THREATS ISSUED

Against Mayor Gaynor of New York and a Police Captain Who Has Told of Graft—A Menacing State of Affairs.

(Courier Leased Wire).

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—Reports that attempts upon the life of Police Captain Thomas Walsh were feared because of his confession to police graft involving others were substantiated by admissions from Walsh's physicians to-day that his patient's food was being very carefully examined before he was permitted to eat it.

"Do you mean that you are afraid that Walsh's enemies might attempt to poison his food?" he was asked. "I don't say that, I can only say that his food is examined. We are not taking any chances," was the doctor's reply.

The district attorney is also taking no chances either on the rather serious state of Walsh's health or on the risks of taking Walsh to the Walsh at his Madison Avenue home and to hold a formal session at the bedside of the sick policeman.

AFTER GAYNOR TOO.

(Courier Leased Wire).

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—Daggers and blood are figuring in anonymous letters which Mayor Gaynor is receiving, according to intimations which he made in an address at the annual dinner of Cooper Union Alumni last night. He declared that the city administration was not disturbed by the "abuse" that had been heaped upon it during the last three years. "There are some strange people who are disturbed by these things," he continued, "even to the point of sending us letters written in blood and with daggers on them, and even fixing the day and hour of our taking off. But some one has said that lightning never strikes in the ST. PAUL, Minn., Feb. 13.—Robt. A. Smith, five times mayor of St. Paul, died at his home here early to-day after an illness of several days. He was 85 years old, Mr. Smith who spent half a century in public service was a member of the board of county commissioners at the time of his death. He served two years as representative in the Minnesota legislature and four years as state senator.

CAN RECOVER MONEY.

(Courier Leased Wire).

BUFFALO, Feb. 13.—A man who buys merchandise on the installment plan and fails to keep up his payments can recover all the money paid on it if the installment house takes the goods away from him, ac-committed at Montgeron and Chantilly. All the confrontations were rapid and categorical, and the prisoners, as usual, made point blank denials, with brazen faced assurance and arrogance.

Considerable sensation was caused by revelations of anonymous threats made to witnesses for the prosecution, as well as to jurors in regard to terrible retribution that they may expect in the event of a conviction.

BOXER DEAD

(Courier Leased Wire).

HAZLETON, Pa., Feb. 13.—Johnny Durkin of Avoca, Pa., 21 years old, a boxer who was forced to stop after the first round of his fight with "Young" Latzko here on Monday night, as the result of what Durkin claimed was a foul blow, died from peritonitis at the Hazleton hospital early to-day. AN ASSAULT

(Courier Leased Wire).

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—Anti-American feeling at Acapulco, Mexico, culminated in an assault upon two officers of the cruiser Denver before she departed yesterday for Acapulco, Honduras. The victims of the assault were Surgeon Cameron and Ensign Guthrie, who were passing through the streets. Neither was injured.

A GENERAL ATTACK

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 13.—The fighting was begun at 8 o'clock by a federal battery of artillery, and the general action on the rebel positions was expected to start immediately.

MANY REQUESTS

For Permission to Join in the Inaugural Parade of President Elect Wilson—The Total Reaches Several Thousands.

(Courier Leased Wire).

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—Members of the inaugural committee are beginning to show some slight signs of nervousness over the extent of the problem presented by the unexpected growth of the procession of March 4th, which promises to be the longest inaugural parade that has ever passed down Pennsylvania avenue. Although three weeks off, requests for places for 50,000 men in the line already have been received. It is feared that further requests will make the great band of marching men and horses difficult to direct.

The civic portion of the parade alone will aggregate 20,000 men, according to a partial list drawn up by the committee to-day. This division is being augmented every day and within the next three weeks may be doubled.

To date, it was announced the State of Ohio has outdone all other States of the Union in sending representatives for the procession and the inauguration ceremonies. Formal notification was received by the committee that the entire Ohio legislature will adjourn for several days and come to Washington in a body.

WAS IT SCURVY

Which Led to the Undoing of Scott and His Companions—A Famous Traveller Ventures This as His Opinion.

(Courier Leased Wire).
NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—A cable to The Tribune from London says: "Dr. Hansen suggests that Captain Scott and his party were attacked by scurvy. He says: "I believe Scott's calculations were correct, and had he only adverse weather to contend with, would have been back with all his men safe and sound, but the treacherous enemy, which defeated them was surely scurvy, of which he had no suspicion and therefore could not take it into his calculations. When it was stated that Petty Officer Evans was ill, this can scarcely have been anything, but scurvy, and for several days they had to take him with them, until at last he died from concussion of the brain which a weak man suffering from scurvy might easily get when descending a glacier."

"Then Captain Oates' illness must surely have been scurvy, also. Frost bitten hands and feet are just what scurvy patients are so liable to, because the circulation is impaired, and it is not improbable either that Captain Scott and the others were suffering from incipient scurvy, and their physical powers thus reduced without their themselves being aware of it. Thus, this appears to have been the real cause, but one which Scott could not know of, and one, moreover, which there could be no means of combating after having once left winter quarters."

Sven Hedin, the famous traveller and author sends the following inscription on Capt. Scott to the Geological Survey: "As brilliant as the aurora australis, the immortal glory arises around the name of the greatest Antarctic explorer of all times. He has reached his goal. He has served his science. He has sacrificed his life. He has honored his country."

A Valuable Package of Stock Certificates

(Courier Leased Wire).
NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—A packet of stock certificates turned yellow, but believed to be worth $600,000 together with an unopened envelope containing documents belonging to the late Brigadier-General Daniel C. McCallum, have been found in a junkman in a pile of rubbish, it was learned to-day. The papers were found in a musty little trunk that may have been gathering dust for forty years. Attorneys are giving publicity to the discovery in the hope of finding General McCallum's heirs. In addition to the stocks, which are mainly of New York and Virginia railroads, whose identity has long been lost in various mergers, there is a letter from Edward M. Stanton, Secretary of War under Lincoln, commending the work of General McCallum and calling attention to the fact that it was largely through his ability as a bridge constructor that Sherman's memorable march to the sea was accomplished.

BIG STRIKE THREATENED.

(Courier Leased Wire).
NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—Unless some middle ground of agreement is reached to-day or to-morrow by the fifty-four Eastern railroads and their 34,000 firemen, it is considered likely that a strike will be called Friday night, effective 48 hours thereafter.

This was the consensus of opinion to-day of those following the conferences, so far futile, through which Judge Martin A. Knapp, of the United States Commerce Court, has been trying to bring the two sides together. Each has refused to concede a single point, however, and if no understanding is reached to-day President Carter of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen says he feels that a strike will be necessary to clear the air. At the same time he insists that if the men do walk out, the responsibility lies not with the union, but with Wall Street and the railroads.

It is said that the union has in its treasury $600,000 for an emergency fund. On their part, it is understood, the railroads have made elaborate plans for a strike, and have already begun hiring thousands of strike-breakers.

The firemen's committee meets the government mediators this forenoon but neither the mediators nor the union representatives expressed much hope for the outcome.

"And the agreement that the defendants may retain all payments for rent or hire for the use of the goods is ineffectual," Justice Marcus ruled. "The payments were made on the purchase price and not for rent and he is entitled to recover the amount paid."

A NEW MATERIAL.

(Courier Leased Wire).
NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—A London cable says: A new material for the production of paper was suggested at the Royal Society of Arts last night. It was stated that if a plant named Hedychium Coronarium, which is a native of India, were cultivated over vast tropical or semi-tropical spaces, mankind should have no need to cut down the forests and make them into paper.

The forests it was said, could go on fulfilling their natural purpose and newspapers could be printed on the substance which looked just like what is now called paper.

Matters are Getting Warm for Americans—Many Had to Flee to the U. S. Embassy in the Capital of Mexico.

(Courier Leased Wire).
WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—U. S. Ambassador Wilson's overnight despatches were laid before President Taft today immediately upon his return from Philadelphia. They contained principally an account of the most disquieting feature of the fighting in Mexico City—the killing of two American women yesterday. Administration officials look with much apprehension upon the effect of the killing of two Americans, and one of the first results of the incident was last night's order to Ambassador Wilson to warn all Americans out of the danger zone.

The president is keeping in constant touch with the situation from three points of view. From the diplomatic side, which involves the actions of Ambassador Wilson in making representations to President Madero and General Diaz in the interests of foreign life and property in Mexico; from the naval viewpoint as it concerns the extent of the activities of several thousand marines and blue jackets who will appear in the Mexican ports within the course of the next 48 hours, and from the military standpoint which involves a determination of the question, as to when, if at all, he shall give the word for the entrainment of the first brigade of the first divisions of the reorganized army of regular troops, which now lies under arms, with knapsacks packed and emergency rations ready for an immediate departure for the south.

Ambassador Wilson's course so far has the qualified approval of the administration, though some of the army men question his attempt to stop hostilities. Admitting that his aim was to protect lives and property of Americans and other foreigners, they believe there will be less blood shed and a speedy determination of the rebellion if the combatants are allowed to fight it out with no interference.

Secretary of State Knox and his immediate advisers, however, do not accept this view, and although instructions have been sent to the ambassador to do everything possible to induce the American residents of Mexico City to vacate their homes temporarily at least and go to some place of safety there is no disposition there to criticize Mr. Wilson for his forcible representations yesterday.

SHOT TO PIECES.

(Courier Leased Wire).
MEXICO CITY, Feb. 13.—Straggling federalists who arrived at the American Embassy this morning, declared that a detachment of Government troops had been shot to pieces on the western edge of the city. This indicated that Diaz has also a mobile force outside his lines in the central district.

Two combatants were killed at half past nine by bursting shells in a

IN FRANCE

The Civil War in Mexico is Arousing Much Interest—Keen Attention With Reference to U. S. Interference.

(Courier Leased Wire).
PARIS, Feb. 13.—The civil war in Mexico occupies a larger place in public interest in France at the moment than does the Balkan war. The keenest attention is paid by members of the diplomatic corps to the possibility of intervention by the United States, the prevailing view being that this probably will occur before order has been restored.

The French foreign office declines to make any comment on the situation, as it wishes to maintain its attitude of neutral observation. The foreign minister however receives constant communications from the French charge d'affaires in Mexico City, who forwards frequent reports of the occurrences there.

The Mexican legation in Paris also from time to time transmits to the foreign office encouraging messages received from the Madero government.

The interest taken in the situation by the ordinary Frenchman is chiefly a dramatic one, and is stirred by the vivid narratives published in the newspapers of the fighting in the streets of a modern city.

Frenchmen hold considerable investments in Mexican securities which have hitherto been little affected on the Paris Bourse by the current events. There have been few transactions in these stocks, and Mexican five per cent actually advanced four cents to-day after experiencing a slight depression on Monday.

Looking For the Owner of a Fortune in Pearls

(Courier Leased Wire).
WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—Under a guard at police headquarters to-day is a small, flat, tan-colored leather casket containing a fortune in pearl jewelry and detectives are seeking its owner. It was picked up yesterday in the middle of the street in the fashionable section of the capitol by W. Dixon, driver of a delivery wagon. Dixon promptly turned the jewels over to the police. The collection includes two bracelets, several pins and brooches, a number of rings and a pearl chain. More than 100 pearls form the settings. In addition to the jewelry, one of the brooches is set with turquoises. There is nothing about either the jewelry or the casket itself which gives any clue to the owner.

Federal Troops Claim to Have the Upper Hand in Mexico

(Courier Leased Wire).
MEXICO CITY, Feb. 13.—Heavy fighting was expected to occur early to-day between the rebels and the federal forces in the centre of the city. At six o'clock movements of troops were observed both in the rebel and federal positions. There was a scattering fire throughout the night, and a sharp exchange of cannon shots shortly after one o'clock, but this lasted only a few minutes.

The government forces were strongly reinforced in the night hours and the federal commander declared this morning that he disposed of almost 7,000 men. The rebels on the other hand were said to number approximately only 3,000. A number of heavy guns were brought up by the federalists before dawn and posted in readiness for the expected action. The federal commander declared that he believed he could win the battle decisively in a short time, and claimed an enormous advantage both in the position and strength of his troops.

Not What He Meant. A party of four just returning from a theater called in at a fashionable restaurant. The prim old maid who was the guest of the evening was charmed with everything, especially the music. While the waiter was standing by the table she asked him to find out the title of the piece the orchestra was playing. The willing waiter promised, but other duties claimed him for awhile, and when he returned the lady had completely forgotten her request. When he bent toward her and softly whispered something in her ear she recoiled with horror. Then, recovering from the shock she turned with cold, relentless fury upon the hapless man who waited.

"How dare you!" she cried. "How dare you!"

It took the terrified waiter quite a time to explain why he had merely breathed the title of the piece so softly. "What Can I Do to Make You Love Me?"—Tit-Bits.

Extreme Case of Eczema

So quick to relieve the itching, so almost covered with salt rhusion or eczema, and, though he doctored and tried almost everything he could hear about, he only got worse. Some-one advised Dr. Chase's Ointment which he used, and to his surprise and relief, after using three boxes, he was cured, and has never had it since. My wife was also cured of salt rhusion on her hands by the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment, after other treatments had failed.

A Ready Weapon Against Pain—There is nothing equal to Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil when well rubbed in. It penetrates the tissues and pain disappears before it. There is no known preparation that will reach the spot quicker than this magic Oil. In consequence it ranks first among liniments now offered to the public and is accorded first place among all its competitors.

THE AMUSING GRITS

Grit papers and Grit leaders still persist in the laughable hallucination that the wallop the party received in September of 1911 was a fluke.

They hint at forcing an early election, and the Toronto Globe in particular is obsessed with the idea that the people have repented of the knock out blow which they gave Reciprocity, and are just panting for the chance to reverse their verdict.

All of which is palpably and absolutely untrue.

There won't be any early election and Reciprocity is so dead that chloride of lime ought to be used.

Premier Borden at a dinner given in his honor by Sir Edmund Osler, made a humorous reference to the Liberal yearning to get back into power and remarked:

The Liberals, he believed, had given his Government just 18 months to live; that period was nearly accomplished, and yet they hoped to survive.

Outside of Laurier the Grits have not to-day a man of first class rank. Graham, a decent and likeable man enough, is certainly not in that category, neither is Mackenzie King or either of the others. Of course some will develop later, but they are certainly not on hand at the present moment.

CURED OF THIS HORRIBLE DISEASE

Edmonton Girl saved by "Fruit-a-tives"

Edmonton, Alta., Nov. 20th 1911. "I had been a sufferer from babyhood with that terrible complaint, Constipation. I have been treated by physicians and have taken every medicine that I heard of, but without the slightest benefit. I concluded that there was no cure for this horrible disease. Finally, I read of "Fruit-a-tives" and decided to try them, and the effect was marvellous.

"The first box gave me great relief, and after I used a few boxes, I found that I was entirely well. "Fruit-a-tives" is the only medicine that ever did me any good for Chronic Constipation and I want to say to all who suffer as I did—Try "Fruit-a-tives"—You will suffer any longer when there is a perfect cure in this great fruit medicine!" (Miss) E. A. GODDALL.

"Fruit-a-tives" is the only remedy in the world made of fruit and the only one that will completely and absolutely cure Constipation. 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

The next election will come in a natural way, and whether the main issue is once more regarding Reciprocity, or the Navy grant, the retention of the Borden Government is practically assured, not only then, but for many years.

SIR JAMES PAYS HIS COMPLIMENTS TO MR. ROWELL.

Sir James Whitney was in good fighting trim in the Legislature yesterday and he gave Mr. Rowell, leader of the Opposition a very bad time of it. Incidentally he also handed a couple of bouquets to the Toronto Globe. Here are some extracts from his speech:

"After being twitted by the premier for the inconsistency of the Globe in taking liquor advertisements while advocating the abolition of the bar, and with watering the Globe stock, while agitating against unearned increment in land, Mr. Rowell stated that he was no longer a director or shareholder of the Globe.

Sir James scored Mr. Rowell for having brought Sir W. R. Meredith's name into the debate, as he was precluded by his position from saying anything in reply. If the proposition would possess their souls in patience at the proper time of measure dealing with the liquor evil would be brought forward. The good roads scheme would probably cost considerably more than $5,000,000. The university was safe in the hands of the government that had made it what it was. As for tax reform it was a Liberal proposal and the people had repudiated it by refusing the government by an increased majority.

Going further into detail Sir James stated that the chief advocate of tax reform had told him in his own office that the land tax was but the thin end of the wedge of Henry Georgeism. He could tell them the next thing would be the nationalization of the land, and the next two steps were the abolition of the home and marriage and of religion, a proposition very easily susceptible of proof, he declared. A more unconscionable falsehood was never uttered in relation to public men than the suggestion that the assessment committee had been compelled to vote against their wishes.

His own belief was that everything that should be done for the easing of tax burdens on improvements could be done under the present act, but without the change of a comma, but circulars were being sent out by the provincial secretary to every assessor instructing him as to his duty, and if it turned out that the assessors could not be induced to come up to their duty it would be up to the government to find a remedy and the government would find one.

He had heard of an Ontario municipality which had simply copied the old assessment roll for five years. There was no excuse for the assessor who allowed land sold at a high value to be assessed at a low one. The assessors could find out the value of the land as easily as purchasers could. Amendments would be made to the act, Sir James concluded, and section 36 would be amended and made clear.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

It is to be hoped that the poet laureate, but Kipling will immortalize in verse Scott and his fellow heroes.

Those suffragettes who are marching to Washington in zero weather, probably regard themselves as zeroes.

When Whitney went out in Ontario, the Grits proposed to wipe himself and followers off the face of the map next time. They haven't done it yet, any more than they will with the Borden outfit.

The Italian electoral committee has removed the name of the King of Italy from the voters list. That puts him in the same class as residents of Washington, who are not allowed to have a vote for anything—either politically or municipally.

That the Norwegian reached the South Pole is proved by the fact that a letter which he left there, has been brought back to As Peary and Cook they have done nothing but letter go at each other ever since.

HARLEY.

(From our own correspondent). Mrs. Wallace Ryder has been visiting relatives in Brantford for the past week. Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Marshall of Curries were renewing old acquaintances in that place a few days last week.

LIVE STOCK

TORONTO, Feb. 13.—The arrival of a load of lambs from Chicago, and the strength of hogs were features of the trade at the Union Stock Yards yesterday. Medium to good cattle sold at prices steady with a week ago, but inferior grades brought 13c lower. There was a fair run, made up mostly of medium grade butchers' and cows. Trade was rather slow at the beginning of the market but activity developed towards the close. No export trade was done, but fine fat steers, good enough for export, sold for butchering purposes up to $7 per hundredweight. For good butchers there was a steady demand, and butcher cows sold freely. Bulls, springers and milkers were slow, but the market for stockers improved. Some going to the United States. Drivers state, that while there is no evidence of plenty in the country, any advance in the market brings out fair numbers from the farms. Stockers are scarce in the western sections of Ontario. Calves were scarce. There were some fine grades offered, which brought from $5 to $10 in a strong market. Rough calves were distinctly off, 50c less, outside prices, being paid.

Export cattle, choice $6.75 to 7.00 do medium... 6.00 to 6.50 do bulls... 5.00 to 5.50 do common... 4.00 to 4.75 Butchers' choice... 6.25 to 6.50 do good... 5.75 to 6.25 do medium... 5.25 to 5.60 do common... 4.00 to 4.75

NEW BRUNSWICK

Opening of the Session of the Legislature—The Leading Items Included in the Speech From the Throne.

(Courier Leased Wire).
 FREDERICTON, N.B., Feb. 13.—Lieut-Governor Wood, wearing his Windsor uniform, and escorted by a military guard of honor, arrived at the Provincial Parliament buildings at 3 o'clock this afternoon, and amid the booming of cannons opened the session of the legislature.

The speech from the Throne, after reference to the general prosperity of the Dominion and the Province, spoke of a harvest as fair, and business conditions fairly satisfactory. There was a paragraph on the visit of the Governor-General, the Duchess of Cornwall and the Princess Patricia to New Brunswick. The action taken for the encouragement of agriculture and fruit growing was referred to with the statement that the federal grant for agriculture had given opportunity for more vigor in that department's work. Pleasure was expressed at the act of the Dominion Parliament for increased agricultural aid to the provinces. Special efforts at dairy development were foreshadowed, and there will be agricultural schools and stables at Woodstock and Sussex. Reference was also made to a coming conference of Maritime Province Premiers on federal representation to New Brunswick's claim for an enlarged grant from Ottawa, and hope was expressed for the readjustment of the provincial fisheries claim by the Canadian Government.

 The Provincial revenue during the year was $22,100, which is only slightly lower than last year's.
 The lumber industry was healthy though high freight rates during the year had mitigated against it to some extent.

Of the St. John Valley Railway his Honor said: The work of construction on the St. John Valley Railway and the Fredericton and Grand Lake Railway was begun in May and has been pushed vigorously ever since. Construction is general on the three sections of the St. John Valley line between Centreville and Gagetown, and it is expected that these sections will be ready for traffic before November next. Grading has been completed on the Fredericton and Grand Lake Line and about twenty miles of steel laid. This line will be completed and in operation in the early summer.
 An increased output in the coal fields of Sunbury and Queens was mentioned, and the growth of immigration to New Brunswick was noted.
 It was also mentioned that the rates and taxes have to be amended the public utilities and the game law were promulgated.

Annual Meeting of the Brantford Methodist Social Union

The annual meeting of the Brantford Methodist Social Union took place in the Brant Avenue church lecture room last night and was very largely attended, there being a goodly number present from each of the Methodist churches of the city. Vice-President, George Wedlake, acted as chairman of the evening. Mr. Fred Mann read the secretary's annual report, in which he nominated the following slate of officers for the ensuing year which was unanimously adopted. They were: President, Mr. Geo. Wedlake; vice-president, J. D. Dutwiler; secretary, Fred Mann; treasurer, J. W. Shepperson.
 The Treasurer, J. W. Shepperson then gave his report showing that during the year $1,156.69 had been

Union in the Queen City, and impressed upon his hearers the good work and great success that could be accomplished by a strong band of organized workers. He reviewed the work taken up by the different branches of the union, especially that of city mission work among the foreigners and the poor and needy.
 The Brantford Methodist Social Union, are assisting in the undertaking of erecting a Methodist church on Marlborough street, at a point near the eastern city limits, and a collection was taken up to meet a deficiency in the funds to encourage the trustees of the new church to go ahead with the building.
 The evening was enlivened with solos rendered by Miss Sweet, Miss Fawkes and Miss Burch.
 Refreshments were served by the ladies of the combined churches.
 The Methodist Social Union is composed of all the members of the quarterly and trustee boards of the six churches of the city. Two from each comprise the executive.

AMERICAN HOMES SEIZED
 (Courier Leased Wire).
 WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—Ambassador Wilson's despatches to-day reports that houses occupied by Americans have been seized by federal troops and the occupants driven to the streets. Homeless and exposed to the fire of the rebels and federalists, the dismayed refugees made their way at the risk of their lives to the United States Embassy, which is now open to all refugees. Ambassador Wilson, however, is now distributing the majority among the adjoining houses by means of a committee which he organized.
 All despatches to the United States Embassy from the State Department influence to keep non-combatants from the streets. He reports the wounding of several Americans, and says he has given refuge to between 500 and 600. The White Cross Society reports it is caring for approximately 1,300 wounded. The Red Cross has not yet made a report. Neither organization is being respected by the federal forces. The president of the latter has been killed. Some members of the White Cross detected by Diaz's adherents in the act of conveying ammunition, were executed.

Pay Sheets.
 The pay sheets for the employees of the Board of Works for the two weeks ending Feb. 8th amounted to $7,022.30; the cemetery pay roll for two weeks was $47.00.

A WEEK'S CARNIVAL

Mr. Victor D. Levitt, business manager of the "Col. Francis Ferrari Shows United" is in the city. He wants to arrange for a Carnival week in Brantford from June 30th to July 5th under the auspices of some local organization.
 Mr. Levitt showed the Courier several letters from authorities in leading cities in the States endorsing the display as clean and up to date in every respect. They are booked by the Fair Association of Ottawa and also for the Hamilton Centennial celebration. In many places they have exhibited under the same auspices. There are twelve separate shows, including performing animals and an air ship comes along with the outfit. There are between 300 and 400 people who travel on a special of 25 cars.
 It is suggested if no separate organization takes hold, that a committee of business men should be formed.
 The terms are for the associate backers to provide the ground, pay license fee and supply electric juice for the plant. The Company looks after posters and printing and also the tickets and ticket sellers. Ticket collectors are to be supplied as check on receipts. The allowance is 15 per cent off gross receipts of all shows; 50 per cent of all privileges and concessions, and 50 per cent of a Queen of Carnival contest for the most popular young lady, votes rating at one cent a piece. The charges are from 10 cents to 25 cents for each separate show.
 A Canadian circuit is to be made and Mr. Levitt wants Brantford in the number.

KING GEORGE
 Will Attend the Great Memorial Service to Capt. Scott and His Comrades.

LONDON, Feb. 13.—King George wearing the uniform of an Admiral, will attend the great memorial service for Captain Scott and his comrades, to be held at noon on Friday, in St. Paul's Cathedral. Mr. Winston Churchill will represent the Admiralty and the War Office will also send a representative. The Royal Geographical Society will send a deputation of members thirty strong, and other scientific societies will be represented.

A BILL

Is Rushed Through British House Regarding Air Ships

LONDON, Feb. 13.—Parliament is rushing through its various stages the aerial navigation bill, which will expose any foreign airship travelling over the United Kingdom to the risk of being fired upon under certain specified conditions, although a state of war may not exist between this country and that whence the airship has flown. No secret is made of the fact that the bill is destined to check German exploits of this kind. For several months past, at intervals, there have been reports of mysterious flights of airships over one or another part of the country and the introduction of the new measure, coupled with the Government's respect to the Opposition not to delay its progress through parliament, is taken to mean that the government has awakened to the fact that foreign airships have actually flown over British territory.

LATER DESPATCHES

WOMEN WILL LIKE HIM.
 (Courier Leased Wire).
 VICTORIA, B. C., Feb. 13.—J. W. T. Place, the Socialist member for Nanaimo, has given notice of a bill to extend the suffrage to the women of the province. The women of the province will present a petition with ten thousand signatures appended, to the Premier on Friday.

The official from Toronto delivered a two hour address in which he explained the regulations.

OLD RESIDENT DEAD

(Courier Leased Wire).
 GUELPH, Ont., Feb. 13.—Richard Mitchell, one of Guelph's oldest residents and at one time partner of John Galt, founder of the city, died this morning, aged 81. He was mayor twice, city clerk for many years, and a walking encyclopedia of all past events of Guelph, and Wellington county. His mother is still alive in her 90th year.

WRECK

A collision took place on the T. H. and B. about 2.15 this afternoon at the corner of Richardson and Mt. Pleasant streets, at the very same spot at which a collision took place a few years ago. No one was hurt, but the two engines and a flat car were completely demolished. An engine and a string of cars in charge of Conductor A. Harey and Engineer W. Preece and Fireman F. Jenkins had left the T. H. and B. station, and were proceeding westwards at a good rate of speed for the exchange near the Park factory. The regular freight from Waterford, in charge of Conductor Carson, Engineer Bodley and Fireman Lang, was proceeding towards the city, and at the point mentioned the two engines came together.
 The crash could be heard for many blocks. Both crews jumped. This collision delayed the regular train from Waterford, which comes along a few minutes later and the passengers had to walk in to town.
 Mr. E. Merritt, who lives on Richardson St. was an eye-witness of the accident. The crash is being cleared.

EXPERT ADVICE

Money spent on keeping time pieces "on the job" is really a necessary expenditure.

Plenty of good watches aren't doing their best work, simply because they can't.

Many a fifty or hundred dollar watch is being slowly but surely ruined, because it needs a dollars worth of cleaning.

If this reminds you that your watch is in that shape, let it also remind you that our repair dept. can attend to your needs on short notice.

SCOTCHMEN IN CANADA

THE CANNY GAEL IS PRE-EMINENT IN ALL LINES.

The Dominion Has Been Invaded More Extensively by the Men of the North Than Any Other Colony or Country and the "Mac's" and the "Mac's" Appear Profusely In Every Variety of Annals.

No other country in the world has been invaded by so many Scotchmen as has Canada, and certainly no other country owes so much to their enterprise. For something like three centuries this migration has been going on, and in Canadian finance, law, politics, medicine, literature, and commerce the names of Scotsmen are pre-eminent.

Remarkable indeed were the achievements of Scotsmen in Canada during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, but it must suffice to mention here prominent men in the life of the colony from the early part of the nineteenth century to the present day. There was, for instance, Peter Grant, one of the early pioneers of Upper Canada; Sir Gordon Drummond, head of the forces, and also an administrator of the same province during the later days of the war, 1812-15; Col. John Macdonell, the first Speaker of the Upper Canada House of Assembly; Lord Selkirk, who, in addition to his settlement on the Red River, he presided in Prince Edward Island, and was associated with enterprises in Upper Canada; Samuel Cunard, of Nova Scotia, founder of the famous ocean line of steamships of that name; and Sir Hugh Allan, who was later the founder of the famous Allan line of steamships, and founder of the great Scottish-Canadian family who were the pioneers of steamship traffic on the St. Lawrence.

Canada's most distinguished engineer of today is a Scotman—Sir Sandford Fleming, who is also a great Imperialist and Empire builder. He, with Lord Strathcona, and Sir William Macdonald, founder of many colleges, make a distinguished trio of noted men that any race would be proud to own.

In regard to education, the fact is mentioned that a Scotman—Sir Sandford Fleming, who is also a great Imperialist and Empire builder. He, with Lord Strathcona, and Sir William Macdonald, founder of many colleges, make a distinguished trio of noted men that any race would be proud to own.

Another reason given for the success of the Scotsman in Canada is that his strong individuality shows itself in his willingness to colonize and face the dangers and novelties of a new country. "His success is based on two qualities that go to make up this trait in his character, namely, courage and adaptability. The Scotsman is not afraid of new conditions, and he has the power and patience of observation required to fit into new circumstances."

We have a striking illustration of this in the career of Lord Strathcona, who at eighteen years of age emigrated to Canada and spent a generation of time on the shores of Hudson Bay.

It was the Hudson Bay Co., and the starting of the Canadian Pacific Railway, which gave many young Scotsmen their chance. The present head of the Canadian Pacific Railway in Western Canada, Sir William Whyte, began business life in the office of a Scottish estate. He went to Canada at the age of twenty, entered the Grand Trunk service, and gained rapid promotion, thanks to his thoroughness. He went through every grade of railway work, won higher and higher positions, until at last he attained his present proud position.

One of the most brilliant financiers of Manitoba is Duncan MacArthur, who started in the Hudson Bay Co.'s finance department, and became the manager of the Merchants' Bank of Canada. Another MacArthur, John D., a railway contractor, does probably the largest business in Western Canada to-day, the extent of which may be judged from the fact that on one of his Grand Trunk Pacific contracts he had to deposit a check of ten per cent of the contract, amounting to about $15,000,000.

As showing the opportunities given to young men in Western Canada, the case of Mr. George Paterson, a youth who went to Manitoba College, and then into general business, gives fullest encouragement. Beginning without means, he undertook to use the water power of the city of Brandon to produce electricity, and at the same time acquired a large farm of some hundreds of acres to cultivate and improve. To-day Mr. Paterson is a very wealthy man, and an encouragement to young men of pluck and good habits.

Another brilliant instance of business success is that of Mr. John A. McDougall, general merchant and financial agent in Edmonton, the capital of Alberta. A friendless young man, McDougall went to Winnipeg in the seventies, and joined a surveying party for the summer months. During the winter months he went to Manitoba College, and the following year journeyed by wagon trail for a thousand miles and settled in Edmonton. Here he opened a small store, with a partner, began to sell furs, and in a few years became a wealthy man.

Another fine type of the brainy Scotsman is Alexander Macdonald, who as a young man in Winnipeg went through the various stages of clerk, partner, and proprietor of one of the largest business concerns in Western Canada. To-day he has branches of his business all over the Dominion, and has been alderman and mayor of the city of Winnipeg.

Wedded Seventy Years.
A notable wedding anniversary was celebrated in Rigaud, Que., recently by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Larocque, aged respectively 92 and 89 years. They were wedded in Rigaud Jan. 17, 1843, just seventy years ago. They have 47 grandchildren and 23 great-grandchildren living.

HEADS TURKISH NAVY.

Commander Bucknam Pasha Was Born In Nova Scotia.

Bucknam Pasha—our Admiral Ransford D. Bucknam, is the intriguing Canadian admiral of the imperial Ottoman navy is better known to his friends in this country — is brought once more into the international limelight by dispatches from the Balkans. These reports state that it was Bucknam Pasha who engineered the sortie of the Turkish fleet from the Dardanelles, a manœuver which showed a perfect grasp of naval tactics.

The career of Ransford D. Bucknam from the time he first shipped before the mast as a cabin boy on the great liners until he was commissioned several years ago with the full rank of an admiral in the Turkish navy reads like a chapter from fiction. He is the first Christian ever placed in actual command of a Mohammedan fleet. Even Hobart Pasha, the British admiral of the Crimean war, failed to gain this distinction.

Bucknam Pasha gained his present rank by his work in reorganizing the Turkish navy under Abdul Hamid. He was a rear admiral when Abdul Hamid was deposed, but the new regime confirmed his rank and later elevated him to his present position.

Bucknam was born in Nova Scotia. His experiences on the great lakes began when he was fourteen years old, and two years later he sailed from New York as quartermaster on a schooner bound for the Pacific. When the Cramps Shipbuilding Co. had completed the construction of the Turkish cruiser Medjida Bucknam was commissioned to take her to Turkey. He impressed the Sultan and Ottoman naval officers so favorably that he was given a three months' contract to train the cruiser's Mohammedan crew.

His operations were so successful that the Sultan offered him the post of naval adviser to the Porte, a position that carried with it a princely salary. He accepted the post on condition that he might have a preliminary leave of absence to go home and marry a girl in San Francisco to whom he was engaged. He brought back his bride with him.

As his popularity increased Bucknam was made a pasha and a vice-admiral and the Sultan conferred on him an Ottoman medal, a medal for distinguished service. Shortly afterward he saved the life of the Sultan when a bomb loaded with a tremendous explosive was thrown into the midst of the royal escort. Bucknam Pasha jumped to the side of the Sultan's carriage and drew his sword, announcing that he would instantly kill any one who approached the spot. A band of bloodthirsty Moslems ready to throw themselves on Abdul Hamid were deterred by the Canadian.

Townsite Now a Farm.

Many residents of Lambton would be surprised to learn that there is or ever had been in the county such a town as Errol, says The Sarnia Canadian, yet the fact is that the town plot of Errol, laid out by the Government some eighty years ago on the Lake Shore in the Township of Plympton at the terminus of the Esquimaux road from London was intended to be the county town, and was for some years in the early days the place for holding courts and the official centre of the district, until the prospects were overshadowed by the development of Sarnia, and the town of Errol gradually died out.

Two or three years ago the township council of Plympton disputed the right of a Lake Shore farmer to charge them for gravel, claiming they were taking it from a plot still left of the Front street of Errol. The surveyor appointed to settle the dispute found that a very wide street had been provided for the waterfront, and that the wearing away process of the lake has not yet wiped it out.

He also found that when the Canadian Government laid out the town plot of Errol in 1832 that 300 acres was used for the purpose.

In the centre of what was intended for the business portion of the place the surveyor found a large market square, with streets 99 feet wide running north, south, east and west from it.

This last find showed how much the men of eighty years ago valued a place where the farmers could congregate and do their trading. Although lots 15, 16 and 17 are used as farms to-day, the streets and market place as laid out eighty years ago are still vested in the crown.

Commercial Knights.

The knighting of men prominent in science, literature, or art, has not as yet become particularly noticeable in Canada. The only instances among living Canadians seem to be Sir J. A. Grant, who was made K.C.M.G. in 1897 in recognition of his services as physician to the Governors-General, Sir Hugh Graham, the Montreal journalist, and recently Sir John S. Willison of The Toronto News.

The men of finance and big business bulk largely in the ranks of Canadian knights. Railroad magnates like Sir William Van Horne, Sir William Mackenzie, Sir Donald Mann, Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, and Sir William Whyte, rub shoulders with financiers like Sir Edmund Osler, Sir Rodolph Forget, Sir Henry Pellatt, and Sir Edmund Walker. Sir William Mackenzie and Sir Melvin Jones represent big manufacturing interests, and Sir Montagu Allan, shipping interests.

Industry's Toll of Lives.

According to the record of industrial accidents maintained by the Department, 97 workmen were killed, and 367 injured during the month of December, 1912, as compared with 114 killed and 359 injured during the month of November, 1912.

The greatest number of fatal accidents occurred in steam railway service, building trades and navigation, the figures being 20, 17 and 12, respectively. The largest number of non-fatal accidents occurred in steam railway service, there being 131 employees injured, followed by the metal trades with 75 injured.

INTERESTED IN CANADA.

Long List of British Nobles Buying Property Here.

Re' estate is said to be very active in Canada, but the turn-over surely cannot compare with the recent movement in Britain. During the last six or seven months one firm alone has disposed of landed estates to the value of $16,000,000, principally the properties of peers and country squires. At the end of the year it is timely to examine the extent of this movement. A casual enquiry reveals the fact that all classes in British life are responding to the appeal of the Dominion of Canada. Each week throughout the winter season proper, the steamers of the Canadian Pacific Railway and other lines sailing to Canadian ports have conveyed members of both Houses of Parliament, bankers, heads of investment houses, directors of industrial and insurance companies to an extent that is surprising.

As illustrating the appeal Canada makes to the society woman, the cases of Lady Heene Campbell, who is a personal trustee of a farm in Alberta, and Lady Evelyn Ward, who is the proprietor of a milliner's shop in Toronto, may be noted. Lords Sackville and Lord Kerry, who are owners of farms. Lord Roberts has shown a keen interest in Canadian investments and a few issues are made in London, Lord Grey, probably 75 per cent of the peers—probably 75 per cent of the nobles—recital of the location of their interests would be tedious, but it may be said that a big percentage of the peers are now in the Prairie Provinces and British Columbia. Comparatively few invest in Ontario lands and the Maritime provinces, though there is a growing interest in Nova Scotia.

Among the peers who, in one form or another, are interested in the Dominion are:

Generally speaking, the knights and members of Parliament are interested principally in mortgages, industries, and mines; though, of course, they do not neglect their own land. Sir Kenneth Anderson, for instance, is said to own half the town site of Alburni. Sir William Coddington, Sir Clement Kinloch-Deake, and Sir Reginald Macleod have recently become interested in tracts of several thousands acres in British Columbia. An advertisement appearing recently in a London paper makes an appropriate conclusion to this list. A sixteenth century residence and estate which has been in the possession of Henry VI., are in the market. There may be other reasons for its disposal, but one cannot reasonably exclude the supposition that its owner wants to invest in Canada.

A Veteran Drummer.

By the recent death of Sergt. Joshua Donaldson of Ottawa, Canada loses one of its best-known military men and one of the most popular soldiers in the capital corps.

He had to his credit 46 years of service, part of it in the regular army, and was at the time of his death on the active list as sergeant drummer of the Forty-Third Corps.

Sergt. Donaldson had the reputation of being the best drummer in eastern Canada, his prowess in that particular line being known from the Atlantic to the Pacific. As a boy he joined the famous Gordon Highlanders and with that regiment served in India and later throughout the Egyptian campaign of 1882. He wore the medal and star for that campaign and he was later decorated with the Imperial long service medal and the good conduct medal and was also in possession of the long service medal in the Canadian militia.

He was for many years a conspicuous figure at all local military gatherings, especially those promoted by his Scotch comrades as he also played the drum in the pipe band. His reputation as a drummer was national.

The Canada-U. S. Line.

The boundary marks separating Canada from the United States are of a most practical sort. For many hundreds of miles the St. Lawrence River and the Great Lakes form the natural boundaries; but there is a vast stretch of prairie land beyond with no natural demarcation. The boundary marks here are pillars of iron and wood placed at intervals of one mile. They have been alternately supplied by the two Governments, and may be seen from the Lake of the Woods to the Red River Valley. Beyond that the marks are mounds of earth and cairns of stone.

Didn't Like the Attire.

As visitors to the capital know, a statue of Sir John A. Macdonald, on Parliament hill, stands just a little above that of the late Queen Victoria. A rural couple, visiting "The Hill" for the first time, paused before the statue. "Pretty fine likeness of old Sir John," remarked the male half of the delegation.

"Very nice; very good, indeed," agreed his better half, as she sized up the Queen Victoria monument, with its sceptre and flowing robes, "but I don't care very much for the clothes worn by Mrs. Macdonald."

This morning at ten o'clock seats go on sale at the box office of the Grand Opera House for the engagement of "Madame Sherry" the phenomenally successful musical comedy which will appear here for one engagement on Saturday, Feb. 15th.

Mr. W. S. Brewster, M.P.P., came up from Toronto on Wednesday for the marriage of Miss Crompton and Dr. Lewis. Mrs. Brewster returned with him that evening to attend several social functions being given in the Queen City this week by wives of Ministers and the wife of the Speaker of the Ontario House.

That the attendance during the engagement of "Madame Sherry" in this city will be relatively equal that of Chicago, where the piece ran through the heat of the summer, and that of New York, where the spacious new Amsterdam Theatre was inadequate to hold the crowds, is almost certain from the mail orders that have been received from people anxious to see this delightful French vaudeville. "Madame Sherry" is a novelty in every way. Its comedy is bright and refreshing and the story is much more plausible and consistent than is found in the ordinary farce. Its music is not only enchanting, but every number is the result of some situation in the comedy. In points of production, cast, chorus and special orchestra, "Madame Sherry" represents the last word in perfection.

LAUGHTER LINES.

An Irishman walking along a road beside a golf links was suddenly struck between the shoulders by a golf ball. The force of the blow almost knocked him down. When he recovered he observed a golfer running toward him.

"Are you hurt?" asked the player.

"Why didn't you get out of the way?"

"An' why should I get out of the way?" asked Pat. "I didn't know there were any assassins round here."

"But I called 'fore,' said the player, 'and when I say 'fore' that is a sign for you to get out of the way."

"Oh, is it?" said Pat. "Well, then, when I say 'foive,' it is a sign that you are going to get hit on the nose."

"Foive?"—London Public Opinion.

A small boy who attended one of the grade schools was vaccinated recently and after the arm had been dressed the attending physician suggested that he place a ribbon with the word "vaccinated" around it.

At this the youngster spoke up.

"Put it around the other arm," he said.

"But that won't do any good," protested the doctor. "It wants to be placed around the sore arm so the boys at school won't be hurting it."

The lad looked at him in disgust and replied: "You put it around the other arm. You don't know the kids at our school!"—Kansas City Star.

Mrs. Johnson—"Her husband done collected three wash bills dat was due her an' evaporated to Baltimo'."

Mrs. Jackson—"How's he doin' in Baltimo'?"

Mrs. Johnson—"She reckons he's starving. He done sent her a picture postal sayin', 'I wish you were here.'"

Mother (to the children who have been taking the smallest out for a stroll)—"Dear me! What happened to the baby? The poor thing has a scar on its forehead!"

The Eldest (proudly)—"Yes, ma-ma, accidents are bound to happen! But we won the first prize!"

Mother—"What have you been doing?"

The Eldest—"Oh, we had baby carriage race!—Fliegende Blaetter."

The sea has its yachts,
Through the waves to splash;
The air has its ships,
Through the clouds to dash;

The earth has its autos
To stir up the dust;

And use them I must.

Many a man imagines that he is painting the town, when in reality he is only nailing shingles on the saloonkeeper's roof.

Misfortunes never come singly, but a lot of them never come at all.

It is said that a simple neck movement to prevent anything like a double chin, consists of turning the head as far as possible, first to the right and then to the left side, then bending the head back as far as it will go, and letting it roll slowly forward. There are two other little tricks which will prevent a double chin from showing. One is always to hold the head well up, and the other is to lift the back of the tongue up to the roof of the mouth when not speaking and hold it there. This is a speaking and holding it there. This is a good thing to remember when you have your photograph taken, or are otherwise on parade.

Lord Aberdeen's Snore.
From Tit-Bits.

Lord Aberdeen, the Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland, and a former Governor-General of Canada, is one of the three or four richest peers in Great Britain. But he lives unostentatiously, and when travelling between London and his Scotch estate he always takes a single berth in an ordinary sleeper. One morning, just as the train was rolling into York, a stranger leaned across a seat back and enquired of Lord Aberdeen:

"May I ask whether you are Lord Aberdeen?"

"Yes, I am Lord Aberdeen," was the answer.

"You're one of the wealthiest men in England, aren't you?"

"Why," smiled the peer, "I am pretty well off."

"Well, your Lordship," said the stranger, "permit me to inform you that I slept next to you last night, and if I had your money and your snore, I'd take a whole car when I wanted to travel at night."

SOME GOOD RECIPES.

Cheese Balls—Mix two ounces of grated Cheshire, Cheddar or Canadian whole milk cheese with one ounce of flour and yolk of one egg, add salt, pepper and cayenne to taste, then whip the white of the egg to a light froth and stir lightly into the rest of the ingredients. Have ready a deep pan of very hot fat, drop the mixture in teaspoonful and fry until nicely browned. Drain well and dish in a pyramidal form on a folded serviette or dish paper.

Corn Oysters—Beat together one egg and half a cupful of sweet milk and gradually pour the liquid upon a cupful of sifted flour. Season this with a pinch of paprika, half a teaspoonful of sugar and one teaspoonful of salt. Add a tablespoonful of olive oil and beat until it is very light. Then mix in half a can of drained corn and drop by the teaspoonful into deep, hot fat. Fry until a delicate brown, then drain on brown paper and serve on a folded napkin.

French Fritter Batter—Beat one egg, white and yoke together. Add two gills of milk, a pinch of salt and one level tablespoon of olive oil or oiled butter to it. Mix and pour this upon four ounces of flour. Blend perfectly smooth. It should be of the consistency of rich cream. Use for fruit fritters, dipping the fruit into it and frying in deep fat. Apples for fritters should be pared, cored and sliced in even rings, then either sprinkled with sugar and let stand for half an hour before dipping in the batter, or dipping or scalded in boiling sugar for five minutes until half cooked, then drained, dipped in batter and fried.

With Tonka's Aid

And After the Storm Came Happiness.

By HONORE WILLISIE.

Barbara wandered about the great pleasant room restlessly. She liked the huge fireplace with whips and rifles above the mantel. The couches, with the fur robes tossed across them, and the long study table in the middle of the room, bespoken with magnifying and a varied collection of pipes, made her forget that the nearest human habitation was fifteen miles across the plains. She paused at one of the windows, snubbing her nose against the pane like a child, and looked out over the brown, dusty plains toward the mountains. This visit to her bachelor brother was suddenly proving lonely, since he had forbidden her her daily ride because of threatening snow. Until today everything on the ranch had been so new and strange to this eastern girl that she had forgotten to be homesick.

"The sun is shining!" she exclaimed aloud to the empty room. "It is only that funny haze being really bright keeps it from being really bright. It is so silly and funny over me, like a hen with one chick! What is a snowstorm, anyhow, but fun? I'm going to tag Tonka out for just a little while."

Ah Lee, peering from the kitchen window a little later, shook his head dubiously at the sight of a slender figure in a heavy riding habit making its way toward the stables.

"Me no like missy go," he said. "Weather vely bad." Then, with an indescribable gesture not unmixt with disdain, he calmly washed his hands of the matter and went on with his pipe making.

Barbara found the stable deserted, but Tonka nosed her softly with welcome in her great eyes, and pony and girl swung eagerly out beyond the corral to the open plain. Barbara shivered a good deal at first. The air lacked that clear, invigorating quality that had hitherto made riding a delight. There was a raw wind rising that penetrated her heavy habit.

"We won't go far today, Tonka," she said, with chattering teeth—"just the five miles out to the irrigating gate and back again."

The murky ring about the sun grew thicker and thicker until the sun was a mere pale yellow dinner plate resting on a gray blanket. The wind began to sting Barbara's face unpleasantly.

"Oh, dear," she said, "this isn't any fun! It's so hazy I can't see the ditch, and—she turned in the saddle and looked about in a puzzled way—"I can't see the ranch house either. Why—why, Tonka, where are we?"

She looked up into the sky, but during her short moment of uncertainty the sun had become fully obscured, and as she looked fine, driving particles of snow pelted her face. Tonka shook her head stubbornly and started off abruptly, but Barbara pulled her in. "Stilly thing," she said. "I don't want to go to the irrigating ditch. We must get home as soon as ever we can."

But Tonka had ideas of her own on the subject. As Barbara pulled on the reins she shook her head again and started to back.

"Tonka," scolded Barbara, raising her voice above the roar of the wind. "I want to go home! Don't act like a goose!"

With the aid of the whip she finally persuaded Tonka to turn, and they started off in the teeth of the wind. The drive of the snow was so heavy that Barbara could not see a horse's length in front of her. The cold was so intense that she felt as if her face were being seared, and she began to be frightened.

"It must be a blizzard," she thought. "Richard will be frantic."

For half an hour Tonka struggled through the blinding storm, while the frightened girl on her back clung to the reins with numbing hands and urged her on. As the cold grew unbearable Barbara pulled the pony in and dismounted.

"I've got to walk," she thought, "or freeze to the saddle."

With the reins on her arm, she plunged on, her heart sinking more and more. "We are lost, Tonka," she said, "lost in one of those terrible blizzards!" She stopped to breathe and to pound her aching hands against the pony's side.

Suddenly Tonka lifted her head with a shrill whinny, which was answered from out the storm by another whinny. Barbara looked about eagerly. "Is it only a stray pony," she thought, "or is some one looking for me?"

Out of the whirlwind of snow came the shadowy form of a man, like Barbara, leading his horse. Barbara's heart gave a great throb.

"Mr. Ingraham!" she gasped.

"Great heavens, Miss Barbara, what does this mean?" exclaimed the man, turning his back to the gale and shouting to be heard above it. "You are lost! I'm lost!" called Barbara.

"This is awful," answered the man, his face tense. "You poor child! Why on earth did your brother let you out on such a day? I—I shall call him out for this. And I am of no use! This is my first experience with an American blizzard. I, too, am lost!"

Barbara's heart sank. Her month's acquaintance with the young Englishman, who was their nearest neighbor and who during her visit had ridden the fifteen miles regularly three times a week, had inspired her with a profound faith in his capabilities. As he owned himself lost, she unconsciously moved a little closer to his staid figure. The man pulled off his fur coat and in spite of her protestations wrapped it about her shivering figure.

"First," he said, "you will put that on."

"No, I won't!" she cried.

"Oh, yes, you will!" he shouted, buttoning it firmly under her chin. Barbara changed the subject.

"It's lucky I didn't let Tonka carry me on to the ditch," she called. "She almost refused to turn. I really got mixed up with her backing and turning."

The Englishman pondered for a moment. "Oh, I say," he shouted, "that's no bad. You are the one that probably got mixed up. Those Indian ponies always head for home, they say, as soon as a blizzard strikes them. My horse didn't know enough. But wait. Give Tonka her head and see what she does. I'm afraid we'll have to walk or freeze."

With the horses on either side of them they started out, Tonka, without a moment's hesitation, taking the lead. It was a terrible journey. In spite of Ingraham's assistance Barbara could not get the reins to hold. Without the protection of his fur coat he could only fight helplessly against the numbing cold that assailed him, his heart aching over the misery of the girl who depended on him so pathetically, but Tonka, with drooping head, plodded slowly on.

As Barbara, assisted to her feet for the hundredth time, dimly concluded that it would be better to lie still than to struggle against the fearful cold, Tonka gave a glad whinny and stood still. They were standing before the stable door!

That evening after the two had recovered somewhat from ice baths and hot blankets and Richard had left them alone for a few moments Ingraham looked across the fire to the girl's sweet, pale face. All the love that he had so bravely suppressed during their terrible journey welled to his voice.

"Miss Barbara, Barbara," he said hesitatingly, "I'm glad it happened."

Barbara looked up.

"I hadn't much hope before," he went on, "but now somehow you seem to belong to me a little."

Barbara's pallor disappeared. "It wasn't such a bad storm in some ways," she said.

And the fire crackled appreciatively at the pretty tableau.

GAME IN THE NORTH.

Fishing and Moose Hunting in Ontario's Hinterland.

To the sportsman Ontario's north country will offer many attractions. It is practically virgin territory so far as the hunter and the fisherman are concerned. Of course, the Indians have hunted and trapped along the rivers for hundreds of years, and there are several Hudson Bay Co. forts in the district, but so far as white men are concerned there has been very little exploitation of hunting and fishing possibilities. Fish are plentiful in all the north rivers and lakes, but one must needs travel many miles from Couchiching before trout streams are reached. Eastward the first trout waters are at Cedar Creek, thirty miles beyond Harrison. Westward no trout are found until one reaches Leonard's Lake, several miles beyond Hearst. From there on all the rivers and lakes are well stocked with good trout, and assured anyone who makes the journey there. For the rest there are whitefish, pike and pickerel in the lakes and rivers.

Moose are the principal big game found in the north country, as might be expected. The operations of the railroad-builders have driven them away from the immediate vicinity of the railway, but hunters following along the rivers are sure to encounter plenty of them. At any rate the Indians seem to have no difficulty in securing as much moose meat as they need.

As to what will be the future of the new country one can only speculate. There are those who shake their heads when western Canada was first settled. In latitude it lies south of the prairies of the west. Its soil is excellent. It is abundantly watered. It is easily cleared, the forest growth being small and not deeply rooted. At the same time there can be little doubt that many years will elapse before it is thickly settled. One who possesses both pluck and enthusiasm to go in and clear the land.

For the present it will be a new resort for curious tourists, for canoeists in search of novelty, for hunters for anglers and for that floating population which is always attracted to a new country. There will also be exploitation of the forest resources of the country, and further prospecting for minerals and precious stones, while doubtless the Provincial Government will continue their endeavors to open up and further settle the new townships. At all events another act in the national drama will be presented amid these fresh surroundings.

Spain's Ancient Lighthouse.
At La Coruna, in northern Spain, may be seen a fire tower which is, with the exception of the ruins of the Roman lighthouse at Dover, the oldest of all existing structures of this kind. The exact date of the erection of this tower is unknown. According to an ancient tradition, it is accredited to Hercules, whence its name, Torre de Hercules. Others say that Phoenicians, who had established several colonies in Spain, erected this light tower for their northward cruises. However, judging from the inscription, it is more probable that the Roman Emperor Trajan erected this structure. The inscription also mentions the name of Servius Sulpicius, of Lusitania as the architect. The tower is built of ashlar and is 27 feet square and 120 feet in height. It has six separate stories, which can only be reached by circular staircase around the exterior of the tower. The lighthouse was restored in 1884, but at the end of the eighteenth century was again in ruins. In 1797 it was rebuilt by the Spanish government and still stands forth its beams.—Argonaut.

See America First.
In a country so large as ours one may travel extensively without going outside our own borders. Pride in one's home is a good quality, but it hinders development if one is so well satisfied with his own city or state as to care to see or know no other. Even a hurried journey throughout the United States would give a conception of its vastness, the variety of its resources and the diversified interests of the people such as could be got in no other way. See America first! But anyone who understands his own land knows better by having the same knowledge of another, so one knows the genius of his own country most truly only as he is able to compare it with other lands. Fortunately travel is no longer a rare privilege, to be enjoyed only by the few. Even those of moderate means are quite able to enjoy the benefits that come from seeing for one's self the strange parts of the earth and becoming familiar with all races and nationalities in their native homes.—Leslie's.

Samuel Had Failed.
Samuel Barker, M.P., of Hamilton, one of the new King's Privy Councilors, has the habit of taking forty winks in his seat in the chamber, and on one occasion recently, when David Arthur Lafortune, the work-mixer from Montreal was entertaining the House with an impassioned appeal for an increased pension, he dozed off. Lafortune, in the excitement of the moment, seized the member for Hamilton, and the latter said in a bantering way: "That's a good idea of yours about the indemnity, Lafortune, you want to keep your eye on that."

"That is more than you seemed able to do," was the subtle retort of Mr. Lafortune.—Toronto Saturday Night.

Fewer Labor Disputes.
There was a marked decrease in the number of labor disputes in existence in Canada during December, 1912, as compared with the preceding month. The Department of Labor's record of strikes and lockouts shows there were thirteen disputes in December, and while the number is greater by five than that of the corresponding period of last year, it represents only about half as many as were in existence in November, when twenty-five were reported to the Department.

There was also an improvement over November conditions from the standpoint of working days lost, 55,200 being the approximate number for December, as compared with about 66,200 for November.

How Ravages of Kidney Disease Are Checked in Quebec.

Mrs. Julien Painchaud, for Seven Years a Sufferer, finds quick relief and complete cure in DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

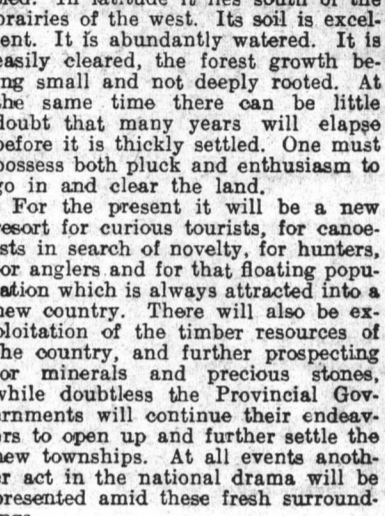

WHITWORTH, Temiscouitt Co., Que., Feb. 10.—(Special)—With the coming of winter the ravages of Kidney Disease are again felt in this province, and the fact that a sure cure is vouchsafed for in what a sure cure is vouchsafed for in this village is news worth giving to the world. Mrs. Julien Painchaud is the person cured and she states without hesitation that she found her cure in DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

"For seven years my heart and kidneys bothered me," Mrs. Painchaud writes. "I was always tired and nervous. I could not sleep. My limbs were heavy and I had a dragging sensation across the loins. My eyes had dark circles under them and were puffed and swollen. I was so ill I could hardly drag myself around to do my household work."

"A neighbor advised me to try DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS, and I found relief in the first box. Six boxes made me perfectly well."

If you have any two of Mrs. Painchaud's symptoms your kidneys are diseased. Cure them and guard against serious, if not fatal results by using DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Lady Marjorie's Love

"Barrington?" Mr. Chadburn repeated. He smoothed his big, white moustache; he looked as though he were in a manner struck both by the name and the idea. "Barrington, eh? Well, he's a shrewd fellow, is Barrington."

"A vast deal shrewder than I am or ever shall be," young Chadburn said with a good humored laugh. "Upon my word, unless you are particularly set upon my going, I think you had better let me go. You couldn't have a better man for business; he is honest to the backbone, and he is a gentleman. And, for my own part, I must say that if it is all the same to you I would rather take my first look at Castle Marling last night."

"There are two or three things I may as well do now, that I am in town," I promised Dimsdale a day or two at his place, now that I remember—and later you would be able to run down with me."

"So I should—very true," Mr. Chadburn assented with a nod. "Perhaps it would be better on second thought if Barrington went down; he is more up to that sort of thing than you are. To tell you the truth, Jim, I have come to the idea of planting him down there permanently. Petherick gave me a pretty strong hint that the agent or whatever you call it, that's there now—Brent I think his name is—is by no means the right man in the right place. We shall have to send him packing, I fancy, and if so, I don't think we can do better than put Barrington into his shoes."

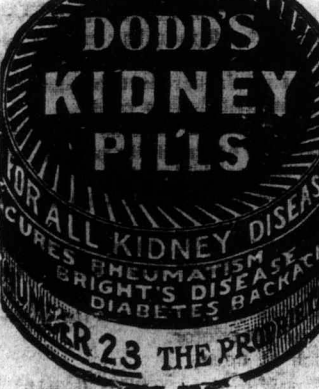

"Oh, yes, he was back in town a couple of days ago and is waiting now to know what I want him for," Mr. Chadburn said, glancing towards the writing table again. "There is his letter there somewhere," he said. "I don't exactly remember the address. You might look for it, Jim, and drop him a line."

"Young Chadburn crossed to the table, presently selected one from the heap."

"Here we are, sir, as large as life—'Faithfully yours, G. Barrington. What a hand the fellow writes. One could read it across the room.' He sat down, glancing over his shoulder as he took up a pen. 'What shall I say to him?'"

"Oh, nothing particular, my boy. Just ask him to step round, you know," Mr. Chadburn returned comfortably. "Time enough to explain when he's here."

Sunshine hot and brilliant lay around Castle Marling; its rooms were no longer darkened, for more than a month had gone by since the funeral of its late master; in outward aspect, at least, it was a house of mourning no longer.

NOBODY CAN TELL IF YOU DARKEN GRAY, FADED HAIR WITH SAGE TEA

Druggist Says When Mixed With Sulphur Prevents Dandruff and Falling Hair.

"Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," this avoiding a lot of muss. Some druggists make their own, but it isn't nearly so nice as "Wyeth's."

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. Do this to-night and by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, after another application or two it will be restored to its natural color and be even more glossy, soft and luxuriant than ever. Local druggists say they are selling lots of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur"; it surely helps folks appear years younger.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, then left to age and carefully filtered will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as

HOT FLASHES.

Women in middle age often complain of hot flashes. They are at that stage of life—when their delicate organism needs a tonic and helping-hand which only Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription can give them. Many women suffer needlessly from girthhood to womanhood and from motherhood to old age—with backache, dizziness or headache. A woman often becomes sleepless, nervous, "broken-down," irritable and feels tired from morning to night. When pains and aches rack the womanly system at frequent intervals, ask your neighbor about Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Miss J. Lacroix, of 221 S. Benton Street, Baltimore, Md., says: "I wrote you about nine months ago, telling you of my condition. I have a fine baby girl—she weighed nine pounds when born. She is my third child and the strongest of them all. My suffering was only for two hours. I took several bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one of Dr. Pierce's Smart-Weed. I never had a well day before I took your medicine. I was surprised how well I felt—could eat—was always hungry, and never had a sick stomach. The nurse who was with me said the medicine was wonderful because I got along so nicely after having had so much trouble before. She intends to recommend it to all her suffering patients. Everybody is astonished at me because I only weighed 102 pounds before and now I weigh 118. I have had several ladies come to me and ask about Dr. Pierce's medicine. I am willing to recommend it to all who suffer and want help. If you want information I will be glad to give it to them."
