

CO-OPERATION WAS KEYNOTE OF INDUSTRIAL MEETING

Serious Effort Properly Directed, Will Be Made To Secure New Industries—Co-operation Main Feature And Securing Of Options On Sites.

That there will be co-operation with the Greater Brantford Board in the securing of manufacturing concerns for this city was shown last night at a public meeting called by the Greater Brantford Board and attended by those interested in the building trade, and many prominent citizens.

It is the desire of the board to secure options for six months on sites suitable for manufacturing concerns, and the building trade agreed to co-operate with the board for six months.

The Problems.

Mr. Joseph Ham, chairman of the meeting laid the difficulties of securing manufacturing concerns for the city and the remedies suggested before the meeting. As there were six concerns in the United States who might be induced to locate in Brantford, there should be something definite in the way of inducements to offer before making further approaches.

Would Secure Options.

A scheme was then outlined by the chairman. In the scheme the real estate owners played a prominent part. An owner of a sub-division had offered to give 20 acres for a manufacturing site and others had offered to sell sites of one acre and up at half the selling price and less. If options could be got on several properties in order to give the prospectors a number of locations to choose from it was believed it would assist in the securing of concerns. In the securing of the Reach Sporting Goods Co. it had proved an asset. An option had been secured and when the company desired a site it was turned over to them.

Dealers Co-operate.

It was also thought to be of assistance in the securing of concerns if the dealers in materials would make some concession. The dealers would in the end reap a benefit. It was thought the brick makers could sell the brick probably $2 less than the usual price, the owners of gravel pits give the gravel, the teamsters do the hauling at a special price, the cement dealers sell the cement cheaper than usual, the Brantford Roofing Co. a special price on the roofing, the hardware merchant a special price on hardware, the plumbers and firms dealing in heating appliances sell the material at cost and charge only on the work and the local architect draw the plans.

Employer's Union Not Received Unanimously

It is Feared That the Moral Effect on British Workers Will be Somewhat Harmful.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—A cable from London, says:

The announcement that all the strikes in Great Britain had been settled today was followed by much discussion both among employees and work people regarding the formation of a United Kingdom Employers' Deference Union to consolidate the resources of the employers and maintain the right to bargain either with the trade unions or with free workers. Opinion on the subject is not unanimous on either side.

Many employers believe the promoters are right in anticipating that the guarantee fund of $250,000,000 will greatly strengthen the position of the employers involved in the strikes. Others, however, doubt the wisdom and usefulness of the proposal. There is a general agreement that the leaders of the movement should make it perfectly clear that it is understood by the phrase "legitimate trade unionism."

Some of the workers' representatives clearly regard the formation of the union as a new challenge to organized labor, while others are in favor of the most thorough organization of both employers and employees.

EIGHT CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH IN QUEBEC FIRE

A Terrible Fatality is Reported To-day—Fire Occurred at Midnight—Only Four of Family Escape.

[Canadian Press Despatch]

QUEBEC, Sept. 26.—Lucienne, Yvonne, Alice, Therese, Charles, Alphonse, Jules and Jean Paul Trudel, whose ages range from 2 to 16 years, are the names of the eight children who were cremated as they slept last midnight in the fire which occurred in a wooden building situated at 12 St. Francis street, while the parents of the children and another son are inmates of the Hotel Dieu Hospital suffering from burns.

It was about midnight when flames were seen to issue from the three-story wooden house owned and occupied by Mr. Elric Trudel and five other families. An alarm was sounded and the fire brigade was soon on the spot, but owing to the inflammable nature of the building the whole structure was soon ablaze and the Trudel family, which lived on the third story, were cut off from all chance of escape.

Mr and Mrs Trudel however were awakened and managed to drop one of their sons to the ground, and with a younger daughter, made their escape. Mrs. Trudel was horribly burned. She was rescued from the burning building by firemen.

Mother is Dead.

Mrs. Trudel, the mother, after suffering terribly, died this afternoon.

GAMBLING WAS FOUND DOWN IN CHINATOWN

And Three Police Officials Were at Once Suspended.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—A police captain and patrolman were summarily suspended shortly after midnight this morning by Police Commissioner Waldo when discovered, he says, that gambling houses were running wide open in Chinatown, part of the district under their jurisdiction. Commissioner Waldo's action followed a personal investigation in Chinatown late last night. Those suspended are Captain Frank J. Tierney, Sergeant Owen J. Keegan and Patrolman Louis Gray.

None of the police around Chinatown seemed to recognize the commissioner. From the report he made on the police blotter later it appears that he made a hurried trip through Pell street and found several gambling houses open. The commissioner found Keegan and Gray in Pell street and ordered them to report to their station immediately. The suspension followed.

FOREIGNERS LEAVE, WORK IS SCARCE

So Says Mr. Louis Stander, Who Knows the Situation

According to the statement of Mr. Louis Stander, city missionary, this morning there is a scarcity of work for the foreigners and as a result they are leaving in large numbers for home. Thus far this month 300 have left and more will follow. The American Radiator Co. and the Pratt and Letchworth Co. have laid off the majority of the men.

When enquiry was made it was learned that the Radiator Company had laid the men off owing to the slackness of work and the Pratt and Letchworth Co. owing to stock-taking. A number of foreigners will be laid off next week at the Pratt and Letchworth Co.

As Selling Agents.

EDMONTON, Alb., Sept. 26.—The report that the Grain Growers Company of Manitoba will act as selling agents for the Alberta Farmers Co-operative Elevators is officially confirmed here. Negotiations have been in progress for some time past.

SCENES AT THE FUNERAL OF NEW YORK CITY'S LATE MAYOR.

WILLIAM H. TAFT, ROBERT ADAMSON AND POLICE COMMISSIONER WALDO HONORARY PALLBEARERS

In the above illustration are shown some of the scenes at the funeral of William J. Gaynor, Mayor of New York City. The funeral car was drawn by sixteen jet black horses in trailing trappings, each led by a policeman or fireman, whose marked sleeves revealed them as the flower of a united service.

Down Broadway the procession moved at a bugle note. First the small platoon of police cavalry; then the police band playing the Dead March from "Saul"; a squadron of mounted police, and last a regiment of police infantry, agile, limbed men of the new order, 1,200 strong, and every one appointed or promoted in the administration just closed by death.

FRENCH PAPER WAXES HOT OVER LOSS OF PRESTIGE AT OTTAWA

[Canadian Press Despatch]

MONTREAL, Sept. 26.—The night in Chateauguay, where a successor for the late J. P. Brown, M. P., is to be elected, is waxing warm. The Conservatives, who yesterday nominated James Morris, who was only 40 votes behind Mr. Brown in the general election of 1911, are perfecting their organization and beginning a serious campaign.

The Liberals have not yet selected a candidate, though the popular choice seems to rest on Edouard McGowan, who, however, does not want the honor. If Mr. McGowan cannot be persuaded to run, Mr. Edward Brown, a son of the deceased member, may be invited to stand. Either gentlemen, the Liberals think, would make a strong candidate.

Le Canada has asked Chateauguay electors the following questions: "Have we to ask ourselves why our influence has come to nothing in Ottawa?"

"Why has our representation in the government been reduced?" "Why was the portfolio of public works taken from us?" "Why did we lose the post of Solicitor-General?"

"Why have we lost positions in the civil service and even on the bench?" "Why are we losing influence everywhere?"

"Why is the business of the Transcontinental taken to Toronto instead of Quebec?" "Why was Hon. Mr. Parent replaced by Major Leonard?"

"Why are our compatriots insulted and ill-treated at Ottawa?" Le Canada answers its own questions by saying the victory of September 21, 1911, was a victory against Quebec, which has been made to feel it cruelly every since.

A General Strike Of Garment Workers

[Canadian Press Despatch]

MONTREAL, Sept. 26.—With some seven hundred garment workers from three clothing factories in the city on strike, the United Garment Workers of America, local No. 220, have issued a statement threatening a strike of all their members in Montreal as a demonstration of sympathy with the men now out. The firms affected at the present are the H. R. Vineberg Company with 400 men out, J. Elkins and Company with two hundred out, and Schulman and Company whose hundred men struck to-day because some of the work of the Vineberg factory was given to them to do.

An open air meeting for the strikers and sympathizers has been arranged for Saturday afternoon next on the Champ de Mars, when the speakers will include Mr. Will Thorne M.P., James Simpson, Toronto, and several of the labor leaders now attending the trades congress here.

Arrested at Regina.

REGINA, Sask., Sept. 26.—Fred J. Duddy, believed to be a leading citizen of St. John, N.B., was arrested in this city for passing worthless checks on information furnished by the Winnipeg police. During his stay in Regina, Duddy stayed at one of the leading hotels, appeared prosperous and was supposed to have been employed by the Consolidated Rubber Company. Duddy was prominent in society circles in the east and was a member of the leading clubs of the city of St. John.

The Greens Still Have It

The green flag still flies outside the new Y. M. C. A., the Irishmen having again to-day led in the "1,000 membership campaign." The red forces, however, are but a few points behind, and it would not be surprising if the red flag were to be seen flying to-morrow. The campaign is proving a success, and those in charge are delighted with the progress being made.

Forty applications have been received for dormitories in the building, and to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock a dormitory rush will take place.

No Boycott.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—There will be no "boycott" of Queenstown by the White Star Line, it was stated here to-day by W. W. Jeffries, passenger manager of the company. The failure of the Olympic to call at the harbor yesterday, Mr. Jeffries said, was due to weather conditions off the Irish coast. The Olympic is under contract to carry the British mails, and will in future as heretofore make Queenstown a port of call.

Miss Raymond's Concert.

The plan for the subscribers for Miss Metta C. Raymond's concert, opened this morning at Robertson's Drug Store and there was a very large reservation. The lists are now open at Robertson's. An early application is advised as the best seats are going fast.

A Big Windfall For British Treasury

[Canadian Press Despatch]

LONDON, Sept. 26.—The British Treasury to-day received an unexpected windfall from the estate of Anthony N. Brady of Albany, N.Y., who died in London in July and whose property in the United Kingdom has been valued for probate at $3,577,640. Death duties amounting to $1,050,000 will be paid over to David Lloyd George, chancellor of the exchequer.

THIS IS JUST LIKE CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—About two million lady bugs are flying around Chicago today through the carelessness of an employee of the International Refrigeration Exposition at the Stock Yards amphitheatre. The frozen insects were packed in an ice bound case with glass top. When attendant filled the refrigerator he forgot to close it and before long the Irish coast, The Olympic is under contract to carry the British mails, and will in future as heretofore make Queenstown a port of call.

The lady bugs were shipped from California, where they are used to fight the fruit scale. Between seasons they are put on ice and frozen. The management ordered another shipment at the cost of several thousand dollars.

TREMENDOUS HEADWAY IS BEING MADE INTO THIS CITY

Work on the Lake Erie and Northern—One Steam Shovel Doing Work of 150 Men Every Day—Five C.P.R. Engines Are in Service.

Tremendous headway is being made in the Lake Erie and Northern Railway in the direction of Glen Morris. Five big C. P. R. engines, with several big steam shovels, are engaged in ballasting the road along the river side. From a scenic point of view, the new road will be one of the finest in Ontario. At present, tracks are laid two miles this side of Glen Morris, and within a few hundred yards of a big gravel pit, to which point all work is being rushed. The contracting work is an interesting study in railway construction. One big shovel, which moves on its own tracks, was tearing large stumps out of the ground yesterday as if they were matches. Each shovel contained 2 1/2 yards of earth, which was thrown over to flat cars, the same being dumped from the C. P. R. engine by the air process. The shovel seemed almost human in its work of 140 men each day, it being able to remove in 10 hours 1,500 yards of earth and rock. Some of the cuts which have been made are tremendous.

At the Paris end, the Secord gang will very shortly have the big cement abutments under the G. T. R., near Blue Lake. Right near the power house is where all the scrap with the Grand Valley has taken place. It is said that while the L. E. & N. have a deed of land between the power house and the river, the Grand Valley has a pipe running through the ground. The case will be settled in Toronto on Monday.

The Galt end is the biggest part of the job, and it is possible trouble will result to the new road when the Grand River starts things next spring. However, retaining walls to protect the embankment will be started soon. One thing the new railway will do, is to protect the thoroughfare in that vicinity, which is flooded annually. It will also protect the Grand Valley line.

Little difficulty is expected in the completion of the Port Dover line, where construction work is comparatively an easy job. One remarkable feature of the new road is the lack of grades, 1 per cent being the maximum.

It is quite sure, however, in spite of the tojatic efforts to complete part of the road from Galt to Brantford this year, that it will not be finished until 1914.

Two Men Hold Up Great Southern Train

A Nervey Exploit, But it is Not Believed That Very Much Loot Was Secured.

[Canadian Press Despatch]

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 26.—Alabama's great southern train No. 7 Birmingham to New Orleans was held up and robbed at Bibbville siding, three miles south of Woodstock, Ala., at midnight.

Engineer Daniels had stopped the train for a "red block" when the robbers climbed in and ordered the fireman to uncouple the express car which was carrying some distance down the track. After dynamiting the safe the robbers, reported to have been two masked men, ran the engine down the track several miles, putting the firemen off. Express Messenger Kelly was covered before he knew what was happening, and could not say what the losses would be, but thought they would be light.

The mail car did not have much value, so far as known early this morning. The engine, mail and express cars were not been recovered.

Several shots were fired into the mail and express cars, but no clerks and messengers were hurt. Three of the mail clerks, Saunders, Phillips and Poole narrowly escaped death. Saunders' head was filled with glass from the door which a bullet shattered. Two dynamite charges were necessary to open the safe, the last one being so heavy as to jar the ground several hundred feet away.

The train left here at 10:45 o'clock last night. The scene of the hold-up is a sparsely settled mining section.

A VERY SAD CASE OF WIFE DESERTION IN POLICE COURT

Sunday School Superintendent Croowell Ordered to Pay His Wife So Much Per Week—Other Cases Heard.

One of the saddest cases of wife desertion and non-support that Magistrate Livingston has had to deal with for some time, was dealt with in the local police court this morning when John Croowell, a former resident of England, was arraigned on a charge of neglecting to provide for his wife, Helen Croowell, thereby endangering the health and life of that person.

Mrs. Croowell, who appeared to be very weak in health and who had to be partially supported in the witness box by her daughter, was the only witness called and she told the court a sympathetic story of how her husband, a carpenter by trade, had left his home and family in England, during the month of January last, giving his family no information as to where he was going and leaving them with very little money. Since that time the accused neglected to provide for those he left behind in the Old Land, and as the witness described it this morning, "I have not a cent to support me."

In June last Mrs. Croowell came to Canada and has since been living with her son in Toronto. Since coming to this country she has been on the still hunt for her deserting husband, with the result that she traced him to this city and had him arrested.

Croowell endeavored to explain to the Magistrate that he had been told to leave home by his wife and since coming to this country, his health had been so poor that he had only been able to get work once in a while and his wages had only been 22 1/2 cents per hour. He signified his willingness to do what was right now, and to his wife he offered a home if she would but accept.

Another Woman.

Magistrate Livingston evidently knew some of the inside workings of the case, however, and he put to the accused a number of questions which he found it hard to answer.

"Will you tell me why you couldn't support your wife in England when you had money to support another woman in this country?" he asked.

Croowell at first denied that this was so, but when the Magistrate told him that he could produce witnesses to prove that he and another woman had been living together as Mr. and Mrs. Croowell, the prisoner admitted that this had been, but was now no more.

"You left your wife in England and brought this girl out to Canada where you have been supporting her ever since" said His Worship, and Croowell admitted that he had paid the girl's passage out. He promised that he would now go back to his old wife and would support her in future.

A Poor Specimen.

"Yes, you are quite willing to throw this other girl over when you get into trouble," replied Mr. Livingston. "You are a poor specimen of a man, Croowell, in my opinion."

His Worship also charged Croowell with passing as a local preacher, but the prisoner denied this, saying he was only a Sunday school superintendent.

"Your religion must be pretty deep," remarked the Crown Attorney, who suggested that the man be deported if at all possible. His Worship suggested that there had been a violation of the White Slave laws, whereupon the wife and daughter pleaded that the Court be not too heavy on the prisoner, for the family's sake.

Under the cross-examination of the Crown Attorney and Magistrate, Croowell became somewhat vexed, and stated that he could mention some things about his wife's character which would not do her any good, whereupon his daughter took up the cudgels in her mother's behalf.

"Shame on you, you can't say a word for your mother," said the Magistrate. (Continued on Page Five.)

MARRIED IN THE CITY OF BRANTFORD

An Alleged Bigamist is Locked Up in the Jail at St. Thomas.

ST. THOMAS, Sept. 26.—The third wife of George Smith, alias Bowman, the Dunwich man, locked up in the county jail here on charges of bigamy, assault, fraud and other offenses, was located near Norwich, in Oxford county, by Constable Hopkins. The man married her under the name of George T. Bowman. The wedding took place about two years ago at Brantford, a Methodist minister named Phillipoff officiating.

The woman's maiden name is Eliza Davis and her present home is at Hamilton. She happened to be visiting at Norwich, where the constable discovered her.

Mrs. Bowman intimated that Bowman used her cruelly and that she had him arrested and fined at Woodstock for an assault upon her during the honeymoon. Mrs. Bowman was led into the mesh by an assurance from her husband that he had $30,000 worth of property in St. Catharines, she to get half of it.

Will Face Three Wives
Smith, or Bowman, will face the three wives on Tuesday, when he comes before Judge Coulter, charged with an assault upon Mrs. Smith-Johnson, of Dunwich Township.

And Still Another Wife
Smith has told that as soon as County Magistrate Hunt produces his third wife Smith will tell him where the fourth is, so that the squire is looking to Smith to stand by his promise.

And Echo Answers
 An American and a Highlander were walking on the top of one of the Scottish mountains. The Scotsman, wishing to impress the visitor, produced a famous echo to be heard in that place. When it returned clearly after nearly four minutes, the proud Scotsman, turning to the Yankee, exclaimed:

"There, mon, ye canna show any thing like that in your country."
 To which the other replied:
 "I guess we can better that; why in my camp in the Rockies, when I go to bed, I just lean out of the window, and call out 'Time to get up, wake up!' and eight hours afterwards the echo comes back and wakes me."

The Irishman in Blue
 Although hot and exhausted, Police man Patrick O'Briell felt not a little pleased with himself. He had just effected his first arrest since becoming a member of the force. After a long, exciting chase, he had captured Tom Crooke, the notorious but elusive housebreaker.

While he was marching to the station, however, with his prisoner the latter's hat suddenly blew off and went scurrying away along the street.

"Hold on!" cried Tom. "There goes my hat! Shall I run after it?"
 "Phwat?" roared Pat. "You run after it, and not come back again. No, my lad, you stand here; I'll get your hat."

THE COURIER

Published by The Brantford Courier Limited, at Brantford, Ontario, Canada...

Toronto Office: Queen City Chambers, 52 Church Street, Toronto, E. S. Smallwood, Representative.

SEMI-WEEKLY COURIER—Published on Tuesday and Thursday mornings, at $1 per year, payable in advance.

THE PELLETIER AXE.

Under the above heading the Medicine Hat News (Liberal) makes the following attack upon the Postmaster General of the Dominion.

Still the Pelletier axe keeps swinging and the postmaster at Faith is the latest victim in this part of the country. It is a great kind of politics for a man who is supposed to be in a class to associate with imperial statesmen.

Now, the Provincial Legislature in Alberta happens to be Liberal in complexion and as this Postmaster accepted the job of returning officer in their behalf, he richly deserved just what was handed out to him.

Men who accept positions in the public service should know enough not to be active on either political side.

This man evidently didn't and he has been given what he deserved.

The Postmaster General acted quite properly in the matter and such squeals as that of the Medicine Hat paper will not cut any figure with men of common sense.

A DESIRABLE PLACE OF RESIDENCE.

The Courier is in receipt of the following letter:—

Hillsboro, Oregon. Dear Sir—Will you kindly send me a copy of your paper. I am desirous of locating in your city and would be very thankful for any information you could give me.

Two other similar queries of a like nature have been received at this office and answered during the year. The fact of the matter is that visitors tell their friends of the prettiness and the attractiveness of this place, and without doubt it is one of the most desirable communities in which to live in Ontario.

This paper has more than once urged a comprehensive plan of advertising in such regard. Such a movement need not entail any very great expense if citizens generally would take hold. The town of Goderich affords a striking illustration in this regard. The business men there, on envelopes and in every possible way, "boost" the place, and postal cards convey every possible range of view and information. Of course, it is a summer resort, but for all year round residence, does not begin to compare with this community.

We possess more breathing spots in proportion to size than any other place.

We are splendidly situated with regard to easy access to Toronto, Ottawa, Buffalo, New York, Chicago and other centres.

The streets are wooded to such an extent that almost every thoroughfare constitutes an avenue of trees.

The Grand River affords one of the most picturesque valleys it would be possible to conceive.

The Mohawk church and general neighborhood possess much of historic value, and a statue to Brant—the only one to an Indian on this continent—emphasizes that fact.

In a matter more modern, we can show the home where the telephone was invented, and which has been dedicated for all time as a place of public interest, while a handsome monument to the inventor will soon adorn another square in the city purchased for the purpose.

Our Collegiate Institute is the most modern in the Province, and the schools of the best.

Mohawk Park is an ideal resort abutting on a small sized lake, and the spacious grounds of the Ontario School for the Blind are open to the public.

The water is pure, and every up-to-date convenience is available for householders.

The public library is large and well stocked with books.

There are many and varied forms of amusements, amateur sports, theatres and so on.

In short, residents here enjoy all the metropolitan advantages while still within easy access of the beautiful surrounding country. These and many other attractions could, with undoubtedly good results be brought home to that class of people who have become independent of business, professional or other employment. We have many such here now, and more could be attracted. A concerted effort would certainly be well worth while.

AN ALERT MAN.

Hon. Mr. Rogers, the Minister of Public Works is a man who does things—the rapid construction of Brantford's new public building is one illustration.

He possesses a keen breadth of view with regard to Dominion possibilities and acts after due consideration with great promptness.

The contract has just been let for thirty million dollars worth of improvements at Vancouver harbor.

Toronto, Hamilton and other harbors are also to be improved at vast cost, and in the list there is Port Dover harbor whose opening up after many years of stagnation will prove of such vast importance to Brantford and surrounding places.

The truth of the matter is that the magnificent possibilities in connection with Canada's great chain of lakes—the largest in the world—are at last becoming recognized.

Undertakings such as those enumerated of course involve an outlay of vast sums but the expenditures are fully warranted. The revenue is most buoyant, in fact is expected to exceed that of 1912 itself a record year, by over $200,000,000 and it is the history of all progressive countries that such outlays bring grand national results.

Canada is the country of this century and it is a pleasing thing to know that we have men at present in power possessed of a broad minded view of that fact, with the accompanying backbone to act accordingly.

IN THE MATTER OF EXPERTS.

The Mail and Empire has the following editorial:

Taylor, the half-bred murderer of Brantford, has been examined by Dr. Bruce Smith, provincial inspector of jails and public institutions, and has been declared sane. At the trial, probably, Dr. Smith will be called and will testify to this effect. If Taylor has enough to engage other experts there is no doubt that men of equal reputation will be called to swear that the man is insane, and therefore not legally accountable for his acts. If he is without funds he will be without favorable witnesses, and his trial is likely to be short and his doom swift. Therefore, it is a matter of money that is likely to decide Taylor's fate.

When it is said that one man is as good as another, it is meant that in the eyes of the law a rich man is exactly as a poor man, but the hollowness of this pretension has been exposed a thousand times. In a murder trial a rich man has 50 chances of escape to a poor man's three, because of his ability to employ skillful lawyers and medical men to fight for him. Before now The Mail and Empire has suggested that the Crown should appoint an expert to examine into the mental condition of accused persons, and report to the judge, just as an analyst is now appointed by the Crown to report in cases of poisoning. It is not recalled that a report of the Dominion analyst is ever disputed in court. If that other analysts are ever called in rebuttal of the Crown's evidence, it should be possible for the Crown to secure the services of the very best alienist in the country, a man whose opinion would be final in every trial, and not subject to challenge. It is not for jurors to distinguish the ablest from among a crowd of experts, and that the experts as a body do anything to forward the ends of justice is something nobody believes.

Freight handlers at Stratford struck because they heard their wages were to be lowered. Their places were filled. Testifying in his libel suit against La Patre, Armand Lavergne swore that Hon. Mr. Monk had offered him a portfolio when the Borden Cabinet was organizing.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

The fact that Liberal papers are still yelling for reciprocity is another evidence that one spanking is not always sufficient.

A speaker at a meeting of British scientists, expressed the opinion that the spelling of most people was nothing short of immoral. It would seem from this that the majority are not dressing their sentences properly, any more than some women are their forms.

A manufacturer who put a new and admittedly much better clothes pin on the market, finds that there is no sale for them. The reason given is that the fair sex can't hold them in their mouth. It was just like his nerve to try and invade this section of a woman's sphere anyway.

In a Quebec bye-election for the Dominion House, the Grit cry is that Quebec has been grossly neglected and ignored by the Borden government. In Ontario, members of the same party loudly claim that said Quebec has a strange hold on the present prime minister. Honestly, now, don't the Grits constitute an amusing bunch.

It is announced that the Liberal campaign in East Middlesex for the bye-election in connection with the Dominion House is to be of a "silent" nature with a general plan of meetings tabooed. Sensible plan. Just now the Grits have nothing to attack and nothing to boast of, while on the navy issue the party is at sixes and sevens.

Cochrane, the Northern Ontario town, named after the Minister of Railways and Canals, has been presented by that gentleman with a park of one hundred and sixty acres only five blocks from the centre of the place. Hon. Frank never does anything by halves. Meanwhile how would it do to tack the name of some millionaire on Brantford's city hall and see if he would do something we don't seem to be able to do for ourselves.

FRENCH PANAMA-PACIFIC EXPOSITION DELEGATES.

MR. TIRMAN, MR. SAVY, MR. DE BELLERIN DE LAROCHE, MR. ROGER SANDOZ, FRENCH PANAMA-PACIFIC EXPOSITION COMMISSIONERS.

After having formally accepted the plot of ground at the Panama-Pacific Exposition that has been allotted to France four members of the commission returned to Paris. Before sailing Gaston de Pellechin de Laroche said they were ardent enthusiasts regarding the United States. The members of the commission are Albert Tirman, Alfred Savy, G. Roger Sandoz and Mr. de Laroche.

The commission, which represents the French Republic, took formal possession of the plot in San Francisco and then made a tour over the country, for three of them never had been here before.

Local News

Charge Dismissed

Edward Heckadon of this city appeared before His Honor Judge Hardy in County Judges Criminal Court charged with indecent exposure. The charge was dismissed.

Finance Committee.

The advisability of erecting a new public school on Rawdon St. and the ways and means for same, will be the principal topic for discussion by the Finance Committee which will meet in the Mayor's office this evening.

Made Official Visit.

Grand River Lodge, Canadian Order of Oddfellows was honored last night by the official visit of D.D.G.M. James Mellor. After the degree work, lunch was served, followed by an address by the Deputy District Grand Master and several members of the lodge.

City Improvement

At a meeting of the council of the Board of Trade, it was decided to ask Mr. Frank Cockshutt, chairman of the buildings and grounds committee of the Parks Board, to address a general meeting of the board next Tuesday evening on "City Improvement." Mr. Cockshutt has accepted. At this meeting representatives will be appointed on a citizens committee which has been proposed by the Parks Board on behalf of "Brantford Beautiful."

Injunction Continues.

A Toronto despatch says: J. A. Smith, acting for the Grand Valley Railway, plaintiffs in a suit against the Lake Erie and Northern Railway, obtained leave from Justice Latchford in single court at Osgoode Hall yesterday to set down motion for order continuing injunction and enlargement of notice until 29th inst. Injunction to continue meantime.

Board of Works in Session.

The members of the Building and Grounds Committee will be in session this afternoon when the matter in reference to Thornton's, Limited, which was referred to that committee at the last meeting of the council, will be discussed. The application of Mr. Quinlan, to erect a store on Colborne St. East, will also be discussed.

Story Hour at Library

The story hour at the public library yesterday afternoon was conducted by Rev. G. A. Woodside, pastor at Zion Presbyterian church. There was a splendid array of children who listened intently to the stories. Yesterday was not the first time Rev. Mr. Woodside addressed the children. His welcome is assured in the future. There is a great deal of interest taken in the story hour by the children.

Music and Drama

A large sized audience witnessed "The Pink Lady" at the Grand Opera House last night. It was also a well pleased audience. The company is a large one and this popular musical comedy was given a splendid rendition. Applause, laughter, and cores were continuous and in the violin scene the fair artist was recalled again and again.

It was also significant that the audience when the curtain fell on the last act remained and applauded until the curtain was rung up again.

Brewster's Millions. This play will hold the boards on Saturday night and be presented by first class artists. It is a scream from start to finish and has had phenomenal runs in all the large centres.

One Minute Liners Gathered To-Day

Medical Inspector Catalife regarding a falling off, in connection with undesirable meats offered for sale. At the same time I am informed that in some instances foreigners are getting same, such as calves two weeks old. The entire market situation, with meats openly exposed to the germs carried by every breeze, is a disgrace anyway.

Ald. McFarland—As far as the city is concerned we will be ready about the first of the year for Hydro Electric. The only threatened delay is in connection with the transformation station near Milley's farm between Paris and Brantford. Said station is also likely to supply Waterford and Simcoe. It is two thirds finished, and now there is a halt. I don't know why.

SAD CASE IN POLICE COURT

word against my mother for she has been too true a wife to you," she cried, as she pointed the finger of scorn at her father. Croowall said no more.

A conference was held between the Crown Attorney and the Magistrate, following which the prisoner was ordered to pay $4 each week for the support of his wife. The suggestion that the parties come together again would not be listened to by Mrs. Croowall.

An Assault Case.

Frank Donnock and Nicholas I. Cavis were charged with wounding Ali Zainal, a Turk. The plaintiff was not present, and the defendants claimed that they were not guilty. The case stands until Monday morning.

A Billed Man

John Lehman, being a billed man, had no right to be under the influence of liquor, therefore when a witness swore in the witness box that he had been drinking, he was fined $10 and costs. Lehman admitted that he had been to Hamilton and had a few drinks of hard cider and dandelion wine. He denied that he was drunk, however.

Magistrate Livingston was convinced that the man had been under the influence of liquor and accordingly imposed the above fine. Lehman talked of appealing the case.

She Must Appear

When the case of John Squire, charged with assaulting his mother, Jane Squire, was called this morning the plaintiff was again absent. The police stated that she had been told to be present, but had not obeyed the order.

Magistrate Livingston was much vexed regarding the case, and stated that the woman had given the court much trouble in the past by laying information and then refusing to press the charges. He ordered that the woman be brought to court to-morrow.

A Fine for Aird.

On a charge of cruelty to horses, in leaving his horse tied to a tree without food or water, Adam Aird was fined $5 and costs. Aird brought the horse up to the police station this morning to allow the chief to inspect it, but that official refused to recommend it as a horse fit for work.

"Just let me show you how she can step," pleaded Aird, who had the animal nicely fitted up with clean harness and a fly net over her, but the chief was afraid the animal would fall through the harness, and told Aird to drive home quickly.

FOOT COMFORT INTERESTS EVERYBODY

In olden times a favorite penance was for the offender to walk with peas in his boots. Ill-fitting hosiery keeps many people doing a similar penance even in these modern times. If you get CROMPTON'S hosiery, which is properly modelled and shaped, you will know real foot comfort. For Saturday, Monday and Tuesday we are offering some very special opportunities in the hosiery section.

MEN'S CASHMERE 1-2 HOSE 19c—50 doz. men's fine cashmere hose, smooth finish, in black and navy; all sizes in both colors. We have never sold these hose in the ordinary way at a lower price than 25c., but to make quick selling for Saturday we offer them at this figure. They have spliced heel and toe, and are perfect stockings in every way. We think there will be enough for Saturday's trade, but come in the forenoon if you can.

WOMEN'S SILK AND WOOL HOSE—Finest casimere wool, shot with silk in white, cardinal green and blue, $1.50 a pair. The same style in a lower priced line at 85c. and 75c.; both lines extra value at these prices.

Every Suit Reduced for Saturday Selling

- $15.00
There are still some of this line left from Thursday's selling, in fact some of the hand-somest models are still here. If you feel that this is the price you want to pay, come up Saturday and we will satisfy you. The lot contains Whipcords, Serges and Cheviots in navy, brown and grey. The styles are mostly cutaway, but there are some with the belt and plaited back.
- $22.50
Tweeds, Serges, Whipcords in navy, black, grey, brown and fawn. All silk lined. One particularly charming costume is made in that rough tweed which is used so much this year. The color is brown, handsome and proper, the style is cutaway, of course; the skirt plain tailored, and jacket and skirt are piped with brown velvet and trimmed with two-tone brown buttons. Lined with grey silk.
- $25.00
Value in this lot run as high as $35, but the passing of the season forces us to lower the price rather than carry them over. There is a brown Jaquard suit here that you really ought to see. It has a long cutaway front and a bias border, piped with satin cord, hand-some brown and black buttons, lined with brocade satin. A fancy draped skirt, trimmed with a black silk cello and three buttons. Other suits in tweed, serge, wool ratine and fancy bedfords. Colors, fawn, grey, black, black and white, Silk lined.
- $32.50
The finest suits in the stock are to be found at this price, grey velvet, corduroy, black and navy diagonal serge, navy, Bedford, wool ratine and fancy Bedford, are all represented. There is one particularly striking suit of olive, green and blue Boucle with vest effect in grey broad cloth; Bulgarian collar, trimmed at the cuffs with grey broad-cloth, lined with royal blue satin. It has a cutaway coat and plain draped skirt, trimmed with two buttons. As smart and exclusive a garment as we have ever had in stock.

SPORTING COMMENT

BY FREE LANCE

A good move has been made by the football council in the attempt to organize a school football league...

A similar plan of causing the players to grow, so to speak, might very well be followed in regard to hockey.

Out in Moosejaw the Hamilton Tiger rugby team made a great hit and the Mayor of that thriving western town handed to the wearers of the yellow and black the keys of the city.

Free Lance has been asked to suggest that a factory league, with teams representing a number of the local industries be formed.

PLAY FIRST GAME AT POLO GROUNDS

World's Series Struggle Will Begin on Tuesday, October 7.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 26.—President Harry Hempstead, of the New York National League Club, won the first point of the world's series when he guessed correctly the toss of the coin by Chairman Garry Herrmann, of the National Commission...

The Browns have selected St. Petersburg, Fla., as their training camp for 1914.

When Honus Wagner made two hits yesterday he entered the .300 class for the seventeenth consecutive season.

Up Woodstock way, the villagers are making a great noise over the victory of Robert Sabine of Innerkip who recently won the quoining championship of the world by winning contests at Toronto and London.

DISPLAYS NERVE IN BIG LEAGUE GAMES

Cleveland Plain Dealer: Shortstop Dunlop is a player who is gifted with nerve if nothing else. He was sent in to short to replace Chapman in the final game at Washington on Friday.

PHILADELPHIA Inquirer: If nerve's the only thing he needs to make good in the majors, then Dunlop, Nap, utility man, has cinched his Cleveland job.

The Browns have selected St. Petersburg, Fla., as their training camp for 1914.

When Honus Wagner made two hits yesterday he entered the .300 class for the seventeenth consecutive season.

NEW YORK WON FROM BROOKLYN

The Dodgers Could Not Hit Marquard in the Pinches.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—No fault could be found with the Giants' batting yesterday for they gathered fifteen bingles and took another step nearer the pennant by thrashing the Dodgers 8 to 2.

CHICAGO BEAT PITTSBURG. The Cubs Hit McQuillan Hard in Three Innings.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 26.—Chicago defeated Pittsburgh yesterday by a score of 7 to 1, mainly through the good work of Pitcher Humphries, who held the Pirates safe in every inning except the sixth, when they got their run on Dolan's hit and Wagner's double.

TWO GAMES FOR PHILADELPHIA. Boston Was Defeated in a Double-header.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 26.—The Phillies won both ends of a double-header from the Boston Braves by the scores of 3 to 1 and 7 to 6.

CANADIAN LEAGUE WILL NOT CHANGE

Same Cities Will be Represented With Stronger Teams Under New Leaders

The outlook for Canadian League baseball for next season is bright, as new forces and new managers will take a hold of affairs in six cities out of the eight. The only leaders who are sure of their berths for the coming year are Manager Deneau, of London, and Frank Shaughnessy of Ottawa. Much talk has abounded whereby several important changes will be made in the construction of the league by admitting other cities into the combination and breaking up the make-up entirely of the places which were represented during the past two seasons. But when the time comes few changes will have been put into effect. Plans to build up strong teams in the weak clubs surely will gain the confidence of the other clubs in the league, and when the annual meeting is held there is every reason to believe that the old Canadian League will not have changed much.

Six New Managers. The teams of last season who are contemplating putting in winning clubs are Hamilton, Berlin, Brantford, St. Thomas, Guelph and Peterboro.

The situation in Hamilton is that more than likely some definite announcement regarding the disposal of the franchise and assets will be made in a few days. A deal is under way in which the entire club will be turned over to outside parties who are expected in Hamilton within the next few days to look over the situation. Present indications are that the Tiger fans will have to be satisfied with outside ownership again, as the local parties who have been eager to organize a stock company and secure control have not been active as the outsiders. If the present deal goes through Buffalo capital will be largely interested.

Draft Helps Berlin. Berlin will be helped out of the financial difficulty in a great measure by the draft of two of their young stars, as the $1,000 draft money will come in handy in wiping out their 1913 deficit.

Brantford, which has lost more money than any club, is putting in a whole new team next year, and this shows the great confidence which the Canadian League enjoys by a man like President Nelson, who has yet to make a dollar on the proposition.

Peterboro has a good team, which with a good start, should be well up in the race next season, while Guelph should have a higher rating with the team they had last season.

If any changes in the construction of the league are contemplated why not drop the Eastern section and take in several Michigan cities where Sunday ball provides the South Michigan with its livelihood from year to year, besides what money is made from the sale of players. The South Michigan sends more players to the big leagues and otherwise than any other class "C" organization, and when the reason is asked the answer is: Careful statistics of the abilities of the players, which are published every two weeks in all the leading American dailies. League averages have not appeared in the Canadian League this season, issued officially by the league.

game is hooked to start at five o'clock. Both teams are playing fast fall at the present time and the match should be one of the best exhibitions of football seen here this season.

The players should be in the pink of condition and should be able to go the limit. Condition will no doubt play a very important part in the game. The game will be played on the baseball grounds and the spectators will be able to view the game from the stands. The importance of the game will no doubt attract a large number of spectators to the park tomorrow afternoon. It is up to the public to patronize the game for the mere fact that the proceeds of the game will be donated to charity.

Following the tragedy at Kimsquit on the Northern British Columbia coast, in which one Indian is alleged to have killed four others after a drunken orgy, the police seized a large quantity of whiskey in the possession of Chinamen working in the canneries.

Paris News

PARIS, Sept. 25.—A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Creeden, Dundas St. yesterday afternoon, when their daughter Eleanor was married to Mr. William H. Peebles of Paris. The bride looked extremely pretty in white crepe silk with pearl trimmings as she entered the drawing room on the arm of her father to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Miss Myrtle Lavery. The young couple were unattended. Rev. C. C. Purton of St. James' performed the ceremony. After a dainty wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Peebles left for a short honeymoon trip to Toronto and other points. Upon their return they will make their home on Walnut St. That both the young people were among Paris' most popular younger set was amply testified to by the very large number of beautiful presents which they received.

The following is the list of officers as elected by the Paris High School Athletic Association: Hon. pres., W. N. Bell; president, Thos. Moyle; Sec-treas., F. Barker; track committee, A. Patterson, T. Wentworth, W. Cullen; program committee S. Hilkorn, F. Roussel, E. Lilley. The field day will be Oct. 3.

To-night will witness the opening of Paris Fall Fair. Entries this year are very large and with good weather promised, a record breaking crowd should be in attendance. Numerous Parisians attended the Fall Fair in Drumbo yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fry announce the engagement of their daughter Miss Christine Elizabeth to Mr. Joseph Padden of Hamilton. The wedding to take place this month.

Two new fisheries cruisers will be placed on the B. C. coast. One built in Dublin, is now on her way across, while a second vessel is being built on the lines of those in use by the Irish Fisheries Board.

BASEBALL NOTES

Dave Robertson, the hard hitting outfielder recalled from Mobile by McGraw, will not join the Giants until next spring. Word came from Asheville, N.C., that he had been engaged to coach the Wakeforest football team this fall.

Branch Rickey, the new manager of the St. Louis Browns, has no bad habits. He neither drinks, smokes nor swears, and refuses to play baseball on Sunday. This means that Jimmy Austin will be acting during the Sunday games.

Guelph assessors report a population of 16,319.

The Man Who is About to Invest in FALL CLOTHING Should Know:

That this is the Sixtieth Fall and Winter season we've announced our readiness to supply the Men and Young Men of Canada with the best clothing made.

That during all this long stretch of years we've met all sorts of competition and have not only held our own, but forged ahead and actually out distanced all rivals.

That this grand success is the result of selling better clothing for the money than any other store;

That we can provide better clothing for the money because we make it ourselves, and sell it directly to the wearer, with but one profit added to the cost of production.

That every garment sold by Grafton's is up-to-the-latest-of-the-clock in style, and is guaranteed for satisfactory service.

That at all other stores two profits must be paid—the manufacturer's and the retailer's and this doubling up of profits means an increase of 25 per cent. to 33 1-3 per cent in the price of the clothing.

SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Don't Stay Gray! Here's an Old-Time Recipe That Anybody Can Apply. The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair. A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and abundant. Agent T. George Bowles. British News

An amusing incident occurred recently in Perth, a sheep, one of a flock which was being driven down Leonard Street, finding its way into a dwelling-house to be brought back to the fold only after the tenant of the house had been caused much annoyance and inconvenience. As is often the case when sheep are being driven through a town, one of the animals showed a tendency to stray from the flock. A street dog which happened to be in the vicinity gave chase, and succeeded in herding the frightened sheep up the stair of the master's house. The animal was chased into the kitchen of the house to the great amazement of the lady owner, who shut the door of the kitchen pending the arrival of the shepherd. The drover arrived in due course, and after a little difficulty the refractory sheep was restored to the fold.

A remarkable story of deception on the part of a labourer was related in the Aberdeencourts, the other day, when a man named Andrew Stewart pleaded guilty to seven acts of fraud. The offences included the obtaining of money, goods, and food by false pretences. Stewart pretended that he was a man of great wealth, that his people were possessed of means, and even that he was a millionaire. To a Rothes young woman whose acquaintance he made, he promised marriage and spoke of the guests being driven to the wedding in his father's motor-car. He also promised to buy a property for her mother. But suspicion was aroused when he had to ask the price of his railway fare from Forth to Aberdeen and the man was arrested.

Earthquake shocks have recently been experienced in the central part of Scotland. A tremor was distinctly felt in all parts of Bridge of Allan the other morning, but no damage was done. Two earthquake shocks were experienced in Dunblane district early the previous morning. Generally sound sleepers were awakened by the rattling of windows and doors, and more than one housewife had to get up the fragments of broken china in the morning caused by the shock. It is also reported that the peasants from the hills had been scared by the "occurrences," as those about at that time observed them as if in a panic. The shock lasted nearly half a minute.

A runaway horse on the railway afforded an extraordinary incident, which, fortunately, was not fraught with any serious consequences at Laurencekirk, (Kincairdine), railway station, the other day. While several horses and carts belonging to a farmer named Duncan of Westerton, were in the goods yard being loaded, one of the animals took fright, and after smashing the cart bolted at a headlong pace along the line. The London mail was approaching, and had to be stopped to allow the animal to pass. The runaway was ultimately captured without further damage. The man in charge of the horse had a marvellous escape from injury.

Sir Albert de Rutzen recently retired as chief magistrate for the City of London, and who presided at the Crippen trial, is dead, aged 82. Forty Federal soldiers and ten passengers were killed when a rebel dynamited a train 60 miles south of Saltillo, Mexico, and then looted the wreckage. Eliakum Zunzer, whose folk songs are sung by millions of Jews the world over, is dead in his dark basement shop at 156 East Broadway, New York. Vice-Admiral Sir John Jellicoe, R.N., died suddenly, at St. Albans, Eng., aged 70. He saw service off the African coast and in the Egyptian war. Louis Noel, in a Grahame White aeroplane, broke the world's record at the London aerodrome by carrying seven passengers for seventeen minutes and twenty-five seconds. The American Meat Packers Association of 200 members has quoted at Kansas City, at a cost of $20,000 for menu, $17,500 for souvenirs and favors, $10,000 for decorations, and $2,500 for entertainment. Prince Max Egon zu Furstenberg, one of the Kaiser's most intimate friends, and head of the so-called Princes' Trust, has floated a public loan of $1,000,000 to relieve financial obligations, and has mortgaged his great estates in the Grand Duchy of Baden for securities.

A SAFE TONIC FOR MOTHERS

Who Do Not Recover Their Strength as They Should. Every mother who fails to regain her health and strength after confinement needs a tonic. The years of weakness and suffering which so often follow are unnecessary and easily avoided. The fact that her strength does not return is a certain indication that her blood supply has been overtaxed and is impoverished. This condition is often made worse when the mother takes up her household duties while she is still weak, when a complete breakdown results. The strength a weak mother needs can be quickly found in the tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These Pills increase and enrich the blood supply, and thus bring health and strength to the exhausted system. Mrs. Robt. Little says: "I have nursed for upwards of twenty-five years, and I could relate many cases relieved and cured, through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, in maternity cases which I nurse. I always use them, and I know of no other medicine that so speedily builds up the mother at this critical time. I feel safe in saying they are the best tonic medicine I know of." Nursing mothers will find Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will give her just the strength she needs, and they will at the same time aid in keeping her child healthy. If you do not find these pills at your dealer's they will be sent by mail at 50 cents a box or five boxes for $2.50 by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

ZAM BUK PROVED BEST

Ambulance Brigades Adopt It. Zam-Buk has now been selected as the balm to be carried by the members of the St. John Ambulance Brigade. This is further proof of its superiority. Mr. G. W. Pyatt, of 15 Southview Ave., Toronto, Superintendent of the Riverdale Division of the St. John Ambulance Brigade, writes: "Both in personal use and in first aid work I have proved Zam-Buk to be of great value. I have used it for the past five years, and do not believe there is any other balm to come up to it." Mr. Geo. H. Westmore, of 127 Yonge street, Toronto, Division Superintendent of the St. John Ambulance Brigade, also writes: "I am pleased to report that the members of this Brigade use Zam-Buk when on public duty, and find it very useful. It is a wonderful healer. Personally I constantly use Zam-Buk in my calling as a chiropodist, and find it very helpful in healing sore feet, and as a dressing for corns and bunions after treatment and extraction." Surely a balm that is worthy of a place in the wallet of an ambulance officer should find a place in your home! You may not require it to-day or next week, but as accidents don't give warning, be prepared. Zam-Buk is compounded on the latest scientific lines. It is at the same time soothing, healing and antiseptic; keeps good, eczema, piles, old sores, cuts, burns, poisoned wounds, ringworm, abscesses, sprains, scalds; boils, ulcers, blood-poison, etc. 50 cents at all druggists and stores. Refuse harmful substitutes and imitations. There is nothing "Just as good."

Oscar was thinking of Millicent's smile as he walked slowly backward and forward before his tent. His knowledge of the country told him that the mist was nothing but the night's accumulation of moisture round the summit of the mountain, that down in the valleys it was clear and that half an hour's sunshine would disperse all. He was waiting for this result when he heard a rifle shot far away in the haze beneath him and he knew that it was Joseph, probably making one of those marvelous long shots of his which roused a sudden sigh of envy in the heart of this mighty hunter whenever he witnessed them. Oscar immediately went to his tent and came out with his short barreled, evil looking rifle on his arm. He fired both barrels in quick succession and waited, standing gravely on the edge of the plateau. After a short silence two answering reports rose through the mist to his straining ears. He turned and found Victor Duruovo standing at his side. "What is that?" asked the half breed. "It must be Joseph," answered Guy, "or Meredith. It can be nobody else." "Let us hope that it is Meredith," said Duruovo, with a forced laugh, "but I doubt it." Oscar looked down in his sallow, powerful face. He was not quick at such things, but at that moment he felt strangely certain that Victor Duruovo was hoping that Meredith was dead. "I hope it isn't," he answered, and without another word he strode away down the little pathway from the sun-

"It isn't good enough. That's what I say, sir, with respect."

SHE WAS HELPLESS FOR TWO YEARS

Why Mrs. Baldwin Recommends Dodd's Kidney Pills.

She Could Find Nothing to Cure Her Rheumatism Till on a Neighbor's Advice She Tried Dodd's Kidney Pills.

ST. WALBURG, Sask., Sept. 22.—(Special)—"I can truly recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills for any one suffering from rheumatism." These are the words of Mrs. W. A. Baldwin, a highly respected resident of this place. And Mrs. Baldwin gives her reasons. "I was nearly helpless with rheumatism for two years," she states, "I got medicine from the doctor, and tried several other remedies, but nothing helped me. Then one of my neighbors advised me to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. I bought four boxes and they helped almost from the first. I have used nearly two dozen boxes and am nearly cured."

That rheumatism is one of the results of diseased kidneys is again shown in Mrs. Baldwin's case. She had headaches, stiffness of the joints, and backache, her sleep was broken and unrefreshing, and she was always tired and nervous. Her limbs ached, and she was always thirsty. These are all symptoms of diseased kidneys. When she cured her kidneys with Dodd's Kidney Pills, the symptoms vanished—and so did the rheumatism.

Joseph's arrival with ten new men seemed to give a fresh zest to the work, and the carefully pecked cases of simlacine began to fill Oscar's tent to some inconvenience. Thus things went on for two tranquil weeks. "First," Oscar had said, "let us get the crop in, and then we can arrange what is to be done about the future." So the crop received due attention, but the two leaders of the men—who led by fear and he who commanded by love—were watching each other. One evening when the work was done Oscar's meditations were disturbed by the sound of angry voices, behind the native camp. He turned, naturally toward Duruovo's tent, and saw that he was absent. The voices rose and fell; there was a singular accompanying roar of sound which Oscar never remembered having heard before. It was the protesting voice of a mass of men—and there is no sound like it—none so disquieting. Oscar listened attentively and suddenly he was thrown upon his feet by a pistol shot.

At the same moment Joseph emerged from behind the tents, dragging a man by the collar. The victim of Joseph's violence was off his feet, but still struggling and kicking. Guy Oscar saw the flash of a second shot, apparently within a few inches of Joseph's face, but he came on, dragging the man with him, whom from his crouching position saw to be Duruovo. Joseph was spitting out wadding and burned powder.

"Shoot me, would you, yer stinking choocool! Light 'em, yer stinking choocool! Light 'em, yer stinking choocool!"

He shook him as a terror shakes a rat, and seemed to shake things off him—among others a revolver, which described a circle in the air and fell heavily on the ground, where the concussion discharged a cartridge.

"Ere, sir," cried Joseph, literally throwing Duruovo down on the ground at Oscar's feet, "that man has just shot one of them poor niggers, so 'elp me God!"

Duruovo rose slowly to his feet, as if the shaking had disturbed his faculties. "Oh, don't make a fool of yourself," he said in a hissing voice; "you don't understand these natives at all. The man raised his hand to me. He would have killed me if he had had the chance. Shooting was the only thing left to do. You can only hold these men by fear. They expect it."

"Of course they expect it," shouted Joseph in his face, "of course they expect it, Mr. Duruovo."

"Why?"

"Because they're slaves. Think I don't know that?"

He turned to Oscar. "This man, Mr. Oscar," he said, "is a slave owner. Them forty that joined at Meala was slaves. He's shot two of 'em now; this is his second. And what does he care? They're his slaves. Oh, shame on yer! turpis agan 'e Duruovo. I wonder God lets yer stand there. I can only think that he doesn't want to dirty his hand by strikin' yer down."

Oscar had taken his pipe from his lips. He looked bigger, somehow, than ever. His brown face was turning to an ashen color, and there was a dull, steel-like gleam in his blue eyes. The terrible, slow kindling anger of this northern man made Duruovo catch his breath. It was so different from the sudden passion of his own countrymen.

"Is this true?" he asked.

"It's a lie, of course," answered Duruovo, with a shrug of the shoulders. He moved away as if he were going to his tent, but Oscar's arm reached out. His large brown hand fell heavily on the half-breed's shoulder.

"Stay," he said, "we are going to get to the bottom of this."

"Good," muttered Joseph, rubbing his hands slowly together; "this is crime."

BRITISH NEWS VIA THE MAIL BAG

A stepladder fell 80 feet from the smoke stack of the electricity works at Wednesbury, (Stafford), a few days ago. A crowd of people were watching the man, whose name is John Mitchell, when they were horrified to see the chain holding up the eradle in which Mitchell was strapped break.

An angler hooked a dead man at Carlisle (Cumberland), not long since. The corpse was that of an oster, named James Wilkinson. A man named Dixon was fishing in the river Caled when his hook became fast but pulling strongly he was shocked to find his line dragging out a man's body. Wilkinson had been troubled with asthma and it is thought that he was seized with a coughing fit and fell into the water.

A tiny wound on the finger caused by a cross-thorn was given as the cause of the death of a Colchester inquest the other day on Charles Taylor, aged 56, who died in the Essex County Hospital from blood poisoning. Taylor, who was a platelayer, pricked his finger with a piece of gorse while working on the railway. Three weeks afterwards he consulted a doctor, who lanced his finger, but, too late, and the man became worse and died.

The collapse of a flagstone, eight feet square, in a pavement at Huddersfield, (York), the other evening caused three pedestrians to fall into a cellar. Shortly before the accident two inspectors of the corporation tramways department had noticed that the pavement appeared to be sinking. They descended into the cellar below, and one of them, Inspector Gledhill, had just struck a match when the stone collapsed, grazing both him and his companion.

The king's oldest servant, Mrs. Hannah Greensides, the veteran inhabitant of Beverly, died recently in her 100th year, after being custodian to the East Riding Quarter Sessions House for most of her life. She was carried to the grave by the ten tallest policemen in the East Riding Police Force in the presence of the principal citizens of the town, headed by the mayor and the County Chief Constable. The coffin was followed by the grave also by a large number of her descendants from all over Yorkshire.

A wasp sting caused a serious carriage accident at Hayward's Heath, a few days ago. Three ladies, Miss Chance, of Hove, Miss Turner, and Miss Jolly were being driven to the station at the conclusion of a holiday visit, when the horse, severely stung, bolted down the road at top speed. The driver was unable to check the maddened animal, which headed for the plate-glass windows of an hotel. The terrified ladies clung to the carriage, which swayed from side to side of the road. Just as a dash into the window seemed unavoidable, the driver managed to pull the horse to one side, and the animal crashed into the corner of the hotel and fell, overturning the carriage. The driver fell on the horse, and escaped with a damaged thumb. One of the ladies, Miss Jolly, had her face cut, but the other occupants of the carriage escaped with only a shaking.

A holiday tragedy occurred at Deaganwy, near Llanidno, (Carmarvon), Wales, on a recent night, the victim being a man named Pierce, aged twenty, of Hampstead. Pierce with some friends went on to the dunes which run along the shore, and he started to burrow into the sand. In the afternoon he went for a bath and afterwards continued his task of burrowing. He was seen lying in the tunnel with only his feet protruding, and was warned of the danger of the sand falling on him. Soon afterwards the sand collapsed and buried the man. A number of children noticed the accident, and rushed for assistance. Men with pickaxes and shovels were quickly on the scene, and within about twenty minutes reached the entombed visitor. Artificial respiration was resorted to for two hours and oxygen was administered, but life was extinct.

The first blind man to make an aeroplane flight in Great Britain is Mr. Frank Knipe, aged sixty-five, who has lectured for eighteen years on behalf of the blind. Mr. Knipe went up as a passenger in a biplane at Hendon, the other day. "The flight was a most pleasurable experience," said Mr. Knipe afterwards, "and the sensation as I rose in the air was remarkable. Although he was flying through the air at the rate of from forty to forty-five miles an hour, he did not find the rush of the atmosphere disagreeable.

Exceptional bravery on the part of a 6-year old boy named Isaac Monish has come to the notice of the North London coroner. Isaac, the son of a tailor, of Whitechapel, lost his life on a recent evening in an attempt to save another boy, named William Nicholson, aged six, who had fallen into the Regent's Canal near Houndsditch. Nicholson fell into the water while trying to reach a ball, and Monish at once jumped in to his rescue. He seized Nicholson by the hand and tried to pull him to the bank, but was soon in difficulties and sank. The boy, Nicholson, was rescued by a laborer named Hunt, who jumped into the water with a rope around his waist. The body of the other boy could not be found.

Pellagra—A Dread Disease—has caused the death of a woman at Westport, near Wellington (Salop), after ten years of suffering. Pellagra, which is practically incurable, is sometimes spoken of as "Italian leprosy." It was long known to be frequent in Southern Europe, especially in Lombardy, where it is so greatly dreaded that the Italians call it the "disease of misery." It causes the skin to peel, the digestive organs and the central nervous system are affected, and finally melancholia and insanity develop. Until recently pellagra was believed to be a form of blood poisoning, caused by bad maize. This theory, however, has been abandoned. The disease is thought to be propagated by a small biting fly, which runs along the shore, and he several cases of pellagra have recently been identified in England, formerly thought to be quite immune from the disease. It is declared to be neither contagious nor infectious.

A notable career ended with the death of Capt. Lang, riding-master of the Dragoon Guards at Aldershot, whose body was found in the London and South Western railway station at Surbiton, early in the morning. A walking-stick was found near the platform and a hat about a quarter of a mile beyond the body. The man also had a first-class single railway ticket from Aldershot to Surbiton in his possession. Capt. Lang was about 50 years old, and was the son of a former vicar of Bentley, Hampshire. His first commission was in the Manchester Regiment, and as a lieutenant he took part in the famous march from Kabul to Kandahar. While serving with his battalion in India he was the victim of circumstances which are said to have altered the whole course of a brilliant career, for he lent a large sum of money to a fellow officer, who died without redeeming his loan, and Lang resigned his commission. Still young and with great ambition to distinguish himself in the Army, he joined the 10th Hussars as a private under an assumed name. His gift in training horses, combined with splendid horsemanship, led to his being sent to Canterbury, where he quickly qualified as a riding master and was given a commission of lieutenant and riding-master of a company of the Dragoon Guards in 1912. He then gave his correct name, but few knew it was the same Lang who had fought in India. Captain Lang was personally congratulated by the King during his recent visit to Aldershot for the admirable jumping display by the recruits of his company of Dragoon Guards.

The Hats that Men Will Wear this Fall. BY CHARLES W. GALLOVAT.

THE opening of the felt hat season there will be witnessed a great many varieties of hats, the style of each one of which will be equally as authoritative as the other. Several shades and colors will appear in soft hats. Among them will be variations of greys, blues, some browns and greens, their popularity rating in about the order named. The last mentioned color, which has been a popular color, is apparently declining, it is a peculiar fact that green in any shade or grey will be looked upon with great favor, both by the young man and the man of middle age. In the mixed colors, the cloth, velvet and satin finishes are called for.

On this subject of soft felt hats, it may be added that the telescope will be given a different crush. Instead of the usual telescope crush, the hat will be crushed in the center on the order of a fedora first. Then, to get the proper effect, the thumb and one finger are inserted in the center of the crown and separated, thus breaking the sides outward.

The popular vogue in hat bands will be to match the color of the hat though there will be some grey hats worn by good dressers with black bands on them. It is also expected that velvet hat bands will be popular with the young man. These made their appearance during the past season, but have been almost entirely interdicted. They did not have an opportunity to bid for favor. They look exceedingly good and hatbands are preparing for an exceptionally good business on them. The color in the back will be much worn and a new one which may be described as a "full bow" has made its appearance and will bid for men's approval.

at Falmouth, (Cornwall), not many days ago. A young South African mining engineer named J. A. O'Sullivan, eldest son of Captain F. O'Sullivan, who in command of the Royal Garrison Artillery at Falmouth, died from miner's phtisis. The body was placed in a white coffin and taken to the Greenbank Quay in a hearse. Here a number of artillerymen were waiting. When the hearse was about eight miles off the shore the engines were stopped. Captain O'Sullivan began to read the funeral service but he collapsed, and the reading was completed by a friend of the dead man, after which the body was buried.

A coal-miner from the Rhymney Valley, in South Wales, who for three years had been a bed-ridden paralytic and epileptic, in Bloomsbury, his name is Thomas Douglas, and he was stricken down with paralysis about three years ago following an attack of influenza. He lost the use of both arms and both legs and his speech was impaired. It is considered a really remarkable cure, although it does not involve any discovery and is not strictly the subject of any special report to the professional societies. The miner has been told that he can go back to the pit-head.

SCOTLAND. The collapse of a wall at Laurencekirk, (Kincairdine), not many days ago, caused the death of a mason's assistant named Craig. Craig was assisting at the demolition of an old time cottage at the farm of a man named Newton, when part of one of the walls collapsed on him, pinning him to the ground. His fellow-workmen, assisted by farm servants, speedily extricated him, but death had been instantaneous.

Oil shale deposits have been discovered in the island of Skye. The deposits, which are extensive, cover an area which may prove equal to that of the Lorraine. It will be recalled that Mr. Churchill stated recently in the House of Commons that the nation had a capital asset in the Scottish oilfields for the day when the Navy would require oil fuel. The present output of crude oil in Scotland is estimated at from 80,000,000 to 100,000,000 gallons a year.

Glasgow municipal trams of late during periods of varying length, have had official printed notices affixed to the glass panels in them. The notices have in more than one instance provoked some adverse criticism and two of recent date—on grammatically expressed placard re-

Another German Royal Romance

ONE of the latest romances of European royalty is that in which the Grand Duchess Marie Adelaide of Luxembourg figures as the heroine and Prince Henry of Bavaria as the hero. The Grand Duchess, who is nineteen, is the youngest ruler in Europe at present. Moreover, she rules her miniature kingdom with an absolutism that is amusing and piquant in the light of her youth and prettiness. Prince Henry of Bavaria is twenty-nine years old. He is a nephew of the Regent of Bavaria. The betrothal of the royal couple would be looked upon with complacency by their families.

CO-OPERATION IS KEYNOTE

The Discussion.
 Mr. Chris. Cook asked what had been the difficulty in getting manufacturers.
 Mr. Ham explained that it was owing to the board not having at its disposal suitable sites. As a remedy, he suggested securing an option on a number of properties for six months.
 Mr. Emmerson said that there was scarcely a city in the United States where prices were held so high.
 Mr. Fred Mann said that as far as he knew the brick manufacturers were willing to carry out the suggestion.

Mr. J. W. Watkins, "What about the city gravel pits?"
 Ald. McEwen stated that the city would be willing to make a very special price.
 Mr. W. P. Kellett wanted to know if the board had in view any small factories; also if the freight would be of a light nature. He stated there were a couple of sites on the Lake Erie and Northern suitable for a small concern.
 The chairman stated that there were three or four concerns.
 Mr. Sam Burnley asked if the board had any properties in view.
 Mr. Ham stated that a real estate broker had said he would sell two acres for less than half the selling price and another would sell a piece of property for what it cost.
 Mr. Kellett asked if the water commissioners had ever thought of letting any of the waterworks property go.
 Mr. Ham stated that the Water Commissioners did not intend to dispose of any of the land.
 Mr. Burnley did not think there would be any difficulty in securing manufacturing concerns if the board had sites at its disposal. He was willing to give an option for six months on a property of which he was part owner.

The manager of the Brantford Roofing Co. was not present but Mr. Schultz thought the company would do so.
 Messrs. Lou Taylor and L. D. Barber, architects were also willing to assist.
 Mr. Minnes assured the meeting of the support of the plumbers.
 Schultz Bros. and Mickle Dymont and Son will do their share.
 A 20 per cent Reduction.

The co-operation Mr. Ham believed would make a reduction of 20 per cent all around. The board had been hindered in its operations by the money stringency and the question being nearly settled manufacturers would be in a position very soon to look for locations. The board were already in touch with several manufacturers and there would be many more considering Brantford as a place to locate. A little broadness now would prove a benefit afterwards.
 Mr. Robinson, representing J. S. Dowling and Co., real estate brokers, stated that there would be no commission asked on sales made by his firm and he was willing to meet other real estate men and talk the matter over.
Suggested Going to Government.
 Mr. Brewster, M. P. P. thought as the board were thinking of securing options on properties for six months it would be advisable to get authority from the government to secure and hold lands for manufacturing purposes. This had been done in other cities.
 Ald. McEwen thought this a good suggestion.

The First Question.
 Mr. Geo. Matthews said the first question a manufacturer would ask would be as to taxes, water, sewerage, etc. He thought these matters should be taken up with the city council.
Switching Problems.
 Discussing switching problems it was suggested that land laying south of the Cockshutt Plow Co. and at present unsuitable for locating on could be claimed by building a dyke and the dyke used as a roadbed for a switch. The property could be taken into the city and the money spent would be returned in taxes.
 Mr. John Muir thought the railway companies entering the city might be interested in the securing of manufacturing concerns. Land would be purchased by the companies and resold to the manufacturing concerns.

 Mr. Kellett pointed out that the railways can only hold land for railway purposes.
Raised Objection.
 Mr. Brewster thought the waterworks property might be used.

A strong objection was raised to this by Mr. J. T. Hewitt. The city wanted a breathing spot and he believed the waterworks property should be left for this purpose. The manufacturer wants a residential district and he suggested that several bridges be put across the river, opening up a new district.
 Mr. W. F. Cockshutt, M. P. stated that he had endeavored to have the government dispose of the 160 acres lying on either side of the Brantford and Hamilton Radial and now used by the Mohawk Institute for farming purposes. This was thought to be a good manufacturing site.
 The whole situation will be taken up further.

 "A gentleman's agreement" and "a cast-iron and rigid constitution" were the terms applied by Lord Northcliffe to the British and the United States Constitutions respectively when he spoke before the Montreal Canadian Club.

PARIS FAIR BEST EVER THIS YEAR

Big Entry List Containing Splendid Exhibits in All Departments.

Ideal weather and splendid exhibits made the opening of the Paris Fair yesterday a record breaker. The number and quality of the exhibits this year far exceeds any previous show held in Paris. The high standard of excellence which is always maintained at this fair, was much in evidence. The classes were all well filled and the entry list was larger than was expected. Deserving of particular mention was the art exhibit. While the facilities for showing were not all that might be desired, yet the quality was unusually fine.

The ladies work was one of unusual excellence. This class includes the showing of homemade lace, underchiefs, knitted slippers, coronation braiding linen work, drawn work, embroidered sofa pillows, etc. Miss McCutcheon of Toronto, who was a large exhibitor in this class, was successful in winning a large number of prizes.

There is a splendid exhibit of roots and vegetables. This class is well filled and the quality and quantity of exhibits reflects great credit on the Fair.

The showing of horses was exceptionally fine. Never before in the history of the Fair was such an exhibition of horses. The classes were well-filled and competition for prizes was very keen.

Another outstanding feature of the Fair was the excellent showing of cattle. There was also a fine exhibition of swine and poultry. The exhibits of sheep was also in keeping with the other excellent exhibits of live stock.

Great interest was manifested in the exhibit of the children's work. This class naturally was well filled, and the children's parents and friends took delight in paying great attention to the department. There were some fine exhibitions of scholars hand-writing. Nearly every inch of space in the main building was occupied and the officers are delighted with this year's Fair.

 A corner's jury at Alexandria returned a verdict equivalent to manslaughter in the case of Mrs. Charlotte Taylor, who shot and killed her married daughter. She will probably be detained in Cornwall Hospital pending final action.
 James Elliott, found in a stack on a wharf at Kingston with a broken leg yesterday morning, said he had been there since Saturday, when he informed two soldiers, who had carried him there, to inform his sister, and they had forgotten.
