Premier Greenway to Return to Winnipeg to Prepare School Question Announcement.

Question Was Settled at the Cabinet Meeting Which Mr. Tarte Attended.

Opinion General in Winnipeg That Morran, the Alleged Murder, Will Get Off.

Winnipeg, Nov. 10.-On the authority of one of the Greenway government ministers, an evening paper makes the following announcement to-night: "The school question is now practically set- Major McG Hivray A tled. Premier Greenway is expected to return to-morrow and the official statement will likely then be prepared. It is proposed that the experimental farm to be located near Winnipeg shall be made a training school for young men who desire to learn farming. It is believed that this plan will save to the country a great many young men from England and elsewhere, who come to settle on land, but fail owing to their inexperience both in farming and business meth-

The trial of Robert Morran for the murder of Hannah Hatton, of Holland, has been in progress for more than a week, but is still uncompleted. Morran went walking with the girl on the night of the murder, and had arranged to meet her by letter, and on his trousers blood stains were found. However, the defense is making such a strong case that the general opinion is that Morran

CRUELLY MURDERED.

Body of an Aged Frenchman Found in His Cellar.

New York, Nov. 10.-Fritz Delenius, an aged Frenchman was brutally mur-dered at his home at Morristown, N. J., where he lived alone. The dead body was discovered by his son, who lived in an adjoining house. Delenius kept a small general store. He is known to have been alive at 9:30 Saturday night.

Stenographers Appointed by Government of the state of the sta About that hour he closed the store. It was his nightly custom to go to the cellar and draw cider. A flask of cider was found by his body at the foot of the cellar stairs. The old man's head had been badly battered by a heavy imple ment, one eye had been gouged out, and his nose was broken. Half a dozen stab wounds were discovered on the body and neck, any one of which would have caused death. The probable cause of the murder is believed to be robbery.

> London, Nov. 11.—The Westminster Gazette this morning, referring to the practical settlement of the Venezuelan question by submitting it to a court of arbitration, says: "The locus standi of the United States, which the Marquis of Salisbury at first denied, is now undisputed and accepted even to the length of ruling out Venezuela. We would rather settle with the United States, but naturally look to the United States to go bail for Venezuela in return." The St. James' Gazette asks whether the agreement will not throw into arhitration all the sparsely settled re-gion between the Schomburg line and the settled territory of Guiana, which Lord Salisbury and the Marquis of Salisbury declared they would never submit to arbitration and whereupon President Cleveland and Secretary Olney declared they should or the United States would make them. If it does it would be difficult to disprove an American claim that the agreement is a square back down upon the part of Great Britain. That the arrangement includes a general treaty of arbitration is an undisputable beneat and the decision that the commission will not re-port, relieves President Cleveland's government from a most serious difficulty of its own creation."

The Pall Mall Gazette says "Hereafter disputes are less likely to occur now that the rebublics are set aside in favor of negotiations by their powerful protector."

ARBITRATOR CHOSEN

King Oscar of Sweden the Final Arbitrator in the Venezuetan Dispute.

Chief Justices of Great Britain and United States to Choose Two Arbitrators Each.

Washington, Nov. 10.-The King of Sweden and Norway, Oscar II, has been chosen by the treaty between the United States and Great Britain as the fifth and final arbitrator of the Venezuelan boundary question. The other arbitrators, four in number, are to be designated, two by the Lord Chief Justice of England tnd two by the Chief Justice of the United States. This is the final and most important feature of the treaty for the complete adjustment of the long-pending Venezuelan controversy. The treaty was concluded Washington last night at the British ernment from a false and dangerous embassy, Sir Julian Pauncefote representing Her Britannic Majesty and Secretary Olney the United States.

The terms of occupancy necessary to exempt British settlements in the disputed territory from the arbitration is fixed at sixty years, according to the adscription fixed by the agreement of the parties in advance at sixty years. London, Nov. 10.-The Times in an editorial commenting on the fact that Venezuela is not to be represented in most far-reaching concession and a signal diplomatic success for the United States, and is interesting to Americans much more than any rearrangement of Venezuelan territory. It secures to England the advantage of dealing with a responsible and friendly government, and admits the principle that the United States may not only intervene in disputes with South American republics. but may entirely supersede the original disputants and assume exclusive control of the negotiations."

"Great Britain cannot bind other nations by this ecncession, but she sets up a precedent which in future may be quoted with great effect against herself and she has greatly strengthened the hands of the United States government, should the latter desire to intervene in any future dispute between a South American republic and any European power. If the United States espouse the quarrels of petty republics they are bound to compel the republics to fulfill their engagements. Such a general protectorate, if executed in the equitable manner which the Washington cabinet may be expected to adopt, may go far to enforce the principles of national honor and honesty in quarters where they now are very imperfectly observed."

The Times concludes its article by saying: "It would be an invidious and ungracious task to attempt to weigh the dvantages gained by either side. Both England and America may congratulate themselves and one another that out of such a threatening dispute have grown mutual good feeling and the seeds of a permanent arbitration court."

The Chronicle comments on the agreement to arbitrate future disputes as the best thing for the peace of the world that has happened for perhaps a century. The paper says: "If popular rejoicings were always directed to proper ends, every town in Great Britain and America would be decorated to-day in honor of this victory of international wisdom. This is the embodiment of the message of Bethlehem."

The Standard. Conservative, says editorially: "The Venezuelan settlement is most gratifying. It would be unprofitable to raise ungracious issues.' The Post. Conservative, says: "It is satisfactory to know that the Venezuelan settlement is not a diplomatic defeat for Lord Salisbury. It involves an arrangement far reaching and of the most significant description. The Daily Telegraph says: "It is a great triumph for diplomacy and still greater for the sacred cause of peace. Lord Salisbury and President Cleveland are to be warmly congratulated." Rt. Hon. John Morley, chief secretary for Ireland in the late Liberal cabinet. speaking at Montrose last evening, said that he regarded the Venezuelan settlement as a most excellent arrangement and trusted that the negotiations for an arbitration treaty would have an equally successful issue.

> Washington, Nov. 11 .- Since the return of Sir Julian Pauncefote from London, three weeks ago, negotiations tojudgment on the political situation in ward a final settlement of the Venezuelan question have been proceeding. Most of the meetings were of such an important character that they were held eith er at Secretary Olney's residence or at the embassy yesterday, and special interest was given to it from the fact that was to make a speech at Guildhall, London, in the evening. For this reason is tory adjustment of the Venezuelan question in order that he might make such announcement as he thought fit concern-When Secretary Olney and Sir Julian reached their final conclusions, a eral announcement without detail and of the court of arbitration. Thus Wash-English-speaking nations reached an

Although Lord Salisbury's statement was without detail, it is supposed to give all the essential features of the treaty concluded in Washington last night. treaty is that fifty years' actual possession is to constitute title. With this limitation as to the settled districts, the entire sweep of the Venezuelan boundary is placed in the hands of the court arbitration. The treaty covers only Venezuela and the question of general and Great Britain is left to future negotiations. As a king seldom leaves his country except on state visits to other sovereigns, it is not expected that King Oscar will go outside of Sweden for the arbitrators, and the court is likely to sit at Stockholm, the capital of Sweden. where King Oscar's Swedish reksdag is located.

It does not follow that all the work ccomplished by the United States commissions in the collection of evidence ouching the boundary will go for nothing, but, on the contrary, this matter agent or agents selected to represent the claims of the governments of Great Britain and Venezuela by the arbitration commission. Introduced in this manner, the evidence the United States has collected will be of great value, coming, as it does, as evidence collected by the commission and its special experts under rigorous instructions to obtain all pertinent evidence without regard to which side it affected. Secretary Olney to-day refused to make any statement whatever touching the boundary dispute, but it is known that certain details yet remain to be adjusted before the arbitration treaty can e regarded as an accomplished fact. foreover, it must be borne in mind that any such treaty, before becoming effective, must be submitted to the United States senate for its approval, and this at least involves a delay of weeks, aside from the possibility of all amendments.

As, by common understanding, the limitations to be placed upon arbitration in the consideration of the vested British claims have been agreed upon, it is probable that the more important details remaining to be adjusted relate to the personnel of the arbitration comm'ssion, and particularly to the names adopted to give effect to the decision. The two notes passing between Lord Salisbury and Secretary Olney, which arrowed down to an agreement on the only important issue remaining to be decided, namely, that of the disposition of ful medicine. London, Nov. 12 .- Since the release of Mrs. Castle, of San Francisco, from Wormwood Scrubbs prison, on Tuesday last, her condition of health has been so dangerous that the doctors now refuse her permission to sail for the

Henry Labouchere, in Truth, devotes a page and a half to the Castle case, during which he says:

"I learn that some of the magistrates were for releasing the prisoner. Had on American citizens in Turkey. tal infirmity she could not have been the gainer, for she would have been sent to a criminal lunatic asylum, according to the law since 1883. The sentence seems to me light, considering the circumstances. I do not believe in kleptomania, for it only seems to attack the rich; and, if it really exists, I am sure the punishment of every person stealing while suffering therefrom would have a ery deterrent effect upon it spreading. Mrs. Castle got off cheaply, when sentenced to prison for three months without hard labor. The effect on her health seems improbable, for I gather she has been travelling in Europe, and except for the matter of stealing, her healtn was the same as anybody's else. Probably the regret for what she has done, and what has come to her for doing it, will weigh on her spirits, but this is precisely the state that imprisonment is intended to produce on a prisoner, and if this regret really caused her to be ill she will be transferred to a hospital, where she will be cared for by all conpected with it. This Castle case is remarkable for the many objects found in the Castles' trunks stolen in Vienna How were the custom houses passed on the journey to England? One would have thought the officers would have been surprised to find such a large number of opera glasses and fans."

England Rejected a Proposal by the Powers to Partition the Country.

London, Nov. 10.-In the course of a speech at Enfield this evening Sir Charles Dilke, the well-known authority on international politics, said in jail. that England had recently rejected a proposal by the three great powers to partition China. He also says that the leged recent inspection of the ports of Dardanelles by a Russian general, was by orders of the Russian government and that it was therefore probable hat Russia would regard a British atack on the Dardanelles as a casus belli. ation of another reign of terror here. Miners on their way to work and citizens known to be opposed to a further continuance of the strike have been waylaid and brutally beaten frequently of late and now there are reports of a purpose on the part of the malcontents here to renew the work which they began on the Coronado and Emmet mines in September last. The council decided to immediately increase the police force and favorably considered the passage of a curfew ordinance which would clear the streets of gangs of young noodlums who have been very demonstrative toward the imported miners.

A MISSING NOBLEMAN.

Estate of Archduke Salvator Given to His Relatives.

London, Nov. 10.-A Swiss cantonal court has ordered the Bank of St. Ga!l to hand over to the relatives of the wife of the long missing Archduke John Nepomuk Salvator of Austria, 1,000,000 francs deposited by the latter prior to his departure for South America. In 1889 the Archduke renounced his rank and all his Austrian military titles owing to an irreconcilable quarrel with the late Field Marshal, the Archduke Albert. Having renounced his rank he went abroad under the name of Johann Orth and was last heard of in South America, since which time he has completely disappeared from public knowledge. During the progress of the Chinese-Japanese war the fame of Field Marshal Yamagata began to be known, that the famous leader was none other than the long missing Archduke John. The decision of the cantonal court today looks like an abandonment of hope his friends that the Archduke is still alive.

DR. WINTERMUTE'S DEATH. Further Developments in Tuesday's Tragedy at Tacoma.

Tacoma, Nov. 11.-Later developments in yesterday's awful tragedy bring forth the facts that Tucker, the man who did the shooting, was a hypocondriac and time. He had been treated by Dr. Wintermute and an operation was performed. For some reason Tucker imagined the effects of the operation was poison. He had bothered Dr. Rummel with this story until that person's patience gave out and he had been told not to come back. He had also told other people that he owed Dr. Wintermute money and was unable to pay him, therefore he believed the doctor had it in for him. Tucker's desire to get even is the only motive for the crime so far discovered. Tucker was a bachelor who lived alone in the south part of the town. His mother and niece reside somewhere on the Sound. Dr. Wintermute was one of the oldest physicians in the city, having come here in 1883. He was 34 years of age and leaves a wife and one child. He was well known as one of the most skillful applied for a pension and in this way surgeons in this section of the country, and many friends mourn his loss.

C. fact that the trouble in connection with Mining Journal: Mr. Hammond, of the navigation of the river, is not at the Cariboo hydranlic Mining Company, spent a couple of days at that mine and saw the "clean-up" there on the 15th inst. which yielded, I am told, a splendard brick weighing nearly 2,080 Sandheads, for each of the phots acting under the board would readily nevigate at the proper state of the tide, any vessel drawing up to 26 feet through the sandheads, but it is higher up the river. ounces, valued at $35,750. This cleanup was made after washing nearly 15 days in pit No. 1, with 2,000 inches of water, being a daily yield of $2,385, and much of the water was used in clearing pit and sluices of top waste dirt and boulder clay, which was continually caving from the top of the high bank.

This is a pretty good result even for Cariboo; and will, I believe beat the record of any hydraulic mine in this country or any other on the Pacific coast. A few days after the clean-up above mentioned the mine was started up again and washing was continued for three or four hours each day, until Monday last, the 26th, when the water supply was cut so short by the frost of the previous few nights, that Manager Hobson ordered the work to be wound up for the season, and the final clean-up present time. If he had, I believe that he could have proved that no hydraulic mine in Cali fornia or Australia, or the gold reefs of South Africa, could bear compar.son with the output of gold from the famous Cariboo hydraulic mine. This immensly rich channel must be but one of many, perhaps equally rich, that lie hidden in Cariboo district and other districts in the province, that awaits only the coming of intelligent experienced prospectors and the judicious expenditure of capital, to discover and bring to the same state of development and profitable production as that of the Cariboo hydraulic mine. The several shareholders who reside at the Forks are in pleasant anticipation of receiving a dividend, which they feel confident the directors will order paid at the annual meeting in December. Even a small dividend would satisfy Steamer Arrives at New York and Lands Refugees on Ellis faland.

New York, Nov. 11.-The World today publishes the following: "The steamship Boyne, of the Mercantile Steamship Company, of London, arrived in port on Friday last from Gibraltar and Mediterranean ports. To-day Captain Fischer told a remarkable story to Collector, Kilbreth, Law Officer Phelps and Special Duty Naval Officer Gurley, of the customs department as to why he had entered port without a manifest: The British steamship Boyne lay at anchor off Smyrna, Turkey in Asia, on October 10th. There had been several riots in Smyrna three or four days before. The din of another con-flict reached the ears of the Boyne's captain about seven o'clock in the evening, and the cries of the victims assassinated came over the water. An hour afterwards a small boat came alongside the British steamship and an aged man begged permission to go on board. With him were six others, three of them women, all Armenian refugees. Captain Fischer assented, fed them. cared for them and gave them the pro tection of the British flag. Captain Fischer said he was bound for America and in order to be on the safe side the refugees registered as passengers. "Not long afterwards a boat load of Turks under an officer rowed up alongside and the forces came aboard. Capr. Fischer admitted he had the refugees on his ship, but refused to deliver them over. He drew up his crew of brawny men, and the Turkish officer said they would give the Britisher until morning to turn over the Armenians. After the Turks left the vessel Captain Fischer manned a boat and moved stealthily from the ship to secure assistance. He visited an Italian man-of-war, and the commander denied his right to interfere. When dawn came the Minneapo lis appeared. Captain Fischer told his story and Admiral Thos. Q. Selfridge, ir., said: "We'll give you all the assist ance you want. You'll take the refugees safely out of this port if I've got

Almost Fatality But for Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart-Strange Story of a Northwest Lady.

A death to be dreaded is that from suffocation, and yet this is one of the usual phases of heart disease. Mrs. J. L. Hillier, of Whitewood, N.W.T., came as near this dangerous point as need be. She says: "I was much afflicted with heart failure, in fact, I could not sleep or lie down for fear of suffecation. I tried all the doctors in this section of the country, but they failed to give me any relief. A local druggist recommended Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart. I tried it, and with the result that I immediately secured ease that I did not know before, and after taking furth r doses of the medicine the trouble altogether left me. It is not too much to say that it saved my life."

STORY OF A BIG STEAL, How the Adams Express Company was Relieved of $37,000.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 10.-Some sensational testimony was given before Judge Barr yesterday afternoon, which revives the story of the theft of a $37,000 pac-kage from the Adams Express Company a few years ago. Before the arguments in the damage suit of Mrs. Eugenia Elrod against the Adams Express Company was begun, the counsel for the express company introduced as evidence an alleged confession made by Mrs. Minnie B. Ketcham, Chas. Hardin's wife. In this confession she stated that her husband told her that Chas. Elrod got him the position with the express company with the understanding that they were to steal at least a million dollars from the company. Ketcham told his wife, according to the confession, that he was completely in Elrod's ower, and that Elrod threatened to have him returned to the Missouri penitentiary for an unexpired term if he did not do as Elrod desired him. Using this same threat, Elrod, it is alleged, would force Hardin to give up his salary as fast as it was drawn, giving him back only enough to live on, and that in amounts of $1 and $2 at a time. Finally, according to Mrs. Ketcham's statement, Elrod's creditors pressed him too hard and he told Hardin to take what money he could get. Hardin came n one morning with about $1000 and said that he had stolen $35,000 and had turned the most of it over to Elrod. They went to Cincinnati, where he gave Mrs. Braun, his mother-in-law, two thousand dollars, with which she bought a house in Moreland, from Elrod $13,000. Then they travelled over the country, and when he was for the Dominion courts. finally arrested only a small part of it

LABOUCHERE'S OPINION.

What Truth's Editor Thinks of United States Election.

London, Nov. 10.-Commenting on the recent election in the United States Mr. Henry Labouchere in Truth says: "If Bryan had been wise he would have gone in for bimetallism if it pleased him, but he should have left the ratio indefinite. His ratio left it the right of all to repudiate half his obligations without | profit and loss account, which now ambettering any one. In the future the victors, however, will do well to realize that apart from bi-metallism, there is a strong, growing feeling in America against huge accumulations of capital in the hands of individuals obtained by means of trusts, which are really mon supported by an armed force, cannot well-being of all."

Willipa Arrives from Alaska - New Steamers for Northern Pacific Company.

San Francisco, Nov. 10.-The bark Canada went ashore near Fort Mason last night, but was hauled off the flats there by a tug in the morning. The vessel met with her mishap about midnight. Capt. Wickberg refused all offers from towboats for a safe passage into port He arrived off the Golden Gate early yesterday morning and hovered in the vicinity of the Farallones all day, waiting for a favorable breeze which would carry his bark safely into the harbor. At sundown he caught a southeast puff, and found no difficulty in getting through the dangerous straits. All went well until he reached what he had chosen as his anchorage off Fort Mason. Here, in an effort to tie up for the night, Wickberg lost the only anchor he had, and, despite his signals of distress, the Canada was slowly carried with a strong flood tide toward the beach. The Canada went aground in a safe spot on the mud bank. The Canada left Union City, in Washington, sixteen days ago with a load of piles for this city. She has had an unprofitable voyage. Besides last night's misadventure, it turns out that she was the craft which collided with the steamer Puebla off Otter Point October 24. The Canada and Puebla each assert that the other craft was to blame for the collision. An official inquiry will determine where the blame must be fixed.

The Alaska steamer Willapa called at Nanaimo on Monday evening on her way to the Sound. Blewett is a large owner. In summer difficulty is experienced in getting water. Mr. McFee and a mining expert named Robertson were inspecting the ground back of McFee's cabin when Robertson discovered a small hole in the ground. He asked McFee if he had ever paid any attention to it, and Mc-Fee said that he had never discovered It before. They got a candle and crep in through the opening, which was about two feet high and three feet wide. After going about three or four feet they suddenly found themselves in a low cave, which was about twenty five feet square. At the farther end of the cavern they found a wall of white quartz, through which a small hole led into a still larger cave. They examined the wall and found that it was about two feet thick, and it carried traces of gold. Samples were knocked off and kept for further reference. . The second cave was then investigat-

"This fact appears the more remarkable when it is noticed that the ground sluice is of enormous extent, being 180 feet in length by 100 feet in width. By this arrangement not only would the handling of the gravel from the face of the bank to the discharging flume be immensely increased, but pretty nearly the whole, I should say, of the would settle down in this sea of boulders and debris, and vastly add to the labor of finally cleaning up and securing the gold.

"The discharging flume, commonly called the bed-rock flume, because .t usually happens to lie upon the bedrock, should be extended toward the face of the gravel bank, according as the jet of water. The ground sluice should not exceed 60 feet in length. In this case its being 180 feet in length 300 persons were killed. would indicate that no attempt had been years Mr. James Caskey has been an | made to lengthen the flume as the bank washed away. Why such a marked deviation should have been made in this case is a matter for conjecture.

"The discharging or bed-rock flume trust-no one here presuming to doubt has been taken up, and I was informed that about $80 in gold was the result. To the uninitiated this would appear ence in using Dodd's Kidney Pills, and crushingly small, but when it is considered that this flume could be expected only to receive the fine gold, such as would be borne along with the rush of water and debris, over the ground sluice, the figures become not only reasonable, but, in my opinion, very promising.

"I examined the ground sluice care fully with a view to ascertain whether any move had been made to take it up and wash for the gold one would naturally expect to find there, but so far as could judge no such move had been made.

"I was asked to state in my report, why, in my opinion, the mine had been closed so suddenly. This question I am unable to answer. I should certainly have recommended the shareholders to continue working for a season and were it my own property I would unhesitatingly have done so myself."

SCHOOL TRUSTEES

Hold Their Regular Meeting in the Secretary's Office Yesterday Evening.

W. Ridgeway Wilson Wants $4 for Each Meeting of the Investigation He Attended.

A meeting of the board of school trustees was held yesterday evening in the secretary's office. There were present Trustees Hayward, McMicking, Lovell, Belyea, Yates and Mrs. Grant.

A communication was received from Principal L. Tait, who asked that he be given fifteen day's leave in order to allow him to visit the Vancouver schools to study their methods. It was moved that the leave be granted, provided that he found a proper substitute to act in his place. Carried.

Principal A. B. McNeil wrote asking that arrangements be made with the printers for the printing of the examination papers, and that fifty reams of foolscap be bought for use during the examinations. Referred to the printing committee.

Requisitions were received from Mr. McNeil asking for fire hose to protect the school in case of fire, and he said the children could be instructed to use the hose in their fire drill. He also complained of the pools in the school yard, and wanted some lamps, bells and pointers for the use of the school. There was some discussion, during which some of the trustees said they thought the fire hose would be unnecs sary, and the main object in the fire drill was to get the children out of the school as soon as possible and out of the way of the firemen, who would look after the protection of the school. These requisitions were referred to the supply committe with power to act. Mrs. Sinclair, of Pandora street, wrote asking that her boy be allowed to attend the Spring Ridge school. The application was granted. Miss McTaggart and Miss Creech wrote resigning their positions. The resignations were received and accepted. A letter was received from Miss Cameron in reply to the secretary's letter complaining of the infraction of one of the school laws, namely, the keeping of some of the children in until 5 p.m. She said she was away on that afternoon and an examination was being held, which left the teachers somewhat short-handed. A visiting teacher kindly consented to take one of the classes and the pupils in going into the singing class made more poise than necessary, therefore they were kept in. The explanation was received.

The report of the attendance during the month showed the average attendance to be better that that of last month.

Applications for positions as teachers from E. Caspell, of West Saanich, Geo. H. Sluggett, of South Saanich; Miss A. E. Carmichael, of Duncan's; and Miss Sharpels, of Nanaimo, were received

Miss E. M. Worlock and Miss Spragge applied for positions as pupil teachers. These applications were received and laid on the table.

The finance committee submitted bills amounting to $476.98, which were authorized to be paid. W. Ridgeway Wilson sent in a bill for $32 for eight sittings before the investigation committee into the defects in North Ward school. This was referred back to Mr. Wilson, who was advised to apply to those who summoned him for payment.

Bills from E. D. Bradley for $10.85 for taking evidence before the investigation committee and from William Powell for $3 for wheelbarrow hire were referred back to the finance committee to report upon. The report of the chairman of the alteration and repairs committee, in which it was suggested that new desks be bought, was referred back to the committe to ascertain the price. Trustee McMicking moved that trees planted in the school yard of North Yard school. Referred to a special committee to inquire into the cost. Miss E. M. Worlock and Phoebe Spragge were appointed pupil teachers, Miss Worlock to Victoria West school and Miss Spragge to North Ward school.

The board adjourned at 9:30 p.m. BRIEF LOCALS.

property consisted of 107,000 acres of land originally owned by the Montreal Mining Co. In 1870 this company sold out the 107,000 acres to Major Sibley, Captain Frue and Honorable Edward Learned for $225,000. Captain Frue began work at once. During the first year the Americans made enough to pay the purchase money, viz., $225,000, and in three years from the date of their purchase they paid dividends amounting to $360,000 besides. Then the company worked sterile rock for some time, and had to put a mortgage of $400,000 on the property. They worked for about eighteen months to no purpose. Then they struck rich ore again and paid off the mortgage, leaving them free once more. The miners worked on and lost the vein. The Capt. Frue began to think that there had been a slide or throw in the rock, and acting on this hypothesis they succeeded in finding the rein again. Work was stopped in 1884 and has not been resumed since. The shaft was sunk down 1,160 feet below the surface was not built, and the only way of get-

Captain Delouchy parried the blow with his arm, getting severely cut on the wrist as he did so. The man then made his escape and the Captain walked down to his room, where his wounds were dressed. This is the captain's story' but there is another story, that told by the police to whom the Captain repeated his misadventure on the morning following it. They say that he was under the influence of no small quantity of Jiquor and did not know where he was on the Monday night. When he first reported the affair he stated that he found himself, when he came to, near the new post office. He told the story of how he had been held up and stabbed, but then he said that his assailant had fired two shots at him while he was down, from a revolver. cut in a row. There is another story that a pedestrian was robbed of $1.50, also on Monday evening. The truth of this matter is that a small boy about thirteen years of age reported to the police about the same time as Captain Delouchy's misadventure that a man had pointed a pistol at him on Quadra street, near Hillside avenue, and told him to hold up his hands. Seeing a man approaching on horseback he fled.

Another hold-up occurred on Sunday evening; this time a Chinaman was the sufferer. He was walking along St. Charles street that evening when suddenly he found himself looking into the muzzle of a pistol. John immediately pulled out his money, 25 cents, and handed it to the robber with the remark: "Don't shoot.' I give you my money."

R. H. Campbell, a mining engineer of considerable experience, came down from a several month's stay in the Cariboo country. Mr. Campbell is thoroughly impressed with the Cariboo, and says time will tell what a rich country it is. He has taken up 1,000 acres of ground for some people he represents, which covers nearly all the Horsefly basin and upper part of Beaver lake, which he is sure was at one time the outlet for the Horsefly basin, and that the waters of the Fraser, Clearwater and probably other rivers ran through it who own the other half interest in the at one time. Rossland Miner. During the past two weeks brokers have been doing a big business in real estate. Several firms report sales of from $10,000 to $15,000 for the week. Both business and residence property is in good demand. Lot 7, in block 42, fetched $4,200 cash and lot 8, with the building on it $4,800. These lots were valued last summer at $750. Two lots on Columbia avenue still further east brought $1,600 and $1,300 respectively. One lot on St. Paul street was taken at $1.500 cash. Five lots on Columbia ave. two blocks west of the custom house, were taken at $550 each. Residence lots all over town, especially on Le Roi avenue, were also sold at good prices. The reorganization of the R. E. Lee Company has been completed. The properties included are the R. E. Lee and has already been ordered and will be ready for service by December 1. Both the Lee and Maid are to be worked with drills supplied with air from this plant. One of the strongest and best looking ledges in the camp has been found on the View. Nelson Miner. T. J. Proctor, of the London Hill Mining Company north of Kaslo, states that thirteen men are now working on and supplies have been sent up to the mines to keep ten men-working for eight months. Five tons of ore have been shipped from the outer works which went 156 ounces. The idea of the company is to hold No. 2 ore which goes fifty ounces to the ton, until a train is put in to ship it. Only the high grade ore is being shipped now.

W. S. Drewry returned from the headwaters of the Crawford and Hoover creeks last Saturday and to a Miner representative stated that J. R. City Engineer to be Dismissed Unless He Explains the Causes of Delay to the Bridge.

The Redivision of the Wards Discussed-Bridge Lean By-Law Also Dealt With.

The board of aldermen met yesterday evening at the city hall. Mayor Beaven was in the chair and all the aldermen were present. After the minutes had been read and adopted. Mayor Beaven read the following report: "I have to direct attention to that portion of a report dated 7th of February, 1896, from the standing committee appointed to manage the Ross Bay cemetery in which it is recommended that the secretary be instructed to ask the sum of twenty dollars for each lot in the unoccupied portion of the cemetery situate at the junction of the road forming the boundaries of A and B, C. F. G. and H. This recommendation of the committee was adopted by the council on the 10th of February, 1896.

"The sum payable for a license for the exclusive use of a lot in the cemetery is regulated and fixed by section 42 of the Ross Bay cemetery by-law 1894, under which the maximum fee is twelve dollars and fifty cents. "The only method, therefore, to carry into effect the views of the above report upon this subject is to deal with it by

A communication was read from Mesrs. Drake, Jackson & Helmcken asking that something be done in the matter of the drainage of the McTavish property. The reports of the finance committee were adopted without discussion. Two of these recommended that $150 be spent on the city police force, $90 for the purpose of buying helmets and $60 for lanterns.

The pound committee's report on the letter submitted at the last meeting of the council by Mr. Winsby was adopted, which suggested that 10 cents be given for the capture of each unlicensed dog, and that he be allowed to hire a boy to aprove of the scheme, owing to the lack

Ald. fected. The majority of the aldermen passed their opinion on the subject. but none brought out anything different from that which they had said at the previous meetings. Mayor Beaven said that he considered that the by-law had been carried through its successive stages practically by his vote, which he had given because it was clear to his m.nd that this by-law provided a more equal division of population and of assessed

The motion was lost on a division of 4 to 6, Ald. Marchant, Cameron, Macmillan and Glover voting for it.

The following resolution of Ald. Marchant was then put: "Whereas, it appears that the building of Point Ellice bridge has been unduly retarded, thereby causing great inconvenience to the citizens; and whereas, the city engineer has been given full power for the prose-

Ald. Partridge said he did not consider it fair that the engineer should be blamed for all the delays. He favored hearing what he had to say in reply in the committee room before dismissing

Ald. Humphrey suggested that the resolution be withdrawn and that the city engineer be dealt with in another way. He thought that if the engineer had been active as he might have been the bridge would have been completed before the the first injunction was applied

Ald. Williams also supported the resolution, thinking too much time had been spent in the construction of the bridge. Ald. Tiarks suggested that in order to allow each of the aldermen to obtain a copy of the engineer's report, as read by the mayor, the matter be postponed until the next meeting.

Mayor Beaven explained that the report had not been submitted by the engineer in his defence, but in answer to a request for information regarding the Ho pi al Board Pleased with Plan of Allowing All Ductors to Treat Patients.

Resident Physician and Matron Point Out the Necessity for More Nurses.

At last night's meeting of the Jubilee Hospital board, a report was read from the committee for the past month, which showed that the plan of allowing all the medical men to treat their patients at the hospital was yorking well, as was evidenced from the fact that the number of pay patients was increased, considered it to be his duty, as the chair- while the free patients remained a comparatively shorter time than in the corresponding month of last year. Those be placed. The city engineer he said had present were: Mr. Alex. Wilson, in the not given this important work enough of chair, and Messrs. Hayward, Byrnes, Braden, Crimp, Yates, Dwyer, Braver-man and Helmcken.

A. W. Cooke, of Salt Spring Island, notified the secretary of the board that the settlers of Salt Spring had forwarded a lot of potatoes and other vegetables as a donation to the hospital. The secretary was instructed to thank the residents of the island through Mr. Cooke for their very liberal donation

Dr. Richardson reported that several articles were required and also that provision should be made for two or more additional pupil nurses in order that the work of the hospital could be done efficiently. -So crowded was the institution that certificated nurses had to be employed when the work could be done more economically with pupil nurses. The female operating room was occupied with pay patients, and the work that should be done in the operating room was performed in one of the cor-This was now too cold and should have additional heating appar-

All those matters dealing with the operating rooms and heating were referred to a special committee to act, and the committee of the month will deal with the doctor's request for additional

Miss Macmillan, the matron also pointed out the great necessity for additional nurses in order that the increased number of patients may receive proper

Mr. Hayward stated that there was no sleeping accommodation for additional nurses, but as the matter was urgent the committee should try to get sleeping apartments for the nurses at one of the residences near the hospital. Dr. Richardson, in his monthly report, stated that the hospital was full to overflowing, the average cost per day was $1.19 as against $1.20 for the corresponding period last year. He also recommended that the caretaker of the paralytics be paid $5 per month for his services. This and other recommenda tions of doctor were agreed to.

Miss Macmillan, matron, acknowledged receipt of the following donations. Clothing, Mrs. Heisterman; fruit, Mrs. A. J. Smith; fruit, Mrs. Pemberton; magazines, Mrs. H. D. Helmcken. The those giving the donations. The visiting committee for the past month reported as follows: "We, your visiting committee for the month of October, beg to report that we have watched closely the first month's trial of the new order of things under our enlarged medical and surgical staff. and have pleasure in noting that the work at the hospital has proceeded most harmoniously and satisfactorily. There has been a marked increase in the number of pay patients, which measured by dollars represents a gain to the institution of about $200 per month, while at the same time the number of days' stay of free patients has been 16 less than the average for the year 1895. During the month the facilities at the hospital were insufficient to provide for the large number of pay patients offering, the result being a pecuniary loss to us and possible injury to the afflicted ones. To provide a partial remedy we strongly recommend that three upper rooms be constructed in the roof space over the old operating room for the accommodation of the male nurse and assistant. The two good rooms now used by them will be available for pay paients. The estimated cost of this muchtalked of and long desired alteration should not exceed $350 or $375. "The inconvenience and unsatisfactory results arising out of $10 ward patients being placed in close proximity to nonpaying ones have been repeatedly forced pon our notice and early steps should be taken to make a change. We have no hesitation in expressing our firm conviction that the small expenses required to divide the large wards into two by plaster cross partitions, would repay itself with interest in a very few months, besides affording necessary and satisfactory accommodation for a large class of deserving applicants

(Signed.) Charles Hayward, W. J. Dwyer."

Messrs, Hayward and Dwyer were granted power to act in the matter of providing rooms for the caretaker and male nurse and securing the division of the partitions. The other suggestions were referred to the committee for the month.

The accounts for the month, amounting to $1367.99, were ordered paid and the board adjourned.

GOLDEN OMINECA

Captain Black Returns After a Successful Season,s Work in Omineca.

The Hydraulic Claims of the Districts are Rich in Gold and Easily Worked

For some time past the now famous district of Kootenay has been engaging the attention of the majority of those citizens of the Dominion who were interested in gold mining. The treasury stock of the companies who hold claims or mines in Kootenay has been eagerly purchased, many of the buyers believing that their strips of paper will in the near future bring them fortune. While Kootenay deserves all the attention which it has received, there are other sections of the province which have mountains rich in minerals and rivers whose ancient deposits are gold beds; sands like those of Pactolus."

Among these is the Omineca district from which Capt. C. N. Black has just returned. Capt. Black is manager for the Omineca Prospecting and Development Company and the Omineca Consolidated Hydraulic Mining Company, both of which companies are composed chiefly of Victorians. In August last Capt. Black left Victoria with a party of twenty-six men and the necessary supplies for the season's work. Six can were taken at Port Essington, and Hazelton was reached with only one exc'ting incident. A large canoe containing sixteen men, some canned goods and other merchandise, struck a rock and spilt over. The cance soon filled with water and some of the men becoming excited jumped into the water. Several of them were nearly drowned before they were rescued by those in the other At Hazelton twenty-five were secured to carry the supplies into Manson Creek, where the Hydraulic Company's claims are located. Sixty miles of a trail had to be cut, but trip was made in seventeen days. The Omineca Hydraulie Company has along Manson creek. The ground is first class pay gravel, easily worked and free from large boulders. The excellence of the ground for hydraulicing was proved years ago by miners who ran tunnels in from the creek and made good wages. This season Capt. Black's party dug a ditch about four miles long to secure the necessary water power. Seven men were left behind to cut timber and get everything in readiness to begin washing about the first of May next. The supplies for next season's work are ready at Babine, and will be taken in to Manson creek by dog sleighs this winter. The company are about to purchase a powerful hydraulic plant, which they expect to have in position by May 1. Capt. Black states that the country is most suitable for hydraulic purposes. On Germansen creek, where the claims of the Omineca Prospecting Company are located, the preliminary survey was carried out by Capt. Black this season, and next year the hydraulic plant will be placed in position. The ground along this creek is equally as rich as that on the Manson. The rights of Keynton, who has spent twenty years washing there with good results, have been purchased, and from Germansen lake, the source of the creek, an unlimited power of water can be secured. While Capt. Black believes the Omineca to be a district in every way suitable for hydraulic mining, he is of the opinion that it presents but few opportunities for prospectors with small means. The physical features of the country, the want of trails and consequent high cost of living militate against the success of prospectors with limited capital. number of the latter class went in there this year and they fared not so badly because they secured work with the companies operating in the district. The Chinese appear to do well. Ah Sun, a pioneer of Omineca, washed about $3000 this season from old ground; while on Vital creek, a number of Chinamen were washing and it was reported that they were fairly successful. Keynton and Evans, who have been in the district for twenty years, and Jim May, all made a living by hand sluicing this season. One of the requirements of the district They are as Great an Improvement Over to Manson creek.
