness resides in the inward recesses of his being and in his soul, made strong by struggle and schooled to humility by disappointment, perhaps by pain and suffering. Remember the children, that they must be educated to understand the nobility of work and not permitted to believe that luxury bought by wealth for whom their fathers labored is theirs by some divine dispensation. It is easier to be great in the midst of hardship than in the midst of wealth, and so I would amend slightly the motto of your Exhibition and say, 'Work that you may prosper spiritually and grow great,' for I know that if you do so, material prosperity will be yours and your cup will overflow."

Cheers for King and V.C.'s.
It was about half-past two that the parade of veterans reached the bandstand, on which the Victoria Cross men and many notable, including Sir Auckland Geddes, Premier and Mrs. Drury had already assembled. By the use of the amplifier, a device which increases the carrying power of the voice several fold, the words of the speakers were heard distinctly by the thousands assembled about the stand.

The address of Sir Auckland was punctuated with cheers. At its conclusion the soldiers assembled led off with three cheers for the King and also three cheers for the Victoria Cross heroes.
After the opening ceremony at the central band stand, the initiation of Sir Auckland Geddes, as a life member of the G.W.V.A., took place. The presentation was made by A. J. Shaw, secretary of the branch, and President C. G. Morgan and Comrade Perry, district command. This is the fourth notable member who has become a life member of the G.W.V.A. The others are H.R.H. Prince of Wales, Sir Arthur Currie, Major-General Townshend and Sir Auckland Geddes. The Beaches Branch capturing the two last names. The members of the branch executive were present during the initiation.

Sir Thomas and the Kiddies.
After the speeches, which inaugurated the opening of the Exhibition, the crowd that had gathered about the grand stand found a new attraction in greeting Sir Thomas Lipton.

"The world's greatest sport," as a woman in the crowd designated him, came out among the crowd and was soon surrounded. He shook hands with men, women and children indiscriminately and seemed to be particularly drawn to the wee tots, one of whom he lifted up while he had his photo taken by one of the camera men.
"Speech Tommy! Speech Tommy!" was shouted out by someone in the crowd, and the Sir Thomas establied the rather by mounting to the band stand, where all could see him, sailor-like, he declined the speech. Notwithstanding this, he was the cynosure of all eyes, while on the stand.
"That's him with the peaked cap drawn down over his face. He's not a bit like his picture," said a woman whose tone indicated that she found the hero much more satisfying in real life than when viewed from the pages of the paper.
When leaving someone called for three cheers, and then a tiger for Sir Thomas, the response being heartily given, with the addition of a final hearty cheer for "better luck next time."

A notable feature of this year's Exhibition is the V. C. Day, an occasion in which Canada, thru the patriotic spirit of the C.N.E. authorities, is doing a signal honor to the greatest in the land, the V. C. heroes of the Dominion. This occasion reflects as nothing else could the spirit of national gratitude for services which saved the empire in the hour of need.
The grounds were thronged with relatives and friends of returned men from all parts of the Dominion, and the societies of returned men were as strongly in evidence among the public as were their relatives.
Veterans' Day at the "Ex." this year is guided by the able hand of the Veterans' Reunion Council, a body comprising representatives of every thorough returned men's body in the Dominion. The women who served the empire are ably represented on this occasion, and three of them will be among those guiding the destinies of the veterans on their most auspicious day.

Between the exhibits themselves and the general appearance of the grounds, Mr. and Mrs. Toronto more than entertained themselves. There was a touch of the evergreen in the appearance of the grounds, the flowers making a specially attractive feature, heightened by the peculiar law-like touch given everywhere, due doubtless to the strangely springlike weather with which the province has been blessed this summer. The weather was really delightful, and added to the comfort of those on the grounds.

Electricity and all it represents has this year a building of its own. And, naturally, the inventive genius of the Hydro-Electric and other outstanding factors in the electrical world are presented here to their best.
A rather imposing feature of the transportation building this year is the fact that it houses practically two million dollars worth of automobiles and accessories of the best and most modern type. This building is housing only passenger automobiles, and the other types of useful motors, trucks are housed in two other buildings. It will readily be understood how immense the automobile industry has become in Canada.
Then again, one finds further afield the far reaching lesson of railway transportation in the exhibits of the Canadian National Railways, as well as those of the C.P.R. Besides these one notes also the exhibits of the Canadian merchant marine, a truly wonderful series, indicating the advance of the marine services.

Always the Midway is a source of amusement and entertainment. This year this feature will be specially noteworthy, being a considerable improvement upon all former occasions. This year there is a sense of instruction coupled with the other features of entertainments, and the best of its kind has been infused into the undertakings operated by the John Jones interests, which have charge of the Midway exhibits.
As a fitting accompaniment to the many impressive features of the C.N.E. noted this year have been the art galleries and the war memorials, to which many fine additions have been made. And, added to all others, will be noted the general excellence of restaurant facilities and the bands. Creator's and other notable bands taking part. Perhaps most impressive of all is the display of keen initiative and daring shown by two branches of sportsmanship, the cult of the automobilist, and that of the aviator. The dozen in Canada of both arts are present at the "Ex." and both Colonel W. A. Bishop and Colonel Beyer are again giving the public a chance to see what is being accomplished in the most modern and most wonderful of sciences, aviation.

CANADA'S STANDARD CAR
NEW 1921 SERIES
McLAUGHLIN MASTER SIX

In Seven New Body Styles

The new McLaughlin 1921 Master Six more than maintains the McLaughlin reputation for grace, symmetry, beauty, efficiency and power.

The radical changes in design establish a new standard in motor car development. Yet no discordant note or freakish line mars the beauty of Canada's Standard Car.

Year by year improvements have been made to conform with advanced ideas and ideals. The 1921 Master Six is the culmination of years of effort on the part of master builders.

When better motor cars are built McLaughlin will build them.

The opening of the new million dollar Pantheon Theatre in Toronto Saturday night again reminds us how rapidly the picture drama has developed, and suggests the great influence it must be exerting upon the lives of the people. The movie show began its career in quite a humble way, and there was a disposition on the part of some well-intentioned people to suppress it.

TOM WATSON DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Was President of the O.F.A. and an All-Round Sports Enthusiast.

Death has removed one of Toronto's prominent citizens, in the person of Tom Watson, who for many years was football editor of The Telegram. He died at his residence, 2655 Davenport road, at 8:30 yesterday morning, following an illness which lasted over a period of fully three months. After being a few weeks confined to his home, his medical advisers recommended his removal to the hospital, and some four weeks ago he was removed to St. Michael's for treatment. He made some progress towards recovery, and he was able to attend one game in the Conhaught series, which was played at the Stadium, where he was welcomed by a host of friends. He was again able to attend a game, and a week ago he was taken from the hospital to his home, where he showed signs of recuperation, and as late as Saturday morning, the much weakened, was able to recount many of his store of irresistible stories. However, it soon became apparent that with the dourness and determination of a good Scotsman, was making a last moment endeavor to cheer the many who surrounded him. But the time was at hand, and he remained conscious till near the last and was able to recognize, and even smile to those who flocked in from time to time.

At an early age Tom Watson took a keen interest in the Scottish national pastime, and it is worthy of note that he has the distinction of having been the youngest football legislator in the world. At the age of fourteen he acted in that capacity in the Lanarkshire (Scotland) Football Association, a few years afterwards, his shining north being recognized, he was invited to join in the deliberations of the senior association. His talents as a baller of games with the Larkhall team, afterwards joining up with the Royal Albert in the senior division. About 15 years of age, he became a member of the Scottish Football Association, in which body he was an active and aggressive member for the promotion of clean sport until the time he left for this country. For the long period of fourteen years he was on the international selection committee of the S.F.A., amongst the duties of which was the "scouting" of the teams to represent Scotland in her international contests with England, Ireland and Wales. It is said by those who know him that he had an uncanny intuition in "spotting" a promising player, and President Tom Guthrie, of the D.F.A., yesterday recalled to the world that it was Tom who "discovered" Nelly Gibson, who proved such a wonder at half-back. Secretary Wilton of the Rangers (Scotland), whom he tipped off to the discovery of Gibson, who proved such a valuable strength to that team, had many a kind word of appreciation for the turn of mind which led to the "light blues". Many other players of the game, which would prove not only of interest to those who delight in football, but revelations at the same time.

That Tom was a keen and unbiased critic will be admitted on all hands. He had an abhorrence of rough and unmanly play, and those who had in that regrettable practice came in for condemnation, not only by a good Scotsman, but were denounced in no uncertain terms. It was his privilege to contribute. It is no hearsay that these words of criticism and denunciation had the effect which the writer intended, as many players had come to Mr. Watson, if one might say, in a penitent mood in the first instance, and in a spirit of appreciation that their faults were so mercilessly pointed out. It was the lesson from a clean-loving sporting man to those who erred in a time of battle, but who afterwards felt better for the firm way in which their transgressions were put up to them.

To get back for a minute to old country doings, the writer has prepared him a copy of the "Memorandum and Articles of Association" under which the Scottish Football Association was formed. In this province, we would call the document a "charter." In the application for their charter, the following names of those who signed the "magna charta" of the S.F.A., will no doubt be of much interest. The document is dated Sept. 26, 1903, and bears the following names: Alick Stevenson, Palkirk; Robert Dixon, president; Morton; W. P. McCulloch, Arbroath; Tom Watson, Royal Albert, Uddington; A. McLaughlin, Celtic; and A. M. Christie. Surely a formidable list of those who placed Scottish football on the pinnacle on which it stands today.

Besides having the honor of having been the organizer and first president of the Scottish Referee Association, Mr. Watson was special football expert for The Glasgow Evening News and The Scottish Referee, and his articles in these newspapers were looked forward to by the entire football reading public of Scotland. When Mr. Watson came to Toronto and joined The Telegram, his method of handling the football news was in the same style which captivated those in the "land of the Thistle." Rare, enthusiastic, condemnatory if necessary, helpful always, the soccer fan always found what he wanted in his columns, and it is not too much to say that no man in the Dominion has done so much to foster clean sport as Tom Watson. He was essentially bound up in football, and by his winning personality, as well as his versatile pen, has been one—if not the biggest—of those who have placed football amongst the popular games in this Dominion.

Held Many Offices. To enumerate all the offices which the late Mr. Watson held in the different organizations in this province and Dominion would be futile. Suffice it to say that at the time of his demise he was president of the Ontario Football Association. He was president of the Dominion Football Association, 1913-14 (the second year of its existence) and for the formation of which he was the driving force.

He was also vice-president of the Toronto and District Football Association, and was a life member of the Dominion Football Association. He was president of the Ontario Football Association, 1913-14 (the second year of its existence) and for the formation of which he was the driving force.

Chatham, Ont., Aug. 29.—The action of Rex versus Bracken, in which R. E. Bracken, M.L.A., was charged with default in complying with the income tax regulations, has been dismissed by Magistrate Arnold on the grounds that a mistake had been made by his stenographer, who made out the reports.

PRINTERS' STRIKE STOPS PAPERS AT MANCHESTER AND LIVERPOOL

London, Aug. 29.—Revival of the composers' dispute stopped all the evening papers at Manchester and Liverpool on Saturday, and it is expected that the morning papers will be stopped on Monday morning. Efforts were made on Saturday to supply the football results by printed slips which boys either sold or charged customers for inspection.

RECORDS BROKEN ON OPENING DAY

coming so close to the ground that the expression on the aviators' face could be seen by the spectators below, the daring aviators attracted more than ordinary attention. Every variety of stunt known was exhibited, and at times it appeared that the aviators had lost control of their planes, which, falling over and over, seemed to be crashing to the ground, only to be righted when about 100 feet, and ascend skyward again.

Each of the aviators flew a different make of plane, so that the people would know who performed the stunts. Col. Bishop flew a red Sopwith "Dove"; Col. Barker, one of the latest type of Avros planes, and Capt. McCarthy a Curtiss "Speed Scout."

For the benefit of those who were not present on the opening day, and therefore missed the rare flying exhibition provided, the three aviators will again perform above the grounds this evening at about 6 o'clock.

CREATOR'S BAND AT EXHIBITION TODAY

Community singing, led by Jules Brazil, was another feature. From an enclosed stand in the ring, Toronto's popular entertainer, singing through "amplifiers," led a chorus that literally represented the continent. "Let only the ladies sing," called the leader, as the words of "Keep the Home Fires Burning" flashed out on the screen. Then the voices of women, clear and full, rose musically, and floated over the lake, and the tone told that the hearts of the singers still held memories of the days when the song meant so much to the nation. "Now the men sing," came a second call from the box of the director, and in obedience, a hearty chorus came out in "I Want to Go Home" to answer the women who promised their men that the warm fire of welcome would await them. The hearts were encored again and again. Another number was the clever work of Canada's sailor lads, who came on the stage drawing a gun carriage, from a long muzzle stretched out threateningly, the boys, with the alertness of the Jack Tar of man of war fame, took the carriage to pieces, put it together, and did other manoeuvres with a dexterity that spoke of fine training. The bill would not have been complete without the girls, and they were represented by a company of "Austrian lassies," in braw tartan and glangery, who danced the "Pflug" with beautiful precision, ending with a real Scotch "Huh" as they threw out their hips at the end of the dance.

The closing was a wonderfully realistic trench raid, in which a company under the protection of a barrage machine gun, in a perfect inferno approach the enemy's lines and bombarded them out. One man went to the rescue of a supposedly wounded comrade, and carried him off on his back, followed by applause from the benches. On the bill also were pictures of noted people, who were promptly recognized. The fireworks which finished the performance were probably the most magnificent yet seen at the National, the vivid colors and ingenious designs being much admired. Nature did her share, giving a beautiful moon in a glorious sky as a dome for the people's stadium.

DARING AVIATORS

Crowds, at Exhibition Witness Remarkable Displays—Latest Type of Planes.

Thousands of people gathered in the Exhibition grounds Saturday evening and stood as if rooted to the ground, with eyes lifted heavenward, while aloft in the skies three intrepid aviators did death-defying stunts. Piloting the planes, which were purchased especially for the Exhibition, and are the latest word in construction, were Col. W. A. Bishop, V.C., D.S.O., M.C., D.F.C.; Col. Barker, V.C., D.S.O., M.C., D.F.C.; and Capt. McCarthy, D.S.O., M.C., D.F.C.

RED ARE GATHERING FORCES

Paris, Aug. 29.—The Bolsheviks will not remain idle after their defeat, the Warsaw correspondent of L'Information quotes General Rowadowski, President Pilsudski's chief of staff, as saying Saturday.

Of the seventy divisions they gathered against Poland, there remain barely thirty. General Rowadowski continued, "but they are organizing new armies at this moment. They are spreading blood and blood in eastern Galicia and arming bands of peasants. Our information justifies us in affirming that the Bolsheviks are preparing a great offensive in eastern Galicia with 15 new divisions, and that the military operations will soon begin."

RELEASE MAN CHARGED WITH THOROLD MURDER

St. Catharines, Ont., Aug. 29.—Just as a Thorold officer was preparing to go to Bowmanville to bring back a man believed to be Rosario Sacco, charged with the murder of Domitico Sarafino, word came from Bowmanville that the man had been released. The Thorold police immediately issued instructions for the re-arrest of the man, who is also known as Joe Langlo. Sarafino died in St. Catharines General and Marine Hospital in October, 1917, after stating that Sacco stabbed him.

ONE EVERY MINUTE

DON'T CROSS THE ROAD LIKE A YAP!

SAY, next time you nab me crossin' the street diagonally, you can pin an anchor to me and you don't have to get in the box to pitch me off of the wharf, either. Look at the awful muss I made of things this mornin' when I made a bias dash across Yonge and Queen. There was I hustin' it along when I heard a sudden howl. Talk about uproar!

"What do you think that 'corner lot' yells the cop what was camped by the 'stop and go,' 'but, by the looks of you, I guess you're dead from the shoulders up, anyways, so hike it off—only, get this, the next time you cross that way I'll knock you for a goal," he says, fierce and mad.

And did I hand him some lip? Not this time I didn't, for he shored saved me from gettin' down and under wheels an' things, which I had, in all Innocence, got myself mixed into.

But far be it from me to get myself in wrong again, I ain't dead anxious to play the chill to a copper what's don't his best to make crossin' safe for us treaders. Ain't it only right that we should help make intersections easier to navigate? I'll say so!

Funny how it didn't strike me before, but I see it now, alright, and the sooner the people cross at the right corners and NOT DIAGONALLY AND IN THE MIDDLE OF THE BLOCK, the better regulated the traffic of this little old town will be. Ain't that right? You bet your red croquet mallet it is!

The trouble is: There's too many nineties like me what, just razz along without even tryin' to make every little new thing a success.

There's a place in the U.S.A. where they throw you in the jug if you dare hike to the other side of the street in the middle of a block. They claim that there's a cop on duty to help back busy and regulate the traffic. You know, there's no law against it in this city, but it would be a bad idea to try that here, seein' the 'stop and go' signs had been such a bust-over. You know what I meant!

The Original Dempster Bakery From Which This Giant Institution Grew.

FROM NEW YORK BY AEROPLANE

Capt. McCrae, in First International Aerial Express, Brings Plans That Mark a New Step Forward for Ideal Bread.

FRIDAY last, Bishop-Barker Aeroplanes, Limited, inaugurated the first international aerial express service between New York and Toronto.

It was fitting that so historic an event should be associated with another landmark in the world of progress.

Amongst the parcels carried by this novel express service were plans of the most modern bread-baking machine in the world, which is to be erected in the plant of the Ideal Bread Company.

Once again Ideal Bread Co. takes the lead in adopting the newest, most up-to-date equipment devised by science. This gas-fired travelling oven will be the first of its type in Canada—the second in North America.

Think what a revolution that change will mean in a bakery! The clean, sanitary, spotless conditions—free from dust and smoke—which are essential to absolute purity and wholesomeness—are now achieved in fullest measure!

Toronto should be proud of this bakery—the finest and largest in Canada—a bakery which for up-to-date equipment is surpassed nowhere on this continent.
