LABRADOR: Its Discovery, Exploration and Development.

By W. G. GOSLING. With numerous Illustrations and Maps.

A new chapter in the history of our Colonial Empire, embodying the results of much laborious research in an exceedingly readable narrative. The work has been undertaken at the suggestion of Dr. Wilfred Grenfell, C.M.G., whose missionary and humanitarian labours on the Labrador coast are well known. For points of special interest, where all is interesting, the reader may be referred to the question of American Fishery Rights which has been pending for 100 years and will be shortly submitted to the Hague Tribunal, to the proof of discovery by the early Norse mariners, the tale of the romantic devotion of Moravian missionaries, and the adventures of Captain Cartwright, settler, sportsman, and merchant. Published at 21s. nett. Our Special Price—$5.00.

ing suddenly upon it, was smitten by the white," he said. "May I sit here?" "Oh, yes, sit—why, it is your own seat—everything here is yours," she faltered.

"I had better, sir," she said, hesitatingly, and raising her eyes to him with a modest and deprecating glance. "I ought not to stay—I did wrong the other night to talk with you; but I didn't know who you were, sir; and—and I beg your pardon."

"Curse him!" he muttered. "He sneers at me because I'm not as classy as he is. The old—old wolf! I hate him! Yes, I hate him! I wish—the expression of the wish faltered, then burst out—"I wish he was dead! I'm as good as he—should be the same as he is, the earl and master here, if he were—were dead! I've read about these aristocrats with their sneers and their insults. But I'll raise myself! he broke off, raising his head and looking round defiantly.

He stood for a moment looking at her, then he raised his hat and said: "Good-evening!" She started, the dainty foot slid to the ground, and she rose, clasping her shawl to her bosom and, after one timid, frightened glance stood with downcast eyes: a kind of E'ther before the King.

"Hobson's Choice!"

IT HAS BEEN SAID that Hobson was a crusty old grocer years ago, who, in his old age, didn't much care whether his customers were pleased or not. If he didn't happen to have in stock what a patron called for, he would hand out something else, saying at the same time, "Take that or nothing!" It is quite different with us. WE GIVE CUSTOMERS WHAT THEY ASK FOR, and treat all with equal courtesy.

THE constant, healthy growth of the circulation and advertising patronage of THE EVENING TELEGRAM is no longer in question; it is an established fact.

THE TELEGRAM is strong with the people and this influence when exerted through its advertising columns, in favor of its advertisers, infuses new life into the arteries of commerce and causes them to pulsate with renewed vigor and strength.

Advertisements in THE TELEGRAM bring results—quick and satisfactory results. Modern business men buy space in the newspaper that gives the greatest measure of returns. Judged from this standpoint the absolute supremacy of THE TELEGRAM is unquestioned.

WE DO PRINTING CHEAP, but not cheap Printing. That's one reason why our Presses are always kept "revolving" and that our customers are always satisfied.

Our Motto: "QUALITY FIRST ALWAYS" has stood us in good stead, and we endeavor to live up to it every day in the week and every week in the year. ### Encourage Home Enterprise

Encourage every home enterprise. Take an interest in every industry, invest liberally in the stock of faith and good will, and distribute it all over your city, in every factory, workshop, every business house. It will pay you large dividends, and will cost you little. It can never depreciate in value. It will always be above par. Buy home made goods. Ask your merchants for them. Wear home made garments, eat home made articles of food, sleep on home made beds, read home made newspapers. In this way the money you spend is only loaned. It will come back to you again with interest. Praise up your city, don't run it down. Stand by your merchants and manufacturers. They are the bone and sinew of your municipal structure. Stand by your churches and your schools. They are the hopes of your future. Stand by your press; it is the tireless sentinel that guards your interest.—J. Knox Hall.

Bonavista Notes

"Let observation, with extensive view, Survey mankind from China to Peru." —Dr. Samuel Johnson.

Dr. Johnson was born sometime before Dr. Forbes, but Dr. Forbes' lecture, delivered before the Literary and Debating Club last night, brought forcibly to mind the advice of the "Grand old lexicographer."

"Observation with the extensive view" was the note and theme of all the lecture, which bore the suggestive title:—"Keep your eyes open."

For some days previous to the delivery of the lecture, the town was placarded with the mysterious legend, and conjecture was rife as to the meaning of the notice. Popular opinion favoured the idea that it heralded the early approach of Halley's Comet, and consternation reigned in many quarters.

A large and representative audience gathered to meet the lecturer, and for over an hour was entertained with a brilliant and witty review of the World's progress in science, manufactures and arts, as the result of the persistent efforts toward improvement, effected by men and women who had "kept their eyes open."

At the outset a distinction was drawn between opening the lids and opening the mind.

The mind behind the orb is "the man behind the gun." Passing in review the evolution of printing, steam and electricity, with their application to modern uses, the lecturer paid a tribute to the untiring efforts of such scientists as Jenner, Harvey and Lister, whose discoveries have saved more lives than ever lost by war.

Jenner, by his discovery of inoculation, was shown to have relegated small-pox to the category of comparatively rare diseases, and hope was expressed that compulsory vaccination might soon dismiss it for ever from Newfoundland.

Arkwright, the inventor of the knitting-machine; Franklin, who chained the lightning; Edison, with his watchful eyes ever seeking new methods and improvements, passed rapidly across the scene, till a description of Stephenson's "Puffing Billy" led to an optimistic reference to near approach of our own railway, which elicited hearty applause.

Then bringing the subject nearer home the lecturer applied his maxim of looking broadly ahead, to every avenue and walk of life around us. Trenchant criticisms were passed on the lack of public spirit on the part of public men, and in poignant phrase some startling home thrusts were delivered.

A timely and direct appeal was made to all to use their own eyes, and read for themselves what is going on about them; not to rest content with second hand opinions, nor yet to be satisfied with reading one side only.

It was suggested, amongst many other amusing quips, that maids and bachelors, after reaching a certain age, should be paired by the State, which would conduct a lottery for the purpose. Marriage is said to be a lottery in any case, so perhaps this plan would be as good as any other!

"Women" naturally suggested "hats," and the lecturer endeavoured to show that even hats had been improved by milliners "keeping their eyes open," but he might have said

Likes and Dislikes.

When James and Marys every day Are writing for the press, And Mrs. Az. and Nell in verse The men of state address; 'Tis time for masculines, "mere men," To double quick, unless We want a screeching sisterhood To work us more distress.

Here I must say that Mary's not At all the girl for me; Her points, her jokes are e'er obscured By her verbosity. She's a—you'll please excuse me, sir, For this ungallantry; I am no critic, perhaps, but— Well—you needn't tell her, see!

I like the tone of Uncle Ben, Who loves so well to pay His tribute to the sturdy worth Of men of Spaniard's Bay. But out of all the brilliant bunch, The writer that I can Pursue with greatest pleasure is The blithe Tim Shannahan.

But there are other greater guns Who are telling us of Guy, And other ancient notables— Their strain is rather dry. But then, of course, their writings Are not meant for you and me; But, say! there's ginger sometimes in Bluff Daniel W. P.

But, Mr. Editor, unless There are very many guys In St. John's town, who walk her streets

And never lift their eyes To see the city's crying needs— There are other things to do Than, well—than lots of things they're at;

But that's 'tween me and you.

Then write—write Shannahan & Co., And right the wrongs that are— Write of the things we need the most, And send conviction far Into the brain of citizen And Councillor, until We've sanitary sense to make A Sanitary Bill.

SUNNY JIM.
P. S.— Long Harry I congratulate; I think that his epistle Was excellent (I'm not "dead nuts" Down on the Guy of Bristol). In clear cut phrase he said his say, And having said it, ended— I hope some posey chaps will take This hint as 'tis intended. S.I.

more truly, that, from the man's point of view, the evolution of the hatpin is more often the cause of effectually closing them for ever!

Compulsory education was advocated, but this appears to be as distant as Halley's Comet, to which attention was next invited.

The lecturer concluded with a warning that while the mental outlook should be evidenced, one still must, sometimes, turn the eye within, lest one forget his falling and his faults:—"O wad the power some giftie gie us To see oursel's as others see us." "PROGRESS."

Bonavista, March 4th, 1910.

Ends Dyspepsia in Few Minutes.

Hearburn, Gas, Indigestion and all Stomach misery vanishes.

There would not be a case of indigestion here if readers who are subject to Stomach trouble knew the tremendous anti-ferment and digestive virtue contained in Diapepsin. This harmless preparation will digest a heavy meal without the slightest fuss or discomfort, and relieve the sourst, acid stomach in five minutes, besides overcoming all foul, Nauseous odors from the breath.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula plainly printed on each 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin, then you will readily understand why this promptly cures indigestion and removes such symptoms as Hearburn, a feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, Belching of Gas and Eructations of undigested food, water brash, Nausea, Headache, Biliousness and many other bad symptoms; and, besides, you will not need laxatives to keep your stomach, liver and intestines clean and fresh.

If your stomach is sour and full of gas or your food doesn't digest, and your meals don't seem to fit, why not get a 50-cent case from your druggist and make life worth living? Absolute relief from Stomach misery and perfect digestion of anything you eat is sure to follow five minutes after, and, besides, one case is sufficient to cure a whole family of such trouble.

Surely a harmless, inexpensive preparation like Diapepsin, which will always, either at daytime or during night, relieve your stomach misery and digest your meals, is about as handy and valuable a thing as you could have in the house.

Legislature Visits Works at Grand Falls and Bishop's Falls.

On Friday at 7 p.m. the members of the Legislature, Journalists, Mr. W. G. Gosling and Mr. Robert Rendell went out by special train to Grand Falls to inspect the pulp and paper plants in operation there.

The party arrived at Grand Falls about 11.20 on Saturday morning, and was received by Mr. M. M. Beaton, the President of the Company, and a number of the chiefs of the staff.

The party was entertained at luncheon in two sections, one at President Beaton's residence, the other at Grand Falls House, Lord Northcliffe's residence. After luncheon the party divided up into small parties and visited the works. The saw mills were seen where the logs carried up from the log pool are taken up by endless chain and sawn up into 32 inch billets. Those works were explained but the operation was not seen as the cutting-up season was not on. A unique aerial viaduct conveys and dumps the billets into a range of hills some 80 feet in height and 4,500 feet long. Half of this dump had already been eaten up in the process of pulp making, and sufficient was left to keep the plant running at its present rate until May. Having ranged along the dump our party made its way to the fore-bay and viewed the head of water barred across the river by the 82 foot cement dam, and harnessed to the turbines some 2,000 feet away by sluiceways, fore-bay and mammoth pipe ways. This volume of running water dropping 112 feet provides the energy which runs the barking, grinding, splintering and other plants, and which also is converted into electricity for lighting and other purposes. From the fore-bay the parties wended their way to the end of the dump of billets where men were at work picking out the billets and feeding them to a trough on an incline through which a stream of water was flowing, which carried the billets to the foot of an incline plane on which an endless chain belt was running which picked up the billets at times with the help of a man stationed here with a pike who assisted the passage of the logs when they became congested. This belt lifted them to the mill.

A concise and clear statement of the works at Grand Falls is to be found in "The Newspaper Owner," published on February 26th, and reporting an interview between M. M. Beaton, Esq., President of the Anglo-Newfoundland Company and the editor. We submit a part of it:—"Would you mind giving me a few facts and figures illustrative of the size and scope of the operations that are being carried on by your company, and, first, as to the engineering part of the work?"

"That was, of course, carried out by Mr. Hardy, of whom you have doubtless heard. Mr. G. F. Hardy, who is one of the most eminent hydraulic engineers in America, planned and designed the Grand Falls Mills, and the accessory dam and pipe work on the Exploit river, on which there is a total fall above the mills of 112 feet. The dam at the top is 82 feet wide, with two wings accounting for another 500 feet. The steel tubes, or penstocks, which conduct the water from above the dam to the powerhouse, are 15 feet in diameter, and 2,150 feet long. The energy thus created operates four double turbines for the 24 pulp-grinders, and three others for the 2,500 horsepower dynamos, which light the mills and town, and actuate seventy electric motors in various parts of the works."

"Then there is no steam plant?" "Accessory steam plant is provided for contingencies, and electricity can be generated and pumps worked by this means if necessary."

"Might I ask how many men were employed in the work?" "About 1,000 during the last year, and in the logging operations last winter some 850 men and 50 horses were engaged at the thirty-three camps."

In reply to further questions, Mr. Beaton then kindly described the logging and subsequent operations, which are as follows:—

The area leased by the company is some 3,000 square miles, and its centre is Red Indian Lake, forty miles long by three miles wide, and around which the camps are pitched. The logging season is from September to April, during which period last year more than three million logs were cut and sleighed—ten or fifteen at a time—down the snow to the lake, where they are gathered into "brows." When the ice breaks up these "brows" are launched within large chain-connected logs, and towed by steamer to the river exit, where they are let go, and guided clear of rapids and other obstructions by the river men upon them.

Arrived at the mills, 56 miles lower than carried by conveyor to the parker knives, and subsequently to the down, the logs are cut into 32in. lengths by an automatic saw, and grinded in the houses. Here they are ridged of frost by steam and ground at end against huge stones under five tons' pressure.

The resultant stock, or pulp, is pumped up and run to flat screens of thin brass sheeting, perforated with fine slits, below which works a rubber diaphragm, the inside of which is a vacuum, which sucks through the screen the finest of the stock, the rest being refined and made into cardboard.

The logs for sulphite pulp are reduced by machines working across the grain of the wood, to inch-square chips, which are "cooked" or "digested" in steam and sulphuric acid, the latter of which is made in six high wood cylinders (150ft. by 6ft.) within a 200ft. steel water tower. These cylinders are filled with lime, below which Louisiana sulphur is roasted, and into which water trickles.

The resultant sulphuric acid, or bisulphite of lime, is stored in large vats adjoining the Digester Building which contains two huge upright steel boilers, or digesters, and measures 112ft. in height, 75ft. in length, and 32ft. in width.

Of 240 tons of dry pulp ground daily in the 24 grinders one-third goes, after being mixed with sulphuric acid, to the paper-making machines, whilst the wet pulp, which may now weigh up to 320 tons, is baled in pressed sheets for export. The two digesters turn out, in addition, 50 tons of sulphite pulp daily, part of which is also exported.

From the mill the rails and bales are conveyed by the company's railway to the coast for shipment, in which latter service the company's own ships will presently be employed.

There remains to add that throughout the works every valuable labour and material-saving device that is known to modern paper-making science is utilized; that more than 2,000 sprinkler heads are ready to deal automatically with fire; and that, alike in the works and in the new model town of Grand Falls, nothing has been overlooked or omitted from the point of view of the workpeople's comfort and well-being.

Mr. J. P. Riley, formerly one of the International Paper Co.'s best known mill managers, is the mill superintendent, and he is assisted by a staff of skilled American foremen, under whose expert guidance the Newfoundland operatives have rapidly graduated to proficiency. Dr. Chamberlain is the resident physician, and the company's farms, from which the town draws supplies, is directed by Mr. Albert Bayly.

Among the amenities of the occasion was the exchange of cable messages. On arrival at Grand Falls, the Premier was handed a message from Lord Northcliffe:—

"Grand Falls. "Movements your distinguished party recorded here, morning and evening, in newspapers printed on superb Grand Falls paper. Rejoiced to find greatly increased British interest in Newfoundland here. Lady Northcliffe and I hope to welcome all at Grand Falls House in September. (Sgd.) "NORTHCLIFFE."

To this message, Sir Edward replied as follows:—"LORD NORTHCLIFFE, "London."

"Whole Legislative party highly appreciate your kindly message. Just returned from thorough inspection of mills. Magnitude of your enterprise impresses everyone; evokes sincere hope it may continue to meet greatest possible success. (Sgd.) "E. P. MORRIS."

The impressions of the sights on the Premier, the Minister of Finance, the Colonial Secretary, and Messrs. Kent and Cliff were cable to the London papers. Among those toasted who were absent were the Napoleons of Journalism, Lord Northcliffe and the late Premier, Sir Robert Bond, who faced oblation and obloquy in pioneering the Harmsworth Contract through the House of Assembly, which is realizing the brightest hopes of its supporters. During the last five months great progress has been made in the building up of the town and the lighting of the houses. On the way back to town a visit was paid to the works of the A. E. Reed Company at Bishop's Falls, where a dam is in course of construction of greater dimensions than that of Grand Falls. Pits for the power house have been excavated and the main buildings of the pulp factory are now in course of construction. Pulp will be made here but not paper, and a thriving settlement is already springing up in this pretty spot.

Be Sober and Watch.

A record attendance of members was made yesterday at the quarterly meeting of the T. A. & B. Society. The names of 10 young men were added to the roll amidst enthusiasm. The Spiritual Director, Father Kitchen, gave an address on "The evils of intemperance," which was received with rapt attention. Secretary Hynes of the Club presented his report, showing the progress of that branch. The Band Committee consider the band, under the direction of Prof. D. A. Flynn, second to none in the city. The Guardians' report showed that 25 new members had joined the Juvenile Branch during the quarter. This increase was gratifying to those present, who expressed their appreciation of the Guardians in charge. Suggestions were made for the providing of a recreation room for the boys and the services of a competent drill master in athletics. It is also the intention of the parent society, as outlined by President W. J. Ellis, to establish a music studio, to be in charge of a music teacher, where the juveniles who have left school, and some to work may educate themselves in music and singing. This announcement was received with applause. It is a move in the right direction, and would be the means of hundreds of parents placing their children in the hands of the junior branch. After the general routine business was finished an adjournment was taken till the second Sunday in April.

How She Was Lost.

By the Portia we learn that the French schooner Norman Fisher, which was lost on the S. W. Coast about two weeks ago, was fishing out of Rose Blanche when on the 2nd inst. with a number of other small craft she bore up from the grounds, somewhat late. A Newfoundland, a member of the crew, offered to pilot her to Rose Blanche, but in the thick weather the man made a mis-shot and put the vessel into the "false passage" and she went ashore, soon becoming a wreck. John Garcon, the lightkeeper, noticed the accident, and seeing the danger of the crew kept the fog whistle blowing to attract the other bankers. This it did, and though they were on the other side of the island they landed their boats despite the rough weather and at great risk saved the crew of the vessel. The Fisher was owned by Floquet Bros. St. Pierre, and was the first Frenchman to engage at the winter fishery from Rose Blanche.

Massey Estate Makes Splendid Gift.

Donates $100,000 to Saskatchewan College Fund.

Regina, Sask., March 7.—Yesterday morning at the Metropolitan Methodist Church, Rev. S. J. Chegwin announced that the Massey estate will give $100,000 towards the Methodist College which is to be established in Regina.

Upon the announcement being made the whole congregation rose and joined in the singing of the Doxology.

With the $115,000 already subscribed by members of the Metropolitan Church, and an equal amount guaranteed by the Saskatchewan Conference, the Massey gift makes the amount assured for the project $330,000.

[We have been informed on very good authority that the Mr. Massey referred to above left $5,000 to the Methodist College of this city.—Ed. Tel.]

Fell Overboard.

Three young men, Cunningham, Turner and McKinley, came down to the Queen's wharf from Angel's in a boat Saturday evening last to see the sealing steamers depart. When near the landing at the wharf a row arose amongst them. McKinley managed to get ashore in the melee. Turner wanted another chap on the wharf to get aboard, but to this Cunningham would not agree. Turner then shoved off the boat. As the thing was done suddenly Cunningham who was standing in the bow lost his balance by reason of the shock and went head first overboard. Turner grabbed him by the leg and after a hard struggle managed to get him into the boat. Cunningham then asked to be landed and his request being complied with he walked up Water Street to his home attracting much attention.

McMurdo's Store News

MONDAY, March 14, '10.

Kite Has Rough Trip.

The s.s. Kite, Capt. W. Carroll, had a rough passage on the way to Channel, after leaving St. John's Friday, March the 5th. The steamer had to lay to all night off Cape Ballard while a fierce gale raged on the N.W. During the night a heavy sea swept the deck, and breaking down the coal pounds nearly all the coal was swept overboard. The flying jibboom was also broken off. Next morning Capt. Carroll ran for Placentia Bay, and reached North Harbor where repairs were made and the jibboom was secured in place. Next day Capt. Carroll left for the west and had a good run to Channel, where 30 tons of coal were got from the s.s. Portia.

Again Caught Shebeening.

Timothy Hayden, of Harbor Grace, has again been caught shebeening, and being brought before Magistrate Oke, Saturday, was fined $200 or 6 months in the Penitentiary. For the hearing of this case Const. Morrissey recently arrived here with several witnesses from Bell Island. This man is possibly one of the most noted shebeeners in the country, for at present there is a fine of $150 recorded against him for a conviction obtained by the police about two weeks ago, but against which conviction he had appealed to the Supreme Court. This is the fourth time he has been fined himself; his wife has once or twice been fined for a similar offence, and his son has been fined for selling whiskey in flasks in the streets of Hr. Grace.

Stealing Firewood.

People who arrived by the local train Saturday from Topsail say there are some parties there who are stealing firewood from different people. Quite a quantity has already been taken from Mr. Harding's yard, and Friday morning early a man was heard there, but quickly made tracks. If he makes his appearance again a dose of small shot will prevent his running away.

Our Montreal Letter.

The Eucharistic Congress — One Hundred Prelates will Attend—The School Commission Favor a Separate School Board for the Irish Parishes—The City's Health—Law Breakers Punished—Enjoying Real Spring Weather — Are Newfoundlanders Still "Too Green to Burn"—The Hockey Championship.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

A Great Gathering of Prelates.
Cardinal Gibbons has written Archbishop Bruchesi accepting his invitation to the Eucharistic Congress to be held here next September. Cardinal Logue has also written, saying that he will attend if at all possible. In all about 100 prelates of the church are expected.

Sir Thomas Shaughnessy will entertain the Cardinal Legates, and it is understood that with the Duke of Norfolk the English contingent will be housed at the Place Vieux Hotel. Many private citizens have offered to entertain one or more Bishops. The many priests who will be present will be looked after by the different religious establishments in the city.

To-day Archbishop Bruchesi is issuing his personal invitations at the same time that Mgr. Heylen, Bishop of Namur, Belgium, president of the Congress of the world over, issues his official invitations.

Favor A Separate Board.
The Royal Commission appointed by the Quebec Government to enquire into the school system of the City of Montreal will report in favor of a Separate Board for the English speaking Catholics. At present some of the parishes are badly in need of Boys' Schools, and it is only with a change like that proposed by the Commission would there be any hope of having such schools. Rev. Father John E. Donnelly, P.P., St. Anthony's, the leading clergyman among the Irish pastors, speaking to your correspondent in reference to school matters said that things could not be much worse than they are at present. And certainly he's right. The boys of St. Anthony's Parish attend about ten different schools in the city, for the simple reason that there is no school in the parish for their present. Father Donnelly speaking at a reception tendered him at the Belmont School, Guy Street, a few days ago, expressed a wish that he would like to have his boys attend the Belmont School. By next September the Catholic School Board may place that school at his disposal. At present the English speaking boys are in the majority in the school, and this may induce the School Board to let the pastor of St. Anthony's have the school for his parish. His Grace Archbishop Bruchesi favors a Separate Board for the English parishes.

Sickness Decreasing.

During the past week there were only four deaths from typhoid, this being the smallest number in upwards of three months. Coming as it does so shortly after the installation of sterilization systems, both by the Montreal Water & Power Co., and by the civic waterworks, it is a gratifying indication of the value of such plans. As Dr. Loberge points out, there is now practically no typhoid in the city, apart from the general run of cases which almost necessarily are to be found in all large centers.

The Medical Health Officer, in referring to the fact of the connection between the recent sterilization of typhoid, stated that he hoped the citizens generally and the newspapers in particular, would take up the cudgels in favor of the permanent improvement of city water by means of the installation of a filtration plant—an end, for the realization of which, he personally had been long contending.

Law Breakers Fined.
Merchants who disobeyed the law of keeping their stores open after hours, were sentenced by Mr. Recorder Weil to a fine in each case of $2 plus the costs. Over fifty cases came before the Court, many of the actions having been instituted last fall, when it was still a question whether the by-law was ultra vires or not and those decisions follow that of the Privy Council confirming the by-law.

The police say that the by-law is fairly well observed now, although some retailers claim that they are exempt. To this Mr. Poirier, president of the Early Closing Association, replies that no exception exists, and it will be the duty of the association to bring to court those who violate the law.

of such a business as that of the Roxroy Studios was an indictable offence under section 443 of the Criminal Code.

"You may judge of the extent to which people will allow themselves to be fooled," continued Mr. Gaboury, "when I say that we held up no less than 1,000 letters addressed to this man yesterday. In the last four years we have closed up no less than 100 concerns like this in Montreal. We have an officer whose duty it is to look after all such establishments, and get after all that appear to be using His Majesty's mails for fraudulent purposes. There was one woman, I remember, a 'palinist,' she called herself, that we must have chased out of twenty-five different strongholds."

Mr. Gaboury paused and laughed. "I was talking with a patent medicine man once," he said, "and he told me that while the United States were excellent grounds for him and his kind, and Canada superb, the Fools' Paradise was Newfoundland."

The patent medicine man found Newfoundland "the Fools' Paradise." And Newfoundlanders are still "too green to burn." Notwithstanding the many lessons learnt, their great hostility to strangers, even in preference to their own, while they extend as glad hand of welcome they in turn receive the dagger of the assassin in the shape of insults. I hope Newfoundlanders will remember patent medicine vendors for the future, and the next one appears show him that Newfoundland can resent such an insult and will no longer be called a "Fools' Paradise" for such persons.

The Hockey Championship.
The senior hockey championship was practically decided Saturday evening, March 5th, when Ottawa and Wanderers met in battle array at Dey's rink, Ottawa, and Wanderers came off victorious by a score of 3 goals to 1. This is the second win for the Wanderers over Ottawa.

Newfoundland Mails on Time.
On three occasions during the winter did the Newfoundland mail arrive with the same regularity as in the summer, that is, a mail was delivered on Saturdays. This speaks well for the P. O. in keeping Newfoundlanders abroad in close touch with happenings in the Island Home.

Laval Students Honor Civic Rulers.
Students of Laval did honor to three of their professors who are at the present time occupying positions of honor in the civic administration: Mayor Guerin, Controller Lachapelle and Ald. Dubeau. His Honor Judge Lafontaine was the host of the evening, and a cordial reception was accorded the distinguished guests.

Dr. Guerin delivered an address thanking the students for the reception which they had accorded him while Dr. Lachapelle announced that he would offer a special gold medal or proficiency in the study of hygiene.

Among those present were Canon Dauth, vice-rector of the University; Hon. Judge Mathieu, Dean of the Law Faculty; the Hon. A. Desjardins, Dr. St. Jacques, professor of surgery; Dr. Benoit, Dr. A. Ethier, Dr. Cleroux, Dr. Delorme, Dr. Rivet, Dr. Larose, Dr. Asselin and many others.

Punishments for Barkeepers.
One of the features of Ald. Resther's proposed amendments to the Liquor License Law is to impose a fine of $1,000 for the first infraction, and to make a second offence cause forfeiture of the license.

Ald. Resther is willing to let the hours remain as at present, but would have the Government or city appoint inspectors to see that the law is enforced. He further wants the licenses cut down from 460, the present number, to 350. Those granted licenses should be made to pay more, to make up for the decrease in funds with the reduction in the number of licenses granted.

Opening of Navigation.
It is expected from present indications that navigation will open the end of the present month. The frost this winter was not severe and the river is not very solid. The present mild weather will serve to break up the ice, and in a few days the first shove from Lake St. Louis will take place. Your correspondent viewed the river from the tower of the City Hall and several channels were seen in the ice, which would indicate that even a tug boat could break up the ice at present.

of such a business as that of the Roxroy Studios was an indictable offence under section 443 of the Criminal Code.

"You may judge of the extent to which people will allow themselves to be fooled," continued Mr. Gaboury, "when I say that we held up no less than 1,000 letters addressed to this man yesterday. In the last four years we have closed up no less than 100 concerns like this in Montreal. We have an officer whose duty it is to look after all such establishments, and get after all that appear to be using His Majesty's mails for fraudulent purposes. There was one woman, I remember, a 'palinist,' she called herself, that we must have chased out of twenty-five different strongholds."

Mr. Gaboury paused and laughed. "I was talking with a patent medicine man once," he said, "and he told me that while the United States were excellent grounds for him and his kind, and Canada superb, the Fools' Paradise was Newfoundland."

The patent medicine man found Newfoundland "the Fools' Paradise." And Newfoundlanders are still "too green to burn." Notwithstanding the many lessons learnt, their great hostility to strangers, even in preference to their own, while they extend as glad hand of welcome they in turn receive the dagger of the assassin in the shape of insults. I hope Newfoundlanders will remember patent medicine vendors for the future, and the next one appears show him that Newfoundland can resent such an insult and will no longer be called a "Fools' Paradise" for such persons.

The Hockey Championship.
The senior hockey championship was practically decided Saturday evening, March 5th, when Ottawa and Wanderers met in battle array at Dey's rink, Ottawa, and Wanderers came off victorious by a score of 3 goals to 1. This is the second win for the Wanderers over Ottawa.

Newfoundland Mails on Time.
On three occasions during the winter did the Newfoundland mail arrive with the same regularity as in the summer, that is, a mail was delivered on Saturdays. This speaks well for the P. O. in keeping Newfoundlanders abroad in close touch with happenings in the Island Home.

How Tollman Was Shot

Joseph Tollman, of Trinity East, who had his hand blown off the other day, was 7 miles in the woods when the accident befel him. He with his brother William were on the way home at the time, and each of them had a load of fence rails on their slides. As they proceeded one of the slides struck a stump, the horns on it hit into the stump and striking the gun caused it to explode. The whole load of heavy shot entered Joseph's right arm below the elbow. His brother William got him home, bleeding profusely as he was, as best he (Wm.) could. The wounds inflicted were terrible to behold and on arrival home Drs. White and Fitzgerald were quickly at the man's side. They had to amputate the arm about 4 inches below the elbow. The man who is 48 years old is in poor circumstances has a wife and three children whose ages range from 3 to 6 years, and for several years has been an invalid. Here is a case which should receive the attention of the charitably disposed people of the city.

S. S. Portia Here.

The S. S. Portia, Capt. Fitzpatrick, arrived from the westward at 4 p.m. Saturday. Leaving here at 10 a.m. on the 4th inst., she had a good run to Trepassey, but the next day, Saturday, she met a N. W. gale with heavy sea, and she was unable for the time being to round Cape St. Mary's. It became moderate Sunday morning, and fine weather continued until Wednesday when the ship arrived at Port aux Basques.

On the return she encountered a heavy N.W. gale with thick snow on Thursday night which continued until noon on Friday. She had fine weather the rest of the trip and brought a small freight and two passengers.

Rosalind From New York and Halifax.

The s.s. Rosalind, Capt. Smith, arrived here from New York via Halifax at 1.30 p.m. yesterday. The ship was 49 hours from Halifax. She left New York on the 8th at 1 p.m., encountering fine weather on the trip to Halifax, where she arrived at 7 p.m. on the 10th. From New York to Halifax the weather was fine and summer like. She left Halifax Friday at noon, and also had fine weather and a good run to St. John's. She brought a full cargo including a lot of cabbage and dories on deck. Her saloon passengers were: From New York—Mrs. C. Macpherson, W. J. Redstone, M. J. Dyer, Mrs. J. Kavanagh, Mrs. L. Kavanagh, Mrs. A. Sullivan, Master K. Sullivan. From Halifax—J. C. Pippy, J. C. Coull, H. V. Turnvall, D. A. Lithian, J. H. Taylor, Hon. S. Milley and seven second class.

NOTICE.

SUNLIGHT SOAP, of which the reputation is world-wide, can be obtained at all respectable Grocers throughout Newfoundland. This reputation has been built up during upwards of 25 years and is based on solid fact.

The public are therefore cautioned against attempts being made by unscrupulous dealers to substitute inferior soaps under the pretence that they are "just as good as" or "equal to" SUNLIGHT SOAP.

THE PURITY OF EVERY TABLET OF SUNLIGHT SOAP IS GUARANTEED TO THE EXTENT OF $5000.

Thought 'Twas a Fire.

At 12.30 a.m. yesterday watchman E. Skiffington saw what he took to be smoke issuing from a house in course of erection at the corner of Duckworth and Holloway Streets. Telling Head Sparrow he ran to the place, saw what he took to be smoke issuing through doors and windows, and found the hall door open. In a room upstairs a big fire of hard coal burned in a stove, and there was so much shavings, wood and refuse about that the officer procured water and quenched the fire. Fire was also found in a stove in another room but this was left alone. The fires were left there to dry the plastering, and the steam coming through the windows and doors had the appearance of smoke.

A Sad Case.

Saturday at noon a man named Farrell reported to the police station that Robert Fowlow of the Octagon, Topsail Road, was barred up in the house and that neither he nor others could obtain admission. Fearing that something was wrong Detective Byrne with Const. Lee went to the place in the afternoon, and after knocking repeatedly the men were compelled to force the door. They found the unfortunate occupant of the place half dressed sitting on the bed in his room upstairs and shivering with the cold, there being no fire in the house. The man was evidently insane. He said he had been communing with spirits, and near him lay his open Bible. There were some shavings and wood near the grate, but he had been without fire since Thursday night. The kind hearted officers started a fire and made him take some hot tea and eat some bread, which he did, and then drove him to the police station. He was examined by Dr. Anderson at 8.30 Saturday night and pronounced insane. He had over $70 on him and this was taken care of by his cousin. All who know the man entertain the deepest sympathy for him.

A Farewell Dinner.

Miss Delaney who for a long while was saleswoman in the store of Mr. J. O'Neil, Brigus, and a popular resident of the place, who left for Boston a couple of days ago was tendered a farewell dinner at Sea View Hotel on the eve of her departure. Over 40 guests were present, a first-class menu was discussed, songs and speeches were made. Miss D. was given some very pretty presents, and at the railway station a number of the people met her and presented her with a beautiful gold, locket and chain. The recipient was touched at the kindly sentiments entertained by the people of the place for her.

To Start Farming.

By the freight train which Conductor Besant brought in yesterday at 3.30 p.m. there came a Mr. McKenna, who will start farming here. He brought in a large lot of farming utensils and 8 cows, 2 calves, a bull, fine stallion and mare, several pigs and a lot of poultry. The train also brought in a lot of pulp and paper.

At C. of E. Cathedral.

The Lord Bishop administered Confirmation at the C. of E. Cathedral yesterday afternoon, being assisted by Rev. Canon White, Rev. J. Bell and Rev. J. Brinton. There was a large congregation and the service was very impressive, especially the Bishop's address on "The life that is before you." Nearly 150 candidates were confirmed.

The Burst of a Dam Destroys Life.

Special to Evening Telegram. CARDIFF, Wales, March 12. The bursting of a dam at an old colliery at Blaenelydach in Rhondda Valley has flooded the village below, destroyed many houses, and rushed into a school having 900 pupils, who narrowly escaped drowning. Six lives were lost in the village, the inhabitants of which fled.

James O'Connor Dead.

Special to Evening Telegram. LONDON, March 12. James O'Connor, a Nationalist member of the House of Commons, who has represented the West Division of Wicklow since 1892, died to-day. He was born in 1836. Mr. O'Connor was formerly on the staff of the Irish People, a Fenian organ. In 1863 he was with Luby O'Leary and Chas. Kikham, of the Irish People, was convicted of treason felony, and was sentenced to 7 years penal servitude. He was liberated before his term had expired, and was subsequently connected with various journals.

Another Nationalist Passed Away.

Special to Evening Telegram. LONDON, March 13. Timothy Harrington, member of the House of Commons for Harbour Division of Dublin, died to-day. Timothy Harrington was born in 1851 and graduated from Trinity College, Dublin. In 1901 he was elected Lord Mayor of Dublin, and was re-elected in 1902 and 1903, and was formerly Proprietor of United Ireland, and of the Kerry Sentinel.

Political Furore in France.

Special to Evening Telegram. PARIS, March 12. The scandal in connection with the liquidation of the property of religious orders has aroused political passions in France to a pitch only comparable with the Dreyfus and Boulanger affairs. The entire country is shocked, but as is customary in France the moral is overshadowed by the political side. The Government opposition is prepared to exploit the affair in the coming election, and strangely enough with the backing of the adherents of ex-President Combes, who they are intriguing to return to power.

Latest Roosevelt Boom

Special to Evening Telegram. LONDON, March 12. Former President Roosevelt proposes to make his stay in England as quiet and unostentatious as possible. He has refused hundreds of invitations from public and private sources, including those for banquets to be tendered by the Pilgrim Society and the American Society. The American Embassy is receiving a mass of correspondence regarding Mr. Roosevelt's visit. Many of the most prominent people are anxious to secure the distinguished American as a guest of their homes. Ambassador Reid has been compelled to decline in Roosevelt's name practically all of these invitations.

Big Walk-Out.

Special Evening Telegram. CHICAGO, Ills., March 13. The walk-out of 25,000 firemen on practically all the railroad systems between Chicago and the Pacific Coast reached an acute stage to-day when W. S. Carter, President of the Brotherhood of Firemen and Engine men, formally notified the railroads that if the entire controversy were not submitted to arbitration a strike would be inevitable.

Berlin Suffrage Demonstration.

Editor Evening Telegram. BERLIN, March 13. Demonstrations on a small scale occurred in Berlin to-day. They were held under the auspices of the Radicals, and for the most part passed off without disorders. Two processions, however, came into contact with the police. The police drew their weapons and dispersed the crowds without bloodshed.

Food Salesmen Strike.

Special to Evening Telegram. PHILADELPHIA, March 13. In its efforts to demonstrate the strength of organized labor and to make stronger the sympathetic strike, the Central Labor Union to-day directed all milkmen, bakers, grocery clerks and other dispensers of the necessities of life to remain from their usual vocations to-morrow and until the grievances of the striking men shall have been adjusted.

Dock for Oversea Airships.

Special to Evening Telegram. HAMBURG, March 12. Addressing the East Asiatic Society last evening, Prince Henry of Prussia said that as a result of his visit to England he could assure them that Great Britain offered to Germany an honorable and sincere friendship. The idea of aggressive action, he added, was completely absent from the minds of those interested in the British Government. That, however, rested on reciprocity, and nothing must be omitted that might serve to strengthen the confidence of two nations in each other. The old saying, "Confidence begets confidence," he continued, was here applicable. He could answer for the friendly feeling of the naval officers, but the merchant had a similar duty to perform just as much as his military comrades. Prince Henry then invited the Society to give its warm support to the projected company organized to build at Hamburg an airship dock, which will accommodate at least two of the Zeppelin dirigibles, at a cost of $250,000, and make Hamburg the first port of departure for oversea airship lines.

Woman's Bank.

Special to Evening Telegram. LONDON, March 12. A novel departure in British banking will be inaugurated on Monday next with the opening of a Woman's Bank, officered and conducted exclusively by women, and catering only to women customers. The only man permitted on the premises will be a messenger, and one of his functions will be to keep other men away. No man may be a depositor or transact business with the new institution. Miss May Bateman, the manager, has done newspaper work as War Correspondent in South Africa and has written several novels.

Pleasant Sunday Afternoon Class.

Before an attentive and appreciative audience at the Congregational Church yesterday afternoon, Mr. I. C. Morris delivered an address on "Ideals." The lack of interest in intellectual pursuits was emphasized by the speaker, and he urged upon all present the necessity of models of art, science, literature, music and morality. To achieve success in any of these branches, the best models were indispensable. It was necessary to avoid imitation; for nothing was more abhorrent in youth than mimicry. Models were for the purpose of revealing method, and in studying a form a student should not submerge his own personality to the extent that he became merely a replica of the original.

CURLIANA.

The officers match between Mic-Mac and Terra Nova Clubs takes place this evening at 7.30 p.m. The teams drawn are as follows:— Mic-Mac. A. Donnelly, R. Von Stein, Harry Cowan, J. B. Soper, Wm. Missionary Meeting at Cochrane St. Church

The missionary anniversary services were held at Cochrane Street Methodist Church yesterday, and were highly successful. The pastor, Rev. F. R. Matthews, B. A., conducted the morning service. Taking as his text the words, "ye are witnesses of these things," the preacher showed how Christ had fulfilled the Old Testament Scriptures—His suffering and glory, the great moral and spiritual result of Christ's life, and especially emphasized the need of the church to-day, which was faithful witness. The platform meeting held in the evening was well attended. The Rev. Dr. Cowperthwaite, in the absence of the pastor who was unexpectedly called to take the service at Wesley Church opened the service and read the scripture lesson, the Rev. M. Fenwick read the congregation in prayer. John Leamon, Esq., occupied the chair and made a model chairman. Rev. Dr. Cowperthwaite read the report, showing that Newfoundland had contributed to the general mission fund last year the sum of fourteen thousand nine hundred and seventy eight dollars, why not make it twenty thousand dollars this present year, it is surely not too much to ask. The Rev. J. K. Curtis B. A., was the speaker of the evening, his address being a masterly one, and probably the ablest ever delivered at "Cochrane." One figure, said the speaker, stands prominently before the world to-day and that figure is the personality of Jesus Christ. Mr. Curtis dealt with several aspects of the foreign missionary work. One of the hindrances of the Christian Church to-day is selfishness, when we give to missions it must be unselfishly. Missionary work is a challenge to the young people of our churches, the call has come to the youth of the churches, and nobly they have responded. Look at the Students Volunteer Movement with over twenty five thousand members who are now studying and preparing themselves to give and go to the mission field. The Laymen's Movement has gripped the business men in many parts of the world, also the heads of great manufacturing concerns and university professors. The speaker in referring to the laymen said I feel sure we as ministers are not making use of the laymen as we ought. They carry on the work of the Sunday school, the class meeting, and other societies, most efficiently; why not make them responsible, and make this missionary problem a live one. The mission field gives to the home church its grandest vision, let every church have its own missionary, then a greater interest would be aroused, and the giving would be better than we see to-day. Touching references were also made to missionaries who had given their lives up and had died in the mission field. Miss Herder sang most effectively "Fear ye not, O Israel," and the choir rendered an anthem during the offering. The singing on the part of the congregation was hearty, and the service was brought to a close by the singing of that grand old hymn "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

Departure of the Fleet.

May It Return in Safety With Bumper Trips.

Sharp at 6 p.m. Saturday the sailing steamers Florizel, Bonaventure, Adventure, Beothic and Bellaventure left port for the icefields in the order named. To show that the people have not lost their old time interest in the departure of our Vikings of the frozen flocs, the wharves of Job Bros. Harvey & Co's, the King's, Shea & Co's, and the Coastal premises were lined with sightseers, while up at the Cabot Tower and out on the North and South Batteries large numbers of people had collected. On the South Side there was much enthusiasm. Each pier down the harbor was lined with people, and amongst those watching the ships were many of the fair sex. As the flag bedecked vessels steamed out the Narrows they presented a pretty spectacle, and were accompanied a short way by the steam pinnace of H.M.S. Calypso, the tugs John Green and Ingraham and the s.s. Euphrates, while a regular flotilla of boats also rowed along with them as far as possible. The crews of the ships were crowded on the decks, and when the start was made the crowds on the piers cheered them lustily, and answering cheers from the decks of the fleet, salvos of musketry from the South Side and volleys from the boats created a joyous din, and the spectacle will long be remembered by those who witnessed it. Those at the Tower and Batteries waved their handkerchiefs and cheered the ships and these were answered from the decks. On rounding the North Head and reaching open water each ship was opened out and there was an interesting race down the shore. The fleet passed Cape St. Francis at 7.20, and the Florizel could be made out to be the second ship, though it was too dark to make out the first. Still it was believed this was the Bellaventure. There is a great contrast between conditions governing the sealfishery now and those which prevailed heretofore. Wireless telegraphy has been introduced on the more modern ships. Yesterday Mr. Erik Bowring dispatched the following wireless to Mr. J. R. Munn:—"Florizel at sundown was 50 miles N. by E. Funks, leading, and has done so all the time. Bellaventure following in our wake. Rest steel fleet last seen 10 miles astern. In constant communication with Eagle, which leads wooden fleet, about 30 miles West, making slow progress. Tight pack." May we hope soon to hear the best of news from our hardy toilers.

By RUTH CAMERON

Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time.—
—Longfellow.

But how very few of us ever give those lives a chance to remind us of anything.

In other words, how few of us ever read much of any biography. And yet I do not think there is a better heartener, a better reminder of what the powers within us rightly used may accomplish, if we are inclined to discouragement, or a better check to our vanity if we are inclined towards vain glory, than the biographies of great men.

The biography of every great man or woman is a tonic for some one. It is the work of encouragement the man at the top of the ladder calls to him at the foot. It is the bugle note of "what man has done man can do." It is the reminder that greater obstacles than those you face have been overcome.

If a struggling young author thinks that success comes more slowly to him than it ever did to any one and begins to doubt if after all he has ability, what could be better for him than to read?

What could be better for the ambitious young girl who is trying to make her way through college and who finds the deprivations very hard to bear, and wonders sometimes if it is really worth while, than to read the biography of some of the great women who have found it decidedly worth while, and to realize that there were times when these great people had quite as much to be discouraged about as they?

I suppose the reason that people read so little biography is because they have an idea that it is like studying. For myself I know few novels any more interesting than some of the biographies I have read.

Try it some day, if you haven't the habit.

Get the biography of some one who has "made good" in your own special line of work.

The next time you go to your public library you tell your librarian what kind of a biography you want and I'm sure she will be able to find it for you.

And if you do not feel inspired and encouraged, and strengthened, and glad you did it, just let me know.

Not Sisters

Now and again you see two women passing down the street who look like sisters. You are astonished to learn that they are mother and daughter, and you realize that a woman at forty or forty-five ought to be at her finest and fairest. Why isn't it so?

The general health of women is so intimately associated with the local health of the essentially feminine organs that there can be no red cheeks and round form where there is female weakness.

Women who have suffered from this trouble have found prompt relief and cure in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It gives vigor and vitality to the organs of womanhood. It clears the complexion, brightens the eyes and reddens the cheeks.

No alcohol, or habit-forming drugs is contained in "Favorite Prescription." Any sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. Every letter is held as sacredly confidential, and answered in a plain envelope. Address: World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.

HOUSEHOLD NOTES.

Sprinkle suet with flour before chopping it or running it through the food chopper. Then the task will be any easy one.

Some people put the meringue on a pie or pudding while it is still hot. This causes the egg to liquify and quite spoils the dish.

Water that has stood for a little while in the sun is best for watering house plants; fresh cold water will retard their growth.

Never grate lemon rind without first scrubbing well with a clean vegetable brush. The dirt that comes off will show the reason.

Fish cakes made from the smoked Finnan haddock, slightly freshened, are delicious. They should be mixed with mashed potato, the same as codfish.

Peas and beans should never be swimming in water. They should be cooked with as little liquid as possible to retain the flavor of the vegetables.

Don't leave a tin lid on the saucepan if you start the cereal in the evening for breakfast. It will rust and the moisture will drip into the food.

Turpentine will remove paint stains from all kinds of woollen cloths. If the stains are old it may be necessary to add a little ammonia to the turpentine.

A soft cloth wrung out in hot water and wrapped around a hot water bag will make the latter much more effective, as the steaming heat is better than the dry.

A pleasing dessert has canned peaches as a basis. Serve half a peach on a plate and top it generously with whipped cream, sprinkled with crumbled macaroons.

The careful cook always breaks each egg separately into a saucer or a cup. Then if perchance one is bad it will not spoil the other ingredients in the dish she is making.

To remove grease from men's coat collars, rub with a cloth damped in ammonia. This will sometimes remove the gloss from rubbed places, such as elbows and seams.

If cans of fruit are wrapped in old newspapers after they have cooled from the canning process and placed in a cool, dry spot, the printers' ink and paper will prevent their molding.

A stain remover that has proved successful with fruit and vegetable discolorations on the hands is made by adding four drops of carbolic acid to half a pint of glycerine and rose-water.

Flannel will not harden or shrink if when new it is put into clean, cold water frequently. Wash well in warm water, using a little soap to remove the oil. Flannel thus washed never hardens.

When baking a chicken pie, turn it upscup upside down right in the centre of it before putting on the top crust. This keeps it from getting dry and is far more delicious baked in this way.

Old brass should be cleaned by pouring strong ammonia on it and then scrubbing with a brush and rinsing in cold water. After it has been dried and polished it will look quite beautiful.

Earache, Toothache!

To Cure the Pain in Ten Seconds and Get Instant Relief Nothing Equals

NERVILINE

Fifty years ago Nerviline was used from coast to coast and in thousands of houses this trusty liniment served the entire family, cured all their minor ills and kept the doctor's bill small. To-day Nerviline still holds first rank in Canada among pain-relieving remedies—scarcely a home can you find that doesn't use it.

From Port Hope, Ont., Mr. W. T. Greenaway, of the Guide newspaper staff, writes: "For twenty years we have used Nerviline in our home, and not for the world would be without it. As a remedy for all pain, earache, toothache, cramps, headache and disordered stomach, I know of no preparation so useful and quick to relieve as Nerviline."

Let every mother give Nerviline a trial; it's good for children, good for old folks—you can rub it on as a liniment or take it internally.

Wherever there is pain, Nerviline will cure it. Refuse anything but Nerviline 25c. per bottle, five for $1.00, all dealers or The Cattarhozone Co., Kingston, Ont.

Hint to Charitable Societies

The members of a certain charitable society should exercise more caution when distributing coal notes, in many instances persons who receive these notes do not need them, while there are very many poor families who are in want and who never receive any attention from the gentlemen who are connected with this old institution. The writer agrees with the remarks of Mr. Gosling which appeared in one of the local papers a short time ago. "The uniting of all charitable societies," this would prevent overlapping which is the case in very many instances at present.—Com.

Balfour Wants Effective Second Chamber.

London, March 5.—The city of London Conservatives last night banqueted Mr. Balfour at Banbury. In his speech Mr. Balfour said the election amply justified the action of the House of Lords, which had never seen more capable and efficient, but lacked strength. He wanted a stronger second chamber and it would be best to gain that strength by having some direct formal connection with public opinion, but it should not be a second House of Commons. That would be to deprive it of all its value. It must be comprised of people not immediately amenable to two influences, the passing passion of the moment and the electoral machine.

PALE AND DEPRESSED

naemia, Bad Blood, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Success of Dr. Hamilton's Pills.

For her life and health Mrs. E. K. Wilkinson, is indebted to the marvelous curative properties of Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Her brightness, activity and present good looks are due to nothing else but the enormous benefit she derived from using this grand medicine.

From her home in Newton where she resides with her large family, Mrs. Wilkinson writes: "For years I was pale, anaemic and lacking in vitality. I was a constant sufferer from indigestion, and the distress and pain caused me, coupled with ever-increasing anaemia made me weaker by day. Constant headaches, pecks before the eyes and attacks of dizziness made me feel as if life were not worth living. My constitution was completely undermined and the constant pallor and dullness in my eyes showed what a sick woman I was. I began to take Dr. Hamilton's Pills and the improvement although slow was sure. I gradually got back my strength and my appetite grew much stronger and I enjoyed my meals thoroughly. I felt rapt and more contented and the sickly pallor on my face was replaced by a bright rosy color which proved that a strong medicine was at work in a few months Dr. Hamilton's Pills brought me from a condition of deathly despair to robust health."

You can obtain the same results by using Dr. Hamilton's Pills—beware of the substitute that offers you anything except Dr. Hamilton's Pills, 25c. per box, or five boxes for $1.00, at all dealers or The Cattarhozone Company, Kingston, Ont.

HOW CAN WE COUNTER-ACT THE INCREASED COST OF LIVING?

A second's reasoning will supply the answer. Beef and pork are dear and getting dearer all the time, and the cost is out of proportion with their food-value.

EAT MORE BREAD.

There is more nourishment in a shilling's worth of bread than a shilling's worth of beef or pork. But the problem is not done with yet. The shilling's worth of bread is not always the same value. Breadmade from contains more nourishment than any other, because it contains the greatest amount of gluten, the health-giving nutriment of wheat.

Supreme Court.

(Before Mr. Justice Johnson.)
John O'Keefe vs. Thos. Pope.
This is an action for an injunction to restrain the defendant from further using certain machinery lately installed in his (defendant's) house at 15 Waldegrave Street, adjoining the residence of the plaintiff, Mr. W. E. Wood for plaintiff; Furlong and Mr. A. Squires with him for defendant.

After Mr. Wood had stated the case Mr. J. O'Keefe is sworn, examined by his counsel and cross-examined by Mr. Furlong. Mr. A. O'Keefe is called, sworn and examined by Wood; cross-examined by Furlong, K.C. Philip O'Keefe is also called, sworn, examined and cross-examined by counsel. This closed the plaintiff's case.

(Before Chief Justice.)
Anglo American Tel. Co. vs. Reid Newfoundland Co.
Furlong, K.C., moved for an adjournment in the absence of the principal witness, W. J. Morris; Mr. Greene, K.C., for the plaintiff, is heard and the further hearing is adjourned till Friday.

Philip E. Lake vs. The Phoenix Whaling and M.T.G. Co.
This is an action for a breach of contract on the part of the plaintiff Company in failing to provide full cargo of whale bone for the schr. Rigel. Plaintiff alleges that the said schr. was ready to take cargo on board, viz., 144 tons of bone, and that the amount put on board was only 83 tons. Plaintiff claims that he lost the freight on 61 tons the balance, at $1.50 per ton—to $274.54 and seeks now for recovery of the amount. Mr. Pitman moves that plaintiff begin.

Mr. Warren for defendant is heard contra; motion not acceded to. Pitman states plaintiff's case and calls P. Morrissey who is examined and cross-examined by counsel. Samuel Mayo is also called and gives evidence; Charter Party and Bill of Lading put in. Geo. Mavin gives evidence. Letter put in from Job Bros. & Co. Recess taken at 1 p.m. till 2.30.

B. I. S. Meeting.
Mr. J. P. Kelly, Vice-President, occupied the chair at the adjourned annual meeting of the Benevolent Irish Society held yesterday. The committee in charge of the arrangements for St. Patrick's Day reported that all was in readiness for the parade. The C. C. C. band and Bennett's band are engaged. A letter was read from Mrs. A. W. Harvey offering with pleasure the use of her pair of greys to draw the flag on the parade. Mr. M. W. Myrick also kindly offered his team. Thursday, and after marching through the city and calling on the Governor will attend High Mass at the Cathedral. Great enthusiasm was shown at the meeting, and if the day be fine there will be a large turnout.

Passion Sunday.
Yesterday being Passion Sunday the Lenten services at the R. C. Cathedral were solemn and impressive. His Grace occupied the throne at last Mass, which was celebrated by Rev. Fr. O'Callaghan. At Vespers Rev. Monsignor Roche occupied the pulpit and preached a very beautiful and instructive sermon on the text "Which of you shall convince Me of sin?"—words of our Divine Lord taken from the Gospel read at Mass. There was a large congregation. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament followed.

Train Notes.
The Bruce express arrived here at 3 p.m. Saturday with several passengers. By the local at 9.30 Saturday night there arrived Mr. Scott, Mr. Mews, Mr. Harding, Mrs. LeMessurier, Rev. Fr. Donnelly, Major McGilvray, W. Wilcox and 10 others.

Almost Asphyxiated.

Yesterday morning the daughter of a well known and popular city clergyman had a narrow escape from death by the inhalation of gas fumes. Nothing was known of her condition until moans were heard coming from her room. She must have soon lapsed into insensibility for when her friends rushed to her apartment they found her unconscious while the room was filled with the fumes of escaping gas. Dr. Macpherson was called and was three hours in attendance on the patient before she recovered. Her escape from death was a narrow one.

Mr. Friedman's Business.

The statement in the Daily News that the goods of C. L. March Co. Ltd. will remain for sale after the transfer of the store to Mr. B. Friedman is not correct. Mr. Friedman will import his own stock. On April 1st he takes over the part of the building formerly occupied by W. D. Morrison & Co., and on August 1st, the other part of the same building, now in the occupancy of C. L. March & Co. Ltd.

SOLD STOLEN GOODS.

While in the Penitentiary doing a term of 10 days, a man who was liberated a few days ago was told by the boy Peedle, now undergoing a term for the larceny of tobacco from Mr. George Neal's store, where he (the thief) had hidden the goods. On the place designated by the boy and found the tobacco, which both he and Peedle had hidden. They were before court to-day but were let go with a severe reprimand by the Judge.
