The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

National Library of Canada

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol → (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ▼ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Bibliothèque nationale du Canada

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole → signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ▼ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

BY-LAWS.

I.

All the former By-laws of this Lodge are hereby repealed.

II.

No Officer or Member in open Lodge, either at labour or refreshment, shall presume to make use of any profane, irreverent or improper expressions, songs or sentiments, or introduce any remark or conversation tending to cause a difference of opinion on national, political or religious subjects. Such offending Brother, after having been thrice duly admonished from the Chair, shall be subject to such censure or penalty as a majority of the Brethren then present shall think proper to inflict, to which, if he refuses to submit, he shall, after due notice, be excluded from the Lodge, and the cause of exclusion reported to the proper Masonic authorities.

III.

Time of Meeting.

This Lodge shall be held, (subject to the laws of the Grand Lodge respecting "the removal of Lodges,") at the Masonic Hall, Elgin Street, in the City of Ottawa, on the first Tuesday of every month, and on the Festival of St. John the Baptist, at such hour as the Worshipful Master shall appoint.

A Lodge of Emergency may at any time be called after seven days' notice, by the authority of the Worshipful Master, or in his absence, by the Senior Warden, or in their absence by the Junior Warden, but on no pretence whatever without such authority first given. The particular reason for calling the Emergency shall be expressed in the Summons, and afterwards recorded on the Minutes. No business but that so expressed shall be entered upon at such meeting.

IV.

Officers of the Lodge.

The Officers of the Lodge shall consist of the Worshipful Master, Senior and Junior Wardens, Treasurer, Chaplain, Secretary, Senior and Junior Deacons, Two Stewards, Inner Guard, and a Tyler. In order to secure that regularity and decorum so highly necessary for the good order and government of every Lodge, it is expected that every Officer and Member will attend punctually at the time set forth in the Summons for the opening of the Lodge. This Lodge shall annually elect, by ballot, first the Worshipful Master, next the Treasurer, and then, by a majority of open votes, the Tyler, at the Regular Meeting immediately preceding the Festival of St. John the Baptist, and at High noon of that Festival the Worshipful Master elect shall be installed, according to ancient usage, after which he shall invest the Treasurer and Tyler, and appoint and induct the other Officers of the Lodge. Should St. John the Baptist's Day fall on Sunday, the Installation, attendant ceremonies and observances shall take place on the following day. This Lodge shall not form any public procession without a license from the M. W. Grand Master.

V.

The Worshipful Master.

Beyond the ancient charges delivered on the Installation, the Worshipful Master is responsible as well for the Warrant, as for the correct and safe keeping of the records and papers during his term of office; he holds, in conjunction with the two Wardens, all the furniture and paraphernalia of the Lodge in trust for the Members; the Worshipful Master as Trustee therefor, shall annually insure the jewels, furniture and other property of the Lodge against loss by fire, for such sum as shall be considered sufficient; the Worshipful Master being absent, a Past Master of this Lodge,—that is, a Brother regularly elected and installed as Master of the Lodge, and who has executed that office for one year,—shall take the Chair, the immediate Past Master taking precedence; if there should be no Past Master present then the Senior Warden, or in his absence the Junior Warden, (placing his chair in front of the Worshipful Master's pedestal) shall rule the Lodge, (see page 75, Art. 6, Constitution); the Worshipful Master shall receive from the Treasurer the fees payable on account of and to the United Grand Lodge of England, and duly remit the same.

VI.

Senior Warden.

The Senior Warden shall see to the safe and proper keeping of the jewels and paraphernalia of the Lodge; he shall, immediately upon entering into office, make and keep an inventory thereof, and hand the same over to his successor in office.

Junior Warden.

The Junior Warden shall attend to the necessary arrangements for refreshments on all ordinary occasions, and shall, ex officio, be chief of the Stewards. No Lodge Funds, however, shall be taken for refreshment or entertainment of any kind.

VIII.

Treasurer.

The Treasurer shall receive all the moneys of the Lodge from the Secretary, and discharge all accounts duly vouched and sanctioned by the Lodge; he shall keep a book in which his accounts of receipts and disbursements shall be regularly entered, so as to exhibit at one view the amount of money in his possession, and which book shall be produced at every monthly meeting of the Lodge, for the inspection of the Brethren. His accounts shall be examined by the Auditors and reported on to the Board of General Purposes at least one week before the Festival of St. John the Baptist, in order that the balance in his hands may on that day be paid over to the Treasurer elect, or otherwise disposed of, as shall be directed by the Lodge.

I X.

Secretary.

The Secretary shall issue the summonses, by mail, to all the Members of the Lodge, seven days previous to each meeting, particularly noticing therein, the candidates for initiation and names of members joining, also Passings and Raisings, By-laws to be altered and repealed, or new ones to be made. He shall likewise keep a register of the members, showing the dates of joining, initiation, passing and raising, and the state of their accounts; prepare the list of members, as well as other communications for the Grand Lodge; take minutes of all matters duly moved and seconded, and of such other occurrences as may be considered worthy to be recorded. The Secretary is exempt from paying the monthly dues. (For Rules of Order, and form of Minutes see By-law No. XX, and appendix, A.)

X.

Tyler.

The Tyler shall tyle the Lodge, take care of, and keep in good order, the Furniture, Jewels, and other paraphernalia of the Lodge, for which he shall receive the sum of one dollar for each meeting of the Lodge.

X I.

Proposing Members.

Every Candidate for Initiation shall be proposed by one member and seconded by another, at a regular meeting, and on such proposition being received by the Lodge, the Worshipful Master shall order the proper declaration (which shall at the time of proposition, be handed to the Secretary) to be laid before the Board of General Purposes for their consideration. This declaration shall be signed by the Candidate. The members so recommending the candidate shall be responsible for the fees, which must in all cases, be paid before initiation. (For forms of petition for Initiation and Joining, see Appendix, B & C.)

Brethren applying to become members shall be proposed, seconded and recommended under the like responsibility and in the same manner as Candidates for Initiation. No joining member can be balloted for unless his Grand Lodge Certificate and the Certificate from the Lodge of which he was last a member be produced, or the want of either or both be solemnly and satisfactorily accounted for. No joining member, although accepted shall be considered a de facto member of the Lodge until he has actually signed the By-Laws and paid the fee. On a proposition for membership or initiation being regularly received by the Lodge and entered on the Minutes, such proposition becomes the property of the Lodge, and must go to the ballot in regular course, unless leave is granted to withdraw the same by a unanimous vote of the members present at a regular meeting.

XII.

Ballot.

No person shall be initiated in, and no Brother shall be admitted a member of this Lodge, if on balloting there be found more than one black ball, which ballotting, except in cases of emergency, hereinafter in this clause provided, shall take place at the next regular meeting after being proposed in open Lodge, but if one black ball is against the Candidate, he shall be admitted, excepting the member black-balling may think proper to state his objections; in such case admission or otherwise of the Candidate shall be decided by a majority of the members present. Should the ballot prove unfavorable to any Candidate, such Candidate is not again to be balloted for until the expiration of six months, when a new proposition and a ballot must take place, and all the formalities required by Article XI of these By-laws be again observed. And should any Candidate who has been approved for initiation not attend for that purpose within six months after being notified by the Secretary of the Lodge, he must be again proposed and balloted for before being initiated.

In cases of emergency the following deviation from the above order in proposing Candidates may be adopted: the Candidate's petition, with the recommendation before mentioned, and stating the cause of the emergency, may be transmitted to the Worshipful Master, who, if he deems it proper, may summon a Lodge of Emergency, to meet at a period not less than seven days from the date of issuing the summons, which summons shall state the name, age, profession, and place of abode of the Petitioner, as also the names of the Brethren who recommended him; and if on balloting he be then approved, he may be initiated.
