British Destroyer and Torpedo Boat Sunk Rioting is Reported in the City of Cologne American Force May Cross Mexican Border

VILLA'S BANDIT FORCE CHASED ACROSS THE BORDER BY TROOPS

Mexicans Turned and Faced Their Pursuers on a Series of Hills 15 Miles South of the Boundary Line—Other American Towns Also in Danger.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Columbus, N.H. March 10.—Federal troops in increased numbers to-day patrolled the Mexican border near Columbus, as a precaution against further invasions of American territory by Francisco Villa's bandit army which yesterday, in a surprise attack upon this town, killed seventeen American citizens and soldiers, wounded many, burned buildings and looted stores before being driven back into Mexico by American troops. More than one hundred of the bandit army were killed and about two hundred wounded in the attack on Columbus. Villa at the head of the main body of bandits was reported early to-day fifteen miles south of the international line, where he halted after a running fight yesterday with pursuing United States troops.

and armed civilians and state militiamen and cowboys are co-operating with the federal authorities in maintaining a border patrol. The first reinforcements arrived early to-day when the first battalion of the Twentieth infantry, 250 men, under Major William R. Sample, arrived from Fort Bliss on a special train. The battalion, after receiving a fresh supply of ammunition, were despatched by Col. Sloum, commanding the troops here, to Victoria, 32 miles west.

Other troops were reported to have been despatched at various points along the border.

CHASED THEM ACROSS THE BORDER.

The pursuit of Villa and his men by 250 American cavalrymen under Majors Tompkins and Lindsay ended when the Villa force made a determined stand after reaching a series of hills, fifteen miles south of the border. The casualties to the American forces during this battle, consisted of the death of a corporal, whose name has not yet been learned, and the wounding of Captain George Williams, who sustained a bullet wound in the hand. The Mexican losses were not reported.

FIVE GREAT PRINCIPLES FOR WHICH GREAT BRITAIN FIGHTS

Viscount Bryce Issues Pamphlet Analyzing Motive Actuating the War—Military and Naval Caste Dominates the German People.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

London, March 10 (Montreal Gazette cable)—The MacMillan Company will soon publish in pamphlet form an article written by Viscount Bryce at the request of a Swiss editor on "the attitude of Great Britain in the present war." By courtesy an advance copy has been obtained. The author enunciates "the principles which animate the British people, making them believe that they have a righteous cause, and inducing them, because they so believe, to prosecute the war with their utmost energy."

These principles are five: "First, liberty; second, nationality; third, maintenance of treaty obligations; fourth, the regulation of the interests of humanity, and especially the exemption of non-combatants from war sufferings and horrors which war brings; fifth, representation by England of a pacific as opposed to a military type of civilization."

Viscount Bryce develops each of these heads and then adds: "A few words of a more personal kind to explain the 'sentiments' of those Englishmen, who have in time past known and admired the achievements of the German people in literature, learning and science, who had desired peace with them, and who had been constant advocates of friendship between the two nations. Such Englishmen do not cease to be lovers of peace because this war, felt to be righteous, commands their hearty support and are now just as determined as any others to carry on to the very victory. The reason is that this war presents itself to them as a conflict between the principles which Lord Bryce enunciates as actuating England, 'the doctrine that the end of the state is power; that might makes right; that the state is above morality; that war is necessary, and even desirable as a factor in progress; that the rights of small states must give way to the interests of great states; that a state may disregard its obligations, whether undertaken by treaty or prescribed by the common sentiment of mankind and that what is called military necessity, justifies every kind of harshness and cruelty in war.'"

Lord Bryce's conclusion is particularly interesting, as reflecting the views of that class of Englishmen whom he so admirably typifies. He writes: "I do not attribute to the people an adherence to the former set of doctrines for I do not know how far these doctrines are held outside those military and naval castes, which now unhappily have gained control of the German policy, and I cannot believe that the German people as I hitherto have known them ever since I studied at a German University approve of the action of their government in their knowledge of the facts relating to the origin and conduct of the war, as those facts are known to the rest of the world. "We have had no hatred of the German people. We did not grudge them their prosperity; neither have we any wish to break up Germany, destroying her national unity or interfering in any way with her internal policy. Our quarrel is with the German government."

IMPORTANT MEETING OF RECRUITING LEAGUE

Matters of General Interest Discussed—Names of Girls and Women at a Central Office Who are Willing to Take Places of Men Going to Front—Retired Farmers and Boy Scouts Talked of For Work on the Land.

An important meeting of the Recruiting Committee took place yesterday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. Lt.-Col. H. Cockshutt, President, in the chair.

There was a large attendance of members and Mrs. Mostyn Cutcliffe and Mrs. George Watt were also present, representing the Women's Emergency Corps.

TREASURER'S STATEMENT
Mrs. R. Scarle (Treasurer) reported receipts of $2,800 and a balance of 40 cents in the Treasury. Two thousand dollars of the sum had been levied on Brant County by the Central Recruiting League, and Lt.-Col. Cockshutt had most generously given his check for the same.

MEETINGS TO CONTINUE.
After discussion it was decided to continue the Sunday night recruiting meetings, but until further notice there will not be any appeal for recruits to come forward to the platform and those attending will not be solicited to enlist in any way either in the audience or at the doors. This step was taken on the basis that the seed sown would probably bear fruit during the week, when those seeing the necessity for service could either join the 125th or 215th.

COMPLAINTS AS TO ALIENS.
Complaints were made with reference to the conduct of certain aliens in the city and Acting Mayor Dowling and Chief of Police Slemin were asked to investigate.
It was announced that recruiting for the 215th would be in Brant County territory only.
TO TAKE MEN'S PLACES.
Mrs. Cutcliffe reported that a large number of girls and women had offered their services to take the place of men going to the front. They were in the leisure class and did not in any way seek to displace other girls, but simply to do a man's work where they could as long as the war lasted. One applicant stated that she felt capable Lieut. Shaver Eadie, formerly of Mt. Pleasant, who died of wounds at the front.

The official announcement says the number of casualties in connection with the sinking of the warships was 45.

quette, Lieut. Vere Seymour, R.N.R., in command and H. M. Torpedo boat No. 11, Lieut. John A. T. Legh, R.N., have struck mines off the east coast and sunk. The casualties were: "Coquette, an officer and 21 men. "The torpedo boat, three officers and 20 men."

No Danger Now to Egypt; Serious Rioting in Cologne; Russians For Trebizond

By Special Wire to the Courier.

LONDON, March 10.—A despatch from the British press representative with the Mediterranean expeditionary force in Egypt, says that danger of a Turkish attack upon Egypt is now regarded as very remote, if not entirely removed. The difficulties for the Turks of moving troops increases with the approach of the warm season, and it is believed in Egypt that the disaster at Erzerum has removed the last hopes on the part of the Turks of carrying out their plans against the Suez.

PROTESTING AGAINST HEAVY LOSSES.
Amsterdam, via London, March 10.—The Telegram states that it has received reports of serious rioting in Cologne on Tuesday last in consequence of the heavy losses of German troops in the battle of Verdun. The reports are further to the effect that artillery had to be placed in the streets to overawe the crowds.

MAKING NOW FOR TREBIZOND.
London, March 10.—Russia is making preparations to use the recently captured harbor of Riza as a naval base for the advance on Trebizond, which is 35 miles distant, according to Petrograd despatches. Riza is an excellent harbor for the purpose, and offers the advantage of satisfactory communications by sea, while the Turks are handicapped by incredibly bad land communications. The Russians now enjoy complete mastery in the Black Sea, and are keeping a ceaseless watch on the Bosphorus.

STAGES IN THE GREAT ADVANCE

Lull in German Attack Only a Period of Preparation.

PLACING THEIR GREAT GUNS

Enemy Ready to Sacrifice Countless Number of Men to Win.

London, March 10.—Col. Repington, the military critic of the Times, emphasizes the necessity of recognizing the fact that the Germans on the western front are determined to secure a great decision, and says that the temporary relaxation and recrudescence of attacks represent only stages in the great advance.

A delay in following up the first advance is to be expected, he says, owing to the necessity of moving the great guns forward.

"The Germans are prepared to sacrifice men without counting, and to win the culminating offensive of the war, but they are acting methodically and not forgetting that it is to their big guns that they owed their greatest successes.

"It is the guns that are playing the principle role now, and guns are commonly difficult to move, especially such very heavy guns and howitzers, in such weather as this, and in view of the fact that the French steadily hold the dominating positions and are quick to act on the slightest sign of a move.

The capture of Forges, Hill 265 and Forges are normal operations of advance. They are undertaken to deprive the French of useful points of support and to draw tighter the chain around the main fortified position.

"We must expect these isolated attacks to extend to other regions until all the German batteries are in their second position and the signs of a general offensive are given. Then the whole front will probably be attacked and the weight concentrated against the sector selected for the grand assault.

ONLY A BRIDGEHEAD

"It must not be forgotten that the French position on the right bank of the Meuse is not considered more valuable in a military sense than any other sector. It is an offensive position from which, had it been the present intention to advance, we might have profited, but in view of the great German offensive it is a thing but a great bridgehead which helps us to break up the German advance and cause the enemy heavy losses. It admirably fulfilled this purpose and will continue to do so. The price asked for it has not yet been paid, and if the Germans want it they must make a higher bid, but because public interest centres on Verdun for the moment it must not be supposed that the French will sacrifice any vital interest to sentiment or defend any particular position longer than it can usefully be defended.

"Fortresses are dead and real interest hinges on preserving an unbroken front, contesting every inch of the ground, making the enemy pay dearly for every yard he advances, and continuing the defence in successive positions until the foe is exhausted and our massed reserves can effectively intervene."

German look-outs in advanced posts are wearing new armor-coated steel helmets, consisting of a head-piece proper weighing slightly more than two pounds, with a heavy detachable steel plating which is very thick and weighs ten pounds. The total weight of the headpiece thus is nearly seven pounds. The helmet is entirely without ornament and is of a dull grey color.

FOOD SOURING IN STOMACH CAUSES INDIGESTION, GAS

Wonder what upset your stomach— which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a riot; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapiesin in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women to-day know that it is essential to have a balanced stomach. A little Diapiesin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapiesin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.

PROVINCE TO TAX FIRE INSURANCE

Action Taken to Bring Non-Licensed Companies Under Control.

Toronto, March 10.—The Ontario Government will impose a tax of one per cent, on all payments of fire insurance losses in Ontario by non-Ontario companies not licensed in the province. What the amount of the new tax will be cannot be even estimated owing to the absence of any data as to the amount of business done by these companies in Ontario, but it is expected to be considerable.

The necessary legislation was laid before the House just before adjournment yesterday by Hon. I. B. Lucas as a part of an amending bill to the Fire Marshals Act. The new tax, while expected to be a real revenue producer, was primarily designed to equalize the conditions under which Ontario companies are now competing with corporations whose headquarters are in the United States.

For a long time, and particularly during the past few years, a number of the big New England fire insurance companies have been coming into the province and by cutting rates have gathered in a large amount of business. They have not become licensed in Ontario and subject to the new heavy taxation, and the difficulty of exercising control over them has given them a distinct advantage in getting business.

By placing a one per cent. tax on claims paid in the province will make them bear a fair share of taxation, since in order to get business in the future they will have to reduce rates to induce the person insuring to accept the possibility of shouldering the tax. The legislation also provides for full reports to the marshals of every case where the fire insurance is carried in a non-licensed company. This will enable the province to get accurate data on all business done in Ontario by these companies. The bill will come into effect as soon as passed.

CANNING

(From Our Own Correspondent)

The sympathy of this village is extended to the sorrowing family and friends of the late Mrs. Richard Eaton of North Burford. Mr. West Eaton of this village is a son. The late Mrs. Eaton was a resident of North Burford all her lifetime.

Mrs. Edward Kenyon, Governor's Road, was taken to the Brantford Hospital for a weak shoulder and an operation. She was as well as could be expected at time of writing. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Young men of Etonia have joined the colors.

Mr. Charles Eaton of Mich., who came home to attend his father's funeral, gave a very earnest discourse in the Etonia Church on Sunday afternoon, taking his text from John 16:33. He said: "Be of Good Cheer, Have Overcome the World."

Many of his old friends and school mates, who had not seen him for years were present and all listened with marked attention. He told of his own conversion in a very impressive manner, and of the good cheer that comes to all who live Christ's life. All felt it was good to be there.

Friends from Canning send best wishes to the three young men: Pte. Dawson, Pte. A. Channing and Pte. Earl Balkwill who have enlisted with the 168th Battalion. The Rev. F. W. Waters, pastor of the Baptist church, Wolverson, has also enlisted for overseas service.

Mrs. D. Chesney took up a collection on Wednesday in aid of the tobacco fund for the soldiers. Canning is a small village, with but few residents, but most of them are loyal, and always willing to help.

We are pleased to say that Mrs. O'Neill is much better.

Mrs. Thomas Morris is better after her recent illness.

Mr. James Given was in Paris on Saturday.

Mr. Buckborough and Mr. Martin were in Mt. Vernon on Saturday.

Heavy snow fell here on Monday forenoon, but changed in the afternoon to a terrible storm of hail, thunder and lightning, which raged about two hours.

A CLEAR BRAIN and healthy body are essential for success. Business men, teachers, students, housewives and other workers may find the Sarsaparilla gives them appetite and strength, and makes their work seem easy. It overcomes that tired feeling.

THE COURIER

Published by The Brantford Courier Limited, every afternoon, at Dalhousie Street, Brantford, Ontario. Subscription price: By carrier, $3 a year; by mail to British possessions and the United States, $2 per annum.

Friday, March 10, 1916.

The Situation.

Over The Courier's leased wire service to-day came official denials from France with regard to recent claims of the Huns with reference to Verdun fighting. The Crown Prince evidently planned to place himself on a high military pinnacle in connection with this operation. He conveyed the message to his troops that after the heavy gun bombardment, all they would have to do was to walk into the shattered enemy trenches as if on parade.

Petrograd expects that the Turks will soon collapse in Asia Minor, although official denial comes from there, that the now sadly demoralized foe, has made any peace proposals. The relief force for the British soldiers hemmed in at Kut-le-Amara is now only seven miles from that place, having formally declared war against Portugal, makes the line up as follows.

ENTENTE. CENTRAL POWERS

- Great Britain Germany
France Austria-Hungary
Russia Turkey
Italy Bulgaria
Belgium
Serbia
Japan
Montenegro
Portugal
San Marino.

Portugal, according to last figures, had a population of 5,500,000, a peace establishment of 50,000 and war 100,000.

The Matter of Recruiting.

In Brantford and Brant County there has been a magnificent response to the recruiting call. In this regard we stand first per capita of population, when allowance is made in the case of Toronto for University and other corps whose units come from all over the province.

The Stratford Beacon expresses the opinion: "The recruiting operations ought to be directed by the Militia Department and the whole thing undertaken as if it were a matter of vital interest to the country, which it can scarcely be said to be as it is now put before the people. The Minister of Militia seems to take it for granted that sufficient men will be raised. He has been even reported to have said that more men could be raised than are supposed to be of military age in the country although the purpose of knowing how many there are and of placing them with a view to rounding them up."

NOTES AND COMMENTS

That little side-show of Uncle Sam with Mexico will do for the moving picture films.

'Twas the voice of the householder, he was heard to complain. "I've shovelled before; got to shovel again."

The latest rumor is that Greece is now likely to enter the field on the side of the Allies. Just as if the war flame wasn't mounting high enough already.

The statement is made that Winston Churchill's spectacular attack was designed to start things moving for the turning out of Atquith. The fools most decidedly cannot be all dead yet, if anyone thinks that Winston is big enough for that job.

Bishop Farthing has issued an appeal in Quebec asking that the bilingual agitation be dropped until after the war. His Lordship has evidently not realized the fact that the whole thing is mainly a deep laid political game.

It was just like Carvell to make the charge in the Dominion House that Sir Sam Hughes had run away from the shell charges. Anyone who knows the Canadian Minister of Militia is just as well aware that he is not built on those lines, as Carvell is on those of political decency.

Times Are Good.

London, March 9.—The record for pauperism for England and Wales during the past year is the lowest ever reached. Comparing 1875 with 1914, the ratio shows a decrease from 28.2 to 18.5 per thousand, a falling away of practically one half. Pauperism in London separately has not declined in the same proportion, nevertheless the percentage has in this period been cut down from 25.3 to 18.3. As compared with 1914, last year showed a decrease in every division of England and Wales of 67,702 persons, or 11 per cent.

PARIS

Regret Over Departure of a Bank Manager—Fire Brigade Shows Up Well in a Test Run—Prospects Are Good For 25th.

Paris, March 10.—Paris friends will be sorry to lose Mr. D. H. Downie, manager of the Bank of Commerce who is leaving next month for Portage la Prairie. A few years ago Mr. Downie and family came here from the West, and while in town have made many warm friends.

Mr. Downie has always taken a deep interest in St. James' Church, especially in the Men's Society, at one time being their president, as also a teacher in the Sunday Morning class.

Mr. T. Bonnar, president of the Penman Mfg. Co., and Mrs. Bonnar, who is spending a month at Bermuda.

Mrs. A. Koenig, "Riverview Terrace" is holidaying with her daughter, at Goderich.

Mrs. J. Brown of Port Huron, is visiting in town.

Dr. G. E. Cutten—College men continue to do their "bit" for King and Country. The latest outstanding example is that of Dr. G. E. Cutten, president of Acadia College, Wolfville.

Dr. Cutten has taken out his commission and is not only going himself, but is taking twenty-five of his students with him to the front.

He was born at Amherst in 1874 and studied at Acadia and Yale Universities. For a time he was a pastor of Baptist churches in the United States, but returned to Canada at the head of Amherst College six years ago.

In addition to his work as an educationalist, Dr. Cutten is also a religious and educational matter. He is not only giving up his college work, but is leaving a wife and four children.

Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper.—It is like a leopard changing its spots for a Tupper to be anything but a Tory. For this reason the appearance of Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper on the side of the British in British Columbia has attracted nation-wide attention.

Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper was born at Amherst in 1855, being a younger son of the late Sir Charles Tupper. He was educated at McGill and Harvard and then called to the Nova Scotia Bar. He was elected to the House of Commons in 1884 and served as Minister of Marine and Fisheries, and later as Minister of Justice. Sir Charles moved to British Columbia in 1897, retiring from politics and confining his activities to his law practice.

law practice. In the past year or two he has again taken an interest in politics, but this time on the side of the Liberals. Sir Charles has four sons at the front.

Mr. L. A. Lapointe, M.P., who has thrown his hat into the municipal ring in Montreal and announced his intention of running for the majority chair in April, is member of Parliament for St. James division, Montreal.

He has been an alderman of the city for the past sixteen years, for several of which acting as leader of the Council. He was born in Vercheres County, Que., in 1860, educated in Montreal, and went into business as a wine and liquor merchant.

Alderman Lapointe has long been connected with the Union of Canadian Municipalities, and is also interested in the Good Roads movement. In the majority race he will have as his chief opponent, Mayor M. Marché, who is also an alderman of the Council.

General Kuropatkin.—In prize-rings parlance General Kuropatkin has "come back." This general, who figured so prominently in the Russian-Japanese War, has just been given an important command on the Russian front.

At the time of the Russian defeat at the hands of Japan there was a tendency to blame Kuropatkin, but subsequent investigations show that he was not to blame, but that the internal weaknesses of the Russian Army system were at fault.

Following the war in the Russian-Japanese War, Kuropatkin published a book in which he took full responsibility for his mistakes and at the same time paid a high tribute to the bravery and self-sacrifice of his men.

He is a brave, honest, resourceful leader, and with the valuable experience gained in the Russian-Japanese War should prove an important factor in the drive which the Russians will shortly make against the Germans.

Count Von Bernstorff, German ambassador to Washington, must feel pretty sore at J. R. Rathom, editor of the Providence Journal, who has been persistently and consistently exposed Bernstorff's plottings and even his most carefully laid schemes.

Count Von Bernstorff is a naturalized citizen of the United States. Between times he acted as war correspondent in the Sudan and in Cuba, took part in an exploring expedition to New Guinea and another to Alaska.

He is a well-known writer and is regarded as an original subject. He has been managing editor of the Providence Journal for the past dozen years.

Arthur Brisbane.—Newspaper men earning $100,000 a year are not any too numerous in this work-a-day world. Arthur Brisbane, editor of the New York Evening Journal, gets a salary of $2,000 a week, but did not always receive this princely stipend. Brisbane was born in Buffalo fifty-seven years ago and educated in his native city, in France and in Germany. Then followed some years experience in London, where he acted as correspondent for the New York Evening Sun.

He eventually became editor of the Sun and then went to the New York World as editor, but could not get on with the late Joseph Pulitzer and quit.

About twenty years ago he joined up with William Randolph Hearst and started in as editor of the New York Journal at a salary of $2,000 a year and a bonus of a dollar for every thousand of circulation he added to the paper.

His first year's commissions netted him $70,000. Since then he has been put on a salary basis and now gets over $100,000 a year. Brisbane is a yellow journalist but possesses marked ability. He is a clear, concise, unassuming, epigrammatic writer and seems able to forecast and to give the people what they want.

When presented with the freedom of the Fishmongers Company in London a month or two ago, Viscount French in a speech, deprecated the general public rushing to conclusions and forming hasty judgments in regard to the world conflict.

"No one who has not seen it," he added, "can understand how war has been revolutionized."

Field-Marshal Sir Evelyn Wood, who is in his 78th year, addressed the gathering saying: "Lord French always has the knack of being on the spot at the right moment. As commanding officer, he has stimulated the efforts of the men in the firing line by his own heroic example."

"At one critical moment," Sir Evelyn continued "when a trusted general had been stunned by a shell, and the members of his staff were also incapacitated for over an hour, Lord (then Sir John) French took charge of the subordinates army himself, and made dispositions which threw back the Germans."

THE PROBS

Toronto, March 10.—The disturbance which was approaching Lake Superior yesterday morning is now centered over Lake Ontario with much increased energy. It has caused gales and snow over Ontario.

FORECASTS:

Northwest and north winds, decreasing to-night; fair and cold to-day and on Saturday.

ONE MORE One man joined the 125th yesterday, Charles Webber, English, 42, 33 laborer, married; Tutela P.O.

NEW INSTRUMENTS The new instruments for the 125th Battalion brass band have arrived in Toronto. They are the product of the famous Benson, British firm, and cost is in the neighborhood of $1,600.

WITH THE POLICE. There was quite a variety of cases at the police court this morning. A vagr was remanded for a week. The defendant in a truncky case promised to send his boy to school, so the case was adjourned. A false pretences case as well as a breach of the Carthers' by-law was settled up, while a billed man for procuring liquor was remanded. A party charged with stipulating on matters placed in a pledge was let out on suspended sentence on promising to fix up the receipts to read as the law required.

DONATION The Kaufman Rubber Co. of Berlin, Ont., intimated to Mr. Axford of the Children's Aid Society a splendid rubber which were classed as seconds, and rather than sell to some dealer at a very low price would prefer them given to deserving cases gratis. As a result, they have sent to Mr. Axford two cases of rubbers for men, women and children. They will be given out from the Shelter, and needy cases "dry shod." This is a truly generous gift, and the Kaufman Rubber Co. are to be commended for their thoughtfulness.

SERGT. MAJ. OXTABY

Has Arrived Home to Join the 125th Battalion.

Sergt. Maj. Oxtaby arrived at his home in the city last evening. Sergt. Major Instructor Allen of Brantford, also returned at the same time. He returns to give instruction in physical training. Sergt. Major Oxtaby takes up a commission in the 125th Battalion. He is looking well and reports a good voyage. He left Canada on June 28th and has been ever since at Shorncliffe and West Sandling. Col. Ashton, who has command of the training division in the latter place, he reports to be in excellent health; also Major Ashton and the rest. He saw Lt. Col. Colquhoun shortly before he sailed, that officer having a short leave of absence from the front. Also Capt. F. Miller, who is now a staff captain on the Brigade and Major Percy Jones. All three looked fit. Lieut. Harris Walsh is somewhere in France.

The Sergt. Major reports a very optimistic feeling in the Old Country and that women are doing the work of men in excellent style. All the Brantford N.C.O.'s, who are left with the 36th are now filling important positions.

CANADIAN FORESTERS

Successful Meeting Held by the Executive Committee.

The executive committee of the Canadian Order of Foresters has just adjourned from its quarterly meeting and the following members were present: J. A. Stewart, High Chief Ranger, Perth, Ont.; J. A. A. Brodour, High Vice-Chief Ranger, Montreal, Que.; A. R. Galpin, London, Ont.; R. H. Davidson, Winnipeg, Man.; A. E. Wright, Toronto, and Dr. E. W. Moles, Norwich, Ont. The meeting was a very successful one, several being considered and decided, including the payment of a number of war claims, and also sick and funeral benefit claims of enlisted members, which were dealt with in a way that should be satisfactory to the whole membership. Reports of the various officers showed the year 1915 to have been the best in the history of the order, the net addition to the insurance fund being $45,500.31, and to the sick and funeral benefit $55,398.80, on the face of the year's business. The balance of these funds at the end of the year stood as follows: Insurance, $3,205,868.32; S. and F. B., $49,683.58.

IMPORTANT MEETING

publicity was formed for the purpose of securing speakers and holding public meetings with the object of stimulating recruiting throughout the County of Brant.

Our campaign was opened by two of our leading statesmen, Sir George Foster and the Hon. George Graham, with Lt. Col. Harry Cockshutt, our worthy president, in the chair.

About 30 meetings have been held in different parts of the county, 17 having been held in the city. On all occasions in Brantford, the theatres were too small to accommodate the people and the seats have been unable to gain admission. The meetings have accomplished the purpose for which they were inaugurated and have done much towards the speedy recruiting of the 125th.

An eloquent tribute to the success of our recruiting campaign is the fact that Brant County—famous for loyalty and devotion to the British Empire—has given a higher percentage of men to the colors than any other place in Ontario, and stands second in the Dominion. Brant county obviously realizes the great national crisis, and her men are ready to make any sacrifice to help bring this mighty struggle to an end.

The committee wish to express its appreciation of the Speakers Patriotic League of Toronto, and also of the gentlemen who have so eloquently put before our people the need of the Empire, also to those who have so willingly assisted in the musical part of the program.

We feel we must acknowledge a deep debt of gratitude to Lt. Col. Harry Cockshutt, for it is through his generosity of a donation of $2,000 to the Speakers Patriotic League that they have been able to secure the many speakers without any expense whatever to our league.

Your committee also recognizes the excellent services given by the management of the Brant Theatre, the artistic and patriotic designs of the stage added considerably to the attractiveness of the meetings.

Women drivers may shortly be placed on the Glasgow street cars. The women conductors having provided such a great success the Corporation are now trying out some women drivers. They have placed women on a few cars under the tutelage of experienced men, and they appear to be doing all right, although some of the passengers have not always full confidence in them. An amusing instance of this lack of confidence occurred the other day. A woman, with several children, entered a car. Just as it started it was brought to her notice that a woman was driving, whereupon she got to her feet in great trepidation and demanded to be let out. It was not till the lady conductor was able to reassure her by pointing to a male driver also on the front platform that she consented to remain in her seat. It is a fact also that some quite strong-minded males have rather than take the risk of going down steep thoroughfares in charge of a woman driver.

VILLA MUST BE CAUGHT DECIDES, WASHINGTON

Troops Will Go Over the Border After Him, if Necessary.

By Special Wire to the Courier. Washington, March 10.—It was decided at 10-day's cabinet meeting that Villa and his bandits must be caught even if American troops have to go after them.

As President Wilson laid the Mexican situation before the cabinet today there were strong indications that all the members strongly favored sending an American force across the border to clean up the Villa bandits. The desire of the government to accomplish this without precipitating a controversy with General Carranza will be a strong factor in whatever decision is reached. Senator McCumber, Republican of North Dakota, introduced a resolution in the Senate to-day providing that congress shall direct the President to immediately send an armed force into Mexico to hunt and destroy "murdering bands guilty of atrocities against American citizens."

Miss Helen Losanitch, daughter of the Serbian Minister of Agriculture, who had come straight from the heart of her suffering country, set forth his crying needs and touched the hearts of many in Brantford through Miss Losanitch, Mrs. Pankhurst, who has placed her talents at the service of the Serbians, will tell of their present conditions in Victoria Hall, March 10.

A Government expert has examined explosives and bombs found concealed in a drain at Leixlip, County Kildare, recently. They mainly consist of gelignite, a very high explosive of the dynamite class, and a large quantity of gunpowder and smokeless powder in tins. There were nine bombs constructed from small one quart tins, with handles. These tins were filled with sharp pieces of iron and heads of bolts packed round a gelignite cartridge, into which was inserted a detonator attached to a few inches of safety fuse. Experienced officers consider these bombs highly dangerous. The bombs were of very recent construction, the tins not being rusted in any way.

RECRUITS, SAYS SIR SAM

Master of Militia Gives Hint to the Ladies in Montreal.

Special Wire to the Courier.
Montreal, March 10.—Repetition of method by which Lady Gordon of the Gordon Highlanders in and in the old days—by giving to every recruit, advocated by General Hughes, Minister of War, at the Board of Trade meeting yesterday to consider ways and means of increasing Montreal's contribution to the Canadian army, is being considered by women's organizations here.

General Hughes contended Lady Gordon's plan might be effective here, was satisfied that if the young women were up and doing they could thousands of names of eligible recruits and find out why they had not joined the colors.

The Minister of Militia, further told the Board of Trade meeting that the Montreal district could contribute seventy thousand, or at least five thousand with its 750,000 population, whereas only twenty-nine thousand had come forward.

A general pointed out that Montreal had already been most generous contributing to the patriotic fund, in any other city of its size in the British Empire.

A powerful recruiting speech was delivered by Major the Rev. George Williams, sent to Montreal by Toronto, to stimulate enlistment here.

Nine Consecutive Wins For the Cornwall Girls

Cornwall, March 10.—For the third consecutive time this season, the Victoria ladies' hockey team of Cornwall defeated the Westbros of Ottawa last night 6 to 0. Ottawa was minus the service of Miss Anderson, who played in Ottawa last week against the Vics, when the latter won by 5 to 2. The match last night was very even, Ottawa having a great deal of the play, but showing poor shooting ability. Miss McDonald scored three, Miss Lapense two, and Miss Theobald one. This is Cornwall's ninth straight win. In the three matches against Ottawa the local girls scored fourteen goals and Ottawa three.

Grieve Will Pilot the Guelph Team

Guelph, March 10.—Tommy Grieve, who played the infield for Guelph in the Canadian League last year, has been selected as manager of the Maple Leafs for '16. Grieve was a member of the Hamilton team in the first year of the league, 1915, but was sold before the close of the season to the Philadelphia Athletics, and has had experience in several other leagues. He was considered one of the best infielders in the league last year, but was not overly strong with the stick. His ability as manager remains to be seen.

to the Maple Leaf players on the reserve list have been sent back unassigned, as every one of them contained a substantial cut in salary. The management, however, does not anticipate much trouble in bringing these players into line, and expects to put a winning ball team in the field. The players who have sent back their unsigned contracts are Kieley, Collins, Murphy and Carney.

Wanderers on Saturday

Toronto, March 10.—Wanderers were at full strength on Wednesday when Toronto defeated them in Montreal by one goal, and to-morrow night's struggle at the Arena between the same teams should be worth going far to see. Owing to the animosity between these clubs, the Blue Shirts would rather trim the Red Bands than any other team in the N. H. A. The local youngsters bid fair to beat out either or both Quebec and Wanderers in the standing, if they win to-morrow and from Canadiens the following Saturday.

Nearing the Close of Successful Year

With only the last of home-and-home games in each of the three series of the O. H. A. remaining to be played, the hockey season may be said to be drawing to a close. The final game in the senior round will take place at Berlin between the home team and Riversides of Toronto on Monday. Riversides have a lead of eight goals. Belleville takes the lead of the intermediate race to-night. Last night at Berlin Aura Lee of Toronto took a two-goal lead over the Berlin team in the first of home-and-home junior games for the championship.

Aura Lee Win From the Jacks in Berlin

Berlin, Ont., March 10.—Aura Lee of Toronto earned a lead of two goals over the Berlin Union Jacks here last night in the first of home and home games in the O. H. A. junior finals, when they defeated the locals by 4 to 2. The second game will be played in Toronto on Wednesday night of next week. Berlin was without the services of their best man, Schnarr. This boy, whose work was a feature against Collingwood in the sudden death semi-final, was unable to secure leave from a Montreal military school, where he is taking a course in music.

SCHNARR'S ABSENCE FELT

Without Schnarr Berlin was below their form. The forward line could not get going and they bunched continually. Schell, who replaced Schnarr was by no means the weak man for the locals. It was the first game he has played for the team this season, and his work was steady and aggressive throughout. The weakness of the locals was at centre. Shirk was not anywhere near his form. He was seldom in centre to take the pass, and many goals were lost by his failure to play his position.

Aura Lee have not for an entire game shown as much as they did last night. The defence was steady and the forwards worked like a machine. The spectators marvelled at their speed and adjuage them the best team seen on local ice in a long time. Aura Lee rushes were not one-man affairs. They were usually made up of three or four men stretched across the ice in a line. When they reached the Berlin defence a series of quick, snappy passes led the local defence bewildered. Were it not for the wonderful work of Childs in goal and the missing of numerous goals by inches, Aura Lee would have had a much longer lead to take to Toronto.

TWO GOOD GOALKEEPERS

Wilkinson, in the Aura Lee goal, was just as steady as was Childs at the other end. On the defence, however, Green outshone Sheldon, something uncommon for the Aura Lee team. Wright flashed at times and showed some clever stick handling. The feature of their work was that they did not seem to put everything he had into the play. Rennie and Little on the wings, worked hard all the time. The feature of their work was their back checking. Gounlock at centre, was, as usual, always in his position and took many passes in the mouth of the goal.

Baseball Flies

The Bisons will train this year at Wilmington, N.C. Pitcher Tyson, last year with Buffalo, is said to have enlisted with a Canadian battalion. Newark have mailed contracts to First Baseman Swain and Pitcher Barger, who jumped the International for the Feds. "Bill" Clymer, the former Leaf manager, picked up a rattling good man when he signed Pitcher Luque for his Louisville club. Luque after leaving Toronto last fall jumped to the Federals. Rochester will do their spring training at home this year, beginning around April 3.

PEKIN HAS YET NO ST. RAILWAY

Rumors Are Current Now That One is About to be Built.

AMERICAN COMPANY IN THE FIELD

The Railroad Stations in the City Are Four Miles Apart.

Peking, March 10 (Correspondence of The Associated Press)—Peking is again alive with rumors that the city is to have a street railway system. Although the city has a population of about one million inhabitants, it has never had any sort of street cars. Richhaws drawn by coolies afford the only means of transportation. Old-fashioned Chinese and Manchus cling to the clumsy Peking cart, which is a heavy two-wheel wooden cart, without a driver, pulled by a single horse or mule. The cart has an arched cover under which passengers sit in a crouching position. The driver sits on a small extension in front of this cover with his legs dangling at the horse's heels.

Roads about Peking are so bad, and many of the streets are so narrow that automobiles are little used, and even carriages are not as satisfactory as rickshaws which can worm their way into the narrowest alleys. An American company is now reported to have made overtures for the street car franchise. Several months ago, an English and French combination was bidding for the street car privileges in Peking and at one time it was reported to have entered into a contract with the government. The minister of the interior, Chu Chi-chien, who is acting director of the Peking municipality, has called a general meeting of officials for a discussion of the proposed street car lines. The Chinese are eager for an improved transportation system.

Peking has two railway stations which are on the opposite sides of the city, a distance of four miles apart. This trip requires nearly an hour in a rickshaw. In the days when time was of little value to the Chinese, suggestions concerning electric street railways were ignored. But now time has come to be more of a factor in Chinese life and there seems to be little opposition to electric cars.

The summer palace, which is probably the greatest show place in the vicinity of Peking, is about twelve miles from the legation quarter, and in the vicinity of Tsing Hua College, which is sustained by the Boxers' indemnity collected from the United States and Germany. These two points of interest are much sought by tourists and will probably be connected up by electricity when the city gets a street car system. The Ming tombs the Nankou Pass on the Great Wall, and scores of other points of interest are on the opposite sides of the city. An electric inter-urban system, Tien-tsin, the seaport for Peking, is only eighty miles away.

Taxes For Charity.

By Special Wire to the Courier.
London, March 10.—Dorsetford, a southern suburb of London, has grown tired of flag-days, bazaars, and other methods of collecting for the numerous war-time charities. So it has passed an ordinance banning them all, replacing them with a scheme formulated by the mayor. Under this scheme, two cents a week will be levied on each family in the borough, thus creating a fund from which the Mayor will pay out specified weekly grants to the various war funds.

PARIS, MARCH 10.—(CORRESPONDENCE OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS)—THE PARLIAMENTARY COMMITTEE ON ECONOMY, WHICH HAS BEEN INVESTIGATING WAYS AND MEANS OF SAVING MONEY IN THE PUBLIC SERVICE, TELLS IN ITS LATEST REPORT HOW A MEMBER OF THE COMMITTEE WAS ONE DAY STRUCK BY THE FACT THAT ALL THE AMMUNITION SENT TO THE FRONT WAS PACKED IN ZINC-LINED BOXES. THE ATTENTION OF M. THOMAS, MINISTER OF MUNITIONS, WAS CALLED TO THE FACT, AND HE SUGGESTED THAT INQUIRIES BE MADE AT THE FRONT. IF THE ZINC WAS SUPERFLUOUS IT WOULD BE SUPPRESSED.

Two members of the committee accordingly followed a box of cartridges from Vincennes up to the front trenches, but failed to find out where the zinc was necessary. They consulted everybody enroute from generals and colonels down to privates, but without result. At last the general commanding the Fifth Army solved the puzzle—the zinc was used, he said, merely because it had been used for the last sixty years.

The committee communicated this information to Minister Thomas, who has once issued instructions that no more zinc lining was to be put into ammunition boxes. The saving will amount to a million and a half dollars a year.

DEATH OF AN AGED SCHOLAR

Pioneer in Introducing Western Civilization to Japan Passes Away.

Tokio, March 10 (Correspondence of The Associated Press)—Baron Hiroshi Kato, one of Japan's greatest scholars and one of the pioneers in the introduction of Occidental civilization into Japan, died on February 9, at the age of 81 years. For a long time he was president of the Imperial University here and was virtually the founder of that institution. A philosopher by nature and by attainment, Dr. Kato devoted himself to the introduction of western philosophy into Japan, being himself an advocate of the teachings of Darwin. He translated many volumes and was himself the first Japanese to learn the German language.

Dr. Kato never went abroad, but his name is widely known among scholars of foreign lands. He had the reputation of being a strong opponent of Christianity. He was a great student of Confucianism and Chinese classics. Under him were educated many modern scholars of Japan. He was one of the tutors of Emperor Meiji. When the Japanese Diet came into existence he was appointed a life member of the House of Peers and later created a Baron. In his later life he was a member of the Privy Council, and was regarded as the virtual head of educational life in Japan.

BRITISH MONEY USED IN FRANCE

Pennies and Halfpennies Circulate About Freely.

Paris, March 10.—English pennies and half pennies now circulate freely in France. They are generally accepted without objection particularly since the devaluation of French copper coins made itself felt. Curiously enough the senators are the most rebellious to the circulation of their ally's copper money.

A newsman at the Luxemburg palace says the gray-haired men of the upper house stubbornly refuse the English coppers. The deputies, however, accept them without a word. Postcard vendors seek them out and save them for English customers, considering it an advantage to be able to offer a "Tommy" the coin of his country in change.

Style can't be pressed into your clothes

A tailor's goose can put a veneer of style into your clothes—but the beauty that is more than skin deep requires careful, skillful masterly hand tailoring—the kind that goes into made to measure clothes.

There's more hand tailoring employed in a custom made suit than in any other kind—hand tailoring is a time-honored custom method—it gives the clothes their style permanency.

Hand tailoring is just one of the advantages that custom tailored clothes provide—their styles are more distinctive and their woollens of a really worth while individuality.

Hun Export Measure Hits Dutch Metal Industries Hard

Germany Wished to Get Higher Prices for Her Iron, and Put an Export Prohibition on Certain Kinds, and as a Result Dutch Manufacturers Cannot Get Their Raw Material.

Rotterdam, Netherlands, March 10.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—A stir has been made in the Dutch metal industries by the latest German export measure, which amounts to the annulment of running contracts of Dutch firms with the German iron foundries and threatens the firms in question with the loss of millions of dollars.

Among other measures decided on with a view to contracting the very unfavorable exchange rate against Germany, the government in Berlin issued an export prohibition on bar "universal" and strip iron, prescribing at the same time that consents for export shall only be granted where a minimum price fixed by it is paid. With a view to attaining this minimum price, the sale has been placed in the hands of the Steel Works Union in Dusseldorf.

A meeting of the leading Dutch engineering and shipbuilding concerns and connected trades was held recently at which a resolution was passed emphasizing that the carrying out of the measure in question will cause serious damage to Dutch industry, and urging the Netherlands government to take steps to get the export prohibition withdrawn.

A committee was appointed and charged to make representations to the German authorities. Some of the manufacturers present had already placed themselves in communication with British iron foundries with a view to obtaining their supplies, and a second committee was nominated to prepare the way for securing other iron consignments in that country.

It is recognized that Germany has a right to obtain higher prices, if it can, for its raw iron exports so far as all fresh contracts are concerned, especially when it is remembered that owing to the withdrawal of labor for the army, only 11,790,199 tons of iron were produced in 1915, as against 14,298,547 tons in 1914 and 19,309,173 tons in 1913. The unfairness lies, it is argued, in giving the measure retrospective force and applying it to contracts already signed.

No export of bar iron is now permitted from Germany below a price of $3.60 gold per kilogram, which means an increase of more than 60 per cent on the running contracts. This loss is irrevocable, so far as the manufacturers are concerned, for it is out of the question to transfer the burden to the shoulders of their customers in the case of contracts already entered into.

Finger Prints of Soldiers.
London, March 9.—Many officers of the British army who have witnessed numerous attempts to personate soldiers fighting in the trenches or reported missing, are convinced that the finger-prints of every fighting man should be taken as a certain means of identification.

NOT THE TIME FOR ENQUIRY

R. B. Bennett Pleads For Undivided Prosecution of the War.

Ottawa, March 10.—An eloquent and powerful speech in support of the Government's position regarding the motion for a munitions enquiry was delivered in the House yesterday by Mr. R. B. Bennett, of Calgary.

"I do not defend the Shell Committee," said Mr. Bennett. "I do not attack it. I say the time is not opportune for an enquiry of this nature."

Mr. Bennett followed Mr. F. B. Carvell, who concluded a four-hour speech, begun on Tuesday, and delivered with the Carleton member's customary violence. Mr. Carvell repeated the statement made previously, by himself and others, that excessive prices were paid for shells by the former Shell Committee, that deliveries were slow, that there was a wide distribution of contracts among gunpowder companies, in which Col. Wesley Allison was interested, and that every dirty trail led to Col. Allison. He profited by the absence of General Hughes to say that the Minister of Militia had run away.

Mr. Bennett characterized the Carvell speech as piffle. He also described it as scavenging. He argued that there should be no investigation during the progress of the war, pointing out that an investigation such as that asked for in Sir Wilfrid Laurier's motion, would interfere seriously with the production of munitions. The British Government had taken the position that there should be no investigations until after the war. Mr. Bennett reminded the House of the

Smuggling in Holland Has Become One of the Fine Arts

Forty Thousand Troops Employed Last Year to Stop the Trade, and Nearly as Many People Were Prosecuted For Shipping Goods Across to Germany.

The Hague, March 10.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—The Dutch Minister of War, reporting in the Second Chamber of the Dutch Parliament says that 36,679 persons were prosecuted for smuggling goods into Germany last year.

Forty thousand soldiers were employed to prevent smuggling, but because of the 600 miles of frontier the Dutch government is now declared a state of siege and the military commanders order the whole life of the community. They have resorted in some regions to banishing all undesirable persons. The number thus deprived of their right of residence last year is 2,297.

A bill passed recently limits supplies for the border towns to quantities that were normal before the war. The authorities carry out the anti-smuggling laws in a most drastic way, realizing that the traffic was endangering the country's overseas supply by awakening the distrust of the Allies.

Leather was smuggled inside barrels of mussels, balls of rubber inside the outer shells of onions and bags of meal got up to represent sleeping babies were sent over the border. Hundreds of thousands of the frontier population were after the beginning of the war, engaged in the light or forms of the proscribed traffic. Bribery of the frontier guard is said to have been the method tried most frequently.

The strip of country along the various frontiers is now declared in a state of siege and the military commanders order the whole life of the community. They have resorted in some regions to banishing all undesirable persons. The number thus deprived of their right of residence last year is 2,297.

When asked if he wanted some food before he went to sleep, he replied that all he felt able for was sleep, as he was completely exhausted by his long tramp in the cold. He stated that he had 30 cents for his breakfast, and would trust to luck for getting enough to eat on the way to Toronto.

SHELLED FOR 52 HOURS, YET THE CANADIANS HELD THEIR GROUND AND SMASHED PRUSSIAN GUARDS

Tenth Battalion Held on Grimly Through Devastating Artillery Fire, and When the Choice of Germany's Troops Bore Down on Them They Simply Wiped Them Out.

Toronto, March 10.—A thrilling story of the glorious victory of the 10th Battalion of Canadians over the 11th and 14th Prussian Guards is told in a letter received by Mr. R. R. Gamey, M. P. P., for Manitoulin, from Pte. O. L. Macklem, of the 10th Battalion Canadians, now in France. The stirring narrative was read by Mr. Gamey in the Legislature yesterday afternoon, and applause broke out repeatedly as the members listened, with moist eyes, to the tale of bravery and optimism of the Canadian boys in the trenches. "The one thing that impressed me most," observed the writer, "is the way that the boys from Canada can fight and die."

The letter, which is dated Flanders, February 21, 1916, says:

SHELLED FOR FIFTY-TWO HOURS

"You have no doubt seen where we have been in a lot of fighting lately. The German Crown Prince has made another drive for the coast, but he is in a worse position than when he started the drive. We sure gave them their own, but I must admit he gave us a hard time of it for ten days. He used fifty-seven four-gun batteries on us for fifty-two hours. You have no idea what it was like. I don't know how we ever lived through it, but we stuck to it, and when the 11th and 14th Prussian Guards charged us we simply swept them into eternity. That was at 3 o'clock a.m. on the 17th of February. They got into our trench at four points, but they were not there long. Everywhere I looked there were dead Germans. It was a sight I shall never forget. The Huns got 16,000 reinforcements about day in light, and then the fun started in earnest. My battalion was sent along with two Imperial regiments to hold a road which the Huns were trying to break through. These Imperial troops were the Durhams and Coldstreams. We just got to our position in time when they rushed upon us. We were told not to open fire until they got fifty yards from us. Then they opened up. They just melted away: 952 dead Germans were on that road inside of 300 yards. I was not hit. How I escaped I shall never know. My Lieutenant was killed within a yard of me, two pals were killed beside me, and a bullet went through the stock of my rifle. The air was alive with bullets, but the God of battles spared me."

27,000 SHELLS ON 80 ACRES

Our position was in a wood along the side of the road, and about this time the Germans withdrew and their artillery commenced shelling this wood with high explosive shells. We had it was simply unbearable. We had to we would all have been killed. I wish Mr. Gamey, you could see the woods to-day. They threw 27,000 shells on eighty acres.

I could write one hundred pages and not tell you what I would like to describe to you, but I will write you again in a few days. But, before I conclude I want to say that the one thing that impressed me most is the way that the boys from Canada can fight and die.

CAN BEAT THE PRUSSIAN.

Boys who a year or two ago had never been drilled, knew nothing about discipline, yet they can go up against the Prussian Guards (who are undoubtedly the best trained men in the world), and beat them every time, but it is that bulldog spirit that we cannot be beaten that does it. That is the way I figure it out, and as an instance of how these heroes can die, I remember Pte. Eddie, of my company, 10th Battalion, was shot with three bullets through the stomach. I asked him if I could help him, and he said: "Yes, you can help me by keeping on killing those devils." He added: "I will be in eternity in a minute or two, but I would rather die here than be me something more, but he was gone, and I thought as I looked at his pale face, what a glorious death. Well, Mr. Gamey, that is the spirit of these brave Canadians out here. The world does not possess their equal; they can never be beaten. And let me say to you, as an honorable member of Parliament, there are a lot of us who will never return to our loved ones and the land we love, but there are thousands who will return crippled for life. See that they and their families never want. We are going to win, we are winning every day. Let it be a grand and glorious day. Yours sincerely,

O. L. Macklem,
10th Battalion, D. Co., 10th Battalion, Canadians, France.

COME OVER AND HELP US

P. S.—There are a lot of boys here who know you real well, and they have said: "Good boy, Bob Gamey, he is getting us all the recruits he can." We saw your picture in the paper, where you were speaking at recruiting meetings. Keep up the good work. Tell all the boys to come over and help us. There can be no peace until Germany is soundly beaten. Corp. Crags, who was a steward at the Walker House, wants me to give you his best regards.

19 YEARS OLD, BUT A MAJOR

Not Old Enough to Vote, Yet Second in Command of a Battalion.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

London, March 9.—Although barely nineteen years of age, Henry Pattinson, of Ruskington, Lincolnshire, has just been promoted to be a major in the British army. He has risen by sheer merit from a private in a school-boy battalion.

Pattinson's father is a minor town official in Ruskington. When the war opened the boy was at Halesbury School, where he had a greater reputation as a football player than as a scholar, although he was regarded as too young for a place on the school's first eleven. In the school military battalion his superiors reported that he "shows no special aptitude for military duties," but as soon as he was broke out he offered his services. He was rejected on his first two applications, but he persisted, and the authorities finally stretched a point, and he won appointment as second lieutenant in a competitive examination in September, 1914.

When he became a captain last June he was the youngest captain then on active duty in France. His regiment saw very severe fighting at Loos and after the series of battles there he found himself the senior surviving officer. Until a new colonel was appointed he was in charge of his regiment, and he acquitted himself so well that he was in due course rewarded by promotion to his present place as major.

Cigarette smoking by small boys is not permitted in the streets of London and travellers in underground trains have noticed lately that the railway is developing into a refuge for these boys smokers. Between King's Cross and Hammersmith the other day three boys, the eldest not more than fifteen, entered a smoking compartment at different stations and lit up cigarettes the moment they were seated. One, asked his age, replied, "Fourteen," and explained: "I like a cigarette, and the only chance I have in town is in the underground trains—there are too many policemen about the streets."

WHISKY STILL'S TAKEN OVER

British Government Turns Them Into War Factories.

London, March 10.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—The distillers and prohibitionists have hailed with joy an intimation by David Lloyd-George, the Minister of Munitions, that all patent whisky stills in the British Isles, now being taken over by the government for war work until the end of the war, to be used for the production of certain of the ingredients of explosives.
There will be no shortage of whisky, however. The distillers say they have a stock in bond quite sufficient to supply the normal consumption in this country for at least three years. They also point out that unless the war should come to a sudden end their supply would last four years owing to the lessened consumption due to the restricted sale now in force.
Only about a dozen of the biggest distilleries in Scotland come under the category of patent stills. In the year ended March last there were distilled in Scotland 28,000,000 gallons, and there are in the country 133,000,000 of still or pot stills not likely to be taken over by the government. These fermented liquor obtained from barley is boiled in a pot. The escaping vapor passes through a pipe where it condenses as spirit, but it is impure and has again to be distilled. The patent still is a complicated apparatus which, with the application of steam, works quickly and requires no second distillation.

Berliners Bring Petitions to Toronto

Berlin, Ont., March 10.—Yesterday City Solicitor H. J. Sims and Aldermen W. G. Cleghorn and J. A. Hallman took to Toronto the various petitions signed by the manufacturers, business men and ratepayers of this city favoring the changing of the name of the city, and submitted them to the Attorney-General's Department. The special act to change the name of the city, it is expected, will be introduced in four days. One of the petitions contained the signatures of 116 manufacturing concerns in Berlin out of a total of about 125. The other petitions were very largely from the business and professional classes. The name of this city will not be taken until the result of the amalgamation negotiations with Waterloo are known.
