

IMPORTANT BILL FOR THE CONTROL OF FEED STUFFS

Placing Them Entirely in the Hands of Federal Dept. of Agriculture to be Introduced in Commons.

THE DEPARTMENT MAKING CHANGES

In Certain Acts Which Are Proving of Great Benefit to Farmers as Well as Community.

Ottawa, April 25.—A move to place the control of all commercial feeding stuffs entirely in the hands of the Federal Department of Agriculture is to be made in the Commons next week, it was announced tonight. This move, if successful—and there is little doubt that Parliament will agree to sanction it—will be of tremendous importance to the farming industry of the whole country, according to farmer members of the House. A bill will be introduced to permit of regulations being made and administered by this Department. The bill will provide for the registration of each brand of commercial feeding stuffs offered for sale; for the proper marketing of such stuffs, etc., containing those feeds, for the prevention of adulteration and the regulation of the quantity of noxious weed seeds allowed. The new Act will provide penalties of from $25 to $500 for any contravention of the Act itself or its regulations, and it will take the place of the Commercial Feeding Stuffs Act of 1910, which it replaces.

The Department of Agriculture is also busy this session on several other measures of considerable importance, both to farmers and the country in general. Several measures have already been before the House amending certain Acts now in existence. Among these are the amendment to the Oleomargarine Act, the Inspection and Sale (Fruit Marks) Act, and the Animal Contagious Diseases Act. Under the Oleomargarine Act, passed in 1919, the manufacture and importation of this product was permitted until August 31, 1920, while the sale was permitted until March 1, 1920. The present bill extends the time one year in each case. Other changes make provision for the regulation of the marketing and advertising of oleomargarine, while the minimum penalty for contravention of the Act or its regulation is increased $10 to $50.

The amendments to the Inspection and Sale (Fruit Marks) Act consist of the repeal of a number of clauses, specifying the dimensions, material, etc., of legal fruit packages, and the insertion of a clause permitting these matters to be regulated by orders of the Governor-in-Council. The Animal Contagious Diseases Act is to be amended by the repeal of that section which provides for the payment to the owner of a condemned animal of any excess remaining from the proceeds of the sale of the said animal after compensation has been deducted. This change was thought desirable inasmuch as the total compensation paid in this way sometimes exceeded the real value of the animal. The clause fixing penalties for the violation of the Act and its regulations is also amended, a maximum of $500 and a minimum of $50 being fixed.

PREMIERS ARE IN AGREEMENT AS TO GERMANY

The Agreement Will be the Basis of a Navy Staff Note Which Will be Signed By All.

WILL DISCOURAGE USE OF MILITARY

To Enforce the Treaty When Not Necessary to Use it—Allies Ready to Force Payments.

San Remo, April 25.—(By Associated Press.)—The agreement between Premier Lloyd George and Premier Millerand concerning Germany was presented to the Supreme Council late this afternoon and will form the basis of a very stiff note to Germany which will be ready for signature tomorrow by Great Britain, France, Italy, Japan and Belgium. The United States will not sign the note. Either this declaration, or an authoritative condemnation will be made public tomorrow, Mr. Lloyd George announced tonight. "The document is the result of private conversations between Premier Millerand and I, which resulted in complete agreement upon the policy to be adopted," said the British Prime Minister. "The document will be communicated to the press tomorrow, and the public can then form its own impressions."

Mr. Lloyd George, replying to questions, also said: "We have discouraged the use of military means to enforce the treaty when not necessary to use them. My statement to the House of Commons is clear. My view is that terms should not be prevented from restoring order in Germany. The same thing happened in France in 1871, when Germany proposed to put down the commune. Thiers objected because the intervention of foreigners would tend to make the commune popular. No one has the right to say that we are prepared to use military force to enforce the treaty."

SONORA TROOPS WERE UNOPPOSED

City of Guaymas Captured by State Troops on April 12.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 25.—The City of Guaymas, Sonora, on the Gulf of California, was captured April 12, without a shot being fired by 5,000 Sonora State troops commanded by General Angel Flores, according to Captain N. K. Jacobson, of the Gulf mail steamer Nehalem, from Corinto to San Francisco, who arrived here today.

An Antidote For The "H. C. L."

With the opening of summer navigation and the tremendous volume of commerce finding its way again through the great inland waterways of Canada, several necessities arise that present splendid opportunities for advancement to young Canadians who, in disobedience of the first lord's golden rule, do not wish to "stick close to their desks and never go to sea." In conversation with a wireless expert last evening, The Standard was informed of the great need at the moment for wireless operators. The demand for operators exceeds the supply. The life is easy and it is well-rewarded. To commence with the young Marconi is given $100 a month with everything found. He is granted $50 for clothing allowance, and has a subsistence of $250 per diem for each day in port. As soon as an operator gets charge of a ship, the salary is increased to $125. The interest of the voyage is not even second to the freedom of the life. With the advent of commercial aviation, and the new proposal about Canada, several necessities arise that present opportunities presented to intelligent and capable young men are apparently limitless. In a sphere concerning which the general public seems to have little knowledge.

Bucharest, April 25.—The Serbian railway strike has ended, but the mail and passenger service to Southern Europe is still tied up. In order to obviate delay it has been decided to organize an air service, to include Paris, Vienna, the Balkan States, Constantinople, and later Russia.

AMERICAN MISSIONARY MUST SERVE SENTENCE

Chief Commissioner of Assam Can See No Reason Why He Should be Treated Different From Others.

Bombay, April 25.—The chief commissioner for Assam has dismissed the appeal in the case of the Rev. L. W. D. Jackman, the American missionary who was recently sentenced to two years imprisonment for killing Major H. D. Cloete. Mr. Jackman entered the appeal March 28. In giving judgment, the Commissioner said that while admitting the homicide had been committed in a state of excitement and mental aberration, it could not be overlooked that Jackman was a strong man armed with a revolver, while Major Cloete, who fought in the war, was blind in one eye.

"He" continued the Commissioner, "Jackman had said: 'Cloete, you ruined my wife. I have bought a revolver; get out your own. One of us must die' and it is the ensuing fight Jackman had killed Cloete, I would have reduced the sentence from two years to two weeks."

"As the facts were the sentence seemed to me to be on the side of equity. In two similar cases Indian hillmen were sentenced to transportation for life. There cannot be one law for an American missionary and another for Indian hillmen."

The Commissioner added that he felt if he had been the judge he would have been constrained to impose a sentence of seven years' imprisonment. He must decline to interfere but would let the sentence stand.

DISAPPOINTED LOVER SHOOT SWEETHEART

Became Angry When his Best Girl Refused to Marry and Peppered Her With Bullets.

Providence, R. I., April 25.—Miss Alice Harrison, of this city, is at the Morton Hospital, Taunton, Mass., with bullet wounds in her jaw, head, neck and arm, shot, the police declare, by Joseph Martin, also of this city, who took a license yesterday to wed her. She has a fair chance of recovery. Martin was captured by a posse of Taunton persons in the woods in Berkeley, Mass., and is locked up charged with intent to kill.

Following the taking out of the marriage license yesterday, Martin is alleged to have gone to Miss Harrison's home here and to have told of what he had done. She, it is said, declared she would not consider marrying him. Later in the day, Miss Harrison went to Taunton to visit a relative. She found Miss Harrison out walking and at a lonely spot on the road near the Berkeley line, stopped her. The shooting it is said to have followed.

MASKED GUNNER IN NEW TRAGEDY

New York, April 25.—Five masked gunmen held up two police detectives and 14 prisoners they had captured in a raid on a card game in a Harlem apartment house and in escaping, after the detectives opened fire, one of the bandits shot and mortally wounded Herbert Hayes, a negro elevator operator. Hayes died later in a hospital.

The gunmen escaped in an automobile. Shortly before this incident five masked men, believed to be the same men, held up another card game in Harlem and escaped with $1,000.

Dublin, April 25.—A man named Bohan, keeper of a tavern, was shot late Saturday night and seriously wounded as he was leaving his place of business. His assailants escaped. Private persons, added Earl Curzon, may have suggested, casually, that Canada might take the mandate, and among those persons may have been some Canadians.

Rev. W. B. Williston Preached Yesterday

Recently Returned From Mission Field of China—Spoke Interestingly to Congregation in St. Luke's and St. John's Churches.

Preaching to a large congregation in St. Luke's church last evening the Rev. W. B. Williston, of Bay du Vin, who has recently returned from the mission field of China, delivered a fervent and stirring address in which he called upon the young people of Canada to consecrate their lives to the service of the church and their fellow-men, especially in the foreign mission field.

The gifted speaker after portraying the wonderful privileges of being attached to the missionary's vocation, and the reward destined for him in the after life, he briefly recounted his own experiences while preaching the Gospel to the heathen of distant China.

The speaker stated that he and his wife were stationed at Kachow, in Szechwan province, Western China, where they ministered to a population of 2,000,000 souls and that the nearest white people in that part of the country were four days' journey away.

The power of the Gospel, the speaker stated, was very evident in China today, although but twenty years since the Boxer rebellion, when the missionaries and all whites were in dire peril of losing their lives at the hands of the populace, today the missionary is received with open arms, notwithstanding the fact that no stable government prevails, and numerous hands of brigands infest the countryside.

Mr. Williston said that when leaving his mission en route for Canada, and his first rough in ten years, he was assisted in every way by the people along the twelve days' overland journey to the coast. He was obliged to travel on foot while his wife rode in a sedan chair. The natives along the route did all in their power to make the journey easy and pleasant.

The distinguished missionary is to give an illustrated lecture on Wednesday night at Trinity church, where he will show scrolls presented him by his congregation prior to his departure from China. The scrolls are beautifully worked in satin with letters of gold, and if connected together would stretch for over a third of a mile.

At St. John's (Stone) church at the morning service Rev. Mr. Williston delivered a sermon of compelling interest relating some of his experiences in China.

Master Belts of Industry

Goodyear has solved the problem of belting the great main drives of industry—the backbone of production.

Experience, in a thousand Canadian plants, says Goodyear Extra Power Belts.

Because these belts are strong—with the strength of properly selected fabric, every thread perfect.

Yet flexible, hugging pulleys, taking advantage of every inch of pulley surface. Flexible because in Goodyear Extra Power Belting high-grade rubber is forced through and through the fabric in generous quantities. Every strand is cushioned in it. No stitching to stiffen or weaken the belt. No separation of plies.

Its friction surface grips, even through dampness or dust. No slipping with Extra Power. No need for extra tight belts, pulling pulleys out of line. No need for belt dressing. No lost power.

The testimony for Goodyear Extra Power on main drives is very complete. For instance:—

The Norfolk Milling Company, of Simcoe, writing about their main drive belt, purchased a year ago, say:—

"Has been in continuous operation for one year, and has not stretched nor given us the slightest bit of trouble."

There are many others—some selected at random are:—

Exhibition Assn. Meeting Saturday

Decided to Hold Fair From September 4 to 11—Work in Repairs to Buildings will Commence Immediately, Costing Over $30,000.

At a meeting of the Exhibition Association of the city and county of St. John held in the office of the Secretary, H. A. Porter, Saturday, at which E. A. Schofield presided, it was definitely decided to hold an exhibition this year and the date has been set for September 4 to 11.

Arrangements have been made to ensure the show starting promptly on Saturday afternoon, when the formal opening will take place, and the big pipe and midway with a large number of side shows and varied amusements from the hot dog cart to the ever popular Ferris Wheel will be in full swing Saturday night, thus ensuring the entire seven day exhibition.

As this year's exhibition will be the first held in St. John since 1914, there is but little doubt but that it will exceed all previous ones in every respect. It is expected that the prize money will be much higher than in past years as cattle breeders and other exhibitors will require bigger money to induce them to show this year than has been the case in the past, owing to the advances in feed, transportation and labor.

In this respect it is generally concluded that all expenses connected with the whole exhibit will be decidedly greater, and for that reason the entrance and admission fees will be also advanced. Considerable discussion occurred at Saturday's meeting, but it was finally agreed that notwithstanding the fact that the present site was not perhaps as desirable as it might be, it was undoubtedly the best that can be secured at the present time, and that the best policy would be to go ahead immediately with the task of fitting the present buildings to the needs which they must meet. It was felt that the character of the work made the giving of contracts impossible, and it will have to be done by the day's work under proper supervision. Of the $35,000 voted by the military as the amount due for their occupation of the buildings, some $20,000 will be spent on the repairs of the buildings. It is likely in the remodeling of the buildings that the art room will be placed in a more suitable location, a splendid rest room and lavatory fitted up in the Machinist Hall when that building was used as a shell plant by the McAvity Company, and this will now be utilized as a ladies' rest room. The division of the floor space in a more satisfactory manner will be taken into consideration by the architect.

The meeting decided that a manager for the Fall show would be an absolute necessity, and a committee was appointed consisting of the vice-president of the Atlantic Sugar Refineries Athletic Club for the use of the grounds on the 24th of May be granted. Concessions asked by the C. M. C. A. have also been accorded for a limited period.

Told of His Work As Army Chaplain

Rev. H. Hamilton Brown Delivered Interesting Address at Mission Church Last Evening—Was With British Forces in Italy.

A very interesting visitor in the city over the week-end was the Rev. H. Hamilton Brown of Grand Manan. The reverend gentleman is a graduate of Oxford, and obtained his master's degree in arts from Jesus College.

Mr. Brown was for a number of years the pastor of the Anglican Church in Upland, Kings County, but gave up his charge during the war and returned to England where he joined the British Army. He was posted for duty with the British forces in Italy and was for a time attached to the headquarters staff at Padua. His reception at this post was a warm one as without funds to enable him to recover he arrived during a heavy bombardment and found that the staff had evacuated, the only member of that body left to bid him welcome being his immediate superior, the assistant chaplain general.

From Padua, Mr. Brown was transferred to Arquata and then to a large British hospital in Genoa. One of the patients to whom the chaplain ministered while stationed at that post was a young staff officer, also an Oxford man, a graduate of Magdalen. After receiving the Victoria Cross for extreme gallantry the young lad was sent down to the hospital to recover from his wounds. Unfortunately he contracted malaria and though every effort was made to save his life, he passed away. He faced his death as he had faced the enemy, with a smiling countenance and the utmost courage.

In answer to a Standard reporter Mr. Brown stated that while the British Tommy and French poilu were on the best of terms on the Italian front as was the case on every front, life did not pass as smoothly with the Italian soldiers, with whom they did not get along very smoothly, nor was there any love lost between the Italians and the French. Personally however he had been much impressed by the simple lives and innocent pleasures of the natives of sunny Italy. Their hospitality and politeness was ever a thing to be marvelled at. The fighting on the Italian front was confined for the most part to the "Riviera River" in an extremely mountainous country which called forth from the Italians striking examples of their ingenuity in overcoming the seemingly impossible barriers of the mountains. The Indians, the speaker stated, are born engineers. Their defenses were most elaborate, and the manner in which precipitous mountain trails were changed into roads fit for heavy transport, such as large army motor lorries and guns, was most remarkable. In places where no road could be established whatever trolley wires were extended from mountain peak to mountain peak and a monorail system similar to that used in the western mines of America was used.

The Austrians and Magyars when taken prisoners, were, if wounded, sent to the same hospitals as the allies, there they evinced much surprise at the generous treatment they received. Although their uniforms were often the worse for wear, the men themselves did not appear emaciated or starved.

They did seem very dependent however and had not the cheery optimism and sunny outlook of the English or French troops.

Rev. Mr. Brown was the speaker at the evening service in the Mission Church, Paradise Row, last night where he delivered an eloquent address on the great good which the members of the Army Chaplain Service, "the padres," were enabled to render their men during the war. As a token of the esteem in which their splendid service is held, His Majesty the King has lately ordered that their title henceforth be known as the Royal Army Chaplain Service. Mr. Brown is

AN INDIAN YOUTH ARRESTED AGAIN

Joseph Paul who was Shipped Out of the City a Few Months Ago for Begging Returns to Old Game and is Locked Up.

Notwithstanding the fact that Joseph Paul, an Indian youth who hails from Sussex, was granted his transportation to the home of his youth some few months ago and politely but firmly invited by the police magistrate to betake himself to the town of his surnames and inhale again the balmy breezes of the pine forests of King's County, the lure of the metropolis proved too strong and leaving the tall timbers to Hiawatha, Pooh-bah, and the rest of the Paul family, Joe hit it back to St. John and the white lights.

Believing in Barron's adage that "there's boys every minute," Joe proceeded to work his old story, the Indian lad stole in a strange city without funds to enable him to return to the forest primitive.

As is always the case, several tender hearted housewives fell for the story, but Joe's memory was poor and he visited a residence whose inmates

BRITISH SHIPYARDS ADVANCE THEIR PRICES

By Hugh Dryden.
(Special Cross-Atlantic Cable Service to The Standard. Copyright.)
London, April 24.—American shipbuilders, it is believed here, are certain to benefit by the latest development in British shipyards, where the construction price has suddenly increased from $140 to $180 per ton. This is $40 higher than American yards, and British shipowners have announced their intention of placing orders in America in the future. The advance is attributed to the Government's mismanagement of transport arrangements and decreased output due to new labor conditions. Less restriction of the importation of steel from Germany and America is asked.

"American yards are bound to reap the benefit of the new situation, however, I predict a fall in freight and passenger rates in the near future," Owen Phillips, chief representative of the shipping interests in Parliament, stated today.

He had "touched" for a little friendly loan earlier on his last visit. As a result the son of the forest was handed over to the police and is again charged with vagrancy.

ECONOMIC RATHER THAN MILITARY

Measures Will Probably be Used to Force Germany to Fulfill Treaty Terms.

(Special Correspondence of The Standard. Copyright by Cross-Atlantic Service.)
London, April 24.—The situation at San Remo has grown increasingly clear during the last few hours. Japan is succumbing with Lloyd George to the support of Premier Nitti in his demand that economic pressure be employed to enforce the disarmament provisions of the treaty, as against M. Millerand's stand for a military display.

There is every reason to believe that the German demand for the doubling of the German regular army and other military conditions will result in a division of the Allies and Franco appears to stand isolated, with no reconciliation or divergence in her views. At this writing a persistent rumor to the effect that representatives of the soviet government have already arrived at San Remo and interviewed several of the leading statesmen obtains here.

Moir's Chocolates

THOUSANDS of men commenced to eat Moir's Chocolates while in service overseas. They craved the nourishing candy with the distinctive taste and wrote home for more Moir's.

Just as tea is now an afternoon beverage with service men, so have they become attached to the habit of eating Moir's Chocolates whenever that old trench craving for sweets comes upon them. They know Moir's Chocolates have a hundred or more varieties of fillings—and have found those that suit their taste.

VIL WAR IS FACING TURKEY
 Government Trying to Save Country From Effects of Revolution.

By Sir Percival Phillips.
 (Daily Express).
 Constantinople, April 25.—The new cabinet, which is prosecuting great measures to stamp out the Nationalist movement, had a prolonged conference in the Sultan's Palace last night to devise ways of dealing with the Nationalists.

Cabinet to Act.
 The cabinet declares its firm intention to save the country from the Nationalist movement on the continuance of Mustafa Kemal's rule in Anatolia. It is now drafting a new proclamation, which is expected to be ready by the end of the week, giving Nationalists an opportunity of accepting the peaceful solution of the situation.

According to information which is considered trustworthy from a traveler who has just arrived from Ankara, Mustafa Kemal believes he can count on 150,000 men in the event of a military expedition. He is said to be concentrating his forces on a base of nine army corps, extending to districts.

During a recent inspection of the Nationalist outpost line opposite the British base at Mustafa Kemal ordered strengthening of the defenses and extension of entrenchments, and a number of batteries between Ankara and Lefke.

GEORGE CARPENTIER'S ADVICE ON THE GAME OF BOXING

George Carpentier has some original ideas as to how a boxer should conduct himself both while preparing for a contest and also during and after the contest. Shortly after the arrival here of the French champion he voiced his sentiments to an interviewer, which developed some interesting comment on various matters connected with the ring.

Carpentier gives expression to excellent advice on the question of preparing for a bout, and declares that overwork in training quarters is harmful in the extreme. He insists that loss of temper during a bout is a great handicap and that it is foolish for a beaten man to ascribe defeat to lucky punches. The champion spoke as follows: "I have found it fruitful to work too hard while training. That is to say, instead of feeling tired out at the end of a day's work, one should, on the contrary, experience a sense of passive contentment, conducive to a good night's sleep. The boxer who overworks himself spends restless nights and these play havoc with the nervous system. The very best of tonics is restful slumber, and this is impossible if there is injudicious overdoing of things.

"In fact, the golden rule should be that excess in anything, whether it be work, amusement, eating, drinking or sleeping, is bad. Moderation in all things should be the boxer's motto. Personally, I am fond of a cigar, and invariably indulge up till within ten days of a contest for which I am training. Then everything of a lowering order is banished and I place myself completely and unconditionally in the hands of my trainer.

"There is a tendency in most boxers to believe that the more work they do the better their chances of victory. What really leads to success is just enough physical work, with plenty of brain activity. The man who just goes through his training routine mechanically, that is to say, just because he has to, does not derive the full benefit of his work. It is the thoughtful, scrupulous boxer who succeeds.

"Above all things, try to wear a pleasant smile. Go over to your opponent and shake hands with him in a friendly spirit. Forget for the time being that you are in public and act just as if you were in the gymnasium. Watch the effect of your movements on your opponent. Study the expression of his face, of his eyes and those of his manager, if the latter is acting as chief second. If you notice the slightest trace of anxiety in either it is a sure sign that they are nervous. That is the time to improve them further with your own calmness by a cheerful demeanor and conversation. All this really should be natural, that is to say, done in oneself. If not, then act the part as well as you can.

"If your opponent's manager makes a fuss about trifles, you must also reassure that he is not too sure of his man. Box with determination but not bitterness and do not lose your temper. If you should knock your opponent down, walk right away from him and then give him a fair chance of resuming the battle. Do not get furious, when you have your man's groggy, but take time to measure and place a decisive punch. Do all you can to save yourself a deal of trouble by bringing a contest to a premature conclusion. Never let a chance slip by and give as few as possible. If floored, do not be in too great a hurry to get up; think well over the position of things. This you can do just as well on one knee as while taking more punishment. Never let an opponent see that he has hit you.

"Even if beaten, take your conqueror's proffered hand in a friendly grasp, for remember there is no disgrace in honorable defeat.

"Do not leave the ring with bitter resentment for your opponent. Or if you should be the victor, always remember that he is the best boxer that you have ever met. It costs nothing and is wonderful balm to the vanquished. Never tell others that you could have knocked your man out earlier in the contest; few people will believe it.

"If beaten, do not put it down to bad luck, but to your own defects. Then try to remedy those.

"Do not talk of lucky punches for they are unlucky to the boxer on whom they land. Remember that luck plays a very subordinate part in contests between really good boxers. Therefore, do all you can to become one of these, and the element called 'bad luck' is obviated. Few champions are 'caught' by 'lucky punches'.

"There is no harm in trying to get a return match, if really under the impression that you should have won the first. Otherwise it is galling the public. You may of course have this sense to profit by one defeat, and in a few months have so improved as to be convinced that you could turn the tables on a victorious opponent. Leave the rest to your manager.

"If knocked out it is not necessary to tell everybody that it was due to your head striking the floor, and not to any particular punch (people are so susceptible), nor believe yourself to be a victim of circumstances. Knockouts should only occur to those with the less regulated notions of the noble art.

"Remember there is always room for improvement, so never get too despondent over a defeat. Let it affect you so far as to make you feel that you are a victim of circumstances. Knockouts should only occur to those with the less regulated notions of the noble art.

"Remember there is always room for improvement, so never get too despondent over a defeat. Let it affect you so far as to make you feel that you are a victim of circumstances. Knockouts should only occur to those with the less regulated notions of the noble art.

WINNIPEG FALCONS CARRIED THE MAPLE LEAF TO VICTORY

For Second Time in Olympic Hockey Series Won at Antwerp—Defeated United States Team Yesterday By Score of Two Goals to Nil—Will Meet Sweden in Final Contest Today.

Antwerp, April 25.—The Falcons of Winnipeg, carried the Maple Leaf to victory for the second time in the Olympic hockey series by eliminating the United States seven in the semi-finals today by a score of two goals to nil. They will meet Sweden in the final contest tomorrow, and by their exceptionally brilliant performance against Czechoslovakia and the United States, are strong favorites for world's honors.

The Icelanders' star forward, Frederiksen, penetrated the American defence ten minutes after the resumption of play, with one of his famous cork-screw rushes and shot past Bonney for the first counter of the game. This was the signal for a tremendous ovation from the crowd of British Tommies and supporters who had attended the game to root their colonial representatives to victory.

Five minutes after Frederiksen's one-man feat, Johansson took the puck and tallied the second goal for the Westerners. From then on the Americans made several futile efforts to break the stone wall defence of the Falcons, and Johansson, who proved infallible. While Byron gave a wonderful exhibition of goal tending and was successful in turning off many likely scoring shots.

Both the Canadian goals were the outcome of scrimmages and after hard fighting.

The teams' line-up was as follows: Falcons—Goal, Byron; defence, Benson and Johansson; rover, Woodman; forwards, Dryden (formerly Midland, Ont.), Conroy and J. McCormick (formerly Buckingham, Que.).

The losers of today's game between the Falcons and the United States will not be eliminated entirely from the tournament, but will have a chance to compete for third prize.

By a score of 15 goals to nothing, the Falcons easily disposed of the Czechoslovakia aggregation of puck-chasers on Saturday and won the right to compete in the semi-finals.

The game witnessed the first appearance of the speedy Icelanders in an actual contest, and their brilliant skating and exceptional stick handling was a revelation to the crowd of rail birds who saw the game.

The team work of the Canadian players against the stubborn but futile defence of their opponents excited and evoked many rounds of applause from the spectators.

Helferson did most of the net penning during the seven minutes of the game. Frederiksen, netting four, Goodman two, and Woodman and Johansson one each. While Byron was not afforded many opportunities to display his goal-tending capabilities, and turned aside in an easy manner any dangerous attempts by the Czechs to score.

At half time the Falcons had scored seven goals.

The game this afternoon in the semi-finals between Sweden and France was evenly matched and hard fought. The Swedes won by four goals to nothing.

The Swedes were unable to penetrate the net in the first 15 minutes of play, but immediately thereafter made two goals in rapid succession. It was the same story in the second half, the Swedes scoring their other two goals in the last remaining three minutes of play.

The Falcons were much interested and amused by the appearance on the French team of two individuals the like of which they have never seen before either in the Winnipeg amphitheatre or any other rink in Canada, in hockey togs. One of the French players trotted on the ice wearing a long black beard and the other was middle-aged and bald-headed. They were both spry on their feet and displayed lots of "pep."

Derby, Conn., April 25.—The Blue of Yale was carried twice to victory in the regatta with Columbia on the river Saturday night. A new record for two mile course was established by Yale in the Varsity race with a mark of 10 minutes 7.25 seconds. Columbia, finishing two and a quarter lengths behind, was timed in 10:12, which also was better than the record 10:16.25 made by Yale last year.

PLEASANT MEMORIES.
 The splinter waited two or three hours to be admitted to the presence of the man who visited their town once a month to retail good advice and his own proprietary medicine to the commons. At last she was admitted. "Yes, yes," said the brusque doctor. "I want to know if influenza can be transmitted by kissing?" "Beyond a doubt, madam." "Well, a man with a pronounced case of influenza kissed me." "So! How long ago was this?" "Well, let's see. I think it was about two months behind." "Why, madam, you can come to you now from the exposure. It is quite too late." "I know it," she sighed, "but I just love to talk about it."

Amateur Boxing Championships

Nearly Four Thousand Witnessed Bouts in Ottawa Saturday Night—Montreal and Toronto Won Four Each.

Ottawa, April 25.—About 3,500 people saw the final bouts for the Canadian Amateur Boxing Championships here Saturday night. The boxing programme was fast and furious and the programme was a great success.

Four championships went to Toronto and four to Montreal, while Billy Dubois, the Laurier Athletic Club, was the only Ottawa boy to survive and to qualify accordingly for the Canadian Olympic finals, which are to be held at a later date. Dubois carried off the 150 pound Canadian championship.

Saturday's programme was one of the finest that has been offered in the capital. It was replete with fast boxing as well as sensational fighting, and while the crowd was probably one of the most orderly that has ever graced the Canadian championship finals, it gave vent to enthusiasm at the close of each round and hundreds were frequently brought to their feet by spectacular mix-ups.

The new Canadian champions, as a result of the bouts conducted here Friday and Saturday evenings are as follows:
 108 Pounds—George Blain, National A. A., Montreal.
 115 Pounds—Perry Dubois, Laurier A. C., Ottawa.
 125 Pounds—Walter Newton, Riverside, A. C., Toronto.
 146 Pounds—Bert Schneider, M. A. A., Montreal.

 170 Pounds—Lionel Conacher, Riverside A. C., Toronto.

ST. JOHN, N. B., MONDAY APRIL 26, 1920.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The session of the Legislature which was closed on Saturday, while not by any means the longest in point of duration, made a new record in the number of bills introduced, and passed into law. While until the last two or three years the average number of bills introduced was about a hundred, the number last year was 127, and this year it exceeded 150. Of these, some 145 passed and are now law.

Government legislation was considerable, but with the exception of the bill relating to the development of the Provincial Water Powers, it cannot be said that any of it showed much evidence of statesmanship, or of constructive ability on the part of those responsible for it. In the case of the Water Powers bill it is too early to say whether it is likely to prove a workable measure or not, until its provisions have been more thoroughly examined, and their purport more fully considered.

A very large number of the bills dealt with, almost a majority in fact, were in amendment of previous legislation, and are the direct result of insufficient consideration at the time when originally before the House, and one of the most regrettable features of the session just closed is the unsightly manner in which bills were brought in and rushed through in the last day or two, with scarcely any consideration or discussion at all.

Next year more amendments will be needed. One of the worst offenders in this respect is the Crown Land office, which never sends its bills down till the last week, when they slip through without many questions being asked.

Neither has the session been remarkable for any particular flights of oratory. The speech of Mr. Murray, the leader of the Opposition, was by a long way the outstanding effort of the whole proceedings. In it he showed that he possessed a complete grasp of the realities of a situation which those responsible for it had endeavored to camouflage as much as possible, and at the same time he contributed a masterly criticism of that situation that successfully tore away all the wrappings with which it had been clothed, leaving it in all its naked ugliness to the gaze of the people at large.

During the session the somewhat extraordinary doctrine was enunciated that deficits were a good thing to have around, as they showed that the Department were busy and not neglecting the public interests. Just how far it is in the public interest to plunge the province into debt is something that was never explained. The public will not be very long in finding out, however, as in order to meet these deficits considerably increased taxation has been placed in several quarters, which it is safe to say will not be borne by those who are called upon to pay it, but will be distributed by them among the people at large. So that it is the general public that are going to pay for the Foster Government's follies.

We are not able to give our readers a list of the bills introduced by the Lieutenant-Governor on Saturday, as we have not as yet been favored with a copy. When the newspapers that support the Government have published it, possibly those supporting the Opposition may get one also.

THE VACANCY IN ST. JOHN.

It would be as well for the representatives of the Provincial Opposition in this city to lose no time in getting ready for the election which must soon take place, consequent upon the placing of the Ministry of Health upon a salary basis. It would not be at all unlike the Government to spring an election with as little notice as possible, in the hope that they would catch their opponents unprepared with a candidate, in fact it would not be a matter for surprise if The Telegraph should have an announcement about it this morning. Dr. Roberts will of course say he has assured himself, and also his colleagues, that he can carry the situation without the least trouble, but he knows perfectly well, and his colleagues know perfectly well also, that it is not going to be quite so soft a matter as they would like to make the people believe it is. If the right candidate is put up by the Opposition, such candidate will have no difficulty in commanding the support of a majority of the voters.

with the exception of those we have mentioned. We do not know how other newspapers supporting the Opposition fared, but that is what happened to The Standard.

The difference between the British and French Government point of view regarding Germany is chiefly economic. The British are looking for a general rehabilitation of the finance of Europe, and are willing to be patient with the Germans, while the French are disposed to see things entirely through military eyes, and insist on full indemnities, regardless of what happens to the rest of Continental Europe.

"Well, so you've got through." "Yes, we just doubled our money, and then quit," was the summing up of the situation by an esteemed member of the Legislative Assembly on Saturday evening.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

Helping Germany. (Westminster Gazette.) It is very easy to say, "Shall Germany be helped when so many others are in distress?" but in the fix in which Europe is today we can only help others by helping Germany, and if we cannot rise to that degree of enlightened self-interest, there will be no permanent recovery for any European nation, and no safety from the most serious social disorder. Whether we like it or not, we have to face the fact that the economic problem of Europe is one and indivisible, and that so long as a great part of it lies derelict and out of action, there can be no healthy condition for any of the nations.

Not An Invitation.

From A Child Was Constipated. According to the best medical authorities, fully three-fourths of the people of the civilized world suffer in some form from constiveness or irregular action of the bowels. There is no doubt that many distressing diseases are caused by constipation. It gives rise to sick and bilious headaches, jaundices, heartburn, floating specks before the eyes, catarrh of the stomach, biliousness and the painful, troublesome piles. Therefore, it is of supreme importance to health that the bowels be kept regular. Simple food, fruit, etc., should be used, and rich food and stimulants of all kinds avoided. This, with the use of My Mother's Laxa-Liver Pills to regulate and establish healthy action of the bowels cannot fail to give permanent relief in the most obstinate cases. Mrs. Letitia Walman, Orillia, Ont., writes:—"From a child I was always very badly constipated, and I can well remember when quite young, my mother giving me senna tea nearly every morning, and I got to dread it. After taking My Mother's Laxa-Liver Pills for a while I am not troubled with constipation any more. My Mother's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c. a vial at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont."

Police Court
Cases Saturday

Evidence Heard in Case of Man Charged with Stealing Overcoat—William Allan Bound Over to Keep the Peace.

The preliminary hearing in the case of Sydney Kimbier charged with stealing a coat from the Y. M. C. A., the property of Ronald Peterson, was conducted in the police court Saturday morning. The accused claimed that he had bought the coat at Wilcox's store fifteen months ago. William Bennett, a clerk from that establishment was called, and testified that his company had carried a line of coats similar to the one produced in court. After consulting with Detective Biddenscombe, the accused was sent up for trial. W. H. Scott for the defense.

A man charged with drunkenness was remanded.

A charge of threatening a young lady with personal injury was preferred against William Allan, who was arrested Friday on a warrant. After being bound over to keep the peace, the accused was allowed his liberty as the complainant did not wish to press the charge. U. J. Sweeney appeared for the defendant.

The Eighth Sermon
In the New Series

Rev. Dr. Morrison Announces Two More Sermons Complete the Series—Interest Deepens as Series Reaches End.

Before a good congregation in the West Presbyterian Church, West St. John yesterday morning, Rev. J. A. Morrison preached the eighth sermon in the new series and it proved even more interesting than the previous ones. In part Dr. Morrison said:—

"I am to speak today of our Lord's message to the Church in the City of Sardis. (See Revelation 3, 1-6). And as I thought of this ancient City of Lydia from its buried streets and courtyards came the ghastly figures of the great ones of the Aegaeon by. I saw the form of Tanais, the earliest of Greek philosophers, who lived in the sixth century before Christ, had sufficient astronomical knowledge to predict the eclipse of the sun in the reign of the Lydian King Alyattes. And with him also I saw the celebrated Solon, one of the world's wise men who was elected Archon in the year 594 when the affairs of Athens were so confused that revolution seemed imminent. He introduced several reforms, forbidding the borrowing of money on the person of the debtor, and the exporting of all products except oil, thereby securing a sufficient supply of grain for the ancient times. Croesus. You all know this man for his name has passed into a proverb and we say frequently 'as rich as Croesus.' And this is what these two men were talking about. 'Who is the happiest man you know?' asked Croesus. For reply, Solon named several other men but said nothing about the King himself who had asked the question. Croesus thereupon asked if he did not consider him happy. To this Solon replied that 'great persons like Croesus were liable to meet with so many changes that it was not right to call them happy till they died.' And this indeed was the summons from the dim and misty past the conquering figure of Cyrus the Great, the founder of the Persian Empire and the conqueror of Babylon, whom legends called the appointed of the Lord and His Shepherd (Isaiah 44-28, 45-1). This Cyrus turned his victorious arms against the mighty army of Sardis, nearly identified with the Amphitrua of the Bible. Here, on this plain beside the City of Sardis, at the foot of Mount Timon on the banks of the river Pactolus, he assembled his immense army of a million men. In the Spring of 480 he set out for the Hellespont and sailed in a fleet of 1200 ships. And the world all knows with what results. The story is embodied in the names of Thermopylae, Salamis and Plataea. All these names are forced upon us, as we think of Sardis, by what the psychologist calls the 'law of suggestion by association.' It is the associations connected with places that are kept alive with interest. Hence the pilgrimages to the shrines of the Saints, hence the medieval legends, and hence the undying charm to the tourist of the Holy Land, once trod by

Calgary Minister
Praises Tanlac

Tells of Wonderful Change it Wrought in Wife's Condition.

Yet another minister of religion to give his unqualified endorsement to Tanlac as a medicine of remarkable merit, is the Rev. John Zastochy, pastor of the Lutheran Church, Ohio Synod, Calgary, Alberta, who resides at 1920, 5 1/2 street, W., in a statement made at the Liggett's-Flindley Drug Store recently.

"For nine years my wife suffered from dropsy," he said, "and for the past five years had been in a very bad state of health. Her appetite was very poor, and yet although she ate but very little she always had a full feeling after meals. She had a drowsy feeling all the time from which nothing could arouse her, and felt tired both mentally and physically. She often complained of acute pains across the back, and she was so tired that she had to let her work go entirely and at night her sleep was very disturbed. Her nervous system became so shattered that the least thing would alarm her, and she was getting worse year by year. She tried all kinds of treatments and even went to the hospital on several occasions, but always failed to get more than temporary relief. 'We had read much about the merits of Tanlac and finally I bought a bottle. It seemed to do my wife good and so I continued with it. She has now taken three bottles in all and a decided change for the better has been the result. She now sleeps the whole night through and has lost that tired, drowsy feeling. She is so much improved that she can now do her housework with perfect ease, and the pains in her back have disappeared entirely. I would not go so far as to say that she is entirely relieved of the dropsy, but it does not bother her half as much as it did, and she has not been so well for many years past. Tanlac is helping her wonderfully and we would be without it on any account. It is certainly a splendid medicine and I take pleasure in recommending it.' Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Company and the leading druggist in every town, under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—Adv.

Night Coughs
Prevent Sleep WEAR OUT THE SYSTEM

The dry, hacking cough, cough day and night is very wearing on the system. The constant coughing disturbs the rest and keeps the lungs and bronchial tubes in such an irritated and inflamed condition they get no chance to heal.

You will find in Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup a remedy without an equal for curing coughs and colds, soothing the lungs, loosening the phlegm, strengthening and healing the breathing organs and fortifying them against serious pulmonary disease.

Mrs. Fred Fairburn, Copper Cliff, Ont., writes:—"I caught a heavy cold, got a sore throat and had a terrible hacking cough that I could not get rid of. I could not sleep at night. I had tried quite a few remedies, but they did not seem to do me much good until I took Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. By the time I had taken two bottles my cough was all gone. It seemed to loosen the cough right away so that I could spit up the phlegm that gathered in my throat, and also took that hot, raw, burning fever out of my bronchial tubes. I feel that Dr. Wood's has no equal."

News has been received in St. John from London that Capt. Edward J. Cronin, of this city, who returned a few months ago from overseas, after long service in many battles in the officers of the Royal Flying Corps, who had been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross for gallantry. The reasons for this award are given in Capt. Cronin's credit, viz., that he "had taken part in eight raids on enemy territory, displaying great ability and gallantry. On July 17, 1918, a kamikaze (Voiga) he carried out an important reconnaissance with great skill and daring, flying as low as 600 feet at a critical moment. Cronin previously rendered gallant service during the Bulgarian retreat in the autumn of 1918."

Capt. Cronin went over with the 140th N. B. Battalion and saw service with the 25th Nova Scotia Battalion. Then he secured his transfer to the Royal Air Force, and his real career as a fighter began. Recently he was demobilized.

In Sermon at Stone, Canon Kuhring Dwellt Upon St. Mark and St. John—Church is Named After St. John and is in Parish of St. Mark

Yesterday being the festival of St. Mark, the sermon preached at St. John's (Stone) Church by the Rector, Rev. Canon Kuhring dwellt upon St. Mark, St. John and St. John's in the Parish of St. Mark. The preacher referred to the Divine Inspiration which St. John had given to the Church of God and the practical work of St. Mark in the early church. Canon Kuhring mentioned the fact that at another church the great qualities of St. George were being held up for an example.

SATURDAY AND SUNDAY ARRESTS

John Murphy Charged With Assaulting his Father—Two Men with Peculiar Names Arrested for Fighting—One Vagrant and Three Drunks.

Saturday's and Sunday's arrests included John Murphy junior, given in charge by his father John Murphy for assaulting him on Smythe Street. Paul Synovsky and Joseph Grez was arrested by police constables Totten. Notwithstanding the names of the accused they were not arrested because of Bohemian tendencies but rather "Bolshevik" ones as the two are charged with fighting on North Wharf, the last round being staged at 11.40 p.m. Saturday.

One vagrant, three drunks garnered on Saturday and one yesterday bring the police court delegation up to nine, this morning.

THE SERVICES AT LUDLOW ST. CHURCH

In the absence of Rev. W. R. Robinson who is in Newcastle yesterday's services at the Ludlow Street Baptist Church were taken by Rev. R. S. Crisp. There was a large congregation at both morning and evening services. In the morning the fine discourse had for its subject "The Fatherhood of God, while in the evening the preacher took for his theme, "The Dwelling Place of God."

Special music included solos by Mr. E. Stuart Smith, Miss Josephine O'Neill and E. Clyde Parsons. The singing was excellent.

the sacred feet of the Son of God. Hence the interest of this sublime city of Sardis. It is a place of a miserable place with a few poor straggling houses and tents of Nomadic tribes. And here was located one of the seven churches in Asia to which the Savior dedicated a special message. What irony was in that word: "Thou hast a name that thou livest and art dead." As Deobody of Harvard says: "We may suppose that it was a church of apparent prosperity, with all the machinery of church life, its ritual, and officers, and committees, all in working order; and yet, when one got at the heart of it, there was no vitality. It was a dead church."

"And this reminds me of a story told by De Quincey (the Spanish military Num). Three travellers were crossing the Andes. Their resources were almost exhausted. Their power of endurance was fast ebbing. Hope had almost fled from their breasts. They were surrounded by the awful silence of eternal snows and no help or sympathy of any living presence was near. At last the figure of a man was seen, sitting upon a rock. He seemed motionless, with fixed gaze like the figure of a huntsman watching his game. Believing they were now at last near human help they saluted him with the words: "Friend, are you sleeping?" It was sleep but the sleep from which there was no awakening. At these deathly touches the frozen body rolled down upon the snow, bleached and ghastly. Here was death, but in its most frightful form, miming life, deceiving others to look for life. So was it in the case of the church at Sardis. And the Apostle warns us that people can be dead while still living, and even as well as churches. What is it he says? "To be carnally minded is death but

From A Child Was Constipated

According to the best medical authorities, fully three-fourths of the people of the civilized world suffer in some form from constiveness or irregular action of the bowels. There is no doubt that many distressing diseases are caused by constipation. It gives rise to sick and bilious headaches, jaundice, heartburn, floating specks before the eyes, catarrh of the stomach, biliousness and the painful, troublesome piles. Therefore, it is of supreme importance to health that the bowels be kept regular. Simple food, fruit, etc., should be used, and rich food and stimulants of all kinds avoided. This, with the use of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills to regulate and establish healthy action of the bowels cannot fail to give permanent relief in the most obstinate cases.

Mrs. Letitia Wainman, Orillia, Ont., writes:—"From a child I was always very badly constipated, and I can well remember when quite young, my mother giving me senna tea nearly every morning, and I got to dread it. After taking Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills for a while I am not troubled with constipation any more."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

THE SERVICES AT LUDLOW ST. CHURCH

In the absence of Rev. W. R. Robinson who is in Newcastle yesterday's services at the Ludlow Street Baptist Church were taken by Rev. R. S. Crisp. There was a large congregation at both morning and evening services. In the morning the fine discourse had for its subject "The Fatherhood of God, while in the evening the preacher took for his theme, "The Dwelling Place of God."

Special music included solos by Mr. E. Stuart Smith, Miss Josephine O'Neill and E. Clyde Parsons. The singing was excellent.

STEEL STOCKS WERE ACTIVE AT NEW YORK

Prices at Opening Higher but Eased Off Toward Close.

(McDougall & Cowans)
New York, April 24.—The market showed some sharp overnight advances and the early movement was upward throughout the list. Lackawanna and Steel again moved up several points, although confirmation of various consolidation rumors was still lacking. C. R. U. sold off, while other steel issues were generally strong and there were similar cross-currents else where in the list. Final settlement of the Salt controversy was announced just before opening, and no doubt contributed something to make the half feeling in the street more cheerful, but at about the end of the first half hour the upward movement had spent itself and prices eased off. The immediate demand of the shorts had largely been satisfied. There has been some buying in the steel group in anticipation of next Tuesday's quarterly report of the U. S. Steel Corporation.

TURNS MONEY IN FACTORIES HERE

Canadians have a splendid opportunity to support the "Made in Canada" movement not only by the purchasing of home manufactured products but also by supporting with their money the Dominion industries which are just now in the course of great expansion. This opinion was expressed by a prominent local business man this morning.

It was pointed out that Canadian firms in order to cope with the demand for increased production must have financial backing to make expansion possible. This was the reason that there are so many industrial stocks on the market at the present time which are yielding excellent returns on the money invested.

"It is good patriotic policy to buy Victory bonds when they were put on the market at its just as sound a policy to turn investment money now into channels where it will effect the most good," declared the business man.

"During the war it was imperative that we support the war loans, but now it is just as important that we aid in greater production by investing the industrial stocks of Dominion firms."

FAMOUS PLAYER CORP. PROVES WINNER

Ready to Declare Dividend With Only Few of Theatres Running.

Special to The Standard
Montreal, April 24.—An announcement of interest in connection with the forthcoming offering of the shares by the Famous Players Canadian Corporation. The dividend is payable May 1st to shareholders of record on the eight per cent First Preferred shares of Famous Players Canadian Corporation. The dividend is payable May 1st to shareholders of record April 28th. It is said that recent earnings from the sixteen theatres now in operation by the corporation are more than sufficient to pay dividends on the entire issue of first preferred shares without benefit of earnings of additional new theatres for the construction and acquisition of which the new issue is being made. The pre-clusive results from the Corporation's development programme should place both the preferred and common shares in a strong position with regard to earnings.

SKUNK SKINS BRING RECORD HIGH PRICE

Special to The Standard
New York, April 24.—New York, April 24.—Sales for the first week of the fur auction in the Masonic Hall here, reached $975,000 today, due largely to the good average prices brought by about 185,000 skunk skins that were sold. Sales for the day were $1,250,000. Much of the skunk appeared to be bought for export, and the choicest skins reached $9.20 each. The record brought 90 cents apiece. High price for the day was registered by Polar bear, the top in this case being $99. Of the smaller skins, wolverine touched the best market at $22, with a low price of $4. Compared with the prices obtained at the sale of the New York Fur Auction Sales Corporation here last April the biggest advance today was shown by Russian fish, which went up 75 per cent. German fish advanced 50 per cent. Kolinsky came next with forty per cent. Australian opossum and skunk followed with advances of 35 per cent each.

EXPORTS AND IMPORTS

The value of the exports through the port of St. John for the fiscal year which closed March 31 show a falling off from the previous year but are much larger than those of previous years. The figures for 1915 and 1919 and 1920, as given by the Board of Trade are:

	Export	Import
1915	$4,872,332	$9,112,916
1919	149,986,167	15,702,446
1920	114,267,916	26,990,916

FLOUR AND FEED MARKET GOSSIP

(Northwestern Miller)
The flour trade of the past week was marked by three outstanding features: a marked increase in prices all along the line, amounting to 50 to 75¢ per barrel for patents; a reduction in milling activity due chiefly to the railway strikes, which made the country ably one of the smallest on record; and the depletion of spot flour supplies in many of the consuming markets to a point which made interest in securing new supplies exceedingly active.

Flour prices advanced very sharply last week, the gain applying to all types and grades. While the amount of actual business done was still limited, the reports at the close of the week indicated a considerable increase in the total volume, with enough additional inquiry to point to still further activity to come. The advance in prices, instead of discouraging buyers, appeared to attract them.

The course of prices for top patents in recent weeks is indicated in the following table, showing average quotations at four representative markets, two western and two eastern.

Feed is all markets continues strong and in brisk demand for prompt delivery. Shippers generally are not offering for immediate delivery, on account of the strike and the general poor railroad conditions. Mills have reduced their capacity to a minimum, and are too far behind on deliveries to make new commitments for prompt or April shipment. Feed is wanted in all sections, and buyers are pressing mills for deliveries. Both mills and shippers have no control over the situation and expect to make shipments just as soon as railroads can handle the exports.

PRICES RALLIED ON NEW YORK MARKET

Irregular Reaction Resulting From Profit Taking Occurred at Close of Session.

PRICES RALLIED ON NEW YORK MARKET

New York, April 25.—Settlement of the Stutz controversy, and a feeling that the Mexican situation was not acute as far as the United States was concerned, were factors in a general rally of prices during Saturday's short session of the stock market. The motor group, oils, steels and equipments, somewhat in the order named, registered substantial gains. Rails and shippings held back at the outset but rallied on a demand for Rock Island, Missouri Pacific and San Francisco, Atlantic Gulf and United Fruit.

Irregular reactions, resulting from profit taking, occurred at the end, but general motors closed at 22 1/2, a gain of 15 points. Sales amounted to 475,000 shares.

More than passing interest attached to the bank situation, because of the week's severe liquidation of stocks. The clearing house reported an actual decrease in loans and discounts of $12,568,000, almost offsetting the production due directly to such investments. Increased almost $12,000,000, making a total excess of about $35,500,000.

The exhibit of the local Federal Reserve Bank disclosed a strengthening of gold reserves by over $32,000,000 and an increase of almost $33,000,000 in total reserves, the combined ratio of reserves increasing from 41.7 to 43.1 per cent.

Attention was drawn to the fact that there are scores of firms which are yielding six per cent and upward on the money invested, while at the same time there is excellent security and little element of speculation.

Villager: "Well, sir, it's liable to be in any old direction that comes handy, but at this time of the year it's mostly about fish."

PREDICTS SUGAR AT 35 CENTS LB.

New York, April 25.—Sugar at 33 to 35 cents a pound retail for July 1, and increasing high prices for all commodities a strong as production and transportation are continually held up by strikes, is the prediction now placed before New Yorkers. E. F. Busnell, secretary of Austin Nichols & Co., speaking at a luncheon of the Manufacturers' Export Association, declared yesterday that prices of all foodstuffs would soar beyond present rates.

"As long as there are strikes every five minutes," he said, "production must decrease rather than increase. We have got to get labor and capital together, extend farm credits, and improve the entire food production situation if there is to be any relief."

The 5¢ sugar price was predicted by sugar men today. They said, "production and increased consumption were to blame. Members of the 'flying squadron' held, however, that speculation and hoarding by sugar

CANADA THE LAND OF OPPORTUNITY FOR IMMIGRANTS

Have More to Offer Than Any Other Country—Need More Population to Develop Land.

New York, April 24.—(By Canadian Press.)—Canada's great need for immigrants of the proper class was emphasized by Col. J. S. Dennis, Chief of the Colonization and Development Department of the Canadian Pacific Railway in an address delivered before the recent conference on immigration held here under the auspices of the International Council. Col. Dennis, who was representative of the Canadian and British Recruiting Mission in the United States during the war and is familiar with conditions on this side of the line, compared the problems which Canada and the United States are faced in regard to immigration and frankly told his American hearers that Canada is in a more favorable position in having better facilities to offer.

"We think that in Canada we have perhaps more to offer the European immigrant today than you have in the United States," he said. "More in the sense of larger undeveloped resources, larger areas of cheap land and a growing industrial development which provides him with employment, if he is looking for it."

Dealing with the problem as affected Canada, Col. Dennis said: "We have a pressing need for population because, due to our participation in the war, which went into voluntarily, and due to the fact that we provided our own army; that we are great—today in Canada we are ahead with a very heavy debt and the interest on our war debt today, when added to our pension bill, amounts to a sum about three times as great as the total revenue of the Dominion in 1914, and our population has not increased very materially since that time. Therefore we have the pressing need of getting immigrants to come in and help us carry that burden and develop our natural resources so we can pay our bill and not be ultimately found in the hands of the sheriff."

Dealing with some of the difficulties which confront Canada in regard to immigration, Col. Dennis remarked that Canada as part of the British Empire, is so situated that it is absurd for Canadians to speak of any man as a foreigner, because the Empire includes people of every race.

"The British Empire is a heterogeneous collection of peoples of the world," he said, "and we are situated and have the peculiar condition existing that in Canada although a part of the empire, we do not allow immigration from other parts of the Empire. For instance, we do not allow the Hindus although they are British subjects in India, to come to Canada. It is a peculiar anomaly, but it shows the independent character of certain portions of the overseas dominions where we impose a tariff against the Mother Country and refuse to allow British subjects in other parts of the Empire to come to Canada."

Col. Dennis said that past experience in matters relating to immigration had convinced him that the trouble in handling immigrants was due to three things.

"First," he declared, "the immigrant is misled when he is solicited to move; second, he is misled in being moved; and third, he is turned loose without any protection or assistance when he arrives. That has been, I think, the foundation of the movement of immigrants to this continent in the past, and we must endeavor to change it if we are to get the kind of people that we need, and if we are going to have greater success than we have had in the past in making them proud of the country which have come to, anxious to learn our language, to participate in our institutions, and to become good citizens."

SLASH BURNING IS GOOD FIRE INSURANCE

All forestry authorities agree that our great problem in Canada, in the conservation of timber resources, is the forest fire. It is almost as generally admitted that slash-burning in the woods after logging operations, has been the contributing cause of most of our serious fires. The slash very often causes a comparatively harmless ground fire to develop into a crown fire which destroys miles of green timber.

Forestry practice in Europe has, for many years, included the disposal of slash in all logging operations, but operators in Canada, until recently, were loath to adopt such measures. It is, therefore, gratifying to find companies now voluntarily carrying on slash-burning purely as an insurance against fire.

The Schroeder Mills and Timber Co., with headquarters in Milwaukee, and operators in Florida, Michigan and Ontario, has evidently decided that slash-burning is good business. This company, in its operations south of the French river in Parry Sound district, Ontario, last spring, burned the slash in especially vulnerable places, such as around camps, along "candle" roads, and belts along their remaining green timber. The walking boss of the company, in conversation with an officer of the Commission of Conservation said that, after spending a considerable sum of money on this work, he thought the company might object to the expense involved, but he was informed by them that they considered it the best form of fire insurance. The men on the ground no longer with the head office in this policy, and the work is to be carried on in the future, probably more extensively.

The experience of this company should assist in securing cooperation from operators, if slash-burning is at any time in the future, made compulsory. It is, eventually, lumbermen regard such measures, not as coercive, but as necessary to distinguish a benefit to the country at large, forest administration and forest utilization will find much in forestry. Such forestry is absolutely necessary if conservation of our timber resources is to be profitable.

They Know at Halifax

IN Halifax, you may learn much about ships, but nothing more important than the value of surface protection.

Immense quantities of paint are used on ships—usually three coats all over, amounting to several dozen barrels to a ship. This expenditure for surface protection, however, is not incurred merely to make ships look well, although, naturally that is one result. The main object is to preserve all surfaces against the sea, the storms, and the sun of every climate into which ships sail.

And what is true of ships is true of everything else. If it has a surface it needs surface protection.

If you will keep the surface of your house, your barn, your office-building, protected with Paint and Varnish inside and outside, you will keep it safe against weather and wear, almost for all time—a wonderful result for small expenditure.

Remember that wood, metal, stucco and often concrete, must have surface protection if they are to be preserved in their original strength and beauty.

THIS ANNOUNCEMENT is issued by the Canadian Save the Surface Campaign Committee, for the purpose of educating the public in the Preservation and Protective value of Paint, Varnish and Allied Products for the Conservation of Property, and has received the approval of the Canadian Trade Commission in the following words: "The realization of the above objects will lead to employment during the Reconstruction Period and bears our entire approval."

SLASH BURNING IS GOOD FIRE INSURANCE

All forestry authorities agree that our great problem in Canada, in the conservation of timber resources, is the forest fire. It is almost a generally admitted fact that slash, left in the woods after logging operations, has been the contributing cause of most of our serious fires.

The Schroeder Mills and Timber Co., with headquarters in Milwaukee, and operations in Florida, Michigan and Ontario, has evidently decided that slash-burning is good business.

The experience of this company should assist in securing cooperation from operators. If slash-burning is at any time in the future, made compulsory, it eventually, lumbermen regard such measures, not as coercive, but as protection to themselves, while a benefit to the country at large, forest administration and forest utilization will find much in harmony.

OVER 300 GIRLS AT MASS MEETING

Meeting for "Teen Age" Girls at St. David's Church Yesterday Presided Over by Miss Mary Lewis—Address by Rev. R. Taylor McKim.

Over three hundred girls attended the mass meeting held for "Teen age" girls at St. David's church yesterday afternoon. Miss Mary Lewis presided over the meeting, and the arrangements for the meeting were in charge of Mrs. J. D. Hunter. Most of those in attendance were members of the Canadian Girls' Training Classes of the various churches, with their leaders, although other groups of girls accepted the invitation to be present sent out through all the churches and Sunday Schools of the city.

A choir of girls took part in the singing and rendered one hymn. An inspiring address was given by Rev. R. Taylor McKim, pastor of St. Mary's, who spoke on "Choosing the Best." He referred to the story of Mary and Martha and pointed out that it is the all round girl who is most useful in the world.

Rev. E. W. Mackay who is at present at St. David's took a part in the service.

MOTHERS' PENSIONS.

(Victoria Times.) At least there is one bill of prime importance now before the local legislature upon which all parties find common ground for agreement. The measure to provide pensions for mothers in cases where the breadwinner is unable to support his family is intimately related to the social and economic life of this province and its journey to the statute books should be a smooth and speedy one.

It is interesting and satisfactory to observe that the scale of pension proposed by British Columbia exceeds that of other provinces of this country where similar laws already are in operation. But it must not be supposed that a beneficiary with one child will be translated from her present precarious condition to the lap of luxury by the receipt of $42.50 per month. Nevertheless, the definite assurance of this measure of support will mean much to those unfortunate women who have struggled in silence to retain some measure of home comfort and preserve the natural associations between mother and child.

RECIPE TO CLEAR A PIMPLY SKIN

Pimples are Impurities Seeking an Outlet Through Skin Pores.

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The safest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear, cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.

St. George's Society At Divine Worship

Annual Service Held in St. Paul's Church Last Evening—Sermon Preached by Rev. Archdeacon Crowfoot, Chaplain of the Society.

To the strains of the hymn "Tribute ye Christian people who boast St. George today," the members of St. George's Society headed by Joseph Clayton carrying the banner of St. George and R. H. L. Skinner bearing the banner of the Society followed by the choir and officiating clergy entered St. Paul's church last evening when the annual service of the Society was held. Members assembled in the School House. Lieut. Colonel McMillan, President of St. Andrew's Society marching with them into the church. A choral service was held, hymns, prayers and lessons being appropriately chosen. An anthem "O Lamb where is thy sting" (Edmund Turner) was well rendered by the choir. T. F. Bourne, organist of St. Paul's presiding at the organ.

At the close of the sermon The National Anthem was sung. The offering collected by the officers of the Society is for their charitable fund. Assisting the rector of St. Paul's who is also chaplain of St. George's Society, Rev. Archdeacon Crowfoot, was Rev. James Carbridge of St. Nicholas.

Taking as his text the motto of the St. George's Society, "Fides Patrae Salva, Fides est Salvatio country," Archdeacon Crowfoot preached a very beautiful sermon.

As members of St. George's Society, he said, we ought to know the meaning of our motto, defend its principles, display its principles and apply it to our immediate surroundings. Is the motto true and can it be substantiated? It is strongly contended that faith creates a country and by country it meant native land, some fatherland, for a country has more than mere geographical claims. Patriotism is not an enthusiasm for a certain piece of soil but faith in the principles for which a country stands. What Britain stands for is what Britain is. The Jews have no native land, but the strongest national spirit is preserved, a nation from the disintegrating effects of many things as was learned by Germany who before the war based her calculations on the observation of disintegrating factors in Britain. She overlooked the faith possessed by the citizens of the Empire and soon discovered that the traces of disintegration were based on a solidarity stronger than friend or foe realized.

Faith, the essence of looking forward, supplies the dynamic which drives a country forward. Greece ceased to be when they lost faith in their high mission. Rome became an easy prey to barbaric hosts. The United States citizens cannot be accused of a lack of faith in the future of their country, but they may carry this to lengths of absurdity, this faith leads to a progress which we must admire.

Members of the Society should be incarnations of this motto. It is faith which created the Society, not merely length blood and birth, but a belief in and support of certain principles. What love goes with the recollection of all that England is, her history, her soldiers, statesmen, Saints and heroes. Witness the great deeds recalled and we think of what took place on St. George's day in recent years we know that the breed is not extinct, the torch is still being held aloft, and we thank God who made us sons of Albion. Tracing the gradual development of the nation is a justification of the poet's words: "The hand that made us is Divine."

The motto reminds us that brotherhood is a principle of nationhood, such nation has its contribution to make towards the future of the human race and if the Great Dominion of Canada is to have a glorious future, its population must be made up of the best elements. We do not want to make Canada English. We are Canadians but are anxious to bring to the land those who will make the best contribution to it. Recognizing and welcoming this shrewdness of the Scot, the affection of the Irish, the high ideals of the French and the industry of the German when rightly directed, the Canada of the future will need the common sense of the Englishman whose power to organize has been demonstrated beyond question.

The emblem of our Faith, the Red Cross is the Cross of Christ, its arms are wide enough and high enough to include humanity. It constantly reminds us that it is Godliness which made a nation. The Society stands for charity which knows no limit. Here the preacher paid a tribute to the late Walter H. Mack, a past president who was, he said a wholehearted champion of the St. George motto. He had a lead word for all and saw good in each friend. The emblem stands for self-effacement not for private or personal advantage. The Society exists not to give, not to get, to help not to be helped. The fair name of St. John needs all the strength of support to preserve the city from corroding forces of corruption. There are dragons in our city and a call comes to all sons of St. George to give of their personal service to the city. The speaker urged all to exorcise the franchise today and vote only for those who can be trusted to practise the high ideals for which St. George embodies stand. Individuals should every day let their eyes be guided by fine characters, and by self-effacement that they are living up to these ideals. So shall Canada and all the world know that in the faith of Christianity lies the salvation of this dear land and the ship of state be wadded to the Port of Heaven.

BAKERY DRIVERS DEMAND MORE PAY

An increase of 85 in the minimum weekly wage of the bakery drivers is asked for in the agreement of the Ottawa Bakery Drivers' Association which has just been presented to the Master Bakers' Association for consideration. It is to replace the present agreement which expires on June 1. The drivers want the minimum raised to $36 and demand a nine hour day. They also ask that they be granted the same holidays as during the last twelve months, namely: New Year's Day, Christmas, Good Friday, Dominion Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving. The organizers added that if any of these legal holidays come on a Saturday or a Monday another day will be granted.

Barrie's New Play "Mary Rose"

Is Described as Masterpiece by Leading London Critics—Is Named After Famous British Destroyer.

Special to The Standard (Cross Atlantic News Service Copyright.)

London, April 24.—The greatest theatrical sensation of recent years was made by James M. Barrie's new play "Mary Rose," which was produced at Haymarket Theatre last night. Leading critics of morning and afternoon papers today exhausted the art of their craft in praise of what they described as Barrie's masterpiece. Louis Zangwill, noted dramatic critic, writes the following description of the play: "The play takes largely the form of a vision dream and utilizes the supernatural in its action. An Australian soldier returns to his old Sussex home there dreams a poignant, touching story of mother's love in life. She has long been dead, but haunts the house, searching for her baby boy who was only two when she died. After awaking, he sees her, talks to her, but fails to persuade her that he is her baby. The play touches the deepest chords of human feeling, and has affinities with Peter Ibbetson and Masterlinck. Taken in conjunction with two other plays produced here this week, "The Skin Game" by John Galsworthy and a "Grain of Mustard Seed" by E. H. Harwood, it goes to constitute a first rate post war review of the English drama. Barrie chose the title "Mary Rose" to perpetuate the sinking in the North Sea of the British destroyer of that name which went down with all hands after a gallant fight."

ASPIRATIONS OF ITALY HAVE JUSTIFICATION

Is the Opinion of English Writer Who Has Made Study of Question.

Sir Sidney Low. (Special Cross-Atlantic Cable News Paper Service to The Standard. Copyright.)

For La Pin Grande Italia—for a greater Italy; it was with this wish that Italy joined in the war in the spring of 1915; and to the idea it embodies she has clung tenaciously, through the war itself and the complex negotiations of the peace. In so doing she has encountered a good deal of opposition, and has not rendered herself popular with the people of the "Sixteen" nations. Americans are apt to regard her policy as an aggravated example of Old-World imperialism; and many Britons, under the influence administered by President Wilson, have small patience with Italy, and her unreasonable ambitions. Yet Italy has a strong case; and the world, if properly understood and appreciated by the Western peoples.

Italy, as her late Prime Minister, Sir Sidney Low, frankly and honestly, went to war under an impulse of sacred sentiment; which phrase may best be rendered as "honorable self-realization." She had no quarrel with Germany; but Germany was the friend and patron of her old enemy and oppressor, Austria-Hungary; and with that composite Turkey-Slav-Magyar agglomeration she had a feud long ripe for settlement. Italian statesmen made no concealment of their intention to settle it once for all by driving Austria out of the Adriatic and re-annexing to the Latin kingdom the Italian border population, and the Alpine footholds which can protect the Lombard and Venetian plains from the northern invader.

It is unfortunate that in attempting to achieve this object Italy has been brought into antagonism with the new nation of Jugoslavia. Italian statesmen regard this rivalry as unfortunate, but inevitable. Serbia is also dominated by Saxe-Croatian, and is not content with that guaranteed security and independence which she has obtained by the defeat of Austria and Turkey. Having got rid of one rival great power on the Adriatic, Italians have no intention of permitting the position of another. They say plainly that they have not endured the sacrifices of the war merely to put the Serb-Croat kingdom into the commanding position from which Austria has been expelled. To the British and American mind the Serbs and Croats are the natural enemies of Austria, which keeps them oppressed and subjugated. Italians look at the matter differently. To them the Croats have been the spearhead guard of the Hapsburg empire. It was the Jugoslavians in the impetuous service who were the first to descend upon the Italian plains and the coast of the Adriatic. The fact is still impressed upon the popular speech. When I was with Cadorna's armies in 1915 I noticed that the soldiers, particularly those of the southern battalions, referred to the enemy as I Croato. The Croats, more often than as Teedeschi, Germans, Croat soldiers had been carried out the orders of the secret police in Verona and Venice, and were specially identified in the Italian mind with the most cruel and oppressive of Austro-Hungarian tyrannies. It was the Jugoslavians who were the first to turn the defeat of Germany and Hungary into a triumph for Italy's old and inveterate foes and aspirants, I Croati.

To secure herself against such a result Italy concluded the pact of London before she joined the Western Alliance. In deference to President Wilson's objections she endeavored to arrange a new understanding with Serbia. If this is rejected Italy is entitled to hold her French and English partners to the strict letter of their London pact. It is all very well to say that this instrument is just a flagrant example of the secret bargain and compact which we want to abolish, substituting for them open and equitable decisions framed by the League of Nations. Italy might reply that she is quite willing to adopt the new system for the future. But when the treaty of London was made there was no League of Nations, and American belligerents wanted Italy's help, and they were willing to pay the price asked for it. They have admitted, and cannot logically deny, Italy's right to demand the fulfillment of the contract, unless an acceptable alternative can be found.

The aspirations of Italy are not limited to the Dalmatian coast and the Alpine borderlands. She seeks opportunities and privileges in the Levant, in particular she will be enabled to utilize Greece, she wishes her claims on Smyrna and the Turkish islands she will be allowed a sphere of economic and political influence in Anatolia. In particular she will be enabled to utilize Greece, she wishes her claims on Smyrna and the Turkish islands she will be allowed a sphere of economic and political influence in Anatolia. In particular she will be enabled to utilize Greece, she wishes her claims on Smyrna and the Turkish islands she will be allowed a sphere of economic and political influence in Anatolia.

The economic consideration lies at the root of the matter and accounts for those manifestations of Latin "imperialism" which come foreign critics often serve with disfavor. Italy is reaching out in order to overcome the handicap of her situation and her too limited natural resources. Italian statesmen and financial organizers know well that their country, though beautiful, is also very poor. Nature has given them sunshine and color, but not many of those things which makes for riches and prosperity, such as the immense coal-measures of Britain, the great deposits of France and Poland, the tin, copper, iron and sulphur of Spain, or even the wide grain-fields and pasture lands of Hungary and Roumania, and the timber forests of the Scandinavia. On the other hand they have to maintain, within a limited area a population already of some forty millions, and growing rapidly; for Italy is the only one of the more highly civilized nations in which the birth-

I have done so with no other purpose in view than, if elected, to make an honest effort to serve the City of my birth so far as I am able.

I am offering absolutely free and independent of any particular class or organization, but simply with the desire to promote the interest of our City and all concerned.

Yours faithfully, E. A. SCHOFIELD.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE CITY OF ST. JOHN.

Ladies and Gentlemen:—

I beg respectfully to state that, having been solicited by numerous friends to be a candidate at the forthcoming election for the office of Mayor of the City, and having decided to comply with the sincere and earnest solicitations so made to me, and now beg to inform the electorate that I have been duly nominated for the office of Chief Magistrate of the City, and respectfully solicit your votes and support in the coming civic contest on the 26th instant.

My own experience in two or more branches of public administration has convinced me that athletics is one of the greatest means of developing youths, gives them an incentive to live clean lives, for no one can be a candidate at the forthcoming election for the office of Mayor of the City, and having decided to comply with the sincere and earnest solicitations so made to me, and now beg to inform the electorate that I have been duly nominated for the office of Chief Magistrate of the City, and respectfully solicit your votes and support in the coming civic contest on the 26th instant.

Crew Was Saved By The Fishermen

Three Master Attained Went Ashore at Tiverton During Storm Saturday Night—Captain, His Wife and Crew Escaped.

The three masted schooner Attained owned by Campbell Mackay of St. John's, Newfoundland, went ashore in between Onawa and Greenville, a mass of rock and earth came suddenly tumbling down, blocking about the wheels of the schooner, the train and blocked the line.

The train could neither go forwards or backwards and the accident occurred on the main line, traffic was blocked until Saturday afternoon.

This special cut where the accident occurred had been marked as a danger spot and trains had to stop at every precaution passing through it. Patrols were posted along this section to watch out for slides and to report them. The severe winter had driven the frost deep in to the ground, and with the coming of spring the frost in its efforts to be free had sprung up great fissures in the rock, loosened the earth and played general havoc with this cut. The road men have had from the slide several slides have occurred already, but the one on Friday was the most serious that has taken place so far. Ten minutes previous to the accident the train had passed by the spot but at that time the road was all clear. According to reports the freight was proceeding at a very slow speed, the engine along, otherwise the results would have been much worse. Consequently when the accident occurred none of the cars were derailed nor was there anybody injured. All traffic, however, was blocked and it was necessary for all through trains to detour at Brownville Junction and Greenville and run on the Bangor and Amherst. The C. P. R. express from Montreal had to detour at Brownville Junction and it was over two hours late reaching St. John. The road was clear of all obstruction by Saturday afternoon and trains were running through as usual.

J. N. Woodman, General Superintendent for the Atlantic Division has been in Montreal and will arrive here this morning.

The St. John Built Schr. Dornfontein

Set on Fire by Germans in Bay of Fundy August, 1918, Rebuilt and is Now Sailing in Southern Seas.

"The rebuilt, four-masted schooner Dornfontein, is now sailing southern seas under the name of 'Rothorn', said J. Seely, of Machias, Me., who was in the city Saturday.

The Dornfontein was built at St. John, the first wooden vessel to be launched here for many years. She cost $100,000, and with a cargo of 800,000 feet of lumber left here for South Africa in August, 1918. Far down the Bay of Fundy she was held up by the German U-boat No. 28, and being stripped of possessions she was set on fire. Her crew of nine were landed on Grand Manan.

Later the Dornfontein was beached on Grand Manan by fishermen. Some 400,000 feet of lumber was saved. The hull, burnt close to the water line, was raised to the pier, she was bought by Pushee Bros. of Donnyville, Me., and practically reconstructed. She is now in commission under command of Capt. Jasper, of Machias, Me. She has a 35 h. p. hoisting engine which supplies electric lights.

First Govt. Ship In Strange Waters

Canadian Voyager, Which Sunk Pilot Boat, was First of Government Merchant Fleet to Leave Canadian Waters.

The Canadian Voyager, which sank the Howard I. Froop, was the first ship of the Government's merchant fleet to go voyaging in strange waters. Says "The Sailor," official organ of the Canadian Navy League:

"When the Canadian Voyager sailed from Halifax harbor on March 2nd, 1919, bound for the West Indies with a cargo of general merchandise, the event marked a new epoch in the commercial annals of the nation. It was the first time in our history that a merchantman of a nation-owned marine had steamed proudly into the rolling expanses of the ocean, and in the unfolding of the blue, gold and cream national ensign flag might have been interpreted a new epoch in the future triumph of Canada's Maritime expansion in the years to come."

As soon as the collision between the Voyager and the Froop there is a good deal of water front talk about the statement of the Court of Enquiry that Captain Nicholson, the pilot boat, had struck the motor engine instead of ahead when he thought the Voyager was drifting down on top of him. Local opinion is to the effect that the Court did not enquire as to the effect of putting a small motor engine astern, and that members of the Court had no experience with steamships with motor engines. It is argued that if the Froop's motor engine had been put astern, and worked all right, it would have backed her out of the ice of the steamer, and that then the water catching her sails would have overcome the wind, and blown her about head-on into the steamer.

Good Fishing in the Harbor

Wier Owned by Balyea Brothers Took 160,000 Gasperaux Friday and Saturday—Drifters also Doing Well—Price Drops Considerably.

Extraordinary runs of gasperaux marked the week end, and the results of the price dropped from $3.10 per hundred fish on Friday to $1.50 on Saturday, though some dealers continued to pay $2.00. It is estimated that the weir owned by Balyea Brothers took nearly 160,000 gasperaux on Friday night, and about 90,000 Saturday night. Boat fishermen were doing well, but took any where from 1000 to 3,000 fish on a tide.

Unfortunately most of the winter owners did not have their weirs in operation though the season for gasperaux has started later than usual. Some of the boats which had been put in commission some time ago and were broken down by the ice, of which there has been an unusual quantity coming down the river, will be appearing in the water owners have been working night and day at their weirs to get them in shape and all should be in working order today.

The ice coming down the river has caused the fish to wait outside, but the indications are that the run up the river will be large as soon as the weather becomes fine.

Last year the price of gasperaux did not fall below $1.00 per hundred fish. Although an excellent take was when fresh St. John dealers have never made any great effort to find a market for their fish, and this probably accounts for the ease with which the price drops as soon as gasperaux appear in any quantities. Large quantities of gasperaux are sold to Nova Scotia fishermen to be used as bait, and of course no great price is paid for bait fish.

When the price of gasperaux drops to $1.00, the fish are usually eaten and sold to New York houses, which find a market for them in the West Indies, principally among the blacks of Hayti.

Kenneth N Forbes Gets Promotion

Popular Manager Here for Canadian Fairbanks-McCoy Co. Transferred to Winnipeg—Watson J. Hill Takes Charge of Local Branch.

Nenneth N. Forbes, manager of the Canadian Fairbanks-McCoy Co's branch in this city, will leave for Winnipeg on Wednesday, where he will take over the management of his firm's branch in that city. He expects to assume his new duties on the first Monday in May. Watson J. Hill succeeds Mr. Forbes as manager of the St. John branch.

Mr. Forbes came to this city five years ago last January as manager of the company's branch here. Since that time he has made many friends who, while regretting to lose one who has taken a very prominent part in civic affairs, will be pleased to hear that his transfer to Winnipeg means an important promotion. An who many of the officers members in which he handles the affairs of his company here will say that it is a well merited one. Speaking to The Standard yesterday, Mr. Forbes said that though it means a decided advance for him he was sorry to leave St. John. He liked St. John very much, and had been very happy here. He had made many business and social friendships.

Heavy Land Slide Blocked the Tracks

Rocks and Earth Fell Round Wheels of C. P. R. Freight Train Near Boffish, Me., Friday Night—Road Cleared Saturday Afternoon.

On Friday night while a C. P. R. freight was working as usual on a slow pace through a cut near Boffish, Maine, a mass of rock and earth came suddenly tumbling down, blocking about the wheels of the cars, stopped the train and blocked the line.

The train could neither go forwards or backwards and the accident occurred on the main line, traffic was blocked until Saturday afternoon.

According to reports the freight was proceeding at a very slow speed, the engine along, otherwise the results would have been much worse. Consequently when the accident occurred none of the cars were derailed nor was there anybody injured. All traffic, however, was blocked and it was necessary for all through trains to detour at Brownville Junction and Greenville and run on the Bangor and Amherst. The C. P. R. express from Montreal had to detour at Brownville Junction and it was over two hours late reaching St. John. The road was clear of all obstruction by Saturday afternoon and trains were running through as usual.

J. N. Woodman, General Superintendent for the Atlantic Division has been in Montreal and will arrive here this morning.
