WEST MIDDLESEX CONSERVATIVES.

The Conservatives of West Middlesex met yesterday in Glencoe town hall to nominate a candidate to oppose William S. Calvert, M.P. There was a good attendance, and nominees were numerous as the following shows:

R. Dunlop, Napier—By John Morgan, Adelaide, and T. F. Hawkin, Metcalfe.

Dr. Roome, ex-M.P.—By Isaac Walker, Mosa, and J. A. Leitch, Glencoe.

George B. Campbell—By A. B. McKellar, Mosa.

P. H. Bartlett, London—By Geo. Lewis, Metcalfe, and Mr. Cuddy, Adelaide.

Isaac Walker, Mosa—By Alf. Brock, Napier.

J. A. Leitch, Glencoe—By Dr. Lindsay, Strathroy, and Dr. McIntyre, Glencoe.

J. W. Cameron, Strathroy—By J. Brunt, Kerwood, and L. Trueman, Metcalfe.

Henry Owen, Strathroy—By T. F. Hawkin.

Thos. Beattie, M.P., London—By Henry Gough and J. Hughes, Metcalfe.

H. C. Pope, Strathroy—By Henry Owen, Strathroy.

Robert McLaughlin, Metcalfe—By R. Boyd and J. Hughes, Metcalfe.

J. A. English, Strathroy—By H. Owen, Strathroy.

John Morgan—By J. H. Gough, Metcalfe.

Dr. Lindsay—By Dr. Roome and J. A. Leitch.

Andrew Adams, Euphemia—By J. A. Leitch.

A number of the gentlemen nominated made short addresses, all declining except Mr. Richard Dunlop, who accepted the proffered honor.

Dr. Roome, ex-M.P., was confident the riding would be redeemed. At the last contest, he said, there had been dissensions, but the cause had been removed.

Mr. P. H. Bartlett, of London, said that for the past fifteen years he had had the honor of a complimentary nomination, and he was proud of it. There was a fight ahead, and a sacred and important duty was before the people. He was ready, he said, to carry the Conservative banner anywhere sooner than see it go by default. He was delighted to see how the good old fighting Tories had turned out.

Mr. Isaac Walker said he had found the feeling centered upon their president, Mr. Dunlop, and himself, being young in years, he had concluded not to be a candidate. He had some ambition to represent the Conservatives, and he felt that they never had so good an opportunity to win. (Applause.) He charged that, with one exception, Mr. Calvert had broken every pledge he had given to the people, and that exception was the abolition of the franchise act. Mr. Walker defended the act.

Mr. Dunlop was tendered an ovation when he arose to accept the nomination. He was more than proud, he said, to be received as he had been. There was nothing in the present government to recommend them to the honest electorate. Not one pledge made to the people had been carried out. One thing they had done, and that was to spend lots of money. For business reasons he had desired to withdraw. He asked for honest work on the part of every Conservative. Should he be elected by a dishonorable vote he would not feel like retaining the seat. Referring to the enthusiasm prevailing, Mr. Dunlop said he would be almost inhuman if he did not accept the nomination tendered him.

Upon motion of Dr. Roome, seconded by Mr. Gough, the nomination was made unanimous.

Mr. James Clancy, M. P., spoke briefly because he had to catch a train. He boasted of being a Middlesex boy, and went on to say that in his belief it only needed a proper effort to redeem the west riding. The Spartans never asked how many there were, but where they were. That was what they had to do in West Middlesex. Mr. Clancy said in conclusion: "If you go home with the determination never to turn back until this fight is over you will have elected a supporter of Sir Charles Tupper, who will be installed in office before two weeks."

Mr. E. F. Clarke, M.P., spoke for about an hour. Four years ago, he said, the Conservative party were not united. Their differences were honest differences. The people were not serfs. Questions which had separated them four years ago had been satisfactorily disposed of. The party had got together again. The old adage said: "Sweet are the uses of adversity," and he believed it was a good thing for the party to have been in opposition for four years. The opportunity had been afforded for self-examination, to see if there was any portion of the party harness that needed strengthening and mending. High ideals had been set up by the Liberal leaders and these ideals attracted the young men of Canada to some extent. They promised honest, economical and efficient government, yet it would almost be an insult to the intelligence of his hearers to repeat that these men had abandoned every principle in office that they had hitherto professed. Mr. Clarke claimed that Canadian interests had been needlessly sacrificed and betrayed in the matter of preferential trade, and stated that while in opposition the Liberals had fought everything that today was a factor in the progress of Canada.

Mr. Thomas Beattie, M.P., in the course of his remarks, charged that Mr. Laurier never had any intention of sending the contingent to South Africa until compelled to by the row which Sir Charles Tupper had raised. And having sent them out, they had sent stuff to starve them on. He strongly urged the delegates to be constantly on the watch against corruption, and said that a gang of thieves would be found going about the country. He gave an experience of his own, where a Grit personator had been caught in Brantford, and said it was impossible to have such men punished, because of the fact that magistrates and crown attorneys were friends of the government, and did not do their duty. Bail was taken for offenders who gave wrong names, and were never heard from again.

Capt. Robson, M.P.P., made a brief speech. The usual resolutions of confidence in the leaders of the party were adopted, and the convention adjourned with the usual hearty cheers.

OTTAWA CONSERVATIVES ARE IN TROUBLE.

Ottawa, Oct. 9.—The local political situation changes rapidly. It is reported that Mr. A. A. Taillon, the prospective French-Canadian Conservative candidate, will not allow his name to go before the convention on Friday night. It is understood that private matters, which could not be overlooked at the present moment, are really the cause of Mr. Taillon's retirement. This action on the part of Mr. Taillon is the source of great regret in the Conservative camp, as he was regarded by the leaders as the strongest candidate that could be brought before the French-Canadian electors. The name of Dr. Routhier, vice-president of the Conservative Association, is freely talked of as a successor to Mr. Taillon.

NOTES.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier left Ottawa on Monday for Montreal and will address meetings in the Province of Quebec today (Tuesday), Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

A convention of Liberals of Westmoreland county met at Moncton on Monday afternoon and nominated as their candidate for the coming Dominion election, Hon. R. Emmerson, who recently resigned the premiership of New Brunswick.

27 YEARS AGO

A Murder Was Committed That Has Just Now Been Confessed.

Danville, Pa., Oct. 9.—The confession of a murderer in the west promises to clear up the mystery of a horrible murder committed in this country 27 years ago. The confession, which is that of one I. W. Keller, who was recently executed in Oklahoma, is to the effect that he had murdered seven persons, among them being a man at Mausdale, this county.

The news has produced the greatest excitement in the quiet hamlet for the twofold reason that a murder was committed there which has never been satisfactorily cleared up and that such a man as I. W. Keller, actually lived in the vicinity at the time.

The murder near Mausdale was known as the "mystery of the mine." In 1873 the body of Bernard Westdossel was discovered in an abandoned mine. The evidences of murder were plain, robbery being the object. Westdossel who had been a lieutenant in the Prussian army, was studying for the priesthood.

Y., Oct. 9.—Over 700 meetings, with double that number of speeches, have been arranged by the Republican state committee for the last four weeks of the campaign in this state, in addition to two flying trips through the state by Governor Roosevelt and Chauncey M. # TO DESTROY ALL MISSIONS

Sensational Statement From Hong Kong.

District of Fatshan in an Uproar—Discovery of a Fiendish Plot.

Chinese Imperial Household Again on the Road—Germany and Japan Will Keep Strong Forces in Pekin.

New York, Oct. 9.—The district of Fatshan is in an uproar, says a Herald dispatch from Hong Kong. Anti-foreign placards are being liberally posted.

A plot has been discovered to destroy all the missions.

London, Oct. 9. — The Shanghai correspondent of the Times, wiring Oct. 7, says: "It is reported that French troops held Lu Ko Chiao, on the Lu Han Railroad. The Russians and Germans hold the Pei Tang forts, and have also taken Tong Shan and the Kai Ping mines, thus monopolizing the coal supply in Northern China. It was expected that Count Von Waldersee would maintain an even balance between the powers, whereas the actual result of the operations places all the strategic positions in the hands of other nations. A strong feeling prevails that the situation is daily becoming more gloomy."

A dispatch received at Washington from the southern viceroys state that the imperial court is en route from Tai Yuen to Singan, where the imperial establishment will be set up. The minister is also advised officially that Viceroy Yu, of the province just vacated by the court, has been impeached for his anti-foreign tendencies.

The effort to induce the Chinese imperial court to return to Pekin has fallen after a week's persistent effort on the part of the powers. Following are the reasons given:

"The departure of their imperial majesties for Singan Province was due to distressing conditions at Tai Yuan Fu. There is a scarcity of food supplies in the Province of Shan Si on account of long-continued drought, and the provincial capital (Tai Yuen) is almost deserted, the trades people having left on account of the disturbances caused and continued for months by the Boxer rebels, who had invaded that province with the encouragement of Governor Yu. Their majesties therefore were obliged to proceed to Singan, where telegraphic communication with Shanghai and other parts of the empire is opened, and rapid communication with their majesties may therefore be carried on. Thus court and official business may be transacted more expeditiously by their presence in Shan Si rather than in Tai Yuen.

"The reasons for the temporary postponement of their majesties' return to Pekin are the presence of the allied forces there, on account of which solicitous fear is doubtless entertained, besides a dread of the outbreak of epidemic diseases which usually follow after great disturbances, destruction of property and military operations. It is hoped the powers will be considerate in their judgment in this matter."

The important feature of the message is the confession that the court is restrained by fear of the allied forces from returning to Pekin. The movement takes the emperor and the empress dowager about 100 miles further away from Pekin.

A GERMAN VIEW.

Berlin, Oct. 9.—The somewhat optimistic view of the Chinese situation, which prevailed in Germany last week, has been unfavorably affected by the reports that the Chinese court resolved to settle permanently at Singan Fu, capital of the Province of Shen Si. This the Berliner Tageblatt regards as "indisputable evidence that the Chinese court is as anti-foreign as ever." "The failure of the court to return to Pekin," it says, "makes a farce of the proposed peace negotiations, inasmuch as the Chinese Government could annul the whole procedure at any moment by revoking the credentials of Prince Ching and Li Hung Chang."

The Berliner Post considers that the latest news shows that the Chinese court neither intends to return to Pekin nor to punish the guilty adequately.

NOT IN IT.

Pekin, Thursday, Oct. 4, via Tien Tsin, Sunday, Oct. 7, and Shanghai, Oct. 8.—The American troops will not participate in the expedition to Pao Ting Fu. Gen. Chaffee and the other generals have the assurance of Li Hung Chang that if the allies desire Pao Ting Fu, the Chinese will readily surrender that city. The Americans believe that revenge and military display are the only objects of the expedition, and they hold that it will retard the restoration of peace.

An extended Japanese reconnoissance south of Pekin uncovered the enemy.

The impression is growing that the imperial government is making an effort to disperse and punish the Boxers.

TO WINTER IN PEKIN.

Pekin, Oct. 8.—Gen. Yamaguchi will retain 10,000 Japanese troops, 2,000 of them at Pekin and the others at Taku and along the line of communication. Eight thousand Germans will pass the winter in Pekin and 1,500 Russians. The number of British troops who will be retained has not yet been decided. Sir Alfred Gaselee will probably keep a brigade. The allies are storing supplies for six months. Count Von Waldersee's headquarters will be the buildings in the imperial pleasure grounds outside the Purple City.

TRIADS AT WORK.

London, Oct. 9. — "Five thousand Triads," says a dispatch to the Daily Telegraph from Canton, dated Oct. 7, "have defeated the imperial troops and occupied several places between Mire Bay and Deep Bay. They are now moving southwards. The viceroy today dispatched Admiral Ho and Gen. Tong to oppose them."

WELCOME TO LORD STRATHCONA

Montreal, Oct. 9.—Lord Strathcona, on his arrival here yesterday, was met at the station by about 1,500 McGill students. A good number of the C. P. R. officials also were on the platform to welcome his lordship. He was escorted to his carriage, which was drawn by the students, notwithstanding the rain, through Windsor, St. Catherine and other streets to his residence in the west end. After reaching his home, Lord Strathcona received members of the press. He stated that the Pacific cable would be built within a couple of years. He strongly commended the preferential tariff in favor of Great Britain.

DO YOU KNOW

THAT WEAKENED NERVES PRODUCE DISEASE AND SUFFERING?

Paine's Celery Compound

The Only True Nerve Medicine And Nerve Food.

IT BUILDS UP AND KEEPS IN PERFECT CONDITION THE GREAT NERVOUS SYSTEM.

When the marvelous complexity, delicacy and power of the mysterious nerve system is fully realized, we are not surprised at the sweeping assertion of Dr. Laning, Professor of Clinical Medicine in Hahnemann Medical College, Chicago, that "all diseases are due to lesions of the nervous system," or, in other words, disease results from a weakened or disturbed nervous system.

It was the life work of that great physician Dr. Phelps to give suffering men and women a medicine that would act directly on the nervous system. Dr. Phelps succeeded nobly and well. He placed Paine's Celery Compound before some of the ablest physicians that ever assembled in Dartmouth Medical College. It met with their full approval, and they at once prescribed it in their practice, and found it a life saver when other means failed.

Today, tens of thousands sound the praises of Paine's Celery Compound. In every city, town and village of this continent, people are found who owe their life and good health to Paine's Celery Compound, nature's nerve medicine and nerve food.

If you are sleepless, irritable, despondent, morose, or have flushes, chills, coldness of hands and feet, deficient tone in the stomach and intestines, bear in mind your nervous system needs attention and repairing. No other medicine but Paine's Celery Compound can do the good work for you, and make you what you should be, vigorous strong and happy.

Delays are dangerous. The little aches and pains of today may tomorrow develop into agonies and miseries. One bottle of the wonderful compound will work a mighty and happy change.

ELOPED WITH THE BRIDESMAID

Husband of Four Months Tired of His Wife.

Detroit, Oct. 9.—Mrs. Della Munger arrived in the city yesterday from Toledo to have her husband, Charles, age 36, a railroad conductor, arrested, and this noon Detectives Stenton and Buhr locked him up. He was found at the Detroit Stove Works, where he has been working since his sojourn here. With him Laura Caswell, 26, was taken into custody.

The couple have been living at the Seaman's Home as man and wife.

Mrs. Munger told Capt. McDonnell that she had been married only four months, Munger being a widower with four children. Mrs. Caswell is a sister-in-law of Munger by his first marriage, and for a time kept house for him, till he married his present wife. She acted as one of the bridesmaids at the ceremony. Mrs. Munger further said that some ten years ago her husband shot a man in a saloon row and was sent up for life, but after four years of imprisonment he was pardoned.

A complaint will be asked for against him and the Caswell woman.

PERISHED IN THE FLAMES.

Cannington, Ont., Oct. 9.—Mr. James Bryan's barn, southwest of this town, was destroyed by fire on Saturday, and his daughter, Catherine Mary, aged about 26, perished in the flames. Miss Bryan had not been in her right mind for some time, and when she heard that her father was contemplating taking her away for treatment, she evaded her mother's vigilance, and, entering the barn, set it on fire.

A BRITISH SOLDIER

Tells how Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills Conquer Disease.

Like the conquering armies of Britain, which are marching to victory in every quarter of the globe, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are everywhere triumphing over sickness, weakness and suffering, and freeing those who are bound by the shackles of disease.

Mr. David Walsh, of Carleton Place, Ont., a man who has served with distinction and credit in the British army, and is now an employee of the C. P. Railway, says, "While in the army I got broken down, and my nervous system was completely shattered.

"I was much troubled with liver complaint, loss of appetite, etc. My rest became broken and was disturbed by vivid dreams. This had been going on for 14 years, although I took a great many remedies to escape from the troubles which afflicted me.

"However, I got no relief until I started to take Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, which I used together with Laxa-Liver Pills, and now after having used a few boxes, I am better than I have been for years. My nerves are restored to full force and vigor, I eat and sleep well, and my entire system has been toned and strengthened."

THE RIGHT THING.

A New Catarrh Cure Which is Rapidly Coming to the Front.

For several years, Eucalyptol, Guaiacol and Hydrastin have been recognized as standard remedies for catarrhal troubles, but they have always been given separately and only very recently an ingenious chemist succeeded in combining them, together with other antiseptics into a pleasant, effective tablet.

Druggists sell the remedy under the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and it has met with remarkable success in the cure of nasal catarrh, bronchial and throat catarrh and in catarrh of the stomach.

Mr. F. N. Benton, whose address is care of Clark House, Troy, N. Y., says: When I run up against anything that is good I like to tell people of it. I have been troubled with catarrh more or less for some time. Last winter more than ever. Tried several so-called cures, but did not get any benefit from them. About six weeks ago I bought a 50 cent box of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and I am glad to say that they have done wonders for me, and I do not hesitate to let all my friends know that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are the right thing.

Mr. George J. Casanova of Hotel Griffon, West 9th street, New York City, writes: I have commenced using Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and already they have given me better results than any catarrh cure I have ever tried.

A leading physician of Pittsburg advises the use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets in preference to any other treatment for catarrh of the head, throat or stomach.

He claims they are far superior to inhalers, salves, lotions or powder, and are much more convenient and pleasant to take, and are so harmless that little children take them with benefit as they contain no opiate, cocaine or any poisonous drug.

All druggists sell Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at 50 cents for full sized package and they are probably the safest and most reliable cure for any form of catarrh.

VICTIMS OF A TORNADO

Nine Persons Killed and Many Others Injured.

Biwabik, Minn., Oct. 9. — A pathway 150 feet in width has been torn through this town by the most furious tornado ever seen in this section.

William Hilstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Marowitz, and an unknown family of six were killed. Andrew Anderson, locomotive fireman, was severely scalded. F. Murray, locomotive engineer, was scalded and otherwise injured. Andrew Debbo, laborer, received a severe scalp wound. John Morriston's foot was badly crushed, and about 25 others were more or less severely cut and bruised.

The shaft houses and buildings of three mines which stood in the path of the storm were reduced to kindling wood. The property loss is estimated at from $75,000 to $100,000.

Three deaths occurred at a little Finnish settlement northwest of here, where a number of buildings were destroyed.

The duration of the tornado was less than five minutes. It was preceded by an unusually severe thunder and rain storm. The heavy rain has flooded many of the open pit mines, and they will be unable to operate for some time.

REV. MR. SHELDON

Talks to the Christian Endeavorers at Guelph.

Rev. Charles M. Sheldon was one of the speakers who addressed the Christian Endeavor convention at Guelph on Thursday. Hundreds who went to Chalmers Church in the evening to hear the author of "In His Steps" were unable to gain admission.

The entrance of Mr. Sheldon was signalized by a Chautauqua salute and the singing of "Blest be the tie that binds." The reverend gentleman's face seems to have gained strength since his appearance in Toronto nearly a year ago, while his hair is slightly silvered. His delivery in dealing with his own theme was much more ready than when he appeared in Toronto. Rev. Mr. Sheldon, whose subject was "The Open Door," said: "There is only one standard of conduct for all men and women alike in the world, and that standard of conduct is summed up in the two words of Christ to his disciples: 'Follow Me.' My message is simply an appeal for the ideal of life. The command of Christ to follow him is binding upon all men alike. I am not compelled by any law of God or man, because I am a minister, to be any better than you, a business man. There is no law in the word of God which says that because I am a preacher of the Gospel I must live on a higher plane and have cleaner habits than the man who works with his hands or works on the railroad or in the shop. This same great command comes from God. It is not man that says to us, 'be perfect,' it is God." The Bible, Mr. Sheldon went on, told us to be perfect. If it told us to be good only as long as we did not suffer thereby, we would consider it a very strange old book. He was simply repeating the command to them. When Christ said: "Follow Me," he said it to all men alike.

God had not only commanded him to live a perfect life, but he felt within him the need of it. If he started out with a standard that was not the highest, like many men, it would be easy as long as he did not lose money by it, but when he began to lose money it would be a question of keeping his place, and he would soon go down lower in the scale, until, finally, he would be down to the lowest depths. It was only by keeping the highest standard before us that we could live any kind of a life. The world needed this standard of perfection, for we needed this vision of life. An obstacle in the way of following this standard was the fact that we would be in the minority, but all great reform movements began in the hands of a minority. The charge was also brought that it was impossible to live up to it. A Boston man said that not 10 per cent of the business people conducted their affairs on Christian principles. Mr. Sheldon spoke of his visit to Boston, where he had seen many great buildings erected out of the money made dishonestly, and added that it made him wonder if the whole commercial world was not resting on a tissue of falsehood and deceit. Until we as a nation learn that eternal truth that we are simply stewards of God—we don't own a cent, don't own an acre of land, don't own our clothes—until we learn that everything in the world belongs to God—we shall not have a better world. When we do realize that we will have almost the millennium.

Rev. Mr. Sheldon proceeded from Chalmers to Norfolk Street Methodist Church, where he repeated in substance his address to an audience equally as large. The consecration service here was personally conducted by Mr. Sheldon, and was a very impressive conclusion to the convention.

New Plans of the Dominion Alliance Announced.

Brockville, Oct. 9.—On Sunday Rev. Dr. McKillop, secretary of the Quebec branch of the Dominion Alliance, preached in Brockville, and in the course of his sermon made a very important announcement concerning the plans of the alliance for the future. Said he:

"The alliance has given up all idea of further attempts to secure prohibition through a Dominion act, but is turning its attention to securing the abolition of the liquor traffic, province by province, through enactments in the various legislatures. I am from Quebec," said he," and am only lent to Ontario for a few weeks; but we expect to get a prohibition law passed through the Ontario Legislature next winter. Quebec will undoubtedly be the last province to fall in line, but it will eventually do so if such an act is passed by the other provinces."

TRINIDAD AT THE PARIS EXPOSITION

A Gold Medal Awarded to Dr. J. G. B. Siegert & Son's Angostura Bitters.

It was not sufficient that this little island, the pearl of the Lesser Antilles and the richest of Great Britain's crown colonies, should have a pitch-lake yielding enough to supply the world with asphalt streets for centuries to come. Besides its vast agricultural wealth Trinidad is the seat of the manufactory of the ANGOSTURA BITTERS, which has been awarded the gold medal for highest excellence at the present Paris Exposition. For over half a century this article, ladened with the fragrant aromas of the tropics, has been winning its way more and more into popular favor. In competition with similar articles at the international exhibitions of the last 40 years, it has, in every instance, obtained from impartial judges the highest awards they could bestow, thus bringing richly deserved honors and renown to its manufacturers, the well-known firm of Messrs. Dr. J. G. B. Siegert & Son, of Port of Spain, Trinidad, B. W. I. bd&w

QUICK CALL TO A MINISTER.

Hamilton, Ont., Oct. 9.—Probably the quickest ministerial call on record in this section of the country was that given to Rev. Thomas Shields, of Delhi, by the congregation of Wentworth Street Baptist Church, on Sunday evening. It was Rev. Mr. Shields' first visit to the church, and he preached morning and evening, making so favorable an impression that a meeting of the congregation was held after the evening service and the call decided on. The trustees of the church are confident that he will accept. His reason for resigning his Delhi charge was that his three-years term had expired, and he was anxious to find a larger field of work.

ENGLISH VS. AMERICAN HORSES.

New York, Oct. 8.—The keen rivalry which has lately existed, particularly during the past season, between English and American sportsmen, says a London dispatch to the Herald, has just resulted in the arrangement of a match which will be looked upon as the most interesting event connected with the turf this year. It will be nothing less than a race on Oct. 27 between a crack English horse owned by an Englishman, ridden by an English jockey, and an American horse owned by an American, and ridden by an American jockey. The English horse will be Mr. L. Neumann's famous Eager, with Mornington Cannon up. The horse of America will be Mr. John A. Drake's Royal Flush, with young Lester Reiff as the rider. The Hurst Turf Club has offered a magnificent gold cup worth $2,500, and the owners have each agreed to put up an additional $2,500 to go to the winner.

NEW WORLD'S RECORDS.

New York, Oct. 8.—New world's records for putting the 12 and 16 pound shots were made by Dennis Horgan at the benefit games held yesterday under the auspices of the Pastime Athletic Clubs at its grounds. Horgan put the 12 pound shot 55 feet 9½ inches, or 9½ inches further than the record. In putting the 16 pound shot, Horgan added half an inch to his own world's record of 48 feet 2 inches. Both records were made in exhibition, and not competitive trials, but as they were properly measured by Amatuer Athletic Union officials, they will stand as the best for the two events named.

SPORTS AT GUELPH.

The sports consist of a 20 mile running race, 10 mile cross country run, and 10 mile walk, all open to the world, and a 5 mile run, open only to employes of Guelph factories. The association have hung up very handsome and valuable prizes, and it is confidently expected that there will be a big field of competitors in each event.

Jacob Miller, a Mennonite minister, having emigrated to Canada from Maryland at the close of the revolutionary war of independence, more than one hundred years ago, and settled on the bank of the Niagara River, where for many years he preached the Gospel to the Sparsely settled population, chiefly German. The mother of the deceased was Eva Shoup, also of U. E. Loyalist origin. Through life, from early manhood, Mr. Miller was an earnest, consistent Christian, of very pronounced views, and a Liberal in politics. # Itching Eczema

Perfectly Raw From the Knees to the Toes—A Terribly Painful Case, Which Was Thoroughly Cured by Using

The torture which is caused by the intense itching and burning sensations of eczema makes it one of the most distressing ailments, while the presence of the raw flesh, which refuses to heal under ordinary treatment, adds to the misery of the sufferer.

Th following case is reported as one which illustrates the extraordinary control which Dr. Chase's Ointment has over eczema, both as a prompt relief for the dreadful itching and as an antiseptic healer, which speedily and certainly brings about a thorough cure.

In vain were all sorts of medicines and ointments used and doctors appeared to be helpless before the dreadful ravages which the flaming fires of eczema were making. Here is the way Mrs. Knight describes this interesting case.

Mrs. Knight, 17 Hanover Place, Toronto, states: "My mother, Mrs. Wright, of Norval, suffered for a summer and winter with eczema on her foot. She could neither walk nor sleep, and it became so bad that she was perfectly raw from her toes to her knees. After trying every available remedy without success, and almost hopeless of relief, she began using Dr. Chase's Ointment. She has altogether used eight or nine boxes, with the happy result that she is now completely cured. Anyone wishing further particulars can communicate with Mrs. Wright, Norval, Ont. After such a grand success, is it any wonder that we recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment?"

It is just such tests as this one that have convinced physicians of the truly wonderful power of Dr. Chase's Ointment. If you are a sufferer, with any itching skin disease, or have a sore that will not heal, make a test for yourself. You will certainly become an enthusiastic admirer of Dr. Chase's Ointment, just as is everyone who knows its merits. Besides curing the most severe forms of itching skin diseases, Dr. Chase's Ointment is delightfully healing and soothing in all cases of chafing, skin irritation, sore feet, prickly heat, pimples and blackheads. 60 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Parliament Dissolved.

The Advertiser is informed by special dispatch from Ottawa that the Dominion Parliament has been duly dissolved.

Nominations throughout the Dominion for the new Parliament will be held on Wednesday, October 31.

Polling day throughout the Dominion will take place on Wednesday, November 7.

The contest will be short, sharp and decisive.

The Government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier is emphatically a business Administration. Not only all business men, but all classes of the community, owe much to the Government for the boon of a short campaign, with its minimum of inconvenience to business, instead of a long, business-hurting, bitter campaign.

The Laurier Government goes to the country with a magnificent four years' record of achievement. Never since the first discovery of Canada has it been as prosperous and happy as since the year 1896, under Laurier. It is the intention of the people of Canada to continue that condition of prosperity and happiness, by retaining in power those under whose direction and oversight so much has already been accomplished in so short a time.

The time is happily short till polling day. This renders it the more possible, and at the same time the more imperatively necessary, that every patriotic citizen, every lover of his country, should give freely of his time and energy and influence for the next few weeks to Canada.

Laurier or Tupper?

Peace and concord among men of all nationalities and creeds, or a renewal of those dissensions of race and creed under which true national progress is impossible? Which shall it be?

Prosperity, and development, and good times, as the Dominion has enjoyed them since 1896, or retrogression to the hard times of the previous years? Which shall it be?

Let the verdict be one of no uncertain character. Let Laurier's hands be strengthened by a substantial majority from every Province.

"Disgraced the Flag."

At the meeting of the Conservative Club, Major Thomas Beattie repeated, in effect, a speech he made in the House just prior to Sir Wilfrid Laurier's departure for England, as the representative of Canada at the Queen's jubilee. The Free Press reports him as saying: "The Grits were parading the flag, yet they were disgracing it with the picture of Laurier, who, fifteen years ago, said that if he had been on the banks of the Saskatchewan he would have taken his gun and shot down the men who went to suppress the rebellion."

And yesterday, at the West Middlesex Conservative nomination, Mr. Beattie—who usually talks as if he were more loyal than the Prince of Wales, and on military matters could give pointers to Lord Roberts or the Duke of Wellington—again repeated his one speech.

Mr. Beattie has not made many speeches in the House. On the occasion we refer to he claimed it would be a disgrace to have Canada represented by such a man as Sir Wilfrid Laurier at the Queen's jubilee. But almost immediately after Sir Charles Tupper, his leader, congratulated Canada warmly on the fact that Sir Wilfrid Laurier would so worthily represent it. One would have thought that Mr. Beattie would forever after remain silent, but apparently not so. He repeats the slander that Canada was disgraced and that the flag is disgraced.

Was Canada disgraced?

The whole world can answer, and say that through Laurier Canada stands today, in the estimation of the British people, higher than it ever stood before; that he won the affection of the British people as no colonial statesman ever did; that the good feeling growing out of that jubilee has since strengthened and increased; and that his presence at the world's capital, instead of disgracing Canada, was a blessing to it, to Britain and the British Empire.

Does the picture of Laurier, then, disgrace the flag? Does the picture of the statesman who accomplished so much for it disgrace it? It is to men of broad minds like his that the flag owes its power. There were no race distinctions in the South African contingents. It was one army. Sir Wilfrid Laurier has often stated his desire to have no race or creed distinctions in Canada, and nothing will convince Major Beattie of his sincerity if the part he took in sending the contingents to South Africa will not do so,

What are monuments of bravery,
Where no public virtues bloom,
What avail in lands of slavery,
Trophied temples, arch and tomb?

Major Beattie is wrong. The flag has never been carried, nor has it been fought under by a truer, nobler British subject than Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The flag and he may well go together, as they represent the same principles.

Major Beattie should take lessons from Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and he will soon learn that he who brought the whole nation closer together, wrapped in the folds of the British flag, is of Britain's sons one of the grandest and best.

Canada's Proud Position.

Principal Peterson, of McGill University, Montreal, in an address delivered at Montreal recently, emphasized the proud standing which Canada has recently attained as the chief and most closely connected with the mother country of all the outlying portions of the Empire. "Under the gentle sovereignty of the parent state," remarked Principal Peterson, "Canada has in the last year sprung at one bound into the headship of those nations of which we are so justly proud—those nations which are bound together by ties which though light as air are strong as links of iron." Canada's tariff preference of 33⅓ per cent in favor of Great Britain has had much to do with the increased prestige of this country in the eyes of imperial statesmen.

Won't Go Back.

Mr. Lockie Wilson, formerly a leading Conservative in Eastern Ontario, and latterly a Patron leader, spoke at a recent meeting of farmers in Prince Edward county, at which Mr. Pettet, M.P., was re-nominated. He referred approvingly to the action of the present Dominion Government in abolishing the "iniquitous franchise act," in providing for free corn for feeding purposes, enabling the farmer to sell oats and other coarse grains at high prices, in enacting that binder twine should be free of tax, and in providing for a reduction of 33⅓ per cent in the tax on all British goods entering Canada. "Sir Wilfrid Laurier," continued Mr. Wilson, "has promised us a railway commission; Sir Charles is opposed to it. Sir Wilfrid's tendency is to reduce the tariff; Sir Charles remains a high protectionist. As between these two sets of policies which will we support? Which comes nearest our expressed views? We must in many sections of Canada, where there are no Independents in the field, make a choice, and in making that choice we must look carefully into the character of the men who are placed in the field, and judge them by past actions. We have learned by past experience that great reforms come slowly. These great questions are settled slowly, but, though slowly, if settled in a cool and judicious way, they will be settled best." Many hundreds of men of the stamp of Lockie Wilson, who were formerly allied with the party led by Sir Charles Tupper, now entertain the same views as he has set forth in the speech quoted above. They are not misled by Mr. Foster's tricky calculations. They are shrewd farmers and workingmen, and know the trend of the policies of the two parties. They are resolved not to go back to the conditions of 1878 or even of 1895 and 1896. They appreciate the progress made in the new and better era, and have forsaken for good the ranks of the trade restrictionists. Neither they nor the old Liberals, whom Mr. Foster has so frequently attempted to cajole into accepting his fine-spun casuistry, will be caught by chaff. They will, in the ensuing election, vote against going back to the "N. P." conditions that were left behind when the sun set on June 23, 1896.

As Looked on in Britain.

In a recent issue the Cardiff (Wales) Western Mail—one of the most influential journals in the Old Country—thus refers to the Dominion general elections:

"The greatest interest is being exhibited by the governing classes of this country in the forthcoming Canadian elections. Sir Wilfrid Laurier is prosecuting his campaign with the keenest vigor; indeed, it is said that he is emulating the example set by the late Mr. Gladstone and delivering five-minute speeches at railway stations with the greatest success. It is a curious fact, and one that speaks volumes for the strength of British institutions in Canada, that the pro-British tariff of Canada was the first important act in the administration of the French-Canadian prime minister, Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Sir Wilfrid came into power on June 23, 1896, succeeding an administration which, with some changes, and under various leaders of the same party, had held power for eighteen years. The first session for the transaction of federal business was held in the spring of the following year, and the most important piece of legislation was the new tariff bill. The preference declared under this tariff was 12½ per cent off the general tariff from July 1, 1897, to July 1, 1898. At the latter date the preference was to become 25 per cent. During the two years that have elapsed since the preference tariff came into full effect Canada's trade has gone up by leaps and bounds. Canadian exports to Great Britain, being mainly agricultural, have found a rapidly expanding market, while the imports of the Dominion from the United Kingdom have also shown a remarkable increase. Sir Wilfrid Laurier's government found the preference tariff so great a success that in the session of 1900 it carried the principle still a little further, and made the tariff on British goods 33⅓ per cent, under that on general imports. The great bulk of Canadian trade is with the United Kingdom and the United States, and the English manufacturer by the action of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's government, gets an advantage of one-third over the American rival. Under the circumstances, the British public can hardly do otherwise than wish that Sir Wilfrid Laurier may emerge triumphantly from the coming elections, as indeed, there appears every indication that he will."

Increase of Trade.

The trade of Canada during the last four years exceeded that of the previous four years by $312,084,354.

Important Experiments.

The Canadian Department of Agriculture, under Hon. Sidney Fisher, has not only promoted the establishment of the very best known system of cold storage yet devised, but is always ready to aid in any improvements that may be suggested. According to the Montreal Gazette, a unique experiment will be tried on board the Manchester line steamer Manchester Trader, which left Montreal for the Old Country on Sunday morning. No. 4 'tween decks has been entirely devoted to experimenting chambers for the carrying of fruits and other produce under three different systems. One of the chambers is fitted on Hanrahan's patent principle of eliminating odors, moisture and gases and promoting circulation. The second chamber has been fitted up under the superintendence of Mr. Ruddick, Dominion Government superintendent, with a system of ventilation by means of electric fans, while the third chamber is being exclusively used for butter at a low temperature. The result of these experiments will be looked for with interest. We are satisfied that what the Dominion Government, the shipowners, the exporters and the producers unitedly desire is the best possible appliance for the safe and speedy conveyance of our perishable products to their best market. We have made immense strides forward since 1896, prior to which next to nothing was done, and with so experienced an agriculturist as Hon. Sidney Fisher at the head of affairs, aided by the best experts that money can obtain, and with the active co-operation of the shippers, the best possible results and continued progress may be looked for.

It is easy to grumble at and to misrepresent the work of Hon. Mr. Fisher, Prof. Robertson, Dr. Wm. Saunders and others, but it speaks for itself and is highly commended by all disinterested parties. It is not well, therefore, to take the cavillings of disgruntled partisans too strongly.

Facing Both Ways.

Hugh John Macdonald, in a speech at Brandon, promised to use his utmost influence to have the duty on all agricultural implements taken off. In this province, Mr. Taylor, chief Conservative whip, says it is a great mistake ever to have reduced the duty, and the Conservative candidates generally take the ground that the "N. P." will be re-established as it was prior to 1896. We have thus one more proof of the two-facedness of the Opposition campaign.

All the farming that the Opposition leader ever tackled was the farming of contracts and fat jobs. He is pining to get back to his old industry.

Canada is well satisfied with Laurier.

After the preferential tariff was adopted in Canada, the Prophets of Evil in the Opposition ranks urged with might and main that the industries would be immediately ruined by the changes made. False were their hopes, for Canada has never prospered as much as she has in the last three years under a lowered tariff and a preference in favor of British goods. That being the case, the blue ruin prognosticators are now graciously pleased to acknowledge that times are good, but that they may be bad in the future, and they want to get a chance to prevent such a contingency. They talk into deaf ears. Canadians have not forgotten the hard times of 1895 and 1896, and we then had the trade restrictionists and their patent remedy for preventing dull times in power. It is too soon to give them another trial.

Laurier and Canadian unity.

Col. O'Brien, an old Conservative of the Conservatives, and formerly M. P. for Muskoka, at a recent public meeting in Simcoe County, said: "The sting that galled Sir Charles and his followers lay in the fact that the disloyal Grits in four years had done more to cement the unity of the Empire and to bring about a right understanding of the British people than the Conservatives did in eighteen years. As a Conservative member he knew that for years they (the Conservatives) tried to secure the denunciation of the Belgium and German treaties." They failed to get these stumbling blocks in the way of preferential trade taken away, but Sir Wilfrid Laurier, no sooner was placed in power than he set about securing their abrogation, and establishing a preferential tariff by means of which the people of both Canada and Great Britain have been enormously benefited, and are likely to be much more so in the near future.

Is Now Occupied by the Boers

And the British Are Trying to Surround Them.

Chief Scout Edwards Says the Enemy's Forces Are Badly Broken Up.

Cape Town, Oct. 8. — The Boers now occupy Wepener, as well as Rouxville and Ficksburg, in Orange River Colony, and the British are attempting to surround them.

PEACE PROCLAMATION.

A proclamation of peace in South Africa is expected to be issued by Lord Roberts on Thursday, that being the anniversary of the declaration of war. Lord Roberts leaves at the end of the month for England to assume his new duties as commander-in-chief of the British army.

A SERIOUS AFFAIR.

Durban, Oct. 7. — Details of the disaster to the British convoy near De Jager's Drift on Oct. 1, show that the earlier reports underestimated its extent. The Boers numbered 450, and were commanded by Gen. Christian Botha. The British force, comprising the Durban Volunteers, was completely surprised. The British had outspanned when the attack commenced, and the native ox-drivers were shot down. The British casualties were one officer killed and six wounded. The Boers took 53 prisoners, who were subsequently released. The Boers captured one Hotchkiss gun and set fire to 24 wagons. They carried off the supplies, together with the oxen and mules, leaving one mule wagon for the transportation of the British wounded.

FIGHTING.

Johannesburg, Oct. 6.—Gen. Garton is fighting with a Boer commando northeast of Krugersdorp. Several bands of guerillas has reappeared in that district recently, and more are expected.

A colonial force has gone south to Elandsfontein to clear the Boers out of the Klip Riversberg hills. These hills have been a regular rendezvous for the burghers lately.

The ignorant Boer inhabitants here attribute the fact that the British officials are selling and distributing food to a desire on their part to clear out the stores before they give up the country. These same people still readily believe and circulate the most absurd stories about the intervention by the powers.

IDENTIFICATION SYSTEM.

Col. Henry, who wears the decoration of the Star of India, and who is reorganizing the police department here, has introduced the system of identification by finger marks, and in this way intends to register every native. This plan will be of great assistance in the distribution of passes, the regulation of labor and the suppression of illicit liquor selling.

BOER FORCES BROKEN UP.

London, Oct. 8. — The war office has received the following dispatch from Lord Roberts, dated Pretoria, Oct. 7: The naval brigade leaves for Cape Town today. Edwards, commanding the Boer scouts, who has surrendered at Krugersdorp, said the Boer forces have been broken up and have not much fight left in them. Scattered remnants are getting tired of the war.

The Cape House of Assembly passed to a second reading a bill to raise a loan of £500,000 to insure the immediate payment of half the losses sustained by private persons through the war.

Cecil Rhodes has arrived at Cape Town and will probably attend parliament shortly.

LIEUT. NELLES.

Toronto, Oct. 8. — According to the Military Gazette, a private dispatch from Cape Town conveyed the sad intelligence that the doctors had given up all hope of saving the life of Lieut. and Brevet-Capt. C. M. Nelles, of the R. C. D., Toronto, who went to Africa as a captain of the C. M. R. He was badly crushed by his horse falling on him.

A TOSS-UP IN NEW YORK.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—Amos J. Cummings as to the result in New York: "I believe it is a 'toss-up.' The election is likely to go either way as it now stands."

Burdock Blood Bitters.

CURES SCROFULA.

Mrs. James Carr, Umfraville, Hastings Co., Ont., says: "My little boy, two and a half years old, was in a terrible condition and suffered a great deal from scrofulous sores. My husband bought a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters for him and gave it to him, and by the time he had finished the second bottle there was not a sore to be seen. On account of this wonderful cure I can honestly recommend B.B.B. to all who suffer from any disease arising from bad blood."

CURES BOILS.

Mr. Oliver J. Murray, Charlottetown, P.E.I., writes as follows: "About six months ago I was troubled with painful boils, for which I could get nothing to cure me. As a last resort I tried Burdock Blood Bitters. One bottle completely rid me of boils, and my health was never better than at present.

For Housekeepers.

Today saw the reaction after the unusually large market of Saturday. The goods were offered in quantities that more than satisfied the demand. Very few housekeepers were on the square, and those who were there were not overly anxious to buy. A number of retail grocers attended, but their requirements caused no stir on the market.

A quieter condition prevailed in the dairy produce department. The offerings were not up to the usual quantity of a Tuesday's supplies, and as the demand was decidedly weak, the trade was almost stagnant. Quotations rule both for butter and eggs.

Trade in poultry was similarly dormant. The market has not as yet recovered from the withdrawal of the Canadian Packing Company's buyers. Retail trade was very slow.

The large dealers had their usual supplies of fruit on hand today, but the bulk of it went back into storage before the day was over. No plums were offered, and other fruits, when sold at all, went as quoted.

Vegetables are the only staple that has a clientele of patrons, who always want something, no matter how slow the market. In this line, also, the quotations rule.

NEVER IN BETTER SHAPE

The Liberal Lists Have Been Looked After.

In Most Municipalities the Lists of 1899 Will Be Used at the General Elections.

THE LISTS.

[Special to Advertiser per C. P. R.]

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 9.—In answer to a question as to what lists would be used in the Province of Ontario, Mr. Alexander Smith, secretary to the Liberal party, said whatever lists were certified to on or before Sept. 1, 1900, will be used. This means that in almost all the municipalities in Ontario the 1899 lists will be used. Some 1900 lists were certified to on or before Sept. 1, and in these municipalities such lists will be used. So far as the Liberals are concerned, the lists were never in better shape. "Our friends," he said, "were notified in June, 1899, that the lists of that year would obtain in any election that would take place before Dec. 1, 1900, they took hint and are in good spirits.

MR. SIFTON'S MEETINGS.

Brandon, Oct. 8.—The second series of meetings to be held by Hon. Clifford Sifton, minister of the interior, in his constituency, took place at Forrest on Saturday evening. The attendance was large, taxing the capacity of the hall. The meeting throughout was enthusiastic and harmonious. Mr. Stewart Crearer, of Forrest, acted as chairman and made a few introductory remarks. Mr. A. C. Fraser spoke briefly, referring to Mr. Macdonald's broken pledges in connection with railway facilities and the sessional indemnity.

Mr. Sifton received a great ovation on rising to speak. He took up the Liberal platform of 1898, showing that the pledges had been carried out to a very considerable extent. During the course of his remarks Mr. Sifton dealt with the statement made by Mr. Macdonald at Brandon, that he was in favor of free agricultural implements. He quoted from the statement of Sir Charles Tupper, Hon. George E. Foster and the Toronto Mail and Empire, that the Conservative party would increase the duties if returned to power. Mr. Macdonald's personal opinion would be of little service to his constituents when the men whom he was supporting had made such official declarations. In supporting Mr. Macdonald they were supporting Sir Charles Tupper. Mr. Sifton spoke for two hours and a half, being frequently interrupted with applause. Although an invitation had been extended to Mr. Macdonald or his supporters to be present and speak, no one appeared.

NOVEL CLUB

Young Married Men Form a Matrimonial Society.

Lindenhurst, L. I., Oct. 9.—Young married men of this place have formed a novel club. According to the rules, the first member who becomes a father will receive whatever funds there may be in the treasury at the time. The organization already has a large membership, and dues are being rapidly paid in regularly.

There have been several marriages here lately, and the young benedicts decided that something must be done to provide for future expenses, hence the club. No permanent officers have as yet been elected, and an effort is being made to keep the affair a secret.

THEN HE DIED

Walked, Talked and Laughed With His Skull Fractured and Neck Broken.

New York, Oct. 9.—For six hours Conrad J. Lang, 38 years of age, of this city, walked, talked, laughed and enjoyed himself with his family in ignorance that his skull was fractured and his neck broken. It was not until he had retired and his pillow pressed upon the broken bone of his neck that it was known he was injured at all. Then he died.

Lang was a truckman. Last night he fell from his truck. He landed on the back of his neck and head, and was for a time unconscious. However, before an ambulance could be sent for he sprang up, declaring he was all right except for a slight headache.

One of the small bones of the neck had been chipped off, and it was the pressure of this on the spinal cord, when Lang lay asleep, that killed him.

GIVEN UP TO DIE

Was Mr. E. N. Stowell, But Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him.

Brockville, Oct. 8.—When an eminent physician notifies a sick man that his case is hopeless and that he must die, he is, it may be taken for granted, in a pretty bad way.

That was the position of Mr. Ed N. Stowell, of this city, not long ago. He had suffered all the agonies of Bright's Disease for several years. The ablest physicians had pronounced his case hopeless, and he had begun to "set his house in order," when a friend urged him to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. One box put new life into him, seven boxes cured him. Now his friends hardly know him for the same man.

Score one more for Dodd's Kidney Pills.

And Dramatic Scene at the G. T. R. Meeting.

President and Ex-President of the Company Have Hot Words

Regarding the Chicago and Grand Trunk Scheme.

Sir Rivers-Wilson Sustained by the Stockholders—Sir Henry Tyler Came Near Being Ejected.

London, Oct. 9.—The most dramatic scene which has ever marked a financial meeting in London occurred this afternoon, when the shareholders of the Grand Trunk Railroad of Canada assembled to hear the half-yearly report of the directors. A large number of persons were present, the assemblage consisting chiefly of city magnates and clergymen, with a sprinkling of country investors and women.

The meeting progressed smoothly while the president of the Grand Trunk Railroad, Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson, detailed the improvements made in the line, congratulated the shareholders on the increase in revenue, dilated on the rise in the cost of material, and in the rates of wages, and explained the resolution of the day, which provided for the reorganization of the Chicago-Grand Trunk by the Canadian company. After outlining the proposition, Sir Charles said he had received a letter from Sir Henry Tyler, formerly president of the road, expressing disapproval of the reorganization, and asking that the letter be read before the meeting. Sir Charles declared that the vile language employed by Sir Henry justified him in putting it in the fire. The president of the road continued his denunciation of the former president, until the audience rose, crying "Put it in the fire!" "Burn it!" "Shame!"

"TYLER IS HERE!"

There was a scene of great disorder, and then there arose a cry: "Tyler is here!"

In a moment a dead silence reigned, and between two rows of astonished shareholders the venerable figure of ex-President Tyler was seen walking towards the directors' rostrum.

As soon as Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson recovered his composure, he said: "Tyler, stand up, you who have villified me, and repeat before us all the charges you have made."

Cheers mingled with groans greeted Sir Henry Tyler, who maintained that the Chicago-Grand Trunk was owned and controlled by the Canadian Grand Trunk, and that, therefore, the directors were making false pretenses when they represented the reorganization as a transaction between two independent concerns. Continuing, Sir Henry asserted that the scheme involved the repudiation by President Rivers-Wilson of the Chicago second mortgage bonds, which, he asserted, were cut down from 5 to 4 per cent. "Be honest," shouted Sir Henry Tyler. "Don't repudiate them."

HISSES AND JEERS.

Amid a roar of hisses and jeers the voice of Sir Henry was lost, but he continued waving his arms and shouting inaudible charges against Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson.

The latter then stood up, and in equally heated language absolutely denied Sir Henry's allegations, and abused his administration.

Half the time Sir Henry was on his feet endeavoring to interrupt, and the extraordinary spectacle was presented of the president and the ex-president of a great railroad, both well-known financiers, standing before a howling audience, both of them shouting at once and neither speaker being audible.

It was only when several persons stepped forward with the intention of out of the room that he subsided. The meeting then, by a large majority, approved the directors' plan to reorganize the Chicago-Grand Trunk, with a guarantee of the interest on the bonds to be issued by the new company. The meeting also gave Sir Charles a vote of thanks.

During the course of the report the president urged the shareholders to persist in improving the line. He added that the surplus earnings of the Central Vermont road would for the present be applied to this purpose. President Rivers-Wilson also expressed the belief that the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo would greatly add to the business of the road; but he further said that he considered it doubtful that the expenses of the road, in view of the labor troubles in the United States, would be reduced during the coming year.

UNDER DIFFICULTY

Campaigning is Serious Business in Chicago.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—Bloodshed followed in the trail of Chauncey Depew and his three-mile escort of Republican marching clubs last night. Just as the last company in line turned the corner of Sidewick street and Chicago avenue it was charged on by an organized gang of men who had concealed themselves in the dark recesses of an alley. The rioters were repulsed by the marchers, but not until four or five of the Republican marchers had been injured, some of them quite seriously.

The most seriously injured were Michael Ball, found on the street, unconscious, after the struggle; nose broken, eye cut, three teeth knocked out; struck with a brick in the head, taken to hospital. George Hughes, picked up unconscious, having been struck on the head with a paving-block; slight contusions of the skull. Many others were more or less hurt and their uniforms ruined. The men who precipitated the riot escaped.

USEFUL AT ALL TIMES.—In winter or in summer Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will cope with and overcome any irregularities of the digestive organs which change of diet, change of residence or variation of temperature may bring about. They should be always kept at hand, and once their beneficial action becomes known, no one will be without them. There is nothing nauseating in their structure, and the most delicate can use them confidently.

$300 DAMAGES

Verdict in Breach of Promise Suit at Guelph.

Guelph, Oct. 9.—The fall assizes opened here before Mr. Justice Falconbridge. There were no criminal cases, and Acting Sheriff McKim presented his lordship with a pair of white kid gloves. His lordship complimented the grand jury and the county on no criminal cases being on the dockets.

Lyons vs. Conway was an action by Martha Conway, of Arthur township, against Wm. T. Conway, of the same place for breach of promise of marriage. Judgment was given by consent for $300. It is undestood that the plaintiff in the case is very low.

The case of Stirton vs. Gummer, a libel suit, in connection with Mr. Mutrie's election, occupied the greater portion of the afternoon.

TO THE MINERS

Other Operators Are Offering Concessions—Quiet Reigns—50,000 Tin Plate Men Going to Work.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 9.—The A. S. Van Wyckle estate, operating the Loraine and Milnesville collieries, and Calvin Pardee & Co., owners of the Lattimer mines, posted notices today offering the ten per cent advance in wages to its mine workers. The notices are similar to those posted by the other coal companies. There are only about four other individual operators in this region that have not yet offered the increase. There were no marches this morning, but the usual crowds gathered in the vicinity of the collieries that are still working for the purpose of getting the men to refrain from going to work. No disturbances.

WORK FOR FIFTY THOUSAND MEN.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 9.—The American Tin Plate Company will have in operation this week 20 of its tin plate plants out of 35, giving employment to at least 35,000 men. The tin plate company employs in all over 50,000 workmen, and within a few weeks it is said every plant in the country will be working. The plants have been idle since the expiration of the scale in June last.

Amusements.

The Hortford Times, of Hartford, Conn., under date of Wednesday, Sept. 5, writes as follows of the new three-act pastoral comedy-drama, "Cowslip Farm," which will be presented at the London Opera House tonight, Wednesday night and matinee: "'Cowslip Farm', a comedy-drama, was produced at the Parsons Theater last evening, before an audience which completely filled the theater. It is a new play, and in the hands of competent artists. The story is a simple one, with an interesting heart story; the scenes are laid in the sumptuously furnished apartments in New York, and on a comfortable farm in Vermont. Aunt Melinda Jane Boggs, taken by Mr. Warren, was admirably acted and afforded a great deal of amusement. Marguerite Hammond, as Trix, was vivacious and mirth-provoking. Taken as a whole, 'Cowslip Farm' was the most enjoyable performance presented so far at Parsons' this season."

The Montreal Gazette says of "The American Girl," which appears at the London Opera House Thursday: "'The American Girl' was the title of the play produced last evening at the Queen's. It is a new play, written by a dramatist well known to the theater-going public. Mr. H. Grattan Donnelly, author of 'Natural Gas,' 'Later On,' 'Ship Ahoy' and 'A Night at a Circus.' 'The American Girl' is materially different from anything that Mr. Donnelly has hitherto written, and yet it reminds us of his whimsical style so prominent in 'Natural Gas.' The first characteristic is given to us in 'The American Girl' in the person of the heroine; the second grand characteristic, Cheek, is introduced in the person of a theatrical manager who is a hustler, as he describes it, from the start. The company is strong and well balanced and gave a finished performance of a most interesting play."

"A Lion's Heart," the great scenic melodrama of the season, will be produced at the London Opera House on Friday and Saturday and Saturday matinee, in all its captivating completeness. The play tells an intensely interesting thrilling story of the conflict between villainy and virtue. The audience never takes its attention from the stage, and at times is held spellbound. There is an ample amount of comedy running through the several scenes.

He has been ill for some time with consumption, and leaves a wife and three children to mourn his loss. His mother left today to attend the funeral.

—While Messrs. Archie Ardill and Alf. West, of Stratford, were wheeling to this city on Saturday afternoon, they encountered a cow, which, in avoiding the latter, collided with Mr. Ardill. He was thrown several feet in the air, alighting in a ditch, his wheel falling on top of him, and he was badly bruised, his hands and knee being lacerated. Despite his injuries he pluckily continued his journey to London. Here the young men were guests of Mr. Silas Finch, baggageman, of the G. T. From its university 11,000 students are graduated annually, and 30,000 others have studied there, and consequently know the English language. During the 90 days following Jan. 1 of this year, 178 meetings of a distinctly Christian character were held in this district. They were attended by an aggregate of 11,000 non-Christian students, a number that has probably never been equaled in the civilized world. The association for which Mr. White works has a building that cost $75,000.

He is known in musical circles, being actively associated with Mr. Corey in the St. Cecelia Society, and is also a member of the choir of St. John's Episcopal Church. ## IS IT A FORGERY?

Courts Will Decide Genuineness of Butter-Paper Will.

Writ Issued on Behalf of Executors of Joseph Hammersley Sifton's First Will Against Executors and Beneficiaries of Will Produced by Edgar Morden—Writ Claims Second Will Is a Forgery.

At the office of Col. John Macbeth, deputy clerk of the high court of justice, a writ was issued yesterday by Barrister Thomas W. Scandrett, on behalf of F. A. Fitzgerald, of London, and John James Sifton, of London township, against Edgar Morden, Mary McFarlane, Mary Sifton, John Sifton, Alley Sifton and Gerald Sifton. The plaintiffs are the executors under a certain will, properly executed, of the late Joseph Hammersley Sifton, of the township of London, who died on June 30, and whose son Gerald is now awaiting trial on the charge of murdering his father, while the latter's hired man, Walter Herbert, has pleaded guilty to the same charge. The plaintiffs seek to have it declared that the will of the late Joseph Hammersley Sifton, of which the plaintiffs are executors, is the true and last will of the said Joseph Hammersley Sifton, and to have it declared that an alleged subsequent will of the said Joseph Hammersley Sifton (therein styled Joseph Sifton) of which the defendant Edgar Morden, is executor, and under which the other defendants are beneficiaries, is null and void, on the ground that the will is not the will of the said Joseph Hammersley Sifton, but is a forgery. The plaintiffs ask to have the action tried at London, and it will probably be heard at the non-jury sittings of the fall assizes, which open on Nov. 19.

The outcome of the action will be awaited with interest second only to that awakened by the murder trial itself, as the evidence necessary to establish the fact that the will produced by Edgar Morden is a forged will, and the outcome of the case will, of necessity, have an immense bearing on the fact of Gerald Sifton's innocence or guilt.

CONTEMPT OF COURT.

[Special to Advertiser per G. N. W.]

Toronto, Oct. 9. — D. W. Messrs. James Epps & Co., Ltd., the well-known Cicoa Manufacturers, London, Eng., have just issued an exceedingly tasteful little medal in aluminum for distribution among their numerous customers and the public generally. It is called the National Medal of the United Empire, and having been struck on the termination of the war in South Africa, it forms at the present time an interesting souvenir of the mother country and her various colonies, typical figures of each being represented thereon. A pretty scarlet ribbon and a suitable inscription completes its equipment, and we feel sure that all sections of the public will be eager to possess Messrs. Epps & Co.'s patriotic medal.

HANDSOME NEW SHOE BUILDING

Removal of the London Shoe Company to Their New Building, Corner of Richmond and York Streets—A Successful Firm.

The London Shoe Company, Limited, has removed from 141 Carling street, to the corner of Richmond and York streets, to their new and handsome building. The directors of the company are Messrs. Philip, John and J. C. Pocock. Mr. Philip Pocock, president of the company, will manage the wholesale. Mr. John Pocock, vice-president, will remain in the retail business of Pocock Bros. at 140 Dundas street. This enterprising firm is one of the many which have grown up with London's last quarter-century of progress, and has fully kept pace with that steady, irresistible, forward march.

Messrs. Pocock Bros. conceived the idea of embarking in the wholesale shoe business twenty years ago. The intimate knowledge acquired by them of the requirements of the trade, together with the enviable reputation as men of sound business principles, which they established, proved a valuable asset. Twenty-five years ago they purchased the shoe business of their father, the late John Pocock, sen., who had been in business here since 1851. Success attended them from the first, and they are now recognized as being one of the most successful shoe firms in the trade.

Results of the British Elections—A Number of New Members Elected.

London, Oct. 9.—3:03 p.m.—Today's election returns give the Liberals a gain of two additional seats and the ministerialists one seat, making the respective total gains 20 and 24 seats.

The Liberals have captured the Torquay division of Devonshire, Mr. F. L. Barratt, Liberal, defeating Mr. C. R. Rankin, Conservative, by 129 votes.

The Liberal flood continued in Derbyshire, where Mr. O. Partington, Liberal, has captured the High Peak division, defeating Mr. S. Roberts, Conservative, and wiping out the previous Conservative majority of 507.

On the other hand the Unionists have taken a Liberal stronghold, the Burton division of Staffordshire, Mr. R. F. Ratcliff, Unionist, defeating Mr. J. E. Johnson-Ferguson, Liberal, by over 2,000 majority.

A Shanghai Correspondent's View of the Situation in China.

London, Oct 9.—The Shanghai correspondent of the Times, wiring Oct. 7, says:

"It is reported that French troops hold Lu Ko Chiao, on the Lu Han Railway. The Russians and Germans hold the Pei Tang forts, and have also taken Tong Shan and the Kai Ping mines, thus monopolizing the coal supply of North China.

"It was expected that Count Von Waldersee would maintain an even balance between the powers, whereas the actual result of the operations places all the strategic positions in the hands of other nations. A strong feeling prevails that the situation is daily becoming more gloomy."

THE MEN SHE LEFT BEHIND HER.

The summer girl is back once more,
With all her freckles burning;
To city street, from ocean shore,
With joyful step returning.
How eagerly she strains her gaze,
To catch the fist reminder—
A sight unseen for many days—
The men she left behind her!

Through all the long, long summertide
She waited dull and lonely,
What use to golf, or dance, or ride
Where women gather only?
For when, in June, her trunks are packed—
Could Fate do aught unkinder
One single thing her luggage lacked—
The men she left behind her!

Lola's Secret,

A Romance.

She was grateful to Lord Rhysworth; she felt for him the most unbounded esteem. She had been touched by his protestations of love and by his promised kindness to her father; but she knew that she would never be happy with him—she would endure and tolerate her life, but it would never be filled with gladness, as the lives of other women were. So she hesitated as to what she should do. She wondered vaguely if she were to see Sir Karl again, whether it would make any difference if she were to seem and be a little kinder than she had been—not so cold, so proud, so reserved. Should she give herself that one chance? She had told Lord Rhysworth that he must wait for her answer—she had something to decide; and the something was this: whether Sir Karl loved her or not. If he loved her, she would give up the whole world for him; if he did not, life would be without hope, and she might as well marry Lord Rhysworth and save her father from ruin. But she was young, and her own heart pleaded hard with her for one more chance. This decision would influence her whole life; surely she might try fortune once more. So she came to the conclusion that, feeling that she liked Sir Karl better than anyone in the world, she would not promise to marry anyone else until she was quite sure he cared nothing for her.

One more trial; but how she was to bring it about she did not know. She was quite unable to decide whether she should arrange for an interview with him or leave their next meeting to accident. However, the determination comforted her, and left her with her mind more at ease. If he cared for her, and was likely ever to tell her so, she would wait for him and work for her father. Her love should stand first, because her love was her life; nothing else could be put in comparison with it. The bare idea of the happiness that would be hers if he loved her brought a beautiful flush to her face and a thrill to her heart that it was never to know for any other man. If he did not care for her—if, as Lola avowed, he preferred her—then her course lay plain before her. She must marry Lord Rhysworth and make her father happy.

"Other women have acted similarly," she said to herself. "They have loved unfortunately, loved against their better sense, and then have buried their love, never to see its face again. They have lived good, dutiful lives, died with a smile on their lips, and no creature living has ever guessed the hidden tragedy or the buried love."

She thought of this constantly, and her fair face grew more beautiful as her thoughts grew more noble.

When she left her room and went back to the squire, he had just awakened, refreshed with his long sleep. He called her to him.

"It seems to me like a beautiful dream, Dolores," he said. "This morning I awoke with the hope of making you a rich woman, and now I am a beggar. Is it true, Dolores?"

"Yes, papa," she answered, putting her arms around him, "quite true; but you are not to be anxious. Ruin comes to many people who have no comfort; but, dearest, you have me. I love you, and I shall stand between you and every sorrow. I shall devote myself so entirely to you that you will never know trouble. It is something, papa, to have a daughter who loves you so dearly, is it not?"

"It is, indeed, my darling," replied the old squire, drawing her closer to him, until the fresh, fair face touched his. "But that daughter I ought to have made a rich woman."

"You have made her a happy one," she declared. And in the midst of her own perplexities it was some comfort to her to know that she consoled him.

"Dolores," said the old man, "I did not know that Lord Rhysworth loved you so much. I know true love when I see it. I have had—— But all that is past and gone. I know true love from false, and he loves you, Dolores, with the deepest love of his heart."

"I am quite sure that he does," she replied.

"I would not persuade you to do anything for which you have an aversion," he continued. "But love is beyond price; and that man, Dolores, would give you the last drop of blood in his heart."

"I believe it," she said.

"You see, Dolores, it was the hearing of our misfortunes which forced his secret from him. Seeing you so young and so beautiful, he was afraid; he thought himself too old; but love like his is worth everything. You must reflect well. I would not urge you to do anything unwillingly; but I should dread to die a pauper."

With tenderest love she kissed the worn old face. Before there was time to reply to her father's speech, Miss de Ferras was announced, and Dolores, her heart torn by conflicting emotions as to whether she ought to be guided by love for a man who had as yet not declared himself, or by duty to the father to whom she owed everything, had only just time to banish the agition from her face when the dangerously beautiful and designing French girl entered.

CHAPTER V.

"I have driven over, Dolores, to say that, quite unexpectedly, we have some visitors from Paris today. Mamma is making almost superhuman efforts to entertain them, and she wants to get up an impromptu party this evening—dancing, charades and music—everything that will while away time. She sent a messenger to Lord Rhysworth, but he is out of temper about something, I should imagine, for he has declined to come."

The knowledge of what that "someing" was brought a burning flush to the fair face of Dolores.

"What are you blushing about? What is the matter?" asked Lola, whom nothing escaped. "Have you anything to do with Lord Rhysworth's not coming?"

"No, nothing at all," replied Dolores.

"Then why are you blusing? People do not blush in that way for nothing. Have you seen Lord Rhysworth today?"

"He called here this morning, but he did not mention Beaulieu; perhaps he had not received your note then. Will it be a large party, Lola?"

Dolores was anxious to change the subject, but Lola detected the motive.

"You do not want me to say any more about Lord Rhysworth. I will be silent; but none the less, sure am I that there is a mystery, or you would not blush."

On what trifles do human lives turn! If Dolores had not blushed, her life would have been entirely different.

"Will you have a large party, Lola?" she asked again, quite ignoring the remark made by the beautiful French girl.

"I hope so. Sir Karl is coming. I secured him first. A party, or anything else without him, would be intolerable to me."

"And to me," thought Dolores; but she said nothing.

"He is coming; that is settled; and I feel a placid indifference about everyone else but you, Dolores," continued Lola.

She saw that Miss Clieffen was not quite herself, that she had something on her mind, something that ruffled her thoughts and shadowed her clear eyes. For Lola there was but one subject, and that was her lover. She judged Dolores by herself.

"It cannot be Sir Karl," she thought; "it must be Lord Rhysworth. I always said that he was fond of her. He has been here this morning, and I am quite certain that something unusual has occurred. You will drive back with me," she said aloud. "You will have plenty of time of see to your toilet; and you must stay all tomorrow and help us to entertain our visitors."

That Dolores could not do; she did not like to leave the squire for so long. Indeed, she would have declined the invitation altogether, but that it seemed to her Providence had presented the one chance more for which she had longed. She would go, because she would see Sir Karl; and if he did like her, she would find it out.

"Dolores," cried Lola, "you are keeping something from me! It is quite useless for you to deny it; your face betrays you. Now, what is it? All the time I have been talking to you you have been looking out there over the trees, with a far-away expression in your eyes which I understand, if no one else does. I do not believe that you have heard a word of what I have said."

"On the contrary, I have heard all."

"You know Dolores, it is better to make a friend than an enemy of me," said Lola. "You will do better to trust me. You are keeping some secret from me, and I am quite sure to find it out for myself."

"I give you permission," answered Dolores, carelessly, yet vexed in her heart that Lola had guessed so correctly. "What shall I give you to amuse yourself with while I get ready?"

"I will talk to the squire," said Lola.

The balloon's average speed on the trip was 85 miles an hour.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 9.—Five thousand pilgrims assembled at the St. Nickander monastery, in the Porkhoff district, for the religious festival. During the night one of the upper floors collapsed, and many of those sleeping there fell upon those below. A panic was caused by a false alarm of fire, and 4 men and 36 women were crushed to death, many others being seriously injured.

BRITISH ELECTIONS.

London, Oct. 9, 2:30 a.m.—Only four results out of the 21 constituencies polled yesterday in the parliamentary general election have been thus far announced. These show that the Liberals have gained two seats—one in Carmarthenshire and the other in the Radcliffecom-Farnsworth division of Southeast Lancashire, which had hitherto gone strongly Conservative. It looks, therefore, as if there might be a slight reaction in the county pollings, but this will be too late to affect the general result seriously.

Last evening Mr. Herbert Henry Asquith, one of the Liberal leaders, admitted that the Salisbury government would return to power with a majority of from 150 to 160.

Of the 492 members already declared officially elected, the Ministerialists number 327, and the opposition 165. The former have gained 23 seats and the latter 18.

RESIGNATION OF THE CABINET.

The Daily Telegraph says it understands that the cabinet has resigned as a formality, and in order to enable any necessary reconstruction.

The Right Hon. Chas. H. Hemphill, Liberal, formerly solicitor-general for Ireland, retains his seat for North Tyrone by a reduced majority.

Mr. Thomas J. Healy, Irish Nationalist, has been defeated in the polling at North Wexford by Sir Thomas H. G. Esmonde, Irish Nationalist.

Mr. Wm. Abraham, Liberal, has been re-elected for the Rhonda Valley division of Glamorganshire, Wales, with a majority of 6,509. In the general election of 1895 he was returned, unopposed, as was also the case in the election of 1886 and of 1892.

A SENSIBLE MOVE

National Street Railway Arbitration Board to be Organized.

Detroit, Oct. 7.—President William D. Mahon, of the International Street Railway Men's Association, leaves the city tomorrow morning for an extended tour of the large cities of the west, for the purpose of conferring with the officers of the street railway companies.

At the last meeting of the executive board of the international body Mr. Mahon was instructed to interview as many of the street railway owners as possible in order to find out how they stand on forming a joint board among the companies and the men, to which all matters of dispute between local associations and local companies which cannot be settled amicably can be referred. The principal idea is to form a uniform agreement between all street railway men and street railway companies, as far as possible, as has already been done in the steel trade and other important industries. By this it is hoped to do away with any possibility of another large strike ever occurring, and to put the men on a more independent basis. Mr. Mahon stated yesterday that he had seen several of the companies already and that nearly all have told him they are favorable to the scheme.

"Of course," he said, "I can tell more definitely about it when I return, but you may say that I firmly believe that before spring there will be such a board in existence, and then will street car matters be properly conducted."

Mr. Mahon goes to Cleveland for the purpose of inspecting automobiles, with a view to possible purchase, and from there he will proceed west. National Treasurer R. Orr has been in Marion, Ind., the last few days settling a street car difficulty and will return tomorrow morning, while Chairman Lee, of the executive board leaves today for Belleville, Ill., where he goes to try to settle a difficulty which threatens to end in a strike. The men went out a few days ago, but returned to work on order of President Mahon, until some one could go there to adjust matters. It is likely that the questions will be arbitrated.

FAIRLY ACTIVE

Bradstreet's Weekly Review of the Trade Situation in Canada.

Trade at Montreal is moderately active generally, although in fall and winter drygoods orders are somewhat backward.

At London there has been a fair demand from jobbers, but more activity is looked for when the weather gets colder. The prospects for business the coming fall and winter continue very promising. Payments are fair.

Trade at Winnipeg is still unsettled as a result of the wet weather which has greatly interfered with threshing of the wheat.

At Hamilton there has been a fair inquiry for sorting parcels, considering the unfavorable weather for moving fall and winter goods. The reports of trade in the country continue satisfactory.

The reports of trade at Pacific coast cities are not very satisfactory.

Trade at Toronto would doubtless be more brisk if the temperature were lower. Values of staple lines continue firm. The outlook for business is bright. There is more grain moving now and payments from market centers are improving.

Bank clearances were as follows: Montreal, $14,510,953, decrease 16.1 per cent; Toronto, $10,487,777, decrease 10.9 per cent; Winnipeg, $2,032,259, decrease 26.8 per cent; Halifax, $1,732,898, increase 9.6 per cent; Hamilton, $787,635, decrease 14.6 per cent; St. John, N. B., $837,793, increase 68.2 per cent. Vancouver, $1,347,000, increase 40.8 per cent; Victoria, $539,070, decrease 3.9 per cent.

THE LATE G. D. SUTHERLAND.

In the death of Mr. George D. Sutherland, the London Rowing Club loses one of its most valuable members. Ever since the inception of the institution Mr. Sutherland has been a very prominent member and office-bearer. To the deceased's efforts is due a very large share of the club's success, and in all the divisions of the club will his happy and genial presence be missed. Many were the sincere expressions of regret heard at a special meeting which was called at the club house yesterday, each and every member present knowing that his place would be extremely difficult to fill. Mr. Sutherland was at the time of his death chairman of the house committee. At the meeting the following resolution was passed, and the secretary was instructed to convey to the bereaved family the club's sincere sympathy in their great loss. Moved by Col. John Macbeth: "That this club desires to place upon record its sincere regret over the loss sustained in the death of Mr. George D. Sutherland, who during his very long connection with the Rowing Club had been one of its most active members, and for years a hearty and ardent participant in its affairs, that the influence of his example and cheerful disposition was an ever-present incentive to those with whom he came in contact, and the club takes this opportunity of offering to his bereaved family the sincere condolences of its members in the irreparable loss which is theirs through his death."

—Kingsville correspondent of the Windsor Record: A letter was received on Friday from Mrs. (Rev.) R. D. On each occasion the house was crowded, and the collections liberal, amounting in the aggregate to over $70.

During his travels he covered 3,500 miles on a bicycle, and altogether in his tour covered some 11,000 miles. Mr. Denholm speaks most highly of the Canadian exhibit at Paris, and thinks there is no country like Canada. He was accompanied on his tour by Mr. H. E. Taite, of Toronto. Mr. Denholm will leave for his home in Blenheim tomorrow.

DAY OF ENJOYMENT

For the Little Folks of Dundas Center Sabbath School—Annual Outing Held at Queen's Park on Saturday.

The spirit of loneliness which has settled upon Queen's Park since the close of the Western Fair was unceremoniously broken in upon on Saturday last. The occasion was the annual outing of the catechumen classes of Dundas Center Methodist Sunday school. About one hundred merry-hearted girls and boys comprised the invading army, and, aided by delightful weather, succeeded in enjoying themselves to their heart's content. A programme of sports was carried out, and the following succeeded in winning prizes: Vera Cater, Hazel Smith, Anna Shuff, Marion Willis, Bella Sifton, Ethel Ford, Herbert McGuffin, Harold Willis, Percy Stoneman, Harry Hunt, John Wood, Ernest Lansdell, Belva Chapman, Lily Bell, Lily Alteman, Allan Yates, Willie Wortman, Roy Lashbrook, Edna Heaman, Beatrice Hunt, Lily Ford, Edith Deeley, Mabel Bell, Percy Whittaker, Morley Stock; Frank Deeley, Lily Fessenden, Eva Smith, Clarence Scandrett, Frances Scott, Willa Yates, Blanche Jenkins, Arthur Lovell, Frank Higgins, Frank Hiscox, Lily Bell.

At the conclusion of the sports an adjournment was made to the W. C. T. U. dining hall, where a tempting array of good things was provided. No time was lost by the girls and boys in getting on the outside of these. After the operation was successfully performed the superintendent of the school addressed a few words of greeting to those present, and then, on behalf of the catechumen members, presented their indefatigable leader, Miss Rosalie Keenleyside, with a handsome birthday book, in which all had inscribed their names. Presentations were also made to George Heaman for his faithful services in connection with the Grand Bend branch of the Sunday school, and to Charles Dickin, the energetic secretary of class 15.

Miss R. Keenleyside also took advantage of the occasion to present ten members of her class with sterling silver pins for perfect attendance during the past year, their names being as follows: Emma Guymer, Lily Guymer, Lily Bell, Mabel Bell, Lily Ford, Ethel Ford, Stella Ford, Lila McBride, Edna Heaman and Ethel Tribe.

A hearty vote of thanks, accompanied by three cheers, was presented to all who had assisted in the affair, special mention being made of the ladies who had provided the lunch, and those who had so generously contributed prizes.
