ARE STIRRED BY STRANGE MURDER CASE

Proprietor of Extraordinary School Shot Down at His Door-Wife is Arrested

Paris, July 22-The country is stirred by the details of a case which bears some resemblance to that of the assassination of M. Guillotin. M. and Mme Clerc kept a school for young ladies at Sevres-or, rather, Madame did, while Monsieur was an artist-engraver. On Monday night the couple went to the theatre in Paris, returning a few minutes after the train, reaching home about half past one in the morning. Just as they reached the door a shot rang and Clerc fell fatally wounded. He died without being able to give any clue to the murderer.

Mme. Clerc affirms that her husband was undeterred, brutal and miserably cruel. She allowed her only child, a month on which to keep house. There were twenty-three girls in the school, whose parents paid between $2.50 and $2.85 monthly. There were several children in the Clerc family itself, three servants, and various members. Not only did the victim flourish, but it appears that the Clercs had been nearly $20,000.

Mme. Clerc affirms that her husband was undeterred, brutal and miserably cruel. She allowed her only child, a month on which to keep house. There were twenty-three girls in the school, whose parents paid between $2.50 and $2.85 monthly. There were several children in the Clerc family itself, three servants, and various members. Not only did the victim flourish, but it appears that the Clercs had been nearly $20,000. Why, then, says the judge, was the woman always grumbling about money, and finally why have her husband murdered? The explanation is that the school served as the refuge for children whom their parents intended ultimately to abandon. The murderer, a man named Parratt, seems to have left his own child with strangers till she was nine years old, and then to have sent for a year or two to Mme. Clerc before propounding her servant's place in the household. Parratt, who was a man of mean and vulgar mind, and who was kept in and out of a lunatic asylum. His mind, however, was evidently slightly unbalanced and the body of his wife had been incriminated, whenever he saw the head of a motor car he used to get out in terror that he saw the flames of the crematorium.

On Thursday Parratt obtained leave from the asylum, and commissioned a friend to buy him a revolver. According to Mrs. Clerc's story he then visited her, and when she related the sufferings she endured through the intolerable aridity and humidity of her husband, he offered her $100 to rid her of him. Parratt, without thoroughly realizing what she was doing, consented. It is almost certain that the crime must have been pre-arranged; otherwise Parratt would scarcely have been lurking outside the house in the small hours of the morning waiting for the return of the pair from the theatre. Again, when her husband fell, Madame seems to have gone to the nearest doctor and told him that her husband was slightly wounded, but that it was not worth while for him to come if he would tell her what to do. The doctor recommended a dose of iodine, and Madame quietly went home and to bed while the unfortunate man lay in the next room on the sofa.

The Clerc had eight children, of whom three are still living. A search has been made for the books of the school and the registers with the names of the pupils, but these appear to have been destroyed. The murderer Parratt has completely vanished, and it is supposed to be hiding in the forest of Meudon. He did not wear the name of the girl he had murdered. The English language was specially cultivated there, and he was an English lady teacher, an English professor came twice a week for the last two years, without anybody ever learning his name. Mrs. Clerc herself declares that she knew only his christian name. He is also being sought and his parents are being hunted for.

THE THREE SERVANTS are all former pupils abandoned by their parents, but only one, who is the daughter of a government functionary by his first wife, seems to know anything of her family history.

MONTRIAL TRIPLETS SET NEW RECORD

Montreal, July 22-When the stork dropped in at the Shapiro home, Esplanade Avenue, he established a new weight record for Montreal. Mrs. Shapiro gave birth to the third set of triplets added to Montreal's population this year.

They consisted of two boys and one girl, and their total weight was fifteen pounds, two ounces. The previous record, held by triplets born three days ago to Mrs. William MacEachran was thirteen pounds, fourteen ounces. Mrs. Shapiro, the Mrs. Shapiro and the Masters Shapiro are all doing well.

A POPULAR ROLE

Mrs. Rogers had the barrel of russet apples placed in the attic, because they were not quite ripe enough to eat, and she wanted her three boys, whose ages range from five to eleven years, not to touch them.

Then, one rainy day, when she sought the attic to get something from a trunk, she came full upon her sons, surrounded by apple-cores. At her approach two of the boys drew closer together; but the third, a little distance off, who lay on his stomach contentedly munching an apple, apparently paid no attention to his mother's entrance.

"Jack! Henry! Willie!" she exclaimed, reproachfully. "Whatever you are doing! And those apples! Didn't I tell you not to touch them?"

"Yes, mamma," replied Jack, the eldest, "but we're not really eating them. We're eating the Garden of Eden. Willie and I are Adam and Eve, and Henry, over there, is the serpent, trying to lead us to our downfall by showing us how good the apples are."

"But," began the mother, as sternly as she was able, "you two must have been eating apples. Henry hasn't done it all I see as many as ten cores around you."

"Oh, yes," returned Willie, the youngest. "We've all been taking turn by the throat."

EMPEROR MUTSUHITO

Emperor Mutsuhito of Japan, whose dangerous illness was announced on Saturday, is described by one writer as "one of the most kingly figures in history."

His name will be forever associated with the "era of enlightenment" in Japan, which was the wonder of the world in the last half of the last century.

When Mutsuhito was born in 1852, Japan was still a feudal nation, having practically no communication with the outer world.

At the time of the birth of the future emperor the nominal ruler, his father, lived in the sacred city of Kioto, in a great seclusion as that which then and later surrounded the Grand Llama of Tibet.

The attempt of the Italian torpedo fleet to sink the Japanese fleet in the Bay of Manila, but it was not due to the marksmanship of the Turk, who appears to be a very bad shot.

The Toronto Globe says: "Some British suffragist leaders seem determined to make it impossible for any law-abiding citizen to continue to support their cause at present. Every form of violence which can be imagined short of murder has been resorted to, with the result that no bill including female suffrage could pass the House of Commons."

During the last year 164 brides received the $50 dowry from the will of Oliver Smith. He was the uncle of Sophia Smith, founder of Smith College, and on his death in 1847 left his property, amounting to $270,000, to be used for various charities, one of which was the giving of $50 to every bride who was a resident of Northampton, Amherst, Hadley, Hadfield, Deerfield or Whately.

throughout the world. There are certain concrete advantages in this scheme, but there are very weighty objections to it. In the first place, it is incompatible with the existence of local navies, and is indeed advocated in place of them.

HON. MR. HUGHES OFF TO THE COAST

Minister to See Where Dr. Halls Are Needed Most in the West

Ottawa, July 21—Hon. Col. Hughes, minister of militia, accompanied by Mrs. Hughes and the Misses Hughes, left tonight on a four weeks' trip to the Pacific coast. Col. Hughes will inspect the various militia properties in the west and ascertain the needs of the western provinces in regard to militia organization, the erection of drill halls, etc. He expects to be back in Ottawa about the middle of August and will sail on the 21st with a half dozen Canadian officers to attend the British army manoeuvres in September. He will also spend a few days watching the German and French manoeuvres before returning to Canada about the end of September. Another example to officers of the militia who are not wise enough to control their taste for liquor while on duty has been given by the minister of militia, who has summarily dismissed an officer who was drunk while in charge of men returning from the Niagara camp. The officer in question belongs to one of the regiments of the Toronto military district and the case against him left him no excuse for disregarding the minister's orders in regard to the use of liquor.

KING'S PRIZE STAYS IN ENGLAND

Private Fulton, a London Volunteer, Wins the Coveted Bisley Trophy.

Bisley, England, July 20—The National Rifle Association closed a successful tournament of a fortnight's duration with the competition this afternoon of the match for the King's prize, the principal trophy of the meeting. Private A. G. Fulton, a London volunteer, was the winner, with an aggregate score of 33 out of a possible 350. The winner of the gold medal has appeared in the finals of this competition four times previously but each time failed to carry off the prize. CUT HER SHORT. Five year old Harold's sister was in the habit of making a good many demands on him. Generally her requests for favors, and the running of errands around the house, were prefaced by what she considered subtle flattery. "Now, Harold," she began one day, "you're a dear, sweet little boy and you know I love you." But Harold cut her short. "Well Ethel," he said earnestly, "if it's up stairs, I won't go!" The average man will die from want of air in five minutes, for want of water in ten.

CONNAUGHTS LEAVE FOR THE MARITIME PROVINCES WEDNESDAY

Quebec, July 21—The Duke of Connaught, Princess Patricia and party returned to Quebec on Saturday from their trip to Winnipeg. The royal party, including the duke and duchess and the princess attended service in the Anglican Cathedral this morning, occupying the state pew. There was a large congregation in attendance. The royal party will leave Wednesday morning on the government steamer Earl Grey for the trip to the maritime provinces.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

Before Justice W. E. Calhoun, at Hope Hill on Saturday, the Colpitts jury case was resumed and adjournment was made until Wednesday when evidence for the defence, if any, will be heard. The accused is out on $1,500 bail, furnished by James C. Sherrin and Walter Jones. The complainant in the case is James R. Somers, of Moncton. It is reported among railway men that construction work on the Gagetown-Boisheviere section of the St. John-Quebec railway may begin at an early date. The contract for building that portion of the line has been awarded to James H. Corbett & Sons (Incorporated), who at the present time have construction operations on the Fredericton-Gagetown section under way. Nothing definite is yet known concerning the matter. The discount period in the payment of Moncton city taxes ended Saturday and the total during that time received was $88,000. On Saturday more than $40,000 was taken in. Efforts are now being made by the government of Saskatchewan, through the labor bureau, to secure 25,000 hands who, it is expected, will be needed for the harvesting of the wheat crop. The post office at Chatham is to be enlarged and it is thought possible that an addition of some thirty feet long and three stories high will be built adjoining the present structure. Samuel Willinsky, a Pole, condemned for murder at Montreal, Alberta, will not have his sentence of death commuted, as the governor-in-council at Ottawa has declined the petition, asking that this be done. The steamer Hudson which arrived on Saturday at Philadelphia, reported having sighted a floating spar to which was lashed the body of a man. It was a few miles from the scene of the Titanic wreck. Private A. G. Fulton, a London volunteer, was the winner, with an aggregate score of 33 out of a possible 350. The winner of the gold medal has appeared in the finals of this competition four times previously but each time failed to carry off the prize. CUT HER SHORT. Five year old Harold's sister was in the habit of making a good many demands on him. Generally her requests for favors, and the running of errands around the house, were prefaced by what she considered subtle flattery. "Now, Harold," she began one day, "you're a dear, sweet little boy and you know I love you." But Harold cut her short. "Well Ethel," he said earnestly, "if it's up stairs, I won't go!" The average man will die from want of air in five minutes, for want of water in ten.

MORNING LOCALS

The annual picnic of the Mission Church St. John Baptist was held at Westfield on Saturday and was enjoyed by a large number. Miss Evelyn Roberts, nurse in training at Victoria Memorial Hospital, Toronto, underwent an emergency operation there for appendicitis on Friday last. Her friends in this city will be pleased to learn that she is rapidly recovering. Miss Roberts is a daughter of L. H. Roberts, of the post office staff in St. John. The services in Centenary church yesterday were conducted by Rev. E. H. Thomas in the morning and Rev. G. F. Camp in the evening. Rev. Dr. Flanders will go to Sussex to take the pastorate here this week and Rev. Mr. Dawson will likely have his pastorate in Centenary on next Sunday. Rev. Andrew had a severe toothache at the end of the week, in fact recovering. Jackson, Mich., July 20—Michigan progressives divorced themselves absolutely from the Republican party in their state convention here today. By almost unanimous vote the delegates went on record as favoring the placing of an entire ticket, both state and national, in the field. A few instructed delegates voted against the move in order to record the sentiment of their home counties, but explained to the convention that they personally were for separation from the old party. GENUINE RELIC OF TURPIN Dick Turpin—simultaneously butcher's apprentice, cattle lifter, smuggler, house-breaker, highwayman, and horse thief—the hero of our childhood, has been proved undoubted owner of the pistol just discovered by workmen in the ceiling of the Reindeer Inn at Banbury. "The pistol is undoubtedly of the date 1735," said the manager of Messrs. Westley Richards & Co., Ltd., gun-makers, of New Bond street, where the pistol is now on view, to an Express representative. "You see that it is a double-barrelled horse pistol with flint locks, smooth-bore barrels, 16 gauge, and of the exact pattern used during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries. "We have had the assurance of an expert engraver that the inscription on the barrel—Presented to Dick Turpin at the White Bear Inn, Drury Lane, 1735—is also of that period. The workmanship throughout is very fine. The handle is of English walnut. The flash holes are inlaid with gold, and the band round the breech end of each barrel is gold. It probably cost about £20 originally. "The pistol is marked in four places in small gold inlaid panels. 'Baker, London,' who was the predecessor of the well-known Ezekiel Baker, pistol maker to the Prince of Wales. "The mystery of how it came to be found in the Reindeer Inn may be explained by the fact that history tells us of an occasion when Turpin stayed at the inn and was shot through the hand there. "Of course the question of ownership has arisen. Since the pistol was discovered on the upper side of the plaster ceiling above the historical Globe Room at the back of the Reindeer Inn at Banbury, claim have been put in by Messrs. Levy Gon, who have purchased the ceiling, by the lessee of the property as occupier, and by the freeholder of the property."

THAT BEATS HER

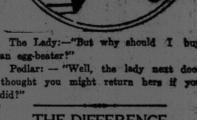

The Lady:—"But why should I buy an egg-baster?" Billy:—"Well, the lady says do thought you might return here if you did!"

THE DIFFERENCE

Billy:—"Is it murder to kill a pig?" Butcher:—"No, my son." Billy:—"Then, what's the difference?" Butcher:—"One is assaulting with intent to kill, and the other is killing with intent to sell."

NO DANGER

Miss Antiques—I hope, driver, you will not run away with me. Cabby:—"Bless yer, no mum! I've got a wife and six young 'uns at home already." Considerations of economy have induced the German postal authorities to approve a plan by which 8000 girls and women will gradually supplant men on the staffs of the different branches of the administration. The innovation will especially affect the smaller postoffice ranked in the third class. In these 3333 places in the lower grades hitherto filled by men are destined to be gradually occupied by women, at an average salary of $100 annually.

SCOUTS IDEA THAT GERMANY IS EAGER FOR WAR

New York, July 20—An international banker who has returned from Europe, says the financial, industrial and political situation in Germany interested him more than anything else in Europe. "I satisfied myself that war is the last in Germany's mind or on her lips. A year ago English financial and governmental interests believed they were within 24 hours of war. Every German steam was up in every warship, and every man at his post ready for the word which would start the world at one time, to be given within 24 hours. "The only practical result, however, so far as Germany was concerned, was that we had to send $10,000,000 from America to help her out of the consequences of her own war. Of course France began to pull her money when Germany balked at France from the harbor of Agadir and the English line roared back with a noise that sent chills down the marrow of the European financiers. "France is financially very strong, and I am not sure but that a European war might find her stronger in men and arms than in 1913. But the day has gone by in Germany when the emperor or his cabinet or anybody except the people of Germany make war. When and Germany people feel that their national existence is at stake they will go to war; but never before. "We think we have something of a problem in the high cost of living here, but we are not in it with Germany. I lived in Berlin sixty years ago, when it was without sewage, modern conveniences or even public transportation, and everybody had to eat. Now Berlin is a clean, modern city. All the Americans I met told me it cost more to live in Berlin than it did in America. I paid more for my hotel room in Berlin than I should have had to pay in the Waldorf in New York for similar accommodations. "Germany is industrious, and is building tremendously with her money, but I don't think she is accumulating very much after she has had interest and settled her own feelings. "ALB. ROTTEN. "Claude Gresham-Wright, a visitor, who was recently married, tells a story of an English novelist who complained to him that he had written a number of plays, but they had all been rejected. "The white suggested that he should write a play that was running in the different theatres. "I devoted the whole of last month to the novel," the London theatre replied. "And didn't you learn something from that?" Mr. White asked. "Yes," was the reply, "I learn that I'm the only man in London who can't get a poor play put on the stage."

Loss of More Than $1,000,000--Car Barns, Hotel and Apartment House Burned--Some Narrow Escapes

Vanouver, B. C., July 20--Fire destroyed an entire business block and the British Columbia electric railway car barns early today. The Royal George Hotel and the Angles apartment house were among the buildings burned. The damage is estimated at $1,000,000.

other industries which have or have had a substantial footing in that country. results achieved by the police department in tracing the slayers of the gambler. In connection with using outside agencies of investigation, it is declared that the story that Rosenthal was to be killed was in wide circulation among the East Side resorts Monday evening, but no measure was taken to protect him.

They have told me things that I did not know of before," said Aaron Levy, counsel for the two men. "If Mr. Whittman desires to know my clients, he will learn of disclosures which will make the public gasp when they are published."

See," he said, "see the abyss. I am going there now." His two hands loosed their hold. The two men sprang forward. M. le Comte stood on firm ground a few feet lower down, and he was laughing, laughing, laughing. His brain had withstood the shock of his fall, the horror of that awful night when he thought death was yawning up for him three hundred feet below, but the shock of the fact that he had been in safety all the time had driven him out of his mind.

GIRL'S AFTERNOON FROCK

A perfectly charming afternoon frock for a young girl is fashioned of fine lawn, German val and sheer marquisette. Three stripes of the flit form a sash on the waist and this is finished with ruffles of the German val. The sleeves are puffed with the marquisette and edged with the narrow lace. The skirt is slightly full and the combined laces trim the lower portion slightly to the waist. A peacock blue butterfly bow is tucked to the front, and the girle and hanging ends are also of the peacock blue velvet ribbon, and finished with a tassel.

BRITISH PROTEST NOT FILED

United States Government Still Seeks to Avoid Treaty--Result of Deliberations Awaited by Britain

Washington, July 20--A. M. Innes, the British charge d'affaires, called at the state department again today, but did not deliver the expected protest of Great Britain against the Panama canal bill.

It is probable Mr. Innes learned unofficially the sentiment of the state department in the matter. His position appears to be unambiguously in support of the contention, embodied in the pending bill, that the American government has an undoubted right to favor its own ships, either by relieving them from the payment of tolls or refunding tolls collected without violating the Hay-Pauncefote treaty.

It is recognized, however, that this is a subject that might fairly be made a diplomatic issue, and as the department has declined to enter into any such negotiations so long as the subject is under discussion before congress, it is unlikely that it will commit itself to any formal statement of its position at this time.

TRAVELERS' DAY SEPT. 6

At a meeting of commercial travelers in the board of trade rooms on Saturday a programme was decided on for travelers' day during the exhibition. September 6 was chosen and all travelers who may be in the city that week are invited to join in the entertainment.

Registration will take place in Keith's assembly rooms, and at 10 a start will be made from there in automobiles to Courtenay Bay, where they will visit the works. At 1 o'clock all will embark at Indianston for a sail on the river, with a clam bake provided at Orter's Point. Return will be made at 7.30 to the exhibition buildings, where they will stay till 10 o'clock, after which there will be an entertainment in Keith's assembly rooms. It is also the intention of the travelers to have a booth in the building.

Table with columns: Team, Won, Lost, P.C. Rows include Fredericton, Houlton, Woodstock, Marshalls.

The Marathons decisively defeated the Fredericton team by a score of 8 to 5 on the Marathon grounds Saturday afternoon in the presence of about 2,000 spectators. Steve White, the new pitcher from Boston, was the mound for the Greks and proved very effective. The Caps, however, made thirteen hits off his delivery. Frank Harrington was on the firing line for the visitors and was touched for the same number of hits. White had seven strikeouts to his credit, and Harrington five.

The game was marred by very ungentlemanly conduct on the part of Keane, the shortstop for the visitors. In the second inning he questioned a decision by the umpire and was ordered out. The Caps, before going, however, he struck the umpire with his glove and was removed from the field by the police. The Fredericton team evidently missed him from the game, for White at shortstop had two glaring errors to his credit. Keane is the same man who tried to break up a game here last summer by holding a Marathon base-runner who was going from second to third base. It is expected that Keane will be fined and suspended for his actions on Saturday.

Notes of the Game. I got you Steve. That White looks like some pitcher. The new third baseman is a good ball player. His work at third was a feature of the game. And did you see him slide to home plate? Rice is a little too young for the Greks. He played only fairly well. Keane ought to be severely reprimanded for his actions on Saturday. He would make a better football player than a baseball player. This is the second time he has tried to break up games here, and he ought to know by now that the baseball field is no place for a rowdy. The Fredericton boys seemed to be right on the job with the hits on Saturday. They evidently were sore because they were losing. Clear up, you will get the same dose many times before the season ends. The Greks play quite a few games this week, and here's hoping that they are as successful as they were on Saturday. The Halifax Standards were defeated by the Dorchester team 10 to 8 at Halifax Saturday. Later in the afternoon an All-Halifax team defeated the Dorchester nine by a score of 7 to 6. The Westville team defeated the Stellarton nine at Westville by a score of 8 to 3.

It's the Marquis now, and by the way, he's called many other less complimentary things not so very long ago. But that was our mistake. How did we know that he was going to get it over. He was an $11,000 lemon then, and now, why we will all agree that he's an $11,000 beauty. Well, Rube was cornered—the tall, lanky was torn from his auto for a few months, physically but not mentally. "Why, I don't know anything about myself, honest, honest, don't ask me," said Rube. We tried, of course. He always best to laugh when interviewing any one. But he did tell. He stood leaning against his car, with his head bent to one side, in that characteristic attitude so well known to the ball fans of the country. Rube, it seemed picked out Chillicothe, O., about 23 years ago and placed it in

JOE, THE CHECK ROBBER, CAUGHT IN BUFFALO

After He Had Shed His Paper Half-Million He Moved Westward—How Police Got Him.

New York, July 19—Joseph Killen, the seventeen-year-old messenger boy who left town last Saturday with more than $300,000 in checks and $20 in cash belonging to the United Cigar Stores Company, has been arrested in Buffalo. A detective found him in the New York Central railroad station, waiting for a train to take him to Denver (Col.). The youth let slip the fact that he had thrown up the contents of his imagination to try his luck in the west and that convinced the police he was the boy wanted in this city.

The boy explained after a while how it came about that he made up his mind to drop his bag of checks in Albany. He knew that a lot of money had been entrusted to him and he was to realize his dream of a big fortune. He had been told that the checks a big fear came in to him and he concluded that no check for more than $100,000 was a fit travelling companion for him. So when he was to realize his dream he hung the bag of paper on a fence in Lafayette street and moved rapidly away from there.

Joe had $0 with him when he was arrested. He had spent the rest for railroad tickets and for his trip on the way. His idea was to get to Kansas City, which he thinks is a place where cowboys make their money. He appeared to be puzzled over the west than he was by the fact that there is as much money in the world as there is in the east. He is under and talks like a boy considerably younger than he is. He will be held in Buffalo until an officer arrives from New York to take charge of him.

The would advise the ambitious ones to strive for control first and then look after the books and bonds. Then, too, they are apt to make a mistake. He is a matter of fact control is the thing. It is just as true of a pitcher as it is of a presidential candidate. If you are a pauper, you haven't got a thing.

Another thing that I have learned—and it might be well for them to learn it also—is never to attempt to strike out the entire opposing side. Now, I always leave it to my brother, except in a case of a pinch. Then, and then only, I try to strike them out.

The Rifle. In the Artillery Spoon Match on the last range at St. John's, the British Rifleman finished first in Class A, with a score of 68. Gunner Lockhart in Class B, with 57, and Capt. L. Hunter in Class C, with 50.

Gifts of clothing for small children would be much appreciated by Miss Melick, supervisor of this playground.

PICNIC SATURDAY.
An enjoyable outing was held Saturday afternoon at Rockwood Park by the members of Juvenile Lodge, I. O. G. T. The youngsters numbered about fifty, were taken to the park in two large bus-boards in charge of Miss Elizabeth Young. Games and sports were indulged in and refreshments were served. The children had a pleasant time.

HAVE RETURNED HOME.
Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Bennett have returned to Upper Canada where they will in future make their home, and where Mr. Bennett is now engaged in business. While here they have been the guests of the bride's relations, and visited Mr. Bennett's former home in St. John. On their way home they will visit St. Anne de Beauséjour's shrine at Quebec.

VACCINATIONS.
At the board of health office this morning four children were vaccinated by Dr. G. G. Mevin. Today was the first day for the free vaccination and the wet weather probably interfered with the number who would otherwise have taken advantage of it. As every child entering school has to show a certificate of vaccination, it is expected that the physician will be kept busy on the days appointed.

THEY BELIEVE IN THE EAST.
Moncton Transcript—Mr. and Mrs. M. Lodge returned to Montreal, Quebec, on Monday. While in Montreal Mr. Lodge met a number of British capitalists, who visited Moncton recently. The capitalists did not hesitate to say that during their tour throughout the Dominion they were more pleased with the east than any other part, and feel that sound investment, chances are better here than in the west.

RAVOLA FLOATED.
The St. John schooner Ravola, Captain McNeill, which was wrecked at Little Duck Island, Me., some days ago, has been floated and towed into Bath. Word to this effect was received today by J. Willard Smith the owner of the vessel. Mr. Smith's advice do not state whether the schooner was taken off the rocks but the captain says that he will be able to sail the vessel here and from there to the west as was at first feared.

DO WE KNOW OURSELVES?
Chatham World—A World representative, who had felt somewhat skeptical in regard to the boom here from St. John, found the other day that the half had not been told him. He sat stopped, and looking out, he saw a tall policeman at the junction of two streets directing the traffic, stopping one line of vehicles for a minute or so, then allowing it to proceed while he held up another line, and forth, just as it is done in congested portions of the streets of London. "Just like the Strand," said the visitor; "the real thing, the boom is on."

LOST IN THE WOODS.
George Cable and son William, with William May and others, went to Travers brook, above Redbank, on Monday, says the Chatham World, to look for the body of John Cable, who was drowned on the drive some weeks ago. They found the body on Tuesday, and William May seemed to be mentally affected by the find. He repeatedly said in camp that evening: "We must find Jack, and in the morning he was missing. Search was made for him without avail, and it is feared that he is lost in the woods. A party is organizing to search for him."

SOME GAME.
In a lively baseball contest on Saturday afternoon at Grand Bay the "home team" was beaten by an indefinite score by a visiting nine from Drury Cove. After the score rolled up to large proportions the score keepers became weary of their jobs, and quit, so that the latest authentic tally was something like 23 to 15 in favor of the Druryites. Colwell, Ewing and Sandall were the battery for the losers while Sandall, Merritt and Brown did the honors for the victors. After the encounter, when the air had again become clear, the visitors were entertained at supper at the cottage of Ray Peniston, and later returned to Drury Cove in Harvey Colwell's motor boat. The match was witnessed by a large gathering, many of the fair sex having seats on the bleachers.

TWO YEARS EXILE OR FIVE IN DORCHESTER

Thomas Foley Released on Suspended Sentence—Some Good Advice From Judge Forbes

Thomas Foley, who, a few days ago, was committed for trial on a charge of stealing a quantity of whiskey valued at about $10, the property of the Canadian Drug Co., Ltd., from a G. P. R. car, was this morning taken before Judge Forbes, and tried under the Speedy Trials Act. He pleaded guilty to the charge. J. A. Barry, who appeared for the prisoner, made representations of the defendant's previous good record, and His Honor allowed Foley to go on suspended sentence, on condition that he leave the city within eight hours and remain away for two years. If he returns within that time he will be sent to Dorchester for five years.

"I take it," said His Honor, "that you're a social boy; you like to have good times and a good time with the boys. But, when you go away now, I tell you to go to work and work hard and save your money. Open a bank account. Put in whatever you can, if it's only a dollar a week or a fortnight. Save your money now and have your good times when you get older, when you become fifty or sixty and can enjoy it." C. H. Ferguson appeared for the prosecution.

TODAY'S POLICE COURT

Three prisoners were arraigned in the police court this morning, one charged with drunkenness, one with begging and one with drunkenness and profanity. Frank O'Neil, a deaf mute, charged with begging in the L. C. R. depot on Saturday afternoon. He told the court by aid of a pencil and paper, that he came from Westville, N. S., and would like to return there. He was remanded to jail and will be sent back to Nova Scotia.

Harry Leslie, charged with drunkenness and profanity, was fined $5 or thirty days in jail for drunkenness and $5 or two weeks in jail for profanity.

The prisoner charged with drunkenness was remanded to jail.

An interesting case came up for hearing when Mrs. John Watters and her son were called on to answer to a charge of assaulting and using abusive language to Mrs. Frank Mason in her house in Hawthorne Avenue on Friday last. The parties are neighbors, and the complaint alleged that Mrs. Watters struck her in the face with a stick. After several witnesses were called the case was adjourned for one week to enable the parties to come to an understanding. His Honor told the defendant that she would have to get out of Mrs. Mason's house, as the latter had notified her.

Hearing in the case of Mrs. Marie Macey, charged with keeping a bawdy house in Germain street and of Mary Doonan, charged with being an inmate of the house, was also continued this morning. Currie appeared in court this morning and therefore forfeited a $50 deposit which he had put up for his appearance. W. B. Wallace, K. E. appeared for Clark and E. S. Ritchie appeared for the other two defendants. The case was up for hearing on Saturday afternoon. Clark, one of the defendants being on the stand. He swore that he had been in the house on the night of the raid, was made, as he had some business to transact with a Miss Stillwell who resided there in regard to a farm adjoining his in Queen's County. He did not know that the house had a bad name, or anything about the inmates.

Policeman Silas Perry and Acting Sergeant Ross gave evidence this morning. Perry told of making the arrest, with several other officers and Acting Sgt. Ross told of locking the prisoners up in Central Station. The latter witness told of hearing a conversation between two of the prisoners while they were in the cells. He swore that he knew Mrs. Macey might be but that Miss Simpson, who was in the house on the night of the raid was made, was a relative of his and had often visited him in the country. He had seen a bottle of liquor in the house but had not taken any.

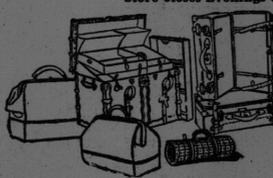

The case was adjourned until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

JACKSON-MARLEY.
St. John's (Stone) church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 7 o'clock this morning when Miss Caroline Frances, only daughter of William Marley of the city, became the bride of Sylvester Cleveland Jackson, of the freight department of the Canadian Pacific Railway. The pastor, Rev. G. A. Kurling, performed the ceremony in the presence of only immediate relatives. The bride, who entered the church with her father, was attired in a dainty cream serge gown with trimmings of white satin and baby Irish lace. She carried a white prayer book. After breakfast which was served at the bride's home, St. Duke street, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson left on the S. S. Governor Cobb for a honeymoon trip to Boston and vicinity. The bride's traveling costume was of tan whipcord with white milan hat and trimmings to correspond. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Jackson will reside at 87 Duke street. Many handsome souvenirs of the happy event were received attesting to the esteem in which the young couple are regarded by their friends in this city and elsewhere.

CURED AT ST. ANNE'S.
Chatham World—Miss Bridget Flynn, daughter of Peter Flynn, St. Margaret's was one of the pilgrims cured the other day at St. Anne de Beauséjour. She had been suffering from a sore arm for several years, and for the last year a half was compelled by orders of an American doctor to have the ailing member strapped to her body. It was perfectly useless as far as work was concerned and caused the young lady much pain and untold anxiety. She could not move her arm after unstrapping before going to the shrine of St. Anne. Today she can move her arm about without pain, button her clothes and hold a light stick. Her shoulder, which had been affected, is also better. She attributes her cure to prayer and the intercession of the good saint.

FINED FOR SNARING MOOSE.
At Bathurst recently Chief Game Warden Doyle on complaint of Warden Landry, had Fred Roy brought before Magistrate Ed. O'Brien charged with snaring Moose. J. J. Harrington appeared for the prosecution. Mr. Roy pleaded guilty to the charge and he was fined $50 and costs.

Our Great Mid-Summer Sale Left Us With Broken Lots In Many Lines—These We Will Clear at Sacrifice Prices

There's a reason for the remarkable interest that this annual event commands among the people of Saint John and vicinity. Of course the remarkably low prices have much to do with its success, but aside from the money saving, there is something else that serves to attract thousands of discriminating buyers, and that is the splendid quality of the clothing.

The enormous amount of business done during the sale just brought to a close, made great inroads into our stocks, and, as a result, a great number of broken lines and small lots need clearing out. We will put prices on them that will cause a swift removal. The stocks will be gone through thoroughly today and announcement made tomorrow and following days as to the goods and further reduced prices.

Some lines will be so small that we will not advertise them, so it would be well to come and look around, you may find what you are most in need of in these small lots.
