wealth and "the trade," which the liquor business is popularly called in the Liberal Government's budget, David Lloyd-George, chancellor of the exchequer, presented in the House of Commons today, are made to bear the burden of the £15,762,000 ($78,810,000) deficit of the fiscal year incurred by the old age pensions and the race with Germany for Dreadnoughts.

"Socialism and confiscation," wealthy classes, already are crying and a few are clutching at the hope that the House of Lords, which represents these classes, may throw out the budget entirely, but this is improbable

On the other hand the latter are placated by provisions made for labor exchanges for the unemployed, expenditures for a reforestration and the promise of an industrial scheme, as well as the satisfaction of knowing that the rich are to carry the greater share of the load. The new taxation bears heavily on corporations. The only features affecting the United States are the increase in the duties, a tax of three pence per gallon on petroleum and heavier stamp duties on stock transactions. The first comments of the members of both parties indicated astonishment at the number and the sweeping nature of the changes in the country's financial system. The "maddest budget ever introtuced," Sir Frederick George Banbury termed it during the course of a speech, in which he declared that the John Redmond, leader of the Irish party, asserted that the whiskey tax mposed another burden on Ireland, which the Nationalists would resist by every means. The increase in the tax on tobacco, he declared, would be a cruel hardship to the poor of Ireland. There has been no such crush in the House of Commons for many years as there was today. Every gallery, and even the gangways, were packed when the chancellor arose to make his Thirty Thousand Men of the Middle Island Lighthouse Keeper three-hour speech.

Mr. Lloyd-George paid early atten-tion to the navy. He said that to the increased expenditures on the navy and the old age pensions, the deficit was largely due. A considerable innaval expenditure was to be expected again next year, as in the est marine strikes in the history of present state of mind in Europe it labor on the chain of great lakes will would be stupendous folly to refuse begin tomorrow morning, when over adequately to provide for defense. 30,000 men, members of the Lake Seaadequately to provide for defense. Victoria Hospital Staff Had a Terrible Time Last Night as a Result of the Sleet Damaging the Wires-Gas Is Only Available in Certain Parts of the Building.

During the time that the electric lights went out at Victoria Hospital last night, as a result of the heavy coating of sleet breaking down the wires, there occurred three deaths in the hospital and one birth.

The baby that was born died shortly afterwards, making one of the three deaths.

The other deaths were those of Mr. James Harding, "We had a busy time for awhile when the lights went out so suddenly," said a physician this afternoon, "but as there are always lamps and candies kept on hand at the hospital we soon had lights again."

In some parts of the building the nurses were able to light gas jets, but there are a number of new wards and other parts of the building where the gas pipes have not been installed.

LONDON ELECTRIC CO. IS CHARGING INTEREST

If City of London Will Not Pay Its Lighting Bill, Trouble Is in Store.

The city's electric light bill has not been paid since December, and now amounts to over $7,000. The regular account was presented at the meeting of No. 3 committee last night, and added to it was an item of $70 for nterest at 6 per cent.

"The company have delivered the goods, and they can charge us interest," said Ald. Garratt. "I think the bill should be paid," said Ald. Stewart. "We were advised by the city solicitor not to pay it," said Ald. Fitzgerald.

We should not pay against his ad-

"The bill can be paid without prejudicing our rights whatever," Ald. Garratt answered. "I am getting tired of having this thing come to this committee all the time," said Aid. Moorhead. "I move that the bill be sent to the council, and that we recommend that some action be taken on it." This motion carried. Tea Peddlers.

Ald. Stewart asked what had been done about the protest from the Retail Grocers' Association regarding tea peddlers, and Ald. Garratt informed him that the matter had been referred to the police department for them to ad

Chief Aitken reported that Assistant Chief Scott was able to come down-stairs for a short time each day, and was progressing favorably. The Waterous Company had repaired the en-gine in a satisfactory manner, as requested. The combination wagons for the new halls were ready, and the harness had already come. The halls would be opened as soon as the helmets and coats had arrived. The chief recommended that a play pipe be purchased for use of the central department, and this will be done. They cost $100. A bill for $32, for care of Assistant Chief Scott in Victoria Hospital was ordered to be paid. (chairman), Ald. Stewart, Ald. Fitz-gerald, Ald. Moorhead, Inspector Mc-Callum, Market Clerk Maker and Sec

A TRAINED MARINE FOR THE DOMINION

Could Then Be Ready To Man the British Empire's Warships.

Ottawa, April 29. - In the Senate Tuesday Hon. Geo. W. Ross raised the question of more adequate Govern-ment provision for the training of Canadian mariners in and navigation with a view both to the development of the shipping interests of Canada and the formation of a trained body of men who could man ships of the proposed new Canadian navy. In support of a resolution which he proposed, advocating a system of technical education for seamen, he New York, April 30. — Eight per- emphasized the great necessity of making better provision than at sons, five of them children, were burned faring portion of Canada's population to death, and fourteen others were in- from the standpoint of naval defense, jured, some of them fatally, in an in- marine development and general bene-

Not Well Trained.

He asked if any of these wrecks would have been averted if the men n charge of the vessels had been better trained. With the exception of Great Britain, Canada had the greatest number of fishermen of any country in the world, enrolling last year 71,251, or half the number of men, required to man the British navy, and three times as many as were in the American fleet during the Spanish-American war. With the 25,000 fishermen on the Pacific coast the num-Canadian fishermen totalled over 95,000 men engaged in a most perilous pursuit. He asked what other industry left almost a hundred thousand men without educational facilities to improve them in their calling? Canada had now a fleet of twen-ty-eight vessels, of which twelve were cruisers and required trained men. There was a large number of pilots for whom training was needed. He did not agree that the seamen would several college professors and minisnot take advantage of educational facilities. That had been said of farmers when experimental farms had been started, but the farmers had made use of them, greatly to their benefit and to the benefit of the country. He believed that the result of the plan he recommended would be a better educated and a better qualified class of fishermen and seamen than at present. He pointed to the example of the United States and of Great Britain in establishing naval reserves and training both officers and Schenectady, holding the office for a seamen in special institutions. FRIDAY PROBS.:

Store News for Saturday Shoppers

As the last shopping day of the week approaches most people's attention seems to naturally turn to the personal, family or household needs. The closing of the doors Saturday night is the end of the old, or we might say the world, so far as the week's business is concerned, and the opening Monday morning the beginning of the new, when everybody starts out with some definite purpose, and becomes so involved in the attainments of the same that the week slips by and many important shopping needs are forgotten, until you are suddenly reminded that TO-MORROW IS SATURDAY.

Of course the big things are not forgotten with us for Saturday, but special preparation among the little things for Saturday, which are often the more important, is a feature at this store, and a walk through from floor to floor, and from aisle to aisle, is the only way you get an intelligent conception of the thought that is given your Saturday needs, as the newspaper does not tell it all.

Don't Wear

Some men think they must wear "mud hookers" for comfort.

The first thing you see when they loom up on the horizon is "feet." And until they're out of sight - you're impressed with feet-

Their feet predominate everything—they stick out -get in the road like the small boy's hands when he's in company. Now, it helps a man all round the board if his feet are well and neatly shod. Some keen observers judge a man by the shoes he wears.

And it is possible to have your feet neatly shod and yet be comfortable.

If you'll let us, we'll tell you how to do it.

Wear the Hartt Shoe-that's our recipe.

The Hartt Shoe

Hartt Shoes, for they more than any other shoe made in Canada conform to the anatomy of the foot, more closely more surely and are therefore more comfortable.

And they keep this foot conformation more permanently for the reason that the shape is built in each Hartt shoe-not merely simulated as in other and ordinary shoes.

We use only select materials in making Hartt Shoes. All our leather is sound, clear, closely textured, pliable, tough and thoroughly

Its the most costly leather in the world.

Our shoemakers are all expert—cobblers for generations. And every stitch they take-every peg they drive-insures the shape in each Hartt Shoe permanently.

If you have "big understandings," wear Hartt Shoes-because they fit the foot more closely and comfortably-they make your foot look Cut out the "mud hookers" if you want real foot-comfort, and

wear the Hartt Shoe. "CANADA'S BEST SHOEMAKERS"

Reading the more popular British papers about Germany today, one is reminded of the mingled hatred and fear that marked when he was at his zenith. It is not so certain, either, that the hatred and fear are not being worked up by the landed and money interests of Britain as a check upon the determination of the Liberal Government to tax land values and to redistribute land gradually among the people forced out of possession by centuries of landlordism. The cry goes up that the Liberals are bent national, socialistic schemes and neglecting the public defense. Sensational Developments Connected With the Killing of Mrs. Willie James.

Winnipeg, Man., April 29 .- The police dragnet is rapidly closing in on the murderer of zirs. James, who was killed in her home on Dominion street Thursday

The coroner's inquest opened at 7 last night in the court room at the police station.

Mr. James, husband of the murdered woman, was the first witness called. He repeated his story of finding his wife's body, adding nothing to the story already published. Dr. Gordon Bell, who performed the autopsy, testified that the victim had been killed by two blows on the head with a blunt instrument, probably a piece of wood.

Riddell, an employee at the greenhouses near the James home, said he saw
Mr. James go to the greenhouses after his wife had been murdered, but threw no light on the tragedy.

POWER COMMITTEE ARE TO RUSH NIAGARA POWER

Will Likely Call for Tenders for Supplies So as to Not Delay Matters.

There is little new in the Niagara power situation, but there will be something of importance transpire within a day or two.

Tomorrow night the power committee will meet, and the advisability of calling for tenders for supplies will be discussed. It is quite likely that they will decide to call for tenders at once, and not delay the matter of getting the city's plant in operation until after the vote on the London Electric Company's proposition is taken. Engineer Sifton stated today that if the tenders for poles, wire, crossbeams, insulators, and that sort of work were let within a reasonable time, it would greatly assist the city in getting ready for Niagara power when it comes.

Mr. Sifton's Opinion.

"If the tenders for the poles and the other equipment needed were let within a reasonable time, a decided step would be taken towards the city plant," he stated today. set and equip the poles throughout the city is a large proposition, and it takes time. It can be done hurriedly, of course, but it will not be well done, and the city would lose thereby. It is quite a big thing to erect and equip the plant."

The London Electric. The offer of the London Electric will come up before the council, on Monlay night, and will cause a considerable debate.

At one time, it was thought that there would be no doubt that the council would send the $400,000 proposition to the people, but there is not the same certainty at the present moment. Some of the aldermen who were favorable are not quite so certain that t would be wise to take a vote on that price, as there appears a strong sentiment among the electors against paying that figure for a plant, that while ing from six pence to two shillings. it may be a going concern now, will be Two shillings will be charged for a

The analysis of the first ten wells was received this morning from Dr. Amyot, by Mr. Beck, and shows the water to be most satisfactory in every way. It will be noticed that there are five other wells not measured in this number. The most conspicuous well missing is No. 2, the biggest of the series. This well will flow easily 300,000 gallons in 24 hours. It is from this well that the smell of sulphur is found. The other wells are good ones, and should easily average 200,000 gallons, thus showing that there is an available supply of a milion gallons of water.

The newest addition to the series No. 11, was pumped, and it is a good one, running over 200,000 gallons a day.

Notice to Power Users and Councilmen

According to Expert Engineer Kelsch's report just submitted to the city council, on the basis of the city contracting with the hydro-electric commission for 3,000-horsepower (paying constantly for 2,250-horsepower whether used or not), the annual operating costs alone will To this must be added 2,250-horsepower, at $23,50 (the price charged by the hydroelectric commission), equals $52,875 Which, divided by 2,250-horsepower, equals over $38.00 per annum per horsepower.

Adding nothing for repairs, and making no allowance for failure on the part of the city to sell the entire 2,250-horsepower all of the time; in other words, assuming that the city will be able to dispose of the entire 2,250-horsepower all the time—that is to say 8,760 hours per year-a condition which would be physically impossible to realize-the actual cost to the city would be

Over Thirty-Eight Dollars Per Annum Per Horsepower

Considering the fact that we can show right in the city of London (Empire Brass Manufacturing Company) a Hornsby-Stockport suction gas engine equipment delivering power on the line shaft of the manufacturer for a sum total cost of less than $19.00 per annum per horsepower (including all operating costs and fixed charges), what sane manufacturer in London can see his way clear to entering into a contract with the city for hydro-electric power at MORE THAN DOUBLE the price that he can make it for with our engines?

We are prepared to install a Hornsby-Stockport suction gas engine equipment for any power user in the city of London on an absolute guarantee that we will produce his power for less than $20.00 per annum per horsepower, everything added, or that we will produce electric current in his premises—with an average load factor of 75 per cent—for less than 1 cent per kilowatt hour, with all charges added. We will also guarantee absolutely reliable

As for street lighting, we refer to Mr. W. H. Westman, mayor of the city of Chatham,

Ont. We installed in Chatham two 100-horsepower Hornsby-Stockport suction gas engines for street lighting purposes only. Chatham has 129 2,000-candlepower arc lamps. The plant has been in operation one year; the engines are running with natural gas, and the entire street lighting load is carried for a daily fuel cost of only $1.40. A letter signed by Mr. Westman, mayor of Chatham, follows:

MAYOR'S OFFICE. Corporation of the City of Chatham. W. H. WESTMAN, Mayor.

J. N. Nadeau, Esq., Iberville, Que. Dear Sir,-

Chatham, Ontario, February 20th, 1909.

Your favor of the 18th inst. to hand and contents noted. In reply would say that it is quite true that we purchased two engines and producer gas equipments for our city lighting plant. Would say that we have been running this for nearly a year. At first we were very doubtful as to whether the Colonial Engineering Company could produce power at the low cost at which they claimed they could. After our engines and plant had been running for several months, we had an expert test the plant thoroughly before accepting it, and am pleased to say that the test resulted in showing that they had exceeded their guarantee as to the cost of power, which is certainly very low. The engines have given us good satisfaction so far, and the council accepted same by unanimous vote. Any further information that you might require, we would be pleased to furnish. Yours truly,

W. H. WESTMAN.

It is perfectly safe to say that the city cannot possibly hope to sell 80 per cent of the 2,250 horsepower all the time—but even if it can, it will be compelled to charge $47.50 per horsepower, or TWO AND A HALF times as much as the individual user can make the power for himself!

On 100-horsepower the consumer would pay the city $4,750 per year. With a Hornsby-Stockport gas engine he can make it for $1,900.

The difference of $2,850 will pay for his own equipment in TWO YEARS.

And, as for the city's own use of the power-for lighting and pumping-why should it saddle upon its ratepayers a power cost more than DOUBLE that at which it could generate its own current for with a Hornsby-Stockport gas engine plant?

EAGLE FIGHTS SCORE OF FARMERS

Great Bird Had Been Caught Trying To Carry Off a 35-Pound Boy.

St. Charles, Ill., April 29.-In battle royal between a collection of farmers armed with pitchforks, sticks and stones on one side, and a lone eagle, but of magnificent size, on the other, the men finally won, although the fighting honors rightfully belonged to the bird, which had been interfered with in its attempts to carry off the 3-year-old son of Peter Johnson. Fully a score of persons participated in the conflict with the eagle, and pitchforks, clubs and stones were brought into service before the bird, exhausted from its efforts, gave up the fight. Johnson was terribly scratched in the encounter, although his son was unhurt. The Johnson boy was playing on his father's farm near St. Charles when the eagle was first observed.

Here Is the Proposition

The London Advertiser will take Eight ladies on a five weeks' tour of England, Ireland, Scotland and France. Leaving London Thursday, July 1, they will visit all places of interest possible within the time allotted, and will return to London Friday. August 6. Five weeks of unalloyed pleasure amid historic scenes. A delightful vacation with all expenses paid by The London Advertiser, Western Ontario's Best Newspaper.

In addition to this party The Advertiser has decided to recognize the effort made by certain energetic candidates, who through no fault of their own fail to win the Grand European Trip and will take a party of from eight to twelve ladies on an extended trip through Lake Ontario and the River St. Lawrence, among the picturesque Thousand Islands to Old Quebec. The arrangement for this second trip, as well as for the Old Country trip, call for the best accommodations, and no expense will be spared to make both trips enjoyable.

The itinerary and the time of the consolation trip have not been difinitely decided, but will be announced in a few days. This trip is sure to include Montreal and Quebec.

This is by far the most stupendous offer ever made by a newspaper in Western Ontario, and it has aroused great interest and enthusiasm among the general public.

Saturday, May 1, ends the special double vote inducement. Be sure to take advantage of this offer and send or bring your orders to The Advertiser office before 10 o'clock on Saturday next. After that hour all money paid on subscriptions will be counted according to the old schedule of 1,000 votes for $5, etc.

Oil Lamps and Candles Were at a Premium-Railways Underwent Great Inconvenience.

The sleetstorm which swept over this district last night for several hours played particular havoc with the wires of the electric light companies, the telegraph companies, and the telephone chairman; Ald. Rose, Ald. Saunders, Ald. Cooper, and City Engineer Graydon. The rain at times fell in sheets, and froze to the wires. It was not long before electric lights all over the city began to go out, and investigation revealed the fact that the wires had fallen and that there was no possibility of having them replaced during the

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

OFFERING WAS SMALL

Today was another slack time on the London market. The roads are in a very bad condition, and it is almost impossible to draw a heavy load over them. As a result little of anything was offered for sale. The few farmers who did venture out were repaid by the increased prices. Only three bloads of hay were offered, and of these two brought yesterday's top price of $14, while the third set another mark by bringing $14.50. by bringing $14 50.

Only a very few oats were offered for sale, but one load of not very good quality brought $1 50, while another There was one load of dressed hogs, which brought $9 75. It is expected that there will be a good market tomorrow for butter, eggs, vegetables, etc. The farmers will not be able to get on the land again for five or six days, and will likely come M in with light rigs. The market on g these commodities has been rather

In the case of the cattle of the consumers and the consumers are consumers as the consumers and consumers are consumers as the consumers are consu Ing prices up to the high levels. The demand is active and chiefly for the good butcher cattle. In the early part of the market business was particularly active, and more than one extra choice lot of butchers sold at $550, while only fair to medium quality butchers sold around $5 to $525. Medium heavy cattle, good for either butchers or light exporters, were in good demand and sold well at the top prices.

The market is too high just at present for the stocker and feeder trade. "These prices put us out of business," said a good buyer of stocker cattle. A dealer said today that reports a binary to him. said today that reports coming to him in the past few days show that there is no scarcity of butcher cattle in the country, but of heavy export cattle there is Rio Jan Tram. shortage. Some sixteen years ago, Mr. Knowles started from his native city, Hamilton, Ontario, to test his skill as an entertainer. After achieving considerable fame as a comedian in New York and other large cities, he went to England, and by sheer hard work and determination at length got the British, and more especially the London public to recognize his peculiar artistic merits, peculiar they were, but piquant also. Eminent as a comedian, without rival in a line he had made his own, Mr. Knowles was content for a good while to work the profitable field he had dis covered or invented, but with passing years satiety came or the belief that he was fit for other and possibly higher and repeated; but instead of taking his ease at his inn or on his palatial iner, Mr. Knowles, with the aid of a Montreal and Southern Railway a camera, busied himself making pic- Iberville Junction, 31 miles south tures of interesting places and storing Montreal. ted by the storm of criticism raise The mother of Miss Farrar declares there was no mistreatment of the baby carried by her daughter, and which eried at the crucial period in the per ormance, but those who were in the audience will not believe this. An infant had been borrowed by the Cio San (Butterfly). The baby seemed restless in the arms of Miss Farrar,

What happened immediately after this always will be in dispute. The major part of the audience, however, asserts that Miss Farrar clapped her and over the mouth of the infant, smothering its cries while she sang on herself and a moment later put it under the folds of her kimono. Anyway, its cries were suddenly stilled. Dozens of women were on their feet nd there was a loud, angry buzzing of tongues. Many women left the
