WHITES AND NEGROES IN FATAL RACE RIOTS IN WASHINGTON; FIVE KILLED; 50 WOUNDED

Situation Out of Hand For a While Last Night; Armed Negroes Ride Through Streets Shooting Right and Left; Bad Time Also in Norfolk

Washington, July 22.—Proclamation of martial law may be necessary to end race rioting here which resulted last night in the killing of five persons and injury of at least fifty others. Several days of disorders, following a wave of attacks on white women, robberies and assaults by negroes, culminated in a series of race battles during the night hours with which the police were unable to cope fully, despite the aid of military police. Several of the injured were reported fatally hurt this morning and at least 200 rioters were under arrest. The dead include Detective Sergeant Harry Wilson, shot through the heart by a negro girl when she entered a house from which she was being indiscriminately into the street.

Detective Bernard W. Thompson was seriously wounded by a negro in the same section of the city. Four negro men are dead and several others are believed to have been fatally wounded. Three patrolmen were included in the list of badly wounded.

Although two troops of cavalry from Fort Myer had been called out to patrol the streets and 400 marines had been added to the provost guard as a precaution against disorders, the situation at times last night was more than the authorities could cope with.

Reserve squads of police and provost guards were being rushed through the streets of the city all night in answer to riot calls.

While in the minor disorders of Saturday and Sunday nights crowds of white men assumed the aggressive, last night's rioting was marked by a general preparedness on the part of the negroes who during the day purchased hundreds of revolvers. Early in the evening they formed into crowds in their own homes and attacked white men wherever they could.

Late in the night the negroes dispersed as mobs and numbers of them took possession of high powered automobiles, in which they raced through the streets, pumping bullets from automatic weapons at all whites who happened within range. It is believed that numerous casualties resulted from this indiscriminate firing have not been reported to the police.

In Norfolk also. Norfolk, Va., July 21.—Serious riots broke out in the negro section of the city tonight. Four persons, including a detective, were shot but no one was killed. All police reserves and a detachment of armed sailors from the naval base were called out to quell the disturbance.

Tonight marked the opening of a week of festivities to celebrate the homecoming of negro troops.

British Delegation in Paris Leads Compromise Movement

Have Japan Put Oral Shantung Agreement into Writing—Japanese Delegation Head Bids Farewell to Paris

Paris, July 22.—(French Wireless Service)—Before leaving Paris Marquis Saloin, head of the Japanese peace delegation, expressed to the French press his deep gratitude for his reception in France when the peace conference was assembled.

"I saw the victorious troops march," he said, "and I was proud to see the soldiers of my country in the ranks. I shared in the joy of everybody in the victory, obtained at the cost of many sacrifices, and we will do everything in our power to make it fruitful."

"Nations must remain closely united now, more than ever. I trust that the spirit which France and Japan were brought together into the war will help in cultivating the cordial relations and that a lasting friendship between the two nations will be a new guarantee of future peace, which must be based upon reciprocal understanding."

The members of the Chinese delegation say that no compromise has yet been made which will make it possible for them to sign the German treaty. It is known, however, that the Entente Powers are working on a plan to affect an agreement with Japan concerning Shantung which will satisfy the Chinese and induce them to sign the German treaty.

The British delegation is known to be leading in a compromise movement which may result in Japan putting into written form the oral agreement said to have been entered into by Japan for the restoration of Shantung to China at some fixed time.

AUSTRIANS WANT TERMS MODIFIED

Paris, July 22.—(Havas)—Dr. Karl Renner, head of the Austrian peace delegation, declared he would "not sign engagements which he knew could not be executed," in commenting on the peace treaty terms, prior to his departure from St. Germain for Feldkirch, according to morning newspapers.

According to these reports he protested against "the unheard-of hardness of the conditions made against Austria and Germany," and, he added, "let us try to submit to the Entente, completely unarmored, our great distress and so obtain a peace with conditions that will be supportable for our country."

M. Dubois said the material damage done in the invaded departments amounted to 119,000,000,000 francs. This amount, he said, had been verified by a committee of engineers, architects, manufacturers and agriculturists. He added that the damage done to agriculture was 37,000,000,000 francs.

CHARGE IS CHANGED TO SEDITIOUS CONSPIRACY

Winnipeg, July 21.—R. B. Russell, William Ivens, W. A. Fritchard, R. J. Johns, Alderman John Queen, Alderman A. A. Heaps, George Armstrong and R. E. Bray appeared before Magistrate R. M. Other informations have been laid, it was announced, against other strike leaders who did not appear on this charge.

TESTING AERIAL WIRELESS

This picture, taken at Harbor Grace, Newfoundland, shows how the emergency transmitting apparatus of the Handley Page "Atlantic" was tested before she left on the flight which proved so disastrous owing to the breakdown of one of the engines. A copper mesh net behind had the same effect as if the brass were made over the sea.

Paris, July 22.—In readiness to hear the government's declaration of its policy, on which it had been announced a vote of confidence would be asked the chamber of deputies met this morning. Premier Clemenceau, it developed, was not ready to make his statement and the chamber adjourned until afternoon to await the premier's pleasure.

There was much interest in the expected developments of the day, to which great importance was attached, as it was anticipated that the motion for an interpellation of the government on its general policy might precipitate an animated debate.

The agitation against the government has been most marked on the question of the high cost of living—the feeling of the members on this issue having resulted last week in a vote adverse to the government. The issue was met, temporarily at least, by the withdrawal of Victor Boret as food minister. The government, however, made it known that it desired further evidence of the support of the chamber, if that could be obtained, and that it would ask a vote of confidence at today's session, at which the fate of the government seemed thus likely to be decided. Chief among other governmental policies objected to, particularly on the Socialist side, are the slow process of reconstruction and demobilization.

It was announced early in the afternoon that at the second session of the day the government would introduce an amnesty bill. The question of amnesty grows more acute since the German treaty was signed and is another of the issues on which the government has been criticized.

Move to Break Provisions of Chicago Testament—Estate of $200,000,000

Chicago, July 22.—Capt. Marshall Field will ask the courts to modify or break that part of his grandfather's will relating to the trusteeship. The intricate will disposes of an estate now estimated at $200,000,000. The trustee clause of the will perpetuates a machine to hold the property for almost two generations.

The proposed action is said to be twofold in purpose. One is to obtain complete possession of the bulk of the estate left to Marshall Field 8d and Henry Field, the second and younger grandson, who died in New York June 12, 1918. Under the will, the estate was to be divided in the proportion of sixty to forty between the two sons, but until they had attained the age of fifty years.

"THE AMAZING WIFE" AT THE IMPERIAL

Mary MacLaren in Powerful Romance of the War - Other Good Features.

"The Amazing Wife," which opened yesterday at the Imperial theatre, is that rare thing, a play which builds cumulative interest. In two many pictures the interest is episodic, rising and falling as the action quickens and lags.

It is so with "The Amazing Wife." Once the scene is laid—once Cleo Osborne takes the decisive step which installs her as the "widow" of Lieut. Ashton, killed in action, when really she is the widow of another and ignoble John Ashton—interest mounts higher and higher until the final solution of the problem is reached.

One danger point has been most skillfully avoided. Ashton returns, and the report of his death was a mistake. What happened after this might have permitted to drift into sentimentalism.

Mary MacLaren adds her reputation in her portrayal of Cleo, always nicely sustained. Frank Mayo is her leading man, and Mayo is always the finished actor. Others in the cast are Ethel Lynne, Stanhope Wheatcroft, Seymour Zelliff, Molly McConnell, Gladys Selwyn and Joseph W. Girard.

The miscellaneous features in the present bill at the Imperial are equally bright. The public has already caught on to the merry wit and clever satire in "Topsies of the Day," as called from the columns of "The Literary Digest" and the Mutt and Jeff (Teacher) was capital.

SEES PRICES SKY HIGH NEXT WINTER

Sir Auckland Geddes Warns British People That Food Will Be Very Costly

London, July 1.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—Prophecy that the price of food next winter will "dive to a level never dreamed of," was uttered by Sir Auckland Geddes, British minister of reconstruction, in an address at Crewe recently.

A member of the wages shouted "more wages." Sir Auckland replied that there would be no money to pay wages because it would have to go overseas to pay for food.

"You cannot live like millionaires," he said, "if you are as poor as a church mouse. This nation is now poor. It is living as if it were wealthy."

More beer was being brewed in Great Britain, yet people complained of a shortage. This he attributed to the doubling of the amount of beer consumed because, since the war, there was more time to drink it and more money to pay for it.

By sending overseas for beer, silk for stockings and feathers for hats Sir Auckland said, the people were increasing Britain's debt for things that did not matter.

"What you ought to get are food and raw material," he declared. Sir Auckland denounced the limitation of output as "stark, staring lunacy."

The mill owners, he said, limited output to obtain higher prices and the operators limited it to make work for more people.

Dr. Hunter Makes Examination of Prince Edward Island Industry

A survey of the fox ranching industry of Prince Edward Island has just been completed by Dr. Hunter, Professor of Biology of the University of Toronto.

Data was secured which will be submitted in a report to the Honorary Committee of Scientific and Industrial Research of the Government of Prince Edward Island by the council at the request of the ranchers, who were faced with problems mostly connected with dieting.

In addressing the ranchers at a meeting in Charlottetown recently, Dr. Hunter stated that nutrition was the fundamental problem to be settled, though there were other difficulties that would have to be solved by a pathologist.

With regard to diet he said that the proper supply of nutrients even in the case of a naturally carnivorous animal like the fox cannot be supplied by meat alone. Milk is the one article which meets all requirements.

The fox on milk is impracticable, but the diet must be so varied as to contain among its ingredients all the essential principles which milk is capable of supplying. How this object can best be attained has not yet been determined.

Each ranch represents a rough experiment but it is impossible to run a ranch completely on the basis of scientific principles. This can only be done by isolating a few pairs of animals and feeding them under scientific control, carefully standardized rations of various sorts.

It would thus be possible to ascertain in a few years exactly what quantities of the different nutrients a fox requires, how these requirements vary during growth, the reproductive period and maturity, and in what kinds of available food the necessary materials may be so arranged as to combine the demands of appetite, digestibility and economy.

At the same time much would also be learned as to the effect of diet upon fertility, milk production, pelt quality and other important points.

The fox ranchers emphasized at their meeting the need of a government experimental fox station. Dr. Hunter stated that one of his recommendations would be that an actual investigation into the situation should be undertaken at once under government supervision.

TO AND FRO. Someone is worrying lest Canada drain the United States of its farmers. A piece in the paper says that we have lost at least 1,000,000 farmers to Canada, mostly to the Northwest, within ten years.

The Department of Agriculture has been doing a little figuring. It finds that we could have lost 1,000,000 farmers in the largest exodus to Canada we ever had, in 1911, the total number of persons going over the line was only 49,915 and the total number of farmers that left the United States that year for every place in the world was only 11,600.

GROCERY MARKET Tendency in Practically All Lines Continues Upward

The following comment on the market situation as regards foodstuffs is taken from the Canadian Grocer last week: The tendency of the markets in practically all lines is upward rather than downward.

Quotations were advanced have not taken place this week are generally very strong. Some new pack prices are advanced throughout the Dominion. Canned goods in some sections of the country are growing very scarce.

Meat. An advance of thirty cents a case and half a cent a pound was made in the price of all corn syrups. The market for bulk quantities. Because of the continued advances in corn prices these prices are advanced to a cent per pound had been added to the price of all starches.

Roasting shows an advance averaging about ten cents a roll this week with quotations on seed. There was some reaction early in the week, but prices have been pretty well recovered and it seems as though high prices will be maintained.

Lives Comfortably In New York on $5

Long-Haired Man From California Deserts It is Doing it and Will Teach Others

New York, July 22.—After living thirteen years in the desert in the southern part of California, William Perter, with a beard over his shoulders, unmarried and prone to the prejudice of a community scientist, musician, has come to New York to teach his fellowmen how to live on $8 a week and like it.

Entering a modest little restaurant at 61 Third avenue this afternoon one saw Perter to see and I know some great guitar, which he made from wood gathered in the timber round about his home in the desert. After Urban Lester had been in the city for some time, he was attempting to preach brotherhood of man doctrines to the masses and serve food at a reasonable figure, Perter told what he knew about living expenses.

"I don't work here," he said, "I found that the things these people are doing are the nearest to my idea of living of anything I have found, and so I came in to entertain the patrons.

"I lived for thirteen years on bread I made myself, and fruit. I got some of the fruit in Los Angeles. I lived out there until I had a chance. My wife and I brought to this earth. I never cut my hair in all those thirteen years. God gave it to me, and I know some great guitar will come to me if I do not make my image. I am not married, and I have no prejudice. I have a good marriage is a bondage. When a man gets married he can't think without being prejudiced. I belong to no church. I do good to others and expect it to be done to me.

He declared that by living to the system laid out by the people operating the restaurant at 61 Third avenue, as well as by the system in New York city, could get on comfortably on five dollars a week.

"It is simply a matter of how you think you can live," he said. "A man is foolish who spends all his money for food. The cost of living does not bother me."

LETTER FROM G. EARL LOGAN. St. John, N. B., July 21. The Editor of the Times—

Sir,—Shortly after the promulgation of the findings of the general court martial, which during the month of May last, investigated the conduct of a number of officers of this district (myself included), several of my friends urged me to publish a statement regarding the charges which were referred against me. At that time I declined to accede to their wishes. Since then a section of the community has been and is busy circulating a statement that I was involved in the alleged irregularities of the monies of the canteen of the 1st Depot Battalion, N. B. R. This statement is absolutely untrue and in this connection the following is a summary of the charges (two in number, and of a purely military nature), which were preferred against me.

1. An act to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, in that while assistant judge advocate general, M. D. 7 did influence the president of a district court of inquiry to omit from his report any reference to a special account alleged to have been created in connection with the canteen of the 1st Depot Battalion.

2. Neglect to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, in that I, as assistant judge advocate general, M. D. 7, having knowledge of this special account neglected to report the matter to the general officer commanding M. D. 7.

I was found not guilty of the first charge. I was found guilty of the second charge. I was found guilty of the second charge. I was found guilty of the second charge.

THE IRISH QUESTION

The authorities at Dublin Castle have ridden the charges contained in the report on Irish conditions by the Irish-American committee headed by Frank P. Walsh. In an exhaustive answer the chief secretary of state for Ireland takes up the charges one by one, and in a document that would fill several pages of a newspaper prints side by side the allegations and the answers. In every case the charges are shown to have been either false or exaggerated.

RECENT DEATHS

Charles E. Brackett. The death of a very highly respected citizen of St. John, in the person of Charles E. Brackett, occurred last evening at his residence, 183 Duke street. The late Mr. Brackett was a life-long resident of the city and had reached the age of seventy-nine years. He was widely known especially among the older residents of the city with whom he was extremely popular and highly respected. Of a reserved and dignified disposition he was a worthy citizen and there will be widespread expression of regret in his death.

The late Mr. Brackett was born in Concord, New Hampshire, on August 2, 1840, and would within a few weeks have been seventy-nine years of age. He came to St. John when but a boy with his family and has lived here ever since. He was identified for many years with the St. John Dye Works in Princess street, a firm known throughout the community and which did a flourishing business. Some twenty years ago Mr. Brackett was forced to resign from active life owing to ill health, and has been confined to bed, however, for only six months. He was twice married, his first wife being Catherine Brown, and his widow, who survives him, was Miss Margaret Leck, daughter of the late William and Fannie Leck, of Kingsclear, York county (N. B.). Besides his wife, he leaves one sister, Mrs. I. Richardson, of St. John, one grand-daughter and two great grand-children. The funeral arrangements have been made for Wednesday afternoon at 8 o'clock (daylight) from his late residence in Duke street to Trinity church.

William H. White. William H. White passed away at his home, Cambridge, Queens county (N. B.), last night. Mr. White was a prominent man of that place for many years and his demise will be learned with general sorrow. He was eighty-seven years of age. He is survived by one brother, Asa White, of California.

Mrs. George Sutton. The death of Mrs. George Sutton occurred at her home, 150 Charlotte street, at 8 o'clock on Monday morning at the age of seventy. Mrs. Sutton was a life-long resident in the city and is survived by her husband.

The funeral will be held on Wednesday afternoon at Trinity church.

This sale may be considered a genuine bargain disposal of the above, and as additional many radical reductions in departments undergoing changes. Goods that must be moved to make room for carpenters and workmen.

buttonhole and smiling his acknowledgment. Beside the tower marking the spot at which Wolfe as general was proclaimed king, the prince made a halt and delivered a little speech of thanks. Outside the lower and upper parts of the church, the royal highness conducted by a series of repetitions of these evidences of cordial welcome. After motoring to and breakfasting at the hotel at Princeton, beside the grim old Dartmouth prison, the prince went to the church built by interned war prisoners, where he witnessed with marked interest the presentation of the new incumbent by the prince to the Bishop of Exeter. His royal highness conducted the vicar to the main doors, giving him the keys and investing him with the formal custody of the building.

The return to the hotel was marked by a series of greetings and chats in which tenants on the estate and returned soldiers figured prominently. One young lady secured an autograph for her birthday book, and the prince had a ready smile and a cheery word for everybody. His bodyguard was a crowd of cheering children, and it was all very homely, very interesting, and palpably sincere.

WANTED—BY MAN AND WIFE, work of any kind—woods or family. The inspection began with a tollow ascent, which proved pretty trying to the members of the suite. Sir Sidney Grey, Lord Claude Hamilton, and Mr. Peacock. At the top of this hill a group of miners cheered their duke, who subsequently descended to a point on the hillside, where he watched the operation of boring for tin and wolfram veins. The drill which had already penetrated 120 feet, was fitted with a steel head set with a double row of actual diamonds and worth about £210. From the hill top his royal highness went to the very depths of the valleys below, scrambling down at some points paths which were hardly more defined than goat tracks, and seeing en route all the processes of carrying, thrashing, and washing the precious ore, using magnetic separators and the latest modern machinery and appliances. The mills were previously German-owned, and a valuable practical demonstration was afforded, by comparing the output of the old machinery and the new, that certain important trade processes never become German monopolies again.

One day after the Civil War a man who was riding through the farming districts in the Middle West stopped by the wayside to talk with a farmer. Several men were working in the field, and the traveler was interested to learn that most of them had been soldiers in the war and that among them were some who had been officers. "That man over there," said the farmer, "happens to have been a private, but the man next to him was a corporal; that chap over there was a major; and over in the next field is a man who was a colonel."

CHIGNECTO ARRIVES
The Royal Mail Steam Packet liner Chignecto arrived in port this morning from Bermuda and the British West Indies. She had, in addition to mail, ninety-four first class, twenty-one second and forty-eight third class passengers, also 1,500 tons of raw sugar for the Atlantic Sugar Refineries and 1,200 pounds of molasses.

SOME FOR THIS DISTRICT.
The S. S. Regina is expected to arrive in Halifax on July 23 with four officers and seventy-one other ranks for Military District No. 1. It is noted that this is the last large number of men to come to this district, although there may be small numbers come from time to time for two or three weeks yet.

WHO HAS A COPY?
John Rogerson, who is carving two panels for the soldiers and sailors' monument, would be glad if any citizen could put him in the way of getting a copy of a special war number of the London Illustrated News, issued about nine months or a year after the war began. It was of unusual size and carried splendidly illustrated sketches of army and naval warfare. Mr. Rogerson had one but it has been lost. Perhaps some citizen has one filed away. Telephone M. 1970-21.

NEARING COMPLETION
The new section of the Loch Lomond water main where the diversion is being made around Lake Fitzgerald is now nearing completion. The new concrete main was completed a short time ago by the Loch Joint Company and yesterday Moses & Tobias completed the back fill. Work is well under way on the man hole vaults at each end of the new section where it will be joined with the main pipe line and these concrete structures will be completed, probably, by the end of the week.

WOULD WELCOME CRITICS
Plans for the reception of the returned soldiers and the Prince of Wales will be discussed at a meeting of the Civic Reception Committee in Board of Trade rooms this afternoon. Commenting on criticisms offered regarding the celebration of peace day, Mayor Hayes this morning said that all citizens interested had been invited to be present and he expressed the hope that those who had ideas on the subject would be on hand to give the committee the benefit of their advice instead of offering their suggestions in the form of criticism after the occasion had passed.

REPAIRS AT ONCE TO PRINCE WILLIAM STREET PAVEMENT

Repairs to the Prince William street pavement are to be commenced immediately. From the southern end of the street, at the corner of St. James, to the foot of Princess street the street is to be given a coating of tar mixed stone, making a paving of the semi-permanent type. This is not intended to solve the Prince William street paving problem but merely to provide a surface that will serve until permanent paving can be laid.
Surgeon General Rupert Blue at Washington has added another reason for prompt action.
The McAdam paving is being laid in Hammond street, North End, and repairs to sidewalks are being made in Adelaide and Waterloo streets.
Work on retaining walls is progressing in Cunard and Peters streets.

ST. JOHN BOY'S SUCCESS

Major Robert E. Hamilton Wins Praise For War Work in United States
Major Robert E. Hamilton, son of J. S. Hamilton of Chapel street, has been receiving praise throughout the States as a result of success achieved while in charge of the material department of the construction division of the war department at Hog Island. In a recent issue of the North American, published in Philadelphia, he was paid a high tribute for his efficiency while in charge of the department. During the period in which the United States was in the war he had built 100,000 cantonments, which took care of more than a million United States troops.

When war was declared he desired to join his regiment and proceed to the front to take an active part in the hostilities, but the government desired him to remain in the States, contending that his services were of more value home than abroad.

Prior to taking over government work at Hog Island he was head of the purchasing division of Stone & Webster, Boston, one of the largest industrial construction and engineering organizations in the United States. Mr. Hamilton being a St. John boy, friends here will be pleased to learn of his marked success.

GETTING BETTER

An Odd War Experience of Soldier
Rickwood, the St. John
Golf Expert

F. Rickwood, who before the war was the professional at the old St. John Golf Club is one of the veterans of the 50th Battalion who came through the long war and who is now being warmly greeted by many old friends here. This soldier was one of the first to join the 50th Battalion when it was organized and he has had a long siege of hard service since that famous unit sailed away in the early summer of 1918. He came home last Saturday. He had many stirring experiences rather diverting ones, including one at Bonn after the Canadians marched into Germany. In Bonn he found himself in hazardous billets and the Germans, as he says, "were eating out of our hand." In the family on which he was quartered in Bonn, Rickwood encountered a famous German painter who did his portrait in oils at ten sittings. The soldier regards this painting of himself as one of the most interesting souvenirs he acquired during his campaign. He looked forward to many curious experiences when he left Canada for the front, but never quite expected to be a subject for a German artist. He thought it more likely that he would be sprayed with shrapnel or liquid fire. He suffered a touch of malaria on one occasion, but beyond that and a slightly injured foot he is as fit as when he was giving instruction in the ancient and modern care of more than a million United States troops.

Flaming Dirigible Falls On Chicago Bank; Eleven Killed and 26 Are Injured

Your Jump From Balloon and Two Land Safely in Street; Fearful Scene as Firey Mass Crashes in Upon 200 Bank Employees, Mostly Girls

Chicago, July 22—Eleven persons were killed and twenty-six injured when a large dirigible balloon on its test flight caught fire and fell 500 feet, crashing through the glass roof of the Illinois Trust & Savings Bank at Jackson Boulevard and La Salle street at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Most of the dead were employees of the bank, trapped and burned to death in a fire caused by the explosion of the balloon's gasoline tanks as they hit the floor of the bank rotunda where more than 200 bookkeepers and clerks, nearly all girls, were working.

The balloon, owned by the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company of Akron, Ohio, had been flying above the city for several hours. When approximately 500 feet above the bank a spurt of flame was seen to issue from the top of the gas bag near the center. The crowd gathered in the streets to watch the flight saw the machine buckle and quiver as it started on its fatal plunge.

Four of its occupants jumped, and two landed safely in the streets as the blimp, out of name, struck the roof of the bank with a crash audible throughout the downtown district.

There was nothing to warn the hundreds of employees of the institution of the coming tragedy. A shadow passed over the marble rotunda, where 150 were busy, and a crash followed. The bank's closing hour for patrons had passed but the clerks were still at work in the various departments of the bank.

It seemed, according to the survivors, that the entire bank was on fire. Breaking through the iron supports holding the glass overhead, the fuselage of the balloon with two heavy rotary engines and several gasoline tanks smashed to the floor.

Instantly the tanks exploded, scattering a wave of flaming gasoline over the workers for a radius of fifty feet. A panic ensued. There were only two exits through which they could leave the wreckage which surrounded the rotunda.

Men and girls with clothing flaming fought their way through the exits. Girls on the second floor ran screaming to the windows and several jumped to the street.

In an instant the marble rotunda was cleared except for the dead, whose bodies were buried under the mass of debris, and the dying who crawled away from the scorching fire, their clothes burning off.

The intense heat made rescue work difficult until after the fire department arrived. It was thirty minutes before the bodies under the fuselage of the craft could be dragged out.

The cause of the fire which brought the flaming gas bag down is not definitely known.

Official inquiry was started today by the states attorney to fix responsibility for the disaster. An assistant United States attorney was also assigned to attend the coroner's inquest set for today.

Seventeen employees of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company of Akron, Ohio, owners of the airship, have been detained pending a decision as to whether or not charges of criminal carelessness should be filed against them. Among those detained are Jack Boettmer, pilot of the dirigible, who escaped by jumping with a parachute and W. C. Young, in charge of the aeronautic department of the Goodyear Company.

The Dead Of the eleven dead, nine were employees of the bank, and two passengers in the airship. Five persons were in the airship and three escaped. When the balloon crashed through the skylight fire broke out.

The balloon with its five passengers was making its maiden trip above the city in the interest of an amusement park. According to witnesses, a spurt of flame appeared at the stern, above the engine. In a moment there was a puff of smoke and the flames attacked the big egg-shaped gas bag. Almost simultaneously four parachutes leaped from the airship. Three got clear of the burning craft, but the fourth was caught in the falling balloon and burned. Its passenger, Carl Weaver, mechanic, of Akron, Ohio, plunged to death. Earl Davenport, publicity man for the amusement park, and one time sporting writer, did not jump from the machine. His body was hurled through the bank and burned to a crisp.

Alive But Back Broken Harry W. Acker, Akron, Ohio, chief mechanic of the dirigible, was one of those who came down alive. His back was broken, however, and he is not expected to live.

William Milton G. Norton, a photographer employed on an American newspaper, also landed, but his legs were broken and his condition is critical.

J. A. Boettmer, pilot, was the only member of the ill-fated airship to land without injury.

A SCHOOL FOR WOMEN VOTERS

New Hampshire College Gives Citizenship Course — Expect More Students Next Year

Durham, N. H., July 22—Plans already are well under way for another session next year of the school for citizenship of New Hampshire College, the first session of which closed last week and which was attended by about 200 women from all parts of the state.

Mrs. Mary I. Wood, who presided, says that the number will be greatly increased another year, when the women of the state realize that the purpose of the undertaking is to crystallize their thought and to afford an opportunity for consideration before enrolling in a political party.

Assistance for the undertaking from Dartmouth College has been pledged by Prof. James Richardson, who spoke at the morning and evening sessions on Friday. Professor Richardson's topic was national problems, in which he included the League of Nations, federal control versus state rights, reform in the election of a president of the United States, the power of the court to declare as to the constitutionality of laws. The problem to which he devoted the greatest amount of time was congress and he recommended radical changes ranging from election of representatives to their procedure when elected.

Women are not entitled to exemption from jury duty, declared Mrs. Ellis Meredith of Colorado, who called the attention of the women to their duties in regard to the courts. "A district attorney," she said, "is not re-elected because he has mercy and truth and walks justly, but because of the number of convictions he secures. Anyone at all familiar with the criminal courts knows that evidence is sometimes invented at the behest of the state to hang a man who is a citizen of the state. The county jails here the most disgraceful institutions we have. A district attorney's cellars of county court-houses and usually are most inadequate in size. They provide no employment for women. A sentence in one of them is usually the preliminary to a post-graduate course in jail."

"We have hung our own prisoners, started them, hollered them in oil, burned them, everything but stopped making them. In some states women vote and the cellars of county court-houses and usually are most inadequate in size. They provide no employment for women. A sentence in one of them is usually the preliminary to a post-graduate course in jail."

Mrs. Wood presented the topic of New Hampshire's need of her women citizens, paying tribute to the treatment of the women of the state by the men voters and asking the women to take into their new citizenship, four aims, entrance into public life by individual women only after their homes have been made right, honest consideration of the other person's point of view, destruction of dividing lines between groups of women, mutual faith.

Mrs. Dwight Hall of Dover, one of the four women appointed in April to membership of a state board, outlined her work and Mrs. McDuffie of Alton, vice-president of the State Parent-Teachers' Association, made a plea for activity by the women in educational matters.

Mrs. William Z. Ripley, vice-president of the Boston Woman's Trade Union League and chairman of the industrial committee of the Massachusetts Woman Suffrage Association, presented the problems of the woman in industry, stating that political democracy is a step toward industrial democracy.

BRAVES' OWNER WAITING PATIENTLY FOR RESULTS

New York, July 17—George Stallings has a contract for $12,500 a year as manager of the Boston Braves, and it does not expire until a year from next October. Yet Stallings is handling a second-division team, which has no chance to get out of the mire. President Grant of the Braves is patiently waiting for results. Stallings told him early in the campaign that if Outfielder Cruise could be obtained from the Cardinals the Boston team would rush to the front, so Grant bought the release of Cruise and eagerly awaited developments.

The Braves, with Cruise in the lineup, did not improve and the attendance at the Boston Park continued to dwindle. Stallings finally was persuaded by his employer to get rid of Pitcher Bill James, who had been drawing a salary since 1914 in spite of a lame arm, that made him totally useless.

Will the Braves have another manager when Stallings' contract expires or will Grant decide to make a change before the end of the season. Grant is a smart baseball man. He does not jump at conclusions, but it is safe to say that he is beginning to wonder whether Stallings is worth a salary of $12,500 a year.

ROPE OF PEARLS SELLS FOR $207,500 AT AUCTION

London, June 29—(Correspondent of Associated Press)—Jewels are commanding particularly high prices in auctions here. Today a rope of 315 graduated pearls brought $207,500, and three other ornaments an additional $200,000, making the total sales for the brief auction almost a record.

SYDNEY PLANS RECEPTION FOR RETURNED MEN

Sydney, N. S. W., July 21—A fitting reception to all returned men in the city is planned for the near future. During the war it was felt that because the men were returning in small numbers almost every day it would be inadvisable to arrange a reception on a large scale and it was decided to postpone it until this summer when all the troops would be home.

By Fall N. W. M. P. Stronger Than Ever

Ottawa, July 21—Before the summer is over the Royal Northwest Mounted Police Force, it is said, will be numerically stronger than ever before. The recruiting campaign opened in May is progressing favorably. The objective is a force of between twenty-six and twenty-seven hundred and Commissioner McLean, when questioned in regard to the matter today, expressed the opinion that the men required would be secured before the end of the summer.

Members of clubs at Fair Vale and Renforth are taking an interest in rowing races and if others in the city will come forward and take advantage of the opportunity available they would soon be able to compete with these clubs and a series of races could be arranged. COUNCELLOR CARSON LOOKING FOR VOTES

Editor Times—
Sir—Regarding a petition which Councillor Carson presented at the meeting of the county council of the 18th inst., asking that the road from Anthony's Corner to Mispec be opened for cattle to run at large on, and which he claimed was signed by all the rate payers in that section with the exception of three, I wish to state that this is absolutely incorrect.

The following are a number of the names which appeared on Mr. Carson's petition, which are not legal—
John Hunter, opposed to the opening of the road. Says he did not sign the petition.
David Brown, died first of last June.
Wesley Stanley, not a rate payer.
Roy McKee, not a rate payer.
Charlie Mitchell, not a rate payer.

Henry Bushy, not a rate payer.
John McLeen, not living in the district.
Paul Wedge, not living in the district.
Charlie Matthews, not living in the district.
Harry Smith, not living in the district.
The undersigned who are rate payers in the district, but did not sign are—
Hopkins Brothers, J. C. Dalzell, George L. Anthony, Captain Anthony, William Coles, William Chambers, Hugh Toner, Alfred Toner, William Palmer, John

Collins, William Anthony, John Hunter, Paul Dugert.
During the last few years certain parties in this district have boasted of the fact that they voted for Mr. Carson because he allowed their cattle to run at large on the roads, and as Mr. Carson will be looking for re-election in a few months, I suppose he thought it a good plan to keep these people thinking that; but the petition he presented to the council is not legal, and does not represent the rate payers of the section mentioned, and was not legal for the council to act on. Therefore, this section of the road is governed by the law as it has been for the last year, namely not open for cattle to run at large on.

There are other things in the Parish of Simonds at the present time which would be much more worthy of Mr. Carson's notice than trying to turn the public highway into a cow pad.
(Signed) J. C. DALZELL.

HER name is Henrita F. Ried, and 10,000 men and women are under her direction. Imagine it—a woman managing director of one of the largest organizations in the world and vice-president of all its subsidiary companies! A woman consulted on all the company's affairs! A woman who moves quietly, unassumingly among men of Big Business, asking no favors but commanding respect and admiration for her unusual ability.

The rise of Henrita Ried sounds like a fairy story. How did this brilliant Kentucky girl get her start? What is there in this wonderful woman's story which will help you to make a greater success in your present position?

You will find the answers to your questions in Helen Christine Bennett's inspiring account in Pictorial Review for August. She calls it "A Woman of Big Business". It is another of Pictorial Review's big fact-stories of successful American women.

TWO FORMER SOLDIERS DROWN

Russell Lenihan of St. John Lives at Fredericton—James Wade Meets Death at Baribouge

Fredericton, N.B., July 21.—Russell Lenihan, a member of the staff of the New Brunswick Military Hospital here, and a son of Patrick Lenihan of St. John, lost his life in the St. John river this afternoon. With two other soldiers in a small boat which is used by the officers to reach deep water, Lenihan tipped or fell from the boat and his companions could not get him out of water. He could not swim. In all was not more than three minutes in water.

When men were seen bringing the only ashore, Capt. Joinville and Capt. Iorlison rushed to the river bank and began to work on the man. The pullover belonging to the city of Fredericton was rushed to the hospital by the motor truck of the fire department and was used. Efforts to revive the man were continued for several hours without effect. No water was found in the lungs and it is possible that he died of shock. The home address of the deceased soldier is 118 Queen street, St. John. He was aged twenty years. He had not served overseas but had three brothers who had; Frank, one of these, being killed two years ago. A brother, John, taking a course in the vocational school here; the other brother, Gordon, lives with his father in St. John, their mother being dead. The deceased was a member of the hospital staff having enlisted in the A.M.C.

Coroner Ross viewed the body and permitted its removal to St. John. The funeral took place tonight. The G.W.V.A. band played the funeral procession to the C.P.R. station and patients and the staff of the N. B. military hospital accompanied the remains. The "Last Post" was sounded at the station. The body was taken to St. John.

Chatham, N.B., July 21.—A sad drowning accident occurred at Baribouge on Sunday afternoon in which James Wade lost his life. He and another young man were in swimming Wade took a boat and rowed out to Baribouge Bridge, tied the boat and lowered himself over the side. His companion was swimming around and heard young children crying out to him. He turned around and came back to Wade's boat, not seeing Wade he knew that something was the matter. The children told him that Wade had not come up after going into the water.

Strength Declines And Age Advances Follow This Suggestion

So many women grow old before their time, perhaps your wife or sister. A little while ago, buoyant, full of vigor and imparted pleasure to the whole family, but now in a few short years she has faded and lost color and strength. She is just ready to develop some disease that will further weaken and debilitate. You remember how it began, failure of appetite, tired in the morning, found housework burdensome, always nervous and a little irritable. It's a shame to let her go down hill further when you can build her up so quickly with Ferronose. The change this nourishing tonic makes in a weak woman is surprising. It gives great zest for food, increases appetite and digestion enormously. The blood gets richer and stronger and adds new life to every organ in the body. A rebuilding process works through the entire system. The first week will show an improvement, and a month or two will fatten up the thinnest, most run-down women you can think of. Take Ferronose for lost color, for nervousness, for weakness, use it when run-down and feeling poorly. It will do you more lasting good, keep you in better health, than anything else. Just a good for men and children, too, because Ferronose is harmless and safe. 50c. per box or six for $2.50, at all dealers, or direct by mail from the Catarhose Co., Kingston, Ont.

The young fellow swam over to the boat and dove several times but could not locate the unfortunate young man. After several attempts he gave up and went for assistance. The body was recovered in an hour's time and all attempts at resuscitation failed. Young Wade was twenty-five years of age and had returned last April from two years' service with the Canadian forces overseas. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. James Hayes, Baribouge, and three sisters.

ST. JOHN MAN HONORED

Sergt. P. Pemberton, son of Mrs. M. Pemberton, of 102 Winter street, was one of a group of fifty-eight picked men from the British army which was chosen to give performances at the military tournament at Olympia in London. An English newspaper says of the group, that it contained "the best trained men of the smartest army in the world" and the group had the very special honor of performing in a dress rehearsal at Aldershot before royalty. On the occasion of the rehearsal at Aldershot Sergt. Pemberton was singled out as being the only Canadian amongst them and was presented to Queen Mary who spoke to him most graciously.

HALIFAX WOMAN WAS SURPRISED

Mrs. Warren, After Her Wonderful Improvement Declares Tanlac to be the Best Medicine in the World.

"My wonderful improvement since I commenced taking Tanlac is not only a surprise to me but to all my friends," said Mrs. Blanche Warren who lives at 27 Canard street, Halifax, while talking to a Tanlac representative the other day. "I have been suffering from indigestion and a general run-down condition for a great many years," continued Mrs. Warren, "and when I commenced taking Tanlac I was hardly able to get about at all. Everything I ate would sour on my stomach and I often had severe cramping spells. Very often this sour, undigested food would cause gas to form so bad that it would almost cut my breath off, and I would be perfectly miserable for hours at a time. I finally got to where I would often have had attacks of acute indigestion which would leave me in such a weak condition that it would take me a long time to get over it. I lost in weight from one hundred and thirty to one hundred and four pounds, and I just felt like every particle of my strength had left me.

"I had read so many good statements about Tanlac that I decided to give it a trial myself, and see if it would do me any good. I have only taken two bottles of Tanlac so far, but the wonderful improvement I have made on those two bottles convinces me that it is the best medicine in the world for building up people who are all run-down like was. Why, I feel better in every way than I have in years. My food digests so much better than it did, and in fact I can eat just about anything I want without the awful fear of having an attack of acute indigestion afterwards. I am getting back my lost weight, and I can just feel my strength coming back to me. My general health has been greatly improved, and I never have that tired, worn-out feeling any more. Tanlac certainly has been a great blessing to me, and proved to be just the medicine I have been needing all this time."

Tanlac is sold by St. John by Ross Drug Company and F. W. Munro, under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative (A.S.R.).

London Will Have American Hospital

Great $10,000,000 Institute to be Centre of U.S. Medicine in Europe

London, July 22.—American residents of London have decided to found in this city an American hospital for Great Britain and held at the Royal Society of Medicine a meeting to appoint a committee to take charge of the project. Lord Reading was in the chair and he was supported by some of the leading medical lights of England, including Sir Humphrey Rolleston, president of the Royal Society of Medicine; John Bland Sutton, vice-president of the Royal College of Surgeons, and Sir Arbutnot Lane.

It was explained that the hospital idea was an outgrowth of the war. The situation would be ideal for medical and surgical treatment of patients of all classes, irrespective of creed or nationality, and also for the promotion of scientific study and research.

During the war it was pointed out, there had been the closest co-operation between British and American medical men and British schools had been thrown open freely to large numbers of Americans who had come over to help care for the sick and wounded. It was desired to continue the close relations thus established and to remedy the conditions prevailing before the war.

Then London, notwithstanding the large mass of material for study in such a large centre of population that was necessarily offered, provided practically no opportunities for research or advanced teaching for graduates from other countries. The result was that American medical men went to Germany and Austria, and only rarely to Great Britain for scientific work, and British medicine and surgery failed to get their legitimate recognition in the United States.

It was hoped that the new American hospital would not only afford American visitors those familiar American surroundings that are so important to patients suffering serious illness, but also would be the headquarters of American medicine in Europe.

No detailed plans for the American hospital have yet been formed, but it is intended to build an institution of the first rank, equipped with the best scientific apparatus. It will cost, it is expected, at least $10,000,000 before it is completed, and subscriptions will be sought both in the United States and Great Britain.

SCORED LOCAL LABOR LEADERS

Conservative M. P. Talks Vigorously to Strikers at Sydney Mines — Letter From Premier Read

Sydney, N. S., July 21.—At a labor meeting held this afternoon at Sydney Mines a telegram from Sir Robert Borden was read dealing with coal parades by the national railways board. At the same time R. H. Butts denounced local U. M. W. leaders as demagogues and agitators. The secretary of the meeting started the proceedings by reading a number of prepared questions which were evidently designed as poisons for the politicians who were expected to be present.

The questions dealt mainly with unemployment at Sydney Mines, and the government's apparent apathy in the matter of furnishing orders for coal. Mr. Butts started by observing that judging from the appearance of the audience there was nothing much the matter with the people of Sydney Mines. He reminded them that he was not a member for North Cape Breton and that the questions submitted should have been put to D. D. McKenzie and other local Liberals.

Mr. Butts then proceeded to score the local labor leaders. He told his hearers to beware of agitators whose only business apparently was to go up and down the country creating discontent and trouble in the industrial centres.

The worst enemies the men had he declared were among themselves. There is too much strike talk, he said, and he commended the remarks made at a previous meeting by Lieut.-Colonel J. A. MacDonald, who advised the workers to study thrift and economy. Above all he said beware of the strike promoter, and of all those who were inclined to I. W. W. and O. B. U. ideas.

THE EMPIRE CALLS

To the Editor of the Times-Star: Sir.—Mr. Beale, an Australian, in his book entitled "Racial Decay," states that 300,000 lives are lost annually in the world of the unborn from race suicide in Great Britain alone.

Surely bishops and clergy could warn people against this evil. I know of one bishop I wrote to state in his reply that he was bringing the subject before his synod.

If anyone wants to do a big work for the empire I submit he could circulate the clergy or the newspapers throughout the empire with letters on this subject.

In most public libraries there are reference departments in which the workers to study thrift and economy. A list of newspapers throughout the empire, and the pen is mightier than the sword.

PLANS FOR THE PRINCE'S TOUR

London, July 21.—(Reuter's)—Reuter's learns that the following are the details of the Prince of Wales' forthcoming visit to Canada:

"Times are excluded as some of the plans are tentative and subject to possible alteration. America is not mentioned in the programme but this does not mean that the United States are not to be visited. There is almost certain to be a visit to the United States but the details are not yet settled and it may be strictly limited.

"The general plan is a visit aboard the H.M.S. Renown to important centres in the maritime provinces, winding up at Quebec; an overland trip through most of the great lakes system, through the silver mining region and the great grain growing districts away to the west and beyond the Rockies to British Columbia and then back eastward across the Dominion to Montreal. This programme, excluding possible American calls, will occupy the Prince of Wales until October, and according to present indications he will be back in London in November.

"Leaving on August 5 the prince crosses the Atlantic to St. John's and from there goes to St. John (N. B.), visits to Halifax, Charlottetown and the St. Lawrence to Quebec follow. The prince will leave the Renown at Quebec and proceed overland to Toronto, where he will visit the exhibition. Ottawa will next be visited, where the prince will lay the foundation stone of the new tower for the parliament buildings. North Bay and Lake Nipissing will be the next objective and thence the prince goes to Cobalt where he will visit the silver mines, and to Timmins where he will inspect a gold mine.

JOE BECKETT HAS POWERFUL PUNCH

His Rise to Top Ranks in English Boxing Like That of Jack Dempsey

(New York Times.)

Joe Beckett, the newest sensation in English boxing circles, has attained his great standing in somewhat the same manner that Jack Dempsey has reached his present status.

Beckett is no newcomer to the ring game. Before the war began he engaged in many bouts in England with no little success.

The new English champion stands about six feet in height, is deep chested, has massive shoulders, and his general appearance carries the impression of tremendous strength.

According to Eugene Corri, Beckett looked the winner as soon as he put up his hands. He did not get by without taking a sting himself, but this appeared only to make him battle all the harder.

Beckett had gone through the experience of being on the retained canvas when the tea seconds were tolled. He met Goddard late last year, soon after the signing of the armistice, and was knocked out by the Samson of the ring, as Goddard had been termed by some of the fight followers of England.

As for his match with Carpenter, the great strength of Beckett and the fact that Carpenter has been out of the game for so long led to the belief that Beckett should win.

Naturally Americans smile at the thought of Beckett being a match for Jack Dempsey. The terrific punching power of Willard's conqueror is rated as being beyond that of any other man in the ring.

Sidelights On Sport

Sport is certainly on the boom in these parts. The athletic meet to be held under the auspices of the Y. M. C. I. is attracting attention throughout the province as well as the city and from present indications there will be a large number of entries. In addition to these field sports there is a movement well under way for the revival of aquatic sports and before long some good racing should be witnessed in the harbor. It would be a great boost to the sport if clubs from Halifax or some other centres could be induced to come here and compete with local talent. If weather conditions are favorable races will be held this evening in the downtown harbor under the auspices of the St. John Power Boat Club. Some fast boats are entered and the events should be keenly contested. A handsome silver cup has been presented to the G. W. V. A. by one of its members, Sergt. Norman Brindle, for competition in football. On Thursday evening a meeting of those in the association interested in chasing the piskin will be held and arrangements will be discussed for the formation of teams. The trophy is a delicate and attractive work, nicely mounted and will be well worth competing for. The Chicago Americans are gaining in the race for the championship of the American League and are now seven games ahead of Cleveland, who has nosed the Yankees out of second place. The race between the Giants and Cincinnati is still close with the former club having an edge on the Reds. In the International League Toronto gained a full game on Baltimore, although they did not play. They have been going strong for more than a week and to date have won fourteen straight games.

One of the few members of the Giant hurling corps who are in good shape and ready to take his regular turn in the box is Jean Dubois. The big French Canadian has plucked alone, without fuss or furor, doing about all that has been asked of him by John McGraw, and is quite likely that from now on he will again be used regularly, as he was in the early weeks of the season.

THE TURF.

Single G, in 1.59 1/2. Toledo, July 21—All four events at the opening day of the Toledo grand circuit harness race meeting at Fort Miami Park here today were won in straight heats. Single G, Direct C. Burnett, McGregor The Great and Britton Forbes being the winners. A season's record was made in the second heat of the Free-for-all pace when Allen drove home Single G. in 1.59 1/2, the time for the last half, 59 1/2 seconds, also being a record. Betting Still Banned. Ottawa, July 21—No modifications have yet been made of the order-in-council prohibiting race track betting, but representations have from time to time been made, urging modification. Unless rescinded, the order-in-council will remain in force until peace is formally proclaimed. This will follow ratification of the peace treaty. THE RING. Dempsey Sold His Rights. Jess Willard wasn't such a far-seeing business person after all! For several years he received credit for disregarding managerial fees and employing a confidential secretary. But where was Jess's sagacity during his stay in Toledo, prior to the championship bout with Jack Dempsey? The new titleholder today possesses a substantial sum derived from the cinema exhibitors, who purchased his cut of the motion pictures, of the bout on July 4. Jess wasn't so wideawake, even before the bout, for he gave this end of the $100,000 transaction little, if any, thought. As a result Dempsey isn't losing any sleep as to whether the films are ever permitted to be screened in Ohio or not. The same cannot be said of Kansas Jess. GOLF. Outimet's Wonderful Goff. Nothing short of the word "amazing" properly characterizes the score of 66 made by Francis Outimet on the Winchester Country Club course in the Bay state championship tournament last Tuesday, yet it was such perfect golf that it hardly had anything spectacular. Never has there been a period in Outimet's brilliant golfing career when he has played his iron shots more perfectly than now, and it was his ability to stick mashie and midiron shots around the cups that brought him a 66 without a struggle. Far from "working" for a 66, he actually had a position to clip three or four strokes off that score. It has been said that the Winchester is "the easiest course in the district." It would not be far astray to say that it is about equal to the most difficult, everything considered. Yet in his 66 Outimet missed an eight-foot putt for a 3 at the fourth, hit the cup on a thirty-five foot putt at the seventh, just missed getting down a twenty-footer for a 3 at the twelfth, hit the cup for a 2 at the fourteenth, missed an eight-foot putt for a 3 at the fifteenth and had a putt of no more than twelve feet for a 3 at the sixteenth. He nearly got home in two at the first hole and chipped four feet from the cup on his third, for a simple 4 to start his remarkable round, which was as follows: Out 4 3 4 3 3 4 4 4 3—32 In . . . 3 3 4 5 3 4 4 4 4—34-66 In passing it might be of interest to know that in his rooming at the state amateur championship and that at Winchester, Outimet's own best ball was 60, as follows: Out 4 3 4 3 4 3 2 4 4 2—29 In . . . 3 3 4 4 2 2 3 4 4—31-60

ROSS LEADS OWNERS IN TURF WINNINGS

Sir Barton and Billy Kelly Have Won More Than $70,000 for Him This Season. With the racing season about half over, Commander J. K. L. Ross, who has one of the best stables in America, again promises to be the greatest money winner on the turf for the year through the earnings of his horses in stake events. The Canadian sportsman now tops the list far out in front of the other prominent horse owners. He heads the list chiefly because of the winnings of the great Sir Barton. The victories of the son of Sir Archibald, brought to Mr. Ross no less than $65,000, which is not taking into account the winnings from other great horses in his stable. Billy Kelly, the great two-year-old of last year and the winner of the Toboggan at Belmont Park this year, among other stake events, has added nearly $8,000 to the winnings of his owner, and the total makes the Canadian sportsman stand out all alone at the present time. Next to Commander Ross comes C. M. Garrison, owner of De Frank, which has brought in winnings amounting to $17,000.

INTEREST MANIFESTED IN Y. M. C. I. SPORTS

Those Making the Best Showing Will be Sent to Compete in Maritime Championships. Interest will be stimulated in the field to be held under the auspices of the Y. M. C. I. on August 2 by the announcement that some three or four of those who make the best showing will be sent to Halifax with their expenses paid to compete in the maritime championships. Quite a number of entries have been received for most of the events so far but there are some which are not filled. The Halifax sports are to be held on the last Saturday in August under the auspices of the Wanderers and with the approval of the maritime branch of the C. A. A. U. In addition to many open events, five championship events are scheduled. Immediately following the Halifax sports, on Labor Day, the Moncton Amateur Association will hold a field day in which those sent to Halifax and others will probably compete. Entries for the Y. M. C. I. sports should be sent to E. Sterling or A. W. Covey, vice-president of the maritime branch of the C. A. A. U.

Cotton Mills Defeat Rockwoods.

On the East End League diamond, last evening, the Cotton Mills defeated the Rockwoods in a fast seven inning game with a score of 9 to 6. The game was well attended and was full of interest throughout. The batteries were: Cotton Mills, Brooks, Gillis and Cooper; Rockwoods, Calhoun, Seelye and Friars. Umpire—D. Currie. Tonight the Imperials will play the Cotton Mills. The games and grounds' committee met in Thorne Lodge Hall after the game and received a list of eighteen players from the captain of each team. These players will represent their respective teams in the league. No additional names will be allowed to be added to any team. The games in this league are proving very interesting and the people of that section are patronizing them well. Glenwoods, 3; Crescents, 2. Last evening on St. Peter's diamond the Crescents went down to defeat before the Glenwoods, the score being 3 to 2. The fans who witnessed the game were greatly pleased by the showing of the players. Karney sent the shots so rapidly that the Crescents batsmen were held to five scattered hits. McCrossin saved the game for the Glenwoods by a timely hit which scored two runs. Sensational catches were made by Hughes and Doherty. Batteries for the Glenwoods were Karney and McCrossin; for the Crescents, McGovern and McCarty. Curlews Win on Wolves. The Curlews defeated the Wolves, 8 to 5 on Dufferin diamond last evening. Batteries, Fanjoy and Doherty; McKenzie and Thompson. Tonight, Beavers and Wolves. Roses, 5; Champions, 4. An interesting game of baseball was played on the Y. M. C. A. diamond last evening when the Roses defeated the Champions by a score of 5 to 4. The battery for the winner was Sullivan and Knudson and for the losers Durlay and O'Brien. Ball Game at Hampton. An exciting game was played last evening at Hampton when the "Category E" men defeated the returned men by a score of 15-9. For the first two innings it looked as if the soldiers were going to take the full line of trenches without any resistance whatever, as they were then six scores in the lead, but in the fifth inning the "E" men began to dodge "Bulldog" Seely's "duds" that he was trying to throw over the plate and in a short time the bases were full, and the merry-go-round started, ending when twelve scores were across the plate in that inning. A large crowd witnessed that inning. A large crowd witnessed the game and the cheers were all for the soldiers, but they were somewhat handicapped as most of them had had something else to do beside play baseball during the last four years. For the soldiers Seely, Frimble and Brown were the batter, and Mathews, Bovaard and Sharp formed the battery for the "Category E" men. It is expected that a series of games will be played between these teams in the near future.

DOZEN IN FIELD FOR LEADERSHIP OF LIBERAL PARTY

Gouin an Outstanding Figure Except That Fielding is For an English-Speaking Leader - Probably Withdrawals Before Convention Meets.

Ottawa, July 21.—All the dominant prominent Canadian Liberals are active at work in preparation for the national Liberal convention. The dozen whose names have been put forward for the Liberal leadership are staying more or less modestly in the background, but their friends are strenuously at work.

In British Columbia Premier John Oliver and members of his government, along with Messrs. F. T. Condon, K. C., M. A. MacDonald, K.C., J. H. Sinclair, K.C., and others are strenuous in work to make the convention a success so far as British Columbia is concerned.

They will bring with them their candidate for leadership in W. W. B. McInnes, who has been a member in both the federal and the provincial house, and was once a minister of the crown, and at another time governor of the Yukon.

Coming farther east to Alberta one finds such active workers as Premier Stewart, Hon. Frank Oliver, Hon. C. W. Cross, Hon. A. G. Mackay, Hon. Duncan Marshall, Mr. W. H. White, M. P., Hon. George P. Smith and others with whom name as a candidate for the leadership M. A. H. Clarke, K. C., ex-M. P. of Calgary.

Mr. Martin Making Strong Bid. In Saskatchewan prominent influential workers are men like Hon. C. A. Dunning, Hon. W. R. Motherwell, Hon. Geo. Langley and Mr. G. C. Hamilton.

They will all line up behind their premier, Hon. W. M. Martin whose chances for the leadership are regarded as brighter than those of any other western man. Manitoba has strong men at work, Premier Norris and Hon. D. J. Thomson down. Mr. Alexander MacLeod, of Morden, is prominent in the organization and preparatory work being done in that province.

Hon. A. B. Hudson, ex-attorney-general of Manitoba, will receive the backing of a strong Manitoba delegation for leadership. Ontario has three candidates for the leadership, Hon. Geo. F. Graham, Hon. M. King and Mr. F. F. Pardee. M. P. but will divide her allegiance even on the first vote among other aspirants as well, both east and west.

Among the noteworthy workers in Ontario in the interest of the convention are Sir Allan Aylesworth, of Toronto, Hon. Charles Murphy and Alexander Smith, of Ottawa, W. C. Kennedy, M.P., Duncan Ross, M.P., Hartley H. Dewar, leader of the opposition, the presidents of six Liberal district associations, Geo. S. Gibbons, London, W. E. N. Sinclair, Oshawa, H. B. Ramsden, Mount Albert, Ontario, H. H. Hersey, Cressy, Ontario, W. G. A. McGanghery, North Bay, and Wm. G. F. Money, Port Arthur.

In Quebec there are wheels within wheels, but the two chief figures in the first vote for leadership of Quebec members will be Premier Gouin and Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux. If it was not already accepted by both French-speaking and English-speaking Liberals that it is now the turn of an English-speaking man for leader, there is no doubt that Sir Lomer Gouin would be one or if not the chief figure at the convention.

The hard workers for the convention will be Hon. Jacques Bureau, Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Hon. W. Mitchell, Mr. L. A. Letourneau and Mr. Severin Letourneau and others. The name of Hon. Sidney Fisher also appears among those listed for the leadership.

The Maritime Workers. Strong influences are being exerted in New Brunswick by Premier W. E. Foster, O. Turgeon and Mr. A. B. Copp, M.P.

In Nova Scotia Premier Murray, Hon. B. McGregor, Hon. A. T. Daniels and J. L. Ralston, K.C., M.P.P., of the 80th battalion, are throwing their powerful influence with the convention workers.

Two Nova Scotia candidates for the leadership are Mr. D. D. McKenna, leader of the opposition in the dominion house now and Hon. W. S. Fielding, the last named but a veteran who may yet prove the choice of the convention.

In Prince Edward Island they are having trouble enough of their own with a provincial election in which the opposition has an excellent chance of winning, representatives will be here, however. There will be a number of withdrawals from the contest even before the first vote at the convention.

AN ANTI-LIQUOR DRIVE IN JAPAN

Movement Based on Social and Economic Grounds Indicated for Near Future

San Francisco, July 22.—"There are indications that a temperance movement based on social and economic grounds, the only method of procedure that can be based on in Japan in the near future, is at hand," says Dr. D. M. Gaudier, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of California, who is now making a general survey of the drink problem in connection with the international dry movement, in Japan and the Orient.

Dr. Gaudier points out, however, in his communication to the California Liberator, the organ of the Anti-Saloon League, that up to the present time nearly all temperance activity in Japan has taken the form of total abstinence or organizations, which approach the problem from the personal rather than the social standpoint, and attack the habit rather than the traffic.

Credit should be given to the Women's Christian Temperance Union, and the Japanese Temperance League, says Dr. Gaudier, for effective work done along other lines. He says: "If Japan once recognizes the handicap which sake and beer are putting upon her she will cast aside that handicap even though doing so means changing some of her most ancient customs. If Japan does this in the near future, the whole Orient will be saved from the curse of alcohol. Japan is the key to Asia in this as in many other respects."

"The Japanese Temperance League is a federation of total abstinence societies. It has done a work of untold value in teaching the harmfulness of the drink habit, and in banding together 10,000 total abstainers to carry on total abstinence propaganda. Its committees require all meetings to be opened with hymn-singing, scripture reading and prayer. This marks it as a distinctly Christian organization and shuts out many who are not Christians, but who favor prohibition as a wise social and economic policy."

"Japan is not yet a Christian country, and if prohibition is to become its national policy, it will be brought about by social and economic rather than by religious means."

"The Hon. Taro Ando, president of the Japanese Temperance League, is an interesting personality. He has given freely of both time and money to the cause, and when Japan is freed from the curse of alcohol no one will be entitled to greater credit for the victory than the Hon. Taro Ando."

NUMBER OF N. B. PENSIONS IS GROWING LARGE

Nearly Three Thousand Veterans of the Great War Drawing Pensions for Disabilities—Board Has Staff of Twenty

Although in the recent estimates brought down in the House, some thirty millions of dollars were voted for the payment of pensions and their administration, very few people realize what the pension regulations entail, other than those directly interested, very few have even a proper understanding of the regulations. Canada has had a pension act in force for over three years. The original act has been amended from time to time by various orders-in-council, and bills passed in the House. Clauses that have been found to be impracticable have been amended or cancelled. Deserving cases, however, have been which the original act did not cover, and legal action has been enacted to embrace such cases.

There is a Dominion-wide organization which administers pension regulations. This organization has branches in all the principal cities of Canada, and a branch known as the St. John District Office, Board of Pension Commissioners for Canada, has been in existence at the Canada Life Building, 60 Prince William street, for over two years. It is doubtful if the majority of people in New Brunswick, or even in St. John, are aware of the existence of such an office. Many people refer questions to the head office at Ottawa, which could be dealt with more promptly and efficiently at the district branch.

This branch is the representative of the head office at Ottawa for the province of New Brunswick. Its duties are to carry out the provisions of the pension regulations with a minimum of delay and inconvenience to the pensioner or the applicant for pension. Pensions are divided into two classes—disability and disability pension. Disability pension is awarded solely for a disability in the general labor market contracted on or due to active service, whether in England, Canada or any other field of active service. A man's pre-enlistment efficiency is taken into account, as if unable to follow his former occupation, he may obtain a vocational course in the United States.

A dependent pension is a sum of money paid to relatives of deceased soldiers to compensate for a loss of support. Wives, mothers, fathers, foster-parents, minor brothers and sisters and minor children are included in this class. All may receive pensions of varying amounts for the loss of a bread-winner on active service.

Pensions, both disability and dependent, are awarded only when the claim comes within the purview of regulations laid down by the government of Canada, and are not a form of charity. Many cases have been presented at the district office which would attract sympathy from most hearts, but if the regulations are not covered by regulations drawn up and interpreted as fairly as possible, no assistance can be given but the board of pension commissioners.

The St. John branch commenced operations with a staff of three. That staff has steadily increased, until it now numbers over twenty. Many cases are handled daily. There are at the present time nearly 3,000 persons in New Brunswick who are in receipt of a pension on account of the recent war with Germany. The number is increasing daily. The St. John district office employs two doctors who interview when carrying out their duties, but this is usually overcome by a short conversation, explaining regulations sometimes colored by an illustration of a case where justice was not done through a claim being decided upon because of the available evidence was obtained.

A recent estimate of the staff of the pension commissioners showed that over ninety per cent. of the male members were returned soldiers. Every member of the staff of the St. John district office has seen active service in France and has had practical experience of the conditions of the returned soldier or his relative.

The St. John branch has had many difficulties to overcome, although these are by no means over, they are now in a position where claims for pension are attended to without undue delay.

GERMANS TO SAIL FOR FATHERLAND

Nine Hundred Interned Enemies Are Being Deported From Canada

Ottawa, July 22.—It is expected that from Montreal or Quebec nine hundred Germans who have been interned in Canada since the outbreak of the war will be sent to their fatherland. The Dominion government will ship them to Rotterdam, Holland, and from there they will be sent to Germany. These Germans were gathered during the war into internment camps at Vernon, B. C. and Kapuskasing, Ont., and when they depart few alien prisoners will be left in Canada.

U. S. Officer Beaten by Men He Persecuted

Lieut. "Hard Boiled" Smith Recognized by Some of His Victims Who Remembered His Cruelty to Them

Washington, July 22.—Lieut. "Hard Boiled" Smith was beaten nearly to death, when he arrived as a prisoner, at Fort Jay, a few days ago, according to a statement made by Representative Dallinger, chairman of the sub-committee which has been investigating the treatment of prisoners in American army camps in France. Other prisoners at Fort Jay, who accused Smith of maltreating them, leaped upon the former officer before the guards could restrain them, and he is now in a hospital.

In the statement, Dallinger asserted that other witnesses would be called to prove that a Lieut. Mason, another officer in charge of camps, "clubbed prisoners, robbed them, and stole their money," yet his crime was nothing more than a dishonorable discharge. Commenting that the first sentence imposed upon Lieut. "Hard Boiled" Smith was a dishonorable discharge, Dallinger sarcastically inquired: "Why didn't the court have him slapped on the wrist?"

Only seventy-seven hours were consumed by the congressional committee in ascertaining that "awful cruelties" had been practised upon the prisoners, says Dallinger, and adds that it would have taken the war department seventy-seven years to accomplish this disclosure.

Of the attack upon former Lieut. Smith, the statement says: "Hard Boiled" Smith arrived at Fort Jay, N. Y., the other day and was almost at once seen by some of his victims then serving sentence. He was recognized by them and before the guards arrived he was beaten to a pulp and I believe he is now in the hospital recovering from a punishment meted out to him by those very men whom he had himself tortured. It is thus that man takes the law into his own hands when the courts fail."

The remainder of the statement follows: "Since the beginning of the war I have called on the war department to investigate specific instances of inefficiency and specific charges of one kind or another concerning the treatment of our soldiers. In every instance Secretary Baker has diplomatically assured me that an investigation would be made. As a result and ordinarily after several months' delay I have been politely assured either an investigation showed no truth whatsoever in these charges or that they had been grossly exaggerated and whatever faults had been found had been corrected. Always there is delay and nothing is done. "As a result, you may believe me when I say that I am thoroughly disgusted with this army official investigations. The caste system in vogue in our army makes an investigation nothing more than a joke. These regular army officers naturally want to protect themselves and each other and it becomes a case of simply 'My helping you if you'll help me; let's work together and pull the wool over the eyes of Mr. Baker, congress and the country.' "The investigation called as a result of charges made by me on the floor of the house of congress to soldiers in France, Congressman Flood asked me why I did not let the war department do the investigating. Congress did the investigating and as a result the six witnesses who testified to the most awful cruelties imaginable proved within seventy-seven hours all I had charged and further proof can be furnished by several soldiers who are itching to testify. The congressional investigation committee got results in seventy-seven hours after my charges were made. If the war department had done this investigating it would have taken at least seventy-seven days to get any kind of a report and at least seventy-seven years to get such facts brought to light as I discovered in a matter of hours."

TEN CASUALTIES IN RACE RIOTS AT WASHINGTON

Washington, July 21.—At midnight the known casualty list in Washington's race war totalled ten, included two deaths and two men probably dying while unconfirmed but police reports placed the number at a much greater figure. Of the dead one was a city detective shot through the breast by a negro woman who was firing indiscriminately from the upper story of her house.

The negro, a girl of about seventeen years, also was shot but not fatally. In another part of the city the blacks firing from a garage door kept a provost guard of soldiers and marines at bay for several minutes before being shot down.

Many clashes occurred between whites and blacks on street cars. One negro attached on the back end of a car, fired into the crowd, following the car and wounded four persons but finally was stopped by a city detective who was reported to have sent seven bullets into the negro's body. Each of the four white men were only slightly wounded.

Advertisement for Belgian Linen Factories. Text: "BELGIAN LINEN FACTORIES BEGINNING TO OPERATE. The restarting of linen factories at Ghent will raise a question as to future possibilities in the flax-retting industry of Courtrai. When the Textile Institute held its annual congress in Belgium in 1918 the delegates' attention was drawn to the diversity of opinions on the part of experts as to the reasons which made it profitable for flax from various countries to be sent to Courtrai to undergo the retting process in the River Lys, the view commonly held (according to one expert) was that the slow-moving waters of the Lys held 'secret' properties peculiarly advantageous to flax, and it was asserted that samples of the water had been carried away by Americans with a view to analysis and the discovery of the secret of the golden Lys. Efforts in this direction, however, had yielded no satisfactory results. A Belfast technical authority on flax believes the excellence of flax retted at Courtrai to be due to the extreme care with which the process is carried out and to the expert knowledge of retting passed on from one generation of retters to another over a long course of years.
