MABEL HOWARD, OF THE LYRIC.

CHAPTER XXI. MABEL HOWARD OF THE LYRIC. When this wondrous world experiences a new sensation and finds something to amuse it, and arouse it from its lethargy, it does not fail to mention it. There was a notice of the Duchess of Rosedale's "At Home" in the next day's Morning Post, and Iris' success was duly announced. "Miss Mabel Howard's voice is not only a very beautiful one, but she uses it with all the grace and air of an instinctively refined lady and born musician. Miss Howard evoked a profound sensation in her guests' crowded rooms, and we are very much mistaken if Miss Howard is not heard to even greater advantage than she was yesterday. It may be added that this young lady is possessed of great physical advantages, and adds to the fascination of her voice a beautiful presence and charming manner." Paul had limped out before breakfast and bought the paper, and he read it out to Iris, as she sat in the big chair, with triumphant declamation. "You see, Mabel!" he exclaimed, "you see what they say! It is a splendid notice! Splendid! I was quite right, wasn't it? Oh, you can't tell how proud I feel." Iris looked up at him with a smile. She was pale and languid, for she had been very little, and the reaction of the excitement and the scene with Lord Heron had set in. "Does it say nothing about you, Paul?" she asked, to divert his attention from herself. "Oh, yes. It says that I played very well, and that the song you sang was composed by me. And it adds that I have a great future before me. But it is you, Mabel, that it praises so, and no wonder! What will Mr. Stapleton say, Mabel? They will want you to sing again directly. But you must ask more than five pounds! You must leave it to me."

"I don't know that I shall sing again in public now, Paul," said Iris, gravely, as if a remembrance of all she had suffered yesterday came over her; the

I'm So Tired. Fatigue is the result of poisons in the blood. So when the kidneys fail to purify the blood one of the first indications is unusual and persistent tired feelings and pains in the back. Neglected kidney troubles lead to years of suffering from rheumatism or develop into such fatal ailments as Bright's disease. The kidney action is promptly corrected by use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills—the best known regulator of kidneys, liver and bowels. Mrs. John Ireland, R.R. No. 2, King, Ont., writes: "I was a great sufferer from severe headaches and bilious spells. I tried a number of remedies without obtaining any benefit until I was advised to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. These completely relieved me and made me feel like a new person. I am very grateful to Dr. Chase's medicines for what they have done for me, and you may use my letter for the benefit of others!" At All Dealers. Distributor: GERALD S. DOYLE.

aries—look here, Miss Howard—I give you my word that when I meet with a man or a woman that can play and sing, I pay them like princes." "That is true," murmured Paul. "Yes," said Mr. Stapleton, nodding emphatically; "it is the sufferers who can't play and sing—but who think they can—that complain. Ah," he went on, "here we are at the theatre. Now you come in and see a rehearsal; it won't take long, and you'll have Paul to walk back with then." "Yes, do come, Mabel," murmured Paul. With an instinctive reluctance, Iris stopped short, but Paul's fingers closed tightly on her arm, and she followed the manager into the lobby. Only a few lights were burning, and it was so dark that she clung to Paul's arm as the manager led the way into the theatre. "Take a seat in the stalls," said Mr. Stapleton, and Iris sat down and looked around her with a strange feeling. The huge place, that in a few hours would be brilliant with light and an expectant crowd, was silent and gloomy; the seats swayed in brown holland, the only light supplied by a flaming burner, in the shape of the letter T, in front of the stage. It was so silent and solemn that she felt almost nervous, and when Paul said, "I must go to my place, Iris; we shan't be long, I expect; and I think you'll be amused"—limped away to the orchestra, her heart sank, and she wished she had not come. The drama and all connected with it has become so popular of late that the outside world is tolerably well acquainted with the inner life of the theatre, but Iris had never been inside one excepting at night and during a performance, and the bare stage, with its dusty, grimy scenery, the stage carpenters, and old deal table and chair, impressed her curiously. There were only a few of the band in the orchestra, and as they turned their instruments, Mr. Stapleton came forward to the front of the stage, and called out: "Now, then, ladies and gentlemen; time's up, time's up!" Another person, with a thick comber round his neck—it was the author—took out his watch and began to look nervous and impatient. Several ladies and gentlemen in ordinary walking attire came in from the wings at the side of the stage, all talking, and some laughing. They had books and music sheets in their hands, and Iris thought she recognized some of them as actors and actresses who had seen at the Lyric and elsewhere. Mr. Stapleton looked over them as a shepherd looks over his sheep. "All here?" he said. "No, where is Miss Alfrede?" There was no answer. The manager tipped his hat on to the back of his head impatiently. "Late, I suppose! Confound it! Never mind, let us go on with the first scene up to the part where she comes in; she'll be here directly, I expect. Now then!" The band commenced playing, and about twenty or thirty persons at the back of the stage struck up the chorus. "Oh, lor!" exclaimed Mr. Stapleton. "Is this a funeral? It says 'a drinking chorus' in the book, but I'm blessed if this isn't more like a cemetery march! Sing it quicker and put some spirit into it. Sing it as if you were drinking!" "I wish we were," muttered one of the men, just loud enough to be heard. "I darsay you do," retorted Mr. Stapleton, dryly. "I've never known you to wish anything else. Now then, please!" They repeated the chorus, and a little brisker this time, and Mr. Stapleton nodded. "It can stand going a bit faster yet," he said. "Now then, 'enter Alfonso.' Where is Alfonso?" (To be continued)

Christmas in India. Fashion Plates.

PRINCE WILL ENJOY THE SEASON'S FESTIVITIES. London, Nov. (By Canadian Press)—Christmas week is always the big week of the year in Calcutta, with the race for the Viceroy's Cup and other festivities, and the climate is at its best then. The Prince will arrive at Calcutta on the morning of Christmas eve, and will remain there until the afternoon of December 30th. The outstanding ceremonial there will be the opening by His Royal Highness of the Victoria Memorial Hall—some twenty years after its conception by Lord Curzon. One cause of the delay has been the development of the Makrana quarries in order that only Indian marble, instead of imported marble, might be used in the construction of the memorial, and another cause has been the preoccupations of the war. Calcutta has long been known as the City of Palaces, but it has no buildings which can compare in magnificence with this wonderful memorial to the great grandmother of the Prince of Wales, and which is to be, in its contents, a mirror of Indian history under British rule. Burma is in the Prince's itinerary, and he will arrive at Rangoon on board a Royal Indian Marine steamer on January 2nd for an eight days' stay. New Year's Day being Sunday he will be in Rangoon in time for the Proclamation Parade in celebration of Queen Victoria's Proclamation as Empress of India on January 1st, 1876. This will be the first occasion on which any member of the Royal House or the King Emperor's representatives, the Viceroy, has been in Burma for the parade.

MADRAS WILL DISTINGUISH ITSELF. In no part of India is the Prince of Wales assured of a more enthusiastic welcome than in the South, where the Madras Legislature has made arrangements for a fitting reception to him. In Lord Willington the heir to the Throne will have a host who has the distinction of having spent nearly eight years consecutively as Governor of two of the Provinces. A special feature of the Madras program will be the assembly of many thousands of school children to greet the Prince. Boy Scouts and Girl Guides will be in evidence at most of the large stations which the Prince will pass on his way to Madras, where he will arrive on January 13th and remain four days. Two great States of the South, Mysore and Hyderabad, will be visited, and at British cantonments there the Prince will see a large portion of the Southern Army, which is under the command of General Sir William Marshall, of Mesopotamian fame. At Nagpur, the headquarters of the Central Provinces Government, there will be a durbar, for the Prince will receive representative notabilities. From Nagpur the Prince will pass into Central India, and will arrive at Indore on February 1st. GUEST OF ONLY WOMAN RULER. Then the Royal Highness will proceed to Bhopal as the guest of the thirteenth female ruler in succession. There is a fitting feminine touch in many of the arrangements made by her Highness the Begum, whose Imperial Service troops bear the title of Queen Victoria's Own Lancers. The only woman ruler in India, she will have the assistance of her three sons in making the Prince's sojourn pleasant and interesting. The Begum may not eat in public, but at the State banquet she will appear and make a speech welcoming the Prince. She has a good command of English. Tiger and bear shooting some miles from the capital will be part of the program for His Royal Highness. A splendid reception will await the Prince at Gwalior, where the Maharaja Sindhu, who rendered great service to the Allies during the war, is a very sided man, and will be at the Prince's side when tiger-shooting in the Gwalior preserves, which are famed as being one of the most certain haunts of the tiger in India. The last distinguished visitor from Western Europe to have personal experience of the delights of the Gwalior jungle in this respect was Mr. Clemenceau.

INTERED REMOVED. CORN, Nov. 21. The last of the interned Irish Republican sympathizers in a bunch of 400, guarded by 300 troops, have been moved from Spike Island to the former convict settlement of Mayborough. One complaint made by Sinn Fein officials was that Spike Island was unsanitary.

WIRELESS CHAIN NOT FAILED. LONDON, Nov. 21. Postmaster General Kellaway has issued a statement declaring the report in the daily papers that the scheme for an Imperial wireless chain had collapsed is devoid of foundation. The statement adds that the scheme was approved by the Imperial Conference and endorsed by the Committee of the Imperial Conference, it being agreed that the Imperial Government should take steps for the erection of wireless stations not already provided for.

"Cascarets" for Headaches, Colds, Liver, Bowels

Get a 10-cent box now. You men and women who can't get feeling right—who have headache, coated tongue, bad taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have a bad cold. Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passage every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil. Cascarets work while you sleep; cleanse the stomach of sour, fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from liver and carry out of the system all the constipated poison in the bowels. A Cascaret physic to-night will straighten you out by morning.

Codfish Prices. When we see the price of Shore fish advancing and the price of Labrador fish declining, we feel awfully like repeating "we told you so."

FRANCE WANTS ASSURANCE. WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. War would have broken out in Europe three or four times since the signing of the armistice had it not been for the French army, Premier Briand declared yesterday in a conversation with newspaper correspondents. "We are alone," the French Premier said. "If it were possible for Great Britain, the United States and Italy to say, 'if you are attacked we would be with you, then it would be possible for us to disarm, but if you simply say, 'don't be afraid, don't worry, nobody is going to attack you, that is not enough.'"

JAPAN AND NAVAL DISARMAMENT. TOKYO, Nov. 21. The Cabinet Council was reported yesterday to have agreed to approve a draft of amendment to the naval proposals at Washington Conference submitted by the Japanese delegation, subject to further reference of the draft to a diplomatic advisory council.

JAPAN AND AIRPLANE CARRIERS. WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. The airplane carrier is the type of ship referred to by Admiral Kato as one in which Japan might like to approximate its tonnage to that of the United States and Great Britain, it was learned from authoritative sources. With hundreds of islands to protect, Japan apparently wants to be able to transport airplanes in large numbers.

SUSPENSION CRITICIZED. LONDON, Nov. 21. Suspension of all naval construction by Great Britain is heartily endorsed by the majority of the morning newspapers. Two or three of the principal papers refrain from comment. "Deeds speak louder than words," says the Daily Chronicle, "and the decision shows beyond a doubt that when we accepted the principle of Hughes' proposals we meant all we said." Referring to the fact that the United States will continue building warships, the newspaper says, "the choice of the United States is not our concern. Our shipbuilding has never been directed against the United States." The Morning Post is strongly hostile, and charges that Mr. Lloyd George issued the order on his own initiative, and behind the backs of Lord Lee of Fareham and Admiral Earl Beatty. The newspaper believes that if Admiral Beatty had been in England he would have resigned rather than agree to suspension. A newspaper refers to the question of unemployment caused by the order.

WHAT HE REMEMBERS.

Sometimes he forgets that his collar is soiled. And carries the signs of the way he has toiled. Sometimes he forgets what is proper to do. He will travel for days without shinning a shoe. He forgets his engagements and goes on his way. Unmindful of all that his business friends say. But just ask his wife, and she'll proudly reply. That he's never forgotten to kiss her good-bye.

He's not much to look at, his fortune is small. But he owns a treasure that's richer than all. They are happy together, and nobody frets. Because of the duties he often forgets. So what of his calling and what of his life, that he's living is surely worth while. His wife says he's splendid, and like-for his never forgotten to kiss her good-bye.

Co-Operation.

The phrase "Anglo-American understanding" is often used. Lightly. What does it mean? An understanding about what? There are some Americans who seem to want it to be an understanding about everything. They seem to want the United States and the British Empire to throw their fate into the same hat and then mutually guarantee the hat against being upset by any combination of "lesser breeds without the law."

The American who wants an understanding of this character covering the whole world are relatively few. Here and there exists an adventurous soul who would guarantee the safety of English-speaking people from London in Egypt, Malta, Cyprus, Gibraltar, Palestine, Mesopotamia and all points south and east; but for the overwhelming mass of Americans there is no such guarantee of adventure in the task of guaranteeing the safety of English-speaking people from Washington at Guam and Manila.

The British have many possessions to protect. We have but few. It is simply politically unthinkable that they should give them a guaranty of safety in exchange for their guaranty of our few. Whatever "Anglo-American understanding" is ever brought into more than an after-dinner calculation will be an understanding calculated to bring an approximately equal advantage to both sides. Therefore, it must be an understanding not in general but in particular and not throughout the world but at specific spots for specific purposes. And such a co-operation the English-speaking people alone are competent to lead—and therefore should lead.—Chicago News (Ind.).

Side Talks by Ruth Cameron

EVERYBODY'S DOING IT.

Do you sometimes have a v a thoughts that you are thoroughly a s h a m e d of thoughts of envy and jealousy and unfounded hate—as for instance, a moment of poignant regret when good fortune far surpassing anything that has ever happened to you, comes to some friend? The instant you recognize the feeling you are ashamed of it, but you cannot deny, if you are honest, that you did feel it!

Why We Sometimes Turn Against our Candidates. Some months ago I wrote about the way people who poured out their hearts to a friend in time of trouble, sometimes turn against their candidates when the trouble is over, for fault on the latter's part, but merely because with the inevitable reaction, they regret their confidences. In writing the article I described an individual case of this sort. A few weeks ago a friend of mine told me of a friend who had come to her in time of trouble and who had suddenly become cold to her. She could not think what the reason was. I turned to my files and sent her this article, which she had not seen before. When she wrote back she said: "If the date were not on that article, I could hardly have believed that you were not describing my own case."

think what the reason was. I turned to my files and sent her this article, which she had not seen before. When she wrote back she said: "If the date were not on that article, I could hardly have believed that you were not describing my own case."

Thought His Fiancee Had Told Me. Some years ago I had a fervid correspondence with a previously unknown woman, who said her fiancee threatened to break their engagement because I had described in my column certain things that had happened between them, and he did not like her telling me about these intimate personal matters. She wanted me to write and tell him that she had not told me.

So much for the universality of human experience. In some ways it is a disconcerting thought, perhaps because it makes us seem less important, less individual. But, at least, it is a comfort to know that our frailties, our meanness, our black thoughts are not peculiar to us. It lightens the burden of our self-distaste a bit. Not too much, I hope.

British Protectorate Over Egypt May be Abandoned.

Negotiations Between Governments Temporarily Collapse—Powers Desire Emancipation of China—Labor Deprecates Anglo-Japanese Alliance.

EGYPTIAN NEGOTIATIONS FAIL. LONDON, Nov. 21. Negotiations between the British Government and Egyptian officials regarding the abandonment of the British protectorate over Egypt have temporarily collapsed. After presenting a note stating they were unable to agree with the British draft of the Treaty designed to make Egypt an independent, though Allied power, the delegation left for Cairo.

LABOR'S MANIFESTO. LONDON, Nov. 21. A manifesto issued by the Labor Party on behalf of the whole Labor movement of Great Britain, promises support to any steps that may be necessary to make the proposal for naval disarmament reduction effective, and calls for extension of the proposals to all forms of armament. The manifesto also calls for non-renewal of the Alliance between Great Britain and Japan. "British Labor," it says, "recognizes the existence of widespread hostility in the United States against a continuance of the Anglo-Japanese Alliance. Under no circumstances could labor contemplate being dragged into war with the United States. Labor holds that since both Japan and Great Britain are members of the existing League of Nations, the Treaty of Alliance should not be renewed."

CHINA. WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. Japan joined with other powers on Saturday in expressing sympathy for the national aspirations of China, but added a postscript regretting any tendency towards detailed examination by the Disarmament Conference into innumerable minor matters in the Far East. In a statement, omitting mention of specific points of controversy between the two countries, Japanese delegates informed the Conference that their Government claimed no specific rights and privileges in the procuring of raw material from China, harbored no policy of territorial aggrandizement at China's expense, and was ready to join in any readjustment of extra territorial rights, which appeared fair and satisfactory. To enter into an examination of details, the delegation said, would be an attempt likely to result in undue pro-

Forming Rotary Club.

INAUGURATION THIS WEEK.

At a tea which will probably be held on Wednesday at the Green Lantern, Mr. R. D. Patterson, District Governor of Rotary for the Maritime Provinces and Newfoundland, will inaugurate a local branch of the International Association of Rotary Clubs.

ought to know. Genuine, wholesome good-fellowship. Developing true and helpful friends. Enlightenment as to other men's work, problems and successes.

Education in methods that increase efficiency. Stimulation of your desire to be of service to your fellow men and society in general.

Business returns that come from enlarging your acquaintance and inspiring confidence in you and your business.

THE OBLIGATIONS.

To attend meetings regularly. To pay dues promptly.

To do one's part when called upon. To be a big-hearted, broad-minded man—a man of energy and action—a real man—a Rotarian.

For over a year, a small body of citizens have been considering the formation of a Rotary Club in St. John's, and their plans will culminate in the inauguration which will take place on Wednesday night.

Mr. Patterson will explain the fundamental principles of Rotary and the election of officers will then take place. There will be about twenty charter members and from these men will have to be elected to fill the offices of President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Sergeant at Arms.

There will also have to be a Board of Directors. The inauguration will be held at the Green Lantern, Mr. C. F. Bond, who was one of the prime movers in the formation of a Rotary Club here, went to considerable trouble to classify them all and showed our reporter a list of over one hundred different trades and professions.

This merely shows in how methodical a manner a Rotary Club is being formed. Membership can only be obtained by invitation, and it is less for any who desire to join to send in applications, Rotary calls for at least one luncheon meeting a week and a full attendance is always expected.

Among its objects is that of entertaining any prominent business visitors and one of the great reasons for its enormous success elsewhere is that it is non-political and non-sectarian. A club of the nature of Rotary deserves success and it is hoped that it will meet with as much here as it has elsewhere.

And after all, what deserves success more than a club whose motto is service above self—the profits must who serves best.

ARRIVED BY ROSALIND.—Lieut. Colonel Montgomery and Mr. Harvey Smith arrived by the Rosalind this morning, and will assist in the inauguration of the Rotary Club on Wednesday next. Both gentlemen are well known here.

THE BENEFITS ARE: Making the acquaintance of men one ought to know.

FOR COUNCILLOR P. E. OUTERBRIDGE. SUGGESTION No. 3. OBTAINING REVENUE FROM OUTSIDE SOURCES.

The St. John's Taxpayer is already taxed too high and, in my opinion, one of the first objects of the new Council should be to reduce local taxation as far as is practically possible.

In the past four years three costly buildings have been erected on the St. John's waterfront by the Canadian Banks doing business in St. John's.

As soon as times improve a little there will be further building going on outside firms establishing here for money making purposes and if these firms are not prepared to employ Newfoundland labor of every kind, tax should be levied on the firm for every foreign contractor, builder, carpenter or plumber who imports.

There is also the matter of the influx at certain periods of the year of hundreds of drummers of English, Canadian and American firms unrepresented in Newfoundland.

I AM ABSOLUTELY STRONG FOR THE REDUCTION OF LOCAL TAXATION AND THE OBTAINING OF ADDITIONAL REVENUE BY TAXING OUTSIDE FIRMS WHO ARE MAKING MONEY OUT OF THE COLONY.

In Wednesday's issue I propose treating on "Women's help required in proper conduct of the city; why they should have the vote. Municipal, which some of them have—Political."

P. E. OUTERBRIDGE. I THANK YOU!

TO-DAY'S MESSAGES.

ANOTHER MARINE DISASTER.

QUEBEC, Nov. 21. Capt. George Tibbo of the Newfoundland schooner Nordica, and five of her crew who were shipwrecked on the Coast of Corica, have arrived here on the liner Minnedosa on their way home.

APPROVES THE RATIO.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. Great Britain has endorsed without reservation the 5-5-3 ratio proposed by United States Naval Limitation plan as applied to capital ship strength.

KEEPING THE SABBATH.

BELFAST, Nov. 21. A sharp outbreak of rioting occurred Sunday in East Belfast. Four persons were sent to hospital, and many others received slight injuries.

INDIAN DISTURBANCES.

BOMBAY, Nov. 21. Disturbances occurred Friday at several points in native quarters. The mob burnt a police station, but were dispersed by military patrols, who fired on the rioters, causing some casualties.

FOCH'S ITINERARY.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21. Marshal Foch will visit Ottawa, Montreal, Quebec and Sherbrooke from December 11 to 13. His tour of the United States will carry him over twelve thousand miles and 23 states.

THE GERMAN OCTOPUS.

LONDON, Nov. 21. Hugo Stinnes, German Capitalist, is reported to have effected a deal in London in connection with the aniline dye industry, according to the Daily Mail.

WATERED STOCK.

LONDON, Nov. 21. The Times this morning says it has received information from communist sources to the effect that Soviet Russia shortly will appeal to the world's workers for one hundred million dollars. It is reported to issue shares of five shillings each guaranteed by the first working class republic of the world.

GANDHI IS REPENTANT.

BOMBAY, Nov. 21. In a statement Saturday, Mahatma Gandhi, leader of "non-resistance" deprecating the disturbances, which occurred on the occasion of the arrival in India of the Prince of Wales, declared it impossible to describe the agony he had suffered during "the past two days, whose events stink in my nostrils".

WOMAN P.E. RESIGNS.

VICTORIA, B.C., Nov. 21. Hon. Mrs. Ralph Smith, member without portfolio of the British Columbia Government, and the first woman Cabinet member in the British Empire, has resigned her office. Mrs. Smith said she was in the unfortunate position of having to assume responsibility for acts of Parliament without being in a position to criticize or advise.

PRIVATE ONLY.

BERLIN, Nov. 21. Hugo Stinnes, German industrialist, is reported to have effected a deal in London in connection with the aniline dye industry, according to the Daily Mail.

Supreme Court.

APPLICATION REFUSED.

In connection with the case of Steer Brothers vs. Andrew Leithbridge defendant and Reid Mtd. Co. Garnishee, Mr. Justice Johnson refused the application of Mr. McNally for the appearance of Lester Leil bridge in the case.

CANADA AGAINST SUBMARINE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21. Sir Robert Borden, Canadian representative on the British delegation to the Washington Conference, is quoted in the Herald to-day as declaring that Canada is in favor of the banishment of the submarine as a war weapon.

MRS. MARY WILHELM.

"No matter what I should say about Tanlac, it wouldn't be half good enough," said Mrs. Mary Wilhelm, 716 Mint Way, South Side, Pittsburgh, Pa. "I never dreamed it possible for a medicine to restore me to the splendid health I now enjoy. In fact I had almost resigned myself to being an invalid, as I could see I was losing weight and strength every day, and no relief was in sight. For three years I suffered from headaches and nervousness made my life miserable. The first bottle of Tanlac acted almost like magic and I wasn't long until I was so well and strong that I could hardly realize I had ever known a sick day. I am like a different person in every way now, eating, sleeping, feeling and looking better than in years."

MRS. MARY WILHELM, Pittsburgh, Pa.

"Tanlac is sold by leading druggists everywhere." Tanlac, the department for London was announced Saturday is making the trip in a purely private capacity, according to information received here yesterday. It was first reported that he was going in response to an invitation from Mr. Lloyd George. It was said here last night that Herr Stinnes had received no such invitation, although he might endeavor to convince the British authorities of Germany's inability to meet her obligations.

M. J. O'Brien.

Kind voters, please hearken a moment or two, while we herein endeavor to expound to you, a few of the planks of the platform so fine, as daily presented by Michael O'Brien. To our city's best asset—the children—please mark this man from the annex will take the parks are flooded in winter, where many a lark in skating or romping, or such childish glee, may be enjoyed by all classes who have not the fee to pay in the rink, for there 'twill be free. There they'll play hockey both the East and the West, with a good kindly carolier to see that the best of care is taken of your treasures and mine, more precious than riches with their smile of sunshine. So when then good children please form up in line, tell Daddy and Mamma to vote for O'Brien; and also at school, in the coming weeks nine, let your voices keep shouting "Please think on O'Brien"—and mark on your ballots you voters, quite clear, a cross to denote that we shall see him right there, among the six chosen to govern here now and bring in those new methods in this ancient town. He shall also endeavor to tax all the nags that come into our city with spits tied in bags, to help pay the labor that they doh create, in striving their rubbish all over the strata. He also doth promise if he is elected, to endorse Dinny's motion and have them erect an arcade or market that the city needs bad, though to state such a fact makes one really quite sad; and there may be purchased for nominal rent which to be paid in advance won't cost voters a cent; clean stalls for the vendors who therein would try their produce to sell to the bold and the shy. Another strong plank in our platform, says he, is a place for the cabstand, I got in my "cya" that will help those poor merchants who try to do biz, but loss many prospects with conditions as is. But his plans in that matter I'll not give away, but when, if elected, he will there have a say.

There is quite a lot more that O'Brien will do, provided he gets in with five more good and true, who will assist where they may be in the big centre chair to rule our city. Let us hope they shall work in harmonic rhythm, and not make burlesque by faulting and chime, but stand to our wants and never deny to graciously give of their talent and time to help make things so pleasant, so please bear in mind, you'll have one of the numbers when you vote for O'Brien. advt.

Great Mystery Solved.

WHO IS W. F. COAKER?

"Fisherman's Son," writing in the Advocate on Saturday, seemed anxious to discover who is W. F. Coaker, and made this anxiety apparent by headlines in large black type asking the question. The Telegram, always desirous of helping a knowledge-seeking contemporary, took the liberty to lay the matter before the "Society for the Elucidation of Difficult Problems," the existence of which may require some explanation. This Society is organized on Rotarian principles, each profession and branch of business having one representative. It exists solely for the purpose of assisting those in need of information which is difficult to obtain. Upon being approached by the Telegram in connection with the problem which appeared to be worrying "Fisherman's Son," the Society immediately began an investigation which resulted in the solution to the mystery "Who is W. F. Coaker?" which we are privileged to publish below. "Fisherman's Son" was first asked to give his solution which he did as follows:

"You ask me, 'Who is Mr. Coaker?' I'll have you know I am no joker, And what I say is gospel truth, Though lodged in language, p'haps unorth.

He is a great emancipator Who has been ever known to cater To interests of the sons of toil Who fish the seas and till the soil; And that is why they all delight To dot their hats to him at sight. From out the backwoods of Green Bay Coaker emerged, his part to play, To raise the down-trodden sons of toil From the Slough of Despond. Did he recollect?

From all the trials he had to face? Not much. He never fell from grace. For imitating Greek Lycurgus, He did his very best to purge us Of all the evils that beset us And we did only what he let us."

Voice from rear: "I don't think." (Laughter.)

Chairman: "Order! Order!"

Fisherman's Son—
"He organized the F.P.U. (A greater thing he could not do). For could you find a motto, pray, Better than Suum Cuique? He was my ideal from his cot Of hero, man and patriot. His children, all the toilers are, Nothing, their love for him can mar. The price of cod oil he did raise And for it he received no praise; He caused provisions to decline And brightly did his glory shine. But then he had the Advocate, And with its help he became great. He later entered politics And had to combat knavish tricks Devised, his downfall to encompass. (He kept his head through all the rumpus) And soon became a great success. Though he had foes his friends weren't less. Despite the tactics of Morine Coaker still does head the line And steers the good ship F.P.U. Through pit falls laid by Ruinists Blue."

Fisherman's Son having answered the problem from his point of view, a fish merchant, general merchant and consumer each gave their solutions:

The Fish Merchant—
"Coaker is the man who made Regulations for our trade. As a consequence of which We are poor who once were rich; Reason he'd not listen to He knew just what we should do. And what he thought a great coup Put the country in the soup. Coaker's democratic pose Is, as everybody knows, For autocracy a cloak. In his wheel he needs a spoke And if he does not take care Very soon, we'll put it there."

The General Merchant—
"I quite agree with what's been said By the last speaker. I am fed Up to the neck with Coaker rule. No longer shall I be a fool; For Coaker did just as he pleased. The Northern fishermen appealed, Leaving us to pay the bill. It was indeed a bitter pill. Yes, all these things and many more Coaker did—and made us poor. Yet someone has the nerve to ask Who Coaker is? Pass me that flask. Astonishment at such great cheek Excites my thirst and makes me weak."

The Consumer—
"So much has been said of that Coaker who's fed To Port Union, and there, so I hear, lives in dread. That I really do think that I should perhaps, sink My feelings towards him who's put us on the blink. He has made our lot harder, and emptied our larder. With pleasure I'm sure we would all see him farther. But each dog has his day and do what he may. Not very much longer in power he'll stay."

The Chairman having heard all the solutions to the problem, came to the conclusion that it would be a great deal easier to tell what is W. F. Coaker instead of who he is. He decided that all but Fisherman's Son had given a correct solution and hoped that no other problems of such an unpleasant nature would come before him. The meeting then adjourned.

Epidemic.

A strange restlessness followed by twitching feet and considerably higher temperature has been increasingly noticeable lately. It is fast assuming the proportions of an epidemic and nothing can be done at present to prevent further increase.

It is a strange thing to be obvious, it is the anticipation of the Pelidiana Club Dance.

Birthday Celebration.

A number of prominent ladies and gentlemen assembled at the home of Mr. Edward Murphy, Water Street West, last evening to do honour to the occasion of celebrating his birthday. There were three presentations, one from the ladies, one of a single nature, and a third from the gentlemen. Fine addresses were delivered at the presentation, which were responded to in a fitting manner by Mr. Murphy. Songs were rendered by the company, artists, the evening was one that should be written "as a bright yesterday of life's years," leaving a memory full of sweetness by reason of the mirth and genuine good feeling which was manifested at this friendly gathering. The hope expressed in all the speeches was that Mr. Murphy would live to celebrate many happy returns of his birthday.

Don't Be a Slave to Your Stomach.

It is Easy to Prevent All Stomach Troubles that are the Root of Most Ills. Flesh is Her to.

Thousands of men and women in every walk of life, are compelled to deprive themselves of eating certain meats or vegetables because they suffer from Dyspepsia or Constipation, and that to indulge in certain foods which they like would mean bitter suffering.

Don't be a slave to your stomach! Don't forego the pleasure of eating what you please, when you please! "Gastronol," the most marvelous remedy and preventative for all troubles of the digestive organs, allows you to do so. One or two Gastronols taken after meals will assure you a perfect digestion and prevent auto-intoxication which often results in most of the serious maladies which levy such a heavy toll on human life. The surest way of assuring yourself a long life is to prevent or cure all diseases of the alimentary canal—the stomach is the motor of the human organism and when it is functioning normally, sickness has little chance to affect you.

"Gastronol" is sold everywhere. Each box contains 50 Gastronol each bearing its own name to prevent the substitution of spurious imitations—see that you get full count. Obituary.

CAPTAIN ARTHUR KIDSTON.

Captain Arthur Kidston, the notice of whose sudden death appears elsewhere in our columns to-day, was a well known mason and contractor in this city during the time of its rebuilding after the '92 fire. On leaving here he joined his brothers ship, plying between California and the Yukon, during the Klondyke boom and rose by hard work to the attainment of a Captain's certificate and master of a ship in the American-fruit trade; during the great war was his ship's tender, and good effective service to the U. S. A. in the transportation of troops.

He married a daughter of the late James McGettigan, prominent in engineering circles of his day and of the good old Scotch type. Her brother, our respected townsman, Mr. Matthew McGettigan is superintending engineer at Bowring Bros. Ltd. His wife (nee Miss Mary McGettigan) will be well remembered by theatre goers of the West End for her gifts as a social entertainer and her versatility on the amateur stage. To her and his family, their friends in this city and the Telegram extend sincere sympathy.

RECOGNITION.

The care of the teeth is now recognized as a necessity. In fact the large hospitals all over the world examine the patients' teeth and where it is possible put them in good condition before attempting a surgical operation. Experience has shown that the patient has a better chance for recovery with a clean healthy mouth than without it. This ought to convince the most skeptical that care of the teeth is requisite to health. oct31,oct,1f

To all the Voters of the City

At the request of every second man I meet I have decided to offer myself as a candidate at the forthcoming Municipal Election. From previous experience I have decided to make this the only appeal I shall make. Should you favour me with a seat I will do all I can, with the help of the other Councillors whom you may elect, and your co-operation, to make St. John's a brighter and a cleaner city.

Yours truly,

"The First Five Hundred."

Several orders for this book (History of the Royal Newfoundland Regiment, together with the Military Records and Photographs of the Blue Puttees) have been sent direct to the publishers.

The Publishers cannot fill orders. The book is being distributed in St. John's by Ex-Servicemen, and those men are now out soliciting subscriptions. If any persons wish to send their orders in to Mr. Cramm at 65 Prescott Street, or at Mr. McNeilly's Law Office, the books will be delivered by the end of this month and the agents will be given the benefit of the commission.

Evening Telegram: "Mr. Cramm's book is a splendid contribution to Newfoundland literature, and is the most valuable book that could be placed in the hands of a Newfoundland boy or girl."
Daily News: "A present of this volume should be a very welcome one, especially to those the record of the service and heroism of whose relatives or friends is told within its pages."
Evening Advocate: "The First Five Hundred, by Richard Cramm, is a volume which should certainly be in the hands of all 'who went across and came back' and of the relatives of those who sleep in Flanders Fields."

Impressive Ceremony.

C.L.B. CADETS THANKSGIVING SERVICE—WREATH PLACED ON WAR SHRINE.

An impressive ceremony marked the conclusion by the C.L.B. Cadets of their week's celebration of thirty years of splendid work, when Lieut. Col. R. F. Goodridge, Commanding the 1st Cadet Battalion, Newfoundland Regiment, C.L.B. advanced to the war shrine in the Armoury and placed thereon a beautiful wreath. This ceremony took place upon the return to the Armoury after the greatest parade in the history of the Brigade.

AN HISTORIC PARADE.

At 2:15 p.m. the Parade, consisting of 535 of all ranks, including Old Comrades and Girl Guides, formed up in the Armoury. Over thirty-five officers, many of them in khaki, were present. Included in the ranks of the Old Comrades was Mr. T. A. Hall, Government Engineer, who drew up the plans of the present armoury as a free gift to the Brigade. Ex-Captain and Bandmaster N. Snow, ex-Lieut. S. C. C. and ex-Captain Avalon Goodridge were amongst those who turned out. The Old Comrades were commanded by Lieut. Colonel W. F. Richards, C.B.E. and the Girl Guides by Miss Richards. The parade left the armoury at 2:45 and proceeded by way of Harvey and Military Roads, Prescott and Gower Streets to the Anglican Cathedral where a Thanksgiving Service for the benefits conferred upon the Brigade during the week was held. Space had been reserved for each department of the Brigade, including the Ladies' Auxiliary, inside the Cathedral, but despite the large seating capacity, every pew was filled. The service was taken by His Lordship Bishop White, Rev. W. R. Higgin of Harbor Grace and Rev. J. Brinton. The sermon was preached by the last named from the text "I live, yet not I, but Christ liveth in me." Mr. Brinton gave a most eloquent address in which he urged the lads to encourage themselves to work for the fulfilment of high ideals. After the service the return to the Armoury was made via Queen's Road and Military Road.

THE MEMORIAL SERVICE.

Upon arriving at the Armoury, the Parade was formed up around the War Shrine which is situated on the eastern side of the hall. This Shrine was presented to the Brigade by ex-Lieut. Colonel R. G. Rendell. It contains 132 brass plates on each of which is inscribed the name of an old C.L.B. boy who made the Supreme Sacrifice. As soon as the Parade was properly formed up Lieut. Colonel Goodridge advanced and placed on the Shrine a wreath composed of chrysanthemums and oak leaves, neatly tied with C.L.B. Ribbons. The wreath was a united offering from all sections of the Brigade. After the wreath had been presented, a short memorial service was conducted by His Lordship Bishop White. After its conclusion, the Band played the Dead March in Saul, and as the first plaintive notes broke the silence which pervaded the Armoury, the Colours were dropped, the Guard of Honor came to the Present, and the whole Parade came stiffly to attention. Never has the C.L.B. Armoury witnessed such an impressive scene. As soon as the ceremony had ended, Lieut. Colonel Goodridge addressed the Parade and expressed his appreciation of the splendid turn out. He also extended thanks, on behalf of the Brigade, to the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary, so ably captained by Mrs. W. B. Fraser and Mrs. Tasker Cook, to whose efforts the success of Brigade Week was chiefly due; to Miss Cliff and her able assistants who helped so much by the sale of candy; to Mr. Holmes, Superintendent of the King George V. Seamen's Institute who added so largely to the programme on Tuesday night and so kindly gave the use of the Grenfell Hall for Saturday night's programme and in addition loaned the Institute's chairs to the Brigade for use in the Armoury; to Mr. Albert Blackler, brother of Serg. Blackler, Regimental number one, who gave up his week's vacation for the purpose of helping the Brigade; to the Girl Guides who did such splendid work in the Gymnastic Display and helped to swell the Brigade numbers at both Church Parades; to the Clergy who so ably conducted the special service and the churchwardens of the various churches for the proceeds of special collections; to the B.I.S. Canon Wood Hall, The Royal Stores and others who lent chairs and tables for the Parade on Wednesday; to the C.C.C. Boat Club for postponing their Dominion Sports so that they would not clash with Brigade Week; to the Old Comrades, who in addition to running Saturday's "At Home," assisted in innumerable ways during the whole week and turned out to the Church Parades in such strong numbers to the honor of the Brigade; to all who sent subscriptions and last but not least, to the general public for their support.

A well merited tribute was also paid to Captain Morris and the Battalion Band who gave up every night of the week to help make Brigade Week a success. The ladies and gentlemen who so kindly helped at the Band Concert were also thanked. Lieutenant A. S. Lewis, the Battalion Paymaster, received an especial tribute for his work in connection with Brigade Week. The idea of the movement originated with him and were it not for his indefatigable efforts it could not have been carried to such a successful conclusion. From the moment that the Officers' Mess unanimously decided to adopt his idea, Lieut. Lewis began his work and inspired everyone with his unbounded enthusiasm and optimism. He arranged the details in connection with every event, was responsible for the publication of the Brigade Journal and kept all concerned up to the mark, so that the success of the week was assured from the first. It would indeed be a difficult matter to find many men possessed of such initiative and energy as Lieutenant Lewis and men of his type are an acquisition to any organization. After a short, congratulatory speech from His Lordship the Bishop, the Royal Salute brought to an end the most successful propaganda movement ever organized by any local brigade.

The splendid sum of $145 was received from the collection at the Thanksgiving Service. Several subscriptions were also received and a special congratulatory message was sent by Topsail Detachment.

THE OLD COMRADES "AT HOME."

On Saturday night, the Old Comrades held their special event in Brigade Week. This took the form of a lantern lecture by Major R. Williams, Battalion Quartermaster, on the early history of the Brigade, and an "At Home." The lecture took place in the Grenfell Hall, kindly loaned by Mr. Holmes, and was attended by a very large number of people. The lecturer was introduced by ex-Lieut. Colonel R. G. Rendell, in a brief speech. There is no one so well versed in Brigade lore as Major Williams for his regimental number was 13, and he has ever since the year he joined taken an active interest in the work of the corps. He said that the time was too short for an extended reference to Brigade History. The Brigade was founded in England by the late Colonel W. N. Gee on November 11th, 1881 with the object of interesting lads of all classes. The growth of the organization was so great that shortly afterwards Headquarters were established at Alderch House. The first overseas branch of the Brigade was formed in Newfoundland—not by Dr. Grenfell or the Rev. Mr. Thompson—but by Sergeant Harold Blackler and it was in his home that the first meeting of the C.L.B. in Newfoundland was held. The early history of the regimental pocket book of Harold Blackler were read by the lecturer who said that out of the first thirty members, very few were alive to-day. Some of the "Old Guard" were present and occupied seats of honor in the front row. Amongst them were Major Fred C. Grant, John Hookey (who has 2 sons in the Brigade) William Curnew (one son in the ranks) Charles and Edwin F. Snow, George Press (two sons in the Brigade) Ken Ruby (one son in the Brigade) Premier Sergeant Anderson Pittman, Bandmaster George Cartbury (President) Prince of Wales and Colonel Franklin, D.S.O., Capt. C. Wearne Hayward, Major Melville, Messrs. Frank, Arthur and Harry Donnelly and late Mr. Joseph Shea were shown.

The Brigade officers were greatly assisted in gymnastics by the early days by Messrs. Donnelly (3) and Shea who were at that time gymnastic experts. A view was shown of the historic battle of Waterford Bridge, Colo. Sir Joseph Outerbridge and R. G. Rendell, C.B.E., the late Mr. R. G. Rendell, Sir Edgar and Lady Bowring's Cartbury, Herbert Rendell, Lieut. Clifford Rendell, Captain Herbert Outerbridge, O.B.E., Lieut. Norman Outerbridge, Harold Blackler, Dr. A. H. Carnell and others. As the hour was growing late, a large number of slides could not be shown. After the lecture refreshments were served by the Ladies' Auxiliary. The Battalion Band was in attendance throughout the evening. President Chafe and his assistants deserve credit on the success of their "At Home."

Brigade Week was organized for the purpose of helping to defray the expenses of repairing and heating the Armoury and the results exceeded expectations. All the friends and supporters of the Brigade rallied round and gave all the assistance they could and it is safe to say that the celebrations which attended the Thirtieth Anniversary of the C.L.B. in Newfoundland will long remain fresh in the memories of those who participated. This morning, several subscriptions were received, including contributions from the C.C.C. Band, Capt. Arthur Bulley and Mr. E. D. Spurrell. The Brigade particularly appreciates the kindness of the C.C.C. Band; especially as it denotes the spirit of friendship existing between the two organizations.

Among the beautiful plain and fancy work to be seen at the "Weakly Ladies' Aid Sale," which takes place on November 23rd and 24th, is a Bedspread of rare and artistic beauty. It is the first of its kind to be exhibited in Newfoundland and is the work of Mrs. S. R. Oakley, Topsail Road. Be here and see it!

The Dawn of a New Day.

At a reception tendered to Rev. W. G. Wilson, following his induction into the First Presbyterian Church, Victoria, B.C., clergymen from all denominations were present. The Rev. James Catholics were represented by their Bishop. The Daily Times says: "This incident, to our mind, conspicuously reflects the fine spirit of fellowship and co-operation which exists among the spiritual leaders of our community, and should be a happy augury for the reverend gentleman who was thus so suspiciously welcomed to his labour in Victoria." A sentence from Bishop Macdonald's address is worth quoting: "I have long felt," he said, "that the line of cleavage is between those who believe in Jesus Christ and those who do not believe. Those who do should stand together and help one another."

Fire at Marystown.

A message to the Justice Department received late Saturday evening, stated that the residence of Mr. Joseph Baker, Marystown, was totally destroyed by fire during the early hours of Saturday. The cause of the fire is unknown, and it is understood that neither premises nor furniture were insured. This is the second destructive fire at Marystown within a week, the R. C. Presbytery being totally destroyed on Thursday last.

Own Your Own Home for Less Than You are Paying Rent.

For $600 cash down we build a nice plain 6 room $1,800 house and give 10 years to pay the $1,200 balance. Payments in principal and interest will average $14.40 per month for the 10 years, when payments cease and buyers own their own homes.

We build up to $3,500 house on this plan. We accept $900 on a $2,700 house; the monthly payments for 10 years to own this averages $21.60 per month.

The actual rent on the $1,800 house is $4.40 per month, as $10.00 per month or $120 per year applies to paying the principal.

On the $2,700 house, payments on principal is $15.00 per month or $180 per year, rent therefore only $6.60 per month.

See the $2,500 bungalow we are now erecting on Mount Royal Avenue—$800 down and $20.37 per month for 10 years is the price to own this beautiful home. We are in a position to give good service and value; we operate our own saw mills on the West Coast, also our own factory on Plank Road. We have one million feet of splendid sound, clear lumber of all kinds now in the city, including clear Fir Clapboard.

To parties wishing to build their own home, we supply lumber on 10 years' credit, taking first lien on the building.

Purchasers of lumber of all kinds will find our retail prices low. Stock sound and extra well sawn. Our clear West Coast Fir Clapboard is not equalled by stock sawn in any other part of the Colony.

Produce and Provisions.

Codfish.—The total export of dry codfish this week from Newfoundland amounted to 97,868 quintals as follows:—

From Outports.—By schooner Duly from Messrs. Strong & Murrell, Little Bay Islands, 4,230 quintals to Malaga; by S.S. Stella Maris from Farquhar & Co., Sandy Point, 1,512 qtls. to Halifax; by schooner Lillian M. Richards from Patten & Forsey, Grand Bank, 3,986 qtls. to Oporto; by S.S. Kristine Tysland from Messrs. Ashbourne, Moore, Munn and Duff, Twillingate, 16,606 qtls. to Alicante; by schooner Neptune from Messrs. W. & J. Moore, Carbonar, 3,500 qtls. to Oporto; by schooner Humorist from Messrs. Monroe Export Co., Domino, 5,300 qtls. to Malaga; by schooner Angas P. Duff, from Union Trading Co., Port Union, 4,500 qtls. to Lisbon.

From St. John's.—By schooner Ida M. Zink from Nfld. Coal Trading Co., 4,261 qtls. to Lisbon; by schooner Hazel L. Myra from Bowring Bros. Ltd., 3,855 qtls. to Bahia; by schooner John W. Miller, from Nfld. Produce Co., 5,371 qtls. to Bahia; by schooner Laura from Monroe Export Co., 3,330 qtls. to Oporto; by S.S. Gezina from Messrs. Harvey & Co., Ltd., Kennedy, Barr, Carter, Roberts, Templeman, Bowring Bros., Baine Johnson & Co., Greenland, Cashin, Hickman, Monroe Export Co., Murray, Job Mann, Hollett and French, 30,598 qtls. to Alicante; by S.S. Sachem 525 qtls. from Messrs. Baird, Ltd., and Bowring Bros. Ltd., to Boston, Halifax and Demerara; by S.S. Rosalind 3,548 qtls. to New York for transhipment; from Messrs. P. J. Cashin, Bowring Bros. Ltd., A. H. Murray, A. E. Hickman Co., Ltd., C. F. Bennett & Co., B. M. Shipman, Jas. Baird Ltd., Bishop Sons & Co., Nfld. Coal & Trading Co., and Harvey & Co.; by schooner Ethlyn from James Baird Ltd., 3,855 qtls. to Pernambuco.

Cod Oil.—The market has gone flat. As indicated in last issue, we have no faith in any boom, and advised all holders to market their holdings at best price obtainable. The dull season is fast approaching, and buyers who have been holding prices up during the past month have secured all they want. During the week the S.S. "Sachem" and S.S. "Rosalind" took away 87,235 gallons from Messrs. Tossier, A. E. Barry, Jobs, Franklin Agencies and Barr.

Cod Liver Oil.—We hear of one or two enquiries from England, but it is impossible to compete with Norway prices. First the Newfoundland Government demand an Export Tax of ten per cent on what it is worth and second, the Bank Exchange means another ten per cent of the value; so between the Government Tax and the Bank Exchange there is nothing left for the refiner except a hole to bury himself. The export of this week was 1,590 gallons from Messrs. W. A. Munn, by S.S. "Gazda".

Flour.—The word seems to have gone all round the country to eat potatoes and stop buying flour. There is one thing sure we were blessed with an excellent potato crop this year, and it is not going to hurt anybody to eat potatoes instead of flour. There is nobody going to starve while they have plenty of codfish and potatoes, and the beautiful old "ragged jackets" that we see daily would satisfy the appetite of the most fastidious epicure. It is getting to be a joke among the retail grocers, as to who can offer flour cheapest, as they are coming to believe, that they cannot sell even if they offered their choicest brands for five dollars a barrel. We are curious people here in Newfoundland, but there is one thing certain that a penny saved is a penny gained, and while we are eating potatoes grown in Newfoundland we are not sending money to Canada for flour, so the country should benefit.

Beef.—The imports for the week were only 250 barrels. This brings the total for St. John's to date up to 23,658 barrels, as compared with 23,095 this date last year. There has been a good run on Beef by local purchasers all the fall, as compared with pork, owing to its relative cheapness. The H. S. market is dull and present prices under all circumstances are considered low. It is hard to believe in view of the decline in all commodities, that Beef can be expected to go higher. Prices are Bos Flank, $26.00; Family, $27.00; Family, 21.00; Boneless, $21.25 to $21.50.

Pork.—The importations this week were 200 barrels, making the total for St. John's since New Year 19,243 barrels against 25,670 this date last year. The difference is caused by the decline in the purchasing power of the people, despite the fact that this year's prices are 40 per cent. lower. The local quotations are, Short Cut, $27.50; Fat Back, $28.00; Mince Family, $33.00; Ham Right, $34.00 and Spare Ribs $24.00 per barrel.

Sugar.—Imports for the week were 760 barrels. The imports are 65,680 cwt. as against 98,230 cwt. this time last year. The market is still weak, although prices show little change. Local competition is fairly active. Most importers are still pursuing a cautious policy, confining their operations to small quantities. The quotations here are still $10.80 for barrel lots and $11 for the single barrel.

Potatoes.—The price of home-grown potatoes is now down to 25¢, while the Irish, $2.00 to $2.10 in the night 5.5.

and $2.50 in the city. As the farmers have "cellared" their crop this week and as a general rule, will not move their potatoes till spring, they are again becoming scarce in the city market. The S.S. "Manoa" called at P.E.I. coming down the Gulf on the 25th will bring some consignments from Charlottetown. The price of these will be around $3.00 per barrel.

Apples.—The consignments of 1,859 barrels which arrived this week were all winter stock, viz:—"Baldwin, Stags, Kings, Blenheim and Wagners." The prices here started firm at $7.50 for Nos. 1 and 2, $5.50 for "Domestics" and $5.25 to $6.00 for No. 3 of the above brands. It is believed that these prices will hold till the end of the year. If there is any change it is likely to be upward, as the market is now being cleaned up fast by heavy shipments to Liverpool.

Dried Fruits.—It seems like Christmas when you hear that new table raisins have arrived from Spain, but such is the fact, and the windows will soon be decorated with these delicacies, which give you that feeling of peace and good will to all men. When you are eating the "Malaga Muscatels" and the "Six Crown Excelsiors" it makes you feel like a millionaire.

Currants.—There has been a jump in the price of Currants in Greece, and the low prices that have been advertised are now withdrawn. This rise in prices in Greece is said to have stimulated a demand for codfish in this country, so let us do our best to increase that demand by laying in a good stock of this excellent fruit for winter use.

Oats.—The importation by the S.S. "Sable I" and S.S. "Canadian Sealer" this week totalled 2,300 sacks. There are also large consignments to come forward by the S.S. "Sheba" and S.S. "Manoa" leaving Montreal on the 19th and 23rd insts., respectively. These will be the last boats down the Gulf for the season, and it is likely that the price will stiffen, when this route is closed. The local quotations are to-day: Mixed Oats, $3.40 per bushel; and White, $3.50 wholesale.

Hay.—The imports for the week by the S.S. "Sable I" and "Sealer" amounted to 2,691 bales. No. 2 Timothy is now quoted in the local market at $49.00 per ton and No. 1 at $50.00 for lots, and $50.00 to $51.00 for single bales per ton according to quantity taken by the purchaser. The S.S. "Sheba" coming from Montreal direct on the 19th inst., and the S.S. "Manoa" on the 23rd, calling at Charlottetown will bring the last heavy consignments of hay. It is believed the freight rates will make hay higher in price after this.

Trade Goes to Outports.

The fall trade, such as it was, is about over, and there will be very little doing now till Xmas week. The smallness of the number of outport schooners in St. John's harbor with fish the past six weeks was remarkable. There were never less in the memory of the oldest people. The reason is chiefly that the fish was sold in the outports and shipped direct to the foreign markets. The day of St. John's seems to be over as a fish exporting port of the first magnitude during the autumn months, at least. It is cheaper to ship from the outports direct and while this is so, and St. John's merchants can conveniently do so, they will naturally extend their operations to the outports more and more every year as time goes on.

It is bad for St. John's, but good for the laborers of the outports where they have no labor unions, but it is bad for the laborers of St. John's. This year the conditions are all contributing to leave very little fish handling for St. John's, inasmuch as nearly one million of the catch of a million three hundred thousand quintals will have been sent to market by the close of 1921.

Belvidere Ladies' Association Formed.

Yesterday afternoon at a meeting of ladies at Belvidere Orphanage, the Belvidere Ladies' Association was inaugurated. There was a large and enthusiastic gathering. His Grace the Archbishop presiding. In an address he outlined the needs of the Orphanage and the objects of the proposed association. At the conclusion of His Grace's address it was unanimously decided that an Association be formed to be known as the "Belvidere Ladies' Association," for the purpose of furthering the objects of the institution and assisting the Diocese and sisters in carrying on their philanthropic work. The following ladies were thereupon elected officers for the ensuing year:—

President—Mrs. Jas. Harris.
Vice-Pres.—Mrs. Cyril Fox.
Treasurer—Mrs. Peter O'Mara.
Secretary—Miss Mary Morris.

aided by a committee of twelve with power to add to their numbers. It was unanimously decided that a Garden Party in aid of the Association's funds be held on July 8th next. The meeting adjourned with the passing of a vote of thanks and an expression of appreciation of His Grace's interest in the Association and his courtesy in attending the meeting.

It is hoped that next Sunday's collection will be a record one.

Prisoner Brought In.

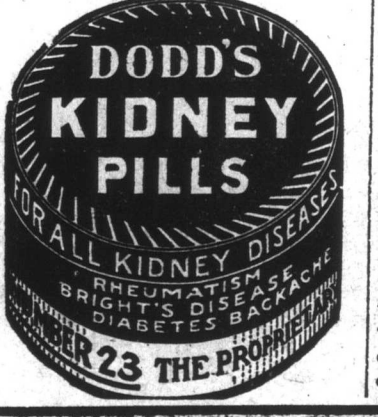

District Inspector Peet arrived by Saturday's express from Curling, having in his charge a young man named Murphy, who is under a two year sentence for obtaining money under false pretences. The crime for which he was arrested was committed last September when he stole a cheque from the Railway office at Humbermouth, full particulars of which were published in Friday's issue of Telegram.

stances of dumb-bell Exercise.—All now sum up the advantages of exercise with dumb-bells:

The dumb-bell is familiar to everyone, and has been in use for some time. It is a simple and substantial exercise easily recognized, and the exercise it affords is safe and effective.

It admits of being exactly proportioned to the individual strength of each learner.

It can be adjusted to the advancing condition of the beginner, the weight of the bar and bell being regulated as the strength increases.

The exercises give fair employment to all parts of the body and to both sides equally.

They are capable of being executed in a true horizontal position, the positions and movements are of the highest value as exercises, and directly and powerfully counter to correctness of carriage and freedom of limb.

Hands and Nicks.—In French gym exercises with simple wands hands are in great favor, as increasing grace of carriage and movement in the upper part of the body, and the joints are especially improved in suppleness; their spheres of movement rapidly enlarged. The hand may be firmly grasped in the right hand, the other being placed on the hip. Elevate the wand to the level of the arm, and strike to the right a true horizontal position, then the baton in the left hand, then a vertical position, with one end on the ground, bend the body and without inclining the rod from the vertical. Pupils exercising in this manner may combine their rods and through a series of pleasing and simple movements.

Swedish.—A vast number of movements may be performed with these appliances. Standing to attention, the clubs, one held in each hand, be extended straight forward, the full length of the arm, alternating swinging the clubs up and down backward, letting them rest in position behind the upper part of the arm. A third exercise is to rest the clubs to the first position.

Our American Letter.

Dubuque, Iowa, Nov. 13.—The chief topic of discussion just now is the disarmament conference at Washington. Whether it accomplishes anything worth while depends upon the attitude of the various nations. Certainly the United States has made its position clear. Entire sincerity is seen in the proposals of Secretary Hughes, while the speech of President Harding voices the attitude of America on the momentous question. This country wants no foreign territory and if it builds up a big navy it is because other nations insist upon war-providing armaments. The President brought up the morality of holding the lands of another people in a manner that should give pause to those nations who have not heeded the lesson which the downfall of Germany has taught.

It now appears that the Filipinos are not pleased with the prospect of being cut entirely adrift by the United States. Their spokesman, Manuel Quezon wants an American protectorate as he fears foreign aggression should the islands be made entirely independent. Of course, it is Japan that he fears, that nation having looked with longing eyes on the group for many years. The American Government is anxious to keep the promise of Congress and set up another Far Eastern republic, but this new development raises a fresh difficulty. There is little doubt entertained here that Wood was sent to the islands to make preparations for the hauling down of the flag, but whether the United States will throw the mantle of its protection around the islands in case of war remains to be seen.

Lord Northcliffe, in a recent speech advised the Filipinos to be loyal to the United States, stating that they enjoyed as much liberty under the American flag as Canada or Australia did under the British. He also took occasion to express his amazement at the wonders accomplished in the islands by the Americans. The Philippines are a source of great expense to the United States, to say nothing of being the possible cause of a war with Japan. More than a billion dollars has been paid out by American taxpayers for the benefit of the islands and not one-tenth of that sum has come back in interest. The Philippine junta at Washington has been singularly quiet and the island representative in Congress, Mr. Freya, has shown no indication of favoring the hauling down of the Stars and Stripes from the Manila capitol.

The question of the foreign debts owed by the Allies to the United States is causing a great deal of uneasiness. Great Britain now owes this country including unpaid interest something like the billion dollars. She has asked the United States to cancel this vast amount and saddle it upon the back of the American workman, who in the last analysis is the one who must bear the burden. This request of the British Government has not been joyfully received by the American people and they were a little out of sympathy when this country paid out to Great Britain $30,000,000 for the carrying of American troops to France. No responsible business house would pay a creditor such an amount of money while that creditor was also a debtor in a sum one hundred and sixty times as great.

New York re-elected Mayor John F. Hylan, Tuesday, by a majority of about 400,000 over Mayor Hearn. H. Curran, the coalition-republican candidate. The majority was the largest ever given in a mayoralty contest in Gotham, owing in part to the participation of women in a mayoralty election for the first time. The effect of their participation was to enlarge the vote without materially affecting its complexion. There was no real local issue, no question on which the two leading parties took opposite sides before the public. The result, therefore, undeniably indicates that any grievances the voters of New York had against the democratic party in 1920 have been satisfied, that the party which elected its entire municipal ticket, has returned to popular favor, and that the republicans are to-day on the defensive before the people. Their anxiety to repeal the excess profits tax and to establish the American valuation plan has advised the public that their concern is for the welfare of those having the slightest need for the favor of the government. Democracy faces the congressional election of 1922 with rosy prospects.

If the government would put such lawbreakers as Gary of the Steel trust, the West Virginia mine owners and some others behind the bars, there would be less talk of bolshevism and anarchy. For it is such conscienceless capitalist leaders who are the real bolshevists and anarchists. They seem to attach to themselves the prerogatives of absolute monarchs and are the first to let loose the cry of radicalism when their right to assume such prerogatives is assailed. Judging from the temper of the people at present, these would-be despots are in for a rude awakening.

THE DOCTOR BOOK.

"Don't eat that pie," I say to Freddy; "Don't eat that cake," I say to Jane; the doctor book declares—already, that such a diet is insana." The doctor book I highly cherish, it reeks with wisdom unalloyed, and it predicts that kids will perish who fill with pies their aching void. "Don't eat that jam," I say to Sammy, "or I'll apply corrective gad; this volume says that rhubarb clummy is better for a growing lad." The man who wrote the book was clever, but down of human joy, I fear; it seems he's saying, "Don't" forever, and darkening some young career. "Don't drink fresh milk," I say to Lizzie; "Don't eat those prunes," I say to James; this volume says they'll make you dizzy and undermine your growing frames." The kids are always being chidden, to sage advice there is no end; the things they like are all forbidden, the things they hate we recommend. And wise old lads are always writing big books on "How to train our boys," what, anything that's unwhimsical is given as a cure for joy. I read the volume and deliver its message to the kids, unspelled; I say, "Don't swim in yonder river until the water has been boiled. If children would not come a-cropper they must obey their strict, gadoodle; and when you don't know what is proper, ask me, and I'll consult the book."

Halfax, N.S. Minard's Liniment Co., Ltd. Gentlemen—I have Minard's Liniment and have found it a good remedy. After the explosion I was pretty well shaken up having quite a number of bruises and cuts, but thanks to Minard's Liniment I am my old self again. It healed the sores and bruises and gave me much relief. It is true to its name as the King of Pain, for it stopped the pain almost at once. I first noticed the ad in the Montreal Standard and decided to invest in a bottle, for which I am not sorry, but can say with truth that I am thankful for it having done all it claimed to do, and in my case much more, and a satisfied customer is the best advertisement one can possibly find. That is my view of it and I think you will agree with me too.

Yours very truly,

Government Fish.

The following is an extract from a letter received by one of our principal exporters to Greece this week. There is no need for a word on this, as the facts are self evident.

"You will without doubt have heard of the disastrous results of the 'Nystrand.' It was a very great mistake indeed for this vessel to have been sent to Greece with old fish, as any person with experience could have foretold that it would arrive here in a rotten condition, and not only has the consequences been a great loss of money, but it has seriously damaged the sale of the new catch of fish."

"This is what always happens when Governments try to mix up in trade."
